Santa Claus Here Monday

The Christmas season has its 'formal' opening in Slaton Monday, Dec. 8, with the ar-rival of Santa Claus and the lighting up of the downtown area in holiday lights.

The special Christmas program -- a project of Slaton Chamber of Commerce -starts at 6:30 p.m. Monday when the Slaton High School Band sets the stage with holiday music.

Master of ceremonies Dee Bowman will signal for the downtown Christmas "lightup" at 6:45 p.m., and a com-munity sing of Christmas carols will follow. Then comes the big moment for all the youngsters -- the arrival of Santa Claus.

The jolly old gentleman will land his sleigh and reindeer outside of town and be whisked to the city square in a convertible car. He will greet the kids, then retire to the Munviews with interested young -

The retail trade committee of the Chamber of Commerce has scheduled another "Sleigh-Full-of-Gifts" contest this year, and 26 merchants or firms will participate in the Christmas give-away.
The Sleigh-of-Gifts contest has been a popular event the past two years with Slaton citizens. The idea is to guess the total value of the gifts in the "sleigh", with the winner gett-ing all of them free.

Entry blanks will be available at participating firms Tuesday. Entrants can go to each firm and find out the exact cost of the gifts. The only "unknown" gift in the contest is a bowl of coins given by Citizens State

The Christmas committee of the Chamber, headed by Don Kendrick, will also conduct a home lighting contest again this year. Windy Brewer is chairman of this project. A plaque will also be awarded to the best (See SANTA, Page 10)

Police Wearing Flag Patches

Chief of Police Walter Head announced this week that Slaton police officers have begun wearing, as part of their reg-ular uniforms, the national flag of the United States.

The flag patches were presented to the officers by the Luther Legion American Powers Post No. 438.

Chief Head said, "The police officer stands for law and order in the community. He is the symbol of freedom, justice and protection for the law abiding. It is therefore very appropriate for us to wear and display our nation's flag as part of our uniform, to remind our citizens of the role we play in the defense of their homes and life."

This is part of a program sponsored by the American Federation of Police which has made these emblems available to police departments throughout the United States. The idea started in Macon, Georgia and has spread rapidly.

The emblem is the same type of U.S. Flag emblem used by the American Astonauts sewed

Senior Allen McDonald made on their shirts and jackets.

The audit was reviewed and presented by Oran Gilbert, representing Bolinger, Segars, Gilbert & Moss, certified pub-lic accountants of Lubbock, It was for the period Oct. 1, 1968 to Sept. 30, 1969.

Not including a government grant for the airport, revenues were up almost $50,000 over the previous year. Big increase in expenditures was brought about in the power and pumping department with the addition of Canadian River municipal water. First payment on the con-mas home lighting committee. Cash prizes of $25, $10 and $5 will be awarded winners in the overall Christmas home lighting and decorations program. Mrs. Brewer said the door division will be included in the project again this year, with prizes of $7.50 and $5 offered the top two doors. Theme for home decorations this year will be "Put On a Holiday

M. W. Kerr, principal atSlaton High School, released a honor roll for the first nine weeks of school at Slaton High School. Twenty students made all A's on their grades and 28 more made all A's except for one B.

Seniors led the list by having the most straight A students with 11, freshmen were second with six, juniors had two with all A's and the sophomore class had only one student making the highest honor roll.

Senior students making all A's were Darwin Belt, Mary Frances Browning, Barbara Brush, Susan Cagle, Judy Eblen, Pat Edwards, Judy Gilmer, Darlen Hlavaty, Clifford Kitten, Lonnie Kuss and Gaines Teague. Four seniors who had all A's and one B were Penny Johnston, Rebecca Ann Ratliff, Gwenda Stricklin and Jack

Carol Mosser and Terry Mosser were the two juniors who made all A's. Other junior students on the honor roll were Betty Belote, Janice Bux-kemper, Janet Gossett, Tommy Hargrave, Janie Jaramillo, Bradley Kitten, Tyra Martin, Marilyn Meeks, Nadine Meurer, Vicki Milliken, Paul Payne, Darla Siler and Theresa Vardell.

Cynthia Akin was the only sophomore to make all A's. Others with all A's and one B were Randy Barkley, Mary Dworaczyk, Joyce Marie Hein-rich, Glenna Sue Jones, Nedra Moseley, Terri Beth Sikes and Eugenia Sokora.

