Cattlemen Ponder Loan Proposal

Local reaction to developments stemming from a Texas Cattle Feeder Association committee's visit to Washington the past week might best be described as a blend of curiosity, hope and utter dissatisfaction.

One development was a proposal by the Senate Agriculture Committee calling for a government guarantee loan for distressed livestock producers, a measure which was proposed after the TCFA testified for the need of such a measure.

If passed by the Senate and House in its present form, the proposal would result in a five year emergency loans to cattlemen guaranteed for the federal government for up to 90 per cent limited to the cattlemen's highest investment during the past 18 months.

The bill was first introduced about six weeks ago by U.S. Rep. Bob Price of Pampa.

Harlan VanderZee, Hereford State Bank president, said Friday he had numerous inquiries concerning application for such loans, but did not yet have any official information about the proposed legislation.

"We're certainly receptive to anything that's beneficial," he said, "but we don't know what the requirements will be until the bill is passed."

VanderZee said questions of eligibility, per centage rates, length of payment time and other matters would all have to be determined before any bank would be able to make such an emergency loan.

"I'm sure there will be interest on our part and customers if the bill is passed," he said.

One Hereford man who is a farmer, cattle feeder and feed lot partner as well, said Friday he thought the bill proposed by the Senate Agriculture Committee was the wrong formula for restoring health to the industry.

He said although he himself was facing "substantial" losses, he felt a government guaranteed loan meant at best temporary aid for a cattle feeder and at worst, encroaching government controls.

"I'm afraid if that happens, we (livestock producers) will wind up like Penn Central Railroad," he said.

The man, who has lived and worked in Hereford all his life, said he regarded the proposed guaranteed loan bill an "artificial stimulus" and dodged the real issue, lifting of foreign countries' restrictions," he said, "but just taking off other countries' restrictions against our beef. We can produce beef cheaper than anyone," he said.

Although commercial and individual cattlemen alike have urged the adoption of legislation to reduce importation of beef into the U.S., TCFA members learned during the week the administration intends to rely on voluntary restraints with beef exporting countries.

However, Butz assured the TCFA group the U.S. will not become a dumping ground for foreign beef, common complaint among the nation's cattlemen, who say the condition already exists.

Another local feeder said he thought the loan program might be a good thing and would "help right now," but expressed dismay at the administration's not stopping foreign importation of beef.

"It's just politics," he said, referring to a possible reason for the continued importation of beef.

"Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz should apply pressure to Canada to accept our beef," the feeder said. He said Canada's claim of refusing U.S. beef because the diet contained an allegedly dangerous hormone, diethylstilbestrol, was not valid because the hormone is used only as an implant, not a diet supplement.

"The producers and consumers, are getting it in the neck," the feeder added, "while too much money is being made by the middlemen."

Real Friends

Sometimes being a neighbor involves more than sharing the same postman or exchanging casual conversation over the back fence. Mrs. R.M. Mason, recently widowed after her husband was killed in farming accident, believes the residents in the northwest part of Deaf Smith County embody the real meaning of neighborliness.

AS DAWN BROKE Tuesday morning, nine local farmers left their own harvesting chores and assembled on the Mason spread 10 miles northwest of Hereford. Under the direction of Edward Allison, the men reaped 250 acres of wheat which had stood untouched since the death of Robert Marti Mason last Friday.

These volunteers who marned combines and tractors under Tuesday's hot sun were Allison, Richard and Joe Kuper, Bill Cole, Vernon Sherman, Johnny Jesko, Nick Yosten, Buster Miller and Leroy Behrends.

"It WAS one of those situations," said Allison, "when people are brought together in the aftermath of tragedy. The Masons have been a part of this community for a long time," he said.

"Helping them get their crop in was the least we could do."

Bicentennial Plans Begin

Hereford and Deaf Smith County, against a backdrop of fading daylight and towering rock formations, were formally recognized Wednesday night as a Bicentennial Community.

In a ceremony preceding the opening night presentation of "Texas" in Palo Duro Canyon State Park, special flags were presented to the county and city honoring each as a participant in the Bicentennial Celebration set for July 4, 1976.

All told, 29 presentations, were made to representatives of Texas Counties and cities which have been designated as Bicentennial Communities.

Arrangements for Hereford and Deaf Smith County to participate in the nation's bicentennial celebration in 1976 entered a stepped up phase Thursday with the forming of a local Bicentennial executive board.

Persons serving on the board include John Aikin, Jeff Carlisle, Dale Young, Mrs. Capt. Formby, Mrs. Joe Reinauer, Bill Albright and H.C. (Hank) Williams, Deaf Smith County judge.

First in an upcoming series of tasks to be undertaken by the board will be the dedication July 4 of the Deaf Smith County Library, at which time Mrs. Gene Brownrigg, state director for American Revolution Bicentennial Committee will present bicentennial flags to county and city representatives.

At the ceremony, scheduled for 2 p.m., the board will dedicate the activity room on the lower floor of the library, formally designating it the "Bicentennial Room."

In the coming months, the board will be involved with activities related to the bicentennial celebration. Some of those activities include promoting the musical production "Texas," assemblage of a Western art exhibit in the library, install a permanent monument on the court house grounds, and promote the theme, "Come alive in '75 with the spirit of '76," beginning Jan. 1, 1975.

Gasoline Blaze Destroys Auto

Charred Remains

Firemen raise the trunk of a smoldering late model car to put out embers. The car and a garage were destroyed by fire late Wednesday night at 105 Douglas. The fire apparently was ignited while men were cleaning the gas tank of the Cadillac inside the garage.

DAN WELTY
Brand Staff Writer

A fire that started when a Hereford resident was working on a car's gasoline tank Wednesday night gutted the garage of the Homer Rudd residence, 105 Douglas.

Five units of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department responded to the alarm at 10:36, but flames had incinerated the garage area before any action could be taken. Firemen kept the flames from spreading to the main portion of the house, but smoke and heat from the fire damaged some areas of the home.

According to Fire Marshall Jay Spain, Rudd and a visiting friend were cleaning the gas tank of a late model Cadillac owned by the friend. The men were draining gasoline from the tank into plastic buckets when Mrs. Rudd entered the garage to place clothes in a dryer. The fire was apparently ignited when the dryer was switched on.

The first fireman on the scene, David Spain, who happened to be at a nearby residence, entered the burning garage without the aid of breathing equipment to look for six children of the household who were reported missing. The children were later found unharmed playing in the neighborhood. There were no injuries resulting from the fire.

Firemen pumped over five thousand gallons of water on the structure to douse flames. Heat was so intense inside that metal garage door railings sagged and were twisted out of shape.

Losses in the fire included the friend's car, a freezer, a washer and dryer, four saddles, and various household items. No dollar estimate has been placed on the damage.

Firemen were called out again at 3:30 a.m. Thursday to the Texsun Feed Yards east of the city. Two empty boxcars being converted into storage sheds were reported ablaze there.

Firemen were unable to reach the boxcars because of a locked gate, and had to wait for a feedlot employee to arrive and let them through. By that time, fire had consumed the boxcars.

That blaze apparently started from sparks left from welding done on the boxcars the day before.

Chamber Begins Motel Tax Study

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Board of directors appointed a committee at its regularly scheduled monthly meeting Thursday to investigate levying a tax on local motels.

Revenues from such a tax would be used to promote the city and county, said Bill Albright, chamber director.

In other business, Albright reminded the board of the Chamber's quarterly meeting, set for 12 noon Tuesday at Hereford Country Club.

Albright said the luncheon meeting, open to chamber members, will be to discuss chamber activities during the first half of 1974 and activities planned for the second half.

Miss Hereford 1974—Miss Susie Hickman—will be guest of honor at the event, to be presided over by Roy Faubion, chamber president.

Pauline Howard, publicity chairman for the chamber, reported two signs welcoming persons to Hereford had been placed one on South Highway 385 and one on East Highway 60.

Other signs directing persons to the chamber and civic clubs locations are also to be placed at various intersections.

The public is invited to both the barbecue and the dedication ceremony. The chamber's annual banquet, to be held January 9, 1975 in the Bull Barn, will feature Arizona humorist and speaker Sam Hunter.

That event will also be open to the public.

The board heard reports on two upcoming chamber sponsored athletic events, a city tennis tournament, scheduled for Thursday through Sunday on city courts and an Amateur Athletic Union Junior Olympic Track Meet, set for June 29 at Whiteface stadium.

At the meeting, special committees, gave reports on chamber sponsored activities planned for celebrating the Fourth of July and the chamber's annual banquet.

Planned Fourth of July activities include a barbecue beginning at 11:30 a.m. Thursday morning in Dameron Park, with entertainment to be provided by Firehouse 15 — a singing group and segments of local public school bands.

After the barbecue, the new county library will be dedicated in a 2 p.m. ceremony marked by Mrs. Gene Brownrigg, American Revolutionary Bicentennial Committee representative, presenting bicentennial flags to county

CowBelles Begin Beef Project For Girlstown

A state committee for Texas CowBelles, meeting here Friday, launched a Beef For Girlstown project which the state organization adopted at its spring convention in San Antonio at the suggestion of Hereford members.

A steer a week is the goal set to meet the need for beef in diets of the 170 girls and staff of girls' residence homes at Whiteface and Berger. Several local meat processors have agreed to make boxed beef available to fit donations of any amount.

Texas CowBelles will coordinate beef donations across the state in this project. Local donations may be made by notifying Mrs. Elmo Hall, county chairman, or Mrs. N.E. Tyler, Hereford CowBelles president. Beef or cash may be contributed.

Mrs. Tyler is chairman of the state committee. Other members here for the meeting in Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce office were Mrs. Wayne Owen, Mrs. Howard Head of Littleton, and Mrs. Sherman Tanner of Wildorado.

Nolan Grady, an active supporter of Girlstown, told the women of need for beef at the residence homes. When he talked last week with Girlstown officials, he reported they said the girls had been without beef for 11 straight days.

In addition to supplying meat for the tables, CowBelles can be of service to Girlstown by making its aims and needs known over the state, Don Zimmerman said. He explained that the facility for homeless girls has no paid public relations staff. Bill Albright, Chamber of Commerce executive, and Mrs. Hall were others present for the committee session.

Never pay attention to those who say mean things about you; the probability is that the speakers reflect themselves.

Straight From The Horse's Mouth

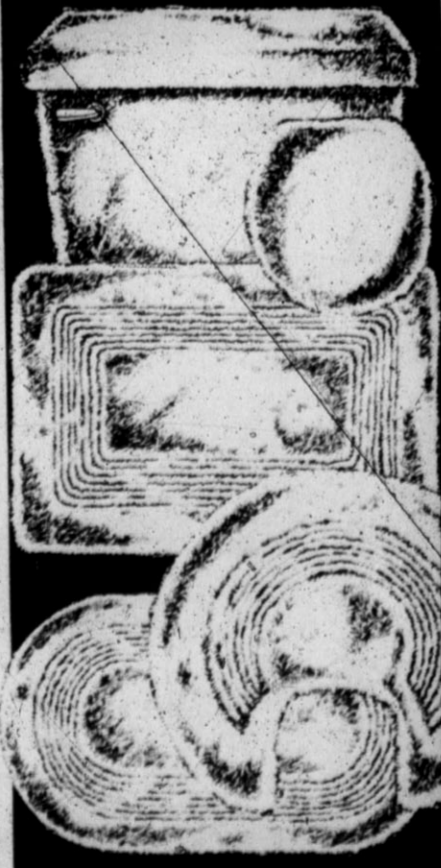

Every horse has six teeth above and below. Before three years old he sheds his middle teeth; at three he sheds one more on either side of the central tooth; at four he sheds two corner and last of the fore teeth. Between four and five, the horse cuts the under tusks; at five will cut the upper tusks, at which time his mouth will be complete. At six years, the grooves and hollows begin to fill up a little; at seven the grooves will be well-nigh filled, except the corner teeth, leaving little brown spots where the dark brown hollows formerly were. At eight the whole of the hollows and grooves are filled up. At nine there is very often seen a small bill to the outside, corner teeth; the point of the tusk is worn off, and the part that was concave begins to fill up and become rounding; the squares of the central teeth begin to disappear, and the gums leave them small and narrow at the top.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

VACATION talk dominates conversations wherever you go these days and some people are talking about trips that make the rest of us wish we could walk off our jobs right now instead of waiting for the assigned time.

