

Marty's Cafe Opens in May

Marty Palmore refills customers coffee cups in Marty's Cafe in May.

Marty Palmore has made a dream come true in opening her own cafe, Marty's Cafe on Highway 183 in May, Texas. Having had about ten years' experience working in cafes, "it's always been a dream of mine to run my own cafe," Marty said.

The cafe is open from 6 a. m. to 3 p. m., Mondays through Fridays and features good home style cooking. Chicken fried steak is a special on the lunch every day and the cafe also serves a full breakfast Mexican food, shrimp and clams, hamburger steak, a la carte and food orders to go. This summer, Marty plans to add barbecue to her lunch menu.

Kathy Barnett is the cook in Marty's Cafe and Betty Hickman is waitressing.

Marty is married to Jackie Palmore and has lived in the Williams community for about three years. Her mother, Mrs. John J. Johnson, lives in Rising Star. Jackie's parents are Mr. & Mrs. Jack Palmore. Jackie's grandmother, Cleo Palmore, worked in the cafe Marty now runs many years ago. Jackie has a daughter, Lisa, who is a first grade student in May.

Marty Palmore invites everyone to stop in and try some of the "good, home style cooking" at Marty's Cafe, Highway 183, in May. For ordering food to go, the number is 817-259-2029.

The Case Against Jimmy Rutherford Is Dropped

According to District Attorney Steve Ellis, a Motion to Dismiss has been filed in the case of the State of Texas versus James R. Rutherford Jr. Rutherford, age 33, was indicted by a Brown County Grand Jury in November, 1982, for possession of marijuana in an amount less than 50 pounds, but more than five pounds.

The indictment followed an October 11, 1982, raid on a ranch in northern Brown County, approximately four miles southwest of Rising Star.

Texas Department of Public Safety Narcotics officers had prepared and executed a search warrant authorizing the search of the Brown County ranch, and they included a legal description of the ranch. There was a defect in the description of the property to be searched, making the subsequent search of a mobile home found on the property an unconstitutional search. The Department of Public Safety officers had assumed that there was one ranch involved when in fact there were two separate pieces of property. Although the officers searched the correct location, the legal description in the search warrant was for the other piece of property.

On December 20, 1982, there was a hearing on Rutherford's Motion to Suppress. District Judge Gordon Griffin subsequently granted the defendant's motion concerning all items found in and near a mobile home located on the property searched.

According to Ellis, the evidence suppressed was critical in linking Rutherford to the growing marijuana found on the property. Since the granting of the Motion to Suppress in January of this year, the investigating officers have been pursuing other potential affirmative links connecting Rutherford to the growing marijuana. These efforts have proved unsuccessful.

"We have no real alternative in my opinion but to dismiss this case. I regret that this action has become necessary, but it is a fruitless endeavor to pursue this case and waste the taxpayers' money in a trial that we could not possibly win since the critical evidence could not be introduced," said Ellis.

The Motion to Dismiss is on the grounds that there is insufficient evidence to sustain a conviction.

Rutherford was represented by Ed Paynter, an Abilene attorney.

Kathy Linney Is Miss Rising Star

Kathy Linney was named Miss Rising Star.

The Rising Star Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture has selected Kathy Linney as Miss Rising Star of 1983. She will be crowned at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet which will be held April 15 at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church Activity Center.

Kathy, a 17-year-old junior in Rising Star High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.D. Linney. Runner up to Miss Rising Star and the alternate in the event that Kathy is unable to fulfill her role is Dee Dee Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lewis. Each of the six girls of the Junior Class who were competing for the title received votes for the honor of being Miss Rising Star.

Miss Rising Star takes part in various area functions throughout the year and is the representative of Rising Star and the Chamber of Commerce.

Killion Runs for Re-election as Mayor

It is election time once again, and it seems we have more people showing an interest in it than ever before, of course there are more places to be filled in this election than in those of recent history. Taking this into account, I would like to say thanks to all the concerned citizens that are showing an interest in this election.

Being an elected official is a task that involves responsibilities that a lot of people are not aware of, and as much as I would like to please every citizen in our town, it is just not possible, and frankly I would be hesitant in considering a candidate who felt they could do so. Operating a city, even one the small size of Rising Star, involves the making of decisions that are destined to be controversial in nature.

