Oktoberfest offers full weekend of activities

Muenster will be a beehive of activity this weekend when the town closes down part of downtown and parties in the street, during Saturday and Sunday Oktoberfest celebrations. The agenda is varied and should have something of interest for almost everyone.

Activities include sports and other competitions, quilt show and sale, Muenster Historical Bee, antique cars and farm machinery, music, dancing, arts and crafts, children's crafts and face painting, drawing for $3,300.00 in prizes and the list goes on.

Muenster's Historical Committee is taking an active part in this year's festivities. They have set up an exhibit in the Muenster Drilling Company office and will honor six of Muenster's senior citizens. The senior citizens will be in the Muenster Drilling office from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. On Saturday, Robert Knabe, Theresa Hesse and Al Wiesman will be honored and, on Sunday, Russ Linn, Elsie Fuhrman and J.M. Weinzapfel will be on hand to greet visitors.

Local students have been studying local history and many will compete in the Muenster History Bee on Saturday. Preliminaries are scheduled for 10 a.m. in the Muenster ISD auditorium. Finals will be at 2 p.m. in the Muenster City Hall council room. The Bee is sponsored by the Muenster Historical Committee, who invite the public to come and watch.

Many interesting items have been entered into the antique auction/sale including some items from Germany and Australia and both antique and regular quilts. There is also a quilt show Saturday at Hess Furniture.

Margie Starke, Chamber of Commerce secretary, noted that 23 crafters have contracted to set up booths along the second block of Main Street. There will also be food booths offering hamburgers, cinnamon rolls, kolaches, German sausage, German potato salad, sauerkraut, beer, beverages, etc.

Children's entertainment will be provided by a company offering dart throw and duck pond with nice prizes and a moonwalk. Proceeds earned from these games will be donated 25 percent to the Chamber for the beautification of Muenster and 25 percent to the homeless of Fort Worth. A nine-car train ride will start at Mid Park; also there are several booths with children's crafts and a face painting booth.

Music will set the festive mood as Alpenmusikanten and the Bavarian Woodchoppers, lively polka bands, provide music on Saturday and Sunday, respectively. Sonny and Norma will entertain both days with accordion music. Several dance groups will demonstrate their skills.

Polka dancing will begin at 7 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Community Center. Tickets are $5 per person and include pick-up foods. Door prizes will be awarded. The dance ends at 11 p.m.

Last year's popular event, the Bed Races, are scheduled for both days this year. There are a number of entries already and more are wanted. To enter, call the Chamber of Commerce, 759-2227. Extra beds are being provided by the Chamber and will be drawn for by lots.

Saturday's antique car show features Fords and Sunday's show is open to all. The Mustang Club and Hudson Club have indicated plans to participate.

Entries are still being accepted for the 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament, Co-Ed Sand Volleyball, Horseshoe Tournament and Bed Races. To enter, call 759-2227. Entries for Ugliest Dog Contest can be made on Saturday.

Local residents should be aware that Main Street will be closed from Saturday morning until sometime Sunday evening. This involves from Saturday morning and through the night; from First Street to Oak on the east and to Elm on the west. On Sunday, the closures will take in the east and west streets of the first three blocks from the Hwy. 82 red light from Oak to Elm.

All proceeds from the weekend that are earned by the Chamber are earmarked for use in the beautification of Muenster, reminded Margie Starke, Chamber secretary.

Becker and Truebenbach win 1992 crowns during SH Homecoming festivities

After a week of anticipation the winners of the Sacred Heart Homecoming King and Queen titles were announced during festivities last Friday and Saturday. Werner Becker III, son of Werner and Linda Becker, received his crown at the Friday evening pep rally held on the Community Center Parking Lot. April Truebenbach, daughter of Allen and Carla Truebenbach, was announced as 1992 Homecoming Queen before the Tigers' football game with Lindsay on Saturday night.

Only seniors are eligible to win the homecoming titles.

April was crowned by the 1991 Homecoming Queen Lisa Schilling. The banner was presented by the 1990 Queen Angie Endres. Other members of the Queen's court were seniors Julie Felderhoff, daughter of August and Loretta Felderhoff; Angie Hofbauer, daughter of Dale and Dolores Hofbauer; and Christy Yosten, daughter of John and Pat

Yosten; junior Kelly Dangelmayr, daughter of Joe and Pam Dangelmayr; sophomore Stephanie Grewing, daughter of Wayne and Peggy Grewing; and freshman

Karri Endres, daughter of Clinton and Debbie Endres.

Werner accepted the King's crown from Julie Felderhoff, a senior queen candidate. The King's court also consisted of seniors Larry Switzer, son of Charles and Marcella Switzer; Jordan Bayer, son of Paul and Donna Bayer; and Barry Hess, son of Don and Martha Hess; and junior Aaron Berres, son of Dave and Kathy Berres; sophomore Neil Berres, son of Dave and Kathy Berres; and freshman John Klement, son of Pat and Ruth Klement.

Red 'N Motion, Sacred Heart's dance team, performed a western routine to the popular song "Boot Scootin' Boogie" at the pep rally. Cheerleaders also did a dance routine. There was candy for the children and after the spirited pep rally high school students, parents and friends were invited for a meal of hot dogs, chips, dips and soft drinks.

The dance team gave two performances, one during pre-game activities to "Eye of the Tiger" and the other at half time to "Pink Cadillac." Melissa Miller and Donetta Hess were Tiger mascots.

