MHS Boys Exhibit Stock, Poultry at FFA Project Show

If fairness and common sense can prevail over the influence of machine-politics champions in our national legislature, we may have a different system of electing our president in 1960. Serious thought is being given again to a constitutional amendment which many of us remember as having been originally introduced several years ago by this district's representative, Ed Gossett.

At that time, as now, the proposal was hailed as an urgently needed change to eliminate abuses that have crept into our electoral college system of electing the chief executive.

Two separate plans are now proposed as improvements in our election system, and both have a great deal of merit. One is to divide a state's electoral votes according to the proportion of popular votes. If candidates A, B and C should receive 50, 30 and 20 percent of the votes respectively they will receive those same proportions of the state's electoral votes.

The other proposal provides for selection of electors in the same manner in which a state's representatives and senators are chosen. This would give one electoral vote to each congressional district of the state.

It is further proposed that the legislature of each state, in ratifying the amendment, be permitted to choose which of the two plans it prefers.

On the basis of fairness the first proposal seems more desirable in that it gives the minority party in each state a better representation. In Texas, for instance, it is easily possible that all districts would poll a majority for one party and hence cast all electoral votes for that party, whereas the other system would give the minority party its proportional electoral strength.

However, even the congressional district method of electing offers a definite advantage over the one we have now. Too often nowadays an entire state's strength is swung over by the strength of big city machines which hold the state's balance of power. There are plenty of cases on record of small majorities in several districts being overcome by the stronger majority polled in a big city. In such cases the proposed change would at least respect the majorities polled in separate districts. It is definitely better in that it trims down considerably the power now held by big city bosses. Nevertheless, it still does not spread electoral votes as fairly as the system which divides them according to the popular vote.

The real benefits of an improved election system will reach much farther than just the presidential election, and therein lies its greatest merit. It will eliminate the old political game of pampering the comparative few who can swing a big state while disregarding completely the wishes and welfare of people everywhere else.

Recent Texas history presents a perfect example. The state had long been regarded as in the bag for the Democrats with the result that it was abused by the radical wing of that party and ignored by the Republicans. Until 1952 when a group of courageous statesmen decided they had had their fill of mistreatment Texas voters were only so many political orphans. Unless equally powerful issues are again at stake they will drift back to the same predicament . . . if the present election system continues.

However things can and will be different if the state's minority can have an effect on the national election. There will be fewer national policies for the favored few in one area if protest votes from all over the country show up on the election scoreboard.

It's a safe bet that the segregation issue would not be rushed as it is today if the political radicals knew that their bid for votes in Harlem and other big city colored areas would be swamped by protest votes from the South. Under a proper system of representation we could expect a more gradual and more peaceful solution to the country's race problems. After all, rabble rousing politicians are responsible for our present confusion, but they could not have gone far

Twenty-three Future Farmers of America of the Muenster High school chapter collected more than $200 in cash and ribbons on their livestock and chickens Friday when they exhibited them in the first local FFA project show. The exhibit was an outstanding show from the number of entries — there were 38 — and general interest in spite of a stiff wind that was blowing dust.

Jerry Wimmer showed two top winners. He won first on his entries in the dairy cow exhibit and in the fat steer show. Charles Hallmark showed the champion beef cow.

Jimmy Jack Biffle also annexed two firsts. He showed the champion breeding ewe and fat lamb.

In the swine division Kenny Klement displayed the best Duroc gilt and Walter Fette the best Duroc sow. Johnny Swirczynski had the champion Hampshire gilt and Wylie Corbin the champion Hampshire sow.

In the poultry exhibit Billy Ray Otto showed the best laying hens.

Prize money was taken out of the Cooke County United Fund's appropriation for club-boy and club-girl activity.

H. T. Lester, Era vocational agriculture teacher, judged the entries.

Tigers and Trojans Will Open Baseball Season Here Friday

Father Christopher Paladino's Sacred Heart Tigers will have their season's first taste of baseball competition Friday afternoon at 2 when they take on the Windthorst Trojans in the first of two practice tussles.

The game will be the concluding event in a sort of athletic field day consisting of three contests between students of the two schools. Freshmen and Sophomore girls will start it with a volleyball match at 11 o'clock. Next on schedule Junior and Senior girls will play softball at 12:30. Then the baseball teams will take the field.

