Slaton Tigers Shaping Up For New Grid Season

By DALTON WOOD

Slaton's football Tigers, short on experience, size and depth, will get their first test against outside opposition in a scrimmage against Class AAA Levelland there Friday.

Despite the lack of experience and depth, new head football coach Bill Curry is conceding nothing to the opposition, and expects to field a respectable first unit of determined players.

Slaton opens a killer schedule at Brownfield Sept. 8, followed by Kermit here, then at Littlefield, Portales and Denver City, the first district contest. Denver City is the favorite in the seven-team District 5-AA, with most pre-season predictions putting Slaton last, a spot the Tigers aren't planning to occupy.

The scrimmage at Levelland will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the junior varsity inaction. The two varsity squads will square off about 7:30. Another scrimmage is set for Sept. 1 at Plains.

Only four lettermen return from last year's team, which came on strong in the last half of the season for a 5-5 mark. One of the returnees is Ron Bartley, 180-pound senior who will be operating at quarterback this season. Bartley was all-district last year as a running back and also on defense as a linebacker.

Other lettermen back, also seniors, are Kenny Schuette, 200-pound fullback; Jerry Hopper, offensive guard and defensive end, weighing 150; and Dan Butler, 190-pound center.

Coach Curry's offensive team currently shapes up with big backs and smaller linemen. Bartley will be at quarterback, with Schuette and swift Greg Sokora, 175-pound junior, behind him at running back spots, and Jackie Edwards, 160, a senior, at flanker.

Backup quarterback right now is Eddie Jones, with Frank Love also expected to be in the picture. Both are 145-pound sophomores.

Other running backs likely to see action include Sam Clemons, Phillip Payne and Simon Gonzales. Ray Basinger, who also has shown up well on defense, is in the running for the flanker back spot.

Mike Busby, 160-pound senior, and junior Dewayne Mosser, 155, are battling for the tight side guard spot. Under Curry's system, players may line up on different sides of the center according to the particular play being called. Hopper appears set at offensive

Speeders Ticketed In School Zones

Speeding in school zones resulted in traffic citations for a number of persons in Slaton during the last few days, and officers reminded drivers Wednesday of the need to drive slowly in school zones. Radar is back in operation in the 20-mph zones, according to Capt. Jeff Creager of the Slaton Police Dept.

Warning tickets were issued during the first few days of school, but the policemen then began giving citations. One officer said he gave five tickets in one hour Wednesday, with violators clocked from 31 to 45 miles an hour in the 20-mph zones. "That's too fast in those areas where kids are going to and from school," he said.

The victim of the assault attempt viewed photos of persons fitting the description she gave of a man about 23 to 26 years old, but was unable to identify her assailant.

Two youths age 14 and 15 were listed as runaways from their homes here on Sunday, taking an automatic pistol with them. They were apprehended Monday by police in Guymon, Okla., and were returned to Slaton.

Peggy Holloway, 515 Plaza Dr., an employe of Ham's Food Mart, said someone took her purse from beneath the counter at the store between 1 and 4 p.m. Tuesday. The purse contained $12 cash.

A Slaton man was treated and released at Mercy Hospital last Thursday for a head injury. He told police another man struck him with a rock during an argument about a domino game.

At Panhandle and Scurry streets Tuesday, cars driven by Joe Martinez Rodriguez, 920 S. 2nd, and Samuel Herman Springer, Lubbock, collided with total damage estimated at about $350. The accident occurred at 8:05 a.m.

Norma Shue Pike, 905 S. 18th, and Carolyn Jean Bridges, 855 S. 18th, were drivers of cars which collided as they were being backed out at 12:20 p.m. Monday. Estimated damage was $25.

At 6:29 p.m. Sunday, a 1965 car driven by Daisy Snell Linthum and a 1963 car driven by Patricia Gaydos Lowe collided on United Super Market parking lot. Total damage was estimated at $200.

A Slaton woman recently accused of shoplifting some items at TG&Y has been charged in municipal court with theft under $5, officers said Wednesday.

Some young college men and women come here with new and different ideas on almost any subject, and cause quite a stir with the "old folks" in a way. If you don't know the facts and figures to support your opinions, you just don't have a chance in any way you do, most young people are willing to listen to you.

Trying to keep an open mind on the new trends and find that my opinion can be easily swayed by facts to support their cause. I feel this may be a 10 or 40 years. We may believe because we see it. We may do something because, "I've always done it that way".

One young man who impressed me knew WHY the things he did and WHY the old way is not becoming. If you don't have a closed mind, all it takes is a serious discussion to make you think. But... time to stop and think, do we? We have to get things done that must be done. At least, it seems so. Is that what's wrong? It is not easy to accept our ideals and goals. But we should listen to the young people who are spending their time finding out IT IS a changing world!

From Where I Stand

By Merle King

For the first time in thirty-four years, MRS. VIRGIE HUNTER didn't respond when school bells rang last week. When asked how she felt about being retired, she replied, "Great!" The veteran teacher retired from the Slaton school system last spring and announced then her future plans would include some traveling. She has just returned from a "good time" on a Caribbean cruise with her aunt, MRS. E. S. CUMMINGS of San Angelo; a cousin, MRS. PAULINE COALSON of Robert Lee; and MRS. LORENE BERRY of Slaton. The foursome enplaned from Abilene for Miami, Florida, and sailed for Haiti on an eight-deck Norwegian luxury liner, the "Skyward". Virgie was the only one of her party who traveled horseback to the top of a mountain in Haiti to tour a fortress built to defend the island during the time of Napoleon. (She said she went for a swim afterward which she believes kept her from feeling the effects of the strenuous ride up the rocky mountain trail.) Their next stop was San Juan, Puerto Rico, and then on to St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands. Plans to visit Nassau in the Bahamas were cancelled due to storm conditions.

Recent houseguests of MRS. VIRGIE HUNTER have included

MRS. PAULINE COALSON of Robert Lee and her granddaughter, MISS PAULA ROGERS, of Boulder, Colo.

