Whitesboro Is Host For Elm-Red Soil Awards Program

Whitesboro has been picked as the host city for this year's soil conservation awards program and banquet, and May 8 is the date.

Those decisions were made last Thursday afternoon at the First State Bank, Gainesville, in a special meeting of supervisors, bankers, and newspaper and radio personnel of the Upper Elm Red Soil Conservation District.

As in previous years it will be the big event observing Soil Conservation Week, May 11-18. Efforts are also under way to promote special services in all churches of the district on Soil Stewardship Sunday.

Awards this year will consist of $50 to the outstanding conservation farmer of each of the five zones in the district, a silver tray to the outstanding comeback farmer of the district, and a plaque and $25 respectively to the outstanding landlord-tenant team of the district.

Program details decided at the meeting include the selection of Jerry Talley of Sherman as master of ceremonies and A. A. Foster of Whitesboro as narrator. A 10 year old girl from Tom Bean and a Gainesville quartette will sing. Other details of the event will be worked out by Program Chairman Claude Jones and the Board of Supervisors.

District KCs Plan Initiation April 13 In Gainesville Hall

Plans were set in motion last Wednesday night for the Muenster KC council to participate in the district initiation at Gainesville on Sunday, April 13.

Grand Knight Pat Hennigan announced at the council's regular meeting that the host council and time have been decided, also that State Deputy N. A. Quintanilla will be there to direct the ceremonies.

In keeping with the local district's custom, the initiation will be part of a full day's program, starting with group attendance at mass in the morning. Exemplification of the second degree will begin shortly after noon and the third degree will follow promptly thereafter. In the evening members will be joined by their ladies for a supper and party.

The first degree will be exemplified at a special meeting the preceding Thursday night.

Councils participating in the initiation are Muenster, Gainesville, Sherman, Denison and Pilot Point. Persons currently serving on the local council's membership committee are John Mosman, Al Horn and Wilfred Bindel.

37-B Track Meet At NTSC Postponed

A conflict of schedules in track activity at NTSC resulted in a lucky break for coaches and trackmen of District 37-B this week. As a result their annual Interscholastic League District Meet on the North Texas track was postponed from this week Friday until Wednesday, April 2.

Coaches and youngsters are all glad. Because of wet and cold weather they have had little if any outside practice. Coach Ansley said that his best session so far was Wednesday afternoon when he took his boys to Leeper stadium in fairly good weather.

Along with some 10 days of extra practice some teams will also have extra experience. Friday afternoon Muenster, Callisburg and Saint Jo will get together at Gainesville for a three way tussle.

In other sports events Muenster is practically crowded out of the Interscholastic League. They lost every one of their volley ball and tennis matches with Saint Jo . . . except in elementary boys volley ball. That, along with senior boys softball and junior girls softball and track are the only remaining chances to earn a few points in sports.

Semifinals for the two softball teams will be with Alvord at Saint Jo on April 1. Winners of those games will have to play their finals promptly thereafter.

R. M. Zipper was in Dallas Saturday and Sunday to visit his daughter and family, the Jim Stockmans, in whose home Joan Zipper of Dallas visited while her father was there. Mr. Zipper also visited his brother Joe

KCs Give Library Last 2 Volumes in Texas History Set

The complete set of seven volumes of "Our Catholic Heritage in Texas" will soon be available in the library of Sacred Heart High School.

With the last two volumes now printed, members of the Muenster K of C council at their meeting last week voted to complete the local set. The other five volumes had been donated by the council as they were finished.

"Our Catholic Heritage in Texas" is the history of the Catholic Church's work in colonizing and civilizing the state. It was started in the late twenties and the project was sponsored throughout by the state council of the Knights of Columbus.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Flu has kept Postmaster Arthur Endres confined to his home the past ten days.

H. H. Kathman, 80, continues seriously ill at his home. He's been sick since January.

Mrs. Frank Trachta was admitted to St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas Wednesday afternoon for medical care and observation. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Henscheid took her to Dallas.

Mrs. Ben Hellman is regaining her strength now following an eight-week illness and was out for the first time Sunday to attend church services. She's staying with her daughter Mrs. Irene Frost in Gainesville since she left Talley's Rest Home there this week.

C. F. Gobble was dismissed from Veterans Hospital in McKinney Tuesday, two weeks after undergoing major surgery for stomach ulcers. He's up and around at his home and is regaining his strength rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher drove to McKinney to bring him home.

Mrs. Louis Sicking was at Gainesville Sanitarium five days of last week for a check-up and observation.

Judy Trubenbach returned Monday evening from Baylor Hospital in Dallas where she was a patient five days for X-rays and observation. Judy's mother, Mrs. Ollie Trubenbach, stayed with her, and her sister Mary of Fort Worth visited them. Mr. Trubenbach took his wife and daughter to Dallas and went there to bring them back home.

Mrs. Tom Pryor of Myra, 76, was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Wednesday following treatment of injuries received in a fall at her home Sunday morning. She sustained a broken left arm at the wrist and a bruised shoulder and ribs.

Flu kept Mrs. Jesse Sanner confined to bed several days last week and prevented her from attending the formal opening of Sanner's Shoe Store Saturday. She returned to work at the store Monday.

Mrs. Mattie Davidson of Gainesville is improved after suffering a light stroke Tuesday. She's the mother of Mrs. Earl Robison and Ivan and Raymond Davidson.

Mrs. Earl Swingler of Houston underwent surgery in that city last week and Mrs. Joe Swingler left Sunday to stay with her son and family until her daughter-in-law regains her strength. While Mrs. Swingler is away Mrs. Joe Wilde is taking care of their mother, Mrs. John Eberhart, in the Swingler home. Mrs. Eberhart is getting stronger, slowly. She is out of bed for short periods now to sit in a chair and, with help, takes a few steps around her bedroom.

Muenster Included In Burglary Rash

The Palace Drug Store was one of the seven firms hit in a rash of burglaries here and at Gainesville last Thursday night. It was also the hardest hit of the group, sustaining a loss of about $125 whereas three of the other firms reported small losses and the others did not miss anything.

Items taken here were about $30 in change and 40 to 45 cartons of cigarettes. A mark on the door indicated that it had been forced open with a heavy bar.

Rain Tapers off; Area Waiting for Planting Weather

A big improvement marks the moisture situation in the past week in this area. Rains that have been monotonously regular and excessive for a couple of months have finally tapered off a bit. The total rain measure for the last seven days was only .14 inch.

Days that are clear, even though unseasonably cold, offer a possibility that farmers will be able to return to their fields soon. Their big hope now is that clear weather will continue long enough for them to finish their spring planting.

For many that involves lots of work. Some who had notions of sowing spring oats find that they have extra acreage to put in corn or sorghums. Besides lots of land still needs pre-planting attention.

In other respects also, nice possibilities are still in sight. Winter grains have a good color and nice size. Grasslands have a similar healthy look. And all lands have ample moisture to get any crop off to a nice start.

After Monday's .14 measure the month's total now stands at 2.77 and the year's total at 6.93.

