All three districts potential losers ...

Confusion reigns upon finance bill's passage

Reporter's note: This is the first of a two-part series on Texas's new education reform bill and the effect it will have on Hansford County's school districts and taxpayers.

This week's story outlines in the broadest sense some of what the very complex, 48-page reform bill mandates. Next week's article will include in-depth interviews with Superintendents Roy Harris, Tommy Cathey and Larry Butler, as well as the most specific and updated financial data available.

After seven years of haggling, both in the courts and the Texas State Legislature, an education finance reform bill designed to equalize school funding has passed and been signed into law.

On Thursday, April 11, the Legislature passed Bill 351, which was then signed into law by Governor Ann Richards Monday, April 15.

Confusion and uncertainty reign all over Texas in the aftermath of the reform bill's passage. Hansford County's three school district superintendents are doggedly sifting through reams of data, including the new 48-page law itself, in an attempt to assess the changes it will make for the school systems.

Pringle-Morse Independent School District (ISD), Gruver ISD and Spearman ISD are all considered to be "slightly above average to very well-off" in terms of per pupil expenditure and tax valuation wealth, according to Spearman Superintendent Larry Butler. He said this ranking or rating is determined by state property tax boards and the Texas Education Agency (TEA).

Since Bill 351 seeks to equalize school funding statewide, partly through redistribution of locally-raised property taxes, all three Hansford County school systems are potential "losers" in the 1991-92 school

Bill 351 creates 188 County Education Districts (CEDs) to group poor to wealthy independent school districts as new districts for funding purposes. Hansford County has been put in a CED with Sherman, Potter, Dallam and Moore counties. Although Pringle-Morse straddles Hansford and Hutchinson Counties, it is being included in Hansford County for CED

The philosophy behind relativelywealthy to wealthy school districts sharing some of their local monies with their poorer neighbors in the same CED has been described as a "Robin Hood" solution to traditionally inequitable school funding, i.e. the State "steals" from the rich to give to

It should be noted that the Legislature plans to have the bulk of the equalizing monies-to the tune of $1.3 billion!-come from the State of Texas itself. This money will not come out of existing funds, but be generated by some new fundraising source for education. The most likely source for this money would be a new tax, possibly even a state income tax.

Initially, the Legislature estimated that $400 million would come from increased local property taxes, but new projections from the TEA show that amount will be as much as $2.1

Hansford County's schools will actually be struggling with three crucial money matters in terms of school funding next year if Bill 351 and its follow-up Omnibus bill (not yet passed) are in effect.

First, the local taxes raised in this county for local schools may be up for "recapture," meaning to be alloted to other school systems in the five-county CED. Secondly, the state funds Gruver and Spearman receive may be cut, so that they can instead be redistributed to poorer districts all over Texas. (It should be noted here that Pringle-Morse is a budget balanced school and does not receive state funds.)

Thirdly, the tax valuation on which the three local school systems base their tax rate and, ultimately, their yearly budgets, are going to decrease in 1991-92. This information has already been given to all three superintendents. Spearman's tax valuation will decrease by five million dollars, Butler reported.

This means that unless the tax rate is increased to make up for the devaluation, the three local schools systems will have less money for the 1991-92 school year, regardless of what happens under the new law.

This all seems to spell "money crunch" for Hansford County's schools next fall, but the new law and its mandates are extremely complex and open to many interpretations at this point. In addition, it is almost certain, according to Butler, Harris and Cathey, that the constitutionality of Bill 351 will be challenged in the court of law within the next few days

A 1931 Texas State Supreme Court decision called Love vs. the City of Dallas ruled that in this state, one taxing district cannot raise monies and transfer then to other taxing districts. Morse's Harris said this is only one of three or four "very questionable" provisions of Bill 351 that will be challenged in terms of legali-the education funding case, strikes down the new law as unconstitutional, the law will be upheld and all school districts in Texas must adhere to it. The law would also have to be upheld during the time it was being challenged in the courts.

