Airport Contract Is Tabled Again

Renewal of the Whiteface Aviation contract was once again tabled this week as city commissioners and Olin Paris and Bob Doughman, airport operators, failed to reach an agreement on the new contract.

Hal Gorrell, Wichita, Kan., regional supervisor for Cessna Aircraft Corp., told the results of a survey on the contracts of other airports in Texas. Gorrell emphasized that there was not an agent or representative of Paris or Doughman, but that his purpose was to explain the method of operation of several other operations of comparative size. Gorrell was invited to the meeting by Paris and Doughman.

Under the first year's operation the operators paid a flat rate of $300 per month, and with the second year's contract they would pay the $300 per month and 10 percent of the gross income. However there would be no percentage taken out of the first $9,600.

Around Town

With The Brand Staff

Hereford's annual clean-up, fix-up and paint-up week is slated for next week. It was announced Thursday, and Mayor Ray Cowsett has issued a proclamation setting up the week. The proclamation will say, "citizens are desirous of improving the general appearance of our community, both businesses and residences."

Dr. Donald A. Cowan, president of the University of Dallas, will be guest speaker at the Knights of Columbus quarterly breakfast in St. Anthony's auditorium next Sunday at 8 o'clock. He will speak on higher education.

Hereford's Stanton Junior High band, directed by Clyde Wilson, came home from band contests at Canyon Tuesday night with a second in concert playing and firsts in sight reading and marching. The Hereford Junior High, a two-year school, was competing with bands from schools which have the ninth grade also in junior high. Senior high band was trying for honors Wednesday afternoon.

Farmers Union is planning a covered dish supper for tonight at 8 o'clock in the Community Center. Jay Naman, state Farmers Union President, will speak, and Farmers Union policies will be discussed.

Hereford FFA members took part in the Amarillo District FFA speaking contest at Boys Ranch recently. Arvell Williams was named to represent the district in an area contest in Lubbock May 9, and winner of that event goes to the state contest in San Antonio in June. District nominee for state president is Gary Royal, also of Hereford who will go to the area and state meet. Other winners include Jackie Andrews, FFA foundation award winner and Gary Royal, crops, both of whom will go to state and area meets. Five are applicants for State Farmer degree: David Block, Roddy Allred, Jackie Andrews, Carl Myers, and Billie Johnson. FFA Sweetheart Ronda (Continued on Page 7)

Office-Seekers To Rally Friday For Pie Supper

Walcott school building will be the scene Friday night of a political speaking session and pie supper, sponsored by the Messenger Home Demonstration club. Proceeds from the pie sale will go to the club's projects. It was explained. Erroneously, the Brand had said the affair will be held Thursday night. All political candidates are invited by the club to be on hand for the pie supper. They will be given an opportunity to speak.

FOR STILL BETTER SERVICE — Southwest Offset, Inc., which prints The Hereford Brand and several other area papers, is stepping up its service with addition of two more printing units, one of which is shown here being unloaded. This will make it possible for Southwest Offset to print 16 pages per "run" in black or white or 12 pages with four pages in "Process" color (full color.) In addition to many area newspapers, the corporation also prints two state publications, the REA magazine and the Farm Bureau state paper. (Brand Staff Photo)

Group Suggests 3 New Buildings

A Citizens' Committee which has been delving into Hereford schools' critical housing problem for the last month wound up its work Tuesday night with recommendations of an over-all building and remodeling program which would cost an estimated $2,431,050 to be paid for in 15 years.

However, to lessen the interest charges, the committee recommended that the work be done on a staggered basis "and scheduled so as to meet the actual needs anticipated and not all be done at once unless absolutely required." This staggered basis, with the bonds to be sold as work is needed, would lower the tax rate increase, possibly holding the tax boost to as low as 10 percent if carried out on the "delayed" bond selling program, it was explained.

Grain Sorghum Producers Set Annual Meeting

Grain Sorghum Producers Association, one of West Texas' most active farm organizations, will hold its annual meeting in Amarillo today, and a number of farmers and grain men from Deaf Smith County will attend.

Among those going are Claud Dameron, president of the Deaf Smith County Grain Sorghum Growers association; John D. Pittman, R. G. Peeler, Curtis O. Roach and Austin Rose Jr.

Members and directors from Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Nebraska are to attend the 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. session in Shamrock auditorium of the First National Bank Building. Elbert Harp, Abernathy, a Hale County farmer and president of the Association, said the morning business session will be devoted to progress reports of the officers and staff.

They will include matters related to grain freight rates, midge research, sorghum nutrition research, the cattle situation, future feed grain legislation, and the foreign and domestic market situation faced by grain sorghum producers.

The afternoon information session will provide an opportunity for those attending to hear discussions on both basic and current farm policy considerations. Jay Taylor, Amarillo, a well known grain producer, cattleman and industrialist, will discuss (Continued on Page 4)

Maxwell, Howard Face Runoff; Sharp Captures Council Post

Hereford voters turned out to the tune of 875 strong Tuesday to name Lloyd B. Sharp to the city council, place 4, but place 3 winner will not be decided until after a run-off.

Albert F. Maxwell received 426 votes and incumbent W. J. (Bill) Howard polled 279 votes, which means a run-off between the two for that slot. In third place was W. R. (Bill) Dickson with 167 votes. Thus Dickson and Howard together gathered 446 votes which was sufficient to force the runoff between Howard and Maxwell. Howard is the incumbent.

Sharp polled 692 votes, defeating Gerald Hale, who polled 112, and Michael Justice who received 71 votes. At Dimmitt, both incumbent candidates were re-elected to the council. Charles Vandiver received 81 votes and Elmer Youts polled 91. Robert Leinen, an opponent, gathered 72 votes. A total of 130 votes was cast, according to E. B. Noble, city manager.

At Earth, balloting was light. M. E. Kelley was named mayor, having no opponent. He is a retired postmaster and farmer, and received 49 votes.

Three aldermen were chosen: Incumbent Wendell Clayton, 53; Dub Chesney, 51, and M.W. Messer is the present mayor but did not seek re-election, preferring to run for alderman position. E. C. Kelley and Thurman Lewis, incumbent alderman, did not seek re-election.

J. C. Claborn, a funeral home owner, was elected mayor of Friona in light balloting. He received 79 votes. R. L. Fleming, mayor for the last six years, did not seek re-election, but got seven write-in votes. He also polled 18 write-in votes for alderman. W. A. Foster received two write-in votes for mayor.

