

Commissioners consider change in hiring policy

By KAY PECK
Staff Writer

A proposed amendment to Deaf Smith County's personnel policy was presented by District Attorney Roland Saul during Monday's regular county commission meeting.

If approved, the amendment would alter current restrictions on hiring relatives of elected officials. Current policy forbids the employment of a family member of an elected official in any department or division of the county.

The proposed amendment would allow officials' relatives to be hired by the county if the position for which one is employed is in a department or division which would not require close and frequent contact between the elected official and the family member. This is the policy currently in effect for employees--other than elected officials--of the county.

Policy would not be altered concerning hiring relatives of county commissioners or the county judge. Any person directly related--by marriage or by blood--to a commissioner or the judge cannot be employed by any county department or division.

"What prompted this change?" asked Justice of the Peace Johnnie Turrentine.

"It's come up a time or two in the past, and I've been asked what Section 2 (the section dealing with employment eligibility) meant," Saul said.

When the policy was established by the county it was patterned after state mandates. County Judge Tom Simons pointed out that state nepotism laws were recently altered.

"I'm not sure I know the pitfalls one way or the other," Commissioner Troy Don Moore (Precinct 3) said. Moore suggested that officials contact the county's personnel consultant, Keith Bannon and Associates of Austin, to obtain an opinion.

"Let's table this as of today," said Commissioner Austin Rose Jr. (Precinct 2).

Commissioners approved the appointment of Martha Lueb to fill a vacancy for an election judge in Precinct 2.

A resolution requested by Texas Rep. Dan Morales was approved by county commissioners. Rep. Morales requested that the county write a resolution in support of a bill which would require the state to reimburse local governments for programs which are mandated by the state.

Commissioners voted to provide the requested resolution.

"I think it would be nice to have a law (like that) on the books," Judge Simons said.

The purchase of equipment for the maintenance department of the courthouse was approved by commissioners. The equipment, a mechanized floor cleaner, will be bought for about $2,300.

George Tijerina, maintenance supervisor at the courthouse, requested the machine. Tijerina indicated that the investment will mean both an increase in the quality of floor care and a decrease in the time required to clean those floors.

Commissioners also granted permission for the crossing of a county road with a water irrigation line in Precinct 3.

Band earns regionals

The Hereford High School Mighty Maroon Band won a first division (superior) rating at the District Marching Contest last Saturday at Borger and was selected to compete in the regional marching competition in Wichita Falls on Nov. 4.

Featuring special costuming and performances by the twirlers, drum majors and drill team, the band performed songs from popular television shows, including the themes from "Perry Mason," "Peter Gunn," "The Mod Squad," "Mission: Impossible" and others.

Also earning the right to advance to region from area 4A bands was Pampa. The HHS Band will compete against other 4A bands from North and West Texas at the Wichita Falls contest, with two bands from there to be selected for the State Marching Contest to be held later in Austin.

The first division award in marching is the first step to a possible sweepstakes award. Later this year, the band will compete in concert and sight-reading competitions.

Proud to wear red ribbons

Students at Aikman Primary School in Hereford show off the red ribbons they received from the Hereford VFW Auxiliary after a special program at the school Monday. Also treated Monday were Hereford Junior High students, who saw a special presentation by the Hereford High School student council. The activities were part of the National Red Ribbon Week activities urging everyone to choose not to use drugs.

UWDSC reaches 56% of '90 goal

The United Way of Deaf Smith County's funding campaign for 1990 has reached 56 percent of its goal, it was reported Monday by Dr. A.T. Mims, drive chairman.

Contributions and pledges now total $69,985. The goal is $125,000 and the regularly-scheduled campaign has just one more week to go.

"There are enough United Way cards out there, and enough money, to make the goal if we can just get them back in," said Dr. Mims. With the campaign at the 56-percent mark and one week to go, it appears the drive may have to be extended.

The drive picked up more than $12,000 last week and moved from 46 to 56 percent of the goal. Wayne Amstutz, executive director, announced that new pledges were way ahead of last year's pace with a total of $7,452 contributed.

Amstutz urged citizens who have not contributed, or who have not been contacted, to pick up a United Way white card at one of the banks and submit a pledge or contribution. "If you want someone to call on you, just phone us at 364-5220," said Amstutz.

He also reminded contributors that the United Way helps fund 12 agencies, so the donation is 12 gifts in 1, asking them to consider pledging as much as they would for each agency involved.

Volunteers are soliciting contributions in 10 divisions. Here are the division totals and percentage of the goal for each category:

Major $15,648 (35%); Metro $14,851 (90%); Pace-setters $14,792 (67%); Golden Age $7,093 (71%); Special $5,790 (89%); Agriculture $3,250 (54%); Professional $2,405 (30%); Corporate $2,380 (40%); Whiteface East $2,251 (75%); Whiteface West $1,525 (51%).

Injuries avoided in accident

Major injuries were miraculously avoided in a three-vehicle accident which occurred a little after 3 p.m. on Monday in north Hereford.

A truck and two cars met in an impressive collision at the intersection of U.S. Highway 385 and 15th Street.

Two Hereford women were treated and released at Deaf Smith

General Hospital for injuries which they received in that collision. Emergency personnel removed Gracie Gutierrez, 27, and Helen Cox Cherry, 58, from their cars and transported the women to the hospital.

A 1982 Buick LaSabre driven by Cherry and a 1983 Buick Skylark driven by Gutierrez received extensive damage in the collision. A 1970 Chevy two-ton truck driven by Raymundo Salas Ayala, 38, of Hereford received only minor damage. The truck was hauling a load of sugar beets at the time of the accident.

Ayala was southbound on 385 while Gutierrez was westbound and Cherry was eastbound on 15th Street. The three vehicles collided in the intersection of 385 and 15th.

City policeman Ron Tucker, investigating officer, indicated that it has not yet been determined who failed to yield to the red light at that intersection.

The only passengers in any of the three vehicles were two dogs traveling in Cherry's Buick. One dog was killed in that incident.

Wuerfleins ordered to change building

A controversial building addition, or accessory building, at the Ed and Bonnie Wuerfleins residence, 136 Oak, must be changed to bring it in compliance with the zoning ordinance, or be completely removed, District Judge Wesley Gulley ruled Friday.

A jury in 222nd District Court had determined on June 13, 1989 that the Wuerfleins had failed to conform to specifications in a building permit for the construction at the rear of their residence. Judge Gulley heard motions from each side on Thursday and released his ruling Friday.

The judgment gives the Wuerfleins 60 days to bring the structure into compliance "to the reasonable satisfaction and final approval of the City Manager." If this is not accomplished, the defendants then have 30 days to completely remove all of the new addition, leaving the residence "as it existed on or about May 22, 1986."

The court ruled that "such compliance shall be done in a manner that is in conformity with the building permits heretofore issued by the City of Hereford for this rear yard structure and in conformity with the City of Hereford Zoning Ordinances and Building Codes.

The judgment further ruled that failure to bring the property into compliance within the time ordered would constitute a violation and the defendants "shall be subject to a fine of $100 per day for each day of such continuing violation."

