For Americans, and to a great extent for the rest of the world as well, the day of decision is less than a week away. The choice of us voters next Tuesday will have a profound influence on our way of living for the next four years, and trends established during that period will have a tremendous bearing on the years that follow.

Likewise on a global scale. Decisions on world policy, made by the man we elect, will have a great bearing on international developments . . . whether we have war or peace, whether the world menace of communism is set back or makes progress.

On the basis of their personal qualifications, their professed principles and their political associations, which of the candidates is more qualified to lead toward national and international welfare? That is the big question voters face Tuesday.

In the light of present developments in the Balkans and the Middle East it appears as though our very first consideration should be based on foreign affairs. Hungary seems to have broken its ties with Moscow. Poland appears to have shaken off its Soviet bosses and stands a fair chance of ousting its local Reds. Other satellites are ripe for similar breaks which, it is hoped, will spread to Russia itself and lead to the complete removal of communism.

Critics of the administration will be slow to admit, of course, that American policy of the past four years is due any credit for this sudden gratifying turn of events. But one fact is indisputable. The evil influence of communism is deteriorating now whereas it flourished and expanded during the previous administrations. The policy of firmness toward the Kremlin and friendship toward its enslaved victims is paying off just as definitely as the appeasements at Yalta and Potsdam brought their ill effects before.

A change in our administration now would be a tragic let down to the Balkan peoples. For their sake, and the sake of all who yearn for their God-given personal rights, this country should retain the one man who has become an inspiration in their struggle.

The Israel-Egypt flare up gives us more reason to favor Eisenhower. His earnestness in working for peace is beyond question and his ability is worthy of confidence at least. If, however, his efforts should fail we need have no fears about his ability to conduct a war. Can the same be said of his opponent? Does he inspire equal confidence in keeping peace or waging war?

From the domestic standpoint the considerations may be somewhat less urgent but they are equally compelling. The difference in political creeds represented by the two candidates is the difference between traditional unhampered Americanism and regimentation under an increasingly powerful federal government.

One leans toward the conservative form of government which favors greater personal and economic freedom, the other leans toward so-called liberal views by which government does more and more for the individual while bringing him more and more under government control.

One favors privately owned tax paying ventures, the other favors tax-free tax-subsidized projects.

One favors a hands-off policy in industrial problems allowing management and labor to work out their own solution. The other proposes official interference through more drastic labor legislation.

One favors clearing up the problem of farm surpluses and establishing an adequate market on a supply and demand basis. The other proposes high subsidies regardless of the problems imposed by surplus.

In short Eisenhower's policies are the traditional American standards by which our country became the world's greatest, whereas Stevenson's are the socialistic kind by which England

Charles Wimmers Observe Golden Wedding at Church and Reception

Fifty years of memories of a happy married life were reviewed Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Wimmer, 38 year residents of Muenster, celebrated their golden wedding.

An anniversary high mass in Sacred Heart church and a reception and dinner in the parish hall marked the joyous occasion. About 100 relatives and friends registered in the guest book at which Della and Carol Wimmer, granddaughters, presided.

The Rev. Louis Deuster, pastor, officiated at the mass at 4 p.m., directed the renewal of vows pledged a half century ago and delivered the jubilee sermon.

Anthony Luke, organist, and the church choir provided the music. Yellow gladioli adorned the altar and white mums and pampas plumes decorated the sanctuary space.

Present in the sanctuary with Mr. and Mrs. Wimmer were the four attendants who witnessed their marriage 50 years ago. They are her sisters Rose, Mrs. A. T. Schroeder of Windthorst, and Mary, Mrs. J. C. Uptmor of Waco, his brother Henry Wimmer of Hermleigh and J. C. Uptmor.

Married in Tours

Mr. and Mrs. Wimmer will remember the first wedding day on Oct. 30, 1906, in Tours. Miss Annie Seith, dressed in a floor-length changeable blue taffeta gown with a wide white lace collar — an outfit she made herself — and with a long white veil and wreath, drove with the

Rain Measures .66

Though the moisture received during October falls far short of meeting subsoil needs it did the most good possible toward getting grain crops off toward a nice start. Another rain this week was similar to the two before, falling slowly and soaking in 100 per cent . . . and providing dandy surface moisture.

As long as such rains continue at 10 day to 2 week intervals the crops can continue getting along nicely, most likely providing welcome winter pasture to relieve the critical feed shortage. If the rains stop, however, crops will start suffering for lack of subsoil moisture.

Tuesday's showers and drizzles amounted to .66 bringing the October measure to 2.40. The year's total to date is 13.84.

Injury in Football Game Paralyzes Frank Fleitman

Frank Fleitman apparently has little chance ever to regain control over the lower part of his body, according to reports reaching here Wednesday on the diagnosis of at least six specialist doctors in Dallas.

Basing their decision on X-ray pictures and also on reports of the patient's reactions after his injury, they decided that his spinal cord had been sheared between the fifth and sixth vertebrae when his back was broken and the two bones slipped past each other.

The young man, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fleitman of Myra and a senior of Sacred Heart High School, was hurt last Thursday night in a football game at Windthorst.

Moments after the injury he told Father Christopher Paladino that he could not move his hands or legs and feared he was permanently paralyzed.

He was kept on the field under blankets for about 45 minutes until an ambulance arrived and took him to a Wichita Falls hospital. Early Friday he was taken to a Dallas hospital. He was moved to the Gainesville Sanitarium Wednesday.

For the next four days specialists on back injuries studied his case and also consulted by telephone with other specialists in northern and eastern states.

All were agreed that the spinal cord had been severed. However they see a faint hope that the separation is not complete and the next few weeks will bring a slight improvement in his condition.

Fleitman has no control over his legs or hands but is able to move his upper arms. Loss of control and feeling in the arms occurs between the elbows and shoulders.

According to his understanding after speaking with doctors, Father Christopher said that the nerves which control the upper arm are above the break and those which control the hands are below the break. He also said that if the break had been one vertebra higher it would have affected vital organs and caused instant death.

Over 400 Report On First Day of Free Chest X-Rays

The chest X-ray machine sponsored by the Cooke County Tuberculosis Association moved to Muenster Wednesday afternoon and made 460 chest pictures before closing down at 5:30. The mobile unit will give service all day Thursday — 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. — before ending its stay.

The machine came here from Gainesville where it spent five days and took 5,076 pictures. The unit located at Endres Motor Company where about a dozen ladies, members of the VFW Auxiliary and other volunteers quickly registered people and explained procedure. There were no long waits.

Superintendents of both schools cooperated by sending students in busses to the unit for their X-rays immediately after lunch. These groups were the first served.

Co-sponsors with County TB Association are the Cooke County Medical Association and the State Department of Health. Mmes. Richard Grewing and David Trachta are co-chairmen of the drive here.

Contract Awarded For FM Pavement South of Muenster

Another Farm to Market road for the South Muenster area is under contract. Designated as No. 1630, it is the road extending from Hardy in Montague County eastward 13.4 miles to a junction with the Gainesville-Hood road.

