

Carter: Russians Considered No Threat

President Increases Presence

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter ordered an increased U.S. military presence in the Caribbean primarily to reassure other nations in the region that they are safe from any Soviet-Cuban military threat, say senior U.S. officials.

The officials, who spoke to reporters Monday night on condition they not be named, said they still are not certain why the Soviet Union gave combat equipment and training to the 2,600-soldier brigade in Cuba.

But a top defense official said the existence of the Soviet detachment "could raise real questions in the minds of other countries in the region" about possible Soviet-Cuban intervention.

The administration had been worried that the brigade might be used against neighboring countries in Latin America, where the revolution in Nicaragua and unrest in El Salvador and elsewhere have led to heightened concern about possible Cuban intervention.

The defense official said Carter's actions are not designed to increase U.S. strength, which he said is already overwhelming in the Caribbean. "They do serve to remind people" of U.S. strength there, he said.

U.S. forces are "as a giant to an ant" when compared with the Soviet brigade, said the official. "We can deploy forces in that area that would swamp those forces."

Carter, in his speech to the nation, revealed that he has ordered:

—Stepped-up military maneuvers in the Caribbean, including stationing about 1,500 Marines to the U.S. base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, temporarily as part of a reinforcement exercise.

—The creation of a new military headquarters unit in Key West, Fla.

Made up of 60 Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps personnel, the unit will be functioning within a week and could be expanded to 100 persons. On occasion, the headquarters unit will be given control of operating forces in the Caribbean area, such as a Marine battalion or a large naval task force, the official said.

Carter also announced that he will seek increased economic aid to meet "human needs," and to "ensure the ability of troubled peoples to resist social turmoil and possible Communist domination."

A senior diplomatic official said the administration would be asking for

Pope Arrives in New York, To Address United Nations

NEW YORK (AP) — Pope John Paul II arrived in New York today en route to address the United Nations and the moral perils in a world of conflict, terrorism, East-West rivalry and nuclear arsenals.

The Trans World Airlines Boeing 727 — dubbed "Shepherd I" — which carried the pope from Boston touched down at 9:02 a.m. EDT at LaGuardia Airport where a crowd estimated by police at 3,000 had gathered.

The pontiff, wearing a white cassock and waving his arms, was greeted by his host, U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim, and other diplomatic and church officials. In a brief airport address before setting off a motorcade to Manhattan, the pope said he had looked forward to the visit ever since Waldheim had invited him to address the General Assembly. "Your organization has a special significance for the whole world," he said, "for in it, the needs and aspirations of all the people of our planet come together..."

"At the basis of all efforts, there must be the dignity and worth of the human person. It is likewise the human person, every individual, who must make the aims of your organization come true."

A group of bands and school groups saluted the pope with music and flowers. Among the youngsters were students from a Middlesex, N.J., school, dressed in Polish costumes, bearing bouquets of chrysanthemums and waving flags.

New York was the pope's second stop on a seven-day, six-city U.S. tour that began with a jubilant welcome in Boston on Monday.

Most of the pope's day was to be spent at the United Nations — a 16-acre international enclave on the East edge of bustling midtown Manhattan, overlooking the East River.

In an airport greeting, Waldheim told the pope: "We eagerly await the message which you will deliver..."

He recalled the visit of Pope Paul VI to the United Nations 14 years ago and said: "His moving words still inspire us and we greatly cherish them."

"He noted that the United Nations "reflects the complete diversity of mankind. We come from many cultural traditions and religious backgrounds, but we are united in our common determination to seek peace and human betterment."

Several thousand people gathered at LaGuardia in advance of the pope's arrival.

The pontiff's address to the U.N. General Assembly promised to be the most important of his week-long U.S. tour — in his own words "a plea to the

Price of Gold Climbs to $440

LONDON (AP) — Gold soared to a record $440 an ounce in London today and $436 in Zurich. The dollar dropped.

The London jump of $26.75 from Monday's late price was the biggest one-day rise seen in the bullion market here.

Market men described the trading as frantic turmoil.

One dealer predicted the price will soon reach $500 an ounce "because everyone wants to buy and no one wants to sell."

Gold also rose in Hong Kong, jumping $24.86 to $419.24 from $394.38 Monday.

Gold closed at $413.25 in London Monday, $414.50 in Zurich, and hit $419 in New York before retreating to $415.50.

It was the first time gold closed above $400 on European exchanges and a record closing figure for New York also. The price was $200 an ounce in July 1978 and closed above $300 for the first time less than three months ago, on July 18.

A trader at Samuel Montagu in London said Arabs and other major investors were unloading shaky dollars to buy gold. "What else can they do with their dollars?" he asked.

"There's a lot of overseas buying," said Franc Schumaci, a gold trader for Marcus & Co., at New York's Commodity Exchange. "A lot of the commodity pros are out of the market. Eventually, somebody's going to come in and sell this gold, but right now it's going to the moon."

The continued flight away from the sagging dollar and into commodities also pushed other precious metals higher, with platinum futures surging $131 to an astounding $700 an ounce at one point on the New York Mercantile Exchange.

Platinum for delivery this month later eased but closed on the exchange at $632.30, up $64.

The price of silver leaped $1.19 in London to a peak $17.51 an ounce. It kept rising in New York, with October silver futures closing at $17.88, up $1.48 on the day.

The dollar opened at 225.10 yen in Tokyo today, up from 224.925 late Monday. It went to 225.15 about half an hour later, see-sawed through the day and closed at 224.875, just slightly below Monday's closing rate.

After closing at 223.45 yen Friday, it climbed Monday to 225.20. Then the Bank of Japan sold an estimated $400 million to protect the yen, fearing aggravated inflation that would push import prices up.

The dollar is improving in Japan, in contrast to its situation in Europe, because Japan is running an increasing trade deficit and because of expectations of higher oil prices which will have to be

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional critics say President Carter's Caribbean initiatives have failed to untie the knot linking the SALT II treaty with the Soviet brigade deployed 90 miles from U.S. shores in Cuba.

In his speech to the nation Monday night, the president outlined plans to increase U.S. surveillance of military activities in Cuba, bolster the U.S. Naval and military presence in the area and speed more aid to those Latin American nations which feel threatened by the Soviet-Cuban alliance.

At the same time he reported that he has been given "assurances from the highest levels of the Soviet government" that the brigade of Russians are indeed engaged only in training and that they will not be used to threaten anyone.

But the Carter speech did little to sway critics of the administration's foreign policy, many of whom complained that the president failed to keep his pledge to change the status quo in Cuba by negotiating withdrawal or dismantling of the brigade.

"No, we are not going to push forward with SALT until the Soviet troop question is resolved," said Sen. Robert Dole, R-

Kan., one of several GOP presidential contenders who commented.

Sen. Charles McC. Mathias, R-Md., referring to the administration's early handling of the Cuban flap, said the president spent most of the speech "trying to deal with a self-inflicted wound."

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., said that what he sees as the president's inability to change the status quo "will cause me to be more secure in my vote against the SALT treaty."

"I think this leaves us right where we were," said Sen. Jake Garn, R-Utah, a principal SALT II opponent.

But a senior administration official who has been closely involved in intense negotiations with the Soviets on the troop issue said the status quo has in fact been changed by the presidential orders increasing the U.S. military presence near Cuba and by Soviet assurances that their troops in Cuba "will not be a threat to the United States or to any other nation."

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called the Soviet assurances, said to have come personally from Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev, "welcome" See [CUBA], Page 2

U.S. 'Salting' Keeps Mexico from Paying

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Citing U.S. refusal to pay Mexico for the salting of the Mexicali Valley, President Jose Lopez Portillo says Mexico "will pay nothing" for the damage to the Texas coast from the runaway Ixtoc I oil well in the Gulf of Mexico. "I told the government of the United States — and I tell the people of Mexico — face to face, that if the U.S. government did not pay for damage to the Mexicali Valley, Mexico will not pay for damage in the Gulf of Mexico," Lopez Portillo said Monday.

Saline water from the Colorado River caused salt beds to form years ago in the Mexicali Valley below the California and Arizona borders, making crop lands virtually useless. In 1972, President Luis Echeverria during a visit to Washington told a joint session of the U.S. Congress the issue was "the most delicate bilateral problem" between the two countries.

Lopez Portillo spoke to an estimated 100,000 Mexicans in downtown Mexico City on his return from the United States and Panama. He met in Washington last

Open Houses Scheduled At Schools

An open house at Northwest Elementary School Monday night officially began the Hereford Independent School District's Texas Public Schools Week, as proclaimed by Gov. Bill Clements.

A large crowd of parents attended Monday's open house, according to a school district official.

"I hope we have more big crowds tonight and the rest of the week at the other schools," the official said. "It seems like parents are really interested in their kids."

Open houses are planned tonight at West Central, Tierra Blanca, Shirley and Bluebonnet elementary schools. A Parents-Teachers Organization meeting will be held at Alkman Elementary at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Parents have been notified about the open houses.

Parents are invited to visit with teachers and school officials at Stanton and La Plata Junior High schools this week. Hereford High School principal Ronald Geyer also urged parents to visit his school during the special week.

Phillips Named To Zoning Commission

By PAUL SIMS
Managing Editor

Hereford city commissioners met briefly Monday night to consider a three-item agenda, which included the appointment of A.J. Phillips to the Hereford Planning and Zoning Commission.

Phillips replaces Southwestern Public Service Co. manager Jake Webb, who has moved to Lubbock to take a similar position with the electric company. Phillips is office manager of Pioneer Natural Gas Co.

Commissioners accepted the recommendation of the Planning and Zoning Commission to not rezone Lot 17 of Block 8 in the Womble Addition from "C Multi-Family" to "E Central Business." The property is in the 200 block of Higgins, and a change would have constituted illegal "spot zoning" since the rest of the block is "C Multi-Family," commissioners decided.

Commissioners discussed, but took no action, on a proposed ordinance to limit the parking of recreational vehicles and boats on city streets.

City Attorney Earnest Langley, who was instructed last month to write a possible ordinance on the parking problem, told the commission Monday that the Texas Municipal League had told him that ordinances governing RV's and boats on city streets had not been written in Texas.

"Apparently, the other cities are not doing it," Langley said. "The theory probably is, somebody has a pickup, they can park it on the street. But, put a camper on it, then they can't do it. They can put a small truck on the street, but they can't put an RV there."

Commissioner Wes Fisher said that parking a boat on the street could be a hazard and should be controlled.

Langley will draw up a possible ordinance pertaining to boats to present to the commission for consideration at its next meeting.

Fisher, Emory Brownlow and Mayor Bartley Dowell were present Monday. Bud Eades and Ed Coplen were absent.

Lubbock Judge Kills Potter DA's Indictment

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — A visiting district court judge has thrown out a misdemeanor indictment against Potter County District Attorney Tom Curtis because it was too vague.

