

Lometa 37 Rising Star 8

Lometa scored on its first four possessions to completely dominate the Wildcats on Friday. Rising Star received the opening kickoff and after failing to make a first down, punted. Lometa broke their first offensive play, from the Rising Star 35 yard line, all the way for a touchdown. The extra point attempt failed.

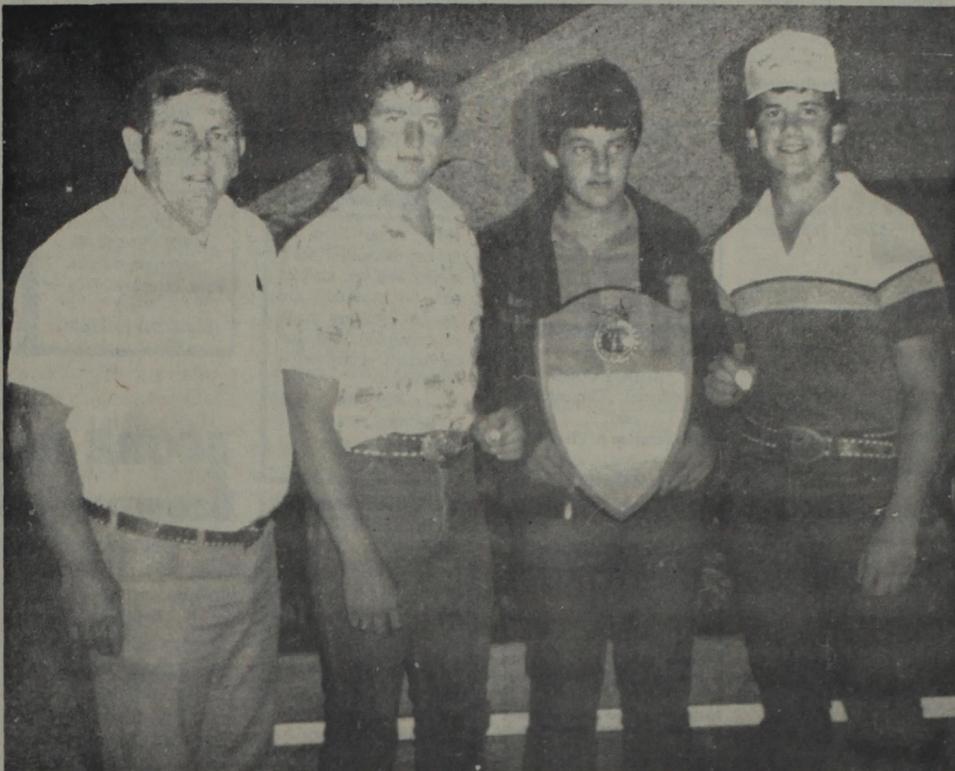

Again in the first quarter Lometa ran for a touchdown and added the point after kick. Also in the first quarter the Hornets increased their lead to 16-0 with a field goal.

The Hornets added seven more points in the second quarter on a 49 yard run and an extra point kick. They finished their scoring by adding seven points in the third and seven points in the fourth quarter to bring their total to 37 points.

Rising Star got on the score board in the fourth quarter on a 5 yard run by Lowell Bishop for the touchdown, and a pass to Jaral Pannell from Sam Scott for the 2-point conversion. Final score Lometa 37 to Rising Star 8.

The Wildcats' next opponent will be the Goldthwaite Eagles there. The Eagles are currently ranked number 7 in the state Top 10 polls.

Donations Needed to Send State Champion FFA Team to National Convention

The Texas state champion FFA Livestock Judging Team from May High School will be traveling to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, soon to compete against the first place teams from the other 49 states. The May FFA team, composed of Darrin Chambers, Glenn Pittman and Shane Crafton, will be accompanied by their FFA advisor and Vocational Agriculture instructor, Bo Allen.

The team will attend the convention November 8 - 12 and is scheduled to compete in livestock judging November 10. This team won first place last spring in contests against all other livestock judging teams in the state of Texas and is the pride of May. Neighboring communities and area FFA chapters are also very proud of these three boys.

