Cattle Buying Program To Start In County Coming Week

BUSINESS SIDE OF FARMING IS TALK THEME

Levelness of the land on the Plains is the area's greatest asset, and lack of moisture is its main limiting factor as far as agriculture is concerned, Dr. J. O. Ellsworth pointed out to farmers here in a talk at the court house last Saturday. Dr. Ellsworth, head of the agricultural economics department at Texas Tech, was brought here by the chamber of commerce. More than 75 heard his talk.

"The thing for us to do is take advantage of the levelness in agriculture operations and adapt our methods to the lack of moisture. Farming cheaply and making a profit even when prices are low are possible if we do this," he declared.

Dr. Ellsworth gave the background of the present economical conditions showing how the trends of world trade and great war brought them about. "As a new community America was a producer and a debtor, selling its surplus products to older countries. The Nation has become a creditor and will not accept goods but demands gold payment from other countries. This has resulted in the present situation of other nations going in for producing what they need instead of buying from America; consequently trade is paralyzed and prices are depressed.

"Our problem now is one of distribution. The world is producing sufficient for everybody to have plenty and we are going

Wheat Loan Will Begin This Week

Taking applications for wheat loans will start this week in Deaf Smith county. Blanks were expected to arrive today. Miss Peggy Mitchell at the chamber of commerce office will take the applications.

Terms of the loans will be largely the same as they were for the feed crop loans which closed June 1. Farmers must use the money to put in a wheat crop this year and a mortgage on the crop to be

Midgets Finally Beat Firemen

(BY HOMER FOX)

Last Thursday afternoon the Midgets just beat the home out of those old flashing, flame-fighting Firemen, 15 to 3. What a ball game, what a ball game. Some folks might say too many scores to be good, but runs are what the Midgets want—and we didn't fail to get them.

The Firemen raked up a couple of bingles in the first, but failed to score. The Midgets made two in our half on two singles, a FO and a long fly to center field.

The spark hunters went out in a row in the second. The kids got a man to second in their half but failed to scratch.

In the third someone turned in the arm and after one out, Willard Witherspoon tripped into right and scored on Carroll's grounder to pitch. Phillips singled through second and scored on Angelo's triple into left. Rountree singled into right, scoring Angelo. Woods was out, catch to first, and was we glad! The Midgets were pretty mad and started a little fire of their own, figuring as being how the Firemen just had old Nappy out there, and not much more it wouldn't take much fire. Kerr, first man up, whiffed. Baker flew out to left. L. B. Russell singled

No Word On Special Relief Work Received By Officials

FARM LOANS OVER A MILLION IN COUNTY DURING PAST YEAR

Light Rains Fall Here Last Sunday

A good shower fell here late Sunday, giving the month of June a nice start. While the rainfall in the city was approximately a half inch, the average in the vicinity was a quarter inch. The northwest part of the county, the area worst hit by drought, received only scattered and intermittent showers.

Along the southern and eastern edges of Deaf Smith county, however, sufficient moisture fell to justify planting of feed crops, which is now under way. Although it is a bit late for the planting, farmers declare it is their only chance to produce anything this year.

Announce Changes In Ball Schedule

Changes in the city league baseball schedule have been announced. An error in the schedule printed at the beginning of the season showed the Midgets playing four games against the Firemen, three against the Lions and two with the Odd Fellows. Under the new arrangement teams will meet three times.

In today's game the Firemen and Odd Fellows will tangle. For the remainder of the first half the ticket is as follows:
June 12—Odd Fellows vs Lions.
June 14—Firemen vs Midgets.
June 19—I. O. O. F. vs Firemen.
June 21—Lions vs Midgets.
June 26—I. O. O. F. vs Midgets.
June 28—Lions vs Firemen.

School Census Shows Decrease

During the school year of 1933-34 common schools of Deaf Smith county had 556 children of school age. The state apportionment for the 1934-35 term will be based on this census.

The census revealed a loss of 54 pupils from the preceding year when there were 610. Of this year's total 283 are boys and 273 are girls.

Posey Is Second In Dalhart Meet

J. M. Posey, Hereford golf champion, took second place in the Dalhart Invitation Tourney Monday when he finished two strokes behind Dick Coon who won the title. Winning two matches in the top flight on Saturday and Sunday, Posey went into the final which was a four-way affair with the contestants shooting 27 holes, medal play.

At the end of the twenty-second hole J. M. was three strokes up with five holes to play. With a burst of sub-par golf Coon led it up on the twenty-fifth, then went on to beat Posey a couple of licks on the last two holes.

