Cancer Crusade Will Begin April 17 In Donley County

The American Cancer Society's 1955 Crusade began throughout the nation on April 1, but will not officially open until April 17th in Donley County, according to Mrs. W. J. Lewis, Jr., Chairman for the county; however, Mrs. Lewis asked us to announce that on April 17th, between the hours of 12:30 P. M. and 4:30 P. M., a Telethon Auction will be held over Station KGNC-TV, Amarillo, for the benefit of the Texas Division goal drive of the American Cancer Society.

The method of operation of this Telethon is as follows, Mrs. Lewis stated: "We will have approximately 100 items to be auctioned by radio and television star, Johnnie Linn, who is also affectionately known as Uncle Jay. Included in the list of merchandise to be auctioned is a 1955 Oldsmobile Sedan, 1955 Chevrolet pickup truck, freezers, and many other items. Mr. Linn will offer these items for auction and bids may be made by telephone. We will have eight telephones available and the numbers will be announced over radio and TV. Out of town bids can be made to these telephones prepaid only, and of course, if the item is sold to a bidder out of town, that county will receive the benefit of the amount paid.

"We have great hopes that this Telethon Auction will go a long ways toward meeting our goal and also, will be of great benefit in the educational part of this work.

"We hope that many of you in this county will take part in this auction and help Donley County raise her goal. You will not only be helping yourself but also the American Cancer Society."

Church Of Christ Revival To Begin Sunday, April 17

A Revival meeting being planned by the Church of Christ is proving of unusual interest to members and the community as a whole. It will be the first Spring meeting the church has conducted in several years, and is a follow-up of the redecoration of the church auditorium, which was concluded recently at a cost of some $1200.

For this unusual meeting, the church has secured the services of brother Harrel A. Collard, one of the most able gospel preachers in the Panhandle, stated Bert Wells, minister of the local church. Bro. Collard preaches regularly for the Church of Christ in Childress and the church there has grown remarkably during the time Bro. Collard has been doing located evangelistic work with them, Wells added.

Bro. Wells pointed out further that large crowds are expected to gather at the church, located two blocks south of the Ford Garage, each night throughout the week to hear Bro. Collard preach the gospel of Christ, and to enjoy the fine congregational singing, led by Bro. Elmer J. Chenault.

The meeting starts Sunday, April 17, with Bert Wells preaching at both services on that day, and beginning Monday night Bro. Collard will be here to begin preaching, and will be giving Bible lessons every night at 7:30 through Sunday, April 24.

"The church plans a basket dinner at noon on the last day of the meeting, with singing at the church scheduled for 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The church members are urging everyone to come out and enjoy the meeting with them. You will be inspired with the singing and preaching. You will be treated most cordially, and will find an atmosphere of friendliness. Consider this your invitation to attend this gospel revival," Bro. Wells stated.

The committee investigated locations all along the highway and considered cost of locations and the final decision was for the rodeo grounds. This will put all the fair and entertainment facilities in one location, and the Outdoor Entertainment Association gave the fair committee all land needed for the new building.

E. S. Mr. Ballew also stated that any one who had not been contacted and wished to make a donation could mail their check to Mr. Mears and they would be placed on the donation list.

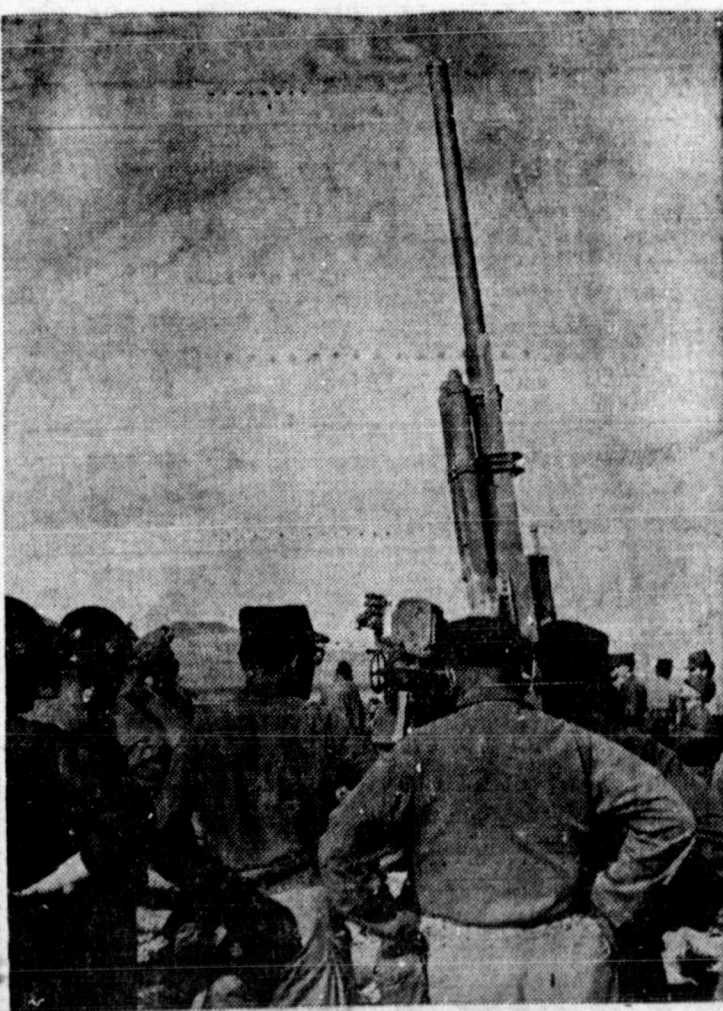

This building is for the entire county and is to further the ranching, and agriculture industry for Donley County and surrounding territory and devoted to the development of the youth of our county.

