You'll Be Seeing Them Tomorrow

AROUND A Town

Sights and Faces Seer.

Little Don Boyd, six-year old son of Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Boyd, is starting to school under a handicap; he's already a little impatient with the workings of the official school system because of the postponement of the opening of school. According to Don, "Here I've waited six years for September 8th and the beginning of school--and then they postpone it a week."

Mrs. Phil Radovich is not exactly unimpressed with the lemons in J. A. Buckner's garden; but she thinks she has something that will compare favorably with lemons as an unusual product for a Panhandle garden. Mrs. Radovich has an avocado and a kumquat in her garden--and though we are no garden club shark, they both sound tropical to us. The avocado looks like a poinsettia, Mrs. Radovich says, and the kumquat has not yet developed sufficiently to have a distinct "personality."

Alphadeen Hinrichsen is back on the job at the sheriff's office, helping type the county tax poll, after spending a few days visiting her family in Roswell.

L. Sanky Trimble of San Antonio, arrived here Friday to spend a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trimble. He has spent a couple of days this week in Clovis, where he was at one time employed on the News-Journal.

La. Robert L. (Bossy) Davis, of the Army Air Corps, arrived in Hereford this week for a visit with his family. He is stationed at Laredo.

Maybe she wouldn't put it exactly this way, but Dorothy Nell Adams is about ready to yell "Hey, grandpa" at almost any old duffer who looks as though he could walk, run or pedal a bicycle sufficiently to deliver Western Union messages. Dorothy Nell has had no luck at all keeping delivery boys or girls, and she is now ready to go into the past-50 age bracket to solve her labor problem.

A new paint job at the Hereford News Stand this week is doing a lot to brighten up the place--and though it is a week late, it's still appropriate to mention that the Hereford Insurance Agency, next door to the news stand, has been getting some remodeling which included (Continued on Page 12)

Dimmitt Youth Killed in Plane Crash at El Reno

Lynell Rippey, 23-year-old service man of Dimmitt, was killed Tuesday in a plane crash at El Reno, Okla., and the body arrived in Hereford yesterday afternoon.

New USO Building To Be Ready For Occupancy Within Next Few Days

Stating that remodeling work is being rapidly completed at the USO's permanent building (the old Corner Drug building) Robert L. Thompson, president of the USO Council stated today that the Hereford club hopes to occupy the new building within the very near future, though no definite date has been set.

All members of the USO advisory council are asked to come to the club rooms in the city hall Friday morning at nine o'clock to help with the moving to the new building. Mrs. John H. Olson urges that as many advisory council members as possible turn out to help with this job.

Mr. Thompson together with Grant Fuller and R. C. McCilvary of the USO building committee report that repairs have included putting in new flooring, the redecoration of walls and installing of wash room facilities. In some cases the job has been delayed by a shortage of

Botsford Rites Held On Friday

Funeral rites were held here Friday for A. E. Botsford, 85-year-old retired farmer, who died at his home Wednesday. V. A. LaGrone of Clovis was the minister in charge of the service, and burial was in the Hereford cemetery.

Mr. Botsford, born April 10, 1858, in Iowa, had been a Texas resident since 1907. He was preceded in death by his wife, who died in 1941.

Survivors are a daughter, Miss Lula Botsford, Hereford, and four sons, Arthur W. Botsford, Morris, Okla., and Lloyd E. Floyd and Roy Botsford, all of Hereford.

Laundry Fire Results In Complete Loss

Fire of unknown origin early Wednesday morning completely destroyed the T. C. Martin Hely Seify Laundry on Sampson Ave., leaving both equipment and building a total loss. Quick action by the fire department prevented spread of the fire to the E. B. Black warehouse building next door.

Mr. Martin was in the building at about 11:30 Tuesday night, according to Fire Chief John Patton, and at that time there were no signs of fire at the laundry. The fire alarm was turned in at 11:55 and when the city firemen arrived on the scene a few minutes later the interior of the building was a mass of flame.

Martin had insurance on his equipment but because of the shortage of laundry equipment, it is believed doubtful if the machines can be replaced; and the fire will prove a severe loss to Hereford housewives, already inconvenienced by the shortage of laundry facilities. Some laundry bundles which had been left in the front of the building were saved.