The May FFA chapter is seeking donations to help finance the team's trip to the National FFA Convention. Part of the funds have been raised, but more is needed for the three young men and their advisor to make the trip to Kansas City.

The May FFA club has had money-raising projects to aid the team and they gratefully acknowledge those who helped in those events and also other donors. The May PTC, May Independent School District, Houston Fat Stock Show and several May residents have made direct contributions for the trip.

Anyone wishing to contribute for the trip may contact Betty Chambers at 259-3951 or Frances Crafton at 259-3334.

The FFA team is also appreciative of the instruction given them by the Brown County Agent. He has helped them with oral reasoning, which is not required at the state level of competition.

Darrin Chambers, a 1983 May High School graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Chambers, was president of the May FFA in his senior year. As a member of the livestock judging team that year, he achieved the third highest individual score in the Tarleton invitational competition, the fifth highest at Sweetwater and second in area competition at Tarleton. He placed sixth in state-wide individual scores.

He joined the livestock judging team as a sophomore, earning the second highest score in area competition at Tarleton. He was a member of the Chapter conducting team and qualified for state livestock judging that year.

In his junior year, Darrin was the FFA reporter and took the third place high individual award at Sweetwater, the eighth individual area score at Tarleton and first place individual at Texas Tech. He again qualified for state livestock judging.

Glenn Pittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman and a high school junior, is the FFA treasurer. In his freshman year, he was the FFA Greenhand reporter, and as a member of the Greenhand quiz team he placed sixth in state competition.

As a sophomore,

Halloween Carnival October 29

The senior class of Rising Star High School will hold a Halloween Carnival for children on Saturday, October 29, starting at 6 p.m. at the Market Building on Highway 183. Admission will be $1.00 for those over 12 years old, and 50 cents for those under 12.

Activities will include a spook house, throwing games with wet sponges, basketball and football, bobbing apples, dart throw, and much more.

The seniors are accepting any donations of toys or other appropriate prizes for the games. Businesses which donate prizes will receive an advertisement in appreciation.

Glenn participated in the senior chapter conducting team and won the first high individual award at the district livestock judging contest at Tarleton. He also achieved the fifth high individual score at state livestock judging.

Shane Crafton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Crafton and a senior, has received several high individual awards in livestock judging over the past three years.

As a freshman, he was vice president of the FFA Greenhands and participated in the FFA Quiz and the state qualifying livestock judging team.

As a sophomore, he was a member of the livestock judging team that qualified for state competition.

Shane was FFA reporter in his junior year, qualified for the state livestock judging team and won first place at state competition in livestock judging.

This year, he is FFA president.

Fire Dept. Says, HELP!

The Rising Star City Fire Department is in desperate need of financial help!

The City Fire Station is in great need of major repairs, such as insulation, doors repaired, and heaters installed. If these improvements aren't done and with winter fast approaching, the truck will freeze and then it won't matter whose home, business, etc., is burning, it will be impossible for us to respond to your call!

We of the Volunteer City Fire Department are asking for your help now!

Truett Horton has been appointed to contact as many people as possible in a door-to-door campaign. It will be impossible for him to contact each person this way, but if you would like to make a donation and need the donation to be picked up, call 643-6451 after 5:30 p.m.

A special account will be set up at the First State Bank, Rising Star, for the Special Building Fund of the fire department.

Thank you,
The Rising Star

Department

Two burglaries in homes in the countryside near Rising Star resulted in major losses for residents of the houses.

The first burglary at the home of Virgil Clark, about two miles northwest of the city, claimed losses of more than $19,000 in antiques, collectibles, garden equipment and appliances.

According to Constable Gene Hicks, the burglary took place sometime about October 4. Mr. Clark's father-in-law discovered the theft when he checked on the property. The fence had been cut and a window broken to gain entry.

The thieves dumped $300 worth of meat out of a freezer in order to remove the freezer.

In the second burglary, about four miles out of the city in Brown County, the boxed belongings of Ada Wood and Glen Turner, who planned to reside in the home after their marriage, were taken.

The losses from that burglary, October 15, added to about $1,000.

Constable Hicks urges area residents to be alert for strange vehicles and to note license plates of unfamiliar passersby.