County Democratic headquarters opens

by Elaine Schad

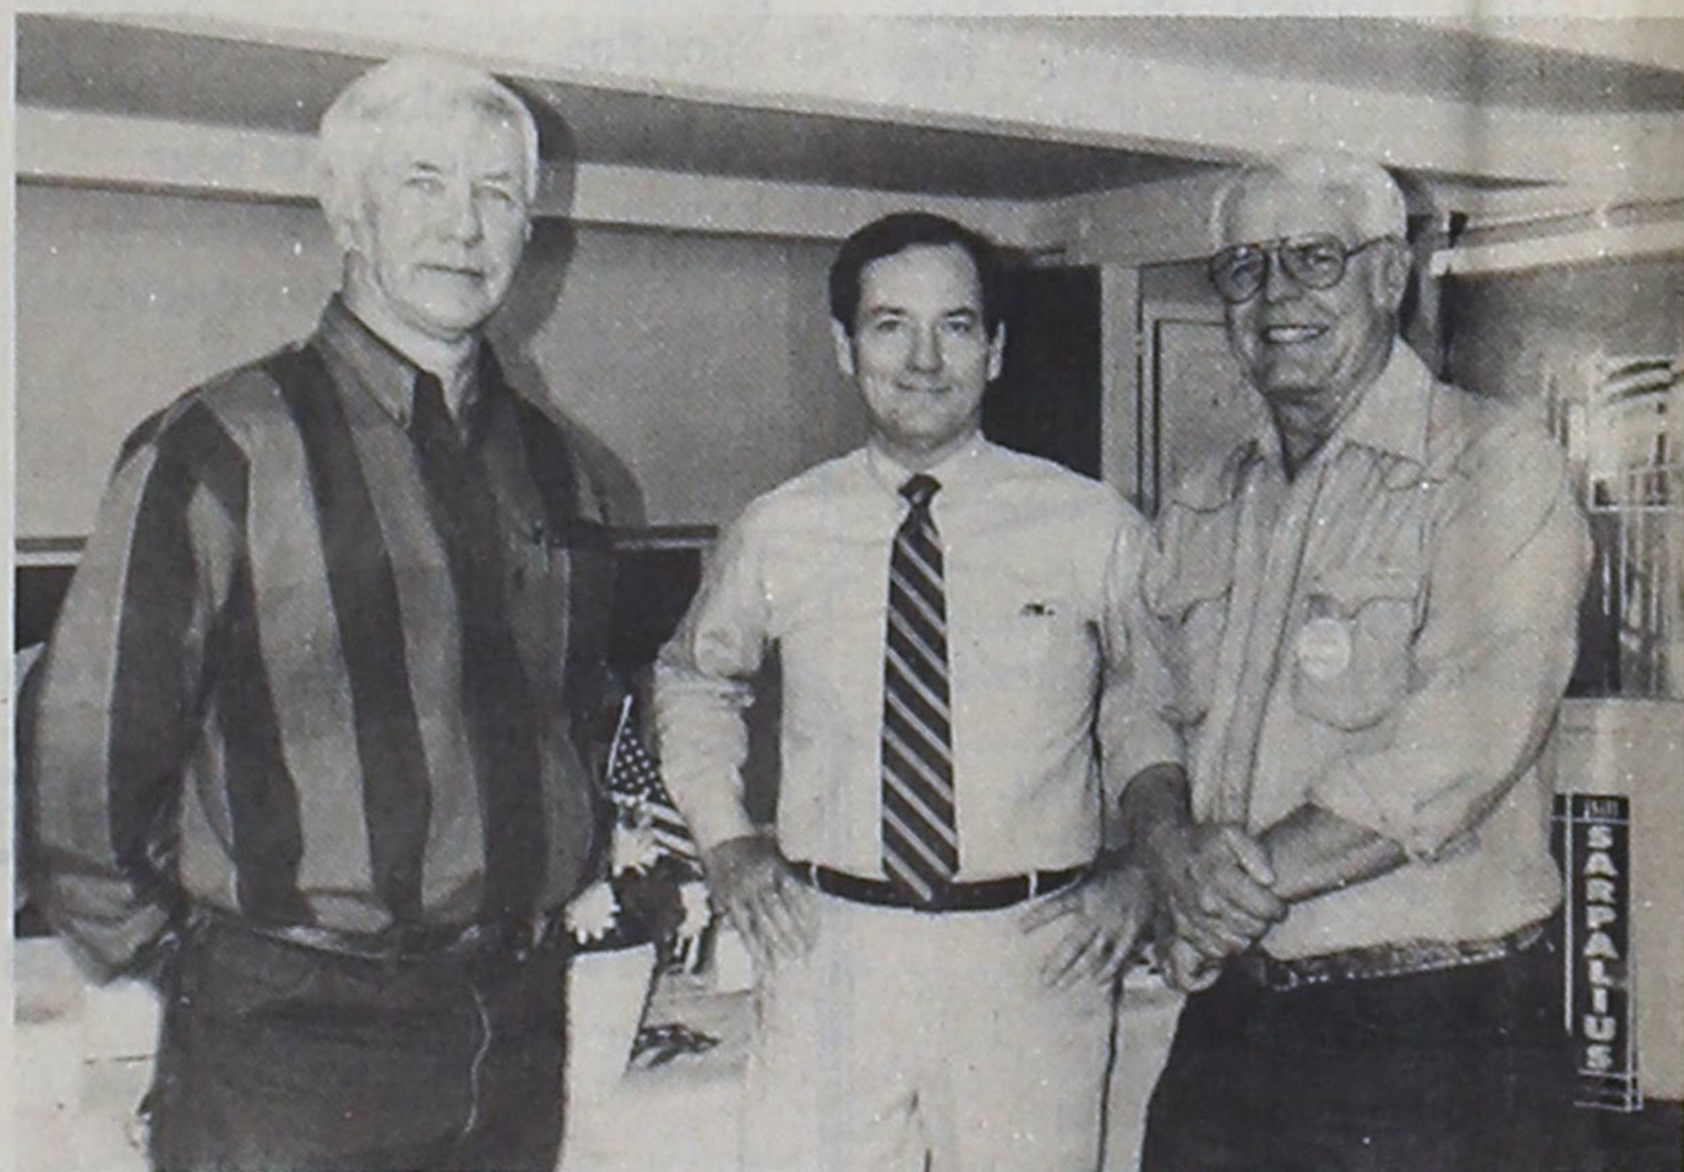

The Cooke County Democratic Party has opened its headquarters in preparation for local, state and national elections at 301 North Commerce Street in Gainesville.

Several local and statewide candidates dropped by to visit with the public during an open house over the weekend. The headquarters will open at 10 a.m. six days a week, said Deborah Sullivan, coordinator.

Among those dropping by for the open house were local Democratic candidates Joe Nichols, who will face Republican Jim Bleything in the Nov. 3 election for Cooke County Sheriff, and County Judge Ray Russell, who will face Republican Stephen Cole in November's countywide election.

A regional race of interest to Cooke County voters will be the election for Justice of the Second Court of Appeals. Doyle Willis Jr., 49, the Democratic candidate who will face Republican Tod Weaver in the November election, brought his message to Cooke County voters during the open house.

Willis has a somewhat local tie to Cooke County. His wife, Libby Barker Willis, served as Main Street director in Gainesville in 1983-84. She is now a coordinator for the National Trust for Historic Preservation and is headquartered in Fort Worth, where the couple live with their two-year-old son, Henry.

The Second Court of Appeals is one of 14 intermediate court of appeals in Texas and is based in Fort Worth, serving a 12-county area which includes Cooke County, Willis said. With very few exceptions, such as in cases of the death penalty, the Second Court of Appeals has jurisdiction on most civil and criminal cases that are appealed out of that 12-county area, he said. Incumbent Judge Joe Spurlock has decided not to seek re-election to that seat.

Willis, who enjoys long-distance running, said he plans to begin walking in Granbury this week and walk to every county seat, including Cooke County, to talk to voters. Willis said he has always been interested in a judicial career. "I think any judge should be industrious, knowledgeable of the law and independent," he said. "I think the special interest law firms in Fort Worth are trying to control the courts," he said.

A 1974 graduate of the SMU Law School, Willis was a private practice civil attorney for several years before becoming a U.S. Government Attorney, working in labor relations in 1980. He served as a campaign aide for former U.S. Congressman Jim Wright from 1980-81. He was Judge of the Tarrant County Court-At-Law No. 2 from 1984 to 1990. He is presently working as an administrative judge under the new Texas Workers Compensation Law for the Fort Worth office of the Texas Workers Compensation Commission.

Cooke County Democratic Chairman Bill Sullivan said interest has been high this year among those volunteering to work for the Democratic Party in Cooke County. He invites anyone interested in volunteering or in any of the races to drop by the party headquarters at the corner of Broadway and Commerce streets in Gainesville.

Good News!

They will see the glory of the Lord, the splendor of our God. Strengthen the hands that are feeble, make firm the knees that are weak. Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, He comes with vindication; with divine recompense He comes to save you. Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf be cleared; then will the lame leap like a stag, then the tongue of the dumb will sing. ISAIAH 35: 2-6

Southtown Streets must wait

The on-off street paving project in Muenster's Southtown neighborhood is still inching its way along. At Monday night's regular City Council meeting, the aldermen decided to study a combination paving job on Park Lane. The proposal is to pave with hot mix asphalt on the street where residences are currently built then switch to the less expensive oil and chip rock paving where there are no homes. Base work will be continued on all streets this fall but actual paving will not be attempted until next year on any of the streets. Other items receiving action or discussion were:

-Construction of retaining wing walls was approved for the new drainage culverts under Seventh Street.
-Traci Stoffels was appointed Fire Marshall.
-A gas meter in Grewing Drive is not the city's responsibility.
-Fill dirt work and grass planting around picnic tables in the city park was okayed. Yosten Sand & Gravel Co. will do the soil work.
-The transmission in the brown GMC pickup will be overhauled at Dankesreiter Garage.
-Semi-annual contribution of $2,500.00 to the public library was approved.

-The city will continue lease of the Muenster Museum building pending the owner's approval.
-Monthly bills totaling $69,181.12 were approved for payment.
-The city will participate in the Red Ribbon Week, Oct. 24-Nov. 1, in cooperation with the War on Drugs.
-The council will go into further study of the chipper/compost solution to tree and shrub prunings.

Police fire on fleeing pickup

Dana Chris Putsche, 35, of Van Buren, Arkansas, was arrested Thursday, Oct. 1, around 6 p.m. after being pursued by police from Oklahoma into Texas. The pursuit, which began between Thackerville and Marietta, ended a half mile east of Muenster.

Putsche's vehicle was reported as being driven erratically while traveling southbound on Interstate 35 in Oklahoma. A Thackerville law officer failed an attempt to stop Putsche and pursued him into Texas where he turned west onto Highway 82.

A rolling roadblock was set up a mile and a half east of Muenster by the Muenster Police Department. Police Chief Helen Tompkins and Officers Bill Bivin and Bob Stovall participated. When the vehicle was blocked in, Putsche reversed his pickup and nearly hit Officer Bivin, possibly deliberately trying to run over him. Chief Tompkins reported that when he took off again, he hit her police car. The vehicle fortunately received very little damage, she said.

Muenster officers Tompkins and Bivin shot out the tires on the pickup. Although Putsche still tried to escape, he was stopped about a half mile from the Muenster city limits. He was arrested by the Cooke County Sheriff's Department and charged with DWI, evading detention and aggravated assault on a police officer.

The local pursuit never exceeded 35 to 40 miles an hour and Chief Tompkins remarked that she thought that Putsche had never gone more than 50 to 55 miles an hour during the incident. "When we stopped him, there was an open container of beer in the front seat and the man smelled strongly of alcohol," said Tompkins.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Paul Harvey's article, "Some Ways to Pay for Tax Cuts" in a recent issue of the Gainesville Register led me to secure a copy of "The Government Racket" - Washington waste from A to Z by Martin L. Gross. This paperback book clearly points out what we don't know about government spending that is bankrupting our country. It clearly answers where all the wasted money goes, and should be read and studied by all Americans. There are 75 chapters clearly listing the Washington Waste - all the way from agriculture to zoos, with a final chapter on "How to Reform the United States Government."

I have listened to all the rhetoric by our presidential candidates and have read "United We Stand" by Ross Perot. As I see it, he is the only candidate who offers any hope of attacking the real issue, "The Terrible Federal Deficit."

To the Editor:

Following Angelo Nasche's lead in his Letter to the Editor, Muenster Enterprise, Aug. 21, 1992, I submit my opinion on the abortion issue. As Angelo stated in his letter, our immediate challenge is to fight against the Freedom of Choice Act (FOCA) that is coming up for vote in the U.S. House and the U.S. Senate. If passed into law, this Bill would allow abortion on demand and our state governments would be kept from passing any laws to restrict abortion.

Do the readers of the Muenster Enterprise agree that we as a nation must stop killing the pre-born children? I do. And I believe that we, the silent majority, must become more active and join our more active Pro-Life friends in this struggle. I agree that we need to write to the pro-abortion politicians and let them know that we will not support them in the elections if they continue their support of abortion. We also need to know our Pro-Life politicians, give them our best support and urge them to continue the fight by voting against the passage of FOCA and any other legislation that promotes abortion.

I believe that if our appointed officials, our elected office holders, the candidates and the electorate became more educated on the abortion issue and as a result know it for the horror of horrors it really is, then legalized abortion would end in our nation.

