

Only Way To Fly

Tierra Blanca School, as well as part of the city golf course and downtown Hereford. Coneway has been piloting the hot-air balloon for a number of years as a hobby. Brand publisher Speedy Nieman accepted a free ride this morning to get the photos.

Carter Blasts Soviet Trials

Anything Goes?

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce director Paul Abalos got out his tricycle and practiced Thursday for "Anything Goes" to be held all day Saturday at Whiteface Stadium. The Hereford & Vicinity YMCA will sponsor "Anything Goes", which will involve fun competition between several local organizations and clubs. Abalos will compete on the chamber-board team. Anything Goes Saturday

If you want to see some of your friends and neighbors in some funny predicaments, don't miss the "Anything Goes" competition at Whiteface Stadium Saturday.

The contests, sponsored by Hereford YMCA, will pit teams from civic clubs and other organizations in some unusual games patterned after the format of the television show by the same name of Anything Goes.

The big show gets underway at 10 a.m. with preliminaries for the women's teams. After a lunch break the men's, or mixed, teams tangle in more prelims. Winners of the prelims are matched at 6:30 p.m. in the finals to determine team champions.

Admission to the "Anything Goes" show will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Events in the preliminary competition will include the frisbee relay, the inner-tube relay, the water balloon toss, the tricycle relay, the pole scot over the water, and the obstacle course.

In the finals, contestants will vie in the walking-the barrel relay, the blindfolded golf cart race, the cream pie toss, the pole scot and ball catch, and the obstacle course.

Booths and concessions at the stadium will include: YMCA-coles and popcorn; Community Action-ice cream, lemonade, pony rides and dart throw; Meals on Wheels-cakes and pies; G.I. Forum-snow cones and cotton candy; Kappa Iota-watermelon; Fire Department-iced tea, candy bars, Kool Aid; San Pablo Methodist-tamales.

The preliminary contests will determine two women's and three men's teams for the final competition Saturday evening.

BONN, West Germany (AP) President Carter and West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt joined today in deploring Soviet prosecution of dissidents, with Carter declaring that his criticism will not be silenced and Schmidt citing Eastern European human rights violations.

"Our voice will not be stilled as we consider these violations, and others around the world, human rights," Carter said.

At an impromptu news conference following their only scheduled bilateral talks, the first questions sought their reaction to the prosecution of Anatoly Shcharansky and others in the Soviet Union.

"We deplore this action by the Soviet government," Carter replied, citing not only Shcharansky's case but similar moves against Alexander Ginzburg and Yuri Orlov.

Speaking in German, Schmidt said: "I would like to express my full agreement with what the president has said."

The German leader added that "such actions" are also taken "in the other part of Germany" and said that he would like to remind U.S. reporters "that there are also people in Eastern Europe who suffer under such conditions but are not given such public prominence" as the Soviet dissidents.

The U.S. president said it was obvious that "the courageous dissidents in the Soviet Union" are being tried, convicted and punished because they "sought basic freedoms" guaranteed under the Helsinki agreement, which he noted the Soviet Union "voluntarily signed."

Carter said he had just received a personal report from Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance on what "the president termed Vance's 'constructive meetings' in Geneva with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Carter's meeting with Schmidt followed a sedate official welcome here after a breakfast conference with Vance that touched on new difficulties in American-Soviet relations.

Carter, who reached Germany so late Thursday night that the welcoming ceremony was delayed, was received by President Walter Scheel under misty skies at Villa Hammerschmidt, the West German chief of state's official residence on the Rhine.

The Carter-Vance breakfast, also attended by White House national security assistant Zbigniew Brzezinski, was the U.S. president's first opportunity to get a first-hand report from the secretary of state on Vance's just-concluded strategic arms limitation talks with Gromyko in Geneva.

Vance arrived here Thursday after two

Caions To Leave Restaurant Business

G.D. and Jeannie Caion are leaving the restaurant business after 21 years, it was disclosed Thursday afternoon when employees held a farewell party at the Caion Steak House.

The Caions also announced that the restaurant had been sold to Ron Welty and Cliff Herring who will remodel and reopen the restaurant under the name of The Railroad Crossing.

Herring, formerly of Hereford, has been operating The Railroad Crossing in Canyon about two years and Welty recently went into a partnership corporation with Herring. Welty, a native of Hereford, was the administrator at Deaf Smith General Hospital until his resignation recently to enter the restaurant business.

Contacted here Thursday afternoon, Welty announced that the restaurant will be closed during the month of August for a complete remodeling. "Our plans are to open the first Monday in September," he stated.

Welty said the menu here will be identical to the Railroad Crossing in Canyon, specializing in steaks and also featuring sea food and fried chicken. He said the restaurant would also serve breakfast six days a week and would be open on Sundays from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The effective date of the changeover is

Heat Maintains Hold on State

By The Associated Press

It was the same song, another verse today as far as the Texas weather picture was concerned.

More hot weather was forecast for the entire state.

At Dallas, where the mercury has reached or passed the 100-degree mark for 12 straight days, the Dallas County medical examiner's office reports that two men have died of apparent heat strokes. The mercury was expected to again pass the 100-degree mark at Dallas and forecasters say they cannot see any immediate change in the weather pattern there.

Forecasters called for continued mostly clear skies and hot temperatures. Some widely scattered thunderstorms were expected in Southwest Texas and along upper sections of the Texas coast, but rainfall amounts, as in most recent thunderstorm activity, were expected to be light.

Highs were expected to range from the middle 90s to near 110 in the Big Bend area of Southwest Texas.

Some thunderstorm activity was reported early today in northern sections of the Texas Panhandle and near Beaumont in Southeast Texas.

Skies were mostly clear early today with temperatures ranging from the middle 60s in the mountains of West Texas to the lower 80s in North Central Texas.

Women Now Pay Support

Divorced Fathers' Demands Being Met

NEW YORK (AP) - Divorced fathers are collecting a dividend from the drive for women's equality. They have started to demand and get child support payments.

Consider Allan S. Carter, a New York City school teacher in his late 30s. His former wife, Carolyn R. Carter, also in her 30s, was a New York City school secretary until she remarried and moved to Texas.

The father had custody of their one child, 7-year-old Kenneth.

Then, on July 25 of last year, a landmark ruling in New York State appeals court gave Carter something else - $25 a week for child support from his former wife, even though she no longer works.

The ruling said, in effect, that her ability to work obligated her to help with the expense of raising her son.

Such a ruling would have been almost unheard of a few years ago. Divorce laws in most states had always placed the financial burden of childrearing on the father, unless he was physically or otherwise disabled.

But today, an increasing number of divorced men with children are being granted child support from their ex-wives. More and more, the important factor is which parent can best afford to pay for childrearing, and less and less what sex that parent is.

Practically every state has adopted law changes in the past few years that make the financial support of children in divorce cases the responsibility of both parents, according to Dr. Doris Jonas Freed, chairman of the American Bar Association family law research committee.

And many feminist groups aren't at all sorry to concede this gain to divorced men. They say it is a fair price for divorced women to pay for the freedom to pursue careers that divorced men have always had.

The trend is difficult to measure, because lawyers are reluctant to talk about the confidential terms of divorce settlements. Certainly, the great majority of divorce settlements still require men to pay the child support.

But divorce lawyers and other family court officials around the country assert the trend is there.

"It's a clear movement, of recent origin, linked to the ERA the proposed Equal Rights Amendment and the whole process by which the former preference of women as the child's natural custodian has been held constitutionally unsound," says Joseph DuCanto, president of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, based in Chicago.

"Child support payments have been de-sexed," says Dr. Freed. "It's a phenomenon of the '70s but it's become increasingly true lately. I think this is definitely an outgrowth of so many more women in the workforce."

"It's no longer a matter of sex, it's a matter of dollars," says Philip F. Solomon, a past president of the matrimonial lawyers academy.

Dr. Freed also says 37 states now make provisions for alimony to be awarded to either the man or the woman.

This seeming role reversal, in which

Presley Volunteered As FBI Informant

WASHINGTON (AP) - An internal FBI memo says singer Elvis Presley eight years ago volunteered to become an FBI informant, but the document does not say he ever volunteered any information to the agency, according to a published report.

The Washington Post said today that the memo also showed that Presley, who died last year, expressed disgust about the influence the Beatles and some other entertainers were having over American youth.

