A hurricane-like wind blasted Hereford and the area all day Thursday, but the city escaped injuries and the damage was probably minor in relation to the force of the 50-to-100 mph winds. Two firms and three mobile homes accounted for most of the heavy damage in Hereford. A towering 75-foot sign at Gutierrez Fina Station on 25

Mile Ave. was toppled by the wind, and it crashed down on the station's canopy and gasoline pumps.

Three mobile homes on Campbell street, in west Hereford, were hit and an unoccupied home was demolished. One, owned by Amador Torres, was saved by volunteer firemen after it was blown off its foundations. Heavy damage still resulted to the home, however.

The wind also caused major damage at Farm Discount Lumber, on the Dimmitt highway, where the entire roof on the company's lumber shed was ripped off and deposited in a field behind the firm.

Other damage in the area was caused when a semi-trailer truck was blown into the office trailer at Courtesy American Motor company. Damage in this instance was classified as minor by Spain.

In addition to accidents and heavy damage, the over-70 mile-per-hour winds caused inconvenience to a number of Hereford and area residents, when electric cables were hit by tree limbs, or poles were completely uprooted or broken off power outages were of short duration, however.

G.R. Smith, Deaf Smith Rural Electric Co-op's line superintendent, said that four poles west of Milo Center were lost, as well as four more northeast of Hereford. He said that around 250 consumers were out of power for about 20 minutes, beginning at 10:30 Friday morning.

Jake Webb, local Southwestern public service manager, said that damage to in-town lines was minor in nature, mostly caused by falling trees. Power losses were scattered over the city, with power off in some areas for as long as 30 minutes. He added that none of the company's major transmission lines were involved.

Other damage throughout the city ranged from falling fences and television antennae to damage to brick walls and roofs. Reports of air-conditioning units being uprooted from their house-top perches were also listed.

At least three cases of injury and one fatality were reported

Branding Time

By Speedy Nieman

That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says the more difficult the obstacle, the stronger one becomes after hurdling it.

The city will be invaded by Lions next Friday and Saturday—not the jungle beasts, but the men who work together to make their communities a better place in which to live. The Hereford business community, along with other citizens, will be rolling out the "welcome" mat for the district convention of Lions Clubs.

Laws control the lesser man...right conduct controls the greater one.

Just a reminder—Daylight Saving Time comes again next Sunday, April 29, and the occasion will have people wondering whether you turn the clock forward an hour or backward. Someone has introduced a phrase to help avoid confusion: "Spring forward, fall backward." Got it?

Three members of the Texas legislature were on a panel at the Panhandle Press Association convention program in Amarillo Saturday afternoon, and it was an interesting session as the lawmakers answered a wide range of questions and volunteered information on many bills now pending. It is apparent that members of the legislature are working hard during this term, but the three representatives stated that not much yet shows for their efforts. Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, Rep. Bryon Poff of Amarillo were the three lawmakers on the hot seat at this panel session.

The newsmen at this convention surprised the legislators by passing a resolution at the Saturday business session endorsing a pay raise for legislators to $15,000 if it will be presented as a straight pay raise and not clothed with some subterfuge like an ethics bill. Legislative terms are getting longer and annual sessions are just about a must. If so, the $400 per month is not enough pay to attract a capable legislator and in all fairness the pay no doubt should be raised. A lot of people are confused about the pay of legislators since they have been able to increase their office expenses even though the salary has not been raised. However, it is important to remember that the increased expenses of the office does not mean the legislator can grab any of this money. Some have tried it (via the postage stamp route) and are in deep trouble.

Rep. Bill Clayton is probably as well versed in water

BUT HOUSE HEARING REVEALS OPPOSITION Attorneys Urge Support Of New District Court Proposal

BY O.G. NIEMAN
Editor—Publisher

A number of local attorneys were seeking public support this week for a proposed bill which would create a new judicial district composed of Deaf Smith and Oldham counties. The House Judiciary Committee held a hearing on the proposed bill (1043) Tuesday night. Purpose of the hearing was to decide whether or not to include the proposal in an omnibus bill with other judicial district proposals.

"If we are included in the omnibus bill, we have a good chance of securing the new district," Criminal DA Andy Shuval said Thursday. He added that the committee vote was scheduled Tuesday on whether or not to include the Deaf Smith-Oldham bill.

J. Lowder, president of the Hereford Bar Association, and other representatives of the bar, are urging citizens who support the bill to send a telegram to Dewitt Hale, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, Austin. Lowder said the proposal had been unanimously approved by the Hereford Bar Association, the 69th District Bar Association, and Deaf Smith and Oldham County commissioners. Deaf Smith is presently in the 69th district with Moore, Dallam, Hartley and Sherman counties.

Although the proposed district was unanimously approved by the local bar in January, a difference of opinion has since been noted. The law firm of Witherspoon, Aikin, Langley, Woods, Kendrick &

JET STAR TO APPEAR Sports Banquet Planned Monday

Athletes of all high school interscholastic league sports team will be honored when the Whiteface Booster Club holds the annual All Sports Banquet Monday night at the Bull Barn.

The banquet is scheduled for 7 p.m. Monday with Winston Hill, all-Pro tackle of the New York Jets, as the featured speaker. The banquet is open to the public with tickets priced at $3 a plate. Tickets are on sale at both banks and at Hereford Bakery.

A highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of News Service Awards to outstanding athletes in football, basketball, track, baseball, golf, tennis and volleyball. The awards are sponsored by The Hereford Brand and KPAN Radio. James Higgins, booster club president, has asked for volunteers to meet at the Bull Barn this afternoon at 4 p.m. to set up tables and chairs. The women's decoration committee has also asked for mothers to help decorate at 2 p.m. Monday. Earnest Langley will be master of ceremonies for the banquet. Hill, the guest speaker, is a staff member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes from February through May. He has been an All-Pro lineman for seven seasons. He spent six years with Houston before joining the Jets in 1970.

Known as one of the best pass blockers in the game, Hill was a state tennis champ at Weldon High School before going to Texas Southern to play football. The 270-pounder is the son of a Methodist minister and has been active in social work during the off seasons.

He worked for several years for the Office of Economic Opportunity in Denver, Colo., where he makes his home. Before that he worked for the National Urban League, served in a rehabilitation program for prisoners on New York's Rikers Island, has been an athletic director at the Lincoln Reformatory, and worked in Houston

Chamber Sets Friday Meet

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will hold its quarterly meeting Friday at noon at the Hereford Country Club. Highlighting the meeting will be the presentation of individual sports awards and the Athlete of the Year Award.

Larry Dippel, chairman of the chamber sports committee, will be in charge of the program. All members are invited to attend the Dutch luncheon event.

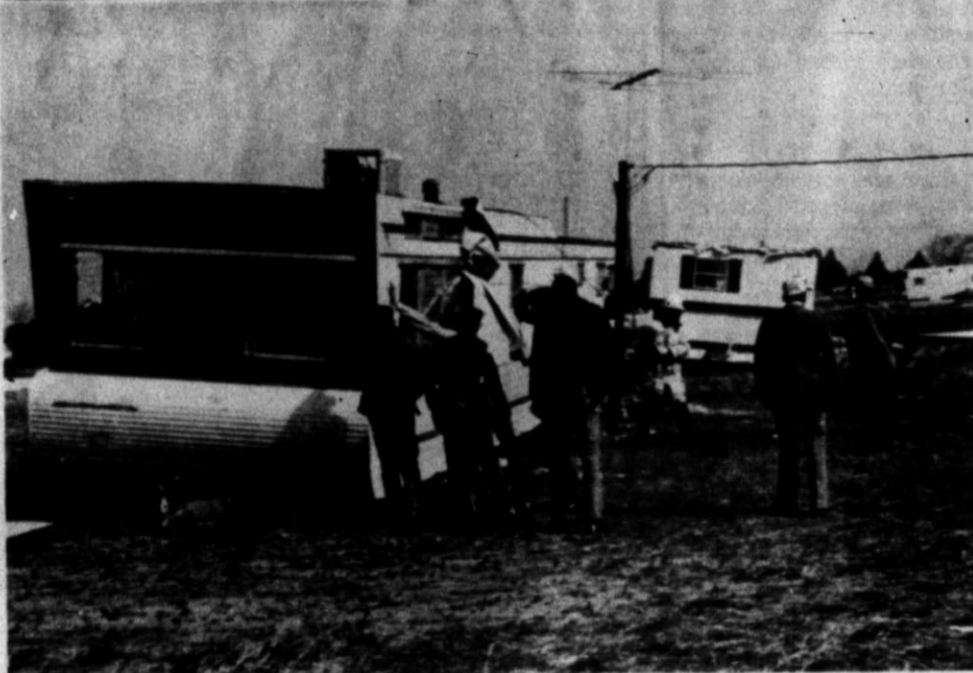

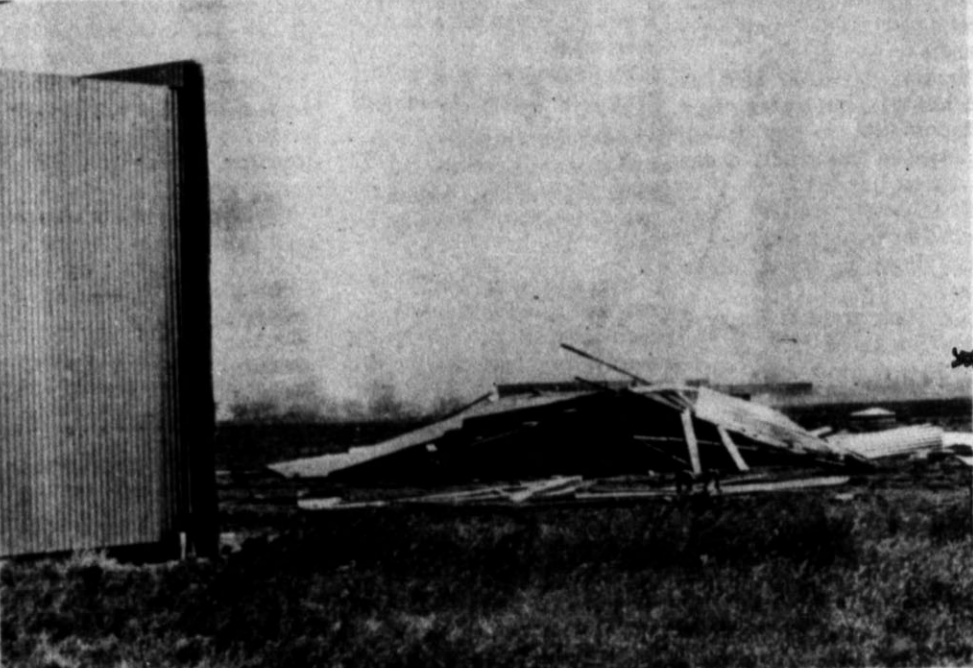

Members may call the chamber office at 364-3333 for reservations for the quarterly meeting.

CofC Names Secretary

A Hereford newcomer who says she's anxious to get to know the city and its citizens, Mrs. Keith Hansen has been named new Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Glenda Hansen's duties will include acting as secretary-receptionist; as well as organizing and setting up committee meetings, familiarizing other newcomers with the city, and "just about anything you can think of."

