

Justice of the Peace changing policies to suit the situation at hand

Cases brought into Justice of the Peace court are being handled differently than in the past, the county commissioners were told Monday by Judge Glenn Nelson.

Nelson, who was elected to the office last year, told the commissioners that he has reduced the fines in some cases, depending on the circumstances and the individuals, because he feels "when the people elected me to run that office that's exactly what they wanted done."

Nelson said he has reduced the fine in situations where there is, in his judgement, an accidental violation that would not present a hazard to the public.

"To give you an example," he told the court, "if a man has an expired sticker on his car, maybe a month late, and he's been busy, I don't go as hard on him as in the past.

"Where the fine usually is $25, I am not fining him that much now."

Nelson said he has taken the action after discussing the situation with the judges of surrounding counties. He said in his discussion he has found that other Justices of the Peace are doing the same because of new views brought to light during recent JP meetings across the state.

"I am trying to use my head and common sense when dealing with a violator. I have to act as judge, jury, prosecutor and defense lawyer and this puts me in an odd situation—I am a go-between for the law and the people," he said.

During the period beginning in January of this year and ending in July, Nelson has handled 1,863 cases, the majority of which were on the justice criminal docket. The second largest number of cases involved citations issued by the Highway Patrol, totaling 355 during the seven month period.

In January he handled 319 cases; in February, 267; March, 269; April, 241; May, 205; June, 232; and July, 311.

Also, with records kept from April through August, Nelson showed 65 cases handled after hours and some 73 phone calls placed after working hours.

"I don't think the court should be operated without mercy," Nelson said. "I feel in order to maintain the dignity of that court you have to treat a person like a human being."

Nelson said the large number of after-hours cases handled is done because he feels he has an obligation to persons who are picked up on violations. He said he has handled a number of cases late at night or on the weekends where if he hadn't it would have meant a delay in travel for out-of-town persons.

"This is the attitude I want to take," he told the commissioners, "I am open for suggestions, though and I'll give you some argument if I think it is necessary, but it will always be constructive."

Another situation Nelson has changed his procedure on is the fining of drivers who have violated the law with an overloaded truck while hauling crops on public roads.

"A driver has no way of knowing how much he puts on a truck when he is in a field—he has no way of weighing it," he said.

The Justice of the Peace said he has changed the fining of men who make their living by traveling, such as truck drivers or traveling salesmen. He said these people are on the road and behind the wheel more often than other drivers so are more apt to find themselves in situations where they have violated the law.

"Under the present law, a man who travels 100,000 or 200,000 miles a year because of his job, comes under the same law as you or I," he told the commissioners. "If he gets four tickets the state takes away his drivers license.

"And if he gets four tickets, it affects him three ways—it forces him to pay a fine, it cuts him out of an income and it takes away his license. And I'm going to dismiss him if I feel a ticket will hurt his income," he said.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

NEW RADAR — Ralph Pedigo, Highway patrolman, is shown checking the speed of an approaching car with the new radar unit purchased by the county this week for use by the Highway Patrol. The speed of the car is shown on the screen as 19 miles per hour.

New radar unit goes to work on speeders

Speeders coming into or leaving Deaf Smith County are going to have to contend with another arm of the law from now on in the form of an advanced radar unit purchased this week by the county and given to the Highway Patrol department.

The device, which comes in two parts and features a small screen on which appears the speed of a passing vehicle, was purchased from Kustom Signals, Inc. of Dallas for $1,785. The county, in buying the instrument, took it on a lease purchase basis for $38 a month.

The radar unit looks similar to a digital clock radio and is about the same size. Officers operating it set a two-digit thumb-wheel switch at a certain speed and any vehicle traveling over that speed is registered on the screen in lights that give the exact speed of the vehicle. When a vehicle is speeding the unit begins flashing on and off and making a "beep" sound.

Sgt. Bill Wells said the unit will be of great assistance to the officers because it will take the place of the state-owned radar unit now being used by the officers. The old unit is inadequate, he said, because it does not register the speed of a vehicle far enough off.

The new unit is capable of picking up a vehicle at a distance of up to four times that of the old unit. Wells said this will enable the officers to do a better job of detecting speed violators.

The magnaphone-shaped antenna allows the officer to pick up a reading from either direction simply by pointing the instrument in the direction he wishes.

The unit system necessary is within one-half mile per hour and it is resistant to temperature, tilt and electrical energies.

As with all radar units, the new one operates better under certain conditions. The distance at which it will pick up a vehicle depends on the weather, the size of the vehicle, the surrounding terrain and the speed of the vehicle.

On an average day in the Hereford area, the system can pick up a vehicle at a distance of almost half a mile. Under circumstances where the weather is cloudy or the terrain is hilly, the system does a better job because the radio waves bounce back from the clouds or across to hills.

The county lease-purchased the unit with the understanding that if advanced work on radar equipment turned out a better unit, they would not be left with an obsolete system in just a few years. They said they would rather lease it and see if any improvements are made in that field and if not, they would buy the system.

Beet harvest is off to good start

Some 1,500 tons of sugar beets were delivered to Holly Sugar's local plant on Tuesday as the 1971 harvest kicked off in full force.

Beets began coming in early Tuesday morning and processing was started about 4 p.m. that day, according to agricultural manager Bob Ginn. The 5,500 tons, Ginn said, was "real good" for opening day of the harvest.

Sugar content on the first batches of beets brought in was unavailable Wednesday, but field tests taken last week indicated the sugar content of this year's crop should be considerably over that of previous years. Ginn said the last field tests indicated an average sugar content of about 14 per cent, a about what was expected after wet weather of August and September.

There are still some fields too wet to harvest and most of the fields are still on the wet side for good harvesting," the agricultural manager said. He said the first day message could have been slightly higher than it was had it not been for the wet field conditions.

Of the 5,500 tons delivered to the plant on Tuesday, some 1,000 tons of it came by way of rail from surrounding stations. The beets were picked up at Holly's stations at Bovina, Friona and Elmer and delivered to the local plant during the night. Two other stations, Clovis and Dawn, will be in full operation by next week, Ginn said.

The Dawn station is expected to begin hauling beets to the plant by Friday and the Clovis station will open up on Monday.

Beets brought into the factory during the day Tuesday were piled until the work shift came on at 4 p.m. The beets that were piled were easily taken care of by morning, Ginn said.

"We will need to get around 7,200 tons per day on a six day week to keep the factory busy and working for seven days. We didn't need more than the 5,500 tons we got Tuesday because we only sliced 16 hours instead of the normal 24 hours," he said.

When processing operations are in full swing, shifts work around the clock at the Holly plant. Ginn said the full shifts will begin immediately in order to take care of the increased tonnage expected to hit the plant within the next few days.

Plant operations, the agricultural manager said, were going smoothly with only "normal little adjustments" having to be made in the last day.

This year's sugar beet harvest, down considerably from previous years, also was struck with a big blow during the recent rains. Between 2,000 and 1,500 acres of the crop were damaged by hail and this is expected to cut down on the overall sugar content. However, Holly officials said if enough warm, dry weather is available between now and the next couple of weeks, the fields that were hailed out could come back with an improved sugar content.

The Tuesday start of harvest operations at the Holly plant was for "early" digging and the "controlled" harvest is to start on Monday. The "accelerated" harvest, where beets are piled in huge piles outside the plant, will begin on Nov. 15.

This is slightly later than most years, but Holly and the sugar beet farmers were counting on good weather to last longer and thus increase the percentage of sugar in the beet crop.

The Hereford Whitefaces, one game up on what they were a year ago at this time, meet the Dumas Demon "jinx" at 7:30 p.m. Friday in a game Dumas coach Dale Spann says probably will be won by the team that gets the break and takes advantage of it.

"I expect this game will be about like all of the others we've had with Hereford in the past," he said Tuesday. "It will probably be won on a break. That has been about the way it has gone the last five or six ball games with Hereford."

Dumas has defeated the Whitefaces the last 11 times the two teams have met. Last year the Demons, rated No. 10 in the state, clipped the Whitefaces, 14-3 in a game where the Whitefaces turned the ball over 10 times—five on fumbles and five on pass interceptions.

"I expect it to be another tough football game because they do have a good team," Hereford coach Larry Dippel said in echoing Spann's words. "Dumas is a well-balanced team, they play sound defense, they pursue well and they just don't make very many mistakes."

The Demons stand 2-3 in season play so far, having defeated Palo Duro and Phillips and losing to Ranger and Tascosa. The Whitefaces are 1-4, having lost to Pampa, Palo Duro, Clovis and Dunbar and having defeated the Amarillo Sandies last week.

Hereford will go into Friday's game without the services of Robert Newsom who broke a collarbone. Dippel also said center Dale Hollingsworth may be able to play as well possibly Eugene Buttle.

Hollingsworth broke a finger two weeks ago, but may play some if needed Friday.

