Voters Pick 2 Trustees Saturday

REMINDER—"Vote" is the message which C of C manager Ted Weaver reminded citizens Tuesday. And the same message will prevail Saturday when citizens are urged to vote in the school election. Voters in city Ward 2 will also be casting ballots in a special election for city commissioner.

City Ward 2 Vote Saturday

Another city commissioner will be named Saturday when voters in Ward 2 go to the polls in a special election to fill a vacancy created when commissioner David Hughes resigned to run for mayor.

Voters in the northwest part of town will choose between OHS Neill and Robert A. Davis for the city post. Polling place will be the Community Clubhouse from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Both men are longtime residents of Slaton and have been active in civic affairs. Neill, 73, is a retired insurance agent, formerly associated with the Hickman-Neill Agency, he has also been a gin operator and is a former superintendent of schools at Southland. He was active many years in the Slaton Little League program.

Davis, 48, is president of Supreme Feed Mills. He is director in Slaton Chamber of Commerce, has been active in Babe Ruth baseball, and is an elder and board member of the First Christian Church. He is a graduate of Texas Tech.

Both men have served on the city commission in previous years. Absentee voting ended Tuesday for the special election. The winner will have a one-year term before the post is up for election again.

EASTER HOLIDAY

School's out for Slaton students, and a mass exodus from town was expected this weekend as parents took advantage of the Easter holidays to go fishing, take a trip, or visit relatives.

School was dismissed Wednesday afternoon for the Easter holidays, and classes will resume Tuesday, April 8.

Voters of Slaton Independent School District will choose two new trustees at a school board election Saturday, April 5, and eight candidates are on the ballot to assure citizens of a choice.

Voters will get to pick two candidates on the ballot, and the top two vote getters will win the trustee seats. The terms of Joe Miles and Willie Heinrich expire this month, and neither asked for re-election.

The candidates, in the order listed on the ballot, are: Clark Self Jr., Earl Foerster, Dorothy Mitchell, Bettye Burks, W. J. (Beak) Shafer, D. P. Casey, R. C. Hall Jr., and Pete Williams.

Besides having a large field of candidates, voters also have a wide selection in other vital statistics -- there are two women on the ballot; one of the candidates is a college graduate and four others attended college; three are farmers, three are businessmen, one is a business woman, and one is a housewife; their ages range from 33 to 50 -- but they all have one thing in common in that one or more of their children attend Slaton schools.

Trustees are chosen for a term of three years and there are seven members of the board. Holdover trustees will be Tommy Davis, Don Kendrick, Dr. M. J. McSweeney, Ted Swanner and Jack Clark.

Officers Check Two Burglaries

Two burglaries--one in town and one in the country--topped activity on the police scene this week.

City police were investigating a burglary at Biggs Machine Shop on S. 9th. The shop was broken into Friday night, and owner Coy Biggs reported about $310 worth of tools missing.

Lubbock County deputies were investigating a burglary at the Jerry Harlan residence southwest of Slaton. Several items were taken from the home.

James Edward White, 44, pleaded guilty in County Court at Law No. 2 in Lubbock Tuesday to carrying a pistol and was fined $300. James Wesley Brown, 44, and Albert Artison, 52, were filed on in county court for theft over $5. They pleaded innocent in connection with a charge of stealing eggs from Henzler Grocery.

In District Court, Judge Pat S. Moore assessed probationary terms on pleas of guilty from Robert E. Lang, 24, and Leroy Dobbins, 18, both of Slaton. They were assessed two-year terms for burglary of coin-operated machines.

On the local scene, police made 10 jail arrests the past week and issued 18 traffic tickets. One accident was reported Sunday when vehicles driven by Jesus Ybarra and Edgar E. Ethridge collided on Industrial Avenue. Damage was estimated at about $550.

City Sales Tax Now in Effect

It was no April Fool joke! The new city sales tax started in Slaton Tuesday, adding a penny to the 3 percent state sales tax already being collected. The municipal 1 percent tax was approved by city voters last October and went into effect April 1.