At Hardy the new road will connect with the Saint Jo-Forestburg road. It also connects with the South Muenster FM road at the former Linn school corner. It will provide an all paved road from Forestburg to either Muenster or Gainesville.

Cooper and Woodruff of Amarillo has been announced as the contractor on a low bid of $199,012.16. Work consisting of grading, structures, base and surfacing is expected to take about 130 days.

V View Warriors Outpoint Hornets In Scoring Classic

Despite a 34-26 licking the Muenster High Hornets have no reason to apologize for their game with the Valley View Warriors here last Friday night. With power to spare and a fine passing attack to boot, the visitors from Wichita County had a definite advantage and used it to good effect in the second half to overcome the Hornets' half time lead of 19-14.

The first half, however was dominated in a big way by the Hornets. They uncorked five sensational scoring plays, two of which were called back by officials for infraction of the rules. Meanwhile the Warriors put on two sustained drives for their TDs.

After intermission, however, the situation changed suddenly as the visitors returned to the field with a defensive plan to halt Richey's and Wimmer's explosive break throughs. Hornet gains became less frequent. On the other hand Valley View

Hornets, Panthers Square Off Friday For Annual Tussle

According to season records so far the Hornets' game this week is practically in the bag, but anyone who remembers the traditional Muenster-Saint Jo grid classics knows that the dope sheets can be disregarded. Anything can happen, and frequently does.

The teams are due to square off on the Panther field Friday night at 7:30 in the feature event of Saint Jo's Homecoming program . . . and they will be contesting not only for the 10-B conference record but also for the roving trophy, a golden horseshoe, which has been a prize of the game since 1950.

This year, however, it will not be the same horseshoe. By the original arrangement, Muenster got the other for keeps when it won the third consecutive time last year.

Records of the season so far, which actually mean little in this game, point to the Hornets as favorites. They have a 5-2 record as compared with Saint Jo's 3-4 and also a better record in comparative scores with other teams that both have played. As regards fitness for the coming clash, both teams appear to be up to par.

Other 10-B action this week will be Alvord at Sanger and Era at Valley View. Callisburg entertains Bowie B in a non-conference tussle Thursday night.

Last week Alvord continued its winning ways by blanking Saint Jo 13-0, Callisburg smeared Era's perfect record with a 7-7 tie, and Valley View stomped over Sanger 58-0. Muenster lost its non-conference game with the Valley View Warriors of Wichita county, 34-26.

Alvord now has the only perfect record in the loop with 4 straight wins. Era is next with 2 wins and a tie. Muenster has a 2-1 record. Saint Jo stands at 1-2. Callisburg has 1 win, 2 losses and a tie. Valley View has a 1-3 record, and Sanger a 0-3 record.

Big Vote Expected Here Tuesday for General Election

Election judges at both of the Muenster voting boxes are organizing staffs this week in anticipation of their biggest turnout ever next Tuesday.

Considering the usual strong turnout for the presidential election along with an increase in voting strength during the past four years, indications are that the community's total will reach a new high.

The voting strength of the two Muenster boxes is estimated at more than 800. County figures show a total of 710 poll taxes and exemptions, of which 554 are in the north box and 156 in the south box. Over age eligibles, who are not required to get an exemption certificate and hence are not recorded, are believed to raise the total well over 800.

I. A. Schoech will be in charge at the north box, which will be in the public school gymnasium. Paul Fisher is election judge for the south box, at its customary location just south of the Katy railroad. Voting hours at both places are 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Over 1000 Attend Services for Feast Of Christ The King

A crowd estimated at more than a thousand persons representing all parishes of the Sherman Deanery gathered in Muenster Sunday afternoon for a public profession of faith observing the feast of Christ the King.

The ceremony consisted of a procession, which started on the Sacred Heart football field and moved along Seventh and Main streets to the church, and ended with a sermon by the Rt. Rev. Thomas Zachry of Denison and Benediction with the Blessed Sacrament.

Monsignor Zachry opened his sermon with warm expressions of praise for the crowd's magnificent display of allegiance to Christ the King, observing that many had driven far for the ceremony. He then reminded the crowd that Christ is in fact the king of all the universe and is entitled to the allegiance of every human being . . . a spiritual allegiance which is separate from and does not conflict with any one's proper allegiance to an earthly power. He said that the first purpose of man's existence is to live by the laws of Christ's eternal kingdom.

He also stated that the world's main problem today is widespread allegiance to secular things rather than to Christ. People are too much devoted to money, social position, personal power, self gratification, and other interests which are useless or harmful in the eternal plan.

A combination of banners, placards, uniforms, clerical garb, white dresses, flowers and a canopy distinguished the procession. A VFW honor guard in uniforms carrying the Stars and Stripes and the post banner took the lead. Next were the visiting youthful bridegroom in a buggy to St. Martin's church for the nuptial service. They were married by the Rev. Christopher Preker who had years before officiated at their First Holy Communion service.

The celebration was in traditions of that community. It was an all-day affair with a dance at night held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seith, where a large platform was built for dancing. The next day the newlyweds were out in the field gathering corn because the crop had to be harvested. They set up house-keeping on a farm near Tours and lived there about seven years, then moved to Durant, Okla., where they farmed for five years before moving to Muenster in 1918. They bought a farm six miles east of town and lived there until 1947 when they retired and moved to a new home on North Walnut Street in the city.

The couple grew up at Tours where both were born in 1887. Her birthdate is January 7, his is December 23. Their parents had come from Germany. Mr. Wimmer was sixth in a family of nine, the children of Mr. and Mrs. John Wimmer. Annie Seith was third in a family of 14. Charlie and Annie were school-mates and childhood sweethearts. The anniversary celebration was held Saturday rather than the actual date so that family members could be present. Like their wedding it was a gala occasion.

Have Ten Children

The Wimmers' six sons and four daughters, most of their 36 grandchildren and their one great-grandchild were present.

Their children are Joe, Tony, Charles Jr., Lawrence, John, and Andy, Mrs. Leo Haverkamp, Mrs. Ray Otto and Mrs. Paul Luke, all of Muenster, and Mrs. Al Reiter of Gainesville.

In addition to the two sisters who were her wedding attendants Mrs. Wimmer has one other sister and one brother living. They are Mrs. Frank Uptmor of Tours and John Seith of Waco. They too attended the celebration. Mr. Wimmer has two sisters living beside the brother who was his best man. Mrs. Frank Berger of Axtell, Texas, was present for the observance but Mrs. Joe Schwirtlich of Corpus Christi was unable to attend.

Mrs. Wimmer wore a lovely charcoal gray dress with black accessories and a gold tinted carnation corsage. Her attendants also had corsages of the same flowers and the three men wore tinted carnation boutonnières.

Yellow chrysanthemums graced the dining room and the honor couple's table which also held the three-tiered anniversary cake decorated with gold sugar roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom holding a gold 50.

