VOLUME VIII

MUNSTER, TEXAS, COOKE COUNTY, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1943

In one respect this dull business of training for war has its compensations. A little planning plus a touch of showmanship can make quite an occasion out of a routine event. Around here such an occasion is called a demonstration and most of the camp's personnel is invited — in the well known GI manner which isn't likely to be declined. However, it's worth seeing, and most of us like to go even without the persuasive invitation.

We had such a demonstration last week. An air attack by bombers, fighters, and attack planes on specially constructed targets out on the range. While thousands of us cluttered the adjoining mountain side fliers from nearby fields systematically annihilated an imaginary enemy formation in the flats below.

For those participating it was primarily another practice mission. They were simply putting in time at formation flying and target work. For us it was an air show. However the announcer added a bit of grim reality by telling us first to imagine that we were in the combat zone and had made the mistake of crowding into a small space like that represented by the target area. "One unit made that mistake in Africa not so many months ago," he said, "and what is about to follow will show why very few men or pieces of equipment were left intact."

Then a couple of P-39s came zooming over. They were snappers hunting for just that kind of easy set up. Poor camouflage, everything huddled together, no slit trenches or fox holes.

In response to their radio report, destruction for that unit was soon on the way. In fact, four waves of destruction, any of which could have done the job very effectively, took their turns at lambasting the area.

First there was a formation of strafing P-39s spraying armor piercing and incendiary bullets. Judging from the number of dust spots they kicked up and the several fires they started their attack was devastating, in itself enough to knock a unit out of action.

Next came a flight of B-26 Marauders for a high altitude bombing run. They weren't very spectacular. Just flew over at about 10,000 feet, and dropped 100 pound bombs which weren't even visible from where we sat. But a few moments later all hell broke loose in the target area. A cluster of explosions followed by a dense cloud of dust and smoke rising about 300 feet in the air. They had used the pattern system of bombing to cover the entire space rather than precision bombing on specified points. In view of the fact that the concussion of each bomb is fatal to personnel for a radius of about 50 feet, not counting the possible damage by flying fragments, it is hard to imagine how anyone could have survived the attack.

The versatility of our fighter-bombers was well demonstrated in plastering administered by a flock of P-40s. Equipped with bombs they have another name, I don't remember what. The important thing is that they still look like P-40s and have all the old punch, plus a lot more that's been added.

They used two methods of attack, dive bombing and sky bombing. In the first they dove down to about 1000 feet and cut loose with 500 pounders. In the other they approached at a low level with machine guns blazing and dropped delayed action bombs some distance ahead of the target. Striking the ground at its terrific speed and almost horizontal angle, the bomb skips along very much like a pebble glancing over the surface of water. In fact, bombs are frequently skidded over water that way, into the side of an enemy ship to crash at the water line or slightly below where it can do the most damage. Reason for the delayed fuse is to give the plane time to get away from the blast.

A-20 attack planes also displayed a few favorite tricks, such as dropping clusters of small fragmentation bombs or incendiaries. Like the P-40s they came in low, almost hedge hopping, and squirting a hail of 50 calibre slugs intended principally to make anti-aircraft personnel dive for cover, as well as to inflict the usual strafing damage. Then the clustered.

Christmas In The Solomons

A letter to Mr. and Mrs. John Felderhoff from their son, Pvt. Lawrence Felderhoff, dated Nov. 15, arrived this week and reveals that men in that sector have already received Christmas gifts sent them from the states and "nobody knows how much they mean to us." He was somewhere in the Solomon Islands. He also stated that he sees Cpl. Albert Hoelker of Lindsay every day and that they sleep in tents right across the aisle from each other. He mentioned having been at Munda, Arundel and in the New Georgia group, adding that both he and Cpl. Hoelker were well and fine, and included regards to all the folks at home.

Back With His Outfit

Pvt. Vincent Felderhoff has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Felderhoff, that he is back with his outfit in Italy, recovered from a sprained ankle that kept him in a north Africa hospital for a few weeks. He is connected with the 5th Army.

