

County Leaders For Centennial Will Plan Drive

Plans to Get Million Signers To Millions Will Be Outlined At Friday Meeting.

Plans for launching the county unit of the Texas Centennial Club will be outlined Friday afternoon when the members of the committee will meet at the Carnegie Library for a conference beginning the actual campaign of the city and county for signatures to the pledge that has been prepared by the state Centennial committee. T. R. Havins, campaign chairman, issued a call Tuesday for a Friday conference and urges county leaders to be present for the meeting. Leaders will be instructed as to the method of procuring signatures and the importance of obtaining signatures and the importance of obtaining signatures and the importance of obtaining signatures.

Havins last week accepted appointment as campaign chairman by Mrs. H. F. Mayes, county board chairman. Mr. Mayes has in turn appointed group men who will direct solicitation of signatures among citizens of the county and city in their respective groups. Almost every organization, social or fraternal, will be invited to participate in the campaign, having been named for these purposes, including all women's groups, Parent-Teachers Association, Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scouts, schools and citizens, lunch clubs, fraternal organizations, churches and others.

Printed pledges to be given to county leaders Friday afternoon, which workers will obtain signatures, follow:
I, the undersigned, hereby pledge my support to the Texas Centennial of Brown County, Texas, the purpose of which is to assist, in whatever way possible, in the preparation for a creditable Texas Centennial observance in 1936, commemorating the heroic deeds of early Texas history, and to bring about a century of unparallelled progress, to which worthy patriotic effort we pledge our cooperation in whatever service we are able to render, either collectively or individually, it being understood that no financial obligation is hereby incurred. Think—write—Texas Centennial in 1936.

The sole objective of the campaign is to enlist at least one million Texans of more than fifteen years of age as active supporters of the Texas Centennial in 1936. No special obligation is involved in endorsement. Mr. Havins and associates hope to launch a solicitation of signatures each Saturday or early next week.

Expert Tells Of Causes Of Drouth

Reduction in the amount of vegetation, particularly the decreased number of trees, is directly responsible for the increased frequency of drouths in West Texas, according to W. Chapman, engineer of the Department of Agriculture, members of the Kiwanis Club at the weekly luncheon Thursday afternoon. The old theory that rain is blown from the oceans has been discarded. Mr. Chapman stated that 50 per cent of the rainfall in the ocean, ten per cent is drawn from streams and rivers, and 40 per cent drawn from other vegetation. Mr. Chapman explained that increased rainfall can be obtained by construction of numerous water dams to hold the water in the creek beds, and through re-planting of trees, the speaker stated.

Rescued from Cellar Dungeon

Weak from hunger and two weeks' confinement in the opium-laden darkness of the cellar dungeon in which the gang that smuggled them into the United States had concealed them, these Chinese youths are shown philosophically accepting their new status as prisoners of Federal agents, who rescued them in a raid on a deserted mansion at Keyport, N. J. Three of the 18 men seized are pictured at Keyport before being sent to Ellis Island.

SPIRITUAL RECOVERY PROGRAM STIMULATES CHURCH ATTENDANCE

Brownwood pastors this week reported that every church in the city had a decided increase in attendance last Sunday and all are confident that the attendance will increase each Sunday during the Spiritual Recovery Campaign which was launched last week by Brownwood churches. Every minister of the city preached on the same text last Sunday, all delivering messages of love and faith, the chief objective of these sermons being to stimulate spiritual life in the community.

Although no figures are available on last Sunday's attendance at the various churches, Brownwood pastors estimate increases in attendance of from twenty-five to forty per cent.

Dr. G. C. Schurman, pastor of the First Christian Church, states that a twenty-five percent increase was noted at his church Sunday morning with the Sunday evening congregation being at least fifty percent larger than usual.
Dr. Karl H. Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is highly pleased with initial results of the Spiritual Recovery Campaign. Dr. Moore reported a Sunday School attendance of 677 with 229 attending B. T. S. services. Dr. W. R. Hornbuz, pastor of the Cozgin Avenue Baptist Church, is gratified with results of the spiritual uplift campaign and reported increases in attendance upon all services at his church Sunday.

Dr. William H. Foster, pastor of First Presbyterian, Rev. I. K. Floyd, pastor of Austin Avenue Presbyterian, Rev. P. E. Chappell, pastor of First Methodist also are most enthusiastic about the "Go To Church" or spiritual recovery program, all reporting increases in attendance Sunday.
Pastors of all Brownwood churches will again preach on the same text, John 3:16, Sunday, as they will for the next five Sundays.

Service League To Give Holiday Dance

The Junior Service League will sponsor a Thanksgiving dance on Wednesday night, November 28, at the Hotel Brownwood Roof. Ligon Smith's original orchestra will furnish the music. This is one of the most popular dance orchestras in the Southwest, and the dance is expected to be one of the largest held here in some time.
Proceeds from the dance will go to the various charity enterprises of the Junior Service League.

REHABILITATION TO BE DISCUSSED HERE AT 2-DAY MEETING

An extensive rural rehabilitation program in Brown county is being planned and will be carried out by Emory Franklin, rehabilitation agent for Brown and Coleman counties. Mr. Franklin plans to be at the Brown county relief office Thursday and Friday of this week to discuss rural rehabilitation with anyone interested in this phase of the federal government's relief program.

The purpose of the rehabilitation program is to take families off county relief rolls and place them on small but self-sustaining farms, thus giving them a new start in life. Only men who are experienced in farming and who are worthy in their desire to help themselves will be selected to participate in this program.

Property owners interested in this program and who have a vacant house and as much as fifteen acres of tillable land available are asked to confer with Mr. Franklin, Texas Rural Communities, Inc., will rent this land, if it is desirable, the rental payments to be in the form of permanent improvements to the property leased.
This program has been a success in Texas counties where it has been tried and has been of great benefit to both relief clients and property owners.

Three Arrested In Week's Liquor Raids

Liquor raids by Sheriff Hallmark and his deputies Wednesday night resulted in three arrests, seizure of a small whiskey still and about twenty gallons of liquor.
Clifford Musgrove was arrested last night while working at a still located about a mile and a half from Zephyr. The officers destroyed a fifty-gallon oil drum that was being used, several mash barrels, kicked over five gallons of the liquor and took one-half gallon for evidence. Musgrove's bond Thursday was fixed at $1,000.
Calvin Williams and Bob Scroggins were arrested at a barn on Penn Street last night and 38 one-half gallon jars of liquor were confiscated. Williams was arrested as he left the barn and Scroggins was found in the barn. Examining trials were held Thursday on charges of possession of intoxicating liquor and bond for the two men was fixed at $750 each.

