

Whitefaces open home season Friday night

The Hereford Whitefaces, looking to get into the victory column considerably sooner than in their maiden voyage into Class AAAA a year ago, entertain the Palo Duro Dons at Whiteface Stadium Friday night.

"Our boys' attitude is real good. They're ready to make a comeback and I've been real pleased with the workouts this week," Hereford coach Larry Dippel said Wednesday.

Danny Harris, junior running-back whose injuries last year and early this season has kept him on the sidelines more often than on the field, was impressive in practice this week.

"He and Larry McNutt both looked real good this week, the way they were running. If they continue they'll both probably see quite a bit of action against Palo Duro," Dippel said.

Hereford fell to Pampa 20-7 and Palo Duro to Dumas 21-18 in opening games last week. It was Palo Duro that inflicted the worst beating of 1970 on the Herd, 42-14.

"Against Palo Duro you have got to stop the off-tackle power," Dippel said. "They're going to run the power play off tackle, come back with traps up the middle and then try to go outside," Dippel said.

The Dons' passing game faltered against Dumas, but their running game was strong. Left halfback Lester Holland ran for 138 yards; Phillip Ward, who alternates at both halfbacks, rushed for 79 yards in 12 carries; and right halfback Ray Felton rushed for 49 yards in 12 carries against Dumas.

Palo Duro, which lost heavily by graduation from last year's squad, fared poorer than expected against Dumas.

One starter is back from 1970-defensive back Mike King, who is sharing the quarterback duties also this year. Palo Duro coach George Kirk says he has "maybe five or six kids back that played against Hereford last year."

Kirk expects Hereford to fill the air with footballs Friday night.

"We think Hereford has a lot of fine people. In Kitchens, they have one of the finest players around. He has the potential to be one of the finest football players ever to come out of this part of the state. It's not very often you find a junior with that much poise and ability. Everybody around knows about that kid."

Hereford will start about the same lineup as against Pampa. Dippel said Alan Cornelius and Bruce Barrett will be offensive ends, Mike Dawson and Jay Henderson at tackles, Wayne Moton and Alan Hair at guards

On defense, Danny Charest, Charles Allison, Suttle and Barry McNutt will be in the secondary, Rosendo Gonzalez and Wynn Short at linebackers, Richard Sierra at nose guard, Steve Clark and Alberta Garza at tackles and Ralph Waits and Ike Graves at ends.

"Ward, their fullback, scares me because he does a real good job running the trap up the middle," Dippel said about Palo Duro's running game. "And on defense, Holland is probably their best secondary boy. They've got two good linebackers, Dale Clements and Tim Black."

Hereford players have been serious this week, Dippel said, anxious to bounce back after last week's loss.

"They're disappointed that they lost, but I think they feel we could have won if they had done a few things better. They're real mature about it."

The game starts at 7:30 p.m. It will be the first time the new scoreboard has been used in a varsity game, after having gone up a week ago. There was trouble with it Tuesday. The "seconds" switch on the clock locked. That was the same jinx that hit the clock in the opening home game a year ago, and Pampa kicked a game-ending and winning field goal, with no one knowing how much time was left.

BY BETTY KOELZER
Staff Writer

Charlie Riggin, in the wake of helping Hereford become the topmost donor percentage-wise in the recent muscular dystrophy drive, has accepted the challenge of doing the same in the United Fund drive to be conducted next month.

Riggin will serve as drive chairman for the 1971 United Fund drive, which will kick off Oct. 18 and end Oct. 31.

This year's goal of $40,000, recommended by the budget and admissions committee headed by Calvin Goodin, was accepted at Tuesday morning's United Fund board of directors meeting.

"We feel this represents the needs of the community," Goodin said. Representatives of each agency served by the United Fund met with the budget's committee in August at which time they presented their proposed financial needs for the coming year.

Agencies served by UF include Campfire Girls, Children's Rehabilitation Center of Amarillo, Boys Baseball (all ages), Council on Alcoholism, Boy Scouts, Red Cross, Salvation Army, Texas United Fund, and U. S. O.

Recommended allocations set down by the board for each of these agencies are: Campfire Girls, $7,000; Children's Rehabilitation Center $700; Boys Baseball $8,000; Council on Alcoholism $1,150; Boy Scouts $7,000; Red Cross $10,000; Salvation Army $4,000; Texas United Fund $150; U. S. O. $400; and local UF expenses $1,000.

Five children from Hereford are now receiving care from the rehabilitation center in Amarillo.

Hereford's baseball program serves approximately 600 boys, from the youngest teams through pony league age. The 1972 recommended allocation was raised by the committee to create a substantial contribution toward the funds needed to build a new lighted baseball field in Veterans' Park.

The local UF drive has failed to reach proposed goals for the past few years, with only 75 per cent of last year's $39,500 goal being reached.

Board members and drive workers will once again encourage the recommended "one hour's pay per month" contribution from each donor.

Federal funds are available for park in south Hereford

The City of Hereford, should it decide to go ahead and ask for federal funding to help finance the park in the south part of the city, will first have to declare itself a "depressed area," it was learned during a meeting Friday between city manager Dudley Bayne and representatives of the Housing Urban Development committee in Dallas.

Bayne went to Dallas last week to see what federal aid is available to the city in its park expansion project.

"We found out we could go one of two ways," he said. "We either have to have a Master Plan, which we don't, or, and this is the bad part, we have to say Hereford is a depressed area."

No "depressed" ruling is necessary, he added. All a city has to do to be a depressed area is to say it is.

Bayne will present his findings to the city commission when it meets Monday, and if the commissioners decide to go along with federal help on the project, work will begin then. If the commissioners approve federal aid, the park plan will have to be completed and the city will have to come up with its share of what it asks for from the government.

"We can get up to 50 per cent financing on everything except the golf course for the park," Bayne said. "They will help us with our tennis courts, swimming pool, picnic areas and other things, but not on the golf course."

If the city commission approves federal assistance, Bayne said, it will have several alternative routes to go. It would all depend on how quick the commissioners want to get into a major park improvement program, he said.

"We could set aside some each year in the budget or we could go with a bond issue for part or all of the project. It all depends on how fast they want to get the park ready," he said. In either case the city would have to have its 50 per cent of the project money on hand before the government would release its 50 per cent.

Prior to going to Dallas, Bayne said he felt the city faced one major drawback in applying for the federal aid. Much of the federal assistance is based on a city's per capita income and how low it is. Because of the high per capita income locally, one of the largest in Texas, Bayne said he felt then that it could present a problem in getting the help.

This did not materialize during the meeting.

Bayne said the park planning, being done by Paul Nash, a Texas Tech student doing post-

Trio convicted on marijuana charges get probated terms

BY CHARLES RICHARDS
News Editor

A pair of juries meted out identical four-year probated sentences Tuesday to two young men arrested here in recent months on felony charges of possession of marijuana.

The two were Terry Eugene Warren, 25, a former Amarillo man now part of a three-man band in Denver, and Irwin Ray Morris, 24, of Fort Morgan, Colo.

In a third marijuana possession case, sentencing was handled by the district judge, who heard the guilty plea Wednesday of James Brent Sweeney and gave the same verdict, four years of probation. An officer was lying in a ditch when Sweeney and other youths went west of the city and dug some marijuana out of a place it had been buried.

Warren pleaded innocent to charges placed against him after officers found a pipe, tobacco can and tobacco pouch—all filled with marijuana—in his pockets last Nov. 22 on a cool rainy evening on U.S. 60 in Hereford. And his attorney, Don Lowder, attempted in a pre-trial hearing to throw out the evidence on the basis it was obtained from an illegal search.

After the seven-woman, five-

Officers jail Nanninga for failure to report

Fred Nanninga, who pleaded guilty last year to the $40,000 burglary of Spangler's Diamonds, Ltd., and received eight years probation, is back in the jail.

He is accused of violating probation. He will be coming up before Dist. Judge Archie McDonald soon in a hearing that could result in his being sent to Huntsville to serve the eight years sentence.

Nanninga and another boy, Neil Duncan, pleaded guilty to burglarizing the jewelry store in the early morning hours the day they were to have graduated from Hereford High School in May of 1970.

Duncan also received probation.

