Donley County Old Settlers Hold Enjoyable Meeting At Tate Grove

Old Settlers of Donley county had a very enjoyable day at Tate Grove east of Hedley last Friday, although the crowd was somewhat smaller than usual.

S. W. Lowe made the welcoming address and J. Claude Wells of Memphis made the response. C. O. Hill of Hedley addressed the crowd in a manner that was very appropriate for the occasion and Newt Waldron lead the group in singing. A large portion of the program was unable to make arrangements to attend but a very enjoyable day was reported by those present.

The new officers elected for the coming year were: M. W. Mosley, president; R. E. Mann, Vice-Pres.; Mrs. J. B. Masterson, Sec.-Treas.

Two old-timers who have always taken in the occasion were present again this year. They were Mrs. O. C. Hill and (Uncle) Hugh Brown.

The new officers expressed their hope for a much larger crowd next year and are already making plans for a big barbecue dinner in 1946.

RULES FOR MAILING YULE GIFTS OVERSEAS

Millions of Christmas gifts will go overseas again this year to our armed forces. It will be especially difficult to deliver these gifts safely and on time, the Army and Navy, point out, unless families of service men and women cooperate in starting them off right.

The following rules are therefore suggested for mailing Christmas packages abroad.

1. If your soldier is en route home or about to come home, don't send him a Christmas package.

2. Use his latest address and be sure it's complete and accurate: name rank, serial number, organization and unit, APO, in care of Postmaster at port of embarkation. Address it—then check it.

3. Mail Christmas gifts overseas from September 15 to October 15. In the Army, this is the only time you can mail a parcel overseas without a written request from your soldier. But - -

4. If there's reason to believe he may move to a new location, it's safer to wait till you can mail your gift to the new address—even if this means asking him for a letter requesting your gift so that you can mail it after Oct. 15.

5. Use a heavy box and strong cord. (Government - approved overseas boxes can be bought at retail stores).

6. Send only usable gifts like tinned dried fruit, canned luxury foods, razor blades, fountain pens, wallets, watches, etc.

7. Don't mail perishable foods, intoxicants, weapons, poisons, and all inflammable materials, including matches and lighter fluids.

8. Your package must not weigh over 5 pounds. It must not be more than 15 inches in length and girth combined.

Navy gifts should be sent during the same period—from Sept. 15 to October 15. However, gifts destined for Navy, Marine or Coast Guard personnel may be sent throughout the year without a written request.

Mail Christmas cards any time, but seal them and put on first class postage.

STATE AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON SATURDAY

Voters will go to the polls Saturday August 25th to vote for or against four state amendments in a special election.

The election has created very little interest here and those appearing interested seem to believe all four amendments will be voted down by a large majority over the state.

As a citizen of the state of Texas, it is your duty to go to the polls between 8 a. m. and 7 p. m. and cast your vote whether you are particularly interested or not.

WORTH WHILE COMMENTS

BY COUNTY AGENT Charles G. Reed

SAVE ROUGHAGE AND GROW PROTEIN

A good supply of stored roughage and small grain pastures will ease the feed situation for Texas dairymen this fall and winter. A forecast of late maturing crops in the heavy-growing areas is one urgent reason why dairy producers should have a good stock of roughage on their places, says G. G. Gibson, dairy husbandman for the A&M College Extension Service.

Another cause for concern is the state of the nation's corn crop, he says. A good crop is indicated in parts of Texas but the acreage is small. In midwestern states, however, much of the corn will not mature unless the remainder of the growing season is extremely favorable and fall frosts come late. Whether the grain sorghum crop on the Texas plains "makes" depends upon the rain fall in the immediate future.

Gibson emphasizes that with a short supply of concentrate feeds possible, the need for more good roughage is greater than ever. Analysis shows that good hay runs about fifty per cent digestible nutrients which make up the feed which the cows use to maintain their bodies and to produce milk.

Although the season is late, Gibson says there still is time in most parts of the state to plant some of the sorghums and get enough growth before frost, if the rainfall is right, to make good roughage. Should frost hit before the feed matures enough to cut, it still can be saved as silage. He urges cutting and saving Johnson grass and other native hay crops.

The specialist also urges dairymen to plant small grains for fall and winter grazing. Oats at the best stage for grazing, he says, averages about twenty per cent protein on a dried basis. This means that one hundred pounds of green oats will furnish between four and five pounds of the highest quality protein which can be placed before a cow. Putting it another way, fifty pounds of green oats, plus necessary carbohydrate feeds will supply the protein requirements of an average Jersey cow in producing thirty five pounds of milk along with her maintenance needs.

