

Next week Wednesday most Americans will celebrate the 180th anniversary of the event which gives meaning and substance to a statement that is often heard but usually taken for granted. "We are lucky to be living in a free country." We accept our freedom as just another ingredient in our daily lives, seldom if ever bothering to appreciate the goodness of a Creator Who made us that way or the wisdom of those statesmen who incorporated His plan into the American way of living.

The men who signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, were concerned primarily with establishing Freedom under God, the kind of liberty that respects human dignity, that acknowledges the inalienable rights with which every individual is endowed by his Creator and which must be observed by all fellow men.

Too many of us are prone to overlook the sublime significance of this day as we go about our carefree and superficial observance. Millions regard it only as another holiday, an occasion to get off the job and have an extra day of recreation. Very few will stop to ponder that the immortal document put into effect eighteen decades ago has gone farther than any other since the dawn of history toward establishing the kind of life that God intended for us.

It is gratifying to note that in recent years increasing numbers of Americans are being brought to an awareness of their Freedom under God. The movement however has only a feeble beginning in relation to our country's population. People in general are happy not to be molested by official authority but they still do not appreciate the real sacredness of their freedom nor the sacredness of a government which refuses to violate it.

Basic thoughts like this deserve our attention more than ever in these times when the forces of Godlessness and tyranny tighten their evil grip on so many other peoples. If we would cherish and preserve our freedom we should certainly have a clear notion of its source. We should realize at the same time that our God given freedom is accompanied by a God given responsibility to strive for God's way of doing things. To know and do what is right and just, that is the way in which each person can give a real meaning to liberty. To do otherwise is to infringe on the rights of others. To continue in that direction means eventually to submit to the totalitarian theory that might makes right and that the state, meaning those in power, have the right to bend all others to their wishes.

So it is proper on this day to appreciate that one factor, and one only, is responsible for the sublime meaning of Independence Day. This is God's Country only because the men who organized it had a devout respect for God's law. And whatever discord we have developed can be explained entirely by departure from the Divine law.

In that respect we are naturally inclined to think that our individual efforts cannot affect the trend of a great big nation. We may even soothe our consciences with the thought that the country is drifting anyway so we might as well get into the drift and take advantage of all that expediency has to offer.

That seems like the easy method but unfortunately it is as disastrous as it is easy. Regardless of how slow the current is, it is easier to float down stream than to work against it, then suddenly, when the rapids loom ahead, it is too late. We can't afford to cheat on the Divine plan.

Freedom under God is based on the individual's right and responsibility, and every individual's course has some effect on its permanence. Every person can do something in behalf of his own liberty by living up to the sacred standards on which it is based.

Freedom under God is based on the individual's right and responsibility, and every individual's course has some effect on its permanence. Every person can do something in behalf of his own liberty by living up to the sacred standards on which it is based.

His formal statement to voters of the two counties will appear in a later issue of the Enterprise.

Drought, Hoppers Are Causing Worry In Muenster Area

The drought is serious in the Muenster area nowadays and the situation is aggravated further by one of the worst infestations of grasshoppers in the community's history.

With rainfall down to about one half of normal for the first six months, and following a dry final quarter in 1955, the area has less than 10 inches of moisture spread over a nine months period.

As a result the country's moisture supply has reached an all time low. Creeks are dry. So are ponds. Several natural springs which have been running as long as old timers can remember are dry for the first time.

The situation presents a gloomy outlook for all remaining local crops. Corn, which got off to a good start on the small but timely showers of May, is suffering badly. A few fields are still conceded a chance of making a fair crop if rain comes soon, but most are regarded as too far gone. Many farmers are considering salvaging as much of the crop as possible by cutting it for silage.

The same situation prevails in pastures and alfalfa fields. Growth has stopped. Chances for more grazing or another cutting are nil unless a good soaker comes along soon.

Meanwhile hordes of grasshoppers are making heavy demands on the little vegetation that is left. If the calculations of entomologists are correct... that four grasshoppers per square yard reduce the forage supply as much as one cow per acre... the insects locally are getting more of the already scarce vegetation than the livestock. It is generally agreed that the hoppers average more than four to the square yard.