MISS JACKIE McELFRESH is back home after spending the summer in Louisiana with her family.

S. M. NEILL, accompanied by his daughter, TERRY, and his mother, MRS. JIM NEILL, visited recently in Beaumont with MR. AND MRS. BOBBY BRACKEN and BRENDA.

MR. AND MRS. BILL GREEN visited recently in Austin with relatives. Enroute home they visited a museum at Fredericksburg and toured the LBJ country.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES STRAUGHAM and TRACY of Odessa were vacationing last week. They visited several days in Slaton with her parents, MR. AND MRS. JOE GAMBLE. Straugham is associated with Pioneer Natural Gas Co. in Odessa.

JIM WOLF and CLEO had as their weekend guests, MRS. RUBY TALMADGE and MR. AND MRS. TOM NALL of Hamlin.

My co-worker, JO DELANEY, is being admitted to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock today where she is scheduled for major surgery tomorrow.

CONSUMERS' CORNER

Saving is positive
Some individuals confuse saving money with scrimping and doing without.
But saving is a positive act that leads to desired goals - it is not a negative act of self-denial.

To save, one must plan. Decide how much you can or need to save each week or month and pay yourself after you have deducted the amount allocated for saving. Many persons find payroll deductions or other planned savings programs make it easier for them to save systematically.

Money saved can bring more happiness and peace of mind. Every family or individual will face emergency situations at some time. Savings can ease the strain of worry and confusion.

Saving provides a cash reserve that will allow persons to take advantage of sales and to pay cash for large items, thereby eliminating finance charges.

Managers are Romy Follis, Don Wuensche, both Juniors, and Donny Crowson, a freshman.
 Coach Al Mitts reports this past week the boys went through a two-a-day practice and all boys were able to run their 880 in allotted times. (Backs--two minutes, 45 seconds; and line-men, 3 minutes.) Mitts says "I feel like we're not very deep, but I feel like everyone on the field will go all out. I expect a great deal of leadership from seniors and I know that lower classmen will respond to them."

He also commented, "Barring injuries, we should have a real fine season this year. Competition will be stiff, the other teams in the district will be out gunning for us. But I feel that we can meet the challenge. We know the student body and community will be behind us all the way."

End of Tooth Decay

Within the next decade, tooth decay in the United States may be virtually eliminated, according to a spokesman for Canrad Precision Industries Inc., Newark, N. J. Working with the L. D. Caulk Company, Canrad-Hanovia has produced an ultra-violet light (known as the Dental Gun) which is used as an activator light in connection with a new tooth sealant.

The teeth are first cleaned and conditioned by the dentist before placement of the sealant material. After application of a liquid plastic, the material is exposed to a harmless ultra-violet light which quickly hardens into a smooth plastic shield.

Youthful Volunteers Are Raising Funds For U.S. Olympics

Nearly a quarter-of-a-million youngsters, between the ages of 10 and 16, are participating in "The U.S. Olympic Fund-Raising Championship."

The campaign is sponsored by Servomation Corporation of New York and its national Red Barn Restaurant chain involving youths, factory, and office workers in more than 200 major cities and communities across the nation.

Clifford Buck, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee, said at a gathering of Olympic "greats" in New York that the program launching "this activity marks the first time in the history of the Committee that young Americans have been recruited in such large numbers to participate in a single fund-raising effort for the benefit of the U.S. Olympic team."

Jesse Owens, who will receive a special honor from the West German government at the Munich Games, called the program "a tremendously exciting and timely effort." He said, "The need for funds is great. If we don't raise the money, many of our best athletes will not be able to compete."

Mr. Buck pointed out that "the cost of selecting, training, outfitting and sending the U.S. team to the Olympic games is tremendous. This year the cost will be $10 million, and $2 million of that amount still must be raised."

"And that is why I think what the Red Barn organization is setting out to do is such a wonderful thing," he said. "What we have here is an outstanding example of America at its best, young people demonstrating responsible citizenship by creating wide-spread public support for our nation's finest amateur athletes."

COOKED BANANAS

Everybody can enjoy bananas -- even the baby of the family. Weight watchers can indulge since there are only 85 calories in a medium size banana. And for those persons on special diets -- rejoice -- bananas have no cholesterol, less than one percent fat content and a very low sodium count.

According to Miss Chiquita, best known authority on bananas, cooked bananas can be a new vegetable sensation or a piquant relish with the main course.

whether it's lamb, ham, or shrimp. Here are Miss Chiquita's recipes for the most popular ways to prepare cooked bananas:

BAKED BANANAS: Brush with butter and lemon juice. Bake 20 to 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

FRIED BANANAS: Fry slowly in butter or margarine, turning once, until golden brown and fork tender. About 8 to 10 minutes.

GRILLED BANANAS: Brush bananas with butter or margarine. Wrap in aluminum foil and grill over hot coals 10 to 12 minutes.

BROILED BANANAS: Brush bananas with melted butter and lemon salt; roll in crushed corn flakes and described above. There are many other ways to prepare these basic items are:

 • Dip peeled banana in mixture of egg salt, roll in crushed corn flakes and described above.
 • Cover with white berry sauce and proceed as above.
 • Spoon custard over broiled banana with lamb respectively.

Dear Consumer: Getting Your Mortgage's Worth

By Virginia Knauer
Special Assistant to the President and Director
White House Office of Consumer Affairs

It's often said that most families never make a bigger single investment than buying a house. You might say that a house is the most expensive "consumer product" you'll ever buy in your lifetime.

Most builders are conscientious in constructing houses for their customers as promised—according to the plan and to the contract. But there's usually a minority—interested only in making a sale—that forces consumers to cope with poor workmanship and other problems.

Take for instance, this letter that recently came into my office from a Florida resident:

"The house was made larger than the plan, the window for the half bath was put in the bedroom, the ceiling and walls were put in my dining room before the top was placed on. It rained for two full days and part of the nights, then two days later they placed a top over the wet ceiling. They put the wrong door on the front, they replaced the door after five weeks and prime coated it after seven weeks, and painted it six months later."