Adult Probation Officer Harold Wheeler said Nanninga moved out of the county, to Lubbock, without getting permission without justifiable cause, they argued. Once inside the car, police smelled marijuana, searched him and found the narcotic and placed him under arrest.

Officers Oscar Martinez and Floyd Burke said they stopped Warren because he looked suspicious. He stopped when he saw the police car, turned and began walking rapidly in the opposite direction, they testified.

Morris pleaded guilty from the start on Monday but Dist. Judge

Delinquent hearing set soon on marijuana case

Three 16-year-old boys arrested two weeks ago on felony charges of marijuana possession have been subpoenaed to appear in county court with their parents Sept. 27 for a hearing on whether they should be declared delinquents.

Juvenile Officer Billy Hodges filed with County Judge H. C. Williams Wednesday alleging the three to be juvenile delinquents. His action followed Juvenile Board consideration last week of them and several others picked up this month on narcotic charges in Hereford.

The three are Joel Findley, 16, 437 Ave. J; Darrell Glen McQueary, 16, 501 Ave. H; and Jeff Lynn Ricketts, 16, 630 Ave. J.

They were arrested by sheriff's officers the night of Sept. 1 while sitting in their car at a parking lot alongside North 25 Mile Avenue. Seven marijuana cigarettes were found behind a chrome railing under the front seat and a plastic baggy containing marijuana was found when officers looked to see what one of the youths had thrown under the car.

Officers said they have strong reason to believe the youths had been selling marijuana cigarettes to other teenagers during the evening.

The Sept. 27 hearing, according to the notice to the three boys' parents, is "to determine whether or not said child shall be declared to be a delinquent child or what disposition shall be made of said child."

Three days after those three were arrested, a 17-year-old girl was arrested with a 21-year-old man, Billy Jack Weaver Jr., in a car parked one mile south of U. S. 60 on Progressive Road. Two matchboxes of marijuana were found in their car, and

Dolph Briscoe brings governor candidacy here

Dolph Briscoe, a Uvalde rancher who has stated his intentions to run for governor of Texas next year, will be in Hereford today on a swing through the area.

Briscoe, 46, will be the guest speaker at the noon Kiwanis Club luncheon at the Civic Center. He will arrive in Hereford this morning and after being taped for a short interview on KPAN Radio, will appear before the Kiwanis Club.

The wealthy farmer-rancher-businessman ran for governor once before and made a good showing, but was defeated. He was entered in the 1968 election against 9 other candidates.

ANSWERING QUESTIONS — Highway Patrolmen Don Samuels, Jim Ward and Sgt. Bill Wells answered a number of questions Tuesday evening at a meeting at the Bull Barn concerning the new vehicle code. Another such meeting will take place today at 8 p.m. at the same place to accommodate those who missed the first meeting.

Convicted . . .

 He-like Morris later in the day—said he began smoking marijuana while in the Navy and had smoked it periodically ever since, until his arrest.

Terms of probation require obeying all laws, and Warren replied to Lowder's questions that he would abstain from smoking marijuana for the duration of his probation period, if the jury granted it to him.

Shuval pressed for a reason why.

"Because it's illegal."

"You knew it was illegal last Nov. 21 but still smoked it, didn't you?"

"Yes, sir."

"Then why not now?"

"Because it's illegal," Warren said again.

"Didn't you know it was illegal when you started?" Shuval asked.

"I knew it was in the U. S."

"And you continued when you returned?"

"Yes."

Pressed further, Warren said: "I feel that presently, the laws on marijuana consider it more detrimental to society than smoking marijuana really is. But until this is changed, I won't smoke it."

Shuval, arguing against probation for Warren, said it is obvious the defendant "doesn't show a feeling of contrition, doesn't express any newfound respect for the law. Does he really show that he has learned his lesson? Will he be reformed? Maybe what this gentleman needs is to see those black walls for a short while and see what it's like. Unless he shows contrition, I do not feel he should get probation. I do not think he feels this is a serious offense. I don't think he has changed from Nov. 2, 1970, when he blatantly disregarded the law."

In other district court action Monday:

—James Newman Brown received a three-year probated sentence on his guilty plea for driving while intoxicated, second offense.

—Juan R. Martinez, 20, received a five-year probated sentence for his guilty plea to burglary.

—Betty Whiteside Black received a two-year probated sentence in return for her guilty plea to passing a forged instrument and promise to repay $162.93 involved.

—Rickey Lynn Fletcher, 18, received three-year penitentiary sentences, to run concurrently, on charges of forgery and auto theft. He pleaded guilty to both.

—Jesus G. Ramirez received an 18-month jail term for his guilty plea of driving while intoxicated, second offense.

—Eddie Barnette Collins Jr., 23, received a five-year probated penitentiary sentence for his guilty plea to burglary of a driven restaurant April 19.

—Seneda Garza received a 60-day jail term for her guilty plea to driving a motor vehicle without the owner's consent. Her attorney had said he would plead innocent to the original charge of theft over $50, in case involving a 1969 model automobile.

In other action Wednesday:

—Bill Gaunce pleaded guilty and received five years probation from the judge for burglary at night.

—Argo Lucas pleaded guilty and received two years probation from the judge for driving while intoxicated, second offense.

—Richard Marry won acquittal from an eight-man, four-woman jury on the charge of sodomy filed against him.

 course land.

Nash was to have met with golf pro Cal Garrett recently, Bayne said, to work out the problem of where to put the three additional holes. Bayne earlier this month said actual work in the park would begin by this winter and the three additional holes for the golf course should be completed and ready for play by next summer.

Garrett said Wednesday that the only conversation he has had with Nash concerning the adding of three holes to the course came shortly after a group of men met with the city commission about a month ago. Since that time, he has spoken only briefly over the telephone with Nash about the course.

"The subject was brought up that if we added three more holes, where would we put them," Garrett said. He and Nash looked over the land layout, he said, and discussed adding more holes and that was the last time the two men met.

That discussion came about two or three days after the group of interested men met with the city commission—about a month ago.

Nash did call Garrett one Sunday morning at his home and asked if he could borrow a golf cart to look the land over again, Garrett said. That was about "two or three weekends ago."

Garrett said he did not know of the intention of the city to try and build three more holes on the present land until he read it in the Hereford Brand a week ago.

"This building three new holes is a new approach I've never heard of," he said. "Twelve holes are better than 9 holes, I suppose, but I don't know if that's feasible."

"I need to go talk with Dudley, probably, I'm not very well versed or informed as to what has transpired and possibly Dudley thinks there has been more communication between Paul (Nash) and me."

"For all I know they may be all set and ready to come in here tomorrow morning and start construction—I don't know," he said.

Commissioners delay decision on park plan

The county commission Monday delayed any action on sponsoring a major watershed project for the Frio and Tierra Blanca draws after it met in an hour-long session with the Tierra Blanca Soil and Water Conservation board of directors.

The commissioners said they felt they needed more information on the project before they could make a decision one way or another for spending several thousands of dollars for the sponsoring of the project.

A representative of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board will be in Hereford for two days during November to help map out the project and make a feasibility study. Until that time, the commissioners said, they will withhold any decision.

The initial cost of the project, according to board chairman Gerald McCathern, would be furnished by a "sponsor or sponsors." Similar projects in nearby counties have cost anywhere from $16,000 to $23,000 and it would be something in this price range that the county would be asked to furnish as a "sponsor."

"This fella might come in here and tell us that we don't need a watershed project," McCathern said, "and if he does, we will just drop the project."

"But, if he says there is a need for a watershed project then we are going to have to have some sponsors to get it started."

The commission told the board the county is not in good financial shape at this time and the final decision would certainly consider that point.

The project, if proved feasible, would provide for the establishment of a number of large dams along the two draws. The project would be aimed at land treatment, flood control, agricultural water management and rural area development.

McCathern said that under the project, the Secretary of Agriculture can make advancements to a local sponsor in helping it finance the project structure and can even go as far as financing 100 per cent if the sponsor can prove the project will be only for flood control and none of the other areas.

The local "sponsor" would have to have the power of eminent domain to make sure that all land needed for the project could be obtained. This, McCathern said, would be where a lot of the expenses would come into the picture—where the county would have to buy some land to have the dam constructed.

The Tierra Blanca Soil and Water Conservation board said it would contact the city to see if it was interested in going in on the project as a sponsor. This, McCathern said, could possibly work out with the proposed lake to be constructed on city land in South Hereford.

