Clean, Repair, Paint Project Begins On City Water Tower

Since the past week end it has been hard to determine which was louder, the cheering of retail meat buyers or the griping of cattle raisers. The announced OPS meat price roll-back has pleased lots of people who see prospects of reducing their monthly food bills by a few dollars, but it has caused a terrible headache to stockmen who see chances of losing hundreds or thousands of dollars.

The roll-back is really rough on the man who bought feeder or stocker cattle lately. He's starting his program with two strikes against him. Using expensive feed to put weight on his herd and absorbing a price tumble at the same time, he hasn't much of a chance to get his investment back.

The tragedy here isn't that prices are being shoved back to a lower level, but that they were permitted to get out of line in the first place. Bureaucratic fumbling has imposed a burden on everybody. It has put stockmen in an awful cramp and it has caused consumers to pay through the nose for all these months. By all the standards of common sense, consumers should be less grateful for the apparent favor they are receiving now than resentful for impositions of the past.

The whole mess started almost a year ago with the opening of the Korean war. Within just a few days the experts in Washington were predicting shortages and run-away prices and planning a control system to keep prices and wages in line. For months they continued their incessant talk, in effect tipping off American business and labor to hurry and establish their higher levels of prices and wages before the lid was clamped on.

So the inflation spiral started, and presumably brought on the control that administration men were angling for all along. What's more it caught our economic system off balance, requiring adjustments such as those being attempted now.

The worst tragedy about the whole affair is that it was altogether unnecessary. It proposed to deal with war time scarcity whereas the simpler and more desirable solution was to avoid the scarcity.

It is a fact that when the war started the nation's needs suddenly increased tremendously. We required war goods as well as civilian goods, but instead of working harder to supply enough of both we chose to follow the old pace and divert some effort from civilian to war production. We did that even though every individual in the country knows that the only way to meet an emergency is to work harder.

The whole confusion could have been avoided by adopting a longer work week and refraining from the scarcity talk, which has proved to be unfounded. By working harder our nation is able to handle this emergency in its stride and the administration should have given assurance to that effect rather than starting its propaganda campaign to create the need for another round of official meddling.

The absurdities that have been carried on in the cause of national emergency defy reasonable explanation. A century from now history students will be reluctant to believe that any leadership could have been so dumb.

While on the subject of ignorance, it begins to appear now that the administration's biggest boner of all was to ignore the Wedemeyer report of four years ago, which revealed just how red policy was shaping up in the Orient. In fact the reign of ignorance started a couple of years earlier when Wedemeyer pleaded that American troops be sent to Manchuria before Russia marched in and claimed it. Our state department overruled that and the next few months proved that Wedemeyer was right. Then the report on Korea predicted that Russian trained reds would invade South

Repair work on the city water tower is the reason for reduced pressure in the city lines since Wednesday morning.

Workmen from the Texarkana Tank and Bridge Company started at that time to give the tank a thorough cleaning, after which they will make necessary repairs and paint the inside. Unless major repairs are needed the workers expect to finish their job Saturday.

Cleaning, which consists mostly of removing rust scales, will be finished on Thursday. Workers will know then whether the repair job will require only welding or replacement of entire steel sections. In the latter case the job will not be finished this week. Small leaks were apparent on the tank for about six months before the council at its March meeting engaged the Texarkana firm to repair it.

While work is in progress the city will draw all water from the tank on North Main street. For additional pressure in case of a fire Steve Moster will pump directly into the city mains from the reservoir. On such a direct hook up the booster pump will provide more pressure than the water tower.

Monday, Tuesday, Immunization Days At Muenster Clinic

Next Monday and Tuesday, May 7 and 8, are annual immunization days at the Muenster Clinic.

Announcing the dates this week, Dr. T. S. Myrick urged all parents to take this opportunity to bring their children up to date on immunization.

The immunization treatments, given in cooperation with a state wide health program, consist of the Schick test for diphtheria, shots for diphtheria, shots for typhoid, vaccination for small pox, and typhoid "booster" shots.

