

Talking about a unique introduction to a class, how is this: "Good morning, gentlemen. You are now in Tactics. Take a writ." That's the pace set in the first period, and it hasn't slowed down a bit. Yes, siree. It's consistent in every respect with the O.C.S. tempo. . . perhaps even more so.

The principal purpose of these snap writs, so they tell me, is to provide an incentive for preparation of the assignment. Reasonable enough, until a person notices how long these assignments are. Pages and pages of complicated dope, the organization of various units, their personnel and equipment and the specific job of everybody as the outfit goes into position or delivers the fire. That besides map and photo studies, security measures, intelligence and counter-intelligence and plenty more.

One of our instructors presented the case perfectly. "By staying up all night and probably missing breakfast, you can get through a day's assignment. After that, I hope you'll be lucky enough to remember the right answers to your writs." Needless to say, we don't. U's have predominated so far. Which doesn't especially hurt if we can eke out a few extra points in the final exams. IF—

At this time the class is getting very weary. Anxiously looking forward to the end — as anyone should expect after more than 70 days of toil and worry. Our group has a special calendar listing so many days to go until the 22nd. Imagine what a delight it is every day to put an X through the last figure.

Another morale booster is the order this week for the men to start buying uniforms. It is consoling after all these weeks to think that the goal is finally in sight. The only difficulty is that the order does not necessarily assure graduation. A guy can flunk any time up to the last day. In that respect I had another scare last week. But let's not discuss it. For that matter, let's not discuss any more of any of this for a week. The time has come when soldiering and columnating do not mix. Soldiering demands the lion's share of my attention even during these precious few weekend hours that, according to theory, are intended primarily for our relaxation.

MUENSTER HATCHERY PLANS TO CONCLUDE SEASON MAY 19th

With the hatching season gradually drawing to close Felix Becker, manager of the Muenster Hatchery, stated Tuesday that present plans are to have May 19th as the closing date.

He added that all orders will be handled and persons desiring May chicks should see him now. There is a probability that the closing date will be later than May 19, but according to present bookings the tentative closing date has been set for that time. This week has been one of the busiest in the history of the business, he said.

Because turkey eggs require a four weeks' hatching period, they will be accepted only until April 19. The deadline for chicken eggs is April 26.

L.A. Bernauer Loses To Henry Stelzer By 2-Vote Margin

116 Votes Are Cast In City Election Tuesday

J. M. Weinzapfel is Muenster's mayor as the result of the city election Tuesday. He replaces Ben Seyler, who did not seek re-election, and polled a heavy vote over his opponent, receiving 102 against P. J. Rollman's 13. Rollman was a write-in candidate.

Two aldermen, Andy Hofbauer and J. A. Fisher were returned to office for another term and Henry Stelzer was chosen to replace L. A. Bernauer, incumbent, for position No. 3.

In spite of all the earlier campaign fever the election was not as hot as it might have been had F. J. Hesse remained on the ticket. He withdrew from the mayor's race a week before the election and it was then that Rollman announced as a write-in candidate.

Two of the aldermanic races were close. Stelzer defeated Bernauer by only two votes, and Fisher was returned to office by a four-vote margin over H. M. Schmitz. Hofbauer polled 69 votes against Al Walterscheid's 46.

While the election was not one of the biggest the city has had, it drew considerable more votes than those in the past. 116 ballots out of a possible 175 were cast.

Until the latter part of the day the election was quiet. By noon only 40 votes had been cast and voting in the early afternoon was slow. As the closing hours approached voting was more lively.

Election judges were Wm. Hellman and Henry Trachta.

Returns of the election are as follows:

For Mayor—	J. M. Weinzapfel	102
	P. J. Rollman	13
For Alderman, Position No. 3—	L. A. Bernauer	57
	Henry Stelzer	59
For Alderman, Position No. 4—	Andy Hofbauer	69
	Al Walterscheid	46
For Alderman, Position No. 5—	J. A. Fisher	60
	H. M. Schmitz	56

Quiet Trustee Election

Election judges, Frank Hessa, Bill Hellman and Miss Dorothy Trachta had a dull day Saturday recording a grand total of 15 votes in the school trustee election by which Albert Henschel, Frank Yosten and Meinrad Hesse were re-elected. There was not as much as one write-in vote to relieve the monotony of the no choice ticket.

