City Buys Dry Hole For Completion as No. 3 Water Well

Judging from the attitude of the city council at its meeting Tuesday night residents of Muenster will not have long to wait for a very important advancement in public health.

As this is being written the council is considering a report on water fluoridation given by Dr. Ed Taylor and Dean Mathews of the State Health Department, and it is likely that a favorable decision will be made before this column is completed.

Comparing costs and benefits it is hard to imagine how the city could make a better investment. For an initial outlay of less than a thousand dollars and an annual expenditure of 10 cents per resident the city could in just a few years time save its children thousands of dollars in dental bills while developing a basis for better general health for a lifetime.

Here is the situation as Dr. Taylor explains it. Over 90 per cent of the children today have dental disease resulting in cavities. And, incidentally, children of this area are especially afflicted, as most parents can testify from their annual dental expenditures and anyone else can discover by checking with dentists of Gainesville and Saint Jo. Along with that fact we have the very significant fact that water of this area contains about one tenth the fluorine recommended for healthful dental development.

Surveys have disclosed that the proper amounts of fluorine in water decreases dental decay in children as much as 60 per cent. Cities with fluorine occurring naturally in the water were found to have better teeth. Cities that added it to their water were found to improve their teeth.

Marshall and Jacksonville were two cities tested in the survey. They were about the same size, had the same kind of water and the same rate of child dental decay. Marshall started fluoridating and Jacksonville continued using its untreated water. Periodic checks revealed that child tooth decay was decreasing at Marshall. After 6 years a check of the six year olds revealed 47 per cent fewer decays than the same age group in Jacksonville, and there is reason to assume the improvement will continue until children reach the age of 12.

The significant point in their discoveries is that persons deriving the greatest benefit are those who used the fluoridated water from birth. Those who started using it later got some benefit, and those who started after the age of 12 got little or no benefit. From those findings they arrived at the decision fluorine is beneficial during the time when teeth are forming and growing. They have more evidence to indicate fluorine's beneficial effect begins even before birth.

Applying those findings to the local situation there is reason to believe that, if the water is treated here, children of future years will have less than half the cavities they have now. Savings at the dental office could pay for the fluorination cost hundreds of times every year.

But that's only the beginning of the story. Teeth that develop properly last longer. And just as a developed tooth cannot be helped by fluorine it can neither be harmed by plain water. In other words the proper amount of fluorine during that important stage of growth gives a child a set of teeth that will be better for the rest of its life. All of which means less dental trouble in future years, less of other ailments that derive from poor teeth, and very possibly spending a lifetime without getting false teeth.

Considering all that the possibilities are enormous. And the cost, in case you have forgotten, is about 10 cents per person per year. A child born here could live to the ripe old age of 100 before consuming $10 worth of fluorine. Compare that with the possible savings in money... and possible savings in misery... and figure the odds yourself.

As should be expected, fluoridation has its enemies. Dr. Taylor warned that small minority groups and some persons with wild imaginations claim that it will bring on various other ailments.

The recently drilled dry hole in the southwest part of the city is going to be useful after all, even though it failed to come in as an oil producer. Members of the city council Tuesday night decided to buy the hole from J. M. Weinzapfel and use it as a water well.

They agreed to pay $500 for the well and three lots and expect to spend between $6,000 and $7,000 additional for pipe, pump, cementing, perforating and a line to deliver the well's water to the city reservoir. Considering all costs the expenditure will be less than that on the No. 2 well for which the city already had its pump and did not need additional pipe leading from the well.

The saving is accounted for principally by one factor. The volume of water supplied by the Trinity sand in this area is limited. Experience has shown that its maximum is about 130 gallons per minute, so the council has decided on a pump to match the well. The No. 2 well has a 200 gallon pump but it is being run at about half capacity because the sand doesn't furnish any more water.

The smaller pump will enable the city to get along with smaller

Keep Dogs at Home City Council Urges

Dog owners take warning. If your pets are being pests away from home, something serious may happen to them.