RATIONING AT A GLANCE

By Peppy Blocker

Issuance of sugar for home canning will stop August 31, the local War Price and Rationing Board announced today.

Original plans were to continue issuance through October, but the local Board has been advised to issue the entire allotment for 1945 by the end of August so that the home canning sugar program can be completed. This simply means that issuance will be speeded up and what we have for canning purpose will be issued by the end of this month.

Most of the applicants in this county have received their full allotment of fifteen pounds of sugar per person or the amount that they asked for up to fifteen pounds. Any one in the county that has not received their full allotment and can prove need for it are urged to get their applications in to this office not later than August 30. Under no circumstances will any canning sugar be issued after the last day of Aug.

Tire rationing will continue despite end of gasoline rationing. There will be very little change in eligibility for tires. Passenger cars used for occupational purposes or for change of residence will be eligible for Grade I passenger tires but subject to quota limitations and continued proof of tire need by the usual OPA inspection. This board has been advised that there will be no substantial changes in August quotas.

The trial of Will Chamberlain on charges of murder in connection with the July 18 killing of John Naylor, opened in District Court here Monday morning and a jury was selected from the first 50 men examined.

The questioning of witnesses started Tuesday morning and only five men were questioned during Tuesday and by Wednesday noon. Those questioned were Sheriff Guy Wright; Dexter Todd, local Funeral Home Director; Sam Spradlin, farmer; Will Chamberlain and Billy Hart, local hardware employee.

Self defense was the plea of the defense. The court recessed at noon Wednesday and Judge Luther Gribble charged the Jury this morning at 9:30. At 10 a. m. the prosecution and the defense were allowed one hour and a half each to plead the case, and it was expected that the jury would leave the room to find their verdict about two o'clock this afternoon. The general opinion is that the jury will return with their verdict before the end of the day.

As in previous days, the court room was jammed with spectators.

NOT GUILTY

We have just received word from the court room that the jury returned a verdict of not guilty at 4:15 p. m.

Publication of this issue of the Leader has been delayed since noon today in order that we might be able to bring our readers the jury's verdict in this case.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton

"The Silent power of books is a great power in the world; and there is a joy in reading them which those alone can know who read them with desire and enthusiasm. Silent, passive and noiseless though they be, they may yet set in action countless multitudes, and change the order of nations."

We find ourselves wondering what new types of books will soon be upon us. Such world changes will inevitably bring us many changes in current books. Escape reading has had precedence—the effort to escape reality. That will perhaps always be true for the majority of readers. Many writers have been going back to the early history of our country for their stories, while of course there have been war stories without end. We have gotten history and geography to an extent undreamed of in the stories of the world to its farthest bounds.

There have been an unusual number of awards offered by publishers. The George Washington Carver Memorial award was given Fannie Cook of St. Louis for her novel about a negro family in a midwestern city—and this book will be published in 1946. This award remains open indefinitely for any work of fiction, non-fiction or poetry, which makes an effective contribution to the negro's place in American life.

"The Dawn of Liberation" is the appropriate title for the collection of Winston Churchill's 1944 speeches, messages and broadcasts published by Little Brown and Co.

"Woodrow Wilson: Selections for Today," edited by Arthur Bernon Tourtelot has just been published by Duell, Sloan and Pearce.

The United Services book contest, open to all past and present members of the Armed Forces of any of the United Nations is being sponsored by three leading countries—and is open till July 30, 1946. The prize is $6,000 plus book royalties and film rights which may total $60,000. It will be published in six languages.

The movie rights to "Arsenic and Old Lace" which were sold on a percentage deal, total $450,000 to date, with more to follow.

Sally Benson, author of "Junior Miss," and "Meet Me in St. Louis," is in Hollywood working on Margaret London's "Anna and the King of Siam" which John Day Co. published a year ago and which will go into production shortly at the Twentieth-Century Studios.

Kathleen Norris recently signed a thirteen week contract with CBS for the writing of the daytime serial "Bright Horizon." This goes on the air for fifteen minutes a day, five times a week—and is worth $750 a week to the author.

Mr. and Mrs. French and daughter Barbara from Robstown, are visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Todd.

Mrs. John McCracken, who has been visiting for a month with Mrs. M. M. McCracken, left Tuesday morning for her home at Clayton, N. Mex.