Six freshman girls made the straight A list. They were Lana Dickson, Lynne Jaycon, Ramona Key, Karla Kitten, Mary Martin and Cathy Riney. Freshmen who had all A's and one B were Mary Leslie Cole, James Hensarling, Rodney Kuss and Brento cooperate, the Slaton and area cotton harvest hit its peak the past week and the area bale count jumped to 45,134 bales.

This is ahead of last year's pace, when rain and snow combined to halt the harvest at about 35,000 bales in the area. The weather forecast Wednesday called for a slight chance of moisture during the night or Thursday.

The harvest outlook was the same over much of the South Plains area, with the Dec. 1 estimate up to 1.5 million bales -- up slightly from the Nov. 1 estimate. Gins around Slaton were estimating they were from 60 to 80 percent through the ginning season.

Trailers have been stacking up at all gins, with some reporting more than 1,000 bales on the yard. If the weather holds, practically all of the cotton may be out of the fields before Christmas.

The Slatonite's bale count this week revealed these gin reports on bales weighed in: Slaton Co-Op 11,831; Acuff Co-Op 7,350; Wilson Co-Op 3,611; Hackberry Gin 3,670; McClung Co-Op 3,000; Union Co-Op 2,850; Farmers Gin 2,600; Way side Gin 2,400; Posey Gin 1,942; Gatzki Gin 1,400; New Lynn Gin 1,200; Campbell Gin 1,293; Basinger Gin 1,087; Planters Gin 900 est.

The Dec. 1 estimate is the final one to be made by PCG and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange. The total trails last year's South Plains production of 1,568,200 bales but tops crops of 1,203,520 bales in 1967 and 1,293,000 in 1966. All - time high output is 2,344,700 in 1961.

The South Plains cotton harvest reached a peak last week and the USDA Cotton Classing Offices at Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa, and Levelland received samples from approximately 270,000 bales during the week ending Friday, Nov. 28, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the USDA Classing Office in Lubbock.

The four offices classed 212,000 samples during the same period, bringing the total classed to 378,000. At this time last year 656,000 samples of the 1968 crop had been classed. The Lubbock Office began operating on a two-shift basis last week and had sixty-four classers on duty Friday. All four offices have adequate personnel to remain current with the cotton received.

Estimates indicate approximately one-half of this season's crop is now out of the fields.

Strict Low Middling Light Spotted was the predominant grade at Lubbock last week with 24 per cent of all cotton classed. Strict Low Middling made up 14 per cent, Low Middling Light Spotted 11 per cent, and all Spots and Tinges 32 per cent. Twenty - three per cent was reduced in grade because of bark. Staple length averaged approximately 31/32. Thirty-four per cent stapled 1-Inch and longer. Sixty -three per cent of the cotton "miked" in the Lubbock Office was in the 3.5 and better micronaire category, 12 per cent "miked" 3,3 and 3,4, 16 per cent was 3.0 through 3.2, per cent 2.7 through 2.9, and 2 per cent 2.6 and below.

Sixty-seven per cent of the cotton classed at Lubbock last week had Pressley readings of (See COTTON, Page 10

After nine years as a devoted ticket agent for Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches, Mrs. J. L. Brown retired this week. This gracious lady who does so much for others said she needed to be home with her husband who is in bad health. Mrs. Brown operated the bus station here for nine years, always keeping her patience with such customers as The Slatonite and many others. No matter what time we happened to realize we didn't have a freight ticket for some freight to go on the 9:30 p.m. bus, Mrs. Brown was always willing to see that we got one on time.

The bus station was moved this week to the Slaton Steam Laundry and Dry Cleaning building and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henderson will now be the agents. We wish them all the luck in the world, but we just have to let it be known that we will also miss our friend Mrs. Brown.

"Cow County" was just barely off the presses and delivered to The Slatonite by Melvin Young of Hereford, publisher of Pioneer Book Publishers, Inc. when John B. Butler purchased the first issue from us.

Knowing he'd be anxious to see a copy which has a 8 X 10 picture of him in it, I called his daughter-in-law, Juanita Butler. In about 10 minutes she had already picked him up to "go have a cup of coffee" at Slaton Pharmacy and "herded" the cowboy right in to buy one.

We'd like to offer a special "congratulations" to all the students in the Slaton schools whose names are listed on the honor rolls at the schools. When a mother can't even work seventh grade math, believe me I do mean "congratulations" to those students who made so many A's.