The memo, written Dec. 31, 1970 by M.A. Jones of the FBI crime records division to Thomas E. Bishop, at the time assistant FBI director, was made public under the Freedom of Information Act, the newspaper said.

On that date Presley came to Washington to meet with President Richard Nixon and accept an award for his work against drug abuse. Previous accounts have reported that during that meeting, Presley volunteered to help the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs.

The Post said the Jones memo quoted Presley as blaming the Beatles' "filthy unkempt appearances and suggestive music" for many problems facing young people.

In addition, according to the story, the FBI official said Presley "advised that the Smothers brothers, Jane Fonda and other persons in the entertainment industry of their like have a lot to answer for in the hereafter for the way they have poisoned young minds by disparaging the United States in public statements and unsavory activities."

Waste-Site Opponents Continue Protests

EL PASO (AP) - Opponents of a Department of Energy proposal to store nuclear wastes near Carlsbad, N.M., haven't minced words with DOE officials at public hearings in Texas this week.

"I hope you are thinking about alternatives, because the residents of El Paso do not want this, and we are not going to let you shove it down our throats," Mollie Smith of Las Cruces, N.M., said Thursday.

Some of the 100 citizens attending the hearing accused the department of using public relations tactics instead of scientific research in attempts to sell the idea of a nuclear waste dump in the area.

The proposed Waste Isolation Pilot Project would store nuclear wastes at a site about 25 miles southeast of Carlsbad between 2,000 and 2,600 feet underground in salt formations.

The five-man DOE team holding the hearing faced similar if less heated opposition at meetings earlier in the week in Midland and Amarillo.

Roger LeGassie of the DOE team said if the project is approved the cost - estimated at $350 million - would be passed on to the power companies.

"These costs will probably be internalized into electricity prices," he said. Nearly $20 million has already been spent on preliminary studies.

The DOE team said it wanted to explain some of the technology of the proposal "for the benefit of some of you housewives in the audience," but the comment prompted a sarcastic response from one New Mexico woman.

Shcharansky Sentenced To 13 Years Labor

MOSCOW (AP) - Dissident Anatoly Shcharansky, whose cause was championed by President Carter and became the center of an international furor, was convicted of spying for the United States today and sentenced to 13 years at hard labor, his brother said.

The 30-year-old Jewish activist was also convicted of "anti-Soviet agitation and propaganda," for which he must serve seven years concurrently with his espionage term, Leonid Shcharansky said.

The sentence was two years less than the 15 requested by the prosecutor, the longest prison sentence allowed by Soviet law. The charge of treasonable espionage could have meant the death penalty, but the prosecutor had cited the defendant's youth and clean record in asking instead for a prison term.

The verdict and sentence climaxed twin dissident trials that have brought the Carter administration into a confrontation with the Kremlin over human rights. On Thursday, a court in Kaluga, 100 miles south of here, sentenced dissident leader Alexander Ginzburg, 41, to eight years at hard labor.

Carter reiterated the U.S. position today in Bonn, West Germany, telling a news conference, "Our voice will not be stilled as we consider these violations, and others around the world, of human rights. In a closing statement, Sheharansky said: "To my wife and my people I can only say, 'Next year in Jerusalem.' To this court which decided my fate in advance, I say nothing," his brother reported. "Next year in Jerusalem" is a centuries-old rallying cry of Jews dispersed from their homeland.

Wets Get Hearing On Abilene Boose

ABILENE, Texas (AP) - Wet and dry forces had a date with the bar today and Abilene's 76-year-old liquor-free reputation is on the line.

An election last month for the sale of alcohol for on-and off-premises consumption ended with unofficial results giving a narrow victory to the wet forces. However, last week, the Taylor County Commissioners threw out more than 800 ballots in a voting precinct dispute and declared Abilene dry.

The wets requested a hearing today and planned to ask District Judge Don Lane to order the commissioners to canvass "all" precincts and declare the results.

Abilene book dealer Ben Ezzell, however, isn't waiting for Lane's decision or the next county election to let the commissioners know how he feels.

Ezzell has filed a complaint with the FBI, claiming his civil rights were violated. Ezzell has filed a complaint with the FBI, claiming his civil rights were violated when the commissioners refused to canvass all the returns.

The book dealer said since a majority of the commissioners want Abilene to stay dry, "we feel they would enjoy a long, enforced stay in a certifiable dry federal prison."

Police Report

Ronnie Owens, 218 16th Street, told Hereford police Thursday that someone stole a 6 1/2 inch .22-caliber Ruger pistol from his pickup sometime Monday night or Tuesday.

Ruben Lucio, 333 Adelita Calle, reported at 1:25 a.m. today that someone stole between $30 and $60 worth of miscellaneous items from his house including plates, other dishes and a radio.

Weather

West Texas-Partly cloudy southwest with scattered thunderstorms and continued hot through Saturday. Partly cloudy and continued hot north through Saturday with widely scattered thunderstorms tonight. Highs mid 90s to near 110 along Rio Grande in Big Bend. Lows upper 60s to lower 70s, near 60 mountains.

Vance Chastizes Young for Remark

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) - Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance said Thursday he has chastised U.N. ambassador Andrew Young for his statement that there are "hundreds, perhaps thousands" of U.S. political prisoners, a remark that has touched off a storm of criticism in Washington.

In Washington Thursday, by 293-82, the House killed a resolution proposed by Rep. Larry McDonald, D-Ga., calling for the impeachment of Young.

Vance, in Geneva for arms talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, met with Young Wednesday night and had lunch with him today.

Before the lunch, Vance was asked by a reporter whether he had expressed his displeasure to Young Wednesday night about the remarks. The secretary of state answered, "Yes."

In a British broadcast interview from Geneva, Switzerland, Young also said it was "ridiculous" to focus on his political prisoner remark in the context of a lengthy interview he gave to the Paris Socialist newspaper Le Matin.

In Wednesday's installment, Young compared dissidents on trial in the Soviet Union with U.S. civil rights campaigners and alleged there were "political prisoners" in both countries.

"There are hundreds, perhaps thousands of political prisoners in the United States," he said. He added that there were "likely to be tens of thousands" of political prisoners in the Soviet Union.

6 Congressmen May Have Violated

WASHINGTON (AP) - The House ethics committee announced Thursday it has reason to believe four congressmen committed ethics violations in the Korean affair and that two former congressmen "committed perjury."

The committee did not name the two former congressmen but reliable sources said they were former Reps. Nick Galifianakis, D-N.C., and John R. Rarick, D-La.

The committee said those are the only present and former congressmen who warrant further proceedings for taking money from South Korean businessman Tongsun Park. Such groups include Fathers United for Equal Rights, Male Equality Now, Inc., Men's Liberation, America's Society of Divorced Men, and the Committee for Fair Divorce & Alimony Laws.

"Men have begun to realize they can get custody of their children. I think the fact that the men's groups have been vocal has brought this along," she says. And Susanne Duval of the Department of Health Education and Welfare's Office of Child Support Enforcement says, "Judges are awarding custody more and more to men. What follows is that women should have to help support the children. My own view as a feminist is that this is good."

The committee in effect cleared nine other current congressmen and also House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill.

It said O'Neill's only "questionably improper" act is to accept two parties in his honor paid for by Tongsun Park.

Confirming what had already been widely reported, the committee announced it is conducting formal proceedings to determine if the House should punish.

Former Democratic Whip John J. McFall of California, for allegedly converting a $4,000 contribution from Park to his own use "under circumstances which might be construed by reasonable persons as influencing the performance of his government duties."

Young Said Still Effective

UNITED NATIONS (AP) - Other U.N. diplomats in general still rate Andrew Young an effective representative of the United States in the world organization despite the frequent storms caused by his remarks to reporters in his 18 months on the job.

"He's done a lot to convince the Third World of the sincerity of American policy...He's been good for the United States and the United Nations," said Canadian Ambassador William H. Barton, the current president of the U.N. Security Council.

Young, America's first black U.N. ambassador, drew sharp criticism in Congress and irritated the White House by saying in an interview this week with a Paris newspaper that along with the many political prisoners in the Soviet Union, "in our prisons there are hundreds, perhaps even thousands of people whom I would call political prisoners."

AMARILLO - Hereford Evening Lions Club President Bob Lohr presented a $150 check to District 2-TI Lions Hi-Plains Eye Bank in Amarillo this week.