Drainage-Ditch Banks

Well managed drainage ditches provide drainage for nearby fields; however, they also can be used to produce useful wildlife. Those animals that benefit from the good management of drainage ditches are fur-bearing animals, game birds, and insect-eating songbirds. These drainage ditches provide cover and water for wildlife; wildlife, on the other hand, gets its food from nearby fields.

The first aim in the good management of drainage ditches is to plant grasses and legumes along the banks as this will provide excellent cover and food for wildlife. Many drainage ditches have willows, cottonwoods, and other trees planted in them; this will help wildlife, but it will not provide proper drainage for the fields. The best plan then is to plant grasses and legumes along the banks. However, shrubs for windbreaks provide cover for wildlife and helps to keep soil from sitting into the ditch. The shrubs most widely used in the West are caragana, chokecherry, Russian-olive, squawbush, and wild plum.

After ground-nesting birds have left the nest, it is then safe to mow, graze, or spray the drainage-ditch banks. The avoidance of overgrazing maintains a good grass cover which prevents erosion and helps wildlife.

Remember, the good management of ditch banks insures proper drainage of fields, and it

Wildlife Show Draws Crowds

AUSTIN — Attendance at the Game and Fish Commission mobile wildlife exhibit has passed the 1,500,000 mark, according to estimates reported to the Commission's Executive Secretary.

The exhibit comprises scores of fish and animal species from the Texas wilds and has been so improved over the ten years it has been operated that now Ray Osborne, an official of the Dallas News Sports and Vacation Show, calls it, "the finest exhibit of its kind anywhere."

The wildlife exhibit is scheduled for as many fairs, sports shows, fat stock shows and the like as is possible.

"The demand has become so great that we could keep another such outfit going full time," said the Executive Secretary.

He said the present project is all that can be afforded but explained that by fall the Commission's own developed television production will be available to help keep Texans posted on wildlife and the efforts being made to preserve and restore it.

Dallas News Staffer Osborne said the Commission exhibit has been a key part of that newspaper's annual exposition in all seven years it has been staged. He pointed out the exhibit provides an attractive means of familiarizing Texans with wild animals. Proceeds of the Dallas show finance local zoo operations and recently have been used to buy elephants, a giraffe, pygmy hippo, electric eels and other species. The 1955 Dallas News show runs from April 15 through April 24.

Wood-Mann Nuptials Read In Church Service

In a double-ring ceremony read Friday evening, April 8, at 6:00 P. M. at the First Baptist Church, Miss Evelyn Jean Wood, daughter of Mrs. J. D. Wood of Clarendon, became the bride of W. C. "Jiggs" Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mann, also of Clarendon. Rev. J. E. Byers, pastor, officiated.

Harold Lee Clappitt, organist, played a nuptial prelude including "One Alone" and "O Promise Me" and accompanied Miss Ruby Mann as she sang "I Love You Truly" and as a benediction "The Lord's Prayer." "Traumerii" by R. Schumann was played as a soft musical background for the ceremony.

Mrs. Charles W. Wood of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron-of-honor. She wore a powder blue dress of polished cotton with white accessories and carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanos.

Wayne Lowe of West Texas State College was best man.

Given in marriage by her maternal grandfather, W. E. Hodges, the bride was attired in a street length dress of mauve faille designed with a scooped neckline and fitted bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. The bolero and skirt were accented by rhinestones sprinkled over the jersey trim. She wore a matching hat and shoes with white gloves and carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. The traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue was carried out.

Mrs. Wood wore a navy blue street length dress with navy and white accessories and a corsage of white gladiettes. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Gilbert Mann, was attired in a gray suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white gladiettes.

After a short wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Clarendon.

Mrs. Jiggs Mann was graduated from Clarendon High School and will finish Clarendon Junior College in May. The bridegroom was graduated from Clarendon High School and was formerly employed by the J. A. Ranch.

Loans Available For Developing Good Pastures

Establishment or improvement of permanent pastures is prominent in the better farming plans of many farmers and ranchers who are improving their farming systems through Farmers Home Administration soil and water conservation loans, according to James D. Goudly, the agency's county supervisor whose office is located in Clarendon.