John Pautler, 51, Native of Muenster Found Dead in Car

John Pautler, 51, a native of Muenster and a resident of Hammond, Ind., for the past 15 years, died at an undetermined hour Tuesday night of causes unknown here at this time.

Mrs. Pautler telephoned relatives here at 1 a.m. Wednesday to tell them of her husband's death. She said he was found dead in his automobile but did not give further details. Pautler had been an oil field worker all his adult life but was off duty at the time of the fatal accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Pautler, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cunningham, Mrs. Clarence Owen and Henry Pautler left here Wednesday evening by car to attend their brother's funeral which was scheduled for Friday morning in the Catholic church at Olney, Ill.

John Pautler was born in Muenster in May 1906, third of the ten children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pautler, and attended school here. He went to Olney, Ill., to work in the oil fields before being drafted for the army in World War II and was on duty in the European Theatre. He was married to Miss Edna Von Almen and after his discharge from the armed forces they moved to Hammond, Ind.

His wife and one son, Jimmy, of Hammond survive. Other survivors are his mother, Mrs. Joe Pautler; four sisters, Mrs. Clarence Owen, Mrs. Ray Owen, Mrs. Herbert Cunningham and Miss Hilda Pautler; five brothers, Joe, Henry, Alfons, Ed and Phillip, all of Muenster.

Weather Prevents Baseball at SHHS; 10 Games Scheduled

Ten games are on the Sacred Heart Tigers' baseball schedule . . . unless continued wet weather postpones some of them completely off this year's calendar.

Coach George Petrus said that two dates with Windthorst and almost all practice dates have already slipped past. The nearest thing to a game so far was a trip to Windthorst. But it rained there while they were enroute and the field was wet when they arrived.

The schedule as it looks now consists of two contests with each of five teams. Dates are set for 8 of those 10 games and the other two will be decided later. Here is the list as it reads now.

Mar. 25, Windthorst, here
Mar. 30, St. John's (Ennis) here
Apr. 1, Windthorst, there
Apr. 11, Jesuit B, there
Apr. 25, Jesuit B, here

Mr. and Mrs. William Seyler of Valley View spent Sunday in Ardmore with their son, M.Sgt. Albert Seyler and family and were sponsors at the baptism of their son's wife. Mrs. Albert Seyler was received into the Church Sunday. Father Thomas Cahill officiated at the baptism service in St. Mary's church.

St. Joseph's Society Re-elects Officers

Members of Saint Joseph's Society re-elected Ed Endres president for another year at the annual election of officers Wednesday night. Also re-elected are Alvin Hartman, secretary, and Al Hess, treasurer. New on the executive committee is Herbert McDaniel, vice-president, replacing Ed Pels.

The election for the organization, held each year on March 19, followed a supper party and ladies night this year.

About 200 members and their ladies and members of the St. Anne's Society gathered in the parish hall after the evening mass for the social event.

In observance of the feast day of their patron members of St. Joseph's Society attended the 7 o'clock evening mass and received Communion.

Members of St. Anne's Society prepared the fried chicken supper. Father Christopher Paladino led the invocation and gave an after dinner address.

Signs on Highway Invite Attention to Muenster Church

Two handsome signs, to be erected at either side of town on Highway 82, will soon inform tourists of the presence of a Catholic Church here and also the schedule of Sunday masses. They were given to Sacred Heart Parish by J. P. Flusche and will be installed by the Saint Joseph's Society.

The signs are identical both consisting of heavy gauge sheet metal on a 4x8 foot frame of angle iron and surmounted by a small silhouette of a church in the same material.

Painting, which was done by a professional sign painter, shows the schedule of Sunday masses here in black paint on a white background. Above and below the white background are Catholic Church, Muenster, Texas in white paint on a black background. The silhouette above is also painted black and white.

Both are painted on both sides and will be erected vertical to the direction of the road so that each can be read from either direction. One side of each, however, has been retouched with luminous white tape on the white lettering. They will be installed so that the luminous sides face traffic coming to Muenster.

Spots favored for installation are near the Livestock Auction west of town and near Tony Felderhoff east of town.

Sheriff Whisnand Warns Trespassers

A warning to trespassers . . . that they are subject to prosecution if found on posted property . . . was issued here this week by Deputy Sheriff Buck Wilson.

His warning was in line with an official statement by Sheriff O. E. Whisnand after he had received complaints from landowners about unwelcome visitors in recent weeks. The landowners who went to the trouble and expense of having their property protected by law are trying to prevent further nuisance or damage.

Common complaints against trespassers are leaving gates open, damaging grass in wet weather, scaring livestock, and sometimes even shooting livestock.

FFA Boys Prepare For Project Show At MHS Saturday

About 60 head of fancy livestock will be on display here Saturday at the third annual project show presented by the agriculture students of Muenster High School.

The event will be held in the FFA project pens north of the Hornet football field. Animals are due to be there by 11 o'clock and judging will start at 1:30, allowing plenty of time to complete the selections and hang up the show ribbons by about 3 o'clock.

Bill Miller and H. T. Lester, vocational agriculture teachers at Valley View and Era respectively, will be the judges. Prizes will consist of $200 in cash, provided by the county chapter of the United Fund, and ribbons.

Animals entered in the show, as listed by Chapter Adviser Glenn Hellman are 12 registered ewes, 6 grade ewes, 4 registered gilts, 2 registered sows, 14 fat lambs, 12 fat pigs, 4 dairy cows, 3 fat club calves, 1 registered boar and 2 registered rams.

Bond Issue Election Delayed as Petition Receives Inspection

An election to decide whether people of Cooke County wish to approve a half million dollar bond issue to build and operate a county hospital was postponed by the commissioner's court Wednesday morning.

The commissioners delayed official action until their next meeting on April 14, allowing sufficient time for checking all names on the election petition. According to law the petition must contain names of at least one tenth of the qualified voters of the county, and names must be checked against current poll tax and ad valorem tax rolls. It will be necessary also to check other legal details to make certain that all requirements have been observed.

Since more than a thousand names appear on the petition it is taken for granted that there will be more than enough qualified voters to meet the minimum requirement.

The petition asks for a bond issue election to raise $500,000 for construction, equipment and preliminary operation of a new county hospital. $450,000 of it is intended to match a Hill-Burton federal grant of a similar amount to build and equip the building and the other $50,000 is for starting operation.

Meanwhile other interests are seeking another solution to the county's hospital problem. Medical and Surgical Hospital, owned by Blair Ferguson, has been idle for more than a year, and is seen by some people as a more economical way of meeting the county's hospital shortage. As it stands, M&S Hospital, with its 42 bed capacity, meets two thirds of the county's rated requirement of 60 beds.

Free Chest X-Ray Will be Available Here April 9 and 10

Free chest X-rays will be available in Muenster on the afternoon of Wednesday, April 9, and all day Thursday, April 10. Arrangements for the mobile X-R unit's visit are complete, according to Mrs. Clarence Hudspeth, general chairman of the sponsoring group, the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The mobile unit will set up in the Endres Motor Company show room where it was located when it came to Muenster in October 1956. Mrs. Hudspeth this week was lining up Auxiliary members to be in charge of hostess duties while the unit is located here.

