

AROUND A Town

Sights and Faces Seen

Maybe babies have been "frozen" too—that was the opinion of Judge W. H. Russell this week on learning that no 1943 baby had yet put in a claim for the bassinets donated by Bill Smith to the first new year representative.

Victory tax has certainly had people going in circles the past week—and the only real conclusion on the matter is that practically everyone who makes $12 a week or more, will be paying the new tax. Even the fact that a man owns a business and receives no stated salary does not exempt him—it simply means that he will pay the tax with his income tax at the end of the year.

Don't try to buy light bulbs from the light office any more. They can't sell 'em; in fact, they can't sell so much as a fuse. Chain store regulations have put them entirely out of the merchandise business and the office fence is open to suggestions as to how to use all the vast empty spaces. Suggestions so far—cocktail lounge and cot, flophouse, are not popular with anybody but the individual sponsors.

Mrs. Horace Schloss started work this week as assistant in the county tax collector's office. Mrs. Schloss is no newcomer to the work, having been employed in the sheriff and tax collector's office in Farmer County before her marriage.

Last February a brief Around Town item told of Reavis Kerr's, 16-year-old dog who still had a perfect set of teeth. This week E. B. Posey received a letter from out of the state, requesting a copy of the story; which proves that obscure information certainly gets around—or something.

Services This Afternoon For Morton Child

Funeral services are being held at three o'clock this afternoon at the Assembly of God Church for Kenneth Dan Morton, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morton, who died at 12:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Deaf Smith County Hospital.

The child had been ill for about two weeks, but his condition was not considered serious until a few days ago. His illness developed from complications following an attack of scarlet fever.

Rev. Homer T. Godwin, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, will be in charge of services and will be assisted by Rev. A. A. Daly. Burial will be in West Park Cemetery.

Survivors, besides the parents, are five sisters, Billy Joe, Betty Sue, Lee Etta, Edith Ann and Linda Kay.

New Series of Articles Gives Tips On New Federal Income Tax Rules

Editor's Note: Following is the first of a series of articles on the Federal income tax, with information of special value to the many persons who will be paying a tax for the first time this year. These articles are furnished by the Treasury Department and published by the Brand as a special service to readers.

What is Income Tax? The Federal income tax is, as the name implies, a tax levied upon incomes, and it is payable in relation to the amount of income. Income, for Federal income tax purposes, means in general any compensation for one's services, whether the compensation be in money or in goods or other services; it includes also the net value received for the product of one's labor, as farm produce in the case of a farmer; income from investments; profit from busi-

Renewed Hope For Migrant Labor Project

Renewed hope for the building of a migratory labor housing project in Deaf Smith County to help solve the manpower shortage in next summer's harvest was felt this week when a district official of Farm Security Administration indicated that the project is still under consideration and that chances for construction of housing facilities look good.

The Farm Security Administration has requested County Agent A. R. Bateman to work up data on the probable production of various crops in 1943, and it is thought that the figures will prove the county to be eligible for a housing project. Rough estimates are that at least 500 migrant laborers will be needed here during the potato season alone.

Money for the Farm Security program of transporting and housing farm labor has already been appropriated and the government sponsored plan is already in effect with good results in California, according to the F. S. A. spokesman.

Campaign for the farm labor housing unit was started here more than a year ago by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce and a brief setting forth the needs of the community in the way of labor housing was prepared but no action was secured on the plan last year though F. S. A. officials, at the time, seemed to view it favorably. However, with labor needs even more acute and with government pleas for increased production, it is thought the project has a better chance of acceptance this year.

Star Telegram To Carry Roto Page On Hereford

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram Sunday will carry a roto-gravure page on Hereford potatoes and onions, according to a letter received by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce this week.

New War Necessity Certificates Still Being Issued Here

Revised certificates of war necessity are still being worked out by the county farm transportation committee, and the district ODT office has announced that all applications for revision must be sent in this month.

If there remain any farmers who feel that their ODT certificate fails to give enough gas and mileage to carry out necessary farming operations, they should take the case to the county farm transportation committee which meets in the grand jury room at the courthouse each Wednesday.

The committee will be glad to consider each case and will try to correct cases where real hardship would result from present ODT rulings.

