Flood Spreads; Red Cross Doubles Our Quota

URGES THAT COTTON BE PUT IN HERE

The Chamber of Commerce ate and talked and heard some visitors speak Monday noon at the Astor Coffee Shop.

Two good discourses were heard from P. O. Anderson, representing the Southwest Bell Telephone Co., and P. C. Bennett, manager of the Agricultural Department of the Amarillo Board of City Development.

About forty was the number of guests; plus a good dinner the gathering resembled more of a banquet than a the regular noon day luncheon.

Mr. Black, president of the organization, proposed that a hearty vote of thanks be extended to the Nortons for the good dinner. The vote was unanimous. Mr. Black also read a new message from Red Cross headquarters calling for further aid in the flood stricken district and doubling our quota and urging that funds be sent in immediately. A list was passed around the table for signatures and the amount that each signer was willing to give.

Mr. Black introduced P. O. Anderson of the S. W. B. T. Co., who said in part: "The phone service is better than you think when you take all things in consideration, and it is better than most towns of this size in the Panhandle because your entire system has just recently been re-built and a competent line man has continually been on the job. It takes time to get to each job and some times calls for repair work to come from out of town and the work here must be delayed for the time being. Co-operation," Mr. Anderson (Continued on Page Six.)

EDITORIAL

PLANT SOME COTTON.

District Manager Bennett of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, made a speech a few days ago at Amarillo that was full of horse-sense. The address concerned an old subject, diversification, but bristled with new thoughts and suggestions worth while. The thing about it all that attracted and held our attention was the declaration that the successful Plains farmer is the man who first provides for his living at home, in the way of a garden, chickens, turkeys, sows and dairy cows, and then plants at least three, and preferably four, money crops. The idea being, of course, that the man who depends upon one crop only never succeeds over a series of years.

Mr. Bennett advocated, following the definite assurance of a living made on the farm, that the grain sorghums, wheat and cotton be planted every year, so that where one, or perhaps two, failed through drought or insects or other causes, at least one cash crop would remain to balance up the ledger.

We were glad Mr. Bennett included cotton in the list of money crops needed on the Plains. It is true that since the cotton planting movement started here it has attained little success. That fact is urged by opponents of cotton as a reason for not planting it in 1927. But it is also true that during these years of comparative cotton failure on the Plains the crop was an unprofitable one every where else, including the old "cotton belt" due to over production, insects, low prices, and other causes. Any crop has its off years and the Plains country began the raising of cotton just at the beginning of a series of bad years for the industry.

Conditions now show signs of improvement in market conditions for another year, and a more profitable price. Had the price held up the past two or three years the small acreage in the Plains country would have proved so profitable that there would now be no question about planting it again.

It has been demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt that cotton can be successfully raised here when conditions are favorable and, taken over a series of years, there is no money crop that beats cotton. The brand does not advocate the planting of a large acreage, but just enough to give balance to the farmer's budget of cash income. There is going to be an enforced cut in acreage this year, due to the unfortunate Mississippi Valley floods, and the price ought to be better.

We believe Mr. Bennett's summary of the situation is good, and that he is a wise Plains farmer who first provides his living on his place, then distributes his cash prospects among at least three crops—one of them being cotton.

Successful Revival at Baptist Church Ends

Last Sunday night closed the greatest meeting the First Baptist Church of this city ever had. Twenty-four additions to the church were had. The pastor, Rev. Y. M. Clond, did the preaching and Wm. Young, of Amarillo, a former student of the Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary of East Worth, led the singing.

Sunday night thirty-nine were baptized. Next Sunday night week the others who joined the church by profession will be baptized. Ninety additions to the church have been had since Rev. Clond has been the pastor, which has been two months. Plans are now under way to have an educational campaign for the purpose of building up the Sunday school.

If the church continues to grow it will not be long until a new church building will have to be built to accommodate the folks. The Sunday School is having to borrow room by going to one of the homes for a class room. Rev. Clond is now attending the Southern Baptist Convention which is in session at Louisville, Ky.

Postal Officials Visit the Hereford Office

Post Office Inspector A. S. Page, of Fort Worth, and O. S. Tolle, of Dallas, president of the Southwest Post Office Fixture Company, were here last week. Mr. Page stated, just before leaving, that the location for the local post office is still a problem yet to be solved.

Boosters' Train Will Get a Big Reception Here

Ralph Smith's thirty-piece high school band, and the business men of Hereford will meet the boosters from Amarillo at the depot Friday morning at 9:40 and the visitors will be given a hearty welcome by local folks. A parade will be formed at the Santa Fe station and march to the center of the business district, where band concerts will be given. E. B. Black, president of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, will sound the formal note of welcome, and then the visitors will be invited to visit and inspect the various business houses of this city. President Black urges the business men of Hereford to meet the special train at 9:40 Friday morning upon its arrival here. One hundred and fifty will be in the Amarillo delegation.