The indictment had charged Curtis with two counts of official misconduct after he subpoenaed tape recordings of his Aug. 3 testimony before a county grand jury. But Judge John McFall of Lubbock ruled the language in the indictment was not precise enough to give Curtis adequate warning of the charge against him.

The indictment claimed Curtis overstepped his authority as district attorney in trying to get the recordings for "inspection and copying."

Prosecutors argued Curtis was a criminal suspect when he testified before the grand jury, and getting possession of the tapes would "benefit" him as a defendant.

But Curtis' attorney, Jim Vollers, claimed Texas law defines the word "benefit" as "economic gain or advantage," and said the indictment does not specify how Curtis would have benefitted from obtaining the recordings.

"If you take Mr. Vollers' position," countered Potter County Attorney Protem George Harwood, "you would say Mr. Curtis had unlimited authority to subpoena. Should he be allowed to abuse his unique position and do what no other grand jury witness would ever be allowed to do?"

To which Vollers responded, "As a matter of law, no offense is stated in this indictment...these allegations do not give sufficient notice to the defendant as to what he is being accused."

McFall, though, agreed with Vollers and told Harwood the state would have to be specific if it wanted to present a solid indictment.

The county grand jury meets later this week, but Harwood did not say whether he would seek a new indictment against Curtis.

Labor Camp Resident Still Critical

A San Jose Labor Camp resident remains in critical condition today at Deaf Smith General Hospital after he was found injured, lying on his stomach, on Archer St. inside the camp Saturday night.

Jimmy Gomez, 22, was either severely beaten or pushed out of a vehicle, according to Deaf Smith County Sheriff Travis McPherson, who said the 22-year-old camp resident was found with numerous bruises and other injuries by a motorist around 9:30 Saturday.

"We don't have any idea yet what happened. We don't have any clues. It looks like he was either thrown out of a vehicle or beaten," McPherson said. "He had scrape marks and bruises around his ribs and face."

McPherson said he suspects foul play.

"We'll continue to talk to his friends and acquaintances to see if he had any enemies. Right now, that's all we can do," McPherson said.

USDA Reimburses States for Timber

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department has mailed checks totaling $186.5 million to 38 states and Puerto Rico, representing part of the money due them for the sale of timber and services in national forests.

Officials said the checks were dated Oct. 1, the beginning of the new fiscal year. Congress has not yet extended spending authority for most federal agencies since the old year ended at midnight Sunday.

Diane O'Connor, a spokeswoman in the department's Forest Service, said Monday the spending cutoff did not apply to the payments because "Congress doesn't have to authorize the money" for the annual checks.

By law, 25 percent of the proceeds from the sale of timber, grazing rights and other services must be returned to the states where the national forests are located. The money must be used for public schools and roads.

The checks mailed Monday were an interim payment, amounting to 75 percent of around $250 million that is due this fall. The remaining money, about $64 million, will be paid in early December after the actual receipts for the last fiscal year are computed.

Davis Called

Target Of Conspiracy

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Defense attorneys have placed a key witness on the stand in hopes of convincing the jury that millionaire Cullen Davis was the target — not the mastermind — of a conspiracy.

Dorothy Neeld, 38, was sworn in as a witness Monday, but Davis' murder solicitation trial was recessed for the night before she got into the meat of her testimony.

When Davis was tried on the same charges in Houston last year, Miss Neeld testified she happened to see on a parking lot three persons who defense attorneys say conspired to frame Davis.

The first trial ended with a hung jury. The millionaire industrialist is accused of asking one-time friend David McCrory to hire a killer to murder the judge in a bitter divorce case between Davis and his ex-wife Priscilla.

Ms. Neeld said she watched from her Dallas office and saw Priscilla, McCrory and a third man, karate teacher Pat Burleson, enter a car Aug. 18, 1978.

Davis was arrested two days later after a parking lot meeting with McCrory which was monitored by the FBI.

Operations Said

'Normal' at Pantex

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — Department of Energy supervisors at the nation's only final-assembly plant for nuclear weapons said operations were "normal" after a walkout by security guards ended.

The guards, members of Local 38 of the International Guard Union had struck the plant when their contract expired Sept. 16. They ratified new management proposals Saturday and returned to work Monday.

Both sides refused to specific about the disagreement, saying only that it concerned "administrative matters."

After the ratification, spokesmen for labor and management were equally tight-lipped about terms of the settlement.

"It's over and that's that," said Paul R. Wagner, DOE's area manager at the plant, northeast of here.

More than 150 union members took part in the walkout. Other plant workers and guard supervisors were responsible for security during the strike, and plant officials said there were no incidents.

Wagner said he had hoped for an earlier agreement but said he was "satisfied with the settlement," and said it was within DOE guidelines "in all respects."

Amtrak Train Hits

House, Kills 2

LAWRENCE, Kans. (AP) — Amtrak passenger train ran off the tracks and struck a house in the early morning darkness today, killing two people and injuring dozens of others, authorities said.

Bob Campbell, a spokesman at Lawrence Memorial Hospital, said police told him two passengers were killed and their bodies were being sent to the hospital.

Campbell said 10 people were admitted to the hospital and 10 to 15 others were en route to the hospital for treatment. He said other passengers were treated at the scene.

Sixteen cars of the 18-car Southwest Limited en route from Los Angeles to Chicago derailed about 6:15 a.m. in a residential area on the south side of Lawrence just minutes before its scheduled stop in Kansas City. There were more than 100 passengers on the train.

"We've got cars on their sides and people trapped inside," said one Amtrak employee in Lawrence. Authorities said the only person known to have been trapped in the train was the engineer, who was freed by rescue workers.

Big Dallas Fair Opens

DALLAS (AP) — Only the ducks in the lagoon were oblivious to the trucks' rumbling, the hammering and sawing and the rock 'n' roll on the Midway.

The circus tent, the booths and Big Tex — with new cowboy duds — were up. A seemingly unending convoy of trucks, filled with food, exhibits and prizes, rolled into Fair Park.

Barker Ray Dodd was awaiting hundreds of stuffed, yellow bananas with "little eyes on them" to award to those who can flip a dime into a dish.

Two female barkers arranged rows of multi-colored stuffed toys and St. Bernards, complete with plastic flasks.

Blue and white streamers flapped in the breeze over umbrellas advertising fast-food delicacies: foot-long hot dogs, cotton candy, taffy and candy apples.

Workers put finishing touches on rides and booths, greeted friends from fairs past and anticipated the cash they would reap from the estimated 3 million visitors to the 1979 State Fair of Texas.

Texas' 94th fair — the largest in the United States — opens Friday with the theme, "Salute to Good Neighbors." Big Tex, the 52-foot-tall cowboy, will greet visitors with a booming "Howdy, folks" for the 17th year.

Eleven-year-old Rosanne Sorrentino will make her first professional stage debut this year as the star of "Annie," a musical based on the comic-strip "Little Orphan Annie." She will be joined by Harve Presnell and Patricia Drylie as Daddy Warbucks and Miss Hannigan in 24 performances at the Music Hall.

The federal government will join the fair for the first time this year at the Centennial Building. Its exhibits include an electronic clock showing the population, deaths and births by the minute; a home computer demonstrating solar energy and magnetic fusion, and slides of the oil slick that soiled Texas beaches.

"Taking the Measure of the Land," a display of maps of the United States dating back to 1769, will be shown to the public for the first time at the Hall of State.

Hordes of football fans will converge on the Cotton Bowl Oct. 13 for the Texas-Oklahoma battle and a street dance afterward. Bishop College meets Prairie View A&M in the stadium Saturday.

A "Salute to Canada," featuring folk music and ice skating, will kick off Canada Week in the Cotton Bowl Sunday.

The State Fair Rodeo, which runs through Oct. 14, will bring bronc busters, bull riders, steer wrestlers, calf ropers and barrel racers for a shot at more than $50,000 in prize money.

Grand champion quarter, Appaloosa, Palomino, paint and Arabian horses will be chosen at the State Fair Horse Show.

The Pan-American Livestock Exhibition, through Oct. 14, and the Junior Livestock Show, Oct. 15-20, will feature blue-ribbon cattle, sheep, goats, rabbits and fowl — including continuously hatching chickens.

Special livestock events include the Miniature Horse Show on Tuesday, Sheep Dog Trials Oct. 17 and Donkey and Mule Show Oct. 20-21.

"The Cowboy Heritage Festival" at the Hall of State will feature folklore, country and western music, lectures and films.

"Our Neighbors' Children," the theme at the Women's Building, will feature daily demonstrations of country, Mexican and Canadian cooking.

The newest kitchen appliances — and free food samples — will be at the Food & Fiber Pavilion.

The Southwest Automobile Show will provide a peek at the 1980 foreign and domestic cars and trucks.

The Embarcadero Shoppers' Market and Craft Village will offer Texas products and art.

Film of Voyager's space journey to Jupiter will be shown on a wide dome screen at the Health and Science Museum; the Garden Center will show exotic Japanese arrangements in three weekend shows, and the Museum of Natural History's programs will focus on the scenery and wildlife of Mexico and Canada.

Free events include a parade and fireworks each evening, circus performances daily, and shows and concerts on outdoor stages.

The State Fair runs through Oct. 21. Admission is $2.50 for adults and $1 for children 6-11. The gates open at 7 a.m. and close at midnight.

Texas Group Backs Kennedy

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Texans excited about Sen. Edward Kennedy running for president will meet Nov. 10 to decide whether to set up a statewide group to support his candidacy.

Liberal leader Billie Carr says she has "never seen anything catch fire" like the prospect of the Kennedy candidacy.

"Every time he raises his hand it's on TV, and we get calls from volunteers," Ms. Carr said in a telephone interview from her Houston office. "I had a call at 7:30 this morning from someone volunteering to work for Kennedy."

Ms. Carr, a Democratic national committeewoman, said Monday Texas liberals had three candidates they could "live with easily," but Kennedy, D-Mass., is the favorite. "Even kids too young to have known John F. Kennedy are enthused — it's a phenomenon."

said Ms. Carr. "Most people in the Texas Democrats feel the same way."

She said President Carter and California Gov. Edmund Brown also would be acceptable to the 6,000-member Texas Democrats, a "loose-knit" predominantly liberal group that was formed in the wake of Sen. George McGovern's unsuccessful presidential race in 1972.

The Texas Democrats met here Saturday, with 175 persons registering at $5 each.

In a poll asking whom they favored as the Democratic presidential nominee, Kennedy got 86 votes, Carter 19, Vice President Walter Mondale 11 and Brown 4. There were 9 votes for other possible candidates.