Rev. Miller to Speak At Christian Church Sunday

Rev. C. R. Miller of El Paso will speak at the regular morning service at the First Christian Church on Sunday, Sept. 12. It was announced today.

Members of the church and any interested visitors are invited to hear Rev. Miller's message, which will be at the regular hour of 11 o'clock, church spokesmen said.

Mrs. Davis the mother of ten children, left 26 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

As a gesture of co-operation toward the success of the bond sale auction here tomorrow noon, Bond Chairman J. C. Ricketts is requesting that all business houses close for the two hour period from 12 to 2 o'clock, tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

No Hunting Allowed in Hereford's State Park

Despite the fact that "No Hunting" signs are posted in the State Park, there have been some reports of violations of the posting order. County Judge Fred W. Bird said today, warning hunters that there is a heavy penalty for infraction of the no-hunting rule in the county property.

Cornelius Buys Cafe From Carl Jennings

Guy Cornelius this week announced his purchase of Carl's Cafe from Carl Jennings, who has operated the business for many years.

Mr. Cornelius states that he will continue to serve good food at reasonable prices and asks old and new patrons to stop by the cafe and give his service a trial.

Case of Disappearing Raincoats--and Pleas Return to Firemen

It's the case of the disappearing raincoats--and Mayor C. J. Paddock, no slouch, would nevertheless like to solve the mystery of the disappearance of several slickers from firemen's headquarters in the city hall.

"These slickers have been 'evaporating' for several months now," Mr. Paddock says. "And the fire department would really appreciate the return of this equipment, which is badly needed."

Slickers, Mr. Paddock points out, are practically irreplaceable now, and he urges that persons who have borrowed the coats return them to the City Hall at once.

Re-Registry Of Brands Starts On October 1st

Farmers and ranchers are advised that they can start on Oct. 1 to record brands and marks for cattle and other livestock, and that all present owners of brands will have a two year preferential period after Oct. 1 in which to record their present brands.

After expiration of the two-year period, according to terms of the new brand law, enacted by the recent session of the Texas legislature, all brands and marks not recorded by their present owners will be considered forfeited and will be subject to registration by any person.

Brands are recorded at the office of the county clerk, and it is estimated that several thousand brands are now on file, many of them not now in use. The new law should reduce the number of brands registered, and at the end of the two-year period, make many more brands and marks available to operating cattlemen.

Any brand recorded in accordance with requirements of the new act shall be the property of the person who makes the registration and will be subject to sale, assignment, transfer, devise and descent, the same as any other personal property.

Military Discharge To Be Recorded by Clerk

Persons who have received their discharge from any branch of the Armed Forces or from a service Auxiliary are required to file a record of their official discharge in the office of the county clerk, in accordance with a bill passed by the last legislature.

This requirement is not new, according to County Clerk Robert L. Thompson, but formerly Acting in accordance with the advice of the city health officer, members of the board of education of the Hereford Public Schools today announced that the school opening will be on Monday, Sept. 13, and that there will be no further postponement of the opening date.

No other cases of polio have been reported here after the one reported last week and the health officer states that there seems to be no further reason for delay.

High School students will get their textbooks tomorrow, and the faculty meeting for both elementary and high school teachers will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the high school building, it was stated today by Supt. Knox Kinard. Enrollment at the elementary school will take place Monday, and regular classes will start Monday at 9:45 at the high school. School hours will be the same as those in effect last year, Mr. Kinard said, with classes at Central School beginning at 10 o'clock and high school classes at 9:45. The lunch hour will be at one o'clock.

FOOTBALL SEPT. 17
The football season will start Friday, Sept. 17, with the Whitefaces meeting the Panhandle Panthers in a night game at Whiteface Field. Mr. Kinard said, adding that a complete schedule will be announced next week.

City Tax Rate Reduced To $1.10 Per 100

The City Commission, meeting Monday, voted to reduce the city tax rate from $1.10 to $1.00. Mayor C. J. Paddock announced today, pointing out that the reduction will save city taxpayers several thousand dollars within the next year.