Into left. Seed was safe on an error at second. Clayton walked up to the plate with a can of gasoline and threw it on the fire with a smashing home run into left field that tore down a half mile of fence on the Dimmitt road. Whatta blast, whatta blast—and we were ahead 4 to 3.

The blast killers got a man on first in the fourth with the help

A total of $1,107,300 of Federal land bank and Land Bank Commissioner's farm mortgage loans was made in Deaf Smith county from June 1, 1933, to May 1, 1934, according to Alex O. Thompson, farm loan secretary.

Of this total, farmers used approximately $1,047,500, or 94.6 per cent to refinance their indebtedness. By re-financing, farmers obtained new mortgage loans which they used to repay their old debts. They greatly reduced their annual interest charge in doing so. In a number of cases, scale-downs of indebtedness occurred in connection with the new loans. These and other advantages benefitted farmers primarily. Secondly, creditors benefitted from the receipt of cash or bonds in exchange for obligations they held.

Of the loan money used by farmers here for refinancing their debts, about $191,600, it was estimated, repaid their debts to banks; $242,500, their debts to insurance companies; $27,700, their taxes; $4,400, their debts to merchants; $581,300, their debts to "others," or creditors not separately classified, including private mortgage lenders, mortgage loan companies, retired farmers and many others to whom farmers were in debt.

A total of about $39,800 of loans in the county was used for

Connell to Seek Constable's Post

Douglas H. Connell today announced that he is a candidate for Constable of Precinct 2, subject to the Democratic Primary of July 2. In entering the race, Connell made the following statement:

"I have decided to ask the people to elect me constable. I have lived here all my life and I have never asked the people for a public office. I have had wide experience as an officer and feel that I am competent to fill this office to the satisfaction of the voters if I am elected. I assure the voters that I will discharge the duties in such a manner that they will never have cause to regret electing me.

"I trust that you will give my candidacy due consideration, and that I may be fortunate enough to receive your vote."

of the umpire. The kids made a couple more in their half when Kester tripled into center, a FO and a couple of errors.

It was just one-two-three for the Firemen in the fifth. But in their half the Midgets lost their temper and started a sure-enough big fire. Clayton, first man up, popped to short, Kester singled, Hussey singled, as did Robinson. Kerr struck out. The Firemen already had old Nappy out, but didn't have enough hose. Someone rushed to town for the pump. Baker singled, L. B. Russell was safe on an error. The pump arrived and the flatheads forgot the plug wrench. No water yet! Seed was safe on an error by right, and the umpire allows as how the slaughter should stop and called someone out just cause they called him an Empire, and us Midgets counted six more runs—12 to 3—and wanting more.

In the sixth something happened that is hardly ever seen in any kind of baseball. Kester pitched three balls to three batters and was good for three outs, two to short to first, and one to second to first.

In their half the kid's bats sounded like the battle of Bull

Although Deaf Smith county was placed in the primary drought relief area along with six other Panhandle counties, no definite word as to the program, which Washington officials said would start Friday, has been received here.

Principal work under the new program is highway construction, providing jobs for the stricken farmers and city people thrown out of work because of blighted crop prospects. W. W. Chilton, local relief administrator, says he has received no word of the operation of the plan from state headquarters.

Jim Lipscomb, chairman of the county's relief committee, estimated that at least 1,000 are sorely in need of work. Under the contemplated plan all are eligible. Chilton wired Austin Tuesday that he had 216 available. This figure, Lipscomb said, does not include 731 who are registered at the relief office as needing work. The Austin office has been in-

Officers Seated By Eastern Star

Hereford Chapter O. E. S. held public installation at the Masonic Hall Thursday night of last week. Mrs. Jewel Womble went in as Worthy Matron; H. C. Baird, Worthy Patron; Mrs. H. C. Baird, Associate Matron; Ed Boggess, Associate Patron; Mrs. Iva Coughner, Conductress; Mrs. Virgie Hunter, Associate Conductress; Miss Lucy Reed, chaplain; Mrs. Bessie Hill, marshal; Mrs. Myrtle Reed, organist; Mrs. Minnie Jones, Ada; Mrs. Hallie Kester, Ruth; Mrs. Emma Beyer, Ester; Mrs. Della Berry, Martha; Mrs. Clara Shore, Electa; Mrs. Bessie Boggess, warden; W. C. Nix, sentinel.

Mrs. Orr In Race For Treasurer

Mrs. Margaret Orr today announced her candidacy for the office of County Treasurer. She is seeking nomination in the Democratic Primary of July 28. "I have lived in Deaf Smith county for the past ten years," Mrs. Orr pointed out, "and have worlds of friends here who know that I am competent.