The board applied for the projects with the State office and asked for the inclusion of Palo Duro draw. In correspondence, the state office did not mention Palo Duro draw and it was not known if officials had decided only to let the local district attempt a project with just two draws, or just failed to mention Palo Duro.

The dams would be large enough to contain enough water to provide large recreational facilities for skiing, swimming and boating. There would be a number of dams along each of the two draws.

"We are not in a big rainfall belt and we don't have much problem with flooding," McCathern said. Flooding is one of the main things the engineer look at when considering project of this type.

"But when we do get heavy rains we have problems such as the draws running out of the banks into the feed yards the receding and drawing the pollution downstream."

McCathern said the construction of these dams also would enhance the chances of getting more direct channels here if the Texas Water Plan ever is approved. The dams would serve as water storage facilities and "would be more attractive" in getting water here.

Newcomer Club begins new year

Newcomers Club opened its new season of meetings Tuesday with a luncheon in Community Center. Mrs. Jesse Licon and Mrs. Archie Dwyer were welcomed as newcomers to the city and club.

The group received an invitation from the County Federation of Women's Clubs to attend a Sept. 30. In other business the women discussed holding meetings over coffee rather than the usual luncheon.

Newcomers Club voted to sponsor monthly birthday parties for students of the Satellite Day School. It was also voted that the group find a babysitter for club days.

A scrapbook of past club activities was on display for former and new members as new members joined in a question and answer period.

Volunteers were taken to provide transportation for residents of Kings Manor next month.

Traveling gift was won by Mrs. William Farran.

Meredith Wilcox of The Art Gallery at Carl McCaslin Lumber Company, presented the beginning season's program—a demonstration on decoupage, tole painting, paper foil crafts, decolite and popular keepsake books. Mrs. Wilcox displayed examples of each craft.

The next meeting will be a 9:30 a.m. coffee Oct. 12.

Bufs seek to rebound in Lamar game Saturday

West Texas State University's Buffaloes went back to the drawing board this week and started to work preparing for their second football game of the 1971 season.

Memphis State's powerful Tiggers spoiled the season opener Saturday night in several ways with a 30-0 victory. That win by Memphis State was the sixth consecutive victory by a Tiger team over a Buffalo eleven and West Texas has yet to beat a team from Memphis.

The loss also spoiled the Missouri Valley Conference opener for the Buffaloes and ruined the collegiate coaching debut of coach Gene Mayfield.

West Texas was hampered by its own mistakes as much as it was the good play of Memphis, which is a MVC co-favorite along with defending champion Louisville.

Mayfield hopes to correct many of those mistakes prior to Saturday night's home opener in Buffalo Bowl against the Lamar University Cardinals. That game is set for an 8 p.m. starting time.

It was Lamar which spoiled the Buffaloes' 1970 season opener with a 33-28 victory in Beaumont. Cardinal quarterback Tommy Tolin, who is returning this fall, hit on 12 of 14 passes in that game for 202 yards and crushed the Buffalo defenses.

Sam Houston State spoiled the Lamar opener Saturday in Beaumont with a 13-12 victory.

In Lamar, the Buffaloes will be facing an offense which they didn't have to face against the Tigers. The Cardinals of coach Vernon Glass are more pass-minded than were the Tigers.

"We expect our secondary to be tested with the pass offense Saturday night," said Mayfield.

"We have much work to do this week. We must correct errors in all phases of our game, especially on offense. The one encouraging factor about Saturday's game was that most of our errors appear to be the kind which can be corrected."

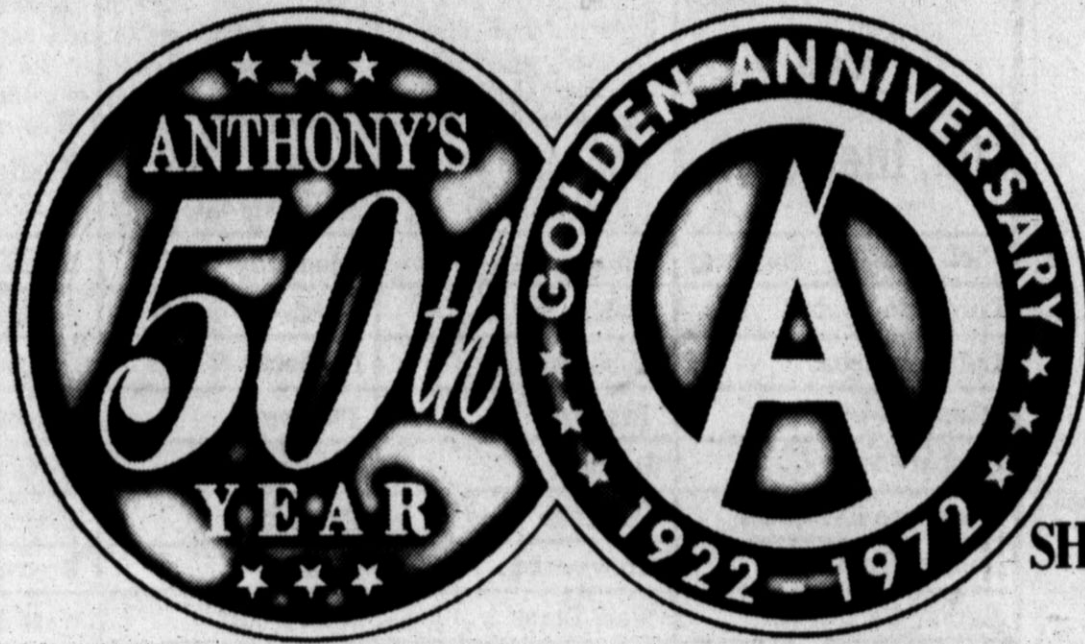

With the thought in mind of working on correcting errors, the Buffaloes hit the practice field Monday afternoon for a drill without a great deal of contact, but will probably work hard with some contact work later in the week.

Billy Pritchett, the big sophomore from Van Vleck, drew praise for his running from coach Mayfield. The 6-3, 230-pounder rushed 27 times for 86 yards.

Croner back David Jones and defensive end Walter Hibbler drew kind words from their coach for their efforts. Jones returned three punts 71 yards and picked off one Tiger pass. Hibbler was credited with 11 unassisted tackles.

The Buffaloes came through the Memphis game without any serious injuries.

★ SUPPORT YOUR TEAM ★

Coming off a 20-7 loss at the hands of the Pampa Harvesters, the Hereford Whitefaces will be seeking their first win of the season Friday when they go against the ever-powerful Amarillo Palo Duro Dons.

The Dons will be out to redeem themselves after losing 21-18 to the AAA Dumas Demons. Hereford, by the same token, will be seeking to redeem itself after losing to Pampa.

The Dons returned only one starter this year — defensive halfback Mike King —, but they have nine lettermen back who are expected to strengthen the team. The team's quickness is expected to be about the same as last year's, but the threat of the long gainer is missing, according to PD coach George Kirk.

Jayroe is top realtor

Melvin Jayroe, a partner in Lone Star Agency, was recently selected as the Hereford Board of Realtors "Realtor of the Year."

A graduate of Amarillo High School in 1949, Jayroe also attended Amarillo College and West Texas State University. He was born in Amarillo and since that time has lived in Pampa and Hereford.

He came to Hereford with Southwestern Public Service but became a licensed realtor in 1969 when he joined Lone Star Agency. He also was licensed in insurance the same year and has served as secretary and president of the Hereford Board of Realtors, a member of the Texas Association of Realtors and Multiple Listing Service committee and a member of the board of equalization.

In civic work, Jayroe is a director of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, past president of the Red Cross board, past president and state director of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and past director of the Salvation Army board.

Also in civic work he served on the district committee of Boy Scouts, is past president of Big Brothers, past cabinet secretary to the district Lions Clubs, and recipient of the Jaycee Distinguished Service Award in 1960 in Pampa and 1965 in Hereford.

To reach a neighboring United States city, Point Roberts, Wash., residents cross into Canada and re-enter at Blaine, Wash.

Friends invited to open house for N. L. Wesson

Marking the 80th birthday of Norris L. Wesson, former Hereford resident now living in Plainview, a reception to which all his friends are invited will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday in the Community Room of First State Bank at Dimmitt.