The Wuerfleins first obtained a permit for the structure on Oct. 6, 1986. The "accessory building" was to cover much of the oddly-shaped back yard which is cut off by an angling alleyway. Debate on the structure lasted about a year before the Board of Adjustments, and the Wuerfleins' request for a variance was denied.

The City of Hereford, after failing to work out an agreement with the Wuerfleins, filed a suit to make the structure subject to abatement or removal.

Judge Gulley said that Friday's judgment constitutes a mandatory injunction. He further decreed that the City can recover court costs from the defendants.

Car smashed

Helen Cox Cherry, 58, was treated and released for injuries she received when this 1982 Buick LaSabre she was driving collided Monday afternoon with a 1970 two-ton Chevrolet truck driven by Raymundo Salas Ayala, 38. A third car driven by Gracie Gutierrez, 27, who was also treated and released--was involved in that accident as well. The incident occurred at the intersection of U.S. Highway 385 and 15th Street.

Herd scores 26-0 win over Dunbar

By SAM W. WALLER
Sports Editor

The Hereford Whitefaces stayed in the thick of the District 1-4A race Saturday with a 26-0 whitewashing of the Dunbar Panthers at Lowrey Field in Lubbock.

"It was a good win for us," said Hereford head coach Don Cumpton. "It keeps us in the title hunt and that's what we wanted, to stay in the title chase."

The win, which was the Whitefaces' first shutout since blanking Dumas last year, leaves the Herd tied for second with Borger at 3-1 in district play, one win behind Estacado at 4-1.

The Herd defense limited Dunbar to 125 total yards and seven first downs for the game despite having to shuffle players around to cover for injuries illness.

"The kids that had to move did real good," Cumpton said. "And (having to do that) hurt us a little this week. We had a lot of sickness and the kids weren't quite as strong, their stamina wasn't quite as good and that hurt us. And it was pretty hot down there. We had a cool week to workout and then when we get to play, it's hot."

One of the changes was starting Brian Wagner, who spent the first five games as the starting middle linebacker, to defensive tackle. Wagner said he enjoyed getting back to the position he played as a junior.

"It wasn't that bad," Wagner said of the move. "I loved it. That's where I played in the playoffs last year. I just had to reprogram myself a little. It's easier for me than linebacker is."

The reworked defense made an impact on the very first play of the game as linebacker Oscar Garcia fell on a swing pass that Dunbar tailback Michael Jeffery let slip through his hands. The play was ruled a lateral and Hereford took over at the Dunbar 25-yard line.

It took the Herd seven plays to get the ball in the end zone, with backup tailback Tate Smith getting the touchdown on a 3-yard run.

Starting tailback Matt Bromlow, who had been slowed by the flu bug during the week, carried five times for 19 yards on the drive before being given a breather.

Bromlow, who finished with 127 yards on 24 carries, said he felt good during the game despite being sick most of the week.

"I missed two practices (during the week)," he said, "but this was a game day. I just sucked it up and played."

The Herd defense held the Panthers to three plays after the touchdown and forced a punt, but a clipping penalty on the return pushed the ball back to the Hereford 17.

The offense gained one first down, but a procedure call and a 5-yard loss on a fumble by quarterback Jason Walterscheid left the Herd with fourth-and-nine at their 35.

Bromlow got off a 39-yard punt on his only attempt of the night and, when the ball bounced off Dunbar's John Russell, Chuck Lemons regained the ball for the Whitefaces at the Panther 31.

The Herd didn't waste the opportunity as Walterscheid hit Russell Backus for 17 yards and Jonathan Haney for 12 to gain a first down at the 3-yard line.

Another clipping call pushed the Herd back to the 23, but Walterscheid found Backus two plays in a row, getting the touchdown on the 5.

After the defense forced another punt to open the second quarter, the Herd scored from 47 yards out in four plays. Bromlow gained 23 yards on two carries and Greg Urbanczyk added six more yards before Walterscheid and Backus hooked up for an 18-yard scoring strike.

Dunbar attained its only first down of the half when Jeffery gained 14 yards on the first play after the kickoff, but the Herd defense forced the Panthers into punt formation for the third straight possession. Lee Roy Danford attempted to run on the play, but was stopped well short of the first down marker.

The Herd marched 61 yards to the Dunbar 3 behind the running of Bromlow and Chris Steward. Another penalty moved the Herd back to the 8, and on fourth down from the 9, Backus had Walterscheid's pass knocked out of his hands in the end zone.

Dunbar was forced to punt yet again, but on first down at the Herd 45, Panther defensive end Donald Douglas slapped the ball out of Walterscheid's hand and Bernard Lewis recovered at the 30.

The defense sent the Panthers straight back as Tate Smith sacked Danford on first down. Smith and Wagner almost had Danford for another sack on the next play, forcing the Dunbar quarterback to put the ball up for grabs. Garcia claimed his second takeaway of the game with the interception to allow Hereford to run out the rest of the half.

Hereford didn't let up at the start of the second half, driving the kickoff 66 yards in seven plays. Bromlow picked up 35 yards on five carries on the drive while Urbanczyk gained the rest, including a 20-yard burst up the middle for the score.

"I thought Greg played good," Cumpton said of the big fullback. "He came out and gave us a good inside attack against their defense."

Hereford went for two on the conversion, but Brett Confer was ruled out of bounds as he made the catch.

Dunbar had what was at the time its longest possession of the game, moving 20 yards in six plays to the Hereford 38 as Danford ran for 10 yards and completed his first pass to Bobby Savedra for 13. But of fourth down, the weak-side defense blew though the Panther line as Aaron Savage and Mark and Mike Daniel teamed up to sack Danford.

Things started to get a little sloppy for the Herd as Bromlow lost the handle on the ball on first down and Dunbar recovered near mid-field. Hereford wound up losing five of seven fumbles for the game, including four of five in the second half.

"I thought we played well," Cumpton said, "but we turned it over so much. I guess that bothers me more than anything else, those stinking turnovers. If we don't turn it over, we score a few more times. But I thought we played decently."

The Panthers managed another first down at the Herd 36 before Burt Noland corralled Danford for a 14-yard sack, forcing another punt.

Hereford reached the Dunbar 47 before Steve Douglas recovered a Walterscheid fumble for the Panthers. Michael Flowers gained 19 yards on a reverse before George Madrigal picked off Danford's pass at the Herd 37 on the first play of the final period.

A holding call put the Herd back on its own 26, where T.J. Head, who quarterbacked the entire fourth quarter for Hereford, lost the snap.