For the past four years I have been your mayor, and I have done what I thought was right for Rising Star, and what I felt was the wishes of the majority of the people, this being to keep our tax and utility rates as low as possible and still maintain adequate city services. If I am elected again I will do as I have in the past on all issues, and that means standing up for what I think is right. I am human and I realize that no one is perfect, so if I feel I have made a wrong decision, you can be assured I will be the first to admit it, and the first to try and rectify what ever the situation that results from my judgement.

Community-wide Dinner Will Honor the Williams'

Members of the First Baptist Church of Rising Star are holding a community-wide dinner honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Richard D. Williams at 6 p.m. Wednesday, March 30, at the church's Activity Center.

The Rev. Williams,

pastor of First Baptist Church for nine and a half years, has resigned his position and will be moving to Brownwood where he will be chaplain for Girling Home Health Care. The services on Easter Sunday, April 3, will be the last in his official capacity as pastor.

Everyone is cordially invited to the covered dish meal to wish Dick and Vi well and to give them a rousing send-off, from the church and from the community as a whole.

Jake Landess Is Candidate for City Council

As a candidate for a place on the City Council of Rising Star, I would like the voters to know what stand I take on the affairs of the city. If elected I will work for the good of the city; I believe in good management, in having the city's business handled in a proper manner and in timely payment of the city's bills.

I, myself, have had a perplexing situation happen in the matter of the city paying its bills. Last fall I repaired the city police car at my place of business, Jake's Shop. When the city neglected to pay the amount due, I submitted a bill.

Mayor H.L. Killion informed me that the police chief (at that time, Curtis McGlothlin) should have had a purchase told me, and the city order made out, but could not because the purchase order book had been taken from McGlothlin. Therefore, in order to get the bill for the work in the city records so it could be paid, I was told, my signature was needed on a letter informing McGlothlin that the city was filing suit against him for the $112.50 for the work on the police car. McGlothlin would not pay the bill, Killion would then pay it. If it harmed someone to do this, I would forget the money, I told the mayor. He assured me no one would be harmed and the matter would be kept quiet.

The matter has not been kept quiet and it appears some harm has come of it. I wanted to collect for my work and agreed to sign the letter, but I did not wish harm to anyone.

Deferred Collection of Taxes Available

The State Property Tax Code provides that each year information concerning deferral of certain taxes be published by the Chief Appraiser of each Appraisal District within the State.

Section 33.06 of the Property Tax Code provides that an individual is entitled to defer or abate a suit to collect a delinquent tax if he is 65 or older and he owns and occupies as a resident homestead the property on which the tax subject to the suit is delinquent.

To obtain a deferral, an individual must file an affidavit with the Chief Appraiser of the Appraisal District. After an affidavit is properly filed, a taxing unit may not file suit to collect delinquent taxes on the property until the individual no longer owns or occupies the property as a residence homestead. To obtain an abatement, the individual must file in the court in which suit is pending an affidavit stating that he is 65 years of age or older and that the residence property is his homestead.

The important fact to be remembered by the property owner is that while the taxes are deferred, they are not removed. A tax lien remains on the property and penalties and interest continue to accrue during the period of time that the collection of taxes is deferred.

For further information concerning the available deferral of taxes, the property owner should contact the Eastland County Appraisal District. The Appraisal District office is located on the second floor of the Eastland County courthouse and the telephone number is 629-8597.

Bill To Affect Jails

In continuation of last week's article, I would point out that a mandatory jail sentence for DWI would, without a doubt, have serious impact on our crowded county jail problems. The only question unanswered, is to what extent. Estimates from those who supposedly know, both on the prosecutor and defense sides of the docket, range to a low of 40% to a high of 150% increase in the average daily jail population. The calculation to be derived, most meaningful to the taxpayer, is the vastly increased cost of incarceration; the fact many jails, even new jails, could not meet the requirements of the Jail Standards Commission; and, the fact that the increased jail inmate population would necessarily have a further impact on the Texas prison system, addressed in earlier comments.

It is extremely easy to say to me as your State representative, "Jim, let's get drunks off highways and into jail." However, in telling me this, you must also tell me whether you are willing to shoulder increased expenditures and resulting tax increases necessitated by more stringent enforcement procedures.