Active In Community

Mr. and Mrs. Wimmer, like all early settlers, assisted with projects to better their parish and community. Today both are still active in church work.

Mr. Wimmer helped organize the Farmers Union here and was its second president. Elected in 1934, he held the office ten years. And for many years he served as a member of the city tax equalization board. Both are members of the Third Order of St. Francis, he belongs to the parish St. Joseph's society and she is a member of the parish St. Anne's Society.

The couple, parents of 11 children, lost their oldest son when he was eight years old. Two of the boys served overseas in world war II at the same time.

Out Of Town Guests

Among out of town guests attending the celebration were Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Uptmor of Tours, Frank Uptmor Jr. and Ernest Uptmor of West, Frank Berger and son Andy of Axtell, John Seith of Waco, Alphonse Wimmer of Hermleigh and A. T. Schroeder of Windthorst.

GOC Members Earn Wings, Certificates

Three members of the Muenster Ground Observer Corps have received their wings and 21 sky watchers have received certificates in recognition of their activity and hours spent on duty.

Wearing wings are Post Supervisor Jimmy Lehnertz, Chief Observer Steve Mosler and Assistant Observer M. D. Kaderli.

Sgt. R. L. Crabtree of the Dallas Filter Station presented the awards at a recent meeting. Also on the evening's program was a film, "Strategic Air Command."

Travel And Gifts Await Texas Farm Queen Contestants

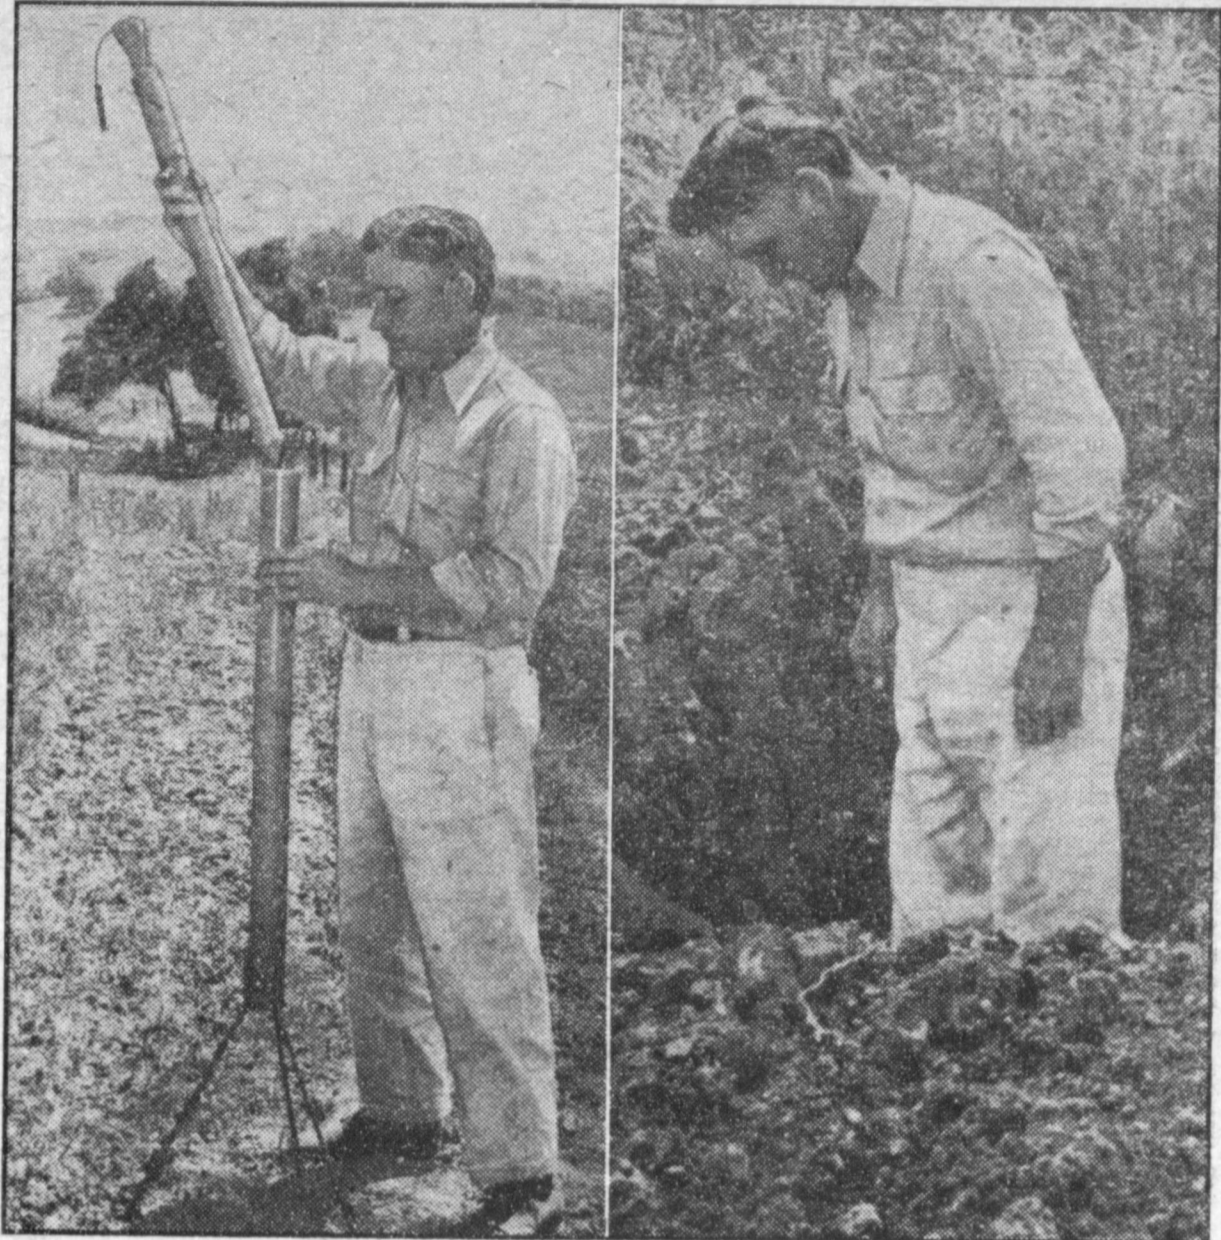

Norma Jean Walterscheid of Muenster will represent 15 counties in this area at the Texas Farm Bureau queen contest Nov. 12 in Houston. She will compete against 12 other lovely Farm Bureau district queens.

A senior at Sacred Heart High School, Norma Jean is co-editor of the school paper, yell leader, member of the Catholic Youth Council, member of the Sodality, and vice president of the Muenster 4-H Club. The red-haired queen, a talented singer and musician, is in wide demand as an entertainer for community and county functions. She and her brother perform as a team playing the piano and accordion and singing together, and were regular performers on KGAF in Gainesville for three and one half years. They have appeared on Teen-times TV and Big "D" Jamboree in Dallas. She also sings with Red Gordon's Music Festival Group, a group of amateur entertainers.