While the coaches are together they will decide on the date for the Tigers to go to Windthorst for a return game, possibly also for return games of volleyball and softball.

The SAL district season for the Tigers begins on April 20 when they play their first of a 4-game series with Laneri. Other dates on schedule are April 27 and 29 and May 4. If they happen to be tied after the four games they will have the deciding tussle on May 6.

That series may decide the SAL district title. Father Christopher said that up to now he has had no assurance that Catholic High of Texarkana will have a team. If it has a team the Sacred Heart-Laneri winner will play it for the loop crown and the right to enter the state play-off. Otherwise the Tiger-Mick winner will go directly into the SAL state contest.

Juniors Receive Awards at Banquet

Youngsters of Muenster Public school had their night Tuesday when athletes, band members and pep squad girls of the grades were honored guests at the annual awards banquet in the lunch room. Their parents joined them in attending the event.

Ronnie Kathman presided as master of ceremonies, John Hosea Jr. introduced the guest speaker, Superintendent H. H. Homsley, and Johnny Sue Hogan presented "Prof" a box of his favorite cigars.

Others on the program were Rev. D. S. Pettijohn who gave the invocation, Doug Hellman who extended welcome, M. D. Kaderli who responded in behalf of the parents, and Pat Pettijohn who gave the benediction.

Twenty boy athletes received awards from Coach Weldon Holland. Eleven girl basketballers accepted awards from Mrs. John Hosea who also introduced 15 members of the pep squad.

Recognition and awards went to 24 band honorees including Ronda Gregory who came from Sulphur Springs to attend the party. Director Jim Harris did the honors.

Dr. Wm. Reynolds Of Saint Jo Dies

A sudden heart attack was fatal to Dr. William H. Reynolds, 59, of Saint Jo here at about 12:30 a.m. Saturday. He died at the Muenster Clinic, moments after he arrived and before he had time to receive treatment.

Reynolds, widely known in this area, was a chiropractor in Saint Jo for more than 30 years. At one time he maintained an office here for his Muenster patients.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Daugherty Funeral Home chapel at Saint Jo and burial followed in Mountain Park cemetery.

No near relatives survive.

Awards Banquet Group Hears Talk On Three Other Rs

Three Rs, but not the traditional Readin', Ritin' and Rithmetick, was the topic presented to students and guests at the Muenster High School All-Awards Banquet in the school lunch room last Saturday night.

Dr. T. C. Root, comptroller of SMU, invited those present to consider three other Rs, Respectfulness, Reflectiveness and Resourcefulness, as ways of spending happy and successful lives. Respectfulness he described as a fundamental of correct behavior based on the fourth commandment, on Christ's injunction to love God and neighbor, and on a free society's basic principle of respecting the rights of others.

Concerning reflectiveness he advised thinking issues through to their logical conclusion. By way of example he exposed the folly of the "socialist slogan" "from each according to his ability and to each according to his need." Common sense tells us that scheme doesn't work, he said, because it penalizes one person's efforts while rewarding another's laziness.

Resourcefulness was described as the ability to make the most of every situation. Temporary set-back can lead to success as well as defeats.

Honorees of the event were students who had participated in sports, band and pep squad. Miss Betty Stewart recognized pep squad girls, Director Jim Harris

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

J. C. Trachta was back at his drug store Monday, but taking it easy, after a brief serious illness that sent him to the hospital Friday. Faintness caused him to fall in his place of business at about 2 o'clock. Falling, he struck his head on the edge of a counter inflicting a cut that required 40 stitches to close. A George J. Carroll and Son ambulance took him to Gainesville Sanitarium. He was dismissed Sunday afternoon following treatment, x-rays and observation.

An accident while working in the oil field last Thursday resulted in the loss of the tips of two right hand fingers for Steve Grewing. He was treated without being hospitalized and had skin grafting done this week at Gainesville Sanitarium.

David Spaeth returned Thursday evening from St. Paul's hospital, Dallas, where he underwent eye surgery. He is still sick in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spaeth, south highway 77. David underwent another operation a month ago on his sixth birthday.

8 Muenster Men Will Join KCs at Initiation Sunday

Eight young men of Muenster will be included in the group of candidates admitted into the Knights of Columbus at initiation ceremonies in Gainesville Sunday afternoon.