Unopposed on the ballot, Glenn E. Reeve and O. D. Bingham were re-elected to Alderman posts. Reeve received 82 votes and Bingham 69. There were also several write-in votes for alderman. At Hale Center, L. B. Dyer, operator of a drug store, was elected mayor, defeating Arthur Landers, a carpenter. Dyer polled 213 votes while Landers received 119. The incumbent mayor, Hubert L. Turner, did not seek re-election.

In the city council election, three positions were filled. Elected were Bill Clark with 201 votes; J. D. Wheeler, 196, and Dick Lemond, an incumbent, 188 votes.

Other candidates, Russell Woody, 157 votes; Kilt McDaniel, 98; and J.R. Hill, 111. Two other incumbents, V. L. Martin and Claude Burnett, did not seek new terms. J. L. Mann was unopposed for city judge.

Muleshoe had three candidates for mayor. Wilbur E. LeVeque narrowly beat Rufus N. Gilbreath, 171 to 148. Horace Holt, a third candidate, received 107 votes. Total vote was 4281 according to City Manager Albert Field.

CHECKING ALTIMETER — George Arents, Miami, Fla., is checking the altimeter as he prepares to take off tomorrow and establish a new world's record in the two-seater soaring plane. The record is now held by a Russian pilot in a flight from Leningrad to Moscow. (Brand Staff Photo)

Glider Flight To Start Here With Aim To Out-Glide Russia's Record

By Phil Duncan
"The world's record for a two-seater soaring plane is at present held by a Russian for a 515-mile flight from Leningrad to Moscow. I think this record is on the wrong side of the Iron Curtain and I intend to do something about it," George Arents, Miami, Fla., said today. Arents arrived in Hereford Friday where he intends to get on the leading edge of a dry cold front and travel in a southwest to northeast direction and establish a new world's record. The dry cold fronts are found only in two countries of the world. One of course is the United States and the other is Russia and its satellite countries. A dry cold front is expected to arrive in Hereford early Friday according to Dr. Irving Kriek, Denver, meteorologist, who is working with Arents in his planned flight. Dr. Kriek was the forecaster for General Dwight Eisenhower in the invasion of Normandy, June 6, 1944. This was considered the turning point of World War II and the weather was the main factor in the success of the invasion. It is very possible that Arents will have to be towed to the leading edge of the front. The front might miss Hereford as far as 200 miles, but John Walter, Hereford, will tow Arents to the front. The paperwork involved in the flight is more complicated than the flight itself, according to Arents. Approximately 300 typewritten sheets must be filled out and the specifications on the sheets complied with.

The pilot in the tow plane will carry a barograph as will Arents in the glider. As soon as Arents releases the tow rope, Walters will dive in his plane and the drop in altitude will be recorded on the barograph. Arents will carry a similar barograph in his plane which will record the altitude maintained during the entire flight. Both of the barographs have been sealed and checked by Bob Doughman, airport supervisor, and an affidavit has been signed by Doughman verifying the fact that the barographs have been sealed by him. Arents is a partner in the firm which imports Ferarri, a foreign sports car. He made his first solo flight in an airplane in 1935 and has been an avid soaring pilot for the last three years.

Arents said there are 27 Diamond Badge Soaring Pilots in the United States and he is the 27th to receive this award. These pilots have made flights of certain time and distance specified and have qualified for this honor. He explained that Russia and other communist countries have soaring planes and pilots controlled by the government. They are trained and furnished the best of planes and equipment by the government. They are full-time soaring pilots and naturally much further advanced than the U. S. "Strange enough, most of the records for the single-seater soaring plane are held by Americans and the double-seater records are held by the Russians." "One incident which is typical of the aid received by the (Continued on Page 7)

2. That such proposed increases should be staggered and scheduled to meet the actual needs anticipated, and not all be done at once unless absolutely required.

3. That the bonds to cover all of the proposed additions be submitted to the voters in one election but with the understanding that the bonds, if approved by the voters, would be issued only as needed.

4. That the bonds voted and issued be issued on a 15-year re-payment schedule, in view of the fact that the savings and interest on the 15-year schedule would amount to over $500,000 as opposed to 20 years; as much as $1 million in savings on a 25-year re-payment schedule, all based upon architect's preliminary estimate of cost.

Recommendations by the two groups, with costs figured by the financial sub-committee, are as follows:

Elementary Schools

1. That eight rooms be added to Aikman school. The school was designed to accommodate expansion and growth of the area would warrant such a action. (Estimated cost: $162,000.)

2. That the board seriously study the possibility of constructing two new elementary schools with one in the south part of Hereford. At present, many of the students are far removed from a school, as only Central is located south of Union Avenue. Trends indicate rapid future growth in the south part of the city. A school in this area would take care of the growth and would also relieve Aikman and Northwest schools of part of their bus students and allow them to accommodate future growth in their respective areas. Such new schools should be 24 classrooms, exclusive of any special purpose rooms. (Estimated cost: $440,000 each.)

3. That any new elementary school be designed similar to Aikman.

4. Recommend that more school sites be purchased for future use — 3 to 4 more sites. (Estimated cost: $50,000.)

5. That very extensive renovation work or rebuilding be done immediately at Central school. This building serves a vital role in the school system, although in many ways it is outmoded. Immediate steps should be taken to put it in excellent condition, so it may continue to be used without undue discomfort to either students or faculty. (Estimated cost: $350,000.)

6. That minor renovation be done at Shirley school to improve some of the minor flaws. (Estimated cost: $12,000.)

7. That immediate steps be taken to slow high school traffic as it passes Shirley school.

8. That the board seriously consider converting Shirley school to a high school classroom building within the next five to 10 years.

9. That the board consider the advisability of hiring office clerks for duty in all elementary schools to free the principal and assistant principal for their primary duties of administration and teacher supervision without being tied to routine clerical duties. If nothing else, we would recommend that half-day clerical help be provided.

(Total estimated cost for elementary building projects: $1,199,000.)

Total estimated costs for secondary schools: $1,232,050.

The approximately $2.5 million costs for the new project would virtually double the district's indebtedness, but Seamonds and bond experts pointed out that additional valuation as the district grows would offset much of the tax rate increase which a $5 million indebtedness would entail.

Eliminations For Regional 4-H Contests Are Held Here

Contestants in 17 different events met Saturday at 9 a.m. at Stanton Junior High for the annual county eliminations contest. Such topics as "Mr. Potato Goes to Market", "How to Clean and Repair an Electric Motor," and "A Breakfast with Go Power," were explained with illustrative materials by 65 4-H members from all clubs in the county.

Several of the events were held for the first time in the county. One of the first timers was an entomology contest, in which teams of four members identified insects that need to be controlled by farmers and homemakers, listed chemicals recommended for control, and gave characteristics and habits of the insects.