Honor rolls from the first grade through high school are listed in today's Slatonite and after looking over those names on the SHS list, I notice that many of these students are not only making excellent grades, but are active in many phases of the school and I think this is even another feather in their

Keep up the good work! You are probably planning on being downtown Monday night when the Christmas lights are turned on, If you aren't, we hope you will soon as possible as a lot of work has gone into this project.

Another project that was started two years ago on West Crosby St. will continue this year, but will have a "new look" this season. You won't want to miss driving down West Crosby because all these neighbors plan to turn on hundreds of lights Monday night also.

NICK FARRELL

On April 21, 1952, the population of Amhearst, Tex., increased by at least one. It was on this day that blue - eyed, brown - haired Nicholson Lee Farrell came into the world. Since that day Nick has grown to a height of 5 feet 9 inches and weighs 171 pounds, all at the age of 17.

Nick's favorite color of blue goes well with his favorite sports of football (bruises, you know) and water skiing. Nick has participated in high school football for three years, baseball two years, and tennis two years. He also participates in ROTC, FTA, Student Council, and the Annual staff.

His pet peeve of long haired boys probably originated while he was enthusiastically enjoying his favorite pastime, girl watching.

Cissy lists her favorites as: colors, black and blue; food, Mexican; subject, annual; teacher, Mrs. Maxine Walker; car, Tornado; and hobbies, sports, cosmetology, and hair styling.

Clssy's pet peeve is people who downgrade other people. Stop showing favoritism is an improvement she would make in the school. Her most embarrassing moment was at a football game when the women's rest room was locked and only the boys' dressing room was available.

Cissy serves as co-editor of the annual and secretary of the Pep Squad this year. She has been in Pep Squad four years, Mixed Choir two years, and basic will one year.

TAP Program Expanding

AUSTIN, Texas, December 2, 1969 -- Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said this week that Texas consumers are apparently learning to watch for the familiar green and black TAP (Texas Agricultural Products) insignia where they shop.

"TAP is a year-round market development and promotion program designed to stimulate awareness of the fine quality and limitless abundance of Texas Agricultural Products," White said in explaining the services extended by his department, "The TAP symbol provides Texans with an organized channel which boosts marketing of these commodities." "The basic idea behind the program is that high quality marketing and promotion stimulates growth in the economy, and in this case it is Texas' farm economy that is being helped," White said. Sponsored by the Texas Department of Agriculture, this highly successful promotional campaign spotlights a different Texas agricultural commodity every two months in an intensified and organized effort.

During this period, various agricultural products are brought to the attention of the consuming public by all communications media, from newspapers and television to highway billboards, plus in - store demonstrations and personal appearances by marketing

Work authorized for this county is part of the 827.1 miles of Texas Farm and Ranch to Market Roads earmarked for development in the new program.

The program lists 214 projects in 138 counties, Estimated total cost is $22 million. gram totals 237.2 miles of new roads with an estimated cost of $10.3 million. The remaining 589.9 miles, to be developed at an estimated cost of $11.7 million, was designated previously and is being constructed in stages.

Pioneer Gas Co. Official Speaks To Lions Club

Joe Price, Pioneer Natural Gas Co. official from Lubbock, was guest speaker for the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Slaton Lions Club Monday in the Community Clubhouse.

Price briefly outlined the history of the use of natural gas, dating back to 1500 in China. He then reviewed the American economic system, explaining how utility companies fit into the picture.

Pointing out that the "cap-italistic" system is based on free enterprise, private property and competition, Price said that regulation substitutes for competition in the operation of utility companies in this country. Price was introduced by Weldon Self, Lion program chairman for the week. Glen Akin, president, announced that a "Ladies Night" dinner has been scheduled for Friday, Dec. 12. It will be held at the Clubhouse starting at 7:30 p.m. The club voted to have its regular Dec. 8 meeting, also.

Club members were reminded of work schedules for the annual Christmas Treeproject. Tree headquarters is the old Slaton Co-Op Gin office on N. 9th street, and project chair-man is J. W. Holt. Lion Ted Gentry is in charge of sales from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Foreign Student Has First Thanksgiving

By Bernardine Grabber

IN ECKERT HOME

For most people, Thanksgiving Day, 1969, was more or less the same as any other Thanksgiving. . . a day off from work, more than enough to eat, a lazy afternoon watching football games on TV and probably before the day was over, not a few remembering that Christmas is less than a month away! But for Yukiko Mishima, a foreign exchange student from Tokyo, Japan, Thanksgiving this year was for her much the same as the first Thanksgiving Day was for the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock almost 350 years ago. Yuki, as she prefers to be called, had her first Thanksof the Eckert's daughter, Jo. Both girls were home for the holidays from Denton where they are students at Texas Women's University.

