ELECTION PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

NEWS, GOLDSTON CORNER AND EANES RADIO JOIN
PLANS TO GIVE RETURNS

Clarendon people are going to have their usual election party Saturday night when the Clarendon News, Douglas & Goldston, Goldston Bros., and Eanes Radio Station join hands to present one of the most complete and satisfactory returns the public here has ever enjoyed.

For a number of years the News and the Rexall corner firms have joined hands in presenting the returns on state and national elections, and this year with the services of Edwin Eanes, radio expert, who will have charge of the loud-speaker broadcast for the crowds in the roped-off street just North of the Goldston building, a new record for satisfactory reception is anticipated.

Accordingly The News invites the public of Clarendon and Donley County to be on hand beginning about eight o'clock when local and statewide returns will be posted on the bulletin board and also broadcast to the street crowds.

All election judges over the county are urged to call in and turn in their returns at the earliest hour so that Donley County tabulation may be complete in record time. Please call No. 181.

Come early and bring your neighbors. Everybody welcome and you will enjoy the associations of the evening with the big, genial crowd.

CITY LEAGUE WILL TRY TO UNTANGLE

THREE WAY TIE THIS WEEK
BRINGS ON VIGOROUS
ACTION BY LEADERS

Trickey going in the city softball league found three teams in a three-way tie for first place at the beginning of this week. The Baptists, Presbyterians and Methodists were all tied up, with the Christians trailing. League officials set about to unscramble the situation with a schedule between the all-even battlers and games have been played every afternoon this week, although Tuesday's game was called on account of rain.

Monday the Baptists surprised the Methodists by handing them a 6 to 1 defeat. Tuesday the Baptists met the Presbyterians and one elimination might have been accomplished but for the rain that came. According to agreement all games called on account of rain or darkness were to go as ties, so the same teams met again Wednesday afternoon and the Presbyterians had the fighting spirit to emerge by a count of 9 to 4.

This afternoon the Methodists will meet the Baptist aggregation and the fur is going from the first crack of the bat for both teams are sore at their defeats and are anxious to gore somebody.

Friday afternoon the answer to the riddle may be found for the winner of Thursday's game will meet the Presbyterians who are championing their bits and rearing to go for a look at the pennant.

Unless another tie comes up softball fans may have the winner of the season spotted by Friday evening about dusk.

The brickwork on the A. A. Maves home is completed and the finishing work is now under way. This is one of the very best modern small homes in the city and will add much to that section of Clarendon.

NRA Speakers Use Local Radio Station

O. C. Watson, chairman of the speakers bureau of the local NRA committee, has been active in carrying out the plans of acquainting the public with local objectives of the Act. Besides short speeches at the churches Sunday, arrangements have been made for using the Clarendon Radio Station each morning at ten o'clock.

The first address was broadcast Tuesday morning by Judge J. R. Porter, chairman of the Central Committee NRA. Wednesday, Tom F. Connolly spoke and today, Thursday, W. H. Patrick was the speaker.

Friday morning F. W. Rathjen will broadcast and Saturday morning, Fred A. Story will be the speaker.

The committee headed by Mr. Watson will provide other speakers for the morning broadcasts next week, and all citizens with radio available are urged to tune in at ten o'clock each morning for the information these addresses will bring.

FIRST BALE COTTON RECEIVED TUESDAY

TOM H. HAWTHORNE OF BRICE SELLS COTTON TO HENRY GILLESPIE FOR 9c

Five days earlier than last year Clarendon received her first bale of cotton Tuesday afternoon when Tom H. Hawthorne motored into town from Brice where he raised the staple on the Salmon farm and it was purchased by J. H. Gillespie for 9c per pound.

A premium of $8.00 was paid Mr. Hawthorne by the local Chamber of Commerce, which sum represents forty percent of $20.00 set aside by that organization to be split sixty per cent to the first bale in the county and forty per cent outside of Donley. The $12.00 remaining is still to be claimed by some Donley County farmer who gets in with the first bale.

On account of the extreme dry season in the Brice country, the cotton was not picked, but was snapped, and only seventeen hundred pounds was hauled to the gin, hence the light weight of the bale. This is unusual for the first bale to be snapped, for Brice usually produces some of the very best cotton for early picking to be found in the Panhandle.

In speaking of the early date of the first bale this year, Mr. Gillespie recalled that it was as early as he had ever known a first bale even when he was managing a string of gins down East of Dallas, nearly four hundred miles further South.

GENERAL RAINS OVER PANHANDLE

DONLEY COUNTY SHARES
MOISTURE BUT IN LIMITED QUANTITY

Continuation of the rains which started in Donley county Tuesday night, when a little over a half-inch fell, appeared probable, according to the forecast made by the U. S. weather bureau at Amarillo. During Wednesday night another rain of one-quarter inch fell, bringing the total for Clarendon during the month up to 1.75 inches.

The rains were delayed too long to do as much good as earlier rains might have done, but they will be highly beneficial to all crops, particularly the late

Claude Hit by Cyclone

Claude was hit by a cyclone today at 1:04 p. m. which wreaked considerable damage, but caused no loss of life nor serious injury, according to meager reports by wire, received just as The News went to press.

B. D. Walker, F. W. & D. agent, telegraphed immediately after the cyclone passed, stating that the depot's ware-room was demolished and the tracks blocked by debris from the depot and

FAMOUS ARTISTS TO APPEAR HERE

KRYL'S BAND AND ENTERTAINERS INCLUDE CLARENDON IN ITINERARY

Clarendon will be one of the few Texas cities to have the pleasure of hearing Bohumir Kryl's Band and Entertainers on a special program to be rendered here along in November, according to Ralph Kerbow, Post Commander of the American Legion, which organization is sponsoring the program according to a contract made here Monday.

Mr. Kryl, who is probably the highest ranking bandmaster in the world since the death of John Phillip Sousa, and one of the greatest cornetists in the world was here Monday working out the details of his tour through Texas, and by reason of a jump it was necessary either to be idle here in the Panhandle or make some smaller town with his large troupe of musicians. Clarendon's location fit into the general schedule better than any other small city in the jump to Amarillo, so a special concession was made as to price and Clarendon therefore is to have a program this fall which will be presented only in places like Dallas, Denton, San Angelo, West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, Amarillo and Childress.