Another first was the clothing educational activity, in which a member demonstrates a phase of clothing education except construction. This year's entry in the event was demonstrated by Jane Witkowski, and entitled "Creating a Costume".

A demonstration "first" in Texas this year is the money management educational activity. A blue ribbon demonstration, "Plan Your Spending," was demonstrated by Carol Turrentine of the Westway Community Club, illustrating her personal plan for managing her money. For the first time Deaf Smith County has an entry in the Forestry Demonstration, with an interesting demonstration on "Grass Fire Prevention," given by Joyce Bezner and Joel Williamson of Ford Club.

Another first in Texas this year is the civil defense demonstration. Four entries were demonstrated in the contest including the winning junior entry, "Tornadoes", by Billie Goettsch and Debbie Rickman, and the winning senior entry, "The Family Fallout Shelter", by Joann Marnell and Lou Ann Witkowski.

Agents and leaders emphasize to 4-H members and parents that everyone who demonstrates emerges a winner. Regardless of the final determination of ribbon colors, those who have given a few demonstrations find:

1. They can speak with ease before groups of people.
2. They can put across ideas more easily, because they have learned how to organize what to say.
3. They can tell other people of what they have learned in 4-H.
4. They have learned a great deal more about the chosen subject.

These 4-H members were named representatives to the district eliminations contest April 25. Representatives from 19 panhandle counties will vie for places in the state event, the 4-H roundup, June 4th. Winners were:

Soil, water, and range conservation: junior team — Judy Jackson and Edward Hammett, Jolly Guys and Gals club; junior individual — Kim Williamson, Ford club.

Other entries in the events and their awards are: Stephen Jesko and Joe Walker, Westway club, alternate to district in electric demonstration, blue ribbon. Rickie May and Wayne Polan, Dawn Boys' club, electric, red ribbon; Roy Burges, Jolly Guys & Gals club, red ribbon, alternate to district in entomology; Kathleen Funk and Karren Kendrick, Happy Workers, red ribbon, vegetable preparation and use, alternate to district; Karen Jesko and Rebecca Jesko, blue ribbon, civil defense, alternate to district; Terri Townsend and Margaret Adams, Jolly Guys and Gals, blue ribbon, civil defense; Patsy Paetzold, Merry Maidens club, blue ribbon, foods and nutrition educational activity; Mary Ann Vance, Merry Maidens club, blue ribbon, alternate to district, foods and nutrition educational activity; Becky Hickman and Gloria Salinas, Ford club, blue ribbon, alternate to district in the soil, water, and range conservation demonstration; Dion Miller and Neil McAndrews, Dawn Boys' club, red ribbon, soil, water, range conservation; Rodney Douglas and Gary Cotton, Happy Hustlers, red ribbon, soil, water, and range conservation.

Jon David Miller served as chairman of the County Contest Committee, assisted by Cynthia Hanna. They planned and conducted the presentation of awards, advised by leaders, Mrs. Leroy Williamson, Mrs. Leo Witkowski and Mrs. Floyd Cole.

Russians in their flights happened when extra lift was needed to clear a mountain in a distance run. A mammoth pile of rubble was piled on the top of the mountain by hundreds of workers and as the glider approached the mountain the heap was ignited and the heat provided the extra lift needed for the record. Arents continued.

In the U. S. a glider pilot must furnish his own plane, equipment and weather information. There is no compensation or training by the government. Arent's plane, often referred to as the "U-2", was constructed by the Schweitzer Aircraft Corp. The plane has the nickname "U-2" because of the abnormal wide wing span as in the U-2. The wing span of the glider is more than 60 feet, which is very wide for a soaring plane.

This plane is ten years old and was purchased by Arents for $4,000 and he has more than $3,000 in equipment in the plane. This plane was built by Schweitzer for experimental purposes but has undergone every test possible. It is the only plane of its type in the world. Arent has a new soaring plane being built by Schweitzer at the present time, but it will not be completed until August and Arent felt that then would be too late to make the flight. He will be accompanied in the flight by John Manship, Philadelphia, Pa. Manship is a member of crew. Another member will drive the car and trailer and keep in radio contact with the glider.

As soon as the flight is over, Arents must report to the nearest person who will verify the fact that the glider landed in the spot where the plane lands. "If at all possible I will try to land at an airport, because an airport operator is automatically a qualified official and can verify the facts of the point of landing," Arents said.

Arents picked Hereford after he read a letter written by members of the Hereford Soaring Club, telling of the ideal conditions for a distance flight. Arents said.

Neff also participated in the district contest. Lee Robinson was an entry in the Star Green-hand event.

The public is invited to Veterans' Park at 8 a.m. Saturday for a flag ceremony at the flagpole in honor of the late Gen. Douglas MacArthur to be presented by the VFW and the American Legion.

Hereford VFW conducted a sojourn its Saturday night wrestling cards at the Bull Barn with Slim Wester in charge. Appearing will be Larry Henning vs. Wahoo McDaniel; Big Nick Roberts vs. The Shiek, and Bill Graham vs. Luis Martinez.

Westway community is planning a work session at its community house Saturday night, flight in this area. "I've found that once you gain altitude it is very easy to start looking for a place to land. The best thing to do is to just look at the clouds straight ahead," Arents said.

There is very little danger element involved in the flight according to Arents. "Being an experienced pilot, I realize the need for the best of equipment. We will have three radios and two oxygen systems." The average speed expected will be around 70 miles per hour and the altitude should be near 21,000 feet. The glider has a specially designed cockpit cover which does not allow moisture from the body to condense on the glass.

If the front rolls in Friday morning, Arents will leap on it and the hopes of many aviators will be with him as he sets out to bring this record back to the "right side of the Iron Curtain." "It is certainly a poor state of affairs when a nation knows more about nuclear explosions than it does about its own atmosphere."

"The world is fed up with the man in the gray flannel suit. It wants a man that will get out and accomplish something for himself," Arent concluded.

By Melvin Young
One thing about the newspaper business...

We have often wondered about the power of the press. Particularly when crusading for something of immense importance...

Make a mistake however, and you'll know before the sun rises. It seems, after weeks of plugging for the big Walcott Political Rally and Pie Supper...

But we'll make a m.e.n.d.s. friends. Friday night without fail, we'll be on the scene with money in our pocket to buy a pie.

The event is sponsored by the Messenger Home Demonstration Club and will be held Friday night (repeat - Friday), April 10, 7:30 p.m. That's tomorrow night...

Which reminds us of the story told by critics of former President Harry S. Truman. "Truman", they say, "got up at 5:30 a.m. every day to have time to get both feet in his mouth..."