Mary Alice Frye, the postmaster at Dawp, cut one trip short to start another one, I heard. She went with Genevieve Miller up to Ohio and thereabouts, but came home before her traveling companion in order to make a tour to Japan with her brother.

Mae Fralin went down to Denton to go with her daughter and friends to Mexico. They had actually started the drive, she says, when they were talking about other favored vacation spots and decided that the Ozarks would really be a better place to go in June, so that's where they went.

They enjoyed Eureka Springs, Ark., and other parts of that country, and Mae came home the first of the week enthusiastic about the trip. It's been a good many years since I was in Eureka Springs, but I could easily be persuaded to change my vacation direction and head back there just any time.

The Bill Lang family returned this week from Colorado, where they have spent vacations for years, even before they moved to Hereford and were living down on the Texas coast. Some of Peggy's best paintings, to my taste, have been done of the mountain country in Colorado.

RELATIVES of Dan Hall, who was injured so seriously in a highway accident at Bootleg Corner about a month ago, happily report that he is still improving and last week was moved from the intensive care unit of an Amarillo hospital.

He was able to undergo surgery 10 days ago and now he is able to have visitors. Although he was listed in critical condition for weeks, his condition has slowly improved so his family has been encouraged as he battled for life.

His parents are the G.V. Halls of the Walcott community. The Tom Halls are his grandparents and Mam Tyler an aunt.

It's good to know that another patient from an Amarillo hospital, Georgia Andrews, has been home this week and is making good recovery after hip surgery.

SHE WILL return to the hospital for a similar operation on the other hip joint, I understand. Meantime, she is probably ready for visitors, too, at the Andrews' home on the Frio road.

The Rev. and Mrs. Sam Ogan and Sammy Ogan returned home this week from several days visit with relatives in Louisiana, East Texas and Dallas, where they attended the Southern Baptist Convention.

An Aunt, Mrs. Tom Hatchett of Stephenville, accompanied the Ogans home and visited them here this week. They took her to Silvertown to visit another aunt, Mrs. Parker Rampley, at Silvertown Friday. Mrs. Jack Andrews and Holly also went along for the visit.

During the two weeks the Ogans were away, the Rev. Freelin Suttle of Hereford preached June 9, and the Rev. Woody Northcutt, pastor missionary from Brookings, S.D., was guest for that evening service. He brought films of his work in the Dakota area.

On June 16 Ronnie Brooks, Stanton teacher and worker from Temple Baptist Church at Hereford was guest speaker for both services.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fisher and children have recently moved to their new home on Cherokee street, Hereford. Lynn and Mary Ann, just before moving, went to Gulf Port, Miss. for his last training session with the Naval Reserve. They have lived near her parents, the E.F. Voglers, since coming home from his service with the Navy.

Mrs. E.F. Vogler was a member of a group of Lutheran women who recently attended a convention for Lutheran Women of Texas at Beaumont.

The E.F. Voglers recently visited his brother, Harold at Lamesa. Several others of the Vogler relatives were there for a family get-together during the weekend.

Beverly Cole accompanied Mrs. Larry Wartes and her daughter, Susan, to Waco recently, where Susan began orientation for entering Baylor University this fall. Mrs. Earl Harkins and Beverly Cole accompanied a group of girls from Frio Baptist Church to High Plains Camp, the first days of the week. Girls included Terri Harkins, Laurie Rogers, Debbie Rogers and Donna West.

Several of the community were in Amarillo to visit Mrs. Owen Andrews recently when she spent nine days at St. Anthony's hospital, having hip joint replacement surgery. She came home June 13 and is recovering as expected.

Doris Jean Andrews, from California, has spent a few weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews.

Mrs. and Mrs. Tony Vigil and Joe attended the funeral for Mrs. Vigil's nephew, Alex Montano, at Portales Wednesday. Montano, 27 was killed in a car accident Saturday night at Ft. Sumner and another man with the Portales group, was critically injured.

VA Expands Insurance

The Veterans' Administration is increasing and extending insurance coverage for 6.8 million veterans, servicemen and ready reservists under the new Veterans Insurance Act enacted May 24.

A major provision of the law, according to Jack Coker, Waco VA Regional Office Director, is an automatic increase in maximum coverage from $15,000 to $20,000 for 2.4 million servicemen on active duty.

Servicemen and ready reservists are insured automatically under Servicemen's Group Life Insurance (SGLI) unless they decline the additional coverage in writing. They may elect to be insured for $5,000, $10,000, $15,000, or not at all, it was noted.

Another provision established, effective August 1, a five-year, nonrenewable Veterans Group Life Insurance (VGLI) which would provide coverage in amounts of $5,000, $10,000 and $20,000. Servicemen leaving active duty could convert their SGLI to VGLI without medical examination. Also eligible for LI are 2.7 million veterans whose SGLI terminated less than four years ago. This group must apply within one year of the effective date of the VGLI program, Coker said.

When an individual's five-year term VGLI runs out, he may convert to an individual policy by applying in writing to a company participating in the VGLI program.

Other highlights of the Veterans Insurance Act of 1974:

Provides SGLI coverage for another 100,000 reservists who are retired or will be retired, have not reached their 61st birthday, and have completed at least 20 years of service creditable for retirement.

Provides for payment of dividends, not to begin before January 1975, to 600,000 Korean Conflict veterans who carry Veterans Special Life Insurance.

Miss Smart Returns From Girls State

Cindy Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Smart of 103 Fir, returned yesterday from the 1974 session of Bluebonnet Girls State in Seguin where she served as Chief of Police. Miss Smart, senior student at Hereford High School, was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary No. 192.

Girls State was organized as a national Americanism activity in 1937 by the American Legion Auxiliary. Non-partisan and non-political, the purposes of the Girls State program are to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age, to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults.

They learn the problems of government by simulating the duties of city, county, and state officials. Each year citizens are selected at local levels from students who have just completed their junior year in high school. The selection is based principally on character, leadership, and scholarship.

The 1974 session of the American Legion Auxiliary Bluebonnet Girls State has grown from an experimental conference of 94 girls, held at Baylor University in 1941, to become the largest single extracurricular educational program for high school girls in Texas. This year 494 girls were in attendance, plus two girls from Mexico making a total of more than 10,750 girls in Texas who participated in this top-level citizenship program.

Former citizens of Girls State and members of the Texas American Legion Auxiliary comprised the 60 members of the staff and counselors who volunteered their services to direct and lead this program.

Chief Justice Joe Greenhill of the Texas Supreme Court administered the oath of office to the elected state officials of Bluebonnet Girls State Monday in the Rotunda of the State Capitol.

One of the highlights of the session which began June 17, and ended Friday was the selection of two outstanding citizens of 1974 who will be sent to Girls Nation in Washington, D.C. by the American Legion Auxiliary. There the two young representatives will continue their study in responsibilities of the Republic.

Two girls were selected to participate in an all Girls State choir to perform for the National Convention of the American Legion Auxiliary to be held in Miami Florida, in August. Also, twelve girls were named to United States Senator Lloyd Bentsen's Internship Program to be held in Washington, D.C., for Bluebonnet Girls State July 7 through July 12. This is the second year Senator Bentsen has sponsored this internship for Texas Girls State.

Scouts Begin Wilderness Trek

Hereford Boy Scouts and Explorers left Thursday for a high-adventure trip to the mountains of Philmont Scout Ranch and Explorer Base in northeastern New Mexico.

The expedition, representing the Llano Estacado Council, Boy Scouts of America, will consist of 20 boys and two leaders from Hereford. Pack leaders attending the wilderness trip are David and Boyd Collins of 806 Miles.

Leaving here by chartered bus were Stan Fry, Greg Albracht, Dennis Collins, Kent Driskill, Scott Dryden, Greg Hacker, Randy Moore, Wade Ohlig, David Sledge and Lance Walton. Also, David Fish, Danny Collins, John Bullard, Terry Beavers, Jason Clark, James Fish, Ed Fry, Dwayne Parsons and Rob Parten.

These youth represented four local troops.

After arriving at the 214 square mile ranch, the expedition met a ranger who led and trained them on the trails for the first three days of their wilderness trek.

On the Philmont trails, the Scouts participate in various programs offered in many mountain camps by more than 400 trained staff members. These programs include earth science, gold panning, rock climbing, archaeological study and digging, burro packing and horseback riding.

Arriving home on July 2, the boys will be counted among the 275,000 other Scouts who have met the rugged Philmont challenge.

Know THE Weather

Why should business meetings, sales meetings and business calls sometimes be planned in consideration of prevailing weather conditions?

We have suggested in an earlier piece that salesmen can profitably take advantage of high pressure periods for making calls and do their "homework" during low pressure periods.

This is true because low pressure automatically affects the nerves by causing dehydration of the tissues. Some people begin to ache and others feel a mental depression. This is not imaginary; it is quite real.

Thus sales meetings, conferences and sales calls could be profitably planned to take place in good weather periods, quite often, when salesmen and prospective buyers are feeling their best. A glance at the weather map will show when high pressure areas (usually fair weather periods) can be expected to arrive in your locality.

ON SOCIAL SECURITY
James B. Cardwell, Social Security Commissioner, warned falling birth rates, larger numbers of retired persons and inflation threaten to create a deficit in the Social Security system's trust funds as early as 1979.

ON CUTTING TROOPS
Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has warned Congress that forcing troop cuts abroad could destabilize the political situation in Western Europe and sabotage U.S. efforts to bring peace in Asia.

Two Bronco Titles Won; One To Go

The Major division still is undecided, though. The Yankees won the first half of season play going undefeated and downing the Dodgers. In the second half of season play the Dodgers were the undefeated team, downing the Yankees 7-4 last Monday night to set up the championship series.

