

The hierarchy of sports in USSR revealed its true nature before the TV world Friday night when it indicated that it will go to any limit to claim a gold medal. All who saw the American-Russian basketball game could see plainly that Soviet sideliners were guilty of interference in the last three seconds. By anyone else's standards they spoiled their team's chance for victory.

The remaining second got no results so a partial official decided that the two wasted seconds should be added to the game. Still no change as America retained its one point lead. Russia then demanded that it should have had all three seconds together and boot licking officials ruled that it should go that way. And that's when USSR got its one point lead.

The whole affair was aired before an Olympic court the next day — supported by film that left no doubt of what actually happened. The judge in that hearing was a Hungarian who doubtless feared to disagree with the Soviets.

Another incident came in the boxing. After the judge's decision in favor of the Russian, spectators demonstrated in disagreement but the Reds retained their win.

Those incidents, along with the tragic murder of Israeli participants, and the shameful, hypocritical action in banning Rhodesia from the games, point up the fact that the Olympics have degraded pitifully. When an event is won by brazen disregard of the rules, when ugly politics is brought in to ban a country and murder members of another, it becomes painfully clear that the event has ceased to be clean sport or to encourage good will among nations. This is dirty competition obviously harmful to a spirit of world harmony.

Another ugly incident to mar the spirit of the Olympics was the shabby behavior of two black athletes whose obvious motive was to embarrass this country. Actually they disgraced themselves more than their country, but through it all one can see the ugly influence of communism in their disrespectful revolutionary attitude.

In closing it was said that the world is already looking forward to the Canadian Olympics four years from now. After developments of the past few weeks, are they really enthused or are they wondering how much it will be dominated by the Reds?

In case you expected to get an honest presentation of the election campaign it might be a good idea to take notice that the American Newspaper Guild has endorsed Senator McGovern. For the real significance of that statement we need to realize first that one should expect the guild to be neutral, presenting the news as unbiased as possible. But this outfit says that it pledges its membership to join in the battle to elect McGovern. In other words it has no intention to be impartial but rather to manipulate that news so as to help McGovern and hurt Nixon. It's an old stunt that we have seen used many times in the past and will see increasingly in the months ahead. In fact they're at it already, playing up McGovern and playing down Nixon.

For instance a page 1 4-column picture shows McGovern with the historic Mt. Rushmore scene as a background but gave only brief mention to George Meaney's statement declining to endorse the Senator. Really it's a brutal tactic whereby the news manipulators make special efforts to record and blow up the good points in one man's campaign while playing down any good news for the opponent. There's also the little trick of giving preferred space or more space to the favorite.

Along with all that they can omit one man's remarks that might have a bad impression on the public and omit the other's that might have a good effect.

As the campaign moves forward it will be a good idea to keep the Newspaper Guild's endorsement in mind and measure each candidate's publicity in relation to the commitment. If and when it seems that McGovern is getting top billing is the time to look more closely. It could be that biased reporting rather than his own campaign is getting the results.

Miss Elseore Rottenkolber of Nurnberg, Germany, is pictured with Urban Endres, regent, and A. E. Shasteen, president, while on a visit at Cooke County Junior College. She spent a week in Muenster as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Endres through the American Host Program.

German Teacher Here for Sample of American Life

Muenster in particular and North Texas in general were favored during the first week of this month for a sampling of American life by an attractive teacher of West Germany. She was Miss Elseore Rottenkolber of Nurnberg who was one of 250 European teachers visiting the USA for three weeks through the American Host Program, the purpose of which is to place the teachers in American homes to give them a better knowledge of the life in this country. Miss Rottenkolber spent one week in Muenster as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Endres, who volunteered for the host program earlier in the year. Before coming here Miss Rottenkolber visited one week in Los Angeles and a week in San Francisco.

She teaches English and French in the Nurnberg high school. While in the US she visited in several schools, including Cooke County Junior College and Muenster High School, and talked at length with many teachers.

Other activity while here included tours of the community — the city, the farms and the oil fields — attendance at the Cowboys-Jets football game and the Whitesboro rodeo and at several local parties.

Student Teacher Of ETSU Assigned To MHS Ag. Dept.

Ronnie J. Morrow of Gainesville, an Agricultural Education major of East Texas State University, is spending this week as an observer in the ag department of Muenster High School and will be here from November 6 to December 21 as a student teacher.

This student teaching is part of the experience provided students in preparing for ag teachers or professional ag workers. According to Dr. A. C. Hughes, head of the ag department of ETSU, the student teachers are assigned only to the high school ag departments that are considered to be outstanding. "We consider the Muenster V. O. Ag. Dept., under direction of Edgar Dyer, to be among the top departments of the state" he said.

Krahl Runs Great as Tigers Dump S&S 30-8

Bob Steele's Sacred Heart Tigers, and Davey Krahl in particular, opened their football season with a bang Friday night, blasting the S&S Rams 30-8 on the Sadler field.

It was a most welcome switch from last year's dismal record of only one win, and the Tiger fans loved it. After a first half stalemate ending 8-8 the fired up Sacred Heart boys hit their stride and swept around the Rams for lots of yardage and three touchdowns.

They used the same strategy in all of the scores. A pitch-out to Krahl, a bit of blocking to help him turn the corner and then watch him run away from the pursuit. Krahl made all of his team's

Tigers Taking on Team of Veterans Friday at Gunter

The Tigers will find the going somewhat tougher Friday when they encounter the experienced Gunter outfit on the Gunter field.

According to Bob Steele, Tiger coach, he expects Gunter to show more experience and more polish than the S&S boys did last week. Included on the team are six seniors and four juniors who have lettered in their freshman year and since. They made up most of the team which won the district title last year in 8-man football.