The Demons will be without several players, including heralded Duane Sisson, their premier halfback. He will be replaced in the starting line-up by Greg Butler. Spann said there is a possibility Sisson will play, but it is questionable.

In looking to the Hereford-Dumas game, Spann said he is anticipating a throwing fight for the Whitefaces.

"Hereford has been throwing the ball real well lately and Kitchens (Keith) has done real well. They seem to be having trouble getting their receivers to hold on to the ball, but one of See DUMAS Page Two

Boxers travel to Lubbock

Members of the Hereford Golden Gloves boxing organization will travel to Lubbock Saturday night for a "one-night stand" of fights with other area Golden Gloves.

Leon Gorrell, general manager, along with Paul Ramirez, head trainer and coach will take six boxers with them to Canyon Saturday where they will meet the Amarillo Golden Gloves. The group will depart from Canyon on the Amarillo club's bus and make the trip to Lubbock.

The Hereford group, just organized during the past month, has about 30 boys participating. The ages range from 10 to 24 and the boxers work out each night at the Little Bull Barn.

The trip to Lubbock will be one of several trips the group will take prior to the start of the Golden Gloves Tournaments late this year. The boys will host a tournament here in the near future as part of the organization's program.

The boxers participate according to weights, ages and the number of fights they have fought. All matches are under regulations of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Probation granted in three juvenile cases

Three 16-year-olds arrested in early September on charges of possession of marijuana each received probated sentences in county court Tuesday after County Judge H.C. Williams heard each of the cases separately.

The three will be under probation until the court decides to terminate it. Under the probation they will be required to memorize the 23rd Psalms and repeat it to Williams by Tuesday.

They must exercise good behavior during probation, attend school regularly, stay within the boundaries of the county unless in the company of their parents, be at home by 9 p.m., not associate with criminals or immoral persons, report to the juvenile officer, and give up their drivers license until the court decides to permit them to drive.

"The court can see no benefit by sending these boys to Gatesville," Williams said after hearing each of the cases separately. Williams, in hearing each case, withheld any judgement until after each boy and his parents had appeared before him.

Williams told the boys there was "no way to make it without Him," and warned the parents of the boys to make up their minds to "straighten them up and keep them out of trouble or get ready to spend some time visiting them in the penitentiary."

The hearings for the three boys lasted about two-and-a-half hours.

Hereford residents die in accident

Two Hereford men were killed in a two-car crash Saturday night in Amarillo and a third Hereford man remained in serious condition Wednesday at Northwest Texas Hospital, suffering from injuries received in the same accident.

Killed was the Rev. Gregory F. "Don" Perrin, 39, and Emilio Cantu, 53, both of Hereford. Listed in serious condition was Francisco Moya, 40, also of Hereford.

The accident occurred in the southbound lane of the 6600 block of the Canyon Expressway about 11:15 p.m. Saturday, according to investigating Amarillo police officers.

The Rev. Perrin was reportedly the lone occupant of one of the vehicles and Moya was said to have been the driver of the other vehicle in which Cantu and Yturbe Villegas, 35, of Amarillo, were passengers.

Officers said witnesses told them one of the vehicles was traveling north on the southbound highway when the collision occurred.

Rev. Perrin was a native of Archer City and was graduated from Adrian High School and the University of Dallas. He was to have taken over the interim pastorate this week of St. Thomas Episcopal Church here, replacing the Rev. Fred Howard who assumed the pastorate of a church in Amarillo.

He received his bachelor's and master's degrees in divinity from Nashota House in Nashota, Wis., and was ordained in March of 1963 into the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas.

Funeral services for Rev. Perrin were conducted in St. Thomas Church with Rev. Howard officiating Tuesday afternoon. Following cremation in Dallas, graveside memorial services were planned at Decatur. Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors of Amarillo were in charge of services.

The family requests that memorials be contributions to the Conference Center Endowment Fund of the Episcopal Diocese of Northwest Texas.

The Rev. Aedan Davis conducted last rites for Mr. Cantu Tuesday afternoon in St. Anthony's Catholic Church and burial was in St. Anthony's Cemetery under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Born in Mexico April 7, 1919, Mr. Cantu came to Texas in 1959 and to Deaf Smith County from Halfway in 1964. He lived at 241 Catalpa and was employed as a butcher at the Wilson & Co. plant here.

He married Leonila Valesquez in Mexico in 1940. She survives him, with five daughters, four sons, three sisters and two brothers.

Bodkin-Yeager vows read in home ceremony

A beautiful wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon in the home of the bride's parents united Miss Jacqueline Lea Bodkin and James William Yeager. The Rev. Eugene Brink, pastor of First Christian Church, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bodkin of Route 3 and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Yeager, 542 Sycamore Lane.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a white street-length dress with fitted bodice, full skirt and lace trimmed scoop neckline, waist and hem.

Her dress front was accented by pastel blue satin bows centered with seed pearls. She wore a bow in her hair to match those on her dress and a seed pearl choker made by her maternal grandmother and borrowed from her older sister.

She carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

Attending the couple were the bride's sister, Judy Bodkin, maid of honor, and Ricky May best man.

The couple said vows as they stood before a background of white pedestals holding white tapers surrounded by blue roses. The maid of honor's blue lace dress was empire waist style with high neckline and stand-up collar. She wore a bow in her hair to match the bride's.

At the reception which immediately followed the ceremony, also held in the home of the bride's parents, Miss Ginger Lyons and Mrs. Ricky May served punch and cake.

The two-tiered cake trimmed in blue and topped with bride and groom figurines, centered the serving table which was covered with a white linen cloth.

Following a brief honeymoon trip the couple is at home on Route 3.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller and family of Amherst and Misses Brenda Leathers and Susan Nicholas, both of Olton.

The bride and groom are students at Hereford High School.

Mavs win, Dogies tied and defeated

The La Plata seventh and eighth grades each improved on their season records, but the Stanton seventh and eighth found the going a little rough last week with one game ending in a tie and the other in a defeat for the Dogies. Stanton's seventh grade tied the Canyon White team, 20-20 and the Dogie eighth lost, 6-0.

The La Plata seventh upped its record to 2-1-1 with a 20-8 win over Canyon Purple and the eighth grade climbed to 3-1-1 with a 36-16 win over the Canyon eighth.

Yeager is employed at High Plains Laboratory.

Dawn Music Club topic patriotism

Patriotic American music filled the program at Dawn Music Club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Pat Miller. Mrs. R. E. Curtsinger was co-hostess.

One visitor, Mrs. Jerry Stewart, was present.

Battle Hymn of the Republic was played by Mrs. Robert Strain, Let There Be Peace on Earth was played on the piano by Mrs. Carl Wimberley and God Bless America by Mrs. Dwane Nelson.

Mrs. Strain played This Land is My Land while Mrs. Edgar Sowell read Lincoln's State of the Union Address. Mrs. Wimberley accompanied group singing of the Star Spangled Banner.

Other members in attendance were Mmes. R. B. Caraway, Roy Manning, J. F. Matthews, H. V. McCabe, Alfred Smith and R. T. Stewart.

Juveniles

(Continued From Page One) tioned the three boys in their car and began a search that turned up seven marijuana cigarettes and a small bag containing more of the substance.

Officers had been looking for the three boys and saw their car pull up in a parking lot in the 200 block of North 25 Mile Avenue.

Sheriff's deputy Gary Gillespie, who was assisted by two other deputies, said he saw one of the boys throw something under the car while getting out, and another deputy just driving up, picked up what turned out to be a plastic "baggie" containing the narcotic.

A search of the car found seven marijuana cigarettes under the chrome railing beneath the front seat.

Officers said they had strong reason to believe the youths had been selling marijuana cigarettes to other teenagers during the evening they were picked up.

The boys went before the Juvenile Board for hearings and were then transferred to county court to be handled by Judge Williams.

Williams had handled two of the boys on previous occasions and decided on probation pending consistent reports on their conduct.

TALKS UNITED FUND — Charlie Riggin, 1971 UF drive chairman, spoke to members of the Campfire Board of Directors Monday evening, urging full support in the drive which will begin Oct. 18. Riggin reminded his audience that only through more involvement from more Hereford citizens can the proposed goal be met, and as a result all receiving agencies, which includes Campfire Girls, will benefit consequently. Concert group to select artists

Just after the close of Hereford Community Concert Association's annual membership campaign Friday, the board of directors will meet to select artists who will give concerts in the 1971-72 season.

Hazen Woods, president, announced at the kickoff dinner Monday evening that the board will convene at 4:30 p.m. in Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce office, which is headquarters for the campaign this week.

Two more concerts are to be booked, to go with the "hold" attraction, Stan Kenton and his orchestra, to make up the season. The Kenton orchestra, which will appear in April, was engaged before the campaign began.

Memberships are being offered by drive workers under direction of Mrs. J.H. McCrary, chairman, and 10 captains. Anyone not contacted by a worker is invited to call the headquarters office for enrollment; no memberships will be received after Friday.