Preparing for Home and Garden Contest

Twenty-eight tier captains, ladies who have already pledged themselves to work faithfully, will direct the destinies of the "Better Homes and Gardens" contest being staged in Hereford. An enthusiastic meeting was held recently and these ladies agreed to work for a better and more beautiful Hereford. The tier captains will appoint block captains to aid in taking the campaign into every home in Hereford. These will be selected within the next few days.

The local Chamber of Commerce is preparing to give prizes for the winners of the Home and Garden contest, and as the prizes are nearly double those given last year, much more interest is expected. The contest will close September 1, and it is estimated that several thousand tourists will inspect the flowers, shrubs and lawns that will be beautified during the coming months.

The tier captains are: East Side, Misses, Joe Ward, Fred Millard, C. D. Shaw, Joe Beyer, F. T. Robinson, Matt Gilliland, Walter Dunlap, F. J. Eberle, F. H. Oberstler, Jessie Morris, J. B. Elliston, Chas. Joel and H. L. Rice; West Side, Misses, John Jacobson, Vern Whitterson, Henry Hastings, Ruby Gilbreath, Bobo McLean, H. G. Conkright, O. G. Hill, W. F. Gabbert, H. D. Reed, T. D. Moss, W. E. Hicks, Fred Davis, L. Womack, Grace Hughes and Marys.

Plans for County Fair Are Now Under Way

Plans are being laid for a big county fair for Deaf Smith county to be held the latter part of September. The Fair Board, composed of G. W. Brunley, Homer Fox and J. A. Pittman, will meet early next week to select superintendents for the various departments and committees to help put over the fair. A definite date will be selected at this meeting.

The community booths, featuring products of the different communities of the county will again be encouraged and liberal prizes will be offered in this department. The Fair Board will begin immediately to line up attractions for the entertainment of the visitors at the fair. Hereford breeders and those who have dairy cows have promised fine exhibits for these departments.

Boys Escape from Local Jail Thursday Night

M. V. Bass and Bart Reed broke jail here last Thursday night or early Friday morning. The two boys were given considerable freedom and on Thursday were let into the run-around just outside the cells. Some time after dark Thursday the boys climbed up on top of the cells and broke a hole through the ceiling and then crawled between the rafters and ceiling to a man-hole that led to the roof. The next morning Sheriff Benton discovered two blankets cut into strips tied together and hanging down outside the building, explaining how the boys got down off the roof. The jail breakers are still at large.

Mrs. George Ward and son went to Amarillo Friday on business.

Cemetery Improvements Now Going Forward

The West Park Cemetery is fast becoming a real park. The entire grounds have been cleaned, trees and bushes. The park is in charge of the park caretaker and is putting in some hard labor.

The contract for the trench to carry a city water main to the cemetery has been let to W. A. Carroll. Mr. Carroll and his crew will begin digging the first of next week.

Several Car Loads of Cattle Go to Wichita

Troy Womble left last Saturday for Wichita, Kansas, with several car loads of cattle. Enroute Mr. Womble will be joined by Judge L. Gough, of Amarillo, the President of the Texas Wheat Growers Association, and they will proceed to Kansas City where they will attend a meeting of the National and International Pools to be held there May 6th to 7th. This meeting is the second convention of the National and International Pools and representatives from several foreign countries will attend.

Mrs. D. L. McDonald went to Amarillo Saturday.

Joe L. Pope Goes Into Work For the Christian Church

Local admirers and friends of Joe L. Pope will be much interested in the announcement that he has made a change and is now Director of the Enlargement Program of the Christian church of Oklahoma. For the past several years Mr. Pope has been manager of the Woodward, Okla., Chamber of Commerce. He is a half brother of J. W. Alexander of Hereford, and his several visits here in the past in the interest of the work of the Chamber of Commerce are vividly remembered for their unflinching success and the "pop" and enthusiasm which have always followed his drives for members and finances.

Mr. Pope has always been deeply religious and very active in his church work, and he has now found a field in which the power of a remarkable personality and unusual talents as an orator and leader will best find adequate expression and fulfillment.

The current issue of the Oklahoma Christian, the official organ for the Christian church in Oklahoma, announces Mr. Pope's new work in the following language:

"The last State Convention at Enid in April, 1926, directed a committee of laymen to call to the services of the State Society a leader to direct in the assembling of funds for the proposed enlarged program of the State Society for the Evangelization of Oklahoma. Joe L. Pope, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Woodward, has been chosen for this position. We are glad to introduce Mr. Pope to our Oklahoma brethren. He will be designated as Director of the Oklahoma Enlargement Program.