Revenue from the local sales tax is anticipated to produce about $65,000 a year in addi-

Slaton Soldier Dies in Vietnam

Slaton's second Vietnam war casualty is Johnny Young, 19, son of Mrs. Nell Young of Slaton. He was killed Monday, March 24, by enemy action in Vietnam.

Funeral services have been set for Friday at 2 p.m. in the Triumph Baptist Church of Slaton. Burial will follow in Englewood Cemetery under direction of Jamison Funeral Home of Lubbock. The body was scheduled to arrive in Lubbock Wednesday afternoon.

Young entered the service in Lubbock in early December after being in the Job Corps for one and a half years. He had been in Vietnam only about three weeks at the time of his death. He attended Slaton schools. He was a native of Oakwood, Tex.

Other survivors include five sisters, Alvelina, Catherine, Linda and Angela, all of the home, and Mrs. June Stiff of Portland, Ore.; and four brothers, Alton, Alvin Jr., Charles and Larry, all of the home.

Most Slaton businesses are expected to close during the time of the funeral, following a resolution adopted here when Pvt. Freddie Miller, the city's first Vietnam casualty, was brought home.

The joint resolution was adopted last May by the VFW and American Legion posts, the Slaton Chamber of Commerce and BCD, and the City of Slaton. It encouraged firms to close during the funeral and burial in honor of the Vietnam war victim.

The resolution read, in part: "This is a small thing to do in honor and respect for a young man who died that we might be free to operate our businesses. The practice of honoring all Slaton men of war should merit this small honor for the sacrifice they have made for their community, state and nation."

A nominating committee report was given by Speedy Nieman, past president, and the annual election of officers was set for April 15.

tional funds for city services. Voters, in effect, had a choice between an increase in water rates or the sales tax in order for the city to come up with more revenue.

The full 4 percent tax is collected by merchants, and the state sends the city's share back to the municipal government. First money is expected in August.

the easiest ways to get into trouble is at the wrong time.

the big local elections is behind us, more important elections are coming up. One is the school board election to select new trustees will be selected, and the special election to pick a city mayor in Ward 2.

really turned out in the municipal election, I was guessing a turnout of 80 but it was twice that.

let the election results pass without a few words of appreciation for Mayor Cain. Like anyone else, he made some mistakes while serving, but we sincerely believe that Cain has an earnest desire to do what was best for this city.

he serves as mayor for the money, he is only a token salary. Regardless of how we admire any man who will himself in an effort to help his town progress in the right direction. We look at the record will reflect that Mayor Cain.

he was always cooperative and fair with his people. We appreciate his efforts and we so generously gave to his community.

he man once said "it is better to be a leader or a loner, never a follower." This thought reflected in an editorial on this page, "Tiger's Cage", in today's Slatonite. We invite you to turn to the school page and read the editorial.

traditionally, is viewed as the new time for a rebirth of spirit which, we all feel at this time of year. It is a Christian celebration, commemorating the Resurrection. Easter can be a more appropriate time to resolve to do better in the coming year, so as to have a productive harvest in the fall. While we are buying new clothes and shoes at Easter, it is actually symbolizing the new season. Nature has been doing this for centuries and it has been doing it forever. Happy Easter!

Regardless of how you cook fish - fry, bake, or broil - don't overcook. Cook fish only until it flakes easily when tested with a fork. At this point, the fish is moist and tender, at its flavor-best.

Raw, unsweetened fruits are a top choice for diet watchers. They generally have fewer than 100 calories a serving.

Blade chuck steaks are often featured at "special" prices in supermarkets and can be a good buy. An inch-thick steak can be broiled to rare within 24 minutes, or to medium in 30 minutes, at moderate temperature.

Coconut milk may be made from canned coconut by soaking 1-1/2 cups of canned coconut with 1-1/2 cups milk, stirring over low heat for 2 minutes. Pour into a sieve and press out liquid.