The Kryl Band will be supported by Anna Fitzlitz, the Metropolitan Opera soprano, Mademoiselle Kryl, pianist, and a harpist of national reputation. The band itself is composed of a large number of noted soloists in brass and reeds, and there is a bare possibility that Madame Schumann-Heinke will also be under contract to sing, but since she is such a mother to the Legion boys, it is thought that she may add to the concert just for the pleasure of pleasing "her boys" here.

Dates, place and hour will be announced shortly when the details are perfected, though it is understood that the seat price will be 50c and 75c, the lowest price paid for such an array of artists in the entire state.

Clarendon will thus have one great musical event this fall—and by artists that are not surpassed on any program.

Boy Scouts Offer Services To NRA

J. R. Porter, general chairman of NRA activities in Clarendon, reports the tender of the service of the four patrols of the Clarendon Boy Scouts. The troop requested that they be used in any desired capacity and express their desire to be of service.

Mr. Porter and his committee appreciate very much the spirit which prompted the offer of their services in the promotion of NRA activities and programs. "We do not know just yet in what way we will call on the Scouts, but I am sure that the committee will sooner or later find opportunity to take advantage of their assistance," he said.

Clarendon Bronchos Hold First Workout

Sixteen old and prospective Clarendon Hi Bronchos held the first workout of the season Monday afternoon at the College Park, where they met for a short session in punting, throwing and passing the oval, with the result that sixteen footballers were sore in every muscle on Tuesday.

Coaches Stocking and Hutton have not returned to the city as yet, but it is the plan of the local warriors to surprise their mentors when they get back to town, by being thoroughly limbered up and with their eye on the ball for intensive training.

other buildings, and warning trains from both directions to proceed with caution.

He stated that about a half dozen freight cars were damaged at least one being overturned on the adjoining track. The track of the cyclone was about 200 yards wide at the depot, which is in the approximate center of the town, but to the north of the business district.

Who May Legally Vote On Saturday

Those who may vote in the election are divided into three classes. Those are:

1. Those who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and who shall have resided in the State of Texas one year next preceding the election, and the last six months within Donley County, and who has paid his or her poll tax.
2. Those who are over sixty years of age and became sixty years of age on or after the 1st day of January, 1933, and who do not have a poll tax because they are exempt, for the reason that they are over age.
3. Those who have become twenty-one years of age after the 1st day of January, 1933, and were twenty-one years of age on or before August 25, 1933, and no poll tax exemption certificate is required of either of the classes described in paragraphs 2 and 3.

In each instance the person presenting himself to vote must have been in the State one year and in the county six months, and in the precinct three months.

ONLY 15 OFFERS OF ACREAGE OUT

When notices of acceptance of the acreage offers of fifteen more Donley county cotton farmers are received the county committee will have received 100 per cent acceptance from Washington. A total of 874 offers were sent in and 859 farmers have already received official acceptance.

Wednesday night was the deadline for completion of plowing under the offered acreage, and G. L. Boykin stated to a News reporter that the committee believed that all the cotton offered had been plowed under. The remaining fifteen acceptances are expected daily.

No cotton checks have been received yet, but the committee expects the first of them to reach the farmers within the next few days.

MASONIC STUDY CLUB MEETS FRIDAY EVENING

Masons of this community have been invited to a regular meeting of the Masonic Study Club to be held Friday night, August 25th, 1933, at 8:00 o'clock. The evening will be given over to a study of the Entered Apprentice degree, and watermelons will be served at the conclusion of the work.

Neil McKillop of San Antonio visited in Clarendon this week among his many friends. Neil was raised in Clarendon and his friends here are always glad to have him spend part of his vacation here. Neil is a valued employee of a drug concern in San Antonio.

Over one thousand people were in attendance and with the fine weather enjoyed all the activities and fellowship of the day. The program was under the direction of the local officers.

property is not known, Agent Walker stating that "considerable damage" was done by the cyclone. The local telephone office was unable to establish connection with Claude. Radio reports from Amarillo stated that relief was being sent from Amarillo, indicating the possibility of loss of life or injury. As already stated, however, Agent Walker reported no one was injured.

LIONS HEAR NRA TALK ON TUESDAY

JUDGE J. R. PORTER OUTLINES NRA AND OFFERS SPECIAL RULINGS

The general purposes and detailed workings of the National Recovery Act was the subject of the principal address at the Tuesday luncheon of the Clarendon Lions Club, when Judge J. R. Porter, general chairman of the central committee for Clarendon was presented as the principal feature of the program.

Judge Porter used as the basis of his explanation thirteen main questions that had been submitted to the local committee, which had to deal with limitations of the act in regard to hours, employees, price scales, exceptions for adjustment, and the like. According to the speaker the main idea back of all the rulings is a sense of fair play and common sense with it being generally understood that any business can have a full and fair hearing for the adjustment of inequalities which might arise under the blanket code. As chairman of the local committee Judge Porter predicted that when the committee on membership had canvassed the town there would be one hundred per cent record for the businesses of Clarendon.

President T. D. Nored read the list of committees for all club activities of the year and made report on the special meeting of the directors held last week. His report that the monthly dues had been reduced from $4.00 to $3.50 brought applause.

Lion Odos Caraway reported on the meeting of the relief workers at Austin and made an special appeal for support of the proposed relief bonds on the grounds of humanity and security of domestic tranquility.

Mayor W. P. Cagle and Simmons Powell were presented as new members of the club as a result of the recent campaign for new and desirable membership. Homer Mulkey reported further on the work for Crippled Children, with special reference to the Ragle child, one of the wards of the club.

FREE AUCTION IS FEATURE OF DAY

MERCHANTS OFFER LOW PRICES IN FACE OF RISING MARKET

Dollar Day and Election Day, each falling on the same day, next Saturday, Aug. 26th, combine their interest to attract what will probably be one of the largest crowds ever to gather in Clarendon.