Another decision reached by the commission was to abolish the city poll tax next year. The tax amounts to $1 for each voter and last year amounted to approximately $370 in total tax receipts.

Construct Fireguards To Prevent Grass Fires

With several destructive grass fires already reported in Deaf Smith County within the past few weeks, the value of plowing fireguards to prevent the burning of badly needed range grass was pointed out this week by N. E. Gass, chairman of the county AAA committee. Farmers and ranchmen can use their range building allowance to construct fireguards around their pastures, Mr. Gass stated, adding that the Soil Conservation Service has announced its help in this program.

Fireguard construction according to AAA specifications will be paid for at the rate of five cents per 100 linear feet, and farmers not familiar with the specifications for constructing fireguards can get full information by calling at the county ACA office.

Farmers may see employees in the Soil Conservation office to find out just what equipment and aid the organization is prepared to furnish.

A charge was made for recording these discharge papers, and the service is now free.

Any persons affected by this measure are asked to call by the clerk's office immediately, as it is important that these records be kept up-to-date.

Hollywood Stars To Be Here Friday

Three cowboy movie stars--Jim Newell, Dave O'Brien and Guy Wilkerson, who are featured in the "Texas Ranger" series, will visit Hereford tomorrow to take part in a war bond rally to take place at noon on the courthouse lawn.

The program will feature entertainment by the cowboy stars and a bond auction; and county bond sales chairman J. C. Ricketts announces that his committee is very hopeful that Deaf Smith County will go over the top immediately on their $490,000 quota. "If we can get all of our bonds sold at this auction," Mr. Ricketts said, "it will save a lot of time and work for the bond sales committees, who are busy people; and it would give the people of this county a real satisfaction to know that we did not delay in backing up the magnificent action of our fighting men."

"We are going to meet this quota," Mr. Ricketts said, "we might just as well buy our bonds tomorrow and save a lot of time and work."

The appearance of the movie stars in Hereford is being sponsored by the bond committee and by Chas. Hardwick, local theatre manager, who is making the necessary arrangements.

The Hereford show is part of the Hollywood "Stars Over Texas" tour which is expected to do much to aid the bond sales effort in the State, and with publicity and advertising tying in directly with the news of the expiration of Sept. 13, it is believed that the entire nation will get behind the bond sale campaign and surpass the 15 billion dollar goal.

Father Milano Leaves Post In Local Church

Rev. A. J. Milano, well known as "Father Jim" to many people of the Hereford territory, will leave Sept. 16 for New York, where he will appear before the Navy Examining Board in an effort to enlist in the U. S. Navy as a chaplain.

Father Jim has been assistant pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Hereford for the past 26 months, during which time he has done a valuable work in many fields of church activity.

"I want my friends here to know that I have enjoyed my work with them," he states, adding, "This change is prompted by my feeling that I should be in my country's service if I can be used there."

At the home of M. B. Daniel on Dewey Ave., Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, her daughter, Miss Lena, was married to Mr. Allan Bell, Elder H. M. Bandy officiating, assisted by Rev. A. W. Crawford. The wedding, though a quiet home affair, was witnessed by numerous relatives and close friends of the contracting parties.

At the hour appointed for the opening of the public school Monday, feeling an interest in the success of the session, the editor of the Searchlight ventured to be on hand. We found the buildings swept and garnished the teachers all in their respective places (save, Miss Griffith, who was reported slightly ill) with cheerful countenances, apparently glad that the work had begun.

time at R. L. Wilson's ranch. It was the day that was set apart to round-up and brand the Shorthorns. Several of his neighbors were there ready for the work and by 9 or 10 o'clock all of the cattle were rounded up in the pen and in a short time the work was under good headway. While it was great sport for the young lads, yet it was good evidence that Mr. Wilson's calves were good from the way they would wrestle with the boys to see which would fall on their broad-side first.

Last Monday at noon the enterprising folks in that thriving school district, formerly known as the Berve School district, held their dedication services for the new building just completed. This building is a dandy, built on plans of the State Department of Education, with an amazing number of windows, lots of light and air and still tight and comfortable.