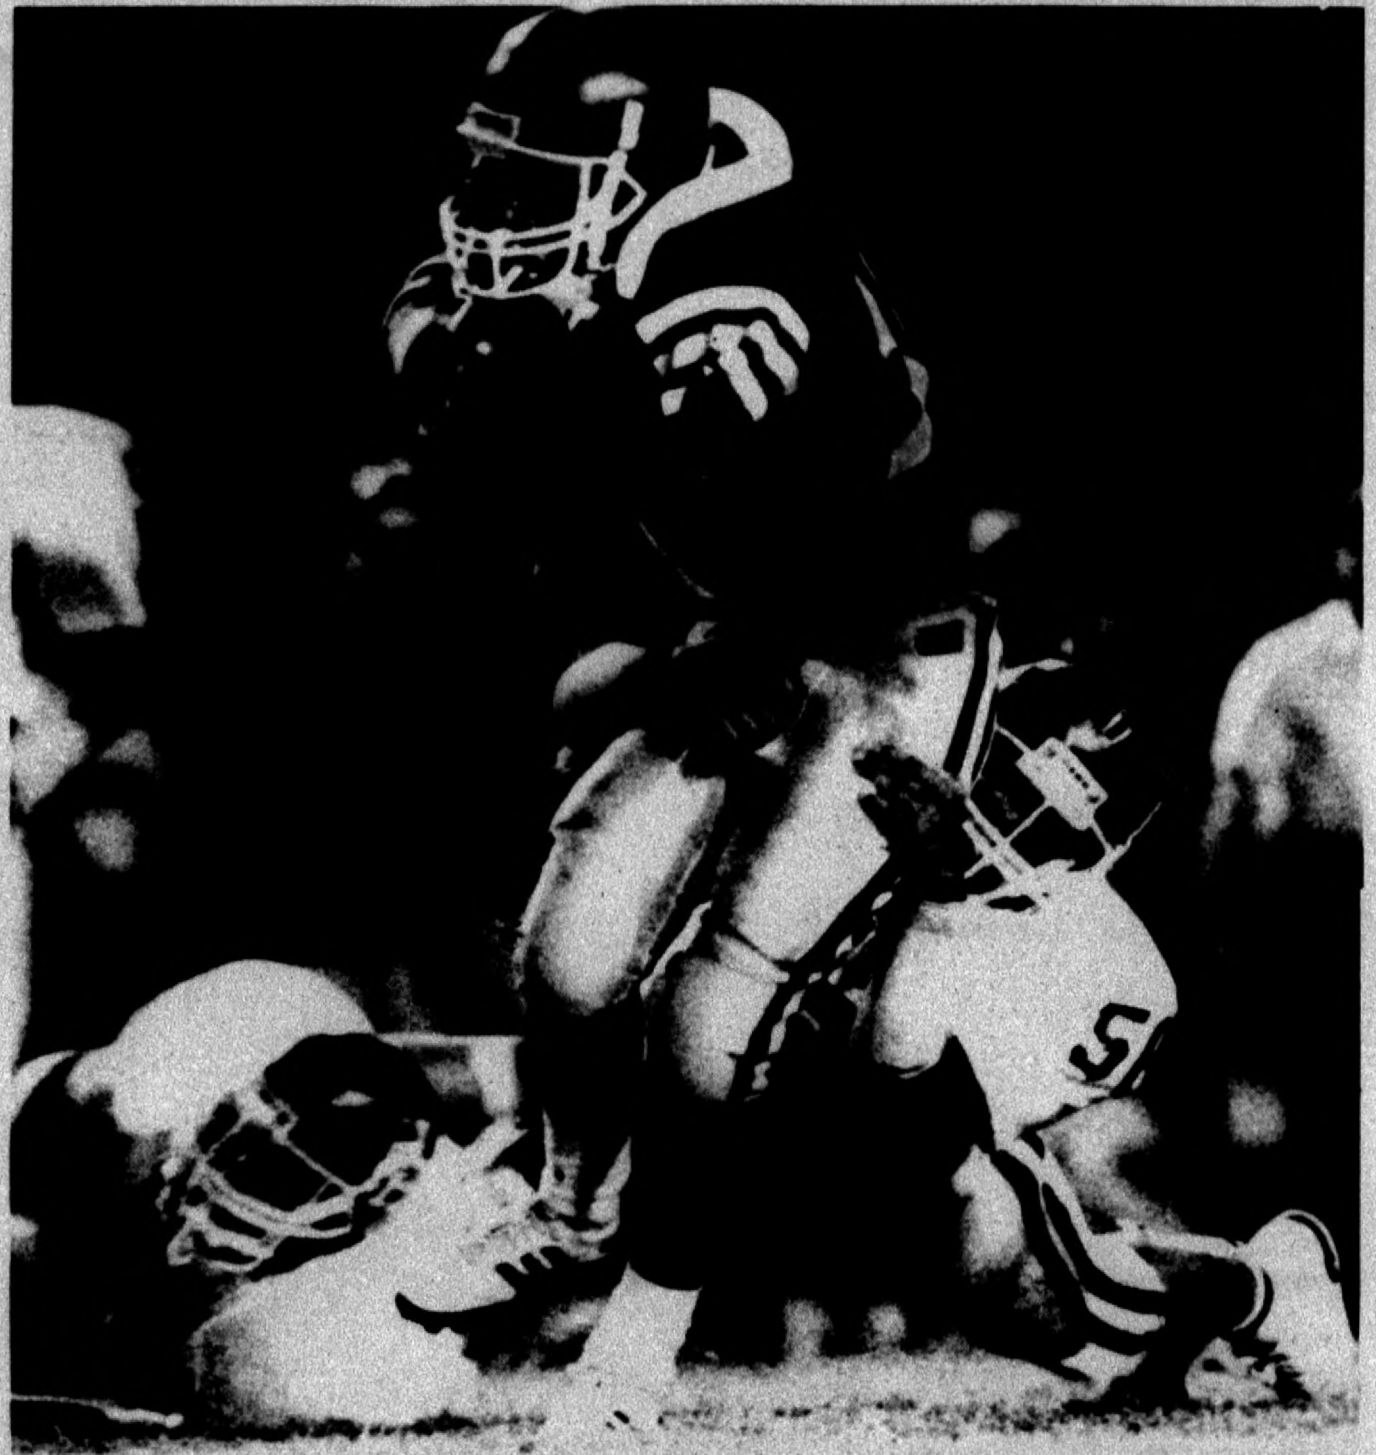

Dunbar gave the ball right back on the next play as Jeremy Gowdy gathered in Danford's fumble, but Head was intercepted by Patrick Lewis on his first passing attempt.

Dunbar made its deepest advance of the game following the turnover, reaching the Herd 8 before Danford was sacked by Wagner for a 20-yard loss.

Hereford took over on downs and Tate Smith picked up 50 yards in two carries to move the Herd to the Dunbar 25 before consecutive illegal procedure penalties put the ball on the 35. The first flag called back a seven-yard gain by Smith and the second wiped out a touchdown run by the senior.

Head got most of the penalty yardage back with a nine-yard pass to Ben Weatherly and a personal foul after the play put the Herd at the 13.

HHS volleyball team clinches playoff berth

The Hereford Whitefaces clinched their second straight Class 4A playoff berth Saturday with a 15-7, 15-2 road win over the Pampa Harvesters, the only District 1-4A team aside from Hereford and Dumas with a chance to make the playoffs.

The victory upped the Herd's season mark to 22-4 and 11-1 in district play. Hereford remained tied with the defending state champion Demonettes, a winner over Dunbar on Saturday, for the 1-4A lead.

Nikki Self led the Herd with nine service points, including three aces, while Libby Kosub, Shantel Cornelius and Jill West each served for five points and Cande Robbins had four. Cornelius had two aces on her service while Kosub and Robbins had one each.