Yuki, a quiet, petite, im -peccably mannered young lady of 21, has been in the states since July and prior to that studied our language for only two months; yet her English is excellent and in conversation with her one hears fewer grammatical errors than in speaking ever, take English as a foreign language during her senior year in high school.

Classified as a junior in Tuda College of Tokyo, Yuki, along with some 500 other students (the total college enrollmentfreshmen through seniors) took an examination prepared and offered by the United Stated Government, From this group, only 15 passed and qualified as foreign exchange students.

These 15 received four-year college scholarships with all expenses paid. . .tuition, dorm fees, clothing, living expense and enough "spending" money for incidentals, none of which giving dinner last Thursday in has to be paid back. The only the J. E. Eckert home as a guest requirement, Yuki says, is that after graduation, each must return to Japan and work in or for that country for at least two years. Also, they must maintain a "B" average in all college work. Yuki said she would probably teach in a high school or a business institute.

Incidentally, Yuki, who is majoring in business, had to start all over and is classified as a freshman at TWU. A student's major determines the college to which he is sent. Only five HE (International Institute of Education) students

IT'S A LONG WAY HOME! --- Yukiko Mishima, a foreign exchange student from Tokyo, Japan, who is attending TWU at Denton, locates Slaton and her hometown on a world map while visiting here during the Thanksgiving holidays. from Japan and one from Thai- has two brothers and one sis- nature, and Yuki's early trainland, However, there are 148 foreign students there, mostly Chinese.

The youngest of four children of Hidetoshi and Yoshie Mishima (the names are reversed in Japanesel), Yuki was born enrolled this year at TWU, four | in Tokyo May 20, 1948. She ter, all married. Her father is a veterinarian for small animals (not horses or cows), and plans to retire sometime in the near future since he is now 67 years old.

When asked if she ever got lost in Tokyo since none of the streets are in numerical seq-uence, Yuki said, "No, but it is so crowded!" This is understandable since more than eight million people live in 828 square miles, something like 10,500 to the square miles! Comparatively, Washington, D. C. has a million persons in an area of 69 square miles which is 1,450 to the square mile, while our own Texas averages about 40 in each square mile!

With the exception of having to use silverware instead of chopsticks, Yuki said the other most drastic change she was having to get accustomed to was the amount of meat we eat. She said in Japan they have rice three times a day, rather than bread, lots of vegetables and fish. The occasional meat served is either pork or chicken, so roast beef, steak and turkey (and pumpkin pie) are foods for which she had to create a taste, but she said, "I'm getting used to it!"

In Japan, Yuki says counting is still done with an abacus and centimeters are used in measurements. Yuki herself is 155 centimeters tall which figures look a lit about 5', 1". A lot of the Jap-anese people are artistic by homesick!

ing is quickly evident when one watches her make birds, flowers and many other things from scraps of paper. Although she gets a letter from home about every 10 days, Yuki says she's already homesick and justifiably so since she will not be able to go home until she finishes her schooling here. She plans to attend summer school and there isn't enough time between semesters or during any of the school holidays for her to fly home since, even by air, a round trip would involve some 48 hours. And, in going to Japan, one loses a day when crossing the International Date Line at the 180th meridian and there is a 15-hour difference in time. Anyway, Yuki says she's ready to go back home, but knows she must stay, so she'll try and make the best of it. Then too, she says it's not as cold here as in Tokyo since their winter months are from November until April with snow most of the time.

Yuki plans to spend the Christmas holidays with a schoolmate in Massachusetts, and already has invitations for Easter, between semesters, or whenever she has a few days off from classes. This will be her first Christmas in the U.S., too, and we're hoping for some snow for Yuki. Maybe then it'll look a little more like home and help her be a little less

Christmas Signatures With A Flair

How's your Christmas card etiquette? Do you know the differ ence between putting your signature on a card going to Aunt Myrtle and the one going to your husband's boss?

Even in these informal living days, there's still a right and wrong way to sign your Christmas cards, and here's a brief review of the rules.

