

Will the pool open this summer?

by Janet Felderhoff
Without a pool manager and enough lifeguards, the Muenster Pool might not open this summer. Although ads have been running to recruit a manager and lifeguards, all of the positions have not been filled.

Work is in progress to ready the pool for the summer, but without staff it can't be opened, said Ben Bindel of the Muenster Park Board. Many children from Muenster and the surrounding area count on the Muenster pool for much of their summer recreation.

Before anyone can be hired as a lifeguard they must obtain a life guarding certification. To take this class one must be at least 15 years of age; able to swim 500 yards continuously, using the following strokes for 100 yards: crawl, breaststroke, and freestyle; submerge to seven feet, retrieve a 10 pound object and return to the surface; and tread water for two minutes using legs only.

These classes are being offered April 26 through May 7 at the Gainesville State School from 6 to 10 p.m. weekdays and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday May 1. There is an $85 charge. Those successfully completing the course receive a Life Guarding certification, CPR for the Profession Rescuer and First Aide certification.

Teaching the class are Jeannine Flusche and Patrick McCage. To register contact Jeannine Flusche at (940)759-4497. The last date to register is April 23.

Lifeguards begin at minimum wage, $5.15 an hour. Salary for the manager is negotiable. This could be an ideal summer job for a college student or a teacher. The $85 class charge will be paid by the City of Muenster for those employed as lifeguards and qualifying.

High winds Tuesday afternoon sparked a barn fire at the Chris Hundt residence northwest of Lindsay. Cinders from an earlier control burn started the blaze that totally destroyed the barn. Contents lost included some straw hay and an antique tractor. Volunteer fire departments from Lindsay, Myra, and Muenster responded to the call. Above, Matt Bezner of the Lindsay Department keeps gasoline tanks cooled off for the fire to burn down. Photo by Janie Hartman

Commissioners decision nixes private ambulance service

by Janet Felderhoff
Request denied was the unanimous decision of Cooke County Commissioners Court concerning a request for private ambulance service in the county. Ambulance company owner Lee Turner hoped to get a service for several transfers in the Muenster and Gainesville areas, not to interfere with the county 911 service.

County Judge Bill Harris and the director of emergency medical services, Bob Harbin, studied the situation and report to Commissioners Court. According to Harbin, Turner wants two companies with a total of five trucks and 20 personnel. Information given Harbin by TDH is that most of them are off-duty firemen from the Metroplex.

"He (Turner) had indicated at he wanted to put a truck here 24 hours a day, but what he's been telling the hospitals is that he wants to do the non emergency transfers and if there's enough business he'll put a truck up here 12 hours a day," Harbin said. "I don't really have a problem with him being in here except that the non emergency transfers are 25% of our revenue. Every dollar they take up has to be made up in tax dollars to account for that. There's no way I can reduce staff and run an emergency service."

Sergeant Ray Sappington of the Texas Department of Public Safety convinced the Court, 5-0, that having Internet access would be beneficial for his department. Sappington is head of troopers stationed out of the Gainesville and Sanger offices. His troopers are required to complete a TCLOSE (Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education) training class before August.

The training class is available over the Internet and counts for 20 hours of credit. The other option is to send troopers to places across the state where the course is being offered at different times. These classes only count as four credit hours. It would also involve pulling a trooper off of patrol duty for a day to attend class.

Another savings in time would be that forms are available over the Internet and would save someone driving to pick them up in another area as happened recently. Lengthy documents must now be faxed requiring a long distance phone call; this could be done via Internet saving money, said Sappington.

Sappington will cover the charge out of his budget. The cost is $19.95 per month if paid six months in advance and $24.95 if paid monthly.

Commissioners adopted a resolution and will, along with the Gainesville City Council, recommend that the State build a loop east and south of Gainesville. Commissioner Bill Cox noted that even if the recommendation is approved it would be another five to 10 years before the loop is built and he felt it was necessary to act now. (See map page 3)

Judge Harris explained that the loop would be located on Radio Hill Road around to the overpass at 1306. A study was done by the state about four years ago, said Judge Harris. The state followed the high places to eliminate problems with water, bridges, etc. The route isn't definite yet.

A landfill used by the county on the Starkey Wilson place near Myra in Precinct #4 has received approval for final closure, both from the county and from the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission (TNRCC). It was closed Sept. 15, 1993. A final inspection was held recently and the site passed. Commissioner Virgil Hess received a letter from TNRCC stating that, "This site has completed post-closure care and maintenance requirements and therefore the file for this permit has been marked closed."

Hess reported that all the county is now required to do is minor maintenance such as mowing once a year.

April 12, 1999 was declared Valley View Lady Eagle Day in Cooke County. This was in honor of the girls' basketball team earning the runner-up State Championship. Team members were named along with their coaches Bobby Bates and Robin Hess.