Among those attending the meeting of the Eye Bank were former bank director Joe Don Cummings of Hereford, director James Dobbs of the Easter Lions Club, Mark Andrews of the Hereford Noon Lions and Porter Roberts of the Friona Lions Club.

The Eye Bank adopted its budget for the upcoming fiscal year and heard reports from directors on area conferences. Also discussed were plans for the new year, public relations, programs and possibilities for obtaining donor eyes.

The Abundant Life

MORE PATIENCE

BY BOB WEAR

"MORE PATIENCE" may be one of the most helpful elements in the lives of most people. If we will learn and maintain this trait, we will be able to cope with living much more effectively. "MORE PATIENCE" may be one of the most helpful elements in the lives of most people. If we will learn and maintain this trait, we will be able to cope with living much more effectively. We will also be able to improve the quality of everything we do. This personal improvement will be especially helpful in our relationships with others. Much of the difficulty in human relationships is in the impatience we feel toward one another.

WITH OURSELVES, and in what we try to accomplish, "more patience" will be helpful. This does not mean that we will be any less diligent, or reduce our legitimate efforts, or give up anything that will be effective. It does mean that everything we do will be done better, and that we will be able to get more worthwhile things done.

WE WILL OPEN many more locks, when we are patient in using the key. Of course, there are times when quick action is required; but even those times will be better, when the action is deliberate and methodical and taken with the greatest possible calmness. "More patience" will be helpful in all situations, because it means that the action will be as well-thought-out and as skillful as we can make it.

EAGERNESS TO GET THINGS DONE is understandable, but this attitude must never be permitted to run wild. This, in itself, is not objectionable; but, if not managed wisely, it can be the basic cause of our failures. This attitude is commendable, in most situations, if we properly relate it to reality and facts, and handle it with good judgment and common sense.

THERE ARE MANY good reasons for developing "more patience." In addition to our improved effectiveness in what we do, we will almost eliminate some of the most hurtful influences that develop in one's life. We will certainly lessen discouragement; we can just about abolish all frustrations; and there will be little or no nervousness. We will reduce, to some degree, everything else that is destructive of our well-being. EVERYTHING WE DO will be done better, when we think, and plan, and act with "more patience." We will probably get more done, because there will be less wasted time and effort, there will be fewer failures, and we will have added strength and encouragement, because of the abiding sense of accomplishment.

MORE THAN THIS, "more patience," as a behavior guideline, will be a steady influence that supports a growing personal confidence. This is one of, or perhaps the most helpful of all personal attainments; because it is so much a part of a good self image.

MANY MISTAKES are caused by impatience. Therefore, as we learn to think and act with "more patience," we will be making fewer mistakes. In fact, we can reduce mistakes to a minimum; and this is a worthwhile accomplishment.

Inoculation Clinic Set For Tuesday

A clinic offering vaccines against polio, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, measles, rubella and mumps is scheduled for 1-4 p.m. Tuesday, July 18, in the Reddy Room of Southwestern Public Service, 325 Lee.

There will be no charge for the clinic, according to Jerry DeSha, health program specialist for the Texas Department of Health office in Canyon.

Lung Group To Sponsor Workshop

In co-sponsorship with Westgate Nursing Home, The American Lung Association of Texas, Top of Texas Area, in co-sponsorship with Westgate Nursing Home, will present an inservice education program at 2 p.m. July 27 in the nursing home.

Dave Clark, director of the Northwest Texas Hospital respiratory-therapy department, will teach proper ventilation for the bedfast and wheelchair patients.

All interested medical personnel are invited to attend.

Hereford representatives of the Lung Association are Mrs. Jewel Smith, Mrs. June Bull, R.N., and postmaster Nolan Grady.

Mrs. London Wins Prize

Margaret London has won $100 from the Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union because of a recent deposit, credit union manager Paul Mason has announced.

Mason said he had advertised $100 award to be given to the customer who caused total deposits at the credit union to pass $10 million. Ms. London made the lucky deposit this week.

Fence Surrounds Nothing

SPEIGNER, Ala. (AP) - There's a 12-foot-high fence at the new Staston Correctional Center, but it surrounds only bare ground.

State prison officials say the fence was designed to keep inmates from escaping a prison cannery. Which makes sense, if the cannery had been built.

But plans for it were dropped when construction costs for the new $2.9 million prison exceeded projections.

Fine for fiscal austerity, but no one bothered to take the fence off the drawing board. It was completed at a cost of $15,865.

Child Support

divorced fathers want a larger part in child-raising, and career-minded women are increasingly willing to grant it, so far is most noticeable in urbanized states such as California, Illinois and New York.

The federal government estimates there have been slightly more than one million divorces each year since 1975, and the number of children involved has been more than 1.1 million each year. Those figures are roughly double the levels of a decade earlier.

No one knows how many of those cases involved supplying child support to the husband.

But in New York, for instance, following the Carter decision, there have been hundreds of cases in which men have won such claims from their divorced wives, according to Solomon.

A psychologist for the Chicago conciliation service described in general terms a recent case in which the wife, a corporate attorney, had an income about three times that of the husband.

The man was granted custody of the couple's two young children and is getting child support payments from his former wife.

"It worked out very well because daddy played what is characteristically described as mommy in the household," the Chicago psychologist says. "We're frequently seeing the whole business in divorced women of 'now I'm getting to do my thing,' and she is quite willing to give up the children."

The impetus for change in many states came when judges ruled old statutes unconstitutional, and not so much because advocates had lobbied in state legislatures. But feminist groups seeking the same career and family choices as divorced men did not oppose days in Geneva, during which there was no apparent breakthrough in the arms talks.

Those talks and, in a sense, the German-American summit here, were overshadowed by heightened Soviet-American tensions.

During the 7 1/2-hour flight from Washington, an American official traveling with Carter said the president's sharp criticism of the trial of Soviet dissident Anatoly Shcharansky "certainly hasn't improved" relations between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The official, who declined to be quoted by name, said he was encouraged, however, by a widespread echoing of Carter's criticism, saying it showed "global sensitivity to the human rights issue."

Acknowledging that "somewhat more friction" now exists between Moscow and Washington, he said that Americans should avoid a tendency to swing between "euphoria and belligerence."

Vance, during his flight to Germany, issued a statement saying he was "deeply distressed to learn of the heavy sentence" - eight years at hard labor - given to Alexander Ginzburg, another Soviet dissident.

Vance said Ginzberg has become "a symbol of selfless courage and dedication to principle," and concluded: "his well-being will be our constant concern."

Schmidt was an unscheduled participant in Carter's low-key arrival at the Cologne-Bonn airport. With the official welcome set for today, a protocol official of far lesser rank had been scheduled to greet the president and Mrs. Carter and their 10-year old daughter Amy.

Schmidt was accompanied by his wife Hannelore, who presented to Mrs. Carter a single, long-stemmed pink rose.

There were no speeches at the airport - just a 21-gun salute and a lot of handshaking.

Then the Carters and the Schmidts got into an American-made armored limousine for the 15-mile drive into Bonn.

Carter also planned today to place a wreath at Bonn's memorial to victims of war and tyranny, and to deliver a speech

Officers Elected By Newcomers Club

A new slate of officers nominees was approved Tuesday by Hereford Newcomers Club during a picnic in Veterans' Park.

Accepted for office were Carolyn Canon, president; Star Christie, vice president; Lenoir Newman, second vice; Gracie Conner, treasurer; Lois Kerschen, secretary; Terry Parker, scrapbook; and Linda Kirkpatrick, advisor.

These officers will be formally installed at the club's next meeting, the date of which has been changed to Aug. 15 at the Country Club. Irene McKinster will serve as installing officer.

In other business, it was reported that the club raised $78 during a recent bake sale in Sugariand Mall. The following members will compose a team in the YMCA "Anything Goes" contest Saturday: Mardel Robinson, Sue Barrett, Carolyn Canon, Margaret McClelland and Leona Carruth.

Guests introduced at the picnic were Sharon Bodner, Donnie and Eugenia Evers and Janet McEachern.

Members present included Marsha Ankeney, Sue Barrett, Dean Grean, Margaret McClelland, Joyce Geiger, Jody Josephson, Kay Lucas, Gracie Conner, Lenoir Newman, Lois Kerschen, Linda Kirkpatrick, Leona Carruth, Ellen Thames, Kay Fambraugh, Star Christie and Carolyn Canon.