He states, "License numbers are very important; please attempt to jot the numbers down."

"Law enforcement offices in this county and surrounding counties are working on these cases, and we are still following up leads on both incidents," he said.

Blanche Cawley will be working with him during the election.

Eleven proposed Constitutional amendments will be on the ballot for the voters' decision. Brief explanatory statements of the proposed amendments were published in the September 15 and September 22 issues of this newspaper.

RETIRING OR MOVING?

At least 18 per cent of the people in America will move this year. And many of you are thinking about retiring. These decisions are a part of your life and will affect at least one out of every five of your family and friends soon.

When making your retiring and moving decisions you'll soon discover that you've really accumulated a lot of possessions in the last few years. And you'll quickly see that it will be very difficult, time consuming and quite expensive to haul your possessions across the country or even around town.

But, you can turn these accumulated possessions into quick cash by holding an auction. A well planned auction can cash out your entire household in just a few short hours. And, I provide complete auction service so you don't have to worry about a single detail.

It's a whole lot easier to have an auction and put cash in your wallet than it is to put your piano, refrigerator & hide a bed in a truck. And remember, when it comes to buying or selling AUCTION'S BEST.

The Star Brites played Friday, October 14, at Cisco Senior Citizens Center. Everyone enjoyed our visit there.

Our recipe for this week was submitted by Elizabeth Chamberlain:

Easter Pizza
1 box Pillsbury hot roll mix
1 dozen eggs
½ of 3 oz. can grated Parmesan cheese
½ a 6 oz. can grated Romano cheese
2 6 or 8 oz. pkg. of mild cheddar cheese, grated
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of black pepper
½ tsp. onion salt
½ tsp garlic powder
2 pkgs sliced pepperoni
Mix the hot roll mix according to package directions stirring in one beaten egg. Divide the dough into two equal parts. Roll the first portion thin and shape to fit into a 9x12x2 baking dish and extend slightly over all sides.

Beat together the remaining 11 eggs, add all the grated cheeses and the 3 seasonings.

Cover the crust on the bottom of the prepared baking dish with one package of the pepperoni. Pour in half of the beaten egg mixture. Cover this with the second package of pepperoni, pour on the remaining egg mixture.

Roll out the second portion of dough. Place it over the top of the baking dish and trim all edges, leaving enough all around to make a good seal.

Brush the top with melted butter. Bake at 350 degrees about 45 minutes or until golden brown.

Liz states, "This is a rich egg dish and will feed several hungry people, and they will enjoy it."

I will be away on vacation next week, so I have asked Edith Bostick to write the Center news while I am away.

THURSDAY 13 We had a pleasant visitor today, Johnnie Vanpelt, a social worker who came to explain some of the new paperwork (required by the state) to Darlene.

That evening, we played dominoes and forty-two. At one table playing dominoes were Mamie Wells, Estell Bolding and our new lady, Vera Forbes. At another table playing forty-two were Mary Crisp, Martha Irby, Pauline Hill, and Buster Rixford, all trying to teach Darlene how to play.

The City of Rising Star is fortunate to have a new employee, Mrs. Dick (Georgia) Hennessey. Her salary will be paid by the Green Thumb Program, part time employment for senior citizens, sponsored by the government. Her job will basically consist of working with Accounts Receivable.

The office staff is very happy to have the addition of Mrs. Hennessey's expertise and knowledge.

Drivers, Police Chief Herbert Hooten has asked me to warn you about a couple of bad driving habits that we need to stop doing.

First, it is not legal to be going in one direction then flip across the opposite lane to park on the other side of the street. Many are doing this and the Chief advises that he will start writing tickets for this illegal maneuver.

Second, it is illegal to back into oncoming traffic. The backer will receive a ticket in case of accident. Please, look before you back.

Let's make "safety first" our motto.

A great big thanks to Frankie Sayas for two afternoons volunteered for addressing cards for billing. This is a long, time-consuming project and her help is appreciated.

City hall will be closed November 8 for the election.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor, We are looking for information on our great-grandfather James Madison Tyson. He and his family and other relatives are buried in Rising Star Cemetery on East Pioneer Street.

We have not been able to obtain any death records from Eastland or surrounding counties.