In other business conducted during the April 12 meeting Commissioners Court:

- Accepted bid of $42,000 from Texas Trucks for a 1994 tandem axle truck for Cooke County Precinct #4. Other bids submitted were from East Texas Sales, $43,500 on a 1995 model and $58,850 on a 1999 truck.
- Authorized County Judge to advertise for bids for a Depository Contract for funds of Cooke County, Texas.
- Approved installation of a buried cable on CR 202 for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.
- Authorized County Judge, on behalf of the Commissioners Court, to write letters recommending certain legislation pending before the Texas State Legislature.
- Approved monthly bills, minutes of previous meeting, and reports received.

Three members of the 1999 Sacred Heart Tigerette state championship basketball team have been named to the TAPPS 2A -State Team. Kayla Felderhoff, left, and Sarah Hess were chosen to be first team, while Joanna Gehrig, not pictured, made the second team. All three are expected to be an asset to their team next year. ## Enterprise places in NETPA newspaper contest in Arlington

by Janet Felderhoff
Muenster Enterprise publisher David Fette and photographer Janie Hartman attended the NETPA (North East Texas Press Association) Awards Luncheon and Advertising Seminar on Saturday, April 10. The event was held at the Hilton in Arlington.

As a contestant in Division Five for weekly newspapers 1,500 to 3,000 circulation, The Muenster Enterprise won several awards. In Sports coverage the Enterprise received a second place for "extended" coverage. A fourth place was awarded in advertising for "good ads" that were "very crisp."

Ed Cler took third place in the Column Writing division. The judge was especially impressed with his May 15, 1998 column about his hard working mother. "A wonderful tribute to "mom" that alone was good enough for third place. It's a column most of us can relate to," said the judge's critique.

Janie Hartman earned a second place award as Photographer of the Year in the weekly division. The judge wrote, "Photos well-composed, well-cropped, great action (sports). Good perspective... nicely structured - nice eye!" Each photographer was asked to submit two photos each from sports, spot, and stand alone. Janie chose a Feb. 6 basketball shot and a March 27 track shot for sports; an air balloon shot from Jan. 16 and a photo of the Sacred Heart Church steeple from April 10 for spot photos; stand alone photos were of Ryan Felderhoff practicing roping for the Sacred Heart Buckaroo Ranch Rodeo from Feb. 30 and from March 13 a calf with a tire around it head.

The Muenster Enterprise was credited with being a good solid community newspaper.

Muenster joins the Great American Cleanup

by MaryLee Alford
April 10 was the Great American Cleanup, the Great MESS WITH TEXAS Trash-Off and Muenster's Trash & Treasure Hunt organized by Keep Muenster Beautiful, formerly known as Muenster State Bank. Twenty-six local businesses and individuals donated a total of "treasures" for the hunt. "Treasure" cards are hidden on highways, streets and in a park for participants to find as they picked up trash. Sixteen teams organized to pick up trash. Vice Officer Bob Stovall used the Highway to ensure traffic slowed down, making the highway areas safer. Dr. Drey Morrill was present to provide medical care when needed.

After a safety meeting with 166 registered participants, 16 groups hit the road in their blaze orange vests and gloves. The complete Germanfest Fun Run route and 10 miles of the Germanfest Bike Rally route were only part of the 29.4 miles of highway, streets and park area cleaned. More area was cleaned and more trash bags filled with fewer participants than the October cleanup. A total of 298 30-gallon trash bags were filled and 538.5 man-hours were spent on this volunteer effort on the day of the Trash-Off. Muenster will shine for Germanfest!

While most groups participated during the official Trash & Treasure Hunt time of 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, after lunch the Boy Scouts returned to their 2 miles of Adopt-A-Highway area and continued to clean until 3:30 p.m. The Boy Scouts picked up a total of 64 bags and other debris on the first two miles of Highway 82 going east.

While the "hunters" were picking up trash, other workers were busy cooking the delicious, special Fischer's Wieners donated by Fischer's Meat Market & Grocery. The hot and thirsty enjoyed iced sodas donated by the Jaycees and Bayer's Kolonialwaren.

Lunch ceremonies included an award presentation to students who won the Keep Muenster Beautiful poster contest sponsored by the Muenster State Bank, who gave each winner a $50.00 U.S. Savings Bond. The winners are Megan Hesse in Sacred Heart Kindergarten; Mary Cochran in Sacred Heart first grade; Andrew Moody in Muenster ISD second grade; Emily Endres in Muenster ISD third grade; Kristen Miller in Sacred Heart fourth grade; Joelle Fuhrmann in Sacred Heart fifth grade; and Eric Endres in Muenster ISD sixth grade. The winners were selected by an art professor at NCTC to ensure objectivity. Winning posters may be viewed at Muenster State Bank. All poster entries are displayed in businesses throughout Muenster. Karl Fisher was presented a cash award for his winning slogan, JOIN THE CROWD. BE MUENSTER PROUD!