HHS Class Reunion Slated Tomorrow

Members of the 1953 graduating class of Hereford High School will be reunited here Saturday 25 years after their original commencement exercises.

All members of the 1953 HHS class and faculty are welcome.

The E.B. Black House, 508 W. Third-St., and Deaf Smith County Historical Museum will be offering guided tours of their facilities for the special benefit of the 1953 alumni. Tours will begin at 10 a.m. and the ex-students are welcome to visit either or both facilities.

An informal reception for the exes is planned to commence at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the parlor of First Christian Church.

Climaxing the class reunion will be a dinner party Saturday evening at the Country Club. The social hour is scheduled at 5 p.m., to be followed by dinner at 6:30. Alumni planning to attend are asked to confirm their reservations by telephoning Buryl Fish, 364-6997.

Chairmen of the reunion activities are Dr. Bill Carmichael and Buryl Fish. They were the president and vice president respectively of their senior class in 1953. There was a total of 93 students in the HHS class of '53.

Friends Welcomed To Hershey Reunion

Acquaintances of the Ray Hershey family are welcome to attend the clan's reunion tomorrow in the Bull Barn where guests will begin to gather at 10 a.m. A covered dish luncheon is planned at noon.

Expected to attend the reunion are children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hershey, including Mrs. Arch Conklin of Fort Smith, Ark., Mrs. Jim Bicketts of Roswell, N.M., Mrs. Travis Clegg of Fortales, N.M. and Horace and Howard Hershey, both of the local area.

Ray Hershey and Ella Pell were married on Christmas Eve, 1899 in Piqua, Ohio and had six children. The Hersheys came to this county in 1910 and were leaders in the Progressive Community northeast of Hereford, where they farmed until 1942. Ray Hershey is credited with being one of those who approached the Commissioner's Court urging them to hire a Home Demonstration Agent for Deaf Smith County.

Hershey died in 1956 and his widow died the following year.

Reception Planned In Resident's Honor

H.D. Culpepper, a resident of Hereford since 1925, will be honored on his 95th birthday during a reception from 3-5 p.m. Sunday in his home, 602 E. Third St.

Friends and relatives of Culpepper are invited.

A retired farmer, Culpepper came here from Silvertown 53 years ago. He served as a County Commissioner here for 12 years and is a member of Central Church of Christ. He is also a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Culpepper was married to the former Hattie McDaniel for 60 years before her death. They had three children, including O.H. Culpepper of Hereford, Verna Featherston and Zelma Kuykendal.

Culpepper has received birthday greetings from President Jimmy Carter, Vice President Walter Mondale and Texas Governor Dolph Briscoe. Members of his family will be visiting him here this week during a family reunion, slated in conjunction with his birthday.

Make Summer Snacks That Appeal to Kids

School has been forgotten and kids are in the full swing of summer. Outdoor activities often are more important than meals to active children. It's up to the individual to make their meals and snacks as nutritious and appealing as possible.

In developing meals and snacks for children use the 3-2-4-4 formula. It is based on the four food group system developed by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA). The USDA determined that a child needs three servings from the milk group, two servings from the meat group, and four servings from both the vegetables and fruits group and the breads and cereals group. If one uses 3-2-4-4, one can be sure the child is meeting his daily recommended dietary allowances established by the scientists on the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Academy of Sciences.

SNACK IDEAS
If one has a problem with active children this summer, here's a snack activity that will get rid of some excess energy. Find a jar small enough for the child to handle and make sure it has a tightly fitting lid. Place a spoonful of no-cook pudding mix in the jar and fill the jar three-quarters full with cold milk. After five or more minutes of brisk shaking, the child will be rewarded with a nutritious snack he's prepared himself.

Fruit and vegetable "kebobs" are an excellent snack. Prepare a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables ahead of time. Cut them into bite size pieces and arrange on a plate with a little fruit flavored yogurt or cottage cheese. Arm the child with a toothpick and let him dip into a nutritious snack.

3-2-4-4 Snacks
Milk Group: cold milk, chocolate milk, pudding, fruit yogurt, ice cream

Meat Group: peanut butter spread on crackers or bread, hot dog "kebobs," nuts

Vegetables and Fruits Group: Fruit and vegetable wedges dipped in yogurt, vegetable sticks, fruit and cheese "kebobs"

Breads and Cereals Group: graham crackers, soda crackers, bread sticks

Production Continues

The millionth person witnessed the musical production of "TEXAS" this week in Palo Duro Canyon State Park. The musical drama, written by Paul Green, is presented nightly, except Sundays. Ticket information is available from the local Chamber of Commerce office, or by writing Box 268, Canyon, Tx. 79015.

Seafood Suggested For Brunch

COLLEGE STATION--For an extra-special weekend brunch, serve fish or shellfish.

Ease and speed of preparation and serving make seafood attractive to any host or hostess looking for shortcuts and a tasty way to provide protein, suggests Annette Reddell, seafood consumer education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

The time of day usually dictates the menu, but there is a great deal of leeway in planning a seafood brunch. It can take the form of a substantial late breakfast or a luncheon without dessert.

Seafood recipes suitable for brunch often are versatile and nutritious enough to double for supper or a special midnight snack, the specialist says.

Blue Crab Omelet is an example, and it is easily modified for one to six servings.

For added appeal when serving seafood, keep these tips in mind. Offer something soft and something crisp together, something hot with something cold, no matter what the weather, and something mild to complement something with tang.

With this in mind, try this recipe for Blue Crab Omelet. Ms. Reddell suggests.

BLUE CRAB OMELET
1 pound crab meat or cooked,

- flaked fish
- 2 cups half-and-half cream
- 2 tablespoons sliced green onions
- 1/2 teaspoon leaf thyme
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 6-8 drops liquid hot pepper sauce
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 cup water
- 1/4 cup margarine
- 12 eggs-to make six omelets
- 1 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper
- 1 1/2 cups grated cheddar cheese

In a saucepan, heat crab meat, half-and-half, onion, thyme, salt and hot pepper sauce. Blend flour and water together and add to sauce. Stir constantly and cook until thick.

For each omelet, beat together two eggs, 1/4 teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper. To a small omelet pan, add two teaspoons margarine and heat until margarine sizzles. Pour egg mixture into pan.

When eggs are partially cooked, run a spatula around the edge lifting slightly to allow uncooked egg to flow underneath.

When almost done, sprinkle 1/2 cup cheese on top and continue to cook until cheese melts. Place 1/4 cup of the crab mixture on one side of the omelet and fold the other half on omelet over.

Repeat procedure until six omelets are made. Serve with hot buttered biscuits and peach preserves.

Ann Landers

Marriage Acceptable

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our 17-year-old daughter graduated from high school in June. She was four months pregnant and fortunately built so she didn't show anything.

Peggy and her boyfriend, who is 20, want to get married. They are both happy about the baby and his parents are thrilled, which is a real mind-bender. I think it's a disgrace.

The boy has had three years of college and plans to continue so he can teach. His parents have agreed to help financially. Peggy wants to go on to college, too, but with a new baby, I don't know how she will manage.

My husband is very much against the marriage and dislikes the boy for "ruining" his daughter. He says they are both too young to know what marriage is all about and is betting it won't last a year. I am not happy about the way things turned out, but I'm willing to go along with it because they seem to be very much in love. Do you have any thoughts on this situation? -- A House Divided

DEAR DIVIDED: Your daughter is pregnant. She wants to marry the man and in your state she does not need parental consent. He wants to marry her. She has graduated from high school and could continue her education at a later date. It would be very helpful to all concerned if you and your husband would give them your blessings and hope for the best.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My father died when I was five and mother raised me to believe I was beautiful and brilliant--destined to marry someone at the very top of the ladder socially and financially. She actually thought Prince Charles would be nice and said so openly.

Somehow my life didn't turn out as mother had planned. I married the only man I ever loved. He was neither rich nor social and, of course, Mother loathed him.

Our wedding was performed in the pastor's study. (No point in having an elegant affair for such an ordinary selection, she said, although we could have well afforded it.) Mother cried throughout the entire ceremony.

All this happened two years ago. My husband and I moved 400 miles away and we have seen Mother only once, at my grandmother's funeral.

