FREEMAN TALKS TO DIRT FARMERS

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman began Sept. 8 with a series of 13 "Report and Review" meetings with farmers and other citizens in rural America in nearly every section of the country.

"I intend to get out and talk with dirt farmers throughout the country. I want to listen to what farmers are saying and thinking, and to find out what individual attitudes are toward the way programs are being administered, toward farm legislation, and toward the Department of Agriculture," Freeman said.

"Here in Washington, the grass roots thinking from rural America is being drowned in a babble of voices. Farm organizations disagree as to what the farmer is saying as well as the kind of program—or absence of program—he wants. The Congress is sharply divided on legislation, and has been for many years. Newspapers and magazines claim they know what the farmer is thinking and what is good for him, but you can get almost as many different opinions as there are magazines and newspapers.

"As a result, we are hearing more today from those who SAY they know what the farmer wants than we are from the farmer himself. Since I have been in public life, I have learned the best way to find the most practical program is to go to the people directly. Personally, I look forward to these meetings with great pleasure and expectation.

"And I hope that as I listen to farmers, other people also will listen to what the farmer on the land is thinking and saying. The farmers of this Nation—who feed us better and cheaper in proportion to our income than in any Nation today or in history—have earned the sympathetic attention of the American people.

"Few Americans understand the dilemma of a farmer who wants to use all his land efficiently and to produce food to his maximum ability—and yet who knows that if he does, he will produce more than can be sold at a fair profit. Yet this dilemma is being distorted, for the farmer is far too often pictured not in relation to the economic crisis he faces, but rather as a man who wants to be subsidized and pampered. The farmer wants to resolve his dilemma—and he wants to do this even more strongly than do those who enjoy the benefits of our super-efficient agriculture."

The meeting in Texas will be Monday, November 4, 1963, at the Municipal Auditorium in Lubbock at 2:00 p.m.

Funeral Services Held For Victims of Wreck

Funeral services were held in Plains Tuesday for Rhonda Farquhar, 2 months, and her brother, Ricky Dean, 4 years. They were killed Saturday morning in a car wreck one mile southwest of Plains. The father, Royce Farquhar, was less seriously injured, while Mrs. Farquhar is in critical condition and is being treated in a Lubbock hospital. They live southwest of Ropes, she being the daughter of Richard Miles, former resident of Ropes area but living now near Plains. Driving the pickup which was in collision with the Farquhar car was Rodney Duff, 35, who was killed. According to a Highway Patrol report, came out of a private drive, leading to a store operated by Duff, and backed directly in the path of the oncoming car causing the vehicles to crash almost head on.

ATTEND MEETING

Monday night Methodist church members went to Brownfield where they heard a minister from England who brought a message on Evangelism. Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Young, Mmes. Bob Thomas, Hughes and Nina Hayslip.

The Ropes community will be actively represented in the Cotton Week Parade to be held in Levelland on November 5th at 2:30.

Floata are being prepared by the Ropes 4-H Club, the Home Demonstration Club and the Cub Scouts. Also the Ropes school band will march in the parade.

This is in observance of what is known as Hockley County Cotton Week and is to promote the sale of cotton materials. Synthetics have made such inroads on cotton during the past few years that the cotton industry is now fighting back.

In other words they are trying to make the people cotton conscious and people in a country which depends on cotton for its money should buy cotton goods.

Folks in the Ropes community are urged to attend Cotton Week in Levelland.

In celebration of Cotton Week a parade will be held in Ropes at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of November 5th, after which the floats and band will go to Levelland.

All folks from Ropes attending the parade are asked to meet at the airport just south of Levelland, and go into town together.

Work Has Doubled in County Assessors Office

Having been told that the working force, according to the number used by previous tax assessors collectors in Hockley County was top heavy, we decided to look into the matter. We learned that only one full time deputy has been added over the number used by previous holders of the office.

We also learned that during the past five years the work of the office has almost doubled, and that if the work is to be done efficiently, at least one deputy is needed.

One of the items handled by the tax assessor-collector is automobile and truck tags, and here is a breakdown on the number of tags issued from the office for the past five years:

1959	12,577
1960	13,470
1961	19,900
1962	21,765

1963 thru July 13,323 From a study of these figures it can be seen that in this department the work has been doubled and, this year will perhaps more than double.

Other work in the office has had a like increase, and it would appear that instead of the office being over-staffed it appears to be understaffed.

GENERAL TELEPHONE TOWNS ON THE MOVE

MoorMan
Manufacturing comes to Comanche

When a Texas town of about 4000 population gains a branch plant of one of the Nation's top manufacturers of livestock mineral and protein concentrates, it is a shining example of civic progress.

Because this is the heart of a vast market area, the Comanche Chamber of Commerce was able to secure a division of MoorMan Manufacturing Company. In its new plant, MoorMan makes a large number of products with other products warehoused and distributed from the Comanche facility. This is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion, perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas

PLOW-DOWN NOW FOR MORE PROFIT NEXT YEAR

A logical way to increase profit is to increase yield without increasing the cost of the crop. You can increase yield by 10% and profit by 15% just by using fertilizer more efficiently.

You will get increased efficiency if you apply anhydrous ammonia now instead of waiting until Spring... giving the nitrogen a chance to aid in the decomposition of stubble.

As a farmer, you realize the value of your stubble. But, in order to do the most good for next year's crop, this stubble must be completely decomposed. The soil bacteria that do the work in this decomposition process must have nitrogen... more nitrogen than is naturally available in most crop land. That's why it is wise to apply anhydrous ammonia to your soil now. Nitrogen immediately starts to work, helping to decompose the turned under stubble, and release the important plant foods contained in it. Then, when you plant in the Spring, all the nitrogen you put down now, plus the nutrients it has helped release, will be waiting to feed your crop right from germination.

By providing the necessary plant food right from the start, a plow down application can increase your yield by 10% or more. Since the extra yield does not add to the cost of the crop, it can mean a 15% higher profit.

So, plow nitrogen down now!

Your best source of nitrogen, in its most efficient, usable form is anhydrous ammonia. Shamrock's Nitromite is a fine brand of anhydrous ammonia.

A GIFT TO CROP WILL FEED HUNGRY

A drive is now being made to raise money for "Crop". Crop is an organization which attempts to feed the needy in the Congo and other foreign countries. It also helps in the distribution of commodities given by the government and in addition provides additional items of food, cotton, assists in agriculture production with gifts from American people.

Here is a sample of what your gift will do:
Twenty-five cents will give ten children bread and milk for a month; one dollar will provide over 300 pounds of food; two dollars will provide a hoe for the Congo to help turn the jungles into a productive garden; four dollars will provide rice to feed one child a meal a day for a year in Hongkong. It's a worthy cause - do your part.