Dollar Day will offer its usual special values in merchandise, priced by the merchants for one day of values under the current market. Then there will be the free auction, conducted by Claude R. Gamblin, Panhandle Refining company agent. Mr. Gamblin is an experienced auctioneer and likes to "do his stuff" for the people of the Clarendon trade territory.

Nothing is barred from the free auction privilege. Bring anything you want to sell. It will cost you nothing and Mr. Gamblin will sell it to the best possible advantage. Next Saturday will be a particularly fine time to bring your stuff to the auction, because there will be a large crowd in town and there will be a larger crowd at the auction lot than has ever been seen there.

The auction sale will be held at the usual place on the corner lot north of the Talley Super-service Station. The use of the lot is donated by the owners, Bennett and Sims. There is a fenced enclosure for livestock which may be used by those who bring livestock to the auction.

Golf Tourney Won By Clarendon Men

The third and final match of the series between the McLean and Clarendon golf teams, composed of men over 47 years of age, was played Tuesday afternoon, resulting in the Clarendon team winning the tournament.

Using the point system of scoring, Clarendon won the series with a net total of 47 points over their opponents. The first match was played at Clarendon, the next at McLean and the third, decided by a coin-toss, was played at Clarendon. The first game was won by Clarendon with a score of 21 points, the next by McLean with a score of 4 points, and the last by Clarendon with a score of 30 points, giving them a net winning total of 47 points.

Clarendon's players were: A. N. Wood, R. C. Weatherly, Sr., Tom F. Connolly and J. T. Patman. For McLean: M. D. Bentley, N. A. Greer, D. A. Davis and F. Christian. The last named substituted for D. M. Davis who played in the first two games.

YOUNG SPEAKERS URGE RELIEF BOND

LOCAL CITIZENS HEAR PLEA
FOR $20,000,000 RELIEF
BOND ON STREETS

Clarendon and Donley County citizens heard clear cut arguments for the passage of the proposed $20,000,000 Relief Bond Amendment here Saturday afternoon around five o'clock when two young speakers from Amarillo appeared under the auspices of the Panhandle headquarters in charge of the Campaign.

Judge S. W. Lowe called the street crowd to order at the Goldston corner and introduced L. W. Fisher of Amarillo who made the first plea, stressing the immediate importance of the proposed amendment and showing that not one penny of tax could be levied against any home, farm or real property under the provisions of the act. Odos Caraway, local chairman of relief work and a recent attendant on the state-wide meeting at Austin, spoke briefly as to the great need of the enabling act and urged the relief of Texas dependents thru voting for the bonds. Mr. Caraway believes that all federal aid will be shut off if Texas fails to make any effort to provide for her own unemployed.

G. R. McNeil, also of Amarillo, made the final plea for the bonds and made many telling points in explanation of its merits and present necessity. These two young men from Amarillo were accompanied by their mothers who were justly proud of the forceful addresses of their young sons. A good sized Saturday afternoon crowd heard the talks and seemed pleased with the facts and arguments presented.

OLD SETTLERS IN BIG PICNIC

LARGEST ATTENDANCE ON RECORD ENJOYS DONLEY
PIONEERS PICNIC

"Largest attendance on record" was the verdict rendered by the officials of the Donley County Old Settlers Picnic which held its annual meeting and celebration at the Tom Tate Grove, five miles northeast of Hedley Friday of last week.

Over one thousand people were in attendance and with the fine weather enjoyed all the activities and fellowship of the day. The program was under the direction of the local officers.

"Let no Donley County citizen worry," said Sheriff Pierce, "if any verbal or written threat is received just notify the sheriff's office and no effort or expense will be spared to run the criminal to earth and to give full protection to the threatened person."

Would-be Capones and Harvey Baileys and the like had better steer clear of Donley. There's a hard-boiled sheriff and men to back him up, waiting for just such cattle.

WILL THE PEOPLE OF DONLEY COUNTY LEGALIZE BEER AND ITS ATTENDANT EVILS?

Next Saturday among several important questions to be voted on the voters of Donley County will be faced with the question of whether or not beer shall be sold in the county under local option.

There is no question that the people of Donley County are for the great majority sober and industrious, opposed to drinking of intoxicants and all the evils that comes with it when it is sold openly and legally.

But there is a serious question to be answered, as to whether or not the people of Donley are aroused to this direct attack against the peace, tranquility and prosperity of the county—this attack aims openly at the cultivation of appetites among the young people and the debauching of county politics. It is entirely possible with a majority of the citizens against this evil that unless the people are aroused and go to the polls, a desperate minority will win the election and let loose upon Donley all the seven devils of crime, insanity and lewdness that invariably follows in the wake of legalized intoxicants whether 3.2 beer or hard liquor.

This is a serious crisis for let no one be fooled: if beer is legalized the same old fight that we had for ten years in Texas will be on again, for beer dealers will in many cases be found to be bootleggers of hard liquor, just as it used to be in "Ino" and "Uno" days in this state.

There can be no question of revenue when morals are involved. There is not enough money in the whole wide world to pay for the life of one Donley County boy or girl, ruined by slipping on beer into the clutches of liquor and the disgrace that follows hard in its wake. It has been often proven that for every $1000 revenue from liquor, the state must pay from $1500 to $2500 out in court costs and upkeep of penal institutions brought on by the liquor sold under license.

The question, then, citizens of Donley County, is whether or not we will fail in our duty to vote for the protection of our county, our towns and our homes—the protection of our boys and our girls—or shall we marshal our forces and sweep to sound defeat the proposal to legalize the sale of beer in Clarendon, in Hedley, in Lelia Lake, in Jericho, in Ashtola, in Goldston, in McKnight, in any cross-roads filling-station.

Friends of good citizenship, let's rouse ourselves and our neighbors and let's administer such a dizzy defeat to those who would use beer as an entering wedge to liquor appetites in Donley, that no one will ever have the nerve to try again to besmirch the fair name of our county and her citizenship.

Vote AGAINST the twenty-first amendment; Vote AGAINST legalizing beer in Texas; Vote AGAINST the flood of 3.2 beer in Donley County.

