

Cisco Rodeo Program Is In Full Swing

From The Editor's Window

The war situation across the waters keeps us wondering just what steps will be taken next.

Germany started our last World's War and apparently is attempting to start another.

Marketing Vegetables

What would you think if you were to meet a man in these days of automobiles, trucks and fast freight service, going to market with a load of vegetables and fruit, with a horse drawn slide?

This is the story told by W. A. Kile and N. C. Ramsey, living about three miles east of Putnam.

This brings to mind the rabbit and the tortoise, the rabbit traveled faster, but the tortoise reached its destination sooner.

The Cisco Rodeo

Cisco really looks attractive as preparations are in full swing for their first annual rodeo, to be held August 31 to September 1, today.

Those who have not cooperated in wearing the official costumes have been thrown in jail, which is located on the corner by the Leach store.

The cowgirls parade, trick roping, contests, square dancing horses, etc., will add to the feature of the rodeo as well as the cash and other valuable prizes which are offered.

Livestock Education

Texas livestock industry is rapidly coming into its own. Today it holds the foremost place in the raising of livestock.

This fall the largest livestock show ever held in the south will be held as part of the 1939 State Fair of Texas.

The State Fair offers this opportunity to cattle raisers this year, which has never been offered the public before.

Chemurgy Progress

Chemurgy which will be taught in our colleges in the near future is coming to the forefront in Texas enlightening our citizens about the use of impoverished acres and lost markets.

A news story tells of a home in Taylor, Texas, being painted with a drier made of Texas castor oil, of pigment made of Texas products.

Weeds, trees, and new crops have chemurgy possibilities and these possibilities and progress made in recent years will be portrayed in an exhibit at the State Fair of Texas this fall.

Chemurgy is a new study and is worth anyone's time to learn some.

THE PART TIME JOBS MAY BE ELIMINATED IN STATE DEPARTMENTS

Part-time jobs may be eliminated, in the different departments of state, as the attorney general has given out a ruling in which he tells Comptroller that budget salary could not be divided into part time jobs, except where the procedure was specifically authorized in the appropriation.

The attorney general based the ruling on the fact that the legislature in its recent session, for the first time, itemized nearly all appropriations, where previous appropriations had permitted part time employment.

THE COTTON SITUATION
 BY J. S. YEAGER

The cotton situation at the present time is anything but promising to those that have been thinking of the many hokus pokus schemes that have been tried with the intent of bringing the price of cotton up to where it will pay the producer. Every cracked brain idea that could be hatched has been tried, and the consequences are well known to everyone, that all failed and notwithstanding, the statement by Mr. Roosevelt that the New Deal has gotten away from 5 cent cotton, just when did we get away? If we make calculations on the 59 cent dollar cotton is lower than it has been in the past 30 year.

Figuring the present price of about 8.43 we find that it is only worth $4.94 in terms of the new dollar. This calculation can not be disputed by anyone, when it is figured in terms of purchasing power. It is not the number of dollars, that we receive; but the amount the dollar will purchase. This has been the policy of the New Deal from the time it started.

Of course, no one knows just what the subsidy will do for the price of cotton; but we venture the prediction right here and now, that in the place of raising the price it will have just the opposite effect, and the American market will be lower.

With a 1 and 1/2 cent subsidy, it will reduce the price of American cotton to 6 cents per pound to foreign buyers. As a matter of fact the foreign cotton grower will reduce his price to that level and the American market will be reduced to the same level. It is a question of paying for American cotton. The only way foreign buyers can buy American cotton, is with the American dollar, and the only way they can get American dollars is to trade goods for dollars and in turn buy our goods; but with a high protective tariff, it is impossible to get the dollar, and the consequence is that foreign buyers will buy from countries, who purchase their products. If we sell we must buy, and no one need kid himself into believing that any subsidy will increase the price of American goods since, the world will reduce the price to meet the subsidized price of American goods.

Mmes. H. A. Pruet, S. M. Eubank and Miss Mildred Yeager attended a shower honoring Mrs. Charlie Clay of Baird Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. N. Ebert, Mrs. Clay is the former Miss Viola Boatwright.

People Buy Things Suggested To Them.

Recently a number of mail pouches came to the Putnam Post Office full of mail order catalogues addressed to individuals in Putnam and nearby vicinity.