This will be the association's fifth year in Hereford. Cost of membership, $10, has not advanced in that time.

12-year-wedded couple honored of BSP coming here in 1972

A double surprise party Sunday evening marked the 12th wedding anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. Don McWhorter, when he arranged a reception in Ward Hall of Wesley United Methodist Church, of which he is pastor.

At the time of their marriage, Oct. 12, 1959, the minister explained to guests, military duty left them insufficient time for a wedding reception, so he planned the anniversary party to surprise his wife.

In turn he was surprised when church members presented the couple gifts of household linens. The final surprise of the evening was a telephone call from Mrs. McWhorter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Cole of Fort Smith, Ark.

The three-tiered anniversary cake and the table where it was served were decorated in orchid and white, Mrs. McWhorter's favorite colors, Mrs. James Stricklin and Vicki Tollison of Skellytown served the cake and punch.

Ruth Neil, also of Skellytown, sang Twelfth of Never, accompanied by Miss Tollison.

The McWhorters have two children, Donna, nine, and Mike, seven, who were at the party. The pastor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.A. McWhorter, also Bobby Tollison and Jimmy Stricklin, came from Skellytown; his sister, Mrs. B.J. Woods, and her family from Amarillo.

The 1972 area convention of Beta Sigma Phi will be held in Hereford, it was announced in a meeting of the City BSP Council Monday evening at the fire station, by members who attended the 1971 convention in Perryton on the weekend.

Mmes. Harold Beauchamp, Max Stipe, John Schneider and Delbert Bainum represented Hereford chapters of the sorority at Perryton and gave the invitation for next year's convention to come here.

The three local chapters, Alpha Alpha, Epsilon Sigma Alpha and Kappa Iota, will serve as hostesses to members from over the Panhandle area.

Sorority members from Hereford will also assist in entertaining the state BSP convention next June, when that event will be held in Amarillo.

Committees were organized for the benefit dance which the Council will sponsor Saturday evening in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Tickets are on sale by members of the three chapters here, and will be available at the door, priced at $5 for couples and $3 for individuals.

Funds raised from the dance will go to national and state projects, scholarship funds and Girlstown U.S.A.

Council members present were Mmes. Melvin Fowler, Kenny Ruland, Stipe, Charles Laing, Hicks Roberson, Fred Ruland and Schneider.

FINAL PUSH FOR MEMBERS — Mrs. J. H. McCrary, left, chairman of the membership drive which closes Friday in Hereford Community Concert Association, congratulates Mrs. Les Combs, the worker who enrolled the most members last season and was leading when workers met for dinner Monday evening to kick off the final week of the campaign. Hazen Wood, CCA president, in photo at right, listens as Mrs. Tom Rose of Amarillo, national representative sent here by the New York office to assist local workers during the week, speaks at the dinner, urging a push to reach the goal of 1000 members. Only members may attend CCA concerts and none are enrolled after the annual campaign week. Memberships are available until noon Friday at the Chamber of Commerce office as well as from workers.

2 cities' clubs meet together

Joined by members of Music Study Club of Hereford, who assisted with the program, the Amarillo Harmony Club was entertained with brunch and an hour of music Thursday morning in Mrs. D.W. Palmer's home.

Mrs. Palmer, a member of both clubs, had Mrs. Wendell Heiny and Mrs. Bland Burson as co-hostesses, although the latter was ill and could not be present.

Mrs. Ivan Fredericksen, Harmony Club president, poured coffee as brunch was served buffet fashion. Autumn coloring of chrysanthemums featured a tall flower arrangement on the table.

Mrs. Tom Burdett of Music Study Club was one of the soloists on the program, singing a French song, Si Mes Vers, and charming contemporary piece called Don't Rain on My Parade. Mrs. William Penn was her accompanist.

Mrs. Charles Lutz Jr. and Mrs. Dwight Elliott played a piano duet, Manhattan Serenade, and Mrs. Heiny a solo, Debussy's Ondine.

The official music club invocation, in a setting by Julia Smith, a Texas composer, was sung by Mrs. Carpenter. Mrs. Palmer led the group in singing the Federated Music Clubs' hymn of the month, O Worship the King.

MUSIC CLUB HEADS — Presidents of the two music clubs which were entertained at a brunch in Mrs. D. W. Palmer's home Monday are Ivan Fredericksen, left, of the Amarillo Harmony Club and Mrs. Wes Fisher of Hereford's Music Study Club. Mrs. Palmer is a member of both clubs and invited members of the Hereford group as guests when she was Harmony Club hostess.

Detective story proves exciting

The Sons of the Copper Beaches tries to convince everyone that Sherlock Holmes is not just a tradition. See how they show how wrong Holmes' rivals are. Read this suspenseful story found in the Deaf Smith County Library.

COPPER BEACHES
By Arthur H. Lewis

The Sons of the Copper Beaches is a branch of a worldwide organization known as the Baker Street Irregulars. With headquarters in Philadelphia, the society exists solely "to perpetuate the legend that Mr. Sherlock Holmes is not a legend."

Imagine, then, the organization's shock and outrage when Colonel H. Wesley Eberhardt— one of their own members—un-dermines their whole premise by declaring that "without those phony clues Doyle sprinkled so generously in his protagonist's path, the master detective, Holmes, couldn't have found a missing guppy in a fish pond five feet from his very eyes."

To prove to the Colonel just how wrong he is, the Sons decide to have a "Chase." They will allow the Colonel and his three days in which to disappear.

A select group of Sons will then try to track them down, using only the Master's highly regarded detecting methods. To the winner of the game will go the prized Carl Anderson manuscripts—a super collection of Sherlockiana valued at up to $100,000.

But the chase, which begins merely as a good-natured way of proving just how infallible the Master's techniques really are, soon develops into something far more dangerous.

And before it is over, the Sons are involved with another missing person, a very strange undertaker, a headless corpse, and a full-scale man-hunt.

WHEELS
By Arthur Halley

This is the inside, exciting novel of a giant industry, its men and women, their lives, ambitions, successes, treacheries, ideals, disasters, and their loves.

It is a story told on many levels:

—of plush executive suites, "more of a gambling center than Las Vegas, with higher stakes."

—of assembly plant jungles, breeding violence and despair; —of the way a new model car is created, and how those "in the know" make sure they get a good one;

—of secret design studies which outsiders would like to know about, but don't;

—of shady auto dealerships where the public and manufacturers get fleeced;

—of auto racing, its people, and the car men's credo: Win on Sunday, sell on Monday;

—of auto advertising: its faker and waste; and of the press and air pollution. . . "news writers are the most gullible people. . ."

—of unions: "The UAW does not condone illegal strikes" . . . The plant manager roared, "God-damit, then! Stop this one!"

—of Detroit's inner city, its tragedies and civic shame;

—of crime, and the Mafia's evil fingers in the auto world;

. . . and more, much more, in fastpaced WHEELS—the most complete and fascinating novel ever written about this vital, vir-ile scene.

THESPIANS ON STAGE — Principals in the cast of the Death and Life of Larry Benson, an unusual mystery which Hereford High School Thespians will present in the school auditorium at 8 p.m. Saturday, are pictured in a dramatic scene, upper photo. At top of stairs are Charles Allison as the youth who says he is Larry Benson, reported missing in Vietnam, although his relatives and hometown friends do not recognize him, and Nancy Brink as Larry's sister Jessie. Their arguing parents, enacted by Pat Arnold and Randy Clements, are cause for concern. Below are Marian Betzen and Billy Gage as Larry's friends and Gayle Gripp as his first-grade teacher, who is baffled when the strange boy recalls incidents that only Larry might remember.

FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR HOWARDS — Members of St. Thomas Episcopal Church honored Rev. Fred Howard and his family with a reception immediately after Sunday morning's service. The Rev. Howard will soon assume his new assignment at St. Peter's in the northwest section of Amarillo, after having served the Hereford parish since 1968. In the top photo, members and guests visiting during the event are, left to right, Robert Stewart, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Bob Boydston of Midland (Mrs.

Stewart's mother,) Mrs. Howard, Rev. Howard and Bob Boydston. In the lower photo, Mrs. Howard shows another guest, Mrs. Eugene Brink, gifts received. The decorative scales was a present from St. Anthony's Church and the silver coffee urn was a gift from St. Thomas' members, as was a money tree. The floral decorative item in the right foreground was made for the Howards by Jon Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith. Photos by Betty Koelzer

BY MELVIN YOUNG

It's always good to see the annual harvest coming to town. Trucks have been busy all week on the first of the sugar beet harvest, and we've noticed that down in the Hart area many combines are beginning to cut the mile and they should be in full-swing down there by this time. Although we've had some cut here, it may still be a few days early. However, a few more warm days like Monday and the roads will be packed with grain trucks going to the elevators.