Nor is shoddy workmanship the only problem. Sometimes the builder doesn't complete the job on time, resulting in unplanned living expenses for the buyer, who has already vacated his old house.

Fortunately, if you plan to buy a new house soon, there's much you can do to make sure your purchase goes smoothly. Perhaps the most important is to check the reputation of the builder before you deal with him.

Talk with other customers who have bought houses from the same builder. Call your nearest Better Business Bureau or your local consumer organization. If you're dealing with a real estate firm or taking out a mortgage, find out from the broker or the lending institution what their experience has been with the builder.

You should also get a check list of things to look for while your house is under construction. This is the best way to avoid poor workmanship, especially if you make a thorough check just before you move in. Remember, the best time to correct errors is before you accept title. You might even hire an independent inspector to help you do the check out.

There are plenty of publications you can get at your library or at a bookstore that provide a list of defects to look for in your new house, everything from leaky roofs to wet basements. They can also tell you how to finance your house, how to make sure that the community where your house is located has adequate services and what to look for if you're buying an old house instead of a new one.

You can start with two Housing and Urban Development Department publications: Wise Home Buying (32 pages, free) and Selecting and Financing a Home (24 pages, 15 cents) are available from Consumer Product Information, Washington, DC 20407. When you write, include the stock numbers: 7700-058 for Wise Home Buying and 0100-1127 for the other.

The key to homebuying is to know the pitfalls in advance. When you're paying for a house that might have to last you 25 or 30 years, you can't afford to "learn by your mistakes."

SPOTLIGHT ON Health

VITAMIN E

Perhaps the most spectacular of all the vitamins in the human diet — the one everybody talks about because it is used for so many important health reasons — is vitamin E.

Publications are filled with reports of vitamin E's use in heart attacks and stroke, diabetes, sterility, sexual impotency, miscarriage, cystic fibrosis, slowing down the aging process, speeding the healing of wounds and burns, and other conditions.

Medical science is intensively checking the value of vitamin E in all these conditions. As scientific studies continue, certain clear-cut facts about this fascinating vitamin are accepted today.

First, vitamin E is considered by the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Research Council to be essential for good health. Some good sources of vitamin E in the average American's diet are whole-grain cereal products and some vegetable oils, particularly those made of corn or soybeans, and green leafy vegetables and fruit.

Many physicians consider supplemental vitamin E necessary for the millions of people who suffer from heart disease and who faithfully follow diets with polyunsaturated fats to keep their blood cholesterol levels down.

Cholesterol is generally considered one of the factors in the development of heart disease. Indeed, the famed Dr. Wilfrid E. Shute says the lack of vitamin E in our diet is responsible for heart attacks caused by blood clots.

fats, found in fish or certain vegetable oils, need more vitamin E.

The Apollo astronauts used vitamin E on their moon explorations to guard against fatigue, anemia and weakening of their cardiovascular systems, Dr. Shute reports.

Babies born prematurely and many full-term infants are often given Aquasol E, the first natural — rather than synthetic — vitamin E specially formulated to be more easily and rapidly absorbed by the body. This has greater urgency for babies born anemic, or those with low vitamin E blood levels who are formula-fed or are on high polyunsaturated fatty acid diets. Even large doses of the vitamin, supplementing natural foods, have been shown to be harmless.

Doctors also prescribe vitamin E for many persons who are unable to absorb fat efficiently due to various intestinal diseases like liver, pancreas and biliary disorders, or due to sprue, celiac and other diarrheal diseases.

Discovered in 1922, vitamin E is arousing much excitement today as a possible aid to better health.

In the original tale, Cinderella's slipper was made of fur.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

Pacing

"There are not enough hours in the day; not enough days in the week; I'm always rushing." How often we hear complaints about lack of time. Yet each minute and each day is new and fresh, waiting for us to grasp it, mold it, use it, and enjoy it. Each new moment should provide a lesson in pacing our lives so that we may truly live and appreciate life.

Our reason for rushing and bustling is lack of understanding the principles of pacing. These principles are so elementary we often forget them too easily. There is a time and place for everything. A time for work, a time for prayer, and also there should be a time to appreciate the creations of God. When was the last time you paused to smell flowers in the garden? When was the last time you really listened to a bird sing, or stood in awe watching the sun rise? When was the last time you felt the rustle of the wind and wondered where it's been and where it is going? When was the last time you renewed your soul in appreciation of God's creation?

Pacing and appreciation will add meaning and understanding to each day. Use your days wisely.

"For the third time, are you having another cup of coffee?"

quick guard. Center is Butler, being pushed by Ricky Denzer for the starting job.

Offensive quick side tackle is Ronnie Valadez, 170 - pound sophomore, with Bobby Breedlove making a strong bid for the spot. Tom Heinrich, 170-pound junior, mans the other tackle post.

Craig Mann, 155, a junior, is running first at tight end, and Lupe Valderaz, 145-pound sophomore, is the number one split end.

Defensively, the Tigers usually will line up in a split 6, Curry said, with two line-backers in close to the middle. Contesting for those two spots are Bartley, Busby and Basinger. Currently running at defensive guard spots are Butler and Heinrich. Four players are in spirited competition for the two starting "backer" spots, players who line up next to the outside on the line of scrimmage, directly opposite the offensive ends. They are Schuette, Simon Gonzales, Ronnie Valadez and Denzer.

Defensive end spots are up for grabs by Breedlove, Hopper and Mann.

Valderaz, Edwards, Clemons and Eddie Jones are seeking the two defensive halfback spots, and defensive safety is being handled by Sokora.

4-H'ers Think...Drink Milk

Milk, cheese and other dairy products are among the most popular and basic foods in our diet. We use dairy products as beverages and appetizers, in baked foods and desserts, in entrees and salads. Yet many people don't get the three or four servings of milk or their equivalent, that nutritionists of the Extension Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, say is the minimum amount of milk or milk products needed daily.

