Colby Conkright of Hereford, has been re-elected vice-president of the Texas Hereford Association. The election was held at the annual meeting of the organization this past week in Fort Worth. He also is a director of the Panhandle Breeders' Association, Amarillo.

Calendars for 1968 are popping up all over Hereford these days, most of them with scenes typical of that year. The 1968 model is just as usable for 1964 as it was in 1968, and another duplicate will occur in 1968.

Mrs. Dyalitha Benson, Panhandle credit union leader, will attend the joint meeting of the Texas Credit Union League and Members Mutual Insurance Co. in Dallas next Friday and Saturday.

Cadet Randy Carver of Hereford has been named to the merit roll at Missouri Military Academy in Mexico, Mo. The rating is given for "superior scholastic work."

Deaf Smith County people bought $16,523 worth of U. S. Savings Bonds during December to wind up the year with $110,280 total, Robert L. Thompson, county chairman, reported. This was 55.1 percent of the year's goal.

Deaf Smith County singers are to meet at Grace Gospel Church on Ave. K at 2 o'clock today for a two-hour singing session. The public is invited.

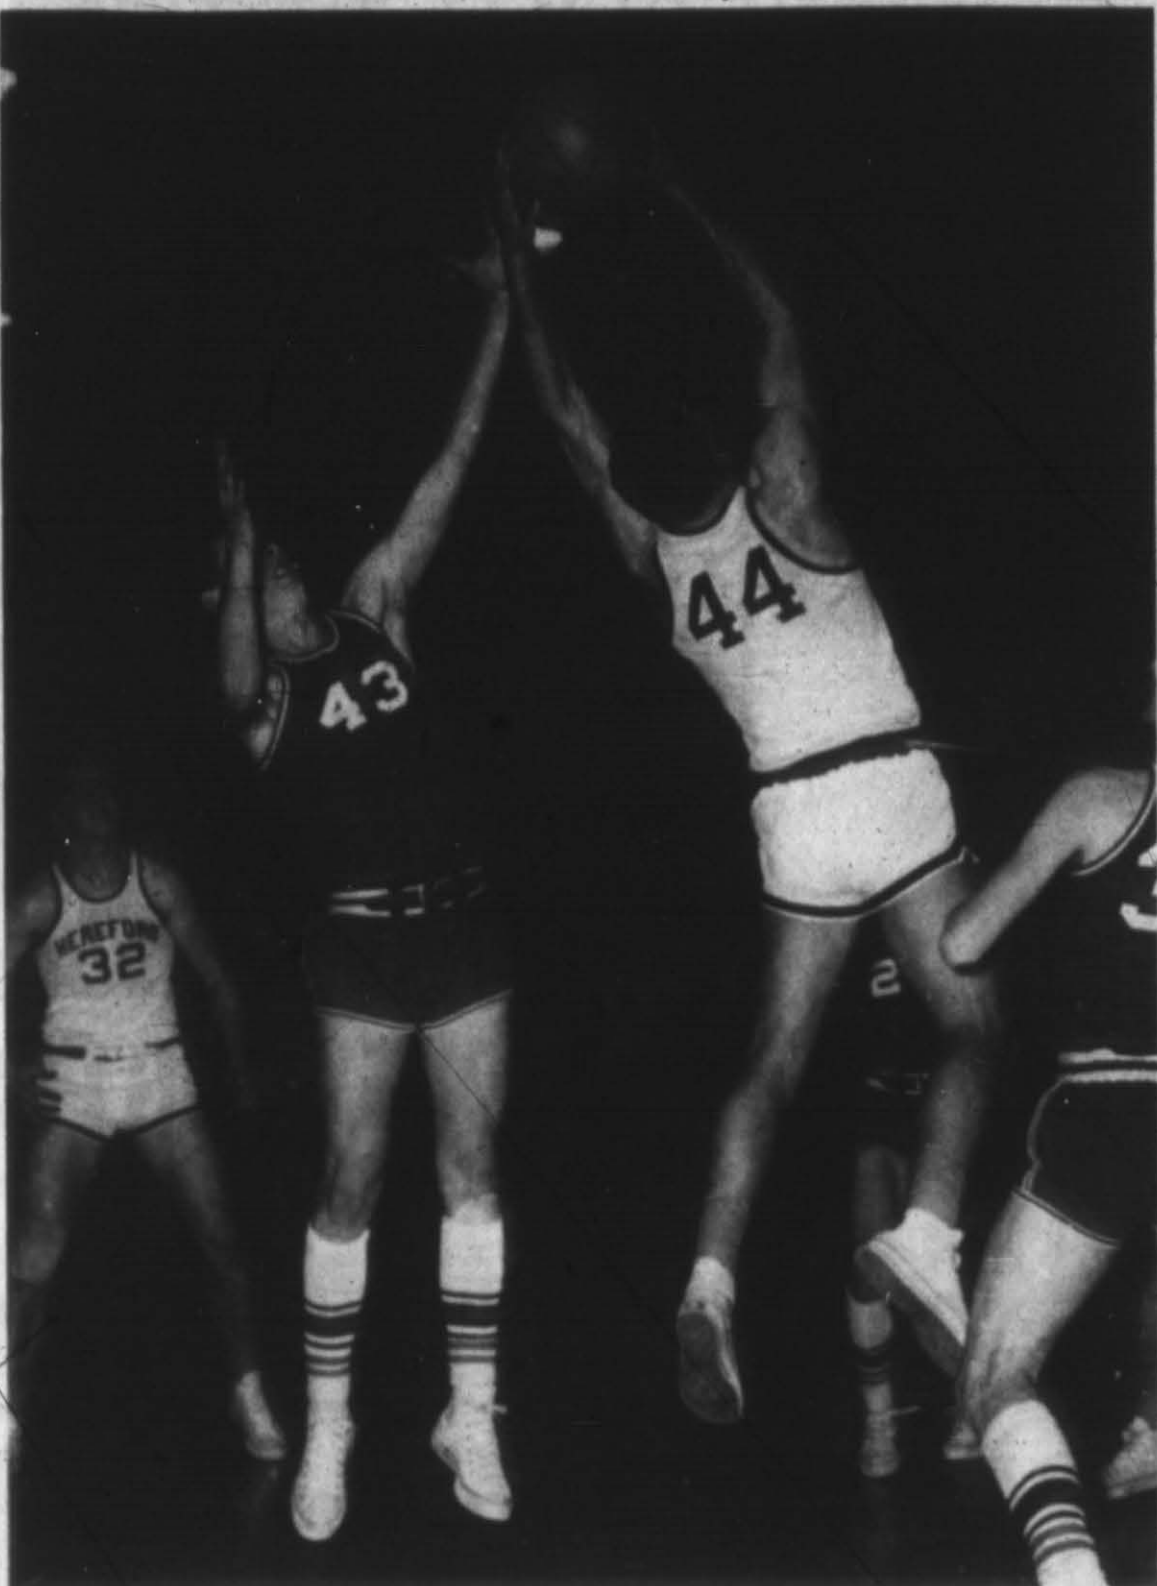

Men of the First Baptist Church will meet Monday at 7:30 when the Rev. Bill Burton, pastor of Friona's First Baptist Church, will be the speaker. Men are requested to bring covered dishes. Meat, bread and drinks will be furnished.

Hereford Future Farmers of America will be observing Texas Future Farmers week Feb. 15-22. It was announced Saturday. The week has been proclaimed by Governor John Connally.

Hereford schools will be represented at a meeting of the West Texas School Study Council to be held in Lubbock Feb. 7 and 8 and Feb. 14 and 15. The program will have for its theme "Improving the Language Arts Program." Hereford is one of 23 schools participating.

North Plains Chapter of Texas Association of Assessing Officers is to meet at Community Center in Hereford Wednesday for an all-day session. Among the speakers will be Earnest L. Langley, a Hereford attorney. Officers for the new year are to be named, according to Q.L. Click, of the school tax office here.

Hereford will be represented at a High Plains conference on juvenile delinquency to be held at Holiday Inn West in Amarillo Feb. 11. The conference, sponsored by Amarillo Chamber (Continued on Page 2)

Eleven Seeking Democratic Nod In County Races Here

Eleven persons are seeking county offices in Deaf Smith county, all of them on the Democratic ticket, but up to Saturday noon, no Republican candidates had filed for county offices.

The reports on the eve of the deadline were given by Louis Woodford, Hereford, Democratic county chairman, and by Kenneth Rudd, Walcott, Republican county chairman.

