Ray C. Ayers Mill Aligns With General Mills For Feed Milling

Ray C. Ayers & Sons, Inc., of Slaton announced this week that a milling arrangement has been made with General Mills, Inc., Fort Worth manufacturers of General Mills Sure Feeds. The Milling facilities of the Ray C. Ayers mill will be used exclusively for the manufacture of Sure Feeds. However, Ray C. Ayers & Sons will continue to operate their grain business, a phase of the operation they have been in since 1928.

33 YEARS

Beginning in 1928, Mr. Ayers entered into the grain and feed business with the late Mr. Sam Staggs and Fred Tudor under the firm name of "Plains Grain & Heads Handling Co." In 1936 the firm began mixing livestock and poultry feeds for the West Texas and Eastern New Mexico area.

In 1940 Mr. Ayers purchased the firm from his partners and began the expansion that has led to the present modern grain handling and feed milling facilities.

Under the new arrangement with General Mills, the feed mixing operation will be further expanded to offer the most modern feed formulations possible.

Slaton To Enter Contract For Treatment Of Water From C RMWA

Slaton's Mayor L. O. Lemon was authorized by the City Commission at its regular meeting Monday night to enter into contract with Lubbock and five smaller cities for a central treating plant for the water from the Canadian River Dam project.

The contract calls for the treatment plant to be built by the City of Lubbock with bond money voted by its citizens. The smaller cities would pay in proportion to the percentage of water treated for their particular city.

Savings to Slaton on the contract would be .03 cents per thousand gallons. Other cities involved are Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Brownfield and Levelland.

Also highlighting the Monday night meeting was a report indicating that the owners of the "lake property," located west of the Union Compress, had refused the most recent city offer for purchase of the land.

City Attorney Claude Cravens was then authorized by the Commission to suggest arbitration by the City appointing one man, the owners appointing one, and then these two appointing a third to determine a price on the land. In case of failure of arbitration, Cravens was authorized to proceed with condemnation proceedings on the property.

The area represents a health problem, and also will furnish land for future city recreational projects if it is acquired.

Geo. D. Willis, Water and Sewer Superintendent, appeared before the Commission and reported that Panhandle Construction Company had given him a price of $665.00 for putting water line under Lubbock Street for 2" connection for Quality Drive in Laundramat. On motion by Mr. Eckert and second by Mr. Stokes the Commission voted unanimously to authorize this work done by the Panhandle Company. (Continued on last page.)

Worship Together This Week

There has been much talk on the streets and in the homes of our town this week about football games--won and lost. We are all interested in one sport or several, either as spectators or as players.

The ability and prowess of young men is to be admired and applauded. The wisdom and wit of others is to be held in high esteem. These are not our main aims, however. . . these are of no avail if we do not have the victory.

Life is a game. Its commentary runs through the days and years of our lives until one day time will run out for each of us.

Life, too, is a physical and mental contest operating within set rules, lasting until its time limit is reached. When that time comes, God shall decide whether we have won the victory of life eternal in heaven, or whether we will live beyond time in hell, forever dying.

The final score is determined by the extent of our success or failure in spiritual matters during our life-time. Christians have the happy assurance that the victory has already been won for them; others have the warning that they cannot win by themselves.

Let us so live that our final testimony is "so that I might finish my course with joy . . . which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God." Acts 20:24.

What will your final score be?

Old Friends

One day last week some of our citizens were surprised to see a member of the class of '24 visiting in Slaton. This was Hugh D. Young who has been away from here for many years. Hugh is now in the Dry Cleaning business in and around the Los Angeles area in California. Hugh has some fifteen plants in that area operated under the name of Boulevard Cleaners. His home address is 9406 E. Valley Boulevard, Rosemead, California. Hugh was with Bruce E. Gentry from Lubbock who is also a member of the class of '24. While the two were reminiscing with Tom Worley about happenings in the early twenties Hugh remembered that he and Tom both worked for O. Z. Ball at the same time. Hugh says that he had the easiest job of pressing while Tom had the cleaning to do. It might be well for some of you youngsters to get a job with O. Z. since Mr. Young now owns and resides in a home formerly owned by Frank Sinatra.