Members of the city council in a special session Monday night heard complaints of three people about the stray dog nuisance in the northeast part of town. Besides molesting children the dogs have been digging in flowers and messing places in general.

After considering the problem council men decided that the best solution is to allow residents to handle the affair themselves. The city has no dog catcher or other officer to pick up strays nor does it have facilities for disposing of them. On the other hand individuals have a right to deal with pests on their own property.

Accordingly the council issues an appeal to dog owners to keep their pets at home. If they do not they are asked to understand that others are within their rights if they take matters into their own hands.

4 Men Attend VFW State Convention

Muenster VFW Post Commander and Mrs. Ray Wilde, District Post Commander and Mrs. Pat Hennigan, District Quartermaster and Mrs. F. A. Kathman Jr., and Andy Yosten have returned from San Antonio where they attended the thirty-third annual convention of veterans of foreign wars and its auxiliary. Kathman served as recorder, taking all official proceedings of the meeting on a tape recording machine.

During the closing sessions of the convention Juston Morrow of Rotan was elected state commander and Mrs. Vada Lee Humphrey of Stinnett was elected state president of the Auxiliary. Fort Worth was chosen as the convention city for 1954.

After the convention the Wildes and Hennigans took a sight-seeing trip to Corpus Christi, Raymondville, Harlingen and Matamoros, Mexico.

Little Hooters Lick Auctioneers 13-1

Disregarding a wild third inning, the Muenster Auctioneers had a good game with the Little Hooters of Gainesville on Locke Field last Friday night. That inning netted 8 runs for the Gainesville boys, accounting for the greater part of the final 13-1 count.

With two of last year's pitchers out of the lineup this year, the Auctioneers' big trouble nowadays is weakness on the mound. Jerry Henscheid has been steady as a relief hurler but the team has not found an effective starter. Neil Fisher and William Walter-scheid handled the job last year.

James Mollenkopf had anything but beginner's luck as he faced the slugging Hooters in his first pitching attempt. They pushed over 3 in the first and 4 in the third before Henscheid kept the game under fair control, allowing one run each in the fifth and sixth.

Muenster's only run came in the third as a result of Henscheid's hit followed by two Hooter errors. Henscheid accounted for the Auctioneers' only two hits. The Gainesville boys got a total of 14 hits. Errors were evenly divided, 3 on each side.

Next on schedule for the Auctioneers is a game here Friday night at 8 with the Gainesville Independents. Sunday they will play Father Francis Zimmerer's Windthorst boys here at 2:30.

Work Starts Soon On MHS Stadium

Electric lights for the Muenster High football field are due to go up in the very near future. Trustees in their meeting Tuesday night voted to install the lights at once so that light will be available for working on the stadium at night.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Johnny Rohmer is in an Abilene hospital with an eye injury. His wife called her parents, the Joe Fettes, Thursday morning to tell them specialists had removed a piece of steel from his eye but that he would be in the hospital several days. Johnny works on an oil rig at Hamlin. The accident happened Wednesday night.

Mrs. M. J. Kleiss is a patient at St. Vincent's Hospital in Sherman for medical care.

Melvin Gaines received treatment at the local clinic Monday and was off from his work at the J. B. Wilde garage several days. He injured his knee last week and developed an infection which confined him to his home in Myra most of this week.

Mrs. Joe Tempel was admitted to Gainesville Sanitarium Tuesday and was dismissed Wednesday after treatment.

Wayne Morris, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morris of Gainesville, had his tonsils removed Tuesday at Wilson-Jones Hospital in Sherman and will remain a patient until this weekend.

Vacation Classes Likely to Continue

Present indications are that vacation classes at the public school will continue in both high school and elementary departments for another six weeks.

Superintendent Weldon Cowan said Wednesday that sufficient enrollment for high school is practically assured and sufficient enrollment for the elementary classes is probable. More than enough have shown interest but not all have signed up to date.

The final decision will be made Monday when students are due to report for the second summer term. Students interested in the summer classes may see Mr. Cowan at that time or before.

Firemen Report for Rural Grass Fires

During the past week the fire department has answered two rural calls to put out grass fires.

About 4 o'clock on July 4 they went to the Danglemayr-Trubench pastures northeast of town to help fight a fire that burned off about 75 acres on the two places.

Tuesday afternoon they went to A. T. Dickerson's lease house on the Henry Sicking farm to help control a yard fire ignited by burning trash. The firemen helped keep fire off the house while permitting grass and scrap lumber to burn out.

Council Approves Purchase of Water Fluoridation Unit

Muenster city water will be fluoridated as soon as the city council can decide on the equipment to use and have it installed.

Council men approved the installation at their meeting Tuesday night after hearing a report by Dr. Ed Taylor of the State Health Department on improvements in dental health in localities where fluorine occurs naturally in water as well as in places where the element has been added.

Other visitors attending the meeting were Doctors Truitt of Gainesville and Boynton of Saint Jo, both of whom endorsed fluoridation as a means of reducing dental decay, and Dean Mathews, sanitary engineer of the state health department.

After the visitors left the council authorized installation of equipment after making contact with several suppliers to learn more about prices and types of fluoridation units. In view of Mr. Mathews report that a unit costs about $750, they expect to spend something less than $1,000 as a total investment.

In connection with the unit Mathews recommended a main line meter so the operator will have more accurate control over his mixture. If necessary that addition will come later, but the

PE Classes Proposed To Trim Waistlines

Any men around here who would like to take an inch or two off their waistlines and put it on their chests? Coach Troy Stewart comes forward this week with a proposition which may accomplish just that... or it may convince some fellows that they are older than they realized.

He's feeling out interest in an adult physical training class composed of men over 25 years of age. Sessions would last 1 to 2 hours each week day night for the next 3 or 6 weeks, and would consist mostly of calisthenics for the first week with volleyball, basketball and baseball added the rest of the time. The school's gym and shower facilities are available for the program and the proposed fee is $10 for 3 weeks or $15 for 6 weeks.

Persons interested are asked to report to the gym next Monday night. At that time they will organize their group and have their first workout and also decide on the most convenient schedule for future workouts.

Youth Revival Will End Sunday Night

The Youth Revival at the First Baptist church is drawing a good attendance, according to Rev. Andy Stowe, pastor. Services will continue every night at 8 o'clock through Sunday.

Rev. Milton Du Priest, noted evangelist, is bringing a series of inspiring sermons, and Brother Andy invites adults as well as young people to hear these preachings.

Special music is being presented at each service. Young people from Myra, Rosston and Tabernacle Baptist church were guest musicians Tuesday. Dale Dennis of Gainesville, pianist, and Margaret Cooley of Rosston, vocalist, were in charge on Monday and Wednesday. Lucian Morris and his quartet from Gainesville, a group from First Baptist church, Gainesville, and from Nocona will be on the program the latter part of this week. Mrs. Du Priest will join her husband here for the weekend. Their home is in Fort Worth.

casing at a saving of more than $1 a foot. Likewise the smaller pump will cost less and its smaller motor will cost less to operate. More savings are expected from the use of a submerged type pump and motor unit, which eliminates both original and maintenance cost on shaft and bearings.

The location of the new well offers another opportunity to save. The place originally considered is in the ball park near the water tower. That's farther from the reservoir and would require more difficult, more expensive digging. Almost all the trench from the new well to the reservoir can be dug and covered with the city maintainer.

The need of another water well has had the city council uneasy for several weeks. Existing wells have supplied the record demand, but the city would have faced a serious shortage if either well had failed. The new well not only provides a big safety factor for now but also furnishes an ample supply for increased water use in the future.

Fisher Named on KC State Committee

J. W. Fisher this week received a letter from K of C State Deputy Reynoldo Garza advising of his appointment on the Catholic Higher Education Committee of the Knights of Columbus Texas State Council. The purpose of the committee is to assist in the growth and development of Catholic colleges for boys and girls in the state.

Other knights serving on the committee are Very Rev. V. J. Guinan of St. Thomas University, Houston; Very Rev. L. J. Blume of St. Mary's University, San Antonio; Bro. Elmo Bransby of St. Edward's University, Austin; Ralph Mulvey of Houston; Emil Ottis of Wadsworth; and M. W. Kennedy of Midland.

council decided to start without it. They feel that information they now have on the system is accurate, and intend to check that by submitting samples to the state health department for analysis. If those tests show that better control is needed they will get the meter.

The desired mixture, according to Dr. Taylor, is one part per million parts of water . . . a pound of fluorine for every million pounds of water. The mixture may go as high as 1.5 parts per million and still serve its beneficial purpose, but if stronger than that over a period of time it is likely to cause discoloration of tooth enamel. High concentration, about 5 parts per million, has a tendency to soften teeth. Whatever the mixture, its effect requires a comparatively long period of time and it does not become toxic until the concentration reaches 20,000 parts per million parts of water.

In his report Dr. Taylor traced the history of fluoridation back to the original discovery that areas having fluorine in water had fewer dental cavities. Surveys at Hereford, publicized as the town without a toothache, and cities of other states led to the test at Marshall to determine whether better dental health can be attained by adding fluorine to water. That survey has been going on since 1946 and each successive test shows more improvement.

Findings from surveys to date reveal that fluorine contributes to the development of better teeth but is effective only while teeth are developing. To get maximum benefit a child should drink fluoridated water from birth until about 12 years of age. After that age teeth are formed and they can neither be helped by fluoridated water nor harmed by plain water.

Dr. Taylor pointed out that children who used fluoridated water from infancy can be expected to have about 50 per cent fewer cavities, and save as much as 50 per cent on dental bills. Savings amount to hundreds of times the tiny cost of 10 cents per person per year for fluoridation. Then he placed special emphasis on the value of sound teeth in later life. Besides a person is spared more toothaches as well as other ailments often caused by poor teeth.

Jim Cook spent the holiday weekend in Houston as the guest of his niece, Mrs. J. S. Sheppard and family.

Our Terrible Thirst

If your town doesn't have to worry about its water supply, you're lucky. A lot of towns do.

Trouble is, some communities never dreamed that they might double and triple in size, that new industries would come to town, that citizens would use more water than ever before. We've reached the point where we use about 1100 gallons per person a day in the United States.

Yet why should water be short when 25 times our needs falls from the skies every year?

Unhappily, it doesn't always fall when and where we need it most. Many reservoirs were built with no idea that towns would grow so fast. And 75% of our communities rely on water from lakes and streams. Today many of these are polluted and require treatment before use.

When faced with a shortage, cities suddenly discover to their sorrow that new water sources take time to complete.

For years General Electric has contributed toward development of better and more efficient water-works equipment. This is not so unusual, since motors and other electric equipment are important in water systems, large or small.

Some of the things we've learned about water supply, and the related problem of water pollution, have been put together in motion pictures and booklets, prepared in cooperation with the U. S. Public Health Service. Any town fathers who are interested in what's available can write to General Electric, Room 123-2, Schenectady 5, N. Y.

The American Way

"I REFUSE TO ANSWER"
By George Peck

Appearing before Congressional Committees and other investigating committees during the past few years have been thousands of witnesses who have stood on their Constitutional rights by refusing to answer certain questions, on the grounds that to make reply would tend to incriminate and degrade them. The one question that has been evaded on that pretext more than any other is: "Are you now or have you ever been a member of the Communist Party?"

The so-called liberals call the investigations of these committees "witch hunting." But is it? Do not the law-abiding, patriotic citizens of this country have a right to know just who are allied or have been allied with a party that seeks to destroy America and to take away their freedom? Surely, if we have the right to spend billions of dollars abroad and offer up the lives of thousands of our young men to fight Communism and stamp it out abroad, we have more than a right to fight it here within our own borders and stamp it out.

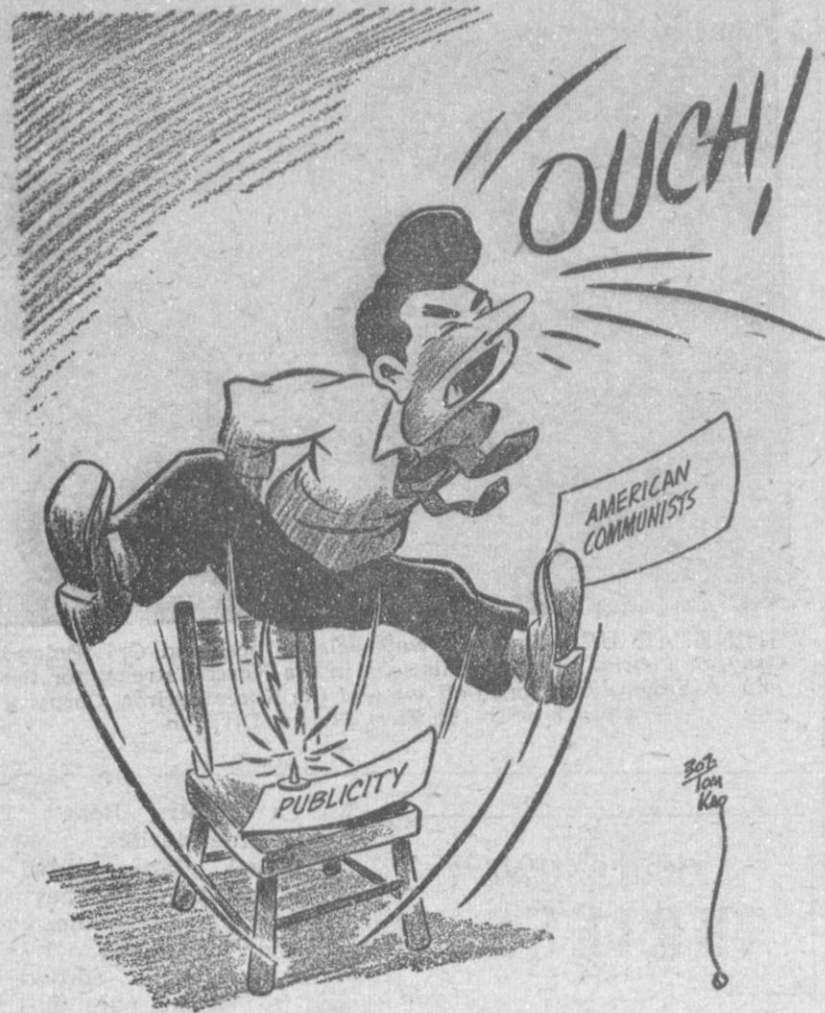

It seems to me that any person not guilty of association with an internal enemy of this country should be willing to testify to that effect. Failure to do so, in my book, makes him suspect of being a traitor to America.

And so, it is rather sickening when a genius such as Albert Einstein, German-born, naturalized American citizen, goes out of his way publicly to advise his "fellow intellectuals" in the academic field to refuse to answer questions put to them by duly authorized Congressional Committees.

Can it be that sooner or later the great physicist is apprehensive that he himself may be put on the carpet for questioning and is trying to cushion the shock to his fellow Americans by his refusal then to make reply? One wonders.

Which finally brings me to the reason for writing this article. The nation owes a debt of gratitude to Senator McCarthy and Senator Jenner and the others who are putting forth such valiant efforts, amid the cries of "smear," "book-burning," and "witch-hunting," to ferret out the Benedict Arnolds who are trying to sell this nation down the river into slavery. If you haven't written them, by all means do so at once. Let them know you are behind them. And further, let your own Congressman and your two U. S. Senators know just how you stand on this "cold war" within our borders.

Getting The Point

Children Look To Parents For Moral Truth

By J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

IF PARENTS ARE to carry out their responsibilities as educators in the home, it is necessary to examine their own adult beliefs, actions, and activities.

Children are prone to imitate the activities of their elders. They are influenced by the attitudes, actions, and words which pervade the home.

It is disheartening to read case after case of juvenile delinquency which points directly to the home and the parents

A world which worships at the shrine of materialism is well on the path to chaos. Corruption and decay will destroy a youngster's impressionable mind if the fundamental principles of morality are excluded from his daily life.

How can people respect law and order if they were never taught to respect the rights of others? The true belief in God and the teaching of Jesus affords parents an authority with the child which they otherwise would lack.

MAN'S CONSCIENCE, the inextinguishable voice of his inner being, and aptly styled the "voice of God", is the key to his knowledge of right and wrong; but conscience must be awakened in early childhood. The lack of proper moral training may hush that conscience to such a degree that man's ultimate end will be misery.

Recently, a young girl wrote in the editorial column of a daily newspaper, showing why there are juvenile delinquents: the dollar is the only god worshiped by adults; gangsters, criminals, drunkards, and gamblers are made heroes and heroines on the screen, in comic sheets, and books; sex crimes are publicized almost daily; religion and church attendance are ridiculed, homes are broken, and lawmakers, in some instances, lie and cheat.

If you eliminate the moral obligations from your life and the lives of your children, other obligations will fall by the wayside.

ANY ADULT who fails to impress the existence of God, as a Supreme Arbiter of good and evil, upon the hearts and minds of his children will one day answer for his wrongdoing.

† Paulist Feature Service, Washington 25, D. C.

charged with its responsibility. Broken homes, lack of religion, neglect, indifference, absenteeism, immorality, lack of discipline, infidelity, selfishness, greed, and a score of other factors are infectious conditions to which children have been exposed.

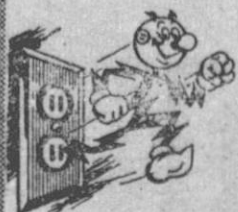

If we are attempting to find a solution or a cure, we must destroy the infection at its source.

NO HOME CAN BE sound unless it is built on a strong foundation of moral fortitude.

WHAT "Service First" MEANS

The word SERVICE in its many uses has many meanings... but as applied to Texas Power & Light Company...

- it means a million and a half people depending on electric power, day and night, for work or play;
- it means countless sparkling lights brightening a busy city at night, or the glow of a single lamp by which to find the baby's bottle;
- it means automatic refrigeration for preserving a hospital's supply of penicillin, or keeping a pint of ice cream ready to serve at dinner;
- it means saving a life with a timely X-ray, or relieving an ache with a heating pad;
- it means carefree, automatic cooking and easier housekeeping for the modern homemaker;
- it means hearing and seeing the world's best entertainers right in a comfort-cooled home by the simple flick of a switch;
- it means an elderly couple receiving their dividends on their investment in the Company... dividends that have come without delay each quarter for nearly half a century;
- it means a factory may have three full work days of production during any 24 hours... more employment, bigger payrolls, better working conditions;
- it means engineers and scientists devoting their lives to finding more and better ways to bring more comforts and benefits to more people;
- it means a crew of linemen working all night in sleet or rain to maintain electric service during and after a storm;
- it means a friendly smile and courteous treatment for every customer by each employee of the company;
- it means cooperation with electrical dealers to the end that their business may prosper and, in turn, more families may enjoy the benefits of modern electrical living;
- it means an alert, civic-minded organization always working for the development of the community, and the welfare of the people... to bring in new industries, more families, new payrolls; to establish a sounder, more profitable agriculture... participating wholeheartedly in all civic projects benefiting the entire community.

TP&L SERVICE means all these things and many more. It is a service which helps to make a house into a home... a store a better place in which to shop... a factory a better place in which to work... a community a better place in which to live.

Shoot Varmints to Keep Eyes Sharp And Protect Game

Between-season shooting that helps keep the hunters' eyes sharp and also helps protect game birds is described in the current issue of Texas Game and Fish magazine.

The article by Edward D. Hyman is entitled "Don't Put that Gun Away."

Hyman tells about varmint shooting which is permitted to varying degrees in most counties and emphasizes the need for cracking down as follows:

"One of the greatest game destroying predators, the wild house cat has become a real threat to our game birds. Young quail, being much easier to catch than mice and rats, have made the call of the wild sound like sweet music to the thousands of farm cats which have deserted the barns for the meadows.

"Another reason cats have become so numerous in the field is that many city dwellers, when they find Tabby with a litter of kittens, take the unwanted new additions of the household out to the country and turn them loose in some farmer's field to fend for themselves.

"This they do very well! The farmer could tell you, in a few short and possibly unprintable words, the effect they have on quail population and frequently his young chicks."

Hyman points out that Texans pursuing varmint hunting had better check the local game warden to determine which predators are most prevalent in different areas.

More women are "odor-blind" than are color-blind, say researchers for perfume manufacturers. That's why, they add, it is important to have fascinating names for their bottled fragrance.

New Red Stop Signs Popular

Chicago cab driver Chester Burkholder pulls up to admire one of the new red stop signs that are brightly visible at night, now being installed in various sections of the country. Use of red, the color traditionally associated with "Stop," has been impractical in the past because red-painted signs were not visible enough at night for safety. With the recent development of a reflective red sheeting, visible on a highway from a quarter of a mile away at night because it reflects the light from oncoming cars' headlights, traffic authorities feel they have solved the problem and anticipate a reduction in nighttime intersection accidents as a result.

On all these points of comparison...

Chevrolet's
than ever!

- ... IN NEW AND ADVANCED STYLING—The new long, low, sleek lines of the 1953 Chevrolet set new standards of beauty in the low-price field. Here you will see careful detailing and a richness of appointments always before found only in much costlier cars.
- ... IN HIGH-POWERED PERFORMANCE—The most powerful engine in the low-price field! The entirely new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine in combination with new Powerglide* brings you new high-compression power and a wonderful gain in economy, too. In gearshift models you will find the advanced high-compression 108-h.p. "Thrift-King" engine.
- ... IN SMOOTH, SIMPLE AUTOMATIC DRIVING—Expect faster getaway with Powerglide's new automatic starting and passing range... and new economy, too. Chevrolet's new Power Steering* takes over 80 per cent of the work of steering, makes parking unbelievably easy.
- ... IN ECONOMY AND VALUE—Now, you'll get many more miles out of every gallon of gasoline. You'll save on over-all operation and upkeep, too. Yet Chevrolet remains the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.
- ... IN AMERICA'S FAVOR—Again this year—as in every single postwar year—more people are buying Chevrolets than any other car. In fact, latest official registration figures show that Chevrolet is over 25% ahead of the second-place car. Nearly 2 million more people now drive Chevrolets than any other make.

The thrilling new "Two-Ten" 2-door sedan. With 3 great new series, Chevrolet offers the widest choice of models in its field.

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

One finger turns the wheels... even when the car is standing still!

Now! Power Steering for as low as $134⁴⁰*

Ford brings you the lowest priced power steering in its field... and the finest in power-steering at that!

We all know the advantages of power steering. Most of us would like it. And now many more of us can afford it! By spending testing time and development money, Ford brings you Master-Guide power steering for nearly three quarters the price of any other system in its field. For the facts, read the captions on this page. For a thrill, Test Drive Master-Guide power steering in the Ford!

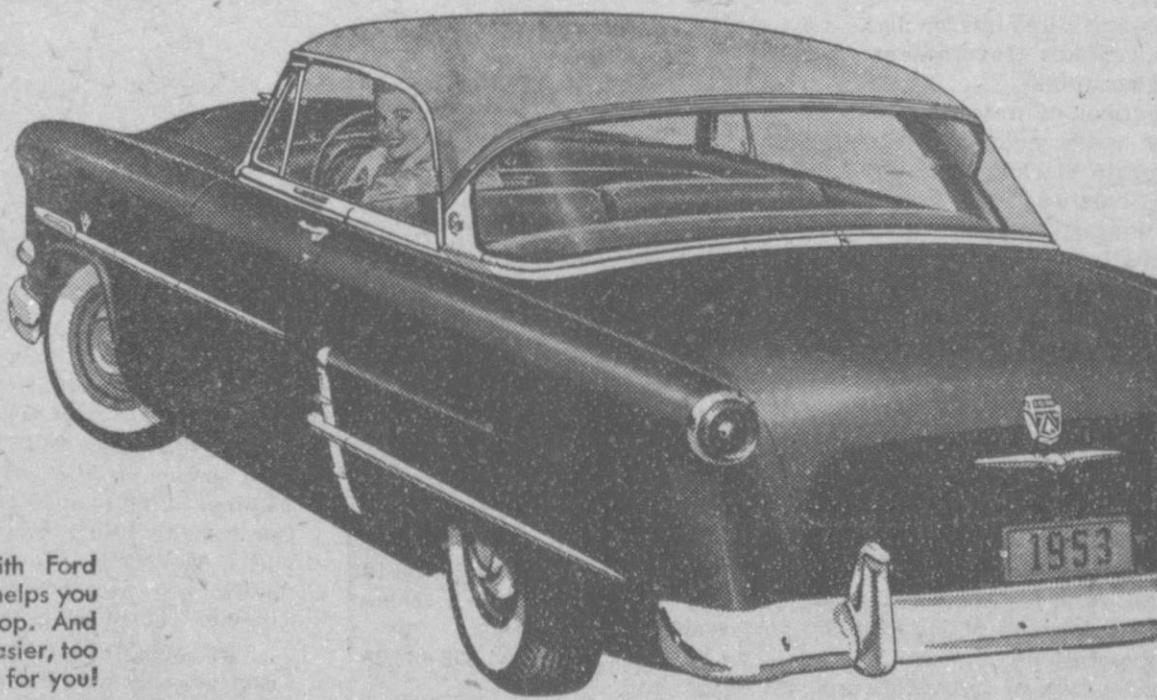

So simple... So safe! Blowouts become less risky with Ford Master-Guide power steering. It helps you steer to a safe straight-line stop. And power steering helps you park easier, too... does up to 75% of the work for you!

No radical change in driving habits! Unlike many other systems, Ford's system gives you much the same "feel" of handling that you get without power steering. Then, too, you always turn the wheel the same amount as you would with regular steering.

*Suggested delivered price.

And, because Ford's Master-Guide power steering has a more natural "feel" than many others, you don't have to change your driving habits radically. The steering gear ratio is the same as without power steering and the hydraulic system gives you the right assistance when you need it.

Worth more when you buy it... Worth more when you sell it!

chop more tonnage with less power... with a McCormick® 20-C Field Harvester

Stop in and we'll show you why you can harvest your forage crops at up to 25 tons per hour with a McCormick 20-C field harvester. See the large, fly-wheel type cutterhead that provides a steady cutting action through the heaviest crops with a minimum of power. We'll be glad to show you all the features that enable the 20-C to harvest the heaviest crops without plugging.

We'll also show you how you can switch from row-crop to hay pick-up harvesting in minutes!

See us about a dual-purpose McCormick 20-C field harvester the next time you're in town.