Deadline is 5 p.m. Monday for filing for positions on the 1964 ballot. Primaries for both parties are set for May 2.

With three candidates for each position, commissioners' races so far have drawn the greatest number of seekers, and two men are wooing the Democratic party's nod for sheriff of Deaf Smith county.

Incumbent J. T. Guinn, Route 2, Friona, has two opponents on the Democratic slate for commissioner, precinct No. 3. Jim Monroe, Route 4, Hereford, and Bruce Coleman, Route 2, Friona, also have filed for that position. Both men live in the Walcott neighborhood.

Bidding for the Democratic

Perryton Squeezes 53-49 Victory From Whitefaces

The Perryton Rangers took revenge on the Whitefaces Friday night here in the Whiteface gym, when they took the lead and led their team to victory with a score of 53-49.

The Rangers, who are now tied for first place in conference title competition, termed this as a "must" victory for their team. They lost to the Whitefaces on their court at Perryton recently by only two points.

According to Whiteface basketball coach Coby Kitchens, the loss can be attributed to a small percentage of free shots hit. The Herd hit only 15 out of the 28 shots, which is about 54 percent. The Herd has been accustomed to hitting in the higher percentages.

Rebounds and field goals for the Whitefaces and the Rangers were reported to be about even for the two teams.

The loss Friday night now puts the Whitefaces in second place in conference play, with Perryton and Levelland sharing first rung on the ladder. The Herd has four wins and two losses, and both the Rangers and the Lobos have five wins with one loss.

The Rangers only recently shook loose from a third place tie to take over undisputed possession of the third place with a 52-34 score. Perryton has suffered losses from the Whitefaces and the Levelland Lobos.

Dumas has now suffered four losses and three wins. They lost to Littlefield by a score of 47 to 46 Friday night. They have taken losses from Perryton (in both games), Levelland, and now Littlefield. They have victories over the other district fives.

Tuesday, the Whitefaces will travel to Littlefield for another conference game, followed

Poll Tax Payments Hit All-Time Peak At 3726

When voting time rolls around this year, 3726 persons will be eligible to vote in city, county state and federal elections in Deaf Smith County.

That many persons paid poll taxes or received exemptions as the poll tax paying period ended Friday afternoon, Nell Miller, Collector-Assessor, reported Saturday.

This is an all-time high for Deaf Smith county. Previous high had been around 3200, the mark set in 1960 which was also a general election year.

Observers were quick to point out that the record poll tax payments indicated two things:

1. That population of Deaf Smith county has increased greatly since 1960.

2. That Deaf Smith county voters want to be qualified to vote in ALL elections - not just federal elections.

Ratification of the 24th amendment to the federal constitution recently had made it unnecessary to pay poll taxes in order to participate in elections for federal offices. Many had feared the elimination of poll taxes as a requisite to federal voting would cut last minute payment of poll taxes.

In some areas, such was the case, some counties reporting a decided decrease in poll tax payments after South Dakota became the 38th state to ratify the federal amendment, barring poll taxes as a requisite to federal voting.

Such was not the case in Deaf Smith county. The collector-assessor's office here has not received instructions on how to issue the "free" poll tax receipts for persons who vote only in federal elections. The ratification of the 24th amendment made necessary the issuance of the "free" poll tax receipts after the amendment has formally certified to the Secretary of State. After that time, persons who wish to vote in federal elections will have 30 (Continued on Page 2)

Mims To Succeed Barnett On Hereford School Board

Dr. Lewis B. Barnett has resigned from the Hereford school board, and in his place another physician, Dr. A. T. Mims, has been named to the board, it was announced Saturday.

Dr. Barnett is taking a leave of absence from the Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic of which he was a member, until Sept. 1. He has been a member of the Hereford school board for five years, and for the past two years has served as president.

The action was taken by the board at a special called session in Western Wheel Restaurant Thursday morning.

A formal statement from the Clinic said: "This is to inform the patients of Dr. Lewis B. Barnett that he will be on temporary leave from the clinic during most of the time for a period from March 1 to Sept. 1. During his absence, the remainder of the members of the clinic will make every effort to care for his patients if they so desire.

"This temporary leave has been necessary due to health and for personal reasons."

The motion to accept Dr. Barnett's resignation, as a member of the school board was made by Bill Gentry and seconded by (Continued on Page 2)

ABC Setting Up Boys Club Here; Building Secured

Hereford's newest civic club, American Business Club which was started Dec. 13 with a charter membership of 67, has launched a project for a boys' club, Bob Huddleston, president, said Saturday.

The old International Building in the 300 block North Sampson, is being renovated for a clubroom. Members are preparing to repaint the interior and make it ready for an early opening.

Huddleston said the club "desperately needs 60 gallons of paint, an overheat heater (or any type of heating equipment) and all kinds of athletic equipment."

He added that the club would appreciate it if someone who has equipment of this nature would call the officers of the club, "and we will make arrangements to pick it up."

Eventually, ABC officers explained, they hope to build a structure which will include a gymnasium and swimming pool, with facilities available also for girls. He said the club hopes to offer volley ball and basketball.

The club is to be equipped with a snack bar, television and ping-pong tables. Said Huddleston: "We feel the girls are as much a part of our (Continued on Page 2)

'64 School Census Nears Completion

Nose counting of school-age children in the Hereford Independent School district is drawing to a close, but chief enumerator Joy Stagner said Saturday persons who have been missed should call her at her home as soon as possible to report school-age children.

Schools are eager to make the census as complete as possible. Part of the school revenues are determined by the number of school-age children counted, it was explained.

Census-takers have been making a systematic house-to-house tally, but some families doubtless have been missed. One of the problems, school officials explained, is listing school-age children when both parents work.

This is another reason parents who have been missed were asked to call Mrs. Stagner, EM 4-2231, to report children who have not been listed.

The school census should include all children between the ages of 6 and 18 as of Sept. 1.

Last year a total of 3423 school-age children were counted in the Hereford district. Of this number, 3352 were whites and 71 were Negroes.

'Citizen Of Year' To Receive Award At Chamber Banquet

The county's "citizen of the year" will be named at next Saturday night's annual banquet of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce to be held in the High School gymnasium. The presentation is always one of the high spots of the banquet.

Indications are that all 850 tickets will be sold. More than 300 had been sold up to noon Saturday, the first day tickets for the general public went on sale.

Dr. Hap Cavness will be master of ceremonies. Paul Stevens is general chairman, and Maurice Tannahill, retiring president, will tell of the year's accomplishments and present plaques to the out-going directors. A plaque will be presented by Austin Ross to the retiring president.

Bull awards are to be presented to Jack Allen, one of the owners of Allen & Son Packing Co., and to the banquet speaker, Jeff Williams of Chickasha, Okla. The Allen firm is to open a beef packing plant here within a few weeks.

Citizen of the Year award will be presented by J. F. Martin, president of the Hereford Lions club. Nominations have been made by various clubs, and from these selections the Citizen of the Year will be picked.

Mrs. R. C. Godwin, well-known Hereford soloist, is to sing.

Williams, one of the nation's top speakers, will speak on the subject, "Who Delt This Mess?" Praise for Williams' home-spun wit and philosophy has been heard throughout America.

A typical one is this comment by Ambrose Brownell of Oregon City, Ore.: "Not since the days of Will Rogers has there appeared a greater genius for wit and humor, yet ever tempered with restraint and seasoned with warm philosophy."

The dinner is being catered by Walter Jetton Catering Service of Fort Worth. Dinner tickets are priced at $4.50 each.

Jeff Williams, banquet speaker.

Hugh Clearman, the resignation to be effective March 1. The resolution said the resignation was "accepted with deep regret." Dr. Barnett's term was to have expired in April, 1965.

The motion to appoint Dr. Mims to Dr. Barnett's unexpired term was made by board member Gearty, and seconded by Labry Ballard. In his letter to Superintendent Paul Stevens, Dr. Barnett said: "I would like to say that the past five years have been very informative and I hope constructive, and that I have enjoyed the personal relationship that has been my pleasure with each of you." He continued: "I believe sincerely that the schools have made good progress in the past five years, and will continue to do so under your management."

Persons who were voting for the first time, those just turned 21, and persons who were 66 years of age or older were required to secure poll tax receipts, but were not required to pay the $1.75 fee. Friday also was the deadline for payment of personal taxes. Mrs. Miller pointed out. She said payments had been "very good," and that hundreds of persons had paid their taxes before the deadline.