It would be well for any of you exes that are planning a trip to Dallas to contact John Frye, Class of '44, who is in the sales department of the Sheritan-Dallas Hotel. We understand that John is good at making reservations, securing tickets to shows, ball games, etc. John's home address is 4032 West Buena Vista, Dallas 4, Texas.

Bill Ball, class of ?????, assures us that he will make a drawing of a suitable emblem that can be used on our stationery. As soon as Bill gets this drawing to us we will get a cut made for use in all of our mailings.

Virta Zuma Shepard reports that to date twelve exes have paid their dues and that we now have about fifty dollars in our treasury. She also reports that a few of the class representatives have turned in names and addresses of all of their class members. These names and addresses must be in before we can start mailings.

Let us know what you hear from exes from out of town, what they are doing and their addresses. You may contact Mrs. Jack Shepard, 125 North 4th. Street or J.J. Maxey, City Hall.

Estimate For Crop This Year To Exceed Earlier Forecast Made

Lubbock - (Special) - Prospects for a record crop and wide grower response indicate participation in the Cotton Producers Institute in the High Plains will be greater than the original estimate of one million bales the first year.

The optimistic outlook for the voluntary grower plan to achieve a 25 per cent increase in cotton markets and acreage was pointed up this week by Roy Forkner, Lubbock, Chairman of the High Plains Committee for the Institute.

A check with Plains growers shows participation in areas where meetings were first held is running as high as 85 per cent in some counties, with the average well above 50 per cent.

Organization of the Institute, controlled and financed at $1.00 per bale by producers, is nearing completion. Committee members in the counties now are explaining the plan to neighbors and urging them to join.

The $61 million research gap between cotton and its competitors must be narrowed. "Synthetic manufacturers are expanding their production, and they're out to get as much business as possible," he added that commitments on more than 12,000 bales were made at the initial Abernathy meeting.

Growers are attracted by the Institute's agreement with the Board of Directors of the National Cotton Council to use Council facilities and staff for supervising projects.

charge research and promotion off as a business expense, explained A. B. Carpenter of Yoakum County, where participation is over 60 per cent.

Growers are looking to stepped up research to provide basic answers to cutting production costs. "Diseases are costing more and more each year, and we've got to stop this increase," stated Jack Broyles of Dawson County.

The idea of cultivating customers for cotton appeals strongly to producers. This was summed up by R. C. Mitchell of Lockney, when he said, "In this day and time, we've got to promote our products. Our competitors are doing it. They're out promoting cotton 15 to one, and I feel a dollar per bale is a mighty good investment for me."

Allen Webb of Castro County said, "This program has a solid base of producer leadership behind it all across the Plains. In addition, it has strong support in our area because we vitally need the 25 per cent increase in acreage the program offers."

"This self-help program is a sound approach to solving our basic problems," stated Homer Barron of Terry County. "Also, it will be controlled by producer trustees in proportion to collections from each area. Sign-up in my community is above 60 per cent."

Don Angerson of Crosbyton pointed up the non-political aspects of the Institute. "It is strictly a cotton program for cotton producers. It's based on a sound business idea we all can get behind solidly. We initiated the plan in Crosby County this week, and feel we'll hit the 50 per cent mark shortly."

Since the Internal Revenue Service has ruled this investment is tax deductible, cotton farmers have the same option as synthetic producers to Earl Weaver of Kialou liked the fact that the plan for the Institute was developed by producer leadership representative of the entire Belt. M. M. Hand of Gaines County, pointed out that as the Institute is organized in other areas, an annual war-chest of $12 million is foreseen within the next few years.

Jason Allen of Cotton Center reported more than 50 per cent sign-up of production in that area. E. R. Blakney of Lynn County said, "Cotton has reduced its surplus and is on the offensive. Let's keep it moving."