This should be one of the biggest milo crops we've ever seen in this particular area. State-wide may be another story, but we can't remember when we've seen better crops locally.

And according to officials at Holly Sugar Company, the beet harvest is looking much better than in past years and field tests have shown about 14 per cent sugar content.

Sometimes those of us in town forget what an impact a good agricultural year has on this community—that is, until we don't have one and then it hurts. When the farmer prospers, so do the folks in town who supply him.

It has been a hectic week around the Brand. Advertising manager Grady King has been away on vacation for the past week and a half, and his Number 1 assistant, Lynn Brisendine, wound up in the hospital Monday morning. This has meant that some of us who would rather not expend too much energy around the office, have had to go to work. And that's bad.

But Lynn appears to be getting along fine, and we hope he'll be out of the hospital in a few days.

Meanwhile, Grady should be back on the job Monday morning, and along with Michele Beckman, who has been a tremendous help in keeping things rolling, our advertisers should get better service next week.

Don Zimmerman brought us a "Letter to the Editor" the other day, which was delivered to his business by mistake, probably because it was addressed to "The Hereford Horn." The writer didn't bother to sign his (or her) name whichever the case may have been, so we'll toss it in "file 13" along with a lot of other material that we get, but I'm still wondering why they decided to refer to the newspaper as "The Horn." That's a strange one.

But, we get a lot of "strange" mail so we should be accustomed to it by now.

By the way, we had another letter concerning the hospital controversy which we did not run but we would like to comment on the one point that the writer (who wishes to remain anonymous) was making. She pointed out, as so many others have, that many times the problem of "too many children" and not enough income to support a large family, caused these families to "ride" or just not pay ALL their bills, including the hospital bill.

Certainly, she has a point. Too often this has been a problem.

And that's one of the reasons we have been so solidly behind the Deaf Smith County Public Health Clinic. Since it's inception some months ago, the clinic has done a tremendous amount of work with "family planning" for transients and others in the low income bracket.

Certainly they have done many other things too which keep people from needing hospital care, and we feel that it has more than paid its way in this community. But we were particularly pleased to hear of the progress being made in the area of birth control since so many of our problems do stem from oversized families (as our letter writer has stated), with far too little income to care for them.

CONGRATULATIONS FARMERS!

Through your efforts in NFO you have secured a local contract which should put a floor on milo and maintain cattle prices.

Small talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

When you hear of an accident which left the victim lying disabled and alone for hours before help came, you think of a car overturned on a country road or a woodsman hit by a falling tree, not a housewife in her own home.

Yet it can happen there, too, and has twice in recent months here in Hereford. I'm relieved to hear that the latest victim, Mrs. G.P. Owen, is improving after her ordeal last weekend.

She fell in her home Friday night, injuring her back, and was unable to reach her telephone or make anyone hear her call since her sister, Della Stagner, with whom she shares a duplex, was not at home. Not until well into the next day did some of the family come by to get her to the hospital.

Almost the same thing happened in the summer to Wave Snyder except her injury was a hip fracture. She had a long stay in the hospital but is out now.

It's frightening to think how easily we one-person families can be hit by a mishap that leaves us helpless, and reminds us that we always need to arrange with a relative or neighbor to check up whenever we don't show up at customary times.

Both Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Snyder fortunately have family members here who look in daily, at least.

One of Mrs. C.L. Whitehead's friends tells me that longtime Hereford resident, who is now living in Amarillo, will celebrate her 83rd birthday Saturday.

Mrs. Whitehead is in Olsen Manor Nursing Home now, and the address for birthday cards is 3350 Olsen Blvd., Amarillo, 79109.

I know there will be some attention from North Hereford Home Demonstration Club; Mrs. Whitehead was its oldest active member until a few months ago — and is still a member, in absentia.

How about a fall foliage tour to celebrate a wedding anniversary? Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brown chose one for their 39th anniversary, and went to the New Mexico Mountains Friday evening. They came back Sunday by way of Cimarron Canyon and Eagle Nest, spent Saturday night in Taos.

Aspens were beautiful, they said, but so were the green pines and the bright-colored underbrush.

ings are winning their share of awards this fall, was cited again when her pastel portrait of an Indian woman was given honorable mention in the Best of Southwest show sponsored by the Amarillo Fine Arts Association.

This is a juried show, and the 63 paintings accepted this year were only a third of those entered. The judge was Lowell Svendsen, Colorado artist who praised the high quality of work entered.

Paintings and sculpture he chose are on exhibit through Saturday in Western Plaza Mall, Mildred's painting among them.

Iva McWilliams of Canyon, a former Hereford woman, also had a painting chosen for the display. Hers is a watercolor.

The Hereford Whitefaces, fresh off a 14-13 upset win over the Amarillo Golden Sandies, go looking for two in a row Friday night when they play host to the ever-powerful Dumas Demons. The Demons, rated high in AAA clubs at the start of the season, have fallen victim to two of their four opponents. They have been defeated by Berger, 28-15, and by Tascosa, 25-15. They have beaten Palo Duro, 21-18, and Phillips, 35-13. The Whitefaces have not defeated the Demons in 14 years, but are an improved ball club and Friday night's game could turn into a barn-burner.

'Soft' America is club topic

Lone Star Study Club members heard a program presented by Mrs. Jim Bookout entitled 'Are the American People Growing Soft?' at a Tuesday afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. Hardy Benson.

The article was written by Robert J. McCracken, Mrs. Bookout said "The trend toward softness is physically, morally and spiritually.

"We must not generalize, however, because there are exceptions to this rule," she said. "The answer is discipline of the American people and their children."

One visitor, Mrs. W.T. Wheatley, was welcomed.

In business the group voted to participate in furnishing items for patients at Wichita State Hospital.

Roll call was answered by Mmes. H. E. Henslee, John Jacobsen Jr., Jim Higgins, C.D. Kelton, W.O. McCutchen, G.W. Newsom, Ray Suit, Ed Warren, Carl Williams, S.S. Williams, C.O. Phillips, R.G. Blue and Robert Thompson.

The next meeting will be Oct. 26 in the home of Mrs. Bookout. Mrs. Jim Higgins will be hostess.

Inspection at the Border

Acting on an anonymous tip, customs agents at the Mexican border halted a yellow station wagon for inspection. Sure enough, they found contraband watches hidden in the glove compartment.

In due course, the driver of the car was brought to trial on a charge of smuggling. But in court, he stood on his constitutional rights.

"They had no grounds for searching my car except for one anonymous telephone call," he pointed out. "This is a clear case of 'unreasonable search and seizure', which is forbidden by the Fourth Amendment. Therefore, they cannot use the evidence against me."

But the court disagreed and found him guilty as charged. The court said searches at the border, unlike searches inside the country, need not be based on "probable cause"—mere suspicion is enough.

Why should the law allow more leeway in searches at the border than inside the country? Because of the historical right of each nation to put whatever limits it pleases on entry into its territory.

Nevertheless, the search itself must still be carried out in a reasonable manner. While mere suspicion will justify the search of a car, it will not necessarily justify an intimate search of the person. Thus:

A woman crossing the border on foot was stopped because a customs inspector "had a hunch" that she was carrying narcotics. Ordered to strip in the presence of a matron, she was indeed found to have a quantity of heroin in her clothing.

Nevertheless, this evidence was held not admissible in court. The judge said such an intensive search could not be conducted for such a flimsy reason.

But in another case, the compulsory stripping of a woman was upheld. This time, suspicion was based on specific information furnished by a reliable informer. With that much to go on, ruled the court, customs officials were entitled to take a very good look.

Expressions of flowers studied

Billie McCauley of Park Avenue Floral visited Young Mothers Study Club Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Paul Jones and presented a program on the expressions of flowers as gifts, reasons for giving, and history and care of flowers.

Mrs. McCauley said "The history of giving flowers as gifts dates back to the Incas Indians." She said this was the earliest record of persons using flowers to express sympathy or love.

She also gave the group hints on how to care for house flowers and how to keep cut flowers fresh.

Co-hostess was Mrs. Don Samuels, was present.

In business the group discussed the Oct. 31 Halloween party for their children. Rather than the usual costume party, mothers will take their children to a movie and treat them afterwards.

Others present were Mmes. Charles Brown, Don Brush, Larry Dobbs, Raymond Gerk, Chesley Johnston, Travis McPherson, Harvey Milton, Buri Spears and Jerry Tisdale.

Let's cook something

Family-pleasing food

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

FAMILY CAMPING trips are favorite recreation for the Jack Nunley family, as might be guessed by Mrs. Nunley's choice of a recipe to share. She recommends the dish to cook at home or in a camper kitchen, and adds her own variations.

"To tell the truth, I don't cook by recipes," Helen Nunley grins. "Ever since I can remember I helped my mother cook and she taught me to use the 'pinch of this and dab of that' method. But this recipe is basically a way I fix potatoes and my family likes them."

