FARMING WITH CERTAIN SUCCESS

"Oceans of Water" Make "Oceans of Grain," A New Slogan for the Hereford Irrigation District.

It is said that nothing succeeds like success, but this is only another way of saying that after success is attained that it is easy to continue against the same line of resistance. It requires a greater amount of force to start a long train or even an automobile than it does to keep the load resistance moving. Then it is simply stating fact of philosophy when the sage wrote: "Nothing succeeds like success."

This has nothing to do whatever with the success of the farmers on the McDonald Irrigated Farms except that eminent success has crowned their efforts in each and every variety of crop attempted this year. With indifferent success last year and more resistance in the way of experimentation to overcome than the ordinary mind could contemplate, the good year of 1912 has brought a feeling next to exultation in the bountiful crops already harvested and now being harvested by the men who have been farming with a combination of Soil, Water and Sunshine.

Farming with a Success Policy attached is a new idea for the Panhandle country. With how much more elastic step and perfect confidence does the farmer, who has "Oceans of Water" at his command, enter his field in the morning for a day's labor. And in the evening when the golden glow of the western sun calls him to his home circle, he returns with the knowledge and feeling that the day's efforts have not been spent in vain. A gushing well of water is his Success Policy; farming with certain success is inspiring.

A visit to the McDonald Farms four miles north on 25-Mile Avenue will convince the most skeptic Thomas that they have farmed with certain success there this year. The stacks of wheat, oats and alfalfa are mute evidences of a harvest already accomplished; the broad fields dotted with shocks of golden grain and corn makes a picture of prosperity no artist could copy with his brush. On approaching the field where the men were busy, the subdued rattle of sickle in the long rows of corn told of the heavy harvest. Other men were tugging at the bundles and placing them in wig-wam like shocks, making them stand in rows with wide avenues between. McGhee, the photographer, took a snap here and there, while Mitchell, Elliott and McDonald hunted for words to express their astonishment and wonder. The long rows of maize and kaffir, standing line after line like soldiers on parade, confident of their strength in the battle of life; the mower, drawn by three strong horses, like the bladed chariot of ancient times, laid low one line after another until few stood on the field, like some planted banner of a fallen friend.

In the field of maize visited by actual count there were 100 matured stalks with heads in each 30 feet of row; the same was true of the kaffir. While some have estimated the yield of the maize at 80 bushels, the writer, by careful calculation, counting the stalks, weighing some of the heads, has determined that the entire field will average 90 bushels per acre. The kaffir will average 110 bushels per acre, the estimate being made the same way. Some oldtime kaffir corn farmers have looked at the field and they say that this estimate is not too high. The field of maize was raised by P. G. Eckert and he is wearing a smile that only a calamity could take off. J. R. Webster is the proud farmer who cranked up the automobile that pulled the plow up and down the rows of kaffir. These men have both been farming with a Success Insurance Policy attached and they have succeeded.

Debating Club.

There is nothing that improves the mind more, than the sharp contest of debating. Carried on in a parliamentary way, debating is one of the best methods of improving the mind; it forces one to study and research, it makes him express himself while "on his feet," and acquaints the participants with the rules governing public meetings. The young men of Hereford should organize a club and meet at least two times during each month during the fall and winter.

Rev. Purser's Grand-Daughter Dies

A telegram received last Friday morning announced the sad news of the death of his 13-year old grand daughter, the child of Dr. and Mrs. Thos. Purser, who visited here some weeks ago. Rev. Purser had not heard of the sickness of the child and the information was a great shock to the family.

Gave Her Leg Away.

Not all the heroes get into the school histories or have monuments erected to them. A girl at Gary, Ind., was horribly burned in a motorcycle accident and nearly half of the skin on her body came off. Billie Rugh, a poor crippled newsboy, hearing of her plight, volunteered to have the skin taken off his crooked leg and grafted on to the sufferer's body, to save her life if possible. His leg then had to be amputated. This is the only case of this kind ever known in this country. Many letters protesting against Rugh's sacrifice were sent in, but as he was anxious to make it it was accepted.