PRETTY PAULA BANE, USO-Camp Shows Singer (left) and CAPT. R. G. MORERE, holder of the nation's second highest award for bravery, will be principal speakers at regional conference of war chest leaders. At the conference, plans will be laid for the October National War Fund Campaign.

War chest leaders from this area who attend the United War Chest of Texas regional conference at Amarillo Army Air Field, Amarillo, Thursday, August 30, 1945, will hear from one of America's prettiest and most talented USO-Camp Shows entertainers a report on services being provided for our fighting men through agencies of the National War Fund.

At the same time, while laying the groundwork for the October war chest campaigns in Texas, they will hear from one of the nation's most outstanding battle heroes a personal account of the fighting abroad.

The USO entertainer, Miss Paula Bane, has just returned

Captain Morere is now a patient at McCloskey General Hospital, where he is recuperating from serious wounds, but volunteered to make a tour of Texas because of his intense interest in the success of the National War Fund Drive in Texas.

Judge W. N. Stokes, chairman of war chest Region 18, will preside at the conference, at which Wayland D. Towner, general manager of the United War Chest of Texas, will discuss plans for another over-the-top campaign in Texas. The meeting will be attended by war chest leaders and workers from every county and community in the region. All local persons interested in the October campaign have been invited to attend.

The conference will open at 10:00 a. m. Following the business discussion, all delegates will be guests at luncheon.

During the afternoon, the entire group will be conducted on a tour of the Amarillo Army Air Field.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Gen. DeGaulle of France has landed in our country armed with 500 bottles of champagne and a picture of Ben Franklin, so the papers tell us. Didn't bring any pajamas for with all the drinking to be done, he can sleep with his clothing on and never know the difference.

The reason that atomic bombs will not prevent war is that those who start wars never expose themselves. Taking ALL the profit out of wars would likely have a retarding effect. At least it is worthy of a trial since we hear that all others means have failed.

After all, the biggest celebration of all this war ending business is staged in the average home when a service man gets back to his mother. I mean just that, folks. No fooling, and I can prove it by all the mothers, too.

Speaking of soldiers, I often wondered why they are called "dog faces" by the men in the service until I inquired. Here is the way a service man explained the matter: "A fellow in service has a dog's life, lives in a pup tent, wears a dog tag, eats lots of hot dogs and often wears a hang-dog expression." Maybe he is at least partly right.

Some rain this week and we may have a lot more. Not too early to plant turnips and rape to graze on through the winter. If you can get the seed, plant some collards. When the flea beetle time has expired around September 15th, plant mustard. Nothing like greens and cornbread during the winter months, and rape will stay in there and pitch until March in the open.

Chemists Puzzled By Gas Pipe Corrosion

Why do gasoline pipes in one field corrode, and remain perfectly clear of any rust in an adjoining field?

Two University of Texas chemists are trying to find the answer to this puzzling—and expensive—problem, through two different channels of research.

Dr. Norman Hackerman, assistant professor of chemistry, is studying the "films" which form in the pipes, and Dr. H. T. Lochte, research chemist with the University's Biochemical Institute, is studying the organic acids found in the pipes. Both are working on research grants from the Natural Gasoline Association of America.

Dr. Hackerman's study involves this procedure: He hangs thin strips of metal (of the same material as the gas pipelines), inside the pipes in wells where corroding is known to occur, so that he can analyze the films.

He then tests the films by their reaction to different chemicals, and he will use the University's electron microscope to photograph specimens of films.

Dr. Lochte's approach is to analyze the waters from high pressure gas wells to discover the acids causing the corrosion.

Results from the research are expected by the scientists within the next ten months.

ARMY JEEP CLASSIFIED AS TRUCK—NOT CAR

Classification of the army jeep, now being manufactured for civilian use, as a truck and not a passenger car, was announced today by John J. Van Pelt, district manager of the Office of Defense Transportation at Lubbock, Tex.

In other words, unless buyers are eligible for a certificate to purchase a new truck, they will be unable to buy one of the new civilian jeeps. The new civilian vehicle was classified as a truck because it is essentially a property carrying vehicle, the ODT official explained.

Allocation of the new vehicle will be limited to persons contributing directly or indirectly to the prosecution of the war. Those eligible include farmers.

Those restrictions do not apply to surplus military jeeps sold through the surplus property board.

MRS. F. G. PATCHING HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Celebrating her 79th birthday, Mrs. F. G. Patching was honored with a party given by friends and relatives at her home in West Clarendon Thursday afternoon.

