Commission Blasts Irrigation 'Tail-Water' Along Farm Roads

WILLIAMS, WOMBLE ON AIRPORT BOARD

County Discusses Remodeling, Jail

H. C. Williams and Benny Womble Monday were named to the Airport Zoning Board by the Deaf Smith County Commissioners. They will serve with two members previously appointed to the board by the City of Hereford. City representatives on the board are Ray Frye and Charlie Seeds. A fifth member will be named by the city and county board members.

Amarillo architect John P. Work met with the commission Monday afternoon to discuss proposed renovation of the Deaf Smith County courthouse.

Work went over a list of proposed changes and renovation moves for the building, explaining the approximate cost, reasons for changes and changes in appearance and efficiency.

The Amarillo architect also talked briefly about a new jail building for the county.

Commissioners decided to have John Work return to meet with them at their next regular session, Nov. 10. He is scheduled to discuss courthouse renovation and a new jail at that time. His place on the agenda is tentatively slated for 2:30 p.m. The commission also approved.

Wayne Wyatt

Excess irrigation water which is turned into "bar" ditches was blasted hard by Deaf Smith County Commissioners during their regular meeting Monday.

The water constitutes a problem for road maintenance and weed control, the commissioners said during a discussion with Wayne Wyatt, local supervisor for the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District. Wyatt explained to the commission that the county had the authority to keep the water out of roadside ditches and off public roads and right-of-way.

In an effort to solve the problem, the commissioners have invited Tom McFarland, manager of the High Plains Water District, to attend the next regular commission meeting. He is scheduled to talk with commissioners at 1 p.m. Nov. 10.

Wyatt also pointed out one section of the rules of the HPUWCD, as amended Feb. 4, 1957, which states that waste is defined as "Willfully causing, suffering, or permitting underground water produced for irrigation or agricultural purposes to escape into any river, creek, or other natural watercourse, depression, or lake, reservoir, drain, or into any sewer, street, highway, road, road ditch, or upon the land of any other person than the owner of such well, or upon public land." The rules of the district also state, "Any person producing or using underground water shall use every possible precaution, in accordance with the most approved methods, to stop and prevent waste of such water."

Deaf Smith County Commission

Commissioners Monday complained that constant "tail water", the common term for water which escapes from an irrigated field, has taxed weed control facilities severely. Some ditches, they contend, must be by-passed again and again by mowing machines because of tall water. At county road intersections tall growths of Johnson grass have constituted traffic hazards.

In this connection, commissioners also discussed a letter from the Deaf Smith County Program Development Committee, asking the county's cooperation in eliminating blind corners on farm road intersections. Commissioners said they believed they had eliminated all weeds along roads and at intersections, but would appreciate hearing about places they had missed. They also pointed out that many hazardous intersections were caused, not by weeds in ditches, but by tall Johnson grass in the corners of some farmers' fields.

County commissioners' concern ties in closely with a recent announcement in The Cross Section, official monthly publication of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, that rules against wasting irrigation water would be more strictly enforced.

"The District has pointed out that agricultural 'tail-water' is also a detriment to our society from a health and safety standpoint," the article stated. "The road-ditches, depressions and lakes when filled with 'tail-water' represent excellent breeding environments for disease-carrying mosquitoes. Also, 'tail-water' represents a public safety hazard when allowed to run across or stand on public roads. Many accidents have occurred when an unaware motorist comes upon a large gully washed across the road by 'tail-water'."

Bids Asked For 5 Miles Paving

Sealed bids for the construction of more than five miles of paving in Deaf Smith County will be received by the Texas Highway Department in Austin until Nov. 13.

The proposed paving site is on Highway 51, from .3 mile south of Highway 60 to Farm Highway 809, at the Castro County Line.

Deadline for receiving bids is 9 a.m. Nov. 13. Plans and specifications for the public works project are available at the office of W. V. York, Texas Highway Department engineer, Hereford.

City Resident For 40 Years Dies Tuesday

Miss Lucy Reed, 83, Hereford resident for 40 years, was pronounced dead on arrival about 5 p.m. Tuesday at Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Miss Reed had been ill for several months and had been a patient in the Hereford hospital for some time before she was released Monday.

A neighbor, Mrs. J. F. Ward, found Miss Reed's body in the bathroom where she had fallen, apparently after suffering a stroke.

She was born in Alabama in 1875 and made her home here with her husband, the late Mrs. C. V. Reed, for many years.

Meeting Tonight On Civic Center

A seemingly lack of interest was shown in the recent canvass of opinions stating what facilities and services residents would like to see installed in the proposed community center, according to Earnest Langley, chairman of the planning committee.

A meeting of the committee will be held at 7:30 p.m. today at the high school library.

Only 30 questionnaires were received from residents, Langley said. Questionnaires were printed in The Brand, and residents were asked to check what facilities or services they would like to see installed in the building and send the questionnaires to the City Hall.

Langley said only 30 letters were received from various Hereford organizations stating they would be interested in sending representatives to voice their view at a future meeting of the committee.

Organizations which responded to the letters have been invited by the committee to send representatives to the meeting tonight.

City Manager Dudley Bayne said that in response to the questionnaires, the most popular facility of interest was

A Porch Light Shines Across Thousands Of Miles Tonight

A light shining on your porch tonight can bring brightness to the eyes of hungry people overseas tomorrow, as more than 200 Hereford youngsters will don ghost and goblin garments to-night and go from house to house collecting gifts of money through CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program).

Hereford residents are asked to leave their porch lights on from 7 to 9:30 p.m. If they would like to contribute money to the annual project.

"Residents, however, should require identification of persons asking for contributions if they are in doubt that they are participants of this project," James Brogdon, president of the group, said. "Others might use this project as a means of gaining money for themselves."

Participants of the canvass will meet at the First Christian Church on the Harrison Highway to begin the house-to-house campaign.

A part of the nation-wide program for the fifth year, the local youngsters plan to collect money instead of goodies in order to help those less fortunate than themselves. A goal of $1,000 has been set for the county this year.

Last year, $650 was collected by about 150 children, but additional participants in the project are expected to increase contributions, Brogdon said.

A small amount of money will provide for large returns overseas. For instance, 25 cents will give 19 children bread and milk every day for

REPORT ON UNITED FUND AGENCIES:

Red Cross, Camp Fire Girls Give Services To Many With Low Cost

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first in a series of articles describing the activities of agencies included in the 1958 United Fund budget. Purpose of this series is to acquaint Deaf Smith County residents with the various activities and services rendered by these agencies.)

The Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter operates on the basis of volunteer services. With only one paid worker on the local staff, 125 residents in various communities in the county volunteer year-around services to the Red Cross programs. It has been allocated $7,790 by the United Fund budget committee.

Although two government-chartered services are included in the local chapter, most of the services are for the general benefit of the immediate area.

Services of the county chapter include health and safety programs, youth program, welfare program, motor corps, loans and coordination with county welfare.

The services chartered by the government include the Disaster Preparedness Plan and services to the Armed Forces and families and veterans and families.

Sub-divisions of the health and safety programs include water safety classes, first aid instruction and home nursing classes. Home nursing includes aid to the sick and injured and mother and baby care.

The youth program includes Junior Red Cross in the schools and swimming instruction during the summer.

DWI Charge

Charles Russell Hazelwood, 51, Waco, was arrested by Hereford Police here Sunday and charged for driving while intoxicated, first offense. He was later turned over to county authorities.

He was released on $500 bond Monday, pending trial in County Court.

Hazelwood was arrested Sunday in the 100 block of McKinley St. Patrolman Gene Martin made the arrest.

No Spoofing... Pre-Spoofing Warning Given

In issuing a pre-Halloween night warning to Hereford youngsters, Police Chief Henry Aycock said "we want the youth to have a good time, but property damage and the creating of hazardous conditions cannot be tolerated."

Aycock said that there was a little damage done by pranksters in Hereford last year, and he requested the cooperation of youngsters in limiting their activity to clean fun again this Halloween.

"If any person is detected to be creating a hazardous condition or destroying private or public property, he will be arrested," Aycock warned.

Brothers Oppose Each Other As Herd Visits Littlefield Tomorrow Night

There won't be any love lost between two brothers at Littlefield Friday night when the Wildcats tangle with the Hereford Whitefaces in a District 1-AAA grid battle.

Bobby Williams, in his first season as head of the Hereford football team, will be trying everything in his power to outwit his brother, Don, who is also making his first head coaching start. Both Don and Bobby were stand-outs for Chesty Walker's

Phillips Blackhawks and both were main-stay linemen at Texas Tech.

Littlefield lost its first conference start last Saturday night, as Phillips downed the Wildcats 24-12. Hereford got a week's rest last week in preparation for four tough conference games.

The speedy Wildcats have a 3-3 season record. They upset Plainview in their opener 14-8, then whipped Olton 42-6 before losing to Brownfield 12-6. The Cats clawed Clovis 46-6 and lost to Kermit 28-16 to wind up their non-conference games.

Scouting reports indicate Littlefield is blessed with speed and more speed, plus a strong line on defense. Senior halfback James Pressley is the Wildcats' best break-away threat. He scored both touchdowns against Plainview, one on an 80-yard kick-off return. Against Clovis, he scored first for the Wildcats on a 95-yard punt return.

Two sophomores are bringing wide smiles to Don Williams' face this season. One of them is De Pierce, a brilliant quarterback who has almost taken the signal-calling job away from senior Bill Jeffries. The two are alternating at the key post. The other top sophomore is Jerry Koller, a halfback who scored three times against Olton, two times on runs of more than 30 yards.

Top linemen for the Wildcats are Bill Wade and Hilton Hemphill. Wade is a co-captain, 175-pound tackle. Hemphill, also a co-captain, is a senior end.

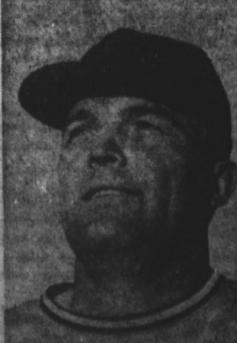

One of the scrappiest linemen for the Wildcats is a 140-pound junior who plays guard. Bo

The motorist asked what he was wrong. Hurrying back he soon received a citation for $15, of which $10 was making an improper turn the other $5 for failure to in traffic court. He has joined the growing list of residents who have never to buy another in Amarillo, or to even on its streets if possible.

Moisture Halts Crop Harvest

Although relatively little moisture fell in this area this week, a high moisture content in the air brought harvesting of the county's main crops to a stand-still.

Little grain went in storage in the area elevators since Sunday, and though the field hand situation has improved to the cotton grower, little activity was reported at the gins.

An excellent moisture content of grain was reported by elevator operators last week. But approximately 17 of an inch of moisture provided a high humidity content in the atmosphere and brought grain influx to a halt.

Gin operators expect stripping of cotton to start in a few days. Most of the open-boll type cotton is ready to be harvested.

Cotton growers have been posed with the problem of lack of pullers for the past month. Pat Patterson, State Employment representative, said that only 50 cotton pullers are needed by growers at the present time.

Although stripping or mechanical harvesting is an operation that is usually reserved until a frost, many farmers say that they will harvest by the stripping method soon if a frost fails to materialize.

Operators said the moisture content of maize stored in elevators last week reached a low recording of nine per cent. The content, they reported, never exceeded 13 per cent.

Covered-Dish Luncheon Held

The West Hereford Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Carlos Vaughn for a covered-dish luncheon.

Mrs. Hugh Witherspoon discussed "Synthetics," Mrs. Alice Cox talked on "Washable Fabrics" and Mrs. T. B. Shirley discussed "How to Sew Synthetics."

Members present were Mesdames Alice Cox, Carlos Vaughn, W. A. Austrey, Norman Lowery, Hugh Witherspoon, John Jacobsen, W. A. Waters, E. B. Mosley, N. B. Hood, Mary Williams, Alice Bradley, T. B. Shirley, Floyd Walton, Vern Witherspoon, Miss Evelyn Bell and one visitor, Mrs. M. L. Wingit.

The next meeting will be Nov. 11 in the home of Mrs. Alice Cox.

Martinez Infant Funeral Monday

Graveside services for Mary Martinez, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonardo Martinez, were conducted Monday afternoon at St. Anthony's Cemetery. The Rev. Raymond Gillis, pastor of the labor camp mission, officiated.

Arrangements were by Gilliland Funeral Home.

The baby died shortly after birth Sunday night in the family home, 10 miles southeast of Hereford.

Survivors include the parents, a brother and five sisters.

Absentee Voting Will End Today

Absentee balloting closes at 5 p.m. today in the County Clerk's office. Only seven votes had been cast through Wednesday afternoon.

The absentee ballot trend indicates an unusually light vote in this year's general election, which starts Tuesday. Absentee voting opened in the county Oct. 15.