I'll list some names and dates which might be of help:

Great-grandfather James Madison Tyson, born in North Carolina on September 29, 1834; died May 4, 1928.

Great-grandmother Margaret E. Winfield Tyson, also born in North Carolina on July 18, 1835; thought to have died April 5, 1909.

They had seven children:

James Madison Tyson Jr., known also as "Matt", was born on June 4, 1868, and died May 29, 1899.

Albert J. Tyson was born January 14, 1866, and died April 9, 1908.

John Winfield Tyson, my husband's grandfather, is buried in Hamilton County.

The four daughters were Stella Bucy, Lulu Roach, Mollie Duncan and Blanche Lewis.

We are looking for information for a genealogy, and would like to know if the children were born in Texas and if the two brothers had wives and families. Anything written about them would be appreciated.

Two Found Guilty of DWI in Eastland

Two men were convicted on charges of driving while intoxicated in two separate jury trials conducted this week in 91st District Court.

In a two-day trial that ended Thursday, an Eastland County jury found a Rising Star man guilty of felony DWI.

Wayne Buford Dalton, 56, was assessed three years in the Texas Department of Corrections and was fined $100 for the charge.

Dalton was arrested June 26 in Rising Star by Constable Gene Hicks. Hicks testified that while investigating a report about an alleged disturbance, he saw a pickup truck being driven erratically. Hicks said he stopped the driver of the truck, and he identified Dalton as the driver.

Department of Public Safety Trooper Robert Ralls, who administered a breathalyzer test, said Dalton's blood-alcohol level measured .20. The legal level for intoxication is .10.

Dalton, testifying in his own defense, told the jury he was not driving the pickup truck but that he was at home on his front porch at the time the incident reportedly occurred. However Dalton did not deny being intoxicated that evening.

Truman Kirk of Cisco represented

Dalton. Emory Walton, Eastland County district attorney, was the prosecuting attorney.

In another jury trial conducted Tuesday, a 33-year-old Dallas man was convicted on a first-offense DWI charge.

The jury assessed Charles Daniel Bull's punishment at one year in the county jail and fined him $150. Because Bull had no prior convictions, he was given two years probation for the sentence.

Bull was arrested Nov. 22, 1982, south of here on I-20 by DPS Trooper Robert Ralls.

Ben Suddereth of Comanche represented Bull. Emory Walton prosecuted.

GIRL SCOUT FUNDS RETURNED — More than $800 in forgotten bank accounts belonging to 70 Girl Scout troops has been returned, thanks to the Texas Treasury's Unclaimed Money Program. State Treasurer Ann Richards recently presented a check for $817 to representatives from Austin's Lone Star Girl Scout Council, which will pass the money on to the appropriate Scout organizations. Richards said the funds are from accounts which were inactive for seven years, adding that the Treasury is publishing a list this October of 20,000 Texans who have been reported as the owners of abandoned accounts.

district court whose docket usually is already overcrowded.

Opponents say if probate-court judges could be assigned around the state, they may not be available in their own counties when they are needed. They believe the constitutional county judges would be tempted to disqualify themselves in a controversial case knowing a probate-court judge from Dallas of Houston could be brought in to "take the heat."

Next week I will conclude the series on proposed amendments by discussing the final 2 propositions. See you then.

A message from this newspaper and the Troopers of the Texas Department of Public Safety

Many Violent Crimes Attributed To Alcohol

Alcohol not only has had a deadly effect on driving but has contributed to injuries and death in other violent categories as well, according to an article in Texas Medicine.

Dr. C. Thomas, a Tulsa, Okla., Surgeon, cites a study estimating the percentages of various types of violent incidents that involve alcohol.

They are stabbings, 75 percent; beatings, 69; sexual aggression toward children, 67; homicides, 64; (70 percent on weekends); fights or assaults in the home, 56; shootings, 55; sexual aggression toward women, 30; and suicides, 30. Thompson notes that a high percentage of burns, home accidents, and chokings on food are also related to alcohol.

The story appears in the October issue of the Texas Medical Association's monthly journal.

Thompson warns that alcohol abuse may complicate treatment of serious injuries. "The risks of anesthesia and surgery increase dramatically" for patients with alcoholism. He says this is particularly true for surgical patients with certain unrecognized lung or heart problems.

