You can't take a sentimental journey back to the school room -- because that little old school isn't there anymore! Times change and there's been a revolution in the schoolhouse. Here's your chance to find out all about it during Texas Annual Public Schools Week, March 6 through March 10.

You are invited to visit a Public School and see for yourself how new teaching methods and techniques are helping Johnny learn to read and think, It's Open House throughout the week. There will be many surprises for those who have not visited a public school in recent years.

During Texas Public Schools Week, our schools are scrut-inized carefully by parents of children attending the schools as well as others who are interested in our modern public school system. Texas Education is constantly moving forward to keep pace with latest developments in this space age. Texans have considered education to be important, because public schools are celebrating their 118th year in this state.

"Education is the Bulwark of Democracy" has been the firm belief of Texans for 118 years. Democracy has a chance to prove itself in the public schools, and everyone has the opportunity to see how the schools are fulfilling their responsibility during next week.

Persons visiting the schools will be able to view new teaching devices; but more especially they will have the opportunity of meeting and getting acquainted with the teach-

Slaton's Volunteer Fire Dept. Answers 125 Calls In 197

TELEPHONE ALARM--Resident Fireman Clyde Doherty has only to record the fire location on the new phone alert system to inform Volunteer Firemen. The system automatically rings the firemen's phones, and the recording repeats the location and type of fire. Therefore firemen no longer have to go to the fire station first, or call the department and can go directly (SLATONITE PHOTO)

Slaton's Volunteer Fire De-partment answered 125 fire calls during the 1971 calendar year. Of these, 100 were in the city and 25 were out of city calls. Of the 25 volunteer firemen, an average of 69% responded to each call.

A breakdown of the year's calls is as follows: 50 house fires; 2 gin fires; 41 grass fires; 19 car fires; one tractor fire; 2 cotton trailer fires; seven miscellaneous calls, and three false alarms.

The report for January includes 35 calls, a record for the department. Ten calls per month is usually average, but the dry conditions and winds brought that to triple the average number. Sixteen grass fires have been reported, two smoke scares, five house fires, four cotton trailers, four fence fires, one trash fire and three false alarms were answered, Eleven of these were out of the city, according to Fire Chief Don Kendrick, He cautions persons about carelessness with grass fires. The grass is especially dry at this time of the year, without close supervision.
The Slaton Volunteer Fire Department is here to provide fire protection for the city and county. There is no charge for a fire call: that is provided by the taxes, and is city owned and maintained. The qualified men have been trained to provide emergency rescue service, and have light duty rescue equipment. The emergency equipment includes a recessitator (for breathing problems) and a portable generator for emergency lighting. The units are radio equipped, and the firemen are qualified in the administering of first aid.

The fire department is made up of men of all standings in the community, and the varied fields of their work gives them a vast field of knowledge to call

The organization is com-pletely volunteer, with 25 mem-bers and five officers, Kendrick is Chief, Pete Williams, as-sistant chief, Skip Tumlinson, captain, Bob Kern, lieutenant, and John Richey, secretary treasurer.

Firemen are selected by the present firemen from applications, when a vacancy occurs. When elected, the fireman is on probation for 90 days, and is then voted on again.

In the way of pay, the fire-men receive $1 per fire call they answer in the city, whether it is five minutes work or five hours. They receive no pay for out-of-city calls. Each fireman is paid $7.50 per month by the city. This has taken the place of the free water that was formerly given them. Firemenalso receive $1 for each practice session they attend. They furnish their own vehicles to the fire.

Each year, three menare sent to a firemen's training school at A&M for one week. They go on their own time.

Slaton's firemen spend an average of four hours a month in drills as is required by state law.