Mrs. Hudspeth attended the annual meeting of the Cooke County TB Association and heard W. K. Shackelford of Austin, State Health Department representative, speak on the chest X-ray program for the county. The unit will operate in Gainesville April 1 through 4 and then again April 7 and 8 before coming to Muenster.

Shackelford told the group about the new system which the Health Department will advocate in the future in which the tuberculin test will be used. The test, a simple skin test, is being advocated by the Health Department. Groups most likely to harbor tuberculosis will be selected in the future for the X-rays. Adults in the 50 and over age group are especially urged to avail themselves of these free X-rays.

Mrs. Hudspeth said that arrangements are being made to furnish transportation for those who would otherwise be unable to visit the X-ray unit and that further details in this regard will be announced at a later date.

Weinzapfel Talks At Dairy Meeting

J. M. Weinzapfel was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the North Texas Jersey Cattle Club in the city hall auditorium in Denton Thursday morning.

About 200 members including Jersey breeders and dairymen and their families attended the 10 a.m. meeting.

Weinzapfel discussed economic aspects of dairying. Also on the program was a panel of dairy people telling how they planned to meet the demand of modern dairying.

Disgusting in the extreme are statements such as those made by some big shots of the Democratic party Tuesday to the effect that the McClellan Committee is not due to operate much longer because it has outgrown its usefulness. Their remarks fit perfectly in a pattern which has been apparent ever since the committee turned its attention to Walter Reuther and the shabby details connected with the Kohler, Wisconsin, strike.

All of us recall the big headlines accompanying the investigations of Dave Beck and James Hoffa. Every effort was made to show up the Teamsters' leaders in the worst possible light. Beck, along with some others who lean to the Republican side of politics, were thoroughly exposed, and the country was grateful.

But now comes the time to investigate a Democrat who has been no less notorious in his union activities. And suddenly the key investigators as well as some members of the committee lose interest in their noble project. They seem more anxious to whitewash Reuther than to seek out and expose his arbitrary methods and the crimes committed by his goons.

Meanwhile the people in control of principal news channels are cooperating perfectly. The story of Ruthless Reuther is being suppressed as much as possible. The public has less opportunity to hear the investigation story and draw its own conclusion. And the UAW boss apparently will remain in a position to direct millions of member funds into the Democratic fund . . . whether the members like it or not.

The situation gives us two big reasons for apprehension . . . first concerning the conditions that can develop if hoodlum policies are allowed to prevail in the unions, also concerning political standards that can develop when such characters have undue influence in a party.

Political forecasters are going strong nowadays predicting the verbal battles over such issues as the farm program, unemployment, Russia's lead in scientific development, national defense, summit conferences, etc. What the country wants most, however, is a real showdown on basic integrity. It would like to favor people who stand squarely on principle and vote out all who have been guilty of conniving with criminals or communists or any other kind of public enemy.

They say that the communists of North Korea are mighty smug over forcing the United States to recognize their country in order to secure the release of victims in that sky piracy a few weeks ago. It's hardly necessary to say, however, that this recognition is very similar to that given by an officer while a thug holds a pistol to his hostage.

When the lives of 26 innocent persons were at stake there was no other course open. But now that the episode is over the North Koreans are held in greater contempt than ever before.

A person would think that here again is an opportunity for our country to see how communism operates and to shape its policy accordingly. Washington knows that this was not just the act of a small independent government but rather the act of international communism, with the official approval of the Kremlin.

But apparently we have not learned our lesson. The diplomatic maneuvers concerning a summit conference go on and on. We continue the game of matching wits even after learning many times that there is no such thing as beating the reds. Any time we win a point they default. We've been the loser in every agreement so far and we'll lose again if we try again. So, why waste our time?

Another exasperating detail concerning the North Korean kidnapping. While that incident was at its hottest many in this country were making themselves ridiculous fawning over the new Soviet ambassador. Well, this smiling and gracious character is a member of the Kremlin cut-throat gang which has butchered thousands of Poles and Hungarians, which keeps hundreds of millions of people in bondage and starvation, which is fanatically dedicated to the conquest of all the world, including this country. Behind that treacherous smile of his is the same old pledge to destroy us.

All these things we know are true. Dedicated Americans have

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stelzer of Norwalk, Calif., formerly of Muenster, proudly announce arrival of their son, Matt Stelzer II, named for his grandfather. The paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Stelzer, live at Post since leaving Muenster. The new baby has two sisters, Geraldine 13 and Shirley 2½ and a brother, Terry, 4. He weighed six pounds 15 ounces at birth.

Poor Report Card May Be Caused by Poor Eyes or Ears

AUSTIN — How many parents have thought to themselves, "Judy seems bright enough, but just look at her report card, she should be doing much better and her teacher says she is inattentive and moody."

It is only natural for parents to be concerned about their children's behavior and achievements in school or play. Oftentimes difficulties experienced by children which may make them appear slow or uncooperative have definite physical relationships of one kind or another.

The most common and usually least suspected are those involving the eyesight and hearing. Too often a child falls behind in school or fails to enjoy himself with other children because of faulty hearing or an eye disorder.

For this reason parents and teachers alike should be alert for signs which may indicate trouble of this kind.

Parents themselves can watch for these symptoms in their children, and if one or more should occur, have the child examined by your physician. If further examination or treatment is indicated, he can refer you to a specialist.

Hearing difficulties often attack subtly. If a child is continually turning his head to hear sounds, leaning forward to hear, asking repetition of things said or frequently inattentive, hearing loss is indicated.

Health factors to observe are: mouth breathing (tonsils and adenoids can cause trouble), draining ears, earaches, and ringing, buzzing or roaring in ears; also certain personality traits indicate hearing deficiencies such as a lack of self-confidence, extreme anti-social behavior, extreme introversion, and constantly being on the defensive.

In achievement a child may be two or three years behind his age-level in school or experience a sudden failure following a severe illness.

Eye difficulties are manifested in more obvious ways such as: frequent blinking, rubbing eyes frequently, watery eyes, styes or crusted eyelids, inflamed eyes, squinting at close objects, crossed eyes, and attempts to brush away a blur.

Also frequent crying, holding a book far away or too close while reading, screws up face while reading, tenses body in far-vision, looks out of only one eye or experiences headaches after close work.

Don't delay if any or some of these signs appear in your child. Prompt attention now could save his sight or hearing and improve his whole outlook on life.

Gremminger Family Has Get-Together

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gremminger had an all-day family get-together in their home Sunday. Present were their children Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wehman and daughter Cynthia of Pleasanton, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Gremminger and children of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schumacher and family of Gainesville, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martini, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Short, Mr. and Mrs. John Lerner Jr., Don Martini and Janice Raab, all of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Tony Gremminger.

The Wehmans returned to their home Monday after a weekend visit; the Teddy Gremmingers were here Saturday and Sunday and also visited her parents, the Victor Hartmans, and the other guests were here for the gathering Sunday.

CDA Members and Husbands to Have Brunch Sunday

Members of Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters of America, will observe next Sunday, March 23, as their Communion Sunday and will attend the 10 o'clock mass in a body. After mass, members and their husbands will be guests at a brunch in the parish hall.