Wants Prairie Dogs Exterminated.

A letter from Hon. Joe J. Good, county judge of Borden county, is advocating that the State take steps to exterminate the prairie dogs, and to pass resolutions and for the citizens of the different counties to memorialize the legislature to pass a bounty law covering the counties infected.

Rev. I. S. Davenport of Persoll, Texas, was a visitor with Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Baker over Sunday, coming up from the Synod session at Amarillo. He occupied Mr. Baker's pulpit morning and evening at the Presbyterian church and delivered at both occasions a splendid sermon. Mr. Davenport lives in the extreme south part of the State and came over 700 miles to attend the Synod. He was delighted with the Plains country and especially the irrigation at Hereford. Coming from a regular irrigation district, he speaks with confidence when he says that Hereford must have a prosperous future. They are compelled to drill from 1,200 to 2,000 feet in his district for water, but the pumping is done at about 100 feet, the water rising to that point. He further says that 10 acres make a big farm when devoted to high priced trucking and that a man on 80 acres in this district raising feed and alfalfa should prosper.

FARM LIFE COMMISSION TO ASSIST FARMERS.

Dallas, Texas, October.—B. B. Cain, President of the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association, has recommended the organization of a Farm Life Commission to study agricultural problems. Mr. Cain, in connection with Mr. Peter Radford, President of the Farmer's Union, has made a searching investigation into the agricultural needs of the state. In discussing this subject before the annual meeting of the Commercial Secretaries Association, at Houston recently, Mr. Cain said in part:

"A sale of any commodity at less than cost of production is an economic waste and almost approaches a crime. After studying the subject I am firmly convinced that any permanently successful plan for the raising and marketing of farm products is practically impossible without strong organization.

"I am so deeply impressed with the importance of aiding the producer that I present for your consideration as the special feature of our work for the coming year, the creation of a Farm Life Bureau, whose duty it shall be to co-operate with the Farmer's Union, if possible, and make a thorough study of farm life and farm problems with the single purpose of making the business of farming, fruit growing and truck raising more remunerative and the environment of that class of citizens more attractive."

The Commercial Secretaries will organize the commission at an early meeting of the executive committee.

Geographies Adopted.

The State Text-Book Board has adopted Tarr's geographies, first and second book, published by Mac-Millan Company. There was a sharp contest between the members of the Board in awarding this contract as the different companies had filed criticism of each other's book and it put the Board to studying geography in a way none of them had done since their school days. A committee on revision was appointed and before the books are received by the State certain corrections and additions must be made. It is hoped that the Plains and Panhandle sections of Texas will receive, at least, a partial recognition at the hands of the committee and authors. No geography up to this date has contained reliable information about the Panhandle and most of them even misrepresent the section. Be fair gentlemen.

"A COUNT OF NO ACCOUNT"

Local Talent Play at Opera House Draws Big Crowd and Puts On A Good Show.

