Support of Relief Bond Issue Is Urgent CHECKS FOR COTTON ACREAGE REDUCTION MONEY EXPECTED SOON

FINAL PAPERS IN MAIL EVERY DAY

CHECKS SHOULD BEGIN TO ARRIVE DURING COMING WEEK, BELIEVED

Farmers of Donley county should begin to receive checks in payment for cotton acreage reduction within the next week, according to estimates based on the completion of certificates of performance by the farmers and their local committees.

Formal notices of acceptance of farmers' acreage had been received on 399 contract offers up to Thursday at noon. A total of 884 such offers were sent to Washington. The first batch was received Friday, Aug. 11th and were placed in the hands of their local committees at once. On Saturday the first lot of completed certificates started for Washington and each day's mail since has carried completed papers direct to the paying unit of the cotton section of the farm adjustment bureau.

"Our information is that the paying unit has the checks already made out, waiting arrival of the farmer's performance certificate, said County Agent T. R. Brown, through whose office all details are cleared. "There are, of course, thousands and thousands of checks to be sent out and a vast amount of work is involved, but I am assured by the cotton section that all possible speed is being made to get the actual cash in the farmers' hands."

Up to Thursday at noon 223 completed certificates of performance had been turned in and mailed to Washington. The local committees are working hard, Mr. Brown stated. "They have been splendid with their co-operation and willingness to help their friends get their pay quickly and they should have the appreciation of all the farmers. Many of them have made great sacrifices of their personal time to get the work done," he added.

Many farmers found it necessary to plow up additional cotton when their land was measured, according to Mr. Brown, but they were all glad to comply with all the terms of their contracts and do the additional plowing under. In some cases more cotton was plowed under than the contract called for.

Approximately $229,000 in cash will be paid to Donley county farmers for plowing under over 21,000 acres of cotton. The condition of the cotton market at this time is cause for self-congratulation on the part of those who fell in line with the cotton acreage reduction plan. It is increasingly evident that had all the cotton which was planted remained in production the price would be much lower than the low figure which it stands with about 4,000,000 prospective bales destroyed.

No "Bally-Hoo" In NRA Jobs Campaign

WASHINGTON.—Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, the Recovery Administrator, does not like the use of the word "bally-hoo" in connection with the re-employment campaign, and he made this clear in his usual forceful manner at a recent conference with the press. Referring to the publicity given the activities of the National Recovery Administration, Johnson declared:

"I would like to say a word about calling this bally-hoo. "What you are dealing with here is an emergency situation of people out of work, out of work after four years of the most exhaustive depression that ever hit any country any time. "Now, we go out and make an appeal to this country, to see if we can't get it together for the first time in its history on a question like this, under a fundamental law. The possibility of results is illustrated by the problem of child labor. Why didn't it go out 25 years ago? Because nobody in the competitive field could do it if he were not sure his competitor would do it. But the minute he was sure his competitor would do it, it went out in 24 hours.

"Now then, here is an effort to apply a general rule, with a complete set of safety valves to deal with the exceptions (which is the only way to do a job like that in a national way), and you are going to have everybody under the authority of this act together, to act together for the purpose of getting rid of this unemployment situation.

"If that is bally-hoo, whoever uses the epithet as an argument may get a lot of comfort out of it, but I do not think it will take him very far against people who have this poignant thought in their hearts, and that is everybody. If it is bally-hoo, make the best of it."

BENEFIT SHOW

For Camp Fire Girls

"Central Airport," one of the most thrilling air stories ever screened, will be presented Monday and Tuesday nights at the Patime Theatre as benefit performances for the Camp Fire Girls, through the courtesy of Homer Mulkey.

Richard Bartelme, who is one of the most popular of the film stars, will be featured in "Central Airport." This picture is given rating as one of the best of the year, and Mr. Mulkey guarantees that all who see it will like it.

The benefit show was arranged to assist the Camp Fire girls in paying off a small deficit on the summer camp held recently. The citizens are urged to buy their tickets from the girls, and to be sure and attend the show.

OLD SETTLERS TO PICNIC FRIDAY

TOM TATE GROVE READY TO CARE FOR A RECORD CROWD EXPECTED

Plans and preparations for the annual Donley County Old Settlers Picnic Friday, Aug. 18, are practically completed, according to M. W. Mosley, vice-president of the association and also chairman of the arrangements committee.

Mr. Mosley and a group of helpers met Tuesday at the scene of the picnic, the Tom Tate grove five miles northeast of Hedley, and erected a permanent platform, 20x20 feet, from which speakers will be heard, and which the old fashioned square dance will be held. They also built

CITY TEACHING FORCE COMPLETE

CLARENDON PUBLIC SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY, SEPT. 4 FOR 1933-34 SESSION

With the election of Mrs. Marguerite Cooke Goodner as English teacher in the Clarendon Junior High school last Saturday night, the faculty of the Clarendon Public Schools has been completed for the 1933-34 school session. The schools will open Sept. 4, according to W. W. Taylor, secretary of the school board.

The salaries of all school employees have been reduced ten per cent to meet the $4,000 decline in taxable valuations in Clarendon, and the loss of about $1,500 of state money through the loss of about 75 scholastics in the city schools. School taxes have been reduced $16,000 since 1930, according to Mr. Taylor. All other expenditures will be

City School Budget Hearing Saturday

Complying with the law requiring public hearing on the proposed budget of expenditures, based on estimated receipts, the board of trustees of Clarendon Independent School district announced that they will meet Saturday night to adopt a budget for 1933-1934.

All interested taxpayers are invited to be present to register their approval or disapproval of the proposed budget. The meeting will be held in the office of the First National Bank at 8:30 o'clock, Saturday night, Aug. 19th.

SUNNYVIEW SCHOOL STARTED AUG. 14

WILL CONTINUE FOR TWO MONTHS, THEN, CLOSE TO GATHER COTTON

Sunnyview School started its 1933-34 term this year on Aug. 14, with Dave Waldron, principal, and Mrs. John Naylor as the teaching staff. The school will be conducted for two months when it will close for one month, so that the pupils may assist their parents in gathering crops, after which it will re-open for the remainder of the school year.

Enrollment during the first week was fully up to the usual standard and the year's work started off with a high degree of enthusiasm, in which the school board joined the teachers and pupils. The school board is intensely interested in the school and spares no effort to make it one of the best. Paul Smith is chairman of the board, Zeph and S. W. Lamberson being the two other members.

Messrs. Homer Mulkey, O. C. Watson, T. D. Nored, A. L. Chase and Tom F. Connally drove to Canyon this morning to attend the funeral of Rev. J. H. Braswell, father of Sam M. Braswell, who died Wednesday morning.

COUNTY TAX RATE SET AT 74 CENTS

INCREASE OF 12 CENTS IS MADE NECESSARY BY RE- DUCED VALUATIONS

An important item of business transacted by the Commissioners Court Monday was setting the county tax rate at 74 cents. This is an increase of 12 cents over the 1932 rate. The increase in rate was occasioned by the reduction in valuations authorized by the court as a direct means of reducing the total taxes paid by property owners.

As explained a few weeks ago in The News, the State tax rate is applied to the approved tax roll which is used by the county for raising its revenues. Reducing the total of the tax roll produces a corresponding decrease of about $2,400 in the amount of State taxes.

If county taxes are figured on the same rate used heretofore, county revenues would also be correspondingly reduced. The Commissioners Court's budget, which was approved Monday, requires revenues which made it imperative that the county rate be increased enough to offset the reduction of valuations, of which both State and county rate be increased enough to offset the reduction of valuations, on which both State and county taxes are based.

