HELD FOR RANSOM

Clearer every day grows the meaning of the sit-down strike, the new imported French weapon of the labor union racketeer. Are there any of us farmers who do not yet understand it?

At harvest time you have three hired helpers, among them a stranger in the neighborhood. As the year's yield fills your barns and cribs and stacks, one fine morning the stranger is missing.

You find him sitting idly in the barn among your livestock. As you stick your head in the door he comes forward threateningly.

"Get out," he says "You can't come in here. I'm on strike."

"I can't come in my own barn?" you ask. "I'll see about that."

"Don't try it," he says. "You have some valuable cows and horses here, and a good barn. You wouldn't want them damaged, would you, just because you forced yourself in where I don't want you?"

"You ask: 'What's the big idea?'"

"I'm on strike," he says. "I don't take orders from you but from my boss, who is James J. So-and-so in New York. He appointed me bargaining agent for your farm hands, and as soon as you decide to listen to reason I will tell you how much more you have to pay us hereafter and how long we are going to work."

"This is still America," you say. "You have no rights in my barn. You can't speak for the other men unless they want you to, and they don't even know you. They want to work."

"What's that got to do with it? I'm in the barn. Let's see you get me out."

Well, there you are. What would you do? I don't know but I rather think you say: "Good-bye, cows, good-bye barn!" and fill the Rat's pants so full of buckshot they would have to weigh him before and after to find out which was net and which was tare.—Walter B. Pitkin in the Farm Journal.

In line with the pointed moral of the above paragraphs, millions of Texans applaud Governor Allred's recent statement that Texas will not tolerate "sit down" tactics by anybody's organization, union or otherwise. No fair-minded person will deny the right to person or persons to peacefully quit any job, but the "sit-down" plan of holding property of others is so diametrically opposed to the standards of America, that all good citizens should rise up in hot resentment against it.

The Men Who Wrote Our Constitution

PART II

Joining talents with Washington, Franklin, Madison and Hamilton in drafting the document which has given us a democratic form of government for 150 years was a galaxy of lesser lights in history, but of no less capabilities.

This group included Robert Morris of Pennsylvania, financier of the Revolution, without whose aid the war for independence would probably have failed; Oliver Ellsworth of Connecticut, to become third Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; the two able Pinckneys—Charles and Charles Cotesworth—of South Carolina, and with them John Rutledge of that State, to be appointed the second Chief Justice of the United States; Caleb Strong, later to be ten times governor of Massachusetts; Elisha Gerry, of the famous X Y Z Commission and Vice President of the United States; Gouverneur Morris, originator of our decimal coinage and later Minister to France.

Several of the delegates had been signers of the Declaration of Independence; some had even been at the First Continental Congress thirteen years before; more than half of them were college men—Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, William and Mary, Oxford, Edinburgh and Glasgow being represented. At least two or three were, or were to become, professors of law and two of them college presidents. The Convention was ideally balanced in its composition. There were men of original, constructive Indefinite compound of shrewdness and tact called common sense; men who, while deficient in creative power, were serviceable in critical faculty; men, also, who could compromise when necessary to obtain results; and men whose inflexible dispositions would not permit of adapting themselves to the will of the majority. All these types were represented in this historic group in which each played his particular part in consummate measure.

Both in the abilities and in the past and future accomplishments of its members, few groups have ever surpassed the one that drew up the Constitution of the United States.

SITTING DOWN ON HIMSELF

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—The battle between Gov. Allred and the legislature, smoldering ever since the 45th legislature convened, broke into the open with the definite indication from the senate, through John Redditt, chairman of its finance committee, that the upper body will not pass any radically increased tax measures, because, as Redditt pointed out in a lengthy technical statement, there is "no need for new taxes." "It is my opinion that we would be better off if no new taxes were levied at this session," he said. "Why the necessity of levying and collecting many taxes unless there are needs for the adequate maintenance of proper agencies of government? Texas has the greatest opportunity of any state in the union by continuing its policies of economical administration of government and fair and equitable tax problems."

The actual needs, Redditt said, will be determined by the fate of the many tax remission bills. Gov. Allred has already plainly said he would not sign tax remission bills unless provision is made to replace the revenues thus diverted from the state. He backed this up with a veto of the Harris County flood control remission bill. If he continues this policy, and vetoes the other tax remissions, and the senate sticks to Redditt's policy, it is fairly obvious that Allred's ambitious plan of raising $13,000,000 a year new revenue is definitely dead.