The state-wide general election will begin on the morning of Nov. 4 in the county's 11 precincts.

A total of 28 posts in state and county races will be decided in the election and voting on nine amendments to the Texas Constitution will be included on ballots.

Denny Services Held On Monday

Funeral services for Tony Denny, 46, were conducted Monday morning at Grace Gospel Church in Hereford with the Rev. H. V. Fields, pastor, officiating. Burial was in West Park Cemetery. Services were under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford.

Denny died last Friday morning in a train-truck accident on State Highway 51 crossing in Vega.

The deceased was born Nov. 7, 1912, in Hereford, and was married to Mozelle Harris on Nov. 10, 1941, in Tucumcari, N. M. He was the operator of a farm about 22 miles north of Hereford.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Bernice, 15, and Valerie, 7; two sons, Leroy, 14, and Richard Don, 9, all of the farm home; four sisters, Mrs. Bess Jennings of Hereford, Mrs. S. D. Durham and Mrs. Homer Durham of Moab, Utah, and Mrs. Chess Gollihar of Elgin, Utah; two brothers, Bill of Childress and Arthur of Hereford.

Littlefield is holding down the middle in top AAA scoring. He is sixth with 38 points and leader is seventh with 36 points.

Often known as "The Little Southwest Conference," District 1-AAA is certainly living up to its name this year. Current United Press International ratings put Phillips first in state AAA standings, while Levelland is eighth and Dumas is 18th. Levelland last Friday downed Dumas 42-18 in a game that was closer than the score indicates.

Bobby Williams said this week the open date had helped him and his staff to smooth out some of the rough spots and to concentrate on scouting reports on the other conference opponents. The Whiteface squad should be at its strongest against Littlefield, with Durwood Jacobs and Donnie Renfro ready to play again after being injured.

Friday night games will include Hereford at Littlefield and Phillips at Dumas while Levelland has an open date. Dumas, incidentally, will be trying for its first victory over Phillips since 1939.

A caravan made up of KFDA-TV personalities is scheduled to stop in Hereford Saturday about 4 p.m. They will present a short show in front of the Jim Hill Hotel.

Hereford High's Big Domino Band and its Junior High counterpart both won third division honors in an area-wide marching contest at Amarillo Tuesday night. Charles Bell is the busy director of both musical groups.

Everyone is invited to the annual Walcott School Carnival on Friday, night for ghosts and goblins. The yearly affair is staged to raise money for various Walcott P-TA projects. And you can bring pies and cakes to the cake-walk if you would like. In past years, the Walcott P-TA has furnished curtains, clocks, maps, free lunches, pianos and many other things for their students.

If there is an unhappy little girl in the vicinity of Park Ave. and Ave. J, we may have the solution. A small, plastic basket, containing a doll, tiny blanket, hat and other playthings, was found and turned in at The Brand. The tiny owner, or her parents, may claim same by identifying it.

At least one car dealer is convinced the annual Fall Mall, sponsored by Hereford merchants last Saturday, was a booming success. He sold one of his 1959 models on the street. The new owner paid cash and drove it off immediately. It left a hole in the display, but fattened the dealer's pocket.

Best-received number played by the Amarillo Air Force Band during the Fall Mall was a clever arrangement of the "Colonel Bogie March," better known as the theme for the movie, "Bridges on the River Kwai." They alternated playing and whistling the catchy tune, to the delight of the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Gine returned to Hereford last week after a scouting trip near Blanning. Gine brought back three deer, two bucks and a doe.

The loan department furnishes crutches, walkers, etc., to disabled people. Working with the County Welfare Department, the chapter issues donated clothing, as needed, to school children and needy families.

The summer water safety program for 1958 included 11 instructors or aides. Signing up for classes were 479 adults and youngsters, and of that number, 211 earned certificates. A total of 689 hours were logged by the 11 volunteer instructors.

First aid personnel included four instructors, and 17 persons took standard and advanced first aid work and now are eligible to become instructors.

Two instructors taught in the nursing program this year. A total of 137 adults and high school girls received certificates in the seven classes taught this year.

Under home service, receiving financial or other aid were 76 servicemen, 11 veterans and 20 civilians and their families. In limited services (not counted as cases) 191 families received benefits.

The wet spell made the home service program quite active this year as it became a lengthy community program.

In the disaster program, the county averages about two major fires a year. If more than five families are involved in major disasters, national help becomes available. Disasters under that number are handled locally.

Disaster-stricken families receive clothing, bedding, groceries, dishes and kitchen needs. A total of $300 is budgeted for this program.

Camp Fire Girls, organized locally in 1928, today consists of 18 groups. In those groups, there is a membership of 207 girls and approximately 100 adults serving on the executive board as committee chairmen or sponsors. This organization has been budgeted for $500 by the United Fund.

Girls are eligible for membership at the age of seven in Blue Bird groups. There are 12 Blue Bird chapters in this county.

At the age of 10, they become full-fledged Camp Fire Girls. At 15, they become eligible for membership in the Horizon group.

Former Resident Dies In Amarillo

Funeral services were held Monday for George W. Cloyd, 86, a former Hereford resident who lived at 1824 Lawson Lane, Amarillo, in Rose Chapel of the Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford.

The Rev. Gilbert Davis, pastor of the First Christian Church of Hereford, officiated and burial was in West Park Cemetery under the direction of the funeral home. Mr. Cloyd died at 8:45 p.m. Saturday in an Amarillo hospital. He had been ill for about seven years.

He and his wife, Louella, had made their home with a daughter, Mrs. E. F. Green, at the Amarillo address, since July. He was born Nov. 19, 1872, at Pilot Point in Denton County. He married Louella Sullivan at Pilot Point on Oct. 31, 1891.

The couple moved to Hereford in 1898. They moved to Childress about 10 years ago and from Childress to Amarillo.

He was a retired stockman and a member of the First Methodist Church of Hereford. Survivors include his wife, two sons, T.R. of Canadian and John S. of Fort Worth; three daughters, Mrs. R. D. Cocanougher of Hereford, Mrs. Lon Morton of Childress and Mrs. E. F. Green of Amarillo; one brother, Henry of Hereford; one sister, Mrs. C. T. Wolford of Tulsa; 13 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons of the deceased served as pallbearers.

HOOPER VISITOR Della Ruth Dow of Hooper visited recently with Irene Galley.

RETURN FROM KOREA Cmdr. and Mrs. Ira B. West of the U. S. Navy are visiting in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton West. Cmdr. and Mrs. West have in Formosa, Korea, the past two years where he has been stationed. They returned to the States Oct. 18.