Yesterday my aunt phoned to say mother is very ill and would like to see me. Should I go? -- Stamford, Conn.

DEAR STAM: Yes. Go at once. You will never regret it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband retired six months ago at the age of 65. If he had worked half as hard at his job as he works at his hobbies we would be millionaires.

Five months ago Herbert bought a second-hand violin. He takes two lessons a week and practices from three to four hours every day. I can't stand it. When our kids were growing up somebody was always practicing something, but even as beginners they never bothered me as much as Herbert's constant screeching. Any advice? -- Ear Trouble In Florida

DEAR EAR: Don't complain because your 65-year-old husband is fiddling around. At least he has a violin.

If you can't schedule your outside activities away from the house when Herbert practices, buy a transistor radio, plus it into your ears and carry it from room to room.

Miss Cox On Baylor List

Amy Donita Cox, 503 Ave. J, recently was among 403 Baylor University Students named to the spring 1978 Dean's Distinguished Academic Honor List.

A student must be an undergraduate or post-baccalaureate enrollee with a grade-point average between 3.8 to 4.0 achieved during the semester.

Dr. O.M. Hale of the University of Georgia's Coastal Plain Experiment Station has found that sows that are hosed down regularly appear happier than their dirtier fellows.

When a recipe calls for one cup of sliced mushrooms, it's usually safe to count on needing one-quarter pound.

IF YOU ARE BETWEEN THE AGES OF 55-65 and are not in a Bible study class, we invite you to join us for Bible study at First Baptist Church each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. ground floor ADULT IV DEPARTMENT

ENTHUSIASM

Enthusiasm is an attitude. It's a bright, confident air that lets people know you believe in yourself and what you're doing.

Enthusiasm is contagious. It's really hard to be negative around you when you're expelling drops of courage and hope.

Enthusiasm is healthy. People notice how healthy you look and seem to feel. They ask where you get your energy and maybe even about your diet!

Headaches, backaches and the doldrums just can't get into your body when enthusiasm is pouring forth.

YOU LIVE YOUR FAITH WHEN YOU SHARE WITH OTHERS

There is no greater expression of faith than the translation of it into good deeds; the sharing of our blessings with those less fortunate than ourselves. However, the concept of sharing goes far beyond the mere distribution of our material wealth to the poor; it also includes the gift of your time, patience, understanding and friendship. Visit the old and the sick; talk to them, read to them, run errands for them, give a ride to someone who is in need of it. Remember that the finest gift of all is that of yourself, given quietly and without fanfare; and you will be the better for it. Learn more about the true spirit of giving by attending your Church.

"He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again."

— Proverbs 19:17

Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.
— Sir James Matthew Barrie

The Lighter Side

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) - Pawn shop owner Edward Camp found $600 in the mail as payment for three pistols. Nothing unusual there - except that the pistols were stolen in 1975 by a gun-wielding, disguised bandit.

"This is to pay for three guns taken in late June or early July of 1975, for this I am truly sorry," read the note of apology sent by the unidentified, guilt-ridden robber.

The money arrived Monday with the apologetic note. The note had no signature and the plain envelope, postmarked in Boston had no return address.

"That was three years ago and I still don't believe it," said the stunned Camp. "I pretty well fell through the floor when my shop manager showed me the letter.... I was so astonished and bewildered at first that I thought about framing them."

At the time of the robbery, Camp said, the stolen pistols were worth $459. Now, they're valued at $793.

CHICAGO (AP) - Little 4-year-old Moo is under strict doctor's orders to avoid microwave ovens, citizens band radios, electronic ignition systems and electromagnetic machines.

All of these gadgets could interfere with Moo's pacemaker, which is designed to correct a malfunction of the heart called "sick sinus syndrome" that the Pekinges suffers from. The affliction causes irregular heartbeats and used to cause Moo to pass out because of inadequate oxygen to the brain.

"We always shoot the dog out of the kitchen before we turn on the microwave, and we don't let him ride in our boat anymore because he likes to sit on the motor housing," said Mrs. Roger Attoe of Madison, Wis., Moo's owner.

"But aside from that, life is pretty normal for Moo. Fortunately, there aren't any CB radios in our neighborhood for us to worry about," she said.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - Federal marshals placed some old Spanish cannonballs, swords and daggers under arrest in a continuing dispute with some treasure-hunters over who owns the recovered treasure.

Good-humored state officials offered no resistance when two U.S. Marshals and lawyers for Treasure Salvors Inc. of Key West strode into the state museum Monday and arrested the treasure, believed to have been recovered from the famous treasure ship Atocha.

"It really is under arrest," said David Paul Horan, the lawyer for treasure-hunter Mel Fisher of Key West. "That's what's so funny. The feds and the state didn't really catch onto it at first. It doesn't mean we own it; it's just a legal way to get it before the court so the court can adjudicate title."

The multimillion-dollar treasure is to be held until a Miami federal judge could unravel a complex legal case and decide who owns the 350-year-old booty - the state or the treasure-hunters who found it in 1973.

Rio de Janeiro had a population of 3.5 million in 1960 and is expected to grow to 19.4 million by the year 2000.

Rangers Rap Sox

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

It was another typical day in Boston's Fenway Park, with eight home runs and a lot of stitch-popping hits. But guess what? It wasn't the Red Sox doing most of the damage this time.

The Texas Rangers looked as irrepresible Thursday night as the hard-hitting Red Sox usually do in their colorful ballpark and beat a steady tattoo off Boston pitching.

Before it was over, the Rangers pounded five homers and three doubles among their 17 hits and had a 12-7 victory over the team fearfully nicknamed the "Boston Manglers."

"This is the kind of game that can get us going," said Texas outfielder Al Oliver. The Rangers had lost 10 of 13 games before the All-Star break.

Toby Harrah was the most persistent of the Texas hitters, belting two homers and a single and driving in five runs.

In other American League action, the Baltimore Orioles beat the Minnesota Twins 8-6; the Oakland A's stopped the Cleveland Indians 7-3; the Milwaukee Brewers routed the Kansas City Royals 13-2; the Chicago White Sox whipped the

New York Yankees 6-1; the California Angels blanked the Toronto Blue Jays 5-0 and the Seattle Mariners edged the Detroit Tigers 5-4.

Orioles 8, Twins 6
Two home runs by Ken Singleton and one each by Rich Dauer and Doug DeCinces, accounting for seven runs, led Baltimore over Minnesota. The triumph ended a four-game losing streak for the Orioles and halted an eight-game winning streak by the Twins.

A's 7, Indians 3
Mitchell Page and Taylor Duncan each drove in two runs as Oakland snapped a five-game losing streak by beating Cleveland. The A's scored four unearned runs off loser Rick Waits in the second inning and added two more runs in the sixth on a leadoff home run by Dave Revering and another unearned run.

Brewers 13, Royals 2
Robin Yount's bases-loaded triple capped a four-run first inning, while Gorman Thomas hit a two-run homer and Don Money added a bases-empty shot as Milwaukee bombed Kansas City.

White Sox 6, Yankees 1
Veteran knuckleballer Wilbur Wood hurled a six-hitter, retiring 15 batters in a row at one stretch, to lead Chicago over New York. Wood, 10-5, allowed five singles, only one after the third inning, and Reggie Jackson's 14th home run.

Angels 5, Blue Jays 0
Don Aase, a last-minute substitution for Chris Knapp, who jumped the club in a contract dispute, pitched a four-hitter to lead California over Toronto. Knapp was placed on the disqualified list when he failed to report to the park. His agent had been unsuccessful in obtaining a raise after the right-hander compiled a 10-6 record at the All-Star break.

Mariners 5, Tigers 4
Larry Milbourne's run-scoring single capped a four-run, eighth-inning rally that carried Seattle over Detroit. The victory went to reliever Enrique Romo, 7-2. Jim Crawford, 2-3, took the loss in relief. Leon Roberts' three-run homer, his 12th of the season, tied the score at 4-4 in the eighth inning before Milbourne's game-winning hit.

Giants Extend Win Streak

By FRANK BROWN
AP Sports Writer

The San Francisco Giants' record is "top of the charts" in the National League.

A five-hitter by Bob Knepper helped San Francisco to its fifth victory in seven games, a 4-0 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night. Now the first-place Giants, who have finished no higher than third the last six seasons, have the best record in the NL - and a widening lead over Los Angeles and Cincinnati.