They accompanied him as far as Fort Worth where he boarded a train. Gerald did not know where he would be stationed in the future, but was advised that he would be located in the states. He has had about a year of Navy duty in the S.W. Pacific aboard ship.

Miss Becker went to San Diego during the past week, and on Sunday Mrs. Henry Fette and her daughter, Mrs. Joe Voth, left so that they can attend the ceremony. They are to be guests of Mrs. Fette's sister-in-law, Mrs. Len Morris at Yucaipa, Calif.

Sends Souvenirs Home

Very interesting are the souvenirs received by Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Endres from their son, Warrant Officer Gilbert Endres, stationed with the army in Africa. Outstanding is a brass ash tray, his own handiwork, fashioned from the base of an 88 mm German anti aircraft shell. It is two and a half inches high and is smoothly polished. The holders, for cigarette or cigar, four of them, are beveled French coins of two franc denomination. It weighs about three pounds and has been left on display at the Enterprise office. Also included in the package were a number of small baskets, made of native grasses by inhabitants of the sector near which Endres is stationed, and a collection of more than one hundred kodak pictures and other photos from Africa.

AVIATION STUDENT

27th Infantry Takes Part In Makin Battle

News reports Wednesday revealed that U.S. troops secured the initial objective in the new offensive action on the Gilbert Islands, and that American forces captured Makin Isle from the Japs in a decisive victory.

Army troops of the 27th Infantry division and marines of the second division took part in the battle, it was officially reported. Muenster and Lindsay are both represented in the 27th infantry division. Pvt. Lawrence Felderhoff son of Mr. and Mrs. John Felderhoff, this city, and Cpl. Albert Hoelker, son of Mrs. C. Hoelker, Lindsay, are members of that division.

Visits Pompeii

S. Sgt. Ferd Yosten has written home to report that he is well and still somewhere in Italy. He recently visited the ruins of Pompeii the ancient city of Italy, near Naples, destroyed by an eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, A.D. 79, largely laid bare by modern excavations, and tells of many interesting things seen there. What seemed to impress him most was the water system through the city, with its many lead pipes and odd brass faucets. He advised that he is sending home a box of souvenirs that he has gathered on his tours and included is a bit of lava from the angered mountain picked up at Pompeii.

Draft Board Starts Calling Fathers

Cooke County draft board has begun calling up Muenster fathers for army examinations according to the number of notice cards which arrived in this city during the week.

Funeral services were held Tuesday. Survivors are his wife, a son and a daughter, and one brother.

Shay was an employee of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway as a cashier and was secretary-treasurer of the American Federation of Musicians group in Wichita Falls.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Hellman returned Monday from a several weeks' visit in Illinois and other points. The greater part of the time was spent in Chicago with their daughter, Mrs. Vincent Baker and family. A new son, Billy, joined the Baker household on Oct. 30, and the grandparents were sponsors at baptism. Dr. and Mrs. Hugo Hellman and little son of Milwaukee were also present for the christening service.

Mr. and Mrs. Hellman also visited in Milwaukee with their son, Hugo and family, and in Fort Madison, Iowa, with John Hellman and other relatives and enroute home stopped at Tulsa, Okla. to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. P.W. Hellman and children.

Thanks From Chp. Zimmerer

Chaplain Francis Zimmerer, stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga., has written to thank Muenster people for the lovely Mass vestments he has received through their generosity. The vestments were made by Mrs. Lena Streng and the materials were purchased with funds donated by local citizens. Chaplain Zimmerer wrote the card of thanks to Mrs. Streng and told her to convey his own gratitude and the sincere thanks of the soldiers he serves for the gift. The men were overjoyed, he stated, at seeing him in a vestment other than the customary black, the only one he had until he received the new vestments. The local Mission Circle and a group of persons here made the gift possible.

Albert Seyler Recovers

A letter this week from Mrs. Wm. Seyler, Justin, advises that her son, Pilot Albert Seyler, seriously injured in a plane crash several weeks ago, is well on the way to complete recovery. She visited with him at the air base in North Carolina and has just returned home. He will be given a leave in the near future. Young Seyler is the grandson of Joseph Kreitz of Muenster.