The local talent play at the opera house last night drew a large crowd and the young people covered themselves with credit in their different roles. The play was that laughable three-act farce, "A Count of No Account," and the way the house responded to the different situations was sufficient evidence that the play was appreciated. It would be impossible to mention all of the good points of each role nor would it likely be thought proper to point out some of their Short and Long comings, but here goes. Gus Woodburn, who was a typical tramp in his original character, but assumed that of the real Count, was quite resourceful in entangling himself from his many predicaments by the right "stage business" and by supplying the proper words when memory failed him, but he would make a much better character as a big Dutchman or brick-layer Irishman. Will Evans was evidently cut out for a real Count but place of birth and environment turned his destiny and made him a good Texan, and for that reason he assumed the role with perfect ease and handled the French-English with a familiarity that made one forget that he was No-Account as a player, but he would make a fine medium for a spirit seance, or the ghost itself. Forest Walker, the Dutch summer resort keeper, kept his good eye on the money end of his business and would lie as easily about the Count as he would in ordinary affairs, but his characterization was held up well from beginning to end. John Patton and Edgar Betts, the two characters that represent the quick-rich and often busted American aristocracy, carried their parts well but were entirely out of their sphere in that kind of role, as they are unfamiliar with the ways of the spongy class of the East, but they made good with the same dollar bouquet until they tried to spoon with the rich young widow; while the young widow, played by Miss Woodburn, would have deceived even her most intimate friends if she had cared to retain that character for every day use. On the opposite was the little French maid, carried in the play by Miss Dunn. She too was at ease on the stage and held up her part in the typical French style, no doubt having been trained in a French school. The two young and pretty daughters of the two spongy New Yorkers, whose fathers would marry them to any kind of Count, or titled person, made good in their assumed characters and carried their parts well; no doubt having been before the foot lights before in more profession plays. Then old down-east "perleese" found an exact duplicate in the person of Otho Price and if the play had given him half a chance he would have been the hero, but he was to meet his match in the Count. If Joe Collins in his real every day life is anything like the role he assumed last night, his folks are to be pitied, but he needed a Christian Science or a rubbing doctor or a straight out fake as No-Account Doctor. The two sleuths, Jack Jones and J. T. Guinn, carried off their victims at the proper time and place and added no little racket to the success of the play. The specialty between the first and second act, a song and costume chorus, was a pleasing diversion from the usual.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church, under whose auspices the play was given, realized a good sum for the benefit of the Orphans Home at Itasca for which it was given.

The Hereford Club Organized.

The organization of an exclusive social club by the young men of Hereford marks a new era in the social life of the city. While not intended for unmarried men only, (there are a few married members), the number has been limited to thirty. The first event of the Club was given last Monday night, when the members invited a select number of their friends to participate in what might be termed the formal opening of the Club Rooms. A set program was rendered, the list consisting of speeches, readings and music as follows:

PROGRAM.

Music—Mr. and Mrs. West and Ralph Smith.

Opening Address—Judge Knight.

Reading—Miss Oberthier.

Piano Solo—Miss Callahan.

Reading—Mrs. Kelly.

Vocal Solo—Miss Dunn.

Piano Solo—Mrs. West.

The Benefit to be Derived From a Reading Club—W. E. Dameron.

Music—Orchestra.

The Club Rooms are located in the Bogard building occupying the entire second floor. The entire apartment has been repapered and retinted in harmonizing colors; carpets and rugs laid and suitable furniture placed in the different rooms. The front rooms will be used as a ladies' parlor; the large rear room for general reading and recreation, and where the social life of the Club will center. A good list of the best magazines and daily newspapers will be found on the reading tables. On occasions the members will entertain their friends with a social function in which the conventionalities of good society will be observed, and the members look forward to many pleasant events this season.

Killed Six Wild Turkeys.

A. W. Gregg was exhibiting yesterday morning a number of blue crane, one measuring six feet from tip to tip. Mrs. Gregg will, as a result of the day's outing for Mr. Gregg and Clyde, have a turkey dinner today and Sunday, perhaps. It is said that the meat of the blue crane is of fine flavor and equal to any tame turkey. When asked about the number of these birds, Mr. Gregg stated that there were thousands of them in the western part of the county and that they had destroyed not less than 500 bushels of maize on the Thompson ranch. The ranchmen and farmers are killing hundreds of them and the sport is good.

Off to the Endeavor.

Rev. W. M. Baker, Misses Mary Williams, Hallie Womack, Lula Wear and Lois Cobb are attending the Christian Endeavor Convention at Amarillo. The session will continue over Sunday.

E. E. Wilson, after spending several weeks "down in the sticks" picking cotton at the rate of 500 pounds per day and at a dollar and a quarter per hundred, has returned to take O. J. Beane's place in the shop while the latter goes to the Fair and enjoys his vacation.

The Utility of Wealth.

"Money is the measure of power, but money for its own sake is not worth the struggle. Modern millionaires do not hoard—they invest. And they invest that they may use. The successful man now always has the builder's itch—he is always and forever widening, extending, building, improving, and it is all in line of human service, human betterment."—Elbert Hubbard.