Valuations for 1932 totalled $6,896,000, in contrast with 1933 valuations of $5,888,461. The State rate last year was 69 cents; this year it was set at 77 cents, which is the constitutional limit. On petition, the court also ordered a new road opened in the Wilson community, between the J. A. Meaders and Roy Wilson farms, a distance of about three-fourths mile. The new road was regarded as necessary for the patrons of the new school at Midway, under construction by the consolidated district of Hackberry and Pleasant Valley. The new road will be sixty feet wide.

About the rarest thing on earth is something for nothing.

Rev. J. H. Braswell Buried At Canyon

Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock at Canyon for Rev. J. H. Braswell, who died at his home there Wednesday morning at 10:50 o'clock. His death was due to a complication of disorders with which he was stricken in July while visiting with his daughter in Arkansas. He recovered sufficiently to make the return trip to his home early in this month, but gradually grew weaker until the end. He was 75 years and 4 months of age.

Born in Georgia near Atlanta, he was educated at Southern University, at Greensboro, Alabama. After coming to Texas he entered the ministry, becoming a member of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference, which later became the Central Texas Conference. He was active in the ministry for 25 years, serving a number of important churches, and taking the superannuate relation about eight years ago. For the past seven years he has made his home at Canyon. He is survived by his wife, one son, Sam M. Braswell of Clarendon, and three daughters, Mrs. R. L. Blackburn of Mena, Ark., Mrs. C. R. Gollihar of Ft. Worth, and Mrs. S. J. Cole of Amarillo. One sister also survives, Mrs. G. A. Corley, who lives in Georgia.

Many Clarendon people came to know the upright Christian character of the man who has gone to his reward, as he was a frequent visitor with his wife, in the home of their son here. His quiet, unassuming and sweet spirit endeared him to all who had the privilege of his acquaintance. He left a lasting influence for good among the people whom he served as minister that will continue to live on and on. A faithful messenger has gone to Him who sent him about His business here on earth.

DOLLAR DAY

Saturday, August 26

Dollar Day and Election Day, all on the same day! What a combination! And what an opportunity for everybody who comes to town. The merchants will put on their very best prices for that day. Real bargains will be offered on every hand.

Advertisers are urged to keep the big day in mind. Much effort has been expended in building up this monthly trade event, free auction features, etc. It takes full co-operation to put this kind of thing over. The people like it, and are coming to look forward to it. It is a monthly event that will continue to grow if given full co-operation by the business interests.

CITIZENS ATTEND AUSTIN MEETING

S. W. LOWE AND ODOS CARAWAY CONVINCED RELIEF BOND ISSUE NECESSARY

County Judge S. W. Lowe and Odos Caraway, chairman of the Donley County Relief committee, returned Saturday from Austin where they attended a meeting Friday of county judges, mayors and other representative citizens who were called together by the governor to discuss the relief situation.

After four or five principal talks the meeting was turned into a round table discussion in which on county judge after another stated that his county would be unable to feed the unemployed if federal relief aid were cut off. Among those who told of conditions in their counties was Judge Lowe, who said that the general fund of Donley county—the only fund from which relief could be paid out—was exhausted and that Donley county could not hope to feed its unemployed without outside aid.

One speaker painted a dark picture of the future, predicting that mobs of hungry men and women will take possession of grocery stores, that rioting will run rampant and that bloodshed might follow failure of the people to authorize the legislature to issue bonds for the relief of the hungry.

It was pointed out that more than 60,000 are destitute in San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston, but that in the rural districts the proportion is just as big. In the drought areas of the Panhandle it was shown that much higher percentages of destitution exist, some counties having more than half the total population on the relief rolls now.

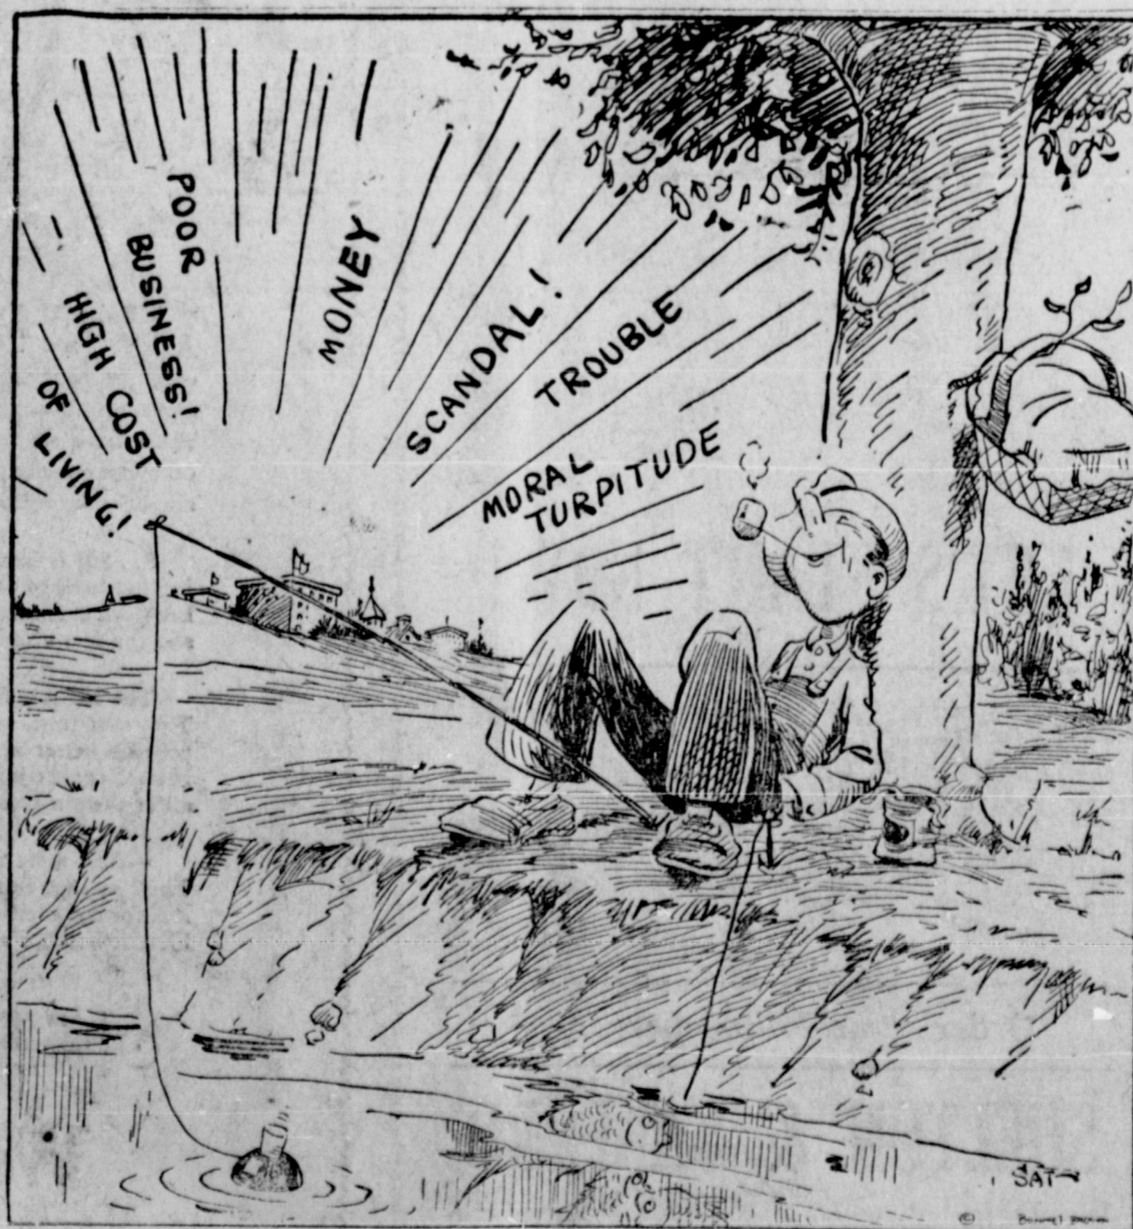

Col. Lawrence Westbrook, director of the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission, pointed out that less than half the unemployed are on the relief rolls, and that in a national industrial recovery those not on the relief rolls would naturally be first reabsorbed into work. He predicted that cotton picking would offer some relief in September, but that in October he upward trend would start again and the peak of the relief demands would not be reached before December or January.