The guests were received by her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Harris of Claude. Acting as hostesses were Miss Eva Patching, Mrs. J. M. Bass Sr., and Mrs. J. M. Bass Jr. Each guest brought their childhood picture and the "picture-guessing" contest which followed was very interesting.

The honoree was charming in a rose-gray print dress and wore a harmonizing corsage. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Patching by her little grandson Johnny Fred Bass.

Good wishes and many happy returns of the day were extended to the honoree by the guests which included Mesdames Cal Merchant, Joe Horn, J. R. Porter, S. W. Lowe, S. T. Sayer, A. A. Mayes, L. S. Bagby, C. C. Powell, W. D. Van Eaton, J. L. McMurtry, Pete Kunz, Frank Bourland, E. W. Brumley, O. W. Latson, C. D. McDowell, F. G. Patching Jr. and J. C. Harris, of Claude.

GARDEN CLUB COFFEE

One of the loveliest parties this reporter has seen this summer was the Garden Club's Coffee at the Lon Rundell home Monday, August 13, with Mesdames J. F. Blocker, H. T. Warner, and John Goldston assisting the hostess.

Each month, the table of the month is presented by a member of the Club. This time, a formal dinner table, prepared by Mrs. U. J. Boston, that would have done Emily Post proud received many words of praise from the members and guests.

Mrs. Earl Alderson, guest, delighted those present with a number of piano solos. Other guests were Mrs. Sam Lowe and Mrs. Charles Bairfield.

After the meeting adjourned, the ladies inspected the beautiful home and garden of the hostess. Some of them lingered so long, there must have been a number of short lunches served to the families that day.

Besides the hostesses and guests, 14 members enjoyed this lovely affair.

CLARENDON H. D. CLUB

The Clarendon H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. Clyde Butler Friday in an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon. Some of the ladies quilted throughout the day while others pieced on a quilt. The lovely luncheon was served at 1 o'clock.

The club was opened with the members singing "America," and prayer by Mrs. Simpson. The roll call was answered with "a-ah! I have done in the way of sewing." A round table discussion was held. Plans were discussed for a club picnic to be at the City Park Sept. 7th at 7:30 p. m.

The Club will meet Sept. 21 in a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Estlack, with Mrs. A. H. Baker assisting.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Watson read the Preamble of the New World of United Nations. Mrs. Antrobus read a prayer for lasting peace by Hayden Edwards.

Those present were Mesdames Lena Antrobus, G. A. Anderson, A. H. Baker, J. C. Estlack, Ed Speed, A. W. Simpson, W. D. Van Eaton, E. Bryson, O. C. Watson, and hostess, Mrs. Butler.

MRS. ELBON NAYLOR HONORED WITH SHOWER

Honoring Mrs. Elbon Naylor, the former Miss Margaret Kidd, Mrs. Yvonne de Vlaming and Mrs. Otis Rolls entertained with a shower and tea last Thursday in the parlor of the First Baptist Church.

Receiving guests with Mrs. Naylor were her mother, Mrs. W. D. Kidd, Miss Eula Naylor, and Mrs. L. L. Wallace, sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Yvonne de Vlaming.

Mrs. Otis Rolls presided at the bride's book.

Misses Marion Harris and Ruby Jo Kidd presided at the punch bowl.

Misses Sybil Head and Dorothy Ann Kennedy furnished music throughout the appointed hours.

Ninetyone persons were present or sent gifts.

Ellis, the father; Miss Peggy Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Landers and children Mary Ann and Don of Clarendon.

CRAIN CHILDREN ENJOY REUNION

State Medical Association To Oppose Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bills

The State Medical Association of Texas will actively oppose passage of the Wagner-Murray-Dingell bills now before Congress on the ground that these measures would socialize American medicine and impose a needless burden of taxation on the public. "The bills, which include a compulsory health insurance program for 125,000,000 people would undoubtedly destroy the private practice of medicine throughout the United States," says Dr. H. F. Connally of Waco, President of the State Association. "Relationship between doctor and patient would be made a cold matter of law and the entire medical profession would be regimented. Physicians would become subordinate to Federal bureaus in Washington. The individual could no longer expect to have free choice of doctor nor the doctor the free choice of patients."

"These bills provide pay roll taxes of 8 percent on all wages and salaries up to $3,600, half to be deducted from the pay envelope and half to be paid by the employer. Self employed people must pay 5 percent of their incomes up to $3,600. This taxation would produce the staggering sum of $3,142,000,000 annually. These vast funds would be administered by a single man, the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service. Thousands of Wagner-Murray-Dingell employees in all parts of the United States, exercising power over human life and health could well constitute a tremendously powerful political machine.