Fund For War Chest Nearing Quota Figure

Muenster's War Chest total climbed considerably during the past week, and indications are that this community will reach its goal by the time the campaign close in the county. Chairman J. M. Weinzapfel stated that the local total Wednesday was less than $200 short of the goal.

The county likewise is nearing its quota. Tuesday's total was less than $1,000 from the goal. In addition to donations acknowledged last week the following Muensterites have contributed: J.H. Otto .....$20.00 Albert A. Knabe ..... 1.00 Mrs. Wm. Gehrig ..... 1.00 John Kleiss ..... 5.00 (Continued on Page 2)

Petition For School Tax Presented

Asks For Election To Vote Maintenance Tax For School Bus System

The board of trustees of the Muenster Independent School District, No. 82, met Friday evening in the schoolhouse for the purpose of considering a petition that has been presented to the board by duly qualified voters of the district, said petition asking that an election be called by the board to let the voters of the district determine whether they wish a tax voted upon themselves for the purpose of maintenance. The petition was presented by voters interested in having a complete bus system set up in the district.

The petition reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned resident qualified property tax-paying voters of Muenster Independent District, No. 82, who own taxable property in said district, and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, respectfully pray your honorable body to order an election in said district at the earliest date practicable, but within thirty days from the date of the election order, for the purpose of submitting the following proposition to the resident qualified property tax-paying voters of said school district who own taxable property in said district and who have duly rendered the same for taxation for their action thereupon:

"Shall the board of trustees of Muenster Independent School District, No. 82, have the power to levy and collect an ad valorem tax on the one hundred dollar valuation of all taxable property in said district, for the maintenance of public free schools in Muenster Independent School District, No. 82, of and at the rate of not exceeding twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of taxable property in said district, such tax, if voted, to be levied and collected for the year 1944, and annually thereafter unless it be discontinued as provided by law."

The secretary of the school board advised that the election order will be posted within the near future, which order would set the date of the election and the place said election would be held.

Board members are agreed that there are not sufficient funds available to continue maintenance of the school system under the present method and that the cost of bus operation and future replacements of buses, or the purchase of additional buses, would not be considered with the present available funds.

The tax, it is understood, is to be a sliding scale tax, that is, the tax rate can be one cent, and cannot exceed twenty-five cents. The board pointed out that if the operations can be met by making the assessment 10 cents or 15 cents, that that is the procedure it will follow, in the event the voters decide they want a tax, as will be indicated if the election carries.

It is understood, however, that all parochial school students riding the buses will still be subject to a transportation charge, the rate to be determined by the board of trustees on a cost basis.

Enjoying the party in addition to the honorees and their family were Messrs. and Mmes. Joe Kathman, George Lutkenhaus and family, Joseph Flusche and daughters, Henry J. Fuhrmann, Al Wiesman and children, Al Kleiss and son.

This week America is celebrating Thanksgiving Day and even though we have some doubts in our minds we should be thankful as ever this year. We should remember that if we try and pray hard enough anything can be accomplished. We have this in our minds so that next year we can really celebrate a happy, free and thankful Thanksgiving.

The school is very proud to announce that we are fortunate in having a new library. Books are brought out of the Public Library in Gainesville on request. The P-T-A made it possible for us. We can never in words express our gratitude to them.

The Muenster outsiders played basketball with the Hays outsiders that became a hilarious as well as exciting game Friday night. The boys in their old days are climbing the ladder to fame or let's say just practicing to become famous. The score was: 23 to 15 in dear old Muenster's favor. We will go further and state the line up:

Emmett Martin ..... L.F.
Dewey Branch ..... R.F.
Andy Stelzer ..... C.
Gerald Stelzer ..... L.G.
Joe Cason ..... R.G.

Cornelia is observing the holidays by taking a trip to Wichita Falls. Lucky!

Dorothy and Florentine are just taking two little trips? Or Jean King tells of the good time she had visiting her grandmother in Denton.

We lost a very good pupil this week. Howard Bowers moved away. We will miss him but good luck to you Howard, wherever you are. It seems as if Muenster has a skating rink now. It is rumored that La Vetta, Mary Janelle, and Billie Jean had a wonderful time using their power house for skating.