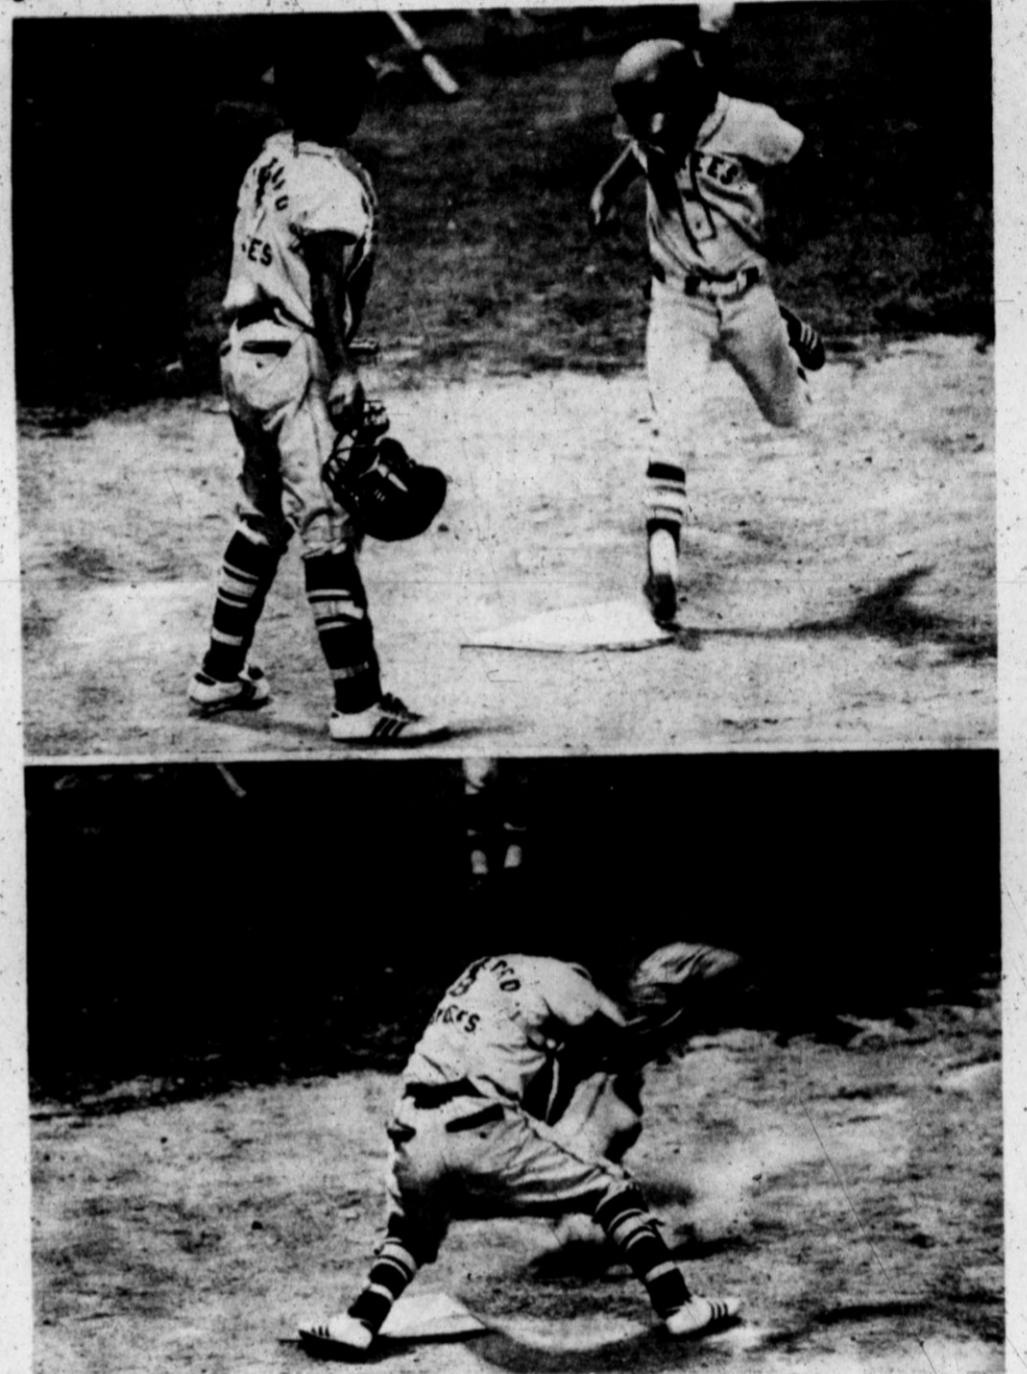

By DAN WELTY
Sports Editor

The PeeWee Giants won their division title outright. The team, sponsored by Hi-plains Savings and Loan, was coached by Toby Torres and Ray Martinez. The Minor Giants won their title outright, coached by Oscar Williams and Doug Banner. Their sponsor was Plains Insurance.

Championships of the Bronco League have been decided in two divisions, but two major division teams battled Saturday night and will continue their championship series Monday night.

Both teams go into the best of three series with 13 and 1 records, with their only losses to each other.

The first championship game for the Yanks and Dodgers was played Saturday night after press time, and no results were available. The second game of

Bronco League Action

A member of the major division Yankees of the Bronco League emphatically scores a run in the late innings of a contest while below, the action at homeplate gets on the warm side. The Yankees lost the game to the Dodgers 7-4, and set up a championship series that began Saturday night.

The series will be played Monday night at the ballpark on Avenue H beginning at 8 p.m. Should the third contest be necessary, it will be played in the same location and time Tuesday night.

The Dodgers are coached by Don Waters and Roger Hillerby, and sponsored by the Hereford Jaycees. The Yanks are coached by Mickey Bishop and Bobby Weaver, with the Woodmen of the World lodge as their sponsor.

All-Stars of the major division will be named at the end of the championship series. Bronco League All-Stars and Pony League All-Stars will be awarded All-Star caps at the special awards banquet to be held June 29 in the Bull Barn. Guest speaker at the banquet will be Texas League president Bobby Bragan. Bragan will make the awards to the All-Stars.

Tickets are available for the banquet from any league member and will be sold at the door the night of the affair. Dickie's restaurant is catering the event, with fried chicken and all the trimmings on the menu.

Bragan is a humorous speaker who provides many insights into the world of baseball. Bragan has played, coached, managed, and served in administrative capacities with Major and Minor League baseball since 1939. In Hank Aaron's new autobiography, almost a full chapter is devoted to Bragan. Bragan managed the Milwaukee Braves and stayed with them until after their move to Atlanta.

Herd Fieldhouse Gets Renovation

Work is nearing completion on an addition and remodeling of Hereford's fieldhouse. Coach Larry Dippel says work was expected to be completed in May, but will not be through until later in the summer.

A main portion of the work done on the addition was handled by the Hereford High School building trades class. The group did concrete, brickwork, and electrical wiring on the addition. As a result, building costs were considerably lower. The only work that had to be contracted was plumbing, concrete and steel erection, and roofing.

Workmen began placing concrete ceiling beams across the new addition to the fieldhouse this week.

The original fieldhouse contained two dressing rooms and public restrooms on each end of the fieldhouse. With the completion of the new stadium, one restroom was converted into an office for head coach and athletic director Dippel, and plans are for the other restroom to be converted into other coaching offices.

The new addition to the fieldhouse's west end measures 30 by 70 feet, and will include a main dressing room, a track dressing room, and a baseball dressing room. The main dressing room in the addition will be used for visiting football teams during the season, and will be used the remainder of the year for wrestling, stretching, and other off-season drills by the football team.

With the addition of the visitor dressing room, one area in the original fieldhouse will be converted into a weight room. The HHS athletic department has acquired new weightlifting machines for the athletes to use.

Coach Dippel is using the summer months to rearrange files and other remodeling work inside.

Fieldhouse Increased

Workmen begin placing concrete ceiling beams on an addition to the Herd fieldhouse. A majority of the work done on the building was completed by the HHS building trades class, knocking the cost of the addition down.

'Rock Horns Dump 'Birds

The Hereford Redbirds lost an American Legion contest to Caprock 12-2 Friday night, and fell to 2-4 for the season.

The Birds had pitching problems from the beginning of the game with Mike Crim on the mound. Crim walked twelve Longhorns in four innings, and was finally relieved by Steve Loerwald. Caprock scored seven runs in the fourth on three hits.

Both of Hereford's runs came in the first inning. Loerwald singled, and then moved to second when Roy Martinez singled. Mike Crim doubled, scoring both Loerwald and Martinez. The only other hit the Bird's got in contest was in the second when Jim Lawson singled to right field.

Mark Leonard was the winning hurler for the Horns. Caprock scored twelve runs on eight hits with one error. Hereford scored twice on four hits with two errors.

The Birds had downed Caprock last weekend 5-4 and fell to Canyon 3-1. Their loss Friday dropped them four games out of first place in the South zone of the American Legion district.

A make-up game with Amarillo High was scheduled for Saturday afternoon after presstime, so no results were available. The Birds will play Palo Duro on the Hereford diamond at 3 p.m. this afternoon.

A philosopher is one who desires to discern the truth.

Junior Golfers Swing In City

The West Texas Junior PGA tour made its swing through Hereford Wednesday, with 37 youngsters competing on the John Pitman Municipal Golf Course.

Last year's tourney in Hereford had over 80 entrants, and course pro Cal Garrett said the light turnout was due to the scheduling conflict with the Texas-Oklahoma Junior Tournament being played in Wichita Falls.

Steve Hyde of Amarillo won first place honors in the 16,17, and 18-year old division with a 74. His closest competitor was David Russel of Amarillo with an 84.

In the 14 and 15-year old division, Scott Sebastian of Amarillo took first with a 75, while Wiley McIntire of Pampa took second place with a 78 after a sudden death playoff.

Jerry Alan of Canyon and James McDowell of Hereford both came in with 85's in the 12 and 13-year old division and went into a sudden death playoff. They played two extra holes before Alan gained a stroke on McDowell.

Winners of the 20 tourneys on the PGA junior tour are eligible for the Tournament of Champions to be held August 7 and 8 at the Ranchland Hill Country Club in Midland. Winners of the Tournament of Champions will be invited to play in the West Texas-New Mexico Junior Cup Matches held in late August.

Other Hereford golfers competing in the tourney Wednesday: George Yocum, 82; Randy Marrs, 98; Greg Paget, 93; James Lyles, 88; Kelly Kitchens, 82; Don Weems, 111; and James McDowell with an 85.

The End Zone

DAN WELTY
IS IT SNOW FEVER when you dream about Colorado skiing trips in the middle of the summer when it's 100 degrees outside?

HATS OFF to Idie Geam. Idie, wife of Kenny Geam, was playing a round of golf with her husband and aced the fifth hole of John Pitman Municipal Tuesday. Kenny says he was embarrassed. The story goes that the two thought the ball was close to the green, although the cup isn't visible from the teebox. The Geams looked all over the apron, and finally found the ball in the cup!

HERE'S A STORY that's been passed through several hands, but recently appeared in the Reader's Digest:

Midway through a performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, the basses had a long rest. They were thirsty, so they slipped out and went to the friendly neighborhood bar. They timed their stay very carefully, yet each managed to down several drinks. Then they hurried back to the music hall in time for the big finish.

They weren't too worried that they might miss their opening cue because they had wrapped string around the closing pages of the opus with a note asking the conductor not to open them until their return.

You can imagine the feelings of the conductor when the basses breezed in and he realized that it was the bottom of the ninth, the basses were loaded, and the score was tied.

I explained it to my wife three times, and she still didn't get it.

GREG BANNER, PRESIDENT of Hereford's Bronco League, set me straight on the female enlistment rule. The Bronco League is not a member of the National Little League, but a member of Boys Baseball, Incorporated. Banner says the local leagues will be allowed to play females with the written permission of the sanctioning body. The catch is that females will not be allowed to play in any tournaments.

JIM BOUTON, PITCHING star of the Yankees-turned TV sportscaster-turned real estate man, wrote in his book "Ball Four" of a young lady asking one of the Yanks if he was married. Came the reply, "Yeah, but I'm not a fanatic about it."

KEEP YOUR EYES on the AAU summer track program in Hereford. It may produce some have a release signed by their parents.