The Pro-Life organization, TEXANS UNITED FOR LIFE, says that the abortion issue is the most critical, single issue of our day. Why? From the brochure of another Pro-Life organization, the Dallas Pro-Life Action Network (P.L.A.N.):

*Abortion claims the lives of 4,400 children in the USA each and every day, one baby every 20 seconds, 1,600,000 each year

*Over 25,000,000 abortions have been performed in the 50 states since the Supreme Court legalized abortion in 1973

My younger sister, a nurse in Dallas, gave me the following items from her research: (from scientific, political and religious perspectives)

*the growth of the human being prior to birth is evidence of his/her existence

*each person is unique

*abortion, the killing of a human being, is inconsistent as related to scientific knowledge and civilization

*the Declaration of Independence states "All men are equal...that they are endowed with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life..."

*many questions are being presented today regarding life, liberty and justice in our nation

*Christendom has the commandment, "Thou shalt not kill."

Bill Price, president of TEXANS UNITED FOR LIFE, has published a brochure, "Priorities for the Christian Voter: Pocketbook Issues or Pro-Life?" He writes, "We would not vote for a brilliant child molester, neither should we vote for any supporter of abortion, no matter how talented. We cannot expect economic recovery until we experience moral recovery. It is only in the recovery of our moral values that we can ever hope once again to be a great country." Free copies of the brochure can be obtained from: TEXANS UNITED FOR LIFE, 4424 Spring Valley, Dallas, TX 75244, Phone (214) 490-3430.

We, the silent majority, need to replace the silent screams of the innocent pre-born babies with our involvement, become more informed, fight the passage of the Freedom of Choice Act, support the Pro-Life candidates and stop electing those that are Pro-Choice (Pro-Death).

Sincerely,
Paul F. Hesse

To the Citizens of Muenster:
The news release from the Muenster Water District in the September 11 issue of The Muenster Enterprise was informative in what it told about the acquisition of the property required for the proposed Muenster lake. It correctly implies that one of the obstacles is the acquisition of the land needed from the Al Schmitt farm. However, the story does not explain why agreement has not been reached on that particular 98 acres.

This is being written so that citizens of Muenster will understand the reason for the delay.

When Al bought the land in question, almost all uncultivated bottom land was mostly worthless because it was so covered with trees and underbrush that grass did not grow. Over the years, Al has cleared virtually all underbrush and left standing producing pecan trees and a few other shade trees. The result is that most all the cleared land is now very good pasture.

To any objective farmer, rancher or appraiser, it's obvious that Al's land is worth more than most adjoining parcels of land which are still covered with underbrush. The thing that Muenster taxpayers need to know is that even though his land is worth more per acre, Al is not asking more for his land. He is merely asking that he be paid approximately the same per acre. The reason the matter has not been settled is that he is being offered approximately 40% less. He feels that would not be a just settlement and does not understand why the Water District Board is being discriminatory in what they will pay for various parcels of land.

The Board stated that they wanted to avoid taking this matter to court. Al Schmitt and his family would also prefer to settle out of court. It seems clear to us that it is totally up to the Water District whether or not this matter can be settled without the expense of a court trial.

Yours truly,
Wayne Schmitt

News from Railroad Commission

Fiscal Year 1992 was a banner year for plugging abandoned wells across Texas, with the Railroad Commission plugging 1,324 wells statewide, far surpassing any previous year.

The record-breaking FY 92 total eclipses the previous mark of 714 abandoned wells plugged by the Commission in 1986.

Overall, the Commission spent a total of $5,687,211 for well plugging and nearly $48,000 cleaning up oilfield pollution in FY 92, which ended Aug. 31. By comparison, the Commission spent just over $2.5 million dollars to plug abandoned wells in FY 86, the previous high year.

The Railroad Commission's well plugging program got a much-needed boost last year with the enactment of Senate Bill 1103. The landmark bill established a multi-million dollar oilfield cleanup fund which the Railroad Commission uses to plug wells and clean up polluted sites that operators have abandoned.

Fees, penalties and other payments collected from the oil and gas industry fuel the fund, which has as its ultimate goal helping to ensure clean water and soil resources for Texans for generations to come.

Since the Commission's well plugging program began in 1984, more than 5,300 abandoned wells have been plugged at a cost of over $21.8 million dollars.

Need of moisture in the area is evident each day after the early morning mists burn off and the crisp cool morning air warms up. Clouds of dust hang heavy in the air. Grass and other vegetation have taken on a dry, thirsty appearance. Farmers are anxious to see a significant amount of moisture before the crops they have put in wither and die or before it is too late to plant this fall.

For comparison, we have included rainfall amounts from 1952, '62, '72 and '82, as well as that of the last five years. The records were kept by Steve and Mary Moser. Mrs. Moser continues taking Muenster's official moisture measurements.

Haywood blasts Carriker for 324% pay raise, big spending

Saying the people of this district cannot afford Steve Carriker and his votes for big government, Tom Haywood, candidate for Texas Senate District 30, recently blasted Carriker for voting to give himself a 324% pay raise.

"For Carriker to even think that he and other career politicians deserve any pay raise, let along a 324% one, is an insult to every Texan in this district," said Haywood. "They need to implement some serious ethics reform before they come around trying to tell us they deserve a pay raise."

House Joint Resolution 102, which called for a 324% pay raise in the salary of state legislators, was passed by the Texas Legislature in 1989 and presented to the voters on Nov. 7, 1989. The amendment failed at the ballot box. Voters in Senate District 30 rejected the legislation overwhelmingly, 70% to 30%. In Cooke County alone, the proposal was rejected 85.00% to 15.00%, 2,255 residents voted against it while only 399 residents voted in favor of it.

"There seems to be two sides to Carriker, what he says and what he has done," noted Haywood. "He cannot continue to have it both ways. I say look at his record - the facts, not his words. We cannot afford his big spending habits."

Haywood also noted that

Carriker has voted for the 3 largest tax increases in Texas history, a record 22% increase in the state budget and the first-ever state income tax on business. According to the Free Market Foundation, Carriker was the #1 big spender in the Texas Senate during the last session of the legislature. No other member of the Senate voted for more in spending legislation than Carriker.

In a recent letter to news media, Carriker replied, "Last Wednesday evening at the candidate forum sponsored by the Metropolitan Business and Professional Women's Club on the MSU Campus, my opponent charged that I was "the Senate's #1 big spender."

"In replying to that charge, I stated that Senate records showed me as returning thousands of dollars from my office budget and that I had been in the middle one-third of Senate members in annual office expenditures every year since taking office."

"I did not realize at that time that the audit for the 1992 fiscal year had just been completed and rather than being in the middle one-third of the Senate, I was in the lowest one-third for fiscal 1992, having spent some $32,000 less than the average Senate office. I apologize for inadvertently misrepresenting as higher than actual my office expenditures and hope that this memo sets the record straight."

Football field discussed at Lindsay School Board meeting

by Elaine Schad

Lindsay school trustees, during their regular September meeting, met with members of the city council and the city's planning and zoning commission to discuss drainage for the new football field now under construction.

The combined meeting was held to discuss progress on the new football field, how the projects will impact drainage needs and cost. Discussions were held with Charles Allen, project architect.

The $25,000 project includes the construction of the football field on a 12-acre site just south of the present football field. The present football field will eventually be used as an expansion to the St. Peter's Cemetery in Lindsay. The athletic track will be built around the football field, and a 40-by-100 foot fieldhouse will be built. The project includes the construction of a fence around the field, parking and lighting. In a related matter, the Lindsay School Board appointed Andy Bezner to chair a committee that will move the bleachers from the old football field to the new one once the season is completed. Trustees discussed a public address system for the new field, but took no action.

In another matter, board members walked through the new addition to the middle school. Superintendent Gilbert Hermes reported the addition is in good shape, and that students and teachers may be able to use the facility in about a week.

In other business, trustees: -Reported that the district has received approval from the Texas Education Agency for a waiver for fourth grade class size requirements. The district has a total of 46 students in two sections, which is two more students than the 22:1 student-teacher ratio allows. The district has been granted the waiver for the 1992-93 school year.

-Approved Mike Murrell, CPA, as the district's auditor for the 1991-92 school year audit.

-Reported that a recent inspection by the State Fire Marshall showed the district conformed to all state fire regulations.

Lindsay Council discusses additional fire lanes

by Elaine Schad

At its regular September meeting, council members discussed placing fire lane limitations in front of the new parish hall from Ash Street west to the city limits. A proposed ordinance will be drawn up and be presented at the next council meeting.

Members discussed possible fees for using the volleyball courts at the park. There have been problems recently with trash and broken glass in the sand. No action was taken.

The council authorized the City Attorney to work on the problem the city is still having with its cable franchise. Customers continue to have reception and other problems with the service despite a legal settlement reached earlier this year.

Councilman Danny Zwinggi reported that he was not yet ready to present cost estimates for a proposed re-establishment of the city police department. The council heard a report that the Texas Municipal League Insurance estimated that $12,387.91 in damage occurred due to storm damage of the roof at City Hall. With a $2,500 deductible, the city will receive an insurance payment of $9,887.91. The roof is being replaced and the flat roof is being replaced with a gable roof.

Members also heard that the state highway department ran a new culvert in the ditch by City Hall and poured concrete around the entrance to prevent washing in the area. In other business, the council voted to renew the city's membership in the Red River Valley Tourism Association and discussed the need to possibly resurface Henry Street.

