Deanery Service Here Will Honor Christ The King

Not since the close of World War II have we seen a sign as favorable as those developing in Poland and Hungary today. After these many years we have the best basis so far for a fervent hope that the beginning of the end has arrived for the Monster of Moscow.

Even more significant than the uprising of the Poles is Russia's failure to do anything about it. There is an admission of weakness in the Kremlin's docile agreement to withdraw warships as well as in its failure to call on Soviet troops. It did not lift a hand to contest the Polish ouster of Russian stooges nor the new government's declaration of independence.

While cheering these events we should bear in mind that the wicked rule of communism still has not been broken in those countries. Dispatches refer to it as a movement toward Titoism. Reds are still in control, the only difference is that they are interested primarily in their own countries rather than in Russia. Judging by the history of Yugoslavia, this still is far from ideal, but it is ever so much better than before.

We might say that this is a long step in the right direction. If two satellites can throw off the yoke others can do the same thing. There is a chance of similar developments in every one of the Balkan and Baltic countries. China likewise might be disposed to break away from its Soviet overlord.

Those events in themselves would go far toward eliminating the Red Menace as a threat to world peace. Separate communist governments without the unifying influence of Moscow would be much less effective in disrupting world affairs. Other countries, formerly afraid of the big criminal combine, would be more inclined to make a stand for their rights and petty red leaders would become more cautious. Meanwhile the arch criminal, Russia, would lose most of its international prestige.

This split-up really deserves our enthusiasm. The farther it goes the better off the world will be. Several mobs of gangsters, each concerned primarily with its own selfish interests, will give us less trouble than when they were organized as one big gang.

Most cheering of all is the possibility that these separate smaller gangs will be disposed of by their own countries. Movements like that in Poland and Hungary can conceivably snowball into an uprising that doesn't stop until it has shattered the entire communist machine. If nationalist reds can work themselves into position to oust the foreign stooges, anti reds can also maneuver themselves into power.

It's still early for anything more than wishful thinking. Russia may still succeed in holding the Poles and Hungarians under control. On the other hand we may at this very time be starting a new era in modern history.

Fortunately for this country, American voters are finding out in time what kind of person they have on the Democratic presidential ticket. By his constant harping on the bomb-testing issue Adlai Stevenson lines himself up squarely as a supporter of the Russian propaganda line.

The Ruskies have been nagging for years trying to stop, or at least retard, our development of nuclear weapons. Stevenson by his campaign stand on this issue is trying, wittingly or unwittingly, to accomplish the same thing.

Probably nobody in the country would go so far as to charge that Stevenson is deliberately supporting Soviet interests. Discarding that, however, we are left with other alternatives, which are no more complimentary. Either he doesn't know that the reds can't be trusted to discontinue their nuclear research, otherwise he doesn't know that his way would handicap our security efforts. Whatever the answer he does not qualify as the man to take charge of the nation's safety.

This political fiasco seems to indicate more than anything else that the Democratic nominee is getting some of his ideas from the self-styled "intelligentsia," who could be more correctly named the intellectual four Sacred Heart parish of Muenster will be the host next Sunday afternoon, Oct. 28, feast of Christ the King, for a gigantic procession and public display of faith in honor of Christ's Kingship. All parishes of the Sherman deanery will participate in the services.

The Blessed Sacrament will be borne in solemn procession, the Very Rev. John Duesman, dean, of Sherman, carrying the monstrance.

Formation of the procession will begin at 2:40 on the Sacred Heart football field, where an altar will be erected, and will get under way at 3 o'clock going north to Seventh Street, then west to Main Street, and then south to Sacred Heart church. A public address system with Ed Endres at the microphone will help direct movements.

A sermon on Christ the King will be preached in church by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Zachry of St. Patrick's church, Denison, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will follow.

The Rev. Patrick Hannon of Muenster will be master of ceremonies. Pastors of the 11 deanery parishes will join in the procession in their clerical robes, and a large number of acolytes in their respective garb, the Fourth Degree Knights in full

Ladies Will Collect For Cemetery Fund On All Saints Day

Next Thursday, the feast of All Saints, will be semi-annual cemetery collection day for members of Muenster's Sacred Heart parish. Representatives of the Civic League and Garden Club, which sponsors the cemetery beautification and maintenance program, will be at the church doors accepting donations after all the services on Nov. 1.

Until recent years the club collected only once a year but rising costs have made it impossible to finance a year of maintenance on one collection.

Regi Bayer Shows Champion Turkeys At Broiler Show

Regi Bayer showed the pen of grand champ turkeys at the annual 4-H Club and FFA Broiler and Turkey Show Saturday at Cooke county fairgrounds, and Clara Fleitman exhibited the reserve champion pen of broilers in the show. Both are members of Sacred Heart 4-H clubs.

Brent Hollandsworth had the champion broilers and Norma Jean Sellers showed the reserve champion turkeys. Both are from Callisburg. There were 56 entries in the broiler division and six in the turkey class. A broiler entry consisted of two pullets and two cockerels, and a turkey entry was made up of a hen and a tom.