Wesson lived in Dimmitt for a number of years before he came to Hereford to engage in the real estate business, and remained here until he and Mrs. Wesson moved to Plainview a few years ago.

His daughters and grandchildren living in this vicinity will be hosts for the informal open house Saturday. The daughters are Helen McLean of Dimmitt, Peggy James of Friona, Sharon Blackmore and Jo Kirkpatrick of Arlington and Gertrude Peoples of Salida, Colo.

Gospel singers invited to meet

Third Sunday gospel singing is announced for Sunday afternoon at Trinity Baptist Church, Fourth and Jackson Streets. The event will begin at 2:30 p.m. and all residents of this area are invited.

Quartets and other ensembles are invited to come and take part on the program, as well as those who want to join in the group singing of familiar gospel songs. Those who have instruments are urged to bring them to help accompany the vocal music.

The oldest city under the American flag is San Juan, P. R., which this year celebrates its 450th anniversary.

WEEK PROCLAIMED — Mayor Jim Sears signed a proclamation denoting National Constitution Week in Hereford, Sept. 17-23, in keeping with an annual presidential proclamation of the week. Mrs. Ray Carile, left, and

Mrs. W. J. Gilliland are members of the committee from Los Ciboleros Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, which has arranged a special program for this afternoon's DAR meeting to observe the special week.

Friendship night observed in OES

A buffet dinner was served to 60 persons at the annual Friendship Night of Hereford Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Saturday evening when visitors from nine nearby chapters were entertained in the Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Jack Brown, worthy matron, welcomed guests and Mrs. Vera Pickens was at the register to give each a name tag for identification in a get-acquainted period.

An entertaining program of music and humor, with audience participation, was presented by Mrs. M. H. Richie. Mrs. A. L. Manjeot gave the invocation and Vernon Darden, worthy patron, the dismissal prayer.

Hostesses were Mmes. Orpha Click, Guy Walser, Charles Noland and Mack Noland. Tables were decorated in green and white, colors chosen by the worthy matron, with tendrils of English ivy and ceramic birds.

Fresh flowers centered the table where chapter officers and visiting dignitaries were seated. Officers wore identical formal dresses in green and white.

Visitors were introduced from Canyon, Lockney, Plainview, Muleshoe, Friona, Earth, Dimmitt, Ralls and Idalou.

Letter to the editor

Mr. Melvin Young
Hereford Brand
Hereford, Texas 79045
Dear Melvin:

Most Texas newspapers and an unfortunately large number of our citizens reacted to our position on the wage-price freeze, as it affects State employees and teachers, on the basis of emotion, without realizing that there were very good, logical and legal reasons for our position—reasons which compelled us to take that position.

The issue is not, as has been suggested by many, that we or the State of Texas oppose any reasonable means of curbing inflation. Nor is it that we want special treatment for our State, its employees or teachers.

It is simply a question of whether Texas will be treated in a manner consistent with other States, almost all of which have already had pay raises go into effect for their employees in the past year, whether the Governor is supposed to protect and defend the Constitution and laws of his State, or simply forget his oath of office, and whether the Congress actually could authorize, or did authorize, the President to void State laws.

Indeed, we in Texas have been in the vanguard of the fight against inflation and recession. We operate under a spend-as-you-go budget, unlike the federal government's inflationary policy of deficit spending, which put this nation more than $20 billion in the red last year.

We have cut spending wherever possible and even vetoed the entire second year of the biennial appropriations bill so that we could reduce spending to more sensible levels. We have prevented the enactment of unnecessary taxes which would have placed an added burden on the already economically strained pocketbooks of our citizens. And, more than a year ago, we called on the Republican Administration in Washington to revise its falling economic policies in favor of well-planned, reasonable wage and price con-

Funeral brings relatives here

A number of relatives and friends from other cities attended funeral services here recently for Curtis O. Roach.

They included Miss Bonnie M. Blossom of Pearl River, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. George Pulley, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Frederiksen, Jim Howard, Frank Pharris and C.M. Howe, all of Amarillo.

Also Lt. Michael C. McMahan of Reese Air Force Base, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Major and Mrs. Helen Major of Groom; Mr. and Mrs. Russ Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Major of White Deer.

Obviously, there are many complex legal problems involved which make it difficult for the people to understand the action we took. Hopefully, greater understanding of the necessity for our action will become apparent as more and more people acquaint themselves with the facts.

Sincerely,
Preston Smith
Governor of Texas

Reunion is held at Tinnin home

Six sisters and brothers of an Eastern New Mexico homesteading family were together, with a number of other relatives, at a reunion Sunday in the home of Mrs. Dale Tinnin, 217 Star.

They are children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tusha, pioneers who went to Elida, N.M., from Iowa as homesteaders.

Mrs. Tinnin is one of the three daughters, who include Mrs. Doris Wall of Elida and Mrs. C.W. Gower, who with Mr. Gower came from Pueblo, N.M.

Brothers present with their wives were Don Tusha of Lubbock, Erce of Carlsbad, N.M., and Harold of Plainview. The remaining surviving brother,

A.G. Tusha of Long Beach, Calif., visited via telephone with the group at the reunion.

A sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Tusha, was here from San Angelo. Other relatives from out of town were the Cleo Wall family of Farmington, N.M., and Cindy Crockett of Roswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Cook, family friends, and George Ransford from Lubbock.

Hereford relatives in the group were the Ronald Gray and Charles Springer families.

Young Homemakers of Texas hear program on cancer education

An informative film on cancer, The Bill Talman Story, was shown to Hereford Chapter, Young Homemakers of Texas, at a recent meeting in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Company. Lynn Brisendine, public education chairman for Deaf Smith County in the American Cancer Society, presented the film and participated in a question-answer period. He was introduced by Mrs. Floyd Neill, program chairman. Mrs. Charles Weatherford presided for business, featuring plans for the Area I convention held Saturday in Muleshoe. Mrs. Connie Urbanczyk and Mrs. Neil were named voting delegates from Hereford and Mrs. Frank Daniel, Buddy Edwards, Eldon Howell and Bud Thomas indicated their plans to attend the meetings.

The Hereford candidate for area office, Mrs. Jim Culpepper, was elected area treasurer at the convention. Mrs. Weatherford, retiring area president, became parliamentarian for the coming year. Donita McDermitt, a Hereford High School home-making student, represented the local chapter in the Little Sister contest.

Players allotted duties for year

Three plays to be staged this season by Hereford Community Players will be selected by one of the committees which Mrs. John Gilliland, president, appointed at the resumption of membership meetings Monday evening in the Campfire Girls Lodge.

Mrs. Jack Wilcox was named chairman of the play-reading committee, John Gilliland and Mrs. Warren Owen as other members, and the group authorized to appoint others. After choosing dramas for presentation, they will seek volunteer directors.

Mrs. John Claypool and Linda Gilbert are to head a committee to assign members to be responsible for programs at monthly membership meetings this year. These programs will be in workshop form, short plays or cuttings and demonstrations of stagecraft.

Mrs. Bill Gilleland was asked to continue serving as membership chairman, and with the assistance of Mrs. Vernon Denson, treasurer, to prepare a current list of members for the yearbook.

As chairman of the committee to make annual awards to outstanding members, Mrs. Earl Wood will select other members. Mrs. Floyd Coleman and Roy Faubion will serve on the publicity committee.

A change was made in the beginning of the membership year; members entering the Players or renewing memberships now will pay half-year dues to be in effect until March 1 when the new year will begin.

As in the past, individual membership fee is $5, the fee for a couple is $7.50 and for a family $10.

Fertilizer needed for wheat yields

Fertilizer is necessary for top wheat production for both grain and forage on the High Plains.

This is the word from Dr. Arthur Onken, soil researcher at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. And the best method of determining fertilizer needs is through proper soil tests, he says.

"Any sound fertilizer program must be constructed around soil test results," Onken emphasizes. These tests need to be tied in with actual yields on the same type soil. This is the system used at the Center's soil testing laboratory, which is operated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service with the cooperation of Texas Agricultural Experiment Station personnel.

The first limiting factor irrigated wheat production is nitrogen, which is necessary for optimum yields on most High Plains soils. On some of these soils, phosphorus may be needed when adequate amounts of nitrogen are applied. Onken reports that 15 years of research show that wheat yields on the High Plains have not been increased by application of potassium, sulfur, iron, zinc or magnesium.