REPORTS FOR DUTY Pvt. Kenneth N. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd West, left Tuesday night for Abilene where he will visit friends before reporting for duty at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio.

RETURN HOME Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Horton have just returned from a two-week vacation through the western states of New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, California, Utah and Colorado. While in California they visited a few days with a brother, K. P. Horton, in Sacramento.

COURT STAGGERS STATES' RIGHTS!

In 1896 the Supreme Court made the "separate but equal" interpretation of the Constitution. In 1954 the Supreme Court reversed that decision and in effect amended our Constitution. When the Court reverses one of its interpretations of a legislative act, the Court in effect legislates, and usurps legislative powers from Congress. Our founding fathers, many of whom were lawyers, believed that judges could be relied upon to follow the Supreme Court's precedent decisions. The Supreme Court has shown a complete lack of patience to await the slow working amendment process specified in the Constitution. Our founding fathers never intended that the Court would amend by reversal and usurpation. The Court can do this at its slightest whim. Such may occur in a 5 to 4 decision. On the other hand it is extremely difficult for citizens to secure amendments favored by majorities of three-fourths or more.

To restore Congressional powers and abrogate state rights; to make secure the blessings of liberty resulting from our constitutional self-government; the United States Constitution should be amended to require that future federal judges be elected by the people. Any other approach prove inadequate. The Supreme Court should not be above final authority of the people and their constitutional judicial appointments too often go to men with little of judicial experience and not of judicial temperament. The appointment of judges to our federal courts poses an intolerable threat to states' rights and self-government. Just elected to federal courts would pose no such threat to self-government, the most important earthly ally to Christian and freedom of religion.

If Congress were to submit such an amendment to people for ratification, Congress would be doing its job in bringing the Supreme Court back into its proper place. Any other approach by Congress promises very limited relief. Very probably the Court would hold that any correction or "clarifying" legislation, when finally tested, meant something entirely different from congressional intent or the state's definitions. Or, the Court could rule such correction legislation to be unconstitutional. Chaotic decisions are the result of domination of Supreme Court by appointees determined to promote economic and political objectives contrary to the Constitution and in opposition to the desires of Congress and great majority of United States citizens.

Most all agree that something must be done to stop abuse. In spite of this, my opponent is against state a subversive laws. He voted against restoring states' rights to enforce anti-subversive laws. His one vote was the mark of defeat, but could and should have been a vote mark of victory in the Senate for Texas and all of these United States. We must elect federal judges for a limited term. Can there be another effective plan? Has any offered a proposal which, even though adopted, would protect states' rights and self-government?

This is your first opportunity to elect a Senator dedicated to secure this amendment. Vote November 4. Let work diligently until such amendment is an accomplished fact. The words honesty and integrity carry only their strict, old-fashioned meanings to me. As Senator, I am obligated to our state and our nation only. I will charge my duties honestly with determination and will strive to get your money's worth from your dollars. I do not believe that money has ever purchased friendship of nations or individuals. I believe it would the height of folly to rely on Russia to disarm without and complete inspection and control. There should be federal interference or influence in our schools. State rights and self-government cannot endure under our system of appointing federal judges for life.

C O U P O N

The securing of this amendment rests in your hands and the hands of your neighbors and friends. Its attainment can be accomplished only by the efforts of industrious people - and these people must be willing to work to protect their rights, God given, but not guaranteed. I hereby appeal to those people who are willing to work to safeguard precious states' rights and self-government. If you are of these people, please return this coupon.

ROY WHITTENBURG
REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR U. S. SENATE

Political Adv.

Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thurs., Oct. 30, 1958 for only 12 people, whereas the average farm worker today supplies 23 persons; in 1820, the average farm worker supplied only four people.

These are some of the factors folks should remember when they start talking about the "good old days", or when they predict that this new generation is "going to the dogs."

The biggest change of all has probably been in modern tooth paste. A few years back the manufacturers were constantly warning us about "pink toothbrush" — and now they put a red stripe in the tube, just to make sure it's there.

Roy Whittenburg, the Republican candidate for Congress, is waging quite a battle for the office. What's more, he is probably well qualified and seems to have some unusual ideas about filling the post. However, I doubt if he has a ghost of a chance to get even a dribble of the votes. Ralph Yarborough is a formidable candidate, a fact which Mr. Blakely can testify; in addition, the Republican regime is on the downgrade — especially in agricultural areas of the country. Figure it any way you will, but Mr. Whittenburg just can't get to first base.

I notice where Amarillo is handing out traffic tickets on a wholesale basis, much to the chagrin of their merchants. Actually, there isn't much they can do about it. The same thing happens in all cities as they grow in size. Like parking, it is a penalty folks have to pay for big town shopping. The result is usually growth of shopping centers which, after all, are the nearest thing a big city can come toward imitating advantages of shopping in a small town.

Suggested slogan for Circuit Court Judge: "Have Gavel, Will Travel."

Mrs. John Blocker deserves a big hand for the work and interest stimulated among band parents this year. A lot of parents who turned out for the marching contests in Amarillo Tuesday night realized for the first time what a tremendous job faces Chas. Bell, Hereford director. Hereford had the only junior band without a special director — and the only one without uniforms. The time is fast approaching when we will have to have an assistant band director, or a complete Jr. High band set-up.

Despite the cold weather, around 3,500 people attended the band contests. The parents are helping a lot with band travel, and that is wonderful. However, one man can hardly train and personally supervise 200 boys and girls. When you stop to compare the band staff with the six or seven coaches, it is surprising that we ever place in any of the events.

VISITS DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moore were in Kingsville over the weekend where they visited with her daughter and family.

No doubt the school authorities and the school board are making plans along this line and I am not criticizing anyone, especially Mr. Bell. However, we are dragging our feet in the band business and, whether we like it or not, we are going to have to increase our staff if we continue to rank high with neighboring schools in the years to come.

Happy Birthday, Joelle!