"I just hope to learn more about the city through the job, since my boss and I are both new here, we've got a lot to learn," she says. "We'd like for everyone to come by and visit—

Miss Hereford Crowned Saturday

Sherry White, the girl who sang and charmed her way to the Miss Hereford 1972 title last year, relinquished her crown last night as judges in the second annual Miss Hereford Pageant selected her successor. Final results of the judging were not available at press time, but will be carried in the Thursday Brand.

Spring colors in pastel shades were worn by contestants as they sang and danced to the tune of "Let a Smile Be Your Umbrella"—the pageant's opening production number. Choreographed by Mrs. Terry Caviness and Mrs. Dwight McGee, the selection set the theme for the pageant itself.

Formal gown competition followed, just ahead of the talent presentations and intermission, when the judges selected five finalists in both the Miss Hereford and Miss Teenage Hereford contests.

Following intermission, the finalists were interviewed onstage, and Miss White appeared as Miss Hereford for the last time, singing the song which won her the talent contest and mention in the Miss Texas pageant last year, and crowning her successor.

Miss Hereford Crowned Saturday

Entrants were judged on their beauty, talent and poise, with the bathing suit competition beginning the day's activities at 2:30. Contestants met their judges at an informal Coke party at the Community Center Saturday morning.

Miss Hereford Crowned Saturday

Winner of the Miss Hereford pageant will represent the city at the Miss Texas contest in June at Fort Worth. Though she does not compete further, Miss Teenage Hereford will make official appearances at various events during the year. Susie Hickman held the Miss Teenage title last year.

Miss Hereford Crowned Saturday

Mrs. Lynn Kester was pageant director with Mrs. G.D. Caison as associate. On the steering committee were Mmes. Pete Caviness, Jack Renfro and Bob Hardin.

Lions Convention Set In Hereford

The Hereford Lions are preparing for a roaring good time this weekend when they host the District 2T-1 convention, with an influx of more than 800 Lions and ladies expected in town Friday and Saturday.

Highlights of the convention include a barbecue awards dinner and Queen's Contest Friday evening, and the Governor's Ball and Banquet Saturday. Business sessions are also on tap Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

Leading the list of Lion dignitaries will be William C. Outz, international director from Columbia, S.C. He will be principal speaker at the governor's banquet Saturday night.

And, Hereford's own Raymond White is governor of Lions' District 2T-1, which covers a large portion of the Gulley informed county commissioners early in February they thought it "unwise to try to secure another judicial district at this time."

At the House hearing in Austin this week, attorneys Shuval, Mack Tubb and Richard Brainerd of Vega appeared in support of the proposal. Attending from Hereford to oppose the bill were attorney Thomas Kendrick, banker Pat Malone, and Dr. H.A. Cavness, a city commissioner.

Lowder, pointing to previous endorsement by all local law firms, said he had "not been informed of any changed circumstances or recent developments that would alter the need for the creation of the new judicial district." He informed county commissioners that "the majority of the bar will honor the commitment to actively seek creation of the district."

Kendrick, asked by a reporter about the opposition, said he and the other five members of the firm based the decision on the following considerations:

"The average population density for a District Court in Texas is supposed to be about 50,000 people. The two districts that would result from the split would be half or less of the ideal size, and we think this would be a useless waste of tax money. Another judge, district attorney, probation officer and court reporter would cost more than the saving of other costs arising out of the size of the present district, even if some of this cost could be shifted to the State treasury."

"Secondly, a statewide study is now being conducted, which should result in shifting various judicial district lines, and which could result in helping with any burdens that now result from our geographic size, without costing as much as the present proposal which we oppose. We think we should wait for this study."

Shuval had earlier contended that "I believe when the people study the statistics and the facts surrounding the need for the creation of the new district that we will have a large amount of popular support."

He added that the new judicial district "will not only improve the quality and efficiency of our judicial system, but it will save Deaf Smith County $6,000 a year in the cost of running the court system and the district attorney's office."

In presenting the need for the district commissioners earlier this year, Shuval said the 6th District, now composed of six counties, is one of the largest districts in the state—its size approximately equal to the whole state of New Jersey.

In regards to population, Shuval said that the new district could become one of the smaller ones in the state. "However, when you consider the case load for Deaf Smith and Oldham counties, you find that this more than justifies the creation of the district court," he stressed.

Shuval said the case load, at the end of the year, of Deaf Smith and Oldham counties was 96 per cent as great as the civil case load in Randall County, and the criminal case load is 53 per cent more than that of Randall County. Randall County is a fair comparison, the DA said, "because it has two district courts which are shared with Amarillo."

Shuval also reported that Deaf Smith presently carries half the case load of the 6th District, and the district judge had far too much of a work load in the district. He said District Judge Archie S. McDonald has stated that he would not oppose the creation of a new district if the majority of the Bar in any county felt that it would benefit their county.

In the resolution approved earlier by the Hereford Bar, members unanimously endorsed Richard Brainerd of Oldham County to be appointed judge of the new district, and further resolved that no member of the Hereford Bar would seek the office at the expiration of the interim term of the appointment of Brainerd.

A resolution also endorsed Shuval to be the District attorney for the new judicial district.

In the area as a result of two major accidents caused by dust blowing across panhandle highways and cutting visibility to virtually zero.

The worst of the two accidents, in which 21-year-old Douglas Kroeger of Ellis, Kan., was killed, occurred on a Canadian River bridge crossing about two miles from Boys Ranch.

Kroeger was killed when his southbound semi-trailer truck collided with a pup trailer stranded in the middle of the bridge on U.S. 385.

The pup trailer, had jackknifed from its main unit, a truck driven by a San Angelo man.

The other accident occurred about 9 a.m. on U.S. 385 approximately three miles north of Dimmitt, when dust blowing from a nearby field cut down visibility on that stretch of highway. Four trucks and a car piled up when a rig driven by a Dimmitt man collided head-on with a truckload of hogs on a rig owned by Burke Inman Trucking of Hereford. Two more trucks and a car slammed into the two original trucks, sending three persons to area hospitals for treatment. The three were treated and later released.

Reminders On Boat Safety Are Listed

AUSTIN—Spring's balmy weather drives millions of Texans on a hasty exodus to water.

But there is such a thing as being too hasty, warns Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials. Being in too much of a hurry could bring disaster, especially if you use a boat for recreation.

For example, take a little time while fueling. Avoid spills.

Extinguish cigarettes, cigars and pipes. Alternate the addition of gas and oil, keeping the gas nozzle grounded against the tank.

Evaluate your load. For balance, speed and safety, the load should be distributed evenly from bow to stern and side to side.

The number of seats in a boat does not mean that the same number of passengers can go for a ride. The seats are there to permit a variety of seating arrangements for even distribution of weight.

Don't beat a hasty retreat from the dock until you know that all the required safety equipment is on board and in good working order. This means a life preserver for each person on board, a fire extinguisher, proper lights and a horn or whistle.

It's also a good idea to have on hand an anchor, fenders, flashlight, some line, a gas can, a bilge pump, a first aid kit, a paddle and a tool kit.

Take a little time to consider the safe operation of your boat.

Letter To Editor

Dear Editor:
There is no way to truly express my gratitude to everyone who had a part in the style show for benefit of Hereford's Meals-On-Wheels. The response of the community was just overwhelming and I was deeply touched by it. Church Women United did an outstanding job of organizing the entire operations. Decorations were out of this world, as was the setting for the style show, the music program, and the lovely and handsome people who modeled the beautiful clothes so majestically in response to the lovely lady who did a magnificent job of holding the attention of the audience with her melodious voice. And then, to top it all off, the refreshments and fellowship with the honored guests from Kings Manor and Westgate and old and new friends. This all simply proves what I have always known—that Hereford truly has the finest people in the entire world. I want to especially thank those merchants and models who gave of their time, for without them all of our planning would have been for naught. God bless everyone and may your joy be as full as mine. Sincerely, Lola Curtsinger 610 Bowie St. Coordinator of Hereford's Meals-On-Wheels P.S. A special thank-you to those who gave donations and are still giving, but did not attend the style show.

Social Security

Q. I've been receiving social security benefits for the past two years. I still don't know what the retirement test is. How do the recent changes affect me?

A. The retirement test means simply the amount of earnings a beneficiary can have and still be entitled to all of his benefits. In 1972 a beneficiary could earn as much as $1680 and receive all of his social security benefits. If he earned more than $1680, he lost some of his benefits depending on how much over the $1680 he earned. Beginning with 1973, this earnings limitation was raised to $2300. This means that you can work and earn $2100 a year and still receive all of your benefits for that year.

Q. I've never been able to understand the retirement test. What is it all about?

A. Through 1972 the Social Security Law considered that a person was "retired" if he didn't have earnings from work of more than $1680 per year. If the beneficiary earned over $1680, social security concluded that he was only partially retired and he had to give up $1 in benefits for each $1 of his benefits for each $2 he earned over the $1680 and up to $2880. If he earned over $2880, then he had to give up $1 in benefits for each $1 he earned in excess of $2880. Beginning with 1973, however, the earnings limitation has been raised to $2100. If the beneficiary goes over this amount, he gives up $1 of his benefits for each $2 he earns. The one for one rule has been completely eliminated.

Public Hearing In Amarillo On Constitutional Revision

"It's an honor for the good folks of the Panhandle, and we're going to set a prime example for the people down south."

Wales Madden, Jr., Amarillo attorney and member of the Texas Constitutional Revision Commission was talking about the first public hearing which will take place at the Quality Motel here at 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, April 25.

"There'll be eighteen grassroots hearings throughout the state," Madden said, "and for the Amarillo area to get first crack is a rare and wonderful opportunity."

Purpose of the public hearings, mandatory under rules governing the Commission, is to give Texas citizens a voice in Constitutional revision by expressing their views before the drafting process begins.

"A lot of public hearings draw only the aggravers," Madden said, "but not this time. We're going to bear from folks who believe in Texas and in the of Texas...folks who feel that we can govern ourselves constructively."

The 37-man Commission is charged with studying the need for Constitutional change and reporting its recommendations to the members of the Texas Legislature no later than November 1, 1973. In January 1974, the Legislature will convene as a Constitutional Convention to prepare the final document to submit to voters later that year.

"The people have both the initial responsibility of affording suggestions to the Commission through the public hearings and the final say-so when they accept or reject the proposals next year."

"The Commission's recommendations must reflect unmistakably the views of Texans who live under the State constitution. Otherwise, they'll go to the polls, vote no, and all our efforts will be for nothing."

Madden suggested that if convenient, presentations be made in written form, but he noted that this is not a requirement.

REC Meets Thursday

The 35th annual meeting of Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, Inc., is scheduled here Thursday in the Bull Barn with highlights including a barbecue luncheon, distribution of patronage refund checks, a business session, and entertainment.

The annual meeting starts at 11 a.m. Thursday. Following the barbecue luncheon, board president Sloan H. Osborn will call the business session to order at 1 p.m.