Starting yesterday, a 1 1/2 percent penalty went into effect on all personal taxes not paid before Friday's deadline.

He added, "We can appreciate the work and effort involved in such a great undertaking, but the impossible just takes a little longer. We have the members and manpower available to do the job. A lot of expense is going to be involved, we realize,

Lowell Sharp, incumbent sheriff, has one opponent on the Democratic ticket. Charles K. Skinner, former highway patrolman, has filed for the sheriff's post. Bruce Miller is unopposed for Deaf Smith County attorney on the Democrats' slate, and Nell Miller, incumbent, is unopposed so far for the Democratic spot for county tax collector-assessor.

In state races, Woodford had received filing fees for two offices and one for a district office. Walter Roberts, Pampa, the incumbent, has filed for re-election for U. S. Representative, 18th congressional district, and incumbent Bill Clayton, Springlake, has filed with Woodford for State Representative.

Attorney William Hunter, Dalhart, is seeking re-election to the office of District Attorney for the 69th Judicial District. Only five county offices are to be filled in '64 elections. They include commissioners' posts for Precincts 1 and 3, sheriff, county attorney and tax assessor-collector.

Rudd said he had received no filing fees for candidates seeking positions on the county level up to noon Saturday, although he said "It is possible that a candidate will file for a commissioner's post before next Monday's deadline." On a state level, too, Bob Price, a Pampa attorney, has announced for the congressman's position now held by Democrat Walter Rogers. Rudd said he had not yet received Price's filing fee.

With poll tax payments reaching an all-time high, observers here foresee a record turnout of voters this year in county and state races. (Payment of poll taxes is no longer mandatory in order to vote for national candidates.)

Cars Damaged In City Crashes, Drivers Cited

Two minor accidents Friday on Park Ave. resulted in damages to three vehicles, and three drivers were given police citations for alleged traffic violations.

An International truck driven by Elberto V. Rodriguez, Lubbock, was in collision with a 1958 Ford sedan driven by Perry Marcus, Route 5, Hereford, at the intersection of U. S. 385 and Park Ave.

The police report shows Houser was crossing the street with a green light, and that Rodriguez was unable to stop his truck in time to avoid a collision. He was given a ticket for alleged failure to heed a red light. Damage to the automobile was placed at $190. The truck escaped damage.

In another collision on Park Ave. in the area of Avenue K and Brevard St. two students' automobiles were damaged. The vehicles were driven by Gary Van Stagner, 210 Ave. J., driving a 1964 Chevrolet sedan, and Beverly T. Barrett, 203 Park, driving a 1962 Chevrolet sedan. Damage to Stagner's car was estimated by police at $20, and damage to the Barrett automobile at $150.

The police report said Stagner was turning left into a drive-in restaurant, and that Miss Barrett was making a right turn onto Park Ave.

Both drivers were given citations by investigating police officers. Stagner received a ticket for allegedly cutting across the street in a left turn, and Miss Barrett was given a ticket for alleged failure to stop for a stop sign.

Amistad Dam Will Tame Cantankerous Pecos River

DEL RIO, (AP) — The storied old Pecos River, which will empty its waters into the giant reservoir to be formed by Amistad Dam, was a formidable barrier to the westward movement of the Southwest from the days of the Conquistadores to the late 1800s.

Cantankerous, unpredictable, stubborn, it has as much right to the name of Rio Bravo as ever the Rio Grande did.

Anything "bravo" in the Spanish language is "muy peligroso" or very dangerous.

The famous old stream is all of that, with its deep, rocky canyons, its flash floods, its contrary nature and its briny water, which wouldn't even afford early-day cattle drovers a decent cup of campfire coffee.

The Pecos heads up in north-eastern New Mexico, near the Truchas peaks, and flows South-southeast for 926 miles, mostly in Texas, to its junction with the Rio Grande, 60 miles upstream from Del Rio.

Near its headwaters, the Pecos State Monument preserves the remains of Pecos Pueblo, an ancient Indian community, powerful in Coronado's time.

The tallest highway bridge in the Southwest, rising 280 feet above the steep-sided chasm, spans the Pecos gorge at Langtry, where Judge Roy Bean held court, a few hundred yards from the river's edge.

A modern-day observation tower, just west of the highway bridge, affords a view of the Southern Pacific's High Bridge. Built in 1949 and rebuilt in 1954, after the river had dealt out considerable punishment, it replaced a spindly structure constructed in 1892.

The earlier bridge, often referred to as the "eighth wonder of the world," carried trains across almost a half-mile of space at a peak height of 321 feet.

Early day surveyors, who picked the crossing must have wondered if the engineering talents of the time could conquer the canyon. But trains eventually crossed.

East of the bridge, three-quarters of a century ago, railroaders drove the silver spike which connected up the southern transcontinental rail line, linking the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Stage lines of that earlier day, shunning the rocky canyons near the river's mouth, used a treacherous, often flooded, crossing further upstream, near what is now Red Bluff dam. The old ford, utilized as well by the Pony Express and the cattle drovers, was known as Pope's Crossing.

Named for the old Ft. Pope which was built in the 1850s, when surveyors came through the area searching for a feasible route to the west, the ford is pictured in histories of the Butterfield and Goodnight-Loving stage lines as the "most difficult" of all the river crossings, where stages often had to be floated across on rafts.

Another hazardous ford farther south was known as Horsehead Crossing. It was favored by early-day Mexicans who hauled scarce salt from the deposits in what is now Crane County, Tex., to their countrymen south of the Rio Grande, even as far south as the Mexican capital.

Historical writers reveal a Horsehead Crossing derived its picturesque name from the hundreds of skulls of horses which had accumulated on both sides of the river at that point.

Indians of an even earlier day, the histories say, raiding deep into Mexico for horses, drove their pilfered herds north at a breakneck pace, fearing to take the time to let the horses graze or seek water.

Reaching the river, the gaunt animals quenched their mighty thirst with the salt-tainted water and died by the dozens.

Twentieth century travelers, heading west over the southern route across the rowdy river, may still witness at times a sight which intrigued the old-timers:

Approaching the Pecos from the east, they can look to the left for the distant mountains and the famed profile of "The Sleeping Lady."

Although the mountain range, the Sierra del Burro, is some 75 miles away in Old Mexico, the lovely "Senorita de Sueno" is clearly visible on most days.

Humphrey tied a rope around his body then climbed into the tree and went to work. A car came along, struck the dangling rope, and toppled Humphrey from his perch. He suffered cuts and bruises.

OUT OF THE BLUE

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The new addition to Bob Westmeier's household literally fell out of the sky.

Westmeier was walking downtown when a young canary fell at his feet. It obviously had been flying for some time and its strength was gone.

Westmeier pocketed the bird, took it home and warmed it up. In time the canary began to peep a little and, when no one claimed the singer, Westmeier decided to give it a home.

WHEN IN DOUBT TRY LOGIC

"Well," the clerk explained, "they run A, B, C and D." The woman thought for a moment then replied: "I better take size B. His name is Bernard."

After much discussion of materials and methods to be used in the donor memorial wall, the election of board members was held.

Racial Integration Is Program Topic

Problems of racial integration were outlined by Mrs. Jim Bookout as she presented the program for members of Lone Star Study Club Tuesday afternoon. She confined most of her discussion to the Negro race.

While presenting a history of Negroes in the United States since the time of the slave laborers, Mrs. Bookout said, "After the freeing of the slaves, they became the poor laborers of the cotton fields struggling against poor economic level, no education, and class prejudice of the whites. Slowly they migrated to the north to become an industrial problem of the same sort."

She then listed Negroes who had overcome these obstacles to become respected and famous members of professions and went on to discuss the Supreme Court ruling on segregation in 1954 and its aftermath in such places as Little Rock, Ark. She concluded with remarks concerning the current progress of desegregation, its problems, and its effect on the United States at home and abroad.

During the business meeting, conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. S. S. Williams, club members voted to have a Valentine party Feb. 7 in the home of Mrs. Guy Newsom. Husbands will be guests.

The club met in the home of Mrs. Newsom. Mrs. John Ja-

Womic, Tullia, chaplain; LaReece Askew, chaplain, and Janie Nolan, marshal. Janie McBroom Carthel sang the worthy advisor's song, "He," as Miss Allred was escorted to the East, and her brother, Roddy Allred, presented her flowers.

Making Of Wills Is Discussed By Mrs. Morton

"Why Make Out a Will?" was the topic discussed by Mrs. Harold Morton for members of La Madre Mia Study Club Jan. 23. She based her remarks on the book, Everyday Law, by Martin J. Ross.