Ever think about Running a Factory?

If you've ever run a farm or dairy or store, there are a lot of things about running a factory that you'd find pretty familiar. Things like working any and all hours, training green help, planning for months ahead without letting the planning interfere with the job of the moment.

These are the responsibilities of management. And the peculiar American ability to meet and lick these problems means a lot today, both on the food-producing and weapon-producing fronts.

Ability to manage isn't picked up overnight. For good management is a skill just as much as good workmanship—learned the hard way.

It won't be forgotten overnight, either. For it is these men who, on farm and in factory, have actually produced the things from which our high living standard is derived, who can and will, by working together, give every American a more abundant life in the peacetime years to come. No fierce border forts or haughty garrisons separate the U.S. and Canada, where peace-loving good neighbors welcome you. But there's fight in the fish up there. "When the lights go on again, all over the world," you can steer for the Canadian Rockies or quaint Quebec, without even a passport. You'll need a car, of course, but re-designing and re-tooling for new cars will take long months. So for prompt recreation after hard-earned Victory you'll need your present car!

But note: Rationed mileage that might seem to conserve your car now, may actually be destructive, because it encourages the inroads of engine acid!

You don't want that, and that's why to have your engine OIL-PLATED by changing to Conoco Nth motor oil. It's popular priced but includes the modern synthetic whose strong "magnet-like" force attaches OIL-PLATING and maintains it—even for days—on inner engine surfaces, sort of "walling them off" from corrosive acid.

Always produced by combustion, this acid was little worry when constant driving kept the heat on it. Yet now, despite aggravated conditions, acid can be still less worry!—because you can OIL-PLATE with Nth today, for your engine's future. Continental Oil Company

Along with the study course will be Bible programs and a Texas Day program, but social features have been cut down to two affairs. The Christmas party and the closing luncheon. Regular meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Some of the members live thirty or forty miles in the country but the attendance record heads the list.

About N. African Merchants Sgt. Warren Givens, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Lutz of Hereford, writes an interesting letter about the cities and merchants of North Africa.

Describing the "Medina" section of a town, Sgt. Givens says that it is the oldest section, usually walled off from the rest of the city and with a labyrinth of narrow streets, crowded with "donkeys, kids, and the stench of human filth. The flies are thick—and the breeze is not."

Some of the shops, Sgt. Givens writes, are scarcely more than a yard square, and the proprietor sits on the counter, within convenient reaching distance of all of his merchandise. He prices his goods high because tourists are an old story to him; and besides that, according to Givens, the merchant just naturally "does not give a damn."

In the larger stores, Givens continues, the proprietors are all uniformly proud of their mastery of English, and their English is uniformly unintelligible. The proprietors have all lived in New York, according to their story, and every one of them is ready, willing and able to "high-pressure you out of your undershirt."

Sept. 1 A Big Date
September 1st, was a big date for the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Koelzer, who report that every one of the boys received promotions on that date. Mienard-Koelzer, who is stationed at Pine Camp, N. Y., received his promotion from Private-First-Class to Corporal; and Werner, a naval aviation cadet, completed a pre-flight course at Austin and was transferred to Kerrville, where he will take a CPT course.

Nick, the other Koelzer son, was promoted to AMM 2-C—a second class petty officer. In his petty officer and aviation machinist examinations he made the highest grade in his class—3.70 out of a possible 4.00 points. He is stationed at Jacksonville, Fla.

As we all know the Third War

Loan Drive opens on Sept. 9th and closes on Sept. 30. During this period the nation is asked to raise the largest sum to be invested in war Bonds so far in this war.

This community has sent a very large number of boys, in proportion to our population, into the armed services. Certainly we do not intend that failure on our part to invest our money in Federal Securities shall deprive any one of them of the weapons which he needs to fight our war. Those of us who have a son or brother in uniform are doubly anxious to do our part at home to aid that boy; and those of us who have no son to send should feel more than ever obligated to send every dollar we can possibly spare to help our neighbors boys to finish this war and come home sooner.