CCC Camp Is In Need of Magazines

Officials at Camp Chester Harrison this week issued an appeal to Brownwood citizens for donations of magazines and any other reading material available. The magazines, books, etc., are wanted for the 209 CCC boys who have three or four hours daily for reading and other similar recreation.
Those who will donate magazines to the CCC camp are asked to take them to the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce from where they will be taken to the camp at Lake Brownwood.

The new postoffice at Minneapolis will have one of the longest corridors in the northwest. It will be 300 feet long.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN HONOR OF DR. POWER PLANNED BY BPW CLUB

Dr. John Power, rector emeritus of St. John's Episcopal Church, will be honored by all Brownwood Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church when an appreciation service in his honor will be held. The service is being sponsored by the Brownwood Business & Professional Women's Club but practically every organization of the city will join in honoring Brownwood's beloved "Parson," who because of his advanced age and attendant infirmities has had to retire as active rector at St. John's.

Dr. Power came to St. John's as rector early in the twentieth century and during his long service in Brownwood he has endeared himself to the citizenship as has no other public servant. His tireless work with Boy Scouts, as a member of the faculty at Daniel Baker College, as a member of the Rotary club and other organizations has been of untold value to Brownwood and this section of the state. And because of this, Brownwood is expected to gladly join the Business & Professional Women in Sunday's appreciation service.

In announcing the service honoring Dr. Power, the Business & Professional Women's Club has the following to say:

"Since Dr. Power was the first Scoutmaster in Brownwood, Boy Scouts, past and present, are being invited; since for many years he has been a member of the faculty at Daniel Baker, the local colleges are being invited to participate; since he is the oldest minister of Brownwood, all churches are being invited to take part; since he has been an outstanding member of the Rotary club, all local service clubs are invited to be present; and since he is universally loved and honored by the people of Brownwood, everybody is invited to attend."

Three Hurt In Car Collision At Bangs

Miss Dalma Martin, a teacher in the Bangs school, Mrs. Mabel Coffey and a four-year old daughter of Tom Martin, all of Bangs, were slightly injured early Wednesday morning when the small car in which they were riding collided with a light truck driven by Lonnie Cozby, a salesman. The accident occurred at a street intersection in Bangs.

Employment increased in Texas during 1933, the report showing that the number of employees in January was 123,615 as compared with 165,972 in December.

GREAT HOMECOMING FOR HOWARD PAYNE THANKSGIVING DAY

Howard Payne College is anticipating its greatest homecoming in history when hundreds of the school's alumni return to the campus on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 29. Prof. T. R. Havins, chairman of arrangements for this year's annual homecoming, stated this week. More than 2,000 invitations have been sent to ex-students of the college and in addition to this many Brownwood citizens have sent personal invitations to former students.

One of the features of this year's homecoming program will be a visit to the college by Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hardin, Burk Burnett millionaire philanthropists. Mr. and Mrs. Hardin will arrive in Brownwood Wednesday and that evening will be honor guests at a banquet. They will also attend the homecoming chapel service Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hardin recently included Howard Payne in the $1,000,000 Hardin Trust Fund, created for the benefit of a number of Baptist colleges in Texas.

A barbecue luncheon for ex-students and friends of the college will be served Thursday noon. This will be followed by meetings of various ex-students associations.

The chief attraction of the homecoming program will be the annual gridiron battle between the Yellow Jackets, 1934 Texas Conference champions, and the strong Southwestern University Pirates from Georgetown. The Jackets hope to prove to the hundreds of ex-students who will attend this game that they, the Jackets, are in reality football champions.

Mr. Havins has announced that special invitations have been sent all former athletes of the college, those who won their "H," either in football, basketball, baseball, track or tennis. And according to present plans these wearers of the "H" will perfect a permanent organization. It is planned to give all former "H" men life time passes to future athletic contests staged by Howard Payne in Brownwood. Several hundred former athletes are expected to be present for Thursday's organization session.

STOCKMEN WHO KEEP CREDIT GOOD STILL MAY GET FEED LOANS

Emergency feed loans will continue to be available for stockmen in drouth areas, provided they keep their credit good and show their intention of repaying the loans, reads a statement from W. I. Meyers, of Dallas, governor of the Farm Credit Administration.

Mr. Meyers' statement in regard to the feed loans follows:
"Stockmen in drouth areas who cannot obtain credit from other sources will continue to be eligible for emergency feed loans for their foundation herds this winter, provided they keep their credit in good standing and show their intention of repaying the loans.
"The Emergency Crop and Feed Loan offices," Governor Meyers said, "have made loans in the primary drouth areas without requiring chattel mortgages in order to make funds available quickly to have hundreds of thousands of cattle and other stock, but they have done so with every expectation that the money will be repaid."
"The Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration had dealt leniently with such borrowers, but each loan case has been carefully inspected. Farmers have shown their good faith by cooperating and not attempting to get loans when they are not needed, but of course, we cannot expect credit will continue to be available unless borrowers keep the loans in good standing and show their intention of paying the debts."

"Up to November 1," Governor Meyers continued, "over 191,000 farmers and stockmen obtained these initial emergency loans to feed their stock and about 134,000 supplemental advances have been made, for a total of $21,500,000, out of the allocation of $96,785,000 for such purposes. On an average of about $1,250,000 a week is being loaned to feed cattle and other stock, and during the winter additional credit will be available as needed if the borrowers keep their credit good and show their intention of paying their debts."

The Brownwood Chamber of Commerce devoted the entire luncheon hour Wednesday to a discussion of highway matters. The directors discussed the advisability of sending a delegation to Austin Monday, November 26, to appear before the highway commission and ask for the designation of a highway from Cross Plains through Brownwood and Richland Springs. It had originally been planned to send the delegation but after receiving a letter from the highway commission advising that no more designations would be made at this time, Chamber of Commerce officials have been undecided about the Austin trip. Even though the delegation is not sent, representatives from Brownwood will join other delegations in asking that gaps in federal highway 67 be paved.