Three directors are to be elected from the area. Tom Draper is unopposed in Deaf Smith County, while Osborn and Melvin Sachs are the nominees in Parmer, and Noel Gollehon and Al Gibbs are Castro's nominees.

Special entertainment will be provided during the luncheon by Tex Rhodes and the Texas Twisters, according to James T. Hull, executive manager.

Hull reported the cooperative had "a steady and sound growth during 1972, even though there were moments of concern."

The increase in wholesale power rates, and the government's decision to eliminate the REA direct loan program were pointed to as major developments.

Hull pointed out, however, that Deaf Smith REC was fortunate to obtain one of the last loans approved in 1972 by REA under the direct loan program. "We now have plant investments of approximately $10 million with projections that show continued growth in 1973," he stated.

EASTER EGG HUNT—Members of the Young Mother Study Club hosted an Easter egg hunt for their children Tuesday afternoon in the home of Stan Solomon. Easter bunnies assisted the children in finding the eggs.

WOODMEN AWARD—E.W. (Dub) Curtsinger was presented the Mr. Woodmen-Achievement Award here Thursday for outstanding service during 1972 while serving as treasurer of local Unit 990. The award was presented by Bart Holbrook, left, field representative. Mrs. Curtsinger also received a gift.

With everybody saying they've got the best sorghum seed, Niagara has just one thing to say about Oro:
Try it.

Niagara SEEDS ORO HYBRID SORGHUM (GRAIN)

With all the claims everybody's making for their sorghum seed, we just ask you to do one thing with our new Oro hybrid. Try it in a test planting. You'll get a yield that will really open your eyes.

You'll get a head exertion of from 4 to 7 inches, blooming in 60 to 70 days and ready to harvest in 100 to 125 days. Plus large, loose, open heads of 8 to 10 inches. Oro also brings you good threshability with high test weight. As well as exceptional tolerance to head smut, MDMV virus, and anthracnose.

On top of all that, Oro is versatile—it's adapted for both dry land and irrigated conditions. There's an Oro dealer near you. He and Oro are really worth a try.

Local 4-H'ers, Leaders Aid In State Project

BEDFORD FORREST

Deaf Smith County 4-H youth and leaders are joining with others from throughout Texas to help bring about a 4-H Center for Texas.

A permanent home where many educational programs and activities can be conducted throughout the year is the goal of a campaign with "Put it together with a 4-H Center" as the theme.

Deaf Smith County 4-H members, leaders and parents will sponsor a bean-ham-hock supper beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Bull Barn to help raise funds for the project. Tickets for the supper will be available at the door.

Local talent will provide entertainment throughout the evening with Bedford Forrest, farm director for KVII TV in Amarillo as the emcee.

Homer Garrison, chairman of the local 4-H fund drive, will be in charge of the drawing for door prizes, donated by Downtown Variety Park and Sugarland Mall Merchants.

Deaf Smith County young people some time ago assisted in the first phase of the campaign to raise funds for the state 4-H Center by conducting a massive chocolate sales campaign. With the help of leaders and local citizens, 4-H'ers raised $2,430 for the project.

Beef, Politics In Spotlight At Conference In Amarillo

AMARILLO—The first annual Texas Beef Conference set for April 26-27 here will feature the optimum mix in the cattle industry—politics and beef, according to Cal Parrott of Amarillo, area livestock specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The political side of the program will feature such distinguished speakers as the Honorable Tom Foley, chairman of the Livestock and Grain Sub-Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, and Virginia Knauer, President Nixon's special assistant for consumer affairs.

On the beef side will be such notables as Tom Herrick, president of the Texas Cattle Feeders' Association, and Bill Donnell, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association.

Up for debate between the two sides will be the issue of politics and beef and consumer concern about beef.

Spicing the round of presentations will be a discussion of cattle death losses on the High Plains by Dr. John E. Hutchison, Extension Service director, and more technical subjects ranging from new diseases in cattle to hormones and substitutes.

The meeting gets underway on Thursday evening with a steak dinner at the Amarillo Civic Center. Representative Foley will be keynote speaker. His subject will be "Politics and Beef." Herrick and Donnell will respond.

Registration begins the next morning at 8 o'clock with Hutchison addressing the group at 9. Dr. Glen Lofgreen of the University of California and president of the American Society of Animal Science, will speak on handling light calves on arrival. Research in new diseases in cattle is the next topic by Dr. John Coleman of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

The consumer's concern about beef is to be expressed by Virginia Knauer. Responding to her presentation will be Herrick and Donnell.

The afternoon session takes a different turn, with five speakers presenting more technical information on the subjects of energy-fiber-protein relationships, in feedlot rations, antibiotics and substitutes, and hormones and substitutes. In respective order they are Dr. R. Hollis Klett of Texas Tech University Center at Amarillo, Dr. Willard J. Visek of Cornell University, and Dr. H.H. Cole of the University of California. Responding to these presentations will be Dr. Charles E. Deyhle of the Academy of Veterinary Consultants and Ross Cooley of the Plains Nutrition Council, Inc.

Rex McAnelly, president of the Southwestern T-Bone Club, will preside during the evening dinner session. Presiding for three sessions the next day are Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of Agricultural Sciences of West Texas State University; Dr. Anson R. Bertrand, dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences at Texas Tech University; and Dr. Jarvis Miller, Experiment Station director.

Sponsors of the event include the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station of Texas A&M University, the Texas Cattle Feeders' Association, Texas Tech University, and West Texas State University.

Herd Captures Twin-Bill

After posting only one victory in 12 league games, the Hereford Whitefaces broke out of the slump with a doubleheader triumph over the Lubbock High Westerners here Saturday.

Hereford took the opening game in five innings, rolling to an 11-1 decision, then came back to score a close 5-3 victory in the seven-inning second contest.

The Herd is now 3-11 in District 4-AAAA play and 6-16 on the season. Hereford travels to Lubbock Tuesday to take on the league-leading Monterey team.

Ricky Locke gave up only three hits and his mates committed a single error as Hereford romped to the 11-1 first-game win Saturday morning. The game started at 10 a.m., and the second game followed—the twin-bill being completed about 1:15 p.m.

Carey Black banged out three hits, while David Loerwald and Dwayne Davison had two hits each to spark Hereford's bat attack in the opener. Hereford jumped to an 8-0 lead in the first two frames.

Lynn Tarr worked five innings in the second game, and notched the triumph with relief from Bill Phillips. Each team had six hits in the game. Steve Loerwald banged out a pair of singles for Hereford, and Black and Terry Poindexter rapped two-baggers.

Hereford lost a close game Friday at Snyder, 3-2, after the Tigers snuffed out a seventh-inning threat by the Whitefaces. Hereford loaded the bases with no one out, but a double play and a ground out ended the threat.

Each team had 8 hits, with Poindexter pacing the Herd with a pair of safeties. Steve Loerwald was the losing pitcher, going all the way while walking three and whiffing one. Ricky Locke singled across one run, and an error on Twig Rose's grounder scored the other tally.

SIGNS WITH WEST TEXAS—Steve Nieman, a co-captain on the Hereford Whiteface track team, signed a letter of intent Friday to attend West Texas State University on a track scholarship. Hereford track coach Don Cumpton and Steve's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O.G. Nieman, witnessed the signing. WTSU Coach Bob Kitchens reported Nieman was one of his first track recruits this year.

Four Teams Battle For Little Dribbler Title

The District Little Dribbler Basketball tournament was to wind up here Saturday night with Plainview taking on either Hereford or Dalhart for the championship.

Hereford and Dalhart clashed Saturday afternoon in the semifinals, each with one loss in the double elimination tourney. Plainview had chalked up two wins and advanced to the finals.

Hereford's All Stars opened with a thrilling 33-32 win over Dalhart Thursday night, but fell to the strong Plainview team by a 45-36 score Friday night.

Plainview had opened with a close 35-32 win over Pampa Thursday, then Pampa fell to Dalhart Friday by a lop-sided 59-30 decision.

In the Friday night game, free throws proved a big factor as Hereford fell to Plainview. The winners hit 23 of 41 free shots, while Hereford connected on just 9 of 25. Two Hereford cagers—Jackie Mercer and Buzzy Abalos—fouled out of the contest.

Bruce Wesley led Plainview with 17 points, getting 13 on free shots. Belin Rameriz and Greg Dement led Hereford with 8 points each, while Brent Allen and Larry McNutt added 6 points each. Abalos had 4, Mercer 2 and Don Weemes 1.

In the win over Dalhart Thursday, Rameriz hit a shot just before the final buzzer to give Hereford its close 33-32 triumph. Hereford had led by 19-11 at halftime, but fell behind by 25-23 after three periods.

Mercer led Hereford with 8 points, followed by Rameriz with 6, and Abalos and Weemes with 5 each. Allen had 4, Dement 3, and Kevin Bunch and Brian Brooks 1 each. Bobby Straight hit 20 points for Dalhart, with 17 coming in the second-half rally.

In the Plainview win over Pampa, Jay Miller led the winners with 17 points, and Steve Duke had 15 for Pampa. Straight tallied 17 points for Dalhart in the win over Pampa Friday night. M. Walker scored 12 to lead Pampa.

with 5 each. Allen had 4, Dement 3, and Kevin Bunch and Brian Brooks 1 each. Bobby Straight hit 20 points for Dalhart, with 17 coming in the second-half rally.

HOW'D HE GET THERE—Dalhart players seem a little amazed to find Hereford's Brent Allen right in the middle of their defense getting off a shot in the District Little Dribbler Basketball Tournament. The three-day, double elimination tourney was to end Saturday night with Plainview in the finals. Hereford and Dalhart met again Saturday afternoon determine the other finalist.

Hereford To Host WTSU Spring Game Saturday

Football season gets an early start in Hereford this year, thanks to the Kiwanis Club!

The West Texas State Buffaloes will hold their final spring game in Whiteface Stadium Saturday night, with the kickoff set for 7:30 p.m. Hereford Kiwanians are sponsoring the grid show.

Tickets for the contest are priced at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students, and are available at the banks and Western Auto Store.

While the Buffs return a veteran backfield that ground out the yardage last season, Coach Gene Mayfield may be taking a strong look at the passing game in the spring game.

Returning regular quarterback Mike Wartes, a former Hereford grid star, is facing a battle with letterman Bob Sweat and junior-college transfer Don Nava. Wartes and Sweat connected on just 34 of 115 passes last fall, and Mayfield wants improvement in the area.

Another Hereford gridder returning to Whiteface Stadium will be Tony Gorman, a returning starter at defensive end. All-MVC defensive end Walter Hibbler and tackle Larry Wiens are also back in the defensive line.

The power-laden backfield is headed by Billy Pritchett, 6-4, 245, who missed spring practice due to knee surgery. He missed the last four games last fall, after a sensational sophomore year when he ran for 1,128 yards in 11 games.

Cole Fraley, 6-0, 195 junior, led the team in rushing last year with 795 yards and was named the MVC first-year Player of the Year. He was a high school All American at Berger. Jimmy Lisle, Rich Schleider and Clois Burgess are returning as top running backs.