"I intend to make the race on my ability to fulfill the duties of the office and appeal to voters for their support on this basis. I have had two years of college work, have taught in the county several years, and for two years up to last December, worked in the Farmers' Creamery as bookkeeper. I have until recently been associated with the county relief office."

"I consider myself an old-timer here and ask the consideration of the voters solely on my ability to handle the office to which I ask election."

Rules Modified On Wheat Lands

Contracted acreage, affected in wheat and corn-hog contracts, may be planted to forage crops except corn or grain sorghums, according to a new ruling by the Department of Agriculture. The contracted acreage is the area which the contracts stipulate is to be kept out of cultivation.

A telegram from O. B. Martin's state extension director, to Dewey Reed announces modification of the restrictions. The telegram is as follows: "Restrictions on use of contracted acres are modified to permit the planting and harvesting of all forage crops except corn and grain sorghums and to permit pasturing these contracted acres and harvesting of forage from them. This applies to wheat and corn-hog contracts."

ALLRED GIVES VIEW IN TALK HERE TUESDAY

"If I am elected governor of Texas, the common people will have to do it because I have not the money to put on a high-powered campaign and I am opposed by the big corporations, the special interests and the professional politicians," declared Attorney General Jimmy Allred to a group of more than 100 citizens here Tuesday morning.

Allred made a short talk, arranged after his arrival. He originally planned to stay only a few minutes but was prevailed upon to speak briefly. The talk was in the district court room and the speaker was introduced by DeWitt Landis. Accompanying Mr. Allred on his tour through West Texas are Homer Olsen and George Clark of Austin. The party went from here to Dimmitt.

Reform of the pardon laws to avoid some of the disgraceful errors of the past is advocated by Allred. He is predicating his campaign on two points regarding conduct of state affairs. They are corrupt lobbying and the acceptance of special interest retainers by "those public servants who serve two masters."

The latter point, he explained, refers to state representatives and senators working for corporations and companies as lawyers while serving in public offices. Unregulated lobbying makes it possible, he said, for special interests to put over legislation which is detrimental to the people as a whole. Chief offenders, he declared, are the public utilities. And he proposes to put utilities under strict supervision and regulation.

"I was told," he stated, "that it would be a waste of time to come to the Panhandle, because they have a candidate—a man who is a native of the area. I committed the sin, they told me, of not being born there. I know that's absurd. People of West Texas want only their just dues from Austin and they know Jimmy Allred will see that they get just that. And after all, I am a West Texan, having been born in Montague county, 75 miles of Fort Worth and living in Wichita Falls more than 12 years."

Golfers to Dimmitt Sunday

Seeking their fifth straight victory in the Wheat Belt Golf League, members of the Hereford club will go to Dimmitt Sunday, there to engage the Castro county niblick wielders. In a previous match with Dimmitt the locals made a clean sweep, taking every contest. Sunday's match and two more will complete the first half of the season.

FIREMEN DROP DECIDING GAME TO AMARILLO OUTFIT SUNDAY

Morgan Leads Golfers to Victory In Tourney

Inspired by their leader who did not lose a hole to the club champion, J. M. Posey, Doc Morgan's golf ball wallopers last Sunday whammed the stuffin's out of Judge Landis' crew in the club's dinner tourney.

The losers are scheduled to give a picnic for the gang at some date in the near future. Their latest plan is to have the party next week when Morgan plans to be out of town as they have no desire to hear his razzing.

Results of the matches, Morgan's man being named first, were as follows: Morgan beat Posey, Pitman licked Landis, Arch Foster toppled Jeff Gilbreath, Bob Renfro beat Beryl Witherspoon, Homer Henslee, Jr., blasted Coop Dewey, John Patton lucked out on Harry Rice, Doug Fox was overwhelmed by Jim Clark, Tuffy Acker whipped Herb Stief, Jack Wayland was no match for Mac Pitman, Homer Henslee vanquished Bob Wilson, Ted Young nosed out Brooks, Ab Posey was not in a class with Prentice Rosson, Allred shaded Phillips.

To Hold Mass Meeting Here Saturday Afternoon

Buying of cattle by the Government as a relief measure will start in Deaf Smith county by the first of next week. No limit will be set on the number of animals to be bought in the county. Prices will range up to $20 a head.

A county-wide mass meeting has been called for 2:30 Saturday afternoon at the district court room to explain the program to cattle raisers. County Agent Dewey Reed is director of the program in the county. He will name a committee of four as appraisers. Two will be dairymen and two range cattlemen.