Drought and hoppers combined are putting stockmen in a squeeze. Reports from the Fort Worth stock yards and livestock auctions of North Texas indicate a drastic general reduction in herd sizes. Because of the depressing effect of this surplus on the market all the cattle are selling at sacrifice prices.

Building And Improvement Notes

With harvesting out of the way building and remodeling in Muenster and neighboring communities returns to its normal pace.

The business section is humming with five jobs: expansion at the Muenster Mill, inside remodeling and inside and outside paint for Jones and Laughlin in the building recently vacated by the Electric Co-op, outside paint and a tile floor plus other inside work for NTPA at the old Farmers Store location, and wall work following roof lifting jobs at the Luke and Weinzapfel buildings.

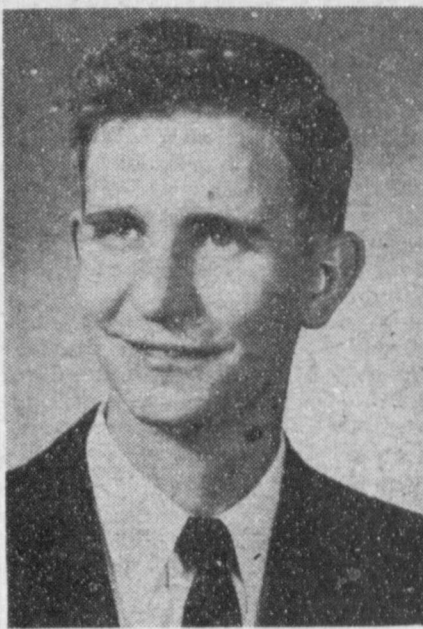

Four new jobs top the list of residential building. Zipper has just finished a 3 bedroom house with attached garage and Community Lumber Co. is putting the finishing touches on a 3 bedroom house with attached garage. Paul Luke's and Rufus Henscheid's houses, also fitting the same description, are both ready for painters.

Outside the city limit Roy Townsley, south of Myra, is building a new 2 bedroom home, Charles Tucker, in Myra, is building a two bedroom house with attached garage, and Ray Sandmann of Lindsay has started a 3 bedroom house with garage.

Also in progress are several remodeling and repair jobs. The Kaderlis are enclosing a porch to enlarge the living room and refinishing the rest of the interior. Clarence Hudspeth has added a porch and decorated the interior. Herbert Meurer has added a patio and aluminum awning. The R. N. Fettes are painting inside and outside. L. A. Bernauer and Alphonse Felderhoff have installed central air conditioning units. Frank Beyer of Lindsay is adding a bedroom and bath and repainting the interior.

A farm building now under way is Albert Klement's 40x70 combination hay storage and feed shed.

Pool Dedication Plans Shaping Up; Dated for July 7

Official ceremonies along with swimming and diving exhibitions and selection of a dedication queen will formally open Muenster's municipal swimming pool Saturday night, July 7.

Plans are in the making now by a special committee of Lions including President H. H. Homsley, M. D. Kaderli, Herbert Meurer, Urban Endres and R. N. Fette. The Lions took charge of the program on the invitation of the city council and has since enlisted the help of the VFW Auxiliary and the PTA.

Plans to date are for the dedication program to begin at 8 o'clock. A section of grandstand seats borrowed from the Hornet football field will be located on the concrete platform just north of the pool for the convenience of spectators. Refreshments will also be available at a concession stand supervised by the PTA.

Events scheduled are an invocation, an address of welcome, the formal dedication, and aquatic exhibitions by a group of expert swimmers from NTSC. The queen contest is under the supervision of the VFW Auxiliary. Other events are under consideration but are not definitely decided at this time.

Tigers Lick Sox for Little League Lead

With a decisive win over each of the other teams in the league, Dick Cain's Tigers, sponsored by the Lions Club, have a firm hold on the top spot in local Little League standing.

Next in line are the VFW Red Sox, managed by R. P. Cain, with a loss to the Tigers and wins over the KC Braves and the St. Joseph's Yankees.

Last Friday night the Red Sox made a strong start for 5 runs and added 1 in the third and 6 each in the fourth and fifth. During their part of the five frames the St. Joseph's team scored 1, 3, 0, 2 and 0. With a difference of 10 or more at that time the game officially ended. The hitting record also favored the Sox, by a count of 8-4. Hellman hurled for VFW and Knabe for St. Joseph's.