GAINESVILLE RITES UNITE SAINT JO GIRL, PVT. CHAS. CLAYTON

Pvt. Charles Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Clayton of Muenster, and Miss Arva Lea Bishop, daughter of Mrs. O. O. Bishop of Saint Jo, were married Friday evening, April 2, in a quiet ceremony performed at the First Baptist church in Gainesville. Members of the immediate families attended the rites.

WONDERING:

day afternoon.

Why some of the students and Sister Geraldine are going around with sun-burned faces? The sun was certainly bright the day of the soft-ball game, wasn't it?

What happened to certain delicious ham sandwiches, in the Sophomore room, which seemed to be going to waste when they suddenly disappeared? That's alright, Harold and Frank, we know they tasted good.

What happened to the Science laboratory Thursday afternoon after the Chemistry class was over? It sparkled and shone as the results of the young chemist's ardent cleaning.

Why three certain young ladies were so startled and guilty looking when someone jokingly said, "You old snooping things." Could we accidentally have said the right thing to the right people.

CLUB:

The Senior Junior Club met for a regular meeting Monday. Due to the illness of Sr. Gerarda, our advisor, Sr. Geraldine was present and read a letter from our absent advisor and teacher. Thanks very much for your nice letter Sr. Gerarda. We hope you can be with us soon.

SNOOPING:

The Snooping Snoopers are back again and true to our resolution we are appearing with a more dignified air. As yet we have heard no one threatening to kill the writers if their true identity is discovered, and so we will continue hiding behind doors, looking around corners and listening on the stairs.

It seems that Johnny Ann is often annoyed during English class when Sister is around her. Maybe it's because the things Sister says often fit her.

We also wonder why Rose Marie preferred reading a paragraph on "Stepping Out" when she was called on to read.

Here's something we heard at every turn in our snooping. It's that all the High School students wish Sr. Gerarda a speedy recovery. Everyone certainly misses you and hopes that you will be with us again soon, Sister.

We made a Resolution and kept it. We didn't snoop much at all this week. Maybe we were still tired from last week's snooping. But we heard anything you don't want us to know, so be good.

"A Cow Has Six Sides"

London, England.—A cow has "six sides" and "is arranged for milking" according to an essay written by a ten-year-old from the East End slums of London and made public by Ernest Brown, Minister of Health.

The boy had been evacuated from the city to the country, where his amazed eyes beheld a cow for the first time.

"The cow is a mammal," the boy wrote. "It has six sides, right and left and upper and below. At the back it has a tail on which hangs a brush. With this he sends flies away so they don't fall into the milk. The head is for the purpose of growing horns and so his mouth can be somewhere. The horns are to butt with and the mouth to moo with. Under the cow hangs milk. It is arranged for milking."

"When people milk, milk comes and there never is an end to the supply. How the cow does it I have not yet realized, but it makes more and more. The cow has a fine sense of smell and one can smell it far away. This is the reason for the fresh air in the country."

—From the Rotary Bulletin.

MOSAICS of Sacred Heart High

SPORTS:

Spring fever certainly hasn't caught up with any of us around here in Sacred Heart High. In fact every one seems to have an abundance of energy. During every recess and after school one can see pupils on the tennis court having oodles of fun. All their energy isn't used however in play, but also in work. Some of the ambitious ones are working to get a new tennis court into good condition. If we keep up our good work, we'll have one of the best courts in the country.

Besides our tennis activities, we have been doing other things. The girls are organizing a soft-ball team. As soon as they have had enough practice they will make an appearance and show what they can do. You better watch out boys; these soft-ball lassies are liable to steal the whole show from your soft-ball team.

Wednesday afternoon the St. Mary's soft-ball team from Gainesville battled for victory against our boys. They won it too, with a score of eight to seven. It was a good game and all the boys are to be commended for their fine sportsmanship. We especially wish to extend our sympathy to Barney Flushe, St. Mary's third baseman, who fell and broke his wrist and finger. We hope you feel better Barney, and will be able to play again soon.

VICTORY GARDEN:

Tuesday morning during Science class the Freshmen took it upon themselves to plant a Victory Garden. While the boys went to work right away the girls mourned about getting dirty hands and seeing wriggly worms. But everyone did their part even up to the point of snapping pictures.

After a careful examination of their hands they found no blisters, so it must not have been so hard. Restless eyes are turning toward their project every once in a while to see the results of their work.