Early Start On Research

Small grain research for 1962 is already underway at the High Plains Research Foundation. Eighteen wheat varieties were planted on October 12. Delbert Langford, Associate Agronomist, is conducting the tests. The preplant fertilizer application was made consisting of 200 pounds of 13-39-0.

Six new varieties were added to the test and five used in 1961 were dropped. The new varieties being tested are: Ottawa; Warrior and English-Soft Wheat (Wollford); New hybrids are: PNC-MI x HOPE-PN; RC-OTF x MGL-ORO and Commanche LA Preu. 25.

Varieties continued from the 1961 tests are: Early Blackhull; Triumph; Improved Triumph; Super Triumph; Crockett; KAW; Commanche; Tascosa; Rodoc; Kharhof; Bison and Mgl-Oro x Wichita.

Trinity Compress and Warehouse of Lamesa has announced "It has become necessary that part of the loan cotton at Lamesa be compressed to Standard Density. At the present time only Middling 15/16 and better is being pressed thereby minimizing the necessity for double compression. It is our plan to hold the lower grades uncompressed as this type of cotton is most likely to be exported."

Santa Fe hauls 2.3 million bales of western cotton to markets

King Cotton has moved west.

In 1945, only 36% of the nation's cotton was grown in the West. Today over 62% of it comes from states served by Santa Fe.

This year Santa Fe will haul over 2,300,000 bales of cotton to markets in 34,000 box cars—enough box cars to make up a train 284 miles long.

Hauling cotton and other important crops, materials and products from where they are grown or made to where they are needed is another example of how Santa Fe is meeting the transportation needs of a growing America.

The Business Situation In Texas

By FRANCIS B MAY

In August the seasonally adjusted Index of Texas Business Activity rose to an all-time high of 256% of the 1947-49 average. This was an advance of 11% over July and 7% over August of last year. It was a level 2% above the previous peak of 252 reached in May. This rise in the index was the result of improvements in nearly all aspects of economic activity measured by the barometers of Texas business computed by the Bureau of Business Research.

Miscellaneous freight carloadings in August regained the 1% of volume lost due to a July decline. At 76% of the 1947-49 average the seasonally adjusted value was 1% above August of last year.

Crude petroleum production rose 1% in August, after seasonal adjustment, to 110.7% of 1947-49. This slight gain in the face of continued eight-day production was due in part to allowances granted to new wells. The Railroad Commission has ordered a continuation of eight-day allowables through October. A comparison of the number of days production allowed for the first ten months of the year for the past several years is shown below:

January-October period of	Number of producing days
1957	147
1958	99
1959	104
1960	87
1961	84

The reduction for 1961 is 3.45% below 1960, October is the sixth consecutive eight-day month. There were seven consecutive eight-day months (May-November inclusive) last year.

An encouraging development from the point of view of maintaining reserves of crude for future production is the discovery of the Fairway field in Henderson and Anderson counties. Any field with estimated reserves of 100 million barrels or more is considered a major strike. Estimates of eventual production from Fairway run as high as 400 million barrels, according to The Oil and Gas Journal. Pessimism generated by the relatively small size of new oil discoveries in this country in recent years will be allayed by this new development.

Seasonally adjusted crude oil runs to stills were down 1% in August to 148% of 1947-49. At this value the index was 2% above August of last year. Crude runs to stills in the United States, exclusive of the West Coast have been high in recent weeks. In August they exceeded the volume of runs in August 1959 and 1960. As a result, gasoline inventories have been high. High gasoline inventories have resulted in price wars, an endemic condition of the industry in recent years of oil glut.

In recent years petroleum refiners have tended more and more to relate the price they offer for crude oil to the "realized value" of a barrel of crude. The realized value is the market value of the refined products (gasoline, kerosene, fuel oil, etc.) produced from each barrel of crude. Formerly, prices were paid for certain broad categories of crude without a close relationship with realized value.

(Q) "Over a period of ten years I have had pains in my legs along with repeated kidney and bladder infections. I believe there is a connection between these and also that uric acid deposits may be the cause. What food and drink should I eliminate? I know that pickles and catsup are bad."