In Tuesday night's tussle the Tigers used only 4 innings in stacking up their 14-2 win over the Red Sox. The game started with a scoreless first inning but exploded into real action in the second when the Sox scored 2 and the Tigers retaliated with 9. That was all for the Red Sox but the Tigers added 1 and 4 in the next two innings. Owens was the winning pitcher, Hellman the loser.

Agnes Esker, 51, 46 Year Resident, Is Cancer Victim

Miss Agnes Esker, 51, a resident of Muenster 46 years, died at her home Friday, June 22, following an illness of cancer. Death came quietly at about 3:30 p.m. after two days of what her family considered slight improvement in her condition. She had been suffering from the incurable disease since January.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 9 o'clock in Sacred Heart church with Rev. Louis Deuster officiating at the requiem high mass, delivering the sermon, and conducting grave side rites. Burial in Sacred Heart cemetery was directed by Nick Miller. Rosary was recited at the funeral home Saturday and Sunday nights.

Bearers were Eugene Schmitz, Lou Wolf, Al Walterscheid, Joe Mages, Clarence Wilson and Alvin Hartman.

Miss Esker had made Muenster her home since 1910 when she came here from Teutopolis, Ill., with her parents, Henry and Elizabeth Esker. She was born August 16, 1904.

For many years she furnished a laundry service here and was apparently in splendid health. First indication of the ailment that took her life appeared early in January. The latter part of that month she underwent surgery. After two months of hospitalization she returned home. She was up and around the house in a wheel chair, part time, until about a week before she passed away.

Survivors are three sisters, Gertrude of Muenster, Minnie, and Mrs. John Weishaar of Rolfe, Iowa, and one brother, Ralph Esker of route 2, Gainesville.

New Construction Prepares for Mill's Expansion Program

Additional storage space as well as greater efficiency and convenience in feed processing are in sight at the Muenster Mill after completion of two new buildings which are now under construction.

Both buildings will be located east of the present building. One, measuring 50x100 feet, will be used for the grinding, mixing and molasses mixing equipment. The other will be 20x30 and 30 feet high, divided into six bins for grain storage.

Plans on both buildings are coordinated with a view to providing the best possible arrangement for speed and ease in handling and processing feeds, whether it is taken from the bins or brought in by the customer. The system will include conveyors and chutes conveniently leading to and from the equipment as well as a group of hoppers.

Most of the mill's additional space will be in the six big bins. The rest will become available in the present building when grinding and mixing equipment are transferred.

While construction is under way the feed grinder is set up outside. Formerly installed in an offset to the east of the present building, it had to be moved for the new construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Damien Hellman and son Kevin of Lubbock weekended here with their parents, the Rudy Hellmans and Leo Henscheids.

Myra Telephones Change Sunday to Automatic System

The end of this week brings the beginning of a fully automatic dial telephone system at Myra. Connections to the automatic switchboard are being completed this week and Don Hoskins, who remained as operator after selling the system to Muenster last year will end his long stretch of service at the Myra switchboard.

Hereafter persons on the Myra exchange will call one another by dial, and they will dial the Muenster operator for any connection outside their system. Muenster people calling a number in the Myra system will give the number to the local operator who will dial the desired number at Myra.

The Myra exchange has 57 connections. Like Forestburg, it was favored with an automatic system because there are not enough patrons to justify keeping an operator on the job.

Pavement Projects Must Be Developed Within One Week

Citizens who want pavement on their streets will have to work up a project in a hurry.

City Manager Steve Mosler disclosed Wednesday that Lea-Far Paving Company has moved into town to do three private jobs and expects to finish them in about a week. After that it will take on street paving if any projects are ready. Otherwise it will move on and the next opportunity for local paving may be delayed a long time.

Projects to be acceptable must consist of a block or more of paving and must be requested by property owners controlling more than half the footage along both sides of the pavement. Those desiring the pavement will pay for their part and the city will pay for the remainder assessing the charges against the property concerned.

Mosler also called attention to the city council's recent decision requiring curb to curb width on future paving projects... because shoulders are breaking down on narrow pavement. This means that only the full width is available and curbs must be there before pavement can be put in.