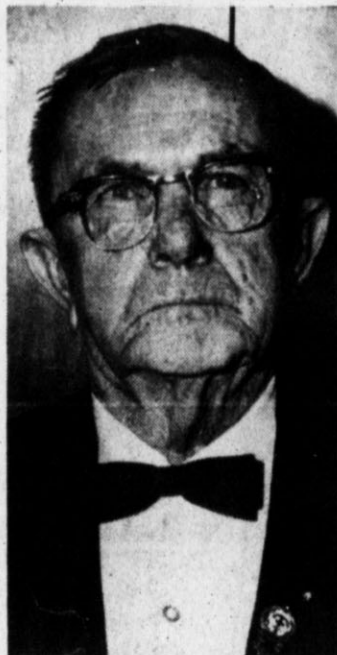

The Democrats also were asked to rank five presidents by giving a one to the president they liked the best and a five to the one they liked the least.

John F. Kennedy got 84 first-place votes and Lyndon Johnson of Texas 27 votes. Johnson also had 56 second-place votes and nothing lower than that.

The other presidents included in the poll were Richard Nixon, who got one first-place vote and 109 last-place votes; Gerald Ford and Carter. Carter had only one first-place vote.

Obituaries

CHARLIE CARL NEU

Services for Charlie Carl Neu, 83, were held this morning at 10 a.m. in Rose Chapel of Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home with the Rev. Clarence Powell, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in West Park Cemetery under direction of Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home.

Mr. Neu was found dead Saturday night in his home at 811 N. Miles. County Judge Glen Nelson ruled that he had hanged himself.

Born April 5, 1896 in Gainesville, Mr. Neu married Beulah Straley in 1917 in Pottsboro. She preceded him in death in 1968. He moved to Deaf Smith County in 1928 from Pottsboro and was a member of the Avenue Baptist Church. In 1975, he was recognized for 23 years of perfect attendance at Sunday School. He also served as Sunday School superintendent for 14 years.

He is survived by a brother, Fritz Christman of Hereford; two sisters, Mrs. Gus Ruland of Hereford and Mrs. Emo Rogers of Heuco; and a step-sister, Lizzie McKee of Denison.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 3 p.m. in the Sparkman Hillcrest Funeral Home. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery near Dallas. Mr. Eades was a native of Dallas.

Survivors include two sons and four daughters.

whole world for justice and peace, a plea in defense of the unique dignity of every human being."

He told a vast, rain-splattered throng at a papal Mass in Boston Common on Monday evening he was aware of the "importance" and "challenge" of his speech to the world body.

But for many backed onto the rolling green of the common, or along the narrow rainy sidewalks of Boston neighborhoods, John Paul's stopover here was one of the most exciting days imaginable.

From curbsides, windows and rooftops, standing on cars, trucks and fire engines, hundreds of thousands cheered and waved placards proclaiming: "We're With You!" "Long Live the Pope!" "Viva il Papa!" and "Witamy!" — the Polish way of saying "Welcome."

It was the first papal visit ever to this strongly Catholic city, and it is the Polish-born John Paul's first visit to the United States as pope. He came straight to Irish-accented Boston from a three-day visit to Ireland, where he made a dramatic appeal to an adoring populace for peace on their troubled island.

After New York, the 59-year-old pontiff travels Wednesday to Philadelphia, then on to Des Moines, Iowa; Chicago and Washington, D.C., where he will meet with President Carter on Saturday.

Boston police estimated 1.9 million people turned out to salute the pope, more than one-third of the metropolitan area's population of 5.7 million. Other estimates put the figure lower.

As many as 400,000 huddled through two hours of chilly drizzle for a stirring, outdoor celebration of the Mass on Boston Common, its chief celebrant in gold-and-white vestments on a brightly lit, canopied altar.

Eying the weather, the burly, squared-jaw pope departed from the prepared text of the homily at one point to say with a grin that America is "beautiful even in the rain." The crowd broke into a roar of applause.

His homily spoke approvingly of American "generosity and freedom," but he appealed to youth to stand for "the true meaning of life" in a world threatened by "hatred, neglect or selfishness."

"Follow Christ!" pleaded the pope whose own faith was steered under Nazism and communism in Poland. "...With Christ's help...you can answer his call, resisting temptations and fads and every form of mass manipulation."

The great congregation applauded his words several times.

The leader of the world's 700 million Catholics landed at Boston's Logan Airport in mid-afternoon Monday. He stepped down from his jumbo jet and, as he has done elsewhere in his papal travels, kissed the ground.

The Foreign Ministry said references to the payment of damages were deliberately excluded from the talks in Washington.

but insufficient."

"I continue to believe that before the treaty may take effect the Senate will insist on an affirmation by the president, backed up by our own intelligence, that Soviet combat forces are no longer

The president said the Cuban controversy must be kept in perspective. He maintained it is no reason for a rebirth of to give it airplanes or ships — which the officials say it now lacks — capable of carrying it to U.S. shores.

The officials rejected assertions by the Soviets and by Cuban leader Fidel Castro that the Soviet unit's mission is to train Cuban forces.

Women's Emphasis Days Start Tonight

The second annual Women's Emphasis Days are to begin this evening with the quarterly membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division at the Community Center. All Chamber Women and other interested persons are invited to attend the dinner meeting, scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Women's Emphasis Days, directed by the Women's Division public affairs committee, will include eleven informative programs, scenarios from two dramatic plays and two style show luncheons. All of these activities will take place at the Community Center.

Tonight's programs will be live scenarios performed by students from West Texas State University's Speech Department. The students will present duo-drama scenes from "Equus" and "Androcles." The program arrangements are under direction of the Chamber Women's fine arts committee. The meal, costing $4.25, will be catered by The Way We Were Restaurant. All persons are welcome to attend.

programs begins at 11 a.m. with a demonstration of microwave cooking, to be presented by Diane Bim, home economist with Southwestern Public Service Co. At 12 noon, the Christmas tree committee of the Women's Division will serve salad luncheon, costing $2 per person. An informal style show will be held during the luncheon. At 12:20, the film, "Travel Agents Make a World of Difference" will be presented by travel agent Joan Coupe, owner of Hereford Travel Center.

On Wednesday afternoon, the latest trends in hairstyles will be demonstrated on live models by Retha Tucker from JJ's Hair Fashions, beginning at 1 o'clock. Various crafts will be presented in a program at 1:40 p.m. by Virginia M. Dickson of Virdale House of Handicrafts and Johnny Northcutt, former partner of Crafts Original. The concluding afternoon program will be powder puff auto maintenance, to be presented by Hereford High School teacher Helen Reed.

Home landscaping and rape prevention will be the topics examined Wednesday evening by Melrose Wilson from Melrose's Nursery, and Tony Guess of the Texas Department of Public Safety. The programs will begin at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. respectively.

Thursday's programs will commence at 11 a.m. with Dr. Joe D. Garms, psychologist, examining parent-child relationships. At noon, sandwiches will be served at a price of $1 per person by the public affairs committee. This will also be combined with an informal fashion show. A program on interior decorating is to be presented at 12:20 by Keith Ann Gearn of Phoenix Designs. Skin care and the application of cosmetics will be demonstrated at 1:20 p.m. by Daleine Springer of The Face Place. This will be followed at 2 p.m. by Rick Wood, executive director of Hereford YMCA, who will present "Exercise Is Fun."

Profiles of three of the program speakers follow below:

Melrose Wilson, owner of Melrose's Nursery, will be providing helpful hints in home landscaping Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. Mrs. Wilson, a longtime Hereford resident, stated, "The nursery business is very rewarding as I daily meet new people who are anxious to learn about plants."

Mrs. Wilson began working at the nursery in 1971 as a hobby, but has grown into a fulltime business. She has studied horticulture through reading, attending seminars and conventions, as well as from experience.

She is the wife of Marshall Wilson, who is now working at the nursery as of this year. They have two daughters, Kathy, who is a student at Texas Tech University, and Mrs. Mike (Kim) Coomer, a graduate of Tech. Both daughters reside in Lubbock.

A graduate of Hereford High School, Mrs. Wilson stated, "I have always loved plants and nature and my main interest has been to learn the care of them."

Janie Schumacher, owner of Crafts Original, had planned to present a program on plaster works at 1:40 p.m. Wednesday, but will not be able to appear due to illness. Speaking in her place will be Mrs. Johnny (Sharolyn) Northcutt, former partner of Crafts Original.

Mrs. Schumacher and Mrs. Northcutt purchased the craft shop in February of this year, specializing in plaster statues, plaques and related articles. Mrs. Northcutt, who has been working with plaster for approximately two years, gave up her fulltime partnership in July so that she could devote more time to her children, Mar. 5, and Kim, 9. She assists Mrs. Schumacher when needed.

Mrs. Northcutt is a licensed vocational nurse. She received training from Amarillo College and Lubbock Methodist Hospital. She has been employed as a nurse by Dr. Howard Johnson and Westgate Nursing Home. Her husband is self-employed as a cattleman.

Crafts Original is located at 149 N. 25 Mile Ave.

Helen Reed, health and volleyball teacher at Hereford High School, will give an auto maintenance program geared for women Oct. 3 at 2:40 p.m. at the Community center during Women's Emphasis Days.

Miss Reed comes from a family of seven having five brothers.

"My dad made me learn to change a flat tire before I could get my license. He was a part-time mechanic and I picked up a little from him. I love doing it, it's a challenge and it saves me a lot of money," she stated.

Miss Reed is not a professional mechanic but one of the few women who is able to service their own car.

"I am not a mechanic but I love to learn all I can as a hobby," she commented.

Miss Reed will be giving a presentation of changing flats, distinguishing between a dirty and clean air filter, the difference of a new spark plug and an old plug, the upkeep of a battery and how to jump-start a car.

VICA Students Attend Conference

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) Cosmetology Chapter #489 traveled to Canyon recently to participate in the VICA Fall Leadership Conference.

During this conference, sessions were held on the various Leadership Contest, to better inform the students and prepare them for these contests which are held in the spring.

Mrs. Jackie Cabiness gave the session on "The Outstanding Club," and acting as her assistant was Silvia Munoz, former president of the cosmetology chapter in Hereford.

Kenneth Helms, Vocational Director at Hereford High School gave the session on projects and notebooks. Ray Barber, I.C.T. Coordinator was responsible for the club business procedure contest session.

In the afternoon, individual officer training sessions were held by the District VI Officers. Carmen Aguirre of Hereford cosmetology held the session for Sgt. at Arms.

An officer election was held by the Hereford Chapter two days prior to the leadership emet. Those serving for the 1979-80 year are as follows:

Favianna Valdez, president; Anna Castillo, vice president; Delilah Guerrero, secretary; Ramona Rhodes, treasurer; Carmen Aguirre, reporter; Ronnie Pagett, parliamentarian; and Sgt. at Arms, Leslie Ewing. Installation of these officers will be Oct. 15 at the Hereford Community center.

Ann Landers

Emotional Support

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am sick at heart and need a shoulder to cry on, plus some emotional support. Please be there for me.

This morning I received an anonymous letter in the mail. It was only a few sentences, but they went through me like a knife. This is what the person wrote: "The reason you are having that terrible skin problem is because you put your mother in an old people's home. God is punishing you. You deserve it."