The most interesting things found on the highways were a nice set of dentures still in their box, a $20.00 bill, $50.00 pesos, a signed love letter, and two pair of men's underwear found at different locations on Highway 373.

The purpose of the cleanup efforts throughout the United States is to remind people that littering is shameful and illegal. Please don't litter.

From My Side of the Fence

by Ed Cler

Time does march on. The years have a way of slipping by - one hardly knows when one year ends and another begins.

Friday, March 9, was our youngest daughter's birthday - her 47th. She and her husband Jerry Cash, and their two children, Mindy and Jeremy were our guests from Wednesday until Saturday morning.

Both Christa and Jerry needed to be at work Monday morning. Jerry flies Coca Cola's company jet and Christa works at the school in Kennesaw, Georgia, where the family lives. Kennesaw is a suburb of Atlanta, and is a beautiful place.

It's still a shock to remember when Chris was 14, when the doctors found she had cancer, and Aileen and I were informed she had only a few weeks to live.

Well, thank God for a lady doctor from Wichita Falls who would not believe the worst and had us move her to Maxfield's Clinic in Dallas where she underwent Cobalt therapy, and now 33 years later she is going strong.

Mindy is 17, while Jeremy is 12, and are both Jerry's and Christa's children by choice. They are a lovely family, and it is always a wonderful thing to see all of them. They are a happy family and we hated to see them go.

Saturday was a work day for Aileen and three of our boys. They spent the greater part of the day cutting brush and trimming trees on the bluff just east of our house. Their work did much to improve the looks of the place.

I've been telling people who ask how we like living in the city that we are almost out in the country. In looking at a plot of the lot, we find that the easternmost part of the lot is outside the city limits, so I suppose we can rightfully claim being close to the country.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir,

We would like to express our gratitude to the people of Muenster, who have made three strangers feel very much at home. Travel to an unfamiliar destination often creates apprehension, as well as hopeful expectation. Each of us can honestly say our expectations were surpassed, and each apprehension erased.

We came to Muenster approximately one month ago as a survey crew working on the Elm Fork 19 Project. This project is more commonly known as the Muenster Lake project. We were warmly greeted and made welcome from the first day we arrived.

The Citizens of Muenster should be extremely proud of the good will they foster. The sense of pride in family and community is evident in each smiling face. It is truly heartwarming to walk in a store, or down the street and be greeted with a "hello" or a wave. And, in the short time we've been here, we've come to regard your town as our second home.

We want to thank each of you, who made our stay here so enjoyable. In particular, we would like to thank the following: John and Pat Yosten, who truly embody the term "great neighbors" and friends; Babe Schilling, who was a great landlord; Val Fuhrmann, another good neighbor; Paul Bayer, who has taught us much about humility and who has extended to us every kindness (we wish him and his family great happiness in their future endeavors); Stephen Broyles, City Administrator; and, the whole staff and crew with the City for all their assistance; Paul Becker and Doug Fleitman, two great heavy equipment operators; the employees at Fischer's who helped us stay well stocked in every kind of food imaginable; and all the NRCS employees who helped us make this a very successful project.

We hope to come back to Muenster again, and look forward to seeing all the friends we have made here. Until that time, we say thanks again for making our stay here so memorable.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor,

I would like to respond to the April 4th letter from Carla Bennett of the People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA), a group who is now using billboards claiming that Jesus was a vegetarian.

First, let's put the Jesus and vegetarianism notion to rest. Religious scholars from across the United States have called this issue total "baloney." Michael White, director of University of Texas' religious studies program calls the claim "pure quackery." The good book itself reveals the facts in Luke 24:41-43 --- the risen Christ appeared to His disciples: He said to them, "Have ye here any meat?" So they gave Him a piece of broiled fish and some honeycomb. And He ate it in their presence.

Second, let's reveal PETA for who they really are. PETA is a radical animal rights group that misleads and confuses the American public in hopes of promoting their ultimate goal of no use of animals whatsoever - for work, for food or for companionship. And you don't have to believe me, you can read it for yourself. The following are quotes taken directly from the founder of PETA, Ingrid Newkirk:

"Humans have grown like cancer. We're the biggest blight on the face of the planet." Reader's Digest, June, 1990.

"Pet ownership is an absolutely abysmal situation brought on by human manipulation." Washington Magazine, August 1986.

"Even if animal research resulted in a cure for AIDS, we'd be against it." Vogue Magazine, September 1989.

When we read or hear claims by PETA and other radical activist groups, I hope we all will take the time to peel back the layers and learn the real facts. As a member of a community who relies on agriculture production for our livelihood, I know I will.

Sincerely,

Haywood passes hospital district legislation

State Senator Tom Haywood announced the passage of Senate Bill 1628, relating to the Muenster Hospital District.

The Act creating this hospital district was passed by the 66th Legislature of the State of Texas in 1979. The Act has not been amended since it was originally passed, and no longer accurately reflects the needs of the district.