Dr. Myrick reminds that a Texas state law requires all children to be vaccinated for small pox before entering classes. The local clinic will not have another immunization day before the opening of school next September so this will be the only opportunity to take advantage of the small-cost service made possible through cooperation with the state department and the Cooke County Health Unit. Mrs. T. P. Frost, county health nurse, will be here to assist with the work.

Persons who begin their typhoid shots next Monday or Tuesday will have opportunity on the following two Mondays, May 14 and 21, to finish the series. Tuesdays of those weeks will not be clinic days, however, Dr. Myrick said.

All Public School Teachers OK'd For Next School Year

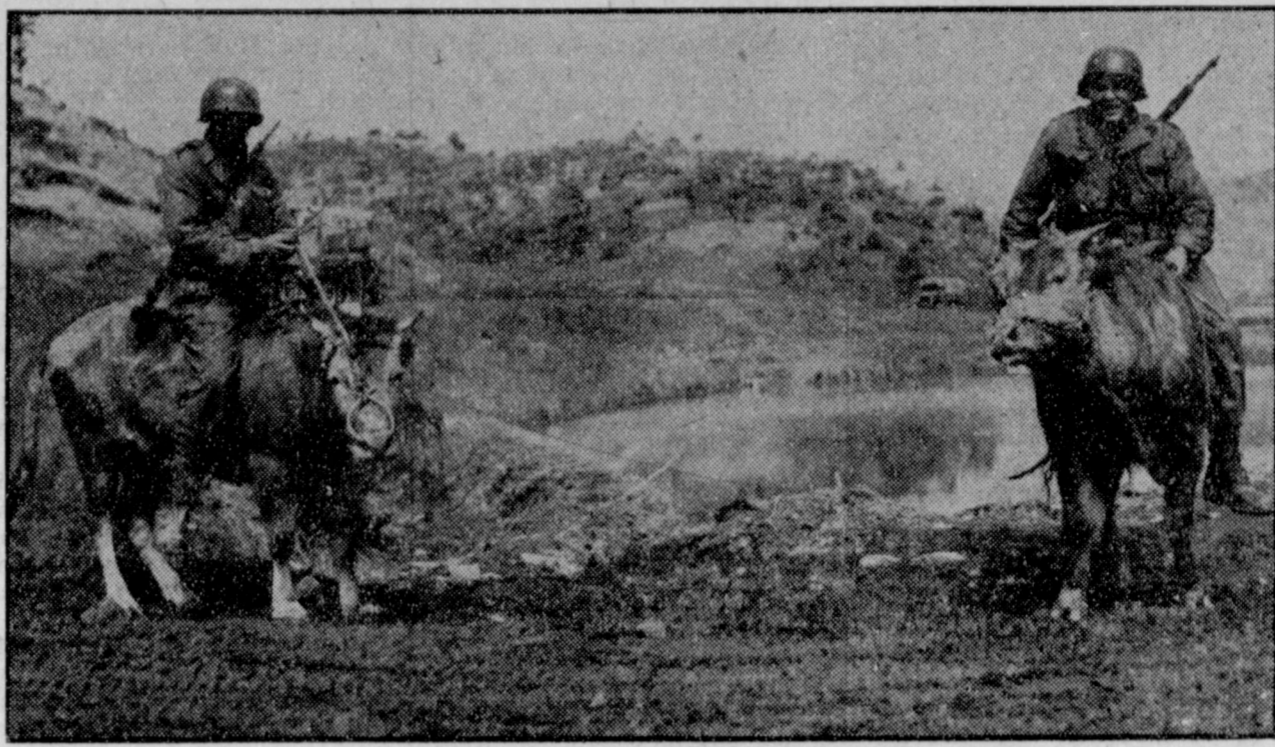

There will be no changes in the faculty of the Muenster Public School for the next scholastic year.

In their monthly meeting Tuesday night, members of the school board decided to retain all present teachers who wish to continue their work. If any replacements are made before September they will be because of resignations.

Trustees also voted to retain Herbert Meurer as secretary, Wm. Stelzer as caretaker and Charles Morris as bus maintenance man.

As president of the board to succeed J. B. Klement they elected E. S. Lawson.