I kept my mother as long as I could. Ann. She was 88 years old, senile and could no longer control her bladder or bowels. It was a difficult decision to make, and our family doctor was the one who told me I had to do it. This happened six months ago. In July I developed a terrible case of psoriasis and had to be hospitalized.

Why are some people so cruel?--Despondent In Whittier

DEAR D.: A letter like the one you received is the product of a diseased mind.

God does not visit sickness or catastrophe on people as "punishment." Moreover, you did what you had to do. Forget it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I are completely mystified and we would like your opinion. His sister passed away two years ago. The grief-stricken widower (I'll call him "Rex") wouldn't allow us to invite another woman along for "company" until six months ago. Now he has started to show some interest in a charming lady who is an executive with a big company.

"Louise" is a delightful and gracious person who can speak intelligently on any subject. She is wonderful company and seems to like "Rex" a great deal. But the woman gets blind drunk on one drink. Is this possible?

Square Dance Classes Set For Thursday

Interested individuals or couples are invited to enroll in square dance classes to begin Thursday and continue each Thursday night for approximately four months. The classes are being sponsored by Country Singles Square Dance Club.

Johnny Gillenwater of Tulia will teach the series of classes, scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m. each Thursday at the Community Center.

Persons interested in participating in the classes are welcome to call Randy Allmon, 364-0490 for further details.

When "Louise" arrived at our home for dinner last evening she was as sober and delightful as can be. After one martini she became garrulous and repetitive. When dinner was announced she walked straight into the broom closet. No one can figure out how a person can get so loaded on a single martini.

Please explain.--Eighth Wonder

DEAR EIGHTH: People who have a low tolerance for alcohol CAN get cockeyed on one drink. But from your description, it sounds as if "Louise" may have had a head start before she arrived at your place--like maybe she nips at home a little.

DEAR ANN LANDERS:

Here's my answer to the man who was tortured because he found some old love letters when his wife died. They were from her high school sweetheart and implied that maybe she had slept with him. The husband assumed his wife was a virgin when they married. He said he'd never recover from the "shock" and "disappointment."

I read a poem years ago and now I wish I had saved it. The gist of the poem was this:

"I am who I am and what I am today because of all the people and experiences I have met along the way. You must take me as I am. If you are hung up on 'being first' it means you have an ego weakness and that is YOUR problem."

I very nearly became engaged to a man--until he asked if I was a virgin. I was 24 at the time and had been working since high school. He had been in a monastery but was out three years when we met. I stopped seeing him because his question told more about him than my response would have told about me. I've never regretted it. No reply is necessary. Ann. Just print my letter. It's--Food For Thought

DEAR FOOD: It is, indeed, and highly nourishing, too. I shall follow your instructions. Thanks for writing.

Heart Assn. To Convene On Thursday

The Deaf Smith County division of the American Heart Association board of directors will meet Thursday evening at 7 p.m. at the E.B. Black House.

Charlie Bell, this year's heart drive chairman, will report on his team and plans for this year's campaign. The goal has been set at $15,000 for Deaf Smith County.

L.B. Russell, board president, urges all board members to attend this Thursday's meeting. He also extends an invitation to anyone in the community who is interested in the work of the Heart Association.

Cheese Complements Different Recipes

October is Cheese Month. It calls attention to this popular food, a concentrated source of many of the nutrients in milk. It contains the milk protein casein, minerals such as calcium, and nearly all of the fat and fat-soluble vitamins of milk. The milkfat is responsible for much of the characteristic flavor and texture of cheese.

In the following recipe for stuffed Zucchini, Italian seasoning accents the combination of American cheeses and late summer squash.

STUFFED ZUCCHINI
3 to 6 servings<sup>1</sup>

3 medium zucchini, unpeeled
2 tablespoons butter
1/4 pound chopped fresh mushrooms

2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon oregano
1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Monterey Jack cheese
2 tablespoons dairy sour cream
1/2 cup Parmesan cheese

Cook zucchini in boiling salted water for 10-12 minutes. Drain and cut in half lengthwise. Scoop out centers, leaving a 1/4-inch thick shell, and chop. In a skillet melt butter; saute mushrooms, then stir in flour, salt and oregano. Remove from heat. Stir in Monterey Jack cheese, sour cream and zucchini. Fill shells, using about 1/4 cup filling for each. Top with Parmesan cheese; broil until hot and bubbly, 3 to 5 minutes. Stuffed zucchini may be assembled in advance, covered and refrigerated; broil 5 to 7 minutes.

Cake Decorating Classes Slated For October 11

Members of 'n' Fancy Club will be teaching cake decorating classes to the general public each Thursday evening at the Community Center beginning on Oct. 11 for four weeks. Each class will begin at 7 p.m. and conclude at approximately 9:30. Cost of the class will be $15 per person. It is necessary that interested persons pre-register by calling Margaret Gamez at 364-4938.

DS County Judge Named Director

For the 32nd year, the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University, Canyon, join together in sponsoring the National Spelling Bee.

The director for Deaf Smith County has been named and is County Judge Glen Nelson.

The county bee director is totally responsible for planning and directing the county event. He may conduct the Spelling Bee in an oral or written competition. However, the 1980 county winner will spell orally in regional competition in Amarillo on April 12.

This year's Regional Spelling Bee will be held earlier than in past years because the National Spelling Bee is now scheduled for the week of May 25, rather than the first week in June. This came about because the National Spelling Bee is moving to new headquarters in Washington, D.C. and the new facility cannot accommodate the Bee group the first week in June. In all future years the Bee will move again to the first week in June.

The top county winner in area competition in Amarillo on April 12, 1980, will receive the all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. to represent the area in national competition. The Amarillo Globe-News awards this trip to the district champion and one escort.

Numerous other prizes will be given with approximately the top 12 receiving special awards. Every school boy or girl who competes, beginning at the classroom level, will be given a certificate, suitable for framing.

Copies of the new 1980 "Words of the Champions" are now available from the Amarillo Globe-News at 30 cents each. To obtain this practice booklet, containing more than 500 changes, students, teachers and/or principals may order direct from the newspaper by writing the Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, P.O. Box 2091, Amarillo, Texas 79166.

Rules, established by the national sponsors, the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, allow any student who has not received his/her 16th birthday or gone beyond the eighth grade at the end of the current school term, to compete. Public, private and parochial students may enter.

The AGN-WTSU area promotes a Junior Bee for boys and girls in grades four, five and six. These county Junior winners do not compete in the district event unless the student wins both divisions. They are special guests at a luncheon preceding the April 12 spell-down at the Amarillo Country Club and will be given special trophies during the afternoon activities.

The luncheon will be given in honor of the Senior County winners. The 1979 Regional Winner, Rick Stout, will be guest speaker. He is from Dumas.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Jean Bartlett, the newspaper spelling bee editor, or Gene Parker, director of placement, WTSU, Canyon.

GARY LANDERS ...accepts position at ISU

Former Student Accepts Position

Gary Landers, who has graduated from Wayland Baptist College this past May with a perfect 4.0 average, has accepted a research assistantship in the Department of Biochemistry at Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa.

He is a native of Hereford and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Landers of 205 Higgins. He was the highest ranking graduate among those receiving bachelor degrees from WBC last spring. He completed a triple major in biology, chemistry and mathematics.

The Assistantship at Iowa State was just one of several offered to Landers from universities and medical schools across the United States. At ISU, he will receive benefits totaling over $6,000 per year while working toward a doctorate degree. In addition, Landers was also awarded the PACE (Premium for Academic Excellence) at ISU, a high honor given in recognition for outstanding achievements in undergraduate work which includes additional financial benefits.

Landers is the second Wayland graduate to receive the PACE award, following the footsteps of Mrs. Charlene Steele Mulvaney, among the top WBC graduates in the Class of 1976.

"Gary's achievements are some of the many examples of outstanding work done by many Wayland students each year," said Dr. W. Harold Reese, head of the college's Department of Biology, under whose guidance much of Landers' research work was done.

At Wits End

BY ERMA BOMBECK

Thank goodness, kids are finally getting their feelings out in the open.

In a recent poll, teenagers admitted they were dissatisfied with their parents and would replace them if they could. I know what you're thinking. You're probably imagining they opted for someone ridiculous and unrealistic. Not true. The boys said they would prefer a mother who looked like Cheryl Ladd or Jaclyn Smith, while the girls preferred a father who looked like Burt Reynolds.

Granted, these choices could get their minds off their bad grades (they might have to step up cold showers), but what these kids don't realize is that most of their parents started out life looking like sex symbols. Parenthood has a devastating effect on people.

I was only five years into motherhood when I won first place in a Marty Feldman look-alike contest. It has been downhill ever since.

Also unknown to teenagers is that a closet poll was conducted a few years ago among parents and these are the results:

Of two million parents polled, 97 percent said they were not happy with their children and would replace them if they could. An overwhelming number of mothers headed their list with Paul Newman, while fathers voted for the NFL.

Two percent were undecided and one percent was under sedation and unable to comment.

The main reasons for the dissatisfaction with their children were in order of irritability: Nagging. Children always wanted to know where their parents were going and what time they would be home. Lack of privacy. Every time a parent closed a door, a kid from the other side would yell, "What are you doing in there with the door closed?"

Criticism of their friends. Even though some of the teenagers had never met their parents' friend, they made statements like, "You hang around with her and the next thing you know you'll be going to single bars."

Bossiness. Parents were constantly being ordered to "Pick me up after ball practice. And don't be late!" "Hang up, I have an important phone call to make." "When are you going to stop procrastinating and get to the hand-washables?"

According to the poll, teenagers even with their unhappiness with parents voted 95 percent to get married and have children.

It would serve them right.

4-H Firsthand

By AGNES TAYLOR

Assistant County Extension Agent

"4-Hers PLANNING FOR WEEKLONG OBSERVANCE"

The 319 4-H members and 4-H leaders in Deaf Smith County are all working together to make the 1979 National 4-H Week, October 7-13, an event to remember.

According to Agnes Taylor county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, a number of special programs and activities are being planned to let the public know what 4-H is all about as well as to attract new members.

Anyone interested in being in 4-H should contact the County Extension Office at 364-3573 and speak with Agnes Taylor.

Theme of this year's 4-H week is "Expanding Horizons." It calls on 4-H members everywhere to become productive, self-directed and contributing members of society. In our rapidly changing world, it is increasingly important that young people learn life skills, prepare for meaningful careers, and assume citizenship and leadership responsibilities.

Deaf Smith County 4-H'ers will be among more than 130,000 in Texas and more than 5.2 million in the United States who will be observing National 4-H Week. Boys and girls 9 to 19 participate in 4-H through organized clubs, special interest groups, short-term projects, camping, television series and programs planned to meet their specific needs in the communities where they live.

4-H projects and activities encourage young people to learn and apply real-life skills and to become competent, productive citizens.

4-H is the youth education program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and is directed at the local level by county agents who work with volunteer adult and junior leaders and other local citizens interested in youth development.