If you would be successful you must establish a line of credit. For without a good credit you cannot widen or extend your investments. James J. Hill once said, "They say I am rich, and the fact is, I owe more money than all the men in Minnesota. To make my investments profitable I am obliged to eternally struggle keeping them alive." The basis of his wealth—as well as every one's—was credit. You cannot establish that by yourself—let us help you. Open an account with us today, and we will help you build up your credit as well as your investments.

Our many years experience in the banking business, dealing with investments of all kinds, and the safe and conservative methods which we practice, makes us especially desirable for those wishing to entrust funds to our care, and for those who would use our experience to their advantage. The subject chosen by Pastor Purser for Sunday morning is—"Broken Cisterns;" and for Sunday evening—"At the Fountain." The public is always welcome to the services.

Not Indians.

The Pueblos of New Mexico have always been called Indians, but there is great doubt, ethnologically speaking, whether they are any more Indians than we are. Uncle Sam, of course, is the guardian of the red man, but does this guardianship extend to the Pueblos too? Are they wards of the nation or are they citizens of the United States with the rights of other citizens? This is a question which has now been put up to the supreme court.

Kent L. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones, returned this week from Boston, where he has been for three years as a member of the coast artillery, being stationed at Fort Strong, Boston, U. S. A. For five years previous to joining the artillery, young Jones was a member of the United States Navy and visited many of the ports of foreign nations. He entered the service at the age of 16 and has not been home since he first enlisted 8 years ago. His time having expired with the coast artillery, he is taking advantage of the occasion and is making this visit home.

Sunday School Reports.

Last Sunday was not much improvement over the previous Sunday as far as attendance was concerned; in fact, a small falling off.

School	Present	Coll.
Baptist	148	$2.95
First Christian	109	3.79
Methodist	128	2.97
Presbyterian	91	2.39
Totals	476	$12.10
Previous Sunday	483	13.80

There has been some objection raised as to the manner of making the reports, the claim being made that the percentage of attendance as compared with the church membership would show the true rating of the different schools. Next week, if the figures are available, the percentage will be given. Attention is called to the high percentage being made by the Presbyterian school. The church enrollment is 110, the Sunday school attendance last Sunday was 91, making 82 per cent attending. The larger school will do well to reach that high mark.

Paris, Tex.—I, the undersigned, take pleasure in stating that I have used Cheatham's Chill Tonic, and a few doses broke a severe case of Chills and fever on me about six weeks ago, and I have had none since. I consider it the best medicine for the purpose I ever used.

Yours truly,

J. E. Kay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Dale are enjoying a visit this week in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dale of Childress and Chas. E. McKeehan and son, Dale, of Wichita Falls. Mr. Dale is the son of our townsman and Mr. McKeehan is a son by law, the former is foreman of the Childress Index and the latter is owner of a job plant at his city. Mr. Dale and his visitors have been "duck hunting" most of the week and have enjoyed the sport very much. The men called at this office and looked in on the force.

New Ranch Located.

"The General Manager's Talk."
 Under this head appears in Harcourt's Magazine, a business publication, and credited "Exchange," a telling article which it is thought is worth producing. Read it over, ponder its contents and then forget it—as you will.
 "I notice," remarked the General Manager, glancing down the line of desks, "that there are a few of us present today who were having a good time last night. I am not judging from your appearance, but from the way you attack your jobs this morning, and I want to say a few vest-to-vest words concerning these 'evenings before.' I'm not a long-haired white-ribbon orator, nor am I going to spout a lot of mottoes about the fresh-water life; but from your own standpoint I am going to ask you to figure out where the profit comes in.

 "It has been my experience that it doesn't pay to spend two dollars' worth of time taking a twenty-cent drink with any one. Your time is worth more than that, just as well as mine is; and the only dividends any of us draw from an investment of that sort is a condition of mind that makes you wonder how many different kinds of fur a man can raise on his tongue in one night.
 "For an hour or two of joyous singing of 'We're here because we're here because we're here,' many young men seem to be willing to pay not only their part of the waiter's check, but a 9x14 headache and a 'nobody-is-my-friend' feeling all next day. These little side-track excursions are all right at the time, but if they put a taste into your mouth a few hours later like a motorman's glove, you're casting your shadow before, and not behind you, where it belongs.
 "Some years ago I decided that I would count that day lost whose low descending sun looked upon a bunch of work that was good-enough, but not well-done. The morning-after head may do good-enough work, but no lieutenant of industry ever saw promotion through the bottom of a beer glass.
 "May I ask you to let this simple thought mingle with the ache in your head today? It may be of practical use to us both—especially if it remains there after the ache has lost itself. Thank you!"—Exchange.