There are several significant points to consider in all this confusion. The pasic facts are that the Texas State Supreme Court has ruled (Edgewood vs. Kirby) that it isn't legal for some school districts to have more money to spend on schools that others. The Court demanded that the Texas State Legislature devise a reform bill to equalize funding across the state. The Legislature now claims it has passed a bill that will accomplish this momentous task, yet that bill's con-stitutionality is already up for challenge.

For now, school districts are left in limbo. No superintendent has yet received the final data from the TEA's Lynn Moak which would tell them what their state funds will be or what local funds will be "recaptured" by other, poorer school

Moak is the Deputy Commissioner for Research and Development who ultimately "plugs the numbers into the formulas," said Butler, to determine who gets what. The local superintendents also noted that the preliminary data they have received is full of glaring errors. For example, the amount of tax assessed per hundred dollar valuation of property noted for Hansford County's districts is a higher figure on the data sheets received than what is actually taxed.

Superintendents Butler, Cathey and Harris will discuss Bill 351 and, specifically, its effect on the future of their school systems, in next week's Hansford County Reporter-

County to help pay for deeper landfill

by JoAnn Morton

Hansford County commissioners, at their April 22 meeting authorized an expenditure of $8,000 to deepen the pit at the Spearman municipal land-

According to Hansford County Judge Jim Brown, the commissioners authorized the expenditure as part of an effort to lengthen the life span of the landfill until specific solid waste disposal guidelines are issued by the Environmental Protection

"The county is continuing to work with the City of Spearman to try to resolve the solid waste disposal problem in Hansford County," said Brown. "Until the EPA gives us some specific guidelines to work with, the only option we have is to try to use the current landfill as long as possible." In other business commis authorized the letting of bids for a authorized the letting of bids for an air conditioning system for the county courthouse.

The commissioners' court discussed a resolution concerning prison construction in Texas, but did not sign the resolution.

The resolution, received from the Texas Association of Counties, would give the state a virtual blank check in the matter of funding prison con-struction, according to Brown.

The resolution is in support of the state legislature being able to enact any taxation it sees fit, to fund prison construction, said Brown. He com-mented that the resolution would take away a measure of local control over taxation, and Hansford County Commissioners do not agree with the wording of the resolution.

Personnel policy was discussed by the commissioners. Regular business included approval of minutes of the treasurer's report and investments, road grader for Precinct No. 1, and and payment of claims.

Gives notice of deficiencies ...

Council takes action against Mission Cable

Mission Cable Company representatives told the Spearman City Council about recent changes in the company's cable television system, but city officials still don't seem to be happy with Mission Cable.

The position taken by Mission Cable is that the cable television system has been upgraded and the company is in compliance with the city's franchise ordinance. The position taken by the City of Spearman is that Mission Cable is not complying with agreements made in the franchise ordinance.

At the April 16 Spearman City Council meeting, council members voted to give the cable company a notice of deficiencies and to file any required judicial action in accordance with the franchise ordinance. Rick Wall, regional manager for Mission Cable, attended the meeting with Richard Taapken, area manager, and Vicky Genn, secretary. Wall told the council that any litigation with Mission Cable was the responsibility of the company's administration, and their attendance was for the purpose of answering questions about the quality of service in Spearman. Taapken said a Spanish channel has been added to the system, and that an up-stream line for each school campus has been installed except for amplifiers. He also said the emergency alert system is complete and the system has been expanded to accomodate 36 channels.

In other business, the council adopted a resolution which suspends rate increases proposed by Texas-New Mexico Power Company for a period of 90 days beyond the proposed effective date. Texas-New Mexico had extended an invitation for up to three members of the city council to tour its new Robertson County generating facility, but the council voted to decline the invitation.

The council also considered participating in a telephone franchise steering committee. Jim Murray, city manager, said Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is currently involved in litigation with several cities which concerns the payment of franchise taxes to the cities.

He said it is his understanding that GTE, which serves Spearman, is taking a "wait and see" attitude on the litigation before negotiating new franchise agreements. The council then voted its approval of participating in the telephone franchise steering committee.