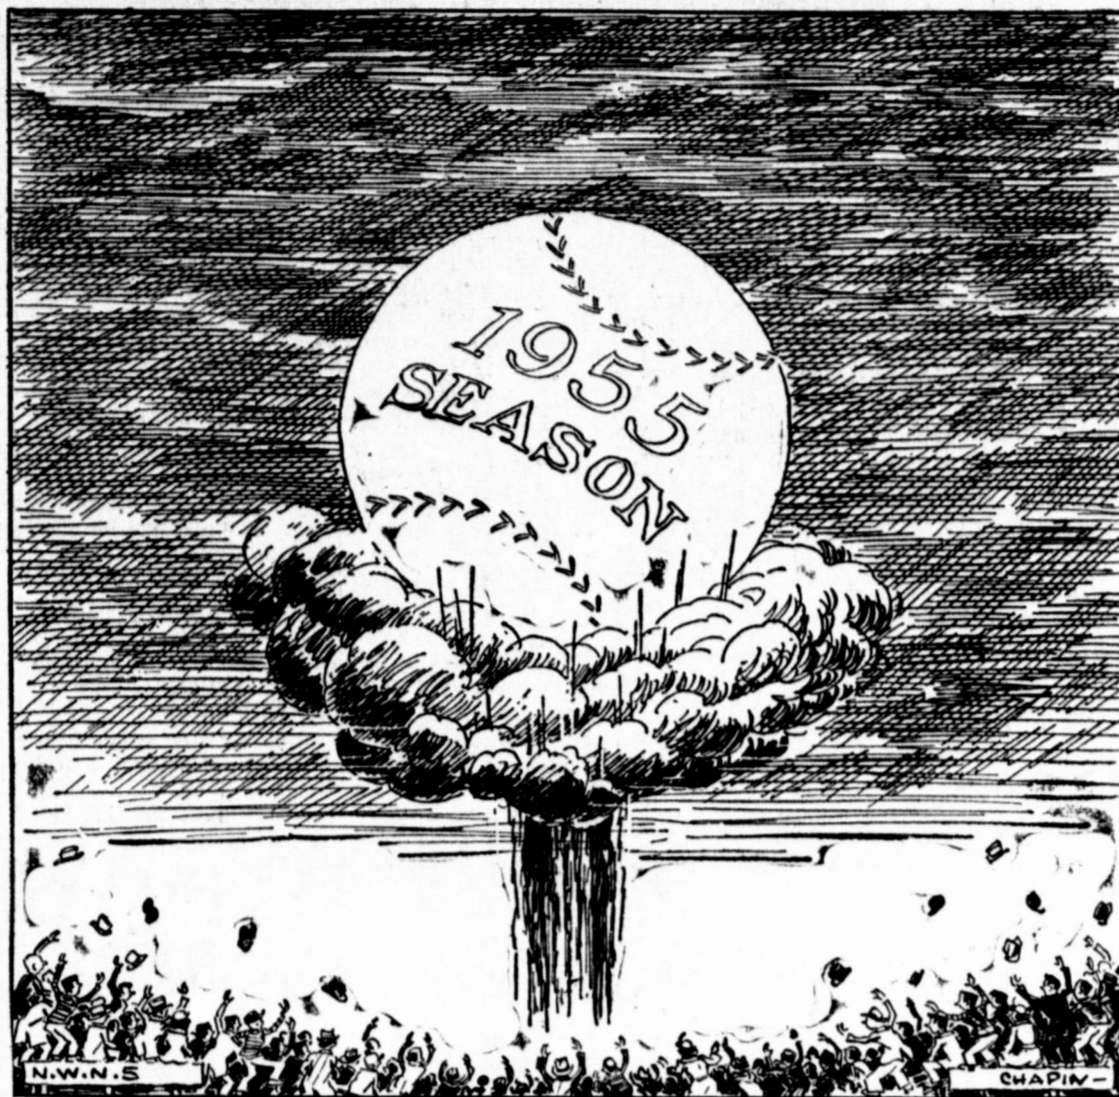

The loan funds are being used to establish new pastures or to improve those already established. Some of the practices to develop good pastures, and for which soil and water conservation loan funds are being used, include seeding with recommended grasses and legumes, proper fertilizing and liming.

Brush removal is also a practice that may be necessary on some farms.

Another use of the funds may be for cross-fencing, for pasture rotation to prevent over-grazing or damage to portions of the pasture land not ready for grazing.

Still another way in which soil and water conservation loan funds may be used in connection with pasture improvement is through development of irrigation systems. Funds may be used, when recommended, for land leveling, well drilling, and the purchase of pumps, sprinkler systems, and other irrigation equipment.

The Farmers Home Administration can make insured or direct soil and water conservation loans to individual farm owners or operators who are unable to obtain the necessary credit on reasonable terms and conditions from private or cooperative sources. Under the same conditions, the borrower may be a non-profit organization or association primarily engaged in extending to its members services directly related to soil conservation, or water development, conservation or use, or drainage of farm land.

The practices for which soil and water conservation loans are made must be in line with Soil Conservation Service and Extension Service recommendations.