"Wills are needed, especially by people of ordinary means, to avoid unnecessary expense," began Mrs. Morton. She then pointed out that legal consultation should be sought so that the thoughts of the person may be expressed correctly and the will be valid when it is executed. She noted that wills may be either oral or written, but in either case soundness of mind must be proven if the will is to be valid.

Mrs. Bill Lankford was presiding officer at the business meeting. Club members postponed the husbands' party from Feb. 8 to Feb. 13. It will be held at the First National Bank at 7:30 p.m. Those present were Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Jerry Landers, Mrs. James Brownlow, Mrs. Richard

Churchill Statue Started in Ohio

COLOMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sculptor William M. McVey will begin work soon in an Ohio State University studio on an eight foot statue of Sir Winston Churchill for the British Embassy in Washington.

McVey is serving this year as a visiting faculty member of the university's school of art while on leave from the Cleveland Institute of Art where he is head of sculpture.

McVey's stature will show the prime minister of the wartime period in a business suit, giving his victory sign. His left hand holds a cane and a cigar. The monument will be modeled in clay, then cast in bronze. It is a project of the English Speaking Union. The work will take approximately a year.

BRIDGE IS BUGGED

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Texas highway bridge has been wired for sound in an experiment that may influence the construction of an estimated 28,000 bridges yet to be built on the 41,000-mile-long Interstate Highway system.

More than 100 electronic sensors have been embedded in the experimental bridge to measure the stress and strains set up by the thousands of trucks and automobiles that will roll over it. It is a new design structured wholly of reinforced concrete.

HORSE BESTS CAR

WOODBURY, Conn. (AP) — An automobile and its driver came out second best in an encounter here with a horse.

The horse, being led along the highway, bolted from its owner and ran into the path of a car driven by Dennis S. Ryan, 33. The driver suffered minor bruises when he was knocked out of the vehicle by the impact, and the car's side, hood, roof and windshield were damaged. But the horse was uninjured.

MEMORY WAS LONG, HONEST AND ACCURATE LONDON, Ky. (AP) — Jim Barnett was stopped by a man who asked: "Are you the son of Mack Barnett?" Getting an affirmative answer, the man continued: "In 1928, I purchased a wagon bed iron from your father and never paid him. Now he's dead and I'm able to pay the $3.20." He handed over the money and left. Later, Jim looked over old records of Barnett Brothers and found the debt.

HURRICANE WHIPS UP THE MIAMI ZOO

MIAMI (AP) — If you have a little sympathy to spare, you can extend it to zoo keepers in hurricane country.

The last time a hurricane threatened Miami, keepers at the Dade County Zoo — located near the beach on an off-shore island — had this to do: Transfer all the snakes and other reptiles from cages to bags.

Catch all the water birds — ducks, swans, etc. — and put them in the snake cages. Lug all the mammoth tortoises into the zoo restrooms.

Remove antlers from the deer and crate them. Give tranquilizers to the ostriches so they could be shifted to shelter without danger to the keepers.

After all that, the hurricane veered away and the precautions turned out to be unnecessary.

HE DOESN'T CARE WHO KNOWS IT

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Sol Silverman found birthday greetings from her husband in her morning newspaper.

"Mollie," said an ad in the Miami Herald, "heartiest congratulations to you on your birthday. May God grant you many, many more."

Asked the reason for the unusual birthday card, Silverman said: "I love my wife, that's all."

Beauty In Six Days

Try a six-day Beauty Crash Program. Give up all extra-curricular activity from Monday to Saturday and concentrate on improving yourself in the "glamor department."

MONDAY - A day of fast and light diet. Stick to liquids if possible, and give up frustration foods. (These are favorites of the Munch and Punch Society - candy, pastry, bags of nibbles, sweet drinks.)

Single out your most annoying figure fault. Today and every day for five days, exercise to get rid of it. Lie down and cycle in the air to help legs, knees, thighs. Lie down and roll from side to side to massage hips. Touch your right hand to left toes and left hand to right toes from a standing position, keeping your legs straight. It is excellent for waist, hips, thighs.

TUESDAY - Eat lightly. Exercise and concentrate on your legs and toes, the most neglected beauty areas in winter.

Clean your legs of fuzz with a razor or whatever. Rub oil on legs from toes to thighs. Besides the light, airy feeling, the routine may catch on and you'll be prepared for spring and shorts when the time comes.

Cut toe nails straight across, gently tapering the crosscut. Avoid rounding corners, promoting ingrown toenails.

WEDNESDAY - Eat lightly. Exercise. Oil your feet and legs.

Concentrate on your arms and hands. Give yourself a professional manicure with or without polish. Soak your hands, scrub your nails, push back the cuticle. Use an emery board to shorten them.

Rub oil from fingertips to shoulders in large sweeping strokes. If arms are too hairy, remove hair. Rub oil across shoulders and up neck to chin.

THURSDAY - Examine your face. Oily skin may be helped with soap and water; dry skin needs oil.

Continue light diet. Be sure to include green leafy vegetables. Exercise. Continue oil treatment on legs and arms.

Give yourself an eyebrow test. Remove straggly hairs between eyebrows and those under the arch. If your face is round keep eyebrows as long a line as possible and tweeze so they are lifted at a slight angle at the sides.

Find your lipline. If you use lipstick, favor a generous mouth but keep it dainty. Curve it just a little bit more than your own lipline permits, but don't get your mouth off balance. Experiment until you get the right line for your mouth. Young girls should use light lipstick, rather than dark.

FRIDAY Experiment with a new hairdo. Keeping certain facts in mind.

If you are a butterball, don't wear hair in all-round fuzziness. It should be close to the head in soft waves. If you are tall and thin, don't wear your hair piled up on top. It will look better in a neat arrangement that falls gracefully below the ears.

SATURDAY Anything you couldn't do for yourself may require professional help: a new hairstyle, professional advice on eyebrows or manicure. Check teeth, call your dentist and this is the week to buy some little thing for your wardrobe.

It may make a new girl out of you. Or so you'll think.

DOG-GONE

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodisia (AP) - The dogs on Salisbury's police force don't always get their man. One of the dogs recently disgraced himself completely when he forsook the trail of a cat burglar for a mere cat.

The dog was hot on the track of the burglar when the cat crossed his path and off he went. The handler twice pulled him back to the burglar's trail, but twice the dog took off after the cat. Both the feline and the felon escaped.

Southwest Fashion Test

By PATRICIA CURRAN Associated Press Writer DALLAS, Tex. (AP) - Colorful styles of the Southwest that survived fashion market tests may be in your wardrobe next year. The Dallas Market (Jan. 26-31), third largest in the nation, is the sampling ground because it is ahead of the East and West coast markets by a few weeks.

"If a dress is a dud here," one salesman says, "you can be sure it won't show up on the coast."

More than 2,000 manufacturers and some 7,000 lines of women's summerweight casual apparel are a part of this market's success story.

Among the success stories behind the success story is Elsie Frankfurt, an attractive blonde who looked at her pregnant sister and said, "Honey, you look like a beachball in an unmade bed."

She thereafter parlayed $500 into a $3 million a year Pageboy Maternitywear business, with clothes ranging from skiwear to ball gowns for the active mother-to-be.

Bernard Gold traded his fleet of New York taxicabs for a fleet of sewing machines 25 years ago. Now Nardis of Dallas, his firm, is a successful high fashion institution which strives for distinctive colors and fabrics, as well as style.

By contrast Jack Miller does a $7 million a year business as Lois Young, Inc. featuring ever-popular styles such as the shirt waist at low prices. "At those prices you can't aim for fashion," he says.

Buyers normally complete breakfast by 6:30 a.m. daily evaluate a fashion show of 150 pieces and then spend the day canvassing salesrooms. Dress manufacturers pay a $25 fee to put a dress before the assembled buyers for 30 seconds.

That brief display can make or break a style.

SOMETIMES IT MIGHT BE A BLESSING NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) - A rattling window halted Superior Court proceedings recently.

Judge Joseph S. Longo called off the session because the window made so much noise that he couldn't hear the lawyers talk.

THEY NEVER PAID IN ADVANCE? MIAMI (AP) - The Dade County Port Authority has decided to save money by leasing two transmitter sites to the federal government for nothing. The government had been paying a dollar a year for the sites but the Authorities says the bookkeeping costs come to more than that.