Trophies or plaques will be awarded to the winner and runnerup in all divisions after final play at the awards picnic. The picnic will be held at the winners that will go all the way to the National AAU Meet in Lincoln, Nebraska August 9-12. About 75 youngsters are competing in the program, and they'll have competed in Brownfield by the time you read this. Hereford and the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will host an AAU prelim June 29, then the district AAU meet will be held July 6 in Borger, with the regional meet to follow in Borger July 20. Out of 75, at least one Hereford youngster and maybe several should be AAU regional champs.

The only bad twist is that 13-year-old and younger kids don't advance any further than the regionals. The older winners are the only ones that will trip to the national meet.

Director of the Hereford Track Club is Dr. Joe Whitley. Whitley began the program in Hereford three summers ago and it's turned into a family project. Wife Jerre helped with the actual coaching and whatever else needed done in the first two years, but now does most of the bookwork. She was a cheerleader, basketball, baseball and tennis player in high school.

The Whitleys have four girls, and each is involved in the program. Kimberly, at four-years-old, can't compete yet, but she sometimes runs at practices. DeDe is seven and just beginning her track career.

Twelve-year-old Sandy amazed everyone at the Parks and Recreation Department track meet in Amarillo last Saturday with her performance in the long jump. Last year she longjumped 13-7, this spring jumped 16-4 and now reaches 18 feet in practice. At the PARD meet, she twice mumped over 16 feet, and then leaped 18-4 on her third jump. It would have been a national record had Sandy not stepped over the board on takeoff.

Pam is 14 a cheerleader and honor student at LaPlata. She jumps as well as her younger sister, and won two first places, a second, and was on a first-place relay team at the Amarillo meet.

Dr. Whitley said he really doesn't have a track background. He just got interested when the kids became involved. Why has he stayed with it and worked so hard in the program? "Because the kids have tremendous dedication. I didn't realize this until I started working with the track program."

Signup For Tennis Tourney Ends Tues.

Registration for the City Tennis Tournament sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will come to an end Tuesday, June 25.

The tournament is to run from Friday, June 27 through Sunday, June 30 with an awards picnic to follow the finals the last day.

Steve Thomas and Burns Hamilton are director and chairman, respectively, of the tourney. Hamilton said the unique quality of the tourney is that all the players will not be highly skilled, and that anyone entering will have a chance to win some matches. In this respect, said Hamilton, the tourney is more of a fun outing than serious competition.

Thomas, who instructs at the Hereford Country Club, is requiring all of his students to compete in the tourney. He feels the competition is necessary to groom the youngsters as tennis players.

Preparations for the tourney are reaching a climax, and Bill Albright of the DSCCC has already purchased fifteen dozen tennis balls for use during tournament play.

There will be eight events in which to compete: 12 and under boys-girls; 14 and under boys-girls; 16 and under boys-girls; 18 boys-girls; 18 and under boys-girls; men (open) women (open) jr. vet (35 and over men); and mixed doubles.

Entry fees are $3 for singles and $5 per team for doubles. Fees must accompany entries for contestants to be eligible. Children under 18 planning to compete in the tourney must

Sorting Gift Books

Stacks of books, magazines and records are being accumulated by DAR members for their sale July 6, when they will raise money to buy a microfilm reader for Deaf Smith County Library. Members are sorting and pricing the sale items; in this group working at Community Center are, from left, Mmes. Stan Knox, Jess Robinson, L.W. Norvell, and seated, Mrs. J.J. Durham.

Books Wanted For DAR Benefit Sale

Used books being collected by Los Ciboleros Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, will not be given to place on Deaf Smith County Library shelves, but sold to raise funds for a gift to the library. Mrs. L.W. Norvell, regent, wishes to make clear. Sorting and pricing books already donated for the sale is underway in work sessions by DAR members and the sale is scheduled for July 6.

More books of all kinds, periodicals and records are wanted. Hereford residents are asked to clean their bookshelves and donate volumes they no longer want, but someone else may.

Money from the sale will be used for a microfilm scanner to be placed in the genealogical section at the new library building. It would be available for uses in addition to the research in family history which is the principal interest of DAR members.

Books are being classified in the general pattern used for annual sales at Amarillo Public Library, and prices will be on the same approximate level.

Fiction and non-fiction, children's and adult books, paperback or hardback, will be priced beginning at 10 cents and ranging up to $2.50, or more in the case of current and much-wanted books in good condition. Odd volumes of sets will be priced from 25 cents each, with complete sets of encyclopedias and the Harvard Classics up to $45. Unabridged dictionaries will go from $1.50 to $5. Condition of the books will be a factor in the price and so will demand. Autographed volumes will be valued at a higher rate. Records are also wanted for the sale, albums and singles in 78, 45, and 33 types. The singles will be sold for 10 cents to 75 cents.

Service Pins Presented To Red Cross Volunteers

Years of service were honored by the Red Cross Volunteers at lunch in Civic Club Center Thursday, when Mrs. Henry Neely received her 15-year pin and Mrs. O.H. Culpepper an added bar for her 10-years of professional work, as Red Cross executive secretary in Deaf Smith County. She is this week filling that job temporarily while Genevieve Miller is on vacation.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the lunch with Mrs. Emil Dettman as chairman, Mrs. Clinton Jackson vice chairman, Isabel Martinez secretary and Mrs. Cecil Braly telephone chairman.

Service pins for shorter terms than those of Mrs. Neely and Mrs. Culpepper were presented. Mmes. Sam Morgan and Bill Hutson were recognized for eight years of service, Mmes. Andrew Kerphen and Jackson for five years, Mmes. Dettman, Jim Culpepper, Mae Fralin, Gaylon Bryan and Martinez for three years.

A total of 62 hours spent in volunteer community service last month, was reported by seven members. Guests were Mrs. Bob Henderson, a visitor from Pharr who works with Red Cross volunteers in that Rio Grande Valley city, and Mrs. Floyd Coleman.

Mrs. Michael Higgins
nee Margaret Phipps

The marriage of Miss Margaret Phipps and Geoge Michael Higgins was read by the Rev. William A. Lang, vicar of St. Thomas Methodist Church, in a Saturday evening service in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church. Daisies and white gladiolas made a center bouquet set the cross on the altar table, and filled pedestal vases on either side where candelabra held white tapers. Pews were marked with white ribbon bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Phipps of 429 Star, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Higgins of the Higgins Ranch north of Hereford.

Her father gave Miss Phipps in marriage and her sister, Mrs. David Emerick was her matron of honor. Robert Higgins served his brother as best man. Other bridesmaids were Mrs. Doug Wittie of Canyon and Mrs. Terry Albracht. Dean Riddle and D'Wayne Gannon of Post were groomsmen, Danny Jones and David Emerick the ushers.

Younger attendants were Kimberly Jill Emerick, flower girl, and Clay Easley, who carried the rings on a heart-shaped cushion. Deborah Fielder and Janelle Coupe lighted candles before the ceremony.

With Miss Linda Gilbert as organ accompanist, Miss Donna Kendall sang the Lords Prayer and Wedding Song. Miss

Gilbert also played the marches and background music.

Venise lace overlaid the bodice of the bride's empire gown and extended over the shoulders in sleeve caps. Below lace points, full organza sleeves billowed to lace cuffs and two layers of the sheer fabric were slightly flared in a floor-length skirt. A train attached with a bow at center back waistline.

Extending over the train, the bottom layer of illusion in her veil edged with lace flowerets, was topped with two bouffant layers caught to a lace-bordered Juliet cap.

Carnations, stephanotis and English ivy composed her bouquet.

Her attendants were dressed in sapphire chiffon gowns with puffed sleeves, and over the dresses, boleros of darker blue velvet trimmed in sequins and braid. They carried nosegays of daisies and asters in pastel colors with ribbon streamers.

Their headpieces and those of the candlelighters were clusters of fresh flowers in varied tints. The flower girl's basket was filled with multicolored petals.

Mrs. Phipps wore for her daughter's wedding a pink floor-length dress with sleeves of heavy lace. The skirt was pleated and the waist belted. The bridegroom's mother chose an empire dress in lilac shade, its draped waist trimmed in crystal.

They greeted guests with the just-married couple at a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Carl K. Black of Paducah, sister of the bridegroom, ladled punch while Miss Patricia Hill served the wedding cake.

At the groom's table, Mrs. John Boney of Gruver and Mrs. Bill Strenburger of Pampa served cake and coffee. Mrs. Dick Coupe invited guests to register.

Bride-and-groom figurines which were used on the cake at Mrs. Emerick's wedding reception topped the colonnade cake which was based on four heart-shaped layers and decorated in pastel colors.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Higgins left for a Colorado honeymoon. The bride wore for travel a black and white halter dress with red accents matching her sandals.

They will be at home at 112 Avenue H, Apartment 7, by the end of this week.

The bride was a December graduate of West Texas State University and Higgins has attended South Plains and Texas Tech. Both are graduates of Hereford High School.

Out-of-city guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J.D. McCain of Gainesville; Mrs. Carl Brown, Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Dupree, Jim Alexander, Ray Laing and Henry Castle of Amarillo; Carl K. Black of Paducah and Doug Wittie of Canyon.

Youth Program Gets Good Start

Twirlers

Hereford High twirlers teach technique and routines to younger girls. Beginners get special coaching, background.

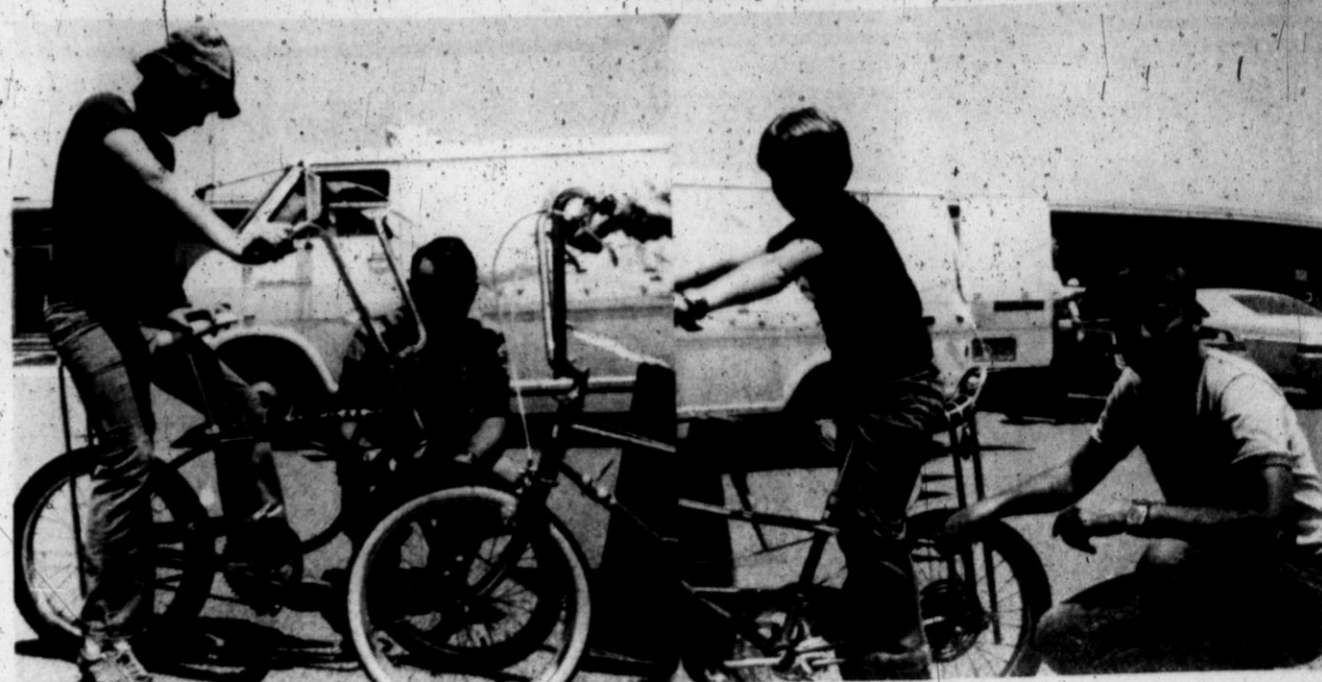

Art Class

Pupils practice with colors and then work on pictures, with Anna Kovacs and Mildred Guinn as teachers.