(AP) - A new method of firming the banks of local rivers has been developed in the town of Ostrava.

Willow rods are bound by a machine into long mats which are then unrolled on the river banks and covered with soil. The willow branches quickly sprout and send out roots which help prevent the erosion of the river banks.

Houston Gets Breaks to Dump Cleveland 31-10

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oiler Coach Bum Phillips didn't reverse the Oiler game plan to provide a quick start in Sunday's 31-10 victory over Cleveland. It was just a matter of breaks and calling the right play at the right time, the Oiler coach said Monday.

then throw a completed pass. We had those kind of breaks Sunday."

"We didn't do anything differently, but it turned out differently," said Phillips, who usually has to sweat out a second half rally. "This is one time we had everything go our way. We had a couple of balls dropped and they bounced right back to us."

Oiler center Carl Mauck prevented two Oiler turnovers by falling on fumbles. The Oiler defense, using a four-man rush in passing situations, dumped two Browns quarterbacks five times for 52 yards in losses.

It was a rare runaway victory for Houston, which won its 10 games in 1978 all by seven or less points. It was Houston's biggest victory margin since Nov. 6, 1977 when the Oilers beat Chicago 47-0.

"The plays we called were just right for what defense they called," Phillips said. "I don't think we've played a better game since I've been here where we complemented each other on offense and defense." Oiler defensive coordinator Ed Biles installed a four-man front on obvious passing situations during preseason camp. The three-man front remains the primary Oiler defensive alignment but the Browns saw more than they wanted of the Oilers' nickel defense.

"When we got so far ahead it became obvious they would have to pass if they were going to catch up so we used the four man rush more," Phillips said.

That meant more playing time for rookie defensive end Jesse Baker, who leads the team in sacks with eight. He got one against the Browns and assisted Curly Culp on another

"He's a fine pass rusher and he's learning to play the running game too," Phillips said of the Jacksonville, Ala. State defender. "He's turning out just like our scouting reports said. He's got a lot of natural talent and just needs game experience in the National Football League. And he's getting that."

Phillips said none of the three starters injured in Sunday's game appeared to be seriously hurt. Linebacker Robert Brazile sat out the second half with a leg bruise. Safety Bill Currier sprained an ankle and offensive tackle Leon Gray bruised his back.

Longhorns Dump Tigers

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Coach Fred Akers says the Texas offense close to the goal "requires some attention," but otherwise, "I wouldn't change a thing" about Texas' 21-0 victory over Missouri.

Texas scored only one touchdown, but sophomore John Goodson kicked four field goals as No. 4 Texas dominated No. 5 Missouri, which was 3-0.

It was "nice" to defeat Iowa State and Missouri, Akers told a news conference Monday, "but the important games are getting ready to start now. Rice means more than either of those two."

Rice, Texas' first Southwest Conference opponent this year, is 1-3. Oklahoma crushed the Owls, 63-21, Saturday. Texas plays No. 3 Oklahoma at Dallas Oct. 13.

Although Missouri crossed midfield only once on its own power, Akers said he still considers the Tigers one of the top 10 teams in college football.

"They're a fine football team with a lot of talent," Akers said. "I don't know what happened — shock or what. There are days like that."

Texas played so well, Akers said, it was difficult for Longhorn coaches to select most valuable players on offense and defense.

Akers noted that Texas tackles Terry Tausch and Craig Rider graded 97 and 96 respectively out of a possible 100, but he said the coaches had chosen quarterback Donnie Little as the most valuable offensive player.

Little, a 200-pound sophomore, had 194 yards total offense and "pulled the trigger on every drive we had," said Akers.

Goodson, also a 200-pound sophomore, was second to Little on the basis of his four field goals, which tied Russell Erkleben's school record.

Goodson averaged only about 30 yards a punt — his second poor punting game in a row — but Akers said he had no plans to try out another punter against Rice.

Middle linebacker Doug Shankle, a 230-pound sophomore, was voted the most valuable defensive player. Shankle had 10 tackles, caused Missouri's only interception, forced a fumble, sacked the quarterback twice and pressured the quarterback twice.

Cornerback Vance Bedford, who made the interception and broke up three other passes, was second to Shankle as the MVP on defense.

Apparently the only injury of consequence was center Wes Hubert's hip bruise, Akers said. Akers praised quarterback Randy Hertel, 6-foot-8 tight end Robert Hubble and running back Earl Cooper of Rice.

"Hertel does a good job of throwing to everyone on the field who is on his team," said Akers. "The pro scouts tell us Cooper is one of the top prospects in the country. He has size, speed and catching ability."

Akers said a coach for Tulane, which lost to Rice, had stated "Rice was better than the other teams Tulane had faced — Stanford, Southern Methodist University and Texas Christian University."

Packers Upset Pats

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers had been 1-3. Their unique fans, while still fiercely loyal, had taken to booing of late.

Coach Bart Starr and quarterback David Whitehurst had been severely criticized all last week.

In other words, Packer safety Johnnie Gray said, the team had everything going for it.

"We were under no pressure tonight because nobody gave us a chance," Gray said after Monday night's 27-14 National Football League upset of the New England Patriots.

"Everybody was fired up," he said. "Part of it was the Monday night thing — the national TV exposure. But there was a lot of personal pride at stake, too, because of all the things that were written and said."

The Packers vented their frustrations on the heavily favored Patriots with Whitehurst passing 15 yards to Aundra Thompson for one touchdown and running for another.

The Green Bay defense set up three touchdowns with interceptions of Steve Grogan passes, and tackled New England's scrambling quarterback five times for 31 yards in losses.

The manner in which the Packers upset the team which had ranked third in the NFL on offense and second on defense was almost as startling as the upset itself.

Deluged with criticism after playing conservatively for a tie in regulation, only to lose in overtime at Minnesota eight days earlier, the Packers this time held nothing back.

They surprised New England with a 3-4 defensive alignment. They blitzed — a rarity for them. They passed from their own end zone. They ran — unsuccessfully — on fourth-and-1.

They threw on first down. Receiver James Lofton tried a forward pass. They ran plays without a huddle and holder David Beverly even tried to pass to kicker Chester Marcol on a fake field goal play.

If the wide-open play was in any way intended as a response to the past week's censure, Starr would not admit it.

But he couldn't mask his elation.

"That was as inspirational, as emotional a victory as I have ever been a part of," he said. "New England has one heck of a team. We were grateful just to be on national TV against them. To win is a huge bonus for us."

"I think we had to open it up, to have a chance against them. We felt that, in order to prepare properly for a team of their caliber, we couldn't hold anything back."

"We had to use everything at our disposal," Starr said. "We just felt we had to let it all hang out."

Coach Ron Erhardt, whose Patriots, 3-2, muffed a chance to tie Miami for the AFC East lead, said he had warned his team that the Packers might be at an emotional peak.

"It is Monday night. They had a 1-3 record and they are trying to come back," Erhardt said. "We alerted our squad to all of that. I don't think we took the Packers lightly."

"But we had a couple of interceptions that hurt us, and they blitzed a lot. That surprised us more than anything."

Two of the Packers' sacks of Grogan were accomplished by reserve defensive end Robert Barber, who played in place of the injured Ezra Johnson.

Whitehurst's touchdown pass to Thompson with 9:03 left in the first half gave Green Bay the lead to stay at 14-7. A 28-yard gain on a pass from Whitehurst to Lofton sparked the 74-yard, nine-play drive.

Two plays later, safety Steve Luke picked off a Grogan pass and returned 10 yards to the Patriot 10-yard line, setting up a 1-yard touchdown plunge by Terrell Middleton as the Packers led 20-7.

Tim Fox blocked Marcol's extra point try. The Patriots then had an 83-yard drive, culminated by a 6-yard touchdown pass from Grogan to Russ Francis 1:01 before halftime.

However, cornerback Mike McCoy intercepted a Grogan throw intended for Francis at the Packer 38 on the fifth scrimmage play of the second half.

Whitehurst passed 21 yards to Lofton on the next play, then scored on a 4-yard rollout as Green Bay led 27-14.

The Patriots scored in the first quarter on a 27-yard pass from Grogan to Francis. The Packers tied it 7-7 later in the first on a 1-yard run by Bart Smith. Graves' interception at the Patriot 45 led to the score.

Bucs, Johnny Come Lately Here Early

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers a Super Bowl team? Perhaps it's a bit early to do such dreaming, but the Bucs are striding along in some pretty big footsteps.

The Bucs, a first-year National Football League franchise a scant four years ago, are 5-0 and the only unbeaten team remaining this season, what with Pittsburgh, Miami and Cleveland having bitten the dust last Sunday.

"I heard Miami was getting whipped bad, but I didn't think much about it," guard Charley Hannah recalled after the Bucs beat Chicago 17-13. "Then I heard Cleveland was losing bad, but I didn't think much about it. Then came the third one — they announced that Pittsburgh had lost. Then I remembered those other scores and said, 'Hey, we're the only ones left!'"

Dallas Wins Big Dorsett Running Better

DALLAS (AP) — Tony Dorsett is feeling better, seeing better and running better.

The end result is that the Dallas Cowboys are getting better.

"The Cincinnati game did worlds for our confidence," said Dorsett, who tore off 119 yards on 20 carries as Dallas dominated the Bengals 38-13 Sunday. "I know I could see holes I hadn't been seeing. I felt good accelerating. My injured toe is healed completely now except it's a little sore."

Dorsett, who gained over 1,000 yards in his freshman and sophomore seasons with the Cowboys, broke his toe when he dropped a mirror on it in July.

"It's 100 per cent healed now except it still gets sore," said Dorsett, who has two 100 yard days in the three games he has played.

The last time an expansion team remained unbeaten longer than the rest of the league was two years ago when the Dallas Cowboys, a 1960 entry, won their first eight games while no other club won more than its first six.

After a two-game losing streak (24-17 to St. Louis and 28-13 to Pittsburgh), the Cowboys won their remaining regular-season games for a 12-2 record, then cruised through the playoffs and culminated the 1977 season with their 27-10 Super Bowl victory over the Denver Broncos.

Here's another interesting parallel to consider: in Tampa Bay's first season in the NFL, the pitiful Bucs were winless. In Dallas' inaugural campaign, the Cowboys were winless — although they did manage one tie in their 12 games while the Bucs failed to achieve even that in 14.

A few other expansion (1960 and beyond) teams have also outlasted their older brethren, most notably the Miami Dolphins. In 1972, seven years after joining the old American Football League, the Dolphins recorded their perfect 14-0 season and capped it with two playoff victories and a 14-7 triumph over Washington in the Super Bowl.

The Bucs, naturally, aren't thinking about the Super Bowl, or even the playoffs, just yet. One game at a time, they say.

Well, the Bucs visit the Meadowlands in New Jersey next Sunday to play the winless New York Giants.