The court announced plans for the Sunday program at its regular March meeting Friday night.

In other business conducted by Mrs. John Mosman, grand regent, a copy of resolutions to be presented at the state convention was read. The convention will be held in Houston April 11-14.

So that state convention reports can be given to members at the April meeting, next month's meeting date was set for April 18.

It was announced that the court had bought material for six First Communion dresses and slips which are now being made by members of Saint Anne's Society. These will be sent to the Holy Father's storerooms.

Cancelled Stamps Solicited in Drive To Help Missions

Sophomores of Sacred Heart High and their class sponsor Sister Theresina again appeal to everyone to save all cancelled stamps and get them in the stamp drive as soon as possible.

The contest now in progress will continue until the end of school, but there's a bonus on early stamp returns. Schools sending in the most stamps will receive prizes.

But the prize is not the object of the stamp hunt. This is mission work. Money from the sale of stamps to collectors will bring medical aid, food, clothing and religious instructions to mission posts the world over.

The Cylon Mission Stamp Bureau, conducting the stamp round-up, sorts, assembles and packages the stamps for sale.

Sister Theresina received a letter from the receiving center the past week. The message expresses gratitude for stamps received to date and also lists the standing of schools in the contest. At that time Sacred Heart school was in eighth place among hundreds of schools in the United States.

The sponsoring sophomores will pick up stamps on a call to the school. Families in the parish can send their stamps in with their school children.

There's a special bonus for stamped picture post cards and these are urgently sought by the collectors here. They ask that these and all stamps be turned in as quickly as possible for a shipment to be made soon, and ask everyone to keep on saving again for the next shipment.

Little Carol Ann Sicking spent last week in Valley View with her aunt and family, the Henry Sandmanns, while her mother Mrs. Louis Sicking was a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium. Mary Jo and Weldon Sicking spent the week with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus.

Local Group Goes To Jonesboro for Religious Service

Münster is well represented this weekend at Jonesboro, Ark., where religious ceremonies at Holy Angels Convent are being held and in which six girls from Sacred Heart parish are participating.

Postulant Lillian Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fisher, received her white veil and name in religion in services Thursday.

In the Friday services five novices make triennial vows and officially become Sisters. They are Novice Estelle Marie (Linda Yosten) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Yosten, Novice Jacinta (Lillie Mae Reiter) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Reiter, Novice Lucille (Jeanette Bayer) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bayer, Novice Lorraine (Mary Ann Eckart) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Eckart, and Novice Verona (Rosemary Walter) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walter.

Leaving Wednesday to attend the ceremonies were Mrs. Paul Fisher and five children and her mother Mrs. Frank Kathman, Mrs. James Eckart and daughter Agnes, Mrs. John Kathman, Mrs. Ted Gremminger and Florentine Vogel.

Leaving Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walter and children Alice, Judy and Chris and Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, Mr. and Mrs. George Bayer and family and her mother, Mrs. Ben Sandmann of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Yosten and four children and Mrs. John Fleitman, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Reiter and members of their family.

Mrs. Gremminger will have an opportunity to visit her daughter Sister Yvonne and Mrs. John Kathman will see her sister Sister Anselma. The Bayers hope to be joined by their daughter Sister Carmella of Little Rock and will visit their other daughter Dorothy Mae who is a juniorate at the convent. The Yostens will have an opportunity to visit their daughter Gloria who is in the juniorate, and Mrs. Eckart will see her sister, Sister Thomasina, at the convent.

Robert Miller celebrated being eight years old on March 14 with a party for which his classmates and cousins were guests.

Mrs. Billy Joe Miller entertained at the family home for her son and was assisted by Patsy Endres and Jeannine Hofbauer in leading the 17 youngsters in games and contests. Prize winners were Jerry Otto, Freddie Hoedebeck and Glenn Trachta. Other children present were Lawrence Bruns, Stanley Endres, Glenn Schoech, Alcuin Schilling, Chris Walter, Paul Hoedebeck, Ricky Endres, Gary Fisher, Henry Yosten, Terry Paul, Alan and Linda Miller and Cheryl Bayer of Gainesville.

Grownups at the party were Robert's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. T. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, and Mrs. Randy Bayer of Gainesville and Mrs. Ervin Henscheid.

Everyone enjoyed birthday cake, ice cream and soda pop and had their pictures taken. Robert displayed an array of birthday gifts. Party favors were balloons and whistles.

Birthday Party is Given for Ed Pels

A group of sheephead players surprised Ed Pels on his birthday by gathering at his home for an evening of cards. They brought birthday gifts.

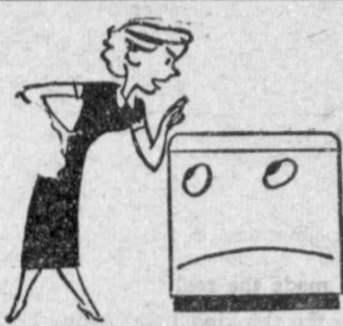

Mrs. Pels who was "in" on the surprise for her husband had refreshments for the men.

Present were Nick Yosten, Albert and Leo Henscheid, Ed Endres, Mike Schilling and Leonard Yosten.

Clarence Metzler Feted at Fish Fry

About 35 relatives and friends including Mr. and Mrs. Al Horn of Münster, John Schmitz of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Metzler and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Metzler of Lindsay were guests Friday night at a party observing the birthday of Clarence Metzler.

The honoree's wife planned the event which was a fish fry at their home at Preston Fishing Camp, Lake Texoma. The fish supper had all the trimmings of a birthday feast including a decorated cake.

COMIC ECONOMICS

Leave it to "Give-Them-Hell" Harry to disregard the facts in his public utterances, especially when he is lambasting his deadly enemies — the Republicans — both "old school" and "modern."

One of his latest cracks and this really comes under the heading of "Comic Economics," is his utterance on the subject of balanced budgets. Here's what he said:

"I never lost sight of the desirability and the necessity of achieving a balanced budget."

That's what he said. Now let's look at his performance.

Mr. Truman took over as Chief Executive on April 12, 1945. On that day according to the official report, the national debt was $234,142,255,085.70.

Harry turned the job over to Dwight Eisenhower on January 19, 1953, approximately 8 years later. He handed over to Ike a national debt, officially listed as of that date, of $267,274,819,744.41.

By a simple process of subtraction, we find that Harry left a national debt of $33,132,564,658.71 greater than when he took over. Rather a strange performance for an individual who "never lost sight of the desirability and the necessity of achieving a balanced budget." At least, one has a right to think that he has no right to "cast stones" at his successor under whose administration over a 5-year-period the national debt has increased only slightly by comparison.

NOTHING TO GAIN AT THE SUMMIT

Mikhail Menshikov, the Kremlin's new charm-boy ambassador to the US who has replaced the surly Georgi Zaroubin, told Washington newsmen at the National Press Club that the positions of this country and the Soviet are closer than ever and that the US and the USSR should clasp hands in a treaty of friendship.