Phillip Metzler dies at 98

Mass of Christian Burial was held for Phillip D. Metzler, a native of Lindsay, in St. Peter's Catholic Church on Sept. 24 at 10 a.m. Officiating were Father Stephen Eckart, pastor, with Father Nicholas Fuhrmann and Father Raphael de Salvo, concelebrants.

Phillip D. Metzler, who would have reached his one hundredth birthday in only two more years, died at his residence on Monday, Sept. 21, 1992.

Participants in the special liturgy for the funeral Mass were a son-in-law Rudy Dieter as lector and Don Metzler a grandson who read Offertory petitions and prayers of the faithful. Two daughters Virginia Noggler and Anna Belle Dieter presented Offertory gifts at the altar. A grandson, Ronnie Dieter, and great-grandsons, Scott and Clint Metzler, were altar servers. A choir of grandchildren sang sacred music.

Pallbearers were Mr. Metzler's six sons, Clarence (Dutch) of Pagosa Springs, Colo., Leroy, Gerald, Bill, Julius, and Raymond, all of Lindsay. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery, directed by Geo. J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home. A Rosary Service was held in St. Peter's Church on Wednesday at 4 p.m. and Vigil at 8 p.m.

Phillip D. Metzler was born on Aug. 15, 1894 in Lindsay to Phillip and Catherine (Miller) Metzler. He was a veteran of WWI, having served in the U.S. Army in France and Germany. He was the last remaining charter member of Hughes-Tune Post #1922, Gainesville, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and also the last surviving of his brothers and sisters.

On Nov. 11, 1919 he married the former Frances Schmitz. They became the parents of eight children, two daughters and six sons, all of whom survive. Frances and Phillip celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1969. She preceded him in death on April 4, 1983.

Mr. Metzler was a farmer for many years before he retired and moved into Lindsay. He always enjoyed gardening and fishing. A lifetime member of St. Peter's Church, he served the parish for many years as a member of the church committee.

His survivors include the two daughters Anna Belle Dieter and Virginia Noggler both of Lindsay and the six sons Clarence of Pagosa Springs, Colo.; Leroy; Gerald; Bill; Julius; and Raymond, all of Lindsay. Also 37 grandchildren and 50 great-grandchildren.

Services held Oct. 6 for Mary Klein, age 95

Death called Mary Klein at age 95 on Oct. 3, 1992 at 11:50 p.m. in Muenster Memorial Hospital following a lengthy illness, and after a life of service to her God, her church, her family and her teaching profession. Although she never married, her "family" included sisters and brothers, (she was the sixth in 15) several nieces and nephews she sponsored to come to America, and three young children she raised after their parents, her brother and sister-in-law died in 1953.

Mary Klein was born in Frankenu, Germany on Sept. 17, 1897 to Edward and Barbara (Pingel) Klein. In 1910 she and her sister Clara came to America to join the Sisters of Divine Providence in San Antonio. After completing her college courses, learning English and music, and conquering homesickness, she taught school and music for 25 years.

When her health failed, she retired temporarily and moved to New Jersey to be with three brothers and a sister. When she was able, she became a private governess. In 1953 when tragedy struck her family, she took on the job of being Mom and Dad to three orphans, Carol, Nancy and Kenneth, "to keep the family together," she said, a task she performed nobly. Now they are her loving survivors, Carol Grewing, Nancy Truebenbach and Kenneth Klein, together with one sister, Sister Victorine Klein of San Antonio and one brother Frank Klein of Union, New Jersey and several other nieces and nephews.

Mary and the three children moved to Lindsay, Texas in November, 1955 where Sister Victorine Klein was stationed at St. Peter's. Mary taught there for a year, then took a job at St. Thomas Aquinas School in Dallas remaining for 16 years. She retired to Muenster in 1972, remained busy with "her family," attending daily Mass and the Eucharist, and frequent visits to church.

Mary Klein was preceded in death by three great-nephews, Chris Truebenbach, Curtis Grewing and Billy Klein; and by her parents, seven brothers and five sisters.

A Rosary service was held at McCoy Funeral Chapel at 4 p.m. Monday and Vigil service at 7 p.m.

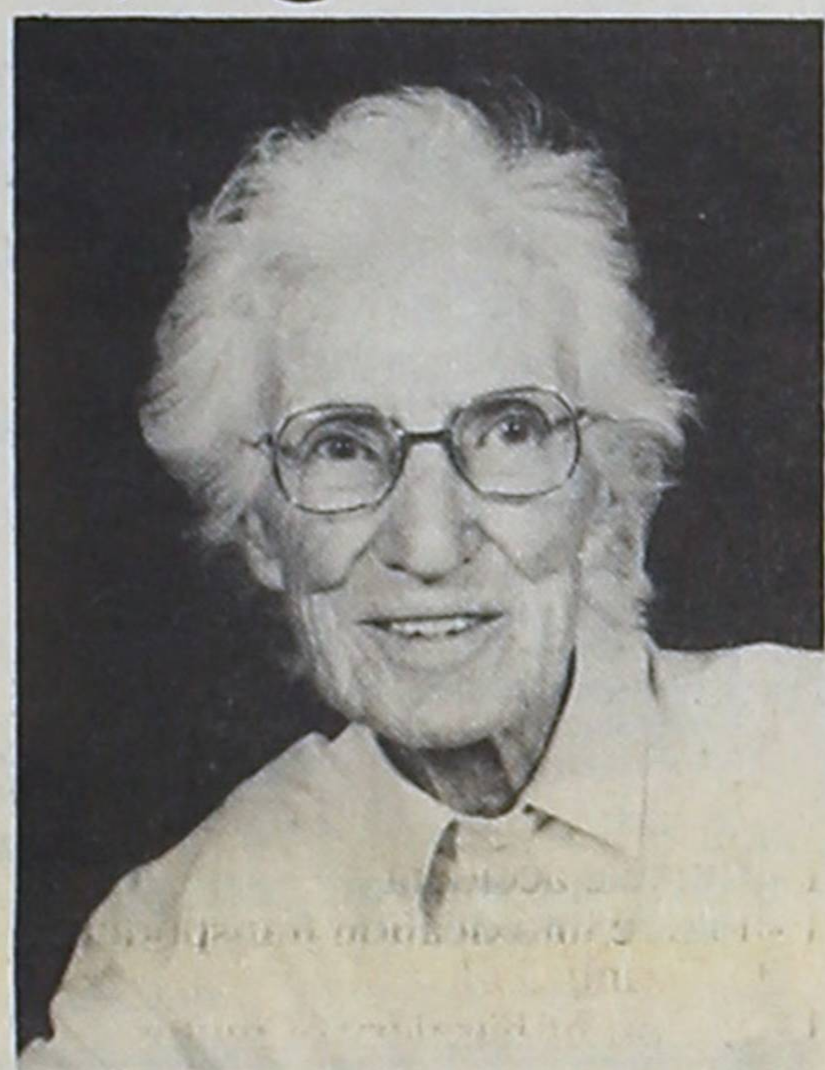

Mass of Christian Burial was held for Mary Klein on Tuesday, Oct. 6, in Sacred Heart Church at 10 a.m., concelebrated by Father Victor Gillespie, OSB, Father Camillus Cooney, OSB, and Father Joe Weinzapfel.

Peggy Grewing gave Readings from the Old and New Testaments; Gary Endres presented Petitions and Prayers of the Faithful; and Bob Grewing and Floyd Truebenbach brought Offertory gifts to the altar.

Eucharistic Ministers assisting Fathers Victor and Camillus were Miriam Caplinger, Dorothy Hartman, Florence Grewing and Janie Taylor.

Mass servers were John Bartsch Jr., Jonathan Grewing, David Hesse and Nicholas Yosten. Ruth Felderhoff and Christy Hesse provided liturgical music.

Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery, directed by McCoy Funeral Home of Muenster. Pallbearers were Roger Taylor, Sam Endres, Butch Fisher and John Pagel.

MARY KLEIN

In lieu of flowers, the family has suggested memorial donations to the Sacred Heart Trust Fund.

Among relatives attending the funeral from out of town were Nancy Truebenbach and children Floyd, Vickie and Charles of McKinney; Kenneth Klein of Fairborn, Ohio; Alfred and Margaret Klein of Bergenfield, New Jersey; Mildred and Michael Maxwell of Bedford; and Brian Grewing of Dallas.

MISD still accepting bids on gymnasium project

Work is underway on the new Muenster gymnasium, with more bids expected to be let on the project. School trustees have accepted about $40,000 in separate bids for various parts of the construction project. The school board, however, voted in a recent special meeting to reject other bids and rebid several project areas, said Muenster Superintendent Steve Cooper. Those bids could be awarded as early as the board's next regular meeting on Oct. 15.

The total project is estimated at $450,000. Still to be awarded is the major part of the project, which will include the steel work on the building. Cooper said some of the bids were over cost estimates, so in some instances, specifications have been changed with hopes of lowering the bids. The district also hopes to attract more local bidders the second time around. "We try to give our local folks a shot and wish to have more interest," Cooper said. Muenster school trustees have awarded a $19,920 low bid to G&H Backhoe of Muenster for the dirt work on the new gymnasium. The district is awarding separate bids in eight major divisions of construction project, a move which is expected to reduce the overall cost of the construction, Cooper said. The district hired Charlie Price of Coppell as the construction manager for the project. The district plans to pay for the project using district reserve funds.