Cornelius led in kills with five while Kosub and West had four each, Robbins and Poppy Richardson had three each, and Jessica Dearing one.

Cornelius also led the Herd with five digs followed by Kosub and Richardson with four each. Self added three digs and Robbins had two.

Kosub added five receptions of serve passed to the setter with Robbins, Cornelius and Richardson all having three.

"Our kids played as well as they have all season long at times during this match," Coach Brenda Reeh said. "It seems like each individual player is fine tuning her offensive attack. Everyone's timing on the net is good. We're hitting the ball hard and at sharp angles. We are building our confidence to the point where each hitter is disappointed if she doesn't get set."

"At this point we don't have a weak hitter on our team. That will, hopefully, pay off if we get another shot at Dumas and then later in the playoffs."

Reeh added that the Herd is getting its best play at the right time of the year.

"Right now is the best time of the season to be playing as well as we're playing," she said. "Hopefully, we can stay on a roll."

Herd JV vs. Pampa

The Whiteface junior varsity continued rolling through its schedule with a 15-5, 15-10 win over the Harvesters.

Kyanne Lindley led the team with 10 points on serve, including eight in the second game, and an ace. Jayme Moore added five points while Lindsay Radford and Robin White each had three.

Lindley's service run in the second game broke open a contest that remained scoreless after three full rotations.

"In the first game, we played very well with few errors," junior varsity coach Lynn Gilbreath said. "The second game started real slow. We slacked off a little - rather than increasing our lead, we tried to protect it. That allowed Pampa to score as much as they did."

"Overall, we played very good ball," Gilbreath added. "We are passing and hitting the ball better than we have all season."

Cumpton: defense turned in 'best game' of season

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

Greg Urbanczyk finally got to reap one of those rewards running backs get, a touchdown, during Hereford's 26-0 win at Lubbock Dunbar last Saturday.

As running backs go, the fullback position in the I has as much glamour as a lineman. On most plays, the fullback's main responsibility is to clear the way for the tailback to gain yards and score touchdowns.

Urbanczyk's been more than capable while blocking for tailbacks Matt Bromlow, Chris Steward and Tate Smith this season. He's been content with his five-or-so carries a game, but was really happy to score Hereford's final touchdown.

"It feels great (to score)," Urbanczyk said of his 19-yard touchdown run. "It was 1 Dive (a simple handoff up the middle). They had the middle linebacker and nose-guard stacked and the line cleared them out. I cut and it was easy the rest of the way. It was a great job by the line.

Their defense was a little tougher than we thought they would be because they were bigger than what we expected. We still handled them: we have some pretty good guys up there on the line to take care of them."

"They were pretty good on defense at the first of the game, but once we hit them they pretty well gave up," said offensive lineman Chris Solomon. "They played a zero stack (middle linebacker right in behind the noseguard) and stunted off of that a lot, but they had shown that a lot and we could handle that."

Dunbar had shown something else in their Oct. 13 win over Estacado: the option game. It was the first time the Panthers had run the option all year, and Hereford coaches were expecting to see it again.

"They wore Estacado out with it," said Hereford coach Don Cumpton. "We expected them to run it a lot tonight, but they didn't. I don't really know why, but they only ran it about three times."

"I told our defense they were going to have to improve, and they rose to the occasion several times tonight when they could have let down. This was one of our best defensive games. We had a good pass rush, and I thought it was the best game our secondary has played. It was a good defensive game."

The defensive front did really well, and that helped us," said defensive back Jeremy Gowdy. "Dunbar passed a lot more (16 times) than we thought they would, but we had a pretty good game."

Dunbar completed just three passes, and two were intercepted.

This week, the Herd will have to contend with a much-improved Randall team that stayed even with Estacado through three quarters last week before the Matadors ripped off 31 points in the fourth quarter for an easier-than-it-looked win.

The Raiders will showcase running back Chris Roberts.

"We've seen backs as good as Roberts, like Robert Johnson from Estacado," said Gowdy. "We just have to keep him contained, not let him get outside. We handled Johnson pretty good, and if we have a good week of practice we should be in pretty good shape."

Cumpton usually says that a team is "a good football team," or "not a bad football team," or "they're not a bad football team." His adjective for Randall shows he's concerned about the Raiders.

"Randall is doggone good," said Cumpton. "they're much improved over a year ago, and we have to play well next week. Roberts is a heckuva back, and they have a good fullback, a good quarterback, and two great, 6-3 receivers. We'll have our hands full."

Things got a little intense

Tech bounces back to top Owls

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

If the defensive unit of the Rice Owls had been in the interview room following Texas Tech's 41-25 win last Saturday at Jones Stadium, they probably wouldn't have believed it was the same James Gray that had run around, over and through them.

Gray is a soft-spoken senior from Fort Worth. He spoke much louder on the field Saturday, scoring five touchdowns to pass Earl Campbell on the Southwest Conference's all-time scoring list at 42 six-pointers. He's now third on the all-time SWC list.

The way the game started, it looked as though Gray would need everything he could muster. Rice had two field goals and a 21-yard run by quarterback Donald Hollas in the first quarter to post a 13-0 lead. The stunned crowd of 26,902 boomed when Tech placekicker Lin Elliott missed a field goal early in the second quarter, but the jeers turned the cheers only a few minutes later when Gray and his offensive cohorts went to work.

The Tech ground game wore down the Owls over the last three quarters, picking up 297 of their 397 rushing yards. Gray had 227 of those yards, giving him 851 for the season.