"I filed this legislation to bring the Muenster Hospital District in line with the ever changing needs of rural health care providers," Haywood said. "This bill allows the district to more aggressively recruit doctors and finance the district's additional needs."

Currently, the Texas Election Code establishes deadlines for certain filing, for election orders, and for publication of election notices. In holding director and bond elections, the hospital districts are governed by the Election Code to the extent their enabling acts do not contain opposing provisions. If the deadlines in the enabling acts are different from those in the Election Code, it would cause conflicts in running the election, especially if there is an unopposed election as often happens in these districts.

The Election Code deadlines are as follows:
 • 3,005: Time for ordering election -- 45 days before election date.
 • 144.005: Time for filing application to be on ballot -- 45 days before election date.
 • 4,003(a)(1): Time for publishing notice of election -- Not earlier than 30 days or later than 10 days before election date.

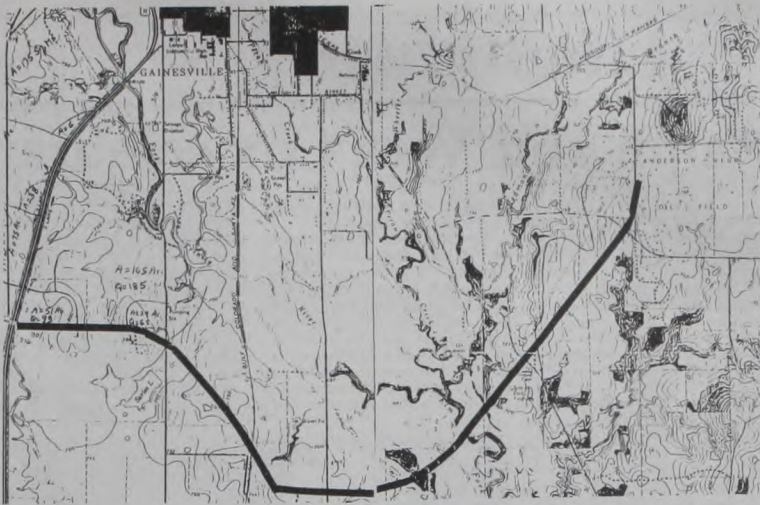

As proposed, S.B. 1628 changes election times of the Muenster Hospital District to correspond with the Election Code.

Forum announced for Lindsay school board candidates

Anyone interested in how Lindsay ISD school board candidates stand on certain issues should mark Tuesday, April 20 at 7:30 p.m. The Lindsay Education Association/TSTA is sponsoring a forum for the purpose of informing the public before the election on May 1. It takes place in the Lindsay School Cafeteria.

Tom Carson is the moderator. The same question and answer format used by the League of Women Voters will be used.

The heavy black line on this indicates the proposed route of the Gainesville loop suggested by the Texas Department of Transportation. The Cooke County Commissioners formed the resolution Monday.

Thornberry hosts Academy Forum

U.S. Rep. Mac Thornberry (TX-13) announced that he will be hosting an Academy Forum in Wichita Falls this Saturday, April 17, for area parents and students who are interested in attending one of the Nation's military service academies.

"Nominating young people to our Nation's service academies is one of the more uplifting parts of my job in Congress," Thornberry stated. "It's also something that not a lot of people are familiar with. One of the reasons I'm holding this forum is to give students and their parents more information about the service academies, what they have to offer, and what those interested need to do to apply."

The Academy Forum will be held from 10:00 - 11:30 a.m. in the Bank One Tower conference room, located at 4245 Kemp Boulevard in Suite 514. Representatives from West Point, the Naval Academy, the Air Force Academy, and the Merchant Marine Academy will be on hand to speak and answer questions regarding their respective institutions. As a member of Congress, Thornberry can nominate up to five students for each service academy. That number varies, he noted, depending on how many students from the 13th District are attending an academy at the time of nomination. Applications for nomination must be submitted to Thornberry by November 1 of a student's senior year.

Area residents with more questions about Saturday's Academy Forum are encouraged to contact Thornberry's office in Wichita Falls. The number is #692-1700.

Letter to the editor

etter to the Editor:
 ril 12, 1999
 I really enjoyed the Sunday services by Fr. Tom. It was such a meaningful ceremony for the two baptisms services. I was fortunate enough to have an aisle seat and was able to sit at the youngster about to be baptized into the Catholic church.

Also as usual Fr. Tom delivered a very elegant and beautiful sermon for the day, and I was ministered to by the lovely choir. I almost didn't make the services feeling I wasn't up to it, but I guess the Good Lord prodded me along. The main words that struck me was the GREETINGS that Jesus gave the disciples assembled, "PEACE BE WITH YOU!" Doesn't that say a lot? When I receive a greeting of, "How are you?" I really don't know for sure how to answer. It is really a close friend that is wanting to actually know the facts, or just a greeting? So why don't we change to the greeting that Jesus used? "PEACE BE WITH YOU."