Castro County's quota for this drive is $146,800. Our part is as much as we can possibly raise. Many of our people, who bank in Deaf Smith County, buy their part of this thing is that we buy them somewhere. However, we surely should make every effort to help our own county meet its quota.

I have been asked to serve as community chairman for this drive and shall be very glad to write your applications for bonds and see that your bonds are mailed to you. If I fail to see you during this period will you please stop at my house and let me send in your application for the very biggest amount of bonds that you can possibly manage?

There's a big price tag on good news, on attacks and victories; a price tag of life, sacrifice, and cold hard cash. Our job here at home is to provide the cash. Plenty of it. Now! Good news is born of action, action consumes material, material costs money. That's the reason for the Third War Loan that's now on. This Third War Loan calls for every working man and woman to put extra money into Bonds in September. Not just the 10% of your salary. Not just spare change. Not just left-over dollars. But extra, hard-earned, budget-saved, money. It's the way, today, to back the men who are doing the real job of sacrificing. Buy Bonds—up to the hilt—today. Keep that news good!

"The Culture and Growth of Carnations Under Glass"

(Note—This article is taken in part from a paper prepared for the Garden Club by Mrs. C. R. Smith.)

The carnation, as we know it, never existed in nature; it is the out-growth of man's handiwork, and more than one species has played a part in its make-up. The term carnation embraces several types including the greenhouse or perpetual type with which we are all familiar.

The green house carnation is distinct from those cultivated in Europe 50 or more years ago, it has fringed petals, a characteristic the old-time English florist would not tolerate.

Many firms devote themselves to turning out greenhouse material cut to scale and offer such service that the grower has but to say what he intends to grow and all the data is placed at his disposal. These standard houses are more or less built on skyscraper lines, some as long as 50 feet without a single column to interfere with inside operations.

Carnations cannot be forced, but the true perpetual carnation never stops growing if the temperature is a trifle above freezing, and to raise the night temperature much above 50 degrees in winter is courting disaster. This fact makes the carnation one of the least expensive crops to grow, so far as fuel is concerned.

They cannot be grown in poor soil and it is necessary for growers to have access to an unfailing supply of good soil as he must renew the soil each season. The ideal soil is a good loam with sufficient sand in it to make it porous. Grass land is good if it has been plowed under after a good coating of manure well rotted. In the spring a dressing of ground limestone should be applied and stirred in the soil.

As soon as the plants have established themselves they should be strengthened by some sort of support and sprayed forcefully with water which will do much to prevent the appearance of red spiders. Ventilation must be ample and as soon as the plants have filled the benches with roots, usually about the last of September, a top dressing of rotted manure will be needed. These top dressings should be light and applied often until December, and may be renewed in February. All fertilizer should be periodically supplemented with light sprinklings of super-phosphate, about ten pounds to 100 square feet of benching. Over-feeding is apt to cause weak stems and split flowers.

By following these directions carefully the grower should be rewarded with sturdy, well proportioned plants and fully developed blossoms.

After the program a social hour was held. Refreshments were served to approximately 125 guests from a table decorated with flowers forming the letter "F" and a trio of lighted candles to represent the three members of the Finch family.

Soil Sulphur

Increase Your Earning Power Per Acre

One of the major problems in agriculture is how to make the land produce quality and quantity crops. As a means to this end, sulphur, that element of universal agricultural necessity, is used as a soil amendment and, in combination with other materials, as a fertilizer. It has a marked effect on soils with results that will show up for at least three years or more, the most important being:

- 1—Improvement in soil structure or physical condition;
- 2—Modification of soil reaction with improvement of arid soils;
- 3—Increase in moisture holding capacity of the soil;
- 4—Improvement in the supply of sulfate, which is an essential plant nutrient;
- 5—Liberation of phosphates;
- 6—Stimulation of beneficial microorganisms concerned with ammonification or nitrification and sulphur oxidation;
- 7—Liberation of basic nutrients, such as calcium, magnesium and potassium;
- 8—Increase in chlorophyll and probably Vitamin A content of plants;
- 9—Increase in root and root nodule development;
- 10—Increase in sulphur and protein contents of the plants;
- 11—Increased leafiness and less shattering of legume hay.