Our efforts to boost the political rally were honest and sincere, however, and in casting about to find a fall-guy for our troubles, we come back to good ol' Judge Williams.

He called to invite us to ride to the Walcott shindig in his buggy, and we accepted the kind invitation BEFORE we discovered that he was charging taxi fare...

But then, this just hasn't been our week. Everything started wrong. We were awakened from a deep sleep Sunday morning by an irate subscriber...

And as we were leaving church Sunday morning, we were informed by Earl Berends, that our dear friend, "the Rooster" had been "put to the pot" the week before.

"That darned rooster got so mean we couldn't keep him", said Earl, the 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Berends...

The rooster, may he rest in peace, had been a family pet until we sold our home in 1960 at which time we gave the old boy to the Behrend youngsters who live south of Summerfield.

Affectionately (we're sure), the rooster had been named "Melvin".

And the day was also one filled with sadness.

At 1:39 p.m. Sunday afternoon, General of the Army, Douglas A. MacArthur, lost the final battle of his long and varied career...

General MacArthur was the most controversial military man of our century. He was loved by millions; despised by many; but admired and respected by all who chanced to cross his path.

MacArthur was a brilliant military strategist and a man of high principal who was not afraid to stand his ground. We believe that history will judge him so.

Final recommendations from the Hereford Independent School District's Citizens Advisory Council will be published in this issue of the Brand. Read it carefully.

And we might add a note of appreciation to each of the members of the Citizens Council for their efforts in behalf of Hereford's schools.

Mrs. Chester Wiggins was in to add her compliments to the many already received on the performance of the Jr. High Band in the Canyon contest this Tuesday.

We'll agree. We think Jr. High Band Director Clyde Wilson, Ben Gollehon, and the entire band group should be commended for their efforts.

The High School Band was to perform in the contest Wednesday, but results could not be obtained in time for this paper.

Card of Thanks: We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the food and flowers sent by our friends during the loss of our beloved son.

District Literary Meet Will Be Held At HHS Saturday

By Linda Higgins
Hereford will be host to five schools as the District 1-AAA Interscholastic Literary Meet will be conducted at Hereford High School Saturday.

Levelland, Littlefield, Phillips, Dumas, Perryton, and Hereford will be the Panhandle schools participating in the literary events.

Mr. Bill Michael, HHS principal, is this year's chairman for the meet.

The meet is the spring University Interscholastic League Meet. The winners from the various events will continue to regional competition in Lubbock.

The approximately 175 contestants are top students. Each contestant must comply with the League rules. These are age, scholarship, attendance, only amateurs, and no double representation.

and Girl's Debate, Extemporaneous Speaking, Number Sense, Persuasive Speaking, Poetry Interpretation, Prose Reading, Ready Writing, Science, Slide Rule, Spelling, and Typing.

All tests will be scored by impartial teachers and faculty members from West Texas State University.

Mr. Robert Thompson, high school counselor, will be the director of the boy's and girl's debate. Hereford will not have anyone entered in either of these two events.

Kaki Barnard will be the contestant in the extemporaneous speaking event representing Hereford.

"The purpose of this is simply to give information about the topic, no opinions," said Mr. Tye Hilger, speech teacher.

In extemporaneous speaking, the contestant draws five topics and picks one. He then has 30 minutes to prepare his speech and a maximum of seven minutes to present it.

"Extemporaneous speaking is judged mainly on presentation, diction, poise of the contestant, and organization of the speech," explained Mr. Hilger.

Alice Martin, sophomore, will participate in the persuasive speaking contest. Entrants in this contest have to be informed on current events of all times.

"Some sample topics of persuasive speaking," said Mr. Tye Hilger, "could be something like 'Should we sell more wheat to Russia,' 'Are we wasting our resources in Viet Nam,' or anything pertaining to current events." The only preparation that could be done in persuasive speaking, according to Mr. Hilger, would be just reading newspapers and magazines.

At the contest the entrant will draw five topics and choose one of the five to talk about. They have 30 minutes to prepare the speech and a maximum of seven minutes to give the speech.

"This will be Alice's second experience in this area," said Mr. Hilger. "Her first experience was in Lubbock where she received a good rating in persuasive speaking."

In the poetry interpretation field, the entrant prepares selections of poetry from three different categories before hand. Rozi Rush is representing Hereford in this contest.

La Reece Askew and Rozi Rush are entered in the prose contest. They prepare their selections in advance. "The only help I give in this field," said Mr. Hilger, "is to approve their selections, listen to them read it, and help them with their diction, enunciation, and expression."

Cheryl Mosely and Myrna Botkins are to represent HHS in the district ready-writing contest.

Contestants will be given five extemporaneous subjects from which they will choose one. They will then be given two hours to write a 1000 word essay.

The Hereford contestants entered in the typing events are Vicki Inman, Nick Osborn, Sharon John, Becky Duncan, and Penny Johnson.

Jeanette Walterscheid, Janie Noland, and Shirley Anderson will be the contestants for the shorthand contest.

Each contestant will be required to take a dictation at 80 words a minute for five minutes. Then, they will transcribe their shorthand into longhand on typewriters.

Winners will be determined by the transcription with the least errors. Such things as punctuation, misspelled words, words omitted or changed will be counted as errors.

What number decreased by 1/8 of itself is 266? Change 113 1/2 to a fraction. These are only two of the 40 problems that the contestants entered in the number sense event are required to work in ten minutes.

All problems are to be solved mentally. There must be no calculations with paper and pencil.

Those entered from Hereford are Roy Rodriguez, Steve Elliott, and Ernest Flood.

Those entered in slide rule contest are James Combs and Tyler Thompson.

Cheerleader Elections Draw Near, To Be In Gymnasium

By Mike O'Conner
"Ugh - Oh! My arms hurt."

These expressions are only a few of the cries by the 18 girls who will be trying-out for cheerleader before the student body Friday, April 9.

The girls who will be cheerleading for the first time, but maybe not for the last are juniors, Ann Braddy, Beth Ballard, Peggy Neff, Brenda Shelton, Sharon Tinnin, Nancy Tyler, Barbara Langley and Judy McCarver.

Also trying-out are sophomores Gayle Newell, Hedy Bailey, Linda Rickman, Barbara Rhodes, Cynthia Leasure, Reta Kelly, Cheryl Brooks, Karen Blackwell, Sandi Thomas, and Sid Bayne.

Each girl must present two yell, one in a group, the other is a "single" yell.

"There are no boys who signed to tryout," said Miss Jean Collard, cheerleader sponsor.

"The cost of cheerleading is about $100 - but this does not all come at once, it is spread out over the year," explained one of this year's cheerleaders, Ronda Neff.