They are Dan Luke, Ray Voth, Joe Noggler, Edward Grewing, Dan Owen, Frederick Knabe, James Hess and Joe Grewing. Other councils sending candidates to the district initiation are Gainesville, Sherman, Denison and Pilot Point.

First step in the ritual is exemplification of the first degree Thursday night at 8, in the Denison council chamber.

The second degree is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. Sunday in the Gainesville KC hall and the third degree will follow promptly thereafter.

After the initiation knights will be joined by their ladies for a banquet, starting at 7 o'clock, in the community center building. Then the group will return to the Gainesville KC hall for the balance of their social program.

Father Christopher Offers to Organize Junior Baseball

Several factors now under consideration will determine whether Muenster will have a junior league ball team this summer, or perhaps whether it will have a complete junior league.

Father Christopher, who offered to help organize either a team or a league, said Wednesday that his first concern is to find out how many youngsters are interested. If enough show up for one team he will be looking for a sponsor and a manager. If enough show up for four teams he will want four sponsors and four managers.

The subject came up Wednesday when he was invited to enter a team in Gainesville's junior league. He decided that if a limited number applies he will help them get into the circuit. However if a larger number applies he prefers another system in which all can play.

Participation in the junior league is limited to boys of 13 years and younger. All in that age bracket who wish to play are invited to see Father Christopher within the next few days so that he can decide soon whether to organize a team or a league. If it will be a team in the Gainesville junior league it must enter before April 26.

Juniors Will Give Class Play Friday

Juniors of Muenster High are ready to go on the stage with their annual class play and invite everybody to attend this Friday night, April 13, in the school auditorium.

Students are enthused over the three one-act plays they will present in lieu of the customary one play in three acts. This year's show they believe will appeal to a wider audience since they will appear in a comedy, a drama and a mystery.

The drama, "The Lamb in the Window," is the play the school presented for the Interscholastic League meet this year. It was a third place winner. "The Murders of Miriam," a blood-chilling Whodunit is the mystery and "Baker's Dozen," a fast-moving laugh maker is the comedy. Mrs. H. H. Homsley directed rehearsals and is in charge of production.

Muenster Hi Names Top Honor Students

Juanita Wieler will be valedictorian and Norma Klement will be salutatorian at Muenster High School's 1956 commencement services.

The selections, announced this week by Superintendent H. H. Homsley, were determined on the basis of the students' four-year averages up to and including the recently completed six-weeks period. This period had previously been set as the date of decision to allow time for planning the commencement program.

Class leaders and their four-year averages are: Juanita Wieler, 95.68; Norma Klement, 94; Ginger Wolf, 91.59; and Lawrence Milner, 91.47.

Myrick, Fleitman Continue on Board

Twenty-nine persons reporting for the school board election here last Saturday voted unanimously to continue Dr. T. S. Myrick and Albert Fleitman as trustees of the Muenster district. Theirs were the only names on the ballot, and no names were written in by the voters.

The election was held from 7 to 7 last Saturday with Ervin Hamric as election judge.

Other members of the board are Herbert Meurer, Norbert Klement, R. N. Fette, J. J. Wimmer, and B. J. Sicking.

Parochial School Invites Attendance At Gala Book Fair

Bunting will be up, booths will be gaily decorated; there'll be displays and programs, and a miniature circus at the Book Fair Sunday through Thursday in the Sacred Heart grade school auditorium. Everybody's invited.

The Fair will be open April 15 after the 8 and 10 a.m. and the 7 p.m. masses and on weekdays from 2:30 to 3:30 in the afternoon and from 8 to 9 at night.

A special program, a dramatization of story book characters, will be presented Monday afternoon at 2:30. The play is entitled "Books Come to Life." There will be no admission charge.

All students in the grade department are working on displays for this Literature Project. Scenes will "tell the stories" of various religious and general-interest books. The miniature circus will be complete with merry-go-round and ferris wheel, all hand made; there'll be a feudal castle and a forest of trees, all the handiwork of students and their teachers, and a big display on the Kate Seredy works for children along the "midway."