General Jacob F. Wolters told the audience that in the event of food riots he would favor confiscation of food for distribution to the hungry and let the owners collect from the state.

More than a score of county judges told the meeting that but for the federal aid already extended their unemployed would have long ago been in desperate straits. They implored those present to use all their influence to secure adoption of the pro-

AWAY FROM IT ALL

Fair Deal For Small Stores Asked By Recovery Officials

WASHINGTON.—Reports that many small employers, particularly owners of hops, are being subjected to pressure because they have not found it possible to comply overnight with the provisions of the blanket code, despite their desire to do so, have reached the National Recovery Administration. As a result, the administration has requested newspapers to aid in obtaining fair play for this class of employers.

Explanation was made that readjustment of working conditions so as to comply with the reemployment program is very difficult, in many cases, particularly for the employer of only two or three persons. Employers have signed the agreement and complied, so far as possible, with its provisions, but they have not been able to adjust their machinery to all of its provisions immediately. Pending complete compliance with the terms of the reemployment plan, of course, these employers do not have the Blue Eagle. Hence, pressure has been brought against them.

The hope of the administration is that consumers will deal fairly with the employer who is willing to adopt the reemployment plan but who requires time to make adjustments. The fact that an employer has signed the agreement and does not have the Blue Eagle through no fault of his own, should entitle him, it is felt, to the same consideration as those who have obtained the insignia.

Home Owners Loan Corporation Name Local Men Representatives

Announcement was made last week of the appointment of J. R. Porter as attorney, and Sam M. Braswell as appraiser for local representation of the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

The corporation, with capital supplied by federal financing, was authorized by the last Congress for the purpose of relieving distressed home loans in the United States. Both Mr. Porter and Mr. Braswell have been besieged by anxious home-owners who wish to arrange for relief on home loans, but neither has been able as yet to take any definite action in any case. Supplies and instructions are expected daily, and as soon as they are received the local representatives will render every possible assistance to such home owners as come within the scope of the relief provisions.

Attorneys and appraisers for other West Texas counties are, respectively:

Armstrong—J. S. Stallings, Claude; J. D. Woodburn, Claude. Bailey—Cecil H. Tate, Muleshoe.

Borden—D. Howard, Gail; D. Dorward, Gail.

Briscoe—C. D. Wright, Silverton; J. E. Danieln, Silverton.

Carson—James Spiller, Panhandle; Joe Rorex, Panhandle.

Castro—Cowser, Dimmitt, B. D. Woodlee, Dimmitt.

Childress—C. C. Broughton, Childress; John Scott, Childress.

Cochran—Lloyd R. Kennedy, Morton; J. L. Winder, Morton.

TEXAS NEEDS FEDERAL RELIEF AID

Most of us have vowed that we would never support another bond issue, nor even vote for it. This feeling has closed the eyes and ears of many to anything that looked or sounded like "$20,000,000 bond issue" propaganda.

But as the time draws near for voting on the question Texas is becoming aroused to the inescapable fact that failure to vote the relief bond issue means that Texas will have no money to care for, and possibly to battle with, all alone. Texas has received $13,000,000 of Federal aid already. It can get as much as will be needed if it agrees to pay some of the bill. If it fails to vote the bond issue, the Federal aid will be withheld.

Texas can not care for its destitute without Federal aid. There is no use in trying to dodge the fact. Texas must have help. It must help itself if it is to receive any help. The only way to get it is to vote the 20 million dollar bond issue.

The tide is turning and sentiment in favor of the bond issue is taking shape with almost incredible rapidity. It is fortunate for Texas that this is true. It would be a disgrace to Texans if the bond issue were defeated. Vote for it!

WILL DONLEY COUNTY STAY DRY?

Donley county voters will decide within the next ten days whether Donley county will remain in the list of dry counties. Donley county has been dry since April, 1904. It voted itself dry when a great many other counties which were neighbors to it were still wet.

The News believes that it will be much easier for many Donley county voters to vote for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment than for the repeal of Donley county's dry law. They will be reluctant to take the chance that removal of all bars means to those for whose sake Donley county went dry in 1904.

No one knows with any certainty just what will happen if the 18th Amendment is finally repealed, together with Texas' own Dean law and all other liquor laws. It is urged that it will mean restored prosperity and the cure of most of our economic ills. But those who urge it are after all only expressing opinions.

If the entire procedure of repeal is experimental, can Donley county people afford to cut away even local protection from the conditions that they freed themselves of in 1904? Would it not be wiser to see how other counties fare that go wet? If, for example, Hall county should go wet, it must be conceded by the most ardent dry that much of the thirst of Donley county would be satisfied in Hall county towns, and that their money would be spent in Hall county. But the same dry can well insist that he would deliberately choose to let such money go to Hall county than to have liquor openly offered for sale in Donley county. The dry considers the money involved as less important than any other thing connected with the sale of liquor.

Donley county voters will do the safe thing, the wise thing, if they refuse to allow the open sale of liquors until they have had ample time to see how it works out in other counties.

THE NEVER-ENDING WAR

The American public has a war to fight every year. That war is against the accident menace—in industry, the home, on the highways and elsewhere.

This is not an empty parallel. Automobile accidents alone actually cost more lives than war. They create as much suffering. They are even comparable to war in the economic entail.

On a number of fronts this war has been successful. In the industrial field, tremendous progress in accident prevention has been made. The roster of important industries which operate for months at a stretch without a single mishap of importance, is constantly growing. The life and health of workers in every producing field has never been better guarded—because management has been tireless in installing the doctrine of safety-first into its employees.

That is also true of children of school age. Thousands of young lives have been saved through courses on caution and accident prevention.

The great failure has been in the field of the automobile. Most years have seen decisive advances in the number of deaths and injuries over the last. Reductions, the few times they have occurred, have been small. The reckless and inconsiderate driver has scored victory after victory. The result is that our public streets, and highways have become places of carnage.

The never-ending war against accident must be fought with increasing vigor if it is to succeed. The dangerous driver is Public Enemy Number 1. He should be given the treatment he deserves.

Be less ashamed to confess thy ignorance than, by holding a foolish argument, to betray it.—Eliz. Joceline.

OPPORTUNITY IS KNOCKING

The saying that it's never too late to mend, doesn't apply to physical property.

In these days, every community has its share of homes and business buildings which have been allowed to depreciate to the point where they are ready for the wrecking crew. Their degeneration may be laid to the door of false economy. While a dollar was "saved" temporarily, many dollars were lost because of it.

There are hundreds of thousands of properties which can still be put in good condition at a moderate cost, but which will be gone beyond redemption if work is put off much longer. Today we can still get in on bargain prices for most supplies and commodities—tomorrow will tell a different story. The wholesale price level has been skyrocketing, and now the retail level is beginning to follow. You don't have to take anyone's word for it that this is the time to build and repair—the cold and unprejudiced statistical tables tell you that, and they permit of no argument.