"This $100 includes $30 which is spent for camp. Camp lasts for about a week during the summer. The girls decide where they want to go," said cheerleader, Kathy Boston.

"Cheerleaders this year purchased their own sweaters ($15), megaphones, their necklaces, which are miniature gold megaphones, and shorts sets that they wore to camp. The school pays for suits, pom-poms and the jackets," explained Miss Collard.

Last year's cheerleaders said they spent about three hours a day during the summer practicing. During school they practiced about two hours a week.

"Girls must be prepared to spend at least two or three (Continued on page 2)

Adolphus Ginn Gives Program At HS Assembly

"No fooling!" He's been on safari in Africa six times. He also visited 85 countries in the world including the largest cities with the exception of Peking and Shanghai.

The remarkable man who did these things was Mr. Adolphus Ginn who presented a fine assembly last Thursday.

Mr. Ginn, who lives in Bayard, Nebraska, gave his talk using props from some of the different countries he has visited.

Due to a lack of time, not all of the objects he brought with him could be used.

He told about ostriches and their peculiar habits. The female ostrich has brown and white feathers where the male has Several upcoming conventions will soon break the monotony of school, lessons, and tests, for a number of HHS students.

Rozi Rush, Becky Duncan, Myrna Botkin, Nanetta Clearman, Faneida Williams, and Linda Higgins will all travel to Lubbock to attend the State Tri-H-Y Meeting April 16-17.

We hope all of you find this meeting inspiring and beneficial. The Key Club Convention is scheduled for April 16, 17, and 18.

Those minds who will be at rest are Brant Knox, Roger Owen, Gordon Golden, Tim Geam, Ted McWhorter, Jackie Andrews, Gary Royal, Terry Caviness, Steve Conaway, David Block, Lyn Bogie, Alfred Davis, and Bob Reinauer.

We imagine any one of these boys will be able to direct us to any street in Houston when they return.

It seems as though six weeks tests were just over, but another six weeks is almost past and all of the students are starting to worry about tests.

Tests were scheduled for the 14, 15, and 16 of this month. Good luck to all the chemistry students. It seems as if they always have most problems.

We might relate a small detail to the Juniors. We are sorry to say it was a mistake which (Continued on page 2)

Seniors Meet To Select Motto, Flowers, Colors

By Christine Skypala
Larry Hill, president of the senior class, presided at the senior meeting held Tuesday, March 31 in the auditorium. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss various senior activities and also to select the class flower, class colors, and the class motto.

Red and white were chosen by the seniors as their class color, and the red rose was chosen as their class flower. Larry Hill, Steve Conaway, Shirley Anderson, Carolyn Aven, Linda Lemons, and Kay Coffman are on the committee to select a class motto.

The committee selected five mottos and the senior class later voted on the mottos. The motto chosen by the senior class is, "With the help of God, we shall find a way or make one." During the meeting, the seniors selected Barbara Langley and George Muse as the juniors who will lead them in the auditorium on graduation night.

A committee was selected to plan for the graduation party to be held following graduation ceremonies. Those on the committee are the following: Ruth Ann Allison, Kathy Boston, Kaki Barnard, Diedra Thomas, Royce Gilliland, Janice Hagan, Earl Jackson, Steve Conaway, Gary Royal, and David Block.

Mr. Joe Smith was placed in charge of the committee to investigate and select a senior gift which will be donated to the school by the senior class. Those on the committee are Larry Hill, Steve Conaway, Shirley Anderson, Linda Lemons, Mammie Silvertooth, J. Carter, David Block, Gary Royal, Pegene Cox, and Terry Caviness.

Plans were also discussed for the Senior Assembly to be held at the end of the year. A list is in the office for those seniors wishing to sign up for participating in the assembly.

FTA Members Selected For Nominating

FTA members elected a nominating committee to select candidates for next year's officers at a meeting held March 30.

The committee includes Mammie Silvertooth, Linda Higgins, Barbara Zinser, Faneida Williams, Vickie Inman and Linda Tooley.

Plans were made to invite Canyon, Friona and Dimmitt Clubs to the club salad supper April 21.

Student teaching begins the week of April 19. Junior and senior members chose elementary school classes that they would like to teach.

"Teaching opportunities were limited to juniors and seniors due to an increase in membership from last years club," explained Linda Higgins, secretary.

Frank Jones Completes Fourth Sailboat in High School Workshop

The "sailing bug" bit Mr. Frank Jones 18 years ago in Dalhart, Tex., when he built his first sailboat with the help of some schoolboys. He explained, "We took the sailboat out and learned to sail by ourselves since it was the first time any of us had been in one."

Mr. Jones has just completed his fourth sailboat, 14 foot schooner with a 20 foot mast, capable of approximately 10 knots in a good breeze. He said, "The fun of sailing is in the skill it takes to keep the boat leaning and sailing to use the best advantage of a light breeze."

The schooner which took about three months to complete was constructed in Buckner's garage and finished in the shop at HHS. Mr. Jones worked on it after school and at nights.

'Western Day' Is Called Complete Success At HHS

By Betty Huckert
Howdy partner! Well, we were really whooping it up in the gym last Wed. for Western Day. All the cowpokes were decked out in their western duds and went and had a rode-ay-o!

The boys competed with girls and oranges, had whipped cream fast draw contests, a basketball contest between the knees, a wild tricycle race, and a buckin' barrel bronc contest. Sergio Bravo won the latter.

The best impersonation was John Fowlkes, who dressed up as Hoss Cartwright. The cutest couple was Lynne Porch and Davie Sorrells. The best dressed girl was Diedra Thomas, and Jim Higgins as best dressed boy. Sylvia Phipps was the most original girl and Dick Rogers, most original boy.

'The Boor' Presented By HHS Actors At West Texas University

By Jimmie Davis
Friday, Mr. Tye Hilger took the annual contest play to Canyon at the West Texas University Auditorium.

This year the play has a Russian background and is entitled "The Boor" by Anton Tchekoff. In the play Grigor Smirnov (John Pavlicek) demands that a widow, Helena Popov (Rosiland Rush) pay him a past note which her husband left behind when he died.

Helena refused to do so resulting in a great deal of conflict between the two fellows. Grigor admires the fire of Helena when he challenges her to a duel because she will not pay, and he falls suddenly in love with her.

Others that will appear in the play are: La Reece Askew as Luke; an old man who helps Helena as a handy man, Paul Christman, Gerald Leatherman, and Kevin McAndrews serve as extras. The costume and make-up crews consist of Kaki Barnard, Maura McAndrews, and Mammie Silvertooth.