The Fair is arranged to appeal to children, especially pre-school youngsters, and the exhibits will delight them. Parents will be given information on books suitable for their older children to read as well as those they will want to read to the tiny tots.

Visitors may select the books of their choice during the Fair and take them home after the Fair closes. Special books will be ordered on request and delivery will be made in about two weeks, according to Sister Roberta.

ETSTC Dean Talks To School Boards On Trustee Duties

Dr. J. Cullen Sowers, dean of East Texas State Teachers College, speaking to members of the Cooke County Association of School Boards at Myra Tuesday night discussed the limitless scope of education along with the function of school boards in making its benefits available to the children of a community.

He said that a human being begins life as the most helpless and unfinished of all God's creatures but has the potential of developing amazing skills and reasoning powers. That process of development, he explained is education. Some of it is received in the home, some in school and the rest from experience as the individual carries out his mission in life.

Dr. Sowers then pointed out that the second stage of development is the concern of the school board. As representatives of parents in their community the trustees assume responsibility for giving children all possible opportunities for development.

Means by which that end can be achieved were presented in a set of standards for the operation of a school board. It should set policies . . . subject to standards prescribed by the state education headquarters . . . which are marked by harmony, impartiality, resourcefulness, and most prudent use of available funds, then should delegate administrative duties to a capable superintendent or principal.

In a short discussion after his talk Dr. Sowers said that present developments in federal aid to education still do not appear as a serious threat to state and local control. Aid as now proposed is restricted to building and apparently the only control to be expected with it will apply to building specifications.

Bruns Seeks Staff Of Assistants to Help Operate Pool

Efforts to set up a competent staff of instructors and life guards for the coming season at the Muenster swimming pool were begun this week as the pool operator, L. B. Brunns, invited local persons of 16 or over to see him about getting qualified for the job.

Brunns was named the operator at a special meeting of the city council last Friday night. He was instructed to engage his assistants and also to draw up a list of rules and regulations for the council's approval.

The first requirement for getting a job at the pool is to pass Red Cross courses in life saving and instruction, Brunns explained. He suggests that persons interested in life saving jobs see him soon so that he will have time to enroll them in the annual Red Cross life saving and instructing courses at Gainesville in May. The intention is to have guards serve also as instructors.

However other instructors will also be needed if the city is to conduct a Red Cross approved swimming class for the kiddies. For that reason persons who are willing to help as well as those looking for jobs are urged to see Brunns.

Date for the pool opening has not been set, however the council implied it would be open about the same time as other pools of the area.

VFW Post Installs Officers and Hears District Commander

Norbert Mages and Verna Kuhn United In Saturday Rites

Verna Kuhn of Lindsay became the bride of Norbert Mages of Muenster in nuptial services held Saturday at 4 p.m. in St. Peter's church at Lindsay. Rev. Conrad Herda, pastor, officiated at the nuptial high mass and performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kuhn, and the groom is the son of Joe Mages and the late Mrs. Mages.

The couple pledged their vows before an altar adorned with seasonal flowers, greenery and candles. Mrs. William Schmitz, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and was accompanist for St. Cecilia's choir.

Verna entered the church on the arm of her father who escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a frosted white lace and net wedding gown over taffeta. The fitted bodice of lace was finished with a small stand-up collar and petal point sleeves. The full gathered skirt, worn over hoops and crinolines, was appliqued in a random pattern of designs cut from the lace and billowed gracefully to floor length. Her veil of illusion was finger tip length worn with a small pill box hat of white satin. Her flowers, white carnations and candytuft, topped a bride's prayerbook, borrowed from a former classmate, Mrs. Herbert Schmidkofer and she carried a blue rosary belonging to her aunt, Anna Kuhn.

Attendants
Loretta Mages, sister of the groom, and Mary Jane Block, close friend of the bride, attended as maid of honor and bridesmaid. Joan Kuhn, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Willard Hartman of Denton attended his cousin as best man, Melvin Kuhn, cousin of the bride was groomsman, and Gene Kuntz, Garland, and Alfons Koesler Jr. and Rufus Henscheid, Muenster, ushered.

Loretta and Mary Jane wore identical dresses of periwinkle blue starched lace and net over taffeta with matching lace hats and net mitts. Joan's dress, also in periwinkle blue, was of net with starched lace accents. They carried hand bouquets of light blue carnations.