TAILGATE SUPPER
Skillet spuds for four

5 medium size potatoes
1/2 cup bacon drippings
1 onion and 1 green pepper, sliced thin
Small can mushrooms, stems and pieces, well drained
2 or 3 slices crisp-cooked bacon, crumbled
Salt and pepper
Wash but do not peel potatoes. Slice as thin as possible and pat between towels to remove moisture. Melt drippings in heavy 8 or 10-inch skillet. When hot, add mushrooms.

Turn flame down and cook slowly 25 minutes or until potatoes are crisp on the bottom and soft on top. Add bacon and turn the potatoes, using a wide spatula so you can flip them all at once, like a giant pancake.

Cook 5 minutes more, add salt and pepper to taste and serve directly from skillet. For one variation, scoop out a little hole just before serving and fill it with about one-third cup catsup spiced with 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce.

For her own variation, Mrs. Nunley makes a one-dish meal of this by adding cooked and drained hamburger meat, layering it in among the potatoes.

WHEN THE NUNLEYS take camper trips they spend some of their time on a family hobby of rock hunting. They collect unusual rocks and pieces of weathered wood to make attractive backgrounds and borders for flower beds at their home, 602 E. Fourth.

Rock suitable for cutting and polishing has its uses too, since Nunley practices that craft and makes jewelry of the polished rock. For her own handwork, Mrs. Nunley sews for herself and her daughters, crochets afghans and other articles and refinishes furniture.

It is difficult to know when she finds time for such work in a busy life which includes teaching in a kindergarten and making a home for a very lively family.

THAT WORD, 'FAMILY,' as used by the Nunleys is quite elastic. In addition to their four children there is now a son-in-law, Roger Ruland, married to the older Nunley daughter, Annie; a daughter-in-law, Mary Ann, recent bride of the older son, Gerald; and at various times friends who join the family group for shorter or longer times.

For instance, an American

Field Service student from Thailand, Dean Navigabool, was a member of the household two years ago and the Nunleys still correspond with him and keep up with his progress as a university student in Bangkok.

The younger Nunley children are Leta and Dennis. Also in the household is a Pomeranian dog, Punkin, who acts like a part of the family.

HELEN NUNLEY is teaching for the second year in First Baptist kindergarten; for seven years previously she was a teacher in Goodwill Center kindergarten conducted by First Baptist Church, which had as its chief aim preparing Spanish-speaking children for school, a function assumed by public schools last year.

She teaches a children's class in First Baptist Sunday School, too. Teaching was not in her plans when she went to work on graduation from Canyon High School; she was employed in the county clerk's office of that city before her marriage.

As Helen Spencer, she grew up at Canyon but was born at Panhandle. The Nunleys moved to Hereford 15 years ago, from Canyon.

Both Helen and Jack Nunley have been interested in the AFS program here for several years and he is the current president of the local committee. She has also worked with the Rainbow Girls organization and for a time served as mother advisor, or sponsor, of the Hereford Rainbow Assembly.

AID FOR UNEMPLOYED BALTIMORE (AP) — Mayor Thomas d'Alesandro III says Baltimore will receive $314,000 under the Emergency Employment Act.

The grant will make 94 jobs available in the first phase of the city's program to aid unemployed persons, primarily Vietnam veterans.

New club begun by young women

A group of local young homemakers gathered Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Marshall Day for what began the existence of Young Homemakers Study Club. Members range in ages 18-20.

Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent, presented the beginning program on Marriage and Money.

In business, conducted by Mrs. Roger Suttle, the group chose their club title, looked over yearbooks and elected officers.

Officers for the first club year are Mrs. Steve Watson president, Mrs. Roger Suttle and Mrs. Don Spearman vice presidents, Mrs. Coy Riggin secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Warren council delegate and Mrs. Day reporter.

Members present were Mmes. Spearman, Suttle, Warren, Day, Tom McGowen and Tony Carter.

The next meeting will be Oct. 25 in the home of Mrs. Spearman, 617 Stanton.

Office vacancies filled at coffee

Three office vacancies were filled and other lengthy business discussed following a coffee for Newcomers Club Tuesday morning at Community Center.

Mrs. William Farran was elected president to replace Mrs. Reich whose husband has been transferred in his business, Mrs. Earl Green resigned as second president and was replaced by Mrs. Billy Batterman.

Mrs. Gaylon Bryan filled the office of secretary left vacant by Mrs. Farran. The office of first vice president will be filled at a future meeting.

HHS Thespians stage skits for Players

Skits from the play, Death and Life of Larry Benson, which the Thespians of Hereford High School will present Saturday evening, were given by cast members for Hereford Community Players at the October membership meeting of HCP in Community Center Monday evening.

Directed by Wayne Hodgson, the play will be the first public presentation this year by the Thespians. Players members applauded the sample scenes which made up their program.

In a business period, HCP members planned a work day to repair the roof of the old Jaycee Hut in city park near the South Main Street bridge, and to sort and rearrange stage properties and costumes stored there. The board earlier voted funds for this repair.

Yearbooks combined with a membership directory were distributed, outlining monthly programs for the Players. Mrs. John Claypool, Linda Gilbert and Mrs. Bill Gilleland were on the committee which compiled the books. Members not at the meeting may get their books from Mrs. Gilleland.

Presiding for business was Mrs. John Gilliland, who announced that information has been received from Friends of the Fine Arts at West Texas State University, listing faculty members there who are available to give programs in such organizations as the Community Players. Speech and drama faculty members are included on the list.

Announcement was made that the Players board has voted approval of continuing membership meetings through summer months, a change from former procedure.

ARABS ON THE JOB TEL AVIV (AP)—More than 20,000 Arabs from the occupied West Bank of Jordan were employed in Israel in the beginning of 1971. Another 8,500 Arabs from the Gaza Strip worked in Israel.

AUSTIN, Tex.—A new year-round voter registration law went into effect for Texans on October 1.

Predictions are that it will make significant changes in the political structure of the state. New rules governing the operation of political party conventions also will begin operating next year.

These major provisions in the new voter registration act are noted:

*Voters can register at any time (except for a temporary cutoff 31 days before each election). Registration is good for three years, and is automatically renewed by participation in an election during that period. The old registration period, one of the shortest in the nation, was October 1-January 31.

Eighteen-to-21-year-olds may register and are eligible to vote in local, state and federal elections under a new U. S. constitutional amendment.

*Roving or resident registration deputies may sign up voters anywhere—apartments, union halls, club rooms, dormitories, industrial plants, office buildings, supermarkets or private residences. The law provides that "no voter registrar shall refuse to deputize a person." This is expected to increase sharply the use of deputies to round up voters.

Predictions range upwards of five million total eligible voters in 1972 an increase of a million over 1970.

Voters must have resided in the state a year and in a county for six months to qualify for local election participation. Those who have lived in Texas more than 30 days but less than a year before the November 1972 general election can vote for presidential and vice presidential candidates under special residency registration with county clerks.

APPOINTMENTS—Gov. Preston Smith named former Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo to membership on the Texas Water Rights Commission, a $22,500 a year post. Hardeman will succeed Leslie Neal of San Antonio who resigned.

In other recent appointments, Smith picked: *Jimmie Joe McCuan of Pasadena to the Industrial Accident Board.

*Marshall Formby of Plainview and Richard S. Stocomb of Galena Park to the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. He reappointed Harvey Weil of Corpus Christi, Newton Gresham of Houston, Jack Arthur of Stephenville and Wayne E. Thomas of Hereford (chairman).

*Jimmy Powell of Ft. McKavett to the State Senior Colleges, Board of Regents.

*C. C. Bentley Jr. of Abilene (reappointment) for a new term on the Finance Commission of Texas, Building and Loan Section.

*Doug Crouch to succeed Frank Coffey, who resigned, as Tarrant County (Fort Worth) district attorney.

*Drs. Walter H. Fischer of Temple, Sterling H. Pruitt

Fort Worth and Harvey H. Kennedy of Longview to the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

*Lt. Col. Belisario D. J. Flores of San Antonio as chairman of statewide Veterans Day activities October 25.

*John W. Cardwell, former Georgetown newspaperman, was named deputy director of the Texas Office of Economic Opportunity.

*Lawrence Miller Jr. of Dallas is new chairman of the Texas Real Estate Commission.

*Joe Teller, Texas Water Quality Board deputy director, was selected for Water Pollution Control Federation of America executive committee.

STATE TO FIGHT FOR TREASURE—The state is prepared to go to the U. S. Supreme Court to get title to all artifacts recovered from Spanish galleons which sank off Padre Island more than 400 years ago.

Texas Antiquities Committee was told a decision is near by Brownsville federal court in a long legal dispute over the treasure. Platoro Ltd., a Gary, Ind., salvage firm, recovered the valuables in 1967 and proposes a 50-50 split with the state which demands the entire treasure.