Confidence Shaken. Observers here agree that Allred's handling of the legislature has been far below the governor's usual skillful diplomacy. His first message, advocating enormous new tax measures, after he had stumped the state during the summer declaring there was no need for new revenues, was a shock to the legislature. The governor's candidate for speaker, Bob Calvert, won without opposition, and he apparently had a dominant position in the house, and, with new blood in the senate, a good chance to control there, too. But he forced his luck too strongly. His early messages, many here believe, were couched in rather harsh and undiplomatic language. Many members resented his flat declarations that he would veto certain measures, before they were passed. His house control cracked when he fell out with the pension liberalization bloc. The senate resented his unusual course in appearing on the floor and at committee meetings to force action of the race-betting repeal bill, although a heavy majority favored repeal. The lobbyists took skillful advantage of the situation, and fanned the fires of resentment. The net result is the regular session will probably not solve what Allred has described as a financial crisis, little actually will be accomplished, and one or more special sessions are strongly in prospect. Whether the state is better or worse off for this session is, of course, a highly controversial question. But a good many sound thinkers believe the less the session does, the better off the state will be, and the better opportunity it will have to complete economic recovery, without burdensome new taxes of debatable necessity.

Another Highway Fund Raid

The highway department, operating on a cash basis and spending sizeable sums of money, is continually subjected to attempted raids on its funds. The newest attack, chronicled in this column last week, had to do with a practice of certain small counties of issuing script for purchase. This script was then peddled about at a discount, in neighboring large counties, and used by buyers to pay for auto licenses at less than their neighbors have to pay. Under the law, small counties with less than $50,000 annual income from auto licenses, keep all this revenue, while sums over $50,000 go, on a graduated scale, partly to the highway funds. Diversion of registration from large counties to small counties obviously cuts down the department's road building funds, which amounted last year to about $5,770,000 from this source. The highway department took steps to curb the registration of cars in counties other than those in which the owners actually lived. Meanwhile, the house permitted the introduction of a bill to legalize registrations in counties other than those in which the cars are actually owned. Friends of good roads are preparing vigorously to contest the bill, pointing out that such a plan would endanger a fund almost equal to the state's share of the $15,000,000 of federal-state highways now being built each year; that it would endanger federal aid, because federal authorities are becoming impatient with states that divert motorists' tax money to purposes other than highway building; and that it would take a substantial part of all funds now available for building strictly state roads, on which no federal aid is obtainable.

Notes

Sen. Claude Westerfelt, of Dallas, gets tired of hotel food, so his charming wife, Nell, installed a tiny electric grill, on which she cooks biscuits "like mother used to make," broils bacon and scrambles eggs, in their hotel room. An invitation to breakfast with the Westerfelts is highly prized by Austin gourmets. Rep. "Red" Harris, of Dallas, is celebrating the arrival of a fine new son, his first-born, and as red-haired as his dad. . . . Members of the house appropriations committee put Maj. R. J. Parten, Houston oil operator and Texas U. regent, "on the spot" when he appeared to urge more liberal appropriations for the university. Parten frequently heads the independent oil men who appear to protest against higher oil taxes, and the committee professed wonder that he would favor more spending of state money. . . . The board of control is in a stew, trying to iron out a conflict regarding dedication of the $500,000 San Jacinto memorial at Houston. It seems that through somebody's mistake, both Jesse Jones and the Texas Masonic Grand Lodge were both invited to lay the cornerstone. Jones controls the federal money the monument is being built with, and the Masonic brothers cast a lot of votes, so the board of control doesn't want to offend either party. . . . The fate of the racehorse repeal bill now depends entirely upon the parliamentary skill of its backers. It has a low place on the senate calendar. If they can get it up, it will pass overwhelmingly. If its opponents can keep it off the senate floor, the bill is dead for this session. The governor is reported to have declared he will resubmit the repeal measure at a special session, if it dies this time.

Mrs. Lennie Cauthen, Mr. and Mrs. Frio Walling, Mr. and Mrs. U. Z. Patterson and Miss Hulda Jo Cauthen spent Sunday in Memphis visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Durham.

EDITOR'S CORNER

"College Week" is over, and once more C.J.C. students may begin studying (we hope). Even though numerous lessons were missed, everyone considers the time well spent...

The arrangement for the district meet at Pampa is somewhat different this year. On Saturday, April 10, boys' tennis and girls' volleyball will be held.

In a called meeting of the C.J.C. graduating class of 1937 on Tuesday, April 6, it was announced there would be twenty-nine graduates this year.