Final Passage of Bill Prohibits Publishing Of Vulgar and Lewd Literature and Others

AUSTIN — The Texas State Senate Wednesday gave final passage to a bill sponsored by Senator Andy Rogers, District 30, of Childress, that will prohibit the publishing and distribution of lewd, vulgar and depraved literature, moving pictures and penny arcade pictures in Texas.

Aimed at lewd and immoral material that has been rapped as a major contributing factor to problems of juvenile delinquency, the measure was introduced in the House by Representative G. McIlhenny of Wheeler. A second such measure by Representative Pool of Dallas, dealing only with publication and distribution of comic books, was also passed by the Senate and sent to the House for further consideration.

Passed by a whopping majority in both the Senate and House of Representatives, the bills lack only the Governor's signature to become law.

"This problem of lewd and depraved literature of all kinds being placed in the hands of our children by irresponsible publishers and distributors is one that we cannot afford to shrug off," Senator Rogers said today. "Guided by enlightened public awareness and realization of the growing dangers of immorality and delinquency, we have passed a measure that can do much to solve this great problem. We realize that morality cannot be legislated. But we can help create a more healthy atmosphere for the growth and development of our citizens of tomorrow."

Texas Weed Control Conference April 28

AMARILLO—Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White is scheduled as principal speaker at the Texas Weed Control Conference to be held at the Amarillo Experiment Station Thursday, April 28.

The conference is held annually to present to Panhandle area farmers new information, chemicals and equipment for control of weeds, said Knox Parr, district agricultural extension agent. Weed infestations are on the increase in the area due primarily to longer length of time land is in cultivation and irrigation.

The program will begin at 9 a. m. with inspection of spraying and dusting equipment exhibits followed by discussions of weed problems and control methods, a panel composed of Farmer county farmers and a tour of research plots at the experiment station.

Other outstanding speakers will include Dr. Lee Coffey, associate agronomist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service; W. C. Elder, assistant agronomist, Oklahoma Experiment Station; E. H. McIlvain, superintendent, U. S. Southern Great Plains Field Station, Woodward, Oklahoma; Dr. Allen Wiese, agronomist at the Amarillo station, Jim Line of Bushland, Carl Hill Jr., and Delmer Durrett of Amarillo.

A. P. Bralley of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Livestock and agricultural committee is program chairman, and C. E. Van Doren, superintendent of the Amarillo station will welcome the group. Farmer County Agent Joe Jones will be the panel moderator, and lunch will be furnished by the Texas Weed Control association and served by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Livestock and Agricultural Committee.

Watch-Dogs Of The Tax Dollars
 John White, Commissioner Texas Dept. of Agriculture

One important item to every Texan is the make-up and operation of the 54th Legislature's finance committee—that body of senators or representatives who make appropriations and spend the taxpayers' dollars.

As Commissioner of Agriculture, I have been very much impressed this year by the constructive attitude of these committee members. Dividing up state money among the various agencies is a tremendous chore for those people. They sit in conference hour after hour, day after day, listening to people who come in on an average of every half hour wanting money for their particular project or group.

It is a man-killing job. Certainly, after only a few days of hearing the same arguments over and over, the senses can become dulled to the point that any decision is a strain.

Under the circumstances, I was surprised and extremely pleased with my hearing before Sen. William Shireman of Corpus Christi recently. As a subcommittee chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Sen. Shireman proved to be so interested and so effective in his suggestions that I believe it was the finest hearing I have ever had in the past four years.

When I came before the House Committee, I was the last member of state executive branches to appear. Those men were dog-tired. They had listened to hundreds of thousands of words concerning millions of dollars.

They knew that as soon as I had finished, they could relax these hearings and go about other legislative tasks. But they sat there and gave me all the time I wanted. They discussed my appropriations bill and asked me searching questions about it.

I was extremely pleased when I left. That does not mean that the Texas Department of Agriculture got all the money requested. It did NOT. But on those items they refused to approve, I felt I had received a fair hearing on them, and that the members understood what I wanted.

In their refusal, I also felt like the members knew enough about the bills to feel justified in turning them down. I could not ask anything more than that—and the members are to be complimented for their fairness.

A member of the Legislature can come to Austin, sit at his desk and vote when told to vote and still draw his pay without undue effort. This is not the procedure of the vast majority this session. They are working day and night—and they don't get paid a cent more than if they just took life easy.

To me, it proves that the democratic form of government is not dead among the individual members of our House and Senate.

'55 CROPS FIRST ONES UNDER FLEXIBLE SUPPORTS

Not one bale of cotton, not one bushel of corn or wheat, not one sack of rice, not one pound of peanuts has yet been placed under loan or sold to the government at less than 90 per cent of parity, Secretary of Agriculture said Ezra Taft Benson recently to a farm group in Utah.

"Flexible price supports don't become operative until the 1955 harvests - - still several months away - - and even then the levels of supports will be unchanged for some commodities and most modest for others," the Secretary stated.

"Flexible price supports have been a part of our bi-partisan farm programs for many years," Secretary Benson pointed out.