Gary Fennell and Allen Mullins head the returning offensive linemen. Mike Delaney was a part-time starter at guard, while Dewayne Sexton and Don White shared center duties. Veteran split ends Carl Brown and Kenneth Sellers return, but Brown sustained a leg injury in track and is missing spring drills. The speedy Brown is expected to be a key player as a receiver and kick-return specialist.

Mayfield has said the Buffs will look at the I formation and several others, in addition to the Wishbone T. The Buffs led the Missouri Valley Conference in rushing offense last fall with a 260.3-yard average per game. The Buffs have 18 returning starters among 45 lettermen.

Supplying protein is a growing problem

Meat proteins, by far the most popular, are the most costly to produce and scientists realize that if our growing population is to be supplied with adequate protein, it may have to come from relatively inexpensive and easily grown vegetable sources.

Such unlikely sources as cotton seed, peanuts, sesame and sunflower seeds, even alfalfa and leaves are being tested for conversion into nutritious foods.

Nieman Signs With WTSU

Steve Nieman, standout Hereford quarter-miler, has signed a track scholarship agreement with West Texas State University, it was announced Friday by Bob Kitchens, WTSU track coach.

Nieman was one of the first track recruits to be signed by the Buffaloes. Hereford coach Don Cumpton witnessed the signing of the Missouri Valley Conference letter of intent and expressed his pleasure in seeing the Herd trackman continue his athletic career in college.

A captain on the district championship track team this year, Nieman was the top point producer in seven meets. He accounted for 81½ points while running the quarter and as a member of the sprint relay and mile relay teams. It was his second track letter at HHS, after moving here from Slaton in January, 1972.

The 5-10, 150-pounder also lettered on the Herd football team this past fall, starting at offensive end and playing safety on defense. He earned one football and two track letters at Slaton.

Nieman, son of Mr. and Mrs. O.G. Nieman, was installed as a member of the National Honor Society at Hereford High this year and was a member of the senior play cast. He was vice president of the student council as a junior at Slaton.

A minute sample of moon dust sent for examination to England's Loughborough University of Technology has disappeared, according to a university spokesman who said, "How it happened nobody knows, but it will be very difficult to find because if 50 specks like it were placed end to end they would measure only one millimeter."

More Interest In Wildlife Hearings

AUSTIN—Texas outdoorsmen are taking a more active part in the process by which game and fish laws are formulated.

The Parks and Wildlife Department recently held public hearings across the state and approximately 1,800 hunters and fishermen showed up to make their voice heard in setting the upcoming hunting seasons and laws pertaining to fishing.

This is more than a 30 per cent increase over the number who attended the hearings last year.

Detailed reports of the hearings will be submitted to the Parks and Wildlife Commission prior to their April 26 meeting to consider 1973-74 game and fish proclamations.

TO PERFORM AT HOME—Mike Wartes, former Hereford Whiteface grid star, will return to perform before the home folks when the West Texas State Buffaloes play their final spring game in Whiteface Stadium Saturday night. The Buffs' intra-squad battle is set for 7:30 p.m., April 28, under sponsorship of the Hereford Kiwanis Club. The spring clash will be under game conditions, with tickets priced at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Pioneer Gas Chief Named

K. Bert "Tex" Watson of Amarillo, former assistant Texas attorney general, has been elected president and chief executive officer of Pioneer Natural Gas Co.

Watson will assume the duties and responsibilities of Burton P. Smith, who will take early retirement. Smith will continue on the board and serve as chairman of the executive committee, a position he currently holds.

Watson's election to the post by the PNG stockholders during their annual meeting at corporate offices Tuesday in Amarillo becomes effective June 1, 1973.

Also, PNG directors declared a quarterly dividend of 21 cents per share on the outstanding common stock payable June 1, 1973, to stockholders of record on May 10, 1973. In additional action, the board re-elected its current board of officers.

Watson and his wife, Joy, have five children, David, 8, and Delk, 15, both of the home, Kenneth, 18, and Randall, 21, both Texas Tech University students, and Mrs. Lew (Sandy) Browder of Austin.

K. B. (TEX) WATSON

He joined Pioneer's subsidiary, Amarillo Oil Co., in 1952; was appointed secretary and attorney in 1955; and was elevated to the position of administrative vice president and general counsel in 1965 in addition to his election as a director of the company. He was named senior vice president and general counsel in 1968 and executive vice president during 1970.

Prior to joining the company, Watson was an assistant attorney general of Texas where he represented the Texas Board of Water Engineers and the Texas Land Board. He worked on the Tidelands case and tried the first law suit on the Underground Water District Act.

A native of West Texas, Watson graduated from high school in Amarillo. He attended the University of Colorado where he earned a bachelor of science degree in chemical engineering and a law degree. He has been admitted to practice law in Texas, Colorado and the U.S. Supreme Court. He has completed the Executive Program in Business Administration at the Graduate School of Business of Columbia University.

Watson has been active in various legal and civic organizations. He has been a leader in the development of a water plan for Texas and is a past president and director of the executive committee of Water, Incorporated. He also participates in various Chamber of Commerce activities and has taken an active part in the local Boy Scouts of America program for many years. He is a past president of the Amarillo Bar Association.

In addition to serving on the board of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, he is a director of Amarillo Oil Co., Pioneer Nuclear, Inc., Pinaga and Pioneer Transmission Corp. — all Pioneer subsidiaries.

Along The Frio

MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
Friends of Mrs. H.D. Allman and her daughter, Mrs. Wenda Marie Loyd, of Wickes, Ark., gathered at the R.E.C. Community Room, in Hereford Sunday, bringing food for dinner together. The Allmans, Mrs. Allman and her husband, the late Henry Allman, lived in the Frio Community from about 1920 until 1937, when they moved to the Westway Community. They lived there until Mr. Allman's ill health forced them to move to the lower climate. They lived at Granis Ark., until his death a few years ago. The Allmans son, Jack, and his family live at Corpus Christi and Mrs. Loyd and her husband live at Wickes.

Those who met Sunday for the fellowship included Mrs. H.M. Mobley, Mrs. Kate Dixon, Mrs. Lillie Upton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tucker, Mrs. Minnie Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ratcliff, of Dimmitt, Mrs. Ethel Hunter, Dimmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, Amarillo, Mrs. Nanette McMurray, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. E.H. Little, Texline, Miss Alma Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews, Mrs. Hazzel Sparks, Clark Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Witherspoon, Mrs. Bud Cawthon, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannahil, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hayes, Dimmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coker, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Stephan, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole, La Nelle Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vinson, Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins, Austin Mobley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Axe, Mrs. W.A. Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Springer.

Arriving at Amarillo Airport, on Saturday, were Mrs. John Stokes and daughter, Shelby, of Mt. Vernon, Washington. They came to visit her parents, the Spicer Gripps, her brother Kim and her husband's family, near Lubbock, during the next several days. This is Shelby's first trip and her first acquaintance with all the family except the grandmother, Mrs. Gripp.

Mr. and Mrs. T.L. Sparkman, Jr. returned home this week from several days visit in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jerry Richardson, of Hollywood, Florida. The Richardsons moved there directly after their marriage in Sept. 1971. Jerry works for Florida Public Service and is training in a school for that work, also.

More than 50 persons attended the Golden Wedding anniversary reception of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brooks, on Sunday afternoon, April 15. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Deward Taylor of Friona and the Taylor family hosted the occasion. The reception was in the Fellowship room of Frio Baptist Church, where the refreshment table with a gold floral centerpiece was the main attraction. Friends from this and neighboring communities came. From Comanche, Okla., a nephew, Eldon McClennen, and Mrs. McClennen also came to spend the weekend and attend the reception.

Rev. and Mrs. Sam Ogan, Mrs. Jackie Andrews and daughter, Holly, were visiting the Ogan's other daughter, Debbie Pitman and her husband, Marsh, at Norman, Okla., Tuesday until Friday. On Wednesday evening, the women attended a surprise "pink and blue" shower for Debbie, given by friends from her church and B.S.U.

Land Values Up, But Farming Still Depends On Net Income

COLLEGE STATION—Although land values are increasing at a sharp rate throughout the country, it's difficult to live off of the appreciation! Net income is still the breadwinner! Consider the plight of two ranch families in the Edwards Plateau of Texas who are reaping a mere 1.5 per cent return on their land, labor and management. Despite high levels of management and effective enterprise combinations, the task of increasing net income seems futile, especially with rapidly rising production costs. Although the two families are each netting about $8,000, if this is assumed to be return on labor and management, there would be no return to the value of the land, points out Kenneth Graeber of Uvalde, area economist in management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "The question is, should these families stay in the ranching business and continue to earn a limited return, or should they consider selling the land at a good profit and invest their money elsewhere?" There are also other alternatives to this situation which is becoming more common across the state and nation due to increasing land values. Increased recreational demands for land is a big reason for the jump in land prices, notes the Texas A&M University specialist. One alternative might be to buy a larger operation where land values are lower in order to increase net income. It might mean selling the ranch and investing in stocks and bonds and working off the ranch. Possible the land could be leased to cover taxes, and employment could be found off the ranch. On Oct. 19, 1812, Napoleon ordered retreat from Moscow.

Local Artist Has Paintings In Show

Kenneth Wyatt, of Tulsa is one of 32 artists, living and dead, represented in "A Salute to the Old West" in the 50th anniversary exhibition by the Grand Central Galleries, Biltmore Hotel, New York. The exhibition opened April 17 and will be in place through May 12.

Wyatt has two paintings "Fistful of Sugar" and "We Wept When Charlie Died" in the exhibit.

Dr. Harold McCracken, director, Whitney Gallery of Western Art, commenting on the show said: "The development of Western Art, during the past 25 years has enjoyed the most phenomenal growth and widespread success of any phase of our artists' culture."

Wyatt, a Methodist minister, began a dedicated career as a full time Western painter five years ago. He was given the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Achievement Award in 1971.

"His invitation to exhibit in the Grand Central Galleries 50th Anniversary Exhibition climaxes a record sales acceptance of his work," said his exclusive agent, John L. McCarty, owner of High Plains Galleries.

Insincere friends are just like shadows—they're with you only when the sun shines.

Services For Mrs. Jones

Funeral services for Mrs. Hereford from 1960 to 1971 and John A. Jane, Jones were conducted at 1 p.m. Friday in the Briar Church of Christ with Kenton Harvey, minister, officiating. Burial was in the Justin Cemetery under direction of Cy Rone Funeral Home of Azle.

She was the mother of Mrs. Bob Byers of this city. She was injured in a two-vehicle collision on U.S. 199 about three miles east of Azle on April 9. After making satisfactory progress for more than a week, she died suddenly Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Jones was a resident of Born Eva Bennett at Justin on August 30, 1908, she was married to John A. Jones in Fort Worth on April 19, 1928. They moved to Hereford from Canyon in 1960 and to Azle from here in 1971. She was a member of the Church of Christ in Briar.

Survivors include her husband; one daughter, Carole Byers; of Hereford; two sons, Bill Jones of Orlando, Fla., and CW3 Darrell Jones, stationed at Fort Rucker, Alabama; 12 grandchildren, and four great grandchildren, and two brothers.

