

MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME XX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS,

MAY 18, 1956

NUMBER 26

A gratifying symbol of progress is the formal opening this week of Andy Hofbauer's new deluxe food store. For the community as a whole it might very well be regarded as another milestone in the steady development which has become so common place as to be generally taken for granted.

The fanfare that Andy has planned to introduce his new store to the public has a definite value to the community as well as to himself. Most of us will get a nice measure of satisfaction from the thought that this very worthy object of community pride has helped to make living a little more pleasant at Muenster. We'll have a feeling that we too are in line for the congratulations of that day. The store is an achievement to Andy, an attainment to the rest of us. Combining beauty, comfort, convenience and abundant selection, it is his to operate and ours to enjoy.

There is more satisfaction in the thought that more such community attainments will be coming our way soon. The Electric Co-op is not far from its formal opening. Tony Luke's and J. M. Weinzapfel's new buildings will follow in a few months. All are fine community assets. All will be a source of enjoyment to us as well as a source of pride to the owners.

Still another big community attainment is the notable improvement in municipal recreation. The swimming pool, completed in time for only mere sampling last year, is available for real use this year. At the same time the beginning of park work makes that place more desirable than ever before for spending leisure hours, and it will get more desirable as more of present plans are put on the ground.

There's considerably more to be told in Muenster's progress report. Construction on new homes continues at a steady pace. The city is expanding waterworks and sewer facilities to accommodate more and more homes. Another city project now under way is preparing for the state highway's construction of a four-lane drive into town. And additional residential paving is in the plan.

We of this community have reason to be cheery about the way we're getting along. Most of all we can be proud that all of our progress is founded on good solid development rather than boom conditions that may crumble at any time and knock the props out from under an area's economy. The Muenster of today simply grew from the industry and thrift of yester-years. Local talent and local investment accounts for well over ninety per cent of the community's achievement, both in town and in the farming area.

With such a solid past, we can't but have wonderful prospects for the future, provided, of course, that we will continue in the same spirit and not permit complacency to spoil the trend that has been in motion for decades. Continued effort and ingenuity in soil saving and improving will keep farming on a paying basis. The same qualities will keep oil fields active, and will also sustain the town folks who serve farmers and oil men.

The symbol of progress that we observe this week becomes all the more gratifying as we consider that many of us had a part in its making, and that the qualities we applied can lead to many more worth while achievements.

7 Bands Contract For VFW Dances

A contract with the National Orchestra Service of Omaha, Neb., assures a variety of music for the VFW club dances during the next several months. Herbert Yosten of the dance committee disclosed this week that seven high rating dance bands have been booked on a contract that extends to November.

First to appear on the contract is Bob Calame, composer of "Bubbles in the Wine," the theme song on Lawrence Welk's popular TV show. His band, popular in the Midwest for many years, will play at the VFW ballroom next Thursday night, May 24.

The next date on the contract is June 7.

COLOR, BRIGHTNESS, ABUNDANT SPACE AND YEAR-ROUND AIR CONDITIONING feature the interior of Hofbauer's Food and Locker Service, which will have its big grand opening Friday and Saturday of this week.

Hofbauer Plans Gala Event for Formal Opening of New Food Store This Weekend

Big doings, including free carousel rides for the kiddies, free coffee and soft drinks, and prizes galore will feature the grand opening of Hofbauer's Food and Locker Service this weekend.

The event will get under way Friday with a special opening sale along with registrations for prizes which will be given away the next day. Saturday's schedule includes continued registrations, free rides, free drinks, free Dixie Cups, 5 cent hot dogs, and the prizes.

In the give-away category is a list of prizes in a guessing contest sponsored by Folgers, another list of attendance prizes given by the store, and twenty four bags of groceries provided mostly by wholesalers who are joining in the grand opening. With more salesmen adding items daily each bag is growing to considerable size. Lucky winners will be the persons who happen to be at the right place when an alarm clock sounds off.

Some of the bags will be given on Friday. In addition, the store will give a souvenir to each customer.

