weather conditions were reported by Pan-favorable weather to finish harvests and pre-been stripped, and producers were waiting for modules to be picked up. Cotton yields were reported to be good or above average across much of the region. However, winter wheat continued to struggle due to lack of moisture in some areas. Counties reported the crop in poor to excellent condition, de-

Words from Faith & Grace

by Cecil R. Biggers, Lutheran Lay Minister

1: 47-55, James 5: 7-10, and Matthew 11: 2-11.

The prophet Isaiah writes of the Advent of God. To a people in bondage he announces that the desert shall rejoice and blossom. Do not fear! Here is your God! God appears to save! If this sounds familiar, listen again to Handel's Messiah. The message is that God is our salvation and God will grant whatever is needed for us to reach the potential of our created humanity. Note that the healing by God numbers seven; therefore, God's healing is complete, perfect.

Luke presents the Song of Mary, the Magnificat. The young Mary sings a thanksgiving for the mercy of God Mary sings that she is lowly because as the world judges she is not of those who are highly esteemed. She sings of God's power and judgment, and the results of God's power and judgment is redemption. Mary's song cap tures the revolution of God's Advent! God scatters the proud, a moral revolution. God casts down the Mighty and exalts the lowly, a social revolution. God fills those who are hungry while the rich are empty, an economic revolution. Because of God's Advent, Mary sings that all generations will call her, blessed.

James urges the faithful to be patient. James urges the faithful to strengthen their hearts and not resort to grumbling at each other. When one suffers as the first century church was suffering, it is difficult to have patience. But, James warns that the Judge is standing at the doors! As an example of patience James calls attention to God's prophets, many of whom were killed, many of whom died before they saw the fulfillment of their prophecy From James we learn that of the Second Coming no man knows the day or hour. We know that it will be sudden as lightning! We are told to be ever alert and on watch We are told to have patience. We are told to use what time that we have to prepare! We are told that when Christ comes again, we must be found in fellowship, but we must have patience.

John the Baptist, a free soul, a child of the desert, is confined to a basement prison cell near the Dead Sea. He awaits his fate at the hand of Herod. John sends his disciples to ask Jesus, "Are you the One who is to come. or are we to wait for another?" Jesus answers John's disciples, "Go and tell John what you hear and see". They report the blind receive sight, the deaf receive hearing lepers receive pure skin, the dead are raised to life again. and the poor hear good news! The signs of the Advent of God. This was a witness not only for John, but for his disciples. Dear Christian, the Kingdom of God comes with our prayers or without them. When we pray, "Thy Kingdom Come", we are praying that God's Kingdom comes to us. Patience! Watch! Wait!

National Call for Christmas Boxes for the Troops Isn't it time to show them we care?

'Tis the Season! And this is a national call to all good Americans to show their love and support this holiday season for our deployed troops. Join us in our mission to ship Christmas Care Boxes to our soldiers overseas, and help us send a little bit of home and comfort their way.

SupportOurTroops.Org makes this call on behalf of the 60+ troop support groups across America who send care packages to the

Want to make a difference in the life of a soldier

this Christmas? It's simple! Just go to Support-OurTroops.Org, and click on the Christmas 2010 Care Package Icon. Over 90 groups are listed there. Just pick the one you want to send your care box goods to and follow the instructions. The types of things the troops request are listed there. The care box rules are posted there.

Martin C. Boire, Chairman of Support Our Troops, said "during 2010 SupportOurTroops.Org has shipped over $7,200,000 in goods to the troops worldwide with a 1.3% overhead. To Afghanistan, Iraq, Korea, Japan, Bosnia, Qatar, Kuwait, Guam and on and on. We are asking everyone to help us spread the word to send care packages to the troops for the holidays.'

He continued, "The items and the money to ship them come from generous people across America. It is amazing to see the way people step up for their troops. If you would like to provide items for future care boxes or make a donation to help pay to ship the goods, you can find everything you need to know posted on SupportOurTroops.Org, such as the type of things the troops are asking for, and where and how to send them to us. This shows them how much we all care.'

Our troops have a tough job -- and they can't go home at the end of the day to relax, get a hug from a loved one, or sleep in peace through the night to start fresh in the morning. Join us in sending a little bit of love and appreciation their way with a Christmas Care Package to boost their spirits and their hearts during the holidays.

It's a gesture that means more than you know. So come on. Let's get to it!

Gypsies, Lamps & Beads, owned and operated by Roxie Ralston, Traci Venneman, Erika Stedje and Lisa Salmans, is located at 231 Main Street. A spin off a favorite Cher song, Gypsies, Lamps & Beads is a great addition to the community because it holds an assortment of exciting finds.

Gypsies is what you might think of when you come in and enjoy the fun, carefree environment! Be careful, you may find yourself sitting at the round table and spending a little more time than planned.

Lamps are definitely something you will find; round ones, black and white ones, color ones, tall ones, new ones, antique ones, each and every one unique in its own way! The lamps are much like the furniture you will stumble upon; it is all redone, one of a kind and has a unique look that will catch your eye. Maybe enough to conversation start; maybe enough to purchase! Traci can even transform your old pieces you love and make you love them in new style.

Beads is quite obvious when you walk in because there are such vibrant and clever jewelry sorts in each corner and in between. If you don't find exactly what you want but have an idea in your head; sit and design with Roxie.

Some are even found wearing their accessory-less outfit in for a brainstorm of the perfect jewel.

Thank you!

I want everyone to know what a wonderful business First State Bank is. Last week I was in the bank and wrote a check for $200. I must have dropped the envelope in the bank, because when I got home I didn't have it. Everyone in the bank was so concerned. They didn't find it, but to my surprise, the bank reimbursed the money. They didn't have to do that! Thank you, too, to Ginger for coming over and trying to help me, and see if I was OK, and to Mike for being a wonderful person and friend.

The picture this week is a white tail buck, spotted near the lake, on the south side. I saw him move, then lay down, in some tall grass. I grabbed the binoculars, and could see his antlers. I took pictures while slowly getting closer to him. He didn't move at all, until I got within twenty yards of him. He was with a doe, and did not run far, leaving an opportunity for more pictures.