More To Come!

It's not too late for kids to get into the Summer Youth Program at Community Center; some activities haven't even started yet. Those signed up for tennis will be notified this week of beginning time, and others may join. Crafts will be taught by Mrs. Bill Warrick and Mrs. Alex Schroeter beginning at 2 p.m. Tuesday with classes set Tuesdays and Thursdays...those who want in are asked to bring a hammer and a dollar.

Bike Rodeo

City police officers helped in the bicycle rodeo last week. Cyclists who missed it are invited to take their bikes to the police station for registration, a protection against theft.

Indoor Games

Don Marshall, giving a pupil in photo above a lesson in playing Michigan, directs a variety of games at Community Center from 10:30 to noon Wednesday and Friday. Boys in upper right photo appear amazed at the server's shot in table tennis. A group of children from a church vacation school dropped in at one session last week and some of the younger ones were invited into a singing game of Farmer in The Dell, lower right photo.

Stretch & Sew

Watch Fashion in the making.

Stretch & Sew home economist Helen Lemons will show you how to sew with knits the Stretch & Sew way. Here's your chance to learn Stretch & Sews remarkable sewing with knits techniques in action. Get personal advice about sewing with knits, fabric selection and fabric care.

Lots Of Kittens Enliven Surroundings On Farm

THIS PAST week has been good in a lot of ways. But we are having some real trouble down on the farm. This time it isn't weather and markets. It's the livestock the feline population to be specific.

Kitty Cat is great; she catches all kinds of rodents, some nearly as large as she is, keeps the rats and mice in check. There's no way to put a value on her. But I have to say, I believe she can have more kittens in a year's time than any cat we've ever owned.

She's secretive of the whereabouts of the newborn, moves them daily to keep them hidden from her people and then suddenly appears at the door looking very smug as if to say, "Surprise, look, what I've done just for You."

THE BATTLE is then on with each kitten wanting to come in the house to see what people living is all about. These kittens are all characters each with its own personality.

There's Fluffo, a little yellow long-haired cutie who is the most aggressive. He keeps a fight going all the time. In a group there's always one, whether human or kitten, that can't be left idle.

They Shorty, grey and white, whose eyes are almost angelic. Junior, the image of Wednesday Morning, the famous cat who brightened our lives a long time ago. And the smallest of the litter, Monkey.

He's like a spider monkey running up posts and trees looking back over his shoulder constantly to see if any of his siblings are gaining. He's like a lot of people looking back half the time to see if he is still ahead.

THE ODDDEST thing, happened. There was a great yowling in the barn and on investigation it developed the wail was coming from a stray kitten who had been a little too slow as his tail had been caught in a door of a feeder.

His tail was simply peeled. He was begging desperately for help. Ed Taylor assured us he had enough nerve to perform the surgery. With a sharp razor blade, this little black-faced kitten suddenly became Bob Cat. (Can Ed be arraigned for malpractice?)

Bob Cat knew at once he had been greatly befriended and to show his appreciation, he joined the motley group, appearing he is of the manor born.

Big-hearted Kitty Cat has taken Bob Cat into the family and treats him like her own, feeding him, keeping him clean, and teaching him some manners. Question: Can the mice and rats multiply fast enough to feed this bunch?

THERE IS one of the wildest game hens setting in some ground ivy near the house. The other day, she was on the warpath and got to flogging kittens and had a kitten in every tree and those kittens were on the highest branches.

Shortly learned what "making the fur fly" means. The hen was flogging Shorty and he'd roll in a little fat ball with the hen really working him over and fur flying all over the yard.

Too you should have seen Monkey scurrying up the tree looking back over his shoulder which seems to be his inherent nature. He was going up that tree sideways but he didn't stop until he got to the top. It goes without saying that he stayed there until after dark.

Oh dear, I guess in all lines of endeavor, there are some weeks that cause people to wonder about the whole state of affairs

Looking at WASHINGTON

Milk Bribes

The Democratic leadership of the House Judiciary Committee has been striving mightily of late to link President Nixon to dairy industry campaign contributions in the form of bribes.

This, of course, would be difficult to prove, but the irony of it all popped up during the first week in June when a wire service reported many members of the committee had also accepted campaign contributions from the same dairy industry.

And, since Congress passed a law to raise dairy prices that same year, it would seem House members who accepted the gifts, though smaller in actual amounts, are open to the same charge or suspicion. Two members of the committee hastily returned their contributions when the story broke this month, indicating their sensitivity on this subject.

That might explain why the public, watching the name-calling and finger-pointing in Washington this past fifteen months, rates Congress lower in esteem than the President, who also gets low marks. In short, the politics of scandal is not missed by John Q. Public.

From The Brand Files

50 YEARS AGO

Last Friday Sheriff Miller and J.C. McDonald made a night raid at Taseosa and captured a small still, corn liquor and mash, and one man, who gave his name as McMullin... Seven men and a twenty gallon keg of doubtful corn "hootch" was the net results of a joint raid by peace officers of Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties last Sunday afternoon on the old George Sasche place, or Jackson ranch about twenty-eight miles northwest of Hereford in Deaf Smith County.

35 YEARS AGO

Fifteen new cars in twelve days that is the record of Hereford automobile dealers since the first of June... With a total of $137,718,281 in conservation checks already in Hereford, employees in the county agent's office today said that most of the checks have been distributed to farmers over this area... Grasshoppers are hatching thicker in some communities this year than they did last year.

20 YEARS AGO

This year the Hereford Lions Club annual carnival profits are scheduled to be used in adding another row of lights at the football field to fill in some of the dark spots left by the present lighting system... Women bootleggers aren't too common these parts, despite the fact that a 34-year-old woman who pleaded guilty in County Court here Wednesday, told the judge that she was selling beer for 50 cents a can.

10 YEARS AGO

A feud between neighbors concerning run-off tail-water boiled to a head Monday as the dispute was placed before the Deaf Smith County City Commissioners Court for settlement.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

"On our domestic scene we should be realistic enough to appreciate that our first priority is to restore political stability in Congress and the Presidency and then unite to face the major problem of inflation. Business, government and labor would do well to face the reality of contending inflation and the threat it poses to our institutions. All three have more to gain by working together than retreating from reality and sniping at one another politically. Maybe a domestic Summit involving labor, business and government is in order!"

WATERVILLE, WASH., EMPIRE-PRESS

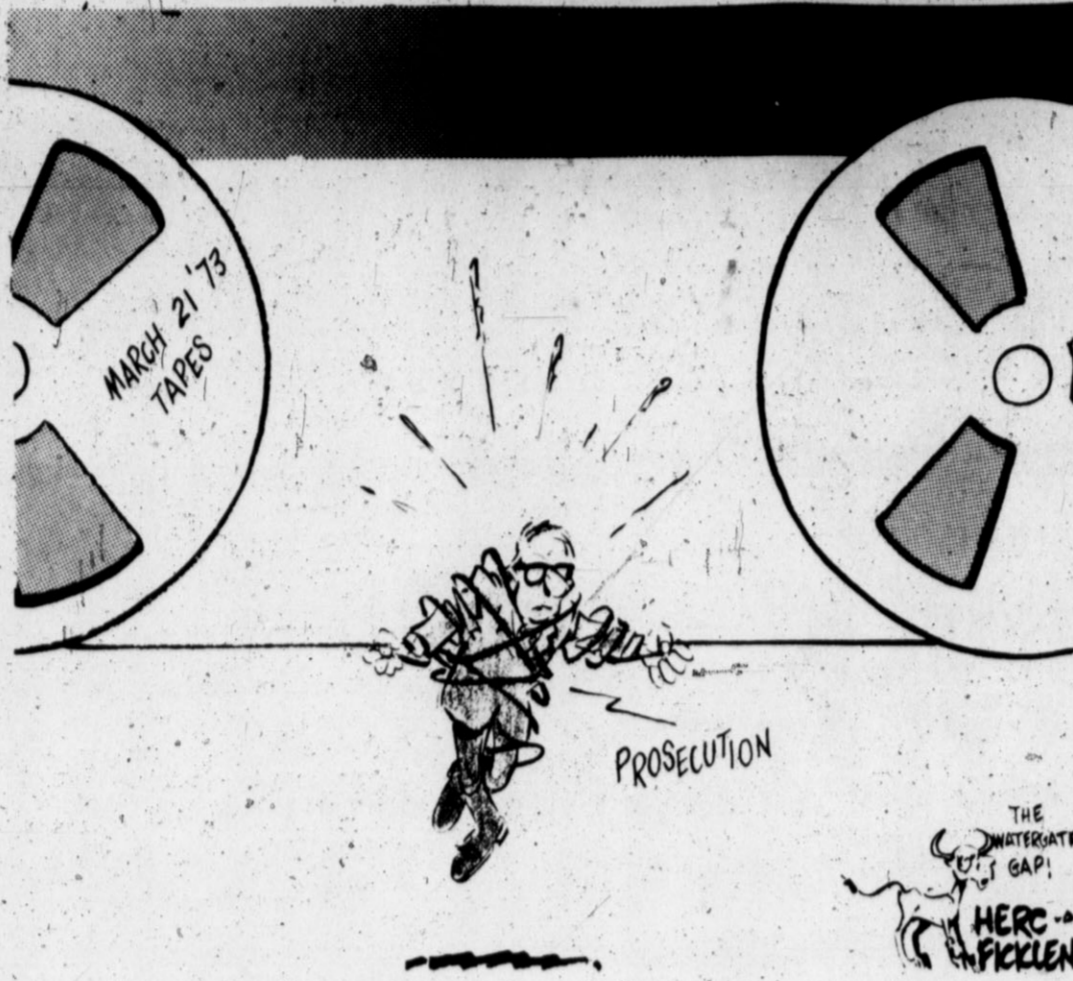

"Leave it to youth. A new teen-age pastime, I'm told, has sprung up. The young people drive into a closed gas station, unhook their car's gas tank, stick the dry nozzle in the filler pipe and stand by. Immediately, a line of cars forms behind them. When the line is long enough to suit them, they hand up the hose and drive off. Doggone those cute kids!"

The Sunday Brand Editorial Forum

Hereford, Texas, Sunday, June 23, 1974

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed grass farm on Bootleg Corner encounters a problem which he soon abandons.

Dear editor:
It makes you stop and think. Twenty-eight Congressmen, according to an article I read in a newspaper last night, are quitting Congress this year.

That's right. Twenty-eight are just not going to run again not counting 13 others who're going to run for something else.

SOME OF the 28 are quitting because of old age and a satisfactory pension but a lot of them, including some young ones, are quitting because they just don't like the job, and I got to wondering: what if the trend continues? What if Congress convenes next January for a new session and discovers half of the seats are empty? What kind of country would we have if we couldn't get a quorum to serve in Congress? It's like asking what kind of university could you have if nobody came out for the football team?