The new store, a successor to the Farmer's Store, has been in operation since April 25. Its formal opening was postponed, however, until store personnel had time to complete installations, overcome the confusion of moving and get the stock organized.

The store is more than twice as large as the old location. It has over 4,000 square feet of floor space as compared with 1,800 in the other. The added space, combined with improved arrangement and design of racks, accommodates more than three times the volume of groceries previously carried.

Most of that additional space is taken up by larger stocks of staples. The rest is used for added varieties and a line of light hardware, which was not stocked in the old store.

The interior of the store emphasizes the modern trend to brightness and color. Four double rows of fluorescent tubes the length of the building give daylight brightness throughout. The four main walls have separate colors of pink, light green, gray and white and an offset for the meat department is painted yellow. The asphalt tile floor is green and buff. A combined heating and cooling system provides year-round comfort.

Like the rest of the store, the meat and food locker departments were designed for convenience and space. The meat cutting and packaging area behind the meat counter has a storage vault at one side and a quick-freeze vault at the other. The locker vault opens to the grocery department.

Construction of the building, which began late last October, was done mostly by local workers under supervision of Andy Schoech. Special jobs, such as plumbing, electrical work, refrigeration, glass work, etc., were turned over to contractors.

.99 Rain is Late For Grain; Dandy For Other Crops

Crops of Muenster got another timely assist Monday night in a rain that averaged about an inch over the greater part of the community. The reading on Steve Moster's official weather gauge was .99 inch.

The moisture came in spasmodic showers, which were especially welcome after the area had been alerted for possible hail and tornadoes.

Row crops, pastures and hay were helped most by the rain, and late grain crops can use it to develop kernels. In many cases, however, it came too late. Many fields are already being cut for baling.

The local moisture measure now stands at 2.46 for the month and 7.79 for the year.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Going with him, to return to their home in San Pedro, Calif., were his sister, Mrs. Alene Trani and little daughter Lynda. They had been visiting her parents and other relatives in Texas.

Baccalaureate at MHS Set for Sunday

Rev. D. S. Pettijohn, pastor of the Muenster Baptist church will be the speaker at Muenster High School baccalaureate exercises in the auditorium Sunday night at 8:15 o'clock.

Others joining the class for the program are Father Christopher Paladino, giving the invocation and benediction, and the Sacred Heart choir in vocal numbers. Margaret Milner will play the processional and recessional.

16 Start Red Cross Swimming Course

Twenty-one persons, 16 of them from Muenster, signed up Monday for the first session of the Red Cross Life Saving course at Gainesville and had their first instructions at that city's Municipal pool.

Mrs. Paul Yarbrough and David West were instructors for the first class devoted mostly to conditioning drills. Classes for this week begin at 4 o'clock each afternoon.

Swimmers from Muenster enrolled in the class are Lawrence Saye, Dan Hamric, Sonny Walterscheid, Tim Mosman, Johnny Fette, Jimmy Harris, Dee Kaderli, Jean Wieler, Ruthie Endres, Gretchen Hellman, Juanita Wieler, Lou Rena Wolf, Helen Fisher, Pat Cain, Emma Fisher and Mrs. M. D. Kaderli.

The success of Muenster students in the swimming class will have a definite bearing on the city's swimming program this summer. Persons who pass the courses not only qualify to serve as life guards but also enable the pool to qualify for a Red Cross approved beginners' class. Red Cross will supervise if the city provides the instructors.

Work Proceeds on Landscaping and Driveway in Park

When the swimming season arrives a driveway and parking lot will be ready to accommodate the traffic. City Manager Steve Moster disclosed Wednesday that the gravel is there and the city's maintainer is on the job of shaping it into a smooth surface. Both the driveway and the lot should be finished before the end of the week.

The drive serves as more than just an approach to the swimming pool. Entering a short distance north of the old entrance, it goes past the pool and makes a loop into the picnic area. It will be 22 feet wide and at the parking area will spread to a width of about 50 feet. The lot will accommodate about thirty cars and more parking space will be available along the curb.