In addition, alcohol abuse and delirium tremens may cause problems with nutrition and healing after the operation, Thompson writes.

He notes that the drunk patient in the emergency room poses difficult legal and moral questions with answers.

"The 19-year-old combative boy who has had a few beers," for example, is not unusual on a Friday night. He is not under arrest and has been involved in an accident. Does he have a head injury? Does he have the right to refuse X rays or other studies?" Thompson writes.

"What is the moral obligation at 3 a.m. to a patient who has hit the nurse and spit on the physician?"

On dealing with drunken drivers, Thompson says, "Tough laws of the Scandinavian type seem to have little long-term effect on death and injury, but weak enforcement and seldom-applied penalties contribute to the problem."

He suggests that vigorous enforcement, decriminalization of the offense, and "sure, swift civil penalties" would be more effective.

Thompson's article is one in a three-month series of Texas Medicine stories based on presentations at the Conference on the Control and Prevention of Injury held in Galveston.

Bonnie Hill Paintings Exhibited At C.J.C.

Cisco Junior College is very pleased to present Bonnie Erwin Hill as exhibitor of paintings in Manor Memorial Library during the month of October.

Mrs. Hill grew up in Cisco. She started drawing as early as she can remember and had a lot of encouragement from her mother. Bonnie feels that she made her first contact with an artist when she was in the Cisco schools. When she was in the fifth grade she was in Miss Pearl Donaway's class. Miss Donaway brought her own paintings to school to show to her class. As a special project, she let her students work with the beautiful pastels. Bonnie believes that this was truly the beginning of her painting career.

Bonnie is a graduate of Cisco Junior College and has studied art at the School of Fine Arts and Galleries with Charles Berkley Norman. She has also studied at the Instituto Allende in Guanajuato, Mexico. She has taken advantage of opportunities to learn from European artist and has made frequent visits and extended study trips to Mexico.

The first few years of Mrs. Hill's painting career, she designed and painted needlepoint. Later she began to experiment with mixed medias such as ink and water color, pastels and pencil, acrylic and oil. Her favorite media is painting in oil. Enthusiasm and feeling for animals and a exuberance for color, are evident in Bonnie Erwin Hill's paintings.

Mrs. Hill has exhibited the last three years in the Cowboy Wildlife Art Show at the University of Texas, many one woman shows and other special exhibits. She also has exhibits in public and private collections in Texas, Colorado, Montana, New York and Saudi Arabia. She teaches art in Austin in her studio and gives demonstrations and teaches out of town workshops throughout Texas.

Steady growth is projected for Eastland and its schools, according to the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, Bank, electric service companies and local business people. James Wright, Manager of the Chamber of Commerce, states the Chamber is working with two industries at present, and expects one if not both to relocate in Eastland. One would employ about 150 people and the other 50 to 75. A new retail business is also expected to locate here.

The Dale Carnegie Course, which is designed to help people meet the challenges of life in a positive way, will be offered in Eastland County this fall. Harold A. Rumzek of Wichita Falls, manager and instructor for the course is presently in the area making arrangements. Details may be secured by calling 629-8585 for a personal interview.

The Cornith Baptist Church, located mid-way between Eastland and Cisco, has scheduled revival meetings for Nov. 2-6. Prayer meetings will begin at 6:30, with the sermon beginning at 7:00 p.m. Sunday evening preaching service will begin at 6:30 p.m. J.B. Harlan of Point, Texas, who pastors a church near Lake Tawakoni, will be the evangelist. Burditt Hitt, the church's pastor, invites the public to attend the services.

RISING STAR

Recipients of the Eastland County 4-H Gold Star awards are Shannon Caraway and Sue Ann Osborne, both of Gorman. Also named for honors at the 4-H Awards Banquet held in Rising Star were Becky Jo Underwood of Gorman and Shannon Kendall of Nimrod, receiving the Danforth Award. Bo Caraway of Gorman was named outstanding adult 4-H leader. Congressman Charles W. Stenholm spoke to a large crowd assembled at the banquet.