"We're making it happen," said catcher Marc Hill. "It's been a very fun year."

It started in February, when San Francisco committed itself to ending the string of disappointments.

"In spring training you could tell," said Hill, who had a pair of RBI singles against the Pirates. "Everybody wanted to play. We wanted to get a lead and quit hearing this fourth-and-fifth-place stuff."

Knepper, 11-9 with the Giants in 27 games last season, raised his record to 11-5 with a five-hitter in his 21st outing Thursday night. Hill had two RBI singles and Mike Ivie homered.

Meanwhile, Los Angeles and Cincinnati went with their pitching aces - and lost. The Cardinals' John Denny out-pitched the Dodgers' Tommy John as St. Louis cruised to a 6-1 triumph and New York hurler Jerry Koosman bested his long-time friend, Tom Seaver, as the Mets trimmed the Cincinnati Reds 4-2.

In the other NL games, the Montreal Expos beat the Houston Astros 6-0 and the San Diego Padres beat the Chicago Cubs 5-2.

Cardinals 6, Dodgers 1

Ken Reitz and Mike Tyson smacked run-scoring singles and Ted Simmons hit a two-run homer to back Denny's five-hitter and carry St. Louis past Los Angeles. Denny, who pitched his 10th complete game of the campaign, lost his shutout in the ninth when singles by Bill Russell, Reggie Smith and Ron Cey pushed the Dodgers' run across.

Mets 4, Reds 2

Doug Flynn, who came to New York in the deal that sent the star right-hander to Cincinnati, drove in one run and scored another as the Mets handed Seaver his third consecutive loss and helped Koosman, 3-9, snap a six-game losing streak. Pete Rose extended his career-longest hitting streak to 26 games - tops in the majors this season and one short of the team record - with a single and double.

Expos 6, Astros 0

Gary Carter's two-run double capped a four-run Montreal sixth inning and backed a five-hitter by Ross Grimsley, 12-6, in carrying the Expos past the Astros. Montreal added two runs in the eighth, with Grimsley's single delivering one of them.

Hereford Fems Place At Vega

VEGA—Donna Avery and Liz Remy teamed for a 68 to capture the championship of the Oldham Country Club Women's Golf Partnership Thursday.

The winning duo edged Alice Vinton and Carol Vinton of Farwell, who carded a 69. Gloria Cushmanberry and Betty Wardell of Amarillo won the first flight with a 72.

Hereford's Doris Zinser-Karen Marsh tied for the second flight honors with a 77, but lost the playoff for first place.

Thelma Marsh and Sherri Sargent of Hereford won the third flight with a score of 83. There were 32 teams in the low-ball tourney.

Crenshaw Tied For British Open Lead

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Despite a catastrophe at the hole he hates most in the whole world, Arnold Palmer still has a chance to become the oldest golfer ever to win the British Open.

Saturday, when the tournament ends, Palmer will be 48 years, 10 months old. Tom Morris, with his Victorian whiskers and nickery spoons and niblicks, was 46 years and a bit when he won the Open in 1867.

Morris is a hallowed local legend, born and bred in this pretty old university town beside the sea. He is still the oldest man to carry off the coveted title. His golf shop has been standing beside the 18th green of the old course for 132 years.

Palmer finished the second round Thursday at 2-under-par 142 and only three shots behind the leaders: Sevy Ballesteros of Spain, Isao Aoki of Japan and Ben Crenshaw. But he would have been even with them if he had not gone astray at his old enemy, the 17th hole, call the "Road Hole."

He drove out of bounds. He put his next shot into deep rough. Then he hacked out to a bunker.

"I finished with a good putt and a magnificent 7," Palmer said. Par for the hole is 4.

It was not the first time Palmer had made a mess of that hole when he needed most to conquer it. In 1960, he dropped a stroke there by rolling his ball through the green into the road, and Ken Nagle of Australia finished one stroke ahead of him and won the title.

"They say it's a famous hole," Palmer said wryly. "All I can say is, I don't like it. I've been playing it for nearly 20 years now. I try to do something different every time I come to it, and it doesn't do me any good.

"It cost me the title in 1960, and it did me a lot of harm this time. But I'm still in there. Physically I'm in great shape, and if my golf remains as good in the next two days I shall be happy."

Like Palmer, Ballesteros drove out of bounds at the 17th, lost a stroke and had to take his tee shot again.

Aoki and the other joint leader, Crenshaw, both tamed the 17th with par 4s. Ballesteros shot a second-round 70, Aoki had 71 and Crenshaw fired a 69. Bob Shearer of Australia and Briton Garry Cullen were at 140, and Watson, Tom Kite, Tom Weiskopf, Bob Byman and Tsuneyuki Nakajima of Japan were in a bunch at 141.

Hutto Gets Penalty For Overage Players

AUSTIN, Texas (AP)—In the small town of Hutto where there should be few secrets - a talkative janitor tipped superintendent Ike Coward that overaged boys were playing high school sports.

Thursday, the University Interscholastic League put the Class B school on two-year probation in football, basketball and track because three-sport athlete Odell Kerley was 19 and 20 his final two years of competition.

UIL director Bailey Marshall said Kerley's school record had been altered to make it appear that his birthdate was Oct. 16, 1958. His birth certificate shows his birthdate as June 16, 1957.

Amarillo Bows Again

By The Associated Press
Augie Ruiz struck out eight in pitching four and two-thirds innings of hitless relief as the San Antonio Dodgers edged the Arkansas Travelers, 3-2, in a Texas League baseball game Thursday night.

In other Texas League action, El Paso beat Jackson, 7-4. Shreveport edged Amarillo, and Tulsa beat Midland, 5-3.

San Antonio got offensive help from Ed Santos, who had a triple and Charlie Meyers, who had a two-run double. The Travelers, who left 10 men stranded on base, scored on a sacrifice fly by Fred Tisdale and a double by Frank Hunsaker.

Rightfielder Jay Peters drove in, two runs with a double and Bob Clark singled in a run in the third inning as El Paso used that big inning to move to the 7-4 victory over the Jackson Mets.

John Dean's 11th homer of the season powered Shreveport to a 6-4 victory over Amarillo. In addition to the two-run homer, Dean also added a single and triple.

Tulsa's Drillers scored five runs in the bottom of the second inning and went on to defeat the Midland Cubs, 5-3. Singles by Odie Davis, Rick Lisi and Joe Stewart got the five-run inning going for the Drillers.

Marshall told the UIL state executive committee there were indications the ages of others had been changed in school records to give them more eligibility.

A player must be 19 after Sept. 1 to be eligible for sports that school year.

The committee voted 5-0 to penalize Hutto, which is northeast of here.

It said the Hippos already have forfeited the games and track victories which Kerley took part as a junior and senior. The forfeits costs Hutto two district basketball titles, a 1977 zone title in football and district and regional victories in the 400-meter relay this year.

Coaches said Kerley was a sub halfback; junior sub and senior parttime starter in basketball and a member of the sprint relay team.

A motion was made for one-year probation, but it was changed to two years at Marshall's suggestion.

The committee apparently decided not to disqualify Hutto from future championship honors because it was unable to determine who had changed the records, Marshall said, however, there "were indications that students had handled the records."

"It would find the guilty party, hanging him up by his toes - as far as I'm concerned - would be legitimate," said Marshall.

"In Hutto, Texas, some

Slo-Pitch Meet In Plainview

XI Pi Zeta Sorority in Plainview will sponsor a slow-pitch softball tournament July 28-30 at Plainview Regional Park.

Each men's team entering will be required to pay a $60 fee, as well as contribute two new softballs.

Team trophies will be given in first, second and third place. First and second place trophies will be presented to individuals and a "Most Valuable Player" award is to be bestowed.

Entry will be limited to 30 teams. The entry deadline is Friday, July 21.

people knew this youngster was too old," said Marshall. "This worries me...there had to be adults knowing."

Hutto had a population of only 697 in the 1970 census.

Coward, who retired June 30, reported the apparent record change to the UIL on June 5, three days after a "pretty windy" janitor who had a boy in high school told him that "overaged boys were playing."

"Once I made the discovery, I had no alternative

Marti Ties Morley In Quad-City

COAL VALLEY, Ill. (AP)—Fred Marti, who has labored 14 years on the PGA tour without a victory, was a co-leader with defending champion Mike Morley going into the second round today of the $150,000 Ed McMahon-Quad Cities Open.