Landscaping work at the park is also in progress. City workers have finished installing pipe for the watering system and expect to start sodding bermuda in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck have as guests for about two weeks her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Weber of Cincinnati, Ohio. They arrived Saturday. Sunday other family members joined the visitors at the Hoedebeck home for a Mothers Day observance. Present were Cletus Hoedebeck of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hoedebeck and son Bobby Gene of Ada, Okla. Also the Gene Hoedebeck family and the Clem Reiters. Mrs. Cletus Hoedebeck was ill in a Dallas hospital and could not accompany her husband on the trip.

John Luke Dies at Ft. Worth; Funeral Will be Held Here

John M. Luke, 69, member of a pioneer Muenster family and long-time resident here died Wednesday night in Fort Worth. He had been suffering from a heart condition.

Arrangements are being made to have funeral services here but further details were not available when word of his death reached relatives here Thursday morning.

Soil Conservation Champs Honored At Annual Banquet

Conservation farmers in general and the 1955 district champions in particular were honored at Denison last Thursday night in the seventh annual awards banquet sponsored by banks, newspapers and radio stations of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District.

The program, held in the Denison High gymnasium, was attended by about 600 farmers and business people who are practicing and promoting soil conservation.

Five farmers, selected for the best conservation job in their respective zones during the past year, received $50 cash awards. They were B. Duncan of Bowie, C. W. Chandler of Ringgold, Wilfred Reiter of Muenster, John Kupper of Valley View and Charlie Noland of Whitesboro.

Other awards went to the best conservation group, the best come-back farmer and the best (Continued on Page 13)

Mayor Endres Gets First Buddy Poppy In 1956 Campaign

It was springtime in the City Hall Monday when Mayor Urban Endres received the first Veterans of Foreign Wars Buddy Poppy, officially opening the 1956 Buddy Poppy campaign here. Mrs. Steve Moster and Mrs. M. H. King, members of the VFW Auxiliary, sponsor of the drive made the presentation.

In accepting the bright blossom the Mayor expressed pleasure at being the first person in Muenster to receive the significant red flower. He commended the Ladies Auxiliary on its plans and efforts to push the sales of poppies here, recalling that over the years the Buddy Poppy has become the symbol of all those men who fought so valiantly during this nation's hour of need.

"When Buddy Poppies go on sale here May 26, I hope every citizen will pay homage to our needy and disabled veterans by contributing generously. Only in this way will the VFW and its Auxiliary be able to carry on the great work they are doing," the Mayor said.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. Orville Malone of Fort Worth underwent major surgery Monday morning in that city at St. Joseph's Hospital. Spending that day with her were her mother, Mrs. Katie Roberg and Mrs. Jerome Pagel, Mrs. Louis Roberg and Carrie Roberg. The latter remained to spend a week with her sister and family. Getwell wishes will reach Mrs. Malone if addressed to her home, 7444, Ewing, Fort Worth 7. She expects to be dismissed from the hospital Sunday. While at the hospital Monday the local group enjoyed a brief visit with Dr. Monte Hellman and Nurse Anna Grace Fette.

Plans and preparations for the big event have been under way for the past several weeks, and today committee chairmen reported everything in readiness to show the scores of delegates two days crowded with activities and events.

Principal speaker will be J. W. Cole, state senior vice commander of Austin. He will address the two groups at the noon banquet Sunday in the public school lunch room. Registrations begin at 4 p.m. Saturday and the principal social event, a dance, is on the program for Saturday night.

District officers of the VFW will have a breakfast in the Ace Cafe and the Auxiliary will entertain visiting ladies with a coffee in the Main Cafe. Closed meetings of both groups will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:15 and a social hour with lunch will begin at 4:30 to conclude the convention program.

Included in the district are Gainesville, McKinney, Sherman, Denison, Greenville, Muenster, Honey Grove, Commerce and Denton.