Build now, improve now—provide jobs and purchasing power—remember that investment and employment are cheaper than charity, and that they make charity unnecessary.

BUILDING FOR TOMORROW

The New York Times editorially suggests that some of the public works money might profitably be spent for scientific investigation, and points out that work done in laboratories is, in the long run, often the best maker of jobs of all.

That is an excellent suggestion. The government is to spend hundreds of millions in construction projects which, once accomplished, will have ended their usefulness so far as providing substantial employment is concerned. Why not spend a little in seeking to produce new industrial wells from which permanent jobs may eventually be drawn? Entirely new jobs, rather than temporary employment to be followed again by unemployment or overcrowding of existing industries, is what our country really needs.

SMALL TOWNS PROSPER

Various Jeremiahs some years ago said that the small town was doomed to decay. The direful predictions made have not come to pass. On the contrary, the small town in the last three years has fared as well as the city; in many instances better. There have been hardships in small towns, but cases of downright sufferings have been few. Suffering remained for the city. A strong rural America means many small towns, and a prosperous rural life means prosperous small towns. The farm and the small town travel together hand in hand, and apparently they have been traveling forward since about the first of this year, in spite of the wall of the Jeremiahs.—The Earth.

GOOD ADVICE

He who every morning plans the transaction of the day and follows out that plan, carries a thread that will guide him through the labyrinth of the most busy life. The orderly arrangement of his time is like a ray of light which darts itself through all occupations. But when no plan is laid, where the disposal of time is surrendered merely to the chance of incidents, chaos will soon reign.—Victor Hugo.

W. S. McCall, who came to Clarendon last week to attend the funeral of Miss Mary Will Newman, is a member of the Oklahoma City police force. He paid a pleasant visit to The News office while here. Not many cowpunchers become policemen, yet Mr. McCall grew up on the Mator ranch, and punched cows on its far-flung acreage until 1918 when he went to Oklahoma City. Mr. McCall asked about a number of his former acquaintances here, many of whom are no longer here.

Half Fair Visitors See Chevrolet Plant

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Assembly of new automobiles in the plant operated here on A Century of Progress grounds by the Chevrolet Motor Company will pass the 2,000 mark late this month, officials announced here today.

Since the line was set into motion by the light of a cosmic ray just prior to the opening of the Fair, output has held at a steady pace of 24 cars a day, six days a week.

In July exactly 600 new Chevrolet Master six coaches and coupes came off the line; in June 589 were built, and in May 165, bringing the total produced here from the time the line started through July 31, to 1354 units.

If present schedules are maintained, car number 2,000 will be completed during the last hour

Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holley.

Ashtola school will start Monday.

Mr. Ben Lovell underwent an operation on Thursday evening. He is reported doing nicely.

Aunt Susan Ashley is improving. She was at church Sunday morning and everyone was glad to see her.

of the last day of this month, officials said.

They estimated that by the closing of the Fair upwards of 3,500 new Chevrolets will have been assembled here. This figure exceeds the total 1932 production of eleven different automobile companies then in business.

So insistent has been the demand for cars carrying the distinction of having been built at the World's Fair that every unit so far produced has been purchased at the end of the line and driven away by its new owner. Color options may be specified in advance and the purchaser is given the privilege of going into the assembly pit and helping to build his own car.

People have come here from more than a thousand miles distant with the primary object of purchasing a car built at the Fair and driving it home.

The huge assembly room, housed in the special General Motors exposition building, with a wide balcony a fifth of a mile long completely circling the assembly operations, is attracting nearly half of all the people who visit the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Luttrell, of Ft. Worth, were visitors Sunday with his sister, Mrs. W. J. Deal.

Grocers Have Unique Surprises For Children

Story Book Of Games Offered By Grocers

Grocers of Clarendon are making an offer to purchasers of Kellogg's Corn Flakes this week that will interest all who have children or who wish to remember some child of their acquaintance. Details will be found in the large advertisement on this page and in the ads of grocery stores. L. R. Stafford, special representative of the Kellogg Company, was in Clarendon Wednesday completing arrangements for his company's offer through local stores. He stated that an extensive outlay of money was being made in connection with the distribution of the Story Book of Games which is being given away. The book itself cost a great deal of money to produce, and will furnish each fortunate child who receives a copy many hours of enjoyment.

Buying a farm abandoned because of poor yields on the banks of the Rio Grande near Laredo three years ago, Chester Smith has brought up production by use of manure until he recently filled a trench silo 40 feet long, 8 feet deep and 11 feet wide from 8 acres of corn. He is a dairyman aiming to produce milk cheaply.

Irish potatoes grown on fertilized land doubled the yield of unfertilized potatoes for W. V. Ellis, Ola Community, Kaufman county. He produced 95 bushels on less than two-thirds of an acre. The No. 1 potatoes brought $85, says the county agent in reporting the demonstration.

BOTULISM IS CAUSE OF HORSES' MALADY

Two weeks ago The News reported a strange disease among the horses of W. A. Pierce which was brought to the attention of County Agent T. R. Broun by Mr. Pierce, who lives south of Clarendon. The symptoms were unlike any with which Mr. Broun was familiar and it was decided to have blood tests made, after S. A. Pittman, veterinary of Childress, was called into consultation.

The blood tests were made in the laboratory of the State Sanitary Commission at Ft. Worth, which reported that they indicated no disease, fear of which prompted the course taken that food poisoning was indicated. Dr. Pittman states that the malady is called botulism and is caused by the affected animal eating mouldy feed. Cases of botulism have been caused among humans by eating spoiled canned foods.

Mr. Pierce's horses began wasting away in flesh and developed weakness in their hindquarters, at the same time apparently having good appetites.

GASOLINE TAX IS "SWEETEST GIFT"

RECEIPTS INCREASE MUCH FASTER THAN WAS EXPECTED BY LAWMAKERS

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 16.—The Texas Legislature's sweetest gift to the taxpayers—Comptroller Sheppard's new gasoline enforcement division—is steadily stretching out over the state after fugitive millions in public money.

The enforcement "army" now numbers more than 70 trained men and establishment of two more district headquarters has brought the total of such offices to eight, according to the latest report of J. W. McReynolds, division chief, to the comptroller. The report was requested by the

Mr. B. Hoffman of Lubbock visited Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McDowell Sunday night; he visited in White Deer Monday and then went to Grapevine for a short visit with his parents before going to Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bartlett and little Marilyn went to Panhandle Wednesday to spend the day with Mrs. Bartlett's sister, Mrs. Grover Ingram. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Betty Jo who has been visiting her aunt.

M. R. Blake, of Amarillo, was a business visitor in Clarendon Monday. Mr. Blake, who was formerly in the printing business here, has many friends in Clarendon who are always glad to see him.

H. T. Burton and G. L. Boykin left Monday morning for Antonio, Colo., where they will spend a few days in fishing for trout in the streams of that section.

Miss Fay Barnhart, Mrs. W. A. Wilson and her two daughters, Syble Causey and Jo Veta Jackson, left Tuesday morning for visit at Lubbock and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fraser, son, John, and Kenneth Fink visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith in Memphis Sunday.

Mrs. Willie Morris and daughter, Eleanor, spent Monday and Tuesday with Tot and Rit Morris who are working on a ranch out of Channing.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knorpp left Tuesday morning for Valley Ranch, New Mexico where they will spend their vacation.