WHEAT DECISION DUE BY MAY 15

Wheat growers will know earlier this year what lies ahead of them in the way of acreage allotments and marketing quotas, according to the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The Agricultural Act of 1954, enacted last year, moved up several dates governing proclamations which the Secretary of Agriculture must make. May 15 is not the final date for proclaiming the national acreage allotment and the national marketing quota for wheat. Formerly, the final dates were July 15 for wheat allotments and July 1 for wheat quotas.

The law requires that acreage allotments be proclaimed each year for the next wheat crop under emergency conditions. Marketing quotas must be proclaimed for wheat when the supply exceeds the normal supply plus 20 per cent.

THE LION'S TALE

By Carl Allmond

Another big crowd Tuesday! Evidently the enthusiasm, created during the membership drive, is here to stay. If you arrive late now-a-days, you have to sit at the head table with the dignitaries — Drennan and McCully. The singing is a little better—volume, not quality.

Mrs. J. N. Weaver presented three of her music students; Jerry Bones and Randall Goar gave piano solos, and Larry Stewart sang two numbers.

Judge Porter hung his head in shame as he told the club how long he had been on the hospital board, and admitted the lack of mentality shown in discharging their duties. That statement, coming from Porter, should be recorded and published in the Appendix to the Congressional Record. However, in the same breath, he raised his head and with pride announced, that at next Tuesday's luncheon, a new era would begin in Clarendon.

The problems, concerning the opening of the hospital, will be discussed, with questions answered concerning any phase.

Each member should make every effort to attend next Tuesday.

Homer Bones was introduced as a reinstated member. Welcome back Homer!

Visitors were: Bill Rice, Amarillo; O. D. Lowery, Hereford; Kenneth Dale, Memphis; Byron Bryant of Stamford; and T. W. Goar and J. E. Byers.

Flip Breedlove stated that the contract for the County Fair and Stock building had been let. Location for the building will be on the southeast side of the rodeo grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tucker of Tyler, Texas visited from Tuesday to Thursday in the A. O. Hefner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bowles and daughter, Kay, of Happy, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Sparks and Emmett Sparks of Stinnett, visited Easter with Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dozier and Sayles.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Eaton spent Easter in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McMurtry.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

by Uncle Zeb

We read someplace that; "Man existed from Adam to Atom." But we can't find it in our hearts to be that gloomy about our future. We believe that Man will exist from Creation to Creator; however long that may be.

Some one has said: Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; lesser minds discuss people.

We heard of the following love letter;

Dearest Mary:
I would swim the mightiest ocean for one touch of your little hand. I would climb the highest mountain for just one little smile from your sweet lips. I would trek through the lonely desert for one twinkle of your beautiful eyes.

Your ever adoring slave,
Oscar
P. S. I'll be over Saturday, if it doesn't rain.

We like the thought and the philosophy brought out in the following little verse;
Give me a sense of humor, Lord
Give me grace to see a joke,
To get some happiness from life,
And pass it on to other folk.

Too many of us tend to be like the old Negro deacon who wound up a very long prayer by saying,

"Use me, Lord, use me in thy work, 'specially in an advisory capacity."

There is one kind of exercise that no doctor has ever been known to advise a patient against; that of reaching down to help a fellow man up a bit in some way.

We are copying the following from our Lions Newsletter;

THE POWER OF A SMILE
He smiled—and his home was a place of happiness. He smiled—and his co-workers in business worked better. He smiled—and his customers spoke well of him; his business increased by leaps and bounds. He smiled—and followed the smile with a brotherly hand-clasp; and those who were discouraged and downcast went out and took a new grip on life and on their work. He smiled—and while the years rolled on, he grew younger—because he smiled.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

WAR?
The President's condemnation of those who engage in war talk met with general approval in Washington. Many had become alarmed at some of the statements that were being made about this country getting into a war with Red China within a matter of days or weeks. In the first place, if there had been any intention of this country getting into war with Red China in the immediate future, the worst possible thing that could be done would be to advertise it to the enemy. In the second place, an immediate war between this country and Red China would be the most tasteful morsel that Russia could desire.

It seems that there are certain forces in this country who are bent on trying to force an international incident that could trigger the present cold war into a hot war in the Far East. Quemoy and Matsu could make perfect triggers for this purpose. It is very easy to scream in a loud voice about this country going to war if Red China attempts to take Quemoy and Matsu. Frankly, I detest this kind of talk because it is nothing but war talk. The truth is that Quemoy and Matsu are now in the hands of the Nationalist Chinese who are allies of ours. If the Red Chinese attack these islands, certainly we have the right to defend them and stand up against aggression with all of the resources at our disposal. However, if the President chose not to expend any of our resources in the defense of these two islands, it would hardly behoove anyone to condemn and criticize him. There are many items to be carefully considered concerning the action of this country with regard to these two islands. I think that the loud-mouths should stop trying to put the President and Mr. Dulles on the spot concerning them. In my opinion, either or both of these islands could well prove to be a military liability. Certainly, either or both of them are not worth the blood of one American boy.