The Many Phases of Easter

Mrs. Burke Inman prepares for expected Easter guests.

Tod Welty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Welty, is awed by Easter's true meaning.

The Sunday Brand

(Section Two)

The Sunday Brand, Hereford, Texas, April 22, 1973

Delight Thames, five-year-old daughter of the John Thames, proudly shows her collection of Easter eggs.

Shopping for that special Easter dress is a delight for Julianne, Andrea and Jennifer Jorde. Andrea is the daughter of the Keith Jordes, and twins Julianne and Jennifer are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jorde.

Wedding Vows Exchanged In Ceremony Saturday

Miss Donnell Benefield and Guy Hunter both of Plainview were married in a Saturday evening ceremony at Central Church of Christ, of Hereford. Gene Galsler, pastor at Garland Church of Christ in Plainview, officiated.

Miss Benefield is the daughter of Mrs. Lovella Blankenship and the late Troy Benefield of 230 Beach. Hunter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn D. Hunter of Plainview.

The pulpit of the church was decorated with greenery and two candelabra stood on either side. N.J. McBride, the bride's uncle, gave his niece in marriage.

Mrs. Glenn Hughes of Abilene served her sister as matron of honor and Tommy Chatham of Plainview was best man.

Miss Arlene Wade of Lubbock was bridesmaid and groom-smen was Gil Hunter of Plainview, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Bill and Johnson Benefield of Abilene, brothers of the bride, and Bill McBride of Plainview, cousin of the bride.

Perfect Love, Walk Hand in Hand and the Bridal March by Loeheguin was sung by the church choir.

Fashioned by her mother, the bridal gown was of white silk organza, underlined with white satin and had lace cup sleeves. The tucked bodice was gathered at the empire waist. The bridal veil fell from a juliet cap of lace daisies.

The bride carried a cascade of white daisy mums with yellow roses and as a good luck peice she carried a handkerchief that her mother had carried in her wedding.

Mrs. Hughes and Miss Wade wore yellow floor-length dresses of sheer cotton. Each was fashioned with an empire waist and short puffed sleeves trimmed with white and green daisies. Green hats with streamers accented their gowns. Nosegays of yellow daisies were carried by the attendants and Mrs. Hughes also carried three yellow roses.

The bridal attendants served cake and punch at the Fellowship Hall in the church. Mrs. Kelvin Betzen invited guests to the registry with Mmes. Phil Mayberry, Jo Wallace, Sid Urbanczyk, Jerry Blackburn, Gary McPherson and Adrie Allen assisting.

For her traveling costume the bride wore an A-line lime dress with white trim and white accessories.

The couple will be at home after a short wedding trip to New Mexico at Central Apartments in Plainview.

Miss Arnold Is Bride Of Douglas Caldwell

Miss Patricia E. Arnold and Douglas Caldwell exchanged vows Friday evening at the Avenue Baptist Church. The Rev. Norman MacDonald of that church officiated.

Miss Arnold is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Arnold, 1003 Union and Caldwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.P. Caldwell, 508 Ave. J.

Mr. Arnold gave his daughter in marriage.

Two bouquets of white gladiolas and a candelabra of three candles decorated the church. Miss Arnold and Caldwell lit the center candle after they exchanged vows.

Mrs. Cletus Grady from Nacogdoches attended her sister as matron of honor and Herbert Lovan served as best man.

Groomsmen were Mike Arnold, brother of the bride, and Richard Lyons.

John Fielder, organist and Mrs. Norman MacDonald, pianist, accompanied Miss Ladonna Williams who sang First Time Ever I Saw Your Face. For All We Know, Wedding Song and Speak Softly, Love.

The bride's A-line gown was designed with scalloped lace, accented in Venise lace. The skirt of her gown was bordered in a gathered flounce ruffle framed in Venise lace daisies. Her cut-in train was of the same lace.

Mrs. Glen Nelson designed the shoulder-length illusion veil which fell from a rose-type head band bordered in lace.

The bride wore a necklace of her grandmothers, Mrs. Wade Welch, which was a dime dated on Mrs. Welch's birthday.

Miss Arnold carried a cascade of English ivy with white daisy poms and white carnations. Corsages of two roses were lifted out of the bridal bouquet and given to both mothers.

Mrs. Grady carried a bouquet of daisy poms, white carnations and English ivy.

Miss Marian Betzen and Mrs. David Vaughn served the four-tiered wedding cake and green soda punch at the reception in the Flamerom of Pioneer Natural Gas building.

Mrs. James Davis invited guests to the registry.

The bride's traveling costume was a blue empire waist dress with ruffled sleeves. The couple will be at home in Hereford after a short wedding trip.

Miss Arnold is a graduate of Hereford High School where she was active in the Thespian Club and she is presently employed at the Hereford Day Care Center.

Caldwell also attended HHS and now employed by New Holland as a mechanic.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Wade Welch of Clarendon and Mrs. Arthur Arnold of Silverton.

Program Presented In Play

Students of Stanton Junior High School will present a three act play by Mark Twain, A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court, April 27-28 in the Stanton auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

The story deals with the adventures of a Yankee who finds himself thrown back into the middle ages. Realizing that he is not insane, he soon believes that he is facing a death sentence handed down from King Arthur. What happens when he is lured away from the kingdom to investigate other domains will keep you in laughter and suspense.

Darla Hodges, drama teacher at Stanton Junior High is director of the play and James Mays, stage mnager, Jon Birdsong's art classes and the high school Thespians are in charge of the scenery.

Those students participating in the performance are Russ Odum as Hank Bennett; Dianna McCarley, Marion; Charlene Smith, Mrs. Bennett; Allen Ward, King Arthur; Sara Ricketts, Queen Guenevere; Kim Young, Merlin; Ted Pittsinger, Sir Sagramor; Scott Dryden, Clarence; Cindy Crider, Elaine; Jerry Ross, Sir Lancelot; Rose Valdez, Queen Morgan Le-Fay and Donna Stroup, Sandy.

Those included in the ladies and gentlemen of the court are Vickie Gray, Sabra Hacker, Celia Ricketts, Sue Hospson, Nickie Stipe, Karl King, Dennis Collins, Gilbert, Carrasco, Jon Fraser and Billy Bayne.

Comings And Goings At King's Manor

Mrs. Homer Allgood of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Polly Tunnell of Muleshoe and Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Granthom of Jefferson City, N.C. were all guests of Mrs. H.J. Gauggel on Saturday April 14.

Wednesday, April 11, the Funny Face Bluebirds, with leaders Mrs. Donnel Kruger and Mrs. Lee Carr, came to King's Manor and put on an Easter Parade for residents, each girl modeling a hat she had made, then all singing their Bluebird songs. They walked to Westgate and entertained the residents there; all of which was appreciated and gave us a feeling of Easter.

Palm Sunday guests of Emma Jean Smith were Miss Mildred Sarvie and her father, of Plainview, and Miss Ada V. Clark and Miss Mae Simmens-of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Lipscomb of Matador visited and dined with Maggie Hamilton and Gladys Lair.

Monday Mrs. Laural Norred and two children, Guy and Paula were dinner guests at the Manor.

Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Gribble, of Santa Fe, N.M., visited at the Manor Friday with aunt, Mrs. Diamia Wood.

Richard Lloyd Howell, grandson of Mrs. W.D. Lloyd of King's Manor, was a member of an international law mood court team from Texas Tech University Law School, that took second place in brief writing at a regional meeting held at Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas. In oral arguments the Tech team won two and lost two contests. Others on the team were Elaine Box, Bruce Cochran, Claude Brennan, and Randy Hollums.

Dinner guests, April 5, were Mrs. Y. Van Jones, guest of her mother, Carrie Hendrix, Joe Nisbett, guest of his father, Tom Nisbett. Ray Rocos and son, Dustin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snow.

Anna Blake and Earnest and Dixie Stewart were welcomed home, April 5, after a trip to Turkey and Childress for a few days. A dinner for the residents born in April. Those having birthdays are: Leota Moore, Virgil Dodson, Hugh Smith, Novella Stallings, Mildred Ramey, J.C. Surret, Ola Davis and Day Kendricks. The birthday cakes were made by the Sweet and Fancy Club.

Jaycee-Ettes Attend Meetings

Mrs. John Bunch attended the Dumas Installation Banquet for the Jaycee-ettes Saturday evening. Members attending the work forum in Canyon Thursday evening were Mmes. Bill Johnson, Richard McCutchen, Dan Warrick, Bill Bankston, Jerry Tisdale and Harvey Milton.

Wednesday afternoon at the board meeting was held at the Hotel Coffee Shop. Those attending were Mmes. Bill McKinney, Larry Bean, Harvey Milton, Bill Johnson, Bill Bankston, Dan Warrick and H.L. Hollingsworth.

Lions Hear Lloyd Senn

Lloyd Senn, agri-business manager for KGNC radio and television, was guest speaker at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday at the Civic Club Center.

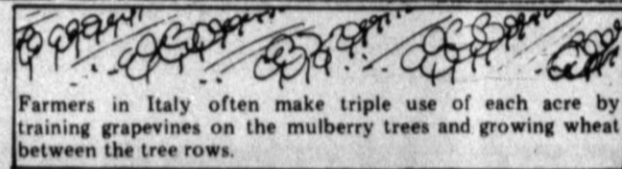

Senn urged public support of legislation for fair practices in the licensing of broadcast stations. He said protests, filed with the Federal Communications Commission, were "approaching the ridiculous stage."

The Amarillo broadcaster, introduced as a "Hereford booster", also announced that KGNC supported the beef industry in the recent publicity concerning boycotts and the station was planning other supportive programs. He was introduced by James Hull, program chairman.

Clete Corlis was the lucky Lion to win expenses for a trip to the Lions International convention in Miami, Fla. In June. Lions with 100 per cent attendance were eligible in the drawing, and Corlis saw his name drawn from the pot. Alternates are Alvin Smith and Bill Shore.

Joyce Shipp, assistant HD agent, was a special guest at the meeting and introduced Sandra Stallings, who gave a brief announcement concerning the 4-H "Bean Supper" to be held Tuesday night at the Bull Barn.

Who Wants Economy?

It's one thing to talk about economizing and quite another thing to actually do it.

President Nixon thought he got a message last year from the American people who agreed with his platform of reducing federal spending. So he cut down on his requests for government programs only to find out that Congress was more generous and voted more money for these.

His solution has been to cut down on spending programs anyway, even though Congress voted the money. This may or may not be legal, and it appears that there is a showdown coming between the President and an angry Congress.

The position of Congress has been upheld by federal courts in a couple of trial cases where federal judges have held that the executive branch does not have the authority to withhold funds voted by Congress.

The first big test came when President Nixon cut the funds off from the Health, Education and Welfare Department, announcing that he was phasing out a great many of the Great Society programs which he said have failed.

The bulk of the programs designed with good intentions to help reduce poverty, have not done so. All they have accomplished is to put a lot more people on the government payroll and of course these are leading the chorus of howls in protest to a cut in funds.