MY FATHER
Had Eczema 10 Years
OVELMO CURED HIM

Test Course Given Free
 My father was a sufferer for years from Chronic Eczema. He tried doctors and everything else without relief. Nothing did him any good. He grew worse and worse each year. It seemed there was no hope for him. In utter despair of ever curing any real help from others, I determined to work out a treatment myself, as I am a Registered Pharmacist, owning a drug store in Ft. Wayne, Ind. I studied practically all known medical authorities on Eczema and Skin Diseases, and finally concluded to my own laboratory the OVELMO TREATMENT. It is designed to remove the cause of the disease, by working on the system internally, while the itching, smarting, burning and unsightly appearance are relieved by a soothing, healing cream applied to the affected parts.

Completely Cured
 OVELMO worked like magic. My father and I hardly dared to believe our eyes. The itching ceased—his no longer formed—the scabs were replaced by new, clean, smooth, healthy skin—his general health improved—he could sleep well at night, and in a short time was completely cured.
 His case was well known, and his cure was so remarkable that the news spread all over the surrounding country. A little boy, whose flesh about the ankles had sloughed away almost to the bone, was miraculously cured by OVELMO, and the demand for it became so great around my home town that I was urged on all sides to place it before the general public. It is just as good for cuts, burns, bruises and chafings as it is for Eczema and Skin Diseases.
1000 Treatments Free
 I want to spare to every interested person, free of charge, what OVELMO will do in all cases of Skin Disease. I want to introduce it everywhere, and am going to give away 1000 Test Treatments Absolutely Free of Cost and Postage Paid to those needing treatment who write me for it promptly.
 You can stop scratching—you need not be afraid to be seen in public—you can sleep well at night. The excruciating sores—the greenish crusts—the scaly, bleeding, itching skin can be restored to health, made clean and smooth again. Just write a postal, or a letter stating the Skin Disease for which you want the treatment and the age of the sufferer and I will send you a Test Course by return mail, in plain wrapper free and postage paid.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY

Are the Statements of Hereford Citizens Not More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Hereford. It permits of only one answer. It cannot be evaded or ignored. A Hereford citizen speaks here. Speaks for the welfare of Hereford. A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof. W. S. Higgins, 610 E. Fourth St., Hereford, Texas, says: "My back was lame and painful and I had dizzy spells and pains in the top of my head. Some time ago I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from the contents of one box brought me such great relief that I can heartily recommend them. This preparation can be relied upon to act promptly and effectively."

R. N. Mounts, the well known ranchman of Hereford, Tex., was the man who brought in the consignment today, which attracted considerable attention.

Too Much Delay.
 A very just criticism that was made of the Blondin Show is that there was too much delay between the "acts." While it is perhaps alright to sell music, peanuts, crackerjacks and other goodies while the stage hands are shifting the scenes, it is not right to keep people sitting on such plush seats as they furnished, in order for the flunkies to cry their goods. With this show, however, there was no excuse for long delays as the "scenery" was very light and only needed to be turned "wrong side out" to make the change, and as for the costumes, Freckles could make his change with a few more dabs of paint, Steve by changing his tie, the Parson by shifting his cud, and the ladies by the "stripping off" system. Two minutes and thirty seconds is all the time needed. There may be some excuse for "local talent" in the inter-act delays for every thing does not work so easy, but for an old company to beat around for thirty minutes between the acts in order to get a few more of the loose coins, is a downright hold-up.

FULL RENDITION LAW.