"The original plan for the Enlargement Program included the proposition to raise funds for building purposes in our college centers, and the goal for the combined evangelistic building program was fixed at $500,000.00. After extended study of the problem involved it has been thought wise to eliminate the building item and the goal was modified accordingly, placing the minimum objective at $300,000 for the five year's evangelistic program. It is the opinion of the committee that each church in our college centers can best promote its building enterprise independently of the state's evangelistic program."

Marland Company Now At Work on New Plant

The Marland Oil Co. of Ponca City, Okla., has under construction here a new wholesale oil station, located south of the Santa Fe tracks and east of the Hereford townsite. R. D. Penn, superintendent of construction said the main building will measure 40x50 feet and be constructed of sheet steel, supported by steel trusswork. The pump house measures 8x12 feet. Two large storage tanks are on the ground; they having a capacity of 12,000 gallons each. These tanks will stand on end when in place, affording a new idea in loading and unloading. The new house will contain all the latest equipment to handle oil and gas. Mr. Penn stated that construction will begin on the new service station on North Main Street early in the fall.

Hereford Gets 15 Per Cent Reduction in Rate

Reports from Anstih show that the State Fire Insurance Commission places Hereford as one of the nine leading cities in Texas for good fire records. This is based on records made during the past three years. A maximum credit of 15 per cent on all fire insurance policies written from March 1, 1927, to April 29, 1928, has been extended to Hereford and the other eight Texas cities because of their good fire records. This is a compliment to the volunteer fire department and the citizenship of Hereford. The maximum credit has been secured in Hereford during the past two years.

NATION'S GREATEST FLOOD BRINGS UNTOLD LOSS OF BOTH PROPERTY AND LIFE

QUOTA DOUBLED!

Chairman Ralph Barnett, of the local Chapter, Red Cross, is advised by wire that the total amount for relief of the Mississippi flood refugees will be ten million dollars, and that Deaf Smith county's quota of $100 is doubled.

Mr. Barnett urges all patriotic citizens to leave their contributions at his office or at any bank in Hereford. The need is urgent and all those who have not yet contributed are again reminded of the frightful conditions in this, the greatest flood catastrophe in the history of the United States.

Sanders Sale Was Successful Event; Others Expected

The Brand regrets exceedingly that through a mixup in the hurry of press day work, a report of the Sanders registered Hereford sale last week was not carried in the issue of April 28. Such errors will occur at times, in spite of every precaution to avoid them. The omission was entirely unintentional, and the Brand apologizes to Mr. Sanders and its readers.

Sixty-seven head of fine registered Herefords were disposed of. The sale was handled by Col. Fred Reppert, assisted by Ray Barber. Buyers were here from Canyon, Tulsa, Amarillo, Spur, Ft. Worth, Lubbock, Claude, and many other points of the Southwest. There was a good crowd and as a whole the sale was considered a success. Mr. Sanders stated that he sold fourteen head of registered stuff at private sale, these animals not being listed in the catalogue.

This sale marks the beginning of a new era for the registered industry in Hereford. Before the war, registered cattle were a big item in the economic scheme of this section, and the breeders erected the Sales Pavilion with the idea of holding annual co-operative sales, as well as individual sales, from time to time. An sudden drop in prices flattened the industry for a time, but it is now rapidly coming back into its own. The announcement that the breeders will co-operate in a community sale next fall bears out the belief that registered Herefords will again become a dominating factor here before many months.

Amarillo Men Spoke at Rio Grande Club Rally

James Z. George, manager of the Board of City Development at Amarillo, and P. C. Bennett, county agent of Potter county, were the principal speakers at the county-wide club rally which was held in Hereford Saturday. George spoke on "Education, Co-Operation and Waste," while Bennett talked on the "Selection of Poles for Club Work."

More than seventy-five boys and girls and their parents from all parts of Deaf Smith county attended the second big rally of the season, and all seemed to enjoy themselves as well as to get helpful hints from the speakers. After the program games were played on the court house lawn. County Agent Dunkle was highly pleased with the interest and enthusiasm manifest in this meeting. He says there is a twenty per cent increase in enrollment for club work in the county over that of a year ago.

Mrs. L. Sparks and two children left Saturday for their home in Spearman. The Sparks family have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Pennington near Dimmitt.

The Mississippi River flood situation has grown steadily worse the past week, with the crest of the flood yet far up the river. The main damage to property and crops so far seems to have been caused by overflow waters from tributaries of the great river. Taken as a whole the great levees of the Mississippi itself, where they have not been artificially cut, have stood better than the levees on the smaller rivers. The cut made below New Orleans by engineers in order to save that city has lowered the level there to an appreciable extent and it is confidently believed the city will be saved.