Farmers in Bailey county have found that alfalfa is a good crop for the shallow water district. A large increase in acreage was made in 1933 and indications are that an even larger acreage will be planted in 1934. Several farmers are preparing their retired cotton acreage for seeding to alfalfa this fall.

A man drowned himself recently at Baltimore by wading out into a river until the water closed over his head. Two policemen fired shots over his head in an effort to stop him.

Brownwood Student May Be Selected As New Rhodes Scholar

William Malcolm Logan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Logan, of Brownwood, is one of the three candidates from the University of Texas for a Rhodes scholarship. The others are Wickliffe Fisher, of Austin, and Richard West, of Cisco.

Applications of these three candidates and those from other Texas schools will be considered at a state committee meeting on Rhodes scholarships at some Texas city early in January. This committee will select two candidates to represent Texas before a district committee. There are eight districts in the United States and each is allowed to appoint four men for study at the University of Oxford in England.

Winter Grain Crop Assured By Rainfall Followed By Winter's
Coldest Weather.

Frequent and almost continued rains that have fallen in Brown county since Wednesday, November 14, have been of inestimable value to farmers and stockmen of Brown county. Approximately three inches of rain had fallen in the county through Thursday of this week and as a result the prolonged summer drouth has been completely broken. Fields and pastures have been thoroughly soaked, livestock water has been replenished and farmers state that grass and weeds have sprung up almost over night. This will provide some winter pasturage for cattle.

Farmers who had planted their winter grain crops in the "dust" will receive untold benefit from the week of almost incessant rain. These crops are expected to grow rapidly, thus providing winter grazing for cattle. In some communities little of the usual fall plowing had been done because of the drouth. Farmers in these communities are now waiting for their land to get dry enough to plow.

The week of rainfall was followed by the year's coldest weather. A brisk norther struck late Wednesday and Thursday morning was the coldest of the rapidly approaching winter season. Freezing weather was the forecast for Thursday night and Friday morning.

TAX PENALTY TO BE REMITTED BY CITY

Mayor W. H. Thompson, of Brownwood, has announced that all interest and penalties on delinquent city taxes will be remitted if property owners pay their past due taxes on or before January 1, 1935, this announcement being in accordance with an order passed by city council last week remitting interest and penalty payments.

City officials have taken this action in order to save city property owners money and to bring in funds immediately and many taxpayers are expected to take advantage of this saving. The order remits payment of six per cent interest and a ten per cent penalty on past due taxes.

The city of Brownwood is now carrying on an extensive water mains improvement program and if sufficient delinquent taxes are collected this work can be continued. In addition to affording employment to needed laborers, the improving of the water mains system will lower the fire insurance rates in Brownwood, thereby effecting an appreciable saving to property owners of the city.

Due to the failure of the last special session of the Texas Legislature to pass by two-thirds majority a bill remitting interest and penalties on state and county taxes, this law does not become effective until February 9, 1935.

Rain Causes Slight Rise In Lake Level

Although almost three inches of rain has fallen in Brown county the past week, Lake Brownwood caught comparatively little water. A rise of only about two feet was had as the result of the week's rains.

However, there is an appreciable amount of water impounded in Lake Brownwood and it is hoped that additional rains during the fall and winter will replenish most of the 60,000 or 65,000 acre-feet of water lost during the summer when a floodgate at the dam became jammed while opened.

A rumor of a six-inch rain at Coleman, on the Lake Brownwood watershed, Monday proved unfounded the following day when it was learned that Coleman received only a half-inch rain Monday. The rumor gained general circulation in Brownwood and was given much credence.

How much of your annual income goes to some form of government for taxes? Quite a bit, if figures compiled by Royal F. Munger in the Chicago Daily News are correct. Enough, we know, that drastic reductions in taxation are essential if we are to enjoy any reasonable return to normally prosperous conditions.

Too Much For Taxes

Mr. Munger has made an interesting point. Many feel that they are paying no taxes if their income does not reach the income tax level, and if they have little or no property on which taxes must be paid.

But, according to this authority, on an annual income of $2,080 or less—or less, mind you—the individual's taxes come to $450 per year. One hundred and twenty of this is included in your rent—the landlord pays them and passes the cost on to you. Ninety-six dollars is included in the price of your family's food—the farmers, the processor, the distributor and retailer pay them, and they become a part of the cost of everything in the grocery store. Twenty-four dollars is included in the clothing, furniture and similar items you and your dependents purchase; here again, the manufacturers, middlemen and retailers are all heavily taxed and must pass their taxes on to the public.

This totals $240. Finally, says Mr. Munger, the other indirect tax burdens that affect the cost of living are estimated to take $240 more out of your family's income. On a percentage basis, as a result, you pay twenty per cent or more of all you earn to government.

Too many people feel that the rich pay all the taxes while the rest of us get the benefits for nothing. No one escapes taxes—not one ever will. And the average man, with a small or medium sized income, would gain most from a retrenchment of tax levies, regardless of the guise under which they may be labeled.

Huey Long has announced, unofficially, that he probably will be a candidate for President in 1936 on a third-party ticket. He has discounted entirely the chances of the Republicans to elect a President, and believes he will be able to poll more votes than President Roosevelt or anyone else chosen as the Democratic standard bearer.

Huey's Opportunity

This causes many to laugh, and of course most likely it is just another publicity stunt of the kind. But seriously, few politicians in this generation have had an opportunity equal to Huey Long's to do good for his people, and possibly to become a great leader.

Senator Long undoubtedly is ruler of Louisiana. Whatever his wishes may be, they are enacted into law as soon as they are made known to a subservient Legislature. This has been amply evidenced in the past two sessions of the Legislature; in the one now in session at Baton Rouge.

Regardless of the methods by which he came into this power, it is his. Napoleon at the height of his power, Mussolini, Hitler; none had greater control over the law making bodies of their respective governments than the Kingfish has over Louisiana today.

The opportunity is boundless. Senator Long can make of it what he will—If he should, or could, devise a system of laws, a procedure in government, radically different from existing systems and which would react to the benefit of his Commonwealth in times like these, he possibly would become a great national figure.