The chief of the HEW said there are several things that stand in the way of bringing government spending under control. One is the uncontrollable nature of a lot of expenditures. Another is the real difficulty in securing agreement to the termination of any kind of activity or program.

And every time a proposal is announced that will cut spending on any government program that program's supporters rise in protest and get their Congressmen to protest too. The result has usually been that no reduction in spending has taken place.

Government spending has gone up and up for decades now and the national debt keeps climbing. As government spending has grown and as the debt and its interest payments have grown so has the amount of money extracted from Americans by means of taxes.

The latest report indicates that taxes on all levels now take 36 cents out of every dollar from the average American and no relief is in sight.

Thus far the President has had a great deal of public support for his spending reduction program. He has also had some grudging cooperation from Congress.

But the honeymoon is over, and it appears that Congress, stung by groups whose programs are affected, are going to demand a showdown as to who will say what the government spends and how much.

It appears that the course of more and more spending will continue once this slight detour is sealed off.

Congress Unhappy With Postal Reform

BY BERT MILLS

Washington, D.C.—Postal reform is only 21 months old but already Congress is disenchanted with deteriorating service at steeply increased rates. Legislation to amend the reform act in several respects is pending in Congress with fair chance of passage.

Every member of Congress is being swamped with complaints that mail delivery is slower than ever. One Senator reported he is receiving 100 complaints per day, many of them delayed in reaching him.

Every legislator has his own list of horror stories about poor service.

A second major cause of complaints is the rates being charged. Letter mail that cost three cents as recently as 1958 is now eight cents and headed higher. The first act of the U.S. Postal Service was to raise rates, with especially steep increases on publications. This forced publishers to raise prices which in turn caused subscribers to complain and often to cancel.

Several major magazines, including Look and Life, have died recently, partly because of postage costs. Others warn they will not be able to survive the succession of rate increases that lie ahead, the next coming on July 6, 1973. Congress is disturbed enough to be holding hearings on bills to ease the impact of ratehikes on publications.

The Postal Service opposes any change in the reform law. Postmaster General Elmer T. Klassen has pleaded for more time to improve service and defended rate increases as reasonable and necessary. At least 40 Senators have disagreed with him by sponsoring bills to make second class rates less burdensome.

22-1 Vote Shows Trend

Recently the House Post Office Committee voted 22-1 to require the Postal Service to obtain Congressional authorization of its annual appropriations. The lone dissenting vote was cast by the Republican most responsible for passage of the reform law and the committee member with the closest White House connections.

Scores of House members, including many who voted to take the mail service out of politics, are now anxious to repeal the reform law and restore the old department. That is not likely to happen quite yet but the House committee vote shows that amending the law is a distinct possibility as early as this year.

Many organizations which backed the corporate plan are equally disillusioned and are busy lobbying to amend the reform act. The powerful postal union, whose switch to support of the reform was vital to its enactment, are now clamoring for Congressional action to amend the statute. They used to get their pay raises and improved benefits from Congress. Now they have to bargain with hard-nosed postal administrators.

These unions are a big part of the problem. They exacted a 17 per cent pay hike as their price for supporting the reform bill, then negotiated another 16 per cent raise in their first settlement with the new corporation. Wages account for at least 80 per cent of the postal dollar.

Despite their progress on pay, the mail workers are unhappy, which is probably one cause of poor mail service. Union leaders claim morale among the rank-and-file is at an all-time low. There are threats of another strike. The first and only strike was one reason Congress voted for reform.

Limiting Taxing Power

Public resistance to taxation is not a negligible force but neither is the clamor from interest groups for more and more tax-financed public spending.

Throughout most of this century, the interest groups have been winning. Government at all levels, which took about 15 per cent of personal income in 1930 and some 32 per cent in 1950, takes a whopping 43 per cent today.

Whether or not there is some turning point, or at least leveling off point, to be reached in this long-term trend can only be guessed, but there are many reasons why it would be prudent for the nation to strike some long-term balance soon between public and private sector spending. If for no other reason, the rising weight of the public sector acts as a drag on the nation's productivity, and thus its progress towards an ever higher standard of living.

So it is a matter of no small interest that Governor Ronald Reagan of California has proposed an amendment to the California constitution placing a permanent limit on the level of state taxation. It would start at the current level of 8.75 per cent of personal income and descend to 7.25 per cent over 15 years. The state's budget still would rise over this period because of rising incomes and population.

It should not be surprising that the Reagan proposal is under attack from several quarters. There are charges that such a limit would not make adequate allowance for depressions or natural disaster, that it will strait-jacket future administrations and that it represents a radical departure from tradition. The last claim is the only one that has much validity.

The Reagan proposal provides for an emergency fund equal to 0.2 per cent of the state's personal income (some $220 million next fiscal year). And it allows a tax increase above the limitation upon approval of two-thirds of the legislature and the governor, but voters then have the opportunity to approve or disapprove the increase by a simple majority vote at the next statewide election.

Nevertheless, the proposal is radical in the sense that it acknowledges there should be a limit to what percentage of an individual's income the government can properly claim. It is radical in that it would force legislators to adopt broad spending priorities, rather than allow them to react to the demands of special interest groups by raising taxes. Above all, the proposal raises radical question, which Governor Reagan posed to legislators: "Are we automatically destined to tax and spend, spend and tax indefinitely until the people have nothing left of their earnings for themselves?"

This bold proposal, the handiwork of an impressive academic and industry brain trust, is sure to generate hostility from those who still believe, in the face of abundant evidence to the contrary, that governments invariably make better economic choices than do individuals collectively.

But as the tax burden continues to increase, there is need for a tax policy alternative to the present method of collecting whatever the traffic will bear. The Reagan proposal may not be the final answer, but if it stimulates widespread discussion about the limits of public taxation and spending it will have performed a valuable public service.

—The Wall Street Journal

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Dear editor:

I don't know how many hundreds of thousands of words have been written and spoken about the celebrated Watergate affair, more than I was able to read and more I suspect than some high-placed people in Washington wanted to hear, but through it all nobody has paid any attention to one of the most striking and unsettling things about the illegal bugging.

It's the gross incompetence of the experts. Here you had a highly trained, educated ex-C.I.A. man with 20 years' experience in the super-secret intelligence gathering agency of the U.S. Government, the outfit that's supposed to know how many guided missiles Russia has, what the Viet-Cong had for breakfast yesterday, how much sugar cane Castro harvested last month and other things too secret to mention, and he and his bugging partners, including an ex-F.B.I. man, flubbed the whole thing. Caught by a night watchman.

Why, any burglar who failed to learn the rounds of a night watchman in any small town in America wouldn't even have the respect of his fellow burglars. Be the laughing stock of the underworld.

I'll tell you, we may have gotten used to a certain amount of incompetence in this country, you see several million automobiles recalled to replace defective parts or have a refrigerator or washing machine or T.V. set break down in the fourth month and you grow accustomed to the idea, but to see men who had outstanding records with the C.I.A. and the F.B.I. fall flat on their face trying to eavesdrop on a political headquarters located down the hall...it makes you wonder if anybody in high places in this country knows for sure what's going on in the world. Somebody better recount those Russian missiles and see if Castro is using saccharin in his coffee.

I've always said if you give the experts enough time and money they'll eventually find out what a lot of people have known for years, but I have to take that back. What they'll do is wind up in jail. A thing like that undermines a man's confidence.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Talk of Texas

By Jack Maguire

LEGENDS THAT LIVE—Because ageless folklore says that the Cross upon which Jesus was crucified was made from the firm wood of the dogwood, its blooms and branches are used in many Easter observances in Texas.

Legend says that the gentle tree was distressed because its wood was used to crucify Christ, and all of the dogwoods wept as He labored up Calvary beneath the burden of the Cross. Taking compassion on the tree, He said:

"Never again shall the dogwood be used for a cross. Henceforth it shall be bent and twisted, and its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross—two long petals and two short petals. In the center of the outer edge of each petal, there will be nail prints, brown with rust and stained with blood. And in the center of the flower there shall be an image of the crown of thorns and all who see it will remember that it was upon a dogwood tree that I was crucified."

It is folklore, of course. There are 40 species of dogwood and some, like the California variety, still soar to 80 feet. In Texas, it rarely grows higher than 18 to 20 feet.

The legend makes a beautiful Easter story, but the dogwood is popular in Christian religion observances for a more practical reason: In East Texas, it is the clarion of spring, the first tree to flower.

FACTS TO FORGET—The dogwood, incidentally, got its name in a curious way. In early England, the bark of the tree was used to prepare ointment to treat many dogs.

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY—The last handset weekly newspaper in Texas was the Newcastle Register, published in Young County.

According to Barbara Ledbetter, Young County historian, the paper was founded in 1908 by Lawrence Miller. It changed hands several times before Gaspard Q. Neal became its editor and published it for a half century.

The last handset copy, now a collector's item, was published March 3, 1966.

DETECTIVE STORY—The world's largest and best collection of mystery fiction is housed in the library of The University of Texas at Austin.

It began several years ago when Frederic Dannay (who, with another author named Manfred Lee, turned out many best-selling whodunits under the pen name of Ellery Queen) gave his collection of detective story first editions to the University. These included both manuscripts and priceless books by such masters of the mystery story as Edgar Allan Poe, A. Conan Doyle, Mary Roberts Rinehart, Dashiell Hammett and others.

Perhaps the largest addition to the collection came on the death a few years ago of Erle Stanley Gardner, creator of the famous fictional detective, Perry Mason. Gardner not only left all of his original manuscripts to the University, but also his own huge library of detective fiction. Even the study in which he wrote his best-selling novels has been moved from his California ranch and put into a room in the University's Humanities Research Center.

ANYTHING GOES—In Midland's Museum of the Southwest, one of the displays consists of nothing but objects taken from the gizzards of chickens processed by a local produce house.

Baker - Felte Exchange Vows In Colorado

Mrs. Lavren Felte
...nee Deborah Kay Baker

Miss Deborah Kay Baker and Lavren Felte of Severance, Colorado were united in marriage Saturday evening in First Methodist Church at Eaton, Colorado. The Rev. Henry Hartbert, pastor of the church, officiated.

Miss Baker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlen Baker, 138 Ranger, and Felte is the son of Mrs. Ruth Felte of Severance, Colo. and Mr. Henry Felte of Greeley, Colo.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Baskets of spring flowers and two candelabra decorated the church.

Mrs. Donald De Graff, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Kenneth Felte, the bridegroom's brother of Severance, served as best man.

Bridesmaids were Miss Debra Schlathauer, Mrs. Ronald Adams, bridegroom's sister and Miss Mardell Johnson. Serving as groomsmen were Derrel Baker, Ronald Felte and Jerry Lahnert. Ushers were James Cleek and Jack Ruty.

Amy Felte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Felte and niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Gaylen Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Derrel Baker and nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Nancy Baker, sister of the bride, and Joyce House served as candlelighters.

Robert D. Asmus, cousin of the bridegroom, played the organ and accompanied Ed Smillie who sang Oh Promise Me and Whither Thou Goest.

The bride wore an empire-waisted gown of nylon organza. The high collar and chapel train were trimmed in reem-broidered lace, which also accented the leg-of-mutton sleeves.