Perhaps no law ever enacted by the state for the equalization of taxes has been so advertantly violated as the "Full Rendition" statute. While it was expected to correct the evil of low renditions and to get on the list all of the tangible property of the state, it has failed in that respect. The Texas Welfare Commission says that it has broken down. It has shown by testimony that real estate has been under assessed all the way from 10 to 80 per cent and only about 22 per cent of the money and other intangible property bears a part of the tax. A study of the United States census will show that the different counties of the state are either misrepresenting their reality as to values or it is not worth near so much as it sold for in 1910, the year of the census. Compare Collin with Armstrong county: The census valuations for 1910 on land in Collin were placed at an average of $50.76 cents while the tax rolls for that year put the land down at only $25.90. In Armstrong county the census figures were $15.35 and the

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

tax assessments $4.69. It is evident that in neither county did the Full Rendition law have any effect. If the land in Collin to the census taker is worth $50, why is it not worth $50 to the tax assessor? But as a matter of fact, land in Collin will average more than $50 per acre. Had you tried to buy some of the farm lands in Collin in 1910, you would have jumped at those fifty-dollar bargains. If the assessor of Armstrong would take the land in his county at the census value of $15.85 average, (and this is about correct), then the tax assessor in Collin should not stop under $75 per acre to come within speaking distance of the Full Rendition law. This statement is based upon the word of the Collin county land owner who declares that his land is worth from 5 to 8 times as much as the average Panhandle land. If it is worth even five times as much as the Armstrong county land, and the Armstrong county farmers gave a correct valuation to the census taken, then the Collin county farmers either misrepresented their land values to the census enumerator or their land is not near as valuable as they pretend to the would-be purchaser. At least, the Full Rendition law went the way of the bow-wows in that county. A further comparison is made of nine counties down in the state and the nine counties of the 123rd representative district, all strictly Panhandle counties. In the first group are: Galveston, Bell, Ellis, McLennan, Williamson, Falls, Dallas, Collin and Hill; the others are: Armstrong, Bailey, Castro, Deaf Smith, Hale, Lamb, Parmer, Randall and Swisher. The average valuation for the first group was $54.56 per acre; the tax valuation, $22.57. For the second group, $17.39 and $5.32 respectively. In the first group, practically all of the tillable land is under cultivation or is bringing an income. In the second group, less than 10 per cent is devoted to agriculture, while the remainder is bringing but a small revenue barely more than the taxes and interest. If the assessors in the Panhandle group of counties can find $5.32 as an average for their lands, what shall be said of the assessors of the down-Texas group when they can not strain their valuations no higher than $22.57 per acre? The Brand is strongly of the opinion that the down-Texas counties are "playing off" on the Panhandle counties in a most wholesale and disgraceful way. Something should be done to correct this glaring inequality of taxation.

CRITICISES PUBLIC SCHOOL.

The criticism made in The Brand last week on the "Product" of the public school, was not meant to be a local and personal reflection, except so far as the premises warranted. That the public schools as well as the private fall far short of the ideal is granted by all school authorities; and while the ideal is always to be sought, the vagaries, as fast as they are discovered, should be discarded, regardless of the time-honor which they possess. One of the vagaries, well known to the teaching forces, is the marking or grading system. The marking began simultaneous with the graded school and has hung tenaciously onto it as burden, both to teachers and pupils, despite all effort to shake it off. Let's not be misunderstood. Webster says a vagary is a "wild freak; a whim." The average grading is one of those "wild freaks" that robs the teacher of originality and frightens the pupil out of its wits. It makes servile servants of the teachers and offers an incentive to dishonesty to both teacher and pupil. School offers and patrons are largely to blame for the condition. They demand to know the "standing" of each pupil and that "standing," if it is low, is not satisfactory to the officer, patron nor pupil. If it is too high, and both the teacher and pupil know it when it is, the teacher has impressed a lesson of dishonest subterfuge upon the tender mind of the pupil that can never be erased. Often the teacher, in his effort to escape the responsibility of mark making, resorts to many, and often written examinations. He adopts an elaborate system of grading. Beginning with 100 per cent as a perfect mark, he fails to "take off" one point for this error, two points for that, five for that, the final mark on the paper being the difference between the sum of the "points off" and the 100. The pupils soon learn the system and they begin to compare papers and marks with the result that finally the pupils themselves do the grading. Examinations have ever and always been a "booger-boo" to every one who has seen the "ghost of failure" stalking thru the school room: In some cases, there is no other method left for a test, except the written exams. For teacher's certificate, for appointment to clerical position under the government service, there seems to be no escape from the severe ordeal. But with pupils under the guidance of a competent teacher, need to be free from the evil effects and influences of the dread examination days. As a pupil and as a teacher, the writer has seen the blight of the examination microbe. The usual method of conducting examinations should be termed—craminations. Stuffing and cramming for an examination brings as much mental alertness and activity to the mind as fattening geese for the market with a stuffing machine. It neither educates nor trains the mind; it is the stinging whip of a system; it is the corrugated rollers of a mill, grinding out grades or tags, like those on mixed feed, "inspected and passed." Let's get away from the "wild freaks."