Final "College Week Activities" Proved To Be Very Successful

The concluding "College Week Activities", presented the latter part of last week, were all quite successful. The final activities included election of the college queen...

In a very heated race for the election of the College Queen which closed Thursday evening, April 1, Dorothy Powell emerged the winner...

All Fools' Banquet
A jumble of nonsense and noise was the impression one might have gotten from the All Fools' Banquet at the Clarendon Hotel on April first night.

Mr. Drennan was first on the program with a response to a speech that had not yet been given. He became eloquent, near, oratorical, and agreed with everything the speaker had not yet said.

Talent entertainers were Avis Lee McElvany, Bobby Leathers, Mary Lois Hayter, Pauline Carlisle, Helen Risley, Dorthea Watson. In class statistics, Nicky Stewart, reading from a high book of wall paper samples, revealed that the college enrollment is 2,000, from 1927, that is.

Dance at Powell's
Following the banquet Thursday evening, April 1, C.J.C. students proceeded to the Curry Powell home, where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Music was furnished by the best dance orchestras on the radio.

Assembly Programs
C. J. C. students as a activity of "College Week" presented a program at the regular assembly program in the College Auditorium Thursday afternoon.

Parade; Coronation of Queen
Friday afternoon the placid villagers were startled out of the coma which usually possesses them after they have devoured their noon-day meal with the downtown parade staged by Clarendon Junior College students.

"Open House" Program
Clarendon Junior College students as one of their concluding activities of "College Week" presented an "open house" program at the college auditorium, Friday night, April 2.

Mary Earthman, Winston Wood; piano solo, Viola Barker; girls' quartette, Dorthea Watson, Helen Risley, Pauline Carlisle, Mary Lois Hayter; reading, Virginia Williams; tap dance, Dorothy McCormack; guitar solo, Willard Cook, skit, Margaret Hillman, Fanny McGowan, Ruby Fronabarger; reading, Lu McClellan; saxophone solo, Nicky Stewart; tap dance, Eloise Hill; skit, "It Won't be Long Now", Ella Mae Sullivan and Randall Acord; piano solo, Willie C. Wilson; reading, Jo May Smith; vocal solo, Sarah Hendricks; clarinet solo, Lowell LaFon; piano solo, Joy McCanne; vocal solo, Mary Lois Hayter; skit, Arvin White, R. W. Bingham, Howard Strawn; piano solo, Julia Earthman. At the beginning of the program, Mr. Drennan made a short talk about College Week and the activities of C.J.C. students.

Union Service Program
The Clarendon Junior College student body in concluding their "College Week Activities" presented a program at the Methodist Church Sunday evening, April 4, at eight o'clock in a union service.

Broncho Pitches

All the teachers expressed their regret that the college students created such a disturbance during College week. Well, all we have to say is that it was disturbing mostly because the high school students couldn't bear the thought that they weren't getting out of any classes and having a good time in general.

That dramsy look-in Dorothy Nell Baker's eyes is caused by anticipation and remembrances of her boy friend's week-end visit. It's getting to be a habit-to wake up on Monday morning and find everything covered with snow. It flabbergasts Miss Blair.

C.J.C. certainly has some geniuses-witness the art and chemistry exhibits (we hope you did). Wandering thought-are all senior classes as stubborn and loud and hard-headed as that of 1937? (By one of them).

Jane Williams is already canvassing for votes for college queen next year-so she won't have to walk in the parade is her best reason. Now that the band has their brass button uniforms, why don't they put on an assembly program? Incidentally, we think they look very swell in them.

F.F.A. BOYS HAVE REGULAR MEETING

The Clarendon Chapter of the Future Farmers of America held its regular meeting, Thursday, April 1, in the chapter room at the high school building. J. R. Gillham, local adviser, made a brief talk in which he discussed the work of an active F.F.A. organization and pointed out the fact that greater stress would be laid upon the phase of the agricultural work in the future.

Tennis, Volleyball At District Meet

Clarendon high school will have several representatives at the district meet at Pampa Saturday. Only boys' tennis and girls' and boys' volleyball will be played this Saturday, April 10.

The C.H.S. high school girls' volleyball team, winners in the county meet Saturday, will be represented in this event. Junior High girls' volleyball team won second in the county meet Saturday; only the first place winner goes to the district meet, however.

C.H.S. will have full representation in the boys' tennis. Mr. Allison announces the following boys, winners in the county meet, will make the trip: Boys' doubles, J. D. Swift, Jr., and Jessie Cornell; boys' singles, Billie Cooke.