Plans include the construction of a 15,000 square foot gymnasium east of the present administration building. The gymnasium will have seating capacity for 650 people, about 200 more than the present gymnasium, and will include dressing rooms, concessions and a lobby.

Muenster taxpayers will pay less, despite increase

I've received feedback recently about this year's tax rate for MISD. Some concern has been expressed about the large percent increase in our local taxes. The percent appears to be excessive because we are dealing with a very low rate to start with. Last year's total rate was 5 cents; this year's total rate is 9 cents - this is a 4 cent increase. If MISD had as high a tax rate as some of our neighboring districts an additional 4-cent levy would not seem nearly as high percentage wise.

Actually tax rate percentages don't tell the whole story. What speaks loudest in tax terminology is the levy (the levy is the actual tax dollars the taxpayer will have to pay). Remember in this day and time a district's total tax bill is determined by adding the CED levy and the local levy. This year's total levy will be about $40,000 less than last year. When we translate this into a tax rate we get the following: last year the total tax rate was 98 cents (93 cents from the CED and 5 cents locally). This year the total tax rate will be 92 cents (83 cents from the CED and 9 cents locally). This means a net difference in taxes, from this year to last, of 6 cents - TAXPAYERS IN MUENSTER ISD WILL BE PAYING 6 CENTS LESS ON THEIR TOTAL TAX RATE THAN THEY DID LAST YEAR.

The 4 cent local tax was needed to attempt to offset a projected two year loss in state funds of over $180,000 ($61,000 last year and an anticipated $120,000 this year). In addition to this block buster from the state they also altered this year's CED levy downward. This was after we had already begun the budget process. This downward alteration cost our district approximately $42,000. Although we are still projecting additional state money, it will certainly not be anywhere near what was promised. This district would not have considered a local increase if it would have caused the total rate to go up.

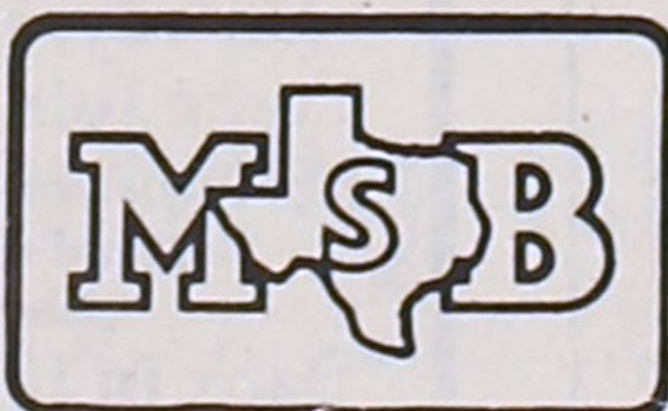

This district operates efficiently and effectively as seen in our expenditures per pupil and in our results academically. All we've ever asked from the state is to simply live up to their promises. If they had done that over the last two years this district would be at least (if projections hold true) $180,000 better off.

School finance will change again this year. It could be quite drastic.

Beta Kappa raises money for Youth Entertainment Comm.

by Kathy Bauer

What an exciting day! Most people spent last Saturday getting ready for Sacred Heart's Homecoming; but a few of us, however, attended an accessories style show and luncheon in Las Colinas! Seventeen Beta Kappa members and guests spent a fun-filled and educational morning with Mary Anne Wallace, owner of Canal Clothing.

Do you know how to "lose" five pounds instantly? Can you completely change your look with accessories? We learned that and more at the style show.

Beta Kappa members and guests modeled garments and accessories provided by Canal Clothing. Models included Jean Walterscheid, Laurie Rohmer, Kathy Bauer, Mary Endres and the two German exchange students, Hilke Schweda and Kirsten Twenhoeven.

The outing was fun but, most importantly, Beta Kappa will be able to give almost $200.00 to the Social Concerns Committee to fund activities for the youth locally. If you couldn't attend and would like to make a donation, please call Ramona Felderhoff or any Beta Kappa member.

This was so much fun and so many people were interested, we may do it again in the future. If you are interested, let a Beta Kappa member know.

Thanks to all who attended and to those of you who made donations. Your interest and generosity are greatly appreciated!

CCHS presents exhibit on Theodore Roosevelt

Many American Presidents have not been very memorable, either as presidents or as individuals. The Millard Fillmores have far outnumbered the Thomas Jeffersons. Abraham Lincoln, for instance, was succeeded by nine thoroughly average men who will never appear on any serious list of effective leaders for the nation. The tenth president after Lincoln, however, was cut from different cloth. He was powerful as a president, almost overwhelming as an individual.

He was Teddy Roosevelt, the subject of a photographic exhibition that goes on display October 6 at the Morton Museum of Cooke County in Gainesville.

Titled simply "Theodore," the exhibit chronicles the life and times of our 26th president from early childhood to his death in January 1919. Viewers see him first as a small figure in a window looking down upon the funeral procession of Abraham Lincoln, his life-long favorite among the presidents. Photographs trace his career as a student at Harvard, a rancher in the Dakotas, Police Commissioner in New York, Colonel of the Rough Riders in Cuba, builder of the Panama Canal, and big-game hunter in Africa.

This traveling exhibition is adapted from a major biographical display organized by the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library and Museum in Austin, Texas where it was presented from June 1 to December 30, 1984. The touring version was created by the Texas Humanities Resource Center of the University of Texas at Arlington Library, in collaboration with the Johnson Library, under a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The exhibition is on display at the Morton Museum of Cooke County through October 26. Admission is free. For more information, please call the museum at 668-8900.

Residents invited to welcome new administrator on October 25th

Muenster area residents are invited to stop by the Muenster Memorial Hospital on Sunday, Oct. 25, from 2 to 4 p.m. to meet and greet the new hospital administrator, Jack Endres.

Sponsored by the Muenster Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, the Sunday afternoon social will be held in the administrator's office as a way of welcoming Mr. Endres. Although Jack is a native of Muenster, he has made his home away from here for several years and has returned to assume administrative duties of the hospital.

Christmas came twice to Mickey in just one year

A Christmas gift to Mickey Haverkamp on Dec. 25, 1991 from her son and daughter-in-law Roger and Monica Haverkamp of Watauga became a delightful reality the week of Sept. 27 to Oct. 4. It was a trip to South Bend, Ind. and attendance at a football game on the Notre Dame campus, preceded by several days spent in Chicago. Mickey and Monica made the trip together.

She had often expressed a deep desire to visit the university, watch the Irish play in their home stadium, hear and see the marching band, visit the magnificent church on the campus, and experience the hype and excitement of a football weekend at the University of Notre Dame.

When time allowed they toured the Notre Dame Campus, admired the impressive buildings and landscaped grounds and the magnificent Basilica.

Friday evening they enjoyed the traditional Notre Dame pep rally. And on Saturday there was the Notre Dame-Stanford football game. Although Notre Dame was not the winner, they said the experience was unforgettable and enjoyable.

Prior to spending the weekend in South Bend, Mickey and Monica enjoyed several days in Chicago. Highlights included tours of the

It's Time For A Change!

Elect Stephen Cole

Republican Candidate For

County Judge

Friends:

I am running for County Judge because I believe that we can have better government more economically controlled than we do now.

I stand for more responsible, effective government by utilizing staff members' training, knowledge and skills to their fullest potential.

I did it for years in the Army, and I can do it for us in our county.

I DO NOT believe in a "smooth transition" because that means "business as usual."

Cooke County has had "business as usual" for decades. This is no longer feasible, economically sound, or just plain not good enough.

COOKE COUNTY NEEDS A CHANGE NOW!

I want to see our county live within its budget just as you and I have to do. I am experienced in this area and want to do it for you and your children as well as for us and ours.

Columbus symposium explores discoveries' effects

The far-reaching implications of the voyages of Christopher Columbus will be examined in a symposium, "Dynamics of Discovery," Oct. 10 from 9 a.m. to noon in the Cooke County College Library Lyceum.

According to CCC Library Director Patsy Wilson, this cooperative effort between the Morton Museum, Cooke County College Library, CCC Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa and the Cooke County Library follows the successful Camp Howze symposium last fall. Because seating is limited, Wilson advises anyone interested to purchase tickets early.

The event, held the Saturday before Columbus Day, will feature presentations on many aspects of Columbus' journey to the New World.

"I'm looking forward to some very interesting insights into what it might have been like to set sights on land that Columbus discovered," Wilson said. "The presenters will cover topics from the physical appearance of the land to effects of these discoveries."

In order to set the stage for the symposium, Wilson said CCC History Instructor Crystal Wright will take guests on a trip back in time with a brief overview. Wright will serve as moderator for the symposium where audience participation is encouraged.

Included among the presenters is CCC Biology Instructor Sharon Gaston who will review the picture Columbus might have seen in the vegetation native of the new lands.

Jane England will discuss the possibility that discoveries made by this famous explorer were destined in her presentation, "Columbus' Discovery as Part of God's Unfolding Plan."

As with other major discoveries, effects took varied forms. Drs. Light and Victoria Cummins will explore these in a debate, "The Positive and Negative Results of the Voyages of Christopher Columbus."

Tickets for the symposium may be purchased through the Continuing Education department at CCC. Prices are $3 in advance or $5 at the door.

Era ISD begins library renovation project

Renovation work was expected to begin by Oct. 1 on a new library and administrative office for the Era School District. Era school trustees have awarded B.J. Construction Company of Gainesville the low bid of $65,000 for the renovation of the district's old cafeteria building into a new library facility, counselor's office and principal's office. The work on the 3,500 square-foot area is expected to be completed within three months, said Era Superintendent Randel Beaver.