The Joe Lukes, the W. H. Endreses and Theresa Luke spent Sunday in Fort Worth where they were dinner guests of the Norman Lukes. In the afternoon they visited at the bedside of John Luke, confined to Harris Memorial Hospital suffering from a heart ailment, and with Mrs. C. J. Rucker (Eugenia Luke) and family.

LIVING UP TO THEIR NAME—G.I.'s of the First Cavalry Division hopped aboard a pair of oxen in Central Korea in what might have been an attempt to prove that the word "cavalry" still has some meaning. Rough and muddy terrain may have also entered into their decision to ride.

Another Century Plant at Wilson's Reaches Maturity

That century plant phenomenon at the Clarence Wilsons is on its way again. The second of the two plants dug up in the Davis Mountains 17 years ago has started producing the big center stem which in a few more weeks is due to bear a dozen or so clusters of flowers.

At this writing the stem is shooting up like its predecessor at the phenomenal rate of about 5 inches a day. On Wednesday of this week it measured 5 feet above the level of the ground.

The first trace of the blooming preliminaries was discovered on April 19 when Mrs. Wilson noticed the blades in the center beginning to separate as though being forced apart from below. The next day the top of the stem was in sight.

Assuming that timing will be about the same as two years ago, the Wilsons expect the plant to bloom about the second week of June.

The other plant started its stem growth on April 21, 1949. It reached a maximum height of 12 feet 8 inches and started blooming the second week of June. After the blooms died the plant itself died.

County Boy Scouts Will Have Camporee Here This Week-End

Cooke county boy scouts and their troop leaders will gather here this weekend on the Danglemyr Ranch southwest of the city for a Scout Camporee. Scoutmaster Nick Miller and members of the local scout committee expect more than 100 boys from the county's eight troops to attend the event.

The camporee program will begin about 5 p.m. Friday and will conclude Saturday at about 1 p.m.

A special program is arranged for 8 o'clock Friday night for which parents, patrons and anyone interested is invited to attend.

VFW AUXILIARY NAMES ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

Anselma Knabe, senior of Sacred Heart High school and Lillian Vogel, senior of Muenster High school, are the winners of an essay contest sponsored by the local VFW Auxiliary. Theme of the essay is "Freedom's Open Door."

Mrs. Lawrence Roberg, chairman of the essay committee, announced the winners this week, advising that out of town judges made the selection. The local Auxiliary presented a check of $10 to Miss Knabe and a check of five dollars to Miss Vogel. Miss Knabe's essay will compete for state honors. Winning state essays will enter national competition for a cash award of one thousand dollars.

VFW Auxiliaries throughout the United States sponsored this contest for students in their cities.

Johnny Wimmer and Walter Haverkamp are working for an oil company in Ballinger.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Allen Hoffman has received his first promotion in the Army Air Corps and is now a private first class. He is nearing the end of basic training at Lackland AFB in San Antonio and expects to be on leave with his parents, Mayor and Mrs. John Hoffman in the near future. He will then enter Air Force technical training for assignment in specialized work.

Pvts. Alfons Koesler and Herbert Yosten have been ordered to the Field Artillery Replacement Training Center at Fort Sill, Okla., to attend the Artillery Survey School. They spent the weekend here with their parents enroute to the new station. Both completed 14 weeks of basic training with the Fifth Armored Division at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

When Pvt. Leo J. Hesse completes a leave he is spending here with his father and family, the Joe Hesses, he will report back to Camp Chaffee, Ark., for duty with a Quartermaster unit pending a vacancy in Leadership Course. He has completed 14 weeks of basic training with the Fifth Armored Division.

The Joe Knabes learned this week that their son, Gerald Knabe, was advanced from Fireman Apprentice to Fireman on April 16 at the San Francisco Naval Shipyard where he is on duty.

Pvt. Robert Bayer completed an overseas leave Wednesday and left for the west coast to be at Fort Lawton, Wash., until he sails.

It's Private First Class for Henry J. Pels of Scott Air Force Base, Illinois, since his promotion on April 13.

Pvt. Gussie Felderhoff arrived Saturday from Fort Bliss to spend his first leave at home with his parents, the Hubert Felderhoffs. When he leaves here on May 18 he will return to El Paso to continue training. He has been in the army since last December.