The season schedule and fees for the municipal swimming pool were set by the council. The swimming pool will be open Monday through Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. and Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m., from Wednesday, May 29 through Sunday, Aug. 25. The pool will also be open for the Labor Day holiday weekend.

On Tuesdays, the pool will have "Teen Night" and will be open from 8 to 10 p.m. Thursdays will be "Family Night" from 8 to 10 p.m.

Admission charges will be $1.50 for age 12 and under; $2 for age 13-18; and $2.50 for age 18 and over. Season passes will be priced at $40 for 12 and under; $50 for 13-18 and $60 for those over the age of 18. No family passes are available.

Cost for parties is $35 per hour, with one guard and concession for 25 peo-There will be an additional charge of $10 per hour for each additional 25 persons. Lessons are priced at $15 for 12 lessons of 30 minutes

The council voted to purchase a used cash register and time clock for the swimming pool. The cash register will be purchased from Southern Office Supply at a cost of $450, and the time clock will be purchased from Bob Boxwell at a cost of $100. Southern Office Supply had submitted a price quote of $295 for a time

After discussion concerning employment of an administrative assistant, the council voted to do so and set the salary range from $23,000 to $28,000. The city manager was authorized to advertise for an administrative assistant.

Consideration was given to a settlement offer which was made in a lawsuit filed by the city. The offer was rejected.

Regular council business included approval of minutes of meetings held March 19 and April 9; approval of monthly fire, ambulance, police, municipal court and animal control reports; approval of monthly bills payable, investments and current cash position; and approval of the February revenue and expense

Billy Beacham, president of Stu-dent Discipleship Ministries and author of the seminar material used in Spearman's "Thirty-Something" discipleship event, will speak to parents, grandparents and parentsto-be at the Lyric Theatre Saturday, May 4 at 1 p.m.

The session, which is free to all who attend, will center on the same topic studied by participating "Thirty-Something" youth - Family Relationships. Beacham will share with parents what their children will learn about in small group sessions during the event.

The material was written to help young people recognize and accept responsibility in building healthy relationships in their homes. This year's study, titled "The True Test," is designed to help students understand: biblical principles and guidelines for family relationships, behavior that contributes to the building up or tearing down of the home, how reactions reveal your true character, life change takes place from the inside out, and how to handle conflict in the home.

He came back to the U.S. April 4 and has been in Las Vegas since that time, with his family traveling there to visit him upon his return. "I'm just

Oscar's brother Lee Herrera (right) is also in the U.S. military service, and has been in San Diego, Calif. with the United States Marine Corps since Jan. 28. Jesus said:

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

Letter to the editor

We are the parents of Alan Beeson, who has been stationed with the U.S. Army 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment during Operation Desert

We finally received a muchwelcomed phone call from Alan. He was out of Iraq, waiting in Saudi Arabia to fly back to his base in Germany between April 19-23.

Alan stated he was involved in all 100 hours of the war. He said he saw many people killed, lots of equipment destroyed and that they captured over 10,000 EPWs.

Alan wanted to pass on to the residents of Spearman his "Thanks" for all the mail and packages. He said he has half a duffle bag full of letters, and is sorry he hasn't had time to answer each letter.

He said he was glad everyone had pulled together during these times and was proud there weren't any protesters here.

He wanted to tell everyone he appreciated their support and that Spearman was going to look a lot different to him now.

Jim and Linda Beeson Spearman

Dear Editor:

I am very concerned about the recent actions of the area city councils, chambers, county commissioners, and school boards to support a resolution that favors the expansion of the Pantex plant in Amarillo.