Enemy Would Like To Know Your "Military Secret" Information

If you know what ship a sailor is on, or what company or regiment a soldier is with overseas, then you know a military "secret." The Office of Censorship in Washington warns.

This secret ought not to be published. This is why:

A general needs to know the strength of his opponent; how many men, guns, ships, planes there are in each theatre of war.

Machine Quotas Listed For Year

Deaf Smith County's farm machinery quota, received this week by the county farm rationing committee, emphasizes—if emphasis were needed—that in the great majority of cases farmers will have to repair old machinery or otherwise improvise to do work with present equipment or quotas—just 13 tractors and four combines to mention only one class of equipment—will allow replacements only for the most urgent needs.

Following are the machinery quotas for the year:

ROW PLANTERS, Corn and cotton, tractor drawn, 5.

POTATO MACHINERY, Planters, 1; Diggers, 1; Sorters and graders, 1.

LISTERS (with and without planting attachments), 9.

Sewing Rooms Open And New Yarn Supply Ready

The Red Cross Sewing Rooms, which were closed during a two-week Christmas vacation, are open again and volunteer workers are asked to help with Red Cross sewing and knitting. The rooms are open each afternoon from Monday through Thursday.

There are plenty of sewing materials and a new supply of yarn has been received, according to Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath, Jr., knitting chairman, who asks that all ladies desiring to help with the knitting start work so that the shipment can be completed as soon as possible.

Junior Class Sponsors Week-End Show At Star

The Junior Class at Hereford High is sponsoring the picture, "My Sister Eileen," Sunday, Monday and Tuesday attraction at the Star, and requests theatre patrons to buy their tickets from some class member. The money raised will be used to help pay the expenses of the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

The picture, which stars Ronald Russell with Janet Blair, is one of the best comedies of the season.

Young People Hold New Year's Eve Watch Night Service

To ring out the old year and welcome in the New Year, a spiritual meeting of young people representing the Christian, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches, was held at the Methodist Church Thursday night.

A traditional sing-song of hymns opened the program for the watch-night service with the Rev. James Aiken, Jr., leading. Rev. Marvin Boyd led the program. Those taking parts were Margaret Olson, Rev. H. M. Redford, Rev. James Aiken, Marcela Blue and Mary Ann Ackers.

County Hits Bond Sale Top In December And For Year of '42

December with cash sales of $68,414, topped the 1942 bond purchase record in Deaf Smith County, Claude Ricketts, bond committee chairman, announced this week pointing out that this county undoubtedly has one of the best bond records in the State of Texas.

Total sales for 1942 amount to $343,422.25, with a maturity value of $463,601. Mr. Ricketts said, adding that this cash figure is nearly $50,000 more than the yearly quota originally set for the county. Quotas were later put on a monthly basis and Deaf Smith County came through by meeting or exceeding the quota for every month in the year, the bond committee chairman states.

Pointing out that the Deaf Smith County record was set up without the aiding factors of large industrial payrolls or big defense plants in the area, Mr. Ricketts states that the achievement was made possible by the splendid individual co-operation of all citizens.

No quota has yet been received for 1943, but changes in the quotas are expected, with increased bond sales the aim throughout the nation.

Kitten Smith Leaves Sunday For WAAC Duty

Miss Katherine (Kitten) Smith, first Hereford girl to enlist in the Woman's Army Auxiliary Corps, will leave Sunday for Lubbock, from where the entire group of Texas Rangerettes, recently recruited in the Panhandle, will leave for Ft. Des Moines, Ia.

Miss Smith hopes to take radio training, one of the most rapidly expanding fields of the work of the WAACs, but all members of the corps are unassigned and will be sent to special training after completing the basic course given all recruits.

A group of Hereford businessmen last week gave Miss Smith a wrist watch as a token of the community's pride in its first WAAC, and the local Business and Professional Women's Club plans a recognition service for the WAAC recruit before her departure for duty.

Cutting Off of Surplus Commodities Presents Big Problem To Cafeterias

Maintaining of school cafeterias will be entirely a local problem after March 1, it was pointed out today by Mrs. Dyathia Brady of the County Welfare Office who states that the order cutting off the distribution of surplus commodities, effective that date, will remove the last outside aid from the cafeteria projects, of which there are five in the county.

An earlier presidential order announced the end of all W. F. A. labor by March 1, and it will now be necessary that the local community pay all labor and food costs for their school cafeterias.

Furnished 50 Per Cent

Approximately 50 per cent of the food in the school lunches has been furnished by surplus commodities in the past, and in one school, Walcott, the surplus commodities furnished the entire lunch. Donations of food, Mrs. Brady states, went down sharply last year when the value of all foods contributed came to not more than $75; and donations have taken a sharp decline again this year. However, money donations to the projects have increased; and the greater number of paid lunches at the Central School Cafeteria in Hereford is helping to take up the slack left by the stoppage of Federal Aid.

More Paid Lunches

Concerning the Central Cafeteria, figures quoted reveal that an average of 175 lunches are served each day, with only 50 free lunches included. In the

Mobilization Meetings To Be Held In County

Stating that farm plan forms have not yet been received from the state AAA office and that no definite date has yet been set for farm mobilization day in Deaf Smith County, A. R. Bateman, county agent, stated this week that several community meetings will be held sometime this month to acquaint farmers with the purposes of the 1943 farm plans and to get individual plan sheets worked up correctly.

"This is not just another meeting," Mr. Bateman declares, "and I hope that when the dates for these community meetings are set, every farm family will attend. They will find the meeting definitely in their own interest."

The farm plan sheet, Mr. Bateman states, will give a picture of the manpower and machinery needs of every farmer, and an understanding of the plan and accurate filling out of the sheet may have an important bearing on the draft status of the farmer and his workers and of his opportunity to buy new machinery in 1943.

Clubs Will Help

Many clubs, Sunday School classes and other organizations have been very generous in helping the cafeterias in the past. Mrs. Brady states, and sponsors believe that sufficient local help will be found to continue the Central School Cafeteria; however, it will mean greater responsibility of all local organizations for a worthwhile local project and clubs and individuals should start thinking about the problem now. In the rural school cafeterias, at Dawn, Summerfield, Westway and Walcott, community leaders are already considering the problem and trying to work out a plan whereby the school lunch project may continue.

Conserve and Protect Them

ELECTRICAL DEALERS all over the country have limited stocks of appliances — and there will be no more for the duration, for manufacturers of these appliances are devoting their entire plants to war contracts.

FOR THIS REASON it is important to you that you do conserve and protect your appliances as much as possible. By this, we mean to use them when necessary — as always — but be careful to turn off the current when they are not in use.

When you want a New Appliance which you cannot buy, May we suggest that you buy WAR BONDS instead — for the appliances you'll want tomorrow.

photography, map reading, radio communications, sand table artistry, compass orientation, as well as specialized training in the utilization of almost every weapon used in modern warfare such as Garand rifles, tommy guns, trench mortars, knives, machine guns and secret weapons not yet divulged. However, the jumping part of the job can lead into plenty of excitement according to Private Brashear, who says that on his last night jump he landed in the top of an 80 foot pine. He salvaged a small scrap of his torn parachute silk for a souvenir, to add to a collection which includes the pipcord from a reserve chute which he had to use on his fourth jump, when the main chute failed to open. In all, he has been up in a plane 21 times and has not yet landed in one.

An interesting fact about the work of the paratroops included in newspaper clippings supplied by Private Brashear is the fact that everything a paratrooper needs is carried on the jump, from rations to spiritual guidance, for even the chaplain jumps with the men.

Brashear likes his work with the paratroops and is eager to get cross and put some of the training into real battle practice.

On his return trip to Ft. Benning, he visited a brother, Lt. Goldman T. Brashear, of Camp Robinson, Ark.

Marriage Causes Excitement
Last Wednesday at 5 o'clock, p. m., Ethel Morgan, while down town, met with Lloyd Blackwell whom the parents of the girl had prevented her from marrying for some time, and the two went at once to the home of Rev. C. E. Chambers and were at once married by him, after which they went to Blackwell's father's. Mr. Morgan was soon notified and armed himself and went on a hunt for them. Yesterday a complaint was filed against Mr. Morgan, who was arrested and requested to give a peace bond which he refused to do. He was then taken to jail and as yet still refuses to make the bond.

A court charge was made against Blackwell who was placed under $500 bond to stand trial for forgery. It is claimed both Blackwell and the girl are under age. Both would have shown much better judgement by waiting until they are of age.

Prince Hereford

Howdy folks, how're 'yal? Have you recovered from New Year's Eve enough to blink your pretty eyes, open your ears, close your mouth and listen to all I have to say? Speaking of blinking your eyes, you practically have to do it these days what with all the diamonds shining in the sun. I heard Ethel Urban-czk confide to her bosom pal the other day that she felt like an old maid already, and she's only 14. Vera Rae says every day when she comes to school, she wonders who will have a new engagement ring that day. Well, I must said on that score.

I may be wrong, but I'm firmly convinced that all high school girls have a plaid skirt, a sloopy Joe, and some saddle shoes. I've seen so many new sweaters lately. Have you noticed Marian Plummer's red cardigan? I have and I think it's a beauty. I noticed it in Pre-Flight class the same day I saw the frowns on Harold Clark's face. Investigation disclosed that nobody thoroughly understands that stuff—not even Miss Hall. The problem seems to be most—well, er—shall we say—disconcerting. No wonder Harold was worried. Women I'll never learn to understand them! Just the other day, I heard Aylene McLain singing, "I Don't Care What You Think Of Me," and then she turned right around and started singing, "Take Me."

The other day in Senior Home Rooms, the class noticed Mr. Kinard staring at Bruce Smith's feet. The class began to wonder what the curiosity was. After all, didn't Bruce have the regular number? Maybe he was bare-footed? No, that wasn't it either. After a little delay, while the class became more and more interested (after all, Seniors know that it isn't polite to stare) Mr. Kinard explained himself. It seems that Bruce was practically the only boy in the room that had on shoes instead of boots.

Can it be that Wanda Jean and Barbara Smith have gone on a diet? I haven't seen them at the drug store in two days. What's that I hear? Why K's Mary Ann Davis, and she's singing "I'm Old Fashioned." I must stop and listen because I know she's dedicating it to me—after all, I've been here longer than any of you.

Well, love and best wishes and I sincerely hope all of you pass your examinations because when you don't, you feel so bad you never tell me any news—and I just live off gossip.

Jrs. To Sponsor 'My Sister, Eileen'

"My Sister, Eileen," starring Rosiland Russell and that dashing hero, John Payne, will be showing at the Star Theatre on January 10th, 11th, and 12th. Three big days of good entertainment for the regular admission prices (naturally, plus tax).

Tickets will go on sale several days before the show and can be purchased from any member of the Junior class, provided that they haven't already sold theirs. This is to raise funds for the banquet, as if you hadn't already guessed it.

Speaking for the Juniors, we want everyone to come and enjoy the picture which, we promise, will be very entertaining for everyone.

Do You Alibi?

"But teacher I didn't have it!" I went to the show last night and didn't get home until late or "I had to get English or history and the assignment was so long" or yet "I forgot it." These seem to be the most widely used alibis in our school. Don't you feel sorry for the teachers who have to sit and listen to them given over and over again? It's enough to ruin anyone's sunny disposition. So don't wonder what the matter if your teacher should give you an hour or two for offering one of these excuses. I realize there can be good reasons for not having your work up in time, but the reason, "I forgot," is not one of these.

Another alibi nearly worn out is that old one "I was absent yesterday." Even if you were absent, this doesn't entitle you to be a visitor today. You could get some of your work in the second, fourth, or what ever period it happens to be when you have a study hall.

Let's all make one of our New Year's Resolutions to try to have fewer alibis. This may mean more studying, but that won't hurt any of us. Why not try it?

F. H. T. Enjoys Party

The F. H. T. met Thursday, December 31, at 7:30 for a New Year's Eve party at the high school gymnasium. Games of every sort were enjoyed. If you don't believe it, ask Pearl Prachar if her head is sore from pushing a pumpkin. Ask Marcella Blue or Ellen Posey if they broke a mirror or a tennis racket? Naomi Brumley or LaVone Lindsey should be able to tell you what becomes of songs when you mix all the titles together. After the party, the girls enjoyed a walk down town and refreshments in a drug store.

In Hereford High School, The Boy's Social Problems class is learning how to make some nice girl a good husband.

First, they learned about foods, vitamins and other essentials, then about the personality which did very little good. Then they took up the study of textiles and colors; this unit held the boys spellbound.

Now they have gone into the finer art of mastering the needle and thread. First, they learned to darn socks and then patch; now they are on the road to higher education; they get to do some real sewing. These thirteen boys are making aprons to use in the laboratory where they will learn to cook.

'Making Christ Real in 1943' Is Girls' Theme

"Making Christ Real in 1943" was the theme of the Tri-Hi-Y club program Thursday night in room 23. The program was under the leadership of Phyllis Radovich.

The program opened with the singing of "Ring Out the Bells." Arline Millard read the Scripture, Philippians 3: 13-15. Wanda Lee-Lloyd gave a short summary of what had happened in 1942. She cleverly brought out the fact that even if there is war, unhappiness, bloodshed, and rationing there still are freedom, equality, and friendship to be thankful for.

Marie Compton very interestingly told of ways of "Making Christ Real in 1943." Marie told the girls that they would have to "Read Christ's word to know Him better through it. Use the freedom of praying and talking to Christ, and when Christ is made real in the United States and the world, there will be a lasting eternal peace."

Using much expression, Mary Ruth Russell read "Another Year." Each girl was then called on to give a resolution which she plans to make for 1943. Miss Crawford led the girls in prayer followed by the Tri-Hi-Y benediction.

Santa Delivers Rings To Good Little Girls

What happened during the Christmas holidays? Santa Claus and cupid evidently got their dates mixed up, because instead of the usual Christmas gifts, several girls in Hereford High School are wearing engagement rings. The wedding bells have already tolled for two of our girls: Evelyn Walker and Mary Ruth Gilson walked off with two available bachelors. Most any time now Lucy and Guyeth will have the knot tied. And what about Jerry and her Marine? I guess that one will have to wait. Jean Williams showed up at school Wednesday morning with a brand new ring on "that finger." Juanita Wiseman surprised everybody with a good looking diamond, and "Rosie" Robertson is just weak with joy over hers. There is an old saying which goes "The two best topics for conversation are talking shop and making love." We don't doubt this a bit, but it seems that love got the best deal, instead of shop in Hereford High. The biggest surprise of it all is the "sparkler" Miss McCaslin is wearing. It nearly puts our eyes out with its radiance. Who's the lucky guy, teacher?

Now, you lucky gals, it's up to you to give the rest of us a hint on how you rated them. Naturally, we would like to know, because everyone wants to be as happy as we know you will be.

Public Opinion

Here is Public Opinion on what the teachers of Hereford High School think of the football team of 1942.

McCaslin—I think it's the best ever.

Rigler—I think it's the swellest bunch of boys that we've ever had.

Crawford—I think we've had the best group of boys we've had in years in attitude and class work and I'm not at all surprised at their winning.

Hudson—Why bring that up? Everybody knows that, don't they?

Adams—They are just plain good.

Davies—They are a fine bunch of fellows and a grand team.

Kirby—Sounds like the best yet, to me.

Holston—The most wonderful boys I've ever known.

Easter—I think they had a grand team—and they are a bunch of all-round good fellows.

Hancock—It's wonderful. Wish we could have gone state.

Smith—Well, I think they did a good job beating Phillips and Wellington. Don't you? I think we have the best balanced team we've ever had.

Emmons—Best bunch of boys I've ever worked with, fast, hard-charging, easy to handle. In short, a keen bunch of kids.

Hall—It's a good team. I think the boys deserve a lot of congratulations.

Kinard—I think it's the best team in the country.

Ramey—Oh, I think it's wonderful.

Stanton—A bunch of boys who

Library Gets New Furniture

"Something new has been added." The library reading room now has tables instead of desks. There are three new tables and eighteen new chairs. There is a new desk and chair for the librarian. All the new furniture is of light oak.

Four sections of shelving have been moved from the stack room and placed along the south wall of the reading room. In these shelves have been put fiction, geography and travel, and bibliography. Students are permitted to take any of these books from the shelves for examination in the reading room, and if they wish to read them, they may be checked out for seven days.

The magazine racks are now in the reading room, too. The students check out the magazines for themselves and are free to use any of them in the reading room. Any old issues of periodicals are available but must still be called for at the charging desk.