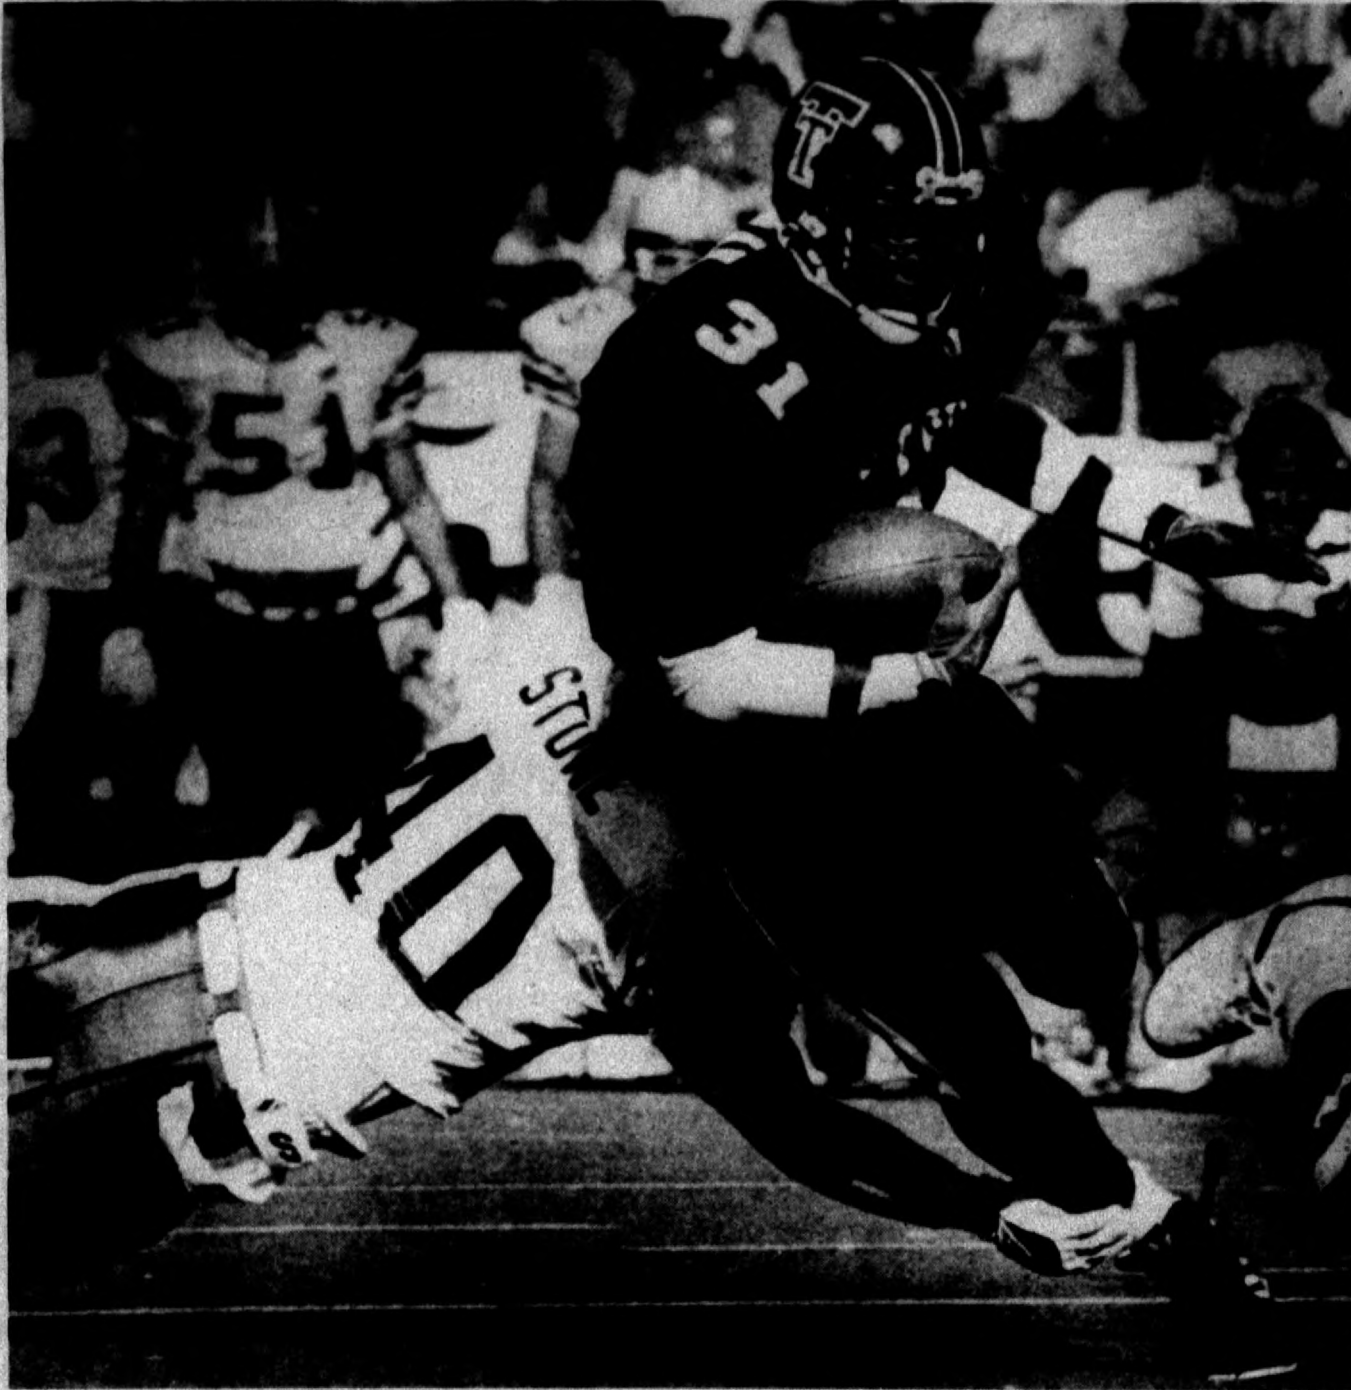

"We just needed to execute and keep the defense off the field. They had been out there for a while," said Gray, who credited his offensive line for "doing a good job."

"I knew we were in a hole and needed to get back on track," said Gray. "We had a very slow start, but fortunately we started executing."

And bounced up, down and sideways on tremendous runs by Gray to give Tech the lead for good.

Gray's first touchdown run came with 9:35 to play in the first half. He took a Gill pitch and ran to the left, broke a Rice tackle and went 36 yards to cut the Rice led to 13-6. The PAT was blocked by Rice's Nigel Coddington.

One of the Owls' first play after the kickoff, Hollas completed a pass over the middle to tight end Voddie Baucham, but Tech cornerback Ronald Ferguson hit Baucham hard, forcing a fumble which Ferguson recovered at the Rice 28.

A brighter shade of Gray

On third-and-5 at the Rice 23, Gray took a pitch to the right, broke a tackle, put a hand on the ground to regain his balance and outran Rice to the end zone to cut the lead.

Tech started executing so well that the Red Raiders disdained the pass. Quarterback Jamie Gill completed 80 percent of his passes:

four of five for 42 yards and one touchdown, a 15-yard screen pass to Gray.

"When you have a back like that (Gray) you keep giving him the ball," said Gill. "The offensive line controlled them (Rice) all game."

Tech had two early turnovers that cost them, "but when we screw our heads on right and play solid football we can come back and beat anybody...We were not flat when we came out, because we had a decent drive at the first of the game (Tech's second drive went from its own 23 to the Rice 20 before a fumble). We bounced back pretty good in the second quarter."

Browns beat Bears, 27-7

CLEVELAND (AP) - Bernie Kosar, the awkward one, the one with the slow feet and the odd release, never worried much about looking good on a football field, as long as he got results.

But when his unusual throwing style began producing interception after interception, he decided it was time to go back to basics.

"I worked on my mechanics. It's something that I've had to concentrate on since I've been in high school," Kosar said after passing for 281 yards and two touchdowns as the Cleveland Browns beat the Chicago Bears 27-7 Monday night.

Kosar and the Browns had been mired in a four-game offensive slump during which they had produced 47 points. They hit bottom a week ago, when he threw four interceptions in a 17-7 loss to Pittsburgh, a team the Browns had defeated 51-0 in the season opener.

"It was important for us as a team and specifically for the offense to play a solid game," Kosar said.

To erase the slump, the Browns went to a ball-control, short-passing game that produced 22 completions in 29 attempts against a banged-up Bears' defense that was missing such stalwarts as linemen Dan Hampton and Richard Dent.

Rookie Eric Metcalf opened the scoring with a 3-yard touchdown reception on the Browns' third possession, capping a 14-play, 73-yard drive on which Kosar completed seven passes for 56 yards.

Those were the only points in a first half that featured five punts by each team.