Meanwhile, a US note to the Soviet Embassy was saying "nuts" (nyet in Russian) in diplomatic language to the Kremlin's suggestion of a 30 power foreign ministers meeting in April — to be held after we had committed ourselves to a summit meeting in June. Also at the same time Administration leaders were fuming at the Red suggestion that Washington would be a nice place for the top show. This, of course, would tend to confirm in the eyes of the world the idea that Menshikov was trying to sell at the Press Club, namely that the "cold war" had either been abandoned or at least reached a truce. There was the further itchy consideration that Americans at large would never forgive the President were he to receive the Kremlin butchers in their capital and at their White House.

Yet, in spite of the expressed resistance of President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles to the Red blandishments, both seem eager for a summit conference on their own terms. This is difficult to understand. It does not seem possible that they can think of the Kremlin gang as representative of Russia and the Russian people. Khrushchev & Co., represent Communism, international Communism, the same gang that has enslaved China and retains North Korea in sneering contempt for the Panmunjom armistice. There are nearly twice as many Russians in slave labor camps as there are in the Communist Party. Of 220 million Russians, but seven million are party members. If and when we talk to Khrushchev we do not talk to Russia. Any agreements we might make could only extend the servitude of the Russians — and the Poles and Hungarians and East Germans and the Yugoslavs and others — insofar as they would bolster the prestige of their Kremlin masters. As for the worth of any such agreements to us, we refer our leaders to a list of 26 published recently by Human Events. All were made with the USSR since 1917, and all have been violated. It is history that the US was sold out by two ailing Presidents in "summit" meetings at Versailles, Casablanca, Teheran and Yalta. It is not possible that the American people welcomes a further repetition.

FREE THE FARMER

The March issue of The Reader's Digest features a challenging article entitled, "Let's Set the Farmer Free." Its author is Earl M. Hughes — a successful Illinois grain and livestock farmer, an agricultural economist of note, and a former vice-president of the Commodity Credit Corporation, which handles the government's $8 billion farm surplus hoard.

Mr. Hughes' solution to the farm problem is based on abandonment of "the impossible job of trying to legislate farm income through direct price supports." The government's main job, he believes, should be to help find new uses and markets for farm products, and then to turn farmers loose to produce in response to free market prices. And he cites an actual and outstanding example of how, in a free market, food consumption can be increased and diet upgraded.

Here is what he says: "At the sharp break in the price of beef in 1953 there were howls that Congress should fix prices on beef cattle. But most cattlemen figured that the real answer was to sell more beef to the housewife, not to the government larder. They joined with packers, retailers, farm groups and government in an intensive promotion effort. The housewife got a bargain, and we ate our way out of the beef glut. In the past five years beef consumption has jumped from 62 to 85 pounds per person per year. If the govern-

EXPLORER HUMS ABOUT GOD

By Harry J. McSorley, staff-writer, Paulist Feature Service

A FEW WEEKS AGO A scientist from a large midwestern university got himself some publicity by trying to revive the 19th century myth that science and religion are incompatible. Referring to Sputnik, the professor dogmatized: "A nation such as Russia which can launch earth satellites can dispense with gods entirely." To Communists, who profess a creed of atheism, a statement of this kind is undoubtedly heart-warming.

Now that our own Explorer is bulleting around the globe, is it time for us to "dispense with God?" Far from it. In fact, anyone willing to do a little thinking will find that Alpha 1958 can actually serve as a starting point for proving God's existence.

SCORES OF ENGINEERS, physicists, mathematicians, and rocket experts planned and calculated for months to get the 30-pound Explorer into the sky. One thing that all Russians and Americans must admit is that the earth satellites sweep the heavens only because brilliant minds on earth designed and built them. Anytime we detect orderly movement or design we know there has to be an orderer and an intelligent designer somewhere.

But if Explorer and Sputnik can only be explained in terms of intelligent beings, why should the universe itself—which is infinitely more orderly and ingeniously complex than our most delicate machines—be denied an intelligent cause?

Our own earth is a satellite spinning around the sun. Why say that Explorer presupposes an intelligent maker, but deny that the satellite called Earth demands a similar explanation?

NO RELIGION requires as great an act of faith as that of atheism, which blindly believes that the vast law-governed universe of atoms and suns exists without a Law-Maker.

The atheist says: "Yes, Explorer requires an intelligent explanation, but the various elements, man, and the rest of the universe just happened by chance."

THE ATHEISTS' LACK of logical consistency recalls the story of the two friends, one an atheist, the other an astronomer with deep religious convictions. Visiting his astronomer friend one day, the atheist noticed a magnificent scale model of the solar system arranged in a corner of the laboratory. "Who made this splendid model," asked the atheist. "No one," replied the astronomer. "Don't be absurd," laughed the atheist; "who made it?" The astronomer answered, "Aren't you the one who is absurd? You seek an intelligent explanation of this poor model of the solar system, yet you refuse to look for the One Who made the real thing."

To the thinking man, Alpha 1958 is hardly an argument for atheism. Instead, it may actually help some people to come to know Him Who called Himself "the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last."

ment had stepped in to fix prices and control production, we would have had a beef scandal to dwarf the 500-million dollar potato fiasco of 1947-51, when millions of bushels were given away or destroyed with kerosene. And we'd have a sick beef industry today."

This isn't theory — it's hard fact. The meat industry has provided us with a blueprint for getting agriculture back on a free enterprise basis of operation — which is the only sound and secure basis.

A little flattery now and then. Makes husbands out of single men.

Women Have Option In Deciding When To Get SS Benefits

The right of a woman to change her mind is well known the world around, and the Social Security Act now gives women reaching age 62 a chance to exercise that right.

Take Mrs. Melba Wright (that is not her true name, of course) who called at her local social security office a few days after her 62nd birthday. Mrs. Wright had worked for many years, but gave up her job two years ago in order to devote more time to her home and her grandchildren. She called at the office to find out what her social security payments will be, and when she can begin receiving them.

After a little figuring had been done, the claims representative said, "Mrs. Wright, your payments will be $78.50 per month if you apply at age 65, or $62.80 per month if you apply now." Mrs. Wright thought the matter over briefly, remarked that the difference is almost $16 a month, and decided to wait until age 65 to make application.

Two weeks later, however, she was back in the office, and made this statement: "I have decided that I can use the money now, that I will be ahead for the first 15 years by taking the reduced rate, and that I may not live another 15 years." She filed her application and is now getting her monthly checks at the $62.80 rate.

Women workers, and wives of retired workers, between the ages of 62 and 65 have the choice of taking a reduced rate prior to age 65, or of getting full benefits at age 65. Once the choice is made, and the application is approved, however, the decision is final, and the woman can not change her mind again. The amount of monthly benefit will not be increased when they reach age 65. Women who qualify for widow's benefits, or benefits as dependent mothers, can receive benefits at age 62 without any reduction being applied.

For information concerning your status under the Social Security Act, see the representatives of the office serving Cooke County. The office is located at 503 Commercial Building, Sherman, Texas. A representative of the office is in Gainesville each Tuesday morning at the County Court House.

OCEAN TO OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS!

CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8,* the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission,* the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world — the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires — no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began — across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2½ miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet — but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes — and the engine was never turned off!