Final Service for Father Felderhoff Held Here May 12

The Most Rev. Bishop Augustine Danglemyr of Dallas officiated at final rites here Saturday morning for Rev. Henry Felderhoff, a native of Muenster and pastor of St. Patrick's church in Denison at the time of his death.

Requiem mass was held in Sacred Heart church at 10 a.m. with Rev. Thomas Weinzapfel and Rev. Joseph Weinzapfel assisting His Excellency. Rev. Louis Deuster, pastor, delivered the funeral sermon and Nick Miller was in charge of funeral arrangements. Burial was in Sacred Heart cemetery.

Bearers were six of the deceased's nephews: Norbert, A. J., Frank, and Arthur Felderhoff and Leo and Bernard Sicking. Father Felderhoff, 56, died at about 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 8, in a Denison hospital following two weeks of illness resulting from a heart attack and complications of pneumonia.

About 30 members of the clergy including two monsignori, the Very Rev. Anthony Daly of Wichita Falls and the Rt. Rev. Wm. M. Robinson of Dallas, nuns from Lindsay, Gainesville, Jonesboro, Ark., Fort Worth and Denison were among those here to pay their last respects to Father Felderhoff.

The body lay in state in Sacred Heart church for some 20 hours after being brought here from Denison where Friday morning solemn requiem mass was held in St. Patrick's church. The Very Rev. John Duesman of Sherman was celebrant of that mass in the presence of the Most Rev. Bishop Thomas K. Gorman of Dallas.

While the body was here the local Knights of Columbus served as an honor guard during the afternoon and night. At the requiem mass Fourth Degree Knights in full regalia formed an honor guard and Boy Scouts of (Continued on Page 13)

Commencement exercises for 15 members of the Muenster Public school's eighth grade graduating class will be held Thursday night, May 24, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. There are five girls and ten boys in the class.

Entitled "The Flame of Education," the play brings before the audience the various mental, physical and spiritual values of learning. Each character of education is represented by a member of the class carrying a candle. The 15 candles, after being placed on the stage, are fused into one big flame — the flame of education.

Honor students will present their addresses. They are John Hosea Jr., valedictorian, with an average of 91.58, and Douglas Hellman, salutatorian, with an average of 90.58. Pat Pettijohn, with one point less, is in third place. She will portray the spirit of education, principal role in the class play. Virginia Kirk will give the invocation and Jimmy Sicking, the benediction.

Others in the class are Ferd Haverkamp, Bobby Yosten, Sue Hogan, Charles Wimmer, Ronnie Kathman, Linda Hammer, Ruby Hester, Melvin Wilde, Sheldon Lutkenhaus and Roger Fleitman.

Margaret Milner will play the professional and recessional and will furnish the background music. The public is invited to attend.

“THE FANTASTIC FARM MESS”

“The Fantastic Farm Mess” is the eye-catching title of an article by John Strohm in the April issue of The Reader's Digest. Mr. Strohm, who is a writer of long experience on agricultural subjects and a past president of the American Agricultural Editors' Association, describes the present situation in these words: “In a costly but futile attempt to support farm prices near the levels guaranteed to farmers during World War II, the U. S. Government has succeeded only in amassing an eighteen-billion-dollar hoard of food and fiber which can't be eaten, used, sold or given away. And as surpluses have skyrocketed, farm prices have to boggled. It's a grim example of what Government can do to you while trying to do something for you.”

The farmers aren't to blame, in

Mr. Strohm's view — they were led into the mess by government policies and they should have help getting out. A basic trouble is that so many false ideas about the farm program are now widely accepted as gospel. Mr. Strohm deals in a very direct and unequivocal fashion with some of these ideas — and here, in substance, is what he has to say.

One is that price supports rescued farmers from the depression. That's false — farm prices didn't start moving up until 1940, when the impact of war and inflation set in.

Another is that simple farm law can solve the problem. False again — for different kinds of farmers, in different places, all have different problems. Says Mr. Strohm: “Trying to write a ‘farm law’ to solve the ‘farm problem’ is a silly as treating all the sick with one health serum.”