Reception and Dance
The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the Lindsay hall after the church services and 250 relatives and friends were guests for a buffet supper catered by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz. Clara Mae Haverkamp presided at the guest book.

A dance in the Muenster VFW hall concluded the day's festivities and Mr. and Mrs. Mages left on a wedding trip not revealing their destination. When they return they will make their home on East Highway 82, Gainesville, where a new home has been built. For traveling Mrs. Mages wore a navy blue suit with white and navy accessories.

She was graduated from Lindsay High school and has been employed as a bookkeeper for Cliff McMahon in Gainesville. Her husband is a graduate of Sacred Heart High school and served in the Air Force with duty in Korea and Japan. He is employed at National Supply as a machinist.

Paul Walterscheid was in Luling Friday and Saturday at a two-day meeting sponsored by the Texas Butane Dealers Association.

COMMUNISM AND RELIGION

Nothing the Communists are now doing should lead Americans to think that it is their intention to tolerate the Christian religion in the lands they control. Communism itself is based on a scientific explanation of the universe and mankind. One of its fundamental aims is to create a godless world. If it compromised to any extent with the Christian religion it would be inviting the destruction of its whole structure and operation. It won't do that.

Here are statements from official Communist documents published in Moscow in recent years: "As the Party bases its activity on scientific foundation, it is bound to oppose religion." (Page 58, Molodoi Bolshevik) "No (Communist) can believe in God and there can be no compromise on the matter." (Komsomolskaya Pravda, April 1951) "Truth lies in Karl Marx, Engels, Lenin, and Stalin — and nowhere else." (Komsomolskaya Pravda, April 1951) "Have we suppressed the reactionary clergy? Yes, we have. The unfortunate thing is that it has not been completely liquidated." (Page 69, Leninism, International Publishers)

—From An Eye Witness—
 These are the documentations. For those who cannot believe the Reds are genuinely anti-religious, I recommend Lt. Thomas A. Dooley's book "Deliver Us From Evil," (Farrar, Straus and Cudahy, N. Y.) which was published in condensed form in the April Reader's Digest. A young Navy doctor stationed in South Viet Nam when the Communists took North Viet Nam, Lieutenant Dooley organized a makeshift refugee camp and emergency hospital for the wretched Vietnamese who fled the horrible consequences of Red victory in the North. Hundreds of thousands escaped after the Communist took over. Lieutenant Dooley's camp held 12,000 refugees at one time last spring.

In one illuminating section of his shocking story, medical doctor Dooley writes: "As the weeks passed I found myself puzzled not only by the growing number but by the character of Communist atrocities. I was accustomed by now to patching up emaciated men, and women whose breasts had been mutilated, and even little children without fingers or hands. But more and more I was learning that these punishments were linked to the refugees' belief in God."

Halting Prayer

He gives vivid details on the cases of preachers, horribly tortured, who were brought down to his medical station out of Communist Viet Nam under cover of darkness. He gives details of other fiendish anti-religious acts of the Communist. "On (one) gruesome day," he relates, "there came to my hospital tent seven little boys and an emaciated young man who was barely conscious. The children looked like zombies. Thick pus was running from their ears. Two of them still had queer-looking things protruding from their heads, Chopsticks!

"We pieced together the story. The young man was a school teacher. The Communists had caught him leading his class in the Lord's Prayer. They made him repeat it for them, line by line, and made a mockery of the words. (Then) two Viet Minh guards held a child by the arms, and another grasped his head. Then the leader ramed a chopstick deep into each ear, splitting the canal and shattering the inner ear.

True Nature

"When all seven children had been 'treated,' the guards turned to the teacher. They drew forth his tongue with pinchers and sawed it off with a blunt bayonet." In Lieutenant Dooley's improvised hospital, the seven boys and the teacher survived; "One young man who never again would pray aloud, and seven children who would hear the Word of God only in their hearts."

Always Wrong

At another time, the young doctor was summoned to attend a clergyman who had been brought out of Communist Viet Nam on a stretcher by members of his flock. "Lying on a straw mat was an old man moaning in delirium," Lieutenant Dooley relates. "I counted eight swollen and badly infected wounds encircling his skull. In this instance Communist re-education had consisted of tying the priest's hands behind his back and driving eight nails into his skull to simulate the Crown of Thorns."