Now I can understand why a man maybe wouldn't want to serve in Congress and risk ruining his reputation when he could stay at home and never get caught, but somebody's got to do it. You can't have un-passed legislation piling up in Washington any more than you can un-collected trash in a city. Of course some will argue the two aren't parallel, that at least a city does have a place to bury its trash but when Congress passes a law it spreads all over the country.

HOWEVER THE more I contemplated the problem the more I concluded it's like most problems—more awful in contemplation than in reality. I have a notion a swarm of candidates will be contesting for those 28 vacated Congressional seats and when the roll is called in January 28 new faces will show up.

As I have long contended, there never was a man some woman wouldn't marry or an office somebody wouldn't run for.
Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Talk of Texas

BY JACK MAGUIRE

GOD'S COUNTRY...Texans over the years have used some unique devices to testify to the glory of a Supreme Being.

In 1890, A.M. Turnbull deeded 144 acres of pine forest in Polk County to the Lord God of Israel. Turnbull hoped to make God's little acreage an earthly Promised Land.

For 51 years, Jesus Christ was the sole owner of a general merchandise store in Waller. God's Mercy Store is closed now, but the operators, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Purvis, deeded it to Jesus in 1916.

Now God is a co-plaintiff in a $7 billion damage suit filed recently in Dallas against the U.S. government. Donald Glynn Sneed, who brought the suit, had God join him in the action because he seeks the damages on behalf of everybody on earth.

Sneed claims the damages because of the deaths and casualties of "God's children" in U.S. wars. He also wants reimbursement "for the selling of God's and my property without permission...for example, water, minerals, food, clothing and shelter" and for a number of other reasons listed in the petition.

God gave him "verbal permission" to file the suit, Sneed claims. However, the government is expected to argue that Federal law requires a plaintiff's written consent before a suit can be brought in his name.

If the court upholds that argument, the matter could become moot. Unless, of course, Sneed can produce God's written consent.

GOING, GOING, GONE!...The Southern Hotel at Llano, last of the chain of inns that once served passengers on the stage route between Austin and El Paso, has been marked for destruction.

The three-story hotel, once noted for its fine food, was built about 1880. It hasn't been operated as a hotel for more than 20 years, however, and presently is used as a warehouse for a hardware store.

Unions Aim At Public Workers

BY ARCH BOOTH

In a conversation with the British philosopher David Hume, Lord John Russell inquired, "What do you consider the object of legislation?"

"The greatest good to the greatest number," replied Hume.

"And what do you consider the greatest number?"

"Number one," said Hume.

Hume's tongue-in-cheek philosophy seems to have been taken to heart by America's public employee unions, which are becoming even more militant than organized workers in the private sector.

During 1973, walkouts by school personnel in five major cities resulted in a total of more than 1.3 million man-days idle while the next largest group of big strikes — construction industry strikes — resulted in only 1.2 million man-days of idleness.

Thus far in 1974 we have already seen strikes by firemen in New York and Milwaukee, teachers in Kansas City, garbage men in Cleveland, and enough of San Francisco's municipal employees to virtually shut the city down.

IN THE LAST decade or so there has been an explosion of union organizing among public employees. Today more than 4.5 million public employees are union members. More than one half of all federal employees are now represented by unions — a much greater percentage of representation than in the private sector.

The members of these unions have a perfect right to consider "number one" first — a right they share with all other Americans. It is their means, not their ends, that are causing trouble.

What means? Strikes. In all but a handful of states, strikes by public employees are against the law. And for good reason. If a small minority of the population of a city, state or country can extort money from the majority by withholding a vital service, or merely by threatening to withhold it, then the majority does not rule; it is a captive of the minority. The unions usually advance two arguments in favor of the "right" of public employees to strike:

1. They should have the same "rights" as all other workers.

This argument has two flaws in it. First, public employees are not the same as all other workers. They often hold vital posts of public trust and they are in a unique position to abuse the power society accords to carry out their work. Further, they are not conscripts. If they do not like the terms of public employment, they may leave it and seek work in the private sector.

THE SECOND thing wrong with this argument is that there is really no such thing as a "right" to strike, even in the private sector. The common law recognized no such right, the Constitution protects no such right, the Supreme Court has never held there is a constitutionally protected right to strike, and until 1935, no statute explicitly granted such a privilege. Therefore, the strike privilege is a matter for regulation by our elected legislators, who in most cases have chosen to withhold it from public employees.

2. Public employees are going to strike anyway, so why not give up and legalize it?

This second argument says a lot about the arrogance of organized labor in our society today. It is the direct equivalent of saying that banks are going to be robbed anyway, so why not legalize theft?

The public employees' unions — with the blessing of the rest of organized labor — would like to take control of public employee strikes out of the hands of the states and give it to the federal government. Then, sooner or later — sooner if the AFL-CIO gets its "veto-proof Congress" in the 1974 elections — all public employee strikes would be legalized by a federal act.

If you think your taxes are high now, just wait till that day comes.

Travel Firm Cuts

Britain Distance

by Bert Mills.

The Britainsrinkers is the apt name of a two-year-old travel firm in London which sells packaged tours to visitors who wish to see famous places that can be reached by train and bus in a single day.

For example, Oxford is 53 miles from London, a bit far in today's traffic by bus or car if time is to be left to see the sights. But by utilizing Britain's efficient railroad system along with a chartered bus, Britainsrinkers can offer an attractive one-day trip that includes Oxford, Blenheim Palace, and the Cotswolds.

The reporter was among 34 travelers, almost all of them Americans, who made this tour. The all-inclusive price was 7.5 pounds, or $18. Similar trips, all achieved between breakfast and dinner, are offered in summer months to Warwick Castle, Stratford-upon-Avon, and Coventry; York and Harewood House; Dover and Canterbury; and Salisbury, Stonehenge, Longleat, and Bath.

We started from Paddington Station, London, at 9:05 a.m., where an efficient lady guided us to a reserved coach on a regular train. Sixty-five minutes later we were in Oxford, after watching from our eight-passenger compartment as the city became suburbs and the green countryside. The river Thames was frequently alongside.

Oxford is known as "the city of spires". Its impressive skyline is a proper introduction to one of the most famed academic communities in the world. Oxford is named for a ford in the Thames where oxen were used to cross, and dates back to 912. Oxford's population is about 105,000, including 25,000 employed in auto manufacturing plants.

THE UNIVERSITY of Oxford is made up of 30 colleges, all founded at different times dating back to the 13th century. The most recent was completed in 1960. Most of the buildings were erected in the 17th century or later. Scaffolding is a regular part of the Oxford scene because of the need to repair ancient structures.

At Oxford, a college is a residential hall where students live. Various unrelated academic disciplines are represented within a particular college. In the U.S., arts and engineering students are enrolled in different colleges, but not so at Oxford. Oxford has about 11,000 students, only medium size by American standards.

There are no private universities in England. Oxford and all other universities are financed by the Federal government. Students pay only their room and board, and that is subsidized on the basis of family need. No one can qualify academically is refused admission for financial reasons.

Students at Oxford look very much like students everywhere. They do not wear academic gowns to lectures, and they ride bicycles to get about the campus. Since 1870, Oxford has been co-ed, and five of the colleges are exclusively female. Cambridge has integrated colleges and our female guide thinks mabe Oxford will follow suit next year.

LEAVING OXFORD by bus, our tour took us into the Cotswolds, rolling hills with charming villages. Lunch was served in the 12-room Bull Hotel at Burford, Oxfordshire, which dates back to the 16th century but has been modernized. From Burford, it was only 14 miles to Blenheim Palace, home of 11 Dukes of Marlborough, and birthplace of Winston Churchill.

Since Sir Winston was born in 1874, Blenheim has a special program this centennial year to commemorate the Prime Minister during World War II. His historic words promising only "blood, toil, tears and sweat" are on soundtrack. Our tour concluded with a visit to Churchill's grave in a simple country church courtyard at Bladen, a village two miles from the Palace he made famous.

Americans visiting London might well forsake the city for a day such as the Britainsrinkers offer.

Silver Wedding Dates Observed

Mr. and Mrs. Hilrey Aven, who have lived in Hereford during the 25 years of their marriage, will be honorees at a reception in their home this afternoon in observance of the silver anniversary. Their children will be hosts and family friends are invited to call between 3 and 5 p.m.

The Avens reside at 230 Ranger. The reception hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aven of Canyon, Joycelyn, Lewis and Mike Aven of Hereford.

The anniversary will actually fall on Wednesday. Mary Lou Allmon and Hilrey Aven were married June 26, 1949, in the Church of Christ here.

Daughter of the D.C. Allmons, she grew up near Friona and graduated from high school there, then was employed with the Hereford Insurance Agency before her marriage. Aven has been with the Big-T Pump Co. the past 27 years.

Mason-Pittard Marriage Vows Spoken In Church

Miss Cheri Rene Mason and Joel Lee Pittard were married in an evening ceremony Friday in First United Methodist Church with the Rev. J.L. Bozeman, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mason, southwest of Hereford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Pittard, 201 Sunset.

The church was decorated with a bouquet of white mums and daisy poms centered at the altar with candelabra.

Miss Nelda Valdez served the bride as maid of honor and bestman was the bridegroom's brother, Michael Pittard.

Bridesmaids were the bride's sisters, Misses Kristi and Marinda Mason, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Laura Pittard. Groomsmen were Jerry Roberts, Mark Newman and Jay Williams.

Ushering guests to their seats were the bride's brother and cousin, Van Mason and Gerry Robbins, also Tommy Johnson and Carl Shufleburger.

The bride's cousins, Cara and Scott Robbins, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Duvall of Amarillo, served as flower girl and ringbearer. Candle lighters were Angelica Valdez and the bridegroom's brother, James Pittard.

There Is Love and His And Hers were sung by Miss Joyce Brady, accompanied by Mrs. Tony Calkins, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length A-line dress of nylon organza and re-embroidered Chantilly lace over bridal taffeta designed with a high madarin neckline, empire waist and bishop sleeves.

Inserts of lace bordered the neckline, bodice, sleeves and skirt of the gown. The back of the skirt ended in a chapel train. Her veil of imported illusion, trimmed in lace, was attached to a coil. She carried a cascade of carnations and ivy.

The maid of honor wore a white dress patterned in orchid flowers, was belted with a purple ribbon. Bridesmaids wore identically styled orchid dresses with white floral design and purple belts.

Miss Sue Smith registered guests at the reception held in fellowship hall of the church. Miss Karene Hart and Mrs. Fred Bevil served punch with Steve Robbins assisting.

The table was covered with a white cloth and centered with candles arranged on either side of the attendants' bouquets.

The bride's traveling costume consisted of a pink, beige and brown suit with beige accessories. She wore a corsage taken from her bridal bouquet. The couple will make their home in Hereford after their wedding trip.

Both are graduates of Hereford High School. The bride is employed at Westgate nursing home, and the bridegroom is with Hereford Airport.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. L.R. Brooks of Garland, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Pittard Jr. of Austin, Jamie Pittard of Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Brooks, Russel, Don and Larry of Las Cruces, New Mex.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kercher of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robbins and Mrs. L.D. Robbins of Albuquerque New Mex.

Wedding Date Set

Miss Debbie Connelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Connelly of 150 Centre, and Tony Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gorman of 215 Ave. A., will exchange wedding vows August 10 in First Baptist Church. Miss Connelly is a 1974 graduate of Hereford High School where she was a member of the Honor Society. She is employed by Campbell Realtors. Gorman, also a HHS graduate, attended West Texas State University where he was co-member of the varsity football team. He is employed with his father at Gorman Paint Contractor.