Meanwhile, tens of thousands of acres of bottom lands in Louisiana and Mississippi are inundated, and the flood still spreads. Thousands of men are working day and night repairing breaks in levees and in rescue work. Former Governor John M. Parker of Louisiana, has been named civilian flood diotator, and the Red Cross and government agencies are co-operating under his direction. The Red Cross has concentrated vast depots of supplies at strategic points along the route of the waters, including food, clothing, tents, blankets, etc., while its river steamers, motor boats, airplanes and hydroplanes are systematically patrolling every yard of the territory affected, rescuing families and as much of their property as is possible to places of safety. So thorough is this work that practically no loss of life has been reported lately.

Scenes along the flooded areas are pitiful as thousands of people, crowded onto wharves and high places of safety, await the relief boats. Over 200,000 of the homeless are being fed daily by the Red Cross.

The disaster is so big, so overwhelming, that no one has yet had time or opportunity to estimate the actual damage as a whole, or the effect it will have on economic conditions for the immediate future. It is a tremendous catastrophe and one that will undoubtedly result in drastic measures by the government and the states, affected in planning a levee system that will insure control of flood waters in the Mississippi basin in future.

Third Bull Circle Has Been Organized Here

The third pure bred bull circle for Deaf Smith county has been organized, according to County Agent Dunkle. It is composed of Ira Ricketts, George Lewis and E. Caraway, and will be introduced largely after the two formed here some months ago, and the bulls are to be secured at once.

This circle plans to use line-bred Gauboge-Knight bulls, which will follow Circles Nos. 1 and 2, in a constructive breeding manner. The dairy industry of the county is growing rapidly and the importation of pure-bred Jersey bulls is expected to greatly raise the standards of dairy animals here.

Secretary of the Southwestern Jersey Association, to R. O. Dunkle, county agent, says in part: "In regard to your letter on males for a bull circle—I now have three good bulls lined up in Johnson county. They are all out of good record cows. One is about fifteen months old, he is out of a Village Knight cow that would have easily made 600 pounds if she had not gone to pieces with milk fever. This calf is sired by a bull out of a tested dam."

"The second calf is out of a silver medal cow. He is about thirteen months old. His sire is a full brother of the highest record cow, Bright Morning's Sultana."

"Have another one spotted from Brown Bros., at Cleburne, Texas, that is about a year old and a good one."

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Woodburn left Saturday for their home in San Bernardino, Calif. Mr. Woodburn is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Woodburn, of Dimmitt.

Otis Burton, of Big Square, was here Saturday transacting business.

Texas & Texans

Politics In Schools. In resigning from the presidency of the University of Texas, President Spawna gave a distinct rebuke to those who use the schools of the state, and especially the University, to further their political ends. He stated that the uncertainty of the tenure of position makes the presidency of the University an uncertain and therefore an undesirable position. President Spawna knows from experience whereof he talks and has grown weary of playing politics over to further the interests of a great educational institution. Educators and schools should be left free to devote their time unhampered by political exigencies to the great work of education, and with the feeling that so long as they do their work well it will not be impeded by political considerations. Every educator in Texas of any real worth has suffered from politics, either state or local, as President Spawna has suffered.

Commendable Service. Junction is a small town so far as population counts, but large in the heart of its people. When the report of the Rocksprings tornado reached there its citizens got together and asked what was the most urgent need of the town. When told that it was the restoration of its water plant and that the cost would be $60,000, Junction promptly told Rocksprings to have the plant rebuilt and it would pay the bill. Other towns have responded nobly but none showed a quicker and more generous response that Junction, which has the true spirit of neighborliness—ready response in the time of need.

Thoughtful Assistance. It was not so much the magnitude of its help as the spirit of it that made the aid which Schreiner Institute at Kerrville rendered Rocksprings a notable gift. Just after the disaster it was announced that the school building had been demolished at Rocksprings and that the schools would have to be suspended, thus preventing the senior class from graduating. Schreiner Institute promptly offered to take all the boys of the class to that school, feed and instruct them free of charge the rest of the school year and give certificates of the high school graduation to all who might deserve it. Schreiner Institute is a boys' boarding school and for that reason the offer had to be restricted to boys.

Denton Gets Hotel. Those who visit Denton—and Denton being a school center, they are legion—have for a long time felt the need of a modern hotel there. Denton people long ago saw the need, but waited for "George to do it." Finally, as that figurative and undependable town builder failed to respond to duty, the citizens raised a bonus of $20,000 and gave it to the owner of the leading hotel to be used in a new building. Now Denton is realizing the completion of a fine four-story hotel building of 50 rooms, with all conveniences and most of the luxuries of modern hotels. The moral is that the town that helps itself gets helped and in more ways than one Denton has helped itself in this enterprise.