Over 400 Attend Formal Opening of Sanner Shoe Store

More than 400 persons attended the formal opening of Sanner's Shoe Store, Muenster's newest business Saturday. Children especially enjoyed the open house which provided each with small toys, candy and balloons.

More than a dozen floral tributes graced the store for its formal opening.

Flu kept Mrs. Jesse Sanner confined to her home and prevented her being on hand for the big day. Mr. Sanner was assisted by their son-in-law James Gray, visiting here from Dallas, Willard Hartman who was home from Denton for the weekend, and Mrs. Arthur Endres.

Sanner's Shoe Store opened for business early last week but the owners, operating in spite of a few shortages of equipment, postponed the formal opening until it seemed likely the needed items would arrive.

The store is located south of the Variety Store. The front is glass and the interior is two-tone green with a white ceiling, and beige carpeting. Shoes featured are Robert Johnson and Rand line of International Shoe Company for the entire family.

40 Hours Devotion Ends Monday with Solemn Ceremony

Forty Hours Adoration closed Monday night in Sacred Heart church with a solemn ceremony in which Abbot Michael Lensing and nine priests participated. The once-a-year three-day adoration service began Saturday.

Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus furnished an honor guard and marched in the procession before the final Benediction. The choir concluded with the Te Deum.

The Rt. Rev. John Duesman of Sherman, dean of the Sherman deanery, officiated at the service and other visiting priests were Rev. Louis Deuster of Little Rock, Ark., Rev. Anthony Gajda of Valley View, Rev. William Lane of Gainesville, Rev. Conrad Herda of Lindsay and Rev. Fintin Oldham of Subiaco who accompanied the Rt. Rev. Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco Abbey.

Prescher and Moody Herds Take January Production Honors

Cows belonging to H. H. Moody and Peter Prescher tied for top honors in butterfat production for February in the Cooke County Dairy Herd Improvement association according to the report just released for the month.

The Prescher and Moody herds both averaged 39 pounds of butterfat. Moody's herd was first in milk production with 1050 pounds and Prescher's cows were close with 1030 pounds for the second spot. Hi-Lo Farms herd was in third place with 36 pounds of butterfat and 930 pounds of milk.

Twenty-two herds with a total of 668 cows in milk were tested during the month. Sixty-three cows produced 50 or more pounds of butterfat while the average per cow was 29 pounds. Average pounds of milk per cow was 753.

In the Prescher herd was the champion individual butterfat producer chalking up a total of 86 pounds. Moody had the individual high milk producer with 2330 pounds for the month.

In the Texas Association DHIA, Cooke county was second in the state in milk production with 850 pounds and third in butterfat production with 33 pounds for January.

Top honors for butterfat went to the Denton-Grayson association for 37 pounds while the Wichita Valley association was first in milk production with 950 pounds and came in second on butterfat with 35 pounds.

Twenty-five associations containing 16,697 cows are operating in Texas. The state average pounds of milk per cow was 640 and the butterfat average was 28.

Reid Infant Dies 2 Days After Birth

Weldon Lavonne Reid, two-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lavonne Reid, died suddenly last Thursday afternoon while he was being taken to a Dallas hospital.

Graveside services were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Starkey cemetery west of Saint Jo with Rev. J. H. Chism Church of Christ minister of Gainesville, officiating. Vernie Keel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Survivors in addition to the parents are two sisters Laneta and Roxana and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Clark of Gainesville and Mrs. Hattie Reid of Myra.

Family Gathering Held in Pels Home

Family members gathered Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pels for a final visit with Joe Pels of Madison, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. John Schindler and Harold Vance of Red Lake Falls, Minn., who returned to their homes Monday after a vacation visit.

Joe Pels stayed here as the house guest of his brother while the Schindlers and Mr. Vance visited in South Texas and Old-Mexico. They returned to Muenster Saturday from their trip and were overnight guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pels and Mrs. Henry Walterscheid.

BUY NOW... and BENEFIT

Come in today. Let us show you how you can buy now and benefit both in cash and in the many cost-cutting, grain-saving features of a new McCormick Harvester-Thresher. Don't pass up this opportunity to make the deal of a lifetime. Call us now and we'll come to your farm, appraise your trade-in and show you how much you save by dealing now.

... on your TRADE-IN for a new HARVESTER THRESHER.

Yes, you can get cash from us without putting up any cash of your own. We'll pay you 6% interest per annum on the value of your trade-in from the day we take it in on any new McCormick Harvester-Thresher until August 1, 1958. And, we'll pay the entire amount of interest due to you — at once. It's the deal of a lifetime. And, the earlier you deal with us the more cash interest you get.

We'll also pay you 6% per annum interest —

... on your DOWN PAYMENT

If you wish to use your trade-in as a down payment, or make a cash down payment only, we will pay you 6% per annum to August 1, 1958, on either or both. And, we'll pay the interest in cash... at once.

Why are we able to make this liberal offer? It's because your old combine or other trade-in is worth more to us NOW while we still have time to recondition it and resell it prior to harvest.

LABOR OF LOVE—Mrs. Frances Kuchda looks with a critical eye at the results of her painstaking artistry—a crocheted version of "The Last Supper." Mrs. Kuchda of Leavenworth, Kan., estimates that she spent two to three years in actual labor on the work, which measures 30 by 50 inches.

Local News BRIEFS

Mrs. Bill Fry and two sons of Dallas were here Saturday to visit her parents, the Andy O'Connors and other relatives.

One more week and Willie Walterscheid will be home with a discharge from the army. He's at Fort Carson, Colo., and will be separated from the service there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Derichsweiler and daughters Kathy and Dolores spent the weekend in Dallas with the Iven Derichsweilers and helped them move into a different house. While they were there the Derichsweilers enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adams who live in Dallas now. Rex asked about his old friends and former neighbors in Muenster and sent best regards to them.

Emma Fisher of Fort Worth had a weekend off from nursing school and spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, the Charlie Fishers.

Mary Trubenbach returned to Fort Worth Monday after a weekend visit with her family, the Alois Trubenbachs, and resumed classes at St. Joseph's School of Nursing Tuesday after a three-day holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Evans and Mrs. J. C. Trachta have returned for a 10-day vacation in Hot Springs, Ark. Among entertainment was attendance at the horse races. The Evanses and Mrs. Trachta were there for two weekends and during one weekend were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grewing and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swirczynski and during the other by Mrs. Evans' brother and family, the Joe Dickersons of Magnolia, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Stover of Chickasha, Okla., stopped here the past week to visit Mrs. Stover's sister, Mrs. Frank Kathman. The couple are on an extended vacation to points in Texas, Arizona and California.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herr and Joanie spent the weekend in Wichita Falls with their son and family, the Ronnie Herrs.

Mr. and Mrs. David Trachta returned during the weekend from a week's vacation in New Orleans. They enjoyed warm, summery weather while Muenster was covered with snow. On their way back they stopped at Jackson and Vicksburg, Miss., for sight-seeing and then at Hot Springs, for more sight-seeing.

Mrs. Ferd Yosten of Fort Worth spent last Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Schoech. Teddy came with his mother and spent the day with his cousins at the Andy Schoech farm.