Aubrey Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brady, who was operated on Friday night for appendicitis, is reported as doing nicely.

Father Of Wagon-Boss At JA Dies

Robert Lee Queen, Panhandle resident since 1894, when he came from Williamson county, died Sunday at 3 a. m., at his home in Channing. He had lived in Channing 32 years and was serving his fourth consecutive term as sheriff. Years ago he served three terms as sheriff of the county. He was 64 years old.

From an influenza attack in March, Mr. Queen never entirely recovered. Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Monday from the Channing Baptist church with Rev. Presley Hand, pastor, in charge. Interment was made in the Channing cemetery under the direction of the Peoples Funeral Home of Dalhart.

From 1893 to 1897 Mr. Queen was a Texas Ranger, stationed at Amarillo, under the redoubtable Captain McDonald. He also served two years as inspector for the Cattle Sanitary Board.

He was a high official in the Maonic orders at Channing, and while not engaged as a peace officer, was in the cattle business.

Surviving are his widow, two sons, Beale, Clarendon; Ralph, Channing. Five daughters, Mrs. T. H. Collins, Misses Virginia and Lee, Channing; Mrs. T. H. McMillen, Hartley. He was known far and wide over the North Plains and had hundreds of friends.

Beale Queen is wagon-boss of the JA ranch with which he has been connected for several years. A large party of JA hands and other friends went to Channing to attend the funeral service for Mr. Queen's father.

Mrs. J. M. Acord left the latter part of last week to visit friends and relatives in central Texas.

Texas Good Roads Association. The new district offices, already established and working are in Corpus Christi and Eastland. Mr. McReynolds' report said, and they augment similar centers in San Antonio, Houston, Longview, Dallas, Fort Worth and Amarillo.

To date, the comptroller's operatives have obtained 36 felony indictments against alleged gas tax violators. Three refineries have been placed in receivership to preserve assets.

The great benefits, however, have not come from prosecutions but from the $300,000-per-month increase in gas tax payments, which is expected to give a $1,000,000 "bonus" yearly to the common school fund, a similar amount to the bond refunding fund, and $2,000,000 to highway fund.

Comptroller Sheppard added that "just as a sideline," his men have raised cigaret tax collections at such a rapid rate that he expects to add from $500,000 to $1,000,000 to the school fund yearly from "smokes." All of the cigaret tax now goes to schools.

JUST A DOZEN YEARS AGO

Interesting news and personal mention, as published in The Clarendon News just a dozen years ago this week.

Plans were announced for an agricultural and livestock exhibit held during September.

Lee Pope sustained serious injury when a drill stem in a truck which was turning a corner swung into him. He thought the truck had passed by and failed to see the drill stem sticking out behind it.

Dr. T. H. Ellis purchased the C. T. Taylor home in west Clarendon, the consideration being a little less than $16,000. J. C. Estlack purchased the Frank Whitlock home east of the Catholic church. Ed Carlson bought the Adair bungalow north of the large house known as Adair headquarters house. Real estate men stated that Clarendon did not have enough homes, rent houses being at a premium.

O. D. Leisberg and family went to Lake Wichita on a fishing trip.

Miss Holly Bryan, who was engaged in stenographic work at A. & M. College at College Station, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bryan.

The News apologized for reporting that Rev. Foster and family left on Sunday for Kerrville, as the minister believed in travel on Sunday only from necessity and left on Monday.

A dry goods store advertised that "A year ago a suit like the one in our window would have cost you $85—today the same amount of money will buy the suit, a Stetson hat, a pair of Packard shoes, a silk shirt, a suit of light knit underwear, a pair of silk socks, a pair of garters, a knit silk tie, a good handkerchief, and we'll give you back

$2.25 in change."

"Please return our one-gallon ice cream packer at once," said a want ad of the Pastime Confectionery.

Eldridge Ellis was able to visit the home folks at Lelia Lake after an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bass, of McKnight, visited her father, W. P. Cagle and family, en route to Alanreed.

Wesley Knorpp and sons, John C. and Carroll, and Rodney B. Hearne, his nephew, returned from a fishing trip at Eagle Nest dam and other points in New Mexico.

The News carried a story about the first bath tub to make its appearance in the United States. It was in 1842. The tub was made of sheet lead in a mahogany frame. Physicians denounced the tub as dangerous to health, but President Millard Fillmore gave it standing by his own adoption of it and the practice of bathing became respectable.

Miss Mabel Betts was studying pipe organ in Washington, D. C., under R. Deane Shure, who was formerly director of music in Clarendon College.

F. M. Clark, owner of the famous Silvercrest Farm near Hedley, held a sale of a number of fine sows from his prize-winning Jayhawker boar.

Fifty business men and several ladies met at the "Y" building for the weekly luncheon presided over by Sam Joekel, of Waxahachie. Dr. B. L. Jenkins, A. M. Beville (who made a plea for paved roads in Donley county), Dr. H. L. Wilder, who reported that there were only three cases of typhoid in the city, to which T. F. Connolly added the suggestion that the ditch through the business part of the city should be properly drained.

Music was furnished by an Edison phonograph from the Stocking drug store, and W. M. Patman donated cigars from the Palace confectionery of which he was the owner.

A New Deal For Liver Sufferers

Don't be misled any longer. Calomel, salts, oils, mineral waters, laxative pills, herb teas, powders, etc., have no effect whatever on the liver. There are only two generally recognized substances which actually cause a sluggish liver to increase its production of bile, Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain both of them.

You can't feel well and strong unless your liver furnishes plenty of fresh bile every day. Without bile food doesn't digest properly—it just ferments and decays—Constipation, gas, sour stomach, headaches and nervousness follow.

Unless you have tried Sargon Soft Mass Pills you can have no idea of their effect—You feel stronger, healthier, happier—life and color return to faded eyes and cheeks—appetite and digestion improve rapidly.

Only 60c for a full 30-day treatment. At your druggist, or write G. F. Willis, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia.—(adv.)

Chamberlain Community is very proud of their new school building. Speed Bros. contractors are to be commended for the high class of workmanship put into the building. The trustees, Gilbert Wann, A. O. Hott and G. G. Reeves, wish to thank the community and everyone concerned for the friendly co-operation shown. The contractors are laying the foundation for a four room brick teaching which will complete the school plant. The school session began Monday. Clarence Jackson is principal, Mrs. Maud Crawford Mosley, intermediate teacher, and Miss Mary Sue Watters, primary. These teachers are very proud of the new building and equipment and plan a very successful year.

George Kavanaugh is superintending the beautification of the school grounds at Martin. He plans to have the most beautiful and serviceable school in Donley county.

Dave Waldron and Mrs. John Naylor started school at Sunny View Monday. The trustees have leveled the grounds and repaired the equipment for the new term.

The school grounds at Fairview have been inclosed by a strong fence. The equipment is new and in good repair. The trustees and community expect a great school year. Gene Estlack and Miss Fickering expect a large attendance at Fairview this year.

Midway's new consolidated school is being roofed this week. With the new teaching which is planned the community will have an up-to-date school plant.

Bray, Ring, Pleasant Hill, and McKnight will meet at McKnight Thursday night to plan for a rural high school.

Donley county school are to be complimented because of the teachers who have attended summer school or who attended regular term last year. Twenty-two of the forty-four teachers have increased their usefulness by further schooling this year. A number of the other teachers have taken correspondence courses.