In a recent survey done by the Criminal Justice Center at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas, 45% of the people surveyed admitted that they, themselves, had at one time or another, been guilty of driving-while-intoxicated but were not apprehended.

I can state with reasonable certainty that my candor and frankness in giving you this information and "telling it like it is" will subject me to significant criticisms ranging all the way from politely being called incorrect to allegations of my "falling in with the drunks". I would be remiss in my duty to you if I tried to administer sugar-coated bills and did not bring you the "harsh medicine" of fact.

As stated, I want drunks off the road for a very selfish reason. I am no more interested in being killed by a drunk driver than you are; however, the very emotional nature of this legislation and very vocal position of its most avid supporters, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), mandates that we proceed with wisdom and caution, so we do not find ourselves in the position of having acted in haste and being forced to repent at leisure.

Next week I plan to address the issue of the "open container". See you then.

St. Patrick's Day: More than Green Beer

Everyone becomes a little Irish on St. Patrick's Day. It means the 'wearing of the green,' a little 'gosh and begorrah,' and, of course, drinking green beer...lots of great beer.

"In fact," says Bill Fraser of the Care Unit at Hendrick Medical Center, "drinking and St. Patrick's Day are almost synonymous. Many people drink more on St. Patty's Day than they do any other time of the year, including New Year's. It's a big party day."

It is also a 'drink and drive' day, one that can be dangerous for both the drinker and other drivers on the road. The Care Unit staff, who treat alcoholism and drug abuse, offer the following hints for a safer, but still fun, St. Patrick's Day:

Winter colds, antihistamines and booze, even beer, don't mix. Lay off the alcohol if you are on medication or you may wake up with even more than a hangover. Antihistamines double or triple alcohol's impact.

The more nonalcoholic fluids you take with your drinks, the better off you are. Orange juice, tomato juice and grapefruit juice provide you with the sodium and potassium you lose when you drink.

Along those lines, drink two glasses of water for every alcohol drink. A 150-pound person can take around one drink an hour without having alcohol build up in his or her system. Any more and it is dangerous to drive.

Know your limitations. Don't drink then drive. It's not worth the possible consequences.

A full stomach (especially oily foods and carbohydrates) slows the rate at which alcohol is absorbed into the bloodstream. Foods like cabbage and charcoal (something slightly burned) neutralize some of the toxic additives in the liquor.

Be aware of the weather conditions, extra traffic, and other drivers who may have had too much to drink. Drive defensively.

"But most of all," says Fraser, "don't drink to get drunk. Drink responsibly. St. Patrick's Day is not an excuse for irresponsible drinking and driving or other irresponsible behavior."

If you know someone who is a consistent irresponsible drinker, he or she probably has a drinking problem. Fraser suggests you call the Hendrick Medical Center Care Unit's free counseling line at 915-677-2287 to find out what you can do to help.

Eason, Estelle Bolding and Mamie Wells. The tournament began March 8 at nine o'clock. That morning Estelle Bolding won her first game, Lena and Mamie had a bit of bad luck. After the game that morning Estelle and Mamie played their second games that evening Estelle lost her second match and Mamie won her second match. Lena Eason didn't get to play her second match Tuesday, because of so many delays. So we had to go back Wednesday the ninth for Lena to play her second game and for Mamie and Estelle to play a last game or elimination game. Lena Eason fell Wednesday morning early, at the home, so she was unable to go back to Brownwood. Mamie and Estelle lost both of their games so we did not have to return Thursday the tenth.

Thursday night there was a dance in the coliseum, and they gave many different prizes. Estelle Bolding got a very good award, she was the oldest person entered in the tournament. Al Wilks was the host and he presented a diamond pendant necklace to Estelle, and also a orchid corsage. They were also giving away door prizes and Estelle won two free meals at either Chicken on The Run or Mean Bull. Al Wilks also presented Mamie Wells a watch from Nathan's Jewelers for being the liveliest of the whole bunch. We had a very good time.

Friday-Mrs. Odom came and had Bible study.

Estelle Bolding wears the diamond pendant she received.

Mamie Wells was presented with a watch.

Education: brings The joy of learning — a life-long experience

Education is a life-long process, not something which can be contained within the walls of any school, however distinguished. It is as much a term for adults as children — there is no limit on curiosity. Pay the person who truly believes that he has nothing more to learn, because that person has come to grow.