Just briefly to call your attention if you didn't notice in last week's paper, Muenster telephone announced that this week the extended service will be working. I have had numerous calls and questions put to me upon meeting people or the past 3 1/2 months while we waited for it to happen. We need to compliment Muenster telephone because they could have delayed up to five months to initiate.

One other small item, I would like to mention to keep information clear. We had a letter to the Editor by Alvin requesting support for the legislation they are supporting. There is always a statement if they receive a bill they will have to raise our local rates. Why is it that Southwestern Bell had been able to amass such a fortune of money to be able to buy out telephone companies in other states from the profits made off of us in Texas. The consideration in the other bill was to take only two cents from the over 12 cents they are presently receiving from the Long Distance carriers. The eventually heading will be that the final monopolies of the intra state carriers and the local exchanges will have to compete for the business as a regular profit company. The monopoly has completed its goal of making it possible for the companies to get good equipment and in sound financial condition. If they are allowed to keep amassing more and more money, they will be able to buy out and control the industry once again. It is difficult for us to get all of the acts, but insist that our legislators make a thorough investigation. Some thing is wrong when there is a charge of over 12 cents a minute to the Long Distance carriers, when as an example in California by the same SW Bell they charge less than two cents. In some states they have already opened up Local Telephone service to competition by the Public Utility Commissions for over 20 years. Anyone that can get on the Internet can get much more information than we receive from the advertising statements. AT&T, MCI World Com and many other Long Distance carriers are going to a minimum charge of $3.00 or more per month if you make any call or not. They say the local Telephone co. receives from 10 to 20 dollars per month for going over their local lines. So why shouldn't they receive a monthly service fee.

Must close, David tells me I write too long. Auf wiedersehen. Peace be with you.

Ray Wilde
 P.S. Visitors always welcomed for a chat and coffee.

Ralph and Vera Cox celebrate 70th

The engagement and approaching marriage of Angela Holbauer of Muenster and Jeff Tempel of Myra have been announced by her parents, Dale and Dolores Holbauer of Muenster. Parents of the future-groom are Anna Margaret Tempel of Muenster and the late Joe Tempel. The bride-elect is a 1993 graduate of Sacred Heart High School and is currently attending North Central Texas College in Denton; she is enrolled in the Occupational Therapy Assistant Program. Jeff is a 1981 graduate of Muenster High School, and is employed by Cooke County Electric Cooperative. The wedding will be held in Sacred Heart Church in Muenster on May 29, 1999, officiated by Father Tom Craig, at 7:00 p.m. The couple plans to reside in Myra.

Ralph and Vera Cox of Collinsville celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary on Wednesday, April 14, 1999. Ralph is a retired Cooke County employee and Vera is retired from the Denton State School.

The couple married on April 14, 1929 in a brief ceremony performed in Collinsville by a Justice of the Peace. They resided in Southeast Cooke County before moving to Collinsville in 1973. They are members of Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Southeast Cooke County and have been active members of that church for the past 70 years.

Ralph and Vera were just teenagers when they pledged their marriage vows seven decades ago. During the 70 years of being man and wife, those two remarkable people have witnessed a great deal of history unfold. They have seen the evolution of travel from horse and buggy to the Model T Ford and then, years later, to men traveling in space.

Vera recalled how the two of them met. "We were young and went to the neighborhood dances," she said. "The first time I remember seeing Ralph I decided that we should meet and get acquainted." Ralph said that the first time he remembered seeing Vera was at the neighborhood saw mill. The couple knew each other for approximately one year before Ralph proposed marriage.

"I went to her house to ask her daddy for her," Ralph recalled. "I guess maybe he knew what I was going to ask, because he left and went to the field. So I went and asked her mother, and she said for me to go to the field and ask Vera's daddy." The young man did as he was told and Vera's father gave his permission for the marriage.

The first car that Ralph Cox owned was a Model T. "I wore one or two of them plum out," he laughed. Ralph says that Vera is an excellent cook, and she has prepared a lot of meals in their 70 years together. When asked what is the best food that she makes, he replies emphatically, "Sausage and gravy!"

The advice that is offered to young couples for a successful marriage is stated by Vera as she says, "Have lots of things to laugh about every day." Ralph smiles and nods his head in agreement to her wise words.

Ralph and Vera have one daughter, three sons, 12 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren, three great-great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson is deceased. Ralph and Vera Cox celebrated this momentous occasion of Wednesday, April 14 with their children, daughter Betty Cox Johnson and husband Calvin Johnson of Collinsville; son Glen Cox and wife Margaret of Odessa; son Glen Cox and wife Mary Ann of Collinsville, and son, Commissioner Bill Cox and wife Sheila of Southeast Cooke County.