Arthur Hennigan recently got together with the other Muenster boys taking boot training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego. Joe Moster, Melvin Herr, Bernard Luke and Hugh Endres began training a few weeks earlier and are in another company. If the quartet's present training schedule works out according to plans they will finish May 18 and come home on leave.

58 CHILDREN TO RECEIVE 1ST COMMUNION SUNDAY

Next Sunday will be First Communion Day for 58 little boys and girls. The service will be held during the 8 o'clock high mass in Sacred Heart church with Father Anthony Schroeder officiating.

The children, pupils of the second grade parochial school, have been receiving special instructions from their teachers, Sisters Christine and Cabrini during the past several weeks in preparation for the event.

State Leaders Will Attend Soil Awards Dinner and Program

The Soil Conservation District Awards program which is scheduled to be held in Gainesville at the Turner Hotel on the evening of May 10th will have special guests in attendance from Dallas, Fort Worth, and Wichita Falls, it was announced today by Claude Jones, Vice-President, First State Bank of Gainesville, who is chairman of the district bankers committee.

Jack Garrett, President of the Texas Bank and Trust Company, Dallas; C. E. McCutchen, Wichita Falls, President of the Texas Bankers Association, and J. S. Bridwell, rancher and oilman of Wichita Falls are among the out of town guests who will attend. Bridwell, who is sponsor of the five thousand dollar Soil Conservation Awards program at Wichita Falls, was recognized by the Fort Worth Press in 1950, as the outstanding businessman in Texas for having rendered the greatest unselfish service in soil conservation.

Plans for the forthcoming program were completed last Friday afternoon in Sherman (April 27th) when bankers from Denison, Sherman, and Whitesboro met with Jones and John Rice, District Supervisor, at the Grayson County State Bank.

Cash awards will be distributed among soil conservation district cooperators for their accomplishments in carrying out their coordinated conservation plans for the year 1950.

News of Sick And Injured

R. L. Long is a patient at Gainesville sanitarium where he underwent a major operation Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ed Eberhart who has been seriously ill is reported improving this week. She remains at St. Vincent's hospital in Sherman.

David Owen, 17, son of the Clarence Owens, lost the middle and ring fingers and mangled the little finger of his right hand in an oil field accident at Albany about two weeks ago. He was hospitalized there for about a week for treatment and is now at home. The injury is reported healing normally.

Mrs. John Beard returned home Friday from Gainesville sanitarium after 12 days of medical treatment and is improving slowly. She is able to be up and around a part of each day.

Joe Linn is up and around again since Saturday after a siege of illness resulting from infection following the extraction of several teeth. He spent one day in Gainesville sanitarium for treatment, then continued with penicillin shots for about a week.

The Gene Carters of Seymour visited friends here briefly Saturday afternoon enroute to Denton to spend the weekend. They are former Muenster residents.

Marysville Youth Ends Despondency Tuesday by Suicide

Despondency over his brother missing in action in Korea and a father-son quarrel are the only possible reasons the grief-stricken parents of seventeen-year-old Boyd Franklin Doughty could give for the tragedy that took his life Tuesday afternoon. The Marysville youth climbed up a big tree, tied one end of a rope to a tree limb and the other around his neck and jumped.

Mrs. Marvin Doughty was alone at their farm home in Marysville when she saw her son hanging from a tree. Her screams brought Earl Robison and Jimmy Cole, who were passing by in a pickup, to the scene. The men cut the rope and tried without success to revive the youth. Another neighbor telephoned the sheriff's department. The time was between 3:45 and 4 o'clock.

Justice Clyde J. Matherly rendered a verdict of suicide, death by strangulation which resulted from a broken neck.

Investigating officers were told that several days ago the youth told his parents he was going to join the Army to avenge his brother's fate, but was persuaded by his father not to leave home. A minor dispute over the use of the family pickup was also reported to the officers.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Marysville Methodist church with burial in the Marysville cemetery under the direction of George J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home.

Besides his parents the boy is survived by three sisters and two brothers, the one missing in Korea since last September.

Late Donations Boost Red Cross Fund to $625.50

A late but still very welcome addition to this community's 1951 Red Cross drive is the $23 turned in by Meinrad Hesse the latter part of last week. Delayed in his collection during March Hesse had failed to complete his contacts in time to turn in the money at the regular time.