People learn by a variety of methods. Book learning is one, chief among them — as is the simple range of facts among people, teacher to pupil, pupil to teacher. Usually, people learn by opening themselves to the people around them, by allowing their senses to interpret their own experiences, leaving their pores open, metaphorically speaking, to the world that nature and art and children have to offer.

Whether your interests lie in specific areas, or whether you are enthralled by everything the world has to offer, there is one precept always to keep in mind: There is nothing so small as a real worth learning, nothing so large, it's not worth learning.

Capturing the spirit of summer in photographs can be as easy as thinking in the sun, when you follow a few simple steps on picture taking.

No matter how ideal the lighting and other conditions, ultimately the quality of your pictures depends on the way you handle your camera.

Although many of the new cameras are equipped with what appears to be a "viewfinder" in the result of how you use the camera.

One of the greatest advantages of an instant camera is that you can see your results immediately. You can tell right away when you look the time to compose a shot in the viewfinder or when you need to try again.

RRC Adopts Rules To Protect Gas Users

AUSTIN—Protection for natural gas customers who are ill and can't pay bills, and requirements for advising customers of their rights in billing disputes were among several rule changes adopted by the Railroad Commission this week.

The changes, which are now a part of the quality of service rules for gas utilities developed by the Commission's Gas Utilities Division, were published for public comment in December. Three of the changes were put into effect on an emergency basis at that time.

Changes in effect since December and now made permanent include a requirement that gas utilities give customers an information packet when service begins telling them of their rights, how to resolve billing disputes with the company, under what circumstances services can be terminated, and how to contact the appropriate regulatory authority in disputed cases. The packets must also be printed in both English and Spanish and customers must be notified at least once a year that they are available.

Customers must have five working days notice before service is terminated and the notice of termination must have "termination" or similar language prominently printed on it.

Other safeguards contained in the new rules protect customers who are sick and in danger of gas cutoff due to bill problems. If a customer is seriously ill and has difficulty paying a gas bill, the customer may provide a statement from a physician to the gas utility and the utility may not cut off service for at least 20 days thereafter. The customer has 5 days from the date the bill becomes delinquent to file the statement with the utility.

The rules require utilities to state in the termination notice itself that customers with health or other emergencies may contact the utility to get information about relief available.

There is no limit to the number of times a year an ill customer can obtain bill payment relief through a physician's letter.

Customers also have added rights in billing disputes under the new quality of service rules. If a customer and a utility can't reach agreement over a bill, the utility must inform the customer of his or her opportunity for review of the case by the appropriate regulatory authority, either the city or the Railroad Commission.

The customer must notify the utility promptly of any disagreement over the bill and once that is done, the customer is required to pay only that portion of the bill which equals his or her monthly average bill until the dispute is resolved.

Comments from Consumers Union and several utility companies were incorporated into the rules approved by the Commission.

...give little thought to the question of values when we should measure them in terms of personal worth in everything he buys, enjoys or does. For example, some folks will buy real estate without any kind of evidence of title disregarding the fact that the principal value of the purchase is in the title, not in the land itself or the improvements thereon. This kind of thinking costs property owners thousands of dollars annually which could be saved and a part of the savings wisely spent for an abstract of title or title insurance.

Main Street Rising Star

Over 100 Years of Quality and Service

Commentary

by Myrtle Owen

Let us take off our religious eyeglasses and look at some things that Jesus said concerning prayer. There are laws of God that govern and uphold all things, I want you to see that the laws we will be referring to are God's laws and they are spiritual. God is a Spirit and He created the universe. Everything you see has been created by a Spirit. Now sometimes people get the idea that this is the real world and the spirit world just somehow doesn't exist because they can't see it with the natural eye. It is like a fog out there somewhere. Many people believe in it like they do Santa Claus. The spirit world is the real world. This is not the real world. The Word says, "the things which are seen are temporal", (I Corinthians 4:18) while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. In other words they are subject to change. But "the word of God...liveth and abideth forever". (I Peter 1:23) God's Word is a living Person (Jesus) and abides forever. The reason you have eternal life is because you received the eternal Word into your spirit and He is life. The Word is eternal and He produces after His kind. Scriptural Bondage; Today there are many Christians that have been deceived by the evil one. Satan is called the deceiver. His ability is in his deception. Jesus stripped him of his authority and power. God's Word will always strip the armour from Satan and bring to light his deception. Deception is his only armour. God's Word will penetrate that armour and expose him. It is written, on the mount of temptation (Luke 4) Jesus spoke three words that shook the foundation of Satan's kingdom beyond repair: "It is Written." Jesus stood on a sure foundation and refused to speak anything except what His Father said. Notice, when all else failed to move Jesus off the Word, Satan himself began to quote scripture. The last and greatest of all deception is to take the Word out of context and distort it to make it say something different from the true meaning. This was Satan's last stand. He said, "Cast thyself down from hence: For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee: And in their hands they shall bear thee up, least at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone."