However, there are some people, young people, who not only eat and drink more than a minimum amount of dairy products, but who go into their communities and spread the good word about dairy foods. They are the 655,000 boys and girls enrolled in the National 4-H dairy foods program, sponsored for 25 years by the Carnation Company.

The 4-H members enrolled in the program learn how milk and milk products are produced and a lot more about their nutritional value. They demonstrate many appetizing ways to enjoy an unlimited variety of dairy products ranging from milk, fresh, powdered, fat-free and evaporated; to cheeses, sour cream, yogurt and ice cream. The 4-H'ers also hit hard for good nutrition.

And to encourage youth participation and recognize their achievements, the Carnation Company provides awards to 4-H'ers who excel in the 4-H dairy foods program at county, state and national levels.

Four gold-plated medals of honor are awarded to county winners. The state winner receives an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. And at special ceremonies six national winners received $700 educational scholarships. All winners are selected by the Cooperative Extension Service.

For more information about the 4-H Dairy Foods program, contact the county extension office.

Summer Health Care Hints

Summer's high temperatures can mean heat prostration for pets as well as people. These common sense rules for hot days can help prevent it from happening to your pet:

Never leave an animal in an enclosed area without adequate ventilation. This means, for example, don't lock him in your car with the windows closed while you go off somewhere.

Always have plenty of clean drinking water where your pet can reach it. Remember that your dog perspires and thirsts more in the hot weather.

If your dog pants abnormally, acts dizzy or faint, and has been exposed to excessive heat, you must act promptly. Move the dog to a cool environment and call a veterinarian. A prolonged high temperature with heat shock could lead to serious damage.

Summer's Ectoparasites

These are tiny bugs that make life miserable for our canine friends during the summer months. Working their way through the coat, they cause an itching sensation. Some types bite, and suddenly you see the dog biting his skin like mad.

These parasites can be eradicated with insecticide collars. But some dogs and cats are sensitive to such collars and instead of correcting the problem, they can make the pet quite sick. Your veterinarian can best advise you about this so you and your pet can better enjoy the summer.

Siberian Husky: Famous For Sled-Dog Racing

"Hot Spots" To Avoid

"Hot spots" are a skin condition that some dogs suffer in hot weather. They are areas of moist dermatitis often caused by accumulated dirt, debris and germs when the coat does not properly air out.

The skin becomes irritated, hair falls out and a large red patch is seen. This area itches. When the dog licks it, the infection spreads to other areas, resulting in more "hot spots."

Keep the coat clean and, if possible, shorter during the summer. But if you see a red, raw-looking area, it is time for a veterinarian's examination and treatment.

Remember, your pet's best friend is the veterinarian!

Mustangs Looking For Another District Title

With nine senior lettermen returning from a team which went all the way to the regional playoffs last season, Wilson High School football fans, coaches and players are looking forward to another winning season. But it's a tough schedule the Mustangs are facing, with nine of the 10 games counting in district 2-B standings.

Coach Al Mitts takes his crew to O'Donnell for the opener on Sept. 8, and after that, it's all district play, as the defending champion Mustangs are in a big 10-school district considered as possibly the toughest Class B loop in the state.

Mitts looks for Lazbuddie, Sundown and Happy to offer the biggest challenges in district, but he doesn't expect any of the other district contest to be easy for his 23-man squad.

Quarterbacking the team will be sharp-passing John Fields, who connected on 41 of 98 tosses last season, good for nearly 700 yards. Another big plus factor is the presence of Danny Crowson, 195-pound three-letterman who was all-South Plains and second team all-state tackle last season. He has been moved to tight end, and if that isn't enough of a receiving threat to worry opponents, split end Chris Coleman, a junior, caught 23 passes for seven touchdowns last season.

David Hernandez, Lynn Jones and Lester Walker. Leland Brierer will man one tackle spot, with Johnny Arellano, Arturo Zuniga and Johnny Arnold vying for the other. Tony Bishop and Clyde Wilke will be guards and David Savell at center.

Mike Bednarz and Phil Kitten are among the players in contention for the starting defensive secondary. Mitts expects to use many of his players both ways.

Assistant coaches for the Mustangs are Joe Downey and Ben Blair. Last year's record was 7-3-2.

Watery Tale?
Live lobsters are now air-freighted to areas where the seafood previously was unknown. But early shipments to Cuba in 1960 required a veterinarian's certificate that the crustaceans did not have hoof and mouth disease before customs officers would pass them.

Roosevelt Has Three Starters Back

The District 5-AA Roosevelt Eagles, who surprised a few people (but not their own fans) by winning district and bi-district last year before losing in the regional playoff, will go into gridiron warfare Sept. 8 at New Deal with only three starters back from last year's team which tallied a 9-3 record.

Coach Houston Powell has 12 lettermen back, including the three starters, Ricky Hightower at quarterback, guard Scott Holland and defensive safety Keith Stone. Hightower, weighing 150, and Stone and Holland at 175 are seniors.

Powell indicated he anticipates some ragged play in early season, but hopes to have things running smoothly by the time Frenship comes to town for the first district game Oct. 6.

Juniors Chris Marshall and Tim Jones also are in competition for the starting quarterback job, Powell said. Running at tailback will be either John Blackwell or Lee Anderson and top fullback nominee is Kenneth Bobo. Stone and Gilbert Brown are after the wingback spot.

Tight ends are Reggis Hargrove and Wesley Killian, with Joe Brown and Jerry Maloney vying for split end. Tackles all are good size, with Roger Bruster and Gary Stennett battling for one berth and Mike Patschke and Joe Chapman for the other. Holland, Noe Gonzales, Steve Cook and David Jackson are after the two guard spots, and Buster Washington is best bet for center. John Calloway, letterman senior, is hoping to break into the starting lineup on defense.

Stone was all-district last year and Hightower was honorable mention all-South Plains.

DISTRICT: 5-AA.
COACHES: Houston Powell (Texas Tech), head, Donnie Leonard (West Texas), Don Elliott (Texas Tech), James Gibson (West Texas), Bill Harty (Trinity).