Speaking of Hotels. Texas is going through an era of hotel building such as was never known before in the state. It means that people are going about in all parts of the state and that they have money to spend for their comfort. If one town doesn't provide the right kind of hotel facilities it is easy to drive over the good roads to the nearest place that does. Every week, almost every day, there are reports of new hotels under construction. Laredo has splendid hotels, but is going to build another to cost $500,000. Harlingen has contracted for another hotel to cost $200,000. La Feria has ordered plans for a $125,000 hotel. You can come to Texas now and be assured of comfortable hotels in about any progressive city or town in the state. The wagon yard age has passed.

Can You Believe It? San Benito, Brownsville and Olmito, down in the Valley, had shipped 11,540 cars of potatoes this season up to April 20 and the new spuds are still going out of the Valley at the rate of about 100 cars a day. It is a bad potato season, too, the potatoes being small on account of insufficient rain. Robstown has shipped more than 1000 cars of other vegetables. The North is still starving. Minnesota, which seems to delight in castigating Texas, should take notice.

County Flower Show. San Patricio county has been having a county-wide flower show in which towns and communities from all over the county contended and furnished entertainment programs, thus fostering a wonderful inter-community spirit. Sinton, Taft, Aransas Pass, Odem, Mathis, Elroy and other communities were represented. This is an idea that might well be developed in every county. The way to destroy ugliness is to replace it with beauty. A love of the beautiful in nature creates a love of the beautiful in character.

Yokum Tomatoes. According to word sent out by Editor Richter of the Yokum Herald, Yokum has shipped its first car of tomatoes, sending them to Toronto, Canada, and it is estimated that 100 or more cars are yet to go to other parts of the country. There are 500 acres of tomatoes in the Yokum territory, and the growers have a co-operative marketing association. Each tomato is wrapped in a lithographed wrapper bearing a small map of that part of Texas and briefly stating something about its products. Can you beat this for favorable publicity?

Burnet County Graphite. A big $300,000 graphite mill is to be built to handle the graphite production of Burnet county. Capitalists do not invest that sum on uncertainties which means that the graphite industry there is going to be thoroughly developed, which in turn means that other industries will certainly follow. One good enterprise developed in a community brings another just as one good deed performed paves the way for other good actions.

Seventy-Five Bands. Seventy-five bands are to take part in the musical contest at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting at Wichita Falls May 15-16, and about fifty glee clubs will sing in contest, which goes to show that in Texas the arts are making themselves felt in commerce and are coming to be regarded as essential to life as business.

Casper Joskins plowed up his new ground last week and had to use such strong language to his mule that he did not get to see his girl Saturday night for fear he might cuss before her.

Do You Pull the Flowers? If So, Cease the Practice

Hereford is very proud of her beautiful parks. It takes a lot of time and hard work to cultivate the ground and plant the flowers, but this work is cheerfully done as the parks always create interest and admiration, not only among our home people but visitors as well.

The tulips are blooming and have been beautiful in all the parks. But some thoughtless persons have been entering the parks and taking the blooms away. The Brand has been asked to call attention to the fact that the blooms are not to be pulled and to request that people please leave the flowers alone.

James Lowrey Smith Dies In Amarillo Home

James Lowrey Smith, pioneer merchant, banker and churchman, passed away peacefully at his home in Amarillo at 10:30 p. m., April 29th.

Out of respect to the funeral of Mr. Smith, who was one of the founders of the bank and the vice-president during all the years of its existence...

Few men had lived longer in the Panhandle of Texas—perhaps none had a larger acquaintance, and surely none were more universally loved than was Jim Smith.

He had served as president of the Panhandle Old Settlers Association, president of the Panhandle Bankers Association...

Mr. Smith came to Amarillo with his young wife early in the year 1888. Under the firm name of Burnett-Walker & Co. he opened a general store in the old town.

Burns-Walker & Co. soon changed to Smith-Walker & Co., were the first merchants to move to the new town, occupying the location now used by Noble Bros.

In 1902 this business was sold to Stambaugh, Lipscomb, Garner and Patton, and a private bank opened, the partners being J. L. Smith, J. A. Walker, B. C. D. Bynum and G. A. F. Parker.

The same four men operated a private bank in Amarillo, which later became the National Bank of Commerce, of which Mr. Smith was president for many years.

For many years Mr. Smith has been the active head of Walker-Smith Grocery Co., a great corporation operating eighteen wholesale grocery houses in various cities of Texas.

But, with all his business in which he was so successful in many lines, he never became a slave to business.

He was never in a hurry. He always had time for his friends, time to work for the general good, time for his church.

While he accumulated a large fortune, he regarded money as merely a means to an end where by he could best serve his God and his fellowmen.

He was a native son of Texas. Born at Saluda in Bell county, March 12, 1861.

Smith had just returned home from a business trip and was sitting talking with his pastor, Dr. G. L. Gates, and H. C. Pipkin.

Jim Smith was a devoted and loving husband, a cheerful, helpful and loyal friend and a Christian gentleman.