If the husband and wife are sending a card, it is never signed "Mr. and Mrs." Only the first and last names are used, with the man's name first, such as "Jim and Marge Smith."

When the children's names are included in the signature, the

When the children's names are included in the signature, the proper listing is father's name first, then mother's name, and finally the children, such as "Floyd, Alice and Scott Williams."

A variation on this is to sign your cards with the man's full name and to add the word "The," such as "The Floyd Williams."

Business cards, according to The Paper Mate Company, makers of colorful Flair pens, are sent by the business rather than by the business man and his wife.

They are signed with either the company name. "The Hawthorne Company," or by the individual sender's name. "Andrews."

thorne Company," or by the individual sender's name, "Andrew Hawthorne

Such cards are sent to an office and addressed to a man or a woman alone, not to husband and wife.

What about the printed versus the hand signed signature?
This is an individual choice, though most people prefer to sign their cards so they can add short personal greetings to express their warmth and well wishes.

In such cases it's fun to get in the holiday spirit by signing the cards with a red or green Flair pen. They come in ten colors, so you can select one that harmonizes with the color of the Christmas card itself. For extra close friends and relatives let each member of the family sign his own name to the card.

Depending on how much pressure is applied, you can draw fine lines or bold lines to enhance the signatures. You can do many other creative things with Flair pens, such as making Christmas tree ornaments.

Directions are found in a free booklet called "A Flair for Christmas Ornaments." To get your copy send your name, address and zip code to: The Paper Mate Company, Department X, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois 60654.

Lamps, chairs, loveseats desks, headboards, shelves chests, pillows, scatter rugs tables-ho, hum. Is that the way the gifts list goes?

It's a natural human inclination to look around for something different, for special giving, and it's also a natural human temptation to feel that the simple, basic things for home are not different enough.

Truth is, though, that the tried-and-true gifts every-one can use are still tops for Christmas pleasure. After all, people do need lamps, chairs, desks, tables and so forth.

Fresh colors and designs make even the most elementary home needs look new and novel. What's more, the current trend to multi-purpose functions in furnishings adds that extra fillip to any furniture gift. High-fashion styling and

The Community Thanksgiving service that was held at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening, November 23, was a most enjoyable and satisfying event, I don't know just how many were there, but it was a goodly number. The evening started out with a delicious buffet, consisting of all kinds of foods. After everyone finished eating, we all gathered in Sharp greeted us and welcomed us to the special service. Those

Christmas is the time to put some fresh fashion in a man's life. And it isn't the time to play it safe by buying him a gift "just like the one he has in his closet."

So says the Men's Fashion Association, which offers some shopping tips for Santa's helpers, with the latest men's fashions in mind.

A new sweater is an ideal gift item, and this year sees the return of the colorful argyle and the trim sweater vest, usually sleeveless. If Dad's post-holiday plans include a cruise, a good idea may be a light-colored, lightweight sweater.

Giving Dad a tie? It's wise to check through his wardrobe and gear the tie to his suits and jackets - gold tie for a blue suit, red or brown tie for a brown suit, for inent stance.

This may be a good time to update his fashion image, with some of the new fourinch-wide ties.

Scarves won't be replacing ties, but they do make fine gifts for a sporty look. Apache scarves are knotted tightly around the neck, while longer scarves are tied loosely and extend to the waist. If he likes to wear blazers, an ascot can complete his

Size Problems? Check Jewelry

When Santa's helpers don't know his size, jewelry can be the right answer to fashionable gifting.

Cufflinks and tie bars often come packaged together. Trend in cuffinks is toward small ones, often in enamel or silver.

the new long pointed collars may please his fancy.

Is he traditionally a solidcolor shirt man? A subtle mini-check could make a pleasant change. Or perhaps he's ready to try the season's newest idea - bold, widetrack stripes.

Coordinated silk pocket squares make happy additions to gift packages of shirts and ties.

Since life is getting more casual, clothes for at-home wear are becoming more popular. Body shirts, long silk scarves, chain belts and-for the really daring Dad - knit jumpsuits are among the gifted ideas here.

Seven Steps Set Pace for Successful Yule Giving

The merriment and joy of a wonderful, gifted Christmas starts early, as any forward-thinking Santa's helper knows. Since successful shopping takes time and patience, seven steps suggesting "How to shop for Christmas" may help to save some of that time, as well as providing the most enjoyment for everyone concerned.