Sulphur is an essential plant nutrient, the amount needed by different plants varying over a wide range . . . for More Details, or to Place Your Orders, see

SONS in the SERVICE

Hereford Just A Screen Away To Bellview Boy in China

T-Sgt. Claude W. Shaffer, nephew of Mrs. R. R. Shuck of Bellview, N. M., had to go to China to see the movie short about Dr. Heard and Hereford's perfect teeth, and he writes that it "sort of struck a soft spot—you know being right there before my eyes—so near, yet so very far." And he adds, "I still have some flings Dr. Heard put in. Unfortunately I must have lived a bit too far from Hereford to enjoy the perfect teeth."

Concerning his station in China, Shaffer writes that it is much better than Africa, "in fact, the soldier is better taken care of here than any place I've been outside of the States. The chow is very good, though I can sort of understand why since reading in Collier's that it costs $4.25 per day per man to keep a soldier in China. That, of course, is because of the cost of food here and the transportation problem of bringing food."

"There is one thing that really pleases me though. The people really work—men, women and children all turn out and the things they accomplish would surprise you."

One of the pleasing accomplishments, so far as Sgt. Shaffer is concerned, is the fabled skill of the Chinese at doing laundry; and he is getting a rest from an unpleasant task which has been his since leaving the States.

Despite that if he had gone to Sicily, he might now be getting acquainted with the Sicilian girls. Shaffer is not sorry that he was transferred. If he had stayed in North Africa, he might still be "trying to X-ray an Arab's veil."

Shaffer wrote his letter on August 18, and Mrs. Shuck received it on Sept. 1—which makes the China mail pretty fast. And maybe he will hear about the July wheat crop before October 1—the date he had set for getting a letter from home.

Pitman in Florida

John Douglas Pitman, who enlisted in the Navy last spring and was called to active duty about a month ago, is now stationed at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Lake City, Fla. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pitman.

At Xavier University

Sgt. J. D. Curtsinger, son of E. W. Curtsinger of Hereford, has been transferred to an Army Air Forces college training detachment at Xavier University, Cincinnati, O. He will take a 5-month preparatory pre-flight course of military and academic training and upon completion of the course will be classified as a pilot, navigator or bombardier and after training as an aviation cadet will be awarded his Army Air Corps wings.

Sgt. Curtsinger attended airplane mechanics school at Shepard Field, Texas, prior to his transfer as an aviation cadet. He has acquired the Good Conduct Medal, Sharpshooter and Pistol and the Air Mechanic Badge.

Parsons is Commissioned

Aviation Cadet Richard Harold Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Parsons of Hereford, has recently received his commission as Second Lieutenant and the silver pilot's wings of the Army Air Corps in graduation exercises at the Yuma Army Air Field, Yuma, Ariz.

Before entering the final and advanced training course at Yuma, Lieutenant Parsons completed his primary and basic training at King City and Gardner Field, Taft, Calif. He served in the enlisted ranks at St. Petersburg, Fla., before being called for aviation cadet training.

MILLER HERE ON FURLOUGH

William E. Miller, cadet in the Naval Air Corps, has been here on a week's furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. John B. Miller. Bill expects to be transferred soon from Memphis, Tenn., to the Naval Air Base at Pensacola, Fla.