Boardman Third In Music Contest

Herbert Boardman won third place among high school students of the United States in the bass horn contest at Des Moines, Iowa, last Thursday. Twenty-eight were competing in Boardman's class.

Ralph Smith, band instructor, took Boardman to the national contests. He was one of three chosen from Texas to compete. Hugo Lowenstern, Jr., of Amarillo won second place in the saxophone contest. More than 5,000 high school students took part in the meet.

Ruth Marie Mountz played Boardman's accompaniment. Wayne Evans, member of the high school band, also made the trip. Boardman was awarded a medal and a $50 scholarship at the National Bank and Orchestra School at Interlochen, Michigan.

Band Practice Starts Monday

Practice for the city band will begin next Monday evening with a rehearsal at the city hall, beginning at 8:15, announces Ralph Smith, director. Smith also said the junior band will begin its work for the summer with a rehearsal and class to be held at the high school Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Highway 60 Convention Will Be In California

Fourth annual convention of U. S. Highway 60 Association will be held at Riverside, California, next Monday and Tuesday. Highway 33 in Texas is U. S. 60. Caravans are to be formed at Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and Globe, Arizona, for the trip to the convention city.

Delegations from all along the route to the Atlantic Coast will attend. A number of representatives from the Panhandle will be on hand.

Two government inspectors, named by the Extension Service, will be here tomorrow. They will determine whether or not cattle are unfit for human consumption. Then the inspectors, the owners and local appraisers will agree on the price.

The movement is primarily for relief and does not contemplate the purchasing of highest grade, most expensive cattle. It will provide opportunity for cattle owners to cull their herds, selling off the animals whose value is low. All of the county's 30,000 head of cattle, however, are eligible to be sold.

The government canning plant at Amarillo is to be re-opened and most of the animals will be sent there for slaughtering and canning. Mortgages of cattle involved in the transaction will be allowed to participate in the benefits from sales. One transaction will cover a deal, and owners will not be required to go through a lot of red tape. Money is to be delivered to sellers within a few days after sales are made. It is hoped to complete the entire program within ten days, once it gets under way.

All details will be explained in full at the mass meeting Saturday afternoon and all interested in selling the cattle are urged to be on hand.

Reed, Judge C. W. Humble and Jim Lipscomb, county relief chairman, attended the meeting in Amarillo Wednesday when the plan was explained to representatives of the drought stricken counties. Grover Hill of Amarillo, pioneer cattleman, will administer the program in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. Dr. O. B. Martin, head of the Extension Service, and C. E. Bawa, assistant state relief administrator, had charge of the Amarillo meeting.

Small Working In South Texas

Fresh from a week's campaigning in Southeast Texas, Senator Clint Small, candidate for Governor, returned to the north end of the state Monday. His itinerary had taken him into most of the counties between San Antonio and Houston and south along the Gulf Coast. In this region where four years ago he got very few votes he was greeted with wide assurances of support from public and press alike. Numerous newspapers are committed to his candidacy and this time he has pledged pluralities in many of these counties.

He made three night speeches during the tour. On each occasion the promptest response by way of applause came for his pledge that, when he is elected governor, persons who are convicted of crimes of violence will stay in the penitentiary once they get there.

His promise of maintaining a minimum seven-months $16 per capita school status, his method of making special state departments self sustaining to reduce the ad valorem tax immediately and his plan for reform in the courts and a reduction in their cost brought many expressions of approval.

During the current week Senator Small, after opening with a speech at Cleburne Monday and a radio address at Fort Worth on Tuesday night, was to spend the remainder of his time in the section surrounding Waxahatchie, Ennis and Hillsboro.

His only announced formal date is at San Antonio, June 14 when he will address the people of Texas over a state-wide radio hook-up on "The Crime Trust in Texas."

WIND AND WEEDS

MUCH HAS been said and written in regard to wind erosion of soil on the Plains. Last week the commissioners of this county inaugurated a fight against tumble weeds and wind erosion. Their immediate problem is weeds, since the big Russian thistles blow into the ditches alongside the roads where they are covered by blown soil and create a problem in road maintenance that is almost beyond solution.

Much of the blame for the looseness and consequent blowing of the soil is being laid by experts on the "one-way" plow. Farmers are abandoning the one-way in Kansas. It is said the implement is being badly misused. It was meant originally to be a cultivator to use on wheat lands right after harvest to kill off the summer weeds and turn the stubble under, thus allowing the volunteer wheat to come up and putting the land in shape for deep plowing in the fall.