Equitable Taxation.

First.—Exempt all money, personal property, mechanic's tools, farm machinery from taxation.

Second—Assess buildings and improvements on real estate at 25 per cent of their cost, reducing the assessment each year according to character of material.

Third—Assess all land at its market value or real value.

Fourth—Assess bonds, notes, stocks and other certificates of indebtedness at 75 per cent of their face value.

Fifth—Assess semi-public utilities such as railroads, street line roads, telegraph, telephone and electric lines at 75 per cent of the commission's estimate; rolling stock to be assessed at 25 per cent of their cost.

Sixth—Deduct face value of land mortgages from assessed valuation before taxation begins.

Some just and equitable system of estimating values for taxing purposes should be inaugurated.

This platform of taxation is subject to change or revision without notice. Study them and if you can add or suggest something better, let the people have it.

Two-Cent Law No Good.

Federal Judge Sanborn has decided that the Illinois law limiting railroad fares in the state to two cents a mile is unconstitutional, as being "confiscatory." That is it does not allow the railroads sufficient return for their service. In some states where the cost of operating railroads is lower the two-cent rate has been declared constitutional.

Notice of Trustee's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that by authority vested in me as Substitute Trustee, by appointment under the terms of a deed of trust, executed by Domenico Comperini, dated, June 22nd, 1910, recorded in Book 18, of the Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, State of Texas, on page 53, wherein the land described below was conveyed to William W. Ryan, of Jackson County, Missouri, Trustee, and to his successors in trust, as security for the payment of five promissory notes aggregating Eighteen Hundred Forty-eight ($1848.00) Dollars, of even date therewith, executed by said Domenico Comperini and due, one on Nov. 1st, 1911, for Three Hundred Sixty-nine and 60-100 ($369.60) Dollars, one due on Nov. 1st, 1912 and one due on Nov. 1st, 1913, and one due on Nov. 1st, 1914, and one due on Nov. 1st, 1915, each for the like sum of Three Hundred Sixty-nine and 60-100 ($369.60) Dollars, respectively all bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from date until maturity, and 7 per cent. per annum thereafter, interest payable annually, each of said notes being payable to the order of Arthur L. Brunner, of Kansas City, Missouri, (who is the present legal holder thereof), said notes being more particularly described in said deed of trust, which deed of trust provides in case of default in payment of any of the notes secured thereby, or any installment of interest, or in case of default in the payment of any taxes levied against said land when the same shall become due and payable under the laws of the State of Texas, or default by the said Comperini in the performance of any other term, condition or agreement therein contained, for the period of 30 days after the same shall become due, that the then legal holder of said notes, or any one of them at the time, shall have the right, at his option, immediately and at any time while such default continues, to declare the entire debt secured thereby, to be at once due and payable; and Default having been made in the payment of the first one of said series of notes, which note was due and payable on Nov. 1st, 1911, as aforesaid, and the interest thereon, and on all the said series of five notes described aforesaid, and in said trust deed, and default having been made in the payment of taxes on said land for the year 1911, aggregating $14.03, said taxes having been paid by the said Brunner, which default for the said taxes of said year 1911, and for the said note for Three Hundred Sixty-nine and 60-100 ($369.60) Dollars due Nov. 1st, 1911, has continued for more 30 days since the said taxes were paid by said Brunner and since the maturity of said last described note, and said Arthur L. Brunner, the present legal holder of all of said notes having declared the entire indebtedness remaining unpaid, to be now due and payable at once, and the amount of principal and interest due on said series of five notes on the 1st day of October, 1912, being the sum of $2,103.26, which, with the 1911 taxes paid by Brunner as aforesaid, make the total on said last named date, past due and unpaid, due by said Comperini to said Brunner, the sum of $2,117.29.