The Rising Star 4-H Club has collected over $455.00 in the Cystic Fibrosis campaign, with more than 20 members participating. Rising Star merchants and business people assisted with contributing reaching the total in one day. All hope to help wipe out the No. 1 genetic killer of children and young adults.

Homecoming To Honor Wrangler Belle Director

Homecoming 1983 at Cisco Junior College will be especially memorable for all former Wrangler Belles. Mrs. Pat Owens, director of the precision drill team for 15 years will be honored during homecoming festivities. All former belles are invited to a reception in her honor October 29 from 10:00 to 11:30 in the Texas Room of Manor Memorial Library.

Any former belles unable to attend are encouraged to send cards and messages to be presented to Mrs. Owens during the reception. These may be mailed in care of Nicki Harle, Cisco Junior College, Cisco, Texas 76437.

THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE

KERA Channel 13 & 90FM
November 2 and 9

Millions of young people are reckless abusers of drugs and alcohol in our society, and many more are threatened each year as the age level of beginners drops. In addition, it is estimated that 8,000 teenagers will die in drunk-driving accidents this year.

A nationwide action campaign to combat school-age drug and alcohol abuse, combining the power of television and individuals at the community level, will be launched Wednesday, November 2, at 8 p.m. on Channel 13 and other public television stations across the country. That's when First Lady Nancy Reagan will host and introduce THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE, a two-part television special airing simultaneously with gathering of thousands of concerned citizens in local town meetings throughout the nation.

The first one-hour program is designed to inform and motivate people. The second, a week later, will act as a catalyst to the formation of permanent community task forces emerging from the town meetings. In addition, KERA/90FM and Channel 13 will air follow-up programs after the national broadcasts to look at the problem and efforts to fight it in the North Texas area. Guest hosts for the national programs include television stars Bill Bixby, Michael Landon, Rita Moreno and Bruce Weitz and former Pittsburgh Pirate Willie Stargell.

In the first television program, "The Chemical Society," on November 2, an overview of the widespread use of drugs and alcohol by young people will be presented. With a skillful blend of documentary, drama, hard statistics and personal stories, this program confronts the "wall of denial" that so often prevents any meaningful assault on a drug problem and examines the scope of drug and alcohol abuse among the young as well as the emotional and sociological repercussions.

At 9 p.m. on November 2, KERA/90FM will look at the issue in an hour-long live special hosted by Bob Ray Sanders. Sanders will discuss local drug and alcohol problems with experts and, by phone, with listeners. The 90FM interview/call-in special will be an opportunity for North Texans to come together in an electronic community forum to talk about ways to aid and cure these young people. Participating in the discussion will be Patricia Lawther, education administrator for the Dallas Council on Alcoholism; Marvin Boyd, administrator for Discipline and Improvement of Learning Environment with the Fort Worth Independent School District; and the parent of a teenager who is dealing with a drug-abuse problem.

The following Wednesday, November 9, the second THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE special, "Community Answers," will offer hope and guidance by explaining how to establish task forces to prevent and fight drug abuse. Through case histories, example and inspiration, the program aims to provide the way for viewers to prevent young people in their communities from being tempted by chemicals. Portions of "Community Answers" were filmed in Austin and highlight the work being done by the state-run War on Drugs organization.

As a follow-up to this program, Channel 13 will present "Chemical People; The Local Story" at 9 p.m. This half-hour special, also hosted by Bob Ray Sanders, will focus on the alcohol and drug problems in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. Sanders will lead a roundtable discussion with a panel of community leaders to examine reasons why the problem exists and what is being done locally to fight substance abuse. Guests will include Joan Barnette, the parent of a son who had a drug problem and a member of Richardson Families in Action; and Mike Will, a Tarrant County juvenile probation officer who works with many drug-troubled young people.

THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE project was conceived and originated by public television station WQED in Pittsburgh in cooperation with the Coalition for Addictive Diseases of Southwestern Pennsylvania. The initial Pittsburgh effort, involving several hours of local primetime programming in early 1982, resulted in over 12,000 people attending town meetings and the formation of over 114 permanent task forces.