Other research has shown that fertilizer response depends on two things—yield potential and residual nutrients applied to the previous crop. If some factor other than nutrition restricts yields, such as limited irrigation, then optimum production can be reached with less fertilizer.

"Application of fertilizer materials will not compensate for lack of water, heavy weed infestations, or other poor management practices," Onken warns.

Most fertilizers sold on the High Plains will supply nitrogen and phosphorus equally well. The differences blamed on different sources of fertilizer are usually caused by the wrong application technique rather than a difference in the products.

"For example, it is inadvisable to apply nitrogen sources with volatile components such as urea to a soil surface and leave it exposed for extended periods of time," Onken warns. Also, anhydrous ammonia will escape to the atmosphere when applied to a soil that is dry and cloddy, or one that is so wet that the chisel channel cannot be closed easily.

"Except for putting nitrogen on sandy soils, all fertilizers can be applied any time after the previous crop has been harvested," the researcher says.

On sandy soils, nitrogen leaching can be a problem, and Onken recommends that a fourth to a third of the nitrogen be applied before planting with the rest top-dressed in one or more applications, depending on the grazing schedule.

"When wheat is to be grazed, more nitrogen is needed than just for grain production," Onken says. Grazing can reduce grain yields; however, this loss will not be significant if adequate fertilizer is supplied and cattle are taken off before the tillering stage.

Year's topic outlined

Introduction to the program topic for the coming year, Changing Times: Challenge or Dilemma? featured the meeting of Delta Xi Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, at Pioneer Gas Flame Room Monday evening.

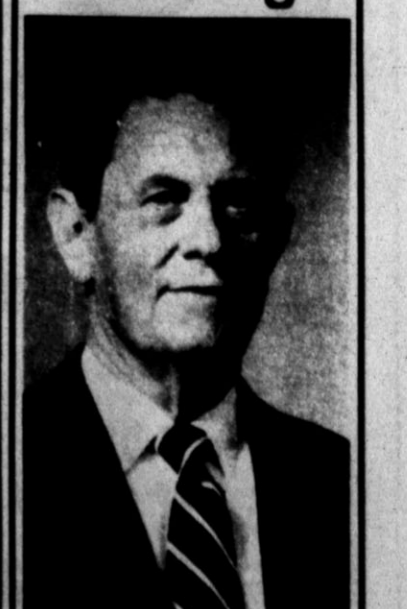

After a salad supper, members surveyed overall plans for the year, then various committees met separately to frame their plans.

Hostesses for this first fall meeting were Mmes. Frits Christman, Fred Mulkey, Lawrence Carlson and Tomy Bryant.

Others present were Mmes. Charles Bell, Gary Billingsley, Jim Bookout, Tommy Braddy, Joe Bradley, J. J. Durham, Earl Holt, Eleanor Hudspeth, Tandy Legg, Fred Mercer, O. Wertemberger, H. E. Wester, Elizabeth Wills and Bob Wilson.

Playwright Eugene O'Neill has received the Pulitzer prize three times.

Realtors schedule day-long seminar

Albert J. Mayer, II, residential manager of Theodore Mayer and Bro. of Cincinnati, will be in Hereford Oct. 20 to present a day-long seminar under the sponsorship of the Hereford Board of Realtors.

Some 150 realtors and interested persons from throughout the Panhandle are expected to attend the day-long seminar which begins at 8:30 a.m. and continues until 4:30 p.m. at the Bull

Barn. Anyone who would like to attend the seminar should contact Mary French before Oct. 20 at Carmichael Real Estate so reservations can be made. The seminar is open to the public.

Mayer is a highly sought-after speaker and a noted realtor. He is 32 years old and has been a licensed realtor in Ohio since 1962 and a broker since 1967 and has been involved in community work for many years.

His topic for the seminar will be "Do You Have the Communicable Disease?"

The seminar will begin at 8:30 with a discussion of "Communication," followed by a coffee from 9:30 to 9:45. From 9:45 to 10:45 will be a discussion of "Training" with another coffee from 10:45 to 11 a.m. The final morning session will be entitled "Listening" and lunch will be from noon to 1 p.m.

The afternoon session will begin with Mayer's discussion of "Professional Standards" followed by a coffee at 2 p.m. At 2:15 p.m. he will discuss "Sales" and the final discussion, to begin at 3:30, will be "Finance and Closing."

Lone Star Club year kicked off

A salad supper and distribution of new yearbooks highlighted the beginning meeting of Lone Star Study Club Tuesday evening in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas.

Hostesses were yearbook committee members, Mmes. S. S. Williams, V. E. Dodson, John Jacobson Jr. and W. S. Fluit.

Yearbooks were given out by yearbook committee chairman, Mrs. Williams. She then gave a review of the year's study.

Mrs. Jim Bookout, president, read an article entitled What the Constitution Means To You.

One new member, Mrs. W. O. McCutchen, was welcomed. In business plans were made for the club's participation in transportation for residents of Kings Manor.

Other members in attendance were Mmes. Hardy Benson, H. E. Henslee, Jim Higgins, C. D. Kelton, S. A. McCathern, G. W. Newsom, Carl Williams, C. O. Phillips, Robert Thompson, R. G. Blue and Miss Mildred Elliott.

Mrs. Blue will host the Sept. 28 meeting. Meeting time is 3:30 p.m.

Parties honor engaged couple

Several parties are being given this week preceding the wedding of Miss Cynthia Leasure and Jimmy Allison who plan to marry Saturday evening in First Baptist Church.

Close friends and members of the couple's families gathered for a dinner Tuesday evening hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas. The event took place at Hereford Country Club.

Small pink asters and purple and magenta roses with baby-breath arranged in a glass bowl centered the main table which was laid with a magenta linen cloth.

Miss Leasure chose a white and black pant ensemble with embroidered trim.

Parents of the couple-to-be were Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Leasure Jr., 511 Star, and Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Allison, 113 N. Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Allison will host a Friday night rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party at the Country Club. Decorations and flowers will be in the bride-elect's chosen colors, shades of pink and purple.

West Hereford H.D. Club meets

Influence of color in home decoration and in clothing was discussed by Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, as the program for West Hereford H.D. Club Tuesday afternoon in Miss Mary Bradley's home.

She showed examples of the use of colors to achieve various effects in mood and lighting. The program opened with reading by Miss Bradley of a poem titled Friendship.

Mrs. E.M. Cox received the hostess gift. Others present were Miss Evelyn Bell, Mmes. Roy Boyd, Robert Boyd, John Jacobson Sr., U.V. Pierce, D.R. Grimes and Jewel Atwey.

CARD OF THANKS

WE would like to thank the many friends for food, flowers, memorial gifts, visits, cards and prayers at the death of our husband, father, and brother. Special thanks to Rev. Eugene Brink for visits and beautiful service in Rose Chapel. Mrs. Curtis O. Roach, Miss Patty L. Roach, Mrs. Viola Roach Blossom and Family.

Morman Church has open house

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will hold open house from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday at the church at 500 Country Club Drive.

Tour guides will be on hand to take visitors around the church and discuss with the different areas of interest concerning the church and its activities.

Refreshments will be served and a film will be shown at 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited.

Supper begins Valeda season

Members of Valeda Study Club yearbook committee served as supper hostesses Tuesday evening when the group held its first meeting of the new season.

Mrs. George Ritter, whose home was the meeting place, was assisted by Mmes. Gwen Owen, Howard Birdwell and Richard Ottesen.

An introductory of the year's programs with the theme Let's Take Time was presented by Mrs. Ottesen. She read the quote "What is time - the shadow on the dial, the striking of the clock, running of sand, day and night, summer and winter, months, years and centuries."

"These are outward signs - the measure of time and not time itself. Time is the life of the soul."

In business the group voted to provide transportation for residents of Kings Manor during January. It was voted the club will attend the musical comedy "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" Oct. 26 in Amarillo.

Others present were Mmes. Bill Brady, Gid Brown, Joe Frank Clark, Hugh Clearman, Armon Lauderback, Billy Wayne Sisson, James Trail, Glenn Watts and Frank Zinser. A trip to Tierra Blanca School and a program entitled Time For School Days will take place at the next meeting Sept. 28.