This is the nature of Communism. Those who accept Communism must accept its evil nature, for Communism and evil (as the Christian world understands it) are interwoven and inseparable. "Our morality," wrote Lenin, "is entirely subordinated to the interests of the class struggle" to conquer the world.

Why They Go Steady

By Roma Rudd Turkel, staff-writer, Information magazine.

BARBARA AND BOBBY, like thousands of America's teenagers, are going steady. They spend a good part of each day together. They visit freely back and forth. They are affectionate and openly so. We can see them holding hands in class, on the street, in church.

Why do youngsters like Barbara and Bobby go steady? Usually we are given this answer: they need a form of guaranteed dating. For girls it solves the problem of whether they will be invited out; for boys it saves expense.

THE REAL REASON however why the Barbaras and Bobbys all over America are going steady is that family life has broken down. The breakneck competition to match the neighbor's car and scale of living, the tapering off of true religion—these have weakened family ties. Our homes are little more than motels.

Youngsters, like all growing things, need a place to strike roots. They need the fierce loyalty, the fun and discipline, the confidences and togetherness of close-knit family life. When this is denied, the girl or boy looks for a substitute. He or she must be a "steady," with a ring, or pin, or class sweater. WE PARENTS must open our eyes. Going steady is dangerous. Our youngsters do themselves great harm socially. Their happiness throughout life will depend on how well they get along with other people.

During the "teen" years children should be meeting many people, developing poise, learning self-expression, formulating their own opinions. Their growth is stunted when they put themselves "out of circulation." They lessen their chances of making a wise choice of a marriage partner.

GOING STEADY—one boy with one girl, to the exclusion of everybody else—is an occasion of sin. It encourages liberties not permitted under God's law. It is an unwholesome focusing on sex, that can warp a young personality, ruin a young soul.

How can we take the loneliness away from our children which makes them want to go steady? We must steep ourselves so in our children's interests that they will be our interests too. We must give them our confidence, if we wish theirs.

NEXT TIME we sweep and scrub and put our homes in order, let's remember that apple order is not as important as Christian order: God's authority first, from which flows parental authority, to which every child is subject. If we can make our homes the steady, secure places they were meant to be, our children won't have to do their growing-up outside.

Norma Vogel, bride-elect of Donald Muller, was complimented with a miscellaneous gift party Sunday afternoon when a quartet of hostesses entertained in the Matt Muller home from 2 to 5.

Sharing hostess duties were Mrs. Robert Beyer, Mrs. Clifford Otto, Mrs. Norbert Knabe and Mrs. George Gehrig. They were assisted by Mrs. Julian Walterscheid who directed paper and pencil games.

Iris and tulips were used in decorations in the party rooms and a doll bride centered the gift table.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served to 23 guests. Seven who were unable to attend sent gifts.

Norma and Donald will be married here Saturday afternoon during a nuptial mass at four o'clock.

SH Alumni Plans Trap Shoot, Dance

A regular meeting of the Sacred Heart Alumni Association last Wednesday night revealed plans for a benefit trap shoot and a benefit dance.

Neither event is definitely decided, but tentative date for the shoot is Sunday, April 29, in the afternoon. It will be held at the parish park and eats and drinks will be available. Henry Yosten is chairman in charge of details.

The dance committee is headed by Melvin Herr and Alvin Hartman and they will announce plans when they are complete.

It was emphasized that everybody is welcome at these events, the proceeds of which help retire the debt on the high school commercial room's equipment. This is the alumni's chief project for 1956.

Teddy Gremminger, president, conducted the meeting in the presence of Father Christopher Paladino and Sisters Leonarda and Patricia. Father Christopher led the opening and closing prayer.

After adjournment, entertainment featured volley ball games in the gym and the group returned to the homemaking department for refreshments served by Mrs. Nick Dieter and Mrs. Jim Hermes, hostesses for the evening. Forty were present.

Carol Voth, Veronica Koelzer and Irma Starke were appointed to be in charge of next month's meeting and program.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fletcher and two daughters of Mineral Wells were Sunday visitors with his parents, the J. W. Fletchers.