1. Start Early. This year's traditional shopping season is short — just 23 shopping days between Thanksgiving and Christmas. So the earlier, the better.

2. Plan Ahead. Shopping trips should be planned to save time and conserve energy. One good way to do this

3. Start with a List. Santa's helpers might begin by jotting down the names of all those people to whom gifts are to be given. Then, make a further list of those who are slated to receive ei-ther gift certificates or cash. 4. Group Gift Ideas. By making lists in categories, a good deal of time or footwork can be saved.

One way is to group families first, then individual men, women and children. Gift possibilities can be listed beside each name.

Another suggestion is to make shopping lists according to categories - children's clothing, toys, books, men's wear, jewelry, perfume and so forth. This can mean few- help to budget the cost of accomplished.

5. Shop by Armchair. Gifts ideas for the names on the lists might well begin with a check of this Christmas Gifts Section, including ads from local merchants.

6. Layaway a Gift a Day. Some shoppers can do even better and layaway several gifts at a time, either by us-ing Layaway Plans in local stores or by stashing away the gifts purchased in at-home hiding places.

7. Plan Gift Budgets. Charge accounts, credit cards and installment buying all er shopping trips, with more generous giving. They're a shopping convenience, too, with the added advantage of safety - no need to carry large amounts of cash. Another handy helper for the Christmas shopper is a Checking Account. Paying by personal check not only protects against loss but also provides a record of money spent, for gifts budgeting.

These seven steps to successful shopping can't, of course, solve every Christmas shopping problem. But, wisely taken, they set the pace for a merrier holiday!

Fashion Leads With loungewear that can warm Wide Array For Yule Delight

Tis the season to be jolly, but there could be a few frowns on Santa's brow.

When it comes to shopping for the women on his list, every Santa may be a bit perplexed about what to get his wife, mother, daughter, grandmother, aunts and cousins

Each year, there is a larger selection of gifts to choose from. Each year, it seems, he just can't decide what to get for her.

Homemaker? Student? Career girl? All women like to build up their wardrobe of separates. Gifts of sweaters, blouses, skirts, and pants can add to the looks a woman creates for herself, by mixing and matching.

Is she a snuggle-bug? Santa might gift her with Toppings for her are hats and caps, snugs to keep out the cold weather and colorful for that fashion touch. Skiler? Santa might choose a knitted headwarmer that doubles as a face mask for those nippy, windy slopes.

Everyone knows that two heads are better than onethat's why she needs at least two hairdos, her own and a wig. The wig-or a hairpiece might be Santa's special gift to her.

If Santa needs help for stocking fillers, he can turn on his imagination, and discover that cosmetics, perfume, and beauty aids of all sorts are just a few of the little things to make her ap preciate him.

Wilson Bows to Sundow In Bi-District, 34-8

Scoring three times in the final quarter, the Sundown Roughnecks rolled to a 34-8 bi-district, Class B football triumph over Wilson's Mustangs in a game played Thanksgiving Day at Levelland.

Wilson had cut the margin to 14-8 just as the fourth period opened, but Sundown quickly retaliated for a 21-8 lead with 9:49 left in the game. With about two minutes left, Wilson gambled on a 4th-and-10 situation from its own 5, and Sundown got it at the 11 for another easy score.

The Roughnecks then added insult to injury, recovering an onside kick and driving for another score and a 34-8 lead with 10 second left, And, Wilson didn't get the ball even for the 10 seconds, as Sundown again pounced on the ball after an onside kick.

The victory advanced Sundown into the regional playoffs against the Bronte Longhorns, 7-0 winners over Fort Hancock in another bi-district game. The winners meet at Snyder Friday night.

The fired-up Sundown team scored first in the playoff game at Levelland, and they held the momentum the rest of the way. It was a stout defensive battle until the fourth - quarter fireworks started.

decision over Sundown earlier in the season, and it was a dis-appointing defeat for the Mustangs. Sundown rolled up 245 yards rushing against the Mustang defense, which had yielded only 543 yards in 10 previous games, and that was the difference.

The Roughnecks held Wilson to just 132 yards rushing, and stopped the Mustangs' great runner -- Steven Brieger -with 84 yards on 21 carries. He had averaged more than 140 yards a game this season. Sundown's fine back, Eddie Eberhard, took rushing honors with 91 yards in 22 trips and scored three times for the winners. He tallied on 1 and 3-

Wilson's only score came on a 16-yard touchdown pass from quarterback John Fields to end Ronnie Anders. The Mustangs were stopped at the Sundown 1-yard line in the second period, and the goal-line stand by Sundown was one of the big turning points.