Mrs. D. D.

(A) Deposits of uric acid usually form in and around joints although other areas, such as tendons and ligaments, may be involved. This formation of uric deposits is known as gout. When joints are involved, it is called gouty arthritis. If your leg pains are actually a result of arthritis (from gout), your belief may be correct. Kidney infections are a frequent complication of gout.

It is important that you find the cause of your leg pains and kidney infections. A blood test to determine the amount of uric acid in the system can be done to diagnose the presence of gout. Your doctor can prescribe several medicines and a diet that are helpful in this ailment.

(Q) "My daughter developed migraine at age 11 and later epilepsy. Are these diseases related? I saw an advertisement for pills for the treatment of epilepsy. Should she try them?"

(A) A person with epilepsy should be under the long-term care of a physician, either a general practitioner, internist or specialist in neurology. Patent medicine bought through an advertisement could not have any real value and is a waste of money. It may be harmful.

Migraine and epilepsy are unrelated diseases.

The young bull heard a ruckus and went to investigate. Alton jumped the bull and devoured him. Upon finishing his huge dinner, the lion began roaring. A herd of elephants, hearing the roar of the lion, became frightened, and started running through the jungle, and trampled the lion to death. The moral of the story is: If you're full of bull, keep your mouth shut.

Pass Attack Poses Chief Threat To Tigers In Friday Night Game

An acute test on Slaton's pass defense abilities will be viewed by fans Friday night as the Tigers go into their second district game against the Post Antelopes in a home game set for 7:30.

Out of the eight games played thus far in the season, the Post quarterback, Leslie Acker, has scored through the air in five of them.

Against Tahoka last Friday night, the brilliant passing arm of Acker furnished the bulk of the Post offense, being unable to move the ball consistently against the Bulldog line.

Although Post stands with the same record as Slaton (2-6), the Antelopes have made some impressive marks during the season. Their victories came over Spur 21-15, and over Tahoka, 32-16.

Their losses were to Ralls by a trim 7-6; to strong Colorado City by 57-0; to Ballinger by 42-8; to the indomitable Denver City by 60-0; and to Tulsa by 26-6.

Aside from Acker, fullback Harold Mason furnishes the main thrust in the offense of the Antelopes. He has counted for 32 points scored by Post this season.

Post has scored a total of 79 points this season, while allowing opponents a total of 254.

Is It Really Cheaper?

One day this week we read in the daily papers of the 20th traffic fatality in Lubbock's city limit. This is a mark for this year alone.

Lubbock county, because of the metropolitan area, forces base liability insurance rates higher than many counties without a city within the boundaries. This is done so with a reason.

Whether or not Lubbock is doing the best job possible in enforcement of traffic rules is not the question. The point is that in any city there are hazards in regard to driving.

In Slaton this year there have been no traffic fatalities and few automobile accidents within the city limit.

And yet hundreds of Slaton residents will drive into Lubbock regularly to purchase items advertised perhaps a little cheaper than they can be purchased in Slaton.

Local retailers are available and are adequate. Because of volumes run in concerns in Lubbock the price may appear cheaper, but in consideration of the prevailing circumstances it may not be so.

Many towns have signs on the city limit boundary reading, "Have You Tried To Find It At Home?"

This is a good thought in the perspective that without the support of home town businesses there would be no home town.
To purchase on a part-time scale elsewhere takes its toll regardless of how minor the purchases may seem.

Maybe in the light of the chances of auto collision and even fatality, Slaton could put up a sign also. It should read:
"Is It Really Cheaper?"

the opening of the Oklahoma Territory. Fallout shelter promoters have some Americans so scared they're ready to admit that the world will come to an end along about right now. We've got fallout shelter manufacturers yelping about terrible villains ready to snuff out the life of every man, woman and child opposed to their ideology. We'll go along with the fact that there are elements in this world that would sandstorm? It's only natural, the fallout hucksters are going to do their level best to sell you a shelter. They're in business to make a profit and you can't show a profit if you don't sell your product. They're in the business of manufacturing and selling fallout shelters. If there just happens to be a national fad, built around fallout shelters, then can they be blamed for jumping on the band wagon? It's just like the rocking chair craze, or yo-yos or hula hoops, if the Joneses get one, we gotta have one.