First Aid Class Meets OSHA Requirements

The recently revised Red Cross first aid course to be taught in a class sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division this summer, meets requirements of the new Occupational Safety and Health Act, and employees who will be required to take this training are invited to enroll.

Mrs. W.E. Sparks, public affairs chairman in the Women's Division, announces that business firms which need to have employees trained in order to comply with OSHA, should see that they join the class which is planned to begin the first week in July.

The class is open also to individuals who want the training, regardless of job requirements. Any who are interested may notify Mrs. Sparks.

John Gilliland, an approved first aid instructor, will be the teacher. He has taught a number of classes in the Red Cross program here, giving instruction to clubs and groups of employees.

July Payments Note Increase

The second part of a two-step increase in monthly social security benefits will be included in checks delivered in July, according to Travis C. Briggs social security manager in Amarillo.

The overall increase will amount to 11 per cent for most people getting social security payments. A 7 per cent increase was included in checks starting in April.

The increase will enhance the financial security of about 30 million people who get social security benefits. People getting social security checks don't have to do anything to get the higher payments. The increase will be added automatically.

Starting in July, average social security retirement payments will go from $161 to $181 a month. Average social security disability payments will go from $184 to $206 a month. Average survivors payments to a widowed mother with two children in her care will go from $418 to $435 a month.

For 1974 the amount of yearly earnings subject to social security deductions has been increased from the first $10,800 to the first $13,200, but there is no increase in the contribution rate. Employees and employers will continue to pay 5.8 per cent each on covered earnings, and the rate for self-employed people drops to 7.9 per cent.

Brownd Earns Masters Degree

Captain Richard G. Brownd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gid E. Brownd of 241 Star St., has graduated with a master's degree at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center.

The captain studied under the Air Force Institute on Technology program that provides selected Air Force members with resident education in scientific, engineering and other fields at civilian universities or industrial organizations.

He is being reassigned to Keesler AFB, Miss., with the USAF hospital.

Captain Brownd, a 1966 graduate of Hereford High School, received a B.S. degree in 1970 from West Texas State University.

His wife, Gloria, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Franklin of 1856 Mimosa, Abilene.

Fashion

Pants suits are used extensively as travel wear and many are of knitted materials. Some of the newest suits are covered with tiny flower prints and they may have long or short sleeves according to their use.

Bride's Father Directs Wedding Vows Saturday

In a ceremony conducted by the bride's father, Miss Linda Yvonne Reyna and David Paul Coakley of Stillwater, Okla. were married at mid-afternoon Saturday in Central Church of Christ at Tulsa.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Pete R. Reyna Sr., 802 Blevins. The bridegroom is the son of Bill Coakley of Lawton, Okla., and Mrs. Mary K. Moore of Stillwater. Mr. Reyna, pastor of the Spanish Church of Christ here, escorted his daughter to the altar and performed the marriage.

Miss James Szilla of Chicago was maid of honor and Mark Broyles of Stillwater acted as best man. Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Marquez of Hereford, Miss Maria Brandana of Stillwater, Mrs. Ernest Reyna of Denver, Mrs. Leon Hernandez of Lubbock and Mrs. Delfine Ruiz of Amarillo.

Brothers of the bridegroom, lighted candles.

of Newport News, Va., and Rachel Cortez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Febronio Cortez, were the flower girls and Richard Reyna of Newport News the ring bearer.

Music was by a chorus from the church and an a cappella duet by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray of Angleton. Selections included If, I Will and Whither Thou Goest.

The bride's gown had a skirt of silk-faced organza and bodice of eyelet organza trimmed with bands of slipper satin. Ruching edged the neckline and long sleeves which were puffed at the shoulder. The skirt was flounced at the hemline and trimmed with a band of lace in good luck charm design, sweeping into a train.

A queen's crown of white satin with pearl trim held the long train of Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and daisies, and as an heirloom piece wore her grandmother's pearl necklace. Her attendants wore floor length gowns of flocked sheer in springtime shades of green, yellow and white. Each had a bouquet of chrysanthemums to match her dress.

A reception in the chandelier room of First National Bank at Tulsa followed the wedding, then the couple left on a trip to Denver and surrounding mountain areas. They plan to return by the end of this month.

Mrs. Coakley attended York Christian College at York Neb., the past school year and was a member of Beta Beta Sigma. She graduated from Abraham Lincoln High School in Denver.

The bridegroom also attended York Christian College, was a member of Frater Sodalitas and pitcher for the college baseball team. He studied at Oklahoma State University the first year after graduation from C.B. Donart High at Stillwater.

In addition to his parents, wedding guest from other cities included Mrs. Bill Hayes and Mrs. Cleo Paden of Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coakley of Hobart, Okla.

Church Is Setting For Snelson-Ambold Wedding

Married in a simple ceremony at First Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dwayne Ambold are in New Mexico on a honeymoon trip and will be at home in Apartment 44, 1514 Forrest, when they return. Mrs. Ambold is the former Miss Bobbi Jean Snelson.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clarich, 210 Beach, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ambold, 438 Avenue G.

The Rev. LeRoy Suttle officiated for the wedding, which was conducted Saturday evening before an arch twined with greenery and daisy blossoms. Lovebird figurines were perched on the arch at top center.

Her father gave the bride in marriage. Her costume and that of her only attendant, Miss Denise Wosnitzky, were in period style.

Gary Wright was best man and the bridegroom's brothers, Eddie and John Ambold, were ushers.

Heavy crocheted lace edged the wide bell sleeves and was stitched up the bodice front of Miss Snelson's eggshell cotton dress. It was styled with fully gathered skirt, floor length.

A headpiece of yellow daisies and blue babybreath, with buttercup yellow ribbon streamers, added to the quaint effect.

She carried white roses and yellow daisies on a Bible 223 years old, an heirloom in the Ambold family which is carried in a wedding by each girl marrying into the family. Rings used in the ceremony and a locket worn by the bride are also keepsake pieces.

Of blue cotton, the maid of honor's dress had the same period look and was trimmed with lace on bodice, sleeves and around the skirt hemline. Her flowers were daisies in a nosegay.

The wedding reception was held in the church fellowship hall where the white-covered refreshment table had a centerpiece of blue and yellow flowers. The same colors decorated the three-tiered cake, topped with bride-and-groom figurines.

Misses Wosnitzky and Donna Duke served the wedding cake while Miss Debra Whitson poured punch and Miss Tina Kirkland assisted. Miss Lisa Snelson was at the guest register.

For travel, Mrs. Ambold changed to a pastel blue pantsuit with white cuffs and collar. She is employed by Montgomery Ward and Ambold by Furr's Supermarket here. Both are senior students in Hereford High School.

Guests at the wedding included Mrs. B.J. Hensley of Comanche, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ward and children of Amarillo.

Engagement Announced

A garden wedding August 3 is planned by Miss Christine Carol Tatom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tatom, east of Hereford, and Jack Randolph Stocks, son of Jack R. Stocks of Lake Whitney. They are to be married in the rose garden of Memorial Park at Amarillo. Miss Tatom is a graduate from Tascosa High School in Amarillo. Her fiance is employed by B&W Service Co.

Tickets For Luck Party Go On Sale

Tickets go on sale to the public Monday for the Good Luck Party For Susie Hickman, Miss Hereford of 1974, before she leaves for Fort Worth and the Miss Texas Pageant. Sales last week were limited to members of the Women's Division, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the party as a sendoff for Hereford's entry in Miss Texas competition.

The party will be at Hereford Country Club the evening of July 2. It will feature a style show, with Miss Hickman modeling costumes she will wear in Miss Texas events. Miss Teenage Hereford, Monica Herring, and a dozen other girls who were Miss Hereford contestants will show summer clothes from stores here.

There is a limited number of tickets on sale, priced at $2.50 each. Sales will close Friday or sooner if they are sold out before then.

They are available at Hereford State Bank, the Chamber of Commerce office and the Pants Cage.

Life can be enjoyed by all who are willing to accept it patiently.