VOTE FOR THE RELIEF BONDS

The editor of The News has been strongly opposed to such proposals as the amendment authorizing the issue of $20,000,000 bonds for relief in Texas. But as we have faced the unusual conditions facing our people, the coming of another winter with nearly a third of our population on the verge of want, the certain withdrawal of federal funds unless Texas makes some effort to help her own unemployed and hungry, we have resolved that we shall override a principle in the interests of humanity and we shall vote for the bonds.

Sincerely we believe that the people of Donley County will be doing the fair, the humane, the righteous thing to vote for the relief bonds.

HARD ON RESPECTABILITY

There are many respectable people who have been misled into favoring the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the opening of Texas to the sale of 3.2 beer. These good people have our sympathy in the kind of company they find themselves in. Down at Henrietta last week, Hon. B. D. Sartin of Wichita Falls found himself under fire of rotten eggs as he was speaking in that city for prohibition and against the return of beer. The eggs didn't reach their mark, but they did prove again that the hoodlum element is out to down decency and temperance, just as it always did in the days of the saloon.

We do not understand how respectable people can support the cause of liquor and beer, but we do sympathize with them in the sort of company they must keep as they fight against the forces of law and right.

Most people are very pleasant as long as you don't try to collect.

A BRIEF TRIBUTE TO FATHER

Last week the editor and owner of the News had the great misfortune and sorrow to lose his father at the ripe age of over seventy-five. No son ever had a finer, sweeter, cleaner or more gentlemanly father, and his was a Christian character that left impress not only in the field of his ministry, but to his family as well.

While we shall miss him keenly, and there is a heavy pall of loneliness in our hearts, yet we do not regret his passing in so far as he was concerned. He had lived out his years, his task was done, he was tired, very tired, and he richly deserves his rest—the Eternal Rest for him. Father was a great man in a simple unassuming way; he had a wonderful spirit, a heart full of love for his fellowman and a philosophy and faith that never faltered whatever the circumstances.

Father is gone, and the best we can do is to try manfully to follow in his footsteps and according to his teachings.

ARE WE STUPID?

Those who would strike from the constitution the eighteenth amendment, and make a bar-room out of every drugstore, grocery, restaurant, hotel, and filling-station insult the intelligence of the American people when they say that money spent for beer will help every other business. It seems that they intend to trade on the utter stupidity of the people and to make them believe that you can spend money for beer and still have the same money left to spend for necessities and comforts of life.

Down at Emory, Texas, last week the Raines County News, published by Tom W. Hill, kinsman of the Holtzclaw family of Clarendon, carried a story of a watermelon buyer, Sam Amos by name, of that county who has been buying watermelons and shipping them to Kansas City wholesalers advising that there was no more market for watermelons, and one of the firms made this comment: "We do not know just why there is no market for melons, but we believe that it is the beer in this section that has ruined the demand for watermelons." Thus it is that our farmers get the brunt of that attack first. Beer that was to help all business begins by destroying the market for melons, and we wait to see what market it will destroy and engulf next.

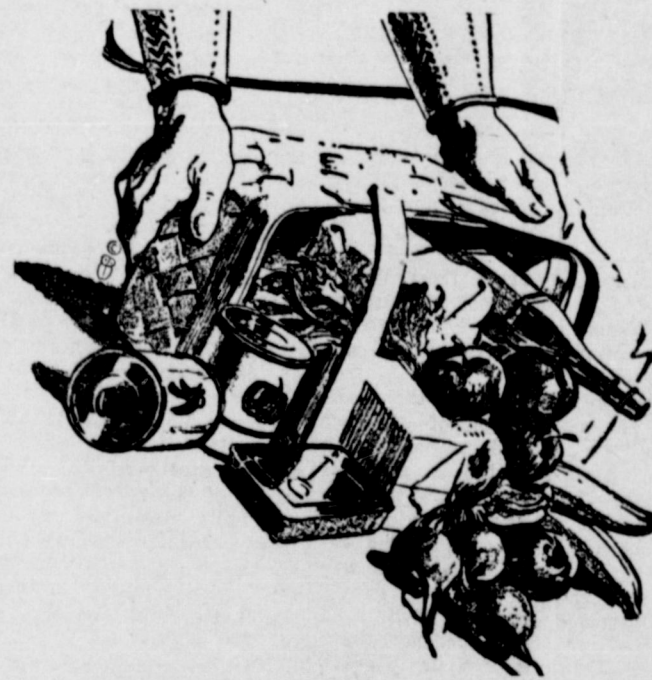

It is impossible to have our cake and eat it too. The nation cannot spend money for worse than useless beer and still have it for the comforts and necessities of the home. Yet we are expected to be stupid enough to vote to destroy our own markets and our own businesses, besides the morals of the boys and girls upon which rests the hope of the Republic.

Are we stupid?

THE "LANDSLIDE" IS ALL BOSH

Repealists would have us believe that the victory for repeal of the eighteenth amendment in the twenty-two states thus far is a "landslide". Let us look at it a moment. Not one-third of the voters in any state has yet voted to repeal prohibition; not forty percent of the voters who voted in the national election last fall have yet voted in any one state. The people are a little puzzled, but they haven't turned openly against prohibition even in the wettest states. They just haven't voted—yet.

What a revulsion and reversal of the ballot is on its way against the lying promises of liquor and beer leaders.

BEER NEWS INDICATES REVENUES DISAPPOINTING

For the first time in the history of Columbia University, beer will be served in two of the dining halls for men. Owing to the decline of student patronage in the halls, a license has been taken out to sell the beverage.

South Carolina reports the new beer has lost in popularity since its first appearance. Florida and Tennessee beer tax revenues have been much below predictions. In Maryland revenues collected from beer are reported as exceeding expectations. The first 30 days of legalized beer brought $75,000 into Florida's state treasury, a sum far below estimates. State licenses cost from $10 for small dealers up to $750 for breweries. Tennessee received $20,000 in beer taxes the first month of legal sale compared with an estimate of $70,000.