All queen contestants will receive expense-paid trips for themselves and their matron escorts to the state contest which will be held in connection with the 23rd annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau. In addition they will receive beautiful wrist watches. All except the one chosen state queen will receive a week's stay at the Crazy Hotel in Mineral Wells, compliments of the management.

The lucky girl chosen state queen will receive $500 expense money for herself and her matron escort to attend the 38th annual convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation Dec. 9-13 in Miami Beach, Fla. They will make the trip on a special train carrying the Texas delegation to the convention.

FOXHOLE IN 90 SECONDS—G.I.'s should welcome this new device—a "90-Second Foxhole Digger," developed by the Stanford Research Institute of Menlo Park, Calif. The Digger enables ground troops to dig their positions in a minimum warning period. Left, a technician places the rocket-explosive unit in a launching tube. After the fuse is ignited, the technician takes cover, and the rocket is driven about two feet into the ground. The charges explode and—presto—a four-foot deep, four-foot wide crater is cleared, right.

Sacred Heart Cubs Nudge St. Mary's

The Tiger Cubs of Sacred Heart elementary school gave notice Sunday night that they have an interest in the title of the parochial elementary conference for this area. Their 12-6 win over the St. Mary's Mustangs of Gainesville gives them a loop record of three wins and two ties. They beat St. Mary's twice and Windthorst once and tied Windthorst and Queen of Peace of Wichita.

Playing the Mustangs here Sunday the Cubs had possession of the ball most of the time but reached the goal only twice.

In the first quarter a pass from Ted Miller to Ronnie Cunningham was good for the first score. Again in the last period Coonie Walterscheid finished a drive with a 2 yard plunge off tackle.

St. Mary's scored on the last play of the game, on a tricky triple handoff followed by a scamper of some 40 yards.

The Cubs next face Mary Immaculate of Wichita Falls Sunday at 3 o'clock on the Tiger field.

Pee Wees Play Friday

The 10-B Junior game between Muenster and Callisburg, originally scheduled for this week Tuesday, will be played Friday afternoon at 1:30 in Callisburg. The date was changed by mutual agreement of the two schools because of conflicting activities in both schools.

$5,000 to $10,000 Income Group Growing Fast

The number of families making $5,000 to $10,000 increased 80% in the past five years, according to the Kiplinger Washington Letter. In 1950, there were 8.7 million such families, just 19% of all families. In 1955, there were 15.7 million families in this income bracket, and they represented 32% of all families.

Kiplinger editors point out that this expansion of "middle incomes" is largely responsible for the boom in sales of autos, houses and appliances.

Correspondingly, the number of low-income families is shrinking. Families with incomes of less than five thousand dollars have decreased by 5.2 million, a drop of 15 per cent. There is still poverty, but it is diminishing progressively.

Walterscheid-Acker Rites Solemnized At Nazareth Church

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Walterscheid are making their home north of Hereford on a farm following their marriage October 24 in Holy Family church at Nazareth.

The bride is the former Mary Ann Acker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Acker of Nazareth and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walterscheid of Hereford, formerly of Muenster.

Very Rev. Peter Marsch officiated at the nuptial high mass and performed the double ring ceremony. The church choir sang the Mass of the Blessed Sacrament.

Given in marriage by her father, Mary Ann wore a wedding gown of white satin and nylon tulle enriched with hand sewn satin petal flowers. The double pleated flounce on the skirt extended into a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil was caught to a lace crown and she carried white carnations and stephanotis. Her jewelry, a strand of pearls and matching earrings, were gifts the groom brought back from Korea. For something blue and borrowed she carried a rosary belonging to her sister.

Josetta Acker was maid of honor for her sister and Betty Lou Walterscheid, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical princess style dresses of turquoise lace over taffeta with matching headpieces of lace and carried yellow mums.

Kenneth Walterscheid and Gerald Acker, brothers of the couple, attended the groom. Raymond Schalbs, Fritz Hoffman and Charles Acker ushered.

Mrs. Acker, mother of the bride, wore a wine two-piece dress with black accessories and Mrs. Walterscheid, mother of the groom, wore a black lace over pink taffeta dress. Her accessories were in pink and black. Both had pink carnation corsages.

The wedding breakfast was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Acker and the reception and buffet meal were held in the community hall where a dance at night concluded the day's festivities.

The groom attended Hereford High school and was recently separated from the army after duty in Korea. His bride attended Nazareth High School and West Texas State College. She had been working as a nurses aide in Neblit Hospital in Canyon.

Muenster relatives at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wimmer, Mrs. Oscar Walter, Mrs. Meinrad Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. Al Walterscheid and son Carl, Mrs. Donald Endres and daughter Donna Kay, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Fuhrmann and daughter Eileen.

The Al Walterscheids and Mrs. Endres and daughter left the weekend before the wedding and after letting Mrs. Endres and her little girl off at Hereford drove to Colorado Springs to visit Sunday Monday and Tuesday with their son and his family, the Willie Walterscheids.

Mrs. Earl Walterscheid entertained the Tripoli Club in her home Thursday night. After the games she served a dessert course and coffee to members and two guests, Mrs. Paul Arendt Sr. of Lindsay and Mrs. Albert Bauer of La Feria who was visiting the Arendt family.

Giles M. Lehnertz And Martha Ann Roy Say Vows at Tyler

Immaculate Conception church in Tyler was the setting for the wedding of Giles Morris Lehnertz and Martha Ann Roy Saturday afternoon. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward V. McCullough officiated at the nuptial mass and performed the single ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Roy of Tyler and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lehnertz of Muenster.

The altar before which the couple exchanged their vows was adorned with white mums and pink chrysanthemums against a background of palms. Music was by Mrs. Stanley Archer, organist, and Mrs. John Saleh, soloist. Mr. Roy gave his daughter in marriage.

Organic taffeta fashioned the bride's gown which was styled with a princess bodice, Sabrina neckline of Alencon lace, and long petal point sleeves. The formal length bouffant skirt swept into a chapel length train. Her veil of illusion cascaded from a crown of tulle petals and pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations tied with white satin streamers. After the service she placed this bouquet on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Mrs. Bill Andrus served as her sister's matron of honor and Mrs. Van Maraman and Mrs. Larry Krumm were bridesmaids. They wore identically styled dresses of antique taffeta, fashioned on sheath lines with flowing back panels and wide cummerbunds. They were in shades of purple, mauve and rose quartz, respectively. They wore matching off-the-face hats and carried maline fans adorned with purple orchids and satin streamers.

Floyd A. Lehnertz was best man for his brother and Van Maraman and Max Clark were groomsmen.