Add 2 tablespoons of mayonnaise to contents of one (3 3/4 oz.) can of Norway sardines. Drain olive oil and mix thoroughly. Serve on toast fingers. Decorate with dash of chili sauce or tomato catsup topped with small parsley sprig. Yields 10 to 12 canapés.

For a change of pace, marinate your lamb chops. Mix one-third cup soy sauce, one-third cup oil, and one-fourth cup lemon juice. Let chops refrigerate in this mixture about two hours, turning once or twice. Broil chops three inches from heat, allowing about six minutes on first side, five on the second side.

Custard Sauce
1-1/2 cups milk
3 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 egg yolks
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
Scald milk; add sugar and salt. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Beat egg yolks slightly; add milk mixture. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until mixture coats spoon. Add vanilla extract. Chill. Makes about 2 cups.

Cucumber-Sardine Salad
(4 servings)
Ingredients
1 (3-3/4 oz.) can Norway sardines (18 to 20 Sardines average per can)
1 large cucumber (with rind), sliced
1 head of iceberg lettuce pimento, cut into strips watercress (garnish) dressing
salt, pepper to taste
On a salad or luncheon plate, arrange a ring of sliced cucumbers (leave the rind on for additional color). In the center of the cucumber ring, arrange a bed of finely chopped lettuce leaves. Cover lettuce with 5 or 6 whole drained Norway sardines. Garnish with criss-cross strips of red pimento and a sprig of fresh watercress. Chill and serve with choice of dressing.

"I Liked Ike"... and joined the millions throughout our great land, and the world, in mourning the passing of a very wonderful individual.
 I still have a pair of "IKE" ear rings that I wore with pride when Dwight D. Eisenhower was campaigning for his second term of office in 1956. Speedy was employed for a newspaper that was VERY democratically owned and the owner let his employees know how they were "expected" to vote.
 This was my first time to have the privilege of voting and my first vote was cast for Ike... even though I had been raised a Democrat and was probably expected to vote that way, I voted for the man of my choice -- not particularly the party -- then, as I have in every election since.

The news of another soldier dying is also close to my heart. Even though I never knew Johnny Young and even though his skin is a different color than mine, I can not help but mourn with his family because this Slaton boy gave his life in Vietnam just a few days ago fighting for us and a free country.
 At press time, word had not been received when Johnny's funeral will be, but I feel quite sure Slaton will want to pay tribute to this Slaton boy by closing our businesses during the time of his funeral.

You have probably noticed by now that the dead Cedar trees in front of the Slaton Clubhouse were removed last week. The Slaton Garden Club, city and county employees will join together to landscape around the building and make it a more beautiful community meeting place.

There is a possibility that two Slaton girls will have the opportunity to go to Girls State this year. If you are interested in donating money to send these girls, please call me at The Slatonite.

New Hair Fashions for Summer

The lively touch of naturalism that brightened hair styles for spring will continue to exert a heady influence into the next season, according to the new Natural Wave Look Hair Fashions that were unveiled for summer by the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.
 But, cautions this hair fashion authority that represents the beauty profession, don't let nature run wild. Keep it gentle. Your new hair style must have a soft and uncontrived look of waves that flow freely, but where you want them.
 The new styles were shown before more than 40,000 hairdressers from throughout the United States and other countries meeting at the golden anniversary of the International Beauty Show in New York.
 All of the Natural Wave Look styles had a soft look of waves that enhanced the special qualities of each individual model. This is one of the keys to the new look -- have your own bit

 I remember seeing the boys come through the Golden Gate on their way home from the Spanish-American War. I remember the San Francisco earthquake.
 I remember when women wore long skirts and high-button shoes and no makeup, unless you were 'fast'. Those were the days when men respected women.

Around the Fire House

By Bob Kern

JOHN RICHEY

One of our longest-time-in-service members on the Slaton Volunteer Fire Department is this week's Fireman of the Week.

For 23 years, John Richey has been a member of the Slaton Department and for most of that time he has served as its secretary-treasurer.

Richey and his wife, Irene, reside at 415 W. Panhandle, where they own their home. Their two sons, Wyman and John Wayne, are both teachers. Wyman serves as counselor for the Freshman School and John Wayne is employed with the Lubbock Public Schools.