Because of a shortage of 8-man opponents, Gunter begins the season by playing 11-man teams and plays the 8-man game for the district race.

In its only action so far the team has a 20-6 win over Collinsville, which is rated as an above average Class B team.

However Steele is confident that his boys will be able to get past Gunter. He's highly pleased with the Tiger defense, which stopped the Rams cold in the second half, and he also likes the speedy and aggressive offense which got Davey Krahl loose on four beautiful scoring sprints.

Hopefully the Tigers are adjusting to the loss of Dickie Moster, who broke his leg last week. Kenny Hess, as replacement, has looked good in practice this week — on both offense and defense.

And there are no other injury problems. All the boys are in fine condition.

TDs plus two more that did not count. Early in the third period he received a touch-down pass from Gary Endres but an offside penalty nullified it. And late in the fourth he returned a punt for a touchdown and had it spoiled by another penalty.

Not all of the game was rosy, however. Dickie Moster who shared the ball carrying job with Krahl, sustained a broken right leg early in the third period. It was a severe break about midway between knee and ankle breaking the small bone completely and cracking the large bone. He is lost to the team for the season.

The Tigers appeared to be headed for a TD on their first possession. With Moster and Krahl alternating on the big gains, they moved 53 yards to the 7 in 8 plays. Four plays later with only a yard to go they tumbled.

The Rams were equally impressive moving from the 2 to midfield before they had to kick.

After which the Tigers moved again. From their 36 they went all the way in eleven plays. Krahl went around left end for the last 9. Endres passed to Melvin Luke for bonus points.

Then the Rams moved again, a 71 yard drive on nice (Continued on Page 8)

Final Rite Held For J. D. Cook, 78

Funeral services were conducted in Mexia Monday morning for James D. Cook, 78, formerly of Muenster, and burial followed at 1 p.m. in Fairview Cemetery at Gainesville.

Cook died Saturday in a veterans hospital in Temple. He moved to Mexia after being retired from Service Pipe Line Company as an inspector. He was a veteran of World War I. His first wife, Maudie, died in 1952.

Burial services were conducted by the Rev. Leroy Martin. Geo. J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Surviving are his wife, Bell; a daughter Mrs. Anthony Tagliavia and one grandson of New York, two stepsons, one stepdaughter, three brothers and four sisters.

Hornets Take on Big Boyd Outfit Here Friday at 8

Muenster High's Hornets will have a big job on their hands Friday night when they open their football season with the big Boyd Yellow Jackets on the local field at 8 o'clock.

After scouting Boyd's 21-0 loss to Trinity Valley of Fort Worth last Friday night Coach Glenn Richardson said the Jackets are about the heaviest opponents of the season with an extra strong weight advantage over the Hornets. On offense Boyd will trim down that weight slightly in order to put speed into the backfield. It's a stout team, Richardson added, and definitely better than the 21-0 loss indicates. Three tough breaks went against Boyd in that one.

Nevertheless the Hornet boss is confident that his boys will be able to handle the job. Despite early injuries and ailments the boys are coming around. Hank Trachta is back to normal after being out three weeks with a stomach problem and Jim Endres is recovered from knee surgery during the summer. And Alan Miller's sore foot has healed. However, Curtis Klement, another knee surgery patient, has a few more weeks to wait; Tim Felderhoff is out for the season with a broken arm and Tom Bright will be out about two weeks with a hand injury.

The net result is that the team should be sharp at passing with Endres as a sharpshooter and Miller and Wolf as favorite targets, plus occasional passes to Trachta, Hennigan and Klement in the backfield.

Likewise, the backs are strong runners and the line, though lighter and less experienced than last year, is shaping into a well coordinated unit.

Plans Shape for MHS Homecoming

Plans are shaping for Muenster High's Homecoming celebration October 6 when the Hornets host Lake Dallas.

The Ex-student Association is getting the word around that all ex-students are invited and that the honored graduates, those of 1952 and 1962, are urged to attend.

Homecoming events include an ex-students reunion in the lunchroom at 7:15 before the game, crowning of a homecoming queen on the field, and after the game, a dance in the KC Hall.

$1 Million Budget Adopted by County

Cooke County's budget increased over ten per cent this year reaching a total of more than a million dollars, the highest ever for the county. It was adopted unanimously by the commissioners court in its regular session Monday morning.

The budget calls for anticipated revenue of $1,059,515 and anticipated expenditure of $1,006,759. This is an increase of $128,000 in receipts and an increase of $129,000 in expenditures.

The budget includes a 3 cent tax hike on the county's total valuation of about $56 million. That increase is from 99 cents to $1.02, as approved by the commissioners last July. One cent provides for higher jury funds since another district court was established in the county. The other two cents is for purchase of highway right of way, principally for widening Highway 82 west of Muenster to a 4-lane road.

A break-down of the $1.02 tax rate was presented as follows. General fund, 48 cents; Road and bridge fund, 21 cents; Permanent improvements, 3 cents; Jury fund 5 cents; Road and bridge special fund 15 cents; FM and lateral road fund 10 cents.

The $56 million total of county valuations is an increase of $24 million over last year. It results from new construction and from revised valuations. For tax purpose the county bases its valuation on 25 per cent of actual value.

The budget, prepared by County Auditor Tom Blount, included an estimated balance of $105,000 at the end of this year. It also pointed out that the county has no bonded indebtedness and is operating on a cash basis.