To date, over 30 national organizations—from the Kiwanis International to the National PTA—have pledged their support the THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE project. For information on the town meeting in your area, contact your local PTA or Marilyn Boswell, KERA project director, 214/744-1300.

Local production and broadcast of the 90FM and Channel 13 follow-up programs are made possible in part by Medical Plaza Hospital of Fort Worth, Metropolitan Life Foundation and the Dallas Chapter of Texas Academy of Family Physicians.

As a mechanic he'd be top man in any shop.

He'd rather work for the Navy.

He can tear down an engine, get to the trouble spot and put it back together in no time at all. It's that kind of experience the Navy relies on to tune an engine, program a computer or even run a nuclear reactor. Pick any field and you'll find some of the best people in it are working in the Navy. They're men and women who believe being the best means more when it's done for their country.

Navy know-how. It's working for America.

C.P.R. Course October 24-27

C.P.R. is Cardiac-pulmonary resuscitation, a basic life saving technique that is very easy to learn. By knowing C.P.R. you can help sustain someone's life until medical help can arrive. With the Eastland County area growing as rapidly as it is, the possibility of you being around someone who might have a heart attack or start choking, is increasing with everyday that passes.

An American Red Cross C.P.R. class will be offered on October 24 and 27 from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m. The fee for the course will be $6.00 and will be collected the night of the course.

Completion and passing of the course will certify a person for one year and will receive a certification card and patches will be available.

Persons interested in the course will need to make reservations with Robert Webb, instructor of the course, at 629-2611 during the day and 629-1025 at night. The number of the class will be limited and reservations are a must.

Conserving Rain Helps Dry Conditions

COLLEGE STATION—Doing a better job of conserving rainfall may help farmers cope with dry conditions such as those that have plagued Texas and other states this year.

One way to "stretch" rainfall is through conservation tillage, suggests Dr. Ed Colburn, agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"Conservation tillage systems often produce higher yields per inch of available water," notes Colburn, "thus making the best use of this valuable resource."

Conservation tillage generally refers to tillage operations that reduce water evaporation losses and increase water infiltration into the soil.

"Conservation tillage helps improve soil moisture conditions by increasing water infiltration and slowing evaporation," points out Colburn. "Heavy crop residues help reduce runoff and erosion. Chiseling of subsoiling deepens the root zone and leaves the soil surface in a rough state to store more water."

A deeper root zone generally increases the soil water storage as a result of deep chiseling and improved soil organic matter levels, says the agronomist. This may give an extra inch or two of stored moisture that can help carry the crop through low rainfall periods.

"Although conservation tillage practices won't give overnight results, they can improve soil conditions and can start paying dividends in several years," says Colburn.

Commentary

by Myrtle Owen

The Nation of Israel is going to be restored: As we look at the restoration of Israel, I want you to have two objectives in mind: 1. To understand what is happening to Israel and what must take place before the nation is fully restored. 2. To see the parallel between the restoration of Israel and the restoration of God's children. God made a promise to Abraham, the Father of Israel: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: And in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed (Gen. 12:2-3). This promise was a binding covenant between God and Abraham. On several occasions when God would have destroyed the Israelites because of their disobedience and idolatry, the only thing that saved them was the fact that God would not break His promise to Abraham (Exodus 32:9-14); Numbers 14:11-20). Four hundred and thirty years after this promise was given to Abraham, the Law was given to Moses as a temporary means of reconciling man to God. With the Law, God gave the Israelites a choice, to obey and be blessed, or to disobey and be cursed. Open your Bible and read the entire chapter of Deuteronomy 28, where we will see very clearly the choice before Israel. The Israelites chose to disobey and, as a result, the curses of disobedience came upon them... God hid His face from Israel: Deut. 31:17-18, The ground was cursed: Deut. 28:18, 38, 42;

Leviticus 26:20. Pain, sickness and death came upon them: Deut. 28: 60-61, Leviticus 26:16, 21. They were scattered to the corners of the earth: Deut. 28:64. They were smitten before their enemies and brought into captivity: Deut. 28:25, 68; Leviticus 26:17, 33. They were smitten with spiritual blindness: Deut. 28:28, 29. All of these curses came upon Israel as a result of their disobedience. Yet, God did not totally forsake Israel. He was bound by His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and by His great love. And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the Lord their God. But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord, Lev. 26:44-45.