Local People Judge New Mexico School Contests

At the rural declamation, oratorical and music contests held in Clovis last Saturday night, Messrs. G. A. F. Parker and H. L. Broadwell and Messrs. T. D. Moss, Earl Wilson and J. T. Ross acted as judges.

Boy Scout Movement Lauded by Dr. Hill

A band concert by the high school band and an address by Dr. J. A. Hill of W. T. S. T. C. on scouting and scout foundation was the theme of Dr. Hill's address at the community sing-song last Monday night at the courthouse.

Dr. Hill said "Nearest my heart is the Boy Scout movement, and it is fast spreading over the world. All of our problems will be dissolved when the tenets of the Boy Scouts are obeyed."

The program last Sunday night at the Christian church was a sacred concert and a large and appreciative audience was there to greet the members of the Music Study Club.

Tells Farmers to Plant Small Acreage to Cotton

Mr. Anderson spoke of the rural lines and their griefs. He went into details of the trials and troubles of the rural phone patron and stated that most of the trouble that he had found here in the past two years is in the patron himself because he never sees his line after it has been constructed.

Mr. Black introduced Mr. Bennett, who went on to say: "Wheat raising, cotton growing or dairy-farming is a dangerous system of farming if the farmer stakes all his hopes on any one of these crops in the Panhandle."

Mr. Bennett went on to say: "The co-operative creamery is all right, but you must first produce a product that will compete with the best and then employ a manager who has the ability to sell the product."

Mr. Black announced the program committee for this month as G. W. Brunley, L. LeGrand and T. D. Moss.

A. A. Ott has in his possession a small book entitled "The Lord's Supper," by Bishop Wilson of the Isle of Man, England.

MORE THAN MERE IMPRESSION!

A student once asked a great master how to mix his colors or paints. To which the master replied: "Prime colors, a little oil and lots of brains, well mixed."

So with printing. A good printing job is more than type, paper, ink and a press. Craftsmanship is in selection of type faces suited to the job in hand; paper in tones or colors; harmonious ink selections, careful press make-ready—and the result, printed matter which conveys character.

Let us demonstrate all we mean in your next printing job. Good printing costs no more than inferior jobs.

This Hen Has Busy Summer Before Her

J. S. Jones says he has a cat and chicken story that beats them all, even the L. F. Borden incident told about a year ago.

Mr. Jones says: "Two stray kittens were left at our house some time ago. The kittens grew into cathead and mingled freely with my flock of chickens. Now more kittens have arrived, and a certain old setting hen hovers the kittens, doing double time tending for her new and strange family, and incubating a nest of eggs. The old mother cat is free to get out and rustle food for the kittens and the step-mother, knowing full well that the young ones are being well cared for."

Hart-Parr Man Here First of This Week

S. D. Marks, representing the Hart-Parr Company, with headquarters in Amarillo, was here Wednesday conferring with his local agent, M. D. Womble. Mr. Womble and Mr. Marks signed up an advertising contract with the Brand for a series of ads to run several months. A demonstration of this tractor will be held Tuesday, May 10th, at the L. Baskin farm.

Local Man Presides at Boy Scout Meeting

G. A. F. Parker, local banker, presided at the opening of the Panhandle Council Boy Scouts of America banquet held at the Amarillo Hotel Tuesday night. He has served one term as president of that organization and after reviewing the work accomplished the past year relinquished the chair to C. S. Maizeg, of Amarillo, new president elected February 22.

The banquet was used as an installation ceremony for all the new officers, among them being Ralph Barnett, of Hereford, one of the national council members, and Rev. J. R. Sharp, of Dalhart, former pastor at Hereford, who will be chairman of the civic service committee.

The announcement that construction would start Monday on a handicraft building at the William Warner camp, south of Claude, in preparation for the summer camps, added enthusiasm to the meeting. The building is to be equipped with tools and benches. It was said. Construction of the handicraft building was made possible by business men of Amarillo, through the efforts of F. B. McMillen.

Demand for Seed Is Holding Up Here

"Even though the weather still remains dry, we are selling lots of planting seed," Mr. Wilson, of the West Texas Feed and Seed Company, said. "Not only do we sell to the farmers, but we shipped a mixed car of sudan and millet seed to Baltimore, Maryland," Mr. Wilson stated. "We have gone to a whole lot of trouble and expense in selecting pure seed recommended by our county agent for West Texas and New Mexico trade and have now shipped about ten cars since January 1."

Alumni Banquet to Be Held On May 10

A. O. Thompson, sometimes called "The Funmaker of Hereford," will be master of ceremonies at the annual Hereford high school Alumni banquet which will be held at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening, May 10, and Miss Maurine Beyer, chairman of the program committee, says everyone must come prepared to laugh.