Her waist length veil of bouffant nylon tulle hung from a camelot style cap with a pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses with regal orchids.

The bride's attendants wore empire-waisted gowns made of lavender floral print. Lavendar picture hats complimented their gowns. They carried nosegays of daisy mums, babybreath and streamers with stephanites.

Mrs. William House and Mrs. Leroy Rady served the five tier cake at the Reception Hall in the church.

Mrs. Derrel Baker and Mrs. Daryl Stone served punch and coffee, from a table decorated with the bride's colors of pink

Couple Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Speed are planning a reception and open house celebration of the couples fiftieth wedding anniversary, in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church, April 28 from 2 to 5 p.m.

The couple reside in Adrian after moving to Deaf Smith County in 1926 from Oklahoma City. The former Pauline McAdoo and Joe Speed were married April 28, 1923 in Roswell, New Mexico.

Mr. Speed is a retired farmer and is a World War One Veteran. The couple are affiliated with the Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Speed have two sons, Bobby Speed of Vega and Bert Speed of Sulphur, Okla., and they also have seven grandchildren.

Resolutions Read At Club Meeting

Mrs. L.W. Norvell gave reports on the Texas State Conference, held March 19 and 20 in Houston, and the national defense to members of the Los Ciboleros Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Thursday evening in the Medallion Room of the REC building.

Mrs. Norvell read the resolutions that were passed along with the reports on the proposed sale of U.S. gold, the Alaskan oil delay and the re-education of the American youth.

Mrs. Joe Reinauer, Sr. presided over the business meeting.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Jack Gilliland and Mrs. Alfred Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Speed

Faircloth Rites Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Vee Faircloth, 96, were held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Rose Chapel of Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home with Dr. John English officiating.

Burial was conducted Wednesday in Fort Bliss National Cemetery at El Paso under direction of Harding, Orr & McDaniel Funeral Home. Mrs. Faircloth died April 15 in Deaf Smith General Hospital.

Mrs. Faircloth was a resident of Westgate Nursing Home. She moved to Hereford in 1962 from El Paso. She was born March 17, 1877 in Kansas City, Mo., and married Harry W. Faircloth in 1940. He died in 1952.

Survivors include one son, H.T. Hornbuckle of Albuquerque, N.M.; one grandson, and one great-grandson.

By the Garden Gate

With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

"Most of our yards and alleys can be called the Garden of Weediness."

I hope this is not true of yours, but it is of mine. And as I have driven over town the last few days, it can almost be said of Hereford—"Town in need of Weediness."

Many vacant blocks are carpeted with weeds. We as citizens should really become alarmed and awakened to this enemy that is invading our town. If these weeds are not controlled they are going to control our yards, alleys and detract in a large way to the beauty, cleanliness and attractiveness of our home town.

Many of them are of different natures, and some do have pretty blossoms, which seed readily and then scatter all the more. One cutting and or treatment will not be sufficient to control them. It is going to take a united effort to stop them. Let us all be of one mind and join the "army of fighting" to protect our yards, gardens, and other property.

At my home we have been cleaning, weeding, spading, pulling, cutting, transplanting, feeding, digging, and watering. This form of manual labor can produce a handsome garden and premises. But they can also produce rough, chapped hands, wind-blown hair, and aching muscles, and backache.

Vigilance and constant care are the keys to achieving and maintaining a beautiful garden. A gardener however should be mindful of skin care, people with green thumbs should practice skin care protection methods.

The average American male has approximately 950 square centimeters of skin on his hands, compared with about 830 square centimeters of skin covering the hand of the average female. A woman's skin is also much thinner. I say all of this to caution gardeners to take protective measures for their hands, and other exposed areas of skin.

Gardening is damaging to hands because soil is abrasive to skin. It acts like sandpaper. The finely etched lines and dark cracks that are often observed on our hands are the results of the cutting and rubbing effect of the good earth and its particles on the skin. Handling of tools etc. all add to friction and abrasion of skin.

Other factors which we should be aware of are, cultivating with bare hands, weather, water, fertilizers and pesticides, pulling dandelions or weeds (stains) and handling of other garden debris—all are conducive to damage to skin, nails, and eyes.

Use gloves whenever possible, cream hands well before putting gloves on, making sure that it is well saturated under the nails, and in cuticles. Be generous in applying the protective cream. When it becomes necessary to remove gloves to do a special chore relative to care of plants, then wash hands carefully and apply cream again, working it well into the pores of the skin. Remember to apply cream again generously before retiring, and sleep in gloves if possible—they help!

Another protective measure is the use of a good body oil. Rub oil carefully on extra stubborn spots, where there are plant stains, jagged nails or cuticles. A regular application of oil will aid in keeping down rashes, chafing, chapping, and will aid as a protection to the manicure.

Eyes take a beating during the gardening season. A swish of wind, dust in the eyes, or a protruding branch strikes the face and eyes.

Do not rub eyes with hands or while gloved, as this will tend to make itching and hurting worse. Fatigue, plus exposure to sun, wind and plant poisons can cause extra aches and itches, as well as red eyes. Keep a good bottle of eye drops handy and treat eyes often, especially if wind is blowing.

A final warning—keep face and hands clean. They can become covered with perspiration and grime. After a good warm bath, have a good rub-down with a well recommended body cream.

For the aches and sore back, exercise, by walking, or other exercises (stooping, bending, etc.). Yes it hurts, until you get a bit limbered up, but after a hot soaking bath, do the exercises and they will limber up the aching muscles, and will aid in a good night's rest. It works... I know.

Take a survey of trees in Hereford, and note them in their new spring dress. Many are flowering trees. Especially beautiful now are the crab apple trees. They are especially beautiful on Centre Street. Trees add value to your property, as well as beauty, restfulness, and attractiveness. And when the selection is one of a fruit bearing tree or a bearer of nuts, they will help out on budget matters.

Trees not only do the above mentioned things, but they also take carbon dioxide out of the air and put oxygen in. They help rid the air of other pollutants such as particles of metallic lead, cadmium, zinc, and asbestos. And in our area when planted in groupings or hedges they aid in keeping out trash and odors.

These facts have been proven by research that trees nearest highways have more lead and other metallic dusts, ground dusts, etc. on their leaves than do trees farther away. Trees are important agents in preventing the spread of these and other roadway pollutants over the countryside.

Some of the mentioned pollutants are dangerous to human health, especially by absorption. Many research projects are underway or contemplated. Some of the findings are that there are trees that are more tolerant of various types of air pollution,

Mullikin-Oglesby Wed In Evening Ceremony

Carolyn Jane Mullikin of Amarillo and Larry Cecil Oglesby were united in a Saturday evening ceremony in the chapel of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo. Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor of the church, officiated in the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Florine Forbes of Amarillo and L.B. Forbes of Andrews. Oglesby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Oglesby of 245 Centre.

Jim Forbes, brother of the bride, gave his sister in marriage. Decorating the church were baskets of yellow gladioli and white daisies. Mrs. Kenneth B. Cook of Amarillo was matron of honor and Ray Oglesby of Dumas, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man.

Miss Becky Oglesby, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and Mike Oglesby, the bridegroom's cousin was groomsmen. Ushers were J.D. Beckley, J.R. Oglesby, Ted Saunders and Renton George.

Bill Forbes, brother of the bride, sang More and The Lord's Prayer accompanied by organist Bobby F. Hudson of Amarillo.

The bride's street length dress was made of yellow organza over satin with long flared sleeves. Her headpiece was decorated with yellow flowers and she carried a bouquet of orchids surrounded by yellow roses.

The bride wore a necklace given to her by her fiancée.

Mrs. Cook and Miss Oglesby wore street length dresses of green organza over satin. Their headpieces were decorated with green flowers.

Miss Sue Freeman of Amarillo served the three-tier cake and Mrs. Bill Forbes of Dallas and Mrs. Jim Forbes of Abernathy poured punch. The table was covered with a yellow table cloth and highlighted with a nine branch candelabra entwined with sugar fruit and babybreath.

Miss Suzanne Hilburn of Lubbock invited guests to the registry in the Fellowship Hall at the church.

The couple will be at home in Amarillo after a short wedding trip to New Mexico.

Mrs. Oglesby is a graduate of Abernathy High School and Texas Tech at Lubbock. She is presently employed by Panhandle Insurance Agency in Amarillo.

Oglesby attended Hereford High School is employed by Oglesby Equipment.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. J.L. Miller, Jr., and Linda, Mrs. Kathryn Raymond and Kathy, Mrs. Judy Stracener all of Abernathy; and also Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oglesby, Patrick and Rachel of Dumas.

Club Program Given On Famous Ranches

Members of the Farm and Ranch Club met Thursday in the home of Mrs. W.W. Thomas for a luncheon. Mrs. Thomas and trees actually have chemical weapons to fight back at pollution.

In the use of such plantings they will prove valuable shields when planted in greenbelts along highways or around manufacturing districts and feeding areas... they can truly fight back.

We of Hereford are in an area where there are pollutants, and every measure that we can use wisely should be used to aid in keeping the air pure.

Plant a tree, or trees. Inform ourselves of the needs. Do something about it. Teach the children how they too can help in making America a better, more beautiful and safer place in which to live.

HAPPINESS: Is becoming a better informed gardener. May the blessing of Easter be yours.

decorated the tables with spring flowers and plate favors.

The roll call was answered by each member telling of a famous ranch and its brand and also telling their own brands for their cattle.

Cheap air conditioning is no bargain.

Servel Gas Air Conditioning is a Bargain.

The bargain comes in smaller utility bills, fewer maintenance calls and the longer life of a Servel system. But you'll never buy one cheap. The Servel goal has always been: "Build it like the Swiss." That's why the units are precision-made. And that's why they contain more stainless steel than any other air conditioner on the market. They're built to last and to perform dependably. This and the economy of natural gas energy saves you every month. Quality construction is the reason you pay more for Servel initially. Because quality doesn't come cheap. Long, economical operation is the reason you'll save in the long run. Because quality pays off. Most people can afford quality when they know all the facts. Especially when they're concerned with a cool, restful, healthy home environment — when home has a permanent meaning. Think long and hard before you invest in central air conditioning. Then install Servel.

Committee Supports Youth Programs

By Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

The Program Building Committee had a good meeting Monday night. Howard Ladewig, area specialist in Community Resource Development met with the committee and explained the opportunities in developing total resources in the county and some of the things other areas are doing to develop to their potential.

The committee is supporting all the youth programs in the community. Also, it helped the 4-H clubs in organizing the Bean supper.

4-H Center to be built at Brownwood.

We are getting excited over the money making activities and think it will be a lot of fun as well as satisfying in seeing people rise to the occasion again. Tickets are still available, so see some of the 4-H leaders or members or come to the office for tickets.

This recipe is a good main dish, anytime according to Ruby Lee Hickman and Mrs. Paul Corbett.

SWEET-SOUR PORK
1 1/2 lbs. boneless pork, cut into 1-inch cubes
Corn oil
Salt and pepper
1/2 c. bottled barbecue sauce
1/2 c. pineapple juice
1/4 c. vinegar
1 T. cornstarch
1 (20-oz.) can pineapple chunks, drained
1 green pepper, cut into strips
Cooked rice.