Fisherman's Delight

Any way you look at it, the Deep Sea Fishing Rodeos on the Mississippi Gulf Coast have a lot to offer. The queen of the rodeo, Terri French, holds a winning fish.

The thrills of deep sea fishing attract fishermen from all over the United States and several foreign countries to the Mississippi Gulf Coast every summer. The annual mid-summer Deep Sea Fishing Rodeos held in Biloxi and Gulfport offer exciting entertainment for everyone from the avid sportsman to the interested spectators.

Two of the largest deep sea fishing rodeos in the world send fishermen into the gulf to battle for thousands of dollars in cash and merchandise. Awards are presented to winners in dozens of fishing categories, including special categories for children.

And, there is much more to the rodeos than just fishing. Entertainment, fish fries, dances and other fulfilled activities make the rodeos an unforgettable summertime experience. Combine it with all the glamour of the Mississippi Gulf Coast beaches, fine resort hotels and many seashore attractions, and you've got a catch that can't be beat.

Everywhere you look, our environment is being threatened by pollution. Wild flowers along our roadsides are being picked rather than admired. Smog is killing trees, it's forcing birds to find new homes. Fish are running out of clean water. Just what's being done about it? A lot. But we've got a lot more to do, a long way to go. Let's all do our part. And help keep the birds, animals, and flowers alive.

Northern Neighbors Discover Enchantment

By Pat Dudgeon

Mexico—a whole new world right below the U.S.A. Attached to California, Arizona and Texas, just as if it were another state, is Mexico. A genuine land of enchantment and mystery. Rich in history and with her eyes to progressive future, our Southern neighbor deserves a closer look.

The seeds of civilization are thought to have taken root around 1500 B.C. in and around what we now know as Mexico and Central America. Beginning then the primitive man gradually gave up his hazardous occupation of hunting and gave more attention to the soil. Since that time Mexico has moved from the primitive stage to a growing, progressive, semi-industrial nation of the 20th Century.

Modern day communication and travel have brought our friendly neighbor closer than ever. Mexico's history is marked in most minds with its sixteenth-century conquest by the Spanish and later the Texas Revolution and the Mexican War led by General Santa Anna. Before the adventures of Spain came though there existed an ancient, proud and wealthy empire in Mexico. This mighty civilization was tragically subdued by the foreign invader. And thus began the Mexican people as we know them—a mixture of Spaniard and Indian. In many regions of Mexico today there remain old Indian influences, habits, conditions, etc.—in the remote areas where the Spaniard dared not go and where modern day civilization as we know it yet has no influence.

Mexico is composed of many different tribes and is geographically divided into states like our own country. All areas are fairly easily reached and as for the people—plain English with a Spanish accent will get you just about anywhere. It is a thrilling experience to travel Mexico. It is so near to our way of life, yet in many, many ways, so different. It adjoins our borders, yet seems so far away. The Mexican is a totally different type person, with marked differences in his way of thinking. Most evident is the Mexican philosophy of "manjama" or tomorrow. Time often seems of little consequence to the average Mexican—in sharp contrast to our often-hurried way of life. There is an emerging middle class, however, and as more goods are made available, more interest is shown in advancing one's materialistic wealth. There is, too, widespread poverty and a very unequal distribution of wealth at present. Democracy, modeled after our own form of government, is working in Mexico, though many discontents often force the government into repressive periods.

Our neighbors to the South, then, are very interesting to observe. They have a very rich country, abundant in resources, and are a proud people, rich in history and tradition. They are seeking progress, while attempting to retain their centuries-old traditions. In many instances the result is chaos but for the most part it is working quite well, though not as fast in development as many would like to have it.

THIS IS MEXICO... Guanajuato, Leon, some 200 miles northwest of Mexico City, spreading across the hillsides and valley floor, is one of thousands of towns and cities being discovered by American tourists in Mexico.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Section 24, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 24. Representatives shall receive from the Public Treasury an annual salary of not exceeding Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400). Senators shall receive from the Public Treasury an annual salary of not exceeding Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400). All Members of the Legislature, including the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, also shall receive from the Public Treasury a per diem of not exceeding Twelve Dollars ($12) per day for the first one hundred and twenty (120) days only of each Regular Session and for thirty (30) days of each Special Session of the Legislature. No Regular Session shall be of longer duration than one hundred and forty (140) days. This amendment shall be self-enacting and appropriations heretofore made in the general appropriations bill for the biennium ending August 31, 1973, for the salaries of the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives shall not be invalid because of the anticipatory nature of the legislation.

"In addition to the per diem the Members of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) for every twenty-five (25) miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel, from a table of distances prepared by the Comptroller to each county seat now or hereafter to be established, no Member to be entitled to mileage for any extra Session that may be called within one (1) day after the adjournment of the Regular or Called Session."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to provide annual salaries of $8,400 for members of the Senate and House of Representatives."

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER 6 ON THE BALLOT (SJR 7) General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Section 1-b, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1-b. (a) Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads as now defined by law shall be exempt from all taxation for all State purposes.

"(b) From and after January 1, 1973, the governing body of any county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the State may exempt by its own action not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from all ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. Where any ad valorem tax has theretofore been pledged for the payment of any debt, the taxing officers of the political subdivision shall have authority to continue to levy and collect the tax against the homestead property at the same rate as the tax so pledged until the debt is discharged, if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing that the various political subdivisions of the State may exempt not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the value of residence homesteads of all persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from ad valorem taxes under certain conditions."

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 33. Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 33. The accounting officers in this State shall neither draw nor pay a warrant or check on funds of the State of Texas, whether in the treasury or otherwise, to any person for salary or compensation who holds at the same time more than one civil office of emolument, in violation of Section 40."