John and Irene have lived in Slaton for 30 years and during that time John has worked for Paymaster Oil Mill... first at its Slaton plant, and then transferring to the Lubbock plant where he serves as traffic manager.

Richey has been a member of Delta Nu Alpha for 13 years, a member of the Baptist Church for 43 years, and a member of the Lubbock Traffic Club for 15 years.

The department is indeed privileged to have an officer of this calibre in its midst. The details involved in membership, attendance reports, attendance at fires and balancing the finances make the job of secretary a difficult one and it is handled in fine fashion by Richey.

Classes Conserve Soil

Soil Conservation Districts in Lubbock County are conducting classes for conservation that managers of irrigated grass. Objectives of good management are being the right fertilizer, water, and grazing to produce high quality forage.

It is estimated that the classes are the most economical and most of conserving the soil. When vigorous growth is maintained, soil or water is not runoff. The classes can also be held during the winter months. The classes are divided into (1) Application of fertilizer, and (2) Grazing, and (3) Fertilizer, water, and grazing, to make growth, require a supply of available water only by a systematic plan of alternate grazing and irrigation. Cattle should be rotated every seven days. By breaking the pasture into a four pasture unit, this would allow the grass 21 days to make a good recovery and also leave ample time for fertilizer and water to be applied.

Alternate heavy use and resting favors maintenance of vigor, uniform regrowth and tends to obtain more uniform utilization.

Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service, located in the Federal Building on 19th Street in Lubbock, will be glad to assist anyone interested in the development of plans for a livestock operation on their farm.

More than 28 per cent of all Series E Bonds ever issued are still outstanding, in the hands of tens of millions of owners.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMER

From Ruth M. Greenslade, Santa Rosa, Calif.: "I have been enjoying the articles in our little town paper and wish to contribute my share. I am 80 years young and thank God for the good old days! I remember kerosene lamps and the gas lights and especially the old lamp lighter who arrived sharp at 6 o'clock to light the street lamp on the corner."

"I remember the ice man who came to your door with ice for your icebox and how the kids waited for him to return to his wagon to give us all the pieces that broke off the block of ice, some large, some small."

"I remember the fish peddlers who blew a horn, and the Chinese men who carried baskets across their shoulders on a pole. I still remember a voice at the door saying, 'It's the old lady with the basket. Any pins or needles today?'"

"I remember the horse and buggy days, and the old hay loft where all the cats had their kittens."

COTTON TALKS

BY
PLAINS COTTON GROWERS INC.

The spread between the respective opinions of cotton producers and some cotton shippers with regard to the loan and sales policies that should be followed by Commodity Credit Corporation continues to widen.

Producers, organized in the Beltwide Cotton Producer Committee, for the past month or so have been conferring with the U.S. Department of Agriculture about insulating changes in CCC policies they believe would greatly reduce the much-maligned "catalog cycle" of recent years and allow producers to market each year's crop with a minimum of interference from government-owned cotton.

The producer proposal calls for a loan that would not mature until 14 months after it was made to a producer, plus changes in CCC pricing policies that would take the marketing advantage away from CCC and return it to producers.

Those who speak for the shipper segment of the cotton industry have voiced violent opposition to the producer plan. And the Southern Cotton Shippers Association, at its annual meeting March 13 and 14 in Memphis, Tennessee, launched what has all the earmarks of a counter-attack.

The delegates on hand for the meeting not only passed three resolutions in opposition to the changes favored by producers, which was no surprise to anyone, but adopted as well two resolutions calling for CCC changes of their own which distinctly smack of a "hit 'em back" attitude.

The three resolutions opposing the producer position on CCC policies asked that no extension of the loan on 1968 crop cotton be made, that no "anniversary type loan" be put into effect for 1968 or subsequent crops of cotton, and that CCC sales continue to be made on a competitive bid basis at market or loan price, whichever is higher.