GETS GOOD CONDUCT MEDAL

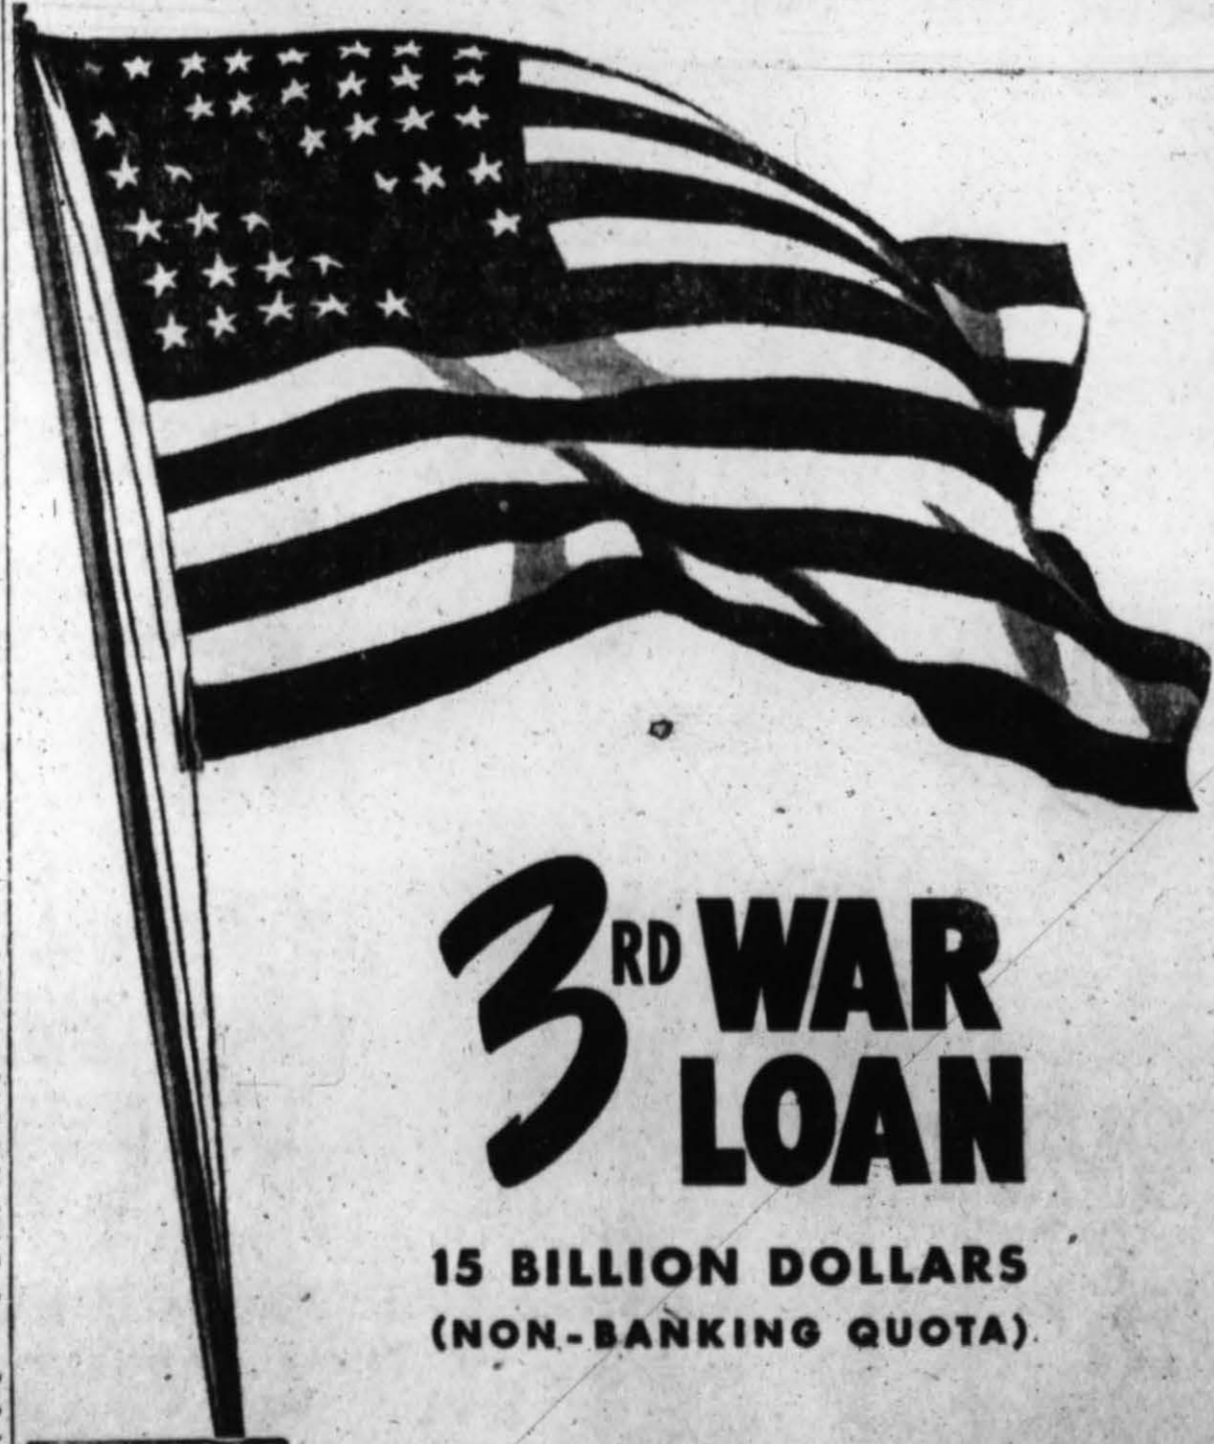

Tech. Sgt. Kenneth F. Hooker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hooker of Hereford has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal, symbolical of "outstanding and meritorious conduct" for the past year.

Sgt. Hooker attended high school at Sapulpa, Okla. He was a mechanic in civilian life and is now crew chief with the 812th Bombardier Training Squadron at the AAF Bombardier School at Big Spring.

THE 3rd WAR LOAN DRIVE STARTS -TO BACK THE INVASION!

3RD WAR LOAN

15 BILLION DOLLARS
(NON-BANKING QUOTA)

What you will be asked to do—

MARK WELL the date—Thursday, September 9th. For on that day, you must answer to your country's call.

On that day, the 3rd War Loan Drive opens. To you—and to every other true American—a clarion call goes forth to rally to the support of our flag.

You will be asked to back our fighting forces to the very limit of your resources. You will be asked to go ALL-OUT FOR INVASION by investing in EXTRA War Bonds—more War Bonds than you perhaps think you can possibly afford.

To meet the national quota, every individual in the country who earns a wage or draws an income or has accumulated funds must invest, if he possibly can, in at least one EXTRA $100 War Bond. Those who can, must invest more—thousands of dollars' worth more. Each and every one must do his full part.

Scrape up the money from every source you can... turn in all the loose cash you carry with you... dig out what you had tucked away "just in case." Go without pleasures, luxuries, even necessities this September. And give our fighting men the things they need to fight with—and win.

These men are throwing everything they have into this fierce invasion push. They are giving their blood, their lives. No one can put a price on such courage, self-sacrifice, devotion. But you can show you're with them to the limit! You can say it with Bonds... EXTRA Bonds this month.

World's Safest Investments