Regardless of the clamor of the war mongers, and the perennial critics of whoever might be in charge of our foreign affairs, I do not believe that this country is going to be drawn into any sizeable conflict over Quemoy or Matsu. If we ever go to war with Red China, and God forbid that circumstances ever require it, it will be for reasons of much greater weight than two islands off the Asiatic coast.

THE GRAIN SORGHUM

PROBLEM

Changing from the international to the domestic scene, Washington has been honored with the presence of some honest to goodness grassroots from the Southwest. I speak of the delegation who came to Washington on behalf of the grain sorghum growers. We had a nice visit with Dr. Gabriel Hauge, economic adviser of the President. The problem was laid out to Dr. Hauge for conveyance to the President in the straightforward and easily understood language of our great section of the country. The following morning this group entertained about fifteen senators and congressmen at a breakfast in the Congressional Hotel. At this meeting the problem was again laid out in the plain, simple and understandable English to which we are accustomed. There wasn't a man present who didn't thoroughly understand and appreciate what these people are up against. That afternoon we went to the office of Secretary Benson, and the whole gang, the folks from home, the U. S. Senators, the Congressmen and the agricultural aides, all gathered in the Secretary's private office and sat down for an hour's heart to heart talk on the subject. The Secretary was visibly impressed, which incidentally is unusual. He remained in the meeting for its full length, which is also unusual. His able assistants were gathering figures together before we got out of the building. We sincerely hope that something comes of this meeting and that the problem is corrected. The Secretary promised us that he would thoroughly review it and re-evaluate it with the hope of being able to make some adjustments. The official committee that came to Washington were as follows:

R. G. Peeler, Hereford; Leo Witkowski, Happy; W. M. Sherry, Lazbuddy; John Venneman, Spearman; George Hammond, Clovis, N. Mex.; Raymond Boles, Liberal, Kansas; Roy T. Nall, Boise City, Okla.; Gabe Anderson, Bovina, Texas; John Pitman, Hereford, Texas.

Free movie tickets to the Mulkey Theatre may be picked up at the Leader office by Mr. and Mrs. Fred King.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Learn How to Pull Together

Saw a kid go by the Clarion office on a brand-new coaster wagon yesterday—and it reminded me of when my brother and I were about forty years younger.

Our folks weren't poor, but there wasn't enough to buy two wagons for Christmas. We got one between us. Dad made a rule that we each could have it for a week—but the boy with the wagon was responsible for keeping the kitchen wood-box filled.

Seemed a bargain to Bud and me—at first. But soon we discovered it was no more fun playing alone than working alone. It wasn't long before we were sharing the wagon in return for sharing the chores.

From where I sit, you can't enjoy a privilege yourself if you're going to deny it to others. There are some folks who want the right to enjoy their favorite beverage—but would deny me my right to an occasional glass of beer. I doubt if such people get their full "share" of happiness, though.

Want to feel like a pilot feels?

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY

No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

Today's the day to "Join The Test Pilot Club" and see what a thrill you get when you try Variable Pitch Dynaflo*

We're not kidding.

When you try a '55 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo, you'll feel like a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway for take-off.

For you, in the driver's seat, are doing what that pilot does—you're changing the pitch of your propellers—one way for instant response on getaway—another way for better gas mileage in cruising.

Your propellers are whirling in oil, deep inside the Dynaflo unit. When you press the pedal in the normal way, you hold those propellers in their economy angle—and you enjoy plenty more miles from your gasoline.

But when you want instant acceleration—for quick getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of emergency power—you just press the pedal way down, and—with absolute smoothness—you get the action you want, and split-second quick.

It's the thrill that's the talk of the industry—performance unlike anything you have ever known before on the ground.

And so many folks have been asking to try it that we Buick dealers across America have set up April as "Test Pilot Club" Month. All it takes to join the "Club" is a test drive at the wheel of a new Buick. That's all.

So we cordially invite you to win your "wings"—to try the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflo—and to feel the mighty V8 power that puts the whip to these gorgeous new Buick beauties. Drop in this week.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Local Delivered Price of the 1955 Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48 (illustrated) is less than some models of the best-known smaller cars! Come in and check it!

Said a sleuth: Ah! The mystery's unraveled!—About cars that "take off like a javelin." But with Dynaflo's switch Of its Variable Pitch—You were here. Now you're there. Boy, that's travelin'!

(Why don't you try a Buick?)

U. S. Senator

Texas was beautifully represented last week at the annual Washington Cherry Blossom Festival by Miss Anne Blalock of Marshall. She was chosen by the Texas State Society as a princess in the royal court composed of charming young ladies from most of the states in the union. Anne, a co-ed at the University of Texas, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blalock of Marshall. She was accompanied to Washington by her mother and her aunt, Mrs. Myron Blalock, whose late husband was one of our State's most distinguished citizens and served for many years as Texas Democratic National Committeeman.