Receipt items in the budget were listed as follows:

Ad valorem tax	$537,000
Vehicle licenses	175,000
Officers' fees	210,515
State funds	101,508
Fines	12,000
Occupation taxes	1,900
Local funds	9,084
Misc.	12,508
Total	$1,059,515

Expenditures
Road & bridge	385,614
Rd. & Br. lateral	36,744
Administration	584,400
Total	$1,006,759

Andy Flusche 56 Muenster Native Dies of Coronary

Funeral services were held Monday at 11 a.m. in St. Monica's Church, Dallas for Andrew H. (Andy) Flusche, 56, who died at 7:30 a.m. Friday in a Dallas hospital following a heart attack. He was a native and former resident of Muenster.

Con-celebrating the Requiem Mass were his son, Father Leon Flusche of Fort Worth, a nephew Father Hubert Neu of Arlington and seven other priests of the area. Bishop John Cassata of Fort Worth and Bishop Thomas Tschoepe of Dallas were present in the sanctuary and the latter delivered the funeral sermon.

Some 30 other members of the clergy attending included Fathers Placidus Eckart of Muenster, John Walbe and Jerry Mosman of Fort Worth.

A niece, Sister Anna Marie Flusche of Houston, was organist and a large number of nuns representing several orders were present.

Nephews Garry Fetsch and Leo Lutkenhaus were acolytes. (Continued on Page 8)

These four Muenster High cheerleaders will make their season's debut with the Hornets as MHS meets Boyd on the local field Friday night at 8. They are shown with the coveted Spirit Stick and one excellent and two outstanding ribbons received at the SMU cheerleader school during the summer.

Clark or Fonda?

Ramsey Clark, the former attorney general is the latest in the publicity-seeking parade of Americans visiting Hanoi to investigate "U.S. war crimes."

Clark may have outdone Jane Fonda in a display of stupidity.

Of course he had to work at it because Miss Fonda pointed an anti-aircraft gun at the sky before beaming North Vietnamese, compared Ho Chi Minh to Patrick Henry and urged American pilots to stop bombing North Vietnam.

Clark managed, though, with this statement:

"There is absolutely no excuse for bombing North Vietnam and there never has been."

The excuse was provided by North Vietnam, Mr. Clark, when it began an aggressive war against the Republic of South Vietnam and its allies, including the United States.

Under international law (the Greco-German Mixed Arbitral Tribunal case after World War I), a nation is entitled to take any measures necessary to defend itself from foreign aggression.

Its allies can assist.

North Vietnam — not South Vietnam or the United States — unleashed the dogs of war in Indochina.

It can halt the bombing and the suffering and the death any time by agreeing to a cease-fire to discuss terms.

Liberals and The Enemy

Left-wing journalists have long argued that newspapers using the term "enemy" to describe Communist forces in Vietnam are being unfair. The Communists, they reason, are simply the other side. That 50,000 Americans have been killed by the enemy — oops — by "infiltrators", does not seem to matter.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR opts for euphemisms like "opposing forces." Boston, St. Louis, Baltimore and other big city papers ban "enemy" from headlines or editorials. THE NEW YORK TIMES, avoids the word. Many think it a plus that the TIMES has yet to describe U. S. troops as the enemy.

United Press International foreign editor Wilbur G. Land says that "we're reporting on what the two sides are doing and neither is the enemy of UPI." Can you imagine his reaction after Pearl Harbor? "In all conscience, we can't call the Japanese forces our enemies. After all, no bombs fell on UPI!"

Some newspapers still use the word, though. Says one: "If troops are firing at Americans, we certainly can't consider them friendly. They're in the category of enemy."

The flap over "enemy" is only the latest example of liberal bias. They do not lie; they simply distort by deleting certain aspects of a story. Last year, for example, all we heard was that President Thieu was unpopular. Only occasionally did stories of his wide support, especially among refugees from the North, leak out.

We read about farms mistakenly bombed and the GI drug problem. Both are true, but we seldom hear of calculated enemy atrocities, or the numerous voluntary GI orphanages. Deleting these items, the liberal media give us a distorted picture. No greater example exists than My Lai and Hue.

The American killing of some 120 people is the most followed-up story in the history of modern war journalism. The 1968 Communist massacre of 2000 people at Hue was little covered at the time, and now is virtually forgotten.

It is no wonder that the liberal media dislikes calling the Communists our enemy. To these opinion molders, the enemies of American troops are almost friends.

Equal Rights for Women a Hoax

One of the greatest frauds in American history — perhaps the greatest hoax ever perpetrated upon our people — is the misnamed Equal Rights Amendment.

This proposed constitutional amendment would take away a great number of women's most cherished rights under the guise of prohibiting sex discrimination. It reads simply: "Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex." Sounds all right, doesn't it? That is, at first glance.

But here are a few of the results that would come from adoption of the amendment:

Women would become equally subject to military draft with men.

Laws protecting women against sex crimes would be wiped out.

The father no longer would be obliged to support his wife and children. All states make husbands primarily responsible for such support. Under the proposed ERA this would be discriminatory against males, hence wives would be equally obliged to support their husbands as well as the children.

Under the ERA women would be subject to military conscription and even to combat duty. Since the military would be prohibited from discriminating because of sex, one can readily imagine female soldiers not only having to share barracks with male troops, completely stripped of privacy, but also being compelled to share the same foxholes with men.

Does this sound too fantastic to be true? Think it over. According to the Yale Law Journal, these are precisely some of the conditions women could expect to endure if their "equal rights" were guaranteed under the proposed constitutional amendment.

We will mention one more point out of the many that could be cited to illustrate the evil effects of this amendment. The following is from testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee:

"Senator Ervin: The law... which requires separate restrooms in public schools would be nullified, would it not?"