A 10-play drive in the third quarter set up the first of two Matt Bahr field goals, and Metcalf scored his second touchdown of the night on a 7-yard run three plays after Frank Minnifield intercepted a Mike Tomczak pass at the Chicago 25. That made it 17-0 late in the third period.

Then came the killer. Cleveland's defense stopped the Bears on downs at the Browns' 2-yard line, and on the next play, Kosar hit Webster Slaughter down the left sideline for a 97-yard touchdown pass, the longest play from scrimmage in Browns' history. There have been only 12 longer plays in NFL history.

It put to rest any doubt about Kosar's arm, the strength of which has been questioned since he sprained it seriously early last season. And it vindicated offensive coordinator Marc Trestman, whose play-calling has been criticized by many in Cleveland, including Coach Bud Carson.

Cleveland (4-3) earned a share of first place with Cincinnati and Houston in the AFC Central.

The Bears (4-3) lost their third straight, their longest losing streak in seven-plus seasons under Coach Mike Ditka. They dropped a game behind Minnesota in the NFC Central, marking the first time the Bears have been out of first place since the final game of the 1983 season, a span of 85 games.

Ditka, who all but buried his team for losing to Houston a week earlier, accepted this loss better than expected.

"I believe in them. I believe we can turn it around," he said. "I'm more encouraged after today's game than after the last two weeks. Our defense played aggressively, but our offense gave me no help. Our special teams gave us no field position."

Tomczak completed only four of 14 passes for 76 yards before he was benched following the Minnifield interception.

to 13-12. On the PAT, Anthony Lynn took a Gill pitch around the left side into the end zone to give Tech a 14-13 lead with 8:06 left in the half.

Rice drove the ball to the Tech 28 on its next possession but misfired on a field goal attempt with 4:08 to play in the half.

The Owls forced Tech to punt on its next possession, and Rice was driving the ball when Sammy Walker stripped the ball from Rice receiver Courtney Cravin at the Rice 49, reversed his field and ran the ball into the end zone with 57 seconds left in the half. Elliott's PAT gave Tech a 21-13 lead at halftime.

Tech, and Gray, added two touchdowns in the third quarter, a 12-yard run on the opening drive of the second half, then a three-yard run on the second possession to give the Red Raiders a 35-13 lead.

Rice answered late in the quarter with an 80-yard, 13-play drive to cut the lead to 35-19 at the end of the third quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, David McFarland intercepted a Hollas pass at the Tech 16, but Rice held the Raiders. Owls' kick returner Eric Henley fumbled the fair catch and Tech's Bryan Tucker recovered at the Rice 37 with 12:02 to play.

Tech drove the last 37 yards in nine plays, with the screen pass to Gray for the Red Raiders' final touchdown.

Rice scored with 1:34 to play when backup quarterback Greg Willig passed to Jimmy Hines in the left corner of the end zone. The two-point try failed.

1 team in the nation. We know it's going to be a good game, and they'll be looking for a little revenge against us. They'll be rared back and ready for us.

the three, Head was stripped of the ball and Dunbar took over at the i.

The Panthers gained 55 of their 125 total yards after the turnover. Jeffery ran for nine yards and Flowers for 17 before Danford completed passes of eight and 21 yards to Marlin Boyd. The 21-yarder, which came as time expired, represented half of Dunbar's passing yardage for the game.

Cumpton said the defensive effort by the Herd was the best of the year.

"We told them coming into the game that we had to improve," he said.

"I thought they rose to the occasion several times in situation where they could have let down. They'd stop (Dunbar) and then we'd turn the ball over and they'd have to go right back out there and stop them again.

"I thought it was one of our best defensive games, I really did."

Cumpton added that the pass defense had a big impact on the game.

"We got good pressure, a good pass rush and the secondary played excellent. That's the best game the secondary has had. They broke on the ball and knocked the ball away a bunch of times and picked off a couple."

Hereford rolled up 377 yards offense for the game, including 254 rushing and 123 passing.

Walterscheid finished with nine completions in 12 attempts for 114 yards and two touchdowns to Backus, who caught six passes for 89 yards.

In addition to Bromlow's 127 yards, Urbanczyk carried seven times for 47 yards and a score while Smith added 54 yards on four runs.

'Pokes bench Too Tall

IRVING (AP) - One day after he started his 198th consecutive National Football League game, defensive end Ed "Too Tall" Jones lost his starting job with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jones, the only remaining member of the Cowboys' famed "Doomsday" defense of the 1970s, was benched Monday, a move that may mark the beginning of the end of a Hall-of-Fame caliber career.

Cowboys coach Jimmy Johnson had moved Jones from defensive end to defensive tackle, but the move didn't work well. He said he decided to bench Jones rather than return to him to defensive end and bump back Tony Tolbert.

"Number one, we have got to get more of a pass rush," Johnson said. "About the only pass rush we're getting right now is when we blitz, and we can't afford to do that. We've got to make something happen with the front four."

The move was not surprising because of the new coaching staff's emphasis on youth and speed, Jones said Monday.

"When Dallas turns it around, it will be Tony Tolbert, not Ed Jones, who is playing," Jones said. "This is the move they had to make."

Jones, who at 38 was the oldest starting player in the NFL and the league's second oldest player, was told of the move by defensive line coach Butch Davis, 37, Tampa Bay backup quarterback Joe Ferguson, 39, is the league's oldest player.

The last time Jones missed a start was in 1979 when he took a year off to try his hand at boxing.

Jones, who earned the "Too Tall" nickname at Tennessee State because of his 6-9 frame, was the Cowboys' first-round draft choice in 1974. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 1981-83 and was an All-Pro in 1981 and 1982.

He has made 1,022 career tackles, batted down 85 passes since the statistic was created in 1980, recovered 19 fumbles and intercepted three passes.

Jones was quick to admit that moving him to defensive tackle was not the answer.

"Look at me - I'm not a tackle," he said. "A guy my size doesn't belong in there with those stumpy guys. Don't get me wrong - I'm a competitor. I want to play even if you have to put me at linebacker."

Johnson said he planned to keep Tolbert and Jim Jeffcoat at defensive end and Dean Hamel and Willie Broughton at tackle.

Calling Jones "a class individual," Johnson said he was upset at having to make the move to bench Jones. He also said a bruise Jones suffered on his right knee in Sunday's 36-28 loss at Kansas City forced him to make the decision quickly.

"The injury bothered him in the game, but Tony Tolbert is coming on and making some plays," Johnson said. "We just felt like Ed would be better off if he was not playing on an every-down basis."

"When you have a young talent like Tony Tolbert and you're 0-7, you've got to look to the future," Jones said. "You can't keep a talent like that on the bench. He's going to be a great player."

Jones said he is unsure whether he will try to play another season. "I'll take a wait-and-see attitude, just like the last four years," he said.

Jones is expected to play Sunday against the Phoenix Cardinals at Texas Stadium and extend his consecutive-games-played streak to 216.

Ironically, one of Jones' former teammates, Lee Roy Jordan, will be inducted into the Cowboys' Ring of Honor at halftime of that game.

Netters rip Lobos to end season, ready for Region I-4A tournament

The Hereford Whiteface tennis team completed an undefeated District 1-4A campaign Saturday with a 17-1 pasting of the Levelland Lobos at Levelland.