Mr. McDaniels from the State Department of Education explained the new rural aid law and the rulings of the State Board of Education under the law. Two reasons seem to be against Donley county rural schools complying with the Act: first, is the inaccessibility of the schools to a bus line and, second, the lack of good roads in the county. The County Board will meet Saturday to plan a transportation system for the county.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

Every move to put the city, state or federal government into business cuts the taxable asset of the country on the one hand, while increasing the tax bill on the other. As tax exempt government projects increase, business opportunities of the private citizen are destroyed—also his taxable income.—Sudan News.

First Texas Grape Juice Factory Opens

Unique among Texas celebrations was the grape festival held in New Castle the first week in August marking the opening of the first grape juice factory in Texas, which comes as the culmination of a long time plan worked out by Young county farm demonstration agent G. R. Warren and several farmers who planted vineyards of sufficient size to guarantee a supply of grapes for juice.

A barbecue dinner was provided and before it was served a pageant was presented in which Mrs. Roy Veal of New Castle acted the part of queen of the vineyard and carried a large bouquet made up of grapes of different colors combined with vine leaves. She was attended by maids of honor representing eight varieties of grapes grown in Texas, each one carrying a decorated basket full of the variety for which she was named and a bottle of juice made from that variety. These varieties were the Carman, Hermon, Fern Munson, Black Spanish, Catawba, Blondie and Mustang. The Carman is the chief variety which has been planted in Young county, the other varieties are planted in smaller quantities and will be used for blending juices to secure desired flavors before the juice is bottled.

This is an innovation in grape juice making, as is the proposed bottling of spiced grape juice to be served hot, a refreshing drink that has become very popular in the colder seasons of the year.

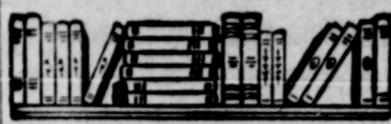

It is also planned to add to the naturally good berry crops of Young county and put up berry juices and other berry products at the factory later. In this way the period of activity at the factory can be extended from May to September inclusive and this organization will take its place as one of the type of rural factories outlined in President Roosevelt's book as giving seasonal employment to the local farm population.

To the celebration Wise and Montague counties sent delegations to observe the factory and report back as these counties are also in the business of grape growing. The delegations brought generous supplies of their locally grown grapes to be crushed and pressed and served iced to the crowd attending the festival.

To add to the interest Mrs. T. V. Munson, wife of the late T. V. Munson of Denison known as the greatest grape expert in America, sent several varieties of grapes from the extensive experimental vineyards developed by her husband.

Relatives who attended the funeral here of Miss Mary Will Newman were Mrs. M. W. McCall, W. S. McCall and Mrs. Ruby Ayers, mother, brother and sister of Mrs. Newman, all of whom live at Oklahoma City; W. S. Newman and family of Quanah, W. L. Newman and family, of Mobeetie, Dalton Johnson and family, of Spur, and Mrs. R. S. Turner, of Shamrock, including two brothers and two sisters of Mr. Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Newman left Friday for a week's visit with his brothers and sisters at Quanah and other points.

Library Notes

By MRS. C. A. BURTON

Another of our boys' books which is thrillingly interesting and full of worth while information as well is "The Flood Fighters" by Thames Williamson.

The newspapers carried the headline, "Rain Threatens Trouble," but to Harry Stanton this headline, set in big black type, meant only that the rain was spoiling his skating and keeping him indoors during an enforced vacation, and then suddenly with his doctor father, he went into the heart of the great Mississippi flood area where he worked through scenes he would never forget—scenes that taught him the real meaning of that headline. You boys have read something of the floods of the "Father of Waters," and the terrible havoc wrought by them. When you read "The Flood Fighters" you will feel that you have actually worked side by side with Harry Stanton as a volunteer relief worker. From a battered airplane you will have dropped sandwiches to stranded refugees waiting for boats; you will have helped to rescue people floating down the great river on the roofs of their houses; you will have battled to save a levee and have learned the appalling meaning of a "sandhill." You will have worked in a refugee relief camp and have witnessed not only the vast power of the Mississippi but the never ending courage of the men and women who try to combat it.

Thames Williamson was a volunteer worker for the Red Cross during one of these floods. It was an unforgettable experience, and he wrote the story because he felt that boys everywhere would be interested in an actual story of the Mississippi on the rampage.

In a little story of his life written by himself, he says, "Adventures are a habit with me. I was born in 1894 on an Indian reservation in Northern Idaho, and so I grew up among Indians and horses. From the time I was old enough to ride, I wandered by myself in the Rocky Mountains. I was accustomed to being on horseback for days, sleeping on the ground, hunting and fishing, and handling range horses.

Dear Editor:

Just a few lines to let you all know that we are in our permanent camp and going full speed ahead.

We are out of camp eight hours a day but only work six hours of this time. We hit the deck at six o'clock; make up our beds and sweep out our tents by 6:15, then until 6:30 we police up the company avenue, have breakfast at 7:00. Go to work at 8:00, return at 1:30 for lunch, back to work at 1:00 and return at 4:00. We have supper at 5:30, then we are free until 6:00 the next morning. The lights go out in camp at 9:30 and everything is quiet.

At least twenty-nine boys have left camp these two months. Some of them had honorable discharges, some dishonorable; the rest went Perhaps that was the beginning of my wanderlust. After high school in Spokane, Washington, I wandered to the Middle West to college at the University of Iowa, and from there all the way east to Harvard University, where I took my master's degree.

During those school years and since I have tried many things. I have been a sheep-herder, a circus hand, a sailor. I have worked on newspapers and have been an interpreter of modern Greek, Italian and Spanish, as well as many other things. I have seen several Mississippi floods, and during one of the great ones I was a volunteer worker for the Red Cross. It was my task to feed the divers who were going down after submerged valuables—a work full of adventures. I decided that my collection of Mississippi flood adventures might make a book that boys would find as unusual as I had found the adventures themselves. Hence this story.

WHEN you travel at 40, 50 and 60—mile after mile—the heat inside your tire becomes terrific. Rubber and fabric begin to separate. Then a blister forms—and grows bigger and bigger—until BANG! A blow-out! You can't steer... you can't stop. And that CRASH!

New Tire Three Times Safer
To prevent such tragedies, Goodrich has built into every new Silver-town Tire the amazing Life-Saver Golden Ply. This invention resists terrific heat—inside the tire—where blow-outs really start. Rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus blisters don't form. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming their cause. At grueling speeds on the world's fastest track, the new Goodrich Safety Silver-town, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, lasted three times as long as first quality tires that did not have this feature.

Skid-Resisting Tread
Moreover, actual road tests prove that the Goodrich Safety Silver-town has the most skid-resisting tread. Gives your car extra road-grip... reduces danger of skidding to a minimum. # Relief Work Stopped in Donley County

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT REFUSES RFC FUNDS TO TEXAS COUNTIES

CITIZENS MUST DIG DOWN FOR RELIEF

UNEMPLOYED WHOLLY DEPENDENT ON LOCAL CITIZENS FOR FOOD

Dazed by the news that the Federal government has ordered all payments of Federal money to Texas relief committees stopped, the Donley County Relief committee is in a veritable "tail-spin."

During the past seven months it has paid out about $15,000 of Federal money to heads of families who have been without employment. They have been employed by the committee to do all sorts of needed public work that would otherwise have been left undone. These heads of families have been able to eke out a pitiful living for their families.

Public Buildings to Be Neglected Now

All over Donley county public buildings of all kinds have been kept in good repair with labor paid out of RFC funds. At the same time the families of the workmen have been able to eat.

Not the sumptuous meals that everybody once had, during the prosperous days up to four years ago. No. They had only the bare necessities of life. Only a very few men have received as much as $100 in RFC wages during the past seven months, and they had unusually large families. Most of them have received from $5 up to $60 or $75. The RFC funds have not been wasted.