Your Health

BY GEO. W. COX, M. D.

AUSTIN, TEXAS.—The first Thanksgiving Day in America was proclaimed for the purpose of expressing thanks for the colonists sturdy health that had allowed them to survive the hardships and exposure of the first rigorous year in America. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, is appealing to every citizen of Texas to give serious thought to the preservation of his own health and that of his community in the national crisis now existing.

"We can certainly be thankful that our health level has remained high despite the sacrifices and deprivations of war", Dr. Cox said. "Our people have retained their health to a remarkable degree and even under war conditions Texas has continued to show a decline of maternal and infant deaths."

Dr. Cox stated that within the last fifty years, health departments have been established throughout the country for the purpose of preventing disease. While their activities have been hindered by the lack of sufficient funds, nevertheless a great improvement in the nation's general health has resulted. Among the other benefits derived from the public health program is the fact that during this period the life span of the average person has been increased more than 15 years.

"The State of Texas has much to be thankful for in the steadily increasing interest and cooperation being shown in matters pertaining to sanitation and control of communicable diseases," said Dr. Cox. "Responsibility for the success and advancement of the public health program lies not with the health department primarily but with the people who support and encourage the community effort put forth and who apply in their own individual lives the knowledge which they have acquired."

The Baptist WMU met in regular weekly session Monday afternoon at the church and instead of a regular Bible program the ladies present varnished the church pews. Mrs. H.L. The meeting next week will be in the home of Mrs. Bob Ryle.

THE ENTERPRISE HAS A BIRTHDAY

Another year has rolled around and this week The Enterprise observes another birthday — it's seven years old. With pride and gratitude we identify this issue as Volume VIII, Number 1.

Pride, because we're proud of having published a newspaper for Muenster for seven years. Especially proud that we have been able to carry on, handicapped as we have been since our editor and publisher donned the khaki for Uncle Sam in February, 1942. Many small town weeklies have discontinued publication for the duration.

Grateful, because no matter how good our own intentions are to carry on, we couldn't have, except for the encouragement and support we've received from our readers and from our advertisers.

Very appropriately the anniversary falls on Thanksgiving Day. It is fitting that we express again our thanks to all those who have made it possible for us to continue our efforts. We are grateful to our loyal readers for their interest and to our loyal advertisers for their continued confidence in this paper as an advertising medium.

During its short lifetime the Enterprise's circulation has grown steadily until now it reaches close to the one thousand mark, and is the most thoroughly read weekly newspaper in Cooke County.

Second only to the loyalty of our supporters is our own effort. Publishing a newspaper is no picnic. It involves sacrifices, it details many night sessions, and it grants few holidays. But in the end it stands out as a reward for the time and effort, as a worthwhile achievement.

It seems appropriate to add that we're happy over the fact that the Enterprise brings cheer to Muenster's native sons, fighting as they are on the far flung battle fields of the globe. It's heart warming to know we're doing something for those gallant lads, some little something, that urges them to take time out from duty, often between battles, sometimes from fox holes, to say they enjoy the Enterprise, that it's like a letter from home. Invariably they conclude with something like, "While we're holding down the battle front, you take care of the home front, and be sure you keep the paper coming."

In addition to being sent to 42 states of the union, the Enterprise goes on its way also to Canada, Alaska, Central and South America, England, Africa, Sicily, India, Iraq, the Aleutian Islands, the Hawaiian Islands, Australia and New Caledonia and to sailors who receive it aboard ship on the high seas.

So on this day of Anniversary and of Thanksgiving, the Enterprise is thankful for the confidence and cooperation it has received. It's a privilege to represent a progressive, patriotic community like Muenster. We look forward to many more years of service.

Electric POWER

FOR GREAT ARMY CAMPS!

Texas Power & Light Company has repeatedly demonstrated its ability to meet emergency demands for electric power to keep the war program moving.

This Company now serves six great Army camps, each of which requires as much electricity as a city of more than 25,000 population. From the very beginning of construction, this Company provided adequate, dependable electric service... and in each case permanent installations for serving the camp were ready before the camp was completed.