SURPRISE! JOELLE IS ESCORTED BY MRS. BERT BOOMER

A surprise party is just as wonderful in English as in French, says Joelle Tillier Laroche, French exchange student at Hereford High School. Joelle was honored with a surprise birthday party in Whiteface gym immediately after the annual Future Homemakers of America initiation Monday night. Although it was a slightly belated party, it was complete with cake, punch, gifts and happy friends. Joelle's 17th birthday was last month, but the party was delayed until as many people as possible could be present. For Joelle it was a double-barrelled evening, since she had just been made a member of the Hereford F. H. A. chapter. After an appropriate delay, she was escorted into the gymnasium where hundreds of high school girls and other friends cried "Happy Birthday." After blowing out the candles on her large, decorated cake, she opened her gifts. Then she started cutting her cake and serving it to the many guests. Joelle is attending Hereford High School as an American Field Service exchange student. She is living with the Elmer Patterson family. Her year of study in America is being sponsored by the local F. H. A. chapters and civic clubs. "It was the best birthday ever," Joelle sparkingly told everyone at the end of the party.

Joe Pruet Discharged

Airman 1/C Joe E. Pruet, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pruet of Lovington, N. M., and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberley of Dawn, recently received his discharge from the U. S. Air Force at Amarillo, where he has been stationed the past two years.

He has served as an instructor for 3 1/2 years. He received the Airman of the Month award in 1957.

A graduate of Abilene High School, where he was on the All-State track team in 1954, Pruet continued his athletic interests in the service. At Sheppard Air Field in 1956, he was a member of the Olympic Try-Out team and also a member of the Southwest Conference All-Star team. He placed sixth in the World-Wide Track and Field Meet in Riverside, Colo., that year in the 880-yard dash, and was on the mile relay team that tied the record for the event of the World-Wide meet.

Pruet won the Amarillo Air Force Base diving championship in one meter and three Joe E. Pruet meter board in 1957, and was a member of the football team. He worked at Amarillo College while stationed in Amarillo and he is now attending West Texas State College in Canyon.

Optimist Meeting Features Choir

The Hereford High School All-Girl Choir, directed by Don Moore, was featured at the meeting of the Hereford Optimist Club Tuesday noon. The choir sang "Only Tell Me", "Okum Yokem", "Master of Human Destiny", "Green Sleeves", "Tenderly" and "Around the Corner."

It was announced at the meeting that ticket sales for Christmas trees have started. Tree selling is an annual fund-raising campaign of the group.

Cub scouts will sell trees in the residential section of Hereford, and members of the Optimist Club will sell in the business district.

FIRE BELL
ROCKVILLE, Conn. — One of this city's first fire alarm systems was a rented bell. In 1893, the city voted to rent the use of the bell in the Methodist Society's church tower for fire alarm purposes. The rent was $30 a year.

HOWLING SUCCESS

LA CUEVA, N. M. — Col. William Salman, rancher-farmer in New Mexico's Mora County, says he believes in complementing the work of nature rather than trying to rock nature's boat. "My neighbors wanted to go in with them on the coyotes, and against my judgment, I did," he says. "Now we don't have coyotes, but boy, do we have

Costumes in 'Swanee' Replace Old Tradition

Gone are the conservative robes and solemn composure when the Eastern New Mexico University choir tunes up for "Swanee," which will kick off the second season of the Community School Concert Series here Nov. 13.

The musical offering will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Hereford High School auditorium. It will be the first of four concerts to be held this season. Concert tickets will be good for this presentation.

Fifty-two students, comprising the choir, test their vocal ability on a dozen or more songs in the lighter vein when "Swanee" is presented in Hereford.

Replacing the traditional green robes will be a wide range of costumes varying from the gay colors of Latin America to the primitive island of limiting their rhythmic combinations to a little toe-beat. Choir members have the opportunity to pull out all the stops for big production numbers.

ensembles and individuals. "Swanee" will be comprised of more than 30 numbers in all. More than 80 students will have a chance before the foot-lights.

Songs in which the choir will be featured will show a wide range — old standards, Dixieland, tunes from Broadway musicals, Western music, songs with a Latin flavor, instrumental jazz, rock-and-roll, and other current pop tunes.

Production numbers for large groups will include "Seventy-six Trombones," "Ballin' the Jack," "Louisiana Hayride," "Left, Right Out of Your Heart," "I Got Rhythm," "Racing With the Clock," "Peanut Vendor," "Jungle Drums," "Anchors Aweigh," and "When the Saints Go Marching In."

"Swanee" will open in Portales Oct. 30 and 31. Subsequent performances will be in Clovis Nov. 1, Lovington Nov. 10, and Morton, Nov. 11.

Eastern's choir includes the following students:

Gall O'Rear, Clovis; Sheila

House, Clovis; Allene Grisham, Lovington; Barbara Rumbaugh, Clovis; Jerry Lebow, Morton; Ann Creamer, Portales; Bobby Richardson, Texico; Susan Stanfield, Clovis; Sara Wallace, Morton; Coral Hugg, Hobbs; Elizabeth Grady, Roy; Shirley Crozier, Hobbs; Noelene Linder, Portales;

ROMBERG WOULDN'T LIKE 'EM—One of the comedy routines in "Swanee," the variety show produced by Eastern New Mexico University, will be "The Riff Song," from Sigmund Romberg's "Desert Song." The number may not meet Romberg's standard's, but it is guaranteed to fill the comedy bill. Members of the group shown are, left to right, Don Thorp, Artesia; Don Lovelace, Big Spring, Texas; and Richard Lair, Roswell.

RARE GATHERING
WATERTON LAKES, Alta. — Bighorn sheep in Pass Creek valley in Waterton Lakes National Park, normally timid animals, were seen gathered at an old salt lick alongside a highway. The sheep usually stay high in the mountains.

WELL-ARMED
STILLWATER, Okla. — Richard Marquardt of Oklahoma State University hunts geese with a cannon. A graduate student, Marquardt uses the cannon to fire nets over the birds' so he can capture and tag them. He's working on a project to learn

BEER BARON
LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Virgil F. Gilmore has 126 bottles of beer he collected in 46 states and several foreign lands. He doesn't drink the beverage, though. He doesn't like the taste.

TESTING METHOD
WASHINGTON — The aircraft industry is now using TV-like pictures to test a big plane that hasn't as yet been built. AWK
RAWSON, N. D. — Dispatching a chicken for the pot isn't a pleasant job. Take the case of Duane Evanson, who swung a hatchet to decapitate a rooster, but missed. Well, not entirely. He severed the tip of a finger on the hand with which he was holding the fowl.

DESIGNER TURNS PRODUCER
NEW YORK — Virginia Volland, costume designer for such Broadway hits as "Two for the Seesaw" and "Sunrise at Campobello" is going into the management side of show business. She has acquired "Mother's Day," a comedy, for future production.

COUNTERATTACK
LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Mrs. Robert Peterson came up with a new complaint for the city animal warden. It seems some pugnacious starlings in the neighborhood have been harassing her cats.