Birds were classified by John Thompson and Bob Majors, representatives of Quaker Oats company in Sherman.

Blue ribbons went to 31 broiler entries and to all six of the turkey entries. There were 21 red ribbons and four white ribbons awarded on broilers.

Judges of the show praised the young people for their work and said they had done an outstanding job with their birds in spite of adverse weather conditions this year.

Arrangements for the show were handled by County Agent Neil Tibbet, Assistant Agent Rex Anderson and Vocational Ag Teacher V. S. Payne of Gainesville.

The broilers were sold to merchants for five cents above the market price.

Regi Bayer also had a pen of blue ribbon winning turkeys at the Dallas Fair. Cooke county 4-H and FFA entries in the State Fair made a good showing. From 68 entries in the junior market broiler show Cooke county entries received 17 blue ribbons, 40 red ribbons and 11 white ribbons.

Halloween Events At School Present Fun and Formality

Two separate events, a fun night and a formality night will mark the observance of Halloween at Muenster public school.

Tuesday night, Oct. 30, is the time for the annual Halloween carnival, in which every class and organization at the school operates some sort of concession to raise money for its treasury. There will be games, eats and drinks . . . fun for all, especially the tiny tots.

Wednesday night features a stage production lasting about an hour and fifteen minutes and featuring the coronation of the two Halloween queens, one in elementary, the other in high school. The elementary court will consist of her highness, princess from the other seven grades and their escorts. The high school court will include the queen, princesses of the three classes and escorts.

The identity of the queens will be determined by advance sales of tickets to the coronation program. The elementary and high school candidates whose classes lead in the contest will be the two queens and all the other candidates will be princesses.

Pomp and ceremony with lots of fancy costumes and fancy settings will feature the program and a narrative based on fact and fantasy will introduce each person and each event. Court Jester David Flusche will be the narrator.

Candidates in the elementary queen's contest, and their grades are: 1 Cheeta Tuggle, 2 Fredda Kaderli, 3 Jamette Hunt, 4 Linda Clayton, 5 Sandra Cain, 6 Sheila Hester, 7 Kay Fette, 8 Jeanette Walterscheid. High school candidates and their classes are: Freshman Marilyn Horn, Sophomore Judy Cain, Junior Jean Wieler, Senior Janice Klement.

Determined Tiger Stand Comes Late; Laneri Wins 20-0

Homecoming festivities and prospects for the district SAL title were both dampened here last Friday when the potent Laneri Micks of Fort Worth triumphed 20-0 over the Sacred Heart Tigers.

The first half of the game proceeded according to predictions as the Cowtown powerhouse marked up its three touchdowns, but the second half was a delight and inspiration to the home town fans. After intermission the inspired Tigers not only stopped the scoring but also played the long-odds favorites on practically even terms. Each team made four first downs in the defensive stalemate. Laneri gained 76 yards and the Tigers 71. During the first half the visitors led 140 to 21 in the yardage record.

Penalties against the Micks assisted the Tigers in starting the game with two first downs after which neither team made any headway until late in the period. Carminati did some fancy stepping before getting loose on his 44 yard scoring sprint.

Early in the next period the Mick attack clicked again. An interception put them in business on the 35 and seven plays did the job. Carminati again was the scorer, scooting through a big opening for 16 paces.

Again, a few minutes before the half, another interception

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. Clem Reiter was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Tuesday evening following eight days of medical care and treatments. She is up and around at her home.

Ben Fleitman Jr., seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fleitman, was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Wednesday after being a patient since Monday. He suffered a concussion in a fall at school and will be confined to bed at home for a few days.

An accident at work Monday kept Walter Rawley away from his business several days this week. He suffered painful but not serious burns on the face when a faulty kerosene torch exploded.

Crops String Along On Short Showers

Little by little the moisture situation improves in this community. Rains last Thursday night and Friday added .57 to the month's measure and gave grain crops a fine start toward developing into critically needed winter grazing.

Up to now, however, the rain is no more than a starter. Along with the .68 received early last week it makes only 1.25, which is enough to get crops out of the ground but does not supply the additional moisture to support continued growth. To get along the crop needs frequent small rains or a good soaker to store up subsoil moisture. The same condition prevails in pastures. Grass is showing up but it needs considerably more rain to develop to the grazing stage.

Rain for the month now stands at 1.73 and the total for the year to date is 13.17.

Tigers Prime for Rugged Contest on Windthorst Field

If history repeats itself Coach Jerry Vernon's Sacred Heart Tigers have a man sized job cut out for them Thursday night at 8 when they go to Windthorst for their second game of the season with the Trojans. From their experience last year they are aware that the tough Trojans are tougher than ever on their own battlefield.

'55 the Tigers went to Windthorst confident that their late season game was a breeze. A one sided win in the season opener gave them lots of confidence. But the Trojans had other ideas and as the game finally ended Sacred Heart barely salvaged a 27-27 tie.

The same situation prevails this time. The Windthorst fellows will put out their very best efforts to avenge their 20-6 loss here the first of the season.

As for the Laneri game last week, Herbert Walterscheid and Cecil Wolf will be out of the lineup. All the others are ready and able to get into the struggle.