Still another is that high fixed farm prices mean high income. Also false — for the reason that volume of sales is a determining income factor as well as prices. Mr. Strohm observes: “You don't put more money in a farmer's pocket by boosting his price per bushel if you also cut his acreage. And any price-support program to be effective must include acreage controls.”

Also, it is reasoned that government can restrict production by restricting acreage. The factual record over the years refutes that. The reason: “Farmers are not dummies. They take their poorest land out of production, fertilize heavily on the remainder, aim to grow more on less.”

Mr. Strohm discusses many of the things that are wrong with farm legislation — including the fact that it is geared to the past. For example, our eating habits as a nation have changed. We eat far less starchy foods and far more meat and dairy products, among other things, than we used to. Our per capita wheat consumption has dropped drastically — but the support laws encourage maximum wheat production.

Finally, Mr. Strohm has praise for President Eisenhower's program, which includes vigorous efforts to increase overseas sale of surpluses; encouragement to farmers to produce for consumption instead of storage; the soil bank; more research designed to develop both new crops and new uses for old crops, and fewer controls, with government cooperating, not dictating. “This,” Mr. Strohm says, “is a sound program for the farmer, and a fair one for the taxpayer. But it will take statesmanship of the highest order to resist the temptation to try to unravel the farm problem on the basis of political expediency.”

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Doc Nurses a Daydream

It's a treat when I get together with Doc Sherman. The Clarion keeps me much too busy—and Doc, well I think he puts in sixteen hours a day at the hospital. But Tuesday—a beautiful day—he and I slipped away for a ride around Turtle Lake. Doc's driving a 1956 humdinger—it's like riding on a cloud.

Anyway, at one point Doc slowed almost to a halt. “Used to fish there as a boy, Joe,” he said. “Used to sit and imagine myself up on the highway driving a high-powered car. Nowadays, I just sit here and wish I were down there again.”

From where I sit, few of us are ever content with the way things are at any given moment. It's human nature. On the other hand, I've been rooting for years that someday everybody will show enough good American tolerance to respect his neighbor's right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer. When that day comes I assure you that I'll never want to change back.

Welcoming Relatives Adds to the Joy of Mothers Day Sunday

Mothers all over the nation, Sunday had their day with festive dinners and gifts for the occasion, family reunions and special get-togethers. Increasing the joy of the day's observance for many families was the welcoming home of loved ones from other parts of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lehnertz had as guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Shively and children Willie and Kathy of Ottumwa, Iowa, who brought with them the Lehnertz' youngest son, Sailor Claude Lehnertz, on his first leave since completing boot training in Illinois. Brownies and Girl Scouts Planning to Attend Camp Myers Brownies and Girl Scouts of the Muenster troops — about 30 of them — are looking forward to two weeks of day camp, the last week in June and the first week in July. They'll spend their time at beautiful Camp Myers, southeast of Gainesville.

Mrs. Walter Rawley last week attended a two-day leadership course at the camp and is one who will accompany the girls on the daily trips to and from summer camp. She sends out an appeal for more helpers — preferably mothers who have youngsters in the troops — and senior high school girls to assist with daily details. Transportation will be furnished but the children will need supervisors.

The day opens at camp at about 8 a.m. and closes at 3 p.m. More than 200 other Brownies and Girl Scouts of the area will also be there.

Mothers who would like to contribute their services but feel unable to do so on account of having small children to care for, can put that worry aside, Mrs. Rawley said. The Cross Timbers Council provides the services of one baby sitter throughout the camping period. All the babies will be taken care of in one home here by a local sitter. At this time the baby sitting job is open and those interested are asked to get details from Mrs. Rawley.

BULK MILK COOLER
 The Bulk Cooler that's 10 Years Ahead

ELIMINATES MILK CANS AND CAN HANDLING

In a wide variety of sizes from 100 to 700-gallon capacities.