No set or scenery for the play is allowed to be brought to the contest. The necessary properties are supplied by the Interscholastic League, who plans the contest play curriculum, at Canyon.

"It has been a pleasure to work with the students in the play," comments Mr. Hilger.

Is The Individual Controlled By Himself of Surrounding Forces?

By Sue Smith
Is the individual controlled by himself or by surrounding forces?
This is a question to be considered before coming to a sudden conclusion. Most Americans believe themselves to be independent, self-controlling individuals who develop their own necessities of life. Can they honestly make that statement?

Emotions, though intangible, are definitely controlled in oneself. And yet, what causes the sudden or slow changes in moods or emotions? Is it not the environment, the people, the very exterior portion of the being that controls the inner forces?

Take physical freedom for example. A student may get his own homework, strive to better himself in athletic achievements, and exert himself to school spirit to his own personal preference.

And yet, is not the means and methods of practicing these things hereditary? Does he not depend on other forces to obtain his needed material?

A person may think himself independent, able to make his own decisions, control his own emotions, create his own dreams, and prepare his own future; yet, without the existence and assistance of the outside force would he have decisions to make, emotions to control, dreams to create, or a future to prepare?

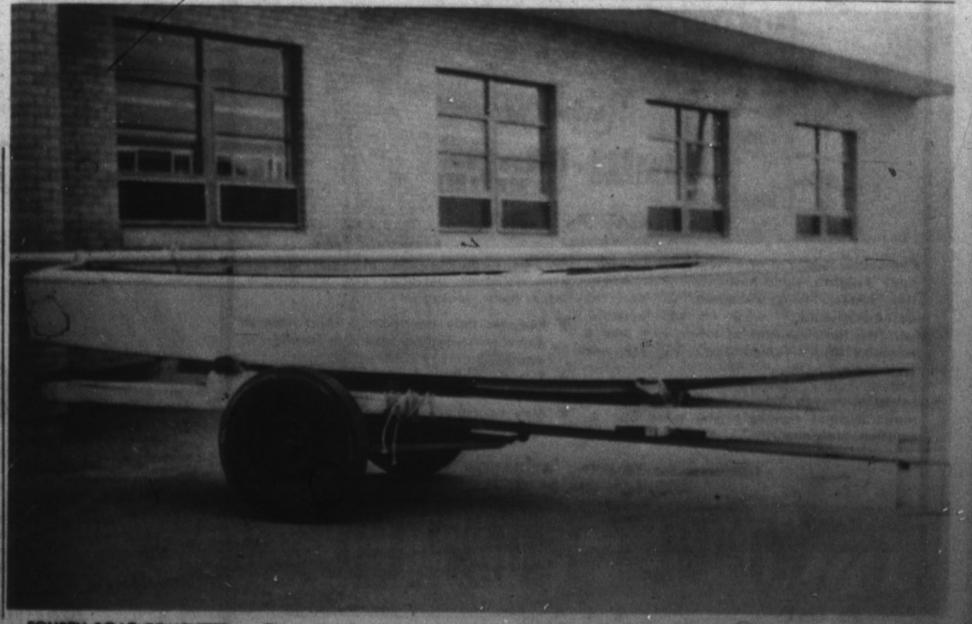

Can one dare call himself independent?

The 25 boys participating in track average 10 hour of practice a week, plus they participate in track meets over the weekend.
Coach Jesse Geron said the boys work especially hard, and are still improving steadily.
These boys will again be showing their skills at the meet to be held at Whiteface stadium this Saturday night.
Field events will be begin at 6:30 p.m. and running events will begin at 7:45 p.m.
There will also be special relay events with the football players from each school.

Mr. Ginn showed a rainbow tinted batch of these beautiful feathers while he explained that these feathers are only produced for eight years and then they are not of fine enough quality to be used. These feathers are shipped to virtually all of the world to be used for decoration and hats, he continued.

"The male ostrich has wicked claws on his feet and can slice a human carcass in-half if irritated. This animal can leave a nasty cut and you may be in need of a funeral director!" Mr. Ginn illustrated by holding up a hand-made ashtray utilizing an ostrich's foot.

He also explained how diamonds were found. The rough diamond is attracted to the grease while the other rock slides away.

"The largest diamond in the world is the Cullinan diamond, which weighed 3,500.5 carats. It was cut into three beautiful diamonds which are in the Crown Jewels in London. The diamonds were a pear-shaped one weighing 513 carats, an emerald-cut one weighing 412 carats, and a perfect heart-shaped one weighing 95 carats and having a value of $90,000," he continued while showing glass replicas of the three.

Other exhibits which were shown were headresses from many different stories, and animal skins of monkeys and antelopes.

This was an assemble which was enjoyed by all because of the mixture between interesting facts and humor.

"Cheerleading also consists of being able to work together very closely as a group. It also means keeping school spirits high whether the team is winning or losing," said Miss Collard.

HD Club Presidents Give Favorite Salad Recipes

By Dale Stevens
Brand Foods Editor

During the month of April each home demonstration club will have a program on salads, usually preceded by a salad luncheon and exchange of recipes. Health benefits of fruits and vegetables will be discussed also.

On April 17 from 2:30-4:30 p.m. at the high school, Dr. Mina Lamb, head of the foods and nutrition department at Texas Technological College, will be the guest speaker at a "Salad Toss-up," sponsored by the Extension Service and Southwestern Public Service, which will be represented by Marilyn Pricke and Ernestine Gary. This program will be open to the public.

Copies of "Salads," a booklet of recipes compiled by extension foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M, will be distributed at the meeting. This booklet emphasizes the food values necessary for good health as well as giving recipes for appetizing and attractive salads.

The recipes which follow feature the favorite salads of several of the home demonstration club presidents in Deaf Smith County.

"My Own" Potato Salad

Mrs. Joe Wagoner, Westway Club, says that she has never before attempted to write a recipe for this salad. Both are estimates, the dressing more so, and the amounts of the ingredients may be varied to taste.

8 medium potatoes, boiled in jackets
5 eggs, hardboiled
1 large or 2 small onions, chopped
1 can pimiento, chopped
1/2 cup bread and butter pickles, chopped
Salt to taste

Cook potatoes and eggs day before and chill overnight in refrigerator. Use only the cucumbers, not the onions, from the bread and butter pickles.

Dressing
2 cups salad dressing (commercial)
1/4 to 1/3 cup vinegar
1 t. celery seed
2 T. sugar

Dice peeled potatoes and eggs; add onion, pimiento, and pickles. Mix together dressing ingredients and pour over other ingredients. Mix lightly.