Over 800 Names Have Been On Rolls Of County Relief Committee During Past Seven Months of Unemployment

What will be done—no, what CAN be done about the nearly 150 men who have been on the work relief rolls of the Donley County Relief Committee now that Federal relief money is suddenly cut off?

At this time there are 142 men on the committee's relief roll. That means that 142 families of varying sizes are dependent on the pitifully few days of work which the committee is able to allot to them.

In some cases fathers are struggling to keep their wives and children from going hungry, grabbing at a day's work like drowning people grab at straws, thankful to do anything that will enable them to buy something for their children to eat. Sometimes it is a son who is trying to support a widowed mother and her

Sole Dependence of Family Is a Brother

Richard Roe is wondering what is going to become of his mother and his little brothers and sisters, now that he and all the others like him can no longer expect to receive money for labor paid by the Federal Government.

You see, the Federal government has been putting up all the money that Richard Roe and other RFC workers have been receiving. For seven months they have been going each Saturday afternoon for the pitifully

MAYOR CALLS FOR CITIZENS' MEETING

DESPERATE NEED OF MANY FAMILIES CAUSES DEEP CONCERN BY CITY

"It is useless to expect the city government to undertake relief of the needy of Clarendon," said Mayor W. P. Cagle when asked if the city was prepared to take up at least a part of the relief work now at a standstill. "The Federal government announced that it would no longer help the state of Texas feed its hungry mouths."

"It is unfortunate, too sad for words, that Texas voters showed such an unconcern over their own unemployed and needy folks as to refuse to help the Federal government in taking care of

NOT TRUE

There is not a word of truth in the news stories at the top of this page—not Now . . . But Texas voters will decide on Aug. 26th whether or not the newspapers will have to carry such news stories to their readers.

TEXAS WILL RECEIVE NO MORE FEDERAL RELIEF FUNDS UNLESS TEXANS AUTHORIZE $20,000,000 BOND ISSUE TO ADD TO FEDERAL RELIEF AID

Facts About Relief

At present 1,270,000 Texans (one out of every five) are being fed wholly out of Federal funds.

The demand for Federal aid in June exceeded the previous June by 31 per cent. Many more thousands are rapidly exhausting their last reserves and will soon be asking for help.

If Federal aid should be cut off by Texas' refusal to give its Legislature the power to issue relief bonds, what are the needy going to do? There would be grave danger in such a situation. Texas voters hold the answer in their ballot on Aug. 26th.

No Property Tax can ever be assessed to pay this Bond Issue. No ad valorem or property tax of any kind shall ever be levied against any farm, home or other real or personal property for the funding of interest or principal of such bonds as may be issued under the proposed relief bond amendment. The bonds will be paid by a special levy—not by an ad valorem tax on farms, homes or any real or personal property.

Legislature Powerless

Under the Texas Constitution the legislature is strictly and specifically forbidden to donate or contribute state funds for any purpose. If this constitutional inhibition is not removed the Legislature is powerless to spend a cent for relief even if its treasury were full to overflowing and its people starving to death. Local taxes at maximum limits leave local governments powerless to meet such a situation.

TEXAS SIMPLY MUST provide a way to prevent starvation among its destitute.

Donley County has received over $15,000 of Federal Relief money and ought to help the State of Texas meet this truly grave situation.

Copy Of Citizens' Resolution Passed By Meeting At Austin

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the Statewide mass meeting held last Friday in Austin at the call of the Governor:

WHEREAS, the Federal Government has in the recent several months carried the burden of caring for the hungry and destitute of Texas and is at the present time caring for in excess of one million two hundred seventy thousand citizens of this State; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Government cannot, will not, and should not be expected to continue to carry this burden if the people of the Empire State of Texas are not willing to carry their just share of this burden, and will cease to provide the needed funds immediately in the event the people of Texas do not vote favorably for the proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of emergency and relief work bonds on August 26th; and

WHEREAS, if the people of the Empire State of Texas do not on August 26th pass this amendment the entire burden of caring for the hungry and the destitute of Texas will fall upon the already overburdened communities of this State with no possible means or plan of caring for them; and

WHEREAS, no people will survive or ought to survive who do not care for the hungry and provide for the destitute; and

WHEREAS, the emergency relief work as provided for in this proposed bond amendment is an integral part of the program of the President of the United States for the rehabilitation of this country;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this meeting, composed of representative citizens and taxpayers from all sections of Texas, go on record as unanimously indorsing the proposed relief amendment and call upon all good citizens who have faith in this State and a Christian regard for their duty to care for the needy and destitute, to rally to the support of the constitutional amendment on August 26th to the end of that Texas shall not be found wanting.

Facts About Bond Issue Amendment

More than a million of Texas' residents are at present on the relief rolls of the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission. This Commission for the last five months has been disbursing funds advanced or donated by the Federal Government at an average rate of $1,500,000 per month or $18,000,000 per year. This total of individuals on the relief rolls represents 265,000 families whose supporting heads are not employed, the majority of them not qualified for any specific employment and many thousands of them either derelicts in the quagmire of the slough of depression or aged persons whose last support has been swept away by the rigors of an economic re-adjustment. At the same time, 400,000 other families in Texas whose heads are out of the employment are not listed on the relief rolls but these are rapidly exhausting their resources and thousands upon thousands will be added to the relief rolls before the end of the year. Rehabilitation of those unable to work is another task that confronts the State.

RELIEF LIST STEADILY GROWING

The number of persons on the relief rolls of the state commission has been increasing steadily in July and August. July, for instance, saw a gain of 31 per cent over the total destitute dependants as tabulated for June. August already has shown a slight increase over July. August and September, the best cotton picking months, are not expected to show as large an increase in the relief rolls but October, November and December will be the peak months in succession for the entire year.

The above presentation of information about the proposed Relief Bond Issue was made possible by Clarendon citizens, some of whose names follow:

Copy Of Senate Resolution On Which Texas Will Vote

Following is reproduced as an exact copy of the principal section of the Senate Resolution submitting the proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to issue relief bonds. The most significant clauses are printed in capitals for the information of our readers.

"Section 51a. The Legislature shall have power to authorize by law the issuance and sale of the bonds of the State of Texas, NOT TO EXCEED the sum of Twenty Million (20,000,000) Dollars, bearing interest at a rate not to exceed Four and a half (4½) per centum per annum; and payable serially or otherwise not more than Ten (10) years from their date, and said bonds SHALL BE SOLD FOR NOT LESS THAN PAR and accrued interest, and NO FORM OF COMMISSION SHALL BE ALLOWED in any transaction involving said bonds. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds to be used in furnishing relief and work relief to needy and distressed people and in relieving the hardships resulting from unemployment, but to be FAIRLY DISTRIBUTED OVER THE STATE and upon such terms and conditions as may be provided by law and the Legislature shall make appropriations as are necessary to pay the interest and principal of such bonds as the same becomes due. The power hereby granted to the Legislature to issue bonds hereunder is expressly LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT STATED AND TO TWO YEARS FROM AND AFTER THE ADOPTION of this grant of power by the people. Provided that the Legislature shall provide for the payment of the interest and redemption of any bonds issued under the terms hereof FROM SOME SOURCE OTHER THAN A TAX ON REAL PROPERTY, and the indebtedness as evidenced by such bonds SHALL NEVER BECOME A CHARGE AGAINST OR LIEN UPON ANY PROPERTY, real or personal, within this state."