Davy Crockett

Another distinguished Texan in our midst last week was Fess Parker, star of Walt Disney's TV production, "Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier". He was born in Fort Worth and lived in San Angelo and Brownwood before graduating from the University of Texas. Members of Congress from Texas and Tennessee attended a luncheon at the Capitol in his honor, and several of us interviewed him on radio and television.

Standing 6 feet 5 inches, Fess Parker towered above all his hosts and visitors both at the Capitol and at the meetings of the National Rifle Association which he attended during his visit here. He wore his coonskin cap and buckskin clothes and carried "Ole Betsy" with him on all occasions. A replica of the famous David Crockett rifle was presented to the Deputy Secretary of Defense, Bob Anderson. It is entirely fitting that a Texan was chosen by Walt Disney to portray David Crockett in both his television series and the Davy Crockett movie which will

Grain Producers

Many Texans were in Washington last week advocating higher grain sorghum support prices by the Department of Agriculture and attending the annual meeting of the National Federation of Grain Cooperatives. We are convinced that the present parity support price fixed by Secretary of Agriculture Benson on grain sorghum is unfair to the producers of this important crop, and have indicated our views to the Secretary and the President. Texans representing the grain producers here were R. G. Peeler, Hereford; Leo Wilkowski, Happy; John Venneman, Spearman; Gabe Anderson, Bovina; John Pittman, Hereford; and W. M. Sherley, Lazbuddie.

Victory for Texas Public School Fund

The Texas Supreme Court's decision last week in favor of the State in the lawsuit against The Texas Company, involving ownership of minerals in Duval County, should mean several millions of dollars for our permanent school fund. The decision was particularly pleasing to the writer and to my administrative assistant here in Washington, Jake Jacobsen, because along with Charles D. Mathews of Austin, we made the decision to file this suit while serving in the Attorney General's Office in Austin. In fact, it was the last case prepared for trial under my administration as Attorney General, and Mr. Mathews continued to assist Attorney General Shepperd in the trial and appeals which followed.

It was our contention, and the courts have now agreed, that a mineral deed made by the Duval Ranch and Cattle Company to The Texas Company on 4,000 acres of minerals in Duval County was void, and that the minerals and 67 producing oil wells actually belong to the State and its public school fund. Nearly a million in cash was also awarded to the State, and further production on this property should be an important source of revenue for our public schools.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES
 By May L. Prewitt

You do not want to neglect to read Dale Evans Rogers' "My Spiritual Diary." It is in memory of Grandmother Love and placed here by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goldston.
 If you have not read "A Man Called Peter" by Catherine Marshall, you may enjoy reading it before seeing the picture. She surely portrays a wonderful character in telling the story of her husband. We have all of the Marshall books — "Mr. Jenes, Meet the Master," "A Man Called Peter," "God Loves You," and "The Prayers of Peter Marshall."

Three books were ordered for the Tom Goodner memorial shelf for Easter. They are "Silver Chief's Revenge" by O'Brien, "Roald Amundsen" a saga of the South Seas, and "The Story of Medicine" by Dr. Arthur L. Murphy. These books for boys or girls were given by Tom's mother, Mrs. Goodner, and his aunt, Mrs. Kitty Martin of Dallas, Texas. This memorial shelf has some exceptional reading material. There are several books on the Goodner shelf that were dedicated to Mrs. Margaret Cook, who was Mrs. Goodner's mother. These books are each of literature value.

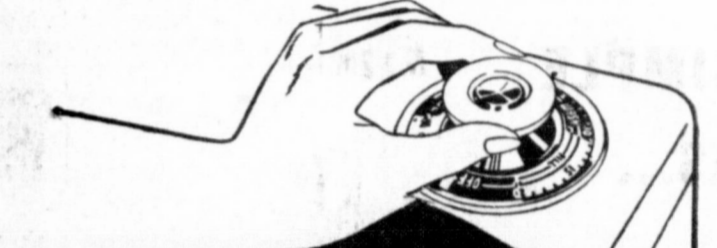

We have "East of Eden" by John Steinbeck if you care to read it before seeing the screen version.
 Our magazine shelf is fair entertaining at present. For our finances our supply of new books and magazines is excellent. A friend gave us a $1.00 donation this week. He gives several of these one dollar bills each year.

 We really need a Texas Almanac and some small items that we haven't purchased. But come read with us and your 3 mos. subscription will help with our purchasing.

The lucky man points with pride at his superior judgment.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Two big proposals for the state's water conservation program won in the Senate.

One is Sen. Dorsey Hardeman's $100 million state bond issue for aid to local projects. It calls for a constitutional amendment vote in September. The other is an enabling bill to start operations if and when the amendment is passed.

House sponsors on this, and on the Parish $200 million bond bill to aid local projects have delayed calling for final action. They don't think they have enough votes.

Tax Blank

An openly hostile revenue and taxation committee shunted Rep. Jerry Sadler's $160 million-a-year gas processing tax bill to subcommittee.

It would levy a 1-cent tax on all Texas gasoline and repeal the 4-cent gas sales tax. Opponents said it would bring a 19-cent cut in crude oil prices, costing Texas $190 million a year.