Dari-Kool cools faster because it has a larger cooling surface than any other cooler. The milk cannot freeze because the coolant is ice water. Dari-Kool units are complete—ready to operate—nothing else to buy or install. All tanks are stainless steel inside and out. Get the cooler that leads in sales—leads in value—leads in performance!

Cuts Work and Handling Costs Improves Milk Quality—

DARI-KOOL MEETS ALL 3-A SANITARY STANDARDS

- ... Cools Faster
- ... Easier Cleaning
- ... Ready to Operate
- ... Complete Service Available
- ... Milk Cannot Freeze
- ... Stainless Steel Tank
- ... Lower Bacteria Count

The DARI-KOOL will pay for itself in use. HERE'S HOW...

The cost of hauling milk in cans is 40 cents per 100 pounds as compared with 25 cents per 100 pounds for hauling tank milk, thus a saving of 15 cents per hundred.

Elimination of wastage of milk spilled or left in the can at the plant is 7 cents per 100 pounds.

Improved butterfat test gained by selling all the cream instead of leaving some of it sticking to the can and lid account for another 6 cents per hundred.

THIS GIVES A TOTAL SAVING OF 28 CENTS FOR EACH 100 POUNDS OF MILK HANDLED. THIS 28-CENT A HUNDRED SAVING WILL PAY FOR YOUR DARI-KOOL.

A producer with an average of 10 cans of milk (86 pounds each) a day will sell 25,800 pounds per month. At 28 cents per hundred saving, he will be ahead by $72.24 each month.

The approximate cost of a 250-gallon tank installed is $2,400 with interest of $216 for a total of $2,616. This can be divided into 36 monthly installments of $72.11 each. THUS YOUR SAVINGS MAKE YOUR PAYMENTS FOR YOU. This estimate is without down payment or trade-in, which would cut the principal and monthly payment substantially.

IN THE NAME OF GOD

In broad perspective, the special vocation of rural people may be thus expressed: Not only farmers but also other trades and professions in rural areas are by their labor, collaborators with God in nourishing the world. Companion workers with God, they have, more than others, opportunity for contemplation. Nourishing the world, THEIR VOCATION IS ONE OF SERVICE TO MEN, IN THE NAME OF GOD. Fisher and Knabe
Herds Among High
Producers in DHIA

Dairy herds belonging to Paul Fisher and John Knabe were among top producers of butterfat in the DHIA for April according to a report released by Carl Kemplin and Bob Fuhrmann, supervisors.

Fisher's herd was second only to J. L. Masten's cows who led county production in both butterfat and milk for the month. Averages show the top herd with a butterfat total of 49 pounds and a milk average of 1350 pounds.

The Fisher cows ran up a total of 45 pounds of butterfat and Knabe's were tied with Pete Prescher's for a total of 42 pounds.

Statistics show that 726 cows in 24 herds in the association were tested during April and that 177 produced 45 or more pounds of butterfat. Average butterfat production was 35 pounds per cow and average milk production was 726 pounds.

Other local herds with good averages include those of Martin Bayer, Alfred Bayer, Leo Hesse, J. W. Fleitman, Ben Sicking, Joe Fisher, Paul Fetsch, and C. A. Fisher.

State DHIA reports for March reveal that Cooke county again led in butterfat production among Texas associations with a 35-pound average. The county was second in milk production averages with 870 pounds.

Seen only on higher priced cars and Chevrolet

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

The significance of this emblem cannot be tested on the showroom floor. Its meaning was not built up in a day but only after long years in which owners learned that "Body by Fisher" was a veritable symbol of solid, enduring satisfaction.

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the deep sense of satisfaction this emblem pledges. It is the warranty of an inner soundness that your eye or your touch cannot test. And only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."

The Essentials of Good Citizenship

(Beatrice Zimmerer, senior at Sacred Heart High, winner of first place in a recent essay contest conducted by the Gainesville Kiwanis Club, won top honors and a scholarship on the following essay:)

"Breathes there the man with soul so dead, Who never to himself has said: 'This is my own, my native land!'"