For this 3rd War Loan, you will be offered your choice of various government securities. Choose the one that fits your requirements.

United States War Savings Bonds Series "E"; gives you back $4 for every $3 when the bond matures. Interest: 2.9% a year, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1,000. Redemption: Anytime 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2½% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969; readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral. Redeemable at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated September 15, 1943; due December 15, 1969. Denominations: $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Price: par and accrued interest.

Other securities: Series "C" Savings Notes; ½% Certificates of Indebtedness; 2% Treasury Bonds of 1951-1953; United States Savings Bonds series "F"; United States Savings Bonds series "G".

A Junior Home Front Soldier

This youngster makes sure that the housewives in his neighborhood get their waste fats in the local salvage collection. Collecting waste fats is an important job these days because they contain 10 percent glycerine which is necessary to the manufacture of nitroglycerine, dynamite, and cordite. Two pounds of waste fats produce enough glycerine to fire five 37-mm. antitank shells.

Their Eyes Need Good Lighting

NOW, MORE THAN EVER, their eyes need good lighting. Tests show that 35 per cent of all children develop defective eyesight during school and college years... due largely to insufficient light. Don't let this happen to your child because you failed to provide good light for him to study by.
Although there will be no more I.E.S. lamps manufactured for the duration, we give you these five points for protecting precious eyesight.
1. Keep lamp bulbs and fixtures clean.
2. Avoid direct glare from electric light globes. Use indirect reflectors whenever possible.
3. Don't work in your own shadow, especially on close work.
4. Use the right size globe to supply enough light and the proper kind of light.
5. Don't waste electricity.