Chef's Salad
Mrs. C. F. Newsom, Wyche Club, prefers standard recipes which she can vary as she chooses. Her family is fond of fresh fruits and vegetables, so she utilizes these foods in season and varies the ingredients.

One serving:
1/2 medium head of lettuce
1 tomato, cut in wedges
2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1 slice boiled ham, cut in strips
1 slice cheese (American or favorite Italian), cut into strips
1/2 can (2 oz.) rolled filets of anchovies (less if desired)
Ripe olives

Line dish with lettuce leaves. Tear more lettuce into bite-size pieces. Arrange ingredients attractively in the order given, garnishing with olives. Do not toss. Use favorite salad dressing. Suggestion for dressing: Soften 1 T. blue or Roquefort cheese in small amount of vinegar. Blend this into desired amount of commercial sour cream. Serve with favorite crackers or rolls. Turkey or chicken may be used in place of ham, and carrots, celery, cucumbers, or radishes may be used, if desired.

Cabbage-Pineapple Salad
Mrs. Grady Parsons, Cultural Club

1 flat can crushed pineapple, drained. Reserve liquid for dressing
1 1/2 cups shredded cabbage
1/3 cup pecans, coarsely chopped
12 large marshmallows, cut in quarters
1/2 apple, unpeeled and chopped, if desired

Dressing
1 egg, well-beaten
1 T. flour
1/3 cup sugar
Juice from pineapple
Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until thick. Cool and pour over salad. Mrs. Parsons recommends this salad with fried chicken.

Chicken Salad Loaf
Mrs. J. D. Gilbert Jr., Progressive Club

1 3/4-4 lb. hen
1 carrot
1 slice onion
1 whole clove
2 whole black peppers
1 1/2 cups diced celery
1/2 cup pimiento
1/2 cup chopped sweet pickle
Hard cooked eggs
1/4 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise, optional.

Cook chicken with carrot, onion, clove, pepper, and salt in pressure pan or by cooking slowly until tender, in water to cover. Cool; remove skin and bones and dice. Skim off excess fat and cook the broth down to two cups.

Grease a loaf pan or ring pan with oil. Combine celery, pimiento, sweet pickles, and mayonnaise. Slice hard-cooked eggs. Put layer of eggs in pan. Alternate layers of chicken and celery mixture until all ingredients are used, using chicken for top layer. After pressing loaf firmly with back of spoon, add 2 cups chicken broth. This will congeal and slice after being refrigerate overnight. Slice loaf and serve with cubes of cranberry sauce on lettuce leaf. If you prefer the ring mold, the following cranberry-apple relish may be used to fill the center.

Cranberry-Apple Relish
4 cups fresh cranberries
2 apples, pared and cored
2 oranges
1 lemon
1 cup sugar
1 cup corn syrup

Put cranberries and apples through food chopper. Quarter oranges and lemon (remove lemon rind) and put through chopper. Add sugar and syrup and refrigerate for several hours.

Pineapple Salad
Mrs. Clyde Smithers, North Hereford Club, recommends this salad because of its festive appearance and notes that it is very good with ham or chicken and dressing. Her family particularly enjoys the salad with Christmas dinner.

1 pkg. lemon gelatin
18 marshmallows
2 cups boiling water
Cook until gelatin is dissolved and marshmallows are melted.

Add:
1 can crushed pineapple, drained
3/4 cup salad dressing
1/2 cup whipped cream
1 large pkg. cream cheese
Soften cream cheese and beat; mix all ingredients and let stand until congealed. Mix 1 package red gelatin according to directions and pour over congealed pineapple mixture. Chill until firm.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING this week features the favorite salad recipes of several of the presidents of home demonstration clubs in Deaf Smith County. This picture is the cover page of "Salads," a recipe booklet compiled by food and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M. Copies will be distributed during a "Salad Toss-Up," a program to be presented April 17 at the high school by the Extension Service and Southwestern Public Service. Dr. Mina Lamb, a professor at Texas Technological College, will be guest speaker.

I Believe

"Except ye become as a little child —" Oh, for the faith of that child; your child, my child. FAITH that sees beyond the faults and foibles of men; FAITH that rises above the animosities and hatreds of nations; FAITH that overcomes the cruelties of tyrants and sufferings of war. Oh, ye of little FAITH, know ye not that there's a child in the midst? A child praying for daddy, and mommy and her church. A child believing that the whole round world is bound by chains about the feet of God. This child BELIEVES.

She goes to CHURCH, WON'T YOU?

REP. ROGERS WRITES

Capital Traffic As Weird As Capitol, Rogers Says

The return of the tourist season here in the Nation's Capital (next week's major attraction is the annual Cherry Blossom Festival) brings a reminder that not all of the confusion in Washington is to be found in Government buildings. A lovely city in many respects, Washington offers the visitor a wealth and variety of things to do and see — and be confused about. It isn't any wonder that tourists are confused: half a million residents of this city think they live in Washington, believing that the boundaries of Washington and the District of Columbia are one and the same, but they really are not. The Maryland Highway Department is similarly confused. It placed "Welcome to Washington" signs four miles from the city limits.

Heavy traffic is one of the biggest problems in Washington, as it is in all large U. S. cities. It is well to avoid, if you can, the rush hour traffic between 7 and 9 a.m. and 4 and 6 p.m. when the thoroughfares are paved with bumper-to-bumper automobiles.

"Sorry I'm late — I got lost," is a common apology in Washington and its environs. The streets, roads, and highways are poorly marked. Signs along roadways in the Washington area were placed with natives, not visitors, in mind — and even the long-time residents get confused when they stray from their accustomed routes. One of the most difficult first-time trips to negotiate is that leading the 25 miles from downtown Washington to the new Dulles Airport. The FAA operates the big jet airport and, if it could do so without cost to the taxpayer, should strike a medal for motorists who can make it to the terminal without once having lost their way.

I've wondered how many thousands of tourists have lost hours of travel time by misinterpreting this sign located in Virginia not far from the Potomac River — and on their way to points south:

Columbia Pike To U.S. 50

As I read the sign, the way to Highway 50 is via Columbia Pike. But that's not correct; the sign intends to inform the motorists that the route he is on will lead him to the pike and to Highway 50.

Another of my "pet peeve" signs is one located on a drive around a major park area here. With typical disdain for clarity, it says:

Downtown Virginia

There is no such place as "Downtown Virginia." The sign intends to point the way to Virginia, the State, and to downtown Washington. By the way, one-way traffic patterns were switched on several downtown Washington streets last week creating monumental traffic jams. Police and motorists finally declared a truce.