The district has been notified that the Texas Education Agency has awarded the Era ISD a $78,000 grant which will pay for the renovation plus fund converting the library into an automated system, provide computer software and pay for library furniture and equipment.

The renovation project comes following the completion of $1 million in construction projects for the district which includes a new cafeteria and new gymnasium. The renovation and new construction is being funded by a $1.2 million bond package approved by voters in March of 1991. Era has increased in enrollment from 175 students in 1983 to about 359 students this year.

Sacred Heart Journalism Class

Giving a Little Something by Stacie Cler

The Sacred Heart Spanish Club is donating some of its funds to purchase a dairy goat for a poor family in Mexico. The Spanish Club is paying for half of it and the other half is being paid for by the teacher, Joe Caserta.

This is just one of the things the Spanish Club has done for this family. Last year in Spanish I, the Spanish Club gathered clothing and sent it along with coffee and coloring books for the children. This was done at Christmas time because these children are very poor and it was a way to wish them a special Christmas.

Now, the Spanish Club has received word that the family is in need of nourishment. A dairy goat was suggested. The family needs a good, fresh supply of milk. The family is located in the village of San Carlos where the land is not very fertile and the city is too far away to provide employment. The family has a very low income and they need help from outside of Mexico.

This year's Spanish Club is willing to help others less fortunate.

Hess Furniture receives "Good Dealer" Award

A Muenster furniture dealer has been presented the "Good Dealer" Award by Home Furnishings International Association, Dallas, Texas according to Frank Brame, Chairman of the HFIA Board. The award is part of a program that has been developed to help combat the negative image consumers have developed toward home furnishings retailing.

The retailer is: Hess Furniture, 202 North Main, Muenster. "In addition to simply adhering to the letter of the state and federal laws, the store has pledged to stick to the spirit of the law as well as the spirit of ethical practice," said Brame. "Hess Furniture has signed a binding document with HFIA that pledges its word that it will comply with the rules and regulations of the Good Dealer program."

Hess Furniture has always prided itself in following the rules of good business. The "Good Dealer" Award stresses the importance of fair dealings with the consumer. Most of the rules comprise ethical approaches to advertising and in-store pricing.

As a "Good Dealer," Hess Furniture promises not to use "bait and switch advertising." It also promises not to use terms such as "factory pricing," "advance sale offer," "limited time offer" and "bargain offer" if, in fact, that is not the case. Along with these considerations, Hess Furniture promises to make "sale" phrases a true reflection of savings off of regular pricing. Another term of the agreement includes a definition of "former as a price that has been offered within the last 30 days."

Misleading advertising and distorted comparison prices have been more than a topic of discussion among ethical retailers and consumer groups.

"Blatant violations of the tenets of ethical business procedures by some retail furniture stores tend to give a wrong impression of the furniture industry," said Frank Brame, himself a retailer in Alexandria, Louisiana. "We are proud that this Muenster furniture firm is taking a stand in redirecting the consumer toward stores that reflect a positive view of furniture retailing."

Hess Furniture will also make available to its customers any warranties or guarantees from either the store or the manufacturer, along with any and all conditions and time periods under which those warranties or guarantees are viable.

Tax Talk

by: Duane Knabe, CPA

Duane Knabe will discuss a different topic each week. Any questions should be directed to him at 759-4010.

This week's topic is the penalty for nonfilers. Taxpayers who do not have the money to pay their tax bills are far better off if they file their returns without paying than if they do not file at all, the IRS has warned. Nonfilers face higher penalties than those who file but do not pay on time.

The penalty for failure to file is five percent per month based on the tax due. This is 10 times higher than the late payment penalty of one-half percent per month. This penalty is in addition to interest charges for late payments which currently are eight percent per year, compounded daily.

THERE'S FOOD A'PLENTY throughout the world, according to a United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO) in a report titled "Food and Nutrition: Creating a Well-Fed World." The report refutes claims made by anti-meat activists that grain fed to cattle could be used instead to feed the world's hungry. According to the report, the average amount of food available has risen from 290 calories to 2,700 calories per person per day, in spite of the addition of 1.8 billion people to the world's population since 1961. "Right now, there's enough food to feed everyone if, in fact, it could get to the people who need it," said FAO Director John R. Lupien. "Malnutrition is an avoidable tragedy."

NUTRITIONAL CAMPAIGN TARGETS CHILDREN with a positive message about meat. McDonald's, CBS and the Society for Nutrition Education (SNE) will unveil a new series of nutrition announcements on Saturday morning television next week. Titled "What's On Your Plate," the 12 spots will teach children about proper nutrition. The segment on meat talks about the importance of protein while featuring lean beef and other meats. The series also explains the Dietary Guidelines issued by the federal government and points out that the guidelines include two servings of protein daily. Supporting education material will be distributed to teachers, nutritionists and pediatricians to help them use the program as a teaching tool.

Lindsay takes homecoming from Tigers

Saturday night saw Tiger Stadium filled to the brim as local football fans and Sacred Heart exes attended the 1992 Homecoming game against the Lindsay Knights. The competition proved to be a tough, hard fought battle with Lindsay taking the glory, 39-12.

Toby Eberhart started the action, booting the opening kick off to the 3-yard line. Larry Switzer returned the ball for the Tigers to the 21. From there Sacred Heart started their first drive, eating away over eight minutes off the clock before making the first score. Six runs by Larry Switzer, an 18-yard quarterback keeper by Jason Hess and completed passes to Kelly Bayer and Switzer took the Tigers inside Lindsay's 20-yard line. Joseph McCoy and Neil Berres brought the ball within 4 yards of the goal line. Switzer fought for two more yards on two carries, then Hess hit Bayer on a touchdown pass to end the 16-play drive. The extra point kick was wide and with 3:45 on the clock, Sacred Heart took a 6-0 lead.

Switzer kicked the ball to the 15 where Chris Brown brought it back to the Knights' 30-yard line to start Lindsay's first drive. Donnie Cox shoved the ball down the Tigers' throats picking up 31 yards in five runs. Dan Zimmerer added 6 with quarterback Shane Huchton punching in a 17, 9 and finally a 13-yard touchdown run. The extra point kick failed and the first quarter ended in a 6-6 tie.

TIGER LARRY SWITZER climbs high with the ball but is stopped at the 2-yard line by Knight Heath O'Dell (71) and Toby Eberhart (76).

The Tigers' offense had 3 unsuccessful plays and punted on their second possession, but their defense got the ball back on the next play when Mike Schilling covered a loose ball on the Tiger 34. But once again it was three plays and punt. This time a 43-yard punt by Switzer to put the Knights on their 30-yard line.

Two runs by Cox took Lindsay into the Tigers end of the field with short runs by D. Zimmerer and Cox and an offside flag moved the ball to the 31. On a cross-back run, Chris Brown scampered into the end zone to end the 5-play scoring drive. The PAT run failed and the Knights took a 12-6 lead with 7:04 remaining in the first half.

Jason Hess got in a 20-yard return on Lindsay's kick, but the Tiger offense was backed up by Matt Menzie and the Knight pass defense, forcing the punt.

Lindsay controlled the ball for over five minutes, moving inside Sacred Heart's 20-yard line with runs by Huchton, Cox and Dulock, but the drive came to a stop when Mike Schilling intercepted a pass.

Hess completed a pass to Neil Berres for a 30-yard gain, but his next attempt was picked off by Keith Zimmerer and the Knights' offense took to the field on their own 20-yard line. Cox ran for a 15-yard gainer and Huchton found G. Lutkenhaus for a 24-yard play, but time ran out ending the half 12-6.

"I was pleased with the Tigers' performance the first half, we were mentally ready," said S.H. Coach John Nasche. "Problems the second half were little things, but Lindsay capitalized on our mistakes."

The Knights started the second half on their 37. Cox and Huchton took turns carrying the ball with Cox breaking away for a 45-yard touchdown run. The extra point run was short and with 8:44 left in the 3rd Lindsay took an 18-6 lead.

Sacred Heart's first 2nd half drive was shortened two minutes later when Chris Brown picked off a Tiger pass and ran 29 yards for another Lindsay touchdown. An extra point pass to Dan Zimmerer extended their lead 26-6.

The Tigers tried again, with Jason Hess gaining 17 yards on a quarterback keeper run, but that was all as the ball was again booted away. But what a boot. Larry Switzer's kick was good for 55 yards putting Lindsay deep on their 10-yard line.

Three flags on Sacred Heart, runs by Huchton and Cox and G. Lutkenhaus' 32-yard completion took Lindsay into the final quarter. Huchton found D. Zimmerer for a 23-yard gain to the 3, where on a keeper, Huchton found pay dirt. The PAT kick was blocked and the Knights led 32-6 just seconds into the final quarter.

Again the Tigers' drive was halted by Brown intercepting a pass. Jeff Hale tore up the field on a 49-yard run to the 5. Huchton again did the honors, working into the end zone. Toby Eberhart's PAT cleared the uprights and with 9:25 remaining in the game the scoreboard read 39-6.

The Tigers fought back with Switzer picking up 29 yards on 3 plays, one a halfback pass to Berres. But then the drive stalled. Larry Switzer again got his foot behind the ball for a 50-yard punt, putting Lindsay so deep downfield, on their 1-foot line.