"There are safe and sane methods of cultivation for this area that will almost assure a crop every year," reports John McCarty, of the Dalhart Texan, after a recent survey. "Early and deep tilling, frequent cultivation, no heavy pasturage, alternating crops, and some attention paid to putting back into the land a part of the richness which was taken out by the crop. When the land has been plowed properly and is terraced it will catch and hold most of the moisture that falls."

Methods of an Eastern Kansas county in erosion control will be discussed here next week. That county was faced with the problem 10 or 12 years ago, and by organization and planning they have succeeded not only in saving the soil, but in making it richer.

ALLRED IS FRANK

Whether or not one is committed to James V. Allred for Governor of Texas, he must admit that the youthful attorney general is conducting a frank and intelligent campaign. One must admire his willingness to speak frankly on any issue regardless of the certainty of rousing powerful opposition.

He deals with issues and not personalities—a refreshing feature. One is impressed with his sincerity and enthusiasm. That he has devoted real work and study to the state's problems is self-evident. Whether or not Allred is elected, Texas owes him thanks for making the campaign one of issues rather than personalities.

With a 34-hour week we may have time to answer all the government questionnaires.—Grapeland Messenger.

A LONG TIME AGO IN HEREFORD

(From The Hereford Brand, June 5, 1903)

A new brick building, 25x25 feet was to be erected on Illinois Avenue and used a permanent quarters for the post office.

Prof. A. J. Showalter of Dalton, Georgia, had been secured to conduct a Summer Musical Normal Institute in Hereford.

T. A. Cox had been held up at his cow camp in New Mexico by two men who backed their demands by a display of two Winchester and an expressed willingness to use them. Two rifles, two sixshooters and what cash Cox had on his person. After this they took the only two horses in camp, one of which belonged to Rat Jewell, and proceeded on their way. They later stuck up a railroad man and took his horse, releasing the animal belonging to Jewell.

"Slowly but surely Dimmitt is gaining prominence among the Panhandle county seats. All she needs is a railroad to make her boom."

Charles E. Hodges, South Draw ranchman, had broken a leg while alighting from his horse. He was brought to town in a carriage by Mrs. Hodges and the leg was set by Drs. Estes and Tinsley.

Arthur Parnell, crack pitcher of the Hereford baseball team, had established a paint and wall paper store in Hereford.

"Mrs. H. H. Stanley was a pleasant caller at this office Monday and informs us that Miss Laura Hamper of Claude will conduct the private school in the Stanley district."

C. S. Richards had received notification of the birth of a 14-pound son, born May 30, at Graham.

(From The Hereford Brand, June 6, 1913.)

Rainfall six miles west of town measured many inches. According to Ed Short, from the Mrs. Briggs place to the Mounz windmill, the water stood from one to two feet deep, not a show of land being visible on a strip three miles wide and five miles long. Sheep shearers at work on 2000 head, were forced to move the animals to higher ground when "the water reached their bellies," as Mr. Short expressed it.

Frio Farm was said to be making two tons of alfalfa hay to the acre. The crop stood waist high to a six foot man.

Frying chickens were plentiful and bringing around 40 cents each.

By Their Words

What Panhandle Papers Say

Did you ever hear of a candidate running for office that promised to balance the budget? Then when you elected him, did you ever know of one to balance the budget? As a general rule when they go out the budget is unbalanced, as bad or worse than when they went in. Uncle Sam has set his lever one notch deeper on his income tax plow and is getting down into the subsoil that has never been torn up before, and it makes the rich man squirm, and the poor man laugh and the happy medium man goes serenely on his way and says: "Why go to extreme, anyway?"—McLean News.

Those foreign governments who owe the United States huge war debts do not relish being placed in the "defaulter" class by Washington. The shoe pinches where it hurts most—in the pocketbook. Under a law recently passed by congress a defaulting nation may not sell any of its securities or borrow money, outright from any American source. Neither can it acquire credit. It leaves them holding both horns of a dilemma. They want to borrow money from us, but they can't do it unless they pay their debts. And they don't want to pay their war debts.—Turkey Enterprise.

Jess Mitchell, who was once a good preacher, and continues moral suasion as publisher of the newy Muleshoe Journal over across the state line, has started out full steam ahead for nomination as representative for 120th representative district, including Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Bailey,

Lamb, Hale and Floyd counties of Texas. Jess has acquired a lot of good farming land, though the Times does not know whether he got it as a preacher or a publisher, both fields of infrequent earning; he also has picked up a reputation for considerable common sense and moral level-headedness which is not too frequent in legislatures. He claims not to be a politician, but starts his campaign as a shrewd politician might.—Curry County (New Mexico) Times.