The other two SCSA suggestions to USDA would, perhaps, accomplish some of the same objective as the producer oriented propositions, but with some major differences.

The SCSA "urges USDA to discontinue making CCC crop loans at interest rates below what it costs CCC to borrow money" and "Strongly urges USDA to deduct interest and storage to date of maturity at time loans are made....."

These changes in CCC policy might in fact reduce the amount of cotton cycling through the CCC catalog and thus return cotton to a free market, just as the producer proposal is meant to do.

The differences lie in the fact that the producer proposal would help give producers an incentive to produce adequate supplies of cotton for maintaining or expanding markets, while the SCSA proposal would substantially reduce or remove that incentive.

The producer plan would let growers use the loan program as a tool for orderly, year-round marketing of each year's cotton crop at prices determined by market conditions.

The SCSA plan would make of the loan program a club for beating grower prices down and virtually eliminating chances for the production of adequate supplies.

According to calculations made by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., the SCSA plan would have the effect of reducing the 20 1/2 cent Middling-Inch loan rate for cotton on the Plains by an average of about 1.6 cents per pound. CCC currently is paying 6.625 per cent interest on the money it borrows, most of which comes from the U.S. Treasury. Storage costs are running about 50 cents per bale per month. PGC figures, based on cotton that enters the loan on December 15, show that the deduction for interest from producer proceeds would come to about $4.20 (56 cents per bale per month interest on $101.25 loan value times 7 1/2 months to July 31) on a 500 pound bale of Middling-Inch cotton. This figure would be greater on cotton which entered the loan at an earlier date. Storage charges for 7 1/2 months would be $3.75, bringing the total deduction on the bale to $7.95, or almost 1.6 cents per pound.

The effective loan to producers then, under the SCSA proposal, would be 18.65 cents per pound instead of the 20.25 cents announced for this year. And for all intents and purposes the producer under normal circumstances would be forced to base his selling decision on the lower figure.

This idea of cutting the effective loan level and reducing prospective producer income from cotton would seem to be at cross purposes with another of SCSA's adopted resolutions. That resolution calls for future cotton legislation to be based on free markets, one price, expanding offtake, and adequate supply.

For 1969, with an announced loan level of 20.25 cents, USDA estimates U.S. cotton plantings will be just over 12 million acres. Allowing for normal abandonment 12 million planted acres is apt to produce between 11 and 12.5 million bales—hardly enough to promote "expanding markets" or to be called an "adequate supply."

And it is difficult indeed to see how the SCSA expects to maintain, much less increase, that production figure by lowering the loan level to 18.65 cents per pound.

My humble thanks to the many voters who expressed their confidence in me...

J. S. EDWARDS

Garza Man Beaten, Robbed on Highway

Out here in West Texas where almost anyone will stop to help someone in need, you don't stop to think about a holdup happening in broad daylight. . . 10:30 a.m.

It happened, Ned Myers, 31, of Southland was robbed at knife point of $73, then slashed and beaten Tuesday, Mar. 25. The holdup occurred six miles west of Post on US-380 when he stopped to help two men who appeared to have engine trouble, with their pickup truck.

Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn said that he had an all-points bulletin out within 15 minutes to all law enforcement agencies within a 60-mile radius, but the hijackers somehow slipped through the net. According to Myers' mother, Mrs. L. J. Myers of Southland, the sheriff's department had had some leads but no arrests had been made.

Wilson School Board Meets

The Wilson School Board met in regular session on Tuesday, March 25 in the Homemaking Cottage. Items of business included renewing contracts of Elementary, Junior, and Senior High teachers as recommended, approving the school calendar for 1969-70, appointing a Board of Equalization, reviewing personal property tax values, and setting the date for the special meeting to reorganize the board after the April 5 election.

In other action the board approved paying $25.00 toward the tuition of the five elected cheerleaders to cheerleading school this summer. The board also adopted a policy governing the use and possession of dangerous drugs and narcotics by students.