Persons interested in a paving project for their street are advised to see neighbors at once to determine whether owners of more than half the front footage are interested. If they are, the persons interested can see Mosler and place their payment in escrow. When more than half the price of a project is in escrow the job is assured, provided, of course, the contractor is still in town.

Jobs on contract now are parking lots at Hofbauer's, NTPA and the Electric Co-op. The jobs will be finished in about a week and more work must be available then to keep the contractor here.

Contract Awarded To Extend Paving North of Muenster

A contract for extension of the pavement north of Muenster has been awarded and work is due to begin in the near future, according to a report this week from the Texas Highway Department.

District Engineer L. B. Dean of Wichita Falls discloses that Lott Construction Co., Ltd., received the contract on its low bid of $76,518.62 for the 5.5 miles to continue from the end of the present pavement 4.5 miles north of town.

The new road will end at the intersection of the road with the Bulcher-Marysville road, at a point near the former Valley Creek school site. Its course will follow the existing road except in a few places where curves will be improved.

Work specified in the contract includes grading, structures, base and surfacing. Time estimated for the project is 80 days. L. S. Partridge of Bowie will be resident engineer in charge of the job for the highway department.

Charlsie Sue Blakely of Gainesville and Richard Knabe were married here Thursday, June 21, in a wedding service at which Father Louis Deuster officiated in Sacred Heart rectory at 8 p.m.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knabe of Muenster and Charlsie is the daughter of Mrs. Eunice Blakely of Gainesville. Immediate members of both families witnessed the exchange of vows and after the ceremony were dinner guests in the Knabe home.

For her wedding the bride wore a Monaco blue dress with matching hat and other accessories in white.

Mrs. Kenneth Reynolds and Frederick Knabe, sister and brother of the groom, were the bridal attendants. Mrs. Reynolds wore a light blue outfit with white accessories.

The dinner party preceded the newlyweds' departure on a honeymoon trip to Missouri and Iowa. They will make their home in Muenster when they return. Richard attended school here, served two years in the army with one year of duty in Korea and is employed by the NTPA milk plant here.

Mrs. Zimmerer is Honoree at Party

Mrs. Willard Zimmerer of Gainesville, the former Rosebell Haverkamp of this city, was honoree Sunday afternoon for a gift party when Mrs. J. J. Haverkamp and daughter Evelyn were hostesses in their home.

Pink and blue was stressed in decoration in the party rooms and gift table centerpiece was a baby doll in a crib under an umbrella.

After appropriate games the hostesses served refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade to 15 guests. Several who were unable to attend sent their gifts.

Henry Weinzapfel, Janie Hellman Say Vows Here Saturday

Sacred Heart church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Janie Hellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hellman, to Henry Weinzapfel, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel.

The Rev. Thomas Weinzapfel of Dallas, brother of the groom, read the double ring service and was celebrant of the solemn nuptial high mass. Another brother of the groom, the Rev. Joseph Weinzapfel, also of Dallas, assisted as deacon of the mass, Rev. Louis Deuster, pastor, was sub-deacon and Rev. Patrick Hannon was master of ceremonies.

White gladioli and blue tinted carnations adorned the altar and baskets of piflox and greenery held vantage spots in the sanctuary.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The moulded long-torso bodice had a deep decolette neckline outlined in lace petals and the sleeves were short complemented by long lace mitts. Shirred tulle over the taffeta formed a billowing waltz length skirt. Her veil, triple tiers of illusion, cascaded from a queen's crowns of tiny leaves studded in iridescent paillettes. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on top of a white mother of pearl prayerbook borrowed from Mrs. Glenn Hellman, and carried a blue rosary belonging to the groom's mother.

Attendants

Colette Hellman attended her sister as maid of honor and Mary Elizabeth Weinzapfel, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of heavenly blue net and lace over taffeta fashioned with strapless lace bodices covered with net stoles, and bouffant ballerina length skirts. They completed their costumes with matching gloves and tiny hats of blue taffeta leaves studded with pearls. The carried yellow roses.

Robert Meurer, cousin of the groom was best man, and Glenn Hellman, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Jimmy Fette and Larry Walterscheid were ushers.

Mrs. Hellman, mother of the bride, wore a pink lace dress with black accessories. Mrs. Weinzapfel, mother of the groom, wore a blue silk floral print dress with a matching blue straw hat and other accessories in white. Both had purple orchid corsages. The bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Joe Otto and Mrs. Gus Hellman, had red rose corsages.