The Knights were unsuccessful, kicking from the end zone to their 40. A Hess to Kelly Bayer pass gained 10 yards. The next play Neil Berres picked up 21 yards to the 9. Two plays later Hess connected with Aaron Berres and the Tigers were in the end zone for 6 points. The PAT failed and with a minute on the clock the score was now 39-12.

The Tigers attempted an on-side kick, but Lindsay covered at midfield. Hale again saw daylight in the Knights' offensive line and trotted 48 yards to the 5-yard line. Lindsay played out the remaining seconds to take a 39-12 victory from the Tigers' on Homecoming night.

"It was another close game and I want to congratulate the boys for playing harder than ever," Nasche stated. "I saw lots of improvement." The coach also complimented Larry Switzer's punting game of several over 50-yard punts.

Lindsay's Coach Charlie Meurer commented that his team didn't start the game mentally ready to play, but did start out physically. "It was a good effort, we combined the two the second half to put the game away." Lindsay played their five second teamers on offense the fourth quarter and got in some excellent plays.

Sacred Heart opens their district competition with the Dallas Lakehill Warriors Saturday evening. "It's time to come together as a team. We need to make that large step to bring it all together for a successful district schedule," Nasche commented. "Lakehill's big. Our key to win is to stop their running attack. Their offensive line, an average of 220 lbs., leads the way for an outstanding ball carrier."

The game time has been changed to 5 p.m. and will be played at Dallas Christian Academy.

Directions to the Game

Take I-35E to 635. Exit off onto Oats/Galloway Exit in Mesquite. Go straight through the first light and then go up to Galloway and turn left. Go over 635 and take the first left and you will see the school, Dallas Christian Academy on your right.

The Lindsay Knights also begin district competition Friday, hosting Valley View on Homecoming night. "We got a tough one coming. They're good, with only losses to 2A teams," said Coach Meurer. "They have a good quarterback. We have to contain him and stop his speed to stay in the ball game." The Eagles start nine experienced seniors and as a team are faster and bigger than Lindsay.

"There's no doubt they're favored to beat us," concluded the coach. Valley View will be out to break their no win record on the Knight's field. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

DONNIE COX (12) carries the ball for the Knights through his blockers Heath O'Dell (71), Rocky Barnes (65), Jeremy Owens (86) and Doug Hellinger (45). He was tripped up by tigers Scott Frost (40) and Barry Hess (72).

Warriors whack Hornets, 18-0

The Muenster Hornets ended their pre-district contests Friday night and were handed their fifth defeat by the Honey Grove Warriors, 18-0. "It was the same old verse," commented Coach Grady Roller. "They broke in the open field and we couldn't catch them."

Muenster's offense took the first, starting on their 35-yard line. Kenneth Walterscheid picked up yardage on short runs, with Jay Hennigan adding a 17-yard gain to several short runs along with completed passes to Cory Cain and Kody Truebenbach to take the Hornets to Honey Grove's 23-yard line. The Warriors' defense held and took over at their 30. Three runs and a pass were followed with a 40-yard touchdown pass play for the visitors. The Hornets blocked the extra point kick and with 5:28 on the clock the scoreboard read 6-0.

Muenster's second drive was three plays and punt, with Honey Grove starting their 2nd excursion on Muenster's 36. The seven-play journey ended on a 5-yard touchdown run. The Hornets again stopped the PAT and with 42 seconds remaining in the first quarter the Warriors had a 12-0 lead.

Muenster mixed runs and passes for six plays before punting the ball away. Then they held the Warriors to nine yards in four plays.

The Hornets, from midfield took to the air, but the pass was picked off at the 8-yard line. Honey Grove again failed to pick up 10 yards and punted on their 10-yard line. Muenster's attempt failed and the Warriors regained possession. Three plays later, Eric VanSwearingen stepped in and picked off a pass and Muenster played out the remaining seconds of the first half.

Honey Grove took the opening kick, but punted the ball away four plays later. Muenster did the same after gaining only three yards. The Warriors threatened on their next drive when a 42-yard pass play took them to the Hornets' 29-yard line. Four plays later, 4 yards short, Muenster's offense was once more on the field.

Kenneth Walterscheid fought for a 34-yard gain into Honey Grove's side of the field, but the next 3 plays were unsuccessful and the Warriors carried the pigskin into the final quarter. From Muenster's 30, the Hornets pushed Honey Grove back and on 4th and 8, stopped the runner 1 yard short.

Starting on their 23, Jason Huchton completed an 18-yard pass play to Darren Bindel with Scott Debnam and Walterscheid gaining 5 yards each to the 49. Two 15-yard penalties backed the Hornets to the 18-yard line. But on 4th and 11, a quarterback sack turned the ball over to Honey Grove. The Warriors drove 70 yards in 10 plays and scored again. The extra point run failed and with 1:30 remaining in the game Muenster trailed 18-0.

Huchton completed two passes, to, Truebenbach and Bindel, before the clocked ticked down to zero.

"We made a couple of mistakes, but we're a young team, including two freshman starters," Roller said. "Young kids will make mistakes, but they have to be positive." Roller was proud of the effort of the team the last three weeks, crediting them to playing hard and accepting the challenge.

Muenster will host Collinsville this week in a tough district opener.

"The games start counting with district and Collinsville," Roller commented. "They've scored a lot of points, but haven't played the same caliber we have." The coach believes that playing the tougher, well-coached teams have prepared the Hornets for district but, "It's nice to be back in our category. Collinsville's playing good, has big kids and speed," he concluded.

The game begins at 7:30, with Homecoming festivities taking place at halftime.

PRO FISHIN' TIPS

Successful bassin' depends on locating fish. To do that, I use what I call power baits - fast moving lures that allow me to find and catch fish, and also learn the water better. Crankbaits are a perfect example.
Bass sometimes won't hit power baits - even after following them all the way to the boat. And that's OK because the baits help me locate active fish. I may have to switch lures and presentations to catch them.

Junior High / Junior Varsity Football

Sacred Heart 0, Lindsay 12

Sacred Heart and Lindsay's junior high football squads met head on last week Thursday on Knight Field in a hard fought contest.

Sacred Heart received the first break when James Felderhoff covered a loose ball on Lindsay's first play of the game. From the Squires' 36, the Cubs' offense didn't cover any ground and Lindsay started their second drive on their own 36. Robert Sharp picked up 9 yards and Hank Huchton another 4, but two motion flags, an incomplete pass and illegal receiver gave possession back to Sacred Heart on Lindsay's 25.

The Cubs' attempts left them with a 4th and 12; their next play officially stopped the drive when the Squires caught the Cubs 7 yards deep where Mickey Meurer covered a fumbled ball on 4th down.

From their 37, runs by Zack Bowman, Huchton and Sharp took the ball into Sacred Heart territory and the second quarter. Two plays later Robert Sharp cut wide right for a 54-yard touchdown run. The extra point run failed and Lindsay led 6-0 with 7:43 on the clock.

Sacred Heart's next drive started deep on their 20-yard line. Matthew Fuhrmann's 15-yard run was called back on a holding flag. Short runs by Fuhrmann and Douglas Novak and a motion call forced a punt. The teams exchanged punts, with Lindsay threatening with runs by Sharp and Huchton, but Paul Swirczynski picked off a pass to end the drive and the first half.

The Cubs took the opening kick, ran 3 plays and punted. Lindsay drove the ball 37 yards in 8 plays before turning the ball over on downs.

The Cubs carried the ball into the 4th quarter, punting on 4th and 3. The Squires, starting on the Cubs' 41, picked up yards on runs by Mickey Meurer, Sharp and Huchton and a pass to Meurer to the 10-yard line. Zack Bowman did the honors on an 11-yard run, giving the young Knights 6 points. The PAT run failed and with 4:09 remaining in the game, Lindsay had a 12-0 lead.

Sacred Heart started slow on their next possession. A clipping flag on the kick return and two incomplete passes were followed by a completed pass from Swirczynski to Novak for a 21-yard gain. Two plays later a fumbled ball was covered by Larry Evans and Lindsay's offense took to the field. The Squires had three unsuccessful runs, punted to the Cubs who ended the game with a Swirczynski pass for 23 yards.

"We played fundamentally sound, improving on defense and blocking better on offense the second half," commented the

Lindsay coach Linus Fuhrmann. "The boys played hard."
Lindsay junior high played Valley View Thursday night while Sacred Heart will host Notre Dame. Game times are 5:00 and 6:00.

Sacred Heart 0, Lindsay 16

Lindsay's junior varsity hosted Sacred Heart to an 8-man contest last Thursday taking a 16-0 win from the Tigers.

The Knights struck early when they covered a fumbled ball near midfield just seconds into the game. Runs by Greg Dulock, Chris Escobedo and Pat Hogan took the ball inside the Tigers' 20-yard line. A quarterback keeper saw Garrett Hellinger slip into the end zone on a 17-yard run for the touchdown. A pass from Hellinger to Gary Gilbert added another 2 points and the young Knights led 8-0 with 4:24 on the clock.

Brandon Bayer returned Lindsay's kick 25 yards. From their 30, Scott Frost, Aaron Berres and Joseph McCoy took the ball to midfield. Mike Gehrig added a 23-yard run. Two quarterback sacks assisted by Bryan Hermes ended the first quarter.

An incomplete pass on 3rd and 17 was followed by a punt. Lindsay gained 9 yards on their drive and punted back to the Tigers.

Sacred Heart's next drive was highlighted when Joseph McCoy took a fumbled play, breaking several tackles, to the 25-yard line. Lindsay's defense stiffened and four Tiger attempts failed, turning possession over to the Knights.