All of this, of course, is not to presume that the Bucs have locked up a winning record, but four victories in their remaining 11 games is no more far-fetched than...well, than seeing Tampa Bay as the only unbeaten team in the NFL this year.

Dorsett has yet to break a long run for a touchdown, his specialty at Pittsburgh where he was a Heisman Trophy winner and in his first two seasons with the Cowboys.

His longest run this season has been 24 yards.

"I'll break one soon," said Dorsett. "It was just a step away several times Sunday."

Dorsett had 81 yards in the first quarter, showing his speed of old.

"I'm ready for plenty of work," said Dorsett Monday. "I'd like to carry the ball 25 times a game. A running back has to carry the ball that many times to be productive now because defenses are so geared to stop the run. I carried it 38 times one time at Pittsburgh. I wouldn't mind that many calls."

Dorsett said Dallas needed the big offensive explosion against the Bengals.

"We needed it to get our confidence back," Dorsett said. "It's the first time we've generated big offense in the first quarter."

Dorsett was needed for the slow way he gets off the ground and back to the huddle ala Jim Brown.

"There's an energy crisis and when you are a small running back like I am you've got to conserve energy," he laughed. "I've been getting up slow since I was a kid."

Nebraska Jumps in Top 5 in AP Football Ratings

Southern California, Alabama, Oklahoma and Texas held onto the top four spots, while the Nebraska Cornhuskers jumped from sixth to fifth in The Associated Press college football rankings this week.

The unbeaten Cornhuskers scored a lopsided 42-17 victory over Penn State Saturday and received 999 points in balloting by a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters. The loss, meanwhile, knocked previously 18th-ranked Penn State out of the Top Twenty.

Southern Cal, which needed a touchdown with 32 seconds left to edge Louisiana State 17-12, received 47 first-place votes and 1,222 of a possible 1,240 points. LSU's near miss also benefited the Tigers, enabling them to jump from 20th to 17th.

The defending national champs from Alabama clobbered Vanderbilt 66-3 for 14 first-place votes and 1,180 points, while No. 3 Oklahoma clobbered Rice 63-21 and earned 1,080 points.

The other first-place vote went to Texas, a 21-0 winner over Missouri, which fell from fifth to 15th. The Longhorns received 1,053 points.

After Nebraska came No. 6 Houston with 838, No. 7 Washington with 777, No. 8 Ohio State with 683, No. 9 Florida State with 662 and No. 10 Notre Dame with 656.

Houston jumped from eighth to sixth by routing West Texas State 49-10. Washington climbed from ninth to seventh by downing Fresno State 49-10. Ohio State moved from 14th to eighth by downing UCLA 17-13. Florida State defeated Virginia Tech 17-10 and went from 12th to ninth and Notre Dame's 27-3 drubbing of Michigan State lifted the Fighting Irish from 15th to 10th.

The Second Ten consisted of Michigan, Purdue, Arkansas, North Carolina State, Missouri, Michigan State, LSU, North Carolina, Tennessee and Brigham Young.

Last week it was Michigan, Florida State, Arkansas, Ohio State, Notre Dame, N.C. State, UCLA, Penn State, Southern Methodist and LSU.

North Carolina, Tennessee and Brigham Young made the Top Twenty for the first time this season. Carolina crushed Army 41-3, Tennessee trounced Auburn 35-17 and BYU defeated Texas-El Paso 31-7.

Besides Penn State, a long-time regular in the Top Twenty, and UCLA, SMU also dropped out by losing to Tulane 24-17.

NL Playoffs Begin Tonight

CINCINNATI (AP) — Playoff veterans Tom Seaver and John Candelaria, throwing hard after being hampered by mysterious ailments earlier this season, will be the starting pitchers in tonight's opening game of the National League championship series.

Seaver, 16-6, will open for the Cincinnati Reds and Candelaria, 14-9, will start for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Pittsburgh Manager Chuck Tanner said Candelaria "is fit, 100 percent" after being bothered with a recurring ache in his side.

"He says he's ready to pitch," Tanner said. "When he's pitching well, there's nobody any better."

Seaver, out a month with back trouble, came back to win 11 straight and now says he feels "fine."

"I've pitched fewer innings this year than I ever have in the big leagues," Seaver said. "Being injured early in the year cost me about five starts."

Before Tanner announced Monday that Candelaria would start the first game and Jim Bibby, 12-4, the second, Candelaria refused to admit he would get the nod.

"I know, but I'll never tell," he said. "Who would you start?"

Seaver, 31, is 5'7" tall, 175 pounds and how his perspective has changed.

"Right now, I get more enjoyment out of seeing guys like Fish (pitching coach Bill Fischer) and Humie (pitcher Tom Hume) enjoy it than in me winning," Seaver said.

He admitted that the clubhouse celebration after the Reds had clinched the West Division title brought back memories of his first league championship with the New York Mets.

"The way they were running around, I could see myself 10 years ago," Seaver said. "I acted the same way in 1969. The excitement manifests itself in different ways now."

He said the thing that hasn't changed is the motivation.

"I love to pitch. I love it more now than ever. It's the same difference if it's June 1 and there's 2,000 people in the stands or if it's October and it's on national television," Seaver said. "I never predicated my effort or the importance of the game on external circumstances."

Living the experience of major league competition has become more important to Seaver as he sees his playing days dwindling.

"The experience itself is more fun than the post-game celebration," he said. "When I was younger, I thought 'That's the ultimate experience, the post-game clubhouse celebration."

"I learned I was wrong. The ultimate joy is right out there, on the field. I enjoy it more out there than in here — or when I go off by myself."

Ironically, Cincinnati's starter in the second game will be rookie Frank Pastore, 6-7, a fireballer who reminds observers of the younger Tom Seaver.

Football Contest Won by Women

Three women were chosen winners in last week's Hereford Brand football contest, all missing just six games. A total of 14 people missed six games and it took the tie breaker to determine the winners.

Dorothy Schumacher, Karen Casey and Lisa Dirks all missed just six games but Schumacher guessed 35 points would be the total score in the Ohio State-UCLA game. Ohio State won the game 17-13 a total of 30 points. Schumacher will pocket the $25 first place prize for her effort. Casey was second, with a guess of 36 points and will receive $15, while the $10 third place prize went to Dirks for her guess of 38 points.

Other contestants missing just six games were Michael Dodson, Ansel McDowell, Butch Casey, Susie Kalka, Raymond Schroeder, Molly Keating, Patrick Higgins, Ginger Hale, Steve Welch, Freddie Gamboa, and Joanie Kalka.

A total of 25 people missed seven games. Eight people missed eight games and 45 missed nine games. The total number of entries was 234.

Padres Name Manager

SAN DIEGO (AP) — While he's not exactly a kid nor did he play left field, Jerry Coleman wasn't expected to be the new manager of the San Diego Padres. And he admits that he didn't expect it, either.

"If we're going to turn things around, we're going to have to be willing to do something different," said Ballard Smith, the Padres' president, after announcing Monday that Coleman would manage the National League team next season.

The choice of Coleman, 55, an infielder with the New York Yankees for nine years, was a surprise, to say the least.

Ironically, he was seen on national television Sunday night as the Padres' announcer in the new motion picture, "The Kid from Left Field," in which a 12-year-old batboy, played by Gary Coleman, is named manager of the club.

Coleman, who succeeds Roger Craig at the helm of the Padres, was the team's No. 1 radio announcer for the past eight years. Prior to that, he broadcast Yankees' games for seven years.

Coleman told reporters at a news conference that his appointment was "probably a bigger surprise to me than it is to you — this is my last challenge. I relish it. I grasp it, and I'm going to run with it."

Rose Named NL Player of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Pete Rose of the Philadelphia Phillies and Houston Astros pitcher J.R. Richard were chosen as the National League's player and pitcher for September, while rookie infielder Alfredo Griffin of the Toronto Blue Jays and reliever Rich Gossage of the New York Yankees received the honors in the American League.

Rose had a 23-game hitting streak during the month, the longest in the majors this season, and hit at a .415 clip. He also became the first player in baseball to have ten 200-hit seasons, breaking Hall of Famer Ty Cobb's record.

Richard broke his own NL record for strikeouts by a right-hander during the month as he upped his seasonal total to 313. He also posted a 3-1 record in the month with a 1.41 earned run average.

Griffin batted .407 during the month, knocking in 16 runs. He scored six runs, stole five bases and had an on-base percentage of .435.

Gossage picked up six saves in the month and had a 3-1 record. In 242-3 innings, he allowed 22 hits and six runs, five earned, while chalking up a 1.82 earned run average. He walked five and fanned 20.

Hereford Brand SPORTS AL Playoffs To Begin

BALTIMORE (AP) — California Manager Jim Fregosi says it's not a life-or-death situation for the Angels in the opener of the American League playoffs against Baltimore, and the Orioles' most recent post-season performances bear him out.

"I don't feel we have to win the first game," Fregosi said of the Wednesday night start in the best-of-five series. "It's a very big advantage to win the first one, but if you lose it's not over."

The Angels, winners of the AL West Division title for the first time, will be meeting a team that is in the playoffs for the sixth time in 11 years and holds a 12-6 record in league championship play.

But the Orioles, East Division winners with the major leagues' best record of 102-57, have lost six of their last eight playoff games and have dropped both of their last two series — each time after winning the opener.

Jim Palmer, sidelined with arm trouble much of the season, will start for the Orioles against another veteran right-hander, Nolan Ryan.

Palmer, who finished 10-6, was picked over 23-game winner Mike Flanagan to start the opener because Manager Earl Weaver wanted the benefit of his experience under playoff pressure. The three-time Cy Young Award winner is 7-2 in post-season competition and says his arm "feels great. It feels just like it used to feel."

Flanagan, scheduled to pitch Game Two here Thursday, heads a staff that led the league with a 3.27 earned run average and maintains Baltimore's tradition of strong pitching.

In the Angels, the Orioles' pitchers will be challenged by a group of heavy hitters who averaged .281 as a team with 164 home runs.

"There's no doubt that our strongest point is our hitting and the Orioles' is their pitching," Fregosi said Monday after rain washed out a scheduled practice here.

"We've never really been a high-hitting team until this

Spell it V-A-G-A-S

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — You spell it V-A-G-A-S and the full name is Vagas Ferguson. Remember it. Because before long it will be on top of practically all of Notre Dame's rushing records.

Ferguson, a 6-1, 194-pound senior thunderbolt from Richmond, Ind., isn't allowing the Sports Illustrated cover jinx from blocking his drive toward records and possibly a crack at winning the Heisman Trophy.

Ferguson made the cover of SI following Notre Dame's 12-10 triumph over Michigan and the hex appeared to be in the works when the Irish suddenly went flat and dropped a 28-22 decision to Purdue after leading 20-7.

But Ferguson retaliated by rushing for 169 yards and touchdown runs of 24 and 48 yards against Michigan State last week as the Irish rolled to a surprisingly easy 27-3 triumph over the previously undefeated Spartans.