The committee left buried the two bills embodying Gov. Shivers' original tax program. It included a 2-cent hike in the 4-cent gas tax and a 1-cent boost in the 4-cent cigarette tax.

This confirmed last week's report that administration forces had abandoned the two single-shot revenue bills and pinned new hopes on Revenue Chairman Stone's omnibus bill. It would permit increases in any of the 100-odd present taxes.

The billion and a half dollar House general appropriation bill (for two years) was passed by the Senate which substituted its own version.

When the House refused to concur in Senate changes, the way was opened for a joint conference committee to resolve the differences. Lieutenant Governor Ramsey has named five Senators to the Committee and House Speaker Jim Lindsey five.

Delaying Action

Special session speculation again comes up.

Sen. Jimmy Phillips saw his filibuster record fall this week to Sen. Wayne Wagonseller.

Like Phillips, however, Wagonseller lost his battle. As soon as he stopped talking, the Senate tentatively approved the bus registration fee measure he was fighting.

When it was all over, weary Senators suddenly discovered the marathon talks had killed two full "House bill" periods in the Senate, with only one House bill passed in two weeks.

Observers saw that, with Shivers' entire program still hanging fire, and four more Wednesday filibusters in the Senate capable of killing all of it, a new switch in administration strategy might be possible.

Thought was that Governor Shivers might ask the Legislature to lay aside the tax bill and the appropriation whopper, and pass other legislation before theoretical adjournment May 11.

That would mean his calling a special session on taxes and the appropriation bill. Appropriations must be in effect Sept. 1 to keep the wheels of government turning. He would have control in a special session, lacking now.

Point Won

At any rate, the Governor won his point on the bill regulating securities.

As the legislature headed for what looked like its worst jam in the final month of session, he made a firm request that the House adopt a Senate bill regulating securities, particularly bringing certain trust company stocks under state supervision. "I hope the House will disregard frantic efforts of certain speculators, promoters and others . . . and vote final passage . . .", he said.

Land Case

Bascom Giles' legal troubles mounted when a group of San Antonio GIs filed a civil recovery suit in 53rd District Court.

Asking $33,000 judgment against Giles, the veterans charged that he made that much in "personal profit" out of a veterans land deal.

At the latest count, Giles faced two criminal indictments, charging conspiracy to commit theft of state funds and accepting a bribe; four felony theft charges, and four civil recovery suits.

Twice Giles has refused to testify in court about the veterans land scandals and charges against him.

Cross Filing

Cross filing in political races is out as the result of a bill passed by both houses and signed by the Governor.

This bill by Representative Maury Maverick of San Antonio removes from the law a sentence allowing candidates to run "as the nominee of two or more political parties for the same of-vice." Controversy arose over cross-filing when Governor Shivers and other state candidates were listed in 1952 as the nominees of both the Democratic and the Republican parties.

YOUR 1954 Income Tax

Depreciation

The law does not allow you to deduct the full cost of your capital investment or improvements in the year made in figuring your profits from rents, royalties, businesses, and professions. For most property with a life longer than one year, with the exception of land, the law provides for a deduction from gross income called "depreciation," as the method of recovering your cost (less any salvage value) over the useful life of the asset. The useful life of any asset can be measured in units of production or machine hours (for machinery), in miles of operation (for automotive equipment), etc., but the ordinary practice is to measure useful life in years.

Figuring the Depreciation Deduction:

1. Straight-line method—This is the most common method of figuring depreciation. It allows for the deduction of cost in equal annual amounts over the useful life of the asset, with only salvage value remaining at the end of the useful life. For example, if you purchased a piece of equipment for $10,000 which had an estimated salvage value of $1,000, the depreciable portion would be $9,000. If the asset had had an estimated useful life of ten years, then you would charge off 1/10 or $900 each year.

Special Rules for New Assets Acquired after December 31, 1953:

New assets acquired by the taxpayer after 1953 and the portion of the basis of property attributable to construction by the taxpayer after 1953 may be depreciated under methods proper in the past or under additional methods provided in the new 1954 law. These methods (which may be employed only with respect to physical assets having a useful life of three years or more) are—

(a) Declining balance method: The deduction is computed by applying a uniform rate to the cost or other basis of the asset reduced by depreciation previously allowed or allowable. This rate cannot exceed twice the straight-line rate computed without regard to salvage value.

(b) Sum of the years-digits method: The deduction is the cost or other basis of the asset (reduced by estimated salvage value) multiplied by the number of years of useful life remaining to it (including the year of the deduction) divided by the sum of all the digits corresponding to the years of the assets' estimated useful life (in the case of a 5-year life such sum would be 15, that is 1, 2, 3, 4, 5).

(c) Other consistent methods: Other methods may be used provided the amount claimed during the first 1/2 of the life of the asset does not exceed the amount allowable on the declining balance method.

A taxpayer need not use the same method for all of his depreciable property. He may use different methods appropriate to different classes of assets, but he must be consistent with regard to each class.