Auto Licenses To Go On Sale

License plates for 1964 go on sale tomorrow, Nell Miller, Deaf Smith County Assessor-Collector, said Saturday, and clerks in her office are readying for the two-months' buying period which may see as many as 12,000 plates issued. Deadline is April 1.
 As last year, first license goes to Fred W. Baird, former school tax collector. He will be issued plate AW-10, this year's starting point for license tags.
 The AW series will be issued to only 839 buyers, Mrs. Miller explained; after that, AV series will be issued, starting with 4900 and running through AV-99-99.
 Vehicle inspection stickers which have been on sale for some time, must be in place by April 15, Department of Public Safety warned Saturday.

Hereford Heritage Preserved In Lovely Old Black Home

Carved walnut wainscoting is featured in space for Mrs. James Black's handpainted china plates and other treasured objects. Shelves built along the top allow ample display. This is a corner of the living room.

The Sunday Brand Women's Section

SECTION TWO

HEREFORD, TEXAS 79045, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1964

Dale Stevens, Society-Editor

The living room fireplace is massively framed in carved columns, and the tile is beautifully overlaid with delicate gold scrollwork. The coal-burning fireplaces were "modernized" many years ago, when the marvelous convenience of gas came to Hereford.

"I remember best my graduation parties. Mother and Dad always kept open house for the boys and girls, and we often gathered in our home for table games and teas.

"That was such a gracious period in time. The girls wore long dresses of beautiful white material with rows and rows of tucks and lace and full skirts. One that I loved had a panel of diagonal rows of tiny tucks and lace the full length of the princess-styled dress."

Mrs. Jesse Stanford was reminiscing about the time shortly after her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Black, built their home at 508 West Third in 1909, the period when Mr. and Mrs. Black and their four children most enjoyed the house.

The house today shows the loving care and pride of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Black, who first lived there when Mr. Black brought his bride home in 1920. They have been in residence since 1944, when the elder Mr. Black became ill. Preceded in death by Mrs. Black, he died in 1945.

E. B. Black, who moved to Hereford at the turn of the century, was a Southerner who missed the space and grace of remembered homes. He was particularly anxious to have the large dining room. Mrs. Black, who always chose to do her own cooking, prepared and served in that room meals remembered with nostalgia by guests and family, even her oldest grandchildren.

She was never pleased with the new dining room furniture because the table was too small for all the dishes she prepared. This suite, in walnut, included two corner cabinets with rounded glass fronts as well as the standard pieces. Today they contain many pieces of her china and crystal.

The music room, or parlor, has always had a piano, at one time a grand piano. Mrs. Stanford, who played at her church for over 50 years, particularly enjoyed this room.

When the house was built, the two downstairs bedrooms had foldaway beds with large mirrors. The southeast room was prepared as a bedroom for an elderly aunt and has since been called "Aunt Tisha's room," or the "lavender room." It contains a fireplace similar to that in the living room and bedroom furniture finished in a lustrous lavender and gold.

The fireplace frames and the framework for the entrance to the music room were ordered from a catalogus. They feature intricate carving and tiles overlaid with a delicate tracery of gold scrollwork. The coal grates were modernized for gas when gas heating became a sort of status symbol.

Mr. Vandenberg, father of Mrs. C. R. Smith, did most of the detailed work in building the house. He built a little house at the back where he kept his tools and made the frames for the doors and windows. From pine slabs, he carefully prepared all the doors so that they appeared paneled, each panel with a different wood grain.

The walnut wainscoting was handcarved by the finishing workers to match the fireplace frames and columned entrance to the music room. The floors were

The sliding doors into "Aunt Tisha's" room frame this view of the living room and the music room, sometimes called the parlor. The columned entrance to the music room matches the fireplace frame, and the two chairs are original pieces of furniture. Underneath the carpeting, the original floors are white maple with inlaid designs in each doorway.

"The dining room," says Mrs. Jesse Stanford, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Black, "was the part of the house that we all enjoyed the most, and my father's main reason for building the house." Sumptuous meals were served here by her mother, who was noted for her cooking.

Miss Kay Caraway Is Bride Of Larry Dyess

In a double ring ceremony read Saturday afternoon, Jan. 25, Miss Kay Caraway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartland Caraway, Stratford, became the bride of Larry Dyess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dyess, Waynesboro, Miss.

The ceremony was performed by Earl Craig, minister, in the home of the bride's parents. Seven-branched candelabra formed a background for the improvised altar, which was covered with a white satin cloth and centered with a sunburst arrangement of white stock, carnations, and elf roses in a white china figurine pedestal vase.

Mrs. Laraine Mehner played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Miss Kay Spurluck as she sang "Through the Years."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white wool suit trimmed in white mink and a pillbox hat of white mink. She carried a tailored cascade of cerise sweetheart roses and feathered white carnations atop the lace-covered Bible her mother carried at her wedding.

Mrs. Joe Don Cummings, Hereford, was her sister's matron of honor. She wore an empire dress of cerise wool and a ring hat of cerise silk. Her corsage was fashioned of white feathered carnations and cerise sweetheart roses.

Candles were lighted by Miss Mary Frances Caraway, sister of the bride. Her dress was an off-white wool in style similar to that of the matron of honor. Her shoes and hairbow were cerise.

Dwayne Pittman was best man, and guests were seated by Tommy Green.

The bride honored her grandmothers, Mrs. E. Ramey, Stratford, and Mrs. W. P. Caraway, Hereford, with corsages of cerise carnations and gardenias.

Following the ceremony, there was a reception in the home. The bride's table was covered

'Good Business Is Organized,' Says Speaker

"The success of any business depends on how well its activities and details are planned, organized, and carried out. This is true of homemaking as well as the largest business in town," Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent, told members of Young Homemakers Home Demonstration Club during a recent meeting. Her topic was "Filing Papers."

Mrs. Roy Evans, president, conducted a short business meeting. Plans were discussed for a trip to Plainview.

Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Richard Clark. Other members present were Mrs. Rayburn Strange, Mrs. LeRoy Burges, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Roy Evans, Mrs. Huey Lowrie, and Mrs. Charles Brown.

Guest Speaker Is Jazz Enthusiast

Music Study Club met Jan. 27 for a program on jazz music, presented by Mrs. Bill Penn. Guest speaker was Charles Bell, a jazz enthusiast who has a master's degree from the University of Texas and was a teacher for ten years. He now has a dance combo band and is a representative of Southwestern Life Insurance Company.

In her introductory remarks, Mrs. Penn outlined the history of the music form and explained its mechanics. "Jazz," she said, "covers a multitude of sounds from blues to Dixieland, Charleston to swing bands, boogie woogie to crazy pop, cool pop to mambo, and many others." She then presented the guest speaker.

Mr. Bell explained "playing by ear" and discussed informally the professional musician. He said, "If a musician doesn't play jazz, he doesn't eat. Most members of a jazz orchestra also play in a symphony orchestra." He concluded the program by playing "Interlude for Clarinet," by John Morris. He was accompanied by Mrs. Penn.

The club met in the home of Mrs. W. T. Thompson. Mrs. Penn's mother, Mrs. Harry Suggs, Lawton, Okla., was a guest. Other members present were Mrs. J. R. Allison, Mrs. Bill Bradley, Mrs. S. F. Clements, Mrs. Ellis Coombes, Mrs. B. Y. Crosthwait, Mrs. Cliff Estes, Mrs. H. K. Fox, Mrs. Bill Lankford, Mrs. Paul Lyons, Mrs. J. B. McCracken, Mrs. Carl Mountz, Mrs. T. W. Robertson, Mrs. A. T. Schroeter, Mrs. Lowell Sharp, Mrs. Jesse Stanford, Mrs. Frances Parker, and Mrs. S. O. Wilson.

Ellen Dyess, cousin of the groom. The bride, who attended elementary school in Hereford, is a 1961 graduate of Stratford High School. She attended West Texas State University, and is a summer graduate of Space and Form Beauty School. Her husband is a 1961 graduate of Waynesboro High School and attended Jones County Junior College, Ellisville, Miss.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. W. P. Caraway and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Don Cummings, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie B. Caraway, Bob, Alice Ann, and Bill, Dawn; Mr. and Mrs. Iverson Leake, Canyon, and Miss Sharon Neese, Perryton.

After a short wedding trip to Taos and Red River, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Dyess are at home at 309 Fulton, Stratford.

with white satin overlaid with a cloth of white net and satin decorated with wedding bells made of white sequins. An arrangement of white carnations, stock, and pompon chrysanthemums centered the table.