A run by Escobedo and one by Hogan, a 5-yard penalty gain and a Hellinger pass to Gilbert for 26 yards took Lindsay to the 29-yard line. But two incomplete passes and quarterback sacks by Martin McCoy and Toby Hess gave Sacred Heart the ball for one play before time expired for the half-time break.

Lindsay took the 2nd half kick to their 37-yard line. Dulock carried the ball to the 50. Defense by M. McCoy, Bayer and A. Berres left the Knights with a 4th and 9. But Escobedo picked up 14 yards and Lindsay's offense remained on the field.

Hellinger and Escobedo took Lindsay to the 24 where a pass to Hogan was completed for 6 points. Dulock went in for the extra point and with 2:14 remaining in the third period, the Knights took a 16-0 lead.

From their 27, Berres picked up 13 yards on two runs with Gehrig and Frost taking the ball to the 46. To start the final quarter Berres earned the first down to the 50, with Frost and Berres moving the ball to the 31. Sacred Heart struggled for several plays before Frost broke free to the 15. Contest is close for Week 5

In week five of the Muenster Enterprise football contest, five entrants picked 23 out of 25 correct games, with Gary Barnhill winning with the closest to the score for his tiebreaker. His score of Sacred Heart 6, Lindsay 38 was only 7 points off. Peachie Huchton came in second with her score being only 14 points off. Others finishing with 23 correct picks were Ben Bindel with 15 away on the tie breaker, Mark Fuhrmann with 22 away and Joe Pagel with 30 away.

Guessing 22 correct games were Edna Hermes, Mike Felderhoff, Barbie Barnhill, Mike Hacker, Terry Walterscheid, Neil Huchton, John Bartush, Wayne Klement, Willie Walterscheid and Mark Grewing.

Out of 45 entries this week only four picked the upset of the week, taking TCU over Oklahoma State. They were Joe Hoedebeck, Mickey Haverkamp, Henry Kessler and Edna Hermes. Five loyal Hornet fans stayed with their team choosing them over Honey Grove and only one person incorrectly picked Gainesville to lose. One other picked Bishop Dunne over Pilot Point while only three thought Valley View would lose. Weekly winners picked up their prizes at Red-River Cut Rate Liquor.

USDA announces provisions for crop disaster program

Producers applying for U.S. Department of Agriculture disaster payments under Phase II of the Disaster Assistance Program will be able to receive payments in a more timely manner. President George Bush had the USDA extend the disaster sign-up and ensure that producers who qualify for benefits under Phase II and Phase III of the Disaster Assistance Program will receive a payment rate of 50.04% of the payments for crop losses approved for coverage.

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service is extending the period for producers to file for benefits under Phase II of the program to Feb. 12, 1993, for those crops planted in 1991 for harvest in 1992. The original deadline was Oct. 2. Payment of benefits up to 50.04% will be made to producers as soon as they have furnished the required documentation and the application is approved by their local ASCS Committee. The extended sign-up period does not change the requirement for producers to purchase crop insurance on the same crop for 1993 if this year's crop loss was more than 65%, as required by the 1990 farm bill. The extension gives producers adequate time to file their claims under the disaster program.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Fertilizing Small Grains for Grazing and Grain

Producers must use fertilizers wisely. There are ways we can increase the efficiency of plant nutrients applied for small grains. Research and demonstrations throughout Texas for the past 20 years have shown that the rate, time and method of applying phosphorus and nitrogen affect both yield and profits from fertilization. Potassium is generally needed only in East Texas and micronutrient problems with small grains are rare.

Phosphorus fertilization is very important because small grain plant has a great need for this nutrient during seedling development. The number of tillers relate directly to the number of adventitious roots. Without adequate phosphorus, fewer adventitious roots are produced. In tests, where 80 pounds of phosphorus per acre were broadcast on the surface and harrowed into the soil, the average number of adventitious roots developed by Jan. 15 was five per plant. The same amount of phosphorus applied with the seed at planting produced 12 adventitious roots and so more tillers. Top grain yields require maximum tillering. The amount of fall growth is also affected by phosphorus.

Low rates of phosphorus with or near the seed also has increased seedling growth and the amount of winter pasture. On a phosphorus deficient soil, 40 pounds of phosphorus placed with the seed produced about twice as much fall growth as the same amount broadcast or banded between seed drills. Increases have been as much determined. To establish a good uniform stand requires some nitrogen since most soils are deficient in this nutrient.

Another condition affecting fall nitrogen fertilization is amount of straw from the previous crop. The bacteria and other micro-organisms needed to decompose the straw requires nitrogen and can use soil and applied nitrogen, thus reducing the amount available to plants. It may be necessary to apply a higher proportion of the total nitrogen requirements in the fall, if large amounts of stubble are present. The general rule has been to increase the nitrogen rate about 20 lbs. per acre for each ton of undecomposed straw. However, a portion of this nitrogen is recovered during the final stages of decomposition so that as much as half of this may be available during the spring months. This means that about half of the extra nitrogen could be deducted from the late winter topdressing.

as eight more bushels of wheat per acre when phosphorus was placed in the drill with the seed at planting. Many soil sample reports are showing ample phosphorus in the soil where producers have a history of phosphorus fertilization. If this is your situation, then you may want to skip a year or two of phosphorus fertilization.

Nitrogen is important, too. For top yields, plants should never be allowed to suffer for lack of nitrogen. Wheat and other small grains need nitrogen at planting or a short time afterward for early grazing, and for top grain production.

Sufficient fall growth for early grazing cannot be expected without adequate nitrogen at planting. The advantages of planting early and favorable growing conditions can be lost because nitrogen fertilization is delayed until the condition of the stand can be

Valley Creek Ranch hosts Field Day on October 17

Commercial and purebred cattlemen in North Texas will get an opportunity to hear top speakers and view quality Beefmaster cattle at a field day on Saturday, Oct. 17. Valley Creek Ranch, along with Beefmaster Breeders Universal (BBU) and the Lone Star Beefmaster Breeders Assn., will host the event.

The field day will be held at Valley Creek Ranch East, located on Hwy. 82, approximately eight miles west of Gainesville and four miles east of Muenster. The ranch is owned by Larry and Linda Schorn of Irving.

The Valley Creek Ranch field day will include topics of interest to all cattlemen, presented by some of the leading speakers in their respective fields. After a 9:00 a.m. registration and cattle viewing session, the program begins with a presentation by Dr. Brad Stroud of Spring Creek Embryo Farms. His topic will be "Management and Economics of Embryo Transfer." John Newburn, Director of Field

Services for BBU, will follow with his topic of "BBU Programs and How They Assist Cattlemen." Newburn will explain the various innovative programs that the association provides to its members, and how those programs can help Beefmaster breeders improve their cattle.

T.J. Davidson of Cooke County College in Gainesville will then speak on "Selection of Replacement Heifers," a subject of importance to both commercial and purebred breeders. Craig Rosenbaum of Cooke County Extension Services will follow with his topic of "Cool Season Forage Production in North Texas." A question-and-answer period will wrap up the presentations.

All interested cattlemen are invited to attend. For further information, contact Valley Creek Ranch Manager, Horace Pruitt, at (817) 759-4360. To contact Beefmaster Breeders Universal, call (512) 732-3132 in San Antonio.

My Views from the Farm

by Ed Cler

Going to church Sunday, I noticed several of the hackberry trees around the red brick school building had holes in the trunks and were showing their age - and well they should. Most, if not all, were planted circa '22, so they would be 70 or 71 now.

They were planted in the fall and winter, and the following summer must have been a dry one, for as I remember, the trees had to be watered all through the summer. It seems to me there were many more of them then, than now. I suppose as some of the buildings were put up, some of the trees had to go. After all, in the early '20s, there was only the church, rectory, Mr.

Judy's small house, the parish hall, horse barn, wood shed and out houses, the water well and tower, and a few small buildings to house the priest's car, hens and cows. The only other building was the old frame school, and also the nuns' wash house which was later used for a classroom for grades five and seven.

There was a row of trees from the northwest corner of the parish plant to the southwest corner, then east to a small chapel about 100 yards east of the church, then north to another chapel east of the horse barn, also some scattered in between.

All these saplings had been dug up in the timber and after being planted their trunks stood up 5' or 6' and were 1 1/2" to 2" in diameter with almost no leaves or branches.

The hard working men who did all of this even put a length of 4" clay tile, upright, with the bell joint up, in with each tree, so that water could be poured in directly to the roots. A gunny sack was stuffed in each tile to keep it from drying out.

When it was decided to begin watering, my brother Ray and myself were volunteered by our dad, who probably thought we would enjoy the work as much as running around with the other kids in town.

Grandpa Hess who lived two blocks north of us, where Ben Haverkamp's house now stands, had a small wagon equipped with shafts, which he pulled with a big gentle gray horse. He had three large open barrels in the wagon, which he filled with water, and the job began. Mr. Hess was boss. He filled the barrels, drove the wagon, and treated Ray and I as if we were men, a real nice man.

Ray would stand in the wagon, dip up the water in small pails, hand them down to me and I would pour two pails into each tile, stuff the sack back in place, and move to the next sapling.

This was how most of that summer was spent. When we watered the last tree, the first was thirsty again.

We didn't earn any money, but Miss Maggie would call us into the rectory kitchen occasionally and feed us all delicious homemade ice cream and cookies we could eat. Seemed to make it all worthwhile.