You will notice the enemy quoted it almost word for word from Psalms 91:11-12. He drew it out of context to infer that Jesus could not commit suicide even by jumping off the pinnacle of the temple. Psalms 91:9-13 is a beautiful passage of scripture promising protection from evil, plagues, accidental destruction but in no way does it apply to a willful act of self destruction. In this you see what I believe is Satan's ultimate deception to Christians today. He distorts men's minds with religious thinking that causes the very opposite meaning to be magnified and covers the true meaning with the garbage of intellectual reasoning.

Baptist W M U

The Baptist Ladies of the First Baptist Church met Monday, March 7th, in Fellowship Hall for a continuation of Home Mission studies from the book Sodbusters. Two areas discussed were Massachusetts and Florida. Doris Griffin explained the progress being made in the northern state among some of the lowest income families.

Missionaries with birthdays on that day were named and prayer was given by Sara Chamberlain.

March 14th, the ladies met with Jean New in charge of the program. Working with the slow learners in schools through church tutoring children after school in overcrowded schools areas and setting up teaching areas in areas where there are illiterates was the topic of the day. Ruby Murdoch, Marie Hardin, Celestine Carleton and Lela Clark told of several of the experience in the United States as part of the Southern Baptist work.

Paula New, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. James New and senior student at John Tarleton University, Stephenville, told of visiting with foreign students at the University. Her comments were most interesting.

Killion Runs for Mayor

We have many problems facing us now. The poor condition of our streets, the purchase of more gas, the requirements set up by the railroad commission and health department, etc. All of these are serious problems that will not simply go away or subside on their own. These problems can be resolved, it will take time and honest commitment on the part of city officials and citizens alike.

As far as the streets are concerned, I can already see some of that commitment, more people are showing an interest than ever before, and they are getting directly involved and doing something about the situation. The Chamber of Commerce members have started a campaign drive to promote street repairs, and it is going great.

One thing I should mention to those who do not already know, the street repairs around the post office was done by concerned citizens of our town. This kind of concern is what is going to turn Rising Star around and make it a better and certainly less bumpy town to live in.

The attitude that I see in most citizens is what prompted my decision to seek another term as mayor and finish the job we started. I would greatly appreciate your vote and if given the nod you can be assured I will manage the city to the best of my knowledge and ability.

H. L. Killion

Rattlesnake Round-up Time in Brownwood

Plans for the 19th Annual Rattlesnake Round-up are well underway. Round-up Chairman Sam Oswood announced today that table and wall booth display area reservations are well ahead of previous years. Oswood attributes the brisk pre-registration to the fact that prices for the display areas have been lowered to $20.00 for an 8 ft. table and $40.00 for a wall booth. The 1983 Wildcat Show will feature art, water color, wood carvings, wall hangings, jewelry, antiques, barbed wire, coins guns, indian relics and rock collections.

Oswood also announced that the infamous World Champion Rattlesnake Sacking Contest will be reinstated at this years show. The Sacking Contest is scheduled for 3:00 p.m. Saturday with the Sacking finals scheduled for 3:00 p.m. Sunday. The contest will be limited to professional snake handlers. Two-person teams will work against the clock to sack ten rattlesnakes. The team with the faster times will advance into Sunday's finals. The winners of the sacking contest will receive $400.00, second place $200.00, and third place $100.00.

As in years past, the round-up will feature the Heart of Texas Snake Handlers Association from Waco. The Rattlesnake Round-up and Wildcat Show kicks off on Saturday, March 19, at 10:00 a. m. Saturday evening the Annual Rattlesnake Dance will be held at Brownwood's newest night club, The Last National Bank. Admission to the dance is $4.00 per person. Sunday's edition of the Round-up will kick off at 12:00 noon. General admission for the Wildcat Show and Round-up will be $1.00.