Jesse Kathman has returned to his home in Portalis, N. M., after a three-week visit with family members here and with his son in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Edna Fielder, former long-time resident of Muenster, was back in town Saturday visiting old friends. She was the guest of her brother-in-law, D. L. Brewer at Hood for the weekend. Mrs. Fielder made the trip with Mrs. Ray Hubener of Dallas who visited her father Jake Biffle at Myra.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meurer took their daughter Martha Sue and Sharon Schumacher and Dyan and Hellman to Dallas Sunday to see the Rickey Nelson Show at Fair Park Auditorium.

The Freddie Hennigans and Diane Marie moved to Muenster from Gainesville during the weekend and are at home in Mrs. Ben Hellman's cottage. Freddie works on an oil rig here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher and Lee Toothaker drove to McKinney Sunday for a visit with C.

F. Gobble at the VA Hospital.

The Rt. Rev. Abbot Michael Lensing and Father Fintin Oldham of Subiaco Abbey, Ark., visited in Sacred Heart parish Monday and overnight and on Tuesday went to Windthorst and from there to Rhineland and Fort Worth. They are visiting parochial schools and showing vacation films to foster religious vocations. It's an observance of Vocation Month. Sacred Heart students saw the films Monday afternoon.

The Rev. pastors of Sacred Heart parish attended confirmation services in Denison Tuesday night when Bishop Gorman was there to officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wiedemann of Tours and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiedemann of Waco were here Saturday overnight and Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yosten and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Moster. It was their get-acquainted visit with the Mosters' baby son Frankie who is their grand-nephew. The Ed Wiedemanns also visited her cousin Sister Frances Hofbauer and the Henry Wiedemanns stopped in to see Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Endres. The two couples know each other through attendance at a K of C convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Cooke were weekend visitors in Fort Worth where they were guests of their son and family, the Harold Cookes. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Duffey, former Marysville residents, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Beall and his mother Mrs. T. F. Beall who lived in the Wolf Ridge community before they moved to Fort Worth. Saturday Harold Cooke was the honoree at a birthday dinner in his home and his parents were among the 15 guests attending.

Mrs. Orville Malone and daughters Arlene and Ruth Ann and Joan Roberg of Fort Worth drove to Muenster Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Katie Roberg and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Scoggins had as guests for the weekend their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Barrier and son of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. King had as their guest for a week, her cousin Mrs. Blanche Harris of Groom, Tex., who returned to her home this week Wednesday. Sunday Mrs. King and Mrs. Harris visited Tom Pryor at Myra, Mrs. Tom Pryor at Gainesville Sanitarium and Mr. and Mrs. Lon Blanton and Mrs. Jewel Trew at Valley View.

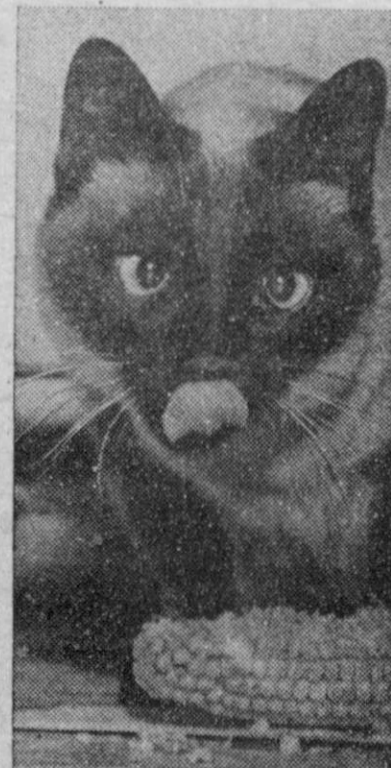

Birthday Observance

All the neighborhood children helped Jerry Schmitz celebrate his sixth birthday Saturday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schmitz where Jerry's mother had ice cream, birthday cake and drinks for the youngsters. Mrs. H. M. Schmitz was a special guest at the party for her grandson.

Birthday Surprise For Tony Wiesman

A surprise observance of his birthday greeted Tony Wiesman of Gainesville Sunday evening when his daughter Gladys and her husband, the Bill Terrys, entertained in their home with a dinner party.

Attending and bringing gifts for the honoree were Mrs. Tony Wiesman, the Carl Wiesmans and daughter Ann Marie, Billie Williams and Mrs. Joe Yosten.

HER FAVORITE—Licking her chops, Suzy, a 4-year-old Siamese cat, comes up for air while putting away her favorite food—corn on the cob. The St. Joseph, Mo., feline is a real sour-puss when milk is put in front of her but the corn is just purr-fect.

Silence made worry your folks when I Percy — "Did the noise we brought you home last night?" Mary — "Oh, no It was the silence."

A man went to see the doctor with the worst case of trembling hands the doctor had ever seen.

"How long have you had these symptoms?" asked the doctor.

"Well, it started about five years ago, but it's getting worse, Doc."

"Could it be that you are drinking too much?" said the doctor.

"How much is too much?" asked the patient.

"Oh, say a quart a day," replied the doctor.

"A quart a day!" exclaimed the patient, "Doc, I spill that much."

Invitation

A sign in a butcher shop, directly over the sausage-grinding machine, declared: "Go ahead. We don't mind you sticking your nose in our business."

Prayer for today from an Iowa journal:

"Oh, Lord, let my words be tender and sweet, for tomorrow I may have to eat them."

A fluttery little lady approached the manager of a pet shop and said, "I have a pair of canaries — one female and one male, but how can I tell which is which?"

"Well," said the manager, "why don't you put a pair of worms in the cage? The male bird invariably picks the female worm and vice versa."

"But how on earth will I know which is the female worm and which is the male?"

"Madam," said the man coldly. "This is a bird shop. I suggest you take that question to a worm shop!"

A BIT OF FARM HISTORY — This scale model of a steam powered farm tractor is the result of more than a thousand hours of loving labor by Stone Church, Ill., farmer Adolph Doelling. Each part was handmade in his rural blacksmith shop. The model develops three horsepower on the flywheel and is selfpropelled, fired by coal. Doelling said he built it so that today's youngsters could see the type of machine their grandfathers used.