The opportunity certainly is there. Seldom in the history of this country has there been greater need that something entirely new should be tried. But unfortunately, Mr. Long does not possess the natural ability, or possibly does not have the interests of the people enough at heart, to enact sufficient beneficial legislation to remedy the situation confronting his people, in common with the people of other states.

His debt recess, like his cotton reduction program of another year, very likely will have the opposite result from that his people desire; his chain store tax may not be what is needed. But Huey's in the saddle today. If some of his wild schemes click, he may become an important factor in our national government. If he just had a little more weight he would almost be a sure shot.

Two matters of legislation that so far have been shunned by economists are becoming so increasingly important that both now appear certain to become a part of our laws and scheme of life before many years have passed. They are old age pensions and the sales tax. Both seem to be on the border line of dangerous measures, but whether we like them or not, they are almost with us. And will be here in the not too distant future.

Two Certainties

Old age pension measures have caught the public fancy during the past few months. Some sort of measure providing payments to the aged will be introduced in the next session of Congress. It will be only a matter of time until it is adopted in some form. Now the idea flourished under the favorable influence of the administration.

The sales tax, studiously avoided by state politicians during the past campaign, is sure to come in Texas as well as in other states. Real estate always has been the basis of all wealth. Under our present economic system it very likely will remain such. But taxes on real estate have risen to such an extent that people shun ownership of real property. The unhealthy condition which results is sure to bring on some new method of taxation to replace the ad valorem tax. It will be the sales tax.

An interesting example of the reward of faith is contained in news dispatches from Ohio, where two inmates of a county poor farm have promise of returning to the prosperity they once knew.

Faith Renewed

Two old time "wildcatters," 69 and 61 years of age, refused to admit defeat, although both were paupers and were wards of the county after numerous reverses in the Central Ohio oil fields had stripped them of worldly possessions. They decided to continue their wildcat activities. So, borrowing an old drilling machine, borrowing money from the farm superintendent to record the lease they obtained from the commissioners court, they set to work to drill for oil on the poor farm. They mined coal themselves from an abandoned mine on the farm, and finally pushed a well down 500 feet, where they struck oil.

Now a second well has been brought in, and the Pauper Oil Company is duly incorporated. It seems to be on the road to prosperity—and the county is to reap the royalty, the superintendent to get one-eighth for his small loan, and two old men are extremely happy.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

Fifty Famous Frontiersmen by ELMO SCOTT WATSON

One of the "Long Hunters"

HE SIGNED his name "Caspar Mansker," but you'll find him referred to in frontier history as "Caspar Mansko," as "Gasper Mansker" and as "Caspar Mansco." But whatever the spelling of his name, the fact remains that this German-American (who was probably born in some "Pennsylvania Dutch" settlement early in the Eighteenth century) was one of the greatest hunters and Indian fighters in all "border history." He spoke only broken English but the voice of his favorite long rifle, to which he gave the affectionate name of "Nancy," was a sharp, clear crack that spelled doom for many a deer and many a hostile man.

In 1768 he was one of a party of 40 "Long Hunters" who passed through Cumberland Gap and began exploring the rich country of Kentucky and Tennessee. During the course of his wanderings Mansker discovered the salt licks in the present Davidson county, Tennessee, which were afterwards to bear his name.

After several months of hunting, some of the party returned home to North Carolina, some went north into Kentucky and the remainder under the leadership of Mansker built boats and started down the Cumberland. After a series of adventures they reached Natchez on the Mississippi, where they sold their furs, hides and tallow.

The next year Mansker was back in the Kentucky country as the leader of another party of hunters. They gathered together an enormous store of buffalo, elk and deer hides. Then a party of Cherokees swept down upon their camp while they were absent and destroyed all their peltries, whereupon one of Mansker's party carved on the bark of a popular tree this embittered record: "2,300 deer skins lost ruination by God!"

But they continued their hunting and on the banks of the Green river one day an amusing adventure befell Mansker. To his ears came a strange sound. Like a shadow he crept among the trees in its direction. Before him he saw "a man bare-headed, stretched flat on the ground, singing merrily at the top of his voice!" The singer was Daniel Boone, thus consoling himself in the solitude of the wilderness while he awaited the return of his brother, Squire Boone. Such was the first meeting of these two great pioneers.

In 1779 Mansker established a settlement near the salt licks he had discovered and to the end of his days "was a strong and helpful prop of the community whose first foundations he had helped to lay."

Fifty-three homicides and 45 suicides occurred in Orleans parish, Louisiana, during the first 10 months of 1934.

New Recognition for Women (Houston Post)

New and splendid recognition of women is accorded by the president in his appointment of Miss Josephine Roach of Colorado as assistant secretary of the treasury.

Miss Roach is to fill the place left vacant by Henry Morgenthau when he was promoted to the secretaryship upon the death of Secretary Woodin. This is the first time that a woman has ever been named to this position. It is one of the most important in the administration, and for a woman to be placed in it bespeaks the administration's confidence in women to serve in the offices of the higher brackets.

The appointment of Miss Roach will be hailed as peculiarly appropriate for two or three reasons: First, it brings into the public service a woman who has to her credit outstanding achievements in the realm of social betterment. Second, it rewards an ardent and faithful supporter of the New Deal, one who in particular has fought for the social security ideals now being advanced by the administration. Third, it brings to the treasury department an official who has had broad experience in finance and business management. Miss Roach will not be merely an ornament in the treasury department. She has managed personally one of the largest mining projects in Colorado.

Miss Roach was defeated for the Democratic nomination for governor in Colorado a few weeks ago when she ran on a New Deal platform. She had demonstrated by her works her faith in the New Deal by applying its principles as they relate to labor in the management of her own properties. Colorado was one of the few States in which the reactionaries won in the primaries. Miss Roach made a deep impression upon the whole country by her campaign, however, and the administration honors itself by giving recognition to her.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Mount Vernon—"There's not a tubful of Bermuda grass on the entire 28 acres of my land that was thoroughly sodded in 1932." M. D. Reynolds of the Glade Springs community in Franklin county told V. O. Teddlie, farm demonstration agent. After an absence of 13 years, Mr. Reynolds moved back to his old home place and found it completely sodded with Bermuda grass and resin weeds. As a result of his effort to kill the grass and cultivate the land, he raised a bale of cotton per acre in 1933. This year there has been the worst drouth the county has ever known, but Mr. Reynolds has harvested 20 bushels of corn per acre, 15 loads of peanuts on four acres, five loads of peavine hay, five loads of sorghum hay, and has made one-third of a bale of cotton per acre.