ONLY BORROWED
ELKHART, Ind. — Somebody swiped all four hubcaps off Michael Del Regno's car while he was attending a dance. Three weeks later, Del Regno came out of the same dance hall and found the hubcaps back on his car again.

THEFT OF TIME
BAILEY'S CROSSROADS, Va. — Fairfax county police raided a dice game and arrested eight men on a misdemeanor. One, however, was also charged with grand larceny. He had stolen a watch from an arresting officer.

Top Teams To Jockey For Appearance At Cotton Bowl

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
The Cotton Bowl would appear in better shape for choosing this time than in recent years. That is, there's going to be more top teams from which to pick the visiting team in the New Year's Day football classic.

The Orange Bowl doesn't have a thump with the Atlantic Coast Conference this year although the Big Eight is committed to the Florida post-season game.

This releases a number of schools, like North Carolina, Clemson and Duke, for the bowls to fight over. But there seems to be a better field from the conferences and areas that were eligible for the Cotton Bowl before.

A good bet would be Pittsburgh, which played mighty Army to a 14-14 tie, has a fine record and is in position to finish up with a good one. Syracuse is another. Syracuse plays Pitt this week.

ton Bowl's cap to get a service academy into its first post-season game.

Of course, it's mighty early and the Southwest Conference champion whoever that will be — right now it looks like Rice — will need be consulted on what team it would like to play. But the conference champion always is willing to take the team the Cotton Bowl wants.

Over the country coaches are getting on the officials. Some are pretty caustic about it. But did you notice there's not a murmur in the Southwest Conference?

This isn't difficult to figure out if you know the rules. The Southwest Conference has what has been called the "gag" rule. It prohibits an athletic official from publicly criticizing the work of a referee, umpire, et al. If there's any griping to be done it's in writing to the conference office.

The public, thinks the conference, has no right to know about any of the controversial things that might come up. All should be sweetness and light. Let us not reflect in any way on our athletic programs.

Southern Methodist got placed on probation in basketball because some of its athletic officials publicly criticized the officialing in, a basketball had much to do with keeping the coaches absolutely quiet in football this season.

Perhaps there has been nothing to get angry about anyway. But it's dollars to doughnuts that some of the coaches would have dearly liked to blame somebody for something — at least in the heat of battle. But they just can't afford to.

SAFE BY THE HAIR

PHOENIX, Ariz. — City Manager Ray W. Wilson denies claims that managers have too much say in city affairs.

"City Council members can fire a city manager if they don't like the way he combs his hair," he said at a Phoenix Advertising Club luncheon. Wilson is bald.

TWANG TALK

TOLEDO, Ohio — Arthur Harris, "twanged" when he talked. Playing with his toys, he caught a coil spring 1/2 of an inch long on his tongue and upper jaw. Manfully he went to bed without telling his parents and ate breakfast the next morning without saying a word. Teachers at Lagrange school noticed his peculiar diction and sent him to a hospital where the spring was removed.

SNAKE SCARE

LYNCHBURG, Va. — Deborah Kay Mayberry screamed when she saw her 16-month-old sister, Sandra Lou, playing with a snake. Mrs. Howard Mayberry, their mother, ran out, knocked the snake out of the child's hand and killed it. It was a copperhead.

FIRST AID LESSON

NORFOLK, Va. — Jesse Couch learned how to apply a tourniquet by watching television programs and the result may be a Boy Scout life-saving medal. Dr. M. C. Maddrey says the 10-year-old boy's action in applying a tourniquet ther's arm after an accident saved her life for is signing a certificate that effect.

'Battle Of Budget' Roars To Climax

By VEER SANFORD
AUSTIN — As Texas "Battle of the Budget" roars on toward its 1959 climax, almost every week brings a new statement on the probable size of the state deficit. Usually worse than the last one. State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert and Legislative Budget Director Vernon A. McGee combined to present a frankly pessimistic picture for the Texas Research League meeting in Austin. McGee said the general revenue fund will need $279,000,000 during the next two years to keep things going as they are. Calvert estimated that the present tax structure would put $125,000,000 into general revenue during this period. This leaves a gap of $154,000,000 between estimated income and outgo. In addition, Calvert estimated the general revenue fund will be $55,600,000 in arrears by the end of the present fiscal year in August, 1959. Research League is composed of several hundred leaders in Texas business and professions whose private contributions support research in the interest of governmental efficiency. Much of the League staff's time during the past year has been devoted to assisting the State Tax Study Commission on a mammoth survey of Texas' revenue and tax problems. Gov. Price Daniel took a "we can lick this thing" attitude in a press conference on taxes. Daniel said he felt the deficit could be erased and new revenue needs met without a general sales tax or income tax. Taxes we have presently could be raised to the maximum level used in other states, said the governor. And other taxes — not sales or income — could be added. Daniel also indicated that he was not fully convinced that the gap between income and needs would be as large as the $154,000,000 mentioned by the comptroller. He would not definitely say now, said the governor, that he would or would not veto sales or income tax bills if passed by the Legislature. But he made it clear that he did not favor them; and that he thought there were better possibilities. Daniel praised state agencies who reduced their budget requests a total of $1,490,631. Overall, the budget requests had run $272,000,000 higher than for the present biennium. Possibility of more drastic cutting loomed when the Legislative Budget Board voted to reject some of the appropriations being sought by the State Hospital System. It voted to top $8,000,000 off

S. Clements On Farm Committee

Steve Clements of Hereford will serve on the 39-member Texas Farm Bureau state resolutions committee at its meeting in Corpus Christi Nov. 5, four days prior to the organization's convention, to shape tentative resolutions for voting delegates at the 25th annual meeting. C. H. DeVaney, Coahoma, TF vice president, is chairman of the committee, which is composed of the state director and two lay members from each of the 13 Farm Bureau districts. It is the job of the committee to analyze the hundreds of resolutions on scores of issues sent in by county Farm Bureau and to draft tentative resolutions which reflect the thinking of the majority of the resolutions. These will be submitted to the voting delegates at the business session on the final day of the convention, Nov. 12. Some 700-800 official voting delegates are expected to participate in voting which culminates the Farm Bureau's policy development process on the state level. Adopted resolutions on state issues become policies of the organization for the ensuing year. Approved resolutions dealing with national matters become the state's recommendations to the American Farm Bureau Federation's convention which will be held Dec. 7-11 in Boston.