MISS ANNA WIEDMAN ENJOYING STAY IN GERMANY

Miss Anna Wiedman, who has taught for the past several years in Clarendon High School, is spending the summer in Germany, having taken her mother across on the voyage for a visit with relatives and friends in the old home land. Miss Wiedman has been very fortunate in having received a scholarship which provides the means for travel and intensive study in various parts of Germany and she writes interestingly of her visit there in a letter to Mrs. Sam M. Braswell. Following are some of the extracts:

Izehre, Holstein Germany

"I am learning to know this country thoroughly. Conditions are more hopeful here than in years and Hitler has become a positive hero. Last week when I was in Leipzig there were 150,000 Nazi visitors in the town and from 4:45 a. m. until late at night there were parades and parades, of young and old, male and female. When not marching to music they sang all the familiar folk and National songs. My work this summer is an interesting study of History, Traditions, Language, and Dialects. My courses are planned in Hamburg and I spend most of my time there under the direction of the firm that granted me the scholarship. From there my program radiates into all directions. Over the week-end and often for a week at a time I go into different corners of this nation for observation. Last week I was in Dresden and Leipzig, Saxony. In the latter I stayed with a very dear friend of 20 years standing and my welcome there was most touching. She lives in the most aristocratic part of town and lives in the most beautiful home I have seen as yet in Germany. This of course gave me an insight into German society.

I have also been in many other places. One trip took me into the northern Friesland territory. Next week-end I go with my little mother to the Lubeck district. We shall spend Sunday in the "fashionable" summering coast town of Scharbentz where a cousin and his family are spending four weeks. My mother, uncle, and aunt and I shall go to the Rhine for an eleven day cruise trip up stream—then later Berlin where a former teacher has invited me and insists on my staying here in Germany to teach in a famous Experimental School. I can hardly resist the temptation. We have already changed our sailing date twice and shall now sail some time in September.

It is a joy to see my mother so happy in her old home. We have made long tours thru the forests together. The food here is excellent and the climate still better. We drink our afternoon coffee in some delightfully shaded cafe or garden. One hears good music everywhere now as jazz is prohibited in gatherings as well as over the radio—rather a strict law but quite a relief.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Antrobus are occupying the old Story home on West Third Street having moved back to Clarendon from New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Barcus Antrobus returned the first of the week from a ten-days vacation in the mountains of New Mexico, near Capitan, where so many Clarendon people have camped this summer.

Mrs. L. L. Swan has gone to Kansas for a visit of several weeks with her parents.

VISITOR RECALLS EARLY WATER PUMPING SYSTEM

The visit of last week-end guests with Mrs. J. D. Stocking recalled an interesting bit of local history. Her guests were Mrs. G. A. Latimer and grandson, Bobby, of Ft. Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Latimer and daughter, Virginia Anne, of Dallas. Mr. Latimer is, Mrs. G. A. Latimer's son, disbursing auditor for the Santa Fe railway company at Dallas.

G. A. Latimer organized and operated Clarendon's first waterworks, plant, Mrs. Stocking said. "It was started in 1890, as I remember, and was located on the present A. L. Chase residence property. The water was pumped by treadmill power, using horses. Later on a gasoline engine was installed, but I do not remember how many years the horse-operated treadmill was used. The waterworks company included as stockholders Mr. Latimer, Dr. Stocking, Robert Sawyer and others whose names I can not recall," Mrs. Stocking said.

We had his "Forsyte Saga" and "A Modern Comedy" and this completes the story of the Fosyte family. Mrs. C. B. Peabody gave us "Fanny Herself" by Edna Feber, "The Parowan Bonanza" by Bower, and another copy of "The Covered Wagon," by Emerson Hough. Our readers join us in saying "Thank you!"

An author who has attracted much attention during the last three years is Oliver La Forge with his two books "Laughing Boy" and "Sparks Fly Upward," the first coming out in 1929 and the latter in 1932. "Laughing Boy" is a warrior of the Navajos riding over the desert out of the wild north country where white men are little known, he comes to a ceremonial dance when he meets "Slim Girl," cool, sophisticated, disturbing, and at once they fall in love. The story is of their life together, filled with problems created by the circumstances surrounding them, the clash of Indian and White characteristics which for a time threatened to wreck their lives.

Writing with delicacy and distinction, with intuition and a poignant awareness of beauty, Oliver La Forge has translated the thought, the talk and the ways of the Navajo into terms intelligible to the American reader. Against a background of gray sage and sand, of lonely mesas and hot blue skies, he has given us an absorbing picture of the life of a people in sharp contrast to our own.

Oliver La Forge is a native of New York City, graduated from Harvard in 1924 and has since lived in New Orleans. His father a painter. He has specialized in anthropology and archeology, making expeditions into Arizona, Mexico, and Guatemala. With a speaking knowledge of Navajo, a dark tan, and a pair of moccasins, he finally reached the point at which Indians of other tribes thought him a Navajo, and once because of this, was almost run out of a Hopi pueblo. He says the Navajos are the best Indians he has ever dealt with, giving him the freedom of their country, calling him the "Tall Chief Dweller."

The scene of his second story "Sparks Fly Upward" is Central America in the middle years of the 19th Century. It, too, is a story of an Indian, Estaban, whose father is a Spaniard. L. W. Dodd in the Saturday Review of Literature says, "Sparks Fly Upward is a more difficult and more mature creation than 'Laughing Boy'; a novel thoughtfully and soundly planned, finely proportioned, vigorously and straightforwardly narrated. It tells objectively of living people in a three-dimensional world; it has substance, form, atmosphere; its drama is never melodramatic; there is nothing strained or tortured or queerly perverse about it; and at its heart, in its im-

State Superintendent L. A. Woods writes a letter explaining new school legislation. The following questions and answers will clarify some of the points not understood clearly. The answers are given by Mr. Woods.

Q. What is the legal relation between the number of teachers employed and the number of grades taught?

A. The question classifying the individual school should be viewed from several angles such as, proximity to other schools, road conditions, enrollment in grades taught, property valuation, tax rate, cost on an additional teacher versus cost of transportation and tuition.

Q. How are delinquent taxes listed?

A. Delinquent taxes are to be listed as "Resources of the District" if reasonably expected to be collected.

Q. Will industrial aid be allowed to schools not eligible for Rural Aid?

A. No.

Q. What changes are to be made in the payment of high school tuition by the Rural Aid Law for 1933-35?

A. None except the law limits the amount from Rural Aid Fund to $7.50 per month which can be paid to any school for any pupil.