Wellington—Alfalfa is a valuable feed crop in Collingsworth county, Edgar Wischkaemper reports to John O. Stovall, farm demonstration agent. After cooperating in the 1933 plow-up campaign, Mr. Wischkaemper decided to plant 50 acres to alfalfa on a narrow strip of land one mile long. The land is sandy loam and lies along a ravine; it is usually flooded during heavy rains. About 18 pounds of alfalfa was planted per acre last September. Mr. Wischkaemper reports that on October 12 he had made four cuttings of 4400 bales and that it was almost ready for another cutting of 1200 bales. He says that the net returns from alfalfa exceed that of cotton or other crops on this tract of land by a large per cent.

Goldthwaite—Although the drouth cut the yield from his three acres of apple trees at least 50 per cent this year, J. J. Cockrell of Mills county told W. P. Weaver, farm demonstration agent, that he had sold more than $100 worth on the local market. "My 103 golden delicious apple trees make this the best paying three acres in Mills county," Mr. Cockrell said. The apples won first prize at the state fair this year for the third successive time.

Kerrville—A net profit of more than $500 has been received by Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Holekamp of Kerr county from their garden produce this year, according to Miss Frances Wilroy, home demonstration agent. Most of their sales have come from tomatoes. They have sold more than 250 bushels, and estimate that 50 salable bushels are yet to be gathered.

One-half acre of ground of the farm was planted in Irish potatoes and from this small plot 3000 lbs. were harvested. In order to rotate crops, sorghum was planted after the potato harvest was complete. Mr. and Mrs. Holekamp had very little expense in seeding their crops and barnyard fertilizer was used.

Houston—"I became a pantry demonstrator because I desired intelligent directions in planning and providing an adequate diet family," Mrs. Horace Cooper Harnis, equity told Helen home demonstration agent, this in mind, Mrs. Cooper her food budget, planted her den, and canned food for the ter according to Extension S plans furnished her by Miss an. She put up 1584 containers year and now has 992 in her try in addition to 500 pounds dried, stored and cured food ned at $253.30. There are 175 ties in her pantry.

In addition, Mrs. Cooper has ovated the two rooms used as age for a canning kitchen storage space for her foods. has also made 26 pounds of set out 100 grape vines, 20 berries, 100 fig trees, 25 trees, 12 peach trees and 3 trees.

Snyder—Six hundred feet of irrigation tile for next year den have been laid by Mr. and J. W. Brown of Curry county rding to Miss Nellie Ward, demonstration agent. The y of the soil for the garden is being enriched by the appli of hulls from sipping.

Clearing the way for county activity on the improved bed demonstration this winter, demonstration club women of hour county have designate an imaginary bonfire many u objects once prized but now rorted and classed as "dust ers." NATIONAL LEGION PROGRAM ADOPTED BY LOCAL MEMBERS

The national program of the American Legion, as adopted at the recent annual convention in Miami Florida, was read and adopted Monday night by Isham A. Smith post of the Legion as part of the post's 1935 program. The national program is an extensive one and members of the Brownwood post expect to carry out the program during the next twelve months.

In addition to reading and adopting the national program, members of the Brownwood post heard reports from the recent district convention held at Llano and discussed plans for the continuing of this year's membership drive. Brownwood Legionnaires who attended the Llano meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Blagg, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Collins, Walter D. Wells and C. W. Carter. The next district convention will be held in Kerrville in February or March.

John A. Collins and W. G. Streckert made preliminary reports on the post's membership drive which will be continued until the next meeting of the post. A team headed by Mr. Collins held a slight lead over Streckert's team through the week. Both stated that indications are favorable for a large enrollment of ex-service men this year.

The national program of the American Legion, as read and adopted by the Brownwood post Monday night, follows:

Final fulfillment of the program for the adequate care and protection of all disabled World War veterans and the dependents and survivors of veterans.

Making Americanism the primary thought of Americans and the primary activity of the American Legion.

Recommending immediate payment of the Adjusted Service Certificate and elimination of interest charges.

A strong national defense, not to prevent war but to assure peace.

Profit for none and equal service for all in time of war.

Keeping partisan politics out of Legion activities.

Withdrawal of recognition to Soviet Russia and the elimination of all un-American influences from our country.

The promotion of child welfare, betterment of child labor and encouragement of healthy youth activities.

Individual and collective community service.

Federal aid without federal control where necessary to assure the proper education of our children.

Elimination of discrimination against World War veterans in government service.

Medical Arts Adds Hospital Equipment

Medical Arts Hospital is installing complete pathological and laboratory equipment thus bringing to Brownwood a service that heretofore has been available only in the larger cities. Miss Margaret J. Graves, R. N., of Bryan, has been employed as laboratory technician and with Drs. W. H. Paige and Earl Jones as supervisors will have charge of the laboratory.

Miss Graves is a 1930 graduate of Washington County Hospital at Washington, Iowa, and after her graduation there was affiliated with Iowa State University Hospital. Special training included six months post graduate course in operating room technique at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago and a ten months course in laboratory technique, electro cardiography and basal metabolism at John Sealy Hospital at Galveston. Until coming to Brownwood Miss Graves was laboratory technician and supervisor of nurses at Bryan Hospital.

Williams F. A. Officers Return From District Meet.

Four local officers were represented at the district meeting of F. F. A. officers at Brownwood last Wednesday night. None having yet reached the degree of Future Farmers they were not elected to any senior district office. However, all entertain high hopes of being made junior officers at the next meeting, which is to be the first Wednesday in January. The junior officers of this year will be senior officers next year.

The Williams boys who attended the meeting were Tillman Kinzbury, reporter; Frank Winzer, vice president; Clifton Armstrongs, and treasurer, Jenness Brown. Mr. Scott, the V. A. teacher, carried the boys to Brownwood.

Mrs. N. F. Lewis, pantry demonstrator for the Birdville home demonstration club in Tarrant county, has put up 5,419 containers of 80 different varieties of food this year. Much of this canning has been done for friends and neighbors, but more than 1000 containers are on the Lewis pantry shelves.