Meanwhile, Committee learned an underwater archaeologist has agreed to help set up a program to recover artifacts from another ancient Spanish galleon near Padre Island next year.

COURTS SPEAK—The Supreme Court dismissed the appeal of relatives of Clyde Barrow who lost a suit against Warner Brothers Studio claiming character defamation in the movie "Bonnie and Clyde."

In a pile of other decisions released after a summer recess, the High Court:

*Set a November 17 review of a San Antonio district court ruling which the Alcoholic Beverage Commission maintains would rob it of its power to suspend dealers' licenses for violation.

*Upheld an injunction against a Tarrant County dentist who allegedly claimed he could diagnose and treat cancer.

* Said the Texas Railroad Commission has power to change natural gas prices covered by contracts between cities and pipeline companies when it finds a change is in the public interest. The case grew out of High Plains Natural Gas Company's effort to get a price increase for gas sold to the city of Perryton.

* Turned down city of Azle's appeal from the 1969 incorporation of Sanctuary in Parker County, holding Azle had not proved its jurisdiction over the property.

* Booked November 3 hearing of Denton County case in which a father sued his son who backed a car into him for negligence.

* Held parents can collect damages for pre-natal injuries to an unborn child hurt in an auto collision.

* Scheduled a hearing on an appeal from granting of a charter to Modern Savings and Loan Association, Pasadena.

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed and sent back for a new trial the conviction and 100-year sentence of a Dallas man for robbery by assault.

AG OPINIONS—Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin held a new statute attempting to exempt churches and veterans organizations from lottery laws is unconstitutional.

In another recent opinion, Martin interpreted incidental expenses which the comptroller may pay state employees in connection with their travels as those "reasonably necessary to performance of official duties" while away from their desks. A $35 a day limit is set for travel expenses outside state boundaries.

Special rangers hired by state-wide organizations to promote cooperation with law enforcement agencies are peace officers and must meet minimum standards of selection and training established by Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.

TRIAL DATES SET—House Speaker Gus Mutscher pleaded "not guilty" to bribery charges, and a jury trial has been set for January 16.

Rep. Tommy Shamon and S. Rush McGinty, close friends of Mutscher who were also indicted for conspiracy to accept a bribe, will be tried at the same time. John Osorio, former State Insurance Commissioner and onetime president of National Bankers Life Insurance Company, pleaded "not guilty" to making false statements to the State Board of Insurance and has a January 24 trial date set.

Mutscher tried to get a trial setting in November. He will apparently continue, for time being at least, carrying out his duties as speaker, although the House "Dirty 30" liberal-Republican coalition is urging a special session for his removal as presiding officer.

Program subject is barbed wire

Barbed wire, which has been called the final civilizing influence on the American west because it fenced the ranges and made agriculture possible, was the subject of Pioneer Study Club's program Tuesday.

Written by a Panhandle woman author, Loula Grace Erdman, The Devil's Hatband tells the story of barbed wire in Texas, and was reviewed by Mrs. W.F. Ball after lunch at the Calson House.

This was the second in a year's series of programs on Texas: A World in Itself, to be given in the club this year. Mrs. Ralph McCullough told favorite tall tales from Texas as a humorous feature.

Hostesses were Mes. Herman Ford, A.G. Bell, William Wimberley and John Patton. They set tables with Halloween symbols on place cards and the

Migrant children offered special program locally

A child development center for children of migrant families will begin operation Monday at St. Joseph's Child Development Center here.

Registration will be today and Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Joseph's Mission. A child must have reached the age of 3 before Sept. 1 of this year to be eligible to enroll.

The center will offer a full program of Child Development. If the children speak Spanish, their program will begin in that language. Ideas will be gradually presented in English so that by the time the children reach first grade, they will be fully conversant with the terms which enable their success in Public School.

The rationale of this program is that the child often fails because of language barrier. The gradual reduction of that barrier during early childhood will prevent a failure complex on the part of the young child.

The children will be given meals throughout the day, and bus service will be provided. Admission will be on the basis of need and migrant status. A migrant child, for the purpose of this program will be one from a family which has been included in farm-related work outside the county for at least six weeks during the past two years.

HEREFORD, TEXAS, 79045, THURSDAY, OCT. 14 1971

Harris moves into second in scoring

Danny Harris, who copped "Player of the Week" honors given by the Amarillo Globe-News for his performance last week against Amarillo High, moved into second place in scoring among the district 4-AAAA players. Harris, who gained 123 yards in 16 carries in the 14-13 win over the Sandies, has scored 29 points this year and is second to Scott Hallman of Plainview who has 36 points.

Junior quarterback Keith Kitchens is leading the individual passing category with 32 completions on 84 attempts for 376 yards and one touchdown. He also is second in total offense with 439 total yards in five games for an 87.8-yards-per game average.

Kitchens, who also does the punting for the Whitefaces, is fourth in the league with a 33.0 mean.

The Hereford offense remained in fourth among the district's five teams with a 206.2 yards per game average. Lubbock leads the league with a 230.2 average, followed by Monterey with 222.4, Plainview at 209.6, Hereford at 206.2 and Coronado at 162.8.

In the defensive category Hereford also is fourth, having given up 251.6 yards per game. Monterey has been the stingiest of the district teams, giving up only 155.4 yards per game.

Hereford has lost seven fumbles, recovered 11, has been penalized 24 times for 156 yards, has intercepted five passes and gained 72 offensive first downs.

Ralph Waits and Rosie Gonzales are tied with five other district players in the fumble recovery department with two each.

In the reception category Bruce Barrett is fourth among the players with nine catches for 158 yards and Alan Cornelius is fifth with nine for 92 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, Winston Short is widening his lead in tackles made. He is 19 ahead of second placer Mike Hardy of Monterey who has 65. Also among the top 10 defenders is Rosie Gonzales of Hereford with 60, in third place; Steve Clark of Hereford with 57 in fifth place; and Richard Sierra of Hereford in seventh with 54 tackles.

Tie-breaker decides grid contest winner

For the first time since the beginning of this year's Hereford Brand Football Contest there was no clear-cut winner.

Four persons tied for first place with only three misses, but even the tie-breaker wasn't enough to determine an outright winner. Nancy Priest and Donnie Cornelius will each get $15 for tying for first place. Each missed the tie-breaker by only one point.

Third place money was divided by L.R. Berend and Clifford Arnold who also missed only three games, but also tied by missing the tie-breaker by seven points each.

Cornelius and Nancy Priest both missed the UTA-West Texas, the Oklahoma-TCU and the Coronado-Palo Duro games. Everyone entered in the contest missed the Oklahoma-TCU because it ended in a 14-14 tie.

Berend missed the same game for his third place money of $2.50 and Arnold missed the Littlefield-Oilton, Oklahoma-TCU and Coronado-Palo Duro games.

Some 44 persons out of a record 311 entries missed only four games.

Danny Loerwald and Bobbie Kitchens, leaders through last week's contest, dropped to second behind Mrs. Cawthon Bryant by one game. Mrs. Bryant has 73 correct and Loerwald and Mrs. Kitchens have 72.

In the Southwest Conference, it's "Title-Time" again. That's the time when the league championship is decided in the annual Longhorn-Razorback hoedown. This year the little confrontation is in Dallas, and although each team comes into the game with a loss on its record, this one, as usual, will be a hair-raiser. It's almost too close to call. There's a difference of just 3 points. . . Texas is favored.

The Big Eight features Oklahoma against 9th-ranked Colorado. The Buffaloes are as undefeated as the Sooners, but Oklahoma registered the biggest victory last week by whipping Texas. Two toughies in a row could be a killer for the Sooners, but they should win another one, this one by 12 points.

Alabama is No. 4. . . Tennessee is No. 17, and since this is a Southeast Conference matchup, anything can happen. However, we look for the Crimson Tide to keep rolling, and for the Volunteers to take their second loss of the season, Alabama by eighteen.

It's about time to take a brief look at just how our old battered crystal ball has been behaving since the start of the 1971 season. And, believe me, it's

Besides the triple dead heat in the 194 Carter Handicap at Aqueduct, the 1926 Carter, also at Aqueduct, was a two-way dead heat between Macaw and Nedana.

Specials on tap this weekend

Every week of the college football season has its specials, and this Saturday's schedule is loaded! . . . Colorado-Oklahoma. . . Alabama-Tennessee. . . Southern Cal-Stanford. . . Arkansas-Texas. . . Notre Dame-North Carolina. . . and those are only samples!

Last week there was hardly any breathing-room between the first four teams in our Top 20. So . . . Michigan continued to win, yet dropped from 1st to 3rd because power quotients did a bit of shifting. The two Big Eight powers, Nebraska and Oklahoma, slipped into first and second respectively.

been cloudy on occasion! However, we do get a few right now and then, and naturally that's what keeps us climbing out on the weekly limb. Thanks to a little more consistency among the so-called small colleges - or college division teams - we're just over 75 per cent in our selections through the weekend of October 2nd. Of 767 games, excluding ties, we've picked 577 correctly and missed 190 for a .752 average. 'Nuff said!