Probably you cheer loudly when the stars and stripes are raised and if called upon you would give your life for your country. But are you living your life as a good citizen?

Citizenship is not an underling's job, but a challenge to the best that is in every man. A good citizen votes, attends meetings, and serves on committees. He makes speeches and writes letters to the newspapers if he wishes. If he is qualified, he should serve in public office. In short, a citizen is public-spirited and active, whereas the "parasite" is interested and active only for his own welfare.

To be responsible, a man must have knowledge. He must understand how democracy works and how it can be improved. Democracy needs every bit of his knowledge. He can prepare for citizenship by securing an education. He must keep up with current events through reading and listening all his life. A good citizen pays his share of taxes, whether on property, on income, or on goods he buys. He realizes that taxes are low costs, indeed, for the services democracy furnishes him.

Finally, a good citizen must respect the rights of other citizens. We can have freedom of action only so long as our actions do not endanger the life and property of other people. Reckless driving and reckless talking are both undemocratic, for both may be harmful to other people.

The good citizen is interested in life about him. He knows something about the political, social, economic, and religious life of the Nation of which he is a part. He participates in worthy activities and becomes identified with those forces which make the Nation. Thus, he becomes a worthy part of it.

But there is another great qualification which he should possess if he is to be a citizen of the finest type; that is, a good character, which is the very foundation of good citizenship. A good character must grow from within one's self. The home, the school, and the church must all help to start its growth in the young citizen. And as the young citizen grows up, he must himself cultivate good character, so that it will continue to grow and develop. A good character is the sum total of such qualities as honesty, truthfulness, kindness, courtesy, charity, sympathy, self-control, trustworthiness, loyalty, and cleanliness. These qualities cannot be acquired in a day; nor can they be absorbed from books. They come from the development of one's spiritual nature.

Americans now make their pledge of allegiance "under God." A citizen is born first into a family. He is responsible to his parents who teach him to honor and obey as the highest Authority. He obeys God's Commandments. He does God's will. He honors God as his Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. Thus honoring God, he loves his neighbor as himself; thus loving his neighbor, he works for his neighbor's good as well as his own. And so, he is a good citizen. As Polonius advises Laertes in HAMLET: "To thine own self be true, and it follows as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man."

So a good citizen is first, a God-fearing man; then he is a neighbor-loving man, and finally, he is a patriotic man.

Girl Scouts Help Bring Palsy Fund To Total of $33

The cerebral palsy fund was enriched by $33.50 collected here during the national campaign. Mrs. M. H. King, chairman for the VFW Auxiliary, sponsor, reported the total Saturday night after the drive closed.

More than half the amount was collected through the efforts of members of the local Girl Scout troop who conducted a two-hour soliciting campaign Saturday afternoon on city streets to swell the local purse. The rest was collected through the special coin banks in business houses.

A check for the total has been mailed to the president of United Cerebral Palsy Association of Texas, Inc., at Dallas.

In 1955, 2,158,000 persons were injured in motor vehicle accidents.

the local troop attended in uniform.

Continuous rosary services were held from 1:30 Friday afternoon until nine at night. These included services by the school children and six parish societies.

Father Felderhoff was born in Muenster on Dec. 6, 1899, a son of Henry and Christina Felderhoff, pioneer citizens of the community. After attending Sacred Heart school he began his studies for the priesthood at Subiaco Abbey, Ark., in 1915, finished at Kendrick Seminary in Saint Louis, was ordained in Dallas and said his first solemn mass here in May 1927. He was this parish's second native son to become a priest.

During his ministry he served as assistant pastor at Dallas and Fort Worth, as pastor in Handley, Abilene, Cleburne and Denison. While in Abilene he was dean of his district. He was assigned to the Denison parish in 1952.

Survivors are two brothers, Hubert and Tony of Muenster, and four sisters, Mrs. Ben Sicking of Muenster and Sisters Amora, Lutgardis and Mildred, Benedictine nuns of Jonesboro, Ark.