Miss Elaine Spurluck served the three-tiered colonaded wedding cake, which was decorated with tiny white wedding bells and lovebirds and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Ernie Dyess presided at the crystal punch service. Guests were registered by Miss

A BRAKE, A BOTTLE AND SPEED

NEW YORK (AP) — John Thornton of Flushing, Queens, stepped on the brake pedal and his car went faster.

As Thornton, 65, pulled his car into a supermarket parking lot, an empty soda bottle he was returning fell off the seat.

The bottle rolled under the brake pedal, with the neck across the gas pedal.

When Thornton applied his brakes, the neck of the bottle depressed the gas pedal and the car crashed against the side of the store, smashing the brick wall, two windows and the manager's office. No one was hurt.

Refreshments Served Following Meeting

Details of the wainscoting are shown in this picture. The handcarving closely follows the details of mill-made work in the fireplace frames. The cabinet pictured contains many pieces of crystal collected by Mrs. E. B. Black, and the plates along the shelf were painted by Mrs. James Black.

This view of the doorway from the living room to the music room shows the details of the carved woodwork and a close view of the two chairs which are the remaining original pieces of furniture.

Black...

Today the wood grain in all the woodwork shines with the clear luster of loving care through the more than half century of life in the house.

Mr. and Mrs. James Black graciously show visitors the house and enjoy telling the history of both their home and their town. He worked with his father in his furniture store and farmed and ranched near Black for many years.

Mrs. Black was reared in Canyon and taught for about eight years at Central School and three or four years at Black. She enjoys most handicrafts, but her special hobby is china-painting. The lovely examples of this work are displayed throughout the house.

Mrs. Stanford and James Black have a younger brother and sister, Mrs. C. E. Birkmeyer, Amarillo, and W. A. Black, San Antonio.

School Trustees Review Ten Point Program Of Progress

At the trustee meeting this week, board members traced a brief review of progress, summarizing some of the improvements in the local system during the past four years.

The information, presented as a sort of inventory of progress, covered 10 points in which most patrons will no doubt be interested:

1. Adoption of a retirement policy, mandatory at age 65.
2. Building improvements totaling $750,000.
3. Re-evaluation program increasing the district from $28 million to $42 million.
4. Bond re-evaluations program which placed Hereford schools among the highest in Texas, considering size and population.
5. Complete integration through all 12 grades, achieved without undue disturbance.
6. Expansion of choral music department.
7. Introduction of conversational languages in a program designed to begin in primary grades and spread throughout the 12 grades.
8. Program to assist academically retarded students through junior high.
9. Emphasis of evaluated progress in math and science departments.
10. Change of the district name and status from a rural high school to Hereford Independent School district.

In addition, we might add that the

Political interest is picking up on all fronts these days. Deaf Smith county had sold 2866 poll tax receipts Wednesday and indications pointed to a probability that the final count Jan. 31 would equal or surpass the 3300 receipts issued in 1960, the last general election year. These developments occurred even in the face of federal edicts which will allow voters to participate in the November election.

In addition to interest in local races, the announcement last week of Don Yarborough against John Connally for governor pretty well played accompaniment to the old theme song, "Liberals vs. Conservatives," with Kilgore already announced and Jim Wright and Allan Shivers seriously considering a race against Senator Ralph Yarborough. Congressman Walter Rogers of this district picked up a Republican opponent from his home town of Pampa with the announcement of Bob Price.

Meanwhile the GOP nomination for President is wide open on all fronts, while President Lyndon B. Johnson sits tight — and apparently has the situation well in hand on the Democratic front.

All in all, the 1964 races bid to hold extreme interest from bottom to top. The keynote, as we said, carries the familiar refrain of left wing against right wing — and before the last vote is cast it is safe to predict that plenty of fur will fly. This is especially true in Texas, now that the "harmony for LBJ" truce has been broken.

As someone pointed out, Texas politics parallel a tremendous three-ring circus, and we do have some of the best performers in the world.

local schools have also made a preliminary step toward industrial education, an important factor in the area in view of a general percentage decline in the number of students who graduate with the idea of entering colleges and universities.

Different people naturally hold different opinions of schools and school progress, but when you sum it all up, it seems that Hereford schools do have a record of which we can be proud — especially when you stop to consider that we have been faced with a period of unusual growth, a general trend in change of population status, and one of the most trying periods in our history.

Polls Show GOP Plight

While no one can suppose that the polls measuring President Johnson's popularity predict exactly what is going to happen next November, they do say that as of now the Republican Party is in very bad shape indeed. When one remembers that a candidate who gets 60 per cent of the votes on election day wins by a large landslide in the Electoral College, these current figures rating President Johnson at 75 or even 80 per cent seem to say there is some kind of convulsion within the Republican Party.

For while President Johnson will almost certainly not get the votes of all the people who are for him, I believe the polls are telling an important story.

It turns on the argument about me-tooism among Republicans, as illustrated by Goldwater and Rockefeller. Sen. Goldwater is saying that the Republican Party can win only if it offers the voters "a choice and not an echo." His theory is the Republicans must differ radically from the Democrats. Gov. Rockefeller, on the other hand, not only agrees with the main aims of the Democrats but knows that a large majority of the people agree with them also. So he is driven to take the position that the Republican Party with him as leader would achieve the common aims better than the Democrats can achieve them. This is what Sen. Goldwater calls me-tooism, in his mind a recipe for defeat.

If we take a close look at me-tooism, we have to ask ourselves whether in fact the kind of radically different alternative exists which Sen. Goldwater talks about. No Republican President since the Roosevelt land-slides of the 1930's has thought that there was such an alternative. Wilkie, Dewey, Eisenhower and Nixon all practiced what Sen. Goldwater calls me-tooism.

Why? Not because they did not wish to win. Not because they did not wish to offer the voters a choice between themselves and the Democratic candidates. They practiced me-tooism because in a nationwide election there was no choice. The Democratic Party under Franklin Roosevelt, Truman, Stevenson and Kennedy has pre-empted and occupied all the central positions in national and international policy. There are no other national positions to be occupied. The fact that this is so is being demonstrated by the complete failure of Sen. Goldwater himself to produce any kind of coherent and defensible program.

'Naturalized' Texan Has Answer To Border's Ills

BY TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON, (AP)—When Congress considers matters concerning the 2,000-mile U. S. Mexican border it turns to a 54-year-old Brooklyn-born Texan for authoritative information.

He is Joseph F. Friedkin, a 4-foot-10, balding civil engineer whose headquarters as U. S. Commissioner on the U. S. Mexican International Boundary and Water Commission are in El Paso. He's been with the IBWC most of the time since 1934.

The fact that he was born in Brooklyn, from which he moved to El Paso as a child with his parents, hasn't hurt him in his job. Annually he appears before a House Appropriations Subcommittee headed by Rep. John J. Rooney, D-N.Y., whose district included a part of Brooklyn.

Rooney, during the course of some of Friedkin's appearances before his subcommittee, has said with a smile: "We're always happy to see these Brooklyn boys who have made good."

Few persons probably have a more thorough and intimate knowledge of conditions along the U. S. Mexican border than Friedkin.

Friedkin was graduated from El Paso's Texas College of Mines in 1932 and two years later joined the then-designated International Boundary Commission as a junior engineer. His job was to compile and analyze hydrologic data on the flow of the Rio Grande.

In 1941 and 1942 as the IBC resident engineer, stationed in Calexico, Calif., he conducted investigations relating to flood control, irrigation and drainage of the lower Colorado River. The data was used in the drafting of the 1944 U. S. Mexico Water Treaty.

During World War II Friedkin was a captain in the Army Engineer Corps. Stationed at Vicksburg, Miss., he conducted flood control and navigation studies on the lower Mississippi that led to authorization of projects costing $200 million.

Leaving the Army as a major, he returned to the commission as resident engineer at San Diego, Calif., to handle and administer projects on the lower Colorado River, called for in the 1944 Water Treaty. In the past the United States was guaranteed certain deliveries of water on the lower Rio Grande and in return pledged a certain flow of the Colorado across the border into Mexico.

Friedkin has lived in El Paso since 1953. As principal engineer in the El Paso office, he had much to do with construction of Flacon Dam on the Rio Grande below Laredo.

Two years ago he was named by the president as the U. S. member on the commission and now is in charge of the U. S. role in the building of the $78 million Amistad Dam on the Rio Grande 13 miles up stream from Del Rio, Tex. Friedkin was here late in January to testify before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on legislation to implement the Chamizal Treaty — under which Mexico gains clear title to some 400 acres in the El Paso area which have been in dispute since a flood changed the course of the Rio Grande a century ago.