Unfortunately maybe, for us, but we can't see crawling into a hole in the ground to hiber-nate for a week or ten days every time the siren sounds.
If we're gonna have an all out war, with antagonists using atomic and hydrogen devices, who cares about being safe and snug like a mole, coming out to nothing but waste land? If the rest of the human race is going to be blown into eternity, what in the dickens are we gonna do prodding around over a bunch of rubble?

Another earth-shaking statement was released by the wire services this week, destined to cause a noticeable stir around the coffee cups and the bridge tables. Author Walter Lord of "A Night To Remember," "Day of Infamy," and "The Good Years" fame, in working on research for his latest book, "A Time To Stand," uncovered some startling information about defenders of the Alamo.

Slaton's FFA

The Slaton FFA Chapter held its first scheduled meeting Monday, September 11, 1961. The meeting was held to vote on the revised program of work and the new committee chairman. The new divisions and new chairmen are as follows: Supervised farming; Larry Delaney, cooperative activities; Jerry Buxkemper, community service; Billy Cooper, leadership; James Mangum, earnings and savings; Jim Gravell, conduct on meetings; Travis McCormick, scholarship; Jim Lowry, recreation; Travis Hendrix, public relations; Gary Caldwell, state national activities; Don Caldwell.

The chapter passed the new program of work after discussion. After the meeting was adjourned, the boys were served refreshments and entertainment was furnished by three of the chapter members; Ronny McCormick, John Davis, and Jim Marriott.

The Slaton chapter of Future Farmers of America elected John Mangum and Larry Delaney as their representatives at the National convention in Kansas City, Missouri. They were gone from Oct. 9 to Oct. 14. They are both officers in the chapter, John is President and Larry is vice-president. They have learned many helpful hints for the chapter.

Mr. Don Tankersley and Mr. Berhl Robertson were accompanied by Jim Lowry, John Mangum, Bobby Harlan, Keith White, Ronnie Henry, Jody Rhoads, Ray Rushing, Jackie Cooper, and Wade Carter to the District FFA meeting at Ralls, Texas, September 20. The meeting was held to elect officers for the District level. After the meeting the teachers had a meeting of Civil Defense.

The Slaton FFA Chapter held its second meeting of the year last Monday, and the members elected the new chapter sweetheart. After the meeting was closed, refreshments were served and entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Delbert Reed.

Miss Ronda Pettigrew was chosen as the chapter sweetheart. Rhonda will represent the Slaton chapter in the district contest on November 13, at Ralls, Texas. We feel sure that Ronda will go all the way to the state contest.

For the past six weeks, the Ag. boys have been working on the FFA farm. The farm is progressing very smoothly. Twelve new hog barns are being constructed and Mr. Robertson and Mr. Tankersley have piped water to the pens. With these improvements, and the new Agriculture building being constructed behind the High School, the future members should have a better chapter.

Gary McCullough placed second in his division with his Guernsey dairy heifer at the South Plains Fair.

The educational exhibit built at the Fair by the Slaton chapter, placed ninth.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

From The State Capitol

By--Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex.--City officials in Texas got a warning from Chief Engineer John Vandertulp of the State Board of Engineers.

He said Texas had better get moving on its water projects. Vandertulp's staff has just completed a water study outlining ways in which Texas cities and industries could meet their water needs for 1980. Half of the 14 reservoirs now under construction in Texas will be too small to supply their service areas by then.

It is going to take $1,000,000,000 to build the reservoirs, treatment plants and distribution systems to provide water the Texas of 1980 will need. It will also take planning and working -- starting now -- to get the 45 new reservoirs proposed by the Board of Water Engineers' plan built and full of water by or before 1980. Plan is endorsed in most details by the U. S. Study Commission.