William W. Bryan, Trustee named in said trust deed having been requested to execute said trust and having refused so to do, and L. H. Henschel, Alternate Trustee named in said trust deed being without the territory of the United States and unable to enforce said trust, therefore, I, E. Renfro, of Hereford, Deaf Smith County, Texas, Substitute Trustee, heretofore appointed by an instrument in writing, executed and acknowledged by the said Arthur L. Brunner, the holder of said notes, and I, having been requested by the said Arthur L. Brunner to enforce said trust, will on the 5th day of November, 1912, (the same being the first Tuesday in said month) between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. of said date, proceed to sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder, for cash, in front of the Court House door in the city of Hereford, Deaf Smith County, Texas, the following described real estate situated in said Deaf Smith County, Texas, to-wit:

Three Hundred Twenty (320) acres of land out of Capitol League, Number 423-412, and particularly described as the West Half of Survey or Section Number Sixteen, Township Number Three (3), North of Range Number Three (3), East of a "Capitol Syndicate Subdivision," as shown by plat of subdivision, of record in the Deed Records of said County of Deaf Smith, in the State of Texas, in Volume 15, pages 60-65.

The proceeds whereof will be applied to the payment of the balance due upon said indebtedness to Brunner, expense of making said sale, and the remainder, if any, paid to the said Domenico Comperini, or assigns in accordance with the terms of the said deed of trust.

Dated this 5th day of October, 1912. E. RENFRO,

Substitute Trustee

You are hereby commanded to summon Minnie F. Mathews by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some paper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 69th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 69th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Hereford, on the 4th Monday in October, A. D. 1912, the same being the 28th day of October, A. D. 1912, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 1st day of October, A. D. 1912 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 519, wherein J. E. Mathews is Plaintiff and Minnie F. Mathews is Defendant, and said petition alleging that on or about May 1st, 1892 plaintiff was legally married to defendant in Glen Grouse, Kansas, and continued to live with her as her husband until about August 1st, 1911, when by reason of the cruel and harsh and improper conduct of defendant towards plaintiff, he was forced to permanently abandon her, since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife. Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines. If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. ## A Nervous Woman Finds Relief After Many Years

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Daniel Kintner, of Defiance, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"I had stomach trouble when I was eighteen years old that broke down my health, and for years I suffered with nervousness, headache, indigestion and nervous spasms. The spasms got so bad I would have them three or four times a week. After trying nearly every remedy recommended, I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and I must say it helped me wonderfully. I have had no severe nervousness for several years."

MRS. DAN KINTNER,
1002 Pleasant St., Defiance, O.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nerveine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.

Puts Your Kidneys Right

Kidney weakness is the danger signal for Rheumatism and Bright's Disease—the advance guard of a persistent malady.

You certainly cannot afford to trifle with the slightest kidney ailment—systematic treatment should begin with the first symptoms of stress in the region of the kidneys.

The pain may be slight at first—may give you the impression that it requires no special attention—will in no doubt leave in a day or so, but—

Do not overlook the fact that the pain, however slight, is the forerunner of further trouble.

The bladder, liver, kidneys and urinary tract should be thoroughly cleansed of impurities and restored to a state of normal activity Nyal's Stone Root Compound will do this and more than that it will cleanse the blood of Uric Acid—the chief causative factor in Rheumatism.

Now that you know the best remedy do not neglect any kidney trouble—do not allow the disease to become chronic.

If after a fair trial, Nyal's Stone Root Compound fails to benefit you, your money will be refunded—cheerfully.