He also is to testify before Senate and House Committees (Continued on page 5)

With an increase in interest being shown, the Irrigation Day program scheduled for local businessmen and area farmers and ranchers Saturday, Feb. 8, is a timely subject. The county agent's office reports that 24 permits for irrigation wells have been issued this month, and 74 permits have been issued in the period since Jan. 1, 1963. Of this number issued, only four have been cancelled.

THE BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his blindfold grass farm views a certain possibility with alarm this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor:

Whether we cut the national budget or not, whether we get a tax cut, whether medicare passes, whether the Panama situation is settled, whether France recognizes Red China or not... these things pale into insignificance when you step to consider the biggest question in this country.

It is: do television announcers have the right to strike and shut off television?

According to an item I read on an inside page of a big daily paper which I found on the road near my house where somebody had left it to lie on while getting a jack under his car to fix a flat, which incidentally shows how a big newspaper can underplay the news — putting an item like this on an inside page — there's a union of television announcers and they are talking about striking for higher pay.

A spokesman for the television industry said such a strike could shut down national television for several days.

This is what I'm talking about. I do not believe the American people can survive several days without television, it's a threat to national security, and Congress ought to drop everything else if it happens to have anything in its hands at the time and attack this crisis before it arrives.

You leave 150 million people at loose ends every day and night for a week, especially in an election year, and there's no telling what would happen. If I was a Congressman, for example, the last thing I'd want is to have the people thinking for a week on how long it takes Congress to act.

I don't know what the solution is, but anything that keeps one program from following another every night in the year is an open invitation to unrest and possibly widespread thinking, and if Congress wants to keep lumbering along it had better stop long enough to keep television on the air.

A Gunsmokeless, Wagon Trainless, As the World Turnsless week is beyond the human capacity to endure.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Attorney General Speaks at Muleshoe

Carr Says Youth May Find Answer To Crime Problem

By the year 2000, 70 percent of all the people living in Texas will be huddled together in four cities - Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston and San Antonio.

That's the opinion of Attorney General Waggoner Carr who spoke at last Saturday night's annual Chamber of Commerce dinner in Muleshoe.

But it's not the population concentration in the four cities that worries the attorney general; it's the increase in juvenile crime which may be aggravated somewhat by the urban growth. Forty percent of Texas' total population now live in those cities.

He said that Texas crime is increasing seven times as fast in youth as in oldsters, and that Texas now leads the nation in number of murders committed each year. "This," he said, "is an appalling situation, and it would appear that our older generation have not done a very good job of raising our youth - or in dealing with youth problems."

Texas now has 12,000 persons in state penitentiaries, and of this number, 40 percent are under 24 years of age. "This trend toward youthful crime is increasing," he claimed, "and unless it is stopped, we can expect to see an even greater increase in youthful crime."

He pointed out that the very size of Texas makes it difficult to enact laws "that will be as good for El Paso as for Marshall, yet that is the problem which our lawmakers face."

He continued: "We must deal with a state where harvesting operations are never completed, so big and so varied is the climate in Texas. This means we have a tremendous transient problem."

He told the Chamber audience that rainfall, for example, varies tremendously from the Louisiana border westward, decreasing one inch per year each 17 miles westward.

As to the youth crime problem, Carr said he believes only the youth themselves can stop this movement, and he pointed to the highly successful "first-of-its-kind" youth crime study at Austin last August as a possible remedy to the problem, said. "The movement was even more successful than we had hoped for, and this year, 2500 boys and girls will attend the second such event. "This is an indication that maybe have been going about this business of juvenile crime from the wrong angle; we have been trying to let the older folk solve the problem when all along we should have let them - the young people themselves - say what needs to be done.

"To say the least, the hope of removing this cancer from society, juvenile crime, must be solved, and I am convinced that only as the youth themselves, the leaders, the good youth, get concerned - only then will be able to reverse this trend. The youth are our only hope."

(Continued from page 4) in February. Among items in President Johnson's budget he is backing a $14.1 million request for work on Amistad in the fiscal year starting July 1.

While some highway relocation and planning has been carried on with the $5.5 million provided by Congress for fiscal 1964, actual construction of the dam is not expected to start before June 1. The United States will put up $40 million of the cost, Mexico $30 million, and they will share commensurately in the benefits.

The dam, a concrete gravity structure with gated spillway, will rise 254 feet above the river bed. Two earth embankments flanking a 2,182-foot concrete center section will create a dam six miles in length - two miles on the U. S. side and four on the Mexican side.

A paved highway, 26 feet wide, will be built on top of the dam. The site is near the junction of Texas' Devils River with the Rio Grande.

In the early stages of planning the project was known as Diablo (Devil's) Dam. But when President Dwight D. Eisenhower and the president of Mexico met at the site in 1959 to announce its formal approval, they gave it the new name of Amistad - which in Spanish, means friendship.

The evening hours, while the trailer is on tour, are to give school boards, dieticians and architects an opportunity to see the latest in electric commercial cooking equipment. These groups will be invited to dinners served on the equipment in the trailer. There is a seating capacity of 14 people in the trailer. Mario Stanislaw of Amarillo, commercial cooking equipment specialist for the Panhandle Division, will be in charge of the exhibit while it is on tour in the northern portions of the company's service area. He will be joined by Bill Pearce, food service consultant for Artie Foods in Amarillo in the demonstrations to be presented.

"We certainly hope that all food service operators in the Hereford area will take advantage of the opportunity to see the equipment in operation," Melvin Jayroe, district manager for Southwestern Public Service Co. said.

Sergeant Streun received instruction in the operation and maintenance of lightweight, portable radar sets called "Silent Sentries," which allow men to see for long distances in total darkness.

 "Irrigation Workshop" will be the order of business Thursday, February 6, when the Deaf Smith County Electric Co-operative, Inc. will host area farmers to an all day meet, slated for the Community Center. The workshop will include such topics as weed control, grain sorghum farming, flame cultivation, weed killers, and many other subjects of vital interest to area farmers. Experts in the many aspects of farming have been obtained for the one day meet.

The program will get off the ground promptly at 9:30 a. m. and will end at 3:40 p.m.

HB
 We knew it! Just suggest that the Baptists might have to start sprinkling, and in comes a nice rain. Not the biggest we've ever had to be sure, but nice enough to clear the dirt out of the air and to assure everyone that it can rain in West Texas.

HB
 We noticed an item in the Saturday Review recently that was too good to pass. The Insider's Newsletter was credited with originating the deal, but we thought it was worth a re-run. The article is directed to those people who think it's "Washington as usual" since Lyndon Johnson moved into the executive office. We quote:

Lester Lanin is Out; Flatt and Scruggs are In. Hiking is Out; politics is In. Filet mignon is Out; T-bone is In. Big billion-dollar deficits are Out; little billion-dollar deficits are In. Joe Alsop is Out; William S. White is In. House dogs are Out; hound dogs are In. Button-down collars are Out; zip-up wind-breakers are In. Sailing is Out; politics is In. Dinner at 8:00 for eight is Out; barbecue at 5:00 for 500 is In. Planned spending is Out; unplanned spending is In. Ian Fleming is Out; Kermit Gordon is In. Dinner dances are Out; square dances are In. Bonwit Teller is Out; Neiman-Marcus is In. Pushups by-the-numbers are Out; numbers are In. Ivy League is Out; Southwest Conference is In. Softball is Out; politics is In. Loafers are Out; boots are In. Reading is Out; arithmetic is In.

And we might add a note to the above. If Mr. Johnson has his way in '64, Republicans will be out; Democrats In.

HB
 We understand that Hereford will soon be the home of a hide and rendering plant. The company's officials are negotiating with James Allen Company for location near the meat packing plant, according to the information we receive, and an announcement should be forthcoming soon.

HB
 J.W. Robinson, owner-manager of Robinson Insurance agency, gave us a personal guided tour of his new office building recently. The structure should be completed soon, and the anticipated move-in date has been set for February 15. That, of course, is subject to change. We have discovered, through experience, that things do not always proceed according to schedule. The building is located at Third and Miles, across from City Hall.

HB
 Lather Lesly has just returned from Dallas where he attended a meeting on herbicides. Lather says that herbicides will definitely take a top spot in the farming picture within a short time. Of course, herbicides are not new to this country, but there will be more emphasis placed on their use in the years to come... particularly in the diversified farming areas such as our own.