Hereford claimed its third straight district fall tennis title and ended the season with a 7-0 district record and 11-1 overall.

"We just dominated (Levelland) in nearly every match," Coach Luis Zavala said. "Everybody played as well as they have all year."

The only loss on the day was suffered by No. 4 girls singles player Robyn Sublett, who broke her racket early in the third set and had to finish the match with borrowed equipment. Other than that, Hereford lost two sets the entire match.

Hereford will advance to the Region I-4A meet Friday and Saturday in Lubbock. Zavala said seedings and pairings for the tournament will be worked out in the next few days.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - The result of the World Series is becoming less and less important to many of the Giants and Athletics. They just want to finish a job and go home to their families.

Oakland and San Francisco will be at Candlestick Park on Friday for the resumption of the Series. They're just not sure what it all means anymore.

The earthquake that hit the Bay area on Oct. 17 has caused a record 11-day layoff between Series games.

Members of Lone Star Study Club met recently in the home of Mildred Fuhrmann with Betty Jo Carlson serving as co-hostess. A film on scarf fashions was shown and new officers were presented. Shaw tells of "Castle on the Hill"

The Hereford Study Club met on Thursday at the home of Morgan Cain with Gracie Shaw giving the program. Shaw gave an account of her life while living in the children's home in Weatherford.

Shaw explained, "Castle on the Hill" was the appropriate name due to its beautiful architect. The location was dedicated in April, 1907 and officially opened in 1909.

"The home was established and supported by Knights of Pythias. This is a non-denominational establishment for homeless children from tiny tots through junior college age. These children are not put up for adoption". Shaw and five of her siblings went to the home after the death of her mother. Because she was so young this is the only home she remembers and she returns almost every year to attend their annual reunion on Labor Day weekend.

Shaw showed a commemorative plate with a picture of the home and the title "The Castle That Love Built".

President Doris Bryant presided over the meeting and Addie Cunningham was co-hostess. Helen Spinks reported for the public welfare committee and Gladys Setliff reported that Barbara Allen's recovery from surgery was progressing well.

Bessie Story explained that the original speaker was unable to attend. President Bryant noted that the November meeting would be at the home of Mildred Garrison.

Members present were Setliff, Willie Braddy, Helen Spinks, Mary Story, Bessie Story, Joan Yarbro, Leta Kaul, Shaw, Bryant, Betty Gilbert and hostesses.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I work as a flight attendant for a major airline. I usually put in 60 hours a week. Our industry does not recognize holidays, so we work Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's and Easter without extra compensation.

We are expected to handle medical emergencies and psychological problems, serve meals, baby-sit and understand passengers who don't speak English. I have helped to deliver a baby and taken care of a child who severed a finger playing with his father's pocket knife, given CPR to two heart-attack victims and saved a passenger from choking by doing the Heimlich maneuver.

Before going to work for the airlines I taught psychology at a small college. I am happy with my job and enjoy what I do. The down side is what I am writing about. Please, Ann, tell your readers that we are not responsible for turbulence, bad weather, delays, canceled flights and lost luggage. We do not plan the menus or prepare the food, only serve it. Also, we do not appreciate being pinched or being called airheads, bimbos and "Girlie".

If you print this letter, thousands of hard-working flight attendants will be grateful. Sign me --Based in Texas

DEAR TEXAS: I am a frequent flyer who never ceases to be amazed at the patience, efficiency and sunny disposition of the flight

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is to let you know that a letter in your column did more for me than any parent-training course or hundreds of hours of professional counseling. Let me tell you about it.

A woman wrote that she was the mother of two sons, one retarded, the other autistic. She had just read a letter to Ann Landers from a father complaining that his kid was a very picky eater and spoiled rotten. When he gave the boy a glass of tomato juice he pushed it aside and said, "I'd rather have orange juice."

The woman said she would give anything if either of her sons could ask for a glass of orange juice and added, "All parents should realize how lucky they are to have normal kids who fight, bicker, and make noise."

From now on, Ann, when my three children (all under the age of 10) get loud and boisterous, I will look at them in a different light. I'll see them as healthy, high-spirited kids and thank my lucky stars that they are able to express themselves and be competitive with one another. Never again will I take my good fortune for granted. -- Coping in California

DEAR COPING: Your letter made my day. It's wonderful to know that something that appeared in this space has changed a life for the better. And thank you, too, on behalf of all the parents out there who, from now on, will be a little more patient with their children.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: What's all the fuss about burning the flag? Recently our town held its annual dairy festival parade. Thousands watched from tree-shaded sidewalks sitting in lawn chairs with friends and neighbors. The American flag led the parade. When it passed, not one man removed his hat. No one sitting stood up. No one put their hand over their heart. So I ask again, why the fuss over burning the flag? -- Hopkins County, Tex.

DEAR FRIEND: Beats me. Does anyone in Hopkins County have an answer?

Report says DOE downplayed Rocky Flats woes

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Energy Department underestimated or ignored health and safety problems at the Rocky Flats nuclear arms plant as it gave the operator millions of dollars in bonus fees, federal auditors said today.

A report by the General Accounting Office, the investigative arm of Congress, said in the fiscal years 1986-88, Rockwell International Corp. won $26.8 million in award fees for running the plant, which has been under FBI investigation for alleged criminal violation of environmental laws since June.

"We believe that the seriousness of the (environmental, safety and health) problems ... were never conveyed in the evaluations" of the plant's performance, the report concluded.

Rockwell announced last month that it was withdrawing from the plant, and the Energy Department said Oct. 11 that EG&G Inc. had agreed to take over Jan. 1.

The plant makes plutonium triggers for nuclear warheads and is owned by the government.

The GAO report was being released today during a House Government Operations subcommittee hearing on Energy Department problems with the private companies that run major nuclear weapons facilities in 12 states under government contracts.

Many of the contracts, including that at Rocky Flats, reimburse the company for all operating costs and allow bonus fees based on performance in key areas, including production of arms materials and compliance with health and safety rules. The fees are set during semiannual performance evaluations.

Rep. Mike Synar, D-Okla., chairman of the subcommittee, said Monday that the terms of the Rockwell contract made it difficult for the Energy Department to effectively manage the plant about 16 miles from downtown Denver.

Synar said the Rocky Flats problem was typical of management weaknesses throughout the nuclear weapons manufacturing complex, which includes 17 major plants.

"The department effectively has left itself no way to control the performance of its contractors or to hold them fully accountable for their actions," Synar said.

The GAO said the $26.8 million in bonus fees for Rockwell during the 1986-88 period represented 84 percent of the total awards possible under its contract.

In this period, the Energy Department's operations office in Albuquerque, N.M., rated Rockwell's health and safety performance as "moderately good" to "excellent."

The report said that while Rockwell rightly was applauded for holding down the number of work days lost due to injury, fire loss and property losses, some of its shortcomings in the health and safety area were underestimated or ignored.

Among the problems downplayed by the Energy Department, according to the GAO report, were an inadequate health physics program, repeated violations of environmental regulations and the "questionable quality" of the monitoring data used to comply with environmental laws.