All these sacks of advertising matter done in eye catching colors, household books that will cause each and every member to study over long and yearningly, as the summer days shade into fall and then the long winter nights the appealing pull of those "cheap prices" wonderful articles will dwell on the minds of thousands of people. Or are they really cheap? Maybe their prices are no lower than those of our local merchants of the territory. We have known prices to be the same and higher than our own merchants in some instances, yet by the general public the mail order houses are lauded as cheap. The answer is that they are advertised to a much greater extent and continually keep their name before the public.

It does pay to advertise—although some people do not believe it.

The people who put their faith in goods advertised in some distant town, have become accustomed to the huge catalogues, preceding the fall harvest and they know, next August a new book will be received—and besides, before then a few small thin "teasers" will be in the mail box. It costs money to assemble a big catalogue—the paper, the printing and postage, amounts into the millions.

The only way to offset this catalogue advertising is for the small merchant to use regularly, the small advertising system in the local paper, that is read in most every home each week. Yes, it costs a little—so does loss of business. Most people buy on suggestion.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Moore of Cisco were in Putnam Sunday with relatives and friends. Mr. Moore has recently moved to Cisco from Albany and is employed at the Paul Poe Grocery of Cisco.

Mrs. J. M. Shelton returned home Friday after spending three weeks in Baird where she was under treatment of the doctor. She has been ill several weeks. At the present time she is reported to be improved.

A. L. Truett and son, F. A. of Abilene and W. H. Aten of Post visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nelson Thursday.

NEW YORK DAILY SUN DENOUNCES NEW DEAL

From The New York Sun:
 When senator Taft described the presidency following the new deal as "an unpleasant job," he was almost indulging in understatement. It will be a most disagreeable task to dissolution the several million persons who have been led to think that since the summer of 1933, the world has been made over to suit impossible theories.
 It will be hard to unteach those who have been taught that the government owes them a living whether they work or not.
 It will be distressing to show the credulous that the "social security" scheme invented by politicians cannot supply the genuine security which comes from life insurance, bank savings and home ownership.
 It will require courage to break up these things like the WPA, upon which the beneficiaries have come to lean and in which they have come to regard themselves as having inalienable rights.
 It will not be pleasant to break down the huge bureaucracy built up by the man who denounced bureaucracy in his first campaign.

But it will be easier to do these things in 1941 and the succeeding years than it would have been before a majority of the thinking people of the United States came to realize that most of the New Deal was built on sand and not even honest sand.

It will be easier from now on to retrace our steps out of the wilderness of government foolishness. The recent action of Mr. Roosevelt's own party men in congress shows that the great awakening has come even to those who dreamed so long. The shiftless will curse the president who puts the country back at work, but their imprecations will be lost in the hallelujahs of the willing worker."

The Sun speaks the truth in the above. It will be hard on the next administration, to slow down governmental spending, since many people have come to the conclusion that the government owes them a living whether they work or not. Many men who were good farmers and would work at anything have given up and have gotten to the place they do not care whether they are employed or not, but are satisfied to remain on some relief job. Every country that has gone to a dictator has gone just the way we are handling affairs in this country, by using government funds for political purposes, and getting the people in such a condition, they make no resistance when the time comes, for setting up a dictatorship and the time is fast reaching the stage in the United States when we will be under a dictator such as Germany, Italy and other totalitarian governments, unless we get in reverse in the near future.

CALLAHAN COUNTY DELEGATION ASKS ROAD DESIGNATION

A delegation of Callahan countians, joined by a group from Brownwood, was to meet before the Texas highway commission late Thursday or early Friday and ask designation for the Cross Plains-Putnam road, making it a part of highway 279.

From Cross Plains: B. H. Freeland, Fred V. Tunnell, George B. Neel and C. S. Martin were in attendance from Putnam went, J. S. Yeager and Fred Short. From Baird, L. B. Lewis, B. L. Russell, Groper Clare and B. O. Bram.

It was understood that the Brownwood delegation would also ask designation of the road from Brownwood via the lake toward Cross Plains to the Callahan-Brown county line. This road too, would be a part of highway 279. The Callahan county delegation was planning to sit in the hearing with Brown countians, and in turn the Brown county men were to support Callahan at their hearing.

Members of the commissioners court point out that if state designation is obtained for the Cross Plains-Putnam road it will mean a saving of thousands of dollars, and that an even better road will be the inevitable result. Highway engineers in this vicinity are said to favor the designating of the road and taking it over for state maintenance.