BAND NEWS

The Clarendon high school band will play a concert on Sunday afternoon, April 11, 2:30 o'clock, at the college auditorium. Everyone is invited to this first concert of the year.

The band marched in the parade Friday wearing the new uniforms for the first time. The band was complimented very highly on their appearance and on their playing. Mr. Robbins announces the band realized a profit of approximately fifty dollars on the "domino stag" staged last Monday night. This will be added to the band uniform fund.

SENIOR SUBJECTS

Monday, April 12, will be kid day for the senior class and beware to all seniors that think they are too dignified to return for one day to their childhood appearance. A prize will be given to the boy and girl that make the best kids. The same theme will be carried out Monday night at a senior party.

The Senior annual that has been coasting along for six months has been voted out. The class decided that they had rather have a class picture. All seniors should have their pictures made within the next two weeks so that the class picture will be finished soon.

Jack Robinson was elected sergeant-at-arms of the senior class. The seniors all keep quiet now because Jack is larger than they are. Cast of the senior play has started. The play, "The Man in the Green Shirt" is under the direction of Mr. Kerby and will be presented April 30.

LOCAL CHAPTER OF FUTURE FARMERS ORDER F.F.A. PINS

Members of Clarendon F.F.A. ordered Greenhand and Future Farmer pins Wednesday, April 7. The local chapter is one of the 450 in Texas and 3,000 in the entire nation. The first years students ordered the Greenhand pin, which is a bronze button type pin, that is emblematic of the owner's rank in the F.F.A. organization.

The second and third year students ordered the gold Future Farmer pins which are the emblems worn by the F.F.A. members of an advanced rank.

MIDWAY

(By Mrs. P. H. Longan)

We celebrated April first in a big way. A large crowd from Martin came over bringing their dinner. First on program was the Junior College program that was so well rendered and enjoyed by everyone. We were glad to have them stay and eat with us and hope to have them again in the afternoon. Our boys and girls matched indoor baseball with the Martin boys and girls, the boys winning over our boys 20 to 10. Our girls won, 31 to 3, while the older ladies sat in the bus on the sideline and cheered for both sides—the time passed so quickly it was time to go home before we were ready. We invite everyone to come again. We are hoping to get Sunday School started again before long. Mr. and Mrs. Naylor were Memphis visitors Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Longan and H. M. Breedlove were dinner guests in the Pat Longan home Monday. Mrs. Nelise Robinson spent Monday afternoon with her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Longan. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Arnold and son, Gerald, from Silvertown, spent from Friday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Porter Arnold. Mrs. A. C. Arnold, who has been visiting over there, came home with them, wearing a broad smile. She informs us she is great-grandmother now. Robbie Zoe Moreland was a supper guest of Rachel Edith Longan Monday night. Mrs. Vita Warford is visiting relatives in Lefors this week. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Arnold and Mrs. A. C. Arnold visited Mr. and Mrs. John Chamberlain Friday night. Tragedy At New London

The following song was written Sunday, March 21, by nine-year-old C. M. Peabody, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Peabody of this city. The child wrote a melody for the song. It was published Friday in the Amarillo News-Globe. There was a sad, sad happening On the Eighteenth day of March It was a terrific explosion That broke many a parents heart. Nobody knows how it started But many a sad heart it filled By early in the morning Many a child was killed. In some families it killed every child And God has taken them to stay In a happy home in Heaven Where pain and sorrow never comes their way. The children were gay and happy In the school that very day But by a visit into Heaven They were called away to stay. Their parents will never see them Till they meet in that happy place Where they will meet their loved ones And see them face to face. May God guide those dear parents On through this dreary life But help them to be happy again And keep them from pain and strife. JOYCE LINK ELECTED TO A.C.C. "Anthony Adverse" At Pastime Theatre

The long awaited Warner Bros. production of "Anthony Adverse," filmed from Hervey Allen's cyclopoean novel, which boast of 3,000,000 readers, comes to the Pastime Theatre Sunday and Monday, Apr. 11-12, with Frederic March in the stellar role and Olivia de Havilland playing opposite him in the feminine lead.

In its panoramic story sweep through five countries and three continents, the magnitude of its 131 sets, the picturesqueness of its backgrounds, the gigantic scale on which it was produced and the vast number of talented players in its cast, "Anthony Adverse" surpasses any pictures filmed by Warner Bros., and is said by those who have seen the preview to be the most pretentious piece of entertainment ever attempted in Hollywood.

The novel, which took Hervey Allen four years to write, was finally whipped into its finished screen form after more than two years of arduous labor on the part of nearly 3,000 technicians, in addition to more than 2,500 players who portray the many characters seen in the film.