Q. How much transportation aid will be allowed for high school pupils transported into another district?

A. If the grade to which the high school pupil belongs is not taught in his home school, transportation aid not to exceed $2 per month per pupil will be allowed, provided the district shows need of such aid, and further provided the sending district is levying some local maintenance tax.

Q. How much transportation aid will be allowed for grade pupils transported from one district to another district?

A. None. Unless it is conclusively shown that it would be more economical to transport these children than to teach them at home.

Q. What will determine whether a school district is able to support a transportation system?

A. Its certified financial statement given in the rural aid application substantiated by personal investigation of the Deputy State Superintendent.

Q. How far must a child live from school to be allowed transportation aid?

A. No transportation aid will be allowed for pupils who do not live two miles or more from the school building.

Q. Will state aid be granted

RELIEF FUNDS AT STAKE

Stephenville Empire Tribune: Federal money to feed the destitute of Texas is flowing into the state at an average of $1,400,000 a month, according to Lawrence Westbrook, state relief administrator. At present 1,270,000 Texans, or one out of every five persons in the state, are being fed wholly by this federal money.

This flow of relief money will stop immediately if the proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to issue relief bonds not to exceed $20,000,000 is not voted on favorably in the Aug. 26 election. The federal government has announced that all aid will be stopped from states that do not co-operate in raising funds for relief work. The proposed amendment is Texas' first move toward cooperation with the federal government in relief work for destitute persons in the state.

Under the constitution at present, the legislature is strictly and specifically forbidden to donate or contribute state funds for any purpose. If this constitutional inhibition is not removed, the legislature will remain powerless to aid destitute persons, even if there were a surplus of money in the treasury.

This situation has been presented to the people of Texas, and it is left up to them to decide in the August 26 election whether the needy of the state will continue to receive aid.

Chillicothe Valley News: Who are the lucky ones these days? Those who have the money or are able to finance the purchase of real estate, either farm or city, certainly should be regarded as very fortunate. Today you can buy property for about half of what it is really worth. As times improve, realty prices will advance until property is priced at normal values again. Those who buy real estate now are certain to make handsome profits in years to come.

PAPER GOES UP

Panhandle Herald: Cost of commercial printing should go up, based on two new price catalogs which this paper received during the week-end. However, this paper will make every effort to hold the cost of printing down to the old prices as far as possible.

The new catalogs are from the two firms from which this newspaper has purchased the most of its supplies for many years. One firm is in Wichita, Kansas, and the other is in Oklahoma City.

In book paper, it is noticed that one quality advanced from $9.50 to $11.50 a hundred pounds; another from $15.50 to $17.50; a third from $10 to $13.50. The eggshell book, which is used for so many programs and year books, advanced around 20 per cent. Card boards went up around 10 per cent.

Strict application of the NRA in mills and metropolitan centers has a lot to do with the advances. Although most firms in the smaller cities are so small that NRA will not force them to add employes, it has already become noticeable in the larger places. Extra workers have been required to turn out the same volume of work, and the additional cost is being passed on directly to the customers.

Some grades of cut cards have gone up, but we suppose that Panhandle newspapers will absorb the advance and not charge 1934 candidates any more for their cards.

The smaller cities are thus going to do their part in the NRA movement by contributing to the higher costs, whether they are able to add many more workers or not.

NO SOUND ARGUMENTS AGAINST BOND ISSUE

Childress Daily Index: The $20,000,000 relief bond issue is on its way to approval. Citizens of Texas are learning in the merits of the proposal which is to be one of the five subjects for consideration at the August 26 polls. They are learning that the merits far outweigh the disadvantages.

Under the leadership of William Straus, of Houston, chairman of the Texas Relief bond issue steering committee, mayors, county judges, chairmen of county boards of welfare and employment and individual citizens met in Austin yesterday to discuss the proposed amendment. They were called by the governor, or by Former Governor Ferguson, who declared an emergency to exist in the state.

Fact and figures relating to the condition of employment and the condition of the unemployed throughout the state are compelling and they will be ammunition for winning votes for this amendment. But one fact alone should be sufficient to bring the necessary majority, the fact that more than a million Texans are listed on local relief rolls.

Balanced against that fact is an economic issue—the cost of a bond issue, and the tradition that Texas has never had a bond issue. By one method or another, though, Texas must feed and care for her poor. If not paid through the spread permitted by a bond issue it will be paid through subscription or even through a special tax. And if reasons as good as for this one arise for future bond issues, they should be floated.

WHAT A BLOW-OUT! WE MIGHT HAVE BEEN KILLED

YOU CAN'T BE LUCKY ALWAYS!

Put this Blow-out Protection on Your Car Right Now!

INVESTIGATION shows that the chances are better than even you'll have a blow-out some day. When, nobody knows. But right now is the time to learn the real cause of blow-outs, and the new way to prevent them.

When you drive 40, 50, 60 and 70-mile after mile—terrific heat is generated inside the tire. Rubber and fabric begin to separate. A blister starts—and grows—bigger and bigger—until BANG! A blow-out! And a terrible drag pulls your car off the road.

New Invention Prevents Blow-outs

But now Goodrich has created the amazing Life-Saver Golden Ply. This remarkable invention resists intense heat. Rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus, blisters don't form. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming their cause.

At gruelling speeds on the world's fastest track, the new Goodrich Silvertown, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, lasted 3 times as long as first quality tires that did not have this feature. These SILVERTOWNS never blew—because the Life-Saver Golden Ply refused to give.

Safer Against Skidding

And that isn't all. Scientific tests show that the Goodrich Safety Silvertown has the most skid-resisting tread on the road. Its squeegee drying action gives your car extra road-grip and reduces danger of skidding to a minimum.

Let us show you this amazing new tire—now made THREE TIMES SAFER! You can put this blow-out protection on your car—at no extra cost. For Goodrich Safety Silvertowns cost not a penny more than other standard tires.