Presenting music for the 4:30 ceremony were Anthony Luke, organist, and the church choir. Mrs. Pat Stelzer offered a post nuptial solo, "On This Day," as the newly married couple recited an act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin at her shrine and the bride placed a bouquet of white gladioli on the altar.

Reception

Following the service, a reception and dinner in the public school dining room honored the couple. Joan Klement and Gretchen Hellman, presiding at the bride's book, registered about 200 guests.

The bride's table carried out her colors of white and blue and held the tiered wedding cake. An arrangement of gardenias and driftwood was the central floral piece. Other arrangements were of glads and carnations.

For a short honeymoon the bride traveled in a pink linen sheath with white accessories. They are making their home in Denton where both are attending North Texas State College.

Both were graduated from Muenster High school. The bride attended East Texas State Teachers College before enrolling at Denton this summer. The groom was recently discharged from the army after serving two years. He spent one year in Korea.

Out of Town Guests

Among out of town wedding guests were, Dr. Monte Hellman, the Donald Mullers, the Joe Galloways, Larry Walterscheid, and Mary Parrish of Fort Worth, Mrs. Margaret Rasch and Hans Rasch of Houston, the William Seylers of Valley View, the P. W. Hellmans and family of Tulsa, Mrs. Robert H. Mayer and daughters of Pilot Point, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eckelkamp and children, the Ed Ottos, Mr. and Mrs. John Aytes and daughter all of Wichita Falls, Mrs. C. F. Meurer of Windthorst, Gordon O'Neill, Richard Berry, Ruth Dingman and Gwen Millar of Dallas, the Damien Hellmans of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Merrell of Wolf City, and Mrs. Pat Stelzer of Galveston.

Nancy Kline is vacationing with friends in Cloterville, La. They came to Muenster for her and visited with Miss Mary Kline, Carol and Kenneth.

LOOKING AHEAD

by Dr. George S. Benson
 DIRECTOR - NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
 Secoy, Arkansas

TIME FOR ALERTNESS

The citizens of this nation perhaps could better afford to be lethargic and apathetic concerning the safeguarding of our governmental and economic system were it not for the fact that a world-wide menace has now grown to such proportions that it threatens our very existence. This evil force is world Communism. An apathetic attitude toward it could bring about the utter destruction of all that Christian civilization holds to be worthwhile and decent. In fact to be safe we must mobilize the thinking and the intelligent action of the entire American population.

The world-wide Communist conspiracy is aiming at world domination. The threat is so great that our government — itself slow to recognize the true nature of Communism — now is spending about $35 billion a year on a defense establishment geared to resist Communist military aggressor when (and if) it comes. There are other measurements of the Communist threat.

Growth Not Stopped

In 1945 the Communists controlled only 10 per cent of the world's population. Today they control more than 40 per cent. During the past 12 years the Communist International conspiracy has been taking over the territory of the world at the rate of 1,000 square miles a day — and the free world has yet to take back a single square mile of conquered territory. They may well control 60 per cent of the population of the world within three to five years.

When you study a map of the world, and are acquainted with the facts of Communist infiltration and Communist power in the various nations outside the Iron Curtain, you can readily see that the chances for still greater expansion of the Red empire are bright indeed — for the Kremlin Red bosses in Moscow. At least a dozen nations are in extreme jeopardy of falling into the full grip of the Communist masters.

Finally The U.S.A.

Their timetable calls for the conquest of Asia first, then Africa, then Europe, and then the American hemisphere. They are just as confident that they're going to succeed in taking it all over as they are that the sun will keep rising in the East. The present peace front is just a part of the Red's global strategy. To their millions of conspirators throughout the free world, they reported not long ago that soon they would develop a new propaganda "peace offensive" that would make previous ones look timid. And that is what they're doing.

Just last week I talked with Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi, who was Finance Minister in the Hungarian Cabinet when the Red's swept down into Hungary at the end of World War II with glowing promises of "cooperation." He remained Hungarian Finance Minister, making frequent trips to the Kremlin until he found out the true nature of Stalin and his crew. Just a few weeks before the Communists clamped down on Hungary and took over, killing all who resisted, Dr. Nyaradi escaped. He ultimately found his way to America. For the past several years he has been chairman of the Department of Economics at Bradley University.