MAKING Smart CLOTHES

When you do your own sewing, it is important to be "up" on fashion points. This makes it easier to achieve that smart look always admired in made-to-order things. You should know, for instance, that velvets and satins are very much in the mode for winter. A satin dress will have much more smartness than the usual crepe we have been using for so long. As for velvets, every woman can thank her lucky stars when this luxurious fabric is "in"—nothing is quite so flattering or becoming. Both velvet and satin frocks should be made on simple lines as in the illustration above. Here the dress is mostly a matter of line with just a jabot-collar and flared cuffs to relieve its simplicity. Make the collar and cuffs of white satin in one of the very new metal-shot silks.

This is a Butterick Pattern and can be bought at your favorite department store.

The Burleson county farm demonstration agent, G. C. Kinz, has brought it right home to the farmers in his county that terracing means money in the pocket. A questionnaire sent to three hundred farmers for whom he has run lines for terracing asked: "Did the terraced acres of your farm produce more than the unterraced acres?" The reply was 100 per cent yes. Coming down to brass tacks, Mr. Kinz asked: "How much?" Replies for the cotton acreage showed an average increase of 97 pounds of seed cotton per acre. Those for corn showed a six bushel increase per acre.

Boy Killed When Machinery Crushes Him At Play

Robert Otto Anderson, eight year old son of Mrs. Ruth Anderson, of Brownwood, was killed almost instantly Saturday afternoon when some part of a road grading machine fell on him while he and several companions were at play. The road machinery was at the corner of Fisk Avenue and Fifth street, near the Anderson residence. Playmates were unable to tell exactly how the tragic accident occurred, other than that a heavy part of the big machinery fell on his body. He was rushed to a hospital but was pronounced dead upon arrival there. Attending physicians said that his back had been broken.

Funeral services for Bobby were held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Brownwood Church of Christ with Rev. W. L. Wharton, Jr., officiating. Interment followed in the Staley cemetery with Mtcham Funeral Home directing. The boy's broken body was laid to rest by the grave of his father, Otto Anderson, who was accidentally killed about six years ago. A large crowd attended services for the youth.

Bobby was said to be one of the best-liked boys in his neighborhood and in his grade at school. He is survived by his mother, one brother, Gene Roy, three grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Andrews and R. L. Anderson, and a number of uncles, aunts and other relatives.

Second Sanitation Program For Brewn County Announced

Another county-wide sanitation program is scheduled to begin in Brown county Friday, November 23. C. E. Boyett, county relief administrator, announced this week. This program will be similar to one conducted in the county last winter and spring with most of the work to be the building of pit-type toilet and septic tanks. As in the first program, property owners will furnish the material and the labor will be furnished by the government from county relief rolls.

About 15 men will be employed in the program to be divided into three crews. One crew will work in the May section, another in the Bangs section, and a third in the Brownwood section. Cost of material on pit-type toilets ranges from $5.30 to $22, depending on condition of the present building. The labor will cost the property owners nothing.

Anyone interested in having sanitary conditions improved on their property may get in touch with the relief office. The work will be under the supervision of County Administrator C. E. Boyett, County Health Officer Roy G. Hallum, and the State Health Department. The work also will be done on school property if the school will furnish the necessary material.

Brown county is in the district of E. H. Goodwin, district sanitationarian, who has headquarters at Waco. The district includes 12 counties.

CORN-HOG PROGRAM WILL BE CONTINUED FOR ANOTHER YEAR

The federal government, following a nation-wide vote by farmers, has announced plans for a new corn-hog program in 1935. County Agent C. W. Lehmborg has been advised by state officials at College Station. The new program will be somewhat revised from that of 1934 but basically will be the same. Mr. Lehmborg does not expect as many farmers to sign up for the 1935 corn-hog program as this year. Acceptance of new applications will be begun late in December or early January.

The 1932-1933 base, which has already been established, will be used in the new program. Hog raisers will be allowed to produce up to ninety percent of the base and benefit payments will be figured at $15 per head for the ten percent not produced. The 1931 contracts allowed farmers to produce only up to 75 percent of the base and payments were $5 a head for the 25 percent not produced. One feature of the 1935 program is that it will permit unrestricted purchase of feeded pigs, which was not allowed this year.

Corn payments in the 1935 program will be 45 cents per bushel on the appraised and adjusted yield, and acreage must be reduced between 10 and 30 per cent. Payments this year are 50 cents a bushel and acreage was reduced between 20 and 30 per cent of the base.

Regulations as to what co-operating farmers may plant on all the land kept out of corn production will be liberally restricted only in that they may not increase the amount of land planted to any other base commodity, according to E. M. Regenbrecht, College Station, extension swine husbandman.

Cotton acreage reduction checks totaling $6,112.30 were received at the county agent's office this week. There were 326 checks in the latest group of checks. This was the fourth batch of checks received. Mr. Lehmborg, the total amount received now being $16,922.10 with 720 farmers participating. Other checks will arrive from time to time.

HEAVY DRINKERS NOT TO GET RELIEF AID A new state relief policy, which provides that derelict heads of families on county relief rolls who spend cash grants for alcoholic liquors or in games of chance hereafter will be paid only in food and that only after they have worked out a weekly budget, has been adopted by the state relief commission, according to instructions received this week at Brown County Relief headquarters. This policy was adopted for the protection of members of the families of such clients who in the past have been victimized by failure of the head of the family to provide food and clothing with money obtained from the county relief organization.

SOUTHEAST AND SOUTHWEST MAY TAKE OPPOSITE VIEWS ON BANKHEAD ACT REPEAL

In the referendum on continuation of the Bankhead law for the next cotton year probably to be taken the second week in December, the Cotton Belt will be divided sharply, with the Southwest pitted against the Southeast. The latter section has had bountiful rains during the cotton season. In the Southwest it has been dry, save in spots, and cotton production has not been up to the allotment under the Bankhead law.

Irrespective of the referendum, cotton producing interests in the Southeastern States will move for repeal of the law by Congress, which meets January 3. Those producers have had to pay the ginning tax because of their overproduction. In the Southwest, for instance, production has been short and has benefited from the so-called tax exemption certificates, that is certificates by reason of short production, that permit ginning of cotton without paying the ginning tax.