The board approved Aug. 25 as the opening day of school and May 22 as the closing of school during the 1969-70 school year. The board will have a special meeting on Thursday, April 10 to reorganize. Board members present for this meeting were Jiggs Swann, A. N. Crowson, Dale Zant, Reuben Sander, James Savell, Loyd R. McCormick, Jr., Curtis Wilke.

Myers suffered an almost severed left ear from his assailant, a knife-wielding white man in his 20s.

He was treated at a physician's office at Post and released.

The Garza County rancher, who was returning from taking care of some cattle, told Claborn that a white man and a Latin-American, both in their 20s, had the hood up on their late-model, red El Camino pickup so he stopped to see if he could help them.

The white man put a knife in his back, told him he was "in trouble", and asked him if he had any money. Myers told him he didn't.

But in searching him, the $73 was found in his billfold.

This apparently angered the man with the knife who Myers said cursed him, slashed him at the ear, knocked him down, and then kicked him in the back.

The two men then jumped into their pickup and drove away.

Myers who didn't lose consciousness, got back into his own vehicle and drove into Post to report the hijacking and obtain medical treatment.

Claborn said the red El Camino the hijackers were driving had black stripes on the hood.

MEMO FROM MAC

R. B. (MAC) MCALISTER
State Rep., Dist. 76, Place 3

The most overrated statement about the Texas Legislature by news columnists is the purported "Vote swapping".

I have yet to have the first Legislator to ask me to swap votes on any measure. There is tremendous value on "Keeping your word". Many Legislators will work the floor and ask you how you are going to vote on a Bill. The quickest way one can lose the respect of his fellow Lawmakers is to talk one way and vote another. For this reason you learn early to be careful on any commitment. The reason for this is, a Bill that looks O.K. in the beginning may be completely massacred by amendments.

Finally in the House, as in business, church or anywhere else, a person must gain the respect of his fellow man in order to be effective. There are many brilliant men in the House, and when they tell you, "This is a bad bill", you can usually rely on it. The big job I have as a rookie is to gain this respect through intelligent study and honest effort.

Mayor John Soules of Sundown proved that the little man can still have a big voice in government. The Mayor flew in last week to testify at the Public Education Hearing. He didn't get on the floor until after midnight, but his testimony along with others had much to do with causing Chairman George Hinson to name a sub-committee that's favorable to the small and medium size schools.

The newspaper columnist who predicted Governor Smith to be colorless were caught eating their own words this week along with delicious hamburgers. The Governor took time off last week to put on a chef's hat and apron and to serve Speaker Gus Mutscher and rookie House Members at a surprise luncheon.

Governor Smith told me there is no reason for the First man of our state to hold himself aloof and that actually he learns more talking to a farmer from Ropesville than from his Chief Advisor in many cases.

When you visit the Governor's office you always leave with a sweet taste in your mouth thanks to the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce who has a tall candy jar filled with candies for the visitor. Let us hear from you.

Cubs Hold Derby Races

The annual Pinewood Derby Races were held at the Cub Scout Pack meeting last Thursday in the Junior High Gym. Roger Robison won first place and Jim Swanner won second. Third place winner was Louie Ardrey. Parents of the boys are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Swanner and Mr. and Mrs. Milt Ardrey.

Weight men for the race were Carroll McDonald and Dee Bowman. Judges were Edmund Wilke, Leroy Zieschang and James Rinne. The winners were presented trophies by Cindy Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Davis.

"Everybody does it." This is a very popular expression in our day. Everyone must follow the crowd. Popularity is achieved in groups, not by a person independently. This is not only a trend with young people, but also with adults. Not only clothes, but the records we listen to and even our actions are governed by what is heard or done by others.

If God, in his wisdom, had wanted a world of human beings created in the same manner and in every way alike, he would certainly of had the power to create them in this way. Think what the world would be like!

We are slowly becoming pictures of other people. If this continues, we will lose individuality, which is our personality and beauty. There is something appealing about individual qualities. In everyone there is a manner, expression, or thought which lends charm.