The banquet was formerly announced for Monday evening to be held at the First Christian church, but was later changed to the Methodist church and for Tuesday evening. Mr. Thompson knows a few secrets on the seniors of this year and remembers a number of secrets of former graduates, which he is likely to bring to light.

Teachers Guests of W. L. Pickett at Line Party

A line party was given at the Star Theatre by Manager W. L. Pickett to all faculty members of the Hereford public schools Tuesday evening in honor of the work that has been done here in the schools. The Music Master was shown on that evening as a special feature of National Music Week.

There is perfect harmony in Hereford between the faculty of the Star Theatre and the school faculty, and Superintendent C. H. Dillehay says this is largely due to the clean type of pictures that are shown here, and the co-operation that is given the faculty in the booking of educational pictures for special occasions.

Graduating Class Will Help Flood Sufferers

The graduating class of Hereford high school will do its bit to aid in raising money for flood relief fund for those in the Mississippi flood district. A collection will be taken Sunday evening during the baccalaureate services and the seniors have voted to appropriate this money to the fund being raised.

Hereford's quota will likely be doubled, according to Ralph Barnett, chairman of the Red Cross here, and this is all the more gratifying to Mr. Barnett because everything that is given here is strictly voluntary and no canvass of the city is being made.

Teifel-Sowell.

Miss Helen Teifel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Teifel, and Buren Sowell were united in marriage Thursday, April 21, at 8:00 o'clock p. m., at the home of the bride. The bride's gown was of blue georgette and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The ring ceremony was pronounced under a beautiful arch of white roses and carnations by Rev. V. J. Kollman, of Amarillo. The ring bearers were Miss Erna Teifel, sister of the bride, and Morris Sowell, a brother of the bridegroom. Brick cream and cake were served to about sixty guests.

Mrs. Jack Samuels and children left Tuesday for Higgins, Texas. Mrs. Samuels was called to Higgins by the death of her father, E. F. Bullard. Mr. Bullard was accidentally killed in an automobile accident Monday evening.

Rice Drawing Attracted Big Crowd Saturday

At the drawing contest at the Rice Tire Shop, Mrs. T. A. Frye, of Dawn, drew the Western five tube radio set. Otis Bruton purchased the 30x3 1-2 Brunswick casing, the proceeds going to the Red Cross fund. Col. W. S. Williams auctioned off the casing. The drawing drew a big crowd and Mr. Rice was well pleased with the results.

The receiving rooms were attractively decorated with garden flowers and the tables were centered with vases of pink and white carnations.

A delicious course luncheon was served, followed by bridge, played during the afternoon hours. Mrs. M. B. McLean won high score prize and Mrs. Glen Snyder the low.

W. J. (Billie) Smith just recently purchased the Quick Lunch Cafe next door north of the Texas Meat Market. Mr. Smith carries an ad in this week's issue of the Brand and will call his new place of business "Billy's Luncheonette." The opening will be the latter part of this week.

3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended so as to read as follows:

Section 2 (of Article V): The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices five of whom shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of five Judges shall be necessary to the decision of a case. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election or appointment, a citizen of the United States and of this State and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years and shall have been a licensed lawyer for seven years and, during that time shall have been a practicing lawyer or Judge of a court of record or such practicing lawyer and Judge together. Said Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State, at a general election and shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualify, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The Judges of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms of office under the present Constitution and until their successors are elected and qualify. When this amendment takes effect the Governor shall immediately appoint six additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for terms of office so that the terms of two of such appointed Associate Justices shall expire with the term of office of each of the present members of the Supreme Court and, upon the qualification of such new Justices, the Commission of Appeals of the State of Texas shall terminate.

Section 3 (of Article V): The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only, except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree or where the several courts of civil appeals may hold differently on the same question of law, or where a statute of the State is held void, and to questions of law arising in such other cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction as may be prescribed by law; provided, that the Legislature may authorize direct appeals from the County and District Courts in any case where a statute of the State has been declared void. The Supreme Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus as may be prescribed by law; and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the said Court and the Judges thereof may issue writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari, and such other writs as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified except as against the Governor of the State. The Supreme Court shall also have power, upon affidavit or otherwise, as by the Court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capital for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by the Court. The present statutes defining the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court not in conflict herewith shall continue in effect until repealed or altered by the Legislature. The Supreme Court shall appoint a Clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years, and shall be subject to removal by said Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court, and who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide.

Section 4 (of Article V): The Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of three Judges, provided that the Legislature may increase the number to five, and a majority of the Judges shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of a majority of the Judges shall be necessary to the decision of any case. Said Judges shall have the same qualifications and receive the same salaries as the Judges of the Supreme Court. They shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State, at a general election and shall hold their offices for a term of six years. The Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms of office under the present Constitution and laws.