GLEE CLUB:

Do-re-me-fa-so-la-to-do y o u know that we have organized a Glee Club? Only students, who really enjoy singing and are determined to succeed, are admitted. The club is based upon a high set of standards. It is not such a simple matter to get into our club but when one has accomplished this he can feel a large sense of personal satisfaction for we do hope to make it a club which will be a credit to all its members and we also hope to accomplish much in the months to come. The club held its first meeting Tues-

The 2nd War Loan Starts April 12

13 billion dollars must be raised!

THE GOVERNMENT of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. We can do it. And we must do it. Every American must realize the truth:

In this, our toughest war, we've made a good start. We've trained a lot of men—made a lot of weapons—built a lot of ships.

But it's only a start. No man or woman among us would contend for a single instant that we're doing enough now to win this war!

We've Got to Build More!

We broke all records building 8 million tons of shipping last year. But grim-faced Army and Navy men will tell you that the 18 MILLION tons we're building this year still won't be enough!

We've Got to Fight More!

From now till this war is won, America must be on the offensive. In ever-increasing numbers, your sons, brothers, husbands must go into actual battle. Our losses have already begun to mount—and they will not grow less.

And We've Got to Buy More War Bonds!

Sure we're all buying War Bonds now. But we've got to help pay for our increased fighting and building . . . We've got to match, as best we can, the sacrifice of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on a dozen battlefronts—with the bloodiest yet to come. The blunt fact is this: to keep our war machine going, we've got to dig up 13 billion extra dollars this month. 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of volunteers who are contributing their time and effort to this Drive. But don't wait for him. Make up your mind now that before this drive is over, you're going to march right down to your nearest bank, Post Office, or place where they sell War Bonds, and do your duty. And don't ever forget this: in doing your duty, you're doing yourself one of the biggest favors of your life!

For United States War Bonds are the greatest investment in the world—bar none. They're investments tailored to fit your particular situation. And they give you the chance of a lifetime to order and get the kind of world you want to live in after this war. Every cent you put in War Bonds now will help to guarantee plenty of peacetime jobs making peace-living for every one of us.

For your Country's sake—for your own sake—invest all you can!

There Are 7 Different Types of Government Securities — Choose The Ones Best Suited For You:

Electric POWER in Texas

HAS NOT BEEN "TOO LITTLE OR TOO LATE"

POWER GRID OF TEXAS
Consists of
.. 20,000 Miles of Transmission Lines (11,000 volts or over)
Including
TEXAS POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'S
.. 3,400 Miles of Transmission Lines (11,000 volts or over)

Because Texans planned and built ahead to the end that Electric Power would always be plentiful for all needs.

When emergency war production and military activities brought widespread demands for more and more power in Texas, Electric Power was ready... power companies in Texas supplied the power whenever and wherever it was needed, and at the same time have continued to meet the electric service needs of the home front.

This readiness of Electric Power did not just happen... it was the direct result of more than 30 years of "Providing Electric Power for the Texas of Today, Planning Electric Power for the Texas of Tomorrow!"

"The power men—public and private—should be proud of the job that has been done in providing power supply. Power has never been 'too little or too late.' There is today no shortage of power"
... says J. A. KRUG,
Director, Office of War Utilities,
War Production Board.

TP&L Lays Foundation for "NO SHORTAGE"

To provide dependable low-cost transmission-line electric service to urban and rural areas of the state, Texas Power & Light Company was organized in 1912 by a group of Texans living in Waxahachie. The Company acquired the isolated generating plants and distribution systems in a group of towns in Central and North Texas. It completed Texas' first transmission line in 1913, and, by 1915, its transmission system extended north to Denison and Paris and south to Taylor.

This Company has continually expanded its transmission system until today it serves 156,000 customers, including more than 25,000 families living on farms or in rural areas. The Company serves 442 cities, towns and communities in a 52-county area of North, Central and East Texas.

In planning, building and operating the facilities to meet normal as well as emergency requirements for power, Texas Power & Light Company gained the experience and resourcefulness needed to meet today's wartime emergency demands without delay... and with only a minimum use of critical materials.

Texas Power & Light Company's transmission system is interconnected with eight transmission systems belonging to other companies, which, in turn, have interconnections with the transmission lines of still other companies. Thus, because of the foresight, planning and building by the utility companies of this area, the electric power supply of Texas was mobilized and ready for immediate use wherever it was needed in Texas, or in the Southwest... ready when called for by the present war emergency!

TEXAS POWER MARCHES ON!