In the process, Ferguson moved into second place ahead of legendary George Gipp on the all-time, hallowed Notre Dame rushing list. In three games this season, he has gained 366 yards and has a career total of 2,401 and in his sights is the mark of 2,682 set by teammate Jerome Heavens last year.

"He's one of the premier running backs in the country," said Michigan State Coach Darryl Rogers, who had his defenses set to stop Vagas. For a while, it appeared the Spartans had succeeded.

On Notre Dame's opening drive, the Irish reached the Spartan 33-yard line when Ferguson fumbled. The next time Notre Dame had the ball, Ferguson had two cracks from inside the 4-yard line and failed to score. Later he was stopped on the 1-yard line.

"There was no sense in getting upset," said Ferguson. "You don't determine the game in the first quarter. I want to set an example. When you're down, you keep going."

Ferguson kept going. On the first possession in the second half, Ferguson bolted 24 yards for a touchdown. The next time Notre Dame had the ball, the Irish appeared to be stopped on the Michigan State 48-yard line. It was fourth-and-1 and a punt appeared to be in order.

Partnership Golf Tournament Held

The Hereford Partnership Golf Tournament was held Saturday and Sunday at the Municipal Golf Course with winners determined in four different flights.

Winners were judged by points rather than the number of strokes. Saturday scores determined what flights players were in for Sunday's final record.

Winners in the Championship flight were Tony Vasela and John Costello of Amarillo with a total of 194 points. The team of Ken Hagar and Paul Hubbard finished second with a total of 193 points. Third place was taken by Jeff Loerwald and Ron Weishaar.

Winners in the first flight were Emory Brownlow and Jake Webb with 177 points. Second place winners were Sam Long and Wayne Taylor with 176 points and the team of Bill Davis and Virgil Marsh in third with 172 points.

Second-flight winners were Gene and Fred Batterman with 178 points. Bill Dirks and Dale Wofford were second with 174 points, and third was held by Rob Strange and John Darby with 176 points.

In the third flight, the team of Steve Nieman and Terry Davis won first with a total of 155 points. Wendell Burdine and David Miles came in second with 144 points, and third place finishers were George Ochs and Wayne Walton.

The prizes in each flight amounted to $224 to the first place team, $134 to the second place team and $90 dollars to the third place team.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

AUSTIN — Hispanic groups and leaders, both in Texas and in Mexico, held center stage briefly last week in several arenas, testing clout that is predicted by many to wield more political influence in the coming decade.

A low-key announcement from Mexico's nationally-owned oil industry PEMEX that it may pay for oil damages on Texas beaches was a bright note.

PEMEX's new public relations manager, Reynaldo Zentella, said the company, if pushed, will pay damages resulting from the Ixtoc I oil well blowout in the Bay of Campeche.

Zentella cautioned "we'll do our best not to pay when we're not supposed to. They'll have to prove it was oil from Ixtoc I" that damaged the beaches.

The company is still trying to cap the blowout, but an attempt to put a giant $3 million "sombrero" designed by Brown and Root of Houston over the hole in the gulf floor was disrupted by choppy seas.

Texas Protocol Chief

A native of Floresville was sworn in Thursday as chief of protocol. Abelardo L. Valdez was named to that position and to the title of ambassador by President Jimmy Carter.

Earlier last week Valdez addressed the Federal Bar Association convention at San Antonio and said Texas is a key port of entry for imports from Mexico and the rest of Latin America.

Sixty-four percent of all U.S. trade with Mexico (some $6 billion) and one-fourth of U.S.-Latin American trade ($8 billion) passes through Texas, he said.

He also pointed out that 82 percent of U.S. direct foreign investment in the developing world is in Latin America, our third largest trading partner.

Meanwhile, Ruben Bonilla of Corpus Christi, national president of the League of Latin American Citizens, announced a commission has been established to coordinate discussions between the Mexican government and Hispanic groups in the U.S. Speaking in San Antonio, Bonilla said the commission was suggested by Mexican President Jose Lopez Portillo.

Bonilla said the Mexican government would insist upon tying discussions of U.S. purchases of Mexican petroleum with a discussion of human rights for hispanics and Mexican aliens in the U.S.

Clements Taunted

On the same day Bonilla made his announcements in San Antonio, Mexican-Americans demonstrating in El Paso pushed, taunted and spat upon Gov. Bill Clements as he tried to shake hands with them.

Clements had been attending a reception hosted by LULAC and had pledged a new era in Texas' good-neighbor policy with Mexico. He did not know why the protesters had gathered outside the reception and had been warned not to try to soothe them.

When the governor plunged into the crowd to shake hands, he was pushed back and taunted with flags and placards.

Justice Raps Clements

Texas Supreme Court Justice Joe Greenhill took a milder approach, but all the same criticized Clements and the Legislature for "making it difficult for judges to do their jobs."

Greenhill told the Judicial Section Conference meeting at Abilene that the judiciary needs to present a unified front in the future to secure higher salaries and funds to ease over-loaded dockets.

He rapped the Governor's Office for failing to supply the funds necessary to ease caseloads in urban areas.

Spier Resigns

Department of Public Safety Director Col. Wilson Spier, who resigns at the end of 1979, has recommended his top assistant to fill his shoes.

Spier tapped Lt. Col. Leo Gossett, a 30-year DPS veteran. His replacement will be appointed by the DPS commission sometime in November or December.

Tax Opinion Sought

The governor has asked Attorney General Mark White for a legal opinion on the constitutionality of the assessment method for the state property tax.

The 10-cent tax is dedicated to construction at 17 state colleges but will go out of existence at the end of the year.

In his opinion request Clements suggested the tax is unconstitutional because it is based on property values as assessed by counties.

Other AG Opinions

In a legal opinion issued last week White said a school district may employ relatives of the superintendent in instances where he exercises no control over who is selected and does not himself appoint or hire his relatives.

The request came from Education Commissioner Marlin L. Brockette seeking a clarification of nepotism laws.

White also issued an opinion

allowing the Department of Corrections to purchase a site for a new prison solely from the appropriation for prison construction. White said the funds are not burdened with geographic limitations. The request came from Board of Corrections Chairman James M. Windham.

THOUGHTS

The word "doctor" is used three times in the Bible but always to indicate a teacher or learned man. "Physician" is used 10 times to denote a healer of body or mind.

"They found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions."
— Luke 2:46

"They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick."
— Matt. 9:12

The "tree of knowledge of good and evil" is the symbol of any knowledge forbidden or withheld as destructive of one's moral or spiritual well-being.

"But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat of it."
— Gen. 2:17

Aesop gave us the modern meaning of "sour grapes" but an Old Testament prophet used the expression to warn

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.
Tetracyclines can help

DEAR DR. LAMB — I'm a 50-year-old male and have sugar diabetes. About three years ago I started getting a lot of pimples on my face and the doctor had me on insulin. I asked him if it was causing the pimples and he said no. He put me on some other tablets but they didn't help much so I discontinued them and just stayed on my insulin for diabetes.

Later I broke my leg and the doctor treating my leg put me on tetracycline as an antibiotic to help my bone heal. After taking tetracycline for a while, my face cleared. I have been taking them several months, but if I quit taking them my face starts to sprout pimples again. My question is, does tetracycline have any effects on my health if I continue to take them daily? I only take one a day.

DEAR READER — You have reinvented the wheel. It's well known that tetracyclines are very helpful in treating acne. There are little tiny bacteria that live in the pores of the skin and they break down the fatty materials formed by the oil glands in your skin. It's these broken-down fatty products that are chemically irritating and they cause the red pustules you're talking about.

Your case also points out that you don't have to be a teen-ager to have acne. Many people have acne throughout their life and, of course, it's easier for a diabetic to develop skin problems and infections than it is for a nondiabetic.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 8-2, Acne Can Be Treated, so that you'll have a full understanding of the problem. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents in check or coin with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

As The Health Letter I'm sending you explains, you can take tetracycline on a continuous basis. Usually they're taken in larger doses at first and then the amount is decreased for a maintenance level to control acne. One or two tablets a day is the usual maintenance amount.

Unless you develop any symptoms from taking them, there's no reason why you shouldn't continue them, particularly if they protect you against acne.

It usually takes three to eight weeks for tetracyclines to have any noticeable effect on acne. They won't cure the red pustules that are already there. That's caused by irritating chemicals that have already been formed. The tetracyclines will help prevent the breakdown of the oily sebum into irritating products. That helps prevent the development of more red pustules.

Skin peeling agents prescribed by your doctor are also helpful in some cases when needed. Then you can help cut down on the oily sebum accumulation by soaking and washing the areas involved two or three times a day with rather warm water. Wiping the area clean with alcohol sponges also helps. Alcohol will mix with the oily-waxy material and help dissolve it whereas water will not.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Perhaps you can help me with what I consider a serious problem. It may not be serious compared with some others but it is to me. I produce more natural gas than the local gas company and I'm getting better at it all the time.

I just turned 50 and am in perfect shape physically. I'm active and live a busy life. I really don't know what to do about this problem. It's not the kind of subject that's discussed at cocktail parties but after three hours at the theater, I'm ready to pop.

Is this a physiological problem, a diet problem or a sign of an ulcer growing or what? Can you give me some suggestions?

DEAR READER — It's a symptom and it's a fairly common one. About 10 percent of the general population has difficulties because of trapped gas in the digestive system.

There are two major sources of gas. In many people, it's swallowed air. Some patients object when they're told that they swallow air but a careful analysis has been done by withdrawing the gas and chemically analyzing it. When the gas is mostly nitrogen and oxygen, it is air. The other major source of gas is from fermentation from undigested foods.

To give you a more complete understanding of the gas problem, I am sending you The Health Letter number 6-8, Controlling Gaseousness. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents in check or coin with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

As The Health Letter I'm sending you explains, all of us swallow air. You can't drink water or any other liquid without swallowing some air. You can't eat food without that happening. This is more apt to occur if you have problems with dentures or some other reason for difficulty in chewing food.

The kind of fullness you feel immediately after eating is most often associated with air that's been swallowed and is in the stomach. A generalized distension is often associated with gas in the colon.

The average normal individual will swallow air and it will pass unnoticed by him or anyone else. It's the individual with underlying poor bowel function who's more apt to have gas symptoms. This can be from inadequate bulk in the diet or a spastic or irritable colon. There are certain foods that will contribute to gas.

I often forget to mention it when people ask about gas but physical activity is important. You say you're active. A good walk in the evening helps improve normal colon function and exercises such as sit ups that involve bending and use of the trunk muscle also seem to help.

In the rest of your letter you mentioned a popular product advertised on television for gas and indigestion. Don't pay too much attention to such products. Most of them don't work. It really doesn't matter whether gas comes in little bubbles or big bubbles. It still creates the same amount of bubble trouble.

What is A Town?

A town is a group of people.

- It is schools.
- It is city government.
- It is churches.
- It is hospitals
- It is industry and jobs.
- It is retail businesses.