SALES TAX MODIFICATION--State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert thinks it's time to change the oil tax plan just adopted by the Legislature.

Constitution allocates the new sales tax on motor oil to the State Highway fund for road building. Consequently the corner service station man must keep books on this tax separately from sales taxes he collects for the State's general fund.

Calvert plans to suggest to the Legislature that this oil tax be levied at the jobber level, same as gasoline sales taxes. This will simplify bookkeeping and collecting.

Speaker James A. Turman agreed that there are inequities in the new sales tax which the Legislature should correct.

First to talk openly about paying the tax under protest were the vending machine people. They can't collect sales tax on items selling for less than 25 cents, but they must pay sales tax on their gross sales.

Texas Merchandise Vending Association plans to ask for a court ruling.

LAST GO-ROUND -- Sale of $25,000,000 in bonds for the Veterans Land Board completes the borrowing by the State government for that program. Voters authorized $200,000,000 to finance purchases of farms and ranches for veterans.

In the last year, about $37,500,000 has been invested in land since the program was revived after an increase in the authorized interest rate.

L. H. Page of Carthage, member of the Veterans Land Board, estimated that veterans will pay enough extra interest that the state will have made $100,000,000 profit on this program by 2005. That is when the last loan is supposed to be paid off.

MORE STUDY -- Governor Price Daniel asked the Legislative Council to bring its 1958 study on loans and interest rates up to date.

Rotary Works For Int'l Understanding

Rotary clubs in 123 countries are united in these difficult times of international tensions in an endeavor to promote understanding, good will and peace throughout the world. That was the message of L. E. Patterson of Midland, governor of District 573 of Rotary International, brought to the Rotarians of Slaton yesterday following a conference with local Rotary officials.

In addition to the activities of more than 11,000 Rotary clubs within their own communities to promote this objective, Mr. Patterson explained, Rotary International has awarded grants of more than $3,750,000 in the past 14 years through its program of student fellowships, which enable outstanding college graduates to study for one year in countries other than their own, as Rotary ambassadors of good will. Since 1947, when this program was established, 1454 Rotary Foundation Fellowships have been awarded to students in 70 countries for study in 50 countries, with grants averaging $2,600.

"With fellowship and service to others as its keynote, Rotary provides a common ground for 509,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of differing nationalities or customs or languages or political and religious beliefs," the Rotary district governor emphasized. "In addition to the promotion of international understanding," Mr. Patterson continued, "special emphasis is being placed by Rotary clubs in this district, which includes 43 Rotary Clubs in northwest Texas, on service to youth and the lifting of the moral tone of our society."

"The malignancy of communism threatens free society and the dignity of the individual, and our real defense lies in making the democratic of our society work to continue to live in a This requires firm and political convictions move us to action," said.

The district govern all local Rotarians the Rotary district to be held in Odessa of next year, and the convention of Rotary national, which will be Los Angeles, California, June.

Here is the most exciting new toy of the year!

The ENCO Energy Rocket
Only $2.95* with coupon from your neighbor in a HUMBLE uniform

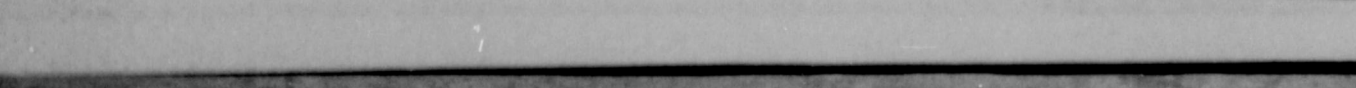

This Humble exclusive is a fascinating toy. So safe and easy to use, a small fry of six can run it. So much fun, even Dads will monopolize it.

Its principal parts are of Escon, Humble's tough new plastic. It's battery powered, easy to assemble, (and the car is securely held together by screws). Simply start it, place on track and after a turn or two, throw the switch. The car zips down the side-track into a plastic bumper and ch-o-o-sh! The rocket zooms toward the ceiling (but doesn't hit it).