The old maxim says: "We never miss water till the well runs dry." Our people during the early part of this week were forced to acknowledge the truth of this saying—or, to be more accurate—we never miss the water till the pump wears out, for that is just what happened to our city well; and although two other wells were tapped in on the mains they supply little more than enough for drinking and domestic use.—Jodok, In Friona Star.

MUCH WORK DONE DURING YEAR BEAUTIFICATION REPORT SHOWS

Much progress in beautification and development of Hereford and the county during the past year is reflected in the report recently rendered by Mrs. John P. Slaton to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in connection with that body's community beautification project. Mrs. Slaton was chairman of the campaign here during the time.

In the home beautiful contest 202 homes were entered. The survey showed that 1,298 trees and shrubs were planted in the city and 32 paint and repair jobs were carried out. Fifty-six blocks of city streets were excavated and given caliche surface.

In the parks the improvements included building a rockery, trimming 400 trees, laying 300 yards of caliche foot paths, planting of piping for watering, construction of five brick ovens a camp table and a foot bridge across the creek, planting 40 trees and erection of a pine log gate at the entrance.

All vacant lots in the city were cleaned up twice. Five were used in the community gardens project last summer. The upstairs rooms of the city hall were remodeled and made into club rooms for the American Legion and fire boys.

Dirt excavated from streets was placed on the Central school grounds, fertilized, then planted to bermuda grass. In the cemetery 790 feet of 16-foot driveways were covered with caliche, a new approach was built to the entrance and 100 rose bushes were planted in the cemetery. The mile of Harrison Highway and the cemetery was widened and surfaced with caliche.

BRISBANE'S FATHER SPONSOR OF TEXAS COMMUNIST COLONY

There was Communism in Dallas in the 1850's, and Fort Worth missed it only because Arthur Brisbane's father and Victor Prosper Considerant, a Frenchman, believed the town to be "closer to the frontier and farther from Austin" than Dallas was.

A multitude of interesting facts about that early-day experiment in Communism, or probably more properly Socialism, have been gathered by Dr. W. J. Hammond, head of the department of history in Texas Christian University. The famous Mrs. Bloomer, who gave her name to a now familiar item of women's wearing apparel, was a member of the colony. The late Arthur Brisbane, father of the Hearst columnist, helped locate the colony. It once had a population greater than the main section of Dallas. It lasted—but to begin at the beginning:

French, Belgian and Swiss followers of that school believing that society should be organized into co-operative units, decided about 1850 that they might find such units in Texas. Considerant, the French leader of the movement, came to America to pave the way. He got both money and enthusiasm from the elder Brisbane. The latter came with him to Texas to locate the colony. They came by boat as far as Fort Smith, Arkansas, bought horses there, and made their way to Dallas on horseback.

They were not altogether pleased with the site decided upon—then near Dallas, now a part of the city. They would have liked settling within the reassuring shadow of Fort Worth. But they finally decided upon Dallas, purchased some 50,000 acres of land and established a communal trading center, laundry, flour mill, bootery, etc. The colony survived from 1854 to 1867. At one time there were 500 members. One of them was Mrs. Bloomer. Mrs. Bloomer set New York agog in 1850 when she advocated a voluminous sort of trousers for women. When she arrived in Dallas wearing those amazing "bloomers" the good people of the town were aghast. After days of backfence buzzing they decided she couldn't stay there.

She said the 1854 equivalent of "phooey" to the Dallas people and went to the outskirts of the village to consult with the folks of the "Reunion" colony. They looked her over in some surprise, but one man finally settled the matter with a disgusted: "Hell, they're better than hoop skirts."

The colony failed, says Dr. Hammond, because its citizens were too well born, too highly educated. It failed when the money they had brought with them—and that which Brisbane added—gave out. Nobody knew how to plow and so the rich land failed them. Nobody could even cultivate the vineyards. And that had been Considerant's dream—a great vineyard and fine wine and a planned society.

TONS OF SOIL SHIFTED IN RECENT DUST STORM

The great cloud of dust that swept across the country from the Great Plains to the Atlantic Coast the second week in May set new high records in several places. When it passed over Washington, D. C., for example, it gave the air its heaviest load of dust particles on record.