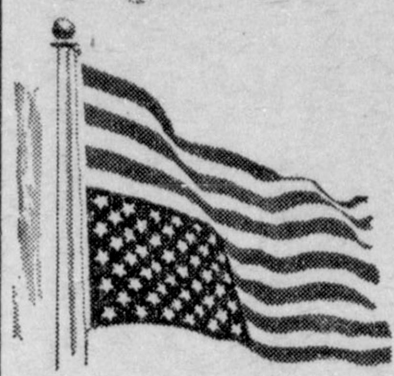

"Professor Kurland (editor of the Supreme Court Review). That is right, unless the sep-

Do you know what it means when the American flag is displayed upside down?

The American flag is always displayed with the stars at the top. If it is flown upside down, with the stars at the bottom, it is a distress signal that should be investigated.

Do you know what "fool's gold" is?

"Fool's gold" is a nickname for a mineral called iron pyrites, or simply pyrite. This mineral, a compound of iron and sulfur, is sometimes found as shiny, yellow, metallic-looking crystals in rocks. These crystals are often mistaken for gold, hence the name "fool's gold."

What do you know about the word "fiction"?

The word "fiction" comes from the Latin word fictio, which means "something invented." So, in a broad sense, fiction is any narrative that is not completely fact, though very often it is based on fact.

What do you know about the Electoral College?

In the United States the people do not elect the president directly. The men who drew up the Constitution were not willing to give this choice to the ordinary citizen. They believed that a group of select citizens called electors—the Electoral College—should pick the president. In general, the electoral system is still followed, but it has been criticized and may be changed or abolished.

arate but equal doctrine is revived.

One wonders what kind of women some of the leaders of "Women's Liberation" are that they would attempt such a fraud on their sisters under the guise of giving them "equal rights". One wonders also what forces are behind Women's Lib.

But one does not have to wonder whether women as a whole favor the amendment. Months before Congress inexplicably submitted it to the states, the only poll taken on the subject showed that 77 per cent of women disagreed that "women should have equal treatment regarding the draft" and that 83 per cent disagree that "a wife should be the bread-winner if a better wage earner than the husband."

Still, Congress submitted this monstrosity to the states for their ratification or rejection and a few states ratified it within 24 hours. At latest count we have seen 13 states have ratified this fraud and four have rejected it.

There is hope that the required three fourths of the states will not ratify before Americans become fully acquainted with the dangerous hoax.

State Starts Using New Road Signs

Texas Highway Department has joined a nationwide symbol sign program to bring all highway signing into conformance with the so-called international sign program used in many other nations.

Richard Oliver, traffic engineer for the State Highway Department, recently reported to the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee that the more important regulatory signs such as "Yield", "Do Not Enter" and "Wrong Way" are now being installed at critical locations, while other signs are being changed over on a maintenance replacement basis.

He explained the target date for full compliance with the National Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices is January, 1977. Full compliance with the National Manual is expected to cost the State $6 million for sign installation over the five-year period. Other costs will include $4.5 million for conversion of highway markings and $250,000 for installation of traffic signals.

"A folder describing the signs and new pavement markings is in preparation," said Oliver.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.

Census Reports 18% Texans Have Spanish Heritage

Nearly one in five (18 percent) residents of Texas is of Spanish heritage, according to a report from the 1970 census by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce. It shows that of the State's 11,195,416 total population, 2,059,671 were of Spanish language or had a Spanish surname. The population of Spanish language is composed of (1) persons who reported Spanish as their mother tongue, that is, the language spoken in the home during childhood, and (2) all members of the household related to the head or wife reporting Spanish as mother tongue.

The census report, released by the Department's Social Economic Statistics Administration, shows that 1,723,531 (84 percent) of Texas' population of Spanish heritage lived in urban areas. Among the 23 urbanized areas, the El Paso area had the greatest number, 190,582 or 56 percent of the total population. However, Brownsville urbanized area with 45,115 persons of Spanish heritage and Laredo with 60,084 had the highest proportion, 86 percent in each.

Of the 336,140 rural population of Spanish heritage in Texas, 18 percent lived on farms.

Eighty-nine percent (1,840,214) of the State's Spanish heritage population was born in the United States; 563,877 were of foreign or mixed parentage (514,058 of these persons had one or both parents born in Mexico). Of the 219,457 foreign born persons of Spanish heritage, 193,143 were born in Mexico.

The median age of the Spanish heritage population was 19.3 years, compared with 26.5 years for the population of Texas as a whole.

Persons of Spanish heritage 25 and older averaged 7.2 years of completed schooling, compared with 11.6 years for the total population 25 and older. Among the 600,425 persons of Spanish heritage 16 and older who were employed in 1970, 8 percent held professional, technical, or similar jobs; 14 percent were clerical or kindred workers; 15 percent were in crafts; 16 percent were operatives (mostly machinery); and 14 percent were service workers other than private household.

Median income in 1969 of the 423,780 families of Spanish heritage amounted to $5,897, as compared with $6,490 for all families in the State.

Tabulations in the report show that 6 percent of the Spanish heritage families had incomes of $15,000 or more, while 17 percent of all Texas families were in this income bracket. At the opposite end of the scale, 21 percent of the Spanish heritage families and 13 percent of all families had incomes below $3,000.

Similar detailed statistics for persons of Spanish language and surname are available in the 1970 census reports for Arizona, California, Colorado, and New Mexico.

Lowering Our Living Standards

Figures on declining productivity and trade deficits are difficult for the average person to associate with the welfare of the average American worker and his family. However, the connection should be easier to grasp if the figures are translated into more understandable terms — such as production of major manufactured products for world markets.