In 1941, when drought crippled the Tennessee Valley Authority's power supply to the Southeastern states, this Company joined other companies in supplying power to that area to relieve the power shortage.

This Company has now pooled its reserve power with that of ten other companies in seven other states to make power available to an important war plant in Arkansas to expedite production of aluminum, a desperately needed war product. Thus, in this co-operative manner, utilizing existing facilities, this Company is giving a priceless boost to America's war program.

RAISE MORE PIGS — Comes spring with new-born pigs all over the place. But at the same time an even larger number of their worst enemy, the worm parasite, will be on hand to delay the pigs joining the procession to our 1943 meat goal.

A wormy pig will seldom grow big. The roundworm is one of the most common and most injurious parasites of swine.

Here are some helpful steps in producing pigs which develop quickly and profitably.

Remove all litter from farrowing houses which have concrete or wooden floors. Then clean them thoroughly with boiling water, soap and lye.

A few days before a sow's farrowing time scrub her thoroughly with warm water and soap. Use a brush and pay special attention to the udder. Do not allow the baby pigs to get on soil to which other hogs have had access.

Within ten days after farrowing, haul, do not drive, the sow and pigs directly to a field previously sown to a forage crop, and which has not been occupied by hogs since planting. Allow no other hogs in this pasture except sows and litters similarly treated. Provide plenty of shelter and shade, and a safe supply of fresh water. Leave the pigs on the pasture for at least four months. After that, danger from roundworms is not great.

Use of this program should make the pigs ready for market from four to eight weeks earlier, and the herd is more likely to be practically free from runts.

God's Country
This country has faced
Many a fear
But fought right through Without a tear.

At Valley Forge we fought

All our foes.

God's kept this country
Brave and free,
And blessed its every

On All Fool's day this school had no classes. The students painted their faces and wore their clothes backwards. The high school chose Cecilia Sicking for having the tackiest costume among the girls, and Paul Nieball was named the tackiest boy. Cornelia Harrison and Emmett Martin were chosen the "corniest" boy and girl. After lunch the high school and eighth grade students went fishing and to complete the fun Miss Harrison fell in the water. Meanwhile the grade school pupils had gathered tin cans for the war effort.

Your Health

BY GEO. W. COX, M. D.
Texas State Health Officer

Austin, Texas: — Commenting on the unusually high incidence of dysentery in Texas at the present time, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, described dysentery as being an infectious disease characterized by diarrhea, pain in the abdomen, and toxemia. It is caused by a specific bacteria or germ. These germs cause inflammation of the lining of the intestinal tract which produces pain throughout the abdomen and the discharge of many loose stools that frequently contain blood and mucus. Toxemia results from absorption of the poisonous substances produced by the germs. "The germs gain entrance to the body through the mouth," Dr. Cox said, "and then make their way to the intestines in the same manner in which food does. When they reach the intestines they find conditions favorable to their growth, and there they establish themselves at the expense of the person infected and produce their harmful effects."

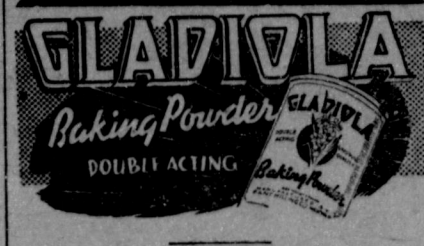

Dr. Cox warned that dysentery affects young children more often and more seriously than adults, frequently resulting fatally; however, he said, it may occur at any age. It is usually more prevalent during the summer season, and the great number of cases now being reported are unusual for spring. "The germ is always expelled with the excreta of persons sick with dysentery and may continue to be expelled for some time after the patient recovers from the disease. These persons who still discharge the germs after they recover are called carriers, and they occur more frequently in this disease than in the majority of other infectious diseases. "Food protection and adequate sanitary measures are more urgently needed now than ever before if we control the potential possibilities of epidemic dysentery in this State."

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Bernauer and sons have moved back to Muenster after residing in Decatur for the past eight months. They are occupying their home, west of the overpass, and he is employed for John Wieler.

WRITE TO BOYS IN THE SERVICE

Our Fighting Yanks would rather receive newsy, cheerful letters from home than anything else. So write regularly and often to every man you know in the armed forces whether he's serving in this country or at some point overseas. Frequent letters from home that build morale . . . that keep our boys happy . . . will help to speed Victory. Do your part. Start writing those letters tonight before you forget about it.