Reporting the additional fund Community Chairman E. S. Lawson advised that it raises Muenster's total to $625.50, topping the quota by $25.50.

Those who donated the additional $23 are:

$2.00 — G. J. Hess, Ben Luke.
$1.00 — Al Kleiss, Al Vogel, Ben Voth, Tony Hesse, Alois Hesse, Tony Klement, John Kleiss, Joe Kleiss, Theo Vogel, Lawrence Vogel, Henry Wolf Jr., Andy Trubenbach, Eberhart Brothers, Ed Cler, Al Fleitman, Meinrad Hesse, A. T. Hoehn, Alfons Hoenig, Mrs. Henry Sicking.

Rain Monday Night Measures .87 Inch

More relief from this community's extended drought came Monday night in a rain that varied from about .75 inches east of town to 1.25 west of town. The official measure recorded in the city by Steve Moster was .87.

Like its predecessor of ten days before the shower fell short of the soaker that farmers have been hoping for but it served as a welcome bracer to sustain crops a while longer.

It brings the month's moisture to date to 2.44 inches and the year's total to 5.56 inches.

May Queen Crowned Here Tuesday Night

A beautiful and inspiring May Day ceremony featuring the crowning of the May Queen was held Tuesday night in Sacred Heart church by members of the Sacred Heart High school sodality.

Singing May hymns, the sodalists marched from school to church as escorts for Miss Celine Felderhoff, sodality prefect, who crowned a statue of the Blessed Virgin as Queen of the May.

The crowning ceremony took place at a specially erected shrine at the front center of the sanctuary where the statue centered lighted candles in an inverted V formation. White peonies and daisies flanked the statue and adorned the communion railing.

The ceremony preceded recitation of the rosary, the act of consecration and Litany of the Blessed Virgin led by Father Cletus Post, who also officiated at sacramental benediction.

Miss Mary Ann Felderhoff presented a solo "Mother at Your Feet is Kneeling" in which Willard Hartman joined for the chorus and they presented "Tis the Month of Our Mother" as a duet with the sodalists joining in the chorus.

Girl sodalists wore evening gowns in pastel shades and Celine Felderhoff wore a white dress with a finger-tip length veil and headdress of white roses. She carried the pink rosebud crown on a blue satin pillow. Her maids of honor, Anselma Knabe and Bernice Henscheid, wore blue frocks and carried arm bouquets of white peonies.

Touchy Business

A businessman visited his banker and asked, "Are you worried about whether I can meet my note next month?"

"Yes, I am," confessed the banker.

"Good," said the client. "That's what I'm paying you 6 per cent for."

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By ED GOSSETT

Washington, D. C., April 27.—This week I had to fly to Galveston to keep a long-standing appointment to address the State Convention of the Lumbermen's Association of Texas. On the way back, I sat next to a distinguished old gentleman who has been one of our aviation experts for 35 years. He was a close friend of General

Billy Mitchell, who was court-martialed and cashiered out of the Army in the early '30's. He told me he was sitting by the Colonel's (Billy Mitchell was promoted to General by act of Congress years after his death) bedside about a week before his death in 1936. The Colonel stated that he wished he could stay around for the real war, saying that World War I had only been a prelude, and that World War II was soon to come. A second interesting comment from the dying Colonel Mitchell was that he wished that he knew how General Douglas MacArthur had voted on the military court that had tried him. Report now has it that General MacArthur voted to acquit Colonel Billy Mitchell. However, General MacArthur obviously has never revealed how he voted.

Congressman Herlong, of Florida, has just placed in the Congressional Record an address by Dr. J. Ollie Edmunds, President of John B. Stetson University. In this speech, Dr. Edmunds quotes from the distinguished British analyst, writer and commentator, Lord Macaulay. Lord Macaulay was very distrustful of American democracy. Writing more than a hundred years ago, he declared that one of two things would happen: (1) Either "some Caesar or Napoleon will seize the reins of government with a strong hand" or (2) "your Republic will be as fearfully plundered . . . by barbarians of the twentieth century as the Roman Empire was in the fifth; with this difference . . . the Huns and Vandals who ravished the Roman Empire came from without . . . your Huns and Vandals will have been engendered within your own institutions." Perhaps Congressmen should not dig up these dire predictions. Perhaps we should be optimists and should seek to allay the fears and apprehensions of our countrymen. Assuming momentarily such a rule, let us repeat some history used several years ago on the subject of optimism. In 1800, Archbishop Wilberforce said, "I dare not marry.