"I missed three greens, but I got the ball up and down with nice putts and when you do that, it helps your confidence," said Marti, who had five birdies and no bogeys for a 66.

Morley, who has not played well since early this year, had a round similar to Marti's with five birdies, despite driving with a spare club he had previously used only on the practice tee.

One shot back at 67 were Roger Maltbie, who won this tournament in 1975, Victor Regalado, Randy Erskine, Don Iverson, Jack Renner, R.A. Weibring and Mike Reid.

Altogether, 47 pros broke par over the relatively short Oakwood Country Club course, a 6,561-yard, par-71 layout. The field will be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties Friday.

Athletes Need Physicals

All boys and girls in grades 7-12 who wish to compete in school sports during the upcoming competitive year must receive physical examinations from their respective physicians, athletic director Don Cumpston said Thursday.

Cumpston said all doctors have forms to be filled out signifying the completion of examinations.

Soccer League Planned by 'Y'

Hereford YMCA soccer leagues are now being formed, it was announced this week by program director Weldon Knabe.

Peter Moll, of the Hereford Twisters soccer team, will show films on the sport-in conjunction with the clinic-beginning at 7:30 p.m. today at the YMCA. The films are free and open to the public.

The league is open to first through ninth grades. Registration is now underway for boys and girls, with a deadline date of July 29. Practice will begin July 31 and league play will start Aug. 14. Games will be played on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5:30 p.m.

Registration fee is $6 for members and $10 for non-Y members. This includes a shirt which the player keeps, adult supervision and instruction, awards and necessary equipment.

One of the league requirements will be participation of all team members. "Every youngster plays and every player has a chance to develop skills and a sense of worth of themselves as individuals and as team members," said Knabe.

The Y director pointed out that parents will be welcome at all games, and are also urged to help coach a team, help referee, or just come to cheer on their favorite team.

Knabe urged all youngsters to come by the "Y" office at Sugarland Mall for an application form. There will be a maximum number of players for the league.

Supreme Court Justice Byron (Whizzer) White twice led the National Football League in rushing, with Pittsburgh in 1938 and Detroit in 1940.

Little Shamu travels to a summer job

A whale of a trip

A whale out of water — Little Shamu is lifted in a sling.

Little Shamu makes the 3,000-mile flight from California to Ohio in a crib built just for him.

A whale in water — now the men unload Little Shamu.

(A make-believe interview with Little Shamu, a 2,200-pound killer whale.)

“I am a performing whale. I go to school in San Diego, California. That’s where I got my act together for my show.

“In April, I traveled to my summer job at Sea World in Aurora, Ohio, near Cleveland.

“I went by plane. The flight took about 3 and 1/2 hours.

“I was not alone on the trip. Dolphins, sea lions, otters and some fish were along. A vet traveled with us in case we needed him.

“I traveled in a crib, built just for me. Water was pumped over my body. I can live out of water, but I am used to being wet and my trainers want to make my trips as first class as possible.

“After all, I am a whale of a star.”

A very tricky whale

Little Shamu can do about 25 different tricks.

He responds to a special machine that makes sounds. Each tone tells him what to do.

He can jump, dive or do a back flip.

He can even jump and kiss a pretty girl.

Killer whales are smart and can be trained to jump on command.

The killers are kings

Killer whales are the kings of the ocean.

They travel in family packs of three to four.

They hunt in packs and will attack even the largest whales.

They are not known to attack man.

Penny Marshall, the Laverne in "Laverne and Shirley" CUPS

Penny Marshall is from a show business family.

In fact, the show, "Laverne and Shirley," is produced by her father and brother. (Producers are in charge of a show.) Her family also produced the series "The Odd Couple."

Her husband, Rob Reiner, is also an actor. He played Mike Stivic in "All in the Family."

Penny was born in New York where her father was a filmmaker and her mother taught dancing.

She went to the University of New Mexico for two years where she majored in math

Science Mystery CUPS

Mystery: Can you blow a card off a sewing spool?

Finding out:

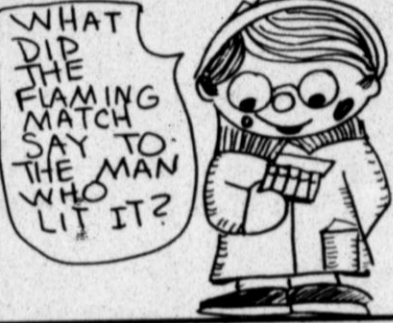

1. Cut a small square of cardboard just big enough to cover the end of a spool.
2. Place the cardboard against the sewing spool and stick a pin through the cardboard as shown.
3. Hold the card against the spool with the pin in the hole.
4. Now blow through the hole opposite the pin.
5. Remove your finger AFTER you begin to blow. Does the cardboard fall off? Why?

Clue: Look up Bernoulli's Principle in your encyclopedia.