Brown meat in a small amount of corn oil. Season with salt and pepper; stir in mixture of barbecue sauce, pineapple juice, vinegar and cornstarch. Cover and simmer for 35 minutes. Add pineapple and green pepper and simmer 10 minutes longer. Serve with hot rice. Yield: 6 servings.

SHRIMP SALAD
NEW ORLEANS
1 c. cold cooked rice
3/4 lb. cut, cooked, cleaned shrimp
3/4 t. salt
1 T. lemon juice
1/4 c. sliced green pepper
1 T. minced onion
2 T. French-dressing
1 T. chopped stuffed olives
3/4 c. diced raw cauliflower one-third c. mayonnaise.
speck of pepper

Toss together all ingredients and refrigerate. Serve on lettuce leaves. Makes 4 servings.

Another prize winner was Joycelyn Aven with Pineapple Brunch Rolls.
PINEAPPLE BRUNCH ROLLS
3 oz. pkg. cream cheese
1 egg
2 T. sugar
1/4 t. vanilla
Small can crushed pineapple, well drained
6 English Muffins
1/2 c. chopped pecans

In a small bowl, combine the softened cream cheese and the sugar. Beat in the egg and the vanilla; stir in the well drained pineapple (3/4 cup). Split, butter and toast the English Muffins in broiler. Place on baking sheet using about 1 1/2 T. mixture for each. Sprinkle with chopped pecans. Bake at 375 degrees for 6-8 minutes. Serve warm. Makes 6 servings.

Mrs. Doug Savage gave us this recipe, which is a favorite of her family. Try it, you'll like it.

VA Steps Up 'Outreach' Program For Servicemen

The Veterans Administration has stepped up its "outreach" program of informing Vietnam Era veterans and servicemen, including returned prisoners of war, of the availability of government benefits, Jack Coker, VA Regional Office Director, said today.

Coker noted that "outreach" efforts begin while servicemen are on active duty, and continue after discharge.

Thus far, GI Bill details have been provided to two million servicemen in Vietnam. Another 250,000 have been counseled in military hospitals, and three million at separation points.

"Outreach" is continued after discharge, and veterans assistance counselors at 72 Veterans Assistance Centers around the country have interviewed 1.5 million veterans. The other benefit is a VA guarantee of 60 per cent of GI home loans lenders make to servicemen and veterans, up to a maximum of $12,500.

Coker said other VA benefits are available to Vietnam Era veterans and servicemen. For further information, area men can contact Benny Womble, Veterans County Service Officer. His office number is 364-0662, located at 208 S. Main St.

Prince Valiant
IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAL FOSTER

Our Story: PRINCE HEIDMAR COMES HOME ON A SPAVINED PLOW HORSE AND TELLS A GROOM: "A SERF WILL BRING IN MY OWN HORSE. SEND HIM TO ME FOR HIS REWARD."

TO AVOID THE ANNOYING CROWD OF FAWNING COURTIERS, HE USES HIS OWN PRIVATE ENTRANCE.

DURING THE DAY MASONS HAVE BEEN REPAIRING A LOOSE CORNICE ABOVE THE DOOR, BUT NOW IN THE DARK OF NIGHT OTHERS ARE SILENTLY UNDOING THE WORK.

NEXT MORNING WHEN HEIDMAR LEAVES HIS ROOM A HOODED FIGURE GIVES A SIGNAL.

AT THE ENTRANCE HE IS GREETED BY THE SERF: "I HAVE BROUGHT IN YOUR HORSE AS YOU COMMANDED, SIRE." HEIDMAR STOPS FOR A MOMENT TO OPEN HIS PURSE..... THE TIMING OF THE CONSPIRATORS IS PERFECT.....

.....AT THE INSTANT HE WOULD HAVE STEPPED OUT, THE MASSIVE CORNICE COMES CRASHING DOWN!

IT IS NOT A PLEASANT TASK FOR A CROWN PRINCE, BUT WHAT IS LEFT OF THE UNFORTUNATE VICTIM IS SOON DRESSED IN HEIDMAR'S GARMENTS. AND LO, A SERF BECOMES A PRINCE!

AND WITH THE AID OF A PAIR OF SCISSORS, SOME SCOT FROM THE FIREPLACE, A PRINCE BECOMES A SERF!

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
Here is an idea to help stem-litter in a small way. Aluminum drink cans have these tear-away opener tabs. People open these cans and just throw the tabs anywhere in the streets, lawns, streams, lakes, etc.

If people would save these tabs and push the tab back through the ring, they would have an ideal paper clip or hanger for sheets of note paper.

I use these clips every day and hope my idea will take hold in other households.

Keep up the outstanding good work!
Helen Aitken

Since I always have scads of papers all around me, this little idea has come in very handy. I'm going to collect all the tabs I can—sure saves on money for paper clips!

SWEET EILEEN!
DEAR HELOISE:
I always read your column in the paper. Now I have a hint of mine for you.

When I wash the dishes the water always runs down my arms onto the floor.

Well, if you put a rag on the little ledge between the sink and the floor it does not run off your elbows—plus no wet floor and feet!

Eileen McNamara
Age 11½

You really are a doll, Eileen, for doing the dishes for your Mommy.

Why don't you get your Daddy in on the act by having him find, or fix for you, a wooden box to stand on while you're doing that dishwashing chore? By being up higher you could avoid that flood!
Heloise

BRACELET HANG-UP
DEAR HELOISE:
I love bracelets (those ring plastic kind). Yet I never could find the color I wanted when I was in a hurry.

Finally I found a way to keep them nicely in one place and very organized.

Take a paper towel holder, wrap it (I used ribbon to match my room decor) or spray-paint it the color you desire.

Then, when you finish using a roll of paper towels, take the cardboard cylinder and wrap it with ribbon, colored velvet, aluminum foil, etc.

After decorating both the holder and the cylinder, put the bracelets on the cylinder and snap the cylinder into the holder.

It can sit anywhere and it makes a lovely decoration.

HELLO TEDDY BEAR!
DEAR HELOISE:
To clean furry, fluffy or plush toys give them a bath in white cornmeal.

Just rub the meal all over the toy. You can tell by the color of the meal that soil is being removed. The meal will be gray and discolored. Just shake the toy to get all the meal off.

If the meal becomes too soiled, get a new batch and start over.

On a rainy day an older child would love to give a teddy bear or other overloved toy a cornmeal bath.

Put a cloth or paper down and there will be little or no mess to clean up after the toy has been cleaned.

LETTER OF THOUGHT
DEAR HELOISE:
This has been such a blessing to me. I would like to share it with others.

Before you begin your housework each day remember God's word:

"She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness." Proverbs 31:27

Mrs. Eugene Myers

ICE PACK SPECIAL
DEAR HELOISE:
I recently found a method of applying ice to a wound that eliminates a lot of the mess.

I used ice cubes in individual plastic containers, so that a single ice cube can be applied to the wound within its own container.

The plastic allows the cold to come through but keeps your fingers from getting too cold to hold it.

And if the container is held upright, using the side of it to contact the wound, you'll eliminate the mess of melting ice cubes!

I had these plastic containers on hand already, and they're so easy to use when you only want a few cubes. But I've found them so good for this purpose that I would suggest buying them if you have an accident-prone person in the family!

Mrs. Jan Wojcik

WASH YOUR FRUIT
DEAR HELOISE:
Do any of your readers have a fruit arrangement in which they have those velvety looking grapes?

If the grapes are beginning to look a little weather-beaten, tell them not to throw them away.

They can be cleaned to look like new by rinsing with cold water. The leaves and all come clean.

You will have a fresh looking bunch of grapes all clean and ready to rearrange.

WHAT A SHOO-IN!
DEAR HELOISE:
I have arthritis and have used this helpful gadget for quite some time to help get my shoes on.

I use the plastic lids that come on the large three-pound coffee cans. Attached to a twelve-inch wooden ruler (or other similar wooden stick), the lid can be trimmed off and used as a shoe horn.

Works like a charm.
Mary Martowicz

A SMOOTH IDEA
DEAR HELOISE:
Placing a square of sandpaper on the lower part of the door saves the door and sharpens the dog's claws at the same time. (Sandpaper can be attached to any door.)

Ruth Green

And puppy is getting a "pet-a-cure"!

GET THE POINT?
DEAR HELOISE:
Ever stick your hand in the drawer to find a knife and get the wrong end? It can be rather painful at times.

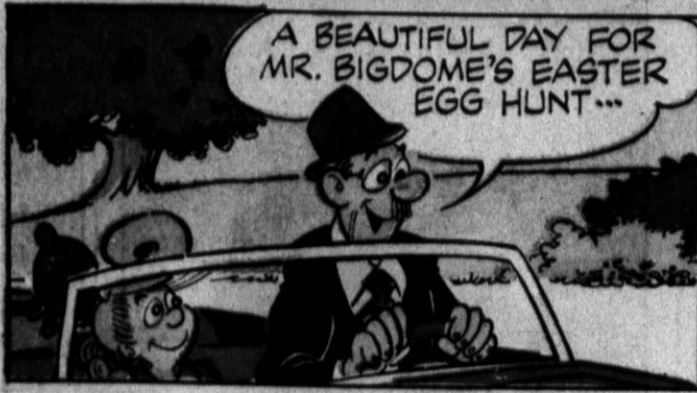

After doing this several times I thought there must be a less painful way of finding the right knife, and I found out that there was.

I made cases for my knives from empty cardboard tubes from paper towels and bathroom tissue!

Flatten the tube and make a sharp crease on the one side. The other side is cut away to fit the size of the knife you are making the cover for. Tape the side and one end closed.

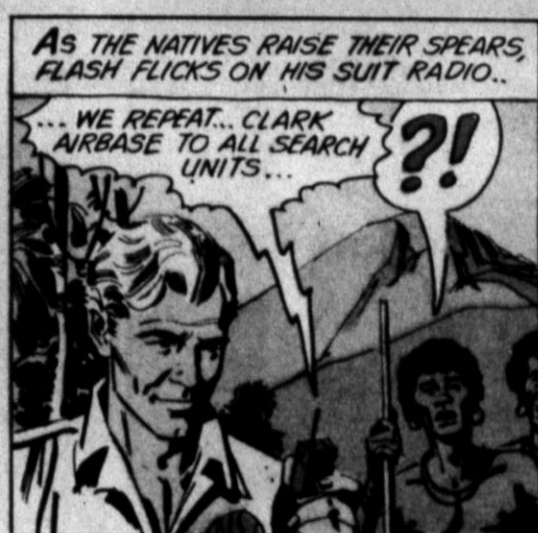

Cover the cardboard with some pretty adhesive-backed paper to make the cases more decorative.

Insert the nail into the carrot about midway between the ends. Push it in about half way, allowing one-half inch of nail, including nailhead, to protrude.

Now, place the carrot in your hand, nailhead held between the knuckles.

Wave the carrot every which way and, of course, to everyone's amazement, it will appear to be stuck to your hand.