Ask for a coupon at the Humble sign in your neighborhood today. Mail with $2.95* (cash, money order or check) to address on coupon.

*plus State tax where applicable

Without coupon--You can buy the ENCO Energy Rocket without a coupon for $5.95. Mail cash, money order or check with name and address to Rocket, Humble Oil & Refining Company, P. O. Box 1244, Houston 1, Texas.

'62 CORVAIR MONZA

NEW FACE, SAME SPORTING HEART

We might as well tell you straight off: Corvair's the car for the driving enthusiast. That lets you out? Maybe. Maybe not.

Until you've driven one, you really can't say for sure, because Corvair's kind of drive is like no other in the land. The air-cooled rear engine sees to that. You swing around a flat as you please. You whip through the sticky spots other cars should keep out of first place. (Especially this year, now that you can get Positraction as an extra-cost option. You stop smoothly, levelly with Corvair's beautifully balanced, bigger brakes.

Corvair's found other new ways to please you this year. A forced-air heater defroster are standard equipment on all coupes, sedans and both Monza and 700 S Wagons. So are dual sunshades and front-door armrests and some other goodies. You'll note some new styling, inside and out. Nice. And safety-belt installation is easier, too, and cheaper.

So you can see we haven't really done much to Corvair this year. Why on earth should we? If this car, just as she is, can't make a driving enthusiast out of you, better take a cab.

And here's America's only thoroughbred sports car, the '62 CORVETTE. We want you. If you drive a Corvette after your first sampling of a Corvair, you may well end two-car man. And who could blame you?

Aiding the Underdeveloped

From the Omaha Evening World-Herald

On his recent junket to Africa, Attorney General Robert Kennedy presented the President of West Africa the Ivory Coast an airplane for his private use. Congressman H. R. Gross of Iowa reports the plane cost the American taxpayers $73,681, and that the State Department says identical planes are on order as Independence-day gifts for the heads of three other African states.

We wonder, along with Mr. Gross, just how such personal gifts "from the American people" to the African rulers are going to help develop the "underdeveloped" people of the Dark Continent.

In the maze of news stories that Slaton and area residents are currently receiving concerning local events, there is one media all interested parties can depend upon . . . The Slatonite . . . Slaton's mature, experienced newspaper . . . staffed, incidentally, by news men, . . . not photographer's assistants, furniture store apprentices or government employees.

The Slatonite has been serving its area well for 50 years. . . not 50 days. Its motive is service to the community . . . not self-praise or personal publicity.

The Slatonite gives you the news without "ham" or "corn" and, thank goodness, it's not a "ho-made" newspaper. . . It doesn't have to "ho-make" some news about itself every week . . . it brings you the news from where it happens!

VIEWING: Your City Government by J. J. Maxey, City Secretary

Claude Samuel Cravens was born July 23, 1917 in Wellington, Kansas to a pioneer railroad family. Claude says that he can remember living from one to three years at a time in many division points over the Santa Fe. In fact he received his grade school training in Kansas, New Mexico and Texas.

Claude's father came to Slaton as division superintendent in 1932 and remained in that position through 1935. This gave Claude time to complete his high school work in Slaton where he graduated in 1934 as salutatorian of his class.

After graduation from high school Claude attended Texas Technological College for a time and then entered Kansas University where he received a B. S. degree with a major in accounting. Having been quite a debater in high school Claude was not satisfied with a liberal arts education so he entered the law school of the University of Texas.

Graduating with an LL.B. degree in 1941 (taking this degree in absentia due to having joined the Army before the graduation exercises) and being admitted to the bar in that same year Claude thought that he was ready to solve all problems both past and present.

As many young men can, Claude remembers vividly the years between 1941 and 1946. This time was spent in the infantry as a warrant officer junior grade.

After being discharged from the Army in 1946 Claude spent one year as assistant claim adjuster in the claims department of The Santa Fe in Amarillo.