America has been traditionally a leader in the production of automobiles. In 1950, our share of world output of autos was 76 percent. In 1970, this had declined to 33 percent. By the same token, our share of world steel production dropped from 47 percent to 20 percent in the same period. Last year, nine out of ten radios were imported and one out of six new cars. An economist for a large West Coast bank puts the meaning of declining productivity in equally specific terms. "Internationally", he says, "low productivity places our goods at a competitive disadvantage;

consequently, imports increase and exports decline and the American dollar that has served for so long as the international reserve asset is weakened. Internally, low productivity means fewer goods and services and inflation if wage increases are in excess of our productivity. This situation... has been prevalent in our economy for the past several years."

As time goes on, low productivity and trade deficits will exact their tolls of jobs, living standards and the opportunities of those coming out of schools and colleges in future years.

Local Trio Makes New Orleans Tour While at Pageant

Sight-seeing and entertainment galore was included for those who attended the World's Our Little Miss Pageant in New Orleans.

Participating in the pageant was Gainesville's Our Little Miss of 1972, Gina Marie Hofbauer of Muenster. Accompanying her on the trip were her mother Mrs. Norma Dowd and grandmother Mrs. Mike Schilling. They report a beautiful time during their 11-day stay. Highlights included Lake Pontchartrain, and the site of the Battle of New Orleans, the French Quarter, the Maison Blanche where Father Bede Mitchel's brother has a huge bakery located on famous Canal Street.

Also the French Market, an exciting ride on an old-time street car to Pancho's Mexican Restaurant for a luncheon, a tour along the Bayou, and a walk down Pirate's Alley.

Also seeing the Mardi Fountain at night, a drive across Greater New Orleans Bridge towering above the Mississippi River, the Oak Alley Plantation, Pat O'Brien's Courtyard and two ferry trips across the Mississippi.

The group stayed at the new Marriott Hotel, opened just three weeks earlier, with 42 floors. They stayed on the 32nd floor.

They also toured the International Trade Mart going to the top in a glass elevator and had lunch in the revolving roof-top restaurant. They also visited St. Louis Cathedral.

A hamburger party was given for the group aboard the S. S. President going 50 miles out into the Gulf of Mexico. Another tour was the Cabildo Museum, site of the Louisiana Purchase.

Johnny Dowd and Joe Mosier flew down by private plane to attend the pageant finals, then visited a former Navy buddy, Roland Barrilleaux.

Although Gina Marie did not win a trophy in the pageant she considers herself a winner in that she met people from all over the world, made many new friends and saw sights she will never forget.

Hollands Observe 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Holland and children Curtis Jr. and Loreita of Cleburne came to Muenster to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary on September 3.

Mrs. D. R. Smith Heads Program at Garden Club Meet

Mrs. David R. Smith, a member of the Town and Country Garden Club of Gainesville, gave the program for the Muenster Garden Club Monday, September 11, when the local club reorganized for the current garden year. She was accompanied by Mrs. Joe Leonard Sr., president of the Gainesville Council of Garden Clubs.

Active in gardening, judging and speaking and in PTA work in this area and also on the district and state level, Mrs. Smith drew from her own wide experience in exhibiting, judging and holding flower shows. She presented a study program to direct the local members in their preparations for a flower show to be held here in the KC Hall November 4.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Paul Endres with Miss Sylvia Hofbauer as co-hostess. Sister Mary John led the opening prayer voicing gratitude to God whose gift of a beautiful Nature is our heritage — our duty to protect and our privilege to enjoy.

Mrs. Arthur Endres, president, presided for the business session and reviewed work done by all committees during the summer. She announced new working committees added recently to standing committees. The revised list includes:

Membership, Miss Sylvia Hofbauer; Projects, Mrs. Ernest Jaska; Flower Show, Mrs. H. H. Houtchens, Landscape (Parks & Hospital), Mrs. Pat Stelzer; Historian and Scrapbook, Miss Bettye Dodds; Ecology, Mrs. Paul Endres; Cemetery, Mrs. Steve Mosler and Mrs. Tony Gremminger; Publicity, Mrs. R. N. Fette; Awards, Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman.

Mrs. Endres also presented Mrs. John Mosman who has recently accepted the first vice-presidency and is also program chairman. Other officers in addition to Mmes. Endres and Mosman are: Mrs. H. H. Houtchens, second vice president, who is also yearbook chairman; Miss Bettye Dodds, Secretary and Mrs. Steve Mosler, Treasurer.

Committee heads made routine reports and Miss Hofbauer discussed plans for the flower show, to date incomplete but some details decided. It will be themed "A Stroll through a French Market" and will feature such attractions as: a flower cart offering for sale potted plants donated by members from their gardens . . . a boutique with craft and gift items priced to appeal to both children and adults . . . a confection shop . . . a sidewalk cafe with cafe' au lait and French doughnuts . . . door prizes . . . and a display by the Garden Center.

Miss Hofbauer arranged the table centerpiece of gold fall daisies in crescent shape and Mrs. Paul Endres arranged crape myrtle and wandering jew in pink tones for her living room.

The hostesses served dessert and coffee to 23 members and 12 guests including Mmes. Leonard and Smith and also Mmes. Gene Hoenig, Eddie Schmitt, Adolph Fuhrman, Roger Taylor, James Walterscheid, John Pagel, Harold Flusche, Bob Steele, Andy Phillips and Clyde Walterscheid.

Next month's meeting will be held in the TPL Community Room with Mrs. Pat Stelzer and Mrs. Albert Stoffels as co-hostesses, featuring a flower show workshop. Each member will participate by making a flower arrangement.

Surprises Greet Clive Gobbles at Retirement Party

Surprises greeted Mr. and Mrs. Clive Gobble Tuesday afternoon they were honorees at a retirement party.