Measurements by the United States Weather Bureau show that each cubic inch of air over the capital contained 150,000 particles of dust. The normal dust count is 6,400 particles to the cubic inch and the previous high record was 113,000. These particles were almost twice the size of those usually present. Dr. J. W. Humphreys, of the Weather Bureau, estimates that 5,000 tons of western real estate were constantly floating over the city of Washington.

The last western storm that showered the East with large quantities of dust occurred in November, 1933. Both storms, Dr. Humphreys points out, resulted from the same combination of dust and wind. The wind in each case came from the bare land of the Great Plains States that has been pulverized by cultivation and then dried by severe drought. Violent gales swept this powdery soil up in a huge cloud, from which the dust settled back to earth as it was borne swiftly east and south.

A weather map of the 1933 storm shows how such storms rise and spread. The atmospheric disturbances that carried western dust to the eastern seaboard, the map indicates, started well up in Canada. An air mass moving rapidly southeastward over Alberta hit the dry, bare soil of the northern and central Great Plains area. The violent winds sent big clouds of dust swirling through the air, blotting out the sun and charging the atmosphere with electricity. The fury of the storm gradually spent itself as it moved eastward. The finer dust blown up to the higher currents of the air, was carried along until it was precipitated out with rain and snow over the Eastern States. As there was but little moisture in the air over Washington during the May storm, the dust descended in the form of a haze that obscured the sun and filled the air with tiny particles.

NATIONAL BANKS OF TEXAS ARE IN GOOD CONDITION, REPORTED

Washington, D. C. June 6.—Texas has at this time only seven unlicensed national banks, and six of these have had plans for reorganization approved, leaving but one without an approved plan for reorganization. Comptroller of the Currency O'Connell announced today, making public condition of national banks throughout the United States.

Texas national bank conditions were the best of any of the large states. Of the 60 national banks in Texas in receivership there have been released $12,153,000 and $17,558,000 is still frozen.

The $17,558,000 still frozen in closed Texas national banks also was the smallest of any of the large states, comparing with $288,097,000 in Michigan, $108,302,000 in Pennsylvania, $83,233,000 in New York, $33,847,000 in New Jersey, $33,192,000 in Indiana, $26,886,000 in California, $23,284,000 in Ohio, $23,179,000 in Iowa and $18,023,000 in Florida.

There are in Texas at this time 454 national banks, with a total deposit aggregating $827,643,000, throughout the day.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The Whiteface Troop met Wednesday in its new meeting place in the court house at 4:30. The troop is very proud of its new headquarters and is spending much time decorating the room.

At the meeting last week each patrol made its flag. The flags are green with white emblems representing the name of the patrol applied on. These are very attractive. The troop flags, one of red with a whiteface bull in the center of it, and the other a Scout flag of blue and white with the Scout emblem in green and gold, were hung in conspicuous places. The lieutenant contributed a large American flag so our collection of flags is complete.

The girls are becoming such accomplished needlewomen they are going to make curtains for their troop room. These curtains are gay chintz and will improve the appearance of the room.

The troop has set forth the following aims for the summer. 1. All girls to be second class scouts by end of summer; 2. To be swimmers, know at least one good stroke; 3. To be holders of Needlewoman badge; 4. To be holders of cooks badge; 5. To be holders of housekeepers badge. With these fine aims accomplished, mothers of scouts can lean back in comfort and leave a sigh of relief as their daughter scouts don aprons and cook the family meal or darn socks and sew on buttons. Mothers, don't faint because this is entirely possible and your daughter will be as good a housekeeper as you are.

On account of the end of school meetings begin at 4 instead of 4:30 as formerly, so plan to be with us from 4 to 5 on Wednesdays in our troop room and we promise you an hour of pleasant work and happy comradeship. New members and visitors are always welcome.

harvested in 1935 is the security. Interest will be 5 1/2 per cent.

Maximum amount obtainable on one of these loans is $400. Loans will be made on a basis of approximately $1.25 per acre of wheat to be planted. Only the wheat crop will be mortgaged. Under the feed crop loan, the entire farm produce was mortgaged.

The same committee that handled the feed crop loans will direct the wheat loans work. George Muse is chairman. A. H. Streu and H. G. Conkright are the other members.

Application blanks are on hand and applications are being made in Castro county at the Dimmitt office, according to word received here yesterday.

Deadline for making these applications has been set at June 15, but extensions are expected to be granted as they were last year when loans were applied for thru the planting season.

FARM LOANS OVER

purposes other than the refinancing of borrowers' debts. Of this sum, $21,000 was used for the purchase of land and equipment, construction or improvement of buildings, and for general agricultural uses, including the provision of capital, while $38,800, the balance, was used for the purchase of stock in national farm loan associations, for loan fees, and the like.