Red Strategy

"The present so-called turn-about on Stalin," he said, "and all the other peace-like activities are merely strategic moves on the part of the Communist bosses calculated for one purpose and one purpose alone — to lull the free nations to sleep again with the thought that the Communists are softening up. America will be foolish indeed if it swallows this propaganda about how good the present leaders are going to be and how bad Stalin was.

They are all in the same mould. They have only one purpose in life — to Communize the world and place the Red Army as the police force over every nation."

It is so very important for every American to have a clear understanding of the nature of Communist. You can get a brief but sound education on the conspiracy by asking your Congressman to send you "The Communist Party of the United States of America — What it is, How it Works," a 100 page pamphlet compiled by the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee. You may also obtain a free copy by writing The American Wage Earners Foundation, 30 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Junior Gets "Pinned" Down

Junior Baker and friends are all set for their circus. Look for their advertisements on neighborhood trees.

The kids have had problems in staging the event. The biggest was the admission fee. Junior wanted to charge five cents, Mrs. Baker thought it would be much nicer if they charged five pins.

So Junior held a meeting with his Directors—then told his mother they'd taken her advice. The ads now read: Giant Circus in Baker's Backyard. ADMISSION FIVE PINS PLUS FIVE CENTS TAX.

From where I sit, that's a cute example of a mighty important point—if you want things to turn out your way, then you had better let the other fellow have his choice, too. For instance, if your taste should happen to run to, say, iced tea ... then you owe it to yourself to see that those who prefer beer, buttermilk or what-have-you get to enjoy their favorite beverages, too. After all, turn about's fair play.

Most modern truck V8's ...and the pounds prove it!

Pound for pound, the most powerful truck V8's today are Chevrolets. That's one way you can tell they're the most modern V8's going!

Chevrolet's modern short-stroke V8 truck engines do more work for their weight than any other V8 in any truck today!

That means they carry around fewer pounds for power they develop. (They weigh up to 200 pounds less than other comparable engines!) It means, too, that less of the maximum truck G.V.W. consists of engine weight—and more is devoted to payload.

Stop by and let us give you the facts on Chevrolet's compact, super-efficient truck V8's.

Weigh the facts...
and you'll choose today's most modern trucks

Wasted weight is engineered out of Chevrolet truck V8's! The ultra short-stroke of Chevrolet's truck V8's makes possible a rugged yet compact cylinder block. Modern design cuts down engine weight and increases engine efficiency.

More power per pound means more power for your payload! Since less power is used in moving engine weight, a bigger proportion is available for moving your payloads. You get hour-saving performance on the job. And modern V8 power saves dollars, too!

There's a modern V8 for every Chevrolet Task-Force truck! There's a powerful, deep-breathing V8—either standard, or optional at extra cost—in every Chevrolet truck model. Horsepower ranges as high as 195 for fast, efficient high-tonnage hauling.

James A. Enderby States Policy in Commissioner Race

In announcing my candidacy for County Commissioner of our Precinct, I did so with the thought in mind that I could capably fill the office and be pleasantly employed therein, and I am still of the same opinion.

I have resided on a farm since my birth, and have been engaged in farming and stock raising. As most of you know, farming has not always been too profitable, and it has been necessary for me to watch my expenses and improve my methods of business.

My family has resided in Cooke County since its early days, and as a native of the county with no thought of residing elsewhere, I have a deep attachment for the county, as I do for my family and church, and am now and have always been interested in its betterment.

If elected County Commissioner: I shall always bear in mind that our County Government belongs to the people of the county and exists solely for their benefit. I shall keep myself at all times fully informed as to the financial condition of the county and of its various offices. I shall endeavor to see that all equipment, materials and supplies required by the county are purchased at the lowest prices obtainable, and that other expenses are kept at a minimum. As a member of the County Board of Equalization, it shall be my purpose to have all property within the county assessed as fairly and uniformly as possible. I shall cooperate with the State Highway Department in improving all highways within the county and extending the farm-to-market roads to all areas of the county. I shall widen and improve our county roads, bridges and culverts where necessary to properly serve those using them, endeavor to make them more permanent, and maintain them in good order. And finally, I would devote my best efforts to giving you value received for your tax money.