Undefeated Notre Dame, ranked 5th again this week, meets North Carolina. The Tar Heels, before being upset by Tulane last week, had been just outside the Top 20 each week. So if anyone is upset-minded, it should be North Carolina. The Irish are again in the driver's seat by 20 points.

Alabama is No. 4. . . Tennessee is No. 17, and since this is a Southeast Conference matchup, anything can happen. However, we look for the Crimson Tide to keep rolling, and for the Volunteers to take their second loss of the season, Alabama by eighteen.

It's about time to take a brief look at just how our old battered crystal ball has been behaving since the start of the 1971 season. And, believe me, it's

Besides the triple dead heat in the 194 Carter Handicap at Aqueduct, the 1926 Carter, also at Aqueduct, was a two-way dead heat between Macaw and Nedana.

Programs begin in Music Club

Initial program of a series on The Baroque Era in Music, which will continue through January for Music Study Club, was heard in the home of Mrs. Ellis Coombes Monday afternoon. Mrs. Wayne Thomas was co-hostess and Mrs. Paul Lyons program leader.

Mrs. Lyons gave an introduction to the study taken from the book, A History of Western Music by Donald J. Grout. She played a recording of Elizabethan songs and dances by early English composers, featuring the lute and virginal, familiar instruments of that time, with voice.

Further illustration of the talk was in music by members. Mrs. Bill Bradley played a group of dances by Muffat, Fisher, Pasquini and Corelli as piano solos. Mrs. William Penn, pianist, presented other selections, one by Palestrina and one a 17th century German tune.

The club chorus with Mrs. D.

W. Palmer at the piano sang O Blessed is He (Carrissimi) and As From Earth a Flower Grows (Monteverdi).

Beginning the program, the entire group sang O Worship the King, hymn of the month selected by the National Federation of Music Clubs, led by Mrs. Palmer.

Also present were Mes. Lynton Alred, W.T. Carmichael, Steve Clements, W.E. Dameron, Bill Devers, Allen Cansler, Wes Fisher, Ed Line, C.J. Mountz, Buddy Peeler, T.W. Roberson, A.J. Schroeter, Jack Keeling, J.T. Gilbreath and Miss Frances Dameron.

Courts have decided that meteorites belong to the owners of the land on which they are found.

More than 1,600 tons of paper are used annually to print Webster's Collegiate Dictionary and its International Dictionary.

FLOWER SHOW COMMITTEE — Roses in Mrs. R. L. Wilson's garden are inspected for possibilities of display in Hereford Garden Club's annual fall flower show, scheduled this weekend in the lobby of First National Bank, by three members of the schedule committee and Mrs. Ben Childers, general chairman. From left are Mrs. O. G. Hill, Sr., Mrs. R.

W. Mitchell, Mrs. Childers and Mrs. Wilson. Show theme is Banking on Artistry. The public is invited to see it, with no admission charge, from 3 to 6 p.m. Saturday and 2:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday. A silver offering will be taken to benefit the club's work on a garden center at the corner of Main and Park Ave.

State president due at AAUW tea

Launching a new organization for Hereford women, a branch of the American Association of University Women, a membership tea Sunday afternoon will have Mrs. William C. Pool of San Marcos, president of the Texas division of AAUW, as honor guest.

To begin at 2:30 p.m. in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Co., the tea is open not only to women who enrolled at a preliminary meeting recently, but to others who are interested in membership. Women graduates of accredited colleges are eligible as members of the national organization.

A nominating committee with Ann Prichard as chairman was appointed at the recent dinner, where Flo Dickinson served as temporary chairman and the 35 women present decided to form the organization. This committee will present a list of proposed officers at the tea.

Mrs. Pool will explain aims of the AAUW, which are focused on four interests; Education, cultural activities, the community and international relations.

She served as representative for education in the Texas Division in the 1969-71 term, before becoming state president. A member of the San Marcos branch since 1947, she was its president two terms and filled other offices.

For 20 years she has been associated with San Marcos Academy and is now chairman of the department of mathematics. She is a graduate of the University of Texas and of Southwest Texas State University. Other memberships are in the League of Women Voters and Delta Kappa Gamma.

Her husband is a historian and author. They have one daughter, Mrs. Henry Krause of Seguin.

CHANGE IN CARDS
NEW YORK (AP) — Going along with the youthful desire to be different, many greeting cards now being printed contain no message at all, says Irving Cohen, head of a card store chain.

"Many cards now will have a photograph of a painting by one of the masters or just bear a colorful design," says Cohen.

Taxes mean big cut in county

For those people who have often thought about their tax load and wondered how much of their income is shuttled off each year without their ever seeing it, the Tax Foundation has done some figuring and come up with some answers, based upon family averages.

Currently, it finds, the first 13 hours of worktime in any week go to pay Federal, state and local tax bills. In other words, a local worker has to put in all day Monday and part of Tuesday to earn enough for his taxes.

A major part of it represents the amount Uncle Sam withholds from paychecks for his two biggest taxes—income and social security. This combination more than doubled in the last 10 years, due partly to higher earnings.

In Deaf Smith County, as in most parts of the country, gross income rose sharply in that period.

All told, the average family in the local area earned a grand total, prior to taxes, of about $90,000 in the past 10 years, the statistics show.

A considerable part of it, approximately $11,800, was skimmed off, before they ever got hold of it, to cover Federal income and social security tax deductions.

Nationally, by way of comparison, incomes averaged $74,870 and taxes, $10,070.

This is only part of the tax burden, however. It is the visible part. There are, in addition, the so-called "hidden" taxes, such as the Federal excise taxes on automobiles, gasoline, liquor, telephones, tobacco, transportation and the like.

The Tax Foundation estimates that if these and the other levies passed on to consumers were included, it would be found that the government collects another

AARP-RTA meet set for 7 p.m.

A joint meeting of the American Association of Retired Persons and the Retired Teachers Association this evening will begin at 7 p.m. in Community Center. Bert Brown, president, announces that all interested residents here are invited.

The Rev. Henry Marshall of Amarillo will be the speaker. A former drug addict, he works with a center aimed at rehabilitation of addicts and education of the public regarding abuse of drugs. Group singing will precede his talk. Virgil Dodson is program chairman.

$74 in such taxes for every $100 it receives via income and social security taxes.

Applied to Deaf Smith County, the figures indicate that the local population paid an estimated $8,730 per family in hidden taxes in the 10 years.

Blue Birds set two meetings

Organizational meetings for girls who would like to join Blue Birds will be held today and Friday at the Camp Fire Lodge, 90 414th St.

The meeting will be to offer for the first time, Blue Birds to first graders. Anyone who has a daughter interested in joining should attend the meeting.

Today the meeting will be at 10 a.m. for parents of girls who attend Bluebonnet, Alkman and Northwest Elementary Schools. A second meeting will be at 10 a.m. Friday at the Camp Fire Lodge for parents of girls attending Shirley, Central and Tierra Blanca Elementary schools.

Nelson attends training session

Deaf Smith County's justice of the peace was among 172 JPs attending a three-day training session in Lubbock conducted by the Police Training School at Texas A&M University.

The program, sponsored by a grant from the Texas Criminal Justice Council, is designed to upgrade the understanding of JP duties.

Representing Deaf Smith County is W. Glen Nelson, Precinct 1, Hereford.

Justices from 104 West Texas counties attended sessions in the Red Raider Inn Monday through Wednesday. Members of the West Texas Justices of the Peace and Constables Association also held their annual convention during the short course.

A second session of 20-hour courses are scheduled in Lubbock Feb. 14-16. Texas A&M has scheduled four other state-wide short courses in Arlington, Longview, College Station and San Antonio.

November sessions are set in Arlington Nov. 25 and in Longview Nov. 17-19.

GETS A NEW HEAD

LONDON (AP)—Westminster Abbey is putting a head on Britain's King Henry V after 425 years.

The original silver head—and hands—were stolen in 1546 from an effigy of the king above his tomb in the church where British monarchs are crowned.

The new head and hands are being made from polyester resin. They have been designed according to contemporary descriptions and portraits of the king, who died in 1422.

The new "crowning" will be on Oct. 5 with some pomp.

Comings and Goings at King's Manor

Dr. and Mrs. English are away this week at their vacation lake house near Blackwell.

The following sign on our lawn makes us proud and we hail David Hill, our landscape person: Non Residential Beauty Spot of the month, presented by Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

The John Heards last week were in Big Bend National Park. They visited friends along the way.

The Rev. J. V. Patterson of King's Wood United Methodist Church, Amarillo, visited the Manor last Saturday.

Mrs. Mae Voss is in Golden Age Home in Amarillo. Her daughter, Mrs. Platt, has returned to her home in Hoods River, Ore.

Mrs. Ardis Stamper is in Neblett Clinic at Canyon.