Muenster Launches Advance Drive for 1956 United Fund

The 1956 United Fund campaign got under way in Muenster Tuesday with the appointment of 16 solicitors for the advance gifts drive, which is intended to reach business firms and a number of individuals who are able to make more substantial donations.

A general drive, in which others will be contacted, is due to be organized next week. The recommended donation in the general drive is one day's pay.

The campaign was started with a kick-off dinner at the Main Cafe Monday night. Herbert Meurer presided, substituting for Community Chairman J. M. Weinzapfel who is out of town. Arley Daurity and H. E. Heywood of Gainesville attended as members of the United Fund county committee. They delivered campaign material and explained the purpose of the organization . . . to help a number of participating charitable organizations with one big drive rather than conducting several smaller drives during the year. The system requires less work of solicitors and is less bothersome to donors. Besides it provides for some worthy causes which would otherwise be overlooked.

Listed as participating charities this year are 18 organizations including Red Cross, Salvation Army, Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Heart Association, Cancer Society and Optimist Boys' Club as the principal beneficiaries. Two other prominent organizations, Polio Foundation and TB association do not participate. The county's United Fund quota this year is $39,500. No definite figure was determined as this community's quota.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Endres are visiting in Rockford, Ill., with their daughter and family, the Joe Gormans. Going, they were accompanied by Charles McGannon who returned to Sacred Heart College at Watertown, Wis., after being here to see his parents, the Edd McGannons.

Fall Festival Set Nov. 4 As Benefit For Parish School

Sacred Heart school's annual Halloween Carnival will not be held this year, it has been announced. However, the yearly benefit will be given on Sunday, Nov. 4, and will be the school's Fall Festival.

Postponement of the Carnival was necessary in order to have Sunday free for the deanery's procession to be here on the Feast of Christ the King.

Roommothers of the school, faculty members and students, are lined up and working for the Festival which will have all the usual carnival features plus some new attractions. Plans are to begin the event with eats and drinks after the 10 o'clock mass and to continue through the afternoon and evening.

Sister Carmelita's grade is in charge of the country store and roommothers are soliciting articles to sell. Those with gifts to give are asked to leave them at Mrs. Val Fuhrman's home or to call her and she will pick them up. Or, if more convenient, the items may be left with Sister Carmelita.

Hornets Look Slick In Mud, Slip Past Callisburg 31-0

For that encounter with Callisburg last Thursday night Muenster's Hornet could very appropriately have adopted the name of Mud Daubers. They apparently were not a bit handicapped by the sloshy field as they breezed past the Wildcats for a 31-0 conference win.

Rain that started as a light drizzle shortly before the game lasted through the first half, at times coming down in torrents. It left the field covered with water puddles, the players soaked, the ball slippery and the footing treacherous. Nevertheless, the Hornets played as though they were on dry turf. They ran, they passed, and they kept a firm grip on the ball. They lost possession on a fumble only once, Callisburg lost five times.

Beautiful touchdown scampers, two each by Wimmer and Richey, and a sensational scoring pass to Kaderli were the plays which swamped the visitors from Callisburg. After playing second best through the first

Hornets Face Big Job in Game with V View Warriors

Football at Muenster High is due to be fast and furious Friday night when the Valley View Warriors of Wichita County invade the local field for their annual battle with the Hornets. Kick off time is 7:30.

Judging by their recent 28-13 decision over Windthorst, the Warriors appear to stack up about evenly with the Hornets. Both have a two touchdown margin over the Trojans. However the record on extra points leans definitely in favor of the Warriors. From that game as well as others it seems the Hornets will have to lead in touchdowns to sack up the decision. And that too will be a big job. A 48-26 win over Saint Jo leaves no doubt that Valley View has a scoring machine.

It can be assumed also that a win in this tussle is mighty close to the top of Valley View's want list, even though it is not a conference game. Last year Muenster nosed ahead 14-7 in a furious battle. The year before Muenster got all the breaks and ran away with the game 47-13. The Hornets will be out in full strength for the battle. Coach Hosea says that all are in good condition physically and mentally.

All other members of the 10-B district will be playing for the loop record this weekend. Saint Jo, after losing at Era, will try to keep in the race by dumping league leading Alford. Valley View will go to Sanger and Callisburg will go to Era.

In last week's games Muenster breezed past Callisburg 31-0, Era beat Saint Jo 18-7 and Alford nudged Valley View 13-6.

Only two teams, Alford and Era now remain undefeated in the conference race. The records are Alford 3-0, Era 2-0, Muenster 2-1, Saint Jo 1-1, Callisburg 1-2, Sanger 0-2 and Valley View 0-3.

Free Chest X-ray Unit Locates Here Oct. 31 and Nov. 1

Free chest X-rays will be available in Muenster Wednesday afternoon, October 31, and all day Thursday, November 1. The service, which comes to the community for the first time this year, will be set up in the display room of Endres Motor Company. It is sponsored jointly by the Cooke County Medical Association, the State Health Department and the Cooke County Tuberculosis Association. Hours listed are Wednesday 1:00 to 5:30 p.m. and Thursday 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Public response to the opportunity will determine whether it will become an annual event here. Dr. T. S. Myrick said this week that the community will have to meet a quota of 700 to assure the unit's return next year. That number should be reached easily, he believes, judging by the large numbers that went to Gainesville for X-rays in years past.

The value of this service can hardly be overemphasized, Myrick explained. Though conducted as a means of discovering TB, it is actually much more. It also reveals other chest irregularities that a patient might have and it frequently enables people to start treatment on ailments they were not aware of before. Any abnormality that shows up in an X-ray is brought to the patient's attention. To learn about an ailment, he said, may add years to a person's life. To receive a "clear" report is very comforting good news.

He also called attention to the cash value of the service. Normally the fee for an X-ray is $12.50 or higher.

Because of the benefits, and the remarkable bargain, Myrick urges all persons 15 years old and over to be there if at all possible. By doing so they will not only get the personal benefit of a fine service but will also help toward assuring it as a regular community institution in the future.

That factor in itself is very desirable to the community. It saves enormously in time and mileage. It also makes the service available to many who passed it up before because of the inconvenience of going to Gainesville.

A final reminder to those who cannot arrange to be there Wednesday or Thursday: The unit will be set up at Hurley Motor Co. in Gainesville from this Thursday through next Tuesday.

Muenster Juniors Tie Valley View

Kids of Muenster and Valley View fought to a 0-0 draw Tuesday night in their 10-B junior conference tussle on the Hornet field.

On both sides the story was the same . . . fairly good progress in the middle of the field but not the final drive to convert the effort to points. Each team made one nice drive of about 50 yards stopping near the 20. For the rest of the time they put on a defensive contest in mid field.

The Pee Wee's next encounter will be Tuesday night at Callisburg.

Jo Ann Hess Reigns As Queen Over SH Homecoming Events

While several hundred people watched Friday night, members of the Sacred Heart Tiger team and Pep Squad crowned a queen, bright-eyed Jo Ann Hess, and she reigned over the school's annual Homecoming celebration.

It was a pre-game ceremony and followed a pep rally and parade which formed at Main and Second Streets downtown and ended on the football field.

Tiger Co-captains Frank Fleitman and Kenneth Otto shared honors of the coronation, the former placing the crown on the head of Her Majesty and the latter presenting her a huge arm bouquet of red carnations. She in turn handed them the football for the game between the Tigers and the Laneri Micks of Fort Worth.

Queen Jo Ann's crown glittered with sequins and a royal white cape topped her bouffant white formal gown. Tiny Darlene Hess, Laurie Wimmer, Barbara Yosten and Janet Klement, also in white, were train bearers.

Princesses in the queen's court wore glamorous evening gowns. Carol Miller, in orchid, was escorted by Laneri Co-captain Joe Spreklemeyer; Suzanne Hesse, in blue, was escorted by Co-captain Kenneth Otto; Marilyn Hess, in blue, was escorted by Laneri Co-captain John Freeman and Her Royal Highness was escorted by Co-captain Frank Fleitman. They met their escorts on the 30-yard line and proceeded to the center of the field for the coronation.

Cheer leaders, heading the parade, carried red and white umbrellas and Pep Squad members formed an honor guard for the royal procession. An exhibition by the Pep Squad at half-time and dance after the game were also on the night's program.

Classes for Scout Leaders End Monday

Leadership classes for Girl Scout leaders and mothers will end next Monday, Oct. 29, with a program beginning at 9 a.m., featuring a cook out at noon and concluding at 2 p.m. A full attendance is urged.

Previous classes in the course were held at night from 7 to 10 o'clock in the city hall.

Monday's meeting will also start in the city hall and from there the group will go to the city park for the noon cook out. All those planning to attend are asked to notify Mrs. Fred Savage by Saturday, if possible, and not later than 8 o'clock Monday morning so that she can buy the food for the meal.

Miss Marjorie Arnold of Gainesville has been in charge of the classes of Tuesdays and Thursdays. This Thursday's meeting was cancelled. That part of the instructions will be included in Monday's session.

FHA Chapter Plans Coming Activity

In a regular meeting Friday members of the Muenster High Chapter Future Homemakers of America planned coming activity and set up the standards by which the FHA Girl of the Month will be selected.

Included on the list of coming events are the chapter's formal initiation of new members on Jan. 17, the Mother-Daughter banquet, also in January, and the group's Christmas project.

The girls will make Texas flags and send these with Christmas cards to a Wichita Falls hospital for patients to mail to their relatives and friends.

The chapter added a Civil Defense committee to the organization and appointed Pat Cain chairman.

The standards by which the Girl of the Month will be selected are: she must be an active member, attend all meetings, cooperate with the president, attain a B or above in studies, have good personal appearance, make outstanding contributions to school improvements, reach an established goal, must have or must be working on an FHA degree.

The chapter meets every third Thursday of the month for a regular session in the evening; call meetings are held on the first Friday of the month in the morning.

Joann Zipper of Fort Worth was here for a weekend visit with her parents, the R. M. Zippers.

RUDY HELLMANS ATTEND MARQUETTE HOMECOMING

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Hellman and son Dolphy Joe returned Tuesday noon from Milwaukee, Wis., after attending Homecoming ceremonies at Marquette University where their daughter Gretchen is a freshman student. They were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hugo Hellman after their arrival there last Thursday by plane.

The two families took in all the festivities and saw Gretchen perform in the big Marquette Band. She plays a saxophone. They attended the football game, banquet and dance and other social events connected with the gala program.

They returned home on the train and by coincidence met one of Rudy's classmates from student days at St. Mary's, Kansas. The two hadn't seen each other in 30 years. Rudy found out his friend lives in Chicago. He was enroute to Corpus Christi on business.

Ruth Voth is Bride Of Tommy Knabe in Rites Here Tuesday

Ruth Voth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Voth, and Tommy Knabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Knabe, were married at nuptial high mass Tuesday in Sacred Heart church. The double ring afternoon ceremony was read by Rev. Louis Deuster at 4 o'clock.

Anthony Luke, organist, played traditional wedding music, the church choir sang the mass and Mrs. Rody Klement presented vocal numbers before and after the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal magnolia white silk parchment satin and flower-patterned Chantilly lace, gown. The figurine bodice of lace over satin was designed with a portrait neckline accented with a satin fold applied with seed pearls. The long fitted sleeves were scalloped over her hands and the aisle wide satin skirt, enhanced with front and back panels of scalloped lace, swept to a full length cathedral train.

Her tiered elbow length veil of silk illusion was fastened to a coronet of seed pearls and iridescent paillettes. She carried a brown orchid and stephanotis on top of a white prayerbook, a gift from the groom. For something blue she carried a blue rosary, also a gift from the groom. Her pearl earrings were borrowed from her sister Mrs. Alfons Koessler Jr. and matched her pearl necklace.

Mrs. Koessler was her sister's matron of honor and LaVerna Hess of Fort Worth, niece of the groom, was bridesmaid. Their identical dresses were waltz length of ruby antique silk. The moulded elongated bodices had Dior necklines defined with a soft fabric fold ending in the back with a bow and streamers that extended the length of the dresses. The wide skirts were held out by crinolines. Their headpieces were of matching velvet with circular nose veils and their flowers were Talisman roses.

James Hess, nephew of the groom, and Gilbert Kubis of Lindsay, cousin of the bride, were best man and groomsman. Johnny Knabe and Urban Rohmer ushered.

After the service, the newly married couple went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine where the bride laid a bouquet on the altar while Mrs. Klement sang "Mother at Your Feet," with Anthony Luke playing the accompaniment.

Mrs. Voth attended her daughter's wedding in a charcoal gray suit dress with light blue accessories. Mrs. Knabe, mother of the groom, wore brown. They both had corsages of Talisman roses.

A reception and buffet supper in the parish hall was held after the services. The bride's parents were hosts and Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the meal. About 250 guests were registered by Janie Kubis of Lindsay and Carolyn Jo Schroeder of Windthorst. A dance in the VFW Hall concluded wedding festivities.

When Mr. and Mrs. Knabe left on their wedding trip she was wearing a brown sheath dress with a brown plaid jacket and brown accessories. They will make their home on a farm north of Muenster when they return.

Both the bride and the groom attended Sacred Heart school and he served in the army with duty in Korea.

WAY TO LOSE FREEDOM

When people become careless or neglectful of the privilege of voting for the governmental principles and the candidates of their choice they are creating a danger to the very existence of this basic freedom. By not exercising this great freedom of choice in governmental affairs they are handing over to someone else one of the commanding responsibilities of citizenship. And they must face this fact: The smaller the group that rises to dominant political power, the greater the danger of government becoming dictatorial and freedom being lost.

A Czechoslovakian refugee wrote a letter to the Christian Science Monitor which said in part: "You can't take freedom for granted. We Czechs learned that too late. We did not realize that with so many citizens who are indifferent, a small, well-organized minority can turn the tables and seize power."

Acted Too Late

"The average citizen of Czechoslovakia in January of 1948 felt that his country was free — free in the full meaning of the word as understood in the Western democracies. They knew, of course, that the Communists held many key positions in the government — but 'wasn't a new election coming up in March?' They'd soon put an end to that! So what happened at the polls? There the voters were confronted with the lists of these 'coalition' candidates (Communists), and their choice was limited to voting for or against them.

"As one of the voters in Prague that day, who was not blinded by Communist bluffs, I went to the polling booth, determined to cast a white ballot (NO) to the governments coalition. Like millions of others, I did not do as I had planned, and I returned home an hour later, discouraged, miserable and ashamed — having cast another vote for the hated dictatorship.

Minority Rule

"My reason for doing so was fear — fear of what consequences voicing my disapproval might have on me, on my friends and relatives. For the Communists were so determined to make the election a demonstration of their own superiority — they stopped at nothing to accomplish this aim. Slogans in the building where the election took place made this fact only too clear: ONLY A TRAITOR WILL VOTE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT. WE WILL KNOW HOW TO DEAL WITH THE ENEMIES OF THE PEOPLE.

"The election itself was a farce as far as any secrecy was concerned. Each voter was given two ballots — the government one was yellow, listing the candidates in black print; the other was white with a black X signifying 'No'. The elector's duty consisted of putting one of these pieces of paper into an envelope and then into the ballot box, and throwing the other away. The different-colored paper made it extremely easy for anyone, even at the other end of the room to tell how one had voted.

Can Happen Anywhere

"As the last vestige of former free elections, a screen was provided at the far end of the room for those who dared use it in order to vote secretly, but another poster on the wall said ominously: ONLY THOSE ASHAMED OF THE WAY THEY VOTE NEED TO HIDE BEHIND A SCREEN. But even

Is TV A Waste Of Time?

By Rev. Edwin B. Broderick, author of "Your Place in TV"

THE AVERAGE American child, according to recent surveys, spends about 18 hours each week watching television.

There are no available figures on adults, but when you consider that cities like Boston and Chicago have more TV sets than bathtubs and telephones, you can surmise that grown-ups are not too far behind.

MANY PESSIMISTS are unduly alarmed about this television trend. They talk about a "race of spectators" and a "generation of teledictors" in the making. And you have all met the fellow who, though his shoes were too tight, solemnly announces he "never watches TV," and calls it "a waste of time."

But you do not have to be extremists to ask questions about TV. The very fact that someone considers it a waste of time should make you ask yourself what you and your children get — or lose — from your hours before the set.

"Am I satisfied with the programs?" is an important question to ask yourself. If the answer is "No," then it is time you did something about them.

Many parents have complained to me about some TV shows. They have seen morally offensive programs and didn't know what else to do except flip the dial. Others didn't even do that much, for I have had viewers give blow by blow, quote by quote, descriptions of TV shows that they and their families should not have been watching. Remember, getting out of your cushioned chair to flick the TV dial is sometimes more than just an inconvenience; it can be a moral necessity.

FORTUNATELY the television industry is aware of its obligation. It has voluntarily drawn up its own Code which blueprints the industry's responsibility for the advancement of culture and education, for decency and decorum in production. Should you consider some show offensive, drop a polite note to the NARTB in Washington:

Speaking of criticism: Did you ever write a thank-you letter to the sponsor or to the station for a good program? You should. Being as alert to praise as to condemn is one way you can help make TV better.

REMEMBER TV is a gift of God and, like all His gifts when properly used, it prepares you for Heaven. The surest test of TV's value for you is to see whether it's been an aid or a hindrance in achieving your destiny — eternal life in heaven.

Never before in history has anything

built by man traveled so far in so short a time

-by land or sea!

An announcement of decisive importance to anyone about to buy a new automobile

The most exhaustive endurance test ever given an automobile has just been completed by two stock '57 Fords—identical in every respect with cars now being offered by Ford Dealers.

Under the supervision of the United States Auto Club and the Federation Internationale de Automobile, each of these two '57 Fords traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days. Ford No. 1 averaged 108.16 mph for the entire run... Ford No. 2, over 107 mph. These averages include time for all pit stops.

In all, the '57 Ford smashed 458 national and international records.

This test was run on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah... it was the longest left turn in history.

A car, like a man, is known by its deeds, not words.

That is why, we at Ford, despite our confidence in our '57 cars, let their deeds of accomplishment speak for themselves.

Therefore, we engaged an independent engineering organization to test our '57 cars more thoroughly than any other cars have ever been tested before—in this country or abroad.

We provided them with '57 Fords—cars identical with those now offered by Ford Dealers. The rest we left up to them.

Here is what they did:

They took these cars to the Salt Flats at Bonneville, Utah.

Here, twelve of the world's greatest drivers took over.

In relays they drove these cars night and day for a distance greater than twice around the world... a distance equal to 5 years of normal driving.

Not in all history has a man-built machine traveled so far in so short a time—by land or sea!

But this was not a test of speed—but of endurance of the "Inner Ford." A trial to take the measure of Thunderbird Y-block V-8 power without qualification of any kind. A test of running gear—of brakes, of materials in body and chassis. Of steering and roadability, yes, and comfort, too!

A test, indeed, such as no other cars have ever undergone, let alone successfully concluded.

Surely they have told you, in decisive terms, that they are worth more when you buy... and when you sell!

Your Ford Dealer will gladly place at your disposal the new kind of Ford that means a new kind of value for your car-buying dollar—the greatest the world has ever seen.

Kids Reminded to Use Costumes That Show in Car Light

"See and be seen on Halloween!" That prescription for safe "haunting" was given to youngsters and their parents today by E. C. McFadden, Vice President, Employers Casualty Company, Dallas, and President of the Texas Safety Association, who urged support of the safety after dark program of TSA and the National Safety Council.

"Make-believe spooks and other pranksters who venture out in traffic at night wearing dark costumes are running a risk of becoming honest-to-goodness ghosts," McFadden said. "Dark objects blend with the dark background and cannot be seen by passing motorists."

He appealed to parents to see that their children's halloween costumes are made of light colored material or are trimmed with light-colored or reflectorized strips. Since such costumes are usually more dramatic than dark ones, he said youngsters will probably find them more attractive.

McFadden also warned against the dangerous practice of wearing masks. "A mask cuts down the wearer's vision and a child wearing one will have difficulty seeing approaching cars," he said. "If youngsters insist on hiding their faces, they can do it with make-up — which is more exciting, anyway."

McFadden believes that the best Halloween traffic accident prevention is to keep children off the street at night. He admits this is no easy matter, but says some communities have accomplished it by organizing indoor parties at school halls or community centers. If this can't be arranged, he suggests that individual parents give parties for the youngsters in their homes.

McFadden also called upon motorists to do their share to make this a safe Halloween. He urged them to drive slowly and carefully, keeping a constant lookout for youngsters — especially near schools, parks, and in residential districts.

"Don't make a fatal Halloween mistake that will haunt you for the rest of your life," McFadden warned. "Be your little brother's keeper!"

Mrs. Lonnie Thurman, county home demonstration agent, as speaker for the Bulcher Home Demonstration club's regular meeting brought an interesting lesson on the importance of living room accessories. Mrs. Paul Tracy gave the council report. After adjournment the hostess served refreshments. The next meeting will be on Nov. 1 with Mrs. R. G. Samples as hostess.

SAVE BY FEEDING ANTIBIOTICS TO BABY PIGS	During the nursing period, feed for maximum gain, because early gains are the cheapest. Pig Kandy puts antibiotics and critical nutrients in the pigs earlier.
EARLY GAINS MEAN EARLY PROFITS	When you feed Pig Kandy, you feed antibiotics direct to the baby pigs. This is much cheaper than feeding antibiotics to the sow to be transmitted by her milk.
START FEEDING PIG KANDY AS CREEP FEED	Don't take chances on your pigs health. The first ten weeks are the most critical. Feed the most perfectly balanced feed for healthier pigs, faster growth.

Doleful Senators Due Shock When Ike Wins, Fears Doc

One of the strongest Eisenhower men in our town is Doc Brown. Doc says he just can't put up with Stevenson's socialized medicine program; there are a lot of other things he doesn't like about Adlai, but that one is enough for him, he says. Doc is a pretty outspoken cuss, but he's a good doctor. At least, he's the best one in town, being the only one, and our people always call him when they get sick whether they like his politics or not.

The other day several of us were standing around in front of the post office, talking politics — some Eisenhower men and some for Stevenson — when Doc walked up looking glum. One of the Stevenson men said: "Hey, Doc, what's the trouble, did Ike just call you in some bad news?"

Doc Brown said no, he hadn't heard from Ike this week, but he was worried.

"Not about Ike, you understand," he told the Stevenson fellow. "Ike has got it made. Even the Stevenson people are beginning to admit that. Poor old Adlai isn't going to get any farther in this race than he could throw Kefauver's coonskin cap with the tail cut off."

"The ones I am worried about are these out-of-state senators who are coming down here to Texas to tell us how to vote. I sure feel sorry for those boys. It must be tough to face life with their attitude."

"To hear them tell it, this country is in a terrible shape. All the farmers are starving, all the businessmen are going broke, and all the working people are just barely making enough to keep body and soul together. The only reason some little country doesn't step in and whip us tomorrow is that they know they can just wait a few days and the United States will fold up of its own accord. That's what I understand from listening to the visiting senators."

"Of course, they know how to correct the situation overnight. Elect Adlai, and let him abolish the draft and do away with the H-bomb, and let Estes establish the Atlantic Union which he has made speeches about all over the country, and everything will be all right."

"These things are too important, of course, for these senators to waste time telling us Texans why they voted against the Texas tidelands bill."

"As a medical man, I am worried about the great shock these senators are going to get, after the election is over and Ike is re-elected and this country keeps on being peaceful, prosperous and progressive. It's liable to put them all in bed."

And Doc Brown walked on off, shaking his head. Of course, the Stevenson man caught on that Doc was hurrying him, and he didn't like it much, but he'll still have to call him the next time one of the kids gets the croup, because like I said he's the only doctor in town.

Yours Truly,
Tex

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Herbert of New Orleans, La. Baby Jo Ann was baptized Sunday afternoon in St. Peter's church with Father Conrad officiating, assisted by Mrs. Isabel Galvan, an aunt, and Al Bezner, an uncle, as sponsors. The latter served by proxy for Carl Richardson, a maternal uncle of New Orleans.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Joe Bezner were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cutaia and two daughters, Al Bezner and Mrs. Isabel Galvan, all of Dallas. Mrs. Galvan who formerly lived in San Antonio moved recently.

There'll be a Halloween party for all the grade school students of Lindsay School next Wednesday night, Nov. 31, in the Lindsay Hall. Costumed children will be welcomed and prizes will be awarded but costumes are not required to attend, the committee in charge said. Games, prizes and refreshments are on the night's program.

Marlene Bezner and Mickey Fuhrmann, student nurses at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth, were weekend visitors with their families.

Virginia Zimmerer - And Wilfred Hess Will Wed Nov. 17

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerer of Lindsay have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Virginia, to Wilfred Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hess, also of Lindsay.

The ceremony is planned for Saturday, Nov. 17, at 9 a.m. in St. Peter's church. Rev. Francis Zimmerer of Lafayette, La., uncle of the bride, will officiate.

Attendants for the couple will be Dorothy Geray as maid of honor and Wanda Hess, sister of the groom, bridesmaid. Doloris Hess, another sister, will serve as junior bridesmaid, and Patsy Zimmerer will be flower girl for her sister.

Alfred Hess will be his brother's best man and Gilbert Kubis, cousin of the bride, will be groomsmen.

Deanery Service

regalia, members of the local VFW Post in uniform, and little girls in white dresses scattering flowers, will lend color to the ceremonies. Catholic Sisters of several orders will also be present.

Joe Hess, as deanery chairman of spiritual activities, is in charge of various civic preparations and the local Court Catholic Daughters of America as refreshment hostesses will serve sandwiches and drinks in the parish hall after the ceremonies. A luncheon is scheduled in Sacred Heart rectory for visiting clergy.

Parishes in the deanery besides Muenster are Immaculate Conception of Denton, St. John's of Valley View, St. Willam's of Greenville, St. Patrick's and St. Benedict's of Denison, St. Thomas' of Pilot Point, St. Mary's and St. Charles' of Gainesville, St. Peter's of Lindsay and St. Mary's of Sherman.

Throughout the Catholic diocese of Dallas-Fort Worth similar processions will take place in designated cities all intended to pay tribute to Christ in His sovereignty over the souls of men. The movement has been headed by the National Council of Catholic Men. Muenster is the first parish in its deanery to be chosen for the honor of holding the celebration.

Hornets Win

quarter the Hornets stopped the Wildcats' most serious scoring threat then scored on Richey's 68 yard romp. From then on the teams battled it out on fairly even terms except when the Hornets uncorked their four additional touchdown plays.

About midway in the first period, after each team had gained a lone first down, Callisburg put on the steam and drove 30 yards to midfield and kicked. A clipping penalty on the play set Muenster back to its 2 and a bad kick ending the series of downs set up the Wildcats on the 12. Two power plunges reached the 4 but offensive holding on the next attempt drew a 15 yard penalty. Two more tries got to the 12 and Muenster took over, ending the visitors only serious threat of the night.

Two tries netted a yard and Wimmer got to the 27. Two more added 5 and Richey broke through for the remaining 68.

TD number 2 came in a hurry. Callisburg fumbled on the first play after kickoff and Muenster was on the 26. Two plays made the distance, Richey 16 and Wimmer 10. Richey's kick after the TD was his only good one of the night.

The thrill play of the game, about midway in the third period, was the only pass completion of the night. Richey took the dripping wet handoff from Hamric, faded back, and uncorked a fine aerial. On the receiving end were Kaderli and a Callisburg defender. Both shared in the catch but Kaderli had the better grip. He lunged away and scooted some 30 yards to the goal, a total gain of 55.

Two fumbles followed the next kickoff and Callisburg made two first downs then bogged down on the third series, Muenster taking over on the Wildcat 48. Two tries gained 6 and Wimmer did some neat stepping to get loose for his 42 yard scoring run.

Again the visitors made short gains for two first downs and failed on the third series. Muenster made a first down and Richey got away for 56 yards and the final score.

Tigers Lose

put the visitors in scoring position on the 21. Three stabs at the line netted a single yard and on fourth down Austin uncorked a pass. McDonnell was waiting for an easy catch across the line.

Austin booted true for extra points after the second and third TDs.

Through the second half the Tigers held Laneri in its own end of the field for all but a few plays. Twice also they threatened to score but lacked the steam to get through the Laneri defense.

In the third period Sacred Heart recovered a fumble on the 24 and followed up with a first down to the 11. However the next four tries gained only 2 and the chance for a score faded away.

Near the end the Tigers launched a passing attack which almost paid off, but again their drive did not continue long enough. Four completions in a row advanced 28 yards to Laneri's 12, but passes after that did not connect.

Cubs Get 6-6 Tie At Wichita Falls

Playing their best game of the year Father Patrick's Sacred Heart Cubs held the hot shot kids of Our Lady Queen of Peace, Wichita Falls to a 6-6 tie Sunday afternoon at Wichita.

The host team made its score early, promptly after intercepting a Cub pass in their first series of downs at about the 20. A neat end run went all the way. From then on the teams battled it out on even terms, mostly in mid-field until late in the final period. Miller took a kick and received wonderful blocking from his team mates for a 70 yard ramble to the goal.

The teams will meet again here on Nov. 11. The Cubs next encounter will be with St. Mary's of Gainesville, here Sunday night at 7:30.

flushers. These are the guys who just had to be different from us ordinary Americans. They swallowed the red line because they saw in it a possibility of standing apart and aloof from the common herd of citizens. They've had lots of opportunity since to see where they goofed but they are too stubborn to admit the mistake. So they still go on making loud with the theories, bluffing their way through with a hole card that is completely devoid of principle.

Incidentally, those are the chief instigators in the smear-Nixon campaign. They don't like him because he's the kind of fellow who demands to see the hole card.