In dynamic action, intense drama, glamorous romance and thrilling adventure, probably no story was ever better fitted for screen material. And Warner Bros. are said to have caught all the vividness, the fire and color of the original and to have transmitted it to the film.

The cast is a tremendous one in size and remarkable for the number of talented players, there being ninety-eight speaking parts, with 2,550 bit players and extras appearing. Besides March and Miss de Havilland, some of the more important players include Edmund Gwenn, Claude Rains, Anita Louise, Louis Hayward, Gale Sondergaard, Steffi Duna, Billy Mauch, Donald Woods, Akim Tamiroff, Ralph Morgan, Henry O'Neill, Pedro De Cordoba, George E. Stone and Luis Alberni.

Mrs. Roberts requested that friends be advised of this, as many in the county were of the opinion that the young boy was a New London student. Mrs. Roberts arrived on the scene thirty minutes after the accident. "Words cannot describe the horrors," she wrote.

Hero of Three Continents

The feats of "Anthony Adverse" endowed him with a reputation for genius and made his name a by-word over three continents, four nations and three of history's most colorful epochs. He is portrayed by Frederic March in Warner Bros.' thrilling production of "Anthony Adverse," which opens at the Pastime Theatre on Sunday and Monday, April 11-12.

GILES

(By Margaret Perkins.)

Reporters: Anne McCown, Gerald Bland, Frances Perkins.

Old mother nature has given us another series of moisture, of which we are very proud. Muddy today and probably sandy tomorrow; this was proven by a good snow which fell sometime between two and three o'clock Saturday night.

In this land of sunshine, snow, sand and rain, nothing slows up activities. This was proven by a party Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tims.

All reported an excellent time. B. H. Stotts of Giles and Elaine Abernathy were united in marriage recently. The bride was a student of Hedley high school. The groom attended school some at Giles.

Giles high school students are looking forward to a trip to Palo Duro Canyon this week-end. We hope the weather is somewhat fitting our plans.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mills were guests in the F. M. Perkins home Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Chester Hill and Mrs. Beatrice Johnson were united in marriage here recently.

Four Charged With Robbery in Amarillo

Charged with robbery after they had allegedly "strong-armed" a 70-year-old Amarilloan, taking $20 from him, Toliver Towles and Alvin Ash, reputed police characters, are held in Potter County jail in lieu of $1,000 bonds.

The pair, and two girl companions, were arrested Wednesday, March 31, in Amarillo, on complaint of J. B. Igo, who said the two men had forcibly taken his money after driving him into the country in their truck.

The four were apprehended by Police Officers Sales Coffey and Sid Harper after their truck got stuck in a mudhole.

Justice of Peace C. W. Carder this morning set $1,000 bonds for each of the two women, Lily Summers and Lily Mae Allard, both former residents of Clarendon.

The specific charge against the two men and the women is "robbery from person." It is a felony.

Assistant District Attorney Jim Lumpkin, who investigated the case and took purported statements from the two women, said the case would be presented to the grand jury immediately.

Igo told police that while at a Fourth Avenue cafe Wednesday afternoon he was offered a ride home by two youths in their truck. Instead of going south, however, the truck headed north, he said.

"When I protested that we were going in the wrong direction, they told me they would take me home after a little ride," the 70-year-old man related.

MIDWAY SCHOOL NEWS

(By Pearl Derrick)

April showers bring May flowers. Well, what will April snow bring?

Wednesday night, April 14, there will be a program presented at Midway school house. Everyone is invited to come. Mary Sue Stone is matched with one of the Goldston girls in an arithmetic contest. We're betting on you, Mary Sue. We will have an old-time spelling contest.

April first was celebrated with many April fool tricks. Otha Koontz and Lillie Talley were absent from school Monday.

Martin came in high April first to celebrate with us. They brought their dinner and we had a picnic. There were two games of baseball played. Martin boys won 20-10, then Midway girls won 31-3. Martin enjoyed the college program with us Thursday morning.

Saturday our girls played a tight game of baseball with Windy Valley, but lost the game. The score was 24-23.

Can you guess who this is? A very popular girl, about five feet, two inches tall, blonde hair, blue eyes, medium weight, and always wanting to go to Martin. Who is it?

A very good athlete, about five feet and five inches tall, blonde hair, blue eyes, and a member of the 1937 basketball team. Who is it?

You can laugh off your old doubts about warm-weather engine oiling, because Oil-Plating is so terribly hard to rub off, scrape off or burn off.