Another recent confusion concerning traffic nearly touched off an international incident. The District Government (which amounts to being the Government of the United States, since this is a Federal city), announced three weeks ago that henceforth foreign diplomats in the Capital would have to abide by the same parking laws as Americans — or pay the same fines.

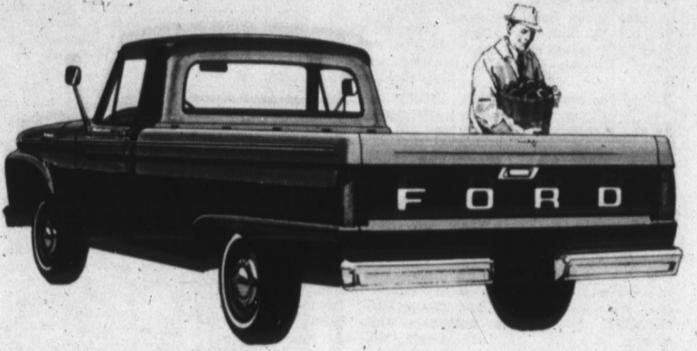

The Diplomatic Corps kicked up a fuss. Retaliatory action was taken against American diplomats by traffic policemen in Manila, the capital of the Philippines. Finally the U. S. State Department backed down, determining that scofflaws here need not pay parking tickets received in the official line of duty but that parking tickets received on private visits must be paid.

Suggested the Washington

their emissaries flout the laws here, let them meet the cost of this entertainment by paying the legitimate fines entailed."

The Capital sports situation is confusing: The Washington Senators, commonly at the bottom of the American League, have been showing better than cellar-dweller form in spring training. The Washington Redskins of the National Football League (usually more losses than wins) claim to have strengthened things by swapping quarterbacks with the Philadelphia Eagles. But now the home ballpark to both the Senators and Redskins, the stylish, $19.3 million D. C. Stadium, is falling apart — literally. Cracks have developed in the structure large enough to catch a woman's shoe heel. One four-foot-long hole has developed.

The marble face is buckling. Washington athletes may (Continued on page 8)

Sandi Says...

By Sandi Thomas

Hi, guys! Maybe you've noticed how the news has gone mostly from parties to sports. It's a good sign of the coming summer season so don't fret too much.

Last Friday, the track team went to Amarillo for a 2-day track meet. Kenny Justice placed third in the 100-yard dash. Manuel Pacheco won the mile run but did not qualify to go back Saturday.

If you've been by the golf course lately, you've noticed boys running around hitting those little white balls into holes with a stick. What you really see is the golf team, composed of Roger Owen, Andy Channer, Jim Owen, Billy Hill, Gordon Golden, Bob Reinauer, Jimmy Young, Gary Gore, Gary Don Roberson, Mike Horton, Doug Watson. They compete here against Friona and Tulia, with the first team coming in first and the second team taking second place. At Muleshoe one team came in sixth, despite the high winds and low temperature. The teams also competed in the Amarillo Relays last Friday. The district golf tournament will be held in Amarillo next Monday at Ross Rogers Country Club. Hereford will compete against teams from Levelland, Littlefield, Phillips, Dumas, and Perryton. So, golf enthusiasts, those boys would sure like some support.

March 31, the baseball team went to Amarillo only to sadly accept defeat by a score of 4 to 2. April 3, Amarillo came to Hereford and our side won by a score of 3 to 2. Tomorrow, Hereford will go to Nazareth for a game beginning at 4 p.m. Next Tuesday, Nazareth comes here for a game scheduled for 4 p.m. Those guys deserve and need your support so try your best to be out there.

James Combs and Gary Paetzold represented Hereford in the Science Fair held in Amarillo last Friday. James won first place by constructing a device to block radar waves, called "How to Kill an Echo." He was also presented with the Navy Cruiser Special Award. Gary's "An Activity Series of the Inorganic Radicals" was on special exhibit and was not entered in competition. James was asked by the Air Force guys not to turn his project on any more; it seems he's been messing up their radar waves.

Gayle Newell is the very proud owner of a new '64 Impala Sports Coupe. The bottom is maroon and the top is silver. The black interior really adds that special touch.

In tryouts Tuesday night, March 31, girls of the Junior high choir showed off their talents for a place in the regional choir. Chosen as sopranos were Shelley Rush, Linda Jacobsen, and Camille Pavlicek. Altos chosen were Jan Scott, Marsha Hardwick, and Margaret Adams. Soprano alternate is Susan White and alto alternate is Debbie Thomas. Sing pretty, girls.

Early Saturday morning, Peggy Allred had a Kidnap breakfast in her home for the Rainbow girls. About 30 early-birds went for breakfast and "sunrise" gossip if anyone could wake up long enough. Oh well, girls, you know the saying, "Early to bed and early to rise."

Last Friday night, Jerry Tucker hosted a party at his home. Those in on the "dim" dancing and eating were Jo Ann Ferguson, Janis Elliott, Dick Lookingbill, Sid Bayne, Larry Duncan, Linda Price, Denny Loerwald, Karen Blackwell, David Hill, Ann Braddy, and Stan Sigan. By the way, Larry, those poor fish weren't that sleepy.

April 1, Charlotte Hill's mother gave an April Fool party in Charlotte's honor. It seems the girls were a little surprised when they walked into a room full of boys. Those enjoying the fun were Cherrie Hill, Becky Higgins, Sue LaFever, Cindy Jones, Ken and Nate Stark, Gary Story, Nelson Kendall, Dale Smith, Sidney Davis, Carol Clearman, Claudia Loerwald, Charles Barnard, Jerry Don Porsch, Nancy Smith, Mark Hicks, and David Evans. About that ice fight, people! !

Last Friday night, the Junior high department of the First Methodist Church had a masquerade party. emerge from the cellar; the fans may fall into it. And there won't be a "Miss Washington" in the Miss America Pageant. The city that is not a city and is not a state can't be directly represented, the pageant directors have ruled. Comely lasses from Washington will have to compete in the Maryland or Virginia state preliminaries. But the residents of Washington will be able to vote in the Presidential election, thanks to the new Constitutional amendment.

In a city in which a public official hasn't been elected in 92 years, 170,000 voters turned out to register to vote this fall. On that question there was no confusion. Washingtonians jumped at the chance finally given them to have a voice in choosing the man destined to be the city's No. 1 citizen.

TRADEMARKS — Re-registration notices are being sent to some 20,000 trademark holders in Texas by Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin.
Martin said that, originally, trademark registrations were perpetual, but in 1961 the Legislature imposed a 10-year limitation. He urged anyone who acquired trademark rights before 1964 to get in touch with his office immediately. All such registrations expire May 3.