Funeral service for infant held

The Rev. Boniface Riedmann of St. Anthony's Catholic Church and the Rev. Jim Bozeman of Temple Baptist Church conducted graveside services in West Park Cemetery recently for Mitchell Lynn Bell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Bell.

Survivors in addition to the parents are grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. George, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bell of Hereford, and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Huber of Tulia, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sealy of Lamesa.

YHT Week will begin Monday

Young Homemakers of Texas chapters throughout the state will observe YHT Week beginning Monday and lasting through Saturday, it is announced by Linda Penn, state YHT president.

Purpose of the organization in its local community is interpretation of the meaning of the club and its goals so persons will be aware of its worthwhile activities and put them to use in the community.

During the week-long observation chapters will review accomplishments, evaluate achievements and determine each group's future projects and activities.

Local president and immediate past Area I president is Mrs. Charles Weatherford.

Farm operators and unpaid family farm workers in the United States declined six per cent from the previous year in 1970.

Highlights and sidelights from your state capital

BY BILL BOYKIN
 Texas Press Association
 AUSTIN, Tex.—A major court decision last week left up in the air the question of how Texas is to achieve a valid reapportionment act for both houses of its legislature before next year. State Supreme Court agreed with an August 2 Austin district court finding that a House redistricting bill passed this year is unconstitutional because it unnecessarily split up 23 counties. The decision left unanswered how the bill should be corrected or if it should be redone before 1973. Basic questions are these:

*Should House reapportionment and state Senate redistricting (left untouched by the Legislature) be the subject of an emergency special session?

*Should the five-member constitutional Legislative Redistricting Board take on the job, since no valid reapportionment was done by the Legislature in the first regular session after the 1970 census?

*Should the Legislature forget about reapportionment before 1973 elections and wait until the 1970 census statistics are all complete and published?

Gov. Preston Smith and Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin once more are on opposite sides of a controversy.

Smith says the Redistricting Board has the "duly constituted responsibility" under the constitution to redistrict, and a special legislative session on reapportionment would be unnecessarily costly.

Martin stated in a brief before the Supreme Court a special session "would seem the only correct possibility, but this, too, could become the subject of litigation."

A High Court ruling in another case challenging the Redistricting Board's authority may hold the key as to whether it can proceed, whether the Legislature must take over now or check the task until 1973.

A note of urgency is injected into the issue by the fact the Board is directed by the constitution to do whatever it is going to do by late October. Furthermore, legislative candidates appear to face a November 7 deadline for establishing residence in the district they choose to represent.

ANTI-POLLUTION PERMIT USED—Texas Air Control Board has put into operation a far-reaching construction permit system to help control and prevent air pollution.

Since August 30, any industry that will omit air contaminants into the atmosphere must get a Board permit before starting any construction. Similar permits are necessary to modify or change existing contaminant causing facilities.

Permits apply to specific, individual manufacturing processes, not entire industrial plants or complexes. Exceptions for minor contaminant-causing plans will be listed later. Applicants have 60 days after construction is completed to apply for operating permits.

HEALTH STUDY ON—New studies to find ways of meeting health service, staff and facility needs of Texas' rural population will be undertaken by the Research Institute for Systems Development at Texas A&M University.

The study will be conducted in the West Central Texas area, centered around Abilene which has both rural and urban characteristics typical of many regions.

Fewer than half of Texas' 492 hospitals meet federal medicare requirements for health and safety, so the project will focus on health facilities and services considered below medicare standards. Texas has more than twice as many qualified hospitals as any other state.

APPOINTMENTS—Carl E. F. Dally of Houston and District Judge Tom G. Davis of Vernon are new commissioners on Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

Six directors and two assistants to the executive office of Texas Parks and Wildlife Department were named this month. They are:

Roy T. Huffman, director of current operations; George H. Cook, assistant for legislative affairs; George C. Adams, assistant for land acquisition; Ron D. Jones, director of planning; John D. Macklin Jr., director of personnel and administration; Richard A. McCune, director of information and education; Samuel W. Kendrick Jr., director of support services and Clayton T. Garrison, director of finance and data processing.

John D. Townsend has been named assistant commissioner for planning and coordination for the State Department of Public Welfare.

Governor Smith named James D. Eppright of Dallas to the Texas Tourist Development Board and reappointed Dan Sanborn, McAllen. He appointed to the State Board of Dental Examiners Dr. William J. Kemp of Haskell, Donald L. Brunson of Baytown, James S. Rogers of Amarillo (six-year terms); Dr. Sam H. Rabon of Kingsville (four-year term) and James E. Bauerle of San Antonio (two-year term).

$150 MILLION BOND ISSUE POSTPONED—University of Texas regents postponed until October 22 consideration of an overall plan for marketing the first block of $150 million in bonds authorized for new college construction.

About $30 million in bonds apparently will be sold by December. They are backed by tuition revenues. Money will go to build new institutions of UT at San Antonio, Dallas, Houston, Odessa and El Paso. The bonds were authorized by the 62nd Legislature this year to build newly-authorized institutions.

DAM AUTHORIZED—In spite of opposition by landowners, Texas Water Rights Commission voted to permit construction of a dam on Martin's Creek in Rusk County by three electric power companies.

Dallas Power and Light Company, Texas Electric Service Company and Texas Power and Light Company plan to build the dam 17 miles northeast of Henderson for a major power plant.

Landowners expressed fear the lake created by the dam would flood their pastures, destroy timber and prevent Martin's Creek from continuing to provide water for livestock. The companies pledged to try and prevent or mitigate damage.

D. A. STUDY PENAL CODE—District and county attorneys have launched their own committee study of needed changes in the penal code. They fought a sweeping, controversial revision of the code during the legislative session this year.

District Attorney Tom Hanna of Beaumont was selected as chairman of the committee in the first meeting last week. Prosecutors indicated they prefer a simplified, "more responsive" new code to the version introduced in the 1971 Legislature which had been five years in the making.

INDUSTRIES GET AWARDS—Five Texas industries will receive special 1970 Governor's Industrial Expansion Awards at ceremonies in connection with the Governor's Conference on Industrial Expansion October 13-14 here.

They are Jimmy Dean Meat Company of Plainview; Levi Strauss and Company of Amarillo; Sprayberry Handbags, Inc. of Clifton; Gorman Peanuts of Gorman and Vintage Homes Inc. of Breckenridge.

has promised an announcement for lieutenant governor here September 22.

Attorney General Martin held the State Board of Insurance can make rules for safe movement and operation of mobile gasoline service units.

Governor approved state participation in a $3.5 million federal pilot program of bank loans for businesses and residents of poverty areas. (Houston and Laredo banks will be among sources of loans.)

Rio Grande Valley farmers suffered a $150,000 to $175,000 loss on harvested cotton due to recent heavy rains, reports Texas Agriculture Department.

Grand Prairie Bank and Trust Company seeks a state bank charter.

Shoup Voting Machine Company submitted its mechanical voting device for special inspection by the Secretary of State.

Public hearings were held this week (starting September 14) on $23.3 million worth of new school textbooks.

Tributes paid in Music Club

Tributes to the memory of Mrs. A.O. Thompson, a charter member of Music Study Club who continued her activity in its interests until her recent death, were presented as a new club year opened with luncheon at the Caison House Monday.

Mrs. W.E. Dameron, another charter member still active in the club, and Mrs. Dale Young, immediate past president, each eulogized Mrs. Thompson, citing her many services to Music Study Club and to the musical life of this community, and speaking of her personality as an inspiration to friends.

Hers was "the epitome of a well-balanced Christian life," Mrs. Dameron said. "She possessed so many of the attributes of the art of living...to inspire others to live greatly, to have the deep spirit of brotherhood. Her heart was aglow with warm interest and concern for all her companions."

"Prominent among the arts of living in her life was love as St. Augustine described it when he wrote, 'It has hands to help others, feet to hasten to the poor and needy, eyes to see the worst...laughter when joy is known, a heart to worship God.'"

Recalling Mrs. Thompson's service in district and state music clubs as well as locally, Mrs. Young said, "She set an example of love and loyalty that is unmatched. Not only in club work, but in her life-style Audrey has inspired us."

"Each day of her life was full of interest and zest. In every changing scene she showed us how to live fully and happily... Her spirit still lives in the love of all things lovely: music, flowers, friends."