Despite the loss, it was still a great year for the Mustangs and Coach Al Mitts, and assistants Joe Downer and Terry Harvick.

Both Wilson and Sundown fans backed their teams well for the game, despite a strong, chilling north wind. It was that wind, incidentally, which first got Wilson in trouble.

Wilson took the opening kickoff, couldn't move, and punted to the Sundown team. The Roughnecks returned to the Wilson 38, and registered two first downs while moving to the Mustang 15. The Wilson defenders held there, however, a field-goal attempt by Vic Bownds was

It took six plays, with Edwards picking up 18 on a keep around the end, for Sundown to reach paydirt. Eberhard got the final yard with a blast over the left side. Judgement "The Lord shall judge His People."

- Deuteronomy 32:36

Read your BIBLE daily GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Every responsible individual is aware that judgment is certain. In any given situation, faced with a particular challenge or an inviting temptation, our actions will be open to the judgment of our contemporaries and to the stirrings of our own conscience. A word or deed can bring about social ostracism. A crime against the state may result in imprisonment, even death. But, most important of all, there is the judgment of God.

With all of this, fear of judgment should not dictate our every act and deed. Instead, we should strive to lead a life that is pleasing to God not because we fear a day of reckoning, but because we seek to please God through a life which is "according to His will." We cannot be perfect; it is not expected. Yet we can turn away from that which is wrong and, with conscience as a guide, strive always to do that which is right. If we do this, the day of judgment will be a day of reward.

Spirit of Season Sparks Selections In Community Stores, Brimful Of Bright Ideas

HERE HE COMES - JOLLY OLD SANTA CLAUS. He's bright and beaming as ever, ready to make Christmas merrier than ever. And he's here to preside at the official opening of the gifts shopping season in this community.

Smiling broadly, he congratulates local merchants on their promptness and forethought in stocking up for Christmas. Stores throughout the community are glowing with the holiday spirit and filled to the brim with wonderful gifts, spread forth for shopping convenience.

The sights and sounds of Christmas are everywhere, and naturally, that pleases Santa. He's especially pleased because the gala abundance of gifts, ready right now, should help everybody to heed his warning, and:

"Wrap up this Christmas early." Early - it seems that must be Santa's favorite word. But consider what this busy man has to contend with. Again this year, Thanksgiving is late -- November 27th. As a result, only one day has been regained from the four days lost in the 1968 shopping calendar. Now, in 1969, there are only 23 shopping days between Thanksgiving and Christmas - just one day more than in last year's excepnally short gifts shopping season.

Most people who waited too long to start their gift shopping will recall what a rush that was.

Small wonder, then, that Santa is urging all his helpers to take advantage of the opportunities for early gifts shopping provided by local

At any time, and especially this season, early shopping has advantages for gift givers and receivers alike.

It means more time for careful, thoughtful selection of gifts for everyone on the list - and that means more happiness for those who unwrap the just-right gifts.

In-Time Delivery Is Factor

If it's going to be a really big Christmas - with gifts of this season. Then there are fine jewelry, furs, major appliances, furniture, color TV sets grooming aids and beauty and countless other ideas in the extra-special category gifts, travel needs and home then early shopping becomes entertaining aids.

even more important. Such gifts, special as they are, deserve to be chosen with special care, which again means early action. In the case of larger items appliances and furniture, for instance - last minute shopping and delivery in time for Christmas just don't go to-

While local stores promise to go all out in meeting holiday delivery deadlines, early shopping can make doubly

It's for Fun

One of the nicest reasons for shopping early, in any season, is: Just for the fun

In many families, it's a tradition to begin the fun with a visit to Toyland. Amid the wonders of the new toys, dolls and games, Mom and Dad as well as the kids swing into the spirit of the season, and the holiday is off to a

Time Is Short

Thanks to a late Thanks giving, there are only 23 shopping days in this year's traditional Thanksgiving-Christmas shopping season.

What's more, Christmas comes on Thursday this year. During Christmas week, there are only three full shopping days before the holiday, and one of those is Christmas Eve.

Time is short - thus Santa's advice to his helpers, to "Wrap up this Christmas early."

sparkling start.