Co-hosting with Mrs. Eddy were Mrs. Lee Toothaker, Mrs. Bernard Wolf, Mrs. Arnold Rohmer, and Mrs. W. H. Patterson. They served homemade ice cream, banana pudding, cake, coffee and punch.

The honored couple opened and displayed their gifts and made appreciation talks.

In addition to guests from Muenster those present included the couple's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cathey of Wichita Falls, the Oscar Millers and Bill Wares of Gainesville, the Harv Bowens of Saint Jo and members of Myra Methodist Church of which Mr. and Mrs. Gobble are members.

Meeting Called to Help Endangered Plants, Animals

A statewide conference to discuss rare or endangered species of plants and animals will be held in Austin September 20.

The meeting is being called by the Texas Organization for Endangered Species (TOES), a coalition of state, federal and private groups. It will be held at the Joe C. Thompson Conference Center on the University of Texas Campus, 20th and Red River, starting at 9:30 a.m.

M. J. Spears, deputy state conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, is chairman of the steering committee of TOES and will preside. Committees which have prepared coordinated lists of rare or endangered species will make progress reports during the conference.

Eventual goal of TOES is to coordinate inter-agency efforts to preserve threatened species and to monitor their numbers and habitat.

Muenster Juniors To Play 2 Games With Whitesboro

The Juniors of Muenster Public School have another game on their schedule and will start their season a week earlier, Coach Glenn Richardson announced this week. They will have an extra game with Whitesboro, this week Thursday. The second game was matched, Richardson said, because both teams had an open date and preferred to have the action.

Both games will be in Whitesboro, however there will also be two Junior games next year, both in Muenster.

Each of the games except one will match junior teams the night before the schools have their senior game and at the opposite location. That one is with Saint Jo Juniors there on Tuesday, Sept. 26. The Hornets do not play Saint Jo.

The 14-A junior conference begins on October 19. Opponents of the Little Monsters, in the order of their games, are Pilot Point, Frisco, Sanger, Nocona and Callisburg.

Formation of 4-H Club at CCJC Is Being Discussed

There has been discussion about forming a Cooke County Junior College 4-H Club for which students up to age of 20 as of January 1, 1973 would be eligible to participate in all 4-H activities. Margie Felderhoff, freshman at CCJC, who has been a very active Sacred Heart 4-H'er, initiated the idea. All who are interested are invited to contact the Extension Office for more information.

In other 4-H news, food study groups started to organize the past week. Members interested in nutrition and food preparation are eagerly waiting to get going. Groups will be led by adult leaders and junior leaders. Two new leaders are Sharon Rohmer of Sacred Heart and Christine Watson of Callisburg.

Nancy Hickman of Sivelles Bend gave a very fine program at Callisburg Community Club Saturday evening. She talked about her trip to the National 4-H Citizenship Shortcourse in Washington, D.C., and showed slides of interest points.

4-H Club presidents and council delegates are reminded to attend the county council meeting Tuesday, September 19, at the Home Demonstration building in Gainesville at 7:30 p.m.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.

THANKS

Our hearts are full of gratitude as we try to express our thanks and appreciation to so many wonderful people from Muenster and surrounding communities and afar who have helped us since we lost our home and furnishings by fire. Special thanks to Muenster Fire Department, to St. Anne's Society for sponsoring the community shower, to all who gifted us in so many practical and beautiful ways. Since it is impossible to thank each one individually we take this means to say, "God bless you all." — Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid, joined by their family.

This and That In Conservation

By Eual Davis
MINIMUM TILLAGE
 Minimum tillage farming is one of the fastest growing conservation practices in the state. It will work in this area. For the first two years of this type farming you can still use a regular grain drill. Residue buildup generally isn't great enough to require special or adapted equipment until about the third year. So, you can try this type farming on a small area to see if you like it without a lot of extra expense. If you haven't plowed your grain land why not try a few acres this fall. All grasses, weeds, and volunteer grain can be eliminated with a contact spray at the time or just before planting. Planted seed then comes up and grows in as clean a seedbed as those which were plowed. SCS personnel are available to work with you on a crop rotation program.

FARM PONDS
 New ponds for livestock water have been recently completed on Dangelmayr Bros., Bill Lutkenhaus, Matt Mueller, Dr. Antonetti, Leon Flitman, and Arthur Hellman in Cooke County, and on Frank Kaberna and V. W. Redman in Montague county.

 The opportunity to join is at a regular meeting Monday night, the 18th, 7 o'clock at the Gainesville Boys' Club. Membership includes all ages and any degree of ability in flying. Some are seasoned contest flyers, some are just beginners.
 More information about the club can be obtained from Jim Ballard, president, 665-3302.

4-H Club News
5th and 6th Grade
 Sacred Heart fifth and sixth grade girls signed enrollment cards and discussed projects and a poster contest at first meeting of the current school year. Sharon Grewing, president, presided. Other officers are Laurie Walterscheid, vice president; Phyllis Grewing, secretary; Elaine Walterscheid, reporter; Sherri Herr and Mariene Swirczynski, song leaders. Mrs. Marlea Thompson, assistant county agent, met with the group.

SH Senior Girls
 Sacred Heart Senior 4-H girls, meeting for the first time this term, up-dated enrollment cards, discussed projects with Marlea Thompson, assistant home demonstration agent, and learned about two projects which are new this year. They are the automotive project and the poster art program. The former will be held in Gainesville.
 In the poster contest members make original posters to depict what 4-H is and does.
 In discussing projects for local meetings during the year it was decided to work on crafts.
 Kim Reiter, president, presided and led the motto and pledge. Beverly Walterscheid read the inspiration. Sharon Rohmer is club reporter.