Announcement was made of the annual past presidents luncheon in the club, set for 12 noon next Thursday at the Caison House.

Mrs. J.C. McCracken reported completion of work by a club committee at Deaf Smith County Library, sorting and filing music in the section of the library which the club sponsors. Mrs. Wesley Fisher presided for business.

Cards conveying good wishes to Mrs. Dick Godwin, a former president of the club who now lives at Phoenix, and who has lately undergone surgery there, were signed by members present.

Jimmy Dean's plant wins expansion award

AUSTIN—Five industries from Texas cities of all sizes were named today by Gov. Preston Smith as winners of the 1970 Governor's Industrial Expansion Awards.

Winners will be honored in special ceremonies at the Oct. 13-14 Governor's Conference on Industrial Expansion, cosponsored by the Texas Industrial Commission, in Austin Municipal Auditorium.

Hundreds stop for rest stop

The Hereford Jaycees provided free coffee, cold drinks, cookies and doughnuts over the Labor Day weekend to motorists passing through the Hereford area.

The Jaycees manned the "Holiday Rest Stop" from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. during the holiday. It was on U.S. 69 across the highway from the Caison House Restaurant.

About 100 cars stopped for refreshments. They came from several states.

Everything needed for the rest stop was donated by Hereford merchants. They were Taylor & Sons Supermarket; Gibson's; Hereford Meat Market; Furr's Supermarket; Braxton's; Boynton's; E-Z Way; Hereford Bakery; Hereford Ice Co.; Coca Cola Bottling Co.; Piggly Wiggly; Carl McCaslin Lumber Co.; Huckert's; Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co.; Means Signs; Pioneer Natural Gas Co.; West Park Cemetery; Mendez Barber Shop.

The industries, nominated by local chambers of commerce, are The Jimmy Dean Meat Company of Plainview, Levi Strauss & Co. of Amarillo, Sprayberry Handbags, Inc. of Clifton, Gorman Peanuts of Gorman and Vintage Homes, Inc. of Breckenridge.

The awards are presented each year to Texas industries which make the most significant contributions to their community economies.

The Jimmy Dean Meat Company, which opened in 1969, has expanded its sales territory from one to nine states and increased its payroll by 81 per cent. Because of the plant's demand for pork, agricultural income in Plainview has increased 25 per cent, and the company's advertising has given the city national publicity.

Levi Strauss & Co. added nearly 400,000 square feet to its operations and employed 494 new workers during 1970, bringing a 2700 per cent increase in its total investment. Its operations have expanded Amarillo's shipping industry and helped the city economy rebound from the recent closing of a major air force base. Levi also operates plants in eight other Texas cities.

Sprayberry Bags, Inc. found itself unable to meet consumer demands and moved to facilities 633 per cent larger which ac-comodate 45 more employees. Its handbags, distributed in Florida, California and Texas, were responsible for channeling nearly $400,000 into Clifton economy in 1970.

Gorman Peanuts renovated and expanded its processing facilities to bring its 1970 sales to more than $22 million. The company, which is the area's principal employer, also brought to Gorman a new industry which processes peanut by-products.

Vintage Homes, Inc. more than doubled the size of its mobile home plant and employed 130 additional workers. The company, which concentrates on buying raw materials from the Breckenridge area, has been directly responsible for enlarging or establishing eight businesses that have also spurred area economy.

A special slide presentation about each award winner will be presented to the more than 1,000 industrial leaders attending the conference.

Comfort is...

Fresh, warm air gently circulating from floor to ceiling... down-to-earth dependability... easy-on-the-budget operating costs. Comfort is gas heating. There's no heat more comfortable.

And there's no heat cleaner than gas. Gas burns clean. It's one energy source that doesn't dirty the air.

Air-circulating gas heating systems also give you the first-half of a built-in gas air conditioning system. Adequate heat ducts can carry cool air to your whole house too — so you can add-on gas cooling right away or later if you prefer. Together, gas heating and gas cooling are an unbeatable combination for year 'round total comfort.

If you're building a home or planning to replace an out-dated heating system, choose thrifty gas heat. Check with your heating contractor.

DAR observing special week to open season

Beginning its second full year of programs, Los Ciboleros Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution will observe National Constitution Week at a meeting in Pioneer Gas Company's Flame Room at 4 p.m. today.

Connie Goering will be guest speaker on a phase of the national observance. Official date of Constitution Week is Sept. 17-23 and it is so designated each year by presidential proclamation.

Mayor Jim Sears has proclaimed the week in Hereford, noting that this is the 194th anniversary of the adoption of the United States constitution, and "to accord official recognition of this memorable anniversary and to the patriotic exercise that will form a noteworthy feature of the occasion seems fitting and proper."

On the DAR committee for observance of the week are Mes. Stan Knox, W.J. Gilliland and Ray Carille.

Yearbooks for the new season will be distributed at this meeting by the program committee, headed by Mrs. Earl Holt. Hostesses will be Mrs. L.W. Norvell and Mrs. Sue James.

PICKS ST. JOHN'S
NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Drescher of Congers, N.Y., son of the former New York Yankee catcher who died three years ago, will enter St. John's University in the fall.

Couple married recently

Lt. J.G. and Mrs. Richard N. Richards are at home at 8049 Becket, Norfolk, Va. following their recent marriage in First Presbyterian Church of Odessa. Dr. Joe Brown officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride, the former Miss Lois Jane Hollabaugh, are Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hollabaugh of Odessa. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Clarence Hollabaugh of Hereford. Richards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Richards of St. Louis.

The church altar was decorated with ivy and pink candles in white holders.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown with wide rows of lace at the floor length hem. Her chapel length veil of illusion was held by a band of white roses. Miss Eleanor Trevor of New York City and Hal Brown of Kansas City were the couples' only attendants. Bill E. Hollabaugh, brother of the bride, was usher.

The bride, a native of Hereford, graduated from Tascosa High School in 1967 and from Oklahoma University in August. Her husband graduated from the University of Missouri with a degree in chemical engineering. He is currently a pilot in the U. S. Navy and is stationed in Norfolk.

Supper planned for TOPS Club

A salad supper was planned for the evening of Sept. 27 at Community Center for Sugar Blues TOPS Club members, at a business meeting Monday evening with Mrs. Bartley Dowell presiding.

Members began a contest in weight loss to end Oct. 25, when a gift from the club will be presented to the one most successful in achieving the club goal, Take Off Pounds Sensibly.

WE'LL BE LOOKING FOR YOU!

Small talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

WHEN IT COMES to bragging, there's absolutely nobody like a grandparent and I always like to hear them. You get such an optimistic view of the future of America when you hear them talk about their beautiful, smart, etc. grandchildren.

Wilma and Pete Carmichael, for instance, came back the first of the week from a visit with their son and his wife, Dr. Bill and Doty, at Bedford. But they mainly visited a brand-new granddaughter, born Sept. 7 and named Priscilla, and her older sister, three-year-old Laura.

They were amused and rather amazed this time to hear Laura's latest accomplishment, reciting the names of bones in the body. You know, phalanges, fibia, tibia, metatarsals, and all those funny-sounding names that we learned in sixth-grade physiology when I went to school.

Sixth grade, o. k., but a three-year-old! Her mother had taught her the names, and come to think of it I guess a child could learn them as easily as she could a nursery rhyme. Some of them sound a little like higgledy-piggledy my black hen.

THEN OLIVER SUMNER of Summerfield dropped by to brag about a grandson, Robert Oliver whose birthday was Sept. 1. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sheesley of Center, Colo., and his grandfather had been up to see him.

Mrs. Sheesley is the former Deborah Sumner. The baby weighed 7 pounds 13 ounces at birth, and his grandpa says he's a real husky.

THE JOE REINAUERS have returned from a visit in Jacksonville, Fla., with some new stories about their two-and-a-half-year-old granddaughter, whose parents are the Jim Reinauers.

Of course they visited Lt. Jim and Lt. J-g Bob Reinauer and wives, but mainly the granddaughter.

They think they are extremely lucky to have both their sons-in-the-navy stationed at Jacksonville; you just don't expect brothers to be able to live near one another when both are in Naval service.