Doc's Orders

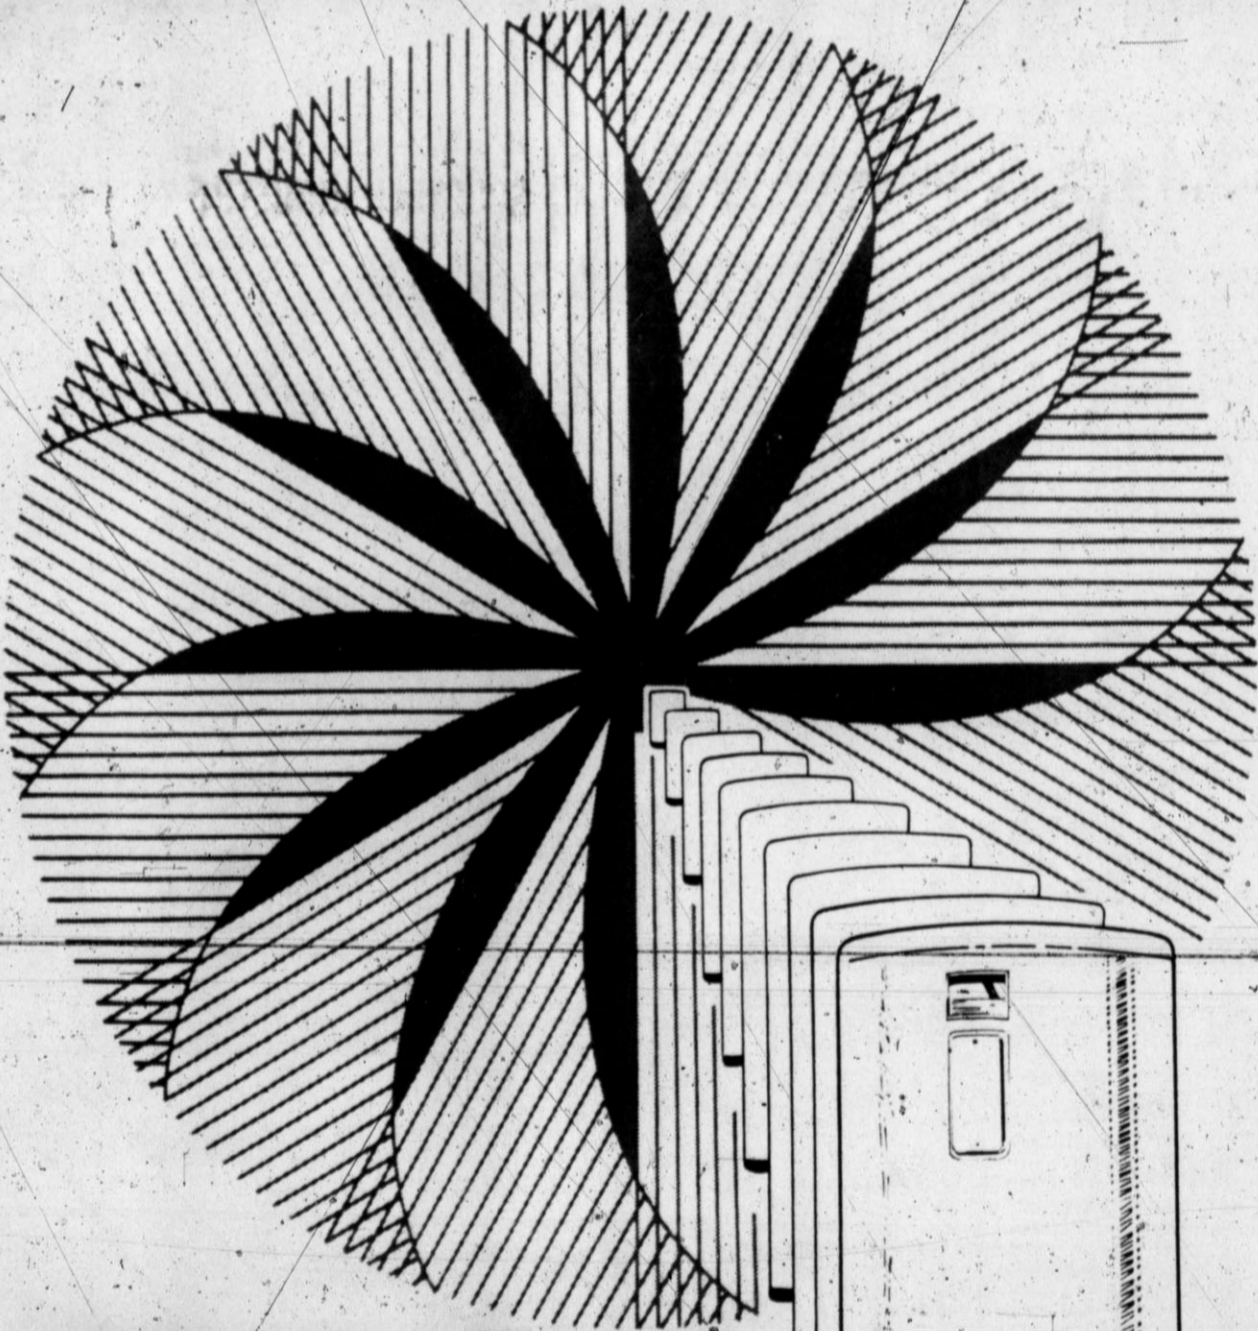

"I prescribe absolute quiet for your husband," said the doctor. "Here's a sleeping powder."

"When do I give it to him?" asked the wife.

"You don't give it to him," said the doctor. "You take it yourself."

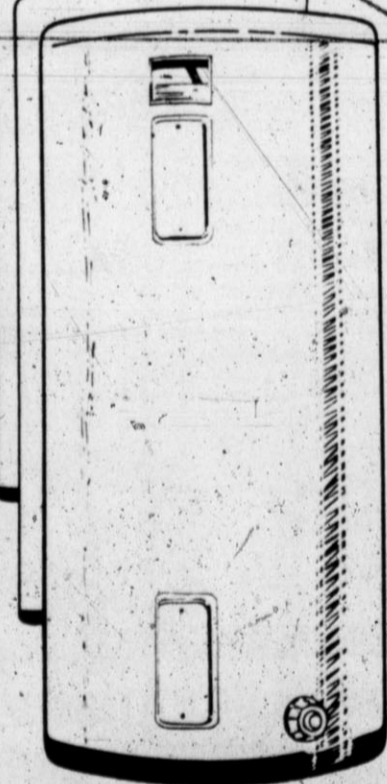

Never lose your temper because someone else can't think clearly.

If you think well of those who think well of you the score is even.

Worry Free

is a great description for people who own electric water heaters. They don't worry about things like waiting for hot water when they want to do the laundry, or wash the dishes or things like that, because they know their electric water heater is fast recovery. They don't worry about service either, because they know we have over 100 trained people to provide any service that may be needed. Why don't you find out how great it is to be worry free and how you can own an ELECTRIC water heater!

Double Ceremonies Unite Two Couples

Marriage ceremonies for two couples, each acting as attendants for the other, were solemnized recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.V. Shipp Sr. at Summerfield. Miss Kay Whitson became the bride of their son, A.V. Shipp Jr., Miss Sherry Anderson of Leon Whitson.

The Rev. Bill Broxson Jr. of Summerfield Baptist Church performed the double ring ceremonies in a candlelit setting, the altar indicated with pedestal arrangements of white gladiolas, pink and white carnations backed with fern.

Parents of Miss Anderson are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, 231 Avenue J. Miss Whitson and Leon Whitson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitson of Bovina.

The Whitson-Shipp vows were exchanged first, with the bride wearing a two-piece street length dress of polyester trimmed in lace with fitted long sleeves and V-neck. A pearl tiara held her short veil and she carried pink carnations and white roses.

For the Anderson-Whitson ceremony, the bride's dress of chiffon over satin was also street length, with wedding ring neckline and ruffles at the wrist. Her veil fell waist length from a satin Dior bow. Her bouquet was of daisies and carnations.

Western style dress was worn by both bridegrooms. Their fathers gave the brides in marriage. Candles were lighted before the ceremonies by Wayne Fishar and Leon Whitson.

After a short trip to New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Shipp are at home in Summerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Whitson in Bovina.

Merit Jobs Open

People with stenographic and/or typing skills and all levels of experience are urgently needed to fill numerous immediate openings in the state agencies served by the Merit System Council.

Russell E. Shrader, MSC Director, announced that this statewide need for workers with clerical skills will be filled by candidates from the Merit System registers, which are built up from open-competitive written and performance examinations. Among the many benefits offered their employees by these agencies are equal opportunity, hiring and career advancement, as well as the one-step pay increase for all employees slated to take effect Sept. 1, 1974.

This pay increase will alter the entrance salary for Clerk-Typist I from $424 to $438 per month, and will change the beginning pay for Secretary I and Stenographer I from $453 to $468.

For Clerk-Typist I, requirements are high school graduation or GED equivalency and typing at 35 words per minute. Stenographer I and Secretary I require high school graduation or GED, typing at 40 words per minute and dictation at 80. Applicants for the higher levels of these classifications must have increased performance skills and work experience.

Examinations for these clerical and secretarial positions are offered at Texas Employment Commission offices in 38 cities, and may be taken on a walk-in basis without obtaining prior approval at 8 a.m. on any regularly scheduled test day. There is no fee for applying, taking an examination, or being placed through the Merit System Council.

For applications and additional information about test schedules and required qualifications, contact the local Texas Employment Commission office or write the Merit System Council, 507 Brown Building, Post Office Box 1389, Austin 78767. The Merit System Council serves equal opportunity employers.

Secretary Changes Fields Woman Heads Manor Staff

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

GERIATRICS was only a word to Joyce Lyons, a Hereford secretary, when she took a job in her own field three years ago at Kings Manor, the Methodist retirement home here.

Now she is serving as its administrator, deeply involved in practical work with the aged and a continuing study of the science of geriatrics.

Mrs. Lyons had been administrative assistant at the Manor the past year, and when Richard Snow resigned as administrator last month the board of trustees named her to fill the position. Her exact title is acting administrator, until she completes study now in progress which will qualify her as a state-licensed administrator.

SEVEN MONTHS of internship are behind her, with 200 clock hours of classwork. Most of her training has been through Amarillo College. The homemaker-mother-career woman has commuted to classes and is happy that West Texas State University is starting a program in the required subjects now, nearer to Hereford.

She has attended seminars in geriatric care and received credit; these are conducted at various spots over the nation by experts in the field and Mrs. Lyons lately went to one at Lubbock.

FOR ALMOST 20 years attractive, dark-eyed Mrs. Lyons, who had majored in business administration at WTSU after graduation from Hereford High School, devoted her time to raising a family of three children. Previously she had worked a short time as secretary for a Hereford attorney.

Her children are Ginger, a student in WTSU; Steven, who will attend WT next term as an HHS graduate of 1974; and Frank, in the third grade at Northwest Elementary.

While they were growing up Mrs. Lyons was active in their organizations, serving as a Campfire Girl leader six years, working with Cub Scouts, Little Leagues and teaching swimming in the Red Cross summer program five years.

SHE ALSO taught in Bible School at her church, First Presbyterian, and took part in community service projects of L'Allegria Study Club. Some of these volunteer jobs have been dropped as the children outgrew them and others she has had to give up after she began work at the Manor.

No time is free for hobbies now, Mrs. Lyons says she is on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week at the Manor. Her duties also include appearances as a speaker here and in other cities, when the administrator is invited to talk about Kings Manor and its program.

She has not done much of this yet because she has been busy getting settled into the new job. However, she was on the recent program of the annual Northwest Texas United Methodist Conference at Amarillo.

SINCE it opened, Kings Manor has been considered a model for retirement homes and Mrs. Lyons not only goes out to tell about it but often plays host to groups who direct other such facilities or represent organizations which plan to build them. Visitors from state and federal agencies concerned with the home's operation also call.

"Our primary concern is for our own residents, who are our reasons for being here," Mrs. Lyons says, "but we appreciate the fact that Kings Manor is so highly regarded that others want to know more about it."

"We often have requests for blueprints of the buildings, which we refer to the architects, and inquire about our operations. There is especial interest in the Manor proper as distinguished from Westgate Unit because there are many nursing homes in the country but few retirement homes for the able-bodied."

MRS. LYONS feels a personal concern for all 147 residents of the home saying that she wants to continue the philosophy on which it was built and has been operated, "the aim of keeping it the best possible home for its residents whether they are in the nursing unit, the Manor proper or its adjoining cottages."

As an administrator she is in full charge of all the multiple phases of operations. The more she works and studies, she says, the more she is fascinated with the science of geriatrics in general and the Manor residents she loves, in particular.

Joyce Lyons
...at busy woman's desk

Most of Joyce Lyons' life has been spent in Deaf Smith County. She was born Joyce Potter in Twin Falls, Ida., but her family moved to Dawn when she was five years old and she went through school at Dawn and in Hereford.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor: "What happens when you go to church."

"You make your community a better place to live in, because you stand witness to the fact that God can show us how to live together in good will."

You become a 'important person because you have something to give to the Greatest Cause on Earth: God's Kingdom And we don't mean your money, but yourself."

In confessing your sins, you have a lucid interval of honesty with yourself, and you say, "I know I am a fool, but here is where I get straightened out." You are reminded that you are not the most important person, because Almighty God is here too.

You warm the hearts of others by joining in the fellowship of praise and rejoicing.

You are exposed to the winged words of Christ, which make you a little more like Him. You become more surely the kind of person with whom others like to live.

You rejoice that we are the redeemed and forgiven children of the Most High. And you go forth with a quiet confidence that life has much good in store for you and that you have a reservoir of good will in store for others.

Your worries look smaller; your blessings look bigger; and you are well-armed for this world and the next.

Try it, and see if this isn't so!"

Copied from East Ventura church of Christ bulletin by Mrs. Cora Johnson 301 East 6th Street.

CARD OF THANKS
Words seem so empty when we try to express our sincere appreciation to so many for their concern of love, thoughtfulness, prayers, food, beautiful floral offerings, gifts to the building fund, the men who worked in the field to save our crop and for the many many communications by mail, telephone and personal calls. Special thanks to our pastor, Rev. Johnny Johns for his kindness and love. "We thank our God upon every remembrance of you" - Philippians 1:3

Body Heat Measured In "Mets"

If you're sports-minded, you're probably at least aware of the fact that the "Mets" are a baseball team whose home is Shea Stadium near La Guardia Airport on Long Island, New York City.

But if you're energy-minded (and who isn't nowadays?), you should know about "mets" (with a small "m") as well; they're important, says the Air-Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute.

A met is the unit of measurement of the heat produced by the human body. It represents about 400 British thermal units per hour (and adds that much to the heat load your air-conditioning system has to remove).

It is a product of multiplying 18.4 Btu times the skin area of the individual. Since the average adult human is covered by about 21 square feet of skin, the body at rest produces just about one met. The same "average" body produces 1.6 to 3.3 mets in the performance of light work; 3.3 to 5 at moderate work, and 5 to 6.7 at heavy labor.