Under the Energy Department award fee system, Rockwell was encouraged to increase production at Building 771, the main plutonium processing center, despite safety problems there.

About two months before Building 771 was shut down due to safety problems in October 1988, the Energy Department awarded Rockwell $310,000 for increased plutonium production, the report said. The building resumed production in January.

The GAO noted that Energy Secretary James D. Watkins has substantially changed the terms of management contracts at some weapons facilities since he took office in March, and that further adjustments were planned.

Some farmers won't get second crop checks

WASHINGTON (AP) - Most Texas farmers who planted a second crop after freezing weather and drought destroyed their winter wheat or cotton are still waiting for a disaster relief check from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, says Sen. Phil Gramm.

"For people who are waiting for their checks, this is getting to be a problem and I'm eager to do something," said Gramm, R-Texas.

Gramm and other Great Plains lawmakers contend USDA's regulations implementing an $895 million drought relief bill unfairly cut payments to farmers who planted a second crop.

On Monday, USDA said farmers who rotated their traditional spring crop to land where winter wheat was destroyed by drought or freezing weather are entitled to disaster payments for their losses.

Gramm, however, complained: "It doesn't solve the problem most people have with their second crop."

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen called the decision by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service good news for Texas farmers, but agreed it does not go far enough in reversing USDA regulations that would cut disaster assistance to many other farmers who had also planted a second crop.

A Senate aide said the USDA's decision Monday apparently applies to only winter wheat farmers who would traditionally plant a second crop, such as milo, on non-wheat acres in the spring. Those farmers who planted their second crop on the wheat acres instead, to take advantage of fertilizer already on the land, will not see their disaster checks cut, the aide said.

"That is the so-called relief we have gotten," said Gramm, R-Texas.

Monday's decision does not cover hundreds of cotton farmers who also planted a second crop, or farmers who planted non-traditional second crops on their wheat acreage or in addition to their wheat acreage, officials said.

"I am still unhappy that people who did not plant a second crop, who waited for the government to help, are in some cases better off than the people who planted a second crop," Gramm said.

Legislators and USDA have been wrangling over the regulations on "ghost acres" for two months and one Senate aide said Monday's decision came because "we had to force their hand on this."

According to Bentsen, farmers from Waco through the Panhandle, as well as those in Kansas, Oklahoma and elsewhere on the Great Plains, planted milo or cotton on their failed wheat acres this year.

"The acres that would have been planted to the spring crop were often left fallow, with the intention of planting this fall's wheat crop there," said Bentsen, D-Texas. "Such a rotation allows the spring crop to use the fertilizer and water put down for the failed wheat crop, and it allows for the control of troublesome weeds."

But Bentsen said those farmers were told by ASCS that their disaster checks would be reduced if they instead planted their spring cotton or milo crops on the winter wheat land.

"Had they planted the spring crop normally, without rotating it to the failed wheat acres, there would be no reduction in the disaster checks," Bentsen said.

"It is obviously unfair to penalize farmers when they are following normal farming practices by simply rotating their crops on the farm," Bentsen said.

The five most popular sports activities for American adults are swimming, fishing, bicycling, bowling and running.

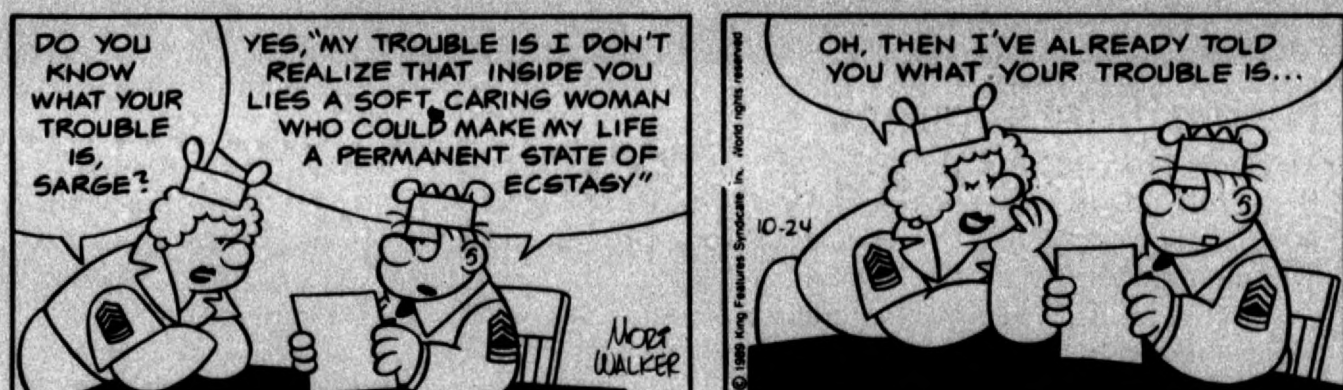

When female elephants fight, it is said, they usually try to bite off each other's tail.

These people are shouting with joy.

Why?
Because they're just two of the people who have enjoyed the success of Hereford Brand classifieds. They were able to target what they had to offer to their prospective customers. Like many customers, it cost them less than $11 a week to run their ad every day in the Brand. Because they ran their ad every day for a week, they received a free ad in the Reach 4 More, reaching customers in Hereford, Dimmitt, Friona, Vega and Adrian. You can be a success, too. LOS ANGELES (AP) - More than 240 relatives of U.S. military personnel hitched a free ride with Ronald and Nancy Reagan on a jumbo jet carrying the former first couple to Tokyo.

The Reagans left Thursday on a trip to Japan aboard a TWA Boeing 747 chartered by the Fujisanki Communications Group, said Reagan spokesman Mark Weinberg.

"Nancy and I promised ourselves that if we ever had a chance to bring families together, we would," Reagan said in a statement. "When we learned we would have so many extra seats on the airplane being provided to us, we knew immediately what to do."

The people who accompanied the Reagans were visiting relatives based in the Orient.

The Reagans are expected to receive $1 million for several charitable and public appearances in Japan before returning Oct. 28.

Roast Stuffed Cornish Hen

Holidays become even more special when cornish hens are the featured main course. Set them on a bed of wild rice on a beautiful platter, decorate with sprigs of parsley and start a new holiday tradition.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 6 Cornish hens (about 14 ounces each) | 2 tbsp. margarine |
| 1 package wild rice mix or long grain and wild rice combination (2 cups of cooked rice) | 1 tsp. sage or thyme, savory or tarragon |
| 1 medium onion, chopped | 1/4 cup brandy |
| | 1 cup orange sections |

To make the stuffing, cook rice until it is still slightly firm. Drain. In a skillet, melt margarine and cook chopped onion until browned. Add rice and sage; toss gently.

Clean, wash and dry hens. Stuff lightly and skewer or sew the vents closed.

Brush hens with 1/2 cup melted margarine and place breasts side up on a rack in a shallow pan. Roast at 350° F., uncovered, about 1 hour, basting occasionally with the melted margarine.

Make a sauce by adding 1/2 cup water to the drippings in the roasting pan, stirring to dislodge browned particles from the pan. Add 1/4 cup brandy and 1 cup orange sections. Cook 2 minutes. Serve with hens.

Yield: 12 Servings