Sec. 2. That Article XVI, Section 40, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 40. No person shall hold or exercise at the same time, more than one civil office of emolument, except that of Justice of the Peace, County Commissioner, Notary Public and Postmaster, Officer of the National Guard, the National Guard Reserve, and the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States and enlisted men of the National Guard, the National Guard Reserve, and the Organized Reserves of the United States, and retired officers of the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and the officers and directors of soil and water conservation districts, unless otherwise specially provided herein. Provided, that nothing in this Constitution shall be construed to prohibit an officer or enlisted man of the National Guard, and the National Guard Reserve, or an officer in the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States, or an enlisted man in the Organized Reserves of the United States, or retired officers of the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and retired warrant officers, and retired enlisted men of the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and officers of the State employees or other individuals who receive all or part of their compensation either directly or indirectly from funds of the State of Texas and who are not State officers, shall not be barred from serving as members of the governing bodies of school districts, cities, towns, or other local governmental districts; provided, however, that such State employees or other individuals shall receive no salary for serving as members of such governing bodies. It is further provided that a non-elective State officer may hold other non-elective offices under the State or the United States, if the other office is of benefit to the State of Texas or is required by the State or Federal law, and there is no conflict with the original office for which he receives salary or compensation. Sec. 3. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment permitting State employees, who are not State officers, to serve as members of the governing bodies of school districts, cities, towns, or other local governmental districts, without forfeiting their State salary, and specifying exceptions to the constitutional prohibition against payment of State funds for compensation to any person who holds more than one civil office of emolument."

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER 4 ON THE BALLOT (HJR 61) General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article XVII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a Section 2 to read as follows:

"Section 2. (a) When the legislature convenes in regular session in January, 1973, it shall provide by concurrent resolution for the establishment of a constitutional revision commission. The legislature shall appropriate money to provide an adequate staff, office space, equipment, and supplies for the commission.

"(b) The commission shall study the need for constitutional change and shall report its recommendations to the members of the legislature not later than November 1, 1973.

"(c) The members of the 63rd Legislature shall be convened as a constitutional convention at noon on the second Tuesday in January, 1974. The convention may provide for the expenses of its members and for the employment of a staff for the convention, and for these purposes may by resolution appropriate money from the general revenue fund of the state treasury. Warrants

1040 U.S. Individual Taxpayers Ask

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) Is it true that victims of tropical storm Agnes may be able to claim this year's disaster losses on last year's return to get a refund?

A) Yes. A recent amendment to the Federal tax law allows taxpayers who suffered disaster losses during the six months ending June 30, 1972 to claim those losses on last year's tax return. This is not limited to victims of tropical storm Agnes, but applies to all taxpayers who suffered losses in all sections of the country declared disaster areas by the President during the first six months of 1972.

An individual income taxpayer may claim these losses by filing an amended return, Form 1040X. Corporations may use Form 1120X to file amended returns. These forms and additional information are available at any IRS office.

Q) I'm working in the United States this summer and plan to return to my home in Europe in the fall. When should I obtain my "sailing permit" from the IRS?

A) The permit, or tax clearance, should be gotten at least two weeks, but not earlier than 30 days, before your departure. The permit is part of the income tax form that must be filed by most aliens before their departure from the United States. For more information on obtaining a permit, write the nearest Internal Revenue district office and ask for a copy of IRS Publication 519, "United States Tax Guide for Aliens." It's available free.

Q) I have to work part-time to pay for college. Is there any way I can stop having income tax taken out of my paycheck?

A) Yes, you can come tax withholding earnings, if you have a regular income tax return to file and file a withholding exemption Certificate (W-4E) with your employer.

However, if you have been withheld tax, you must file a tax return to get a refund.

Q) The bank has opened up a new account and wants my social security number. Where can I get it?

A) Your social security number is on your Social Security card. If you have not received your card, you can obtain it from the Social Security Administration. Write to the nearest Social Security office and ask for a copy of Social Security Form 10, "Request for New Social Security Card." It's available free.

They are responsible for these payments to the recipient's tax account which is the social security number of the recipient.

Teacher To Teach In Law Enforcement Program

In an expansion program at Lubbock College, extension classes were begun which will be held in Amarillo, Del Rio, and other cities. Dr. W. Wayne Hunsucker, instructor of the college, will be in charge of the new program. The purpose of the law enforcement degree plan is "to raise the standards of police service throughout the community, the state and the region. It is designed to aid the student in understanding and assisting in the preservation of the peace, the protection of life and property, the safeguarding of civil rights and the maintenance of social order as an essential in the functioning of a democratic society."

At least 30 hours in law enforcement is required for a major with at least 15 of these advanced hours. Unrestricted minors may be earned in sociology, psychology, political science, biology or chemistry. Courses in the law enforcement program to be offered on the Wayland campus this fall include English 123, Composition and Reading, taught by Dr. Don Cook, head of the department of English, and Law Enforcement 443 A and B, Organized Crime, taught by Hunsucker.

Amarillo classes will be Law Enforcement 333, Abnormal Psychology, taught by Dr. Tom Biller, instructor in psychology; and Law Enforcement 443 C, Organized Crime, taught by Hunsucker.

Lubbock classes, all taught by Farmer, will be two sections

Charlie Pride, Roy Clark, and Gospel Music To Headline Fair

LUBBOCK--Contract negotiations have been completed for a star-studded Mexican variety show to be presented as part of a new format headlining the 55th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair here Sept. 25-30. Two top recording stars--Lola Beltran and Cuco Sanchez--will headline the show to be presented in Fair Park Coliseum on Thursday night of the weeklong run. Sanchez also is one of Mexico's top composers. In addition Juan Puentes, 14-year-old singing star from San Antonio, will return for the second straight year. Puentes is a former Lubbock resident who was a "hit" here last year. Graciela Flores, dubbed "Mexico's Miss Personality," also is on the card, appearing with a mariachi band. It is but one of four shows slated for the exposition this year.

Charley Pride, the Pridemen, country and western singer Johnny Duncan, ventriloquist Alex Houston and Elmer and The North Door will open the fair on Monday and Tuesday nights. A gospel music show starring the Blackwood Brothers Quartet, J. D. Sumner and The Stamps Quartet, plus the Blackwood Singers, will share the spotlight on Wednesday night. Rounding out the week on Friday and Saturday nights will be Roy Clark, The Sound Generation and Tom T. Hall and The Story Tellers.