There is going to be a great shaking in Israel, Ezekiel 38:19, and God is going to destroy Gog and his allies: And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone. Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the Lord, Ezekiel 38:22-23. It is later than we think!

How should we treat others? By what standard? all of us know and love Matthew 7:12 and desire others to use it in their relationship with us. On the other hand, do we honestly in fair treatment deal with them by that same standard? Read the Ten Commandments of Human Relations which are based on Matthew 7:12, the Golden Rule:

1. Speak to people. There is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.

United Methodist Women

The United Methodist Women met Monday at 3 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church with 12 members present.

Mrs. Winnie Armstrong presided and Maggie Smith gave the invocation.

Yvonne Williams opened the study by reading Scriptures from Luke. Subjects of discussion were "How Jesus Used Prayer" by Winnie Armstrong, "What Is Prayer?" by Mae Pearl Hull, "How We Pray" by Lucille

2. Smile at people. It takes 72 muscles to frown, only 14 to smile.
3. Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful. If you would have friends, be friendly.
5. Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do is a genuine pleasure.
6. Be genuinely interested in people. You can like everybody if you try.
7. Be generous with praise, cautious with criticism.
8. Be thoughtful of the opinions of others. There are three sides to a controversy, yours, the other fellow's and the right one.
9. Be considerate of the feelings of others. It will be appreciated.
10. Be alert to give service. It counts most!

SOLAIR PEANUT DRYING NATURAL DRYING - A STEP TOWARD UPGRADING SOUTHWEST PEANUT QUALITY

Eaves Bros., Inc. will make available for the 1983 harvest season from 200 to 300 SOLAIR drying wagons to peanut growers in the Central Texas area. These are specially designed drying modules built with wire mesh sides and bottoms allowing air to circulate through the load. Air is channeled through the peanuts by way of wind barrels. Each unit is equipped with a tarpaulin for covering the load. They are 20 feet long, 8 feet wide and holds approximately 11,000 lbs. of dry weight peanuts. PROVEN CONCEPT—Since the testing of SOLAIR concept in 1977, peanut quality from the modules have equaled or bettered sack dried peanuts with a lower percentage of splits from reduced handling with superior quality over artificially dried peanuts. This concept rates high on quality and economics with research conducted by Oklahoma State University in comparison with other drying methods.

4-H Horse Program Attracts Many

For youngsters who want to learn to ride and care for horses, the 4-H horse program has all the ingredients.

More than 10,200 4-H'ers between the ages of 9 and 19 are enrolled in the horse program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Members can participate in a series of projects and are involved in hundreds of local events including meetings, farm tours, trail rides, shows, parades and clinics.

It is not necessary to own a horse to be active in the 4-H horse program, says John Blair, county Extension 4-H program coordinator.

The horse program, which is led by volunteers and coordinated by Extension staff, provides an opportunity for 4-H members to participate in many exciting events, a major one being the annual State 4-H Horse Show, a five-day event each July. Youth can also compete in horse judging and horse demonstrations, with the final objective being State 4-H Roundup each June at Texas A&M University.

Youth in the program also use their skills to help others. Many conduct programs to help the handicapped enjoy riding and learn about these horses and ponies.

Youth who excel in the 4-H horse program can qualify for numerous awards sponsored by the American Quarter Horse Association, Texas 4-H Foundation and the Insurance Company of North America.

Local 4-H'ers

Eight 4-H Club members from Rising Star attended a nutrition workshop held Saturday in Cisco, sponsored by the Cisco 4-H Club.

The participants learned about the four basic food groups and how to prepare nutritious meals using ingredients from the food groups (bread and cereal; fruit and vegetable; meats and dairy products).

The group had a puppet play about foods and ate shish kebobs that they prepared themselves.

Accompanied by an adult leader, Sandi Wright, the attending Rising Star members were Stacey and Heather Wright, Amy and Olivia West, Donna and Barbara Majors, Tabitha Hutton and Sheri Shaw.

Don't forget the Grandpa's Smokehouse tour on this Saturday at 9 a.m. If you need more information, call Barbara Long.