HB
 Margaret Cook, genial manager of the Sears store in Hereford, reports that she has been awarded a 21-jewel gold watch for having the store with the second highest percentage of gain in the entire Northern District. The award was made for November and December business.

Of course, Margaret was giving her fellow employees credit for the gain, but figured that she would be "mighty proud" of that watch anyhow.

The store at Perryton, Texas had the highest gain in the district. Perryton, like Hereford, is on the move.

HB
 Melvin Jayroe, District Manager of Southwestern Public Service Company, was by recently, and while here, he made a few comparisons with his former home town of Pampa. "Last year," said Jayroe, "Hereford builders constructed 779 Bronze Medalion Homes, while Pampa could boast only six."

In another comparison with Pampa, Melvin pointed out that Hereford had 29 builders and their wives present for a meeting sponsored by the Public Service Company, while the larger city of Pampa had only 14.

The above is probably of little importance except to point out that Hereford is on the move. In fact, has a greater percentage of growth than any town in the Panhandle, and has an actual population increase great-

C of C Explained To 4-H Club

Happy Hustlers 4-H club met Jan. 23 at the Community Center, when Bill Thompson, manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, spoke. He explained the functions of the chamber.

After Mr. Thompson's talk, Ray Simpson and Albert Farris showed the film, "The Pulse of Life." They also had "Rescue Annie" with them and demonstrated the proper use of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. They also demonstrated the renewing of heartbeats by use of pressure on the heart. After the demonstration, each of the members and leaders were given an opportunity to try mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

Members present were Carl Smith, Steve Robbins, Larry Lance, Rodney Douglas, Tom McGowan, Charles Arley, Oscar Williams, Rodney Gary, and Dennis Goheen. Also present were the leaders, Mrs. Floyd Cole and Mrs. Frank Robbins. Mrs. Goheen served refreshments.

 Which brings up another problem. School rooms will be at a premium for the coming year, and present predictions indicate that the churches will be needed to take care of the overflow. Any new building program could not possibly be completed in time for the fall

Art Film Shown During Jan. 28 Guild Meeting

Hereford Art Guild met Jan. 28 in the high school library. Mozelle Neill showed two films. The first presented a lesson on perspective through line and color, and the second demonstrated methods of painting different cloud forms.

Mrs. Ray Cowser conducted the business meeting, and a discussion period followed. Mrs. Bess Werner described six art exhibits she had visited in El Paso.

Those present were Mary Lou Aven, Ellen Carter, Carrie Mae

Doak, Sarah Poarch, Lu Sherman, Vivian Major, Nell Culpepper, Alwynn Savage, Mary King, Myra Mae Love, Ruth Kerr, Susie Lipscomb, Ella Higgins, Louella Cowser, Roberta Wilson, Verna Lyons, Margaret Young, Teresa Lamb, Mozelle Neill and Bess Werne.

The Santa Fe Trail had several starting points in Missouri-

Hundreds Expected for REC Irrigation Workshop Here

Experts in all phases of irrigation will appear on the program next Friday when Deaf Smith County Electric Co-operative will sponsor an irrigation workshop at the Community Center.

Howard Hunter, president of the Young Farmers Association will preside at the program, opening at 9:55. Leo Forrest, manager of the cooperative, will extend the welcome, and the workshop proper will open with a talk by John Cavassa, fieldman for Holly Sugar Corp., who will discuss sugar beet growing on the High Plains.

Dr. Allen Wiese, a weed control specialist at Bushland Experiment station, will discuss weed control, and Bedford Forrest, public relations official and Jack Parks, agricultural engineer, with the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, are to explain two phases of irrigation farming - solid-plant grain sorghum farming and flame cultivation.

At noon, lunch will be served by Deaf Smith County Co-operative, and farmers will be given an opportunity to view exhibits on display.

In the afternoon session, County Agent Lefty Thomas will preside. Water management is to be discussed by five experts. They include C. Wayne Keese, irrigation specialist with the Extension Service, who will talk on length of runs; R. V. Thurman, conservation engineer with Portland Cement Association, Austin, who will speak on irrigation water measurement; and Dave W. Sherrill, Extension Service irrigation specialist from Lubbock, whose topic will be number and timing of irrigations.

Dan C. Huckabee, area engineer with the Soil Conservation Service, Amarillo, is to talk on irrigated land preparation, and W. L. Broadhurst, chief hydrologist with the High Plains Water.

Cost of irrigation is to be discussed by three specialists: Sam Morgan, coordinator and Ray Simpson, power use advisor with the Deaf Smith county coop, and by John Shanklin, agricultural engineer with REA, Albuquerque. Shanklin also will be moderator for a panel of specialists on a question and answer period which will conclude the program.

The day will come to a close with drawing for door prizes. Several hundred farmers and ranchmen from this area are expected to attend the one-day workshop.

CHEVELLE! MALIBU SUPER SPORTS by CHEVROLET

Background, new Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe; foreground, Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Convertible.

What's so super about the Chevelle Malibu Super Sports?

Let's start with the inside. You get individually adjustable front bucket seats, soft, color-keyed leather-grain vinyl. Special instrumentation—ammeter, oil pressure and water temperature gauges. Bright metal console panel with either sporty 4-speed* stick shift or Powerglide* floor-mounted straight-line shift.

Under the hood? Lots of choice. Two Sixes—standard 120-hp and optional 155-hp*. Three V8's from the standard 283-cu.-in. job up to (you're reading it right!) 327-cu.-in.* Try this one to flatten out hills!

Some mighty appealing options, too. Electric tachometer. Positraction rear axle, sintered metallic brake linings and sports-styled simulated walnut steering wheel, to name a few.

Even the exterior says it's super—special moldings and emblems, special wheelcovers that define the highly-maneuverable Chevelle 115-inch wheelbase. (Chevelle is smaller than the Jet-smooth luxury Chevrolet, bigger than the popular Chevy II, and fits beautifully in between them.)

Actually, about all that's not super about these Malibu SS Coupes and Convertibles is their price. And there's so much more to find out about them, the only right way to take it all in is to drive one. Your Chevrolet dealer can take care of that, too.

*Optional at extra cost.

Sleeping Like Sardines?

Eight out of ten couples still try to sleep on a standard double bed mattress. Yet, for most people, this size is as old fashioned as high button shoes—it's just too small to give them the room they need for proper rest.

Super Size Beautyrest is the answer. The unique construction of this mattress assures two people of single-bed comfort in a double bed... because the springs are separate, work independently, won't sag. Even the heaviest husband can't disturb his wife's sleep.

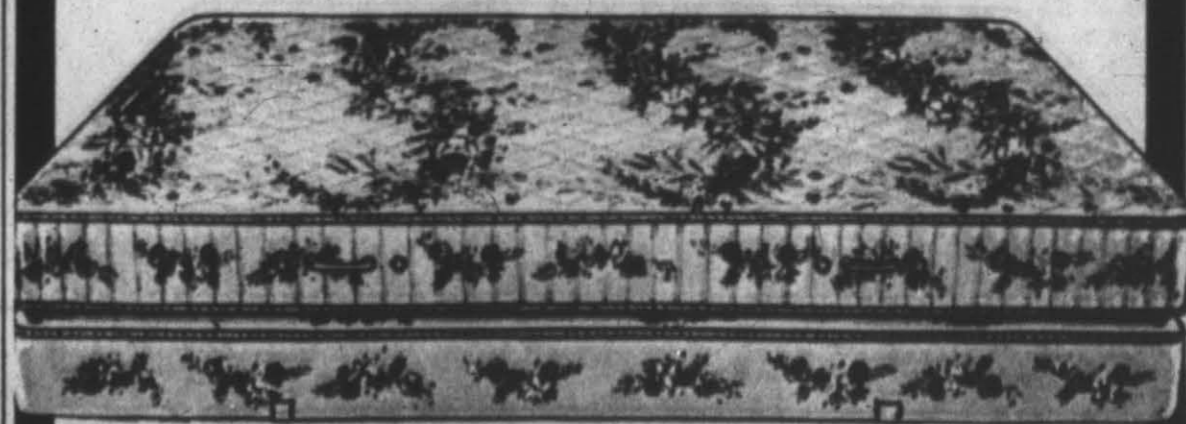

Let the sardines sleep like sardines. But why don't you visit our bedding department and look at a Super Size Beautyrest. Take your choice of firm or extra firm... tufted or quilted... and get the size that fits your needs.