Texas Power & Light Company has promptly and efficiently met every demand for electric power for military installations and war industries. These accomplishments were not by accident. They are the result of 31 years of planning and building to meet all needs as they arise... the result of 31 years of operation in the American Way... the system of free enterprise which has made America great and strong and equal to her emergency needs in these days of great crises.

Today we pledge our all to hasten the victorious end of the war and to the preservation of the American Way of Life, which the dictators are seeking to destroy.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS PLAY SUNDAY NIGHT

An appreciative audience of 260 people enjoyed Lindsay High's presentation of Bobby In Between, a three-act comedy drama by Robert St. Clair. Among the many benefits of staging a play, as discussed by our director, Sister Alphonsine, at a meeting of the Little Theatre group, a very important one is that it unites members of the community in cheerful social activity and strengthens home morale. We are happy to have the opportunity of promoting the public welfare in some small way by offering good entertainment to the people of Lindsay.

Choral Club Contributes To Entertainment

Getting the audience in a friendly mood, tingling with the warm glow of pleasure, from the opening curtain was the work of the Choral Club. "America We're Just Beun" gave the program a flying start and "Me and My Uncle Sam" was an appropriate finale to the brisk, vigorous genuinely American comedy, Bobby In-Between.

ABBOT PAUL NAHLEN THANKS FOR SUCCESS OF ALUMNI BENEFIT

Nov. 20. (Special to the Enterprise) — Real gratitude is deeper than words. For this reason my words will fail to convey my real sentiments. I am very deeply grateful to the people of Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville for the overwhelming support given the Subiaco Alumni picnic at Muenster on October 24. It was a grand success, credit for which belongs to the entire community. You are to be congratulated on having real leaders. They performed a huge task remarkably well. You people of Muenster and Lindsay are loyal followers of your leaders. No higher commendation can be given a people than loyalty to a recognized good cause. It was loyalty to the cause of Religion and Education which caused your leaders to arrange for the benefit party. Subiaco College and Abbey were the beneficiaries, particularly the Subiaco Press Fund. The Subiaco Press is the chief objective which the Alumni elected to sponsor four years ago. They have carried out their adopted resolutions with remarkable success — it proves that Subiaco products are real go-getters who will not stop until they have reached their goal — we are proud of our boys and grateful to you for supporting their efforts — by "our boys" I mean all the Alumni of Subiaco, including your spiritual leaders who have guided you these many years — some are gone to their reward, others are incapacitated because of physical afflictions, for these we ask your prayers. New blood from Subiaco is serving you now for whom we ask cooperation and support — These lines are a means of thanking you for cheerful and generous support given on Oct. 24 and previously. Thank you and may God reward you exceedingly, is the sincere and grateful wish of Rev. Paul M. Nahlen, O.S.B., Abbot of New Subiaco Abbey and President of Subiaco College, Ark.

ters are dropped and a mechanical gadget scatters them after they fall clear. A moment later a rattle of explosions throws jagged fragments in all directions. Men outside fox holes or slit trenches haven't much of a chance.

Incendiary bombs, either magnesium or thermite, are scattered the same way. The difference, however, is that these start fires the instant they land. And, to discourage fire fighters, they are usually accompanied by a few small fragmentation bombs set to detonate in about a minute and a half. This little innovation is said to be very effective in keeping troops in their fox holes while fires are making a good start.

Everything considered, it was a very interesting and enlightening demonstration. Even thrilling. For people like me — and obviously there are lots of them — who still crane their necks and gawk at every passing plane, the spectacle of dozens of 'em in formation and doing tricks is a rare treat. We artillery men are grateful to the air corps for their little performance.

At the same time, we might as well admit it, we're slightly envious of them for their ability to put on a good show.

We don't have anything to compare with the spectacular peeling off or blazing in over tree tops. Our job is less sensational, rather like that of the boys in the high altitude bombers who simply hover over the bomb sight and press a button. We have a lot of guns hidden away in the brush and gulley, plus aiming circles, panoramic sights, field glasses, firing tables, and various other gadgets with which to observe and calculate. The same standard of precision work goes on but all of it is hidden from the eye of the spectator. All except the result.