Donor week nears

Themed "Give the Gift of Life," the National Organ/Tissue Donor Week will be observed April 18-24. It will emphasize the critical need of life-saving organ transplants and life-enhancing tissue transplants. More than 10 people die every day in this country, more than 4,000 Americans die each year, because of the shortage of donor organs. There are more than 65,000 people on the national waiting list; 3,000 are from Texas. The "Gift of Life" touches all people. A single organ and tissue donor can help more than 50 people. All major religions support donation. Donors and recipients are all ages and creeds, and from all cultures and social backgrounds.

More important than signing a donor card, is making an informed decision, and then SHARING your decision with family members.

For more information, call Southwest Transplant Alliance, public affairs department at 1-800-788-8058 or 214-522-0255. It is a federally designated agency, servicing more than 90 counties throughout Texas, working with more than 170 hospitals to offer families the option of organ and tissue donation.

Sexual assault stats shocking

by Lisa Magoffin

Sexual violence is a common thread that links us all together as a community; either as a survivor, as a friend, or as a loved one to a survivor. Recent statistics show that a woman is raped every 2 minutes somewhere in America. Almost 95,000 women and 9,000 men are sexually assaulted in Texas every year. Two million of the over six million Texas women ages 18 to 78 will be sexually assaulted in their lifetimes. Of the 5.2 million children in Texas, almost 2 million will be sexually assaulted and abused by the age of 18. One of the most alarming statistics is that less than one of three sexual assaults are reported to law enforcement.

The Rape Poem
by Marge Percy
There is no difference between being raped and being pushed down a flight of cement steps except that the wounds also bleed inside.

There is no difference between being raped and being run over by a truck except that afterward men asked if you enjoyed it.

There is no difference between being raped and being bit on the ankle by a rattlesnake except that people ask if your skirt was short and why you were out alone anyway.

There is no difference between being raped and going head first through a windshield except that afterward you are afraid not of cars but half the human race.

The bitter irony evident in Marge Percy's The Rape Poem, is not fictitious; it occurs everyday in our society. The evolution of sexism and sexual assault relies ironically on blaming the victim. In my hometown this year, perpetrator was convicted of aggravated sexual assault, aggravated kidnapping and aggravated robbery. His punishment for this crime was 10 years probation. When the jury was disposed, they stated that they gave the defendant probation because the victim was not a "good" victim. In translation, the victim's behavior before, during, and after the attack determined the penalty of the crime not the crime itself.

The month of April has been designated Sexual Assault Awareness Month in the state of Texas. This month is dedicated to making people aware that sexual assault is a crime, it's never the victim's fault, and the power to stop sexual violence is everyone's responsibility. The idea of having less sexual violence in our community means that each one of us must take a stand and confront faulty perceptions about sexual assault when it might be easier to be silent. The challenge is to know the difference. To understand that sexual assault is irreversible. To understand that the jury might not be seen, but is always felt. Most importantly, to know that sexual assault is not only against a person's body, but against their soul.

Enjoy Good Health

After menopause, can HORMONE THERAPY help prevent diabetes?

There is no question that hormone replacement therapy (HRT) can provide the protection a woman loses at menopause. We're talking about protection from heart disease, stroke, and brittle bones (osteoporosis). Indeed, according to a Milwaukee study, HRT after menopause may even help prevent diabetes in high-risk women. Specifically, menopausal women not on HRT were 5 time more likely to develop diabetes. This was true regardless of the women's age, weight, ethnic background, and family history. A large study at a California HMO found that HRT improves control of blood sugar. Researchers at Kaiser Permanente studied the records of more than 14,000 women, a radically diverse mix of women. Women taking HRT had lower levels of glycerated hemoglobin, a strong indicator of long-term blood sugar control. It was reported, too, that women with diabetes had a greater need for estrogen's heart protective effects than other women.

Joseph Davis finalist at state geography bee

Joseph Davis finished in the top ten finalists at the 1999 National Geographic Society State Geography Bee held at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth on Friday, April 9. Joseph, an 8th grader at Sacred Heart School, is the son of Kelly and Karen Davis of Saint Jo.

There are over 600 public and private schools statewide participating. In order to qualify for the bee, the students must first win the bee at their local school and then take a written test. Only the top 100 scores from the written test are invited to compete at the state bee.

In the preliminary rounds at the state contest each student is given ten questions. Joseph, along with seven other students answered all ten correctly, therefore qualifying them for the finals. Two other finalists were selected from the nineteen who missed only one question. The ten finalists competed in a question and answer bee on stage in front of the other contestants and sponsors. All ten finalists were awarded a large leather-bound Atlas of North America and a Dictionary of Geography. All participants at the bee were given a T-shirt and a Nystrom Desk Atlas. The winner of the state bee also qualified to compete at the national contest in Washington D.C. in May.