Mrs. John Mosman is New Grand Regent Of Local CDA Court

landlord-tenant team of the district.

The Fisher Group of Muenster received $50 for the best neighborhood conservation job. It includes Joe Fisher Sr., Charles Fisher, Pat Fisher, Paul Fisher, Clyde Fisher and Henry Pick.

John Cunningham of Gainesville was selected as the top come-back farmer for his outstanding job of converting a desolate farm into a garden spot. He concentrated on Coastal Bermuda which has paid off well in grazing and hay besides a good income from the sale of bermuda sprigs. He also received a $50 award.

Mrs. Martha Fortner of Sweetwater and C. B. Robison of Whitewright received awards for the best landlord-tenant cooperative conservation job in the district. She received a plaque and he a $25 award.

Jerry Talley of Schad and Pulte, Gainesville, made the presentations and also gave reports and interviews on conservation achievements by the winners.

Another award, a scroll, was presented to Rush Freeman of zone 5 for his outstanding activity as a supervisor during the past year. Differing from programs of the past, this year's featured a recitation by Miss Margaret Elkins of Gainesville instead of the traditional address. Her talk was based on a series of articles written by Fred Pass, farm editor of the Dallas News, on the decline of a community resulting from neglect of the soil. Land that once raised bumper crops was abandoned after years of exploiting farm methods and the town which it formerly supported turned into a ghost town. The area's decline was symbolized by "Steps that lead to nowhere" in a church that was begun in the twenties. The congregation had built a basement, then steps, and planned to build the first floor soon. But people started moving away from the impoverished community and the useless steps are still there, leading to nowhere.

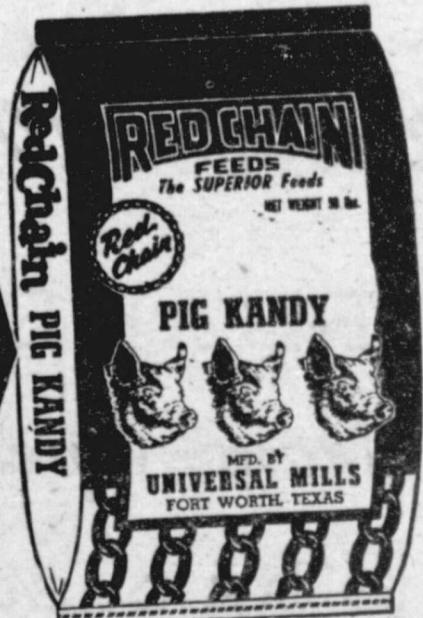

The author was a special guest at the program. Following Miss Elkins he told the circumstances that prompted him to write about the death of the community. He was a native of that place. He had spent his boyhood on a farm there and moved away with his family when the land would no longer support them.

A. J. Martin of the Citizen's National Bank of Denison was master of ceremonies for the program and W. L. Peterson of the State National Bank of the same city gave an address of welcome.

A part of Peterson's talk reviewed the history of conservation in the district, including J. M. Weinzapfel's pioneering work in organizing the district and also the first district awards program of the state.

social in connection with the formal installation of officers. The date will be announced. This will be a separate date from the regular June meeting.

YOU CAN WEAN PIGS EARLIER	With this perfect baby pig feed — Red Chain Pig Kandy — you can wean pigs earlier. Feed it to pigs at two or three days of age, as a creep feed, keeping out the sow.
SAVE BY FEEDING ANTIBIOTICS TO BABY PIGS	During the nursing period, feed for maximum gain, because early gains are the cheapest. Pig Kandy puts antibiotics and critical nutrients in the pigs earlier.
EARLY GAINS MEAN EARLY PROFITS	When you feed Pig Kandy, you feed antibiotics direct to the baby pigs. This is much cheaper than feeding antibiotics to the sow to be transmitted by her milk.
START FEEDING PIG KANDY AS CREEP FEED	Don't take chances on your pigs health. The first ten weeks are the most critical. Feed the most perfectly balanced feed for healthier pigs, faster growth.