GRANDPARENTS of Amy Katherine, new daughter of the Eddie Skypalas at Oklahoma City, are the Edgar Skypalas of Hereford and Mrs. Jewel Coker Mabe of Gary, Okla., formerly of Hereford.

This baby was born Monday. Her mother is the former Mary Lois Coker of this city.

BUT GLADYS MILLER was talking about a grandchild at a club lunch this week when Mrs. Paul Rudd casually mentioned a great-grandchild. It's getting so, Gladys remarked, that you have to be careful who you talk to about your grandchildren; so many people now can top you with the great-grands!

News of President Nixon's coming trip to Communist China had virtually no effect on the stock market.

Richard Hunter wins top honor

Richard Hunter, 32, Route 3, was named Saturday as the Star Young Farmer of Area I in competition at Muleshoe.

The announcement was made during the Area I Young Homemakers and Young Farmers Banquet at the Muleshoe High School Cafeteria. Hunter was competing against other nominees from local chapters for the award.

By winning the contest, Hunter will enter the state contest which will be held in January in San Antonio. There he will compete against other winners from areas across the state.

Hunter attended Dimmitt High School and Texas Tech University before becoming engaged in farming nine years ago. He has been a Young Farmer for the past 10 years.

Hunter was selected the Star Young Farmer of Area I after judges visited his farm south of Hereford and looked over his farming operations. He has vegetables on his farm and has cattle in feedlots.

He owns 160 acres of land and is renting land from the H.C. Baird estate, Jackson Richardson and his mother, Rachel Hunter.

Duke will renew its football rivalry with Tennessee in 1973.

Radium is 3,000 times as valuable as gold.

Campfire Girls seek increase in membership

Mrs. A.E. Hodges will head the Campfire Girls' Membership Growth Committee, going into the job with the goal of doubling the local membership within the next five years.

This goal has been handed down to each local affiliation by the national Campfire Council. Hereford's membership stood at 716, as counted in March of this year.

Mrs. Hodges will "talk Campfire," acting as a liaison officer between the unit itself and the public, said Mrs. Nita Lea, executive director of the local Campfire Girls Council, at the board of directors' meeting Monday evening at the Campfire Lodge.

Mrs. Hodges has been an active Campfire worker for several years as a leader or committee chairman, and her husband, A.E. Hodges, now serves as president of the board.

In other business covered during the first meeting of the year, the board agreed to accept sales offers made by the King's Candy and Circus Nut companies for the annual Campfire Candy sales drive to be held the first two weeks of November. The candy will be packaged in boxes displaying the Campfire Girls name and emblems.

The candy sales chairman will be announced at a later date.

Proceeds from the sales is used for summer camp expenses. A total of 10,000 boxes of candy were sold last year.

It was announced that 111 girls, 20 counselors and six specialists attended the resident camp at Taos, N.M. in July.

Angela Grubbs, senior Horizon member and also member of the board, expressed her feelings that the recent camping experience was "the best" in the eight years that she had attended.

Members accepted the resignation of John Tomasi, board member who recently moved to Albuquerque, and agreed to leave the post vacant for the remainder of his term, which would expire January 1972.

Last year 565 New York City pedestrians were killed by automobiles.

If moving on land, mink carry their young by the scruff of the neck; in water, "pick-a-back."

Calling Signals

When Bart Starr barks his signals for the Green Bay Packers, the modern football world listens and moves into action. That's because Bart Starr is a disciplined, dedicated believer. He believes in an Omnipotent Power. He is a member of the Administrative Board of the First United Methodist Church. He extends his religion into all his world. He believes in America and Democracy. Comparatively small in a world of giants, he worked and studied his way to the top. Bart Starr believes in people, his great team mates, his family, his neighbors, his friends, his community. Generous and understanding, he is active in dozens of civic and charitable causes.

A churchman and a real man, Bart Starr turns to ashes all those reservations about churches being for sissies. He believes in himself. He is brilliant and tough on the field, generous and sympathetic in every day life. He says faith helped him lead the Packers to two super bowl victories and two all time pro passing records. He puts his passes in the hands of his belief and his receivers. Yes, belief calls the signals for Bart Starr. It will call them for you, too, at your place of worship this week.

It's back to school for energetic mother

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

WITH ENERGY to spare, Mrs. James T. Clarke is realizing a long-cherished ambition as she attends West Texas State University two days a week, working toward a degree in nursing.

She was a student in Texas Tech when she chose a career as homemaker, married, has spent the intervening years bringing up her four children. Now they are in school and she feels it is time to prepare for a secondary career.

While she was in high school and college she worked as a nurses aide, "really liked it" and is sure about her goal now.

Adding college classes to her schedule took a bit of managing, Elaine Clarke says, but she has managed so many activities that it probably was just one more item.

FOR INSTANCE, she has studied and practiced ballet dancing since she was a child so when her daughter began dancing classes Elaine decided to join her and learn a new phase of the subject. Now she is a student of modern dance in a class composed chiefly of high school girls.

"Well, there is one other adult and we give each other moral support, and I enjoy it so much!" Mrs. Clarke explains.

She has assisted in physical education classes at St. Anthony's School, giving instruction in acrobatics. She also is a volunteer teacher in the Red Cross summer water safety program, after completing training and tests as a certified water safety instructor.

THESE ACTIVITIES were undertaken because she wanted her children to have instruction in the programs and felt that her services would help keep programs available for all children.

She is involved in the various interests of her daughter, Michelle, and three boys, Tommy, Brent and Bruce, all of whom are pupils in St. Anthony's School.

While Michelle goes to dancing class, the boys take music and their mother plays chauffeur to get them to lessons and back. The oldest son, Tommy, is a Boy Scout; there is Little League baseball in summer and Little Dribblers basketball in winter to keep them busy.

The boys like to hunt with their father too, and they own two bird dogs, one a young dog they are training. Jim Clarke helps when Tommy's Scout troop goes on camps, and takes the younger boys along.

IN THE ADULT field, Elaine continues an interest in amateur dramatics that began in Little Theatre at Lubbock, is a member of Hereford Community Players, had a major role in the latest play and has worked backstage in others.

She is on the County Red Cross board, the Hereford Community Concert drive committee and a member of the women's organization of St. Anthony's Church.

Since the Clarkes moved here in 1964 when her husband started his plumbing business, they

Memorial planting to be made in Hereford Garden Club project

Living memorials to be established through plantings at the Garden Center, corner Park Ave. and Ninth, will be arranged by a new committee in Hereford Garden Club, appointed at a recent meeting in Mrs. R.L. Wilson's home.

Mmes. S.S. Williams, Art Manjeot and W.S. Fluit will serve on the memorial committee and accept contributions from club members and any others who wish to participate in this manner of honoring the dead.

New awards to be offered in accredited flower shows were illustrated in the program, based on information in the latest handbook of National Garden Clubs.

Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr. spoke of the arboreal award, a new horticultural division, and demonstrated selection of material and how it is judged.

Mrs. R. L. Ethridge's subject was a new artistic award titled nature, art and industry. She showed a possible entry, a flower arrangement using a miniature windmill to typify the industry of this area and its foundation on the water supply.

Flower show plans were reviewed and announcement made of the Amarillo Garden Clubs' show Oct. 25 and 26. The Hereford show will be on Oct. 16 in First National Bank, with Mrs. Ben Childers as general chairman.

Garden therapy projects announced by Mrs. Ray L. Johnson include a work day at Kings Manor to pot plants for indoor winter bloom. Also preparation of a box of gifts to send at Christmas to patients in Wichita Falls State Hospital.

Mrs. L.W. Norvell, Garden Center chairman, reported a cleanup completed of grounds, also work on shrubs and new fall planting. Bulbs have been planted in the plot at First Baptist Church which the club maintains. Mrs. Hill added. This plot was one of the summer Beauty Spots of the Month designated by the Women's Division of Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Wilson asked each member to compile a list of plantings made on home grounds the past year, to be totaled in a club report.

Mrs. Johnson was co-hostess at the meeting, where Mrs. D.N. Garner was a guest with 18 members.

COMBS AT THE BEACH ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Don Combs, who trained Dust Commander when that colt won the 1970 Kentucky Derby, will be operating at full strength with the horses of Mr. and Mrs. R. Reineman of Chicago during the Atlantic City meeting.

His large stable includes stakes contenders Cupid's Deb, Somersault and Frilly Lace.