More Planned Recreation Goal Of Program Building Committee

By ARGON DRAPER
One of the first recommendations of the County Program Building Committee was for more planned recreation. During the first week of November there will be two recreation schools in the area. The council can send three delegates to the training school at Fairview. The 4-H girl and boys clubs can send eight delegates to a training school at Hub Community House. The last week I really have been trying to manage to get ready for the trips I have to make. I really got a big disappointment when Thursday night at the Walter Rogers program Bess Werner and Wayne Thomas told me that it was too late to cast an absentee vote. This really did disappoint me as I have a good record of voting every time an election is held.

One of my convictions is that people should vote, but I missed it this time. The conference program at College Station has been developed around the central theme of "meeting the challenge of the changing agriculture situation. In view of the rapid changes in modern agriculture and home economics, this conference offers possibilities of strengthening extension activities. It is hoped that the meeting will be inspirational and that new ideas for teaching will help in carrying out our jobs for the coming year. The program on Monday is devoted to the meetings of the County Home Demonstration Agents Association and the County Agricultural Agents Association. Sybil, County Home Demonstration Agent of Castro County, is president of the association and will preside at Monday's meeting. Dr. Willa Vaughn Tinsley, Dean of the Division of Home Economics at Texas Tech, is the featured speaker Monday. Her talk is "Up To Date, Up To (Continued on Page 2)

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Law Curbs Sale Of Switchblade Knives

To the people of the 18th District:

This is a subject with which I hope very few of you are familiar. Unfortunately, this is not the case in some sections of the United States.

A switchblade knife is defined as one whose blade opens automatically, either by hand pressure applied to a button or other device, or by the operation of inertia or gravity. These instruments have been the subject of considerable concern in Congress for several years, but legislation affecting their distribution was not enacted until this past session.

Public Law 85-623 passed the Congress in July and was signed by the President Aug. 12, 1958. This law prohibits the introduction, or manufacture for introduction, into interstate commerce, or the transportation or distribution in interstate commerce, with certain exceptions, of such knives.

The hearings on this legislation, conducted by the committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, of which I am a member, revealed some appalling facts. Over one million switchblade knives are distributed and sold each year in this country and of these some twenty thousand are imported.

Over five million of these knives have been sold in the past five years, principally to juveniles, and a large portion of them are sold at a price within the reach of teenagers. It was discovered that this situation, particularly in the cities of the nation, created an urgent need for action in this field.

It is not uncommon to read daily in the press of the country reports of numerous muggings and attacks, many of them involving knives. It was brought out in the committee hearings that the abolition of switchblade knives would not be a cure-all for any crime wave, but it would remove one of the favorite weapons of the juvenile delinquent and criminal element.

It will afford the public some measure of added protection and give valuable assistance to our hard-pressed local law enforcement agencies.

It was felt that Federal legislation to prohibit switchblade knives was necessary since only a limited number of the states have any laws relating to such knives. As a result, these weapons are bootlegged into these states from other states which have no prohibitory statutes, or they are sent through the mails. Elsewhere, they are sold openly.

It was reported that city ordinances are somewhat of a deterrent, but they are by no means sufficiently effective. It appeared the only solution to the switchblade and gravity knife menace was to pass Federal legislation, therefore, to prohibit the introduction or manufacture for introduction of these instruments into interstate commerce; to close the mails to them, and ban their importation.

A Senate Judiciary subcommittee investigating juvenile delinquency in the United States recently conducted an investigation into the use of dangerous weapons by juveniles, with special emphasis on the interstate traffic and importation of switchblade knives, and, in an effort to determine the severity of the problem on a community level, sent questionnaires to the major police departments of the United States and others.

This investigation disclosed that many of these knives were manufactured abroad and distributed by firms in this country. It was established that these items were being widely distributed through the mails by manufacturers in the various states which had local laws prohibiting possession, sale, or distribution of switchblade knives.

It was felt that this pointed to the need for Federal control of the interstate shipment of these knives, since local legislation was being systematically circumvented through the mail-order device. In the United States two manufacturers have a combined production of over one million switchblade knives each year.

Both concerns are prominent cutlery manufacturers so switchblade knives represent only a small portion of their business. The questionnaires returned by police chiefs throughout the country indicated that many switchblade knives have been confiscated from juveniles, and these authorities, almost without exception, indicated that these vicious weapons are on many occasions used by juveniles in the commission of robberies and assaults.

Of the robberies committed in 1956, 43.2 per cent were by persons under 21 years of age, and a switchblade knife is frequently part of the perpetrator's equipment in this type of crime. This, therefore, is one Federal Budget Board recommended a slight increase in money for the Texas Youth Council. But it voiced a "thumbs down" attitude toward setting up a state-supported paid parole system for juvenile delinquents.

Legislative Budget Board is made up of five members from the House and five from the Senate who, with staff assistance, screen appropriation requests in advance and make recommendations to the Legislature.

Two state agencies who've gotten black marks in past years got basically good report cards in the summaries given by analysts for the Texas Research League meeting. State Insurance Department has made many improvements in the year since its reorganization, said one researcher. He predicted that an era of better regulation would result in saving to policyholders and fewer company failures.

State Welfare Department was described as "basically well-administered" in comparison to some years ago when it was the source of dissatisfaction.

In the welfare field, the League was told, Texas can expect increased spending in the future. Texas now spends 18 per cent of its tax money or $173,000,000 a year on welfare. But other states are "more generous," observed the researcher.

Budget Board also is giving attention to drawing up a bill setting up a salary schedule for state employees.

Its purpose would be to guarantee "like pay for like work" throughout state departments. It would be based on a job classification study recently made by the Texas Employment Commission.

Public school and college teachers and persons in executive positions would not be included.

Budget Board members commented that in some departments a person doing stenographic work may be called an "administrative assistant" and get much more money than a person doing stenographic work in another department.

New laws and institutions to deal more forcefully with Texas' soaring crime rate may be a major topic for the next Legislature.

County and district attorneys meeting in Austin were asked by Governor Daniel to help in the job of strengthening and plugging the loopholes in Texas' law enforcement structure. Daniel said that at the present rate Texas will have a 28 per cent increase in crime in three years.

Too often, said the governor, criminals escape punishment through hairline technicalities in the laws. He also urged (1) state-paid parole supervisors for juveniles, (2) a second boys training school to separate serious offenders from those for whom there is more hope, and (3) stricter narcotics laws.

U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough is urging Texas liberal Democrats not to scratch Gov. Price Daniel's name on the general election ballot regardless of how they may feel about him.