In February of 1947 Claude returned to Slaton and started a private law practice in the Teague Building. Quickly outgrowing this up-stairs office and his Sunday suit at the same time he bought the building on north eighth street where his office is now located. Claude has represented the city of Slaton as their attorney for some six or seven years.

Being a confirmed bachelor Claude has considerable time to devote to his community. On Sunday he can be found in the Presbyterian Church where he acts as a trustee. On various week nights Claude can be found attending a retail merchants meeting where he serves as a director of that organization, a meeting of the Lubbock County Bar Association where he serves as a director, a meeting of the American Legion (he is a Past Commander of that organization), of talking to J. S. Edwards and J. E. Eckert (Claude is a confirmed Republican), Claude is also a Mason and a past director of The Board of City Development and presently is a member of the Rotary Club of Slaton.

Claude has a great respect for a wide knowledge of the law. We have found Claude to be stickler for observing the minute details that so often entangle us when we overlook them. If you greet Claude and he isn't 100% something is drastically wrong and he really needs a lawyer.

Sidelights--

the subject of regulation of interest rates and lenders. Regular session just could not reach agreement.

He will ask also for passage of a bill extending the new escheat enforcement procedures to unclaimed bank accounts in banks and savings institutions.

Speaker James A. Turman appointed a special House committee to make a follow-up study of escheat laws. Reps. Franklin Spears, San Antonio; Ted Springer, Amarillo; Richard C. Slack, Pecos; Paul Haring, Goliad; and Reed Quilliam, Lubbock, are its members.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS -- Gov. Price Daniel assigned Dr. James A. Turman (no kin to Speaker Turman), Texas Youth Council director, and Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth to attend the National Governors' Conference on Delinquency and Youth Crime in Denver, Colorado.

They'll come back armed with arguments on why Texas needs juvenile parole officers in more than just the five biggest counties. That's extent of present program.

Governor Daniel is asking the Legislature to expand the five-man juvenile parole set-up it created this year. Kennard has sponsored juvenile parole legislation.

FIRST RUNNER -- Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock became the first candidate for lieutenant governor in the Democratic primary next May 5.

Smith, who served three terms in the House of Representatives and five years in the Senate, ran third in the 1950 lieutenant governor's race. That was the year Ben Ramsey won the run-off and started the first of his six terms in the office.

Senator Smith, 49, is a #### theater operator.

HIGHWAY SPEEDUP -- Faster feeding of federal-aid money into highway construction is reflected by the State Highway Department's monthly report.

As a recession-trimmer, U. S. cash was sent out faster than had been scheduled. On October 1, there were $325,858, 057 worth of highway construction contracts outstanding in Texas, averaging at just about 50 per cent completion.

During last month, highway contractors completed $18,684,270 worth of new construction. Figure doesn't include the maintenance work by Highway Department crews.

SHORT SNORTS

Railroad Commission again set November production of oil at eight days -- the seventh straight month of 22 or 23-day shutdowns.

The Berliner Morgenpost of Berlin notified Governor Price Daniel that it is sending a check for 700,000 marks (about $200,000) which it raised from the people of Berlin, to be used to help victims of Hurricane Carla. Check is made out to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, a recent visitor in Berlin.

Two From Slaton Attend Camp

SAN ANTONIO---Spl.---A record number of girls and boys, 989 of them, attended the Hermann Sons Youth Summer Camp in the Hill Country near Comfort, Tex., this summer, Fritz Schilo, grand president of the Sons of Hermann, has announced. This was an increase of 139 more campers over the previous record.
 Seventy-six different Texas towns were represented during the girls' sessions, and 63 different Texas towns were represented during the boys' sessions. The camp, which has been in operation eight summers, is free on a merit basis for junior members of the statewide fraternal order, Schilo said. The camp has air conditioned dormitories.
 Home office of the Hermann Sons order is in San Antonio. In addition to giving a week's free camping to many of its junior members, the order also maintains its own home for the aged at Comfort, Schilo reported.
 There were two girls and two boys from Slaton at the camp this year.
