THE DEATH OF A. H. BELO,

In the death of Col. A. H. Belo, manager and principal owner of the Galveston and Dallas News, the State has lost a phenomenal enterprising citizen, and the fraternity the leading spirit of their brotherhood. The writer hereof was introduced to Col. A. H. Belo by Willard Richardson at Galveston in 1866—possibly '65. He was in physique tall and slender, and wore his whiskers precisely as given by the Dallas News announcing his death. In deportment and temperament he was exceedingly reticent, and deliberate. He was not strictly a contemporary of the writer, but came in a decade afterwards, and after the writer had withdrawn, for the time, from the printing business. We entered journalism at Fairfield in 1859; Mr. Belo in 1866. The well known newspaper men in our early career were Richardson of the News, Stewart of the Civilian of Galveston; Lawry of Marshall, Morse of Clarksville, Cushing of Houston, Mat Dale of Palestine, and Dalton of Croket. All whom have passed to their reward. So far as we know there is but one now in the State, and in the harness, that ranks us in priority and that is Jo Kirgan of the Dawson Times. Now, Mr. Belo of the junior class is gone. His loss will be universally felt.

The Red Men delegation, consisting of Jack Floyd, A. H. Webster, George Ely, and Dennis Peale, went to Clarendon Monday help in degree work. While there program making for the 4th of July celebration was begun, and will materialize within a few days and be given to the public.

Jack Floyd, just returned from Clarendon, says the pending prohibition contest there judging from surface signs, will most likely result in driving away the saloons.

"Say, merchant, don't you think you need to advertise?" Merchant—"Business too dull for that." "Say, sick man, don't you think you need a remedy?" Sick man—"No, too sick for that." "Say, merchant, don't you think you need to advertise?" merchant—"No, got plenty to do?" "Say, you sick man, don't you think you need a remedy?" Sick man—"No, got well now." Query: What's use of doctors and printers any how? A years subscription to the Amarillo News given for the best answer to this question. Editor to decide. Send 'em in.

Discussing political parties, Bige O'Neil was jocularly accused of being himself a fellow anarchist. "Fellow Anna Kissed?" he replied, "If I were you would be the last chump to hear it from the echoing opening in my head."

The Beaumont oil excitement, though at high tension all the time, grows day after day more intense. Excitement is such as has never before been experienced over speculative matters since the California gold field discoveries. Money is being made by the thousands, and the situation is utterly indiscribable. Every investment up to date has paid, and everybody's pile is sized and gathered in. Even women, children and negroes buy stock and sell stock, and capitalists, the strongest in America invest their millions. Beaumont is a seething mass of excited, crazy humanity. The seventh well is gushing, and dozens of others are boring. What it all will end in can be only guessed at—but that the road will have a turning is inevitable. The oil may become exhausted. Fire may be the consuming of the millions—no telling; but everything of time must have an ending. Yet some will make money, while much money may be lost.

If money making will run a man crazy, he can find the best opportunity at Beaumont, just now.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men: if taken at the flood, lead to fortune," etc. Wonder if the flood is at Beaumont; just now?

If Amarilloans are going crazy over Beaumont investments, it is not on the surface. No doubt many dollars have been sent there that are not heralded. All right boys, but be sure you have a broker at your command—if you can't be there in person.

Porter & Bowles, the new confectioners, headed in their advertisement to the Evening News without signing their names, and the News office has been besieged for a glass of cold drinks. They have their names in the right place now, and callers will hit them hereafter.

Amarillo's old time Henry IVings is back again, and possession of the Pecos Valley hotel. All who know his amiable wife have a guarantee of excellent service.

THE FAMOUS

Smith Boarding House

For First-Class Board and Lodging.

Two blocks east of postoffice. Good sidewalk. Mrs. J. G. SMITH, Proprietress.

"Say, what belated the Denver passenger yesterday morning?"

Dr. Fly—"It is reported that Mr. Poole had his water pipes aboard, a la Beatty, and it could n't pull up the lake grade."

Patton—"That's so. Poor Poole, he is cussed because he doesn't bring in the Amarillo water piping on his back."

69,120 acres of good, smooth plains land in Deaf Smith and Oldham countys at $1.60 per acre; $5 cents per acre cash the balance in 10 equal annual payments, bearing 5 per cent interest. Call on E. G. Pendleton.

Not necessarily because Akers was foreman on the best and costliest buildings ever erected in Potter county that he wants your work. It is the money he is after.

Evening News' democracy and single tax need not cut ice with Akers. He will always be found at Tuckers shop.

P. Blatherwiek, a Big Injun from Quanah, was in the city yesterday in the interest of the Red Men.

Judge Marrs has leased 8 sections of land 7 miles this side of Panhandle City and moved 300 cows to it.

Campbell Fountain says he knows of no valuable lands near Beaumont belonging to him.

Mr. J. Flores will move his family, in a few days to his new ranch in Sherman county.

Lamar Caldwell, Olin Skipwith and a friend went to Canyon fishing yesterday, and caught nice strings of "cat"—Lamar the largest. Our grandfather used to say a man good at fishing is good at other work.

The Choctaw will come IF we get the right-of-way. Let's get it, and get it quick.

The services at the Methodist Church have been interesting, and Wednesday evening after a warm spiritual exhortation by bro. George O'Neill, bro. Whitehurst extended invitation to the anxious seat and fifteen or twenty young people asked interest in christian's prayers. Mr. O'Neill's talk was to the point and well received.

The Evening News has plenty of money, friends and credit—maybe, but is short of printers—and couldn't for love money or credit, or anything else, make 'em come up—so, therefore, have to substitute the daily again for the weekly. But its loaded. See if it isn't so? our city Evening News readers simply have to indulge us, with the promise to make all up "in the home stretch"—if they know what that means—and panhandlers generally do.

Geo. Ely thinks the penalty against the Chinaman as given by the Evening News, "10 years in Canyon" is an excessive punishment.

The Evening News yesterday met, and to whom he was introduced, the distinguished "Boer," who filed injunction suit in New Orleans against the shipment of horses for the English army in Africa. He is here visiting his friend Mrs. Whitman of Tascosa, probably the owner of the largest cattle ranch in the state, owned by a woman. He is of medium size, appears to be a Scotchman, and looks to be about 30 years old, but said he was forty-one years old. He said he would remain in this section two or three weeks; was invited to call at the Evening News office—just across from the court house—and give more out to the Amarillo public, who deeply sympathize with the Boers. He was accompanied by Miss Smyth, and chaperoned by the pretty Mrs. Whitman, his hostess. Asked when he would return to Tascosa, said "tonight he hoped." The "hope" was likely a lapsus lingue, as it is generally hoped he would be pleased to abide with Amarillons. The cheerful party were hurriedly interviewed at the popular Shaw ice cream parlors, and a definite anything was not obtainable.

Major Charles Goodnight was recently awarded a claim against the United States in the court of claims at Washington for $18,000 on account of cattle stolen by indians.

To ladies who want nice suits of clothing for boys, Connally has the agency for the celebrated Viking Boy's Suits of clothing and samples ready for inspection. Prices right. Call and see.

S. N. Stratton of Weatherford, a relative of our T. J. S. and prospecting hereabouts a week or two, is in the city, and is pleased.

"The Girl from Cuba" will be at our store on Apr 25. Call and see her. J. J. SHAW.

Dr. Wolcott and Judge Peary, Marshal Ong and Tom Currie are engaged in the gentle sport of fishing somewhere down in the canyon.

BOARDERS WANTED.—I now have room for a few more boarders—with or without lodging. W. F. TUCKER.

Cure for smallpox—Use 1 ounce of cream of tartar dissolve in a pint of water; drink at intervals while cold, is a never-failing remedy.

Dr. Cunningham, City Secretary says he has by no means lost faith in Mr. Poole's water and light plants enterprise. He thinks he will come.

Mrs. James Bolton's musical entertainment, assisted by her pupils, last Tuesday night, for the benefit of the public school library, was a decided success, and goes a long way toward a meritorious object. Door receipts were over $80. Come again, Mrs. Bolton.

Amarillo love-sick swain—Say, dearest, won't you marry me? Girl—"Why, I am but sixteen, and do not intend to marry until twenty." Swain—What, and loose four years of your sweetness on the desert air? Girl—Oh, the desert and the air need no bank account, but most other fellows do. The desert and the air, yet awhile, please.

For the Red Men's celebration of the 4th of July Clarendon, being between the other two competitors, Quanah and Amarillo, stands the best chance to win—maybe.

Read Connally's sign—the largest ever made in Amarillo, on north side of his dry goods store.

Shaw's is the place to get your fruits, cold drinks candy, nuts, tobacco, cigars, notions and a thousand ceteras, at the cheapest rates. Call.

O'Neill & Caldwell painted the largest sign ever in Amarillo—63 feet long, on Connally's store—north side.

The report that the smallpox traveler stopped at the Mason house is a false one. He never entered there.

Remember J. M. Simmons is shipping the best kind of sorghum seed. See his ad.

Connally's new goods have arrived and he certainly is making low prices.

FOR RENT.—A 2-room house, $5 this office. The new county seat will be voted for in Sherman county. The popular cite is about 9 miles N. W. of Caldwellwater, and will probably be called Frisco, after Frisco creek. They are now surveying off lots there.

Galveston Storm.

Illustrated and realistic stories, written by Mr G. M. Bailey and Dr.
S. O. Young, of Galveston, who watched the havoc wrought by the most fearful hurricane ever known in America.

No fiction, but realistic, accurate and thrilling accounts of the experiences of these gentlemen and others who witnessed the horrors of the stricken city. A book containing over fifty pages, closely written, and illustrated with half-tone engravings, reproduced from actual photographs taken during and immediately after the death dealing winds and waters had laid low the once beautiful city, leaving in its path the bodies of more than six thousand dead, whose names are contained in "Souvenir of the Galveston Storm," together with a carefully prepared map of Galveston, showing the devastated district and all points of interest, now ready and on sale by all newsdealers, book stores and news agents. Price, only 25 cents. Send 25 cents for agent's outfit and samples, to J. J. Pastoriza Printing and Lithographing Co., 304
Main Street, Houston, Texas.

John Edge says the indications are that Clarendon will go two to one for prohibition. But that if it strikes Amarillo it would subtract over eleven hundred dollars from the city treasury, to say nothing of county and state taxes.

J. C. Drennon, a travelling lecturer for temperance gave a free lecture last night at Meth-oist church, entitled, Jay birds and Sapuckers to a full house. He will lecture tonight at same place, admission free.

Tony Schneider has placed a commodious dence. Good location —W. W. Gowin.

Mr. S. L. Young of Kingman Kan. is in town, looking up a small cattle ranch.

The Panhandle Stockmen's Association has adopted a feature that has never been tried by any association of the kind and which will be a great help to its members.
Blanks are being sent out upon which any member who has a ranch or cattle for sale can list the property with a complete description. Upon return of the list to the secretary's office it will be transcribed into a book kept for that purpose, which will be open to the inspection of all cattle buyers.—Canadian Record.

Cure for la grippe—Apply camphorated oil in the nostrils frequently; take a hot foot and leg bath, retiring with something hot to the feet.
Have bowels evacuated properly and drink a cup of hot water. This cures the most severe attacks. Do not pass it by because it is a simple remedy.—Globe Democrat.

The Commoner:

Dr Johnson defined patriotism as "The last refuge of a scoundrel." The only mistake in the definition lies in the use of the word "last." It should be "first."

The democratic country press is the reflex of democratic thought, and democrats must support the country democratic papers if democratic victories are won.
A well supported press is more than half the battle.

Texas has been so prosperous that the people are planning all over the State to spend the hot months in "Kool Kolorado;" and the number of Southern people up there this year will the plans of almost every one providing for using "The Denver Road" from Fort Worth.

[From Bryan's Paper.]

A reader asks whether Aguinaldo was a rebel. That is a matter of opinion. A rebel is defined by Webster to be "one who revolts from the government to which he owes allegiance." Did Aguinaldo owe allegiance to the United States? Those who believe that this nation could buy sovereignty over the Filipinos believe that, sovereignty having been bought, Aguinaldo owed allegiance to this country, and was, therefore, a rebel in making war against it.