"The State Medical Association of Texas believes that adequate health, medical, surgical and hospital service can be secured by the individual through the many non-profit and commercial insurance plans for such services now existing. The Association's committee on Medical Economics has recommended that insurance organizations now operating in Texas and providing such services, be listed for public approval after investigation of their financial responsibility and methods of operation.

"Texas Congressmen will be asked to vote against these socialistic measures in order to best preserve and safeguard the public health and to maintain free practice of Americanized medicine under which great scientific advances are being made."

You're Looking At A "Run-Down Heel"!

Out where the palm trees wave and they carve the air strips out of coral, the ground crews were going nuts.

It was the tires on those rear landing-wheels! Like the heels on a well-walked pair of shoes, those big tires just seemed to get an awful lot of the gaff.

Result—at one time those big rubber doughnuts were being chewed up and torn to shreds in about fifteen landings!

Suppose you had to have new heels after wearing a pair of shoes only fifteen times! It would mean plenty of expense, trouble, and bother, wouldn't it? Well mister, just multiply that worn-out heel on the B-29 by all the jeeps and peeps and planes and you'll begin to get some idea of Uncle Sam's rubber troubles!

That's why it was so important that some way be found to keep America's mechanized might rolling on rubber. America's Synthetic Rubber Program had to work out!

Well, it did work out. And one of the most important reasons why it did was the tremendous production of butadiene—essential ingredient of synthetic rubber—by oil companies such as Phillips!

Today, we know that when you see the Orange and Black 66 sign, you think of good motor oil and gasoline. In the future, when peace comes, we hope you'll remember Phillips as one of the greatest producers of wartime butadiene, and of the essential chemical ingredients for medicines, explosives, aviation fuel, and dozens of other things vital to the defeat of Germany and Japan.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

A very good friend of mine says he has spent most of his time trying to figure out how to prolong his life, but if he doesn't get the answer in another five years he's going to quit worrying about it. He was 90 this spring.

A cow, now, is much more inclined to worry about whether you are figuring out how to prolong the number of days each year she can spend in a good, rich pasture. This is a fine time to take steps to give more pasture days to your herd. Seeding of crops which will provide fall, winter and spring grazing should be done in August or early September.

In this area, barley, rye and rye grass hold preference among the extension folks for seeding in August or September, to provide this additional pasture. There are several recommended varieties of barley and rye which will do the job for you.

Wheat ranks high on the list for fall grazing in Oklahoma, also, but Missouri places barley first. Here are some bulletins which discuss this problem which you can get from the extension services as listed:

Experiment Station Circular 193, University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.; Bulletin OP-87, Bulletin OP-89 and Experiment Station Circular C-116, Oklahoma A & M College, Stillwater, Okla.*

The first thing you do before you start to shave your whiskers off is lather your face. Purdue University says you should do the same thing for your pastures. In this case, however, instead of lather, what you should use is limestone.

Liming a soil gets it ready for production, just as the lather gets your face ready for shaving. Liming "conditions" the soil—that is, it puts the soil in a favorable condition to make full use of nitrogen, phosphate and potash. It is not a substitute for fertilizer.

Use of limestone in your pasture will help legumes to grow and improve the quality of other forage plants, Missouri says. Weeds will be discouraged because grasses will take hold better and crowd them out, if the soil is "sweetened" with lime.

You can apply limestone at any time of the year. Because quarries are behind in their deliveries, I suggest you place your order now so as to be sure to get an adequate supply as soon as possible.

You'll be interested in reading discussions of lime I found in Circular 218, Extension Service, University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., and Publication 208, Extension Service, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.*

A man wouldn't give his wife a pearl or ruby or something of the sort strung on a piece of baling wire. Yet there are places where you don't see the proper setting for something which is far more precious than any jewel.

I'm talking about milk, of course. Everybody knows the dairy industry is the biggest business there is and that milk is the most vital food product produced.

Milk needs to be handled properly, which makes a milkhouse most important on a dairy farm. Right at this moment you can do more concrete planning for a milkhouse than you've been able to do for a long time.

Lumber is being released for farm construction. Before many months pass the labor situation on farms may be relieved to some extent. A milkhouse pays dividends because it provides a separate and better place for handling milk; it has a place to cool milk and it provides a proper place for sterilizing and storing utensils.

Your county agent and the fieldman from your dairy plant can help you with plans and I'd like to suggest that now is a mighty good time to get ready to build a milkhouse.

*NOTE: There usually is a 5c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state; but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.