Involving as many as 5 million students a year, the National Geography Bee has coincided with a re-awakening of the nation's interest in Geography, which was the Society's primary objective when it created the competition in 1988. One sign that Geography has returned to the American classroom is the fact that the College Board is developing an advanced placement Geography course and test for use in the 2000-2001 school year.

Sacred Heart School, grades Preschool through Second, has many special events scheduled to celebrate the week. Parents are welcome to join in these activities.

Health Notes Minor burn treatment is cool water

No matter what folklore you've heard about putting a pat of butter or an ice pack on a burn — cool water is the best treatment.

Minor burns can often be treated at home. For a small injury that does not break the skin, immediately hold the burned area under cool running tap water for one to two minutes or until the pain eases. If the skin is broken apply a mild ointment or cream.

Using ice on a burn can cause more damage. If the injury is larger than the size of your palm, seek medical help.

Texas Farm Bureau sponsors summer agricultural institute

The Summer Agricultural Institute is a week long workshop sponsored by Texas Farm Bureau and Tarleton State University. The purpose of SAI is to inform educators about the importance of food and fiber production and show them how they can incorporate agricultural education into the classroom. The SAI will combine hands on learning activities about agricultural with practical curriculum development and usage.

Two sessions of the SAI will be held at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas. The first session will be June 28-July 2 and the second session will be held July 12-16.

Teachers attending the SAI will receive lesson plans for various grade levels, background material on Texas agriculture, videos for classroom use, Texas Agricultural Resource Guides, resource material from other agencies and organizations, and three (3) hours of graduate credit from Tarleton State University.

The SAI will be limited to 25 participants per session.

The Cooke County Farm Bureau and the Cooke County Young Farmers and Ranchers want to select two (2) teachers to represent our county at this year's institute.

Applications and information have been mailed to the elementary school principal of each school in the county. Applications must be completed and returned to the Cooke County Farm Bureau office in Gainesville by April 26, 1999.

The Cooke County Farm Bureau will pay the tuition and fees, room and board, transportation on field trips, and all resource materials.

Transportation to and from Stephenville is not included in the cost.

Lindsay High School is proud to announce their 1999-2000 cheerleaders and mascot. They are I-R, back - Sarah Trammell (head cheerleader), Hannah Trammell, Leslie Schumacher, middle - Abby Trammell, Robin Neu, Alex Haayen; front - Megan Ward, Stacie Sandmann, Karah O'Dell. This year 19 candidates tried out for the eight member squad, as well as two mascot candidates. After performing in front of the student body and a panel of judges, the new squad was chosen. ## Farm Bureau questions electrical deregulation or restructuring reforms

The complex issue of electrical deregulation, or restructuring, is before the Texas Legislature this spring. Senator David Sibley (R-Waco) introduced a bill (SB 7), laying out the ground rules for competition, or "choice," as it is referred to by proponents of the forms.

According to Cooke County Farm Bureau Board of Directors, the farm organization is studying the bill in comparison to its current position with regard to restructuring.

"The majority of our members belong to rural electric cooperatives, so how the legislation affects those Texas Farm Bureau members is very important to us," noted the board. "Our policy calls for all and public debate and that the benefits of restructuring be weighed against the economic and social consequences before any changes occur. We want to know, in advance. We can expect and we want the assurance that all customers will have access to reliable electrical service at fair and reasonable prices."

Agri-women petition for new stamp

American Agri-Women, a group of ranch, farm and agribusiness women's organizations, has launched a national campaign to commission a United States postage stamp honoring the contributions of American farm women. The petition drive continues to gain support.

Other issues that must be addressed to gain the support of Farm Bureau, include guarantees that the restructuring will be consistent with the goals of protecting the environment and cost-effective, sustainable energy technologies; and that adequate staff levels and training to ensure safety, reliability, customer service, and planning standards will be maintained.

Texas Farm Bureau also favors having the federal government set the framework for the implementation of changes in the structure of the electric utility industry.

Implanting pays when done correctly, improves gains

High-performance implants can improve cattle gains by 0.8 pounds per day and improve feed conversion, translating as much as $50 per head advantage over non-implanted cattle. But the implants must be administered correctly.

According to Hoechst-Roussel Vet, 8 percent are improperly implanted. Poor sanitation causes problems, such as crushed pellets, average an $18 per head loss. Cattle that lose implants result in losses as high as $50 per head.

The following procedures can help assure the full benefits of implants:

- Clean implant guns and trays before use and store in clean sealed containers
- Clean needle between each use with disinfectant.
- Clean, with disinfectant, soiled ears prior to implanting.

- Securely restrain each animal in the headgate.

- Place the implant in the middle one-third of the ear.

- If the needle slips over the surface of the ear, re-clean the needle.

- Pinch the injection site and slow the processing rate to a speed that allows careful implanting.