Those who believe, with The Commoner, that soverignty could not be bought, and that Spain could not transfer title to the Filipinos, deny that the Filipinos owed us allegiance, and, therefore, deny that Aguinaldo, and his followers stood in the attitude of rebels.

Even at the auditors office, news from Beaumont opens every eye, and for a moment stills the pens. Beaumont is a big thing to do that.

The dispatches say the Jews in Milwaukee are making a movement to raise funds to purchase in the interest of the Zionists, the land of Palestine from the Turks, to make it a place of refuge for the oppressed Jews of every country. The Jews have been divided in opinion, and it seemed for a time that the enterprize had been abandoned, but it is now taking on new life. It may be the very best thing to do as long as monopoly is permitted in order to give the oppressed Jew a place of refuge of which they seem so much in need in many parts of the world. But under natural law, wherein the earth would be free to all, under the single tax, there would be no necessity for enforced colonization scheme.

Somebody said they saw an article in the Dallas News yesterday that the Choctaw railway was building to Amarillo too fast to talk about. All right, let her come. Another somebody said the Santa Fe, the Denver and the Choctaw would make a common depot here It is given for what it is worth.

REPUBLICANS BECOMING DEMOCRATIC

Special to the Dallas News.

Washington, April 19.—Representative Babcock of Wisconsin, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, has aroused some discussion by suggesting a revision of the Dingley law by the next session of Congress. It will be remembered when Senator Dolliver went to the upper branch of Congress Babcock succeeded him on the Ways and Means Committee.
No sooner had Babcock warmed a chair in his new committee room than he commenced an agitation in favor of tariff revision. The Eastern Republican members shut Babcock off unceremoniously. They wanted no tariff revision during the last Congress. Now Babcock has brought up the matter again and calls attention to the fact that the organization of the great steel trust proves that there are schedules which should be wiped out. Babcock favors reduction of duties where protection is no longer needed and he is confident that the Republicans can make a great deal of capital by following his suggestion. Lower duties, he thinks, will strengthen the Republicans in the rural west, and deprive the Democrats of the most potent weapon they have. Babcock is a shrew-der politician than most of his Republican associates on the committee, and it is by no means impossible that limited tariff reductions may be undertaken by the majority in the first session of the Fifty-Seventh Congress. Babcock is not alone in support of such a plan.
A number of western republicans who represent close districts realize the danger of continuing protective duties when the trusts are the beneficiaries.

The Democrats would meet any proposition for reduction with a counter proposition to make horizontal reductions. It is to avoid na issue of this kind which may actuate the East ern contingent to go slow in undertaking any tariff revision whatever. What Babcock urges might prove helpful for his party in the West and at the same time be hurtful in the industrial East. However, it is a noteworthy fact that many Eastern republican newspapers favor the Babcock plan. Some of the Democrats are wondering if such a thing is possible as the republican party becoming a free trade party before the Democracy has another opportunity to exploit its time honored creed.

We ought to obtain a hundred subscribers for the Dallas thrice a week News, at 75cts a year; and quite as many for Bryan's Commoner, at the same price. We must have them by 1st of May. Our people must keep up with the procession. There is money as well as gratification in doing so.

This is a trio that ought, profitably, to go together in Potter county. Indeed from our view point, they are indispensable. The Commoner is of course the leader of advanced democracy, being edited by Wm. J. Bryan, of whom Louis F. Post of the Chicago Public says: "He was in 1896 and in 1900 as he still is the national leader of the new democracy." To keep in touch our people must take the Commoner.

The Dallas News has always been the leading newspaper in Texas. Our readers will have to take it to keep posted in state matters.

The Amarillo News gives all the local news worth knowing without exposing or interfering with the private affairs or exposing personal follies of the individual which it concerns to be no part of a local paper to expose. It is fearless in the expression of opinions regarding public questions and public men, which trait ought to be and is appreciated by justice loving people.

The three papers can be had together with a discount of 55 per cent off of each. Separately they are $3.00, together $2.25 Post public, the most philosophical, and purely democratic and economic paper, possibly in the world, worth $1.00 will be furnished with the Amarillo News at $1.50—or in club with the three others at $3.00.