Section 5 (of Article V): The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State in all criminal cases, of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, and the Legislature may confer original jurisdiction upon it to issue writs of mandamus, procedendo and certiorari in criminal cases. The Court of Criminal Appeals and the Judges thereof shall have the power to issue the writ of habeas corpus and, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, issue such writs as may be necessary to enforce its own jurisdiction. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have the power, upon affidavit or otherwise, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction. Said Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capital for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by it. Said Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law and he shall hold his office for four years, unless sooner removed by the Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court, and said Clerk shall receive such compensation as may be prescribed by law.

Section 6 (of Article V): The Legislature shall, from time to time, divide the State into such number of Supreme Judicial Districts as to it may seem necessary, not exceeding twelve at any one time, and shall have the power to re-divide the State at any time and shall establish a Court of District Appeals in each of said Districts, which Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and not less than two Associate Justices as the Legislature may provide, who shall have the qualifications as herein prescribed for Justices of the Supreme Court, provided that the aggregate number of Judges of all the Courts of Civil Appeals shall never at one time exceed thirty-six. Each of the existing Courts of Civil Appeals shall continue until otherwise provided by law. The Courts of Civil Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of their respective districts, which shall extend to all civil cases of which the District Courts or County Courts have original or appellate jurisdiction, under such restrictions and regulations as may be prescribed by law; provided, that the decisions on all questions of fact brought before them on appeal error. Said Courts of Civil Appeals shall hold their sessions at such places as may be designated by the Legislature and at such times as may be prescribed by law. Said Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective districts, at a general election, for a term of six years, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. Said Courts shall have such other jurisdiction, original and appellate, as may be prescribed by law. Each Court of Civil Appeals shall appoint a Clerk in the same manner as the Clerk of the Supreme Court, which Clerk shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by law. The Judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals who may be in office when this amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment.

Section 7 (of Article V): The State shall be divided into as many Judicial Districts as may now or hereafter be provided by law, which may be increased or diminished by law. By each district there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, at a general election, a Judge who shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a licensed lawyer for four years next preceding his election and during that time shall have been a practicing lawyer or Judge of a Court of record or such practicing lawyer and Judge together who shall have resided in the District in which he was elected for two years next preceding his election, who shall reside in his District during his term of office, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and shall receive for his services such compensation as may be prescribed by law. He shall hold the regular terms of his Court at the County seat of each County in his district at least twice in each year, in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall have power, by general or special laws, to authorize the holding of special terms of the court or the holding of more than two terms in any County for the dispatch of business. The Legislature shall also provide for the holding of District Court when the Judge thereof is absent, or is from any cause, disabled or disqualified from presiding. The Supreme Court or the Chief Justice thereof may assign any District Judge to any District in the State other than that for which he was elected, with all the powers of a resident District Judge of the District to which he is assigned under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, or by the Supreme Court in the absence of such regulations enacted by the Legislature. The District Judges who may be in office when the amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment.

Sec. 2. Said proposed amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Monday in August A. D. 1927 at which each voter opposing said amendment shall scratch off of the ballot with pen or pencil the following words printed thereon: "For the amendment to the State Constitution amending Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V, of the Constitution of Texas for the purpose of providing a more efficient judicial system;" and each voter favoring said amendment shall scratch off of the ballot in the same manner, the following words printed thereon: "Against the amendment to the State Constitution amending Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V of the Constitution of Texas for the purpose of providing a more efficient judicial system." It shall appear from a return of said election that a majority of the votes cast have been cast in favor of said amendment, it shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue his proclamation calling said election and have the same published and said election held in accordance with this resolution and the Constitution and laws of this State; and return shall be made and the votes canvassed and counted as provided by law; and if said amendment is adopted by the required vote of the qualified electors of this State the Governor shall issue his proclamation as required by law.

Sec. 4. The sum of twelve thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for publication of the proclamation calling said election and any expense of the State in submitting said amendment and holding said election.

THIRTY-NINE YEARS of tube-building experience has proved to Dunlop that "cheap-tubes" do not pay.

That is why Dunlop tubes are made casing shaped. It costs a little more than to build them on a straight pole, as cheap tubes are built.

But a casing-shaped Dunlop tube is strong everywhere. The outside edge is not weakened by excess stretch. The side next to the rim has no wrinkles to crack with age and blow out. A Dunlop tube protects your casing, because it fits. And your casing is worth ten times the cost of the tube.

We strongly recommend a Dunlop tube for every casing

H. J. R. No. 25

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas amending Article VIII by the insertion of Section 1-a therein, authorizing the Legislature to provide for the separation of the objects of taxation for State purposes and for the support of the counties, districts and political subdivisions of the State and Counties, and authorizing the Legislature to provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax or other form of tax for State purposes only, and for local purposes, only; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the classification of objects of taxation and providing that rates shall be equal on the same class of property, and fixing limitations upon taxation.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by inserting therein Section 1-a, as follows:
