'Too Many Straws Drain The Glass', Water Expert Tells Rotary Members

Irrigation, and the need of far-sighted planning toward water conservation, was the subject discussed by Bob Thurmond, irrigation engineer from Lubbock, when he spoke before the Hereford Rotary Club and their guests Monday.

Comparing Deaf Smith County's vast underground water supply to the dwindling supply of farmers on the South Plains, Thurmond pointed out that water for irrigation is one of the most precious resources available to us today, and urged both farmers and business men to take more interest in the planning and conservation of irrigation water.

"Too Many Straws"

Ten percent of the cotton produced in the United States is grown in a comparatively small area in Texas, Thurmond pointed out, adding that this is due to irrigation. But "too many straws in the glass" and wasteful use of our irrigation water will eventually deplete our supply, he said.

to the point where we, like many other farmers not too far from Hereford, will be thankful if we can pump 200 gallons per minute. Thurmond backed up his statements on irrigation with color slides of farms around Hereford and further south, showing problems of the irrigation farmer and methods used in solving them.

Thurmond concluded his discussion by pointing out that "good crops don't just happen", but are planned; also that through proper planning, maximum benefits can be derived from a smaller amount of water.

Two Men Injured As Car Overturns

Samuel Duane Teague, 21, and John Fredrick Boeckman, 17, both of Dimmitt, were still under observation in the Deaf Smith County hospital Wednesday following an automobile accident Tuesday afternoon, which completely demolished their 1948 Dodge coupe. The accident occurred around 6 o'clock, just on the outskirts of the east city limits of Hereford on Highway 60. The car overturned three times.

The boys, suffering numerous head injuries in the form of cuts and bruises, were rushed to the Deaf Smith hospital and were today being held for observation in connection with possible internal injuries. Their condition was reported, however, as "not critical".

The automobile, reported several times as driving "very fast" between Canyon and Hereford, was headed west when the accident occurred. Highway Patrolman Joe Culp said that the car was making around 70-miles-per-hour when they passed a car of Latin Americans on the right hand side, just in front of the machine shop, one-half mile east of the city limits. The car apparently hit the loose gravel beside the road and the

4-H Family Night Is Slated Friday

Plans were complete today for Deaf Smith's annual 4-H Family Night, scheduled at 8 o'clock Friday, Aug. 20, according to County Agent Hugh Clearman, who said that the style show including dresses from the recent 4-H contests will be modeled as a special attraction. The gathering will be held on the Central School patio and plans are being made to accommodate 100 persons. The event is open to the public.

The style review will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, following which will be a 4-H party. Fruit punch and cookies will be furnished by persons attending and games will be the chief feature of the gathering.

The following committees were listed in connection with the evening: Refreshments—Patsy Townsend, Larry Kaul, Helen Parsons, and J. C. Morrison; Clean Up—Patricia Caywood, Mrs. Johnnie Townsend, Pat Dawson, Ann Dyer, Lois Sullivan, Pete Plank, Argen Draper, Ira Ott, and Hugh Clearman; PA System—Martha Logan and Hugh Clearman; Song Leaders—Martha Logan and Larry Kaul; Active Games—Ann Dyer, Donna Sue Guseman, Mrs. Bessie Sautsey, Jimmie Northcutt. Patricia Caywood will have charge of "get-acquainted" games; Mrs. Ira Ott, "quiet games", and Pat Dawson will lead some special songs.

Mr. Boardman died Monday afternoon in the Deaf Smith County Hospital following an illness of several days.

Came Here In 1908

He was born August 30, 1902, in Kansas and came to Hereford from Kansas with his parents in 1908. Since that time he has been a permanent resident of this county. August 11, 1924, he married Lorraine Talbot in Dimmitt.

Since moving to this county he has farmed on what is known as the Boardman place, three miles south and east of Hereford, and other farms in this vicinity which have been owned by Boardmans at different times.

He was an active member of the Assembly of God Church.

Boardman of Hereford; three sons, Daniel of Albuquerque, Jimmy of Ardmore, Okla., and Bobby of San Antonio; a daughter, Mrs. Mike Watkins of Albuquerque; two brothers, Glenn and Herbert D. of Hereford; two sisters, Mrs. L. ### City Speeds Up Garbage Collections; Asks Help In Fight To Combat Polio

To combat any possible spread of Polio in this community, the City of Hereford this week stepped up all handling of garbage, doubled the spraying program—and asked town-wide co-operation in a voluntary clean-up drive to eliminate hazards which might contribute to the spread of polio.

"A meeting of all garbage collectors and handlers was called Monday morning," said City Manager Cecil Massey. "From now on garbage will be collected in all residences once each week, and more often when possible. He also asked assistance of all residents in that they would place grass clippings, trash and other similar refuse in cardboard boxes next to garbage barrels.

"This makes it possible to handle garbage twice as fast as if the material has to be collected with shovels," said Massey. "We are also asking each resident and each business firm to clean up their alleys, clear them of weeds and trash." A city ordinance imposes a possible fine of $200 for failure to comply with this ordinance, but Massey said that no trouble was anticipated along this line, since most of the people are eager and willing to co-operate.

"There are also numerous garbage barrels which need replacing," he pointed out. "Flies can get in through holes or through rusted out, bottoms of the barrels, thus creating a real hazard." He said that the city will deliver barrels for $2.50 and barrel lids for $2.50, which is actual cost to the

The youngsters were excited, of course, but their enthusiasm was secondary to that of R. M. Gunn and "Monty" Montford, both of whom assisted as counselors last year—and freely admitted, "I wouldn't miss it for anything this year."

At long last, a mistake we didn't make ourselves. The following names were omitted from the teacher list through error: Mrs. Billye Margaret Buck, history in high school; Mrs. Lottie Werthenberger, fifth grade, and Mrs. J. W. Wheelan, home-making, junior high.

We did have a lulu of our own, however, in a headline that read: "Wedding Follows Pink and Blue Shower"—but caught it after only 320 papers had gone out. The error came about when the shop boys picked up a line from a wedding item and accidentally placed it on top of the shower heading.

New CC Manager Was Busy Man In Graham Chamber

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lenderman were visiting in Hereford this week, prior to their moving here Aug. 30, when Mr. Lenderman will take over his duties as new Manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. They have leased the house occupied by Gaylord Mullins, former manager, at 1011 Park, and have completed arrangements for "being on the job" Sept. 1.

The Lendermans plan to spend the next week vacationing, probably in Colorado. The Graham Chamber of Commerce, however, despite Mr. Lenderman's resignation to accept the position in Hereford.

In addition to previous material concerning Hereford's new CC manager, the following article, which appeared in the Graham Leader of Aug. 12, reviews some of his activities since he went to Graham in March, 1953. The article reads:

Water Resources

During the past year, Lenderman was instrumental in many local civic projects. He worked extensively on the proposed lake project to increase the municipal water supply, and worked with the City and County in filing the protest with Congressmen opposing the proposed 15-foot raising of Possum Kingdom Lake Dam as being detrimental to the City because of the lack of flood protection from the Brazos Authority.

Lenderman also instituted the community breakfasts April 2, 1953. Working with C. of C. groups, Lenderman assisted in bringing to the city a public relations course offered by the University of Texas Extension Service, and assisted the Jaycees in the Christmas tree decorations.

Booster Trips

"He also promoted trade territory relations, and working with the Sports and Recreation committee, sponsored booster trips to neighboring cities. The highway committee of the C. of C. secured improvements on Highway 24 between Graham and Jacksboro.

"Membership in the Chamber of Commerce increased 32%, and 26% in revenue last year as the

Small Girl, Playing Near Irrigation Well, Killed Instantly In Accident

Cute, vivacious little Joyce Ann Lancaster, four-year-old daughter of the young Dimmitt farm couple, lost her life Sunday afternoon at 7:25 o'clock, when she was struck by an automobile on a fresh-graded farm road near the Lancaster home, one-half mile north and 1 mile east of Dimmitt.

Raymond Gene Crum, 21, also of Dimmitt, was driving his automobile west into the sun and said that he did not see the little girl until after the impact. He turned back immediately and carried her to the hospital in Dimmitt, but she was dead on arrival.

The little girl had gone with her parents to change the water at an irrigation well near their home, and while her parents were busy making the change, she had wandered into the nearby road to play. Mrs. Lancaster witnessed the accident. She glanced up, saw the car coming, and started scream-

Paving Program To Include More Area

Outdoor Toilets Banned By City

Detail problems concerning zoning questions, paving extensions and delinquent taxes kept the Hereford City Commission in session until 12:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The group also took definite steps toward elimination of outdoor toilets, three of which were reported as still being in use in the city.

Approve More Paving Cedar Street, located on the west extremity of Westhaven Addition, was accepted in the current paving program. Unpaved portions of Avenue I and Avenue B were also included in the program, despite the fact that three gaps will be left in the surfacing as the result of owners failing to participate in the program.

An appeal for special permission to burn their own trash was denied the Hereford State Bank. The bank proposed to construct an incinerator for burning of spoiled balance sheets, which they said could not be placed in trash containers, since the sheets carried names of depositors and might be removed or blown around over town. The commission based their refusal on grounds that the procedure would hike local insurance rates, since it was contrary to fire regulations.

No action was taken on an appeal to close the alley back of Magnolia wholesale and a Gault warehouse between Sampson and Schley, block 9. The commission proposed "further investigation" on the appeal.

To Crack Down

Delinquent taxes also claimed a portion of the five-hour session. The commission advised City Attorney Ernest Langley to continue preparation for filing suit on persons owing some $28,124 in delinquent personal and property taxes to the city. Work was reported as still in progress on compiling the complete list. The commission proposed definite action as soon as the lists are complete.

Letters, written to three persons owning outdoor toilets within the city limits of Hereford, were also reviewed. The letters, mailed Aug.

6, pointed out that previous notice had been given. They also gave the owners 30 days in which to remove the toilets, cover the pits and install modern plumbing. Failure to comply will result in the filing of suits in accordance with existing City Ordinances, the letters said.

The commissioners again delayed action on employment of a City Engineer, previously discussed.

Three applicants were reported to be on file, but lack of time prevented the group from making the necessary investigations prior to filling the post.

The group also discussed questions concerning the proposed zoning regulations for Hereford. No changes were made on the original proposals, however, and no additional action was taken along this line.

Two Farm Roads Cost $192,000

Work got underway this week on two Farm-to-Market road projects in this county which call for an estimated expenditure of $192,000—and which will result in 13 and one-half miles of additional surface work.

Fill on Harrison The State Highway Department is also preparing to move 175,000 yards of dirt to fill embankments on Harrison Highway to avoid flooding of this road. The fills will be made on roadbed adjacent to the Ponder Lake, 13 miles west, and the G. W. Brumley Lake, 22 miles west. Both of these points have resulted in diversion of traffic as a result of high water, including one period this year.

Wyche Extension Dirt work is scheduled to start today on eight miles of surface work in the Wyche Community, according to M. V. York, Senior Resident Engineer. The road will be titled "RFM 1259". Contractors said that they hope to get the base down and apply asphalt on this eight miles before the weather becomes too cold to permit surfacing.

The Wyche road will connect with the present paving, extend one mile north, three miles south, then four miles east. Total cost is estimated at $92,200.

WHAT A MAN!

City Policeman Gets "Ticket" For Close Driving; Attitude is "Good"

Clyde E. Barker got a traffic ticket here Saturday—and it reminds us of an old newspaper proverb, which says: "If a man bites a dog—that's news!"

Clyde Barker, you see, is a city patrolman, who generally hands out tickets, rather than receiving them. Furthermore, he was in the police patrol car when his traffic accident occurred.

Barker was driving slowly in the heavy traffic Saturday evening at 8:45 o'clock between Third and Fourth Street on Main. He apparently glanced toward the sidewalk for just a second—and "Wham!" He smashed into the rear of a pickup driven by Josea D. Garga. The pickup was not damaged, but approximately $101 was suffered on the front of the patrol car.

Police Chief Leo Box investigated the accident and charged Barker with "following too close". Also checked on the ticket was the little box entitled "Attitude Good", which, at least, places Mr. Barker in an almost exclusive fraternity among drivers who receive traffic tickets—especially in view of the fact that patrolmen, in such case, are required to pay their own fines.

Bybees Back From Father's Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Owen L. Bybee, 107 West Sixth Street, returned Monday night from Childress where they attended the funeral of Mr. Bybee's father, Mac C. Bybee, 82.

The funeral was held Monday morning in the Newberry Funeral Home Chapel.

A resident of Childress since 1905, Mr. Bybee died Saturday morning at the Twilight Rest Home. He was born April 20, 1872, at Summersdale, Ky., and moved to Childress from his native state.

Other survivors include: his wife, Mrs. Myrta Bybee; another son, M. D. Bybee of Amarillo; two daughters, Mrs. Raymond Hander of Windthorst and Mrs. L. D. Ratliff of Spur; one brother, Joe Bybee of Higgins, and nine grandchildren.

JUNIOR CITY GOLF CHAMPION of 1954, Charles Seed, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Seed, 129 Star Street, is seen working out on the Hereford greens. Charles won the event Sunday afternoon in a 36 hole medal play. He had two 18 hole rounds of 78 and 84 for a total of 162 and first place. A sophomore in high school, Charles has been playing golf for about four years, since he and two of his friends became interested in the game. His ambition for the future is to become a professional golfer. Charles is employed at the Pro Shop at the golf course during the summer and on Saturdays during the school term. (Staff Photo)

In addition, the spraying program already in process will be doubled during the next few weeks. The City will cut weeds at intersections—and, when desired, will cut weeds on vacant lots at a cost of $3 each. Persons interested in barrels, lids or mowing service should call 222.

"We are having lots of telephone calls since announcement of the polio case here," Massey said. "We believe that these steps are the answer to combatting polio—and we urge every citizen to join the City in a voluntary "clean-up" campaign."

The other surface project is located in the Boatleg Community and likewise connects with paving. This road FM 1412, joins the paving at Boatleg corner. It will extend south of the county line. A bridge on this road will replace the old county bridge across Tierra Blanca, and will increase cost on the project. The new bridge will be concrete with steel piling. Total cost on this road is estimated at $99,900.

Completion dates cannot be predicted accurately, Mr. York said, since completion depends upon construction progress, weather conditions and other factors. He said, however, that completion will be made as rapidly as possible.

Police thought that it turned onto its back, then started rolling. The car, completely demolished, was reported to have travelled 717 feet, while out of control.

Boeckman was apparently thrown from the car after it had traveled around 66 feet. Teague, the driver rode the full distance, however, before being thrown out. His body was picked up a few feet beyond the wrecked car.

Both men were said to have been employed on an elevator construction job in Dimmitt. Boeckman is from O'Keene, Okla., and Teague's mother, Mrs. M. M. Pickett, is a resident of Panhandle, Texas.

Camp Fire Girls Trap Bull Snake, But Avoid Skunk

By Mrs. Homer Brumley
INLOW YOUTH CAMP, Tajique, N. M., Aug. 17—Eighty-nine girls and 24 other camp personnel arrived at camp by mid-afternoon Monday. All campers were settled in their quarters before supper, which included the annual introduction to wilderness hash, a great favorite among campers.

At evening pow-wow everyone showed signs of being sleepy, so the program was short and to the point with Sheila Williams and Linda Kay Noland leading the singing. Most of the campers were asleep before Betty and Dolly Paetzold finished making the rounds playing and singing taps.

Outside of a few minor disturbances such as a skunk in the staff house, a skimpy thunder shower and one or two cases of homesickness during the night, things went along nicely until Reveille was played on the trombone by Phyllis Goetsch Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock.

Tuesday Afternoon Now lunch is over and everyone is resting except your weary reporter, who spent Tuesday in the kitchen. The kids eat like a bunch of harvest hands. No doubt their mothers would be shocked at the amount of food consumed. Eight boxes of Bisquick makes a lot of biscuits!

Everyone is looking forward to the Manzano Field Trip Wednesday. We plan to visit a 300-year-old apple orchard and some Spanish mission ruins.

From Camp Paper These bits of news were taken from the camp paper and might give everyone a pretty good idea of the excitement at camp.

"We have a pet (7) bull snake. It seems as though Janie Bookout found him. She stepped on his head and caused screams which were heard at both ends of the canyon."

"I bet no one knows who, which, or what rolled a pebble down the hall of the staff house Monday night."

"Two bats flew in Cabin 2 Monday night. They call it Bat Cabin."

"Linda Edwards fell off her bunk Monday night."

"There was a lizard on the wall of Cabin 4."

"Janie Bookout stepped on the head of a three and one-half foot bull snake about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning."

"Cabin 4 smells like a skunk. One was killed outside the door before we arrived."

"Coleen Reeves posed for a picture with Sammy, the bull snake, around her neck. Elmer Patterson carried it that way all morning."

"It seems that some of the girls are writing boys' names on their name plates."

Lions Club Hears Highway 51 Talk

Predicting that Highway 51 will carry as much tourist traffic as Highway 60, right from the start, A. J. Schroeter Wednesday stressed importance of the new road when he spoke before the Hereford Lions Club at noon Wednesday.

Schroeter said that the new bridge, which spans the Canadian north of Vega, will be officially dedicated Sept. 26, and urged all citizens to take part in the dedication program.

"Our present great problem is getting Highway 51 designated as a Federal Highway," he said. "Hereford's quota is 40 members for the association - - and we need all of the assistance possible to do our part, since there are very few businesses on Highway 51 at the present time."

Schroeter also reviewed state statistics on travel dollars. He cited each tourist as spending 26 cents with "uptown merchants" along Main Street, in addition to indirect spending through other channels. He said Texas had a total of 7,573,000 tourists in 1953 and that they drove 2,805,000 cars into Texas, remaining an average of five and one-half nights in the state. California was listed first, followed in order by Louisiana, Illinois, New York, Oregon and Ohio. The average tourist spent $7.10 per day or $20.54 for the party.

It HAS BEEN SAID that girls who attend the annual Camp Fire camp certainly "put away the biscuits." The girls above are seen making biscuits for Tuesday lunch - - and it looks as if they might be able to verify the statement. Seems the outdoor air really helps the girls appetites, all except those whose turn it is for work in the kitchen. From the left are: Nona Marie Strange, Linda Hair, Dolly Paetzold, Linda Parker and Betty Ford. (Elmer Patterson Photo)

Mexico's Best' Is Pitted Against Texas' 'Toughest' At The Bull Barn

No "barber work" is anticipated for the wrestling matches at Hereford's Bull Barn as was the case last week, but four sturdy athletes will square off in a double main event that should furnish plenty of "legitimate" action. That is, wrestling without the shaves.

Glen Betton of Salt Lake City returns to meet a newcomer, King Kong Cox, Jr., of Chicago, in the first part of the double main.

Each match is scheduled for two best falls of three or to a one-hour time limit.

Dillingham Clan Attends Reunion

BLACK—Children, relatives and friends of Mrs. Mollie Dillingham met at Littlefield, Saturday and Sunday, for a family reunion.

Detton defeated Elmer "Peavey" Larsen of Canada's British Columbia last week and took not only the prize money but forced the former lumberjack to submit to a shave which removed his prize-winning whiskers.

Guerrero is a tournament entry, and one of the favored ones to beat out first in a race of more than 20 athletes involved in an elimination process to determine a successor to Dory Funk.

$230 Damage In Two Collisions

Approximately $230 damage resulted from two collisions in the city limits of Hereford Sunday afternoon and Sunday night.

The first accident occurred Sunday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock on Park Avenue, 30 feet west of Avenue D.

Oliver C. Harriman of Texico, driving a 1950 Mercury, was going east on Park Avenue when Arliss Edwards, driving a 1954 Mercury, attempted to back out from the curb and collided with the right rear fender of the 1950 Mercury.

About $50 damage was done to the 1950 Mercury and about $30 damage was done to the 1954 Mercury. Edwards was charged with failure to grant the right of way.

Second Accident Sampson Street 100 feet north of Highway 60 was the scene of the second accident which occurred Sunday night about 10:30 o'clock.

W. T. Skaggs, driving a 1938 Ford, was parked on the 100 block on Sampson and a 1953 Plymouth driven by Paul Dishman turned off of Highway 60 onto Sampson. In making the turn his right wheel locked and he skidded into the rear fender of the Ford, according to police reports.

Growers 'Keep Fingers Crossed' On Estimated 4,500 Acres of Lettuce

With potato harvest well on its way to becoming past history, produce farmers this week turned their attention toward the 1954 lettuce and sugar beet crops, both of which are generally harvested in October and both of which are pronounced as "looking good".

Observers estimate the '54 lettuce planting at between 4,000 and 5,000 acres—slightly more than half of that in 1953. Lettuce is reported to be in "all stages of growth" with some "just up" and one or two fields which may even be harvested between Sept. 15 and Oct. 1. Tracts, likewise, are irregular in size; some are very small and others run into gigantic size, along with numerous 40 to 50-acre seedings.

Growers, who still shudder when you mention "last year", say that it is impossible to predict the outcome of the current crop at the present time. However, growing conditions, to date, have been good. Outcome of the crop, too, depends upon the market price at the time of harvest.

Sugar beet acreage, about the same as in 1953, measures 9447 acres this year, according to ASCS records. Beets were also reported as looking good at the present time.

Castor beans, popular here a few years back, are now apparently out of the picture. No record,

RALPH YARBOROUGH

Should Be Our NEXT GOVERNOR

HE IS EXPERIENCED — Judge Yarborough, grandson of a Confederate officer, was born in 1903 at Chandler, Henderson County, Texas. After graduating from Tyler High school and Sam Houston State Teachers College, Ralph Yarborough went on to graduate with highest honors in 1927 from the University of Texas Law School.

Loved and respected by his fellow lawyers, he was selected President of the Travis County Bar Association, Director of the State Bar of Texas, member of the Editorial Board of the Texas Law Review, a member of the Texas State Board of Examiners, Director of the National Association of Law Examiners, a member of the American Law Institute.

As a combat veteran with the 97th Infantry Division in World War II, serving under Eisenhower and Patton in Europe and later as a military governor under MacArthur in Occupied Japan, Judge Yarborough won commendations and awards for his services in both theatres of war and is a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He understands and will work for Veterans Rights.

Believing in the individual's responsibilities to his community, Judge Yarborough has been a willing volunteer worker in many community efforts, especially in financial drives for the Boy Scouts of America and other worthwhile organizations.

HE HAS A CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM

- EDUCATION — Judge Yarborough believes that Texans deserve the best. "Texans can afford for her children the best public school and college systems in the world, and at the same time lessen the tax burdens on homes, farms and small businessmen. The cost of going to college must be kept within the reach of every Texas boy and girl."
- OLD AGE ASSISTANCE — Judge Yarborough stands for removal of the constitutional ceiling so as to permit payments large enough for our older citizens to live decently.
- HEALTH — Ralph Yarborough believes that the entire public health program should be strengthened and expanded. We must provide better treatment for the sick people in state mental hospitals, special schools and tuberculosis hospitals. Texas deserves to rate FIRST — not 44th, in the nation.
- TELEPHONE RATES — Judge Yarborough believes that municipalities should be given local rate-making assistance through research facilities provided by the State. Intra-State long distance rates should be set by the State so that rates can be lowered and long distance revenues be included in local rate-setting. This will mean lower telephone bills on both home and business phones for all Texans.
- INSURANCE REFORM — Judge Yarborough is pledged to clean up the insurance scandals that are fleecing the people of Texas — causing legitimate companies to suffer for the inconceivable acts of the "fixers" and "influence peddlers" now operating in Austin.

Formby Protests, Yarborough Road, Bridge Promises

Marshall Formby, owner of Hereford Radio KPAN and member of the Texas Highway Commission, today protested the fact that Ralph Yarborough, candidate for Governor, is reported promising roads and bridges in parts of Texas.

A resident of Hereford for several years, Formby accepted an appointment to the Highway Commission in February, 1953, and for the past year has been living at Plainview.

Formby said that Yarborough's recent promise to build a $5 million highway and bridge in Galveston County and along the Gulf Coast, if he were elected Governor, is an example of political promises that would eventually harm the fine Highway Department of the state. His full statement follows:

Have Built On Merits
"I am deeply disturbed when I hear of the dozens of promises that Mr. Yarborough is making to the people offering to build new roads and bridges in various parts of the state.

"For more than a quarter of a century the Highway Department has been completely free of political road and bridge building. The Texas Highway Department has built roads and bridges based strictly on merit and need.

"Texans everywhere take great

for Texans... will YOU? VOTE FOR Allan SHIVERS (Paid Pol. Adv.)

Letter To The Editor

Aug. 14, 1954

Dear Sir:
I am writing this letter so that you may know how a lot of people down in Castro County feel about this Governor's race between Shivers and Yarborough.

Being a farmer myself, I know that it would be virtually impossible to operate a farm in Castro County, or any other place in the State of Texas, if farmers were told exactly who they could hire, how long they could work, and for how much. The only thing that has worried me about this whole campaign is that the people, particularly the farmers over the state, are not going to be able to find out the facts. I am afraid, and have been afraid, that it wouldn't be made clear that Yarborough was actually being backed by the C. I. O. There has never been a question in my mind that if the farmers over the state clearly know that fact and understand it, that their votes will be for Allan Shivers.

The only people who I run into in my county that are against Allan Shivers are those who say they are against him because he voted for Ike in 1952. But I also find that when those same people have their memory refreshed as to what conditions were in 1952 with regard to the tidelands, that they also understand what a really courageous position Governor Shivers took back in 1952, and that he really was looking out for Texas and our own interests. Some people have forgotten that before Governor Shivers announced that he was going to support Eisenhower, he went to Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee, and asked him if another bill was passed by Congress returning the tidelands to Texas, would he veto it like Truman had done, or would he approve it. Stevenson stated clearly that he would veto any bill returning the tidelands to Texas. Following that Governor Shivers went to Eisenhower and asked him what he would do if Congress passed a bill returning the tidelands to Texas, and President Eisenhower stated clearly that he would approve any such bill, and the fact is, after Eisenhower was elected, Congress did pass a bill, and Texas got her tidelands back. Now, I understand that from the bonuses on leasing just one-fifth of the tidelands, the State of Texas has already realized $32,000,000. Even if we never got another cent from it, Governor Shivers' stand in 1952 was the only one which any reasonable real Texan could have taken. After all the position that Governor Shivers took in 1952 was one that was made mandatory and dictated to him by over 5,000 delegates that all of us sent to the Democratic State Convention. I personally think that Governor Shivers has demonstrated himself to be the most courageous Governor that Texas has ever had.

It is somewhat surprising to me to hear some people criticizing Governor Shivers because he is seeking his third two-year term when the vast majority of Texas Democrats have gone on record for not only a third four-year term, but a fourth four-year term. It seems to me that the question is not what term it is, but what kind of a man is seeking that third term.

Sincerely,
Charlie J. George

pride in the Highway Department, stressing the fact that there are no politics in it, and for the good of all Texas I sincerely hope that they can continue to have that pride.

"The present Commission has not spent one dime on a political road or bridge since I have been a member, and I know that the three members would never vote 15 cents to fulfill any political obligation.

"I have been a member of the Commission for 18 months and during this year and a half Governor Shivers has never once requested me to spend one dime on any particular road or bridge, but has insisted to me that every expenditure be based strictly on need and merit as far as the money would go.

"To my mind, that is the only way a highway department can be run. Texans must see that this condition continues to prevail."

Russian War Is Inevitable Says Foreign Writer

"War with Russia is inevitable and it is foolish for America to sit back and await the attack," said George B. Dewey, foreign correspondent, when he spoke at the Assembly of God Church Friday night.

Dewey recently returned from the Asiatic Peace Conference in Geneva, Switzerland, where the United States was represented by 40 delegates and Russia had 100. He spoke of each Russian delegate being trained and taught why he was there and what to do when he got there. The American delegates go many times unqualified and are unable to cope with situations which arise, Dewey said.

Plan Future Bombing
"An acquaintance of mine, who has been a member of the World American Intelligence for seven years, has had contact with two Russian traitors, who are in on the top secrets of the Russian plan. For six years the two agents have passed word to this man, and he to Britain and Britain to the Washington office. To date, all Russia has planned has come to pass. Now they are planning, first, to keep coming to the Peace Conference and when the time is right, they fill threaten the United States with bombing of three large cities, Chicago, Detroit, and Pittsburg. If we yield to their plan and go along with them, no bombing will take place; if not, it will follow, and with the 'H-bomb! These are Russia's plans, according to the two agents who have given correct information for these past six years," Dewey said.

Dewey also said that according to files in Washington, D. C., if Russia tried bombing us, their attempt would be 90 percent successful.

He reported that Russia has the largest gold mine in the world. They use condemned labor to mine it. These laborers are sent in by the thousand and as they weaken, starve and die, they send in another thousand, thus never letting one of them return to tell anything concerning the mine. According to Dewey, every brick of this gold is stored in our United States, preparatory to their taking over here and making this their headquarters.

Use Slave Labor
"Russia also has the largest fur trade in the world," Dewey said. "For this business they use slave labor rather than condemned labor. The furs are bought out and sold during 'Buyers Week' in Moscow. A prominent New York auc-ioneer goes to help in this and, instead of the buyers paying anyone there, the money is paid directly into the Chase National Bank in New York City. Two hundred million dollars a year goes into this bank and this is the money which supports Russia's fantastic spy ring in the United States."

Dewey has been correspondent five times behind the Iron Curtain and has facts and figures which he said proves his theories concerning coming world events. He has sat at conference tables for eight years, and says Russia controls one-fourth of the world's population at the present time and by next year, she proposes to control two-thirds of it. Will the one-third that is left be able to protect its freedom? He thinks not. He says it is high time America "wakes up, or else sleeps on—for it won't do any good after awhile." He urges the churches of America to call their people to earnest prayer for the nation, and that if the nation as a whole would turn to God for their help, they could be saved from certain destruction.

He also said that while we call them Peace Conferences, Russia knows she is fighting a war at the peace tables. "They are out to rule this world and won't exclude the United States," Dewey declared.

Read Directions -- Or You Might Wake Up In Jail

"Some people just won't follow directions!"

Such is the current complaint of Hereford police, who report that 90 percent of all arrests on charges of intoxication during the past two weeks have been persons who were "crazy drunk" on "cooking wine."

New, in this area at least, cooking wine is prepared for use in small amounts and, as the name implies, is sold exclusively for cooking purposes. The trouble is, some people miss the "cooking" part of the label completely.

Police said that no great increase was seen in the number of "drunks" here, but that possession on being picked up generally includes "cooking wine" instead of the former "vanilla" or "bay rum".

WHO IS A DEMOCRAT?

If we believe in representative form of government we must not blame those for doing what we require them.

OUR DELEGATES . . . elected by US . . . representing US . . . several thousand in number in 1952 UNANIMOUSLY . . . demanded and required Allan Shivers, our servant and employee to get our tidelands back, by voting for the nominee who would agree to see that we received what was RIGHTFULLY ours.

Should we now hold it against him when we, through our representatives MADE . . . TOLD and REQUIRED him to do this very thing?

Is it Democratic to be unfair?

DON'T FORGET

We believe a contract is binding between us as men. Treaties between nations must be respected. Texas entered the union by an honorable contract. Texas paid her national debts the hard way and the United States refused to help but REQUIRED us to keep our public lands, including our Tidelands.

This treaty and contract was respected for 100 years. Then a president broke our contract with our Federal Government and took our tidelands away from us.

THIS WAS AN ACT OF DISHONESTY

A DEMOCRAT SHOULD NOT NOW SUFFER CRITICISM FOR BEING LOYAL TO OUR PRINCIPLES . . . OUR STATE AND OUR CHILDREN'S FUTURE . . . OUR SELF RESPECT . . . for choosing between honesty and crookedness in high places.

Good Democrats believe in Principles and restoring honesty in Government.

We cannot approve Mink Coat deals . . . 5% grafters . . . wholesale purchase of Murder, Incorporated pardons . . . coddling of Communists . . . Alger Hisses in Government . . . Traitors selling us out day after day . . . a continual destruction of our Freedom and Independence and our American way of life.

Those who seek to destroy ALLAN SHIVERS now, believe that he is honestly trying to get rid of the creeping menaces that are slipping into our state . . . the racketeers, the 5 percenters, the rabble rousing elements that have taken over the management of the CIO, the hand out grabbers from the government, and the Communists.

Remember: With those who know Yarborough Best it's

I Believe

"Except ye become as a little child—" Oh, for the faith of that child; your child, my child. FAITH that sees beyond the faults and foibles of men; FAITH that rises above the animosities and hatreds of nations; FAITH that overcomes the cruelties of tyrants and sufferings of war. Oh, ye of little FAITH, know ye not that there's a child in the midst? A child praying for daddy, and mommy and her church. A child believing that the whole round world is bound by chains about the feet of God. This child BELIEVES. She goes to CHURCH, WON'T YOU?

from the visitors standpoint, was made at Gallup, N. M., to visit the annual Inter-Tribal Indian Ceremonial. The all-Indian parade Sunday morning was very spectacular and their dances and costumes were very interesting to see, he said.

Littlejohns Back Following Tour In Mountain States

M. and Mrs. M. C. Littlejohn, 812 Knight Street, returned Sunday from a vacation trip with Mr. Littlejohn's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Brummel of Fort Worth.

The group spent one and one-half days in Santa Fe, N. M., visiting museums and seeing the sights of the oldest capital city in the United States. One afternoon was spent in seeing the annual corn dance of the Santo Domingo Indians at their pueblo between Santa Fe and Albuquerque, N. M. Leaving Santa Fe on their trip north to Lake City, Colo., they stopped a day in Taos, N. M., to visit art museums and see the sights of this old and very interesting town and to visit the pueblo of the Taos Indians.

Visit Lake City
Their five days spent at Lake San Cristobal, where they fished and camped out, were very cool and pleasant, Mr. Littlejohn said, especially so after the August heat of Texas. The temperature dropped to 36 degrees one morning and was generally in the upper 30's and lower 40's each morning. Sleeping bags and plenty of cover were a necessity.

After leaving Lake City, they visited the Black Canyon of the Gunnison near Montrose. The Gunnison River has cut a canyon nearly a half-mile deep through solid granite and is very beautiful and inspiring, according to the travelers.

Unfortunately, due to clouds and rain, they did not get pictures along the "Million Dollar Highway" between Ouray and Silverton, Colo., but no one complained because of the lack of thrills. This road was some of the highest mountain passes in the United States and the scenery is marvelous beyond belief, he said. Mrs. Littlejohn and Mrs. Brummel, being on the outside seats of the cars from which an unobstructed view could be had, which was mostly downward for a couple of thousand feet, can verify any statement regarding thrills.

One night was spent in Durango, Colo., where they purchased a round trip ticket back to Silverton to the Denver and Rio Grande Western narrow gauge railroad. This is the last narrow gauge railroad in the United States still operating regular passenger service and is heavily patronized by tourists. It follows the Animas River from Durango to Silverton through canyons and along mountains equal to the scenery of even the Alps in Europe, Mr. Littlejohn said. In fact, the area is called the "Alps of America".

One day and night was spent at Mesa Verde National Park. More thrills were experienced in seeing and climbing through the ruins left by the ancient people who lived there over a thousand years ago.

Drop Cookies Are Easy In This Recipe - - Quick, Too

Ann Dyer Is Winner In 4-H Dress Revue

Cookies are one of the oldest forms of baked foods and traditionally they should be waiting for youngsters coming in from play or school, yet many mothers feel they haven't the time to spend rolling out dough and cutting fancy shapes to be baked on special occasions like Christmas.

Drop cookies and bar cookies are quick and easy to make, and even the busiest housewife will have to think fast if she provides an acceptable alibi for an empty cookie jar.

One of the simplest of bar cookie recipes is one that Miss Pearl Cross, who teaches in Junior High School in Wichita, Kansas, will give to her girls in Homemaking Class this fall.

Only five ingredients, including the flavoring, are needed and the mixing instructions are so simple that even the youngest cook in the family could make up a batch.

Chocolate Bit Bars
 1 1/2 cup graham cracker crumbs
 1 package chocolate bits
 1 cup nuts
 1 can Borden's sweetened condensed milk
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 Mix all ingredients and put in greased square or rectangular pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Cool and cut in squares.

Happy Homes 4-H Studies Cleaners

Happy Homes 4-H Club met August 12 with Carol Phifer as hostess. Martha Logan, president, called the meeting to order. She also led the group in singing a song. Roll was called by Pat Dawson, secretary. The girls voted to go to Boys Ranch for a picnic August 18. They are to take the boys homemade cookies.

Jean Logan gave a demonstration on how to get the most from your vacuum cleaner. Mrs. Ira Ott, leader, gave pointers on how to simplify house cleaning.

Refreshments were served to Carlyn Williams, Pat Dawson, Jean and Martha Logan, Cecelia and Beatrice Wilhelm, Mrs. Ott, Mrs. Phifer and the hostess.

The next meeting will be at the home of Cecelia and Beatrice Wilhelm, August 25.

Mrs. J. O. Newell made four people happy by giving them surplus quart jars. As she does not can as much now as in the past, nor does she need as large amounts, she felt she could get the jars to people who could use them. When Mrs. Bob Wilson advertised the surplus jars she tells us that she gave them to a woman out west of town the day the paper was published.

The McCall Pattern Corporation has added to its line of Teen and Junior sized patterns a 4-H Club suit dress. It is the official uniform for the 4-H girls clubs. The Simplicity Pattern Company has had the uniform pattern for some time. Also, the McCall's people have made the 4-H Club Suit Dress into a 14-inch doll pattern. The tiny green felt four-leaf clover emblem comes in the envelope with the doll pattern. With the uniform pattern for the doll is also a Red Cross nurse uniform. This will appeal to some of the girls and the little sisters.

The 4-H County Dress Revue was well attended Friday. There were about 30 dresses brought in to be judged. These girls will have their style show Friday night, August 20, at 8:00 p. m. at the Central School gym. The style show will be just before the family party. The family party will begin at 9:00 p. m. so make plans for the whole family to attend both. Many of the Home Demonstration Club women will want to come to these programs to see the progress both girls and boys are making in their club work.

The planning group for the family party met on the eleventh. Those who helped with the plans were: Patricia Caywood, Pat Dawson, Ann Dyer, Mrs. Johnny Townsend, Mrs. Ira Ott, Pete Plank and Jimmie Northcutt.

The garment judged best in the County Dress Revue was the red gabardine two-piece suit made by Ann Dyer. Ann wore black and red accessories with the suit and really has a suit that will be practical and one that she will enjoy wearing. She will wear the suit in the style show at Central gym on August 20 and will also model it in the district style show to be held in Amarillo on August 25. The district style show will be held at 2:30 p. m. August 25 at the Children's Home, 3400 Bowie Street. The public is invited to attend.

All the garments shown by 4-H girls last Friday were good. They all showed improvement and they have accomplished so much by making the garments and getting them to the office. The Agents and leaders are so proud of each of them and want to thank all those who helped.

The Agents judged the 4-H girls dresses in Dimmitt on the 16th.

The Messenger Home Demonstration Club and the Walcott 4-H Club will meet the Commissioners Court on August 22. They meet at 11 in the morning. The Education and Expansion Committee of Council gives the Court a quarterly progress report with clubs from the different precincts making the reports. These meetings are well attended and well received.

Ann Dyer, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dyer and a member of the Jolly Girls 4-H Club, placed first in the Dress Revue held in the County Court Room on August 13.

Ann, who won with a tailored red gabardine suit, will be eligible for District and State competition.

Thirty-one dresses made by girls from seven clubs were scored by Mrs. Lewis Stringer, CHDA from Castro County and Miss June Christian, Home Economics Teacher, from Clarendon, Texas.

Score cards used by the judges set up three main points as a basis for judging which considered first The Girl—posture and poise and grooming. Second on the score sheet was: The Costume on the Girl—suitability, fit, effect of undergarments and choice of accessories. The Costume was then scored as to material and trimmings, workmanship and cleanliness, and general appearance.

Out of a possible 125 points on costume and records Ann scored 116, while Donna Sue Guseman of the Walcott Club trailed her only one point. Martha Logan of the Happy Homes Club made a score of 111 and Carlyn Williams of the same club had 110 points. Mrs. Earl DeHart, chairman of the awards committee, judged the record books.

CONG. WALTER ROGERS REPORTS:

'More Fifth Commandment and Less Fifth Amendment' Is Recommended

Pigeons For Breakfast
As I was leaving the house for work this morning I heard quite a commotion and looked around to see Jean and the children waving me to come back. I went back in and was advised that we had an uninvited guest for breakfast. I went out at the breakfast table and there sat a live pigeon in the center of the table. Jean told me they were very peacefully eating when the feathered personage descended and landed smack in the center of the table. No one seemed to know where he came from or how. Time was too short for me to cross examine any of the children, but I hope to have the mystery solved by the time you get this letter. It sometimes takes quite a bit of discussion with the children to get all the facts assembled and properly documented and coordinated, but we usually come up with a pretty clear picture as an end result. None of them have yet pleaded the Fifth Amendment on me.

as paid to the Fifth Amendment, we would certainly have less juvenile delinquency, much less adult crime and conspiracy and a better world in which to live.
Water Committee
The New Water Resources Subcommittee of the House Interior Committee commenced its work. We have had two meetings to date. One of these was with the representatives of the departments of the executive branch, representatives of the Hoover Commission, and the Army Engineers. Everyone seems to understand that we have water problems, but very little seems to have been done about it. Few people realize that the creation and the use of mechanical devices by man has brought about demands for water far in excess of the wildest anticipation of those who were running this country at the turn of the century. For instance, industry uses more water than agriculture. Estimates are that in 1975 industry will probably be using two-thirds of all the sweet water available in this country. The East is beginning to realize this as it sees many of its industries moving to the South. Water can certainly be counted as one of the determining factors in many of these moves. We in the Panhandle of Texas have long realized the need for water for industrial uses. If we could provide an ample water supply in our section, industrial potentialities would be limitless.
Dr. A. L. Miller, Chairman of the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, gave a statement recently at one of our meetings, pointing out the fact that the refining of one barrel of oil requires 770 gallons of water; 70,000 gallons of sulphate pulp; 110,000 gallons of water is required to produce one ton of rolled steel; that 300 billion gallons of water passes New Orleans in the Mississippi River every day; 319 million acre feet of stream runoff occurs annually in the United States. Somewhere between 15 and 20 percent, or 78 million acre feet of this water is developed and put to use. This means that we are wasting approximately 85 percent of our greatest natural resource.

After a short but fast chase, the pigeon gave up, and I gave it to the children.
Speaking of the Fifth Amendment, it occurred to me the other day that if as much attention was paid to the Fifth Commandment

Detton Brothers Win Free For All Saturday Night

Glenn Detton and his younger brother Gene took the spot light at the bullbarn Saturday night when, acting in a team tag match production to beat out two old timers, Bob Geigel and Joe Miller. It took the older Detton brother to win the match in his favor; his younger brother lost the fall on the head liner to Big Bob Geigel in 19 minutes when he put his famous crossback smother to the young wrestler.
However, Gene's big brother made things even in the second fall, when it took him only 4 minutes to put the body press on Geigel.

The third fall, which started out to be anybody's match, turned in to quite a fracas when Miller and Geigel assumed there was no referee present and attempted to gang up on the Brothers, Big Brother Glenn broke into his usual rough type of honest-to-goodness wrestling and once again put his "killer hold" on his opponent, Bob Geigel. After a series of "turn buckle smashes" he again applied the body smother to take the main event in 6 minutes.
The warm up events both being 20 minute affairs, matching Gene and Glenn Detton against the newcomers to Hereford, Miller, and the always rough Bob Geigel, the outcome being a draw in both events.

The plan established the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, which will have charge of the benefits and compensation to be paid under H. R.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dock Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Womble, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis, Mr. and Mrs. James Burnell, and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hopson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Owen and Becky, 600 S. Main, and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hendricks, Highway 51, returned Sunday from a five-day fishing trip to Tenkiller Dam, Okla.

Long Time Ago

6 Years Ago
Contractor J. L. Johnson is putting the finishing touches on the cement block building for A. H. Elliston. This building is constructed entirely of cement blocks made by Mr. Johnson at his factory. The floor is also laid in solid cement. The building is being equipped with all the latest conveniences for an auto garage and repair shop. The garage has been leased by Artis Daniel, who will occupy it at once.

An incident in connection with the building came to notice the other day when a double-yoke ox team was driven up in front of the garage just as Mr. Elliston passed with his auto. The oxen started at the new fangled machine with envious eyes. The driver called out, "Who-who-who, herick-back." Mr. Elliston in reply, "honk-honked". At this juncture, a kodak snapped, and the past and present methods of travel were in close contrast.

Perry W. Smith, who lives on route one northeast of Hereford, sends in a report that he has just finished threshing his wheat and has made thirteen bushels per acre, even in this dry year. "I am well pleased with the Panhandle," he writes. This is Mr. Smith's first crop and he has shown himself to be a thorough-going, progressive farmer. Besides his wheat he has a good acreage of feed stuffs.

25 Years Ago
S. E. Cone, of the S. E. Cone Grain and Feed Co., Lubbock, was here Wednesday inspecting installation in the company's elevator of equipment for treating seed wheat with copper carbonate dust. As a service to farmers, Mr. Cone stated, the company which he controls has decided to help prevent wheat fields of the county from becoming infested with smut which in the past harvest cost a number of wheat growers in the territory considerable sums of money.

When wheat delivered to any elevator is found to be contaminated with smut, stated Mr. Cone, the owner of that load of wheat is docked from two to 15 cents per bushel. Many elevators, he said, refuse to handle wheat containing smut. Hereford has 100 blocks of paved streets, a fine courthouse constructed of Georgia marble, a modern $30,000 city hall, the very best of fire fighting equipment, $200,000 worth of churches, a population of 3,000, natural gas, modern telephone system and fine water system.

Jim Chamlee, who specializes in single comb White Leghorn chickens, was an interesting business visitor in The Brand office Monday morning. Among other things he mentioned that 700 hens and pullets will do their part of keeping up the poultry business as place this fall and winter. One thing he took great pride in was that he had pullets just three months and 22 days old already laying. This he thought, was something of a record, as the best he had known before were pullets that laid at four months and ten days.

FANCY AND PLAIN

By KENT SNARE

After last Friday night's abject performance by the College All-Stars against the pro-Detroits, the promoters may have to take some steps to keep that charity game alive, and the word goes that in its 21 outs this Arch Ward inspired venture has garnered 5 millions for the Chicago needy, which is reason enough for its continuance. A nice gladiatorial type of tussle would ensue if then pitted the American Pro Champs against the Canadian flag bearers. Further consternation could be installed by playing half the go under U. S. and A rules and the balance under the pitch and run scramble they adhere to in the northland. Putting the All Star game on nationwide TV display, of course, booted the situation home to people, far and wide in the countryside, who were not conversant with the quality of the performance. The good burghers of Chicago and environs apparently are accustomed to it by now, as evidenced by the turnout of 93 thousand, when in the past they were jammed the ball, Soldier's Field, with 105 G's of payees. Those on display type of uniforms may have in themselves discouraged their wearers from going to work wholeheartedly. Actually, the bread and butter angle is probably the ans-

"PINOCCHIO"

Showing at the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday.

You'll holler, "Jimmy Cricket, what a wonderful show" when you see little Jimmy Cricket act the leading part in Walt Disney's "Pinocchio". He is just a little thing for such a big part, but it is because of his gay personality, his efforts to be Pinocchio's conscience, and his red umbrella.

You'll visit places such as a toymaker's fascinating workshop, a waterfront inn where thieves and rogues hang out, and an island where the mountains are made of ice cream cones and the rivers of lemonade, and where pie, popcorn and other goodies grow on trees. You'll visit the insides of Monstro, a huge old whale where Pinocchio finds himself.

Some of your favorite animals, which are in this story, talk just like real people too.

"THEM"

Showing at a Saturday preview and Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday at the Star Theatre.

Starring James Whitmore, Edmund Gwenn, Joan Weldon and James Arness.

What is this horde of creatures that is threatening a major metropolis? Edmund Gwenn, in the role of a scientist, starts the national crusade to destroy "Them" by his findings concerning the giant destroyers.

The story begins on the wasteland of the Mojave Desert with a series of brutal killings. Only the quick investigation by a prominent scientist and prompt action on the part of state and federal agencies help to check "Them" in their path of total destruction. The end comes to the creatures in the mysterious storm tunnels under the streets of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Eubanks Writes On Hereford, England

By Cecile B. Eubanks

Hereford, Herefordshire, England, August 6 — A few minutes ago I made a short recording from the Mayor's Parlours in Town Hall of this city. It is a greeting to everybody in and around Hereford, Texas, as this tape is to be sent to the Chamber of Commerce here by the Chamber of Commerce here. I am hoping the reply, if any, will be delayed until I reach home so I can thereby acknowledge all the attentions shown me by everyone here, and through me, to our little Hereford in Texas. For any of you who expect to visit England, Hereford is a MUST. In addition to being a lovely old city, the residents seem to feel a kinship with their namesake in Texas. You would all love the graceful hills and softly whispering trees, colorful meadows carpeted with wild flowers and the fascinating hedge rows among which the city nestles. But more than this physical beauty, this country sends out an invitation to relax and enjoy life.

Life here is not so hectic as in America, but a great activity goes on five or six days a week. On Wednesday Hereford holds its weekly auction sales and farmers from far and near bring their livestock and produce to market. This sale, I am told and can easily believe, is the largest of its kind in England.

Market Place
The Market Place is not far from the center of town and is a permanent fixture, attested by the iron-pipe construction of all pens. And the immense sheds which house the various animals. Cattle sheds are largest; sheep next. While breeders specialize in the whiteface as we do at home, there are many dairy cattle. This accounts for the great shed given over to baby calves. These are disposed of early as a calf definitely is no asset to a dairy. They are all sleek, well-fed and very, very affectionate. One didn't get too close as rough little tongues carressed one at every opportunity. Soft, appealing eyes followed one about. Poor, lonely little things, just separated from their mothers!

In spite of a fine rain that sifted down throughout the day, the Market Place was crowded. Many stalls had been set up for the sale of every kind of merchandise that is in demand in this community. Paint, household articles, clothing, food.

As rationing was lifted on food-stuffs so recently it was most in demand. Everybody seemed food-conscious. I had always heard the British did not like "tinned" foods so was surprised to see how much was sold. There was particularly active bidding for canned pig livers. From Denmark, I think the auctioneer of this delicacy stated. When the bidding lagged he reminded them that each pig had "only one liver. A little, tiny liver which takes many months to grow."

Next to canned meats, milk was wanted. Our own Carnation brand. Only two cans were sold to a buyer. I found this out when a fat man nearby, surrounded by a cluster of small children asked for four. They looked so disappointed I hurriedly bought two cans and passed them over to the youngsters. Wouldn't you have?

Two or three hours of the rain was all I could take so I went to my hotel hoping to visit a Hereford cattle breeding farm before I left for Wales and then crossed to Ireland, which, at the moment, seems to be my next stop.

Visits Cathedral
Hereford, Herefordshire, England is an old, old city. The internationally famous and loved Cathedral was rebuilt in the eleventh century on the ruins of a church erected in 600 something A. D. Can we, whose city was established less than 60 years ago, grasp how long in the dim past this was? I can't, and I am on the spot looking with awe on these relics of another era.

The pulpit in the Cathedral, still in use, is of hand-carved oak. It is as sturdy and strong as it was when the then Dean of the Cathedral thundered his rebuke from it to Cromwell's soldiers in spite of their threatening guns. This denunciation was for wanton destruction and defacement of the church, the old tombs and effigies which had remained there undefiled for centuries.

Largest Chained Library
I climbed some 150 to 200 circular steps—and I mean circular as a corkscrew and not much wider—in order to see the largest Chained Library in the world. Great Oaken shelves filled with leather-bound books that had been laboriously printed by hand by learned men to whom it was an art as well as a life-work. The leaves are of thinnest sheep-skin, I was told, and look like a present day high-grade paper, so perfect are they. Many of these books are hand illuminated with colors so rich they glow like jewels.

No wonder these art—as well as scientific and literary treasures—have been chained for ages. There is nothing like them outside a national museum.

The chains are strong and on swivels so that each book may be taken from the shelf and opened on the ledge below in order that readers may sit more or less comfortably on benches provided for them. Even today, the invaluable museum pieces are available to student or scientist, by special permission.

Near the center of town stands the old Elizabethan houses which were erected during the reign of the Tudors. It is the "Black and White" architecture of which there are many in surrounding villages. Each a gem to be shown visitors with all the pride of the true Briton. Many of them are lived in today—many by descendants of those long ago builders with dreams. Not one uneven floor, not one grooved step, not one weather-stained and moss covered stone shingle is ever replaced if at all possible to retain the original. I have seen many of these stone roofs dating from the 14th century. Can you imagine how strong are the axe-marked oak beams, that have supported the saxons of weight since Henry VIII cut off the heads of his unhappy queens?

City Plate and Ceremonial Robes
The morning after my arrival in Hereford I called at Town Hall to present a letter from our Mayor or to His Worship, The Lord Mayor of Hereford. And don't think this is an empty title. It isn't. It carries with it much pomp and circumstance.

His Honor, The Mayor, was out when I called at his office. His secretary introduced me to the City Plate and Ceremonial robes etc., while we waited for my host. This Plate, belies its cognomen.

It is solid silver and together must weigh a ton. Such heavily chased, centuries old silver I have not seen outside The Louvre in Paris and the British Museum in London. It is used only on state occasions and is as bright and unscratched as on the day it was turned out by silver-smiths whose reputation depended on the perfection of their art.

Much of this is Regimental Silver, having been presented to the city by the officers of the Hereford Regiment of Militia on its disbandment in 1908. It was at this time the Regiment laid up its drum and colours in the Council Chamber of Town Hall. There it probably will be displayed to visitors 1200 years hence. And it is very worth while seeing.

A seven branch candelabra three feet high and weighing some fifty pounds—wine cups indescribably beautiful—wine coolers in Old Sheffield, and lucky, indeed, is an owner of Old Sheffield! Among the glittering array are two that are outstanding, to me, in design. One called the "cradle" cup, taking its name from the tiny cradle that swings from its brackets atop the cover. A cradle complete with a hood. This was ordered made by a fond father on the birth of a first son. This baby grew up to become Mayor of Hereford. He in turn, gave the cup to the City in honor of his father who had been Alderman of the City.

The most fascinating piece in the entire collection is a wine wagon. Every hostess in Hereford, Texas, would go into ecstasies to have a copy of it for a container of floral pieces on her table.

The wagon-bed is formed by two eight inch, straight sided, round receptacles in which the wine bottles stand. These are mounted on a chassis with wheels which actually turn. The front ones on a swivel so that it can be guided from guest to guest by a handle of entwined grapevines, leaves and fruits, silver, of course.

After seeing all this beauty I rather expected to be indifferent when shown the other city treasures. But I wasn't.

Mourning Sword
First, the sword presented in 1677. It is an exquisite bit of Spanish steel with gold handle and scabbard of gold and red plush. Then the Mourning Sword. In black scabbard as befits its name, it is carried only in the funeral processions of a Mayor who dies in office or of a reigning king. The last time it made public appearance was at the funeral procession of the late King George in 1952. Tradition has it that it was presented to the City of Hereford in 1530—probably by Henry VIII. On theommel is the Coat of Arms of the City of Hereford in ancient form used only prior to 1645. On the other side appears that of Henry VIII. So the tradition might well be authentic.

Mayor and Mayoress Chains of Office
Of special interest to ladies are the Chains of Office of the Mayor and Mayoress. That of the Mayoress is quite simple with a great medallion composed of the Coat of Arms of the city, surrounded by diamonds. That of the Mayor is more elaborate, being composed of 17 medallions in gold, including the City-coat of arms. The others are in pairs although no two designs are alike. These designs represent some product of, or something directly connected with the district. As follows:

Apple blossoms — Cider is a very important product and sold throughout England. This is a slightly alcoholic beverage.
Hops—Beer is one of the largest enterprises here, the hops being used along with grain to add flavor, I am told.

Acorns — Represent the oak for which the country is famous.

Wheat heads — called "corn" here. Our "corn" is "Indian Corn" in Britain.

Mistletoe — used here at Christmas much as it is in United States.
Salmon — "Salmon trout" is offered at nearly all English hotels for breakfast. They spawn hereabouts, in local streams. There are artificial "steps" built for them to jump up on their return to spawn.

The Hereford Bull head — spoken of here to me as "bullocks." Probably intended to protect a woman's delicate nerves from the shock which might be caused from calling a "spade" a spade as we do at home.

The Coats of Arms of — The Dean of Hereford; The Bishop of Hereford.

Mayor Attends Church In State

These chains are worn on all ceremonial occasions construed as "State." A recent one was on July 25, last, when the President of the Methodist Conference was to preach in Hereford for the first time in 50 years. There are other times when the Mayor attends church in State, which means a procession. It is customary for him to do so the first Sunday after his installation. At the Cathedral. And again the first Sunday in January. This time at St. James Church, which is the church that stands in the Parish containing Town Hall. There are, of course, semi-state occasions. Such as before each Assize, three times each year. At these services he accompanies Her Majesty's Judge to the Cathedral.

Can you picture in your minds' eyes a procession in measured step composed as follows:

Two liveried men, each carrying a silver-headed staff some 6 to 8 feet long, with, of course, the City Coat of Arms on the heads. Their clothing consisting of long black coat, rounded at front. Gold braid and gold button trim. Red cuffs, red collars and pockets also gold-braid trimmed.

Following are minor city officials. Members of the Committees (not elected, but invited) to join the procession as a matter of courtesy. The three senior members (time seniority, not age) consist of City Treasurer, Surveyor and Medical Health Officer.

Following these, march four liveried men, each carrying an identical mace. These maces were presented to the City in 1680 and are decorated with the Royal Coat of Arms which bears: The Rose of England; The Thistle of Scotland; The Harp of Ireland; The Fleur de Lys of France, and of course, Hereford's Coat of Arms. The most interesting of all to me are the carved initials "C II, R." This being the signature of Charles the Second, King of England and always an interesting personality to me.

It may be as well to explain here that the Fleur de Lys of France became part of the Royal Coat of Arms of England because France once was claimed by the English. Some of it was actually occupied by them.

Next, with measured tread come 18 City Councillors. They also in order of time seniority. Their robes are calf-length maroon wool and are trimmed with navy velvet. Those who previously have been Mayors of Hereford may add gold buttons and braid. And they may retain this embellishment for life.

Following the Councillors march 6 Aldermen, a position which carries much honor and admits the wearing of purple robes and black cocked hats. The robes are lavishly trimmed with black velvet which forms a deep V at the back of the neck.

The former Mayors and Mayoresses are next in the procession. They may wear clothing of their own choosing.
Also in ordinary clothing march the Member of Parliament and the Coronor.

The City Steward, next, wears a black robe and round velvet cap.

The Deputy Mayor in Scarlet robe and black cocked hat.

Hat of Maintenance

Now comes the most interesting bit of the procession. The Sword Bearer — and the Sword. The bearer, of course, carries the Sword before the Mayor. He wears a tall, round mink hat with red satin crown and lining. This hat is about 10 or 11 inches high and round, but flat across top. Mink runs round and round. AND THERE ARE BUT NINE CITIES IN THE UNITED KINGDOM who possess this Hat of Maintenance, as it is called.

This Hat of Maintenance was an ancient emblem representing not only the reigning Duke's power, but also his responsibility for defense of his Dukedom. Just why certain cities were entitled to possess this hat and others is unknown, lost in antiquity. But THIS hat was not used for many, many years, until in 1945 it was learned Hereford was entitled to one. For authority to possess this hat, we are referred to one of its City Charters granted by Elizabeth I. Excerpt from Charter reads: That the Sword Bearer, the Sword of Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and one Hat called Hat of Maintenance, now or here-to-fore used, everywhere within the said City of Hereford, Suburbs, Liberties and Precincts of the same, before the Mayor of the City for the time being shall carry and bear."

This carries a little chuckle for me, for of all unexpected things, the mink from which this particular hat is made came from America! Now, the finale of this procession to which climax it has all been building: The Mayor attended by the Town Clerk. The Clerk's robe is black silk with sleeves so wide, a stall-effect reaches the hem. This stall runs down the front some 12 inches wide and the whole is covered with 1½ inch black silk tassels. And on his head he wears a gray wig which might well be the product of a present day hair dresser—it is so much like a poodle-do across the top and down the sides.

With him walks THE MAYOR. His robe is scarlet and he wears the resplendent Chain of office. Can you imagine all this aggregation filing into church? We, in America don't have much ceremony but it might be well if we DID have a little, to keep us reminded that we, too, have a glorious, although short history.

One of the primary purposes of this club is to assist the Jaycees in all their Civic activities, in such ways as furnishing coffee and doughnuts while the Junior Chamber members are putting up the Christmas decorations . . . or planning little get-togethers and socials to boost the boys spirits after long hours of work on their many projects.

The Jayceettes were also instrumental in furnishing playground equipment for the Jaycee Park.

The Hereford Jayceettes were organized in the Fall of 1949. Mrs. John Kelly served as the First President, and Mrs. John D. Aiken is the present president. They now have 25 active members.