Many reference books have been placed on the shelves in the reading room. These are to be used in the reading room only.

All the facilities of the library are now more readily available, and it is a challenge to every wide-awake student to make use of the books, magazines, and papers for profit and pleasure. One of the basic differences between a democracy and a dictatorship is in the freedom to pursue knowledge. Therefore, students of Hereford High School, use this opportunity that nothing but a democracy offers!

Sophs Display Ability

Instead of a business session, the Sophomores had a program at the regular meeting Wednesday. Billy London and Charles Skelton had charge of proceedings.

First on the program was Beverley Fraser, who modeled a housecoat for Delmo Williams; this was a sight if there ever was one. Emmett Saxon imitated Mr. Emmons in one of his classes, having as his pupils Lloyd Manjeot, Leroy Foster, and Noelle-Elliston.

A big laugh came when Edward Roberson, who was a German general, met Myers Hudson, who was a Japanese general. After this excitement, Mr. Stanton, one of the sponsors, gave a very dignified talk on "bed bugs." If you have never seen "country Hicks" who come to town, you missed a real opportunity when you failed to see V. C. Hopson and David Phillips on the streets of New York City. All of this may have been amateur acting, but the Sophomores have possibilities of becoming real professionals.

Central Chatter

SA is glad to have Cordelia Hutcheson from Oklahoma. Louise Morrison, who went to Borger several weeks ago is back with us again. Joe Billy Bridges has withdrawn. We are sorry to lose Betty Jeanne McBrayer, who has moved to Canyon.

During the month of December, pupils of Room 5A bought $138.85 worth of Defense Bonds and Stamps.

Zola Faye McBrayer, pupil in 7A, has withdrawn to move to Canyon.

Just in case you didn't already know it, Miss Woodfin isn't teaching at Central any more. Mrs. Brunson has taken her place. Oh, pardon me! I supposed you knew that Miss Woodfin became Mrs. Brunson during the holidays.

Council Feels Xmas Caroling Big Success

The student council wishes to express its thanks to the girls who worked on the caroling and to the Tri-Hi-Y for making the caroling and school party a success. A committee of three, consisting of Beverley Fraser, Thurman Williamson, and Ellen Posey, were appointed to draw up a resolution which will be put into the constitution of the council stating that the caroling and school party is to be a tradition to be carried on each year in school.

wanted to win and could go hard in pinches—in other words—champs.

Virgina Curtisinger resolves to grow shorter in '43—more like Mr. Five by Five, instead of 6 by 2.

Mr. Hudson stressed the fact to impress upon the students in each class that it is the students advantage to make to the council suggestions of any kind, concerning the school.

The 1942 team was built a round nine let er men. Four were backs.—Red Merrill, Lloyd Olson; George Weems, Donald Roberson, and five were linemen.—Danny Russell, Foster Hill, Lloyd Manjeot, Earl Hussey, and Clyde Brock; from the 1941 squad, or spring training, were Thurman Williamson and Luther Worley, backs; Ted Higgins, George Olson, Carl Johnson, Kenneth Rudd, Carl Hennington, V. C. Hopson and Paul Dishman, (a newcomer), were linemen. Not yet ready for district competition but very essential to developing the team are Billy London, J. W. Robinson, Harold Rudd, Charles Skelton, and Gale Rogers. It was evident from the first that reserves would be scarce, for the squad averaged about twenty-four boys throughout the season and of these only six were backs. We are very lucky to have had no serious injuries, as one or two to regular players would have wracked our season.

With but three days' workout we took on Canadian, training at Canyon, for a practice scrimmage. They were neither so big nor so experienced as the previous fall when they pinned our ears back in the same type of scrimmage. We returned the compliment 19-0, a score not figured in the season's total.

We took each opponent seriously, expecting no set-ups and played accordingly. In succession this team took Olton 13-0; Dimmitt 32-0; Panhandle 39-0; Friona 84-0; and Tulla 59-0 to finish the district schedule without having their goal line crossed.

The Phillips game was probably the peak of the season because of the intense rivalry between the two teams. These boys have had in their minds the possibility of another crack at the Black Hawks every since last year. To snap Phillips' winning streak at 33 games, two won from us, and take the bi-district title, —that was really something.