Customer Interests Are Protected by State Bedding Law

A South Texas woman recently called the State Health Department's bedding division about a mattress she had purchased from an itinerant peddler. She had reason to suspect she had been defrauded.
When a bedding inspector checked the mattress, he found it unlabeled and filled with unacceptable material in violation of the State Bedding Law. The peddler was located in Houston, and given the choice of facing court action or refunding the woman's money. He chose to surrender the money.
The next time you buy an item of bedding — a pillow, mattress, or comfort — notice the attached label. It's a window through which you can see what is in the product and how it has been handled. Once attached, no tag may be removed.
If the product is made of all new materials, the label will tell you so. If it is made entirely or partly from second hand goods, the label will be printed in red ink and will clearly state its second hand status. If it has been used by someone else, traded in, and offered for resale, it will carry a "germicidal treatment" tag, certifying that it has been sanitized.
Even when you send a mattress out to be renovated, it will be returned with label certifying that it has been repaired.
The State Bedding Law was written into the statute book in 1939 for two prime purposes: to prohibit the sale of soiled or contaminated bedding materials, and to safeguard purchasers against fraud or misrepresentation. District inspectors cover every bedding manufacturing plant in the state to see that the law is complied with.
All manufacturers must be licensed before their products can be sold in this state. Some 1200 factories in Texas, and 400 outside the state, are currently licensed.
Well over four million items of bedding are sold in Texas every year. Every one carries a stamp on the label, which in effect says to the buyer: "As far as the law is concerned, you are getting what you paid for." Stamps are sold by the bedding division for one cent apiece, which goes toward supporting the division.
Second hand items of bedding may not be sold in this state until they have undergone germicidal treatment and sterilization permits must be obtained from the bedding division, after plants have been checked for conformity with the law.
Most germicidal plants use the "dry heat" method. Bedding is placed in a large oven and literally baked for one hour at 230 degrees. Ovens must be checked every 90 days by a representative of the bedding division to insure proper operation.
Other health safeguards are requirements that factories meet high standards of sanitation, and that filling materials in new bedding be of an acceptable quality.

Another Good Market In Sight

That's how the signs are reading again this week. Rough weather all over the country has retarded livestock receipts in the big markets, and prices are up accordingly.
And ... prospects for good prices Saturday are still mighty good.

Weathering the Winds Of Many a Long Year

This old windmill, still standing today, bears witness to the fact that the early Dutch settlers in this country believed in building solidly for the future.
In much the same spirit, of building for permanence, this bank was founded. Through the years it has held steadfast to its original principle of faithful service to its depositors.

Lindsay News

Joe Bengfort entered Gainesville Sanitarium as a medical patient Tuesday.

A lay teacher from Gainesville is teaching the seventh and eighth grades at Lindsay school this week. Last week Mrs. James Bezner of Gainesville taught the classes to replace Sister Constantia who suffered a heart attack. She is a patient at Madonna Hospital in Denison.

Al Bezner and Mrs. Isabel Galvan of Dallas spent Sunday here. They had dinner with their mother, Mrs. Joe Bezner, and in the afternoon visited the Joe Bezners Jr. and the Bruno Zimmers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Fuhrmann and daughter Eileen and sons Michael and Francis drove to Chickasha, Okla., Sunday to spend the day with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Cletus Bauer and family.

Word to the Wise
Big shots are usually small shots who kept on shooting.

Two executives were in the woods hunting for moose. "I'll sound my new moose-call horn," one said confidently, and did so. "There! That'll bring 'em."

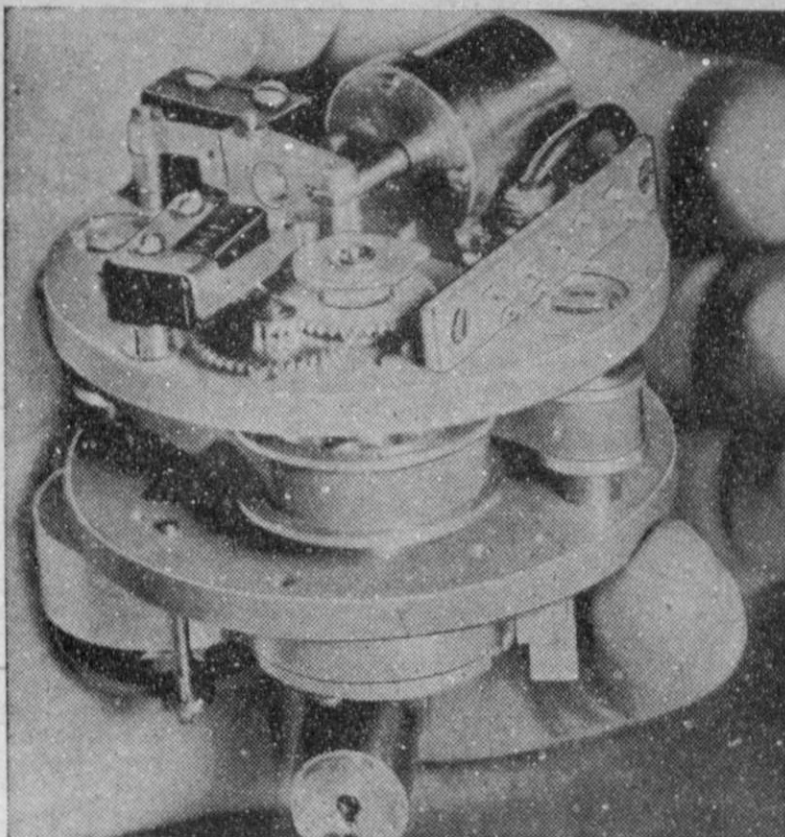

But no moose appeared — instead, dozens of mice came running. The executive who had sounded the horn stared, then uttered an imprecation. "That secretary of mine!" he fumed "I ordered a moose-call by mail — and she made a typographical error."

TINY TAPE RECORDER—It took 300 man hours to make this tiny tape recorder which was fitted into Explorer II, the Army's unsuccessful satellite. It was designed to store up information about cosmic rays, temperatures, meteorite bombardment and release it in five-second periods on signal from the ground. The completed assembly (a cover fits over it), built at University of Iowa, fits conveniently in a man's palm.

Just Living Is a Business

Back in pioneer times our forefathers found they could keep track of the family history pretty well with a few notations on the flyleaf of the family Bible. But life's not quite that simple any more. Great-grandpa wasn't covered by social security or workmen's compensation. He didn't have a bank account or safe deposit box, a car and a dozen home appliances being bought on time payment, or a half-dozen insurance policies. We have taxes great-grandpa never heard of and wouldn't have believed if he had. And had you asked for a certificate to prove his birth, he'd have thought you'd taken leave of your senses.

The point of this is that the average American today has a good many important papers to keep track of. There are birth certificates, receipts, copies of tax returns, sales contracts, and a host of other papers. With a little tidy record-keeping, you can make life easier for yourself and your family when you are gone.

Here are some suggestions:

1. Get a heavily bound notebook folder or file folder as a central collecting point for all the records of your affairs.
2. Put your especially important papers in your safe deposit box, but make a list of those papers and a brief summary of their contents to put in your home file.
3. Get for your files copies of birth certificates for all members of the family, and add them to the file. Add your marriage license or at least a statement as to when and where you were married and by whom.
4. Insert your will or a copy of it. If your will is kept elsewhere, include a note telling where it may be found.
5. During the year, put into the file your income tax withholding statements and receipts for expenditures which may be deductible. Then keep a copy of each year's tax return in the file.

6. Make a list of all the stocks and bonds you own and where they are.

7. List all the places you have lived and worked and the names of persons there who you know. Include the schools you have attended and the dates you left or were graduated.

8. If you may have benefits coming under a profit-sharing plan where you work, make a note of that too.

9. If you're in doubt about whether an item should be included, put it in.

This takes time initially, but it will save you both time and worry in the long run.

Spoiled 'Em

"Jim, you get to travel a lot and see the country. And you net about twenty-five dollars a week. For the life of me I can't see why you want me to give you a raise."

"Well, fore one thing, my children have just found out that other families eat three meals a day."