I am hoping that the members of these boards did their homework and informed themselves about the function of the plutonium plant at Rocky Flats, Colorado (17 miles from Denver), and why this plant is being

FUNCTIONS OF THE ROCKY FLATS, COLO. PLANT:

1. The plant makes triggers for atomic bombs from plutonium, a radioactive material that is notoriously treacherous to handle, prone to spontaneous combustion and so potent that lethal lung doses are measured in the billionth of a gram. One billionth of a particle is all a human has to inhale for it to be

2. Plutonium oxidizes readily on contact with oxygen, especially if it is in fine pieces or shavings, which occurs when being made into precisely designed triggers. There has been hundreds of small fires and two major blazes that have involved significant radioactive releases at Rocky Flats. Technology is not available to filter out the finest particles of plutonium from the air, so there is an ever present danger of inhaling even a single molecule which is lethal to a

3. Hundreds of barrels of radioactive waste were produced every month at Rocky Flats. There is no permanent [storage for the waste at this time.

The plant is being moved for one major reason: safety. After many years of accidents from trying to prove the plant's safety, the Department gy (DOE) finally conceded and the plant was closed in Dec. 1989 to because of safety concerns and severe contamination. The soil is contaminated as far as 9 miles from the plant and toxic wastes have leaked into the ground water. The General Accounting office in Washington, D.C. says Rocky Flats is it's "worst environmental mess.' Quantities of waste have been Quantities of waste have been mishandled and hundreds of drums filled with plutonium contaminated oil have been stacked, leaking most of the time. It is estimated that 86 grams of plutonium were lost from the drums, enough to give lung cancer to every person on earth.

Many of these facts were discovered in a law suit filed against the plant by a nearby land owner in 1985. At the same time, the plant managers were saying that everything was fine and safe.

A Good Cents home has special features built in to ensure that it's Energy Fit ... so you can reduce energy waste without reducing your comfort. At the present time, the "TIGER Team" of the Department of Energy has revealed that Pantex is contaminated 292 feet down because of solvents that were put in an unlined pit up until 1980. This in itself is very larming to me.

These are all facts, which are not easily found because all the inner workings of weapons plants are closely guarded secrets. At the present, there is no technology available to operate the plutonium plant safely without contamination. Pantex could become a waste dump, by default because there is no place for this waste to go. We just finished fighting this issue in Deaf Smith County.

The Department of Energy has to answer to no one. Their credibility is zero, everyone who has ever dealt with the D.O.E. knows this. Safe, sound and proven technology has to be developed before this plant is moved to Amarillo.

I hope not only the city council members, county commissioners, chamber of commerces, and school board members but each of you will act as a public watch dog to make sure this plant is not moved to Amarillo.

My hope is that this area continues to be a good and safe place to live for generations to come.

Nutrition Advice For Women

Consumers today are subject to many dietary do's and don'ts, many of which are deceiving. Women are particularly vulnerable to nutritious misinformation because of cultural factors emphasizing a slender figure. In hopes of achieving this, women turn to fad diets and quick fixes. This misinformation, along with poor food choices and inconsistent eating habits may be compounding the pro-

An experience few will ever have was that of Eulalie, W.R. and Steven Greever one evening last week when they opened the door in response to a knock. The Greevers agreed, noting that he had everything needed on his bicycle, tent, sleeping bag, food and camera. After he made camp, he was invited in.

MANAMENTAN DISTANCE

For the first time in a couple of years, I knew what this week's column was going to be.

I had in my possession a little "ditty" called "Death and Taxes," but when I found it, I had marked it used in 1990. Now, I don't mind having it reprinted again, but some people remember some of the things I do, so I won't bother you again - unless you demand that I bring the subject up later. Especially for those of you who filed for extensions, you might need reminding.

Those of you who know me very well have heard me state, "I don't mind paying taxes. I'd be happy to pay taxes if I could prove that I had seen any income." No, I don't mind paying taxes but for those years that I have got caught owing them, I sure did holler loud and long. So, I guess I'm a hypocrite or something.

Anyhow after some research on paying taxes, maybe I'm changing my thinking a little bit. "Taxes' mean the setting aside of private properties for the common usage of the people. Webster helps one to know that taxes are "a charge imposed by authority on persons or property for public uses." (Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, p. 1209)

So, in our modern world of rampant taxation, we realize this is but one of the prices one pays for freedom. I can remember back when people had to pay a poll tax before they could cast their votes (or enrollment tax) but this was done away with when lawmakers said voting was not only your duty but a privilege and in order to promote "voting," we should not have to pay money or taxes.

For some reason or other, I kept M.H. last poll tax receipt as a souvenier or keepsake, but imagine my surprise that as a proof for Lewis to be able to file for a delayed birth certificate, I could produce this item. He had to have this birth certificate before he could receive social securi-

Also, the more income tax a person pays, the more social security he will receive when retirement occurs. So, if we (the Hendersons) would have paid more attention to these matters, the better off we would be now.

You young people get these facts now, and then be more prepared for your golden years. Of course, don't ask me where the money comes from to pay these taxes, because I haven't figured that out yet. I imagine that there are some luxury items and probably a few necessities we have to do without.

All of this is to say that we should be a little more understanding about paying taxes when we realize that some of that money goes for the defense of our country.

Last Saturday morning, several in our community gathered at the El Vaquero to welcome home two of our boys who had been involved in Desert Storm.

Roh Boney and Oscar Horrora were honored by their community and both of them stated how you don't know how much you miss America and the things it stands for until it is not there any more. These may not be their exact words, but the thoughts were along these lines.

Corky Chapman was master of ceremonies and the high school band members kept the occasion festive. Lewis Holland gave the invocation and Larry Miller gave the benedic-

Boy Scouts start finance drive

The Spearman Boy Scouts' annual finance drive will start Monday,

Harry Stumpf, finance chairman for Spearman Troop 551, says his goal is to raise $6,000 to support the 150 boys participating in scouting in Spearman.

According to Stumpf, the money goes to offset the $56 per year of additional costs needed for a boy to be in scouting. He explained that the money goes to support the two district scout camps and to help offset the expenses of supplying badges.

"The people of Spearman have always been generous toward the scouts and I know we will meet our goal, as we have in the past," stated Stumpf. He said that he expects to call on about 100 individuals and businesses in the next week and that 95 percent will donate at least $25.

Give these boys a big round of applause. Next month will be the Blue and Gold Banquet. There will be awards handed out just like all the meetings in the past, but these awards are for work done above what was needed for their ranks that they worked so hard for during the year. This will be one meeting a doting parent will not want to miss.

The boys should have received an application for Camp Parnell by now. When filled out, return them to your Scout leader or to Linda Cummings or Julie Ortega. Our Scouts only have to pay $12.00 of the camp fee. Our Scout organization will pay the $13.00. This will be a learning experience for the boys so think about it before you say no to the Camp.

Statement of Intent to Change Rates

In accordance with the regulations of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, Texas-New Mexico Power Company announces the Company's intent to change rates for its entire Texas operations. The effective date of such change is May 17, 1991. All classes of customers will be affected by said proposed changes. The proposed rates will produce an increase in gross revenues to the Company over test year revenues adjusted for test year customer growth and weather and annualization of test year rate increases of $35,836,827, or 9.63%. TNP is proposing an alternative rate base treatment for Unit 2 of TNP One, the second unit of the Company's generating facility located in Robertson County, Texas. Under this alternative, sale-leaseback treatment will be given to Unit 2, thereby including a lease payment in the cost of service, as opposed to traditional rate base treatment. If adopted, the sale-leaseback plan results in an increase in gross revenues of $31,210,197 or an 8.38% increase over adjusted test year revenues during the first year of the plan. Texas-New Mexico Power Company provides electrical service to more than 165,011 customers located within the state of Texas.

A complete copy of the requested rate filing package is on file with the Public Utility Commission of Texas in Austin, Texas, and with all cities served by Texas-New Mexico Power Company which have retained orig inal jurisdiction. You may inspect a copy of the filing during normal business hours at each business office of Texas-New Mexico Power Company in your area.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf Strange how pollution reaches us in the most unexpected and frightening places. History teaches us that water is the key ingredient to survival in his part of the world, yet the protests at the death of Buffalo Lake in the '60s were barely audible. Is history repeating on the Canadian River?

"April 1991 Guidelines For Eating

Fish From Ute Lake," available from Game and Fish Dept., contains some frightening reading for all residents of this area, because it describes how many fish may be caught and eaten before risking health problems such as kidney disease, and/or eye, respiratory tract or brain damage" due to mercury poisoning.

Brain darnage is something I am definitely not willing to risk; so all my fish from Ute Lake can count on being released.

After spending several days on the phone with "experts," it is clear that officials in both Texas and New Mexico are surprised at the sudden high levels of mercury found in the fish. The impact of this 'warning' on the terrific people doing business near Ute Lake remains to be seen, but health warnings seldom improve business

The quality of New Mexico water directly affects everyone down stream. Where does the water from Ute Lake go? Directly into the Canadian River and after picking up a "load of salt, it ends up in Lake Meredith and the drinking water of Fritch, starting at 9:00 a.m. The flea market is in conjunction with the 14 west Texas communities. (All government experts agree that no health risk from mercury in drinking water has been proven.) Logic dictates that we better keep a close eye on this situation.

Congratulations to the brothers, Larry and Dean Logan of north Randall County, on their sweep of first and second place in the Walleye category at the first 1991 Lake Meredith Fun Tournament. Melvin Kaylor of Borger may have lost the "Lake Record" for black bass last year but he pocketed over $500 by winning the Bass category. The fishing will get better as the water warms up. You are invited to try a Fun Tournament at Lake Meredith on the first and third Thursday evening each month. Fun Tournaments at White River are scheduled for the second Thursday evening of each month. Mark your calendar and we will see you on May 9 at the White River Marina with registration beginning at 3:00 p.m. and fishing from 6:00 til 9:00 p.m. All Fun Tournaments cost only $20, and if 100 anglers enter, the winner takes home $750.00.

The West Texas Sportsman Show in Lubbock on May 10 - 12 will have Dr. Loren Hill of OU Research Station at Lake Texoma sharing some striper and bass secrets. He joins former Dallas Cowboy Randy White, B.A.S.S. Champion Ted Miller, and Trout expert Ti Pipper as they reveal secrets of the great outdoors.

PERRYTON - Perryton Family Services Director, John O'Nan, announces plans for a Parent's Information and Self-Help Group.

Family Services is facilitating and sponsoring formation of a local group for this area similar to the TEXAMI Group. TEXAMI stands for Texas Alliance for the Mentally Ill and is affiliated with The National Alliance Group. The Texas Group is located at Texas 78701, phone 512-474-2225.

This is a group that was organized as part of the National Group in August of 1984 to represent local grassroots, self-help, support, and advocacy affiliates of families of the mentally ill, as well as those persons themselves. The function is to promote the exchange of information and assist in formulation of new support groups.

Local level groups provide emotional support and practical advice to families. Sessions, besides providing information about mental health conditions, will have a "Caring and Sharing" portion, which most families find supportive of their situations that can be threatened by the severe and major upheavals caused by symptoms of serious mental illness.

Primary functions will not be limited to these, but will be set by the local group members who will elect their own officers, do their own chartering, and prioritizing of focus of needs. The National/State people are available for resource.

O'Nan feels that this is an excellent addition to help offset some of the shrinking services to this population group. However, many of the chapters find that their functions are in these areas of development:

1) Setting a network geographically contiguous affiliate groups whose primary purpose and membership criteria are consistent with the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill support groups.

2) These "grassroots" groups will eventually represent the 150 Texas Legislative Districts and will develop as influential resource components in the decisions that affect the mentally ill population in Texas.

3) Another function will be to facilitate and participate in statewide education programs focusing on combating the stigma of men-

4) To serve as a resource to assist the public system to upgrade See group page 16

There is a $15 individual membership fee for the Texas Association and other membership fees for other individuals, but at this time the individuals who form the initial group in Perryton will set their own