Almost everything of importance was achieved by an individual who laid the foundation for work. Stereotyped groups accomplish nothing. There is still a need for individual ideas. There is a great deal of respect for the "loner," a person who is completely independent. A man who is completely dependant becomes a shadow. There are always followers, but it is the leader who is remembered.

Be Ruth Signup Set Today, Tourney Here

League baseball will be held Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria, it was announced by league manager Melton. Interested in playing baseball, between the ages of 13 and 15, are eligible to participate. Players should bring with them to the signup at least one parent and their birth certificates, if the birth documents are not already on record with the league.

Tryouts have been set for April 17-18. Boys who are 14 and 15 will tryout on April 17 at 5 p.m. in Babe Ruth Park. April 18 will be tryout day for 13-year-olds. Player auction is set at 8 p.m. on April 19, and boys will be assigned to teams on Saturday, April 19, at Babe Ruth Park.

Officers of the league this year include Melton, Clarence Kitten, vice president; Don Kendrick, player agent; and Mrs. Tim Bourn, secretary. The league will probably have five teams again.

Melton and Kitten attended a meeting of District 2 last week when dates were set for the playoffs. A district tournament for 13-year-olds will be held in Slaton starting July 7. It will be a single-elimination tourney. The regular district tourney is set in Morton beginning July 14 with six teams entering a double-elimination meet. A best two-of-three playoff series will determine four of the teams for the tourney, and two teams drew byes.

Three new teams were added to the district this year--Littlefield, Taboka, and Estacado. Others in the district are Slaton, Levelland, Post, Brownfield, Lamesa, Denver City, and Morton.

The Slaton All-Star team is scheduled to meet Taboka at the end of the season, with the 2-of-3 series winner going to the district tourney. First game will be in Slaton, and the second game--or doubleheader if needed--being played in Taboka. Denver City drew a bye, while host Morton got an automatic bye to the district contest. ### SUNDAY'S SERMON

ONE GREAT LIFE

This is the season of the year when Christians are reminded that Jesus Christ lived, suffered, and died upon earth. For some, it is little more than a casual observation.

There is no penalty in this modern world for a profession of faith. Unlike the early Christians, who almost daily faced death and persecution, the modern citizen can boast of his religious affiliation as readily as he does of his financial and social standing in the community.

And yet, this world still offers much in the way of challenge. Temptation abounds, in books, in entertainment forms. Family and community situations arise to provide the opportunity for moral courage and action. Things that need doing can be seen in many directions.

Modern civilization offers to every man the frequent opportunity to "stand up and be counted."

There is much for man to ponder in the example of One Great Life upon earth.

A Quiet Sunday

AS HOLIDAYS GO, perhaps Easter is imbued with more of a feeling of peace and tranquility than any other.

This year Easter falls on April 6.

The simple pleasures of the children's Easter egg hunt will be combined with Christian observance of the resurrection of Christ.

ONE OF THE greatest pleasures of Easter is the awareness of the new spring season that it brings to all of us. The quietness of Easter Sunday somehow seems to muffle the normal discordant clatter of everyday life.

For a few hours, we can find composure in small tasks and small enjoyments. The tree-lined streets of many communities are a haven of solitude on Easter Sunday.

The flowers and the songbirds, which go unnoticed and unheard by the average passerby during a noisy weekday, are suddenly there as reminders that nature and its creatures have no fear of the city.

THE ORIGIN of the customs of Easter go back to antiquity, as does the symbolism of the Easter egg.

Whatever Easter meant to the ancients, the gentle touch of Christianity has added a special meaning for modern man that makes itself felt on one quiet Sunday of each year.

She was born Aug. 20, 1888 in Crockett and moved to Slaton in 1910. She was a charter member of the First Methodist Church here, the WSCS and the Senior Civic and Culture Club.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Kimbro of Austin; two granddaughters, Mrs. Jim Clary of Fort Benning, Ga., and Miss Ruth Robertson of Dallas; a great-grandson; and a stepson, Wade, of Lubbock.