The future is so dark and unsettled." In 1837 Queen Adelaide of England stated, "I have only one desire — to play the role of Marie Antoinette with bravery in the coming revolution." Then in 1849 the great Prime Minister of Britain, Disraeli, declared, "In industry, commerce, and agriculture there is no hope." In 1851, just before his death, the Duke of Wellington remarked, "I thank God I will be spared from the consummation of ruin that is gathering around." And in 1875 another great Prime Minister, William Pitt, said, "There is scarcely anything around us but ruin and despair."

In Harper's Weekly in October, 1857, there appeared the following: "It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years — not in the lifetime of most men who read this paper — has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time."

"In France the political caldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty; Russia hangs as usual, like a cloud, dark and silent upon the horizon of Europe; while all the energies, resources and influences of the British Empire are sorely tried, and are yet to be tried more sorely, in coping with the vast and deadly Indian insurrection, and with its disturbed relations in China. It is a solemn moment and no man can feel an indifference — which, happily, no man pretends to feel — in the issue of events."

"Of our own troubles (in the United States) no man can see the end."

Certainly all of these prophets and philosophers of doom in all the ages repudiate all Christian doctrine. If one searches he may find everywhere evidence that man grows better, not worse, and that civilization progresses. Such progress is in proportion to our adherence to Christian ethics and principles.

In the dark clouds of national and international discord there are many silver linings. I, for one, believe we have enough faith, wisdom, and character to solve our problems and that tomorrow will be better than today.

America's High Cost of Government

Memories are short, and facts and figures are easily forgotten. The chances are that most Americans have only a hazy idea of just how much the cost of their government has risen in the past 10 years. So some figures compiled by the National Small Business Association should come as a high-voltage shock.

In 1940, it cost a little more than $75,000,000 to run the Department of Commerce — in 1950 the bill was $863,000,000.

In 1940, the Department of Interior lived on a budget of about $1,385,000. Last year's bill was close to $568,500,000.

In 1940, the State Department worried along on less than $21,000,000. In 1950 it managed to get rid of more than $361,000,000.

In 1940, the taxpayers supported the Department of Labor to the tune of some $18,500,000. Last year the assessment was $257,000,000.

In 1940, it must be remembered, the late President Roosevelt had been in office for two terms, and the government had been greatly expanded. Yet now the cost of running the major departments make the 1940 budgets look like peanuts!

I never knew cooking could be so EASY until I got my new ELECTRIC RANGE!

Now . . . cooking even the fanciest, most exotic dishes is "apple-pie" easy.

In fact, with my new electric range, I can almost cook by remote control . . . there's so little watching and waiting to be done. Speedy heating units are ready to go at the flick of a switch. A timing device turns the oven on and off automatically. Thermostatic temperature controls maintain the exact heat required . . . and that kind of accuracy means delicious cookbook results every time.

"Apple-pie" easy is right. Baking an apple pie the electric way is so easy, it's standard equipment for midnight raids!

I'll match my Dodge with any car on the road for Value and Dependability

—says MICHAEL OPPENHEIM

"Sure, I've owned and driven other make cars," says Michael Oppenheim, Bellerose, N.Y. "But since 1941 my cars have all been Dodges. I know how dependable Dodge cars are, how little they cost to run. In fact, my new 1951 car is another dependable Dodge!"

DODGE DEPENDABILITY VALUE

Specifications and equipment subject to change without notice.

You could pay up to $1,000 more and not get all the extra room, comfort and rugged dependability of Dodge Compare what Dodge gives you . . . with what other cars offer. You'll understand why Dodge owners say they'll match Dodge with any car on the road.

Take riding comfort for example. You could pay far more for a car and still not get the almost unbelievable smoothness of the new Oriflow ride. Even on roughest roads there's no wheel "hop" or bounce . . . wheels stay on ground providing a smooth, level ride for all passengers.