Tables and display space are still available by calling 915-784-5252 or by writing the Brownwood Jaycees, P. O. Box 969, Brownwood, Texas 76801.

Senior Center News

Last Thursday was another enjoyable day at our center. We had a number of visitors who came to fellowship with us—it makes us happy to know that others love us and wish to be with us on our regular days as well as special occasions! Very special among our visitors was the De Leon Quartet; they once again lifted our spirits with another fine selection of their fine gospel music. We would like to express our deep appreciation to these wonderful men for kindly sharing their talents with us. We love them; we are always glad when they come our way.

Another visitor was Mrs. Perry Brown, from Cisco, who came as a representative of AARP, to invite us to attend a special meeting of that organization, to be held in Cisco, March 17.

I herewith express my deep appreciation to Doris Griffin for so graciously and competently serving in my stead as reporter while Charlie's illness kept me occupied elsewhere. I know this came at an extremely busy time for Doris—but she did a marvelous work, and we thank her. This once again, proves the adage, "If you want something done ask the busiest person you know to do it. The task will be done, and quite well!"

Charlie and I again extend our love and appreciation to everyone for their love and concern during Charlie's recent illness and stay in the hospital. All your thoughtful deeds were so helpful in leading Charlie back to better health.

March 8th, a good group of Starbrites went over to the Brownwood Coliseum to furnish entertainment at the domino tournament, there. It was a great day, we played at our best and we found many wonderful folks with whom we could visit.

Tuesday, last, the Starbrites took to the road, again—traveling to De Leon to entertain at the Senior Center. I think this was one of our most successful efforts. We played well, the fellowship was truly wonderful and we were served a delicious meal.

Another thing which lifts our spirits when we take our Senior Citizens' bus to neighboring towns is the sight of our Texas country side "greening up". In the words of the Psalmist, "It restoreth my soul." After a long dormant winter, how refreshing it is to observe the renewing power manifesting itself in new greens of the meadows and fields, the whites and colors of sweet-smelling blooms on the fruit trees, and the busy nesting of the spring birds. I do wish others of our Senior Citizens, besides just the Starbrites, could be with us on these happy trips. It would bring joy to my

REACT

I'm sorry that the report for February is so late. But February was a very successful month with $620 in donations. The donations were given by: Cassie Allen, Clara Kidd, Bob Lucas, Mr. & Mrs. J. E. White, and all those who gave at the bake sale. We would like to thank all of you and let you know how much we appreciate it. Thank You. We get a lot of question about what exactly is REACT. REACT means Radio Emergency Associated Citizens Teams. The Rising Star REACT Service is a group of volunteers who give their time, money and devotion for the betterment of the community. It is a TEAM who helps not only with the ambulance in transfers, emergencies, and responding to fires, but they also aid in helping find lost persons.

I believe that they deserve a pat on the back and a sincere "thank you" for the job that they are doing. Where would the citizens here be without them? They do not charge for their services, but accept donations which goes to the upkeep of the ambulances. How better can one spend ones money than for the preservation of this service. It is not the amount of money that is donated, but it is the thought behind it. If a child gives a quarter, then it is a quarter more for the service and they know that even children think that the service is invaluable.

In case of emergencies, isn't it a relief to know that there is someone nearby who is willing to help you just because they care and not for profit? They do not choose who they help by the amount of money they have or have not donated or how rich or poor that a person may be. So the next time you see a REACT volunteer tell them how much you appreciate what they are doing or better yet, why don't YOU become part of the REACT group and be a volunteer too?

Well, that's the news as I have it today. So, its Adios, Amigos, por esta dia. Love Elizabeth.

how much we appreciate it. Thank You.

I have just received news that Rowland Hassell lost his little finger of his left hand in an accident, on Saturday. This is heartbreaking news to all of us; we extend our love and best wishes to him and Tina at this time.

Dell informs us that they have been enjoying the company of their family the past few days. Of course, the guest of honor was their precious little great-granddaughter, Andra Cleghorn. I am fully aware of the great joy these great grand-children bring with them into our homes. I am, right now, marking off the calendar until the day our own three "Great Ones" will be with us!