They do maintain a storm watch. They watch storms and cloud formations but only give a warning signal if the town is in eminent danger. The take cover signal is the siren blast, on and off, for three to five minutes. Fire signal is four

They receive no pay for the storm watches, but do this in cooperation with the local civil defense unit, This takes in the storm watch, warnings, public information, traffic control, re-scue operations, the transfer of injured, welfare, and the maintainance of city government. sident fireman, having moments earlier recorded the location of the fire, can be heard repeating that information for five minutes. Once the phone is hung up, the phone service on that line will return to normal. Several of the volunteers' vehicles are equipped with radio equipment and the group is in the process of buying a complete new radio system. This is another project that the volunteers have taken on themselves at no cost to the city. Recently the city employed second resident fireman, Brad Doherty, to assist the present resident fireman, Clyde Doh-

Jottings

The 8th grade language arts classes of Mrs. Childers and Mrs. Carnes handed in their American Heritage notebooks Tuesday. They were assigned at the beginning of February. They will be on display during Texas Public School Week. When it was discovered that eight 8th graders are children and her Girl Scout Troop 374 of Slaton school teachers, they were the ones chosen to be in the Slatonite picture, and they are holding as many of the notebooks as they can hold,

Mrs. Gutheinz's 8th grade classes are working on projects pertaining to math. They will also be on display next week. Next week is nine weeks tests again (ugh)! Odd period tests , 3, 5 and 7) will be on Thursday, and even period tests (2, and 6) will be on Friday. Mr. Rodriguez said, "There is nothing more beautiful than a school." He also said, "All parents or guardians are welcome on Monday night, March from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. for Junior High Open House."

Mrs. Miles' classes are still doing puzzles for extra credit. Mrs. Schlueter's classes are studying the human body in science. They are now on the skeletal and muscular systems. "The foot bone is connected to the ankle bone. . . ." Mrs. Gipson's classes are making smiley faces and writing autobiographies. The autobiographies will all end with, "Guess Who?" Parents at Open House will guess the authors of the autobiographies. Busy! Busy! Busy!

TIGER'S CORNER

As Richard Nixon would say, "Think Victory." This was the attitude taken by the girls' bas-derella-type story about a bunch of girls that no one could replace or even live up to the standards these girls have set.

This led to the playoff between Slaton and Ralls for the right to represent District 4-AA in bi-district play. Unfortunately, Slaton failed to pull the rabbit they were defeated 71-65 to end their season. The members of the team are as follows: James Conwright, Randy Davis, Darrell Eastman, Stanley Heinrich, Lloyd Kitten, Bruce Scott, Tommy Taylor, and T. W. Whitfield.

Girls Take Bi-Dist. Title

May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, that thy way may be known upon earth. . . -- Psalm 67:1-2

When we speak of World Day of Prayer, our tendency has been to emphasize the last word in the title to the neglect of the first. It is hard to think of the world, of God's love for it, and our responsibility to it. For this reason prayer is more likely to be an escape into self-concern that a commitment to our brothers around the world.

Many persons, by training and habit, close their eyes when they pray. In our praying we might be more honest and effective if we had our eyes wide open to the pain, the per-plexity, the poverty of the world; and our hearts open to God's direction for the healing ministry of the gospel.

Is it not unrealistic and unchristian to pray for God's mercy while we shut our eyes to wrongs we might help to right and to distress we might relieve?

The warning of the prophet Amos is still valid: "Woe to those who are at ease, . . . those who feel secure. . ., but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!"

PRAYER: God, as we claim Thy fatherhood, help us not to disclaim our brotherhood! Deliver us from the evil of being satisfied in our comfort when so many of Thy children suffer discomforts of many kinds. For the sake of Christ,

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY As we proclaim the fatherhood of God, let us live the brotherhood of man,

Nursing Home News by Bobbie Hogue

And where did the month of February go? It is one of my favorite months. However, it seemed a little "screwed up" this time, having to celebrate Georges' Birthday on the "21." For 12 long school years it was pounded into my head that George was born on the 22nd. Don't tell me now, that it was an apricott tree instead of a cherry when we finish them, I think every one will be very excited. A new comer to our Nursing Home is Mrs. Donnie Conner. Her daughter, Ila Mae Conner is employed as a R.N. here. The Pete Grandons gave our kitchen dept. some drinking glasses. Roy and Betty Culler brought out some magazines for our residents to read. Mrs. Edgar Williams gave some record albums. Mrs. Alice Martin gave 3 beautiful lap robes and some craft items. Mrs. John Todd sent some sheets for the home. To ALL of you folks, a how wonderful are the years that continue to come when two have learned to walk together, to give and to share. Happiness is a golden anniversary, a day of memories, a promise of more joyful togetherness.