Our County Government is a big business and of increasing importance. Last year the tax valuations amounted to $38,191,600.00, the receipts amounted to $599,054.93 and the disbursements to $529,102.14. All have more than doubled within the past 15 years. My opponent is now seeking his fifth term, and during his four terms of eight years has had ample time within which to present and have adopted his ideas for the improvement of the county and its government. All will agree that no one is indispensable, and I would like the opportunity of serving you and contributing my ideas and efforts for a better county.

I, therefore, earnestly solicit your support and shall be grateful for your votes on July 28th.

Respectfully,
James Abner Enderby

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL * OUR STRENGTH
The time to fix a leaky roof is before it starts raining. That old adage can be re-worded and applied to building terraces. The time to build terraces to give added protection to sloping cropland, to prevent erosion, and get more water in the soil is before the rains come.

Many of the land owners cooperating with the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District are doing just that. They are putting terraces on their fields at this time to prevent soil and water losses when the rain does come.

Wilfred Reiter is building 4500 feet of terraces on the farm he leases from S. D. Meador. He is building the terraces with farm equipment using a three-disc plow and the island method of construction. This will give him a wide terrace ridge that is easy to plant and easy to harvest.

Mrs. W. W. Sicking's farm at Myra is getting 15,000 feet of channel type field terraces. These are the wide, easy to cross type with a low ridge and wide channel. They outlet onto Bermuda grass waterways planted two years ago to make a safe outlet for terrace water. The waterways also serve as improved pasture strips. Leo Mosman operates the Sicking farm.

Walter Reed is constructing 3500 feet of channel type terraces on his farm southeast of Myra. These will give added protection to 20 acres of sloping cropland. The terraces will empty onto a Buffalo grass waterway that was seeded for that purpose.

The continuing drought has brought on several requests for tanks for livestock water. J. W. Hess has recently completed an enlargement of a small tank in his south pasture. The pasture is an old field area that has been seeded to King Ranch Bluestem.

T. F. McKenzie has built a tank and diversion terrace on his farm at Myra. The tank and terrace catch hill water from the pasture and channel the excess water onto a Coastal Bermuda grass waterway sodded this spring. Tanks to provide livestock water have been staked on the Jack Hoffman, Levi Busby and Wayne Thompson farms near Saint Jo.

Ground Observers Will Meet Friday

Members of the Muenster post of the Ground Observer Corps will have a training class Friday night at 8 o'clock in Muenster High School.

Announcing the meeting this week, Post Supervisor Jimmy Lehnertz emphasized the urgency of full attendance. The purpose is to study method and procedure in ground observer work.

A Wasp You Can Sit On

VESPA means "wasp" in Italian. It also means motor scooter in Italian and in practically every other language in the western world. Hundreds of thousands of Vespas buzz through the teeming traffic lanes of Rome and Paris, scoot up and down the Alps of Switzerland, Italy and France and bowl along the famous Autobahns of Germany. Dr. Enrico Piaggio of Genoa, inventor of the Vespa, presided just the other day at the ceremonial emergence of the millionth machine from his production line.

And there are signs, especially in Hollywood and on sundry college campuses, that the two-wheeled Italian wasp may prove to be another of the many European ideas to be lifted bodily into the American way of life. Here, the Vespa could provide at least a partial answer to our growing traffic congestion, and would certainly solve the parking problem for its owner.

Our automobile manufacturers have struggled for years to sell the "second car" idea, but so far as most of us are concerned, the economic facts-of-life have been against them. In Europe, where the FIRST car is beyond the reach of the great majority, these "little cars on two wheels" have solved the housewives' shopping problem as well as the breadwinners' need for personal transport. Here, this low-cost buzzer — it gets about 100 miles on a gallon of gas — may well settle the perennial family argument over who gets the car today.

Vespa, as we said, is good Italian for wasp. It is also a byword for going places, independently — which has long been an America habit. So... we shouldn't be surprised if they were swarming here before long.

The Market's Poor And May Get Worse

The drought is hurting cattle prices lately. Feed shortage all over the state is forcing stock raisers to get rid of their cattle, and the surplus is forcing the market down.

The big problem is whether to sell now or gamble against probable further drops in the market.