All this does not mean that the Wellington game was an anticlimax. We beat a real team when we won from them in a hard game, yet, one played without a single penalty being called.

Picks All District Team

There has been talk of selecting an all-district team. My choice would be: RUSSELL, LE; MANJEOT, LT; HUSSEY, LG; DAMERON, C; BROCK, RG; RUDD, RT; HILL, RE; MER-

WELL, Q; WORLEY, L.H;

WEEMS, RH; L. OLSON, FB. In addition, it would include Ted Higgins and Geo. Olson, reserve guards, and Donald Roberson, reserve back. That's an unusual selection, but none of the opponents had better boys than these.

No Individual Stars

There were no individual stars, as such; it was a team of them. All of them can block, all of them can tackle, all of them know their assignments and can carry them out. Everybody was for the other fellow and the team, and it made no difference to them who did the scoring as long as we were going places. In eight games they scored 280 points to their opponents 7, an average of 35 per game to the oppositions' 7-8. It is interesting to know who scored these: Merrill made 90 points; Russell, 44; Weems, 43; Worley, 38; Olson, 37; Hill, 15; Roberson, 6; Williamson, 6. But don't forget who made that all possible—all of them and especially that line, seven tough, hard charging babies up in front. The opponents' score tells the story of what the defense was like. Another admirable thing about these fellows is that they still wear the same size hats that they did last September.

This account is too brief to give credit due the individual boys, but the linemen rate a word of praise. Danny Russell and Foster Hill at ends didn't take "NO" for an answer when opponents started flank plays. The game Manjeot and Rudd played at Phillips alone would entitle them to be all-district tackles. Dishman and Johnson were double-tough on defense, and a coach just couldn't ask for two better high school guards than "Scrap Iron" Hussey and Clyde Brock, nor two better reserve guards than Ted Higgins and Geo. Olson. Bill Dameron made a fine center. His favorite meat on defense was short passes over the middle. This little mention of the linemen is made because all spectators see what the backs do but rarely see what happens in the line.

No Forecast For Next Year

Handling these champions with the cooperation and help received has made this year the easiest, most pleasant in any of the many years of going to the football wars. Nobody can foresee what the situation in athletics will be for next season.

NEWS in the WORLD of RELIGION by W.W. REID

Secretary of State Cordell Hull has informed the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church that he has confirmed through official channels the cabled accounts of the recent interment of Bishop Ralph A. Ward, of Chicago, in Shanghai. He says, however, that the Rev. William B. Burke, missionary in Sungkiang, Kutien, and the Rev. Dwight L. Sheretz, of Shanghai, who were interned by the Japanese at the same time as was Bishop Ward, have since been released and are now in Shanghai.

American soldiers and sailors in Alaska can celebrate Christmas on two different occasions and in two different manners this winter if they so desire. The first Christmas, for Protestant and Catholic Christians, was of course on December 25. But the second comes twelve days later on January 5—there comes the Christmas of the Greek Orthodox Church, the Russian Christmas. A feature of this celebration is the taking of the "winter bath" in the half-buried stone hut back of the native home. The hut is a sort of turkish bath, filled with steam from a tub of water heated by the insertion of hot stones... and then on Christmas day everyone is faultlessly clean and dressed in their best for the service at the church.

Twenty-four of the languages spoken on the Solomon Islands by the native peoples were first reduced to writing by missionaries, and then some part of the Bible was published in those tongues. In six of the languages the entire Bible has been published: Bugota of Yumbel Island; Uluwa of Uluwa Island; and Sas, Malu and Lae dialects of Malaka Island. The Gospels and the Book of Acts have been published in Vaturana, and selections of these in Logu—both tongues used on Guadalcanal Island.

"We are on the eve of the greatest opportunity for the expansion of Christianity that we have ever known," according to Dr. Ralph E. Diffendorfer, secretary of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church. "To think of Christianity in the post-war world in any other terms than global strategy would simply be foolish and futile. It is encouraging that, by and large, the leaders of the World mission of the church realize this. Word comes to us from every land of conferences, of research and resultant findings, of books and pamphlets, of addresses, and of lectures of attempts to create and organize public opinion in order that the church might expand its thinking, its outlook, and its activities until it becomes a vital force in the re-making of the world."