BREATH OF FRESH AIR

A candidate for the Presidency of the United States said: "They (the voters) want relief from unbridled spending and confiscatory taxes. They want their children and grandchildren to have opportunities to achieve their fondest ambitions, unfettered by oppressive taxation and unhampered by bureaucratic interference. They want an end to being taxed to pay, for supplying foreign governments with things that the people of those governments themselves should be paying taxes to provide. They want an end to being taxed to pay for friendship with foreign nations and people that is seldom forthcoming. They want an end to the foreign give-aways that the buying diseaster instead of defense.

"They want an end to war-breeding internationalism. They want no part of world government. They are tired of fighting other nations' battles. They don't want their sons ordered out by any foreign command to fight any nation's wars. They want an end to international agreements that put their jobs and the jobs of millions of the fellow Americans at the will of foreign egg-heads. They want an end to encroachment upon the rights of states by all three branches of the Federal Government. They want restoration of those rights of their states that the Federal Government has already usurped. In short, they want the Federal Government to respect the Constitution and mind its own business at home and abroad."

ness at home and abroad."

These are the words of T. Coleman Andrews, nominated in Richmond, Va., by acclamation of 2,200 representatives of right wing, states rights groups from both the Republican and Democratic parties.

The names of independent electors for Mr. Andrews' and his running mate, former Representative Thomas H. Werdel, of California, will be found on the ballots of 14 states: Alabama, Arkansas, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and Wisconsin. And in another two dozen states, where election laws permit it, the names of Andrews and Werdel may be written in on the ballots by states rights voters.

As a result, millions of conservative voters who have felt themselves disfranchised by both parties and had planned, in the parlance of Al Smith to "take a walk" on Election Day, can now walk TO the polls — instead of AWAY from them!

IN A LONG LIFETIME

"Fifty years ago each farmer raised enough for himself and for six others" writes Secretary of Agriculture Benson, in his new book, Farmers at the Crossroads (Devin-Adair Company, New York). "Today he produces enough for himself and 19 others."

The Secretary explains how this has happened: "... reason can best be found in the basic independence and self-reliance of farmers. But partly the answer lies also in greater use of capital and in new farming techniques developed by science. Increasingly, farmers have substituted machines for manpower..."

Then Mr. Benson draws a picture in words that does a far more effective job of dramatizing the agricultural revolution than can the statistics. He says, "Had it been possible to transport, by magic, a farmer from Biblical times to an American farm of 100 years ago, he would have recognized almost every implement then in use — the flail, hoe and rake, for example. Today he would recognize hardly any — tractor, hay baler, milking machine or combine." In other words, science and technology and mechanization, in little more than a long lifetime, have done infinitely more to transform farming than was done in all the preceding centuries of recorded civilization.

Pause For Reflection

... with James C. Ingebretsen President, Spiritual Mobilization

According to a recent news report from Washington, the Federal government issued 226 million checks to individuals in the fiscal year ended last June — and estimates that it will issue 236 million during the current fiscal year.

Nearly 22 million people, equal to nearly 13% of the national population, are getting these checks for various kinds of payments from the Federal government.

An automatic machine in the Treasury's central disbursing office turns out these checks at the rate of more than one a second almost every working day. The machine is capable of shooting out checks at the rate of 100 a minute. But a new high-speed machine is on order. It will be able to spin out these blue-green checks from Uncle Sam at the rate of 300 a minute.

Ours used to be a government of checks and balances. Now it is mostly checks—and it is almost a miracle if anything balances.

Is Our Religious Revival Real?

By Joe Breig, Editor, THE CLEVELAND UNIVERSE-BULLETIN

IS OUR religious revival a true one? That is a question a lot of people dispute. Since God alone can know motives and secret thoughts, He alone knows for sure whether a true religious revival is in progress.

Nevertheless we can make human judgements. My own opinion is that a slow, halting, but nevertheless tremendous movement away from materialism and secularism is taking place in our day.

PEOPLE TODAY want to know about religion. Nor is this interest emotional or sentimental. True, some people seem more interested in getting peace of mind than in serving God and keeping His commandments. Some even seem to make God their means to happiness, instead of seeing Him as the All-Powerful One to whom they owe their every breath.

But most people are in search of religious truth. Experience indicates this; the wide interest in religious, theological and philosophical books indicates it, and many plays, movies, TV programs and the like, give evidence of it. People want to know what God wants them to do, what religion He wants them to belong to, because they know that this is the way to true happiness.

THEN TOO there is the fact that the social and economic order has improved in our country in the direction of a Christian order. The dignity of the individual, the rights for a just wage and decent living conditions are almost universally recognized today. Such a transformation would have been impossible without the cooperation of men of good will; and men of good will must inevitably be drawn toward religion and God.

On the world scene, there is more appeal to religious principles, and to such concepts as the Natural Law—that is, the law of God as written in the nature of man. There is less and less of the deadly idea that the state can do no wrong; that a government, because it has power, may make its own laws; that right makes right.

MY FINAL EVIDENCE in this brief space must be personal. I have spent all my adult life dealing with the climate of opinion; and I am convinced that it has changed tremendously for the better since my youth.

Tex Says He's No Expert But He Believes Ike Is

The other night a bunch of us were sitting around in the drug store after the football game, drinking coffee and talking. You know how it is after a game in a small town, especially after the home team loses. Nearly every man in the crowd had a theory as to why we didn't win the game. Most of them, of course, blamed the coach. I couldn't help remembering that before we consolidated the county schools we didn't even have enough boys to make up a football team. And these same football experts who were saying what Rockne or Bud Wilkinson would have done, up until a few years ago they didn't know a football from a watermelon.

But that's the way it is in a small town (and in big ones, too, I understand). I guess there's no real harm done, although sometimes it's pretty rough on the coach.

I guess we have a right, in this free country, to be self-appointed experts in any line we want to pick out. It seems to me that most people choose either football or politics.

Take this presidential election coming up next Tuesday: During the last few weeks I have heard so many stories and theories from so many different political experts that I nearly get confused sometimes. I have to stop and think that the fellow who is talking probably doesn't know any more about it than I do, and that helps me keep straightened out.

In fact, I guess I have had my mind made up all along. To make no bones about it, I like Ike. He's a man you can always look up to and respect—the kind of man you'd be proud to point out to any person, from any country on the face of the globe, and say: "That's our President!"

About Adlai, now, I'm not so sure. Of course, if he was elected, he would be my President, too, and I would hope he'd do a lot better than most people around here seem to think he would. This is something I don't think we need to worry about, because from all I can hear and read, Ike is going to win it again.

It seems to me that if Adlai ever had a chance around here, he threw it away when he came out with that H-bomb business. Now, the folks in our town don't know much about H-bombs, except that they don't want any personal dealings with them. Our scientific knowledge of H-bombs is about on a par with our football knowledge, I reckon. But we do know one thing: We don't want some misguided, inexperienced fellow fooling around with our national defense. When it comes to trusting what Bulganin says or what Eisenhower says, I'll take Ike. So will the rest of the country, if I don't miss my guess.

Just before we broke up the other night Doc Brown came into the drug store, and somebody asked him: "Hey, Doc, how's Ike doin'?" (Doc's a big Eisenhower man.) Doc said: "Well, it's a busy campaign for the medical profession. Last week Ike went and got his heart examined; and I understand that this week Adlai is going to get his head examined."

Yours truly,

Tex

Fastest "News Service" in Town!

Had a frantic wire from Washington yesterday—saying that the local Congressman was making a surprise visit and a short speech. Could I get the word around fast?

No time for a special edition of the Clarion, so I turned to the fastest "news service" in town... Windy Taylor. He spent an hour mobilizing his Lodge and Court House cronies—all pretty fair talkers—and the rest is history. Biggest turnout ever.

As a newspaperman, I hate to admit it—but facts are facts. The Windys of this world aren't only quicker news spreaders than our paper... they've even got better circulation.

From where I sit, some of us would rather talk than eat, while others are close-mouthed... just as some of us like coffee and others prefer a glass of beer. There's a lot to be said for both attitudes. But if you go in for gab—don't talk against someone just because you don't happen to agree with him on some question of personal choice. Use your own "good censorship."

225 at Dinner for Sinclair Employees

Sinclair Pipeline employees from ten North Texas cities and their families — a total of 225 persons — attended a barbecue dinner here in the public school lunch room Saturday evening.

The event honored John Rommelfanger who is retiring from the company, and new employees and their families who recently moved into the district. Company Superintendent Frank Ruth presented a gift to Rommelfanger and praised him for loyal and faithful service through the 30 years he worked for Sinclair. Formerly of Gainesville, Mr. and Mrs. Rommelfanger will make their home in Kansas City since his retirement.

Johnny Davis emceed the program and thanked Muenster people for their cooperation in making the dinner a success. The tables were decorated with bronze and gold mums, compliments of Mrs. Ray Evans of the Charm Shop, the coffee was made in the Garden Club's huge coffee urn, and the extra chairs came from the Knights of Columbus hall.

Three Sinclair company employees live in Muenster. They are Edd McGannon, J. M. Kent and H. W. Fisher.

Attending the dinner were employees and officials and their families from Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Graham, Olney, Bowie, Nocona, Sherman, Denison, Whitesboro, Callisburg, Gainesville, Arp and Holliday.

On Sept. 1 the district office in Mexia was closed and headquarters were moved to Gainesville where the new office is located in the Turner Hotel. Most of the area formerly supervised from Mexia is now under the supervision of the East Texas district at Arp while the new Gainesville district takes in part of the area formerly in the Wichita Falls district.

Girl Scout Leaders Asked to Workshop

Girl Scout leaders and mothers of members are invited to attend a Craft Workshop next Monday morning, Nov. 5 in the city hall from 9 to 11:30 o'clock.

Christmas gift ideas and demonstrations on how to make them will be given.

A large attendance is urged and those attending are asked to bring a pair of scissors, paper and pencil, scraps of solid colored material, thread or yarn, needles, an apron or a smock.

More Widows Than Widowers

On the national average, women live 6 years longer than their husbands and are about 3 years younger, making a 9-year difference in the life expectancies of average couples. Thus 13% of women are widows while only 4% of men are widowers. Add this to the fact that men leave their estates, large and small, to their widows and you see why so much of the nation's wealth is in the hands of women.

Ford Runs 50,000 Miles in 30 Days, Averages 108 MPH

A 1957 Ford has traveled more than 50,000 miles at an average speed of more than 108 miles per hour on the Bonneville, Utah Salt Flats to capture all records from one mile up to 50,000 miles for a total of 458 national and international marks. This totals more records than ever have been held by any other stock car, Urban Endres, Ford dealer, announced today.

Mr. Endres said that the same type of 1957 Ford may be test driven by Muenster residents, and he issued an invitation to the public to try America's most rugged car.

"The Ford's Booneville run began at 1:50 p.m. September 9. In the next 19 days the car traveled a distance equivalent to more than twice around the world at more than 108 miles an hour," Mr. Endres explained. "This was the greatest durability and performance achievement in the history of the automobile."

"This kind of test is designed strictly to improve the breed of cars . . . to test their durability. We're not after mere speed. The big thing is to torture the engine, the chassis, the body, and all the thousands of parts with high speeds for tremendous distances. Here we've got an all-new car, a new kind of Ford, and we wanted to prove to ourselves, as well as to the American people, just what we had."

"The first day at Booneville, the Ford knocked off all records up to 24 hours by running at an average of better than 120 miles an hour including time for pit stops and changing drivers. After breaking the one-day records, the endurance run continued for 19 more days breaking further records almost every hour. A team of eight professional race drivers took turns keeping up the punishing test," Mr. Endres explained.

DARI-KOOL will pay for itself in use. HERE'S HOW . . .

The cost of hauling milk in cans is 40 cent per 100 pounds as compared with 25 cents per 100 pounds for hauling tank milk, thus a saving of 15 cents per hundred.

Elimination of wastage of milk spilled or left in the can at the plant is 7 cents per 100 pounds.

Improved butterfat test gained by selling all the cream instead of leaving some of it sticking to the can and lid account for another 6 cents per hundred.

THIS GIVES A TOTAL SAVING OF 28 CENTS FOR EACH 100 POUNDS OF MILK HANDLED. THIS 28-CENT A HUNDRED SAVING WILL PAY FOR YOUR DARI-KOOL.

A producer with an average of 10 cans of milk (86 pounds each) a day will sell 25,800 pounds per month. At 28 cents per hundred saving, he will be ahead by $72.24 each month.

The approximate cost of a 250-gallon tank installed is $2,400 with interest of $216 for a total of $2,616. This can be divided into 36 monthly installments of $72.11 each. THUS YOUR SAVINGS MAKE YOUR PAYMENTS FOR YOU. This estimate is without down payment or trade-in, which would cut the principal and monthly payment substantially.

flame-fast gas ranges alone offer 4 times less fuel cost!

IT'S RANGE CHANGE
SALE TIME!

Sally, this is Jane... I'm so upset. Our electric bill has really jumped since we got our new electric range.

Jane, our gas bill is one of the lowest-cost conveniences we have! Why don't you switch to gas at less than 1/4 the cost!

EXCITING NEW FEATURES

- Cook-Saver Automatic Top Burner Control.
- Built-In Rotisserie.
- Simmer Flame.
- Automatic Clock-Controlled Oven.

But of course! Smart Southwest Moderns know that cooking with gas is the most economical way to cook. It costs less than 1/4 as much to use as electric cooking. This means: If you can cook on an electric range for $2.20 a month—you can do the same amount of cooking with gas for less than 55¢ a month. (Or a savings of $19.80 a year!) What's more, an automatic gas range costs less to buy, less to install, and less to operate and maintain. No wonder smart women say truly modern cooking is cooking with flame-fast gas.

SAFEST COOKING EVER! American Gas Association seal assures reliability. Fire insurance statistics prove gas is safer!

Teacher Shortage Can Be Relieved By Amendment 4

"Support is growing for Constitutional Amendment No. 4, the Teacher Retirement Amendment on the November 6 General Election ballot, as the public is given the facts," Superintendent Homsley said this week.

Amendment No. 4 will improve the Teacher Retirement System created in 1937, a depression year. The system covers all employees of public schools and state-supported institutions of higher learning.

Increased benefits are expected to encourage teachers now leaving the classrooms to remain in the teaching profession. Approximately 7,000 experienced teachers are lost each year to the schools. The program would also help attract some of the 3,800 new teachers needed each year to instruct the 100,000 new children who jam Texas classrooms annually.

The new program, as passed by the Texas Legislature last year — unanimously in the Senate and with only two dissenting votes in the House — would work like this:

A teacher would pay into the retirement fund each year six percent of his salary (present rate five percent), and would earn a retirement based upon these deposits.

In addition, the amendment adds some benefits which are common in the retirement plans of private industry but have not been included in the teacher retirement system heretofore.

These are: (a) benefits for teachers who become unable to work because of disability; (b) death and survivor benefits for the family of a teacher who dies while in school employment; and (c) a guaranteed minimum retirement payment for teachers now retired and for those who retire in the future. This minimum of $100 per month would go only to those who had at least 20 years service and who reached the age of 60.

The new program would cost teachers, through increased deposits into the fund, $4,500,000 annually. The state will match these funds.

No additional tax will be needed, either at the local or state level. (1) The local school district pays no part of the retirement deposit, so local school taxes could not be affected. (2) Increased industrialization and population of Texas are producing more tax money, enough additional each year under existing tax laws to pay several times the state's $4,500,000 share of the retirement program. Thus, the causes of the present school situation will help pay for its solution.

"It is true, of course," Homsley stated, "that if the program were not adopted the Legislature would have an additional $4,500,000 to spend for some other purpose. But it would be most difficult to find any State service that would be of more value than supplying teachers for Texas' children."

Electricity Serves 93% of Texas Farms

WASHINGTON. — Electricity now serves 93.1 percent of all farms in Texas, the Rural Electrification Administration reported.

This compared with 2.3 percent when the REA program began in 1935.

As of last June 30, some 272,650 Texas farmers had electric power out of a total of 292,946 farms in the state.

In 1935, there were 51,017 farms in Texas, but only 11,466 of them had access to electricity, the report showed.

Pedals vs Pigskin Bicycle racing, venerable and recognized sport in a few of our universities, is expected to provide the new college enthusiasm — both in inter-collegiate meets and intra-mural contests — within the next year or two. As of now, it is reported, more collegians are riding bikes than in the Gay Nineties. And fresh stimulation for competitive cycling is expected from the National Championship Races of the Amateur Bicycle League of America, to be sponsored by the Boys' Club of Orlando and the Bicycle Institute of America in the Florida city in July; from the Olympic bike trials to be held in California in September and the subsequent Olympic contests in Melbourne. Emergence of cycling as a major sport would be all to the good. From the colleges the new excitement would flow swiftly to the high schools and on down to the grades. It would probably benefit our high school boys and girls more than any others, and would be a boon to the smaller schools with meager athletic funds — if any. A little healthful work on the part of the cyclists is all that's necessary to provide a track — if there is not already a running track on the athletic field — and the contestants would provide their own wheels. It is pointed out also that the new, American-made middle-weight bikes are ideal for cinder and dirt-track racing as well as being rugged and economical. Coaches who have been seeking sports in which more students might compete, are enthusiastic. They point out that bike riders come in all sizes, shapes, weights and ages. You don't have to be a seven-footer (as in basketball), or a burly bruiser (as in football), or perfectly coordinated (as in baseball) to be a whiz on a wheel. What it takes is practice. And this, say the coaches, is perfect training for any other sport and for health and endurance. In fact, Dr. Paul Dudley White, the President's heart specialist, and a cyclist himself at 69, recommends the sport to oldsters who have "tapered off" too fast on their exercise. All the youngsters need outdoor exercise, all respond to supervised physical training and all need to satisfy the spirit of competition. For the few specially-gifted athletes, these are

At present 30% of married women are working, twice as many as in 1940. The number is rising. Women's jobs are plentiful and young couples need the money to lift themselves in living standards. On the national average, the pay for women's jobs has risen less than men's.

Paul Arendt Family Has Reunion Sunday

Members of the Paul Arendt Sr. family gathered Sunday evening in the Lindsay Hall for a reunion, the first in seven years that brought the parents and all their children together at the same time.

The event honored Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bauer and their three children Paul, Michele and Danny of LaFeria and S.Sgt. and Mrs. Ernest Arendt of Lawton, Okla.

The Bauers were completing a three-week vacation and left Monday to return to their home. The Ernest Arendts spent the weekend at Lindsay.

Everyone brought covered dishes for the meal and afterwards took flash pictures, played cards and visited.

Present were the hosts Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arendt Sr., the honorees and Messrs. and Mmes. John Hoberer and family of Hood; Andy, Johnny and Paul Arendt Jr. and Vincent Zimmerman and their families of Lindsay, Artie Arendt of Gainesville, Emmet Fette, Albert Herr, Ray Voth and Earl Walterscheid and their families of Muenster, and Mr. Arendt's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Arendt of Lindsay.

The get-together provided the first occasion for Ernest Arendt and his brother-in-law Albert Bauer to get acquainted. Saturday night Emmet Fette entertained in his home with a stag party for the two visitors.

RETURNS FROM DETROIT

Clara Belle Fleitman has completed a 10-day vacation visit with her parents, the William Fleitmans, and has returned to Dearborn, Mich., where she is on the staff at Oakwood Hospital in the anaesthesia department. Sunday evening a party honored her in the home of her parents. Monday morning they took her to Fort Worth where she boarded a plane for the trip back to Dearborn.

As the last quarter opened an 18 yard pass to Fleitman was complete for a TD, but officials called the play back and imposed a 5 yard penalty for off-side. Two more attempts failed and the ball went over on downs. Moments later Walter put the Tigers back in business with an interception on the Trojan 31. Three plays went to the 20 and a fumble ended the drive. Then Windthorst fumbled and Sacred Heart tried again from the 30. Four desperation passes went incomplete and another opportunity fizzled away.

Finally, with less than four minutes to go, the Tigers held for downs and took charge on their 39. Fleitman gained 17 on an end around sprint, which ended in his injury. After a delay of some 45 minutes, until an ambulance took him to the hospital, the game continued and the Tigers advanced 17 yards before losing the ball on downs on the 4.

Sacred Heart scored its only touchdown in the opening minute of the game. On the second offensive play Windthorst fumbled setting up the Tigers on the 8. Three plays did the job, Mollenkopf going over from the 2.

The Trojans got back into the game in a hurry on a 53 yard pass play, Baumhardt to Schreiber, which was finally stopped on the Tiger 13. A fumble on the 6 spoiled that opportunity and Sacred Heart took over. Failing on their series the Tigers kicked and Windthorst had another chance from the 28. A 14 yard heave from Baumhardt to Schreiber tied the count.

Toward the end of the first half Sacred Heart appeared to be on the way but a 47 yard push ended on the Trojan 33 as time ran out.

Again as the next half opened the Tigers seemed to be back in stride but their 40 yard advance finally ended 21 yards short of the goal.

Windthorst snapped back with a beautiful aerial attack which moved 79 yards to the final TD in six plays. Three passes were good for 32, 26 and 14, the latter going to Schreiber for the counter.

parishes all headed by identifying signs and society banners, then the local parish. Following the parishes were little girls dressed in white and strewing flowers, visiting clergy, a Fourth Degree K of C honor guard in formal attire, the choir, and the Blessed Sacrament carried by Father John Duesman, head of the Sherman Deanery. A priest was at each side and the trio walked under a canopy carried by four members of the local parish.

The procession was organized as the crowd assembled with Ed Endres directing over a public address system. The Blessed Sacrament, brought from church arrived at the special temporary altar at 3 o'clock and was placed in the monstrance as the choir sang O Salutaris. The procession started as the choir started the Pange Lingua.

passes clicked to perfection . . . a 100 per cent completion record on seven tries for a total yardage of 136.

All of the first half was exclusively a display of offensive power, on both sides. With one exception each team went on to score every time it got hold of the ball.

Muenster took the opening kickoff and pushed 36 yards in 8 plays before Richey got away on a 35 yard scoring sprint.

Valley View then used 16 plays in moving 67 yards to its first TD. Young went over from the 5 and carried again for the extra point.

Back in possession the Hornets used 10 plays on a 64 yard advance to the double stripe. The drive apparently ended with Richey's 28 yard scoring pass to Kaderli but officials decided an ineligible receiver was down field and penalized the play 15 yards instead. On the next try a similar break went against the Warriors. They intercepted a pass but were penalized for holding and Muenster again had the ball on the 28. Wimmer broke through then for a TD that counted. Richey kicked true and the score was 13-7.

Valley View's next offensive bogged down on the second series. Cain smeared a passer for 8 yards loss and two passes were incomplete, so the Warriors kicked. On the next play Richey got away for 64 yards to the goal but officials called it back and imposed a 5 yard penalty. Wimmer then sprinted the 69 yards for the third TD.

On offense again the Warriors put on the steam for a 62 yard advance in 4 plays. A 22 yard pass, Young to Merritt, was the scorer. Parnell carried over for an extra point. Muenster led 19-14 at half time.

Back after intermission Valley View promptly lost the ball on Hamric's interception and regained it 3 plays later on a Hornet fumble . . . then drove 61 yards in 9 plays. Young made the last 6 yards to put his team ahead 20-19.

Defense then braced on both sides. Muenster lost possession on downs on its second series and Valley View lost possession on its third series, on the 10. However a Hornet fumble on the 15 gave the visitors another chance. After a set back to the 22 on a penalty and a short loss Young flipped to Merritt for a TD. Parnell went over for another point.

A Look at the Nine Amendments

Herewith is an article from the Texas Press Association which presents a brief explanation of the nine proposed amendments to the state constitution. The Enterprise submits it for the benefit of readers who may wish to consider the proposals before they cast their votes.

Following a few of the items the Enterprise submits, in parenthesis, an additional thought, for what it is worth.

1. Authorizes the legislature to compensate persons fined or imprisoned for crimes they did not commit. PRO: Would make amends for hardships unjustly imposed on the innocent. CON: Might open the door to numerous fraudulent claims. (Justice here seems more important than possible problems with frauds.)

2. Allows county commissioners to vary allocations of tax money without special elections. PRO: Greater flexibility would make for greater efficiency in county financial management. CON: Commissioners courts would have too much authority. (Our objective should be to strive for efficiency, and also for the kind of officials who can be trusted with authority.)

3. Adds other colleges to the building program financed by the University of Texas Permanent Fund and authorizes investment of the fund in corporate stocks and bonds as well as government bonds. PRO: Would provide an increase in college building money without new taxes. CON: Risk involved in wider investments is not worth the possible return (and subordinates all other state colleges to Texas U and A & M.)

4. Increases the benefits of the teacher retirement system. PRO: Would attract more persons to the dwindling profession. CON: Would increase taxpayers obligations by $4,500,000, take a larger nick out of teachers' salaries. (The cost is a trifle compared with the critical need for more teachers.)

5. Authorizes another $100,000,000 bond issue for veterans land buying. PRO: Program has been put in order, and additional money is needed to enable more veterans to participate. CON: Program does not merit public

Hornet offense got going again for a 58 yard scoring drive in 9 plays. Once more the Hornets crossed the line just for practice. Richey went over from the 2 and, after a 5 yard penalty, did it again from the 7. His kick for point was good and the Hornets trailed 27-26.

A desperate Hornet attempt to get hold of the ball and put over a winning touchdown failed as Kaderli's attempted on-side kick dribbled a few feet to the side and Valley View had possession on Muenster's 40. Two penalties set it back 20 yards but the Warrior passing attack was equal to the job. Two heaves set up a first down on the 27 and Wright, on a keeper play, got loose for the final TD. Young ran for the extra point, setting the score at 34-26.

confidence; only about one per cent of Texas veterans have benefited.

6. Provides a different oath of office form for elective and appointive officials. PRO: Would clarify present inconsistencies. CON: Clutters constitution with minor details.

7. Requires competent medical or psychiatric testimony before commitment of a person to a mental institution and allows waiver of jury trial, except in criminal cases. PRO: A mentally ill person should not be "convicted" as a criminal. CON: Jury trial is a safeguard against "railroading" of persons into mental institutions (the safeguard of trial jury is still available when desired).

8. Permits judge to deny bail to persons convicted of two previous felonies. PRO: Would curb habitual criminals. CON: Right of bail is one of our fundamental civil rights. (The problem is, should habitual criminals have the law on their side?)

9. Authorizes the Legislature to give aid with federal assistance to citizens permanently and totally disabled by a mental or physical handicap. PRO: State has a moral obligation to these needy persons. CON: Tie-in with federal program would lead to more federal encroachment.

have been booted out of government, foreign relations have improved, the trend toward government ownership of business has been reversed, dignity and integrity have been restored to the White House.

As regards the critics' favorite beef, the farm problem, it is only fair to recall that the slump arrived before the Democratic high supports expired, also that artificial high prices caused the trouble in the first place. Whatever problem we have today is the result of a mistake through former years, not of the new policy. Furthermore, after the dismal failure of the old policy, it doesn't seem quite reasonable to denounce the new one before it has had a fair chance.

In less than a week we will know how the country feels about these two candidates. In the meantime each of us should think about his own vote, of his privilege in casting it and his sacred duty to vote for the man whom he expects to do the best job for this country and the world.

Let's hope that every qualified voter in Muenster will exercise his right and duty next Tuesday and turn in the biggest vote ever recorded here.