Throughout the United States approximately $675,000,000 of land bank and Commissioner's Loans were made from June 1, 1933, to May 1, 1934. Most of these loans were made to refinance debts from the long period of low farm income.

Generally farmers pay considerably less interest each year on the new than on the old loans. Land bank loans made through national farm loan associations carry an interest rate of 5 per cent, but there is a reduction to 4 1/2 per cent until July, 1938. Loans made direct by banks carry a rate of 5 1/2 per cent, but there is a reduction to 5 per cent until 1938. The rate on Commissioner's loans is 5 per cent. Against these rates farmers in most cases had been paying from 5 per cent to 8 per cent, but on numerous loans they had been paying 9 per cent, 10 per cent, and even above 10 per cent.

Until March 26 the land bank and Commissioner's loans were made in cash. Commencing on that date they were made mainly in the government guaranteed bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation. These bonds are exempt from all Federal, state, municipal and local taxation, except surtaxes, estate, inheritance and gift taxes. They are guaranteed fully as to principal and interest by the United States government. In a relatively short period after they were issued, they sold above par and met a favorable reception from farmers and their creditors all over the United States. With the use of these bonds the refinancing program is going forward rapidly.

NO WORD ON

formed as to the true state of things. The 216, Chilton referred to are the ones who are requiring total support by relief.

Chilton has now sent out a call asking everyone who has not registered at his office and who needs work to call there at once. Every person out of work is asked to enroll.

"It was through the efforts of local citizens," committee members pointed out, "that Deaf Smith county was designated as requiring immediate aid and placed in the primary relief area. We do not want officials in Austin or Washington to get the impression that we need help for only 216. That understates the case and makes it appear that we were misrepresenting the condition of the county in pleading to be placed in the primary area."

Chilton claims he has sufficient projects approved and on hand to employ all of 1,000 men within a few hours after orders to proceed are received. Reports from members of the relief committee and other competent observers indicate that there will be more than enough workers to fill the jobs.

Completing of Highway 33 and building of 25-Mile Avenue are among the projects Chilton says have been approved. The Highway 33 job includes building of curb and gutter and topping on the portion in the city limits.

While the special program of relief is getting under way here to some extent, in that action is to be had on the cattle buying program, people of Deaf Smith county are still wondering if this latest plan is another of the empty promises to which they have grown accustomed. It is agreed that if officials take the administrator's report of 216 persons as the total needing work, the county will be receiving no more relief than it has heretofore, which, all agree, is not a drop in the bucket.

Mrs. Charles Bennett is in Abilene this week to witness the graduation of her son, Bernard Seed, from Simmons University. Mr. Seed majored in Science. Mr. and Mrs. Seed will return here with Mrs. Bennett the latter part of this week.

Mrs. T. E. Seliger, Mrs. B. F. Guthrie, Carl Gilliland and Mrs. Seth B. Holman have been appointed members of the Texas Centennial Advisory Board. First meeting of the group was held Wednesday at the Driskill Hotel in Austin. None of the local members were able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ramey returned last Thursday from Abilene, where they visited their daughter, Miss Oline Ramey, who is a student in Abilene Christian College. She returned with them for the summer vacation.

 Run—anyhow they made the runs. Speegle singled, Kester doubled, Hussey was safe on a bunt, Kester scoring. Robinson popped out to short. Kerr whiffed, Baker singled into left scoring Hussey. L. B. Russell was out, third to first.
 The smoke smotherers were still trying in the seventh, just 12 runs behind. Bud Witherspoon, first man up, singled, Babe Russell lined one out to catcher, W. Witherspoon popped to short. Then Carroll hit one to left center and hit it plenty hard—looked like a cinch for a home run, but that rabbit-twisting Speegle from New Mexico came over and took it and wound up a GOOD ball game—and what a catch—would have been good in any league.
 Kester led with the wood, getting a triple, double and single out of four trips to the plate.

 through a period of adjustment to the new conditions brought about by America's becoming a debtor nation. What the solution is, no one knows.
 "But the individual farmer is concerned with his personal problems and wants to know what he can do about it. In the first place he can become a more efficient manager by putting his farm on a business like basis, accounting and operating just as any business in a town does.
 "He can improve his family's condition by intelligent planning about the home and participation in community and public affairs. He can go in for quality production—it costs as much to produce and ship a sorry turkey or inferior cream as it does to provide the best and get top prices."
 Dr. Ellsworth went into detail in explaining all propositions he set forth. He discussed individual problems with farmers after his talk.