Color in Flower Arrangement, Topic At Garden Meeting

An illustrated talk on "Color in Flower Arrangement" by Mrs. Joe Luke highlighted the monthly meeting of the Muenster Civic League and Garden Club Monday night when members met in the new home of Mrs. L. B. Bruns with Mrs. Richard Cain as co-hostess.

Mrs. Luke demonstrated with live arrangements as she talked on her subject, illustrated with pictures, and showed colored slides she had taken of outstanding arrangements.

She concluded with showing slides of the Camelia Show she attended in Shreveport and scenes of the trip she and her husband took at the time.

Twenty-one members answered roll call by naming their favorite flower arrangement, and two guests Mrs. Carl Mullins and Mrs. Paul Endres were present.

During the business session Mrs. Tony Gremminger, president, presided and committee chairmen gave reports. The annual flower show was discussed but a definite date was not set.

Principal discussion concerned sodding and landscaping at the swimming pool. This is one of the club's major projects at this time and four members accepted appointment on a special committee for this work. They are Mmes. T. S. Myrick, Lee Toothaker, Walter Rawley and Steve Mosler. They plan to do the sodding as soon as ground leveling work is finished.

Mrs. Edd McGannon and Mrs. Arnold Rohmer reported on Leonard's flower show they attended in Fort Worth, and Mrs. Myrick and Mrs. Luke told about the annual District II convention they attended in Fort Worth on March 20. Two invitations were read. One invites the club to be present at the state convention in Austin on April 24, 25 and 26, the other to attend the Garden Pilgrimage in Fort Worth on April 20.

The group enjoyed an inspection tour of the Bruns' new home and refreshments of cake and coffee.

Corina Vogel spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vogel. She came here from Fort Worth with Norma Vogel and Donald Muller who will be married Saturday and are on two-week vacations from their jobs in Fort Worth.

TV Show Promotion Wins NCCM Award For Diocesan Unit

The Press, Radio and TV Committee of the Dallas-Fort Worth Council of Catholic Men has been named winner of the national Catholic Action award for 1956 by the NCCM. A report of the award was received this week by Joe Walter, chairman of the Press, Radio and TV committee of the Sherman Deanery unit of NCCM.

The award, given each year by "Catholic Men" monthly publication of NCCM, singles out for national recognition some particularly effective work of Catholic laymen for the Church. The project recognized by this award was the promotion last fall and winter of a 13-weeks TV series, "We Believe," over Dallas and Wichita Falls stations. Viewer response from the area covered by the two stations was said to be several times greater than that received by any of the other 60-odd stations which have used the series to date.

At Muenster Anthony Luke, chairman of Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Good Will Committee mailed letters inviting friends of all faiths to see the programs. In other cities of the diocese newspaper ads were used to promote the series.

Rev. James J. McQuade, speaker on the series used unique visual aids to explain abstract religious principles and Catholic beliefs. Of especial interest were his presentations of Catholic belief concerning the Bible and the relation of Church and State.

Awards Banquet

recognized band members and Coaches Lawrence Saye and John Hosea recognized members of the boys and girls teams. In addition Mrs. H. H. Homsley and Glenn Hellman made special awards to Norma Klement and Jimmy Jack Biffle for achievements in homemaking and vocational agriculture. Queenie Homsley listed people of the community who had rendered special service to the school during the past year.

The program, with Dickie Cain as master of ceremonies, opened with invocation by Rev. D. S. Pettijohn and closed with benediction by Father Christopher Paladino. Jimmy Jack Biffle extended the students' welcome and Mrs. M. D. Kaderli, PTA president elect, responded for the guests.

Hear! Hear!

Still air of the Great Dismal Swamp, Va., acts as an amazing acoustic device. A shout can be heard as many as twelve miles away!

Confetti

without their present wedge in elections.

The same principle applies to other issues. The tidelands steal would never have come up if Washington politicians had been confronted with thousands of Texas protest votes. Many policies espoused by the radical wing of the Democratic party would never have come to light if the protest votes of conservative Democrats had been felt in elections.

In the long run the change of the election system probably will not have much effect on the outcome of presidential elections. As a rule the winner receives the popular majority anyway. But it promises a wholesome improvement in political policy. Things will be different when politicians quit abusing millions of voters for the benefit of the comparative few who hold a state's balance of power.