Tickets may be obtained at the box office in Fair Park Coliseum or at Sears' downtown store, Luskey's Western Wear or at TG&Y stores on Brownfield Road and Parkway Drive. Or, mail order requests will be filled by the fair association, P. O. Box 208, Lubbock, Texas 79408. The box office is open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The telephone number is 762-8349.

The fair also has scheduled two free attractions. Tony, the organ grinder, and Chris, the wonder monkey, will be on the grounds for about six hours daily. And "The Sensational Leighs" will perform on the giant space wheel adjacent to the Merchant's Building throughout the week.

In addition, three horse shows--Appaloosa, open and Quarter Horse--are on the slate along with a fiddlers' contest, a twirling festival, plus women's, commercial, military, fine arts, creative arts, industrial arts and agricultural exhibits.

Also, the fair has scheduled a tropical fish show, rabbit show, tantam show and Gene Ledel's million dollar midway for the six-day run.

Jane Russell In Production

MART BRILLHART

Dr. Brillhart Joins Veterinary Clinic Here

Mart Brillhart, formerly of Spearman, is now associated with South Plains Veterinary Clinic with Dr. Louis L. Farr, it was announced this week. He graduated from Spearman High School, and graduated with honors from Lubbock Christian College. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Texas A&M with distinction and then earned the degree of Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.

Dr. Brillhart was a member of the Student Chapter American Veterinary Medical Association and held the office of parliamentarian. He was also a member of Alpha Zeta Honor Fraternity, for agricultural and veterinary students.

Jane Russell, the famous screen and stage star, arrived in Lubbock this week to begin rehearsals for the new Hayloft Dinner Theater comedy production of "Catch Me If You Can", preview nights for the play being Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday--August 29, 30, and 31.

By completing studies at Max Reinhardt's Theatrical Workshop and continued work with the famed Madame Oustenskaya, Jane prepared for the outstanding success which she has achieved. While working as a photographic model, her picture was seen by an actors agent. The agent tracked down the beautiful model, and introduced her to Howard Hawks, who was then preparing to direct "The Outlaw" for producer Howard Hughes. When the picture was released 4 years later, Jane was catapulted into international recognition with a publicity campaign which made her familiar to film audiences around the world.

Since then she has starred in many motion pictures including "The Paleface", "The French Line", "Young Widow", "The Fuzzy Pink Nightgown", "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes", and other notable successes. Jane was born in Bemidji, Minn., but she was raised in the rural surroundings of the San Fernando Valley in Burbank, Calif. While in Europe seeking a child to adopt, Jane became interested in an Inter-Country Adoption Program. As a result, she founded W.A.I.F., an organization designed to remove orphans from institutions abroad as well as in the United States, and into adoptive homes.

Home Canning, Freezing Hints Given By Agent

"For top eating year-round, can fresh fruits and vegetables," Mrs. Mildred Patterson, Extension county home demonstration agent, suggested. Before canning, Mrs. Patterson said to check your equipment carefully. Note if steam pressure and water bath canners are in perfect condition. Discard unusable jars and follow manufacturer's instructions for lids and sealing. Also be sure you have up-to-date food preservation directions.

"Select only high quality vegetables and fruits," the home demonstration agent emphasized. "Remember that the shortest time between picking and processing will insure highest quality food. If vegetables are limp, they will be less tender when frozen or canned. She added that spoilage is also a danger in canning if you wait too long before storing vegetables in cans or jars.

"You'll need to blanch most vegetables before freezing to retain peak quality," Mrs. Patterson noted. "Then cool them rapidly."

The agent said to can fruits and tomatoes with the hot water bath process. "Place the filled containers in a large vessel with a rack on the bottom and with the water level completely above the tops of the jars. The water must be a rolling boil throughout the processing time to drive out air in the cans and to thoroughly heat contents," she said.

According to Mrs. Patterson, vegetable canning demands a pressure canner. The boiling water bath isn't hot enough to safely preserve the vegetables.

"Non-acid vegetables--all vegetables except tomatoes--can become quite toxic if the temperature of every particle isn't heated to the proper degree--a job that requires a pressure canner."

When canning for low salt

ITEM: Margarine is one of the products for which the U.S. Government has published a standard of identity, and this standard requires that margarine must contain at least 80 percent fat. Diet margarines contain only half this amount of fat and must be labeled "imitation" margarines.

Cotton Production Up... Cattle Production Up... Crop Production Up.

The 1972 cotton crop in Texas is estimated now at more than one million bales above 1971, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

Production this season is set now at 3,600,000 bales; this is an increase of 1,021,000 bales over production in 1971. Production last year was the smallest since 1946.

Acres for harvest are estimated at 5,125,000 acres compared with 4,700,000 acres of 1971. Abandonment from all causes is expected to total 325,000 acres. Last year 530,000 acres were abandoned.

Yield is expected to average 337 pounds of lint per acre compared with only 263 pounds per acre in 1971.

Nationwide, cotton production is estimated at 13,343,100 bales; this is 27 per cent more than the 1971 total. Acreage for harvest this year is set at 13,200,000 acres compared to 11,500,000 acres in 1971.

TEXAS continues to be the number one cattle feeding state in the nation. There were 2,120,000 head of cattle and calves on feed for slaughter as of August 1 in Texas. This is 29 per cent above a year ago, but virtually the same as the number on feed a month ago.

Placements into Texas feedlots during July totaled 370,000 head. These placements are 39 per cent above July 1971 but 18 per cent below the previous month. Marketings of fat cattle during July totaled 369,000 head, which is 14 per cent above July 1971 but two per cent below marketings for June.

In the six-state major cattle feeding states—Texas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Iowa and Nebraska—cattle on feed total 7,784,000 head. This is 18 per cent above the 6,596,000 head on feed last year at this time, but is a three per cent decrease from a month ago.

Iowa is second ranking cattle on feed state with 1,561,000 head.