CITIZENSHIP DEMANDS A FULL VOTE SATURDAY

THREE SEPARATE BALLOTS TO CAST

VOTERS TO PASS ON SIX QUESTIONS IN DONLEY COUNTY TUESDAY

Donley County voters will vote on six separate propositions Saturday, August 26th, and all Texans will vote on at least five, the sixth being the question of local option on the sale of beer if legalized and being purely a county affair.

On this page The News is presenting copies of the three ballots each voter will face as he goes to the polls. The first one is a long two column ballot having to do with the repeal or retention of National Prohibition. On this ballot will be found the names of 31 delegates and 31 alternates, favoring the repeal of prohibition; and the names of 31 delegates and 31 alternates opposing the repeal of prohibition.

The second ballot is wider and more nearly square, carrying four proposed changes in the constitution of Texas. The first has to do with granting authority for counties over 62,000 population to effect mergers in county government and separate government agencies for economy in governmental costs...

The second is the proposed $20,000,000 Relief Bond issue. The third is the amendment legalizing the sale of 3.2 beer in Texas.

The fourth is the amendment exempting homesteads up to $3,000.00 taxable value from all state taxes. On this ballot if you favor the amendment you simply cross out the opposite statement of the proposal which begins "AGAINST the amendment."

The third ballot given you will be the local option ticket for Donley County. It says "FOR the sale of 3.2 beer" and "AGAINST the sale of 3.2 beer," and is voted in the usual manner. If you want the beer sold in Donley County, you cross out that lower part of the ticket which says "AGAINST the sale of beer," if you are opposed to the sale of beer in Donley County, you cross out the upper part of the ticket which begins "FOR the sale of beer, etc."

It is the part of good citizenship to inform oneself on the issues presented and go to the polls voting as conscience dictates. Vote as early as possible that election officials may complete their counts as early as possible after the closing of the polls.

planted crops.

Regarding the rainfall over the Panhandle area, up to this morning, the Amarillo Daily News said:

Nearly every section of the region received rain early Wednesday and late Tuesday. Amarillo's down-pour of 1.90 inches brought the heaviest rain within any similar period since June, 1932, when a 41-year record for the month was broken.

It is probable that Amarillo will receive rain again today, said H. T. Collman, of the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Dirt Roads Bad

"We are having a rainy cycle now," Mr. Collman explained. "They have been known to last for six weeks, raining at almost the same time each day. It might change in a few days and start raining each morning or each afternoon."

Dirt highways are in bad condition and traffic is slow, the Panhandle Auto Club reported. "Highway 385 north of Clayton, N. M., is almost impassable," said Mrs. W. B. Amacker, club secretary, "especially from Four Corners north. Tourists are advised to go through Channing." Federal Highway 66 to Shamrock is heavy and slow, and 370 to Clarendon is slippery.

Rains East and West

Along the Santa Fe line one and a half inches fell from the Canadian River to Etter, 14 miles north of Dumas, and three-fourths of an inch from Etter, via Stratford, to Boise City, Okla.

Other points on the Santa Fe where rain fell are Umbarger, Friona, Bovina and Texico, one-fourth to a half an inch; showers at Panhandle and Canyon and a light rain at Canadian.

East of Amarillo 1:15 inches fell at Claude while one-half an inch was registered at Clarendon, Fort Worth & Denver dispatches reported.

On the South Plains the Fort

Worth & Denver weatherman reported rains at Memphis, one-fourth; Turkey, Quitaque, Silverton, Lubbock, Petersburg, Dimmitt and Hart registering from an inch to an inch and a half.

McLean Gets Deluge

Rains, varying from one-fourth to two inches and a half, fell east and west of Amarillo on the Rock Island line.

The two and a half inches were at McLean. One and a half inches fell at Vega but the rain slackened toward Amarillo and one-fourth of an inch registered at Wildorado. Other cities to receive precipitation were Texhoma, one half an inch; Alanreed, one inch; Conway, one-fourth; Groom, one inch; Middletown, one-half an inch; and Shamrock, shower. Dalhart and Nara Visa, N. M., both received one-half an inch.

Old Settlers—

rection of E. H. Watt and W. C. Bridges and with a few alterations and additions was carried out generally as published in The News last week.

In the absence of Judge Fires, the address was made by County Attorney R. Y. King, who spoke in appreciation of the character and achievements of the pioneers of early days who made the present civilization possible.

One of the very enjoyable features of the program was a trio, "Beautiful Texas," sung by Mr. Duggan, Miss Duggan and Mrs. Joe Crawford. Later these singers with another of the Duggan girls sung some religious songs to the very great delight of the audience.

Odos Caraway of Clarendon was introduced and made an appeal in the interests of humanity for the support of the $20,000,000 relief bond issue which comes before the voters of Texas on Saturday, Aug. 26th. Mr. Caraway recently attended the general meeting of relief workers at Austin where the desperate situation facing Texas this winter was outlined and where it was unanimously agreed that the bond issue was an absolute necessity if our unemployed and destitute are not to be hungry this winter.

No gathering of old settlers would be complete without old-time fiddling and this year's picnic was bountifully supplied

Judge Lowe Quotes Court Records In Donley County In Sunday Address

The News has been asked to present to its readers a few extracts from an address delivered last Sunday at the First Baptist Church by Judge Sam W. Lowe. Space will not admit of the printing of the full address, but there are some local records quoted that will be of interest to every sincere voter in the county:

"We are told by many the one main reason why we should vote for the repeal of the 18th amendment and the legalization of beer in Texas is that prohibition is a failure. Let me say in the beginning that in the first place I am not so much concerned as to whether or not the measure has been a success as I am concerned as to whether the measure is right or wrong.

"To determine in my own mind as to whether the measure is right or wrong, I employ thinking along this line,—Does the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage add to a persons physical strength? Now do not misunderstand me, I said its use as a beverage. You cannot find one physical training teacher in a million who would recommend constant use of alcohol with a persons diet to fit them for any physical test. The foot ball player, the base ball player and the track man cannot successfully compete with his rival while under its influence. I then ask myself whether or not its constant use makes a person stronger morally and causes people in his community to point to such things as a moral example and advise the boys and girls to thus pattern after him. I ask myself again whether or not its constant use makes a man a better business man, does it cause him to exercise better business ability and therefore accumulate sufficient means to take care of himself in old age. Then again I make inquiry as to whether it helps a man intellectually. If so then I think a man should be able to do his best and sanest thinking when he is the drunkest. Finally I come to another point that I cannot get away from and that pertains to the spiritual side of life. Does its use better fit a man to be instrumental in spreading and advocating the cause of Christianity?"