You get the relaxing comfort of extra head room, leg room and shoulder room. You never feel cramped or crowded. And Dodge gives you the priceless safety of "Watchtower" visibility . . . of big Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes with larger braking surface for smooth, sure stops.

Dodge Gyro-Matic is the lowest priced automatic transmission on the market. It lets you drive without shifting . . . yet it is simpler, safer—gives you full control of your car under all driving conditions. Come in—see and drive today's big Dodge.

MRS. TOMMY FELDERHOFF

Mrs. Tommy Felderhoff, a recent bride who was Miss Barbara Miller before her marriage, was complimented with a gift party Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Nick Miller with Mes. Billy Joe and Herbert Miller as co-hostesses.

The party rooms were prettily decorated with spring flowers and the guests placed their shower gifts on a table on the sun porch where potted plants in bloom furnished a colorful background. The table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with a doll bride.

A progressive 42 series entertained the guests until the honoree opened and displayed her gifts. Later the hostesses served cherry pie a la mode and coffee to about 20.

Mrs. Norbert Knabe won the door prize and presented it to the honoree.

Rev. John Mitchell
Is Junior-Senior
Banquet Speaker

Rev. John Mitchell of Henrietta was the featured speaker at the annual banquet for seniors and juniors of Sacred Heart High school Sunday night in the parish hall.

He began his address with the words of the Savior, spoken two thousand years ago, "Go and Teach All Nations". He then pointed out that with knowledge comes an obligation and explained that those who have had the advantage of a well planned course of study are in duty bound to put it into practice, to turn such knowledge into profit for Christ, for their country and for themselves.

Others giving brief addresses were Rev. Cletus Post; Rita Hoenig, senior class president; and Albina Mages, junior class president.

Dorothy Mae Walterscheid was mistress of ceremonies and Father Cletus gave the invocation.

After the banquet Irma Hofbauer and Carrie Ann Gehrig presented a piano duet and the program closed with the juniors and seniors singing their school song. Irma Hofbauer played the piano accompaniment.

JURY SERVICE EXCUSES NIXED— Jury Service Month is co-sponsored, in May, by the Texas Press Association and the American Citizenship Committee of the State Bar of Texas. Discussing the project with Fred Massengill, Jr., Terrell Tribune publisher and president of the press association, are Earnest E. Sanders, left, Fort Worth attorney, and Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd, right. Shepperd is chairman of the American Citizenship Committee and Sanders is chairman of the bar's Jury Service Month sub-committee. Prime objective of the program is that no Texan will ask to be excused from jury service during the month of May. The press association and the bar are inviting churches and civic organizations to participate, by urging their members to take renewed interest in preserving our system of free courts by willingly accepting jury service. Many civic clubs will have Jury Service Month programs with lawyers as speakers.

The junior-senior banquet is an annual end-of-the-year event honoring the graduates and sponsored by the juniors. Sophomores serve the meal and their mothers prepare it.

Guests in addition to juniors and seniors are parents of the graduates and the pastors. Fifty-five persons were present for the event.

Table decorations stressed the green and white theme, senior class colors. Peonies, iris, greenery and tapers adorned the board. Nut cups were place markers. The seniors' were accented with a graduate figurine in cap and gown; other guests' were miniature "wise owls" holding diplomas.

Of NCCW Council
Quarterly Meeting Held In Sherman

The National Council of Catholic Women, Sherman Deanery, held its quarterly meeting on April 26 with the Sherman NCCW ladies as hostesses for the program.

The meeting, held on the feast day of Our Lady of Good Counsel, patroness of the NCCW, had this title of the Blessed Virgin as its theme, and Father Paul Charcut of Pilot Point, as principal speaker, gave an address entitled, "Our Lady of Good Counsel."

Muenster, with about 25 ladies present, had the largest representation of any of the units in the district.

Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, deanery president, conducted the meeting which began at 2 p.m. in St. Mary's parish hall. Father Joseph Erbrick, deanery moderator, led the opening prayer and Mrs. J. R. Cooney, president of the host council extended welcome.

Other speakers were Mrs. Howard Wiechern of Denton who reported on the diocesan board meeting and Mrs. Charles F. Faust of Fort Worth who brought a message on organization and development. Mrs. Faust was honored last year by being acclaimed the outstanding Catholic Woman in Fort Worth.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. McCullough introduced visiting clergy and after adjournment officiated at sacramental benediction in St. Mary's church.

The next meeting will be held at Gainesville late in June with the Valley View council as hostesses, and will feature the annual election of officers.

Galloping Inflation

The time to halt inflation is before it starts galloping. Inflation has eaten away nearly half the purchasing power of the U. S. dollar. An insurance policy worth $5,000 in 1939 is worth only $2,750 of buying power in 1951. A savings account of $1,000 is worth only $550 in terms of 1939 dollars.

Inflation is too many dollars chasing too few goods. If we increase this number of dollars by selling more government bonds to commercial banks, the inflation will break from a run into a gallop. And the U. S. dollar will be lost in the dust.

Comanche, a horse, was the only survivor of Custer's massacre.

FOUR TONS OF TRAFFIC PROBLEM

What would you have done with the four ton carcass of an elephant laying right in the middle of the highway?

Authorities near Abilene recently were faced with such a problem. And they did the simplest and most efficient thing to cope with such a situation. A telephone call to Central Hide & Rendering Company was all that was necessary.

Workers came with a winch cable and moved the 8,000 pound body of Taffy, the circus elephant, to the Abilene rendering plant.

Taffy, who was 85 years old, was owned by the Heart of Texas Carnival. She died when she jumped from her truck into U. S. Highway 80 three miles west of Abilene. The beloved animal, who has thrilled millions of youngsters and older people as well, was mortally wounded when she fell from the tractor-trailer truck.

Racial Prejudice

The census taker was inquiring of the mountaineer how many children he had. "Four", was the answer, "an' bygosh, that's all I'm going to have."

"How come?" the census taker inquired. "Why," said the man, "I just read in this here almanac that every fifth child born in the world is a Chinaman."

To Attend Texoma Honor Grad Event

Muenster High School will be represented this year by Lillian Vogel, the honor girl graduate and Glenn Hellman, the honor boy graduate at the fourth annual honor graduates day for high schools in the Texomaland area scheduled for Friday, May 11, at Lake Texoma. These students will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bruns. The honor boy graduate and the honor girl graduate together with the respective school superintendents and their wives from more than fifty communities in Texas and Oklahoma have been invited this year for a picnic lunch at the Denison Dam to be followed by a boat cruise on Lake Texoma in the afternoon.

If you have not often felt the joy of doing a kind act you have neglected much — and most of all yourself.

Confetti ---

Korea unless we either kept troops there or trained and equipped the South Koreans to defend themselves.

For four long years that report was kept secret, but pressure following the MacArthur incident has finally forced it into the open. And the startling facts it discloses proves without the shadow of a doubt that the Truman-Hiss-Acheson clique has made a thorough mess of both American and world history. Whether as simpletons or red appeasers we still do not know, but we can have no doubt that they have done infinitely more for the Soviet Union than they did for America or its allies.

Perhaps the nation's general awakening to the sad state of affairs helps to explain the increasing popularity of MacArthur's war plan. The public and Congress are obviously losing confidence in leadership that has been consistently wrong. Reports now are that unless we have a vast improvement soon we can expect the bombing of red bases, blockade of the Chinese mainland and the use of Chiang's troops.

In that case we may still discover that the MacArthur incident is a blessing in disguise. It appears now that he's doing more good here than he was able, under the circumstances, to do in Korea.

Building and Improvement Notes

Foundation work started Tuesday on a new home for the Hugh Jacksons on West Fourth street. The plan includes moving the home-making building of the former public school to the site and remodeling it for a kitchen and building the rest of the place new.

Other new homes now being built are for Andy Monday and Frank Felderhoff. Monday's job is almost finished, Felderhoff's has a few more weeks to go.

Also nearing completion is a remodeling job on the kitchen and general repairs on the rest of the house at Jerome Pagel's.

In the Myra community B. C. Rosson is building a new home. Work on it has been under way about three weeks.