Members of the Texas delegation in Congress are reported in much of a quandary. In the face of a short crop due to drought and other conditions which has given Texas producers the benefit of a surplus of cotton without paying the tax, many Texas producers are registering themselves in favor of continuing the Bankhead law for the cotton season of 1935-36.

Question of Moisture.
Some members of the Texas delegation expressed belief that the law should end with the present season. They were not enthusiastic about it in the first place. The plain fact is that when the Bankhead law was brought to issue, members of Congress were unable to tell what section of the country would have the moisture. As the matter shapes up on the next cotton year, the Southwest might have all the rains and the Southeast have a drought.

In face of the AAA's intention to keep the hand of Washington off the referendum, Cully A. Cobb, head of the cotton section, made two speeches in North Carolina Tuesday and Wednesday, in which he is reported to have characterized the Bankhead law as the cotton man's ark of the covenant and necessary for the proper production situation.

Whether Mr. Cobb was correctly reported will be determined as a question of fact when he returns to Washington Friday, but certainly expressions imputed to him run counter to the impartially vouchsafed by Secretary Wallace.

The letter stated:
"If the Bankhead act is to continue in operation in the next crop year the Secretary of Agriculture must first find that two-thirds of the persons who have the legal or equitable right as owner, tenant, share cropper or otherwise to produce cotton on any cotton farm or part thereof in the United States for such crop year favor a levy of a tax on ginning of cotton in excess of an allotment made to meet the probable market requirements."

The Secretary added:
"Cotton farmers have had one season's experience with the type of control embodied in the Bankhead act. Numerous difficulties obviously have been encountered. It is reasonable to expect that, with more latitude in the act for the coming year, many of those difficulties can be avoided. But it is for the cotton farmer to choose."

Stressing that the cotton adjustment program is to continue during the next season, Secretary Wallace proclaimed hands off of the Bankhead referendum and more marked attention being given to the matter of the export market.

Pool for Certificates.
In order to aid cotton farmers who have an excess of tax exemption certificates the department established a pool for their sale. The certificates represent production to which such farmers would be entitled had they made their full allotment. This is applicable particularly to States west of the Mississippi River. Up to date, the pool has handled certificates equal to 635,000 bales of cotton and upon which it has already collected more than $5,000,000, which will be distributed to farmers that did not make their Bankhead allotment. The value is around $20 a bale with administrative expenses deducted.

The pool has authorized sale in eighteen of the nineteen cotton producing States. The November report, for example, indicates a crop for Texas of 2,390,000 bales while the Bankhead allotment for producers of that State is 2,327,530 bales.

This would indicate that Texas would not only not have to buy cer-

MANY HUNTERS BRING BACK VENISON FROM HILL COUNTRY TRIPS

Between thirty and forty deer and a number of wild turkeys have been bagged by Brownwood hunters since the season opened Friday, November 16. A number of hunters killed their limit during the first few days while other less fortunate ones had to remain in the deer country longer and even then failed to bring back a buck or gobbler. Other Brownwood and Brown county hunters planned to hit the road to the hill country this week-end while still others will go for a Thanksgiving hunt.

Two Brownwood hunting parties returned with eight big bucks this week. The first party to return home with that many deer was composed of E. E. Kirkpatrick, B. G. Baxter, Bobby French, Dr. R. Guy Davis, L. E. Shaw, Ed McGhee, Cub Ragsdale and Sherman McDaniel. This party hunted on the Allen ranch between Kerrville and Mason.

The other party to bring home eight deer was composed of Joe Weatherby, Walter Nelson, Arch Bucy, Walter Goodwin, Jack Knott and Tex Carleton. This party hunted on a ranch south of Llano.

Dr. J. L. Morris and Rufus Stanley were the only successful hunters in a party of six that hunted south of Llano. Dr. Morris and Stanley each got a deer. Others in the party were James Beadel, Sherwood B. Owens, C. A. White and G. B. Bohannon.

Dr. H. L. Locker returned home early this week from Real county with an eight-point buck and a gobbler. Mr. and Mrs. Seth Madison and Mr. and Mrs. Newton remained for a longer hunt.

Ernest G. Wells, Brownwood taxidermist, returned Monday night from a hunting trip, bringing in a ten-point buck, killed in the Davis mountains near Balmorhea.

Howard Becker was the only successful member of his party which was composed of Jack Betts, Neil K. Shaw, Red Ragsdale, Judson Skiles and G. W. McHan. He killed a six-point buck.

A party consisting of Dr. J. M. Horn, J. C. Aubrey, Earl Foster, A. C. Winkler, Leon Smith, John Brock and Walter Emison left last Monday morning for a hunt. They were going to the Irvin Ellisbracht ranch west of Loyal.

A party of Southwestern States Telephone Company officials and employes have returned after a few days hunting on the Dixon ranch between Junction and Kerrville, bringing back two big bucks. Those in the party were: D. T. Strickland, S. A. McKie, A. N. Johns, Chester H. Loveland, Burr Hurlbut, I. H. Humphreys, Tommie Thompson, F. Winemiller and L. V. Ford.

Walter Mosier has returned from a hunting trip in Kimble county, having bagged a four-point buck and a big gobbler. Dr. J. U. Arvin returned with Mr. Mosier, but two other members of the party, W. G. Streckert and Tod White, remained to do some more hunting.

Dr. Davis To Head Local Kiwanis Club

Dr. R. Guy Davis, president of Daniel Baker College, Brownwood, was elected president of the Brownwood Kiwanis Club at the annual election of officers held at last Thursday's weekly luncheon hour. Dr. Davis succeeds C. F. Wesner, principal of Brownwood Junior High School, as president of the club.

Other officers elected for 1935 were: R. T. Hanna, vice-president; J. Edward Johnson, Dr. H. B. Allen, J. R. Holley, J. H. Shelton, Neil K. Shaw, B. M. Bennett, and Dr. J. L. Morris, directors. The new officials will take over their duties in January. The secretary-treasurer for another year will be elected by the board of directors. W. A. Roussel now holds that office.

HOWARD PAYNE TAKES THRILLER SATURDAY; BILLIES TIE A. C. C.

No Local Games. Scheduled This Week For Football Fans.