Well, that's the news as I have it today. So, its Adios, Amigos, por esta dia. Love Elizabeth.

ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR

The Rising Star Chapter No. 277, Order of the Eastern Star met in Masonic Lodge March 4, for a stated meeting. This meeting was in recognition of Public Education Week.

Merle and Virgil Murphy of Cisco promoted as Associate Matron and Patron. Also, visiting from Cisco chapter were Era and Ted Hamilton. Era promoted as Martha due to the illness of Lila Jarrett.

Conductress chair was filled by Bess Wright as Evelyn Click had flu. Opal Fleming chaired Ruth's station as Sue Gardner was with her husband, Bill, in the hospital.

Sixteen members and four visitors were present. A number of invitations from various chapters were read. A report of the

Recipes Worth Collecting

Our recipe this week was submitted by Vi Williams. What can you say about Vi, more than that she is a gracious lady. I had become acquainted with Vi in the Saturday Club, so last year when I was needing some volunteer ladies to help me with a cancer survey, I called on her to help. She was so willing to help and did a very good job. The community will miss her and her husband, Dick, very much. They both with willing hearts were very active in all affairs of the community. LaQuita.

Vi said she had used this recipe for nearly 35 years.

County Extension Agent

Each spring brings a new crop of advertisements depicting fabulous plants of untold beauty or rapid growth of "magic" topsoils, outlandish claims for special growth-promoting substances and colorful ads proclaiming the wondrous potential of rather common or nondescript plants, bulbs and seeds.

Each year these gypsters have a nationwide field day at the homeowner's expense. Untold thousands - including many Texans - are being gyped out of millions of dollars annually by these smooth-sounding chisellers.

By its very nature, the nursery industry often provides an open invitation to the unscrupulous. Sales tend to be bunched into one season of the year, making it easy to promote a hit-and-run item or service.

By far, the majority of gardeners and nurserymen are honest, reliable businessmen who give value for money received. It is the spectacular growth of horticulture as a hobby and the ever-increasing number of new homes that has attracted the horde of fly-by-nights who have found an easy way to make a fast buck.

A few basic rules for separate the legitimate businessmen from the fast-buck artist include:

Ask to see the salesman's certificate of inspection from the Texas Department of Agriculture. No one can sell nursery or florist plants in Texas without a valid certificate. This certificate of inspection must be renewed each year.

Give consideration to local businessmen who have a reputation to uphold and have addresses you can contact if necessary. Check with the Better Business Bureau or Chamber of Commerce before you agree to the services of a door-to-door operator.

Before buying service of any kind, get an agreement in writing no matter how simple the job is. Have the seller state exactly what he will furnish and what he will do. This applies to pest control operators as well as to those installing landscape materials or doing landscape maintenance.

Never pay cash in advance. Pay when the job is completed. Be skeptical of ads that make extravagant claims about plant materials. Such words as "amazing," "gigantic," "spectacular," "new scientific development," "prize blooms" and "free" are often used to hook the unsuspecting reader.

Get a good reference book on cultivated plants so you can look up the real meaning of the Latin names frequently printed in small type. That exotic bloom or fast-growing tree may actually be a common, garden-variety flower or common weed-type tree.

Read the fine print in mail order brochures and catalogs. Often the small size of the plant is the reason why the price looks so attractive. Always check with a local nurseryman for the price on a similar item before you put your check in the mail.

END-OF-MODEL REBATES UP TO $5,500 ON 40- to 228-HP JOHN DEERE TRACTORS

The signals are moving, the farm economy is turning up for the 1980s. Reading those signals, consider the money-saving fact: You can now get a new John Deere 40 Series tractor at a model closeout price that will never be as low again. A price that competes with offers on tractors of any make. A bargain price on a tractor that will return you top dollar when traded in.

So even if you're going into the P.K. program to the maximum, you'll be dollar-wise to take advantage of this closeout offer on 40 Series tractors. Because you'll never again be able to match these savings.

John Deere's offering you a maximum cash rebate up to $5,500* (see chart below) on top of our best deal on a 40 Series tractor. And we're discounting from list prices that date back to 1981! Or you can qualify for a cash rebate waiver of John Deere finance charges to November 1, 1983. See us for details.

Special cash rebates up to $8,200 on 50 Series 4WD tractors, too, with the added attraction of waiver of finance charges to June 1, 1983.