Super Sport: Bob Boone

©UPS

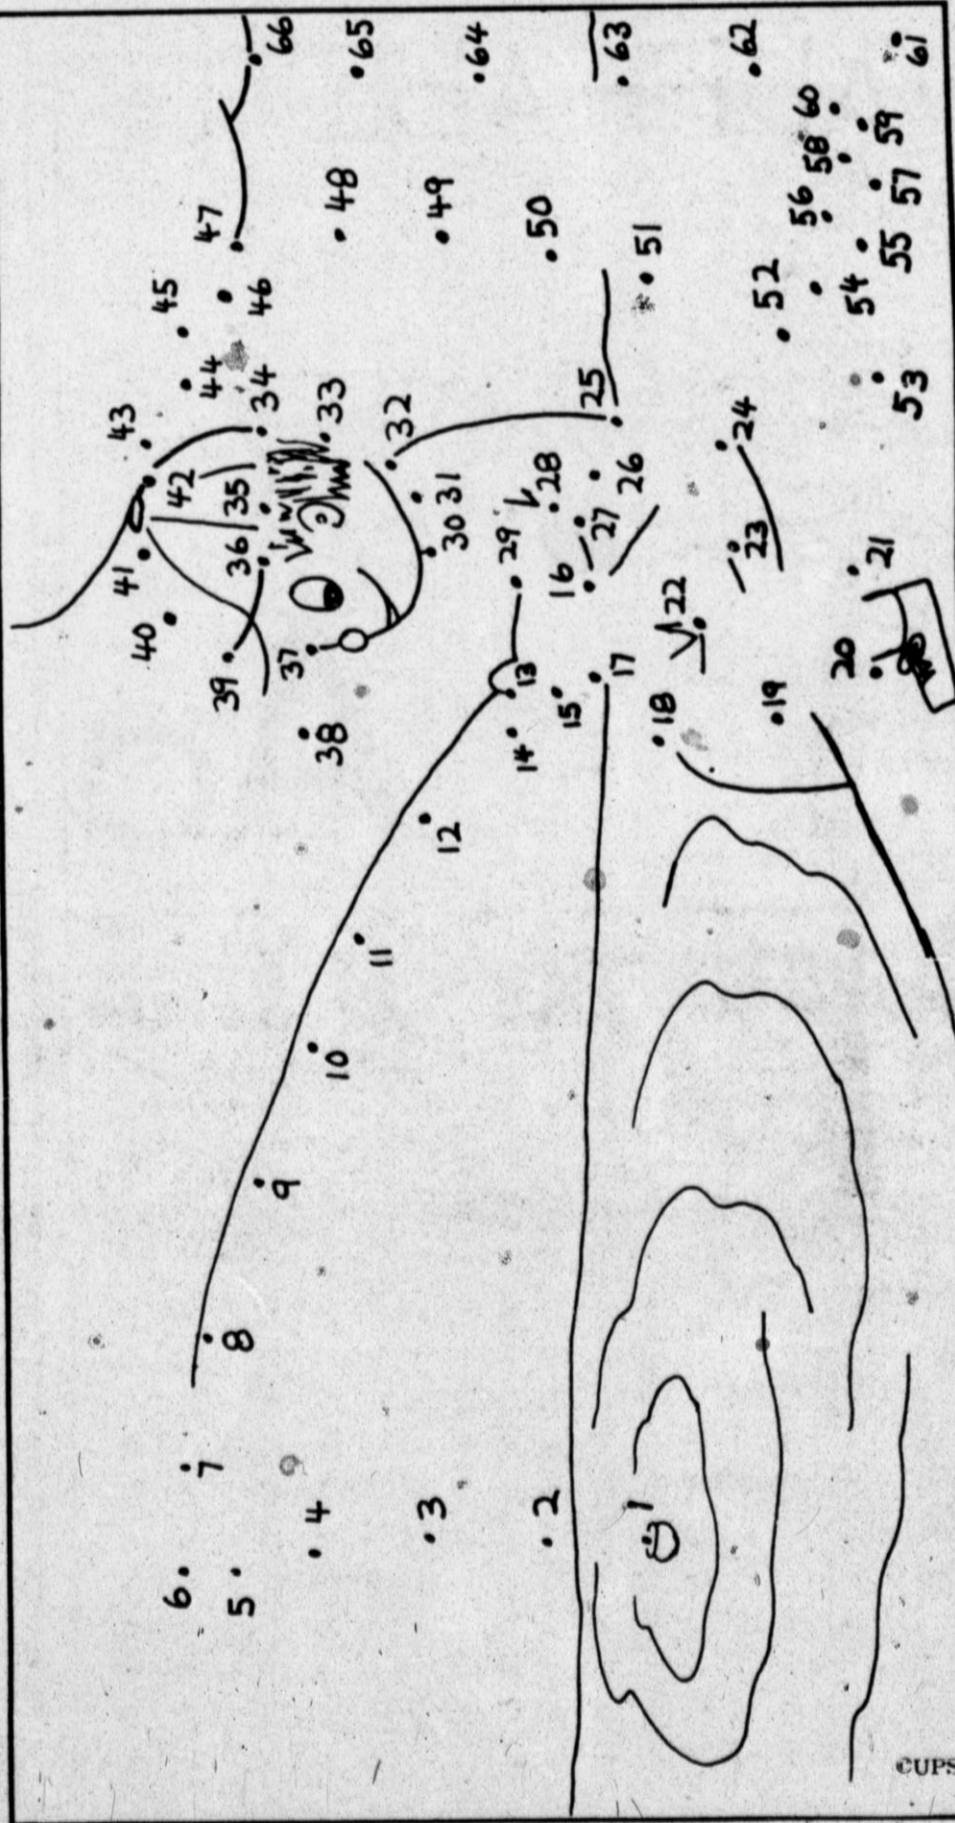

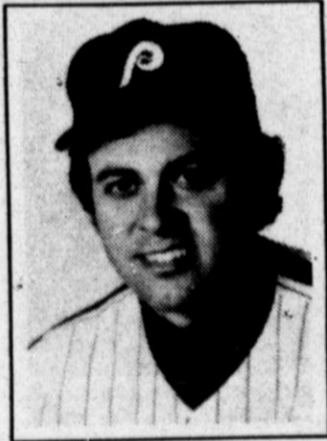

Young Bob Boone followed his father's footsteps all the way to the big leagues.

His father was an All-Star third baseman. Son Bob is an All-Star catcher.

Bob plays for the powerful Philadelphia Phillies. He had a .284 batting average last year. This is very good for a catcher. He made only eight errors in 131 games behind the plate.

During the off-season, he lives in New Jersey with his wife, Susan, and their two sons.

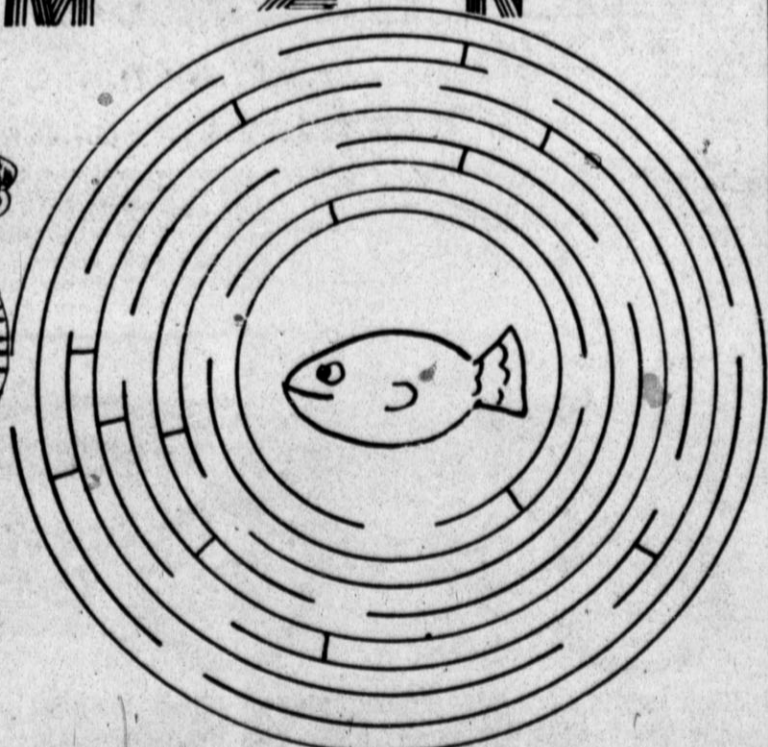

He enjoys racquetball, golf and fishing.

Help the fisherman get the _____ Japanese Fish Printing

Painting courtesy Sea World of Ohio

Some Japanese fishermen use fish printing as a way to keep a record of their catches. They have been doing this for over 100 years.

Use fresh fish, such as perch, pike, bass, trout, flounder. Flatfish make good prints.

- You'll need:
- pins
 - newspaper
 - a stiff brush
 - water-base ink
 - rice paper, paper towels or newsprint

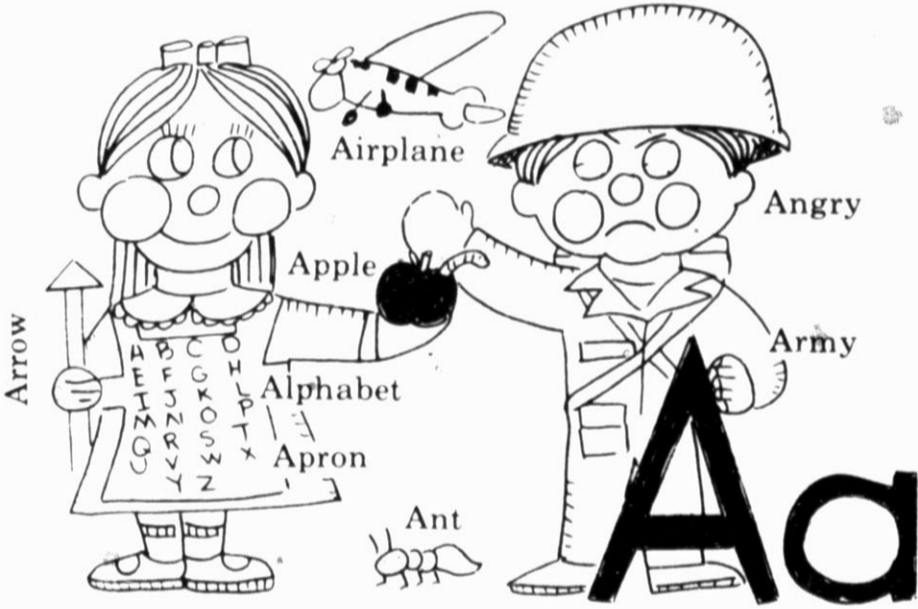

What to do:

1. Gently clean the outside of your fish with soap and water. Don't wash off any scales. Pat the fish dry.
2. Put the fish on newspaper. Spread out the fins and anchor them with pins.
3. Brush on a thin coat of ink. If you wish, leave the eye blank and fill it in on the finished print.
4. Place a piece of rice paper or paper towel carefully over the inked fish. (Don't slide it around.)
5. Press down gently with your fingers, making sure to cover all the fish body.
6. Remove the paper and see what you have. You can also do this with shells, rocks or flowers!

Dolphin or Porpoise?

Dolphins are the animals you see in shows.

Dolphins are bigger than porpoises. Porpoises are about 5 feet long and weigh up to 165 pounds. Dolphins can be 14 feet long and weigh as much as 500 pounds.

You can also tell by looking at the fins on the animals' backs. A porpoise has a fin shaped like a triangle. A dolphin has a fin that is curved.

Porpoises' noses are blunt.

Dolphins have pointed noses.