"After that I have made up my mind on these things then I believe that I am in a position along this line. There were a number of fiddlers present and they were all at their best. Headed by W. C. Reeves, W. E. Walling, Ralph and Vernon Davis, Nolan Woods, Everett Rodney, Tom Clark, there were no old-time tunes neglected and every body's feet were set agoing. The older group present gave an exhibition of the old square dance as enjoyed in Donley County along in the 70's and 80's, and then the younger generation was called for, and proved their training by a splendid exhibition of the old dance.

At the business session the old officers were re-elected: W. I. Raines, President; M. W. Mosley, Vice-President; Mrs. O. H. R. Curwell, Secretary; and E. H. Watt, program chairman. The date of the picnic in 1934 will be set according to the rule passed at the 1932 meeting when it was agreed that the event should be held on the Friday before the 3rd Sunday in August. A collection was taken to pay for the permanent platform and other improvements of the grounds and $27.90 was realized. The commissions on the grounds netted the treasury another $10.90.

F. G. Patching of Clarendon was the oldest resident of the county present, having lived here fifty years. Buster Caldwell with a record of forty-five years was next and was joined by a number of others in that enviable standing.

The Clarendon Band was on hand to render peppy music throughout the day and added much to the spirit of the occasion. The attendance voted unanimously for the Band to come again in 1934.

The entertainment in the late afternoon was a bronc riding exhibition staged by the Hedley Bronc Busters with such riders as Loyd Hess, Harold Barnett, and "Fatty" Offiel.

As usual the main feature of the picnic was the dinner—a good old-fashioned Donley County spread, and for the big crowd an extra forty-feet of table had been prepared but the good things overflow and food had to be spread on the ground beside. There are no finer cooks than in Donley County and it would be impossible to find a fuller and more sumptuous exhibition of the culinary art than at this annual feast.

A large attendance in 1934 is expected as the natural result of this most successful affair.

to answer the best I can arguments that might be advanced by the opposite side. Please bear in mind that as state I am not in favor of the repeal of any law because it is not successfully enforced. We do not have a law in our land that is successfully enforced. We have laws against theft, still we have had stealing going on since the creation of man. We have laws against this and that but we have violations of them. It is just as good an argument to say that our laws against murder, theft, adultery, burglarly cannot be successfully enforced and for that reason let's legalize them and get what the revenue we can therefrom as to say that the prohibition laws are not successfully enforced, therefore we should legalize it and get the revenue.

The remainder of my time I will show reasons and quote authorities revealing the fact that this thing is better enforced than they would have you believe.

"First I am going to begin at home since we are going to vote on the question as to whether we will permit the sale of beer in Donley County. Last Thursday I took the time to run through some of the records of this county before the days of local option in this county. I found that in 1902 just before the county went dry that there were 42 criminal cases filed in the County Court of Donley county. I compared this with an equal period of time thirty years later when we have more than five times the population as then and find that we had 49 cases of a criminal nature filed in county court. Now let's see: In 1902 there was one criminal case for each 65 people in the county and now there is only one criminal case filed for each 245 people in the county. I am frank to tell you that two drunken men on the streets of Clarendon would attract more attention now upon any Saturday afternoon than ten would have before the county went dry. It was a rare thing for a man to be arrested for drunkenness then. In some localities (I do not know how it was here) he was placed in some high inclosure to sober up.

"In the Amarillo News of last Wednesday there appeared an article written for the wet forces stating that within the last 12 months there had been a large number of arrests for drunkenness in Potter county. All of which I am sure is very true and I am sorry that I do not have the records from that County stating the number before the county voted dry, but I do have the records on some other Texas cities which will illustrate my point just as well. I will quote you some figures from Wichita Falls: 'In Judge Gibbs Justice Court, covering 5 months just immediately before the city went dry we find that during the saloon days there were 334 arrests for drunkenness and book number 9 of the same court record shows that for 13 months after prohibition when into effect that there were only 34.'

"The city of Dallas, although it is three times the size it was in 1911, had 4800 cases of drunkenness in 1911. This shows a decrease of 5200 and at the same time had three times as many people. In 1903 New York, according to official records had 47,000 arrests for drunkenness and in 1930 with an additional population of more than a million people it had only 12,000 arrested. And still they tell us prohibition is a failure.

"The census report, page 31, table 12, reveals the following figures in comparing crime in the U. S. before and after the passage of the 18th amendment. If this census report is correct the total of all crime in the U. S. decreased from 1910 to 1923 to the amount of 37.7 per cent. It also shows that crime among children under 17 years of age, based upon each 100,000 children in the U. S., decreased from 222 to 126 from the years 1910 to 1923, five years after the passage of the 18th amendment. And we are told that there is more drinking and misconduct among the boys and irls than during the days of the saloons, but I desire to tell you that authentic records do not bear out such a statement."

MRS. EDGAR BRITAIN IS IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Mrs. O. L. Fink and son, Kenneth, were notified here by long distance Thursday night of an automobile accident to their daughter and sister, Mrs. Edgar Britain, nee Florence Fink, which occurred near Jacksonville that afternoon, in which she suffered a broken arm. Friday they were notified that an infection had set in and in response left immediately for Jacksonville where the injured one is in a hospital.

The News is in receipt of a message from Kenneth Fink, written Sunday, which reads as follows: "We arrived here at 2:30 a. m. Saturday. Florence and four other girls in her new car hit a truck Thursday p. m. which turned left left as they went to pass it. Car turned over four and a half times, total wreck, none hurt but Florence. Both bones in left arm broken just above the wrist. Infection set in late Friday. Dr. said she might lose the arm. But arm is lots better today. Not hurt otherwise. Truck not damaged at all. I am assured as soon as safety of arm is assured. Mother will remain here.—Kenneth.