FALL FERTILIZATION
 Thirty pounds of Nitrogen will produce a ton of good grass per acre between now and frost. This will cost about three dollars per acre. That same three dollars will buy less than three bales of hay this winter. You get ten times more for your money by fertilizing existing pastures. While fertilizing this fall don't forget those grassed waterways. They need to be in good shape to do their job year after year. They also receive additional water and can make efficient use of any fertilizer applied.
FARM PONDS need fertilizer also. It must produce a lot of feed in order for your fish to do good. Next time you go by your pond take a 50 lb. bag of 10-20-10, 16-20-0, or 8-8-2 (this is best) and scatter it around in the pond. This will produce more plankton (microscopic plants and animals) which is eaten by smaller fish and they in turn are eaten by the larger fish.
YARDS or LAWNS
 Don't forget to fertilize them this fall. Yards or lawn grasses that are healthy and vigorous going into winter will come out earlier and stronger in the spring.

Tiger Cubs Start Season with 18-0 Win over Saint Jo
 Sacred Heart's Tiger Cubs scored in each of the last three periods Tuesday night for an 18-0 win over the Panther Cubs of Saint Jo. They had the game under control all the way holding their visitors to three scattered first downs and very limited yardage.
 Meanwhile Sacred Heart kept its drive going three times and cashed in with as many touchdowns, all by Jim Koelzer.
 The Cubs missed a scoring opportunity early in the game after Saint Jo failed to move on its first series and lost a fourth down gamble. Two plays advanced 17 to the 5 but the next four plays went sour and lost 7 yards. However they had another chance shortly after that and finished the job. Four plays advanced 16 to a first down on the 13 and four more reached pay dirt. The scoring play by Koelzer went 7 yards.
 They put on their second drive following the second half kickoff. From their own 37 they made the distance in nine plays the last one being a 41 yard ramble by Koelzer.
 The beginning of the fourth quarter was more of the same. They made 54 yards in eight plays with Koelzer doing the scoring again. All of the efforts for extra points fell short.
 The Cubs were in charge throughout, both offensively and defensively. They made 10 first downs and failed only four times to keep going. Saint Jo had three scattered first downs, failed seven times to sustain their drive. Two of those losses of possession were on fumbles whereas the Cubs did not fumble.

Muenster Garden Center & Pest Control
 Thanks to all the nice people who came by to wish us well at our grand opening. First prize winner was Mrs. Paul Endres, second prize winner was Mrs. H. Houtchens. Again thanks. We were grateful at the turnout.
 The most obvious insect active now is the fall tent caterpillar, which is rapidly taking over the peacan trees — a more active variety than experienced about eight weeks ago.
 Now is also a good time to cut out dead wood in trees, while it's easy to spot. Give us a call if you need help. New stock is still arriving daily, so please stop by and browse around.

Over 200 Register At Garden Center Formal Opening
Muenster Garden Center and Pest Control had a successful grand opening Saturday with people visiting the new business throughout the day. Some 200 adults registered. Scores of children were there also.
They saw a variety of merchandise, registered for prizes, and had refreshments of coffee, Coke and cookies. They also visited the attached greenhouse filled with plants.
The display room was dressed up with floral tributes from other local business houses and friends.
Assisting Roger Taylor, owner, in showing visitors around were his mother Mrs.

Lorena Taylor and his wife Jane who also served. The Taylor's children Sandy and Scotty were there too.
Winners in the drawing at 5:30 are Mrs. Paul Endres, first, recipient of 50 pounds of WACCO lawn fall fertilizer and four terrarium plants and Mrs. H. H. Houtchens, second, who received 50 pounds of WACCO fall lawn fertilizer.
The new business has been open since July 1 when Roger Taylor came from Houston to take over the pest control service formerly operated by Clive Gobble. Formal opening was delayed until merchandise was stocked after the building was remodeled and the greenhouse added.
One way to success is to make hay of the grass growing under other folks' feet.

YOM KIPPUR DAY OF ATONEMENT

September 18, 1972
Hebrew Date: Tishri 10, 5733

In Jerusalem, Jews gather at the "Wailing Wall" (The only remnant of an ancient temple in that city) on Yom Kippur, the final day of the Ten Days of Penitence. Here at the site of religious pilgrimages down through the centuries, worshippers observe Yom Kippur. This scripture from The Living Bible is the authority for observance of Yom Kippur.

"This is a permanent law: You must do no work on the tenth day of the seventh month (of the Hebrew calendar), but must spend the day in self-examination and humility. This applies whether you are born in the land or are a foreigner living among the people of Israel; for this is the day commemorating the atonement, cleansing you in the Lord's eyes from all of your sins. It is a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall spend the day in quiet humility; this is a permanent law. This ceremony, in later generations, shall be performed by the anointed High Priest, consecrated in place of his ancestor Aaron; he shall be the one to put on the holy linen garments, and make atonement for the holy sanctuary, the Tabernacle, the altar, the priests, and the people. This shall be an everlasting law for you, to make atonement for the people of Israel once each year, because of their sins." (Leviticus 16:29-34)

"Nine days after the Festival of Trumpets, all people are to come together before the Lord, saddened by their sin; and they shall offer sacrifices by fire to the Lord. Don't do any work that day, for it is a special day for making atonement before the Lord your God. Anyone who does not spend the day in repentance and sorrow for sin shall be excommunicated from his people. And I will put to death anyone who does any kind of work that day. This is a law of Israel from generation to generation. For this is a Sabbath of solemn rest, and in it you shall humble your souls and be filled with remorse; this time for atonement begins on the previous evening and goes on until the next evening." (Leviticus 23:26-32)

The Living Bible

YOM KIPPUR is the most solemn day of the Jewish New Year. It is a day of fasting and prayer. Yom Kippur is the highest of all holy days in the Jewish Religion.