They all have to work together. All must have the support of the people.

Or there is no town.

Give your local merchant a chance for your business. You shouldn't spend your hard earned money with him unless his selection is adequate and his price competitive. But give him the first opportunity to make the sale.

For the local retailer pays the highest percentage of local taxes. He most often is the civic leader who dedicates his time and talents to his town. He is contacted first for contributions to charitable projects. He provides jobs. Without his store you have no town.

Give the local merchant a fair shake

THE HEREFORD BRAND

Chinese Strike City Hall

PEKING (AP) — Thirteen years ago a 9-year-old boy was banished with his parents and three brothers to Shandong Province because his father had been branded a capitalist.

That was in 1966 at the beginning of the Cultural Revolution and the family foraged for food, dug up roots, ate wild plants and accepted charity. After more than a year, they were absorbed into a commune to toil on the land.

Today the boy is 23, barely able to read a newspaper, and he has returned from the countryside to seek a job and a better life in the capital. He is wary of giving his first name, only his last, Liang — in China the naming process is reversed — and he is one of the protesting "weifang," those who were sent to the countryside.

Thousands of weifang have returned to Peking unofficially and several hundred have been demonstrating at the City Hall. They want the return of their personal registration, food ration cards, old jobs and houses. Every day several dozen sit listlessly on the steps and some spend the night.

Some have filled out grievance forms, but most complain nothing has been done to help them.

Liang returned to Peking six months ago without his family. He said he has gone to his father's old factory and officials promised to resettle him. Nothing was done.

He said he went to the neighborhood committee in his old district and officials told him "document 43" — a new policy — provides only for political redress and clearing his name, not restoration of his job or property seized during the Cultural Revolution.

"The bureaucrats are now dragging their feet," said Liang. "They say they will consider the case. We leave. We come back. They say they have not yet considered it. We leave. We come back."

Liang said his father had a small business before the communist state 30 years ago, then was a salesman in a factory in Peking. During the Cultural Revolution, however, he was accused of being a capitalist.

Radicals and red guards stormed his home, Liang said, took the valuables and put his family on a train for the countryside, Liang said. They were denied food rations for more than a year, he said.

"We scrambled around, climbed hills and picked plants. And our neighbors, although they, too, had next to nothing, gave us some food."

Finally they were absorbed into a commune production brigade and at least they had rice to fill their bowls.

"Four generations of my family lived in Peking," said Liang, "and it is not fair that I shouldn't be able to live here."

He said his last year of formal education was in the third grade and today he can barely read a newspaper, only grasping the simple words.

He blames his problems on bureaucracy and "document 43," which he said went into effect last spring.

The party has said it wants to redress the wrongs of the cultural revolution, and Liang said "I came here because I heard about the policy of redress on Peking radio."

HIGH CRIME AREA: KEEP OUT

Atlanta has more per capital crime than any city anywhere. Local clergymen contemplate a billboard campaign around the commandment: "Thou shalt not kill."

In New York City bank robberies are pandemic, with more than 100 in three weeks.

Nationally, last year you paid a hidden tax of $2 billion to compensate retailers for what they lost to shoplifters.

Nationally, the FBI reports that crime is increasing another 17 percent this year over last—and in cities and towns of all sizes.

Latin youth gangs in Chicago are killing dozens of themselves and others this year.

There is ample evidence that much crime relates to drug use. Whatever the cause, whatever are we to do?

There may come a time when whole sections of our cities will have to be posted: HIGH CRIME AREA—KEEP OUT!

If only to warn visitors, I expect it.

In Chicago one of the areas would be south of the Loop and north of Comisky Park.

In that no man's land of public housing projects and vacant lots women are raped and men are killed just because they are there.

There are areas in Chicago, Los Angeles and New York where—if your car stalls—you are as good as dead.

Not in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia's Mayor Frank Rizzo says his city's police department has enough equipment to fight a war with Cuba and win.

That is not the way it should be, he concedes. "It is the way it has to be!"

But now our federal government has agents in Philadelphia—not to help the police but to gather evidence against the police!

Twice, Philadelphians elected Rizzo for his anticrime program. He promised "tough cops" and prides himself in vigorous law enforcement.

And it has worked. Per capita crime in Philadelphia is least among our major cities. Comparatively, small Phoenix with half the people has more of all kinds of crime than does Philadelphia.

So tough cops have tended to diminish the crime rate in Philadelphia—yet instead of applauding and encouraging this effective response the feds are trying to punish the police.

Where Philadelphia police have been brutal they have been indicted by federal and state authorities; 3; of them.

But apparently Justice Department lawyers want to flex their muscle on a grander scale.

Historically, our nation has favored local control of police.

Local police are where it's at. Also, federal police pose a frightening prospect of national coercion.

And when the feds go after the Philly cops, they have to know that they are encouraging the lawless and discouraging lawmen everywhere.

DPS Vacates Post

JOURDANTON, Texas (AP) — The Department of Public Safety, refusing to give in to Atascosa County officials demanding the transfer of two controversial officers, has vacated its six-man command post here and ordered troopers to answer only emergency calls.

County Judge O.B. Gates, meanwhile, refuses to discuss his plans. But one county commissioner did say the loss of the six troopers would burden the rural South Texas county's 25 other law enforcement officers.

"I think they can handle it, but not for a long time or as well as they could before with the troopers," said Commissioner W.W. Westbrook.

"We have no idea what will happen now. I don't think they expected us to do this," Capt. Randol Gilmore said Monday after the DPS refused to transfer patrolmen Earl Conaway, 32, a black, and Albert Rodriguez, 26, a Mexican-American.

The two troopers are credited with a crackdown on drunken driving that Gilmore said has cut the county's traffic death rate in half.

But it has also led to drunken driving charges against sons of two local politicians, including the county commissioner who sponsored the eviction resolution.

"We simply decided if they didn't want two of our officers, they could do without all six of them," said Gilmore. "This isn't what they wanted us to do at all."

The six troopers will remain stationed in their Atascosa County homes, but do routine traffic patrols in adjoining counties.

"It would be a disservice to the people of the county to pull out completely," said Gilmore. "We'll make accident calls and we'll respond to calls for assistance from the sheriff or other officers."

Gilmore said the county will lose the more than $225,000 it receives per year in fines from DPS traffic cases. Sheriff's deputies, constables and city police officers in the county do not regularly patrol the highways.

County commissioners cited numerous reports of "harassment" in ordering the transfer.

But DPS officials and the two troopers feel the order was prompted by arrests of prominent citizens, including a son of Pleasanton Mayor Travis Hall and Tausch's son, Thomas James Tausch.

The six troopers also believe racism in the county has aggravated the problem.

Gates and Tausch largely ignore reporters, but have denied the order was spurred by the two arrests or racism. Westbrook, who abstained on the Sept. 19 resolution while the other four members of the commissioners court voted for it, also scoffed. "That didn't have a thing to do with it."

Gates and Tausch said they had received numerous complaints that the two troopers had "harassed and abused" residents, but refused to offer specifics. Gates told one reporter last week that he has collected numerous statements to support the allegations.

No formal complaints have been submitted against the officers, DPS officials said Monday.

Atascosa County Sheriff Tommy Williams and Sheriff Bennie Sanders in neighboring Frio County have also said they will refuse any prisoners Conaway and Rodriguez bring to their jails.

Gilmore said the two troopers will take their prisoners 40 miles away to San Antonio or 37 miles away to Floresville. He noted that according to state law, Williams must accept the prisoners if the jailing is officially ordered by a justice of the peace.

The other four troopers, Gilmore said, can still use Williams' jail. Breathalyzer equipment used to test alleged drunken drivers is available in San Antonio, Floresville and other surrounding towns, the captain added.

The troopers began moving over the weekend and by Monday morning had removed all traces of the DPS, including the black-and-white "Texas Highway Patrol" sign. The log building, known as "Log Cabin" is a replica of Atascosa County's first courthouse in 1856 and has been the DPS headquarters for more than a dozen years.

DPS Sgt. Bobby Harpole then walked across the street to the courthouse Monday morning and delivered the keys to Gates' secretary.

When asked Monday about the situation, Gates told reporters, "No comment," got in his car and drove away. Williams also has refused to talk to reporters about whether his deputies will begin routine traffic patrols to pick up the law enforcement slack.

Two major highways, U.S. 281 and Texas 16, run through the county, which has a population estimated at about 20,000.

Rodriguez and Conaway, both single, came to the county last spring. They often voluntarily work extra hours and are each averaging about 14 drunken driving arrests per month, far above the average, said Gilmore.

Gilmore credits them with cutting the county's traffic toll from eight in the first eight months of 1978 to four in the same period this year. Drunken driving arrests increased from 161 to 276 during that same time.

Senators Attack Carter

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter's call for the Senate to move forward with the new SALT treaty, despite presence of Soviet troops in Cuba, drew few cheers from Texas Senators.

"I just wish I could share his enthusiasm for SALT II," Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, said Monday.

The state's Democratic Senator has said he is a skeptic on the new Strategic Arms Limitation treaty and would not make up his mind until the Senate debate is in full swing.

Sen. John Tower, a Republican, was more forceful in his criticism of Carter's speech.

"The whole statement was a self-serving attempt by the President to revive sentiment for the ratification of SALT," Tower said.

The senior Texas Senator said the President's plans to strengthen the American military presence in the Caribbean "are things that we probably should do, anyway. It doesn't ameliorate the fact that the combat brigade is still there."

Tower is a leading critic of the proposed SALT agreement and last week said Carter's tactics for handling the Soviet troop issue are another example of waffling.

Bentsen greeted Carter's new evaluation of the Soviet troops as appropriate.

"I think he put the Soviet brigade issue in its proper perspective. He cut it down to size," Bentsen said.

Accident Declared Imaginary

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP) — News that senior Paul Huff had been paralyzed came as a shock to students at Kentucky Wesleyan College. Rumors of his encounter with "a nine-foot worm with giant tentacles" spread swiftly.

"Later on, people were actually surprised to see me walking around," says Huff, 22, whose "accident" occurred in his imagination, one of the signs of the growing popularity of a fantasy game called "Dungeons and Dragons."

"D and D" was a relatively obscure pastime until the August disappearance of a 16-year-old computer wiz from Michigan State University catapulted the game into national prominence.

Police theorized that James Dallas Egbert III, an avid "D and D" player, might have died in the university's steam tunnels while acting out a real-life "Dungeons and Dragons" scenario.

When Egbert was found unharmed a month later, investigators said only that his disappearance was unrelated to the game. But curiosity about "Dungeons and Dragons" flourishes.

A spokesman at Something To Do Inc., a Louisville store that stocks the game, says "D and D" is becoming a best-seller. At ABC Hobbycraft in Evansville, Ind., "Dungeons and Dragons" tops the fantasy games that now account for 20 percent of the store's business, according to a clerk who asked not to be identified.