Our new residents at the Manor are the J. C. Allreds of 204 Lawton, Hereford.

Dr. John English was speaker at the County Federation of Women's Clubs meeting Oct. 30. He painted a watercolor and spoke on Art for Fun.

The Federated Book Club of Clarendon, guests of Mrs. L. N. Cox, visited at the Manor October 5.

Leo Forrest of Tanglewood, Mrs. Novella Stallings of Canyon, Mrs. Jeanne Garrett of Canyon, Mrs. Ruby Hewitt and Mrs. Orion Carter both of Plainview, Mrs. Joe Green of Lomasa and Mrs. James Price of Gruver were recent dinner guests at the Manor.

Mrs. William Pearce, a resident of King's Manor, with her son, Dr. William Pearce attended, and the latter spoke, at a dedicatory service presenting an historical marker in memory of Seth Ward College at Plainview. Dr. Pearce was the first baby born in the dormitory. His father, William Pearce Sr. was once President of Seth Ward. The marker will be placed near the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church at Plainview. The occasion was an ex-students reunion.

Mrs. Maggie Hamilton spent Thursday and Friday in Matador.

Again on Sunday, Oct. 3, residents of the Manor observed Lazbuddie Day, which has come to mean so much to us. At 9:30 a.m. several cars left for Lazbuddie. By 1 a.m. we were being warmly welcomed by the Rev. Carl Oglesby, pastor of United Methodist. In turn he presented Dr. Clifford Trotter who delivered the sermon. This service was the last of a series of sermons there by Dr. Trotter.

A sumptuous dinner concluded a most enjoyable fellowship. Thanks and thanks again to our good friends of the Lazbuddie church who invite Manor residents for a visit and dinner once a year.

A birthday party was given at Westgate for residents whose birthdays come in October. Hostesses were members of the Dawn Home Demonstration Club. Kimberly, Kelly and Keith "did their thing." Birthdays honored were those of Ruth Bell, Oct. 14; Myrtle Cawthon, Oct. 26; George Hartman, Oct. 18; Flora Bryant, Oct. 18; and Leona Luedtke, Oct. 3.

Social security

Q. When should I file for Medicare?

A. The answer is simple, but we find many people who think they can file at any time and this is not correct. A person can sign up no earlier than the third month before the month they reach 65, and for the hospital insurance a person can sign up any time after that. For the doctor bill insurance, however, a person has only until the end of the third month following the month he reaches age 65. If he does not sign up for the doctor bill insurance by that time, he must wait until one of the general enrollment periods which is January, February and March of each year in order to be able to sign up.

Q. How much will I get from social security?

A. The answer to this question is not at all simple because, as you have probably noted, we pay retirement, disability and survivors benefits, and, too, we pay different categories of people. In order to get a meaningful answer to this question, I would suggest you call your nearest social security office and give them the facts in your particular case. With the facts, your social security office can give you the amount you would be entitled to.

FALLING LEAVES

Falling leaves--aimlessly they drift to earth as they usher in the season of Thanksgiving and winter. They descend and die. Left to the mercy of the elements, they disintegrate and go back to earth. Unforgettable in life but they are wasted away in death.

Godless lives are much the same. For they too, drift without direction. They look without finding, strive without succeeding, reach without grasping, exist without knowing why. They are alive but not living...wasted in life and forgotten in death.

In Isaiah, Chapter 35, we can learn more of this mirage, this rendezvous with death. As leaves must cling to the tree to survive, so must lives cling to God. Falling leaves have lived and died. Godless lives have died.

PRACTICE PRECEDES SHOW—Abstract flower arrangements were made and judged in a recent workshop of Bud to Blossom Garden Club, as members prepared for their annual fall show to be staged in Pioneer Gas Co. Flame Room Friday, open to the public from 3 to 5:30 p.m. Theme of this standard flower show will be Potpourri of the Golden Spread. Mrs. W. H. Gentry, chairman of judges and of show publicity, and herself an accredited national flower show judge, comments on an arrangement for, seated from left, Mrs. Roy Bell, awards chairman; Mrs. Raymond Zamarripa, a new club member; and Mrs. Jess Robinson, a student judge, who is in charge of the potpourri sale which will be a new feature of the flower show.

Plans complete for flower show

Final arrangements for the fall flower show which Hereford Garden Club will present in First National Bank lobby this weekend, were made at the club's October meeting, held in Pioneer Gas Flame Room with Mrs. J. V. Pickens and Mrs. Ben Childers as hostesses.

It was decided not to charge admission to the show, but to take silver contributions from visitors to be used in work on the garden center at the corner of Park Ave. and Main St.

The public is invited to the show, which has the theme of Banking on Artistry, from 3 to 6 p.m. Saturday and 2:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

A guest, Mrs. W. H. Gentry, gave the program at the Flame Room on New Trends in Table Settings. She had invited Mrs.

Charles Skinner to show new tableware and Mrs. Gentry demonstrated choice of linens and floral decoration.

Men have dined at tables since caveman days, she said, but for centuries the problem was to get food on the table. Later came the idea of beautifying surroundings for a meal. Today the trend is to casual entertaining but hostesses still like to serve guests at a pretty table.

She presented table settings in varying degrees of formality for different occasions, in different themes.

A brief tribute to the late Mrs. A. O. Thompson, longtime member of the club, was given by Mr. A. L. Manjeot to end the program.

Mrs. Alfred Smith presented flower calendars which members will sell as a national garden club project, and place mats with Texas scenes, a state project.

Yearbooks for the new season were presented by Mrs. Ray Johnson and Mrs. R. L. Wilson, outlining programs with the general title, Pathways to Gardening.

Reports were heard on a junior gardenin club started in a Campfire Girl group with Mrs. R. W. Mitchell and Mrs. G. W. Newsom as leaders.

Mrs. Johnson, garden therapy chairman, announced that the grounds of Kings Manor retirement home where club members work with residents in planting the flower beds, won the September designation as Beauty Spot of the Month from the Women's Division, Deaf Smith County

Chamber of Commerce.

Hostesses served refreshments to 17 members and the program guests.

Vic Hadfield is the new captain of the New York Rangers hockey team.

Open house held for anniversary

Out-of-town guests from three states were among 90 who called to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brown on their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon. Children of the couple were hosts at the Browns' home at 424 Ave. G.

Children living in Hereford are Virginia Stevens and Charles Brown. Those coming with their families from other cities were Mrs. Antonio Auriemma and Jerry Brown from Amarillo and Robert Brown from Dumas. Telephone calls brought messages from the two sons unable to be here, Glenn Brown of Tucson and Franklin Brown, stationed in Germany with the U. S. Army.

Nita and Sherry Singer of Amarillo, granddaughters of the honored couple, served the anniversary cake and red punch from a table centered with red roses and covered with lace over red. Sugar roses decorated the cake.

More roses made a bouquet on the registry table, where Mrs. John Grossenbacher presided.

In addition to the hosts, guests from other cities were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Woodford, Annie Nobles and Bambi Nobles of Albuquerque; Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbreath, Eva West and Mrs. Clarence West of Paducah; Callie Smvrtt of Abilene, Katie Brown of Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mowles of Leedy, Okla., Annie Singer and Kate Mills of Dimmitt.

Club has program guests

Guest night for Hereford Study Club was an unusual party in Easter Community Center, with Mrs. S. L. Garrison and Mrs. Art Stoy hostesses.

The program was given by Dawn Music Club members directed by Mrs. Robert Strain and Mrs. Jerry Parker, modeled on the humorous Hee-Haw television broadcasts.

In a brief business period with Mrs. Garrison presiding, the project committee reported that the club will furnish transportation for Kings Manor residents in August.

Guests were the Rev. Jerry Haley of Edmondson, formerly of Dawn, Merlin Kaul and Mmes. Fain Cesar, B. F. Cain, Boyd Foster, James Priddy and Claude Ola Brown.

Rates set for 'Spain' showing

In response to requests from a wide area, the producers of "They Came From Spain" are pleased to announce a student rate of one dollar ($1.00) per person for organized groups when the tickets are purchased in blocks.

Adults, sponsors are regular price—$2.98.

Since this production is the story of the Palo Duro Canyon told in vivid light and sound from the time of its creation through the days when it was raging fire, then pounding surf, then the home of huge monsters which are shown fifty feet high moving against the Canyon wall, it is attracting earth science classes. And since the second section is the coming of Coronado to the Canyon with his 300 armored soldiers and 1800 servants and friendly Indians, it is like a bright light thrown on the Texas history studies and also those of Spanish culture and tradition. Therefore it is attracting students of history and Spanish, and of course, of drama.

Almost 6000 people have seen "They Came From Spain" since its premiere on September 2nd. In a survey taken at the sixth performance, almost half said that they had come because of the enthusiasm of "a friend's report." For tickets and for information about the student block purchase plan, write Box 288, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 364-655-5123.