5 Generations of Kin Honor 'Mama'
At Hogan Reunion

Five generations of kin gathered at Leonard Park in Gainesville for a reunion at which Mrs. J. S. Hogan of Bellevue, 83, was the special guest.

About 200 of her descendants, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and their families attended taking covered dishes for a noon luncheon on Sept. 3.

A unique after-luncheon program was planned and carried out by a granddaughter Judy Cain Hartman and her husband Gene of Denton. Judy is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Cain and the late Mr. Cain.

The program, themed on "This Is Your Life — Edna McDonald Hogan" — had been kept a secret until a group of granddaughters started singing "Stand Back Everybody, and Let the World's Greatest Grandmother Pass." She was presented a yellow gold charm bracelet with charms representing each of her children and a special one from Judy and Gene Hartman engraved "This Is Your Life, Sept. 3, 1972."

A throne was arranged for "Mama" as she is lovingly called by her family and many of her friends. She was escorted to the throne by a son, Jerry Hogan and a grandson Dickie Cain.

A granddaughter Johnnie Sue Hogan of Albuquerque, N. M., placed a crown on her head amid applause from the assemblage. "Mama" was crowned "Queen for a Day." Johnnie Sue is the daughter of Mrs. John C. Hogan of Lubbock and the late Mr. Hogan.

Edna McDonald was born March 17, 1889, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McDonald of McKinney. The family moved to Mallard in Montague County when she was a small child. She married James Spencer Hogan at the age of 15 and they were blessed with seven sons and four daughters: Cloyce, Columbus, Hugh, Jack, Frank, John and Jerry, Eula Grace, Leona, Naomi and Bobbye.

Columbus, Hugh and John Hogan were represented at the program by their families. Mrs. Hugh Hogan is the youngest daughter-in-law having joined the family at the age of 14.

Relatives attended from Amarillo, Lubbock, Wichita Falls, Bellvue, Nocona, Saint Jo, Greenwood, Denton, Valley View, Sherman, Gainesville, Fort Worth, Dallas, Muenster and Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lutkenhaus visited parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lutkenhaus and Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Sicking last weekend enroute to Eugene, Oregon, where James will do graduate study at the University of Oregon for his doctorate.

Welfare Will Be Reduced by Hike
In SS Benefits

About 20,000 on Texas welfare rolls may lose their eligibility next month due to increased federal Social Security benefits.

Probably 110,000 more may get a cut in state Old Age Assistance as the federal benefit goes up.

However, Department of Public Welfare Commissioner Raymond W. Vowell emphasized that total income will still be higher even where state benefits drop.

Federal law requires the state welfare agencies to count Social Security income in figuring financial need for welfare grants.

Vowell said the Welfare Department is trying not to lower or deny welfare grants wherever possible.

He advised welfare recipients to notify their local aid offices of any recent changes in their need or other income.

Budgetary revisions in welfare procedures will permit continued assistance to about 4,700 old folks who otherwise would have had their welfare grants denied, Vowell said.

runs and passes for first down only a yard away. But Tiger defense got tough there. A penalty and three plays moved the ball back to the 11, and then a great big break. A pass failed on the all important play but at the same time another eligible receiver collided with a Tiger. Interference was ruled and the Rams had a first down at the 2. Three tries made it from there and the TD was made with a second left on the clock. Carney went over on a sneak and Williams added extra points.

The teams were about even before intermission. Tigers were ahead 121 to 77 in rushing but trailed 10-8 in first downs and 38-6 in passing. But that changed sharply in the second half when Sacred Heart led 9-4 in first downs and 223 to 23 in rushing.

The Rams could not go on their first series after kickoff and had to punt. Next play was a nice pass to Krahl and a nice sprint to the goal. But it was rubbed out by a penalty. A pass interference ruling two plays later gave the Tigers a set up on the 15 but the series was 3 yards short and the Rams took possession. That was the series in which Muter's leg was broken.

After that the Rams failed on a series and so did the Tigers. The Rams moved 28 yards before losing possession and the Tigers went 59 in three plays. The big one was a beautiful sweep by Krahl for 41. A run for extra points failed and Sacred heart was ahead 14-8. Early in the fourth Sacred Heart was going again with Kevin Pels and Krahl alternating at ball carrying. The drive went 44 in five plays, Krahl scoring from the 12. A pass, Endres to Luke, upped the count to 22.

Ending the next series Krahl returned a kick for a score that did not count, and a clip penalty on the next kick put the Tigers back on their 27. Pels went 41 on the next play, two penalties cost 10 and Krahl scooted for 42. Endres went over for the extra points.

The final 6 minutes were a stand off, each team making only one first down.

and news manipulating, it was satisfying to be shown that McGovern does not have the strong support he claims from young voters. A Gallup poll published during the weekend shows that of 221 young voters Nixon is favored over McGovern by 61 to 38 per cent. Other Gallup polls revealed that manual workers favor Nixon 64 to 28 per cent and Catholics favor Nixon 62 to 29 per cent.

If those odds prevail among many more voter groups it's a fairly safe bet that the Newspaper Guild's best efforts will not be enough to lead McGovern to victory. After all, there is a limit to the extent that news can be twisted. And, of course, there's a strong probability that many members of the Newspaper Guild will choose to think for themselves rather than do as told by the organization's brass. Despite the plot in the higher echelon there will be lots of guys who decline to go along with it.