Easter

"Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth. . . He is risen, He is not here."
—St. Mark 16:6

Easter is much more than a time for gay bonnets and colored eggs. It is a time when we observe the miracle of the resurrection. Some Christians find this particular miracle most difficult to comprehend. Some accept it, perhaps, matter-of-factly. But it must be a real part of Christian believing.

Consider how difficult it was for Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James when they approached the rock-hewn sepulchre where the body of Jesus had been placed. . . and found only a young man in white garments who told them Jesus had risen. The women were so frightened they would speak of it to no one. But Jesus later appeared to Mary Magdalene, and she believed, and went out to tell others.

And so, in a measure, has it been for centuries. Easter is a time of hope and reaffirmation of faith, a recognition of the purpose of the life of Jesus upon earth.

Encourage your youngsters to develop the habit of thrift by buying Savings Stamps which they may exchange for Bonds when they accumulate the price of a Bond.

ABOUT WORDS

Wrongly used, the human tongue is a deadly weapon. It destroys with finality. It can wound in a fashion that prohibits healing.

Someone said, "Always put your mind in gear before you move your tongue." It is very good advice. Once said, an unkind word, an untruth, can never be called back. It may be apologized for, yet it can never be retracted. It has been stamped upon the wind.

Do not give repetition to idle rumors, but speak the truth when the truth is called for. You will enjoy living with yourself if you do.

By the same token, recognize the value of a word of kindness or praise. Do not hesitate to extend it wherever and whenever it is justly due.

Honesty with words is as much a responsibility as honesty with money. Be sure that what you say is right, before you say it, and you will always be right with the world -- and with yourself.

ITEM: Don't give in to that urge to pick up your paint brush during the first warm days of spring. If you're painting the outside of your home, wait until the temperature stays above 40 degrees at night. A low temperature will affect the performance of any exterior paint.

CHAMBER
AND YOU!

BY TED WEAVER
Slaton C of C Mgr.

Slaton begins a new project this week. If the project is successful, Slaton will be designated as a "Blue Ribbon City" by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

This is a carefully developed merit program for improving a city. It is based on setting up a series of achievement goals and standards for West Texas incorporated cities under 12,000 and then helping each city to achieve these standards. Cities achieving these goals will be designated a "West Texas Blue Ribbon City" and will receive appropriate awards, along with publicity and recognition. "Blue Ribbon" cities will enjoy many benefits, not only in the way of a richer, happier and more progressive way of life for their citizens, but also in their ability to attract new business, industry and visitors, thus assuring a sound and prosperous growth.

Tommy Wallace is Blue Ribbon City Chairman. The program began by sending questionnaires to all members of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce. The members are to add their suggestions to those listed under the six Blue Ribbon City subject headings and rank each group in importance. These are to be returned to the Chamber office and will be used as a basis on which to begin the Blue Ribbon City effort.

The six subject headings are: Beautification, Education, Industrial Development, Parks

Reese Major At Rotary Club

Major Richard D. Roberts presented a program "Operations at Reese Air Force and Recreation, Local Government and Tourist Development, Standards set up by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will have to be met as well as local requirements before Slaton can be eligible for the award.

Base" when Slaton Rotary Club held its regular luncheon meeting Thursday at the Community Clubhouse.

Major Roberts spoke briefly of the supersonic jet training program at Reese AFB, then presented a film on the T-38 trainer. He also held a brief question - and - answer period to close the program. He was introduced by Dr. Lee Vardy, program chairman.

Several visiting Rotarians and guests were introduced.

Tax Man Sez:

The Internal Revenue Service computer is a meticulous machine. If the computer has to have a schedule or a form to support some statements it doesn't hesitate to ask for the missing documents.

The IRS error report coming from the computer center in Austin points out that many North Texas taxpayers have started an unwanted correspondence session with the computer.

The computer needed such forms as Schedule B, Schedule C, Schedule D, Form 2440, "Statement to Support Exclusion of Sick Pay," and Form 3901 "Moving Expense Adjustment."

Most folks don't like to write to a computer, so we recommend that you re-check that tax return. Make sure that all required supporting schedules or statements are attached.