Although they went outside the conference for competition the past week-end, the Yellow Jackets of Howard Payne won the 1934 Texas Conference football championship Saturday afternoon when the McMurry Indians very obligingly defeated the Southwestern University Pirates and in so doing definitely eliminated the only team that prior to Saturday had even an outside chance to nose out the Jackets in this year's title race. The Jackets have only one more conference engagement this season, that being with Southwestern in Brownwood Thanksgiving, and the Jackets could drop this game and still win the championship.

While McMurry was eliminating the Southwestern threat, the Jackets had their hands full with the undefeated Schreiner Institute Mountaineers. The proteges of Joe Cheaney and McAdoo Keaton staged a belated rally to defeat the Mountaineers, 19 to 13, and in so doing uphold the conference prestige and continue undefeated for the current season. The Jackets and Kerrville boys finished the first half of their argument all-square at 6-6. Schreiner took the lead in the third quarter at 13-6. The Jackets added six points to their total in this period but with four minutes to play in the last quarter the champions were trailing by one point. They launched a drive from their own twenty yard marker that ended with Taylor crashing over for the winning score.

Billies Tie A. C. C.
Daniel Baker's luckless Hill Billies invaded Abilene Saturday night for a battle with the Abilene Christian College Wildcats and had to be satisfied with a 6-6 tie, their second no-decision battle in as many weeks. The Billies scored in the second quarter and defended this lead until early in the fourth period when the Wildcats finally pushed over the tying touchdown. Daniel Baker was deep in A. C. C. territory when the game ended but was never able to break the 6-6 deadlock. Daniel Baker drove to the Wildcats three-yard line for a first down in the first quarter and went to the one-foot line on the first play only to lose six yards on a fumble on the next effort, blasting this chance to score. The Hill Billy touchdown came late in the second quarter when Pete Roach, star pivot man for the Presbyterians, blocked an A. C. C. punt, gathered in the ball and stepped ten yards for the score.

The Lions of Brownwood High took life easy last week but began their serious work Monday in preparation for their final game of the year this week, with Ranger Friday.

This Week's Games.
The Yellow Jackets will be the first team to swing into action this week. The Cheaneymen play Westmoorland Junior College in San Antonio Thursday, after which they will begin preparations for their homecoming clash with

JUDGE MILLER GIVES LONGVIEW PAIR $5000 FINE IN OIL SWINDLE

District Judge E. J. Miller of Brownwood meted out quick justice Monday in Longview, where he was called this week to try a number of oil cases in the East Texas court. In the first case before him, Judge Miller assessed two defendants the maximum penalty of $5,000 fine when he held them guilty of operating a by-pass and overproducing on one well in the Gladewater townsite.

Judge Miller left Saturday for Longview, where he is holding court this week. Next week he will hold court in Dallas, sitting in one of the district courts in Dallas county, after which he will return to Brownwood. He was accompanied by L. D. Hillyer, court reporter of the 35th district.

Following is an account from the Longview Morning Journal of Southwestern University in Brownwood Thanksgiving day.

Daniel Baker plays Southwestern in Georgetown Friday night, this being the final Texas Conference game of the season for the Billies. At present the proteges of Gene Taylor and Wallace Meyers have a record of one victory, one defeat and two ties in conference play. The Billies will return from Georgetown Saturday, rest up over Sunday and leave Monday for Kingsville where Tuesday night they close their 1934 season with the powerful Texas A. & I. Jaylinas.

Brownwood's luckless Lions, who haven't scored all season, will close their disappointing 1934 campaign Friday afternoon when they invade Ranger for a clash with the Bulldogs, rated as one of the greatest high school gridiron aggregations in Texas. Apparently the Lions are in for another shellacking. However, the Brownwood boys are in good condition for the Ranger tilt, having been idle since their game with Eastland November 10.

The first day's work in the East Texas county, which from the newspaper report was highly acceptable to the East Texans:

Judge E. J. Miller, visiting jurist from Brownwood, of the 35th district court, Monday imposed the state's maximum punishment for recalcitrant oil operators on Benny Roosth and Sam Roosth of Gladewater in a ruling holding them guilty of operating a by-pass and overproducing on one well in the Gladewater townsite, Dillard survey, and fined them $200.

The state alleged the Roosths committed the offense on five separate days and the court imposed a fine of $1000 a day for each day, set out as separate offenses.

The maximum penalty, according to Bailey Sheppard, assistant attorney general of the Longview office, was the first ruled in court here and served warning of the departments renewed warfare on violators.

F. W. Fischer, counsel for many East Texas independent refiners, represented the Roosths with his assistant, Ronald Smallwood.

Judge Miller's court is expected Tuesday to take default judgment on other cases, although the local attorney general was uninformed of their nature.

Thursday George L. Culver, doing business as the Linzie Refining company, will face charges of receiving, handling and transporting untaxed oil and in a separate count, failure to make daily

Seventeen Cars of Turkeys Move From Brownwood Market

Seventeen carloads of dressed turkeys have been shipped from Brownwood to eastern markets on Thanksgiving market which closed Wednesday. About 30,000 turkeys were required to make up the seven carloads. Growers received approximately $50,000 for birds sold on the Thanksgiving market in Brownwood. Most of this money went to farmers living in the county but many turkey growers in adjoining counties brought their birds to Brownwood produce houses.

The Thanksgiving market opened November 10 and 12, the opening price being 12 cents for No. 1 birds. The price advanced to fifteen cents within a few days after the market opened and most of the No. 1 turkeys sold through Wednesday brought the top price of fifteen cents.

Produce houses of the city have been rushed all week in preparing the birds for shipping. Many unemployed people have been given needed work in the dressing rooms.

Brownwood dealers expect much heavier selling on the Christmas market which is expected to open December 3rd. Many turkeys were too light to sell at this time and were held back to later markets. A good January demand for turkeys is also anticipated, these to be bought for cold storage purposes.

Brownwood produce men expect at least thirty more cars of dressed ed turkeys will be shipped from Brownwood before the season closes in January. For several years Brownwood has been the leading market center of the state for turkeys.

Conserving moisture that is ready in shrub beds is more important than watering them, says Mr. Charles Galloway, home demonstration club member of Shady Acres in Harris county. A loose, fine pulverized soil around the roots of the shrubs will not only hold the moisture but discourages the growth of weeds.