Senator Yarborough warned delegates to the State AFL-CIO convention that each precinct gets one delegate for every 25 votes cast for the party's gubernatorial nominee. If a liberal area casts a small vote for governor, it will have a small delegation to the next party convention and less chance of gaining control.

If you scratch the governor's name, said Yarborough, who has been at odds with Daniel for years, "you'll be cutting off your nose to spite your face."

Texas Democratic Party leaders said National Chairman Paul Butler is deliberately destroying party unity efforts by stirring up integration issue.

Butler's statement: "There

TOMBSTONE TERRITORY

Before World War I Fairy Soap was the largest seller on the American market. Mother used it as a beauty aid. Junior used it in the bath tub. Sister used it to shampoo her hair. And father used it to wash that portion of his face which wasn't covered with mustache and mutton chops. In magazines, on bill boards and in newspapers, you would see advertisements of Fairy Soap.

"During the first great war the demand for Fairy Soap was so great that the manufacturers dropped their huge advertising program with an eye to making a bigger profit. They figured Fairy Soap was so well known it would carry itself. They were wrong. Other far-sighted soap manufacturers stepped in with appealing advertising campaigns and took over the market. Fairy Soap was never able to come back and today lies in the graveyard alongside the Gold Dust Twins, Saint Jacobs Oil, Melon's Baby Food, Dolly Varden Chocolates, Omar cigarettes, Maxwell automobiles and many other products that died a natural economic death due to lack of advertising.

There is a Way

But it is not the way this man has been going. He forgot to read and heed the word of God, "Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor." Pro. 19:4. His bank account is bulging but his troubled heart is empty. His earth is without form, and void, and darkness is upon his face. Jesus told us, "A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." Pro. 18:24. It isn't by way of wealth, fame, or fortune, but by the way of God. To this man and to all of us He is constantly repeating the most glorious invitation of the centuries...

"Take My Hand."

The strong hand of a warm friend pressed upon his shoulder will help but what this man needs is to seek the counsel of a minister and join up with the forces that work for a better world through Him.

Students Peddle Corpuses For Future Emergency Loan Needs

"Sweating blood" is an old expression when it comes to earning an education — but actually peddling corpuses, for cash, helps student vets at Texas A and M College secure their future.

Young men in the School of Veterinary Medicine swap their blood for cash, not for themselves, but to help classmates in need. And by receiving this help at a crucial time in their lives, some students have managed to continue their studies when it appeared they could do nothing but drop out of school.

Purpose of the program, which has brought in more than $5,000 in the past 18 months, is to provide an immediate source for emergency gifts and loans. The loans are repayable in five years without interest.

All this came about in the spring of 1957, when a first-year student in the School of Veterinary Medicine was hospitalized for an extended period after an emergency operation. Financially speaking, he was knocked to his knees.

Fifty-two classmates came to his rescue, each selling a pint of blood to the Hermann Hospital Blood Bank in Houston. At $20 a pint, they received more

41,000 Sportsmen Bought Licenses

AUSTIN — Anticipating a record year, more than 41,000 Texas sportsmen bought hunting licenses during September, according to the Fiscal Director of the Game and Fish Commission. Sept. 1 began the second year of the $3.15 hunting license fee.

On the basis of revenue collected, the director reported receipt of $123,443.45 from hunting license sales. This is an increase of approximately $14,000 for the same period in 1957.

Remitting agents had until Oct. 10 to pay for licenses sold during September; therefore, this does not include money on all licenses sold, the director explained.

Fishing license sales totaled $154,275.60 for the month. This figure represents more than 77,000 resident fishing licenses.

Sales of all types of licenses is expected to increase this year due to the good condition of game and fish populations throughout the state, he said.

Agency. All the money over that amount is available for loans.

The nine student members of the board determine the eligibility of veterinary students who apply for a loan or gift from funds raised by the Association. The funds in the checking account are used for expenses of blood donors, phone calls and other miscellaneous business expenses.

Every student in the School of Veterinary Medicine is eligible for a loan or gift regardless of whether he has ever given any blood. Actually, about a third of the students of veterinary medicine are active participants.

Pre-vet students are permitted to give blood but will not be eligible for loans or emergency gifts until they are enrolled in the School of Veterinary Medicine.

About Your HEALTH

While there is no indication at this time of widespread attacks of influenza this fall and winter, there undoubtedly will be some cases of the illness as colder weather approaches. Vaccination against it is a prudent measure for certain groups and individuals.

Principal targets for vaccination should be groups wishing to guard against absenteeism in their professions and occupations, and those to whom the disease might be an added health risk.

There are now ample supplies of influenza vaccine of the type containing immunizing materials against the important strains of influenza, including the Asian strain.

Last year at this time Texas was braced for an expected epidemic of Asian flu, so called because it had first been diagnosed in Hong Kong. The first cases were reported in April in that Oriental city, and a brief five months later Texas had been thoroughly "seeded" with the virus.

There is no expectation of a similar outbreak this fall. However, since vaccination is the only way cases of the illness might be avoided, both the State Health Department and the U. S. Public Health Service recommend the procedure for select groups for whom flu might be especially risky.

It is wise to keep in mind that even mild influenza can be disabling for four or five days, and followed by a period of lassitude and weakness. Influenza is always unpredictable. Cases are frequently complicated by bacterial infections. Even when uncomplicated, the illness may have a particularly dangerous impact on persons suffering from heart ailments and other chronic diseases.

Vulnerable groups for whom vaccinations should be considered include:

1. Hospital staffs whose services are necessary to the care of the sick.
2. Persons living in close proximity where influenza could spread rapidly, such as institutions.
3. Industrial or service groups, large or small, in occupations where the sudden absence of a sizeable part of the force would create a disruption of the work.
4. Individual patients or groups who have a special risk, such as the aged, the chronically ill, and pregnant

Cole Younger himself, who lived the life of the Gentleman, the Soldier, the Outlaw and the Convict, having spent 25 years of the best part of his life in a prison cell, will deliver his famous lecture entitled "What Life Has Taught Me," at the Star Theatre next Tuesday. In this lecture Mr. Younger tells many of the thrilling events of his varied career. From the time he was a boy of seventeen up to the time he was pardoned from the Minnesota State Prison where he served a quarter of a century for the Northfield bank robbery.

This lecture is truly historical and instructive, as well as interesting and appeals to ladies as well as gentlemen, pointing out as it does a great moral lesson which should be of benefit to everyone.

Mr. Younger's sole desire in life is to do all he can for the betterment of mankind.