MEMBERS OF NRA COMMITTEE MEET

REPORTS OF PROGRESS OF WORK HEARD; 86 FIRMS ARE CERTIFIED

Definite Steps were taken Tuesday afternoon for further activity by local NRA administration officials when the three members of the general committee and the chairman of the three sub-committees met at the office of J. R. Porter in council.

Mr. Porter reported that the names of 86 employers and business firms of Clarendon had been certified by the Houston office of the Department of Commerce. This number is believed to be near the total possible number, although it is known that several employers have not yet signed the agreement with the President.

"I do not think that any of these are objectors to signing, but are confronted with unusual problems that need only to be worked out," said Mr. Porter. "I have been able in several cases to advise going ahead with the agreement and display of the blue eagle after learning just what the obstacle was. The committee has no intention, of course, to advise any one to sign without a sense of responsibility, but in some cases the conditions are misunderstood. I shall be glad to talk with any perplexed business man or employer, and if necessary take the case before the general committee."

"Is Clearing House"

"The general committee is especially anxious that the people of Clarendon regard it as the clearing house for all matters relating to the NRA," said Mr. Porter. "In other words, we believe that our citizenship should make any action, complaint or suggestion through this committee. Our feeling is that local people can, and should be able to, adjust any matter involving NRA regulations without the necessity of any citizen 'going over its head.' The citizenship may be assured that any matter beyond the knowledge or ability of the local committee to handle will be taken up with NRA officials to whom they are accountable. And we hope that we may count on the full co-operation of the citizenship in this particular."

W. H. Patrick, chairman of the enrollment activities, both of employers and consumers, announced his intention to begin within a short time a check-up of all employers of the city, not with the idea of using any coercion on those who have not yet signed, but of working out details that are in the way of signing so that a full 100 per cent enrollment may be effected among employers.

"The full enrollment of all employers will definitely dispose of the vexing question of consumer patronage of 'blue eagle' places," Mr. Patrick said. The committee was unanimous in the hope that all employers who have not yet signed will make every effort to co-operate in clearing up puzzling questions by consulting with the committee. "We particularly do not like even the suggestion of boycotting any Clarendon merchant and do not believe it remotely possible that such a thing

NEW LIONS HEAR TALK ON ETHICS

O. C. WATSON INTERPRETS PRINCIPLES OF LIONISM AT LUNCHEON

Following the usual custom when new members have been received into the club, O. C. Watson, one of the charter members, interpreted for them the Objectives of Lionism and the Code of Ethics at the Tuesday luncheon.

Lion Watson is thoroughly schooled in presenting the purposes which were in the minds of the founders of Lionism and is able to present them in an inspiring manner. Not only the new Lions, but the older members, gained deeper knowledge of the principles of their service club. The speaker was warmly complimented on his address.

Ira Merchant, who yielded his president's gavel to his successor, T. D. Nored, at last week's meeting, was presented with a handsome Past President's pin by W. H. Patrick, who expressed for the club its appreciation of Lion Merchant's able administration. "You have charted the course of the club during

O. C. Watson, chairman of the speakers' bureau said that he had arranged with several citizens for talks at public meetings and over the local radio station. Publicity in the local newspapers, to the fullest possible extent, was reported by Fred A. Story, chairman of the publicity committee.

It was made clear at the council that the committee chairman believe that the citizens are doing everything in their power to do their part in the NRA program and that they need have no fear of anyone "losing his head" and demanding the impossible. At the same time there was confidence that the NRA plan will result in putting many unemployed back to work. Workers at the council meeting expressed confidence that new employes would be added by every employer in Clarendon as quickly as at all possible.

one of its most trying years in a manner which is a credit to both yourself and the loyalty of the membership," Lion Patrick said.

Odos Caraway reported that the names of the original charter members had been retraced in ink on the framed charter which hangs in the clubroom. He also reviewed for the new members, at the suggestion of Lion Brawell, the history and progress of the two most recent cases of crippled child relief which the club has under way at present. Little Patty Sue Whittington and Lendol Ragle are each under treatment and Dr. J. T. Gray, of Amarillo, is making wonderful progress with them. Lendol, a victim of infantile paralysis, was utterly unable to walk and his treatment is proceeding so well as to promise his ability to walk in a natural way in a few more months. He says he wants "to throw snowballs," and the Lions believe that his childish wish will be gratified some day.

W. H. Patrick stated that, following a plan set in motion at the club recently, arrangements had been made by himself, J. R. Porter and Floyd Studer, of Amarillo to go to Tule Canyon with the hope of working out some plan for preserving the prehistoric paintings of some of its white cliffs. Mr. Studer planned to take his camera, one of the finest in Texas, to obtain pictures of the paintings for the museum at Canyon.

CARD OF THANKS

The many friends of J. F. Newman and his wife, who is our sister, were so kind and sympathetic during the long illness and death of their daughter, Mary Will, that we want them to know how much they and we appreciate them. We shall never forget them, and if any of them are ever in Oklahoma City we hope that they will call up and let us renew our friendships.

W. S. McCall
MRS. RUBY AYERS.

CARD OF THANKS

Words fail us as we attempt to express unto our many friends our thanks and appreciation for their words of sympathy and deeds of kindness to us at a time when our trouble is so great and our sorrow so hard to bear, brought on us by the death of our dear daughter, Mary Will. And as we go to our Heavenly Father in prayer, we will always there be remembered, and that His richest blessings may ever be poured upon you and yours will be the subject of our prayer.

MR. and MRS. J. F. NEWMAN.

In discussions it was brought out that the federal government has sent $13,000,000 to Texas for relief work already and that if the states vote the proposed bond issue and that should not be enough the federal government will furnish all other funds needed. It was stressed that if the issue is defeated it will be equivalent to telling Washington that we do not need federal aid. This might result in the state losing several proposed public works projects.

It was also stressed that the bonds, if issued will never be paid with ad valorem or property taxes of any kind on Texas homes, real estate or farms, and that the total debt would only amount to 50 cents per year per person.

At the conclusion of the meeting a resolution was unanimously adopted calling on the people of Texas to support the proposed amendment.

Both Judge Lowe and Mr. Caraway returned thoroughly convinced that a grave situation will confront the people of Texas if they fail to authorize the relief bond issue next Saturday week. "I don't know what we can do about the resulting conditions if the bond issue is not authorized," said Judge Lowe. Mr. Caraway, who has been in closer touch with the unemployed than anyone else in the county regards the bond issue as absolutely essential and, like Judge Lowe, says that he does not know how Texas could possibly get along without Federal relief aid. "Texas people MUST realize that the time has come to do something themselves about their own unemployed instead of expecting the Federal government to do it all," he said.

a rest room for the ladies, cleaned out the well of fine water on the grounds, and a force of workmen from Hedley cut all the weeds on the grounds. "The grove is a pretty sight, providing abundant shade, and making an ideal place for the picnic," said Mr. Mosley. The picnic ground covers about five acres.

Bond Issue Speaker

Odos Caraway, one of the best informed men in the county on relief work, will deliver a talk in the interest of the proposed bond issue authorization. He will relate what he heard at the state-wide meeting held at Austin last week, when over 300 county judges, mayors and other citizens met to discuss the relief situation in Texas.

An excellent program, as published last week, has been prepared and a business session of the Old Settlers Association will be held, a feature of which will be the minutes of the past year, together with a detailed report of all expenditures by the treasurer. Officers for the coming year will also be elected.

All Donley county citizens who have been in the county for 20 years are eligible and are invited to attend the picnic. Bring well-filled baskets for the big dinner which will be spread on the long lines of tables that are already waiting for their loads of the delicious dishes that Donley county housewives know so much about preparing.