Guard against scours

Vaccinations alone will not provide 100 percent protection from calf scours. An effective program combines sound management and balanced nutrition with a well-planned vaccination program. Remember these tips to reduce calf loss due to scour infection:

Small baler market down but not out

The small square baler market has been decreasing over the past 15 years because making small bales is more labor intensive, noted Bob Hatz of the New Holland Company. But small bales offer high-quality feed, that is easy to handle, store within small areas, and much more transportable.

John Deere & Company noted that their annual sales have decreased to just over 3000 units, predicting the small square baler market to continue to decrease in the future, but have no plans to quit the business. Hesston and Case Corporation also have experienced decline in the market.

Hobby farmers and the equestrian market help offset small baler use. They are hay buyers who prefer not to use a tractor and loader to feed bales. Also the export market needs small bales and will continue to be in demand.

WATCH FOR ARMYWORMS

Along with spring showers, April can often bring armyworms to area wheat fields, hayfields, meadows and pastures. In years where large infestations occur, these caterpillars can strip fields almost overnight. Armyworm outbreaks are favored by cool, damp weather and while it is not possible to predict how serious armyworms will be, hayfields, meadows, small grains and seedling corn should be inspected during April and May for this pest. Cool, wet spring weather seems to favor outbreaks. Other species of armyworms include the fall armyworm which is less common but feeds on many crops throughout the year. The armyworm is sometimes referred to as the true armyworm to distinguish it from these other species.

Allen Knutson, Extension entomologist has alerted us that armyworms are active in area wheat fields. A few fields in Hill County were being treated for armyworms last week. Growers need to scout wheat and small grains for armyworms. Armyworms also feed on seedling corn.

Amyworm moths are especially attracted to tender, lush growing grasses, including wheat and other small grains, hayfields and pastures. There they lay their eggs in masses of 150 or more on leaf blades. The eggs yield armyworm larvae that feed for 3-4 weeks. Larvae are small at first, cause little injury and infestations often remain undetected at this time. However, larger caterpillars soon become eating machines and consume 80% of their total food during the last week of their life. Given their appetite and sheer numbers, armyworms can damage entire fields or pastures in a matter of a few days.

In wheat, loss of the flag leaf due to armyworm feeding prior to the hard dough stage may reduce bushel weight and yield. Treatment of wheat after all of the leaves have been eaten may be of little value. Armyworms occasionally feed directly on the seed in the head once leaves have been eaten and this damage should be considered in determining the economic return on treating fields.

True to their name, armyworms can also march from infested pastures and wheat field into adjacent corn and sorghum fields in search of food. Large numbers of hungry armyworms can move from stripped wheat and destroy a field of seedling sorghum almost overnight.

Frequently inspect fields in April and May to detect infestations early and if necessary, treat before extensive loss occurs. Fields with lush growth, often those well fertilized, are likely to be infested. Also, wheat fields with dense layer of dead leaves at the base of the plants may also have more armyworms than fields with exposed soil. Armyworms feed on leaves primarily at night and during cloudy weather. During the heat of the day, look for armyworms on the ground under leaf litter and loose soil. Also look for chewed leaves as evidence that armyworms are present. Insecticide treatment should be considered when infestations average 4-5 armyworm larvae per square foot and leaf loss is occurring. In wheat, the flag leaf should be protected through the soft dough period for optimum yield and bushel weight.

Feedlot cattle need something to scratch on

Cattlemen can reduce wear and tear on fences and other equipment by placing scratching objects in the feedlots for cattle to scratch themselves. Items may include well anchored wooden poles, very large rocks, or old field equipment parts.

Monthly Report by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service

Grapefruit
Texas grapefruit production forecast is 5.4 million boxes for the 1998-99 season, 13 percent above last year.
All orange production is estimated at 1.44 million boxes, down 6 percent from last year. The production of all oranges was 1.53 million boxes last year.

Onion

The 1999 spring onion production in South Texas is expected to total 3.43 million hundredweight (cwt). Based on an April 1 survey, planted acres increased 15 percent to 13,800.

Wheat

Texas wheat producers expect to harvest 95.0 million bushels this year, 30 percent less than the 1998 crop and 20 percent less than the 1997 crop. According to an April 1 survey, planted acreage for the 1999 crop is estimated at 6.2 million acres, up 2 percent from 1998 but down 2 percent from 1997.

Barbados (per head)

Kids: $20-$25. Nannies: $25-$40. Billies: $60-$95.

Meat Goats (per head)

Kids: $20-$25. Nannies: $40-$60. Billies: $60-$90. Select Group of Reg. Boar Goat Nannies $380 per hd. Billies $430 per hd.

Fertilize right

A main priority this spring, despite lower crop prices, is proper fertilization. Even small cutbacks of fertilizer may result in substantial yield losses.

Proper fertilizer application and timing often make the difference between average and top producing years.

Cutting back on soil testing is also a bad idea, resulting in applying unneeded nutrients while missing what the soil and crops really need. Research shows at least 35% of a crop yield is attributed to fertilizer.