PRODUCTION of all major crops in Texas this year—with the exceptions of corn and rice—are expected to exceed production levels of 1971. Increased production in 1972 is expected as a result of an increase in acres for harvest and higher yield prospects over 1971.

Grain sorghum production is forecast at 336,000,000 bushels, up 11 per cent from 1971. Yield is expected to average 60 bushels per acre compared with 52 bushels in 1971. Harvest of the crop is now approaching the half-way mark.

Wheat production is estimated at 44,000,000 bushels, 40 per cent above last year. Yield is expected to average 22 bushels per acre.

Corn production is estimated at 35,000,000 bushels compared with 43,056,000 bushels in 1971.

Peanut production is estimated at 434,720,000 pounds compared with 306,795,000 pounds in 1971.

Oat production is estimated at 9,720,000 bushels compared with 5,994,000 bushels in 1972. Yield is expected to average 27 bushels per acre, the same for 1971.

Soybean production is estimated at 5,670,000 bushels in 1972. This compares with 2,781,000 bushels in 1971.

Rice production is forecast at 22,464,000 hundredweight; this compares with 22,932,000 hundredweight in 1971.

Range and non-irrigated pasture condition was 76 per cent of normal; this compares with 45 per cent a year ago.

Some strains of bacteria are believed to live as long as 600-million years.

Fish Catch Needs Care

Summer means fishing time all over the state. However, the hot temperatures also present a problem in storing the catch and getting it home in good shape.

The first rule in proper care is to keep fish clean, cool and dry. Otherwise, they will spoil since bacteria thrive under moist, warm conditions. The same care also applies to wild game.

As soon as caught, the fish should be cleaned. This means removing the entrails and gills and scraping out kidney tissue along the backbone. Next, wipe the body cavity dry. A wash with drinking water will remove many bacteria that may be spread over the fish during the cleaning process. Fish should not be washed until just prior to cooking, points out Ramsey.

"Unfortunately, some flavor is lost when fish are replaced in a cooler and come in contact with ice. Even so, this is better than leaving them on a stringer in warm lake or stream water while fishing," contends the specialist. "Another way to keep fish cool or at least protected against daytime heat is to wrap them in newspapers and enclose in a towel or blanket." Keep fish out of ice water to preserve original flavor, cautions Ramsey. As ice in the cooler melts, drain it and place the fish on top of the ice. Block ice or large chunks are preferable since they last longer than crushed ice.

If fish are to be stored, they should be in airtight plastic bags, frozen as quickly as possible and used within six months.

Greetings to each of you from Southland. In case you haven't already heard, we ARE going to get to keep our Post Office. We were all pretty worried for quite a while that we were going to lose it because the U. S. Postal Service decided that it might be cheaper to put us on a route, but after studying the situation they decided that we were doing alright just like we are, so they said to go on with business as usual!

Congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Jordan on their 46th wedding anniversary which they celebrated Aug. 21. May God bless them with many more happy years together.

One of the "Tanner Twins" visited in the Southland Baptist Church this past Sunday. His family lived here many years ago and his dad was the local blacksmith. I don't know his name, but he told the pastor that he used to be called the "fat twin", so perhaps you know who I am speaking of.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Anderson of Lubbock were guests of her mother, Mrs. Cookie Winterrowd, Breonne and Jerry on Sunday.

Mrs. Carnes To Region Seminar

Mrs. Newma Carnes, Slaton Junior High teacher, has returned from attending a regional Living Textbook Seminar on the campus of Oklahoma State University at Stillwater. The conference was conducted last Thursday and Friday and was attended by about 70 educators from across the nation. Mrs. Carnes was one of four from the West Texas area whose participation was sponsored by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. The Avalanche-Journal has been used in eighth grade classrooms in Slaton for the last four years and is being used this year in keeping with the "newspaper textbook" concept.

Essential?
Spiders are essential to the balance of nature. Averaging at least 30,000 per acre in green areas, they annually destroy a hundred times their number in insects.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Long, in Estelline on Friday and then went on to Oklahoma and visited other relatives Saturday. They returned home Sunday.

We extend our deepest sympathies to the family of D. H. Pollard who was killed in a car wreck this past Sunday near Wilson. The Pollard family lived here on the Lazy K Ranch for a year or more. May God comfort this family in their sorrow.

Edmund's sister, Mrs. Minnie Steinhauser, passed away Friday in Lakeside Rest Home where she had been a resident for 30 days. She had been in failing health for the past year and a half, but her death came very suddenly. She was a long time resident of the Wilson community. May God continue to be with her family in their sorrow.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Abshire on birth of a son August 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Abshire's little daughter was in the hospital but is alright now. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Abshire and Connie recently spent a week visiting relatives in Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bastinger of Mercedes were here this week. They came for the funeral of Mrs. Bastinger's mother, Mrs. Minnie Steinhauser.

PUNCH LINE OF THE WEEK

Fair Set Oct. 7-22

From October 7-22, the 1972 State Fair of Texas will provide additional momentum to the current craving for nostalgia with "The Dazzling Thirties," a 16 day entertainment extravaganza.

One of this year's stellar attractions will be the national company production of the hit Broadway Musical, "No, No, Nanette," which will open the historic yet all new Music Hall. Additionally, negotiations are underway to present a free nightly revue in the recently renovated Band Shell headlining film stars, acts and bands of the 1930's.

The glamour and glitter of Hollywood will be recalled with a Film Festival featuring great motion pictures of the decade in the auditorium of the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts. Nightly parades will spotlight floats depicting these block buster films.

In the Women's Building, daily fashion shows with apparel styled in the 30's mode will be presented by manufactures along with previews of tomorrow's designs. A kaleidoscope of dance arts will dazzle audiences from the Cyclorama Stage. Winners in various homemaking competitions will be honored.

The New Dimensions Pavilion will provide reverberations from "The Streamlined Decade" in a 30,000 square foot theme exhibition showing all popular aspects of life in the 30's. Its major attraction will be "Expositions of the 1930's," a presentation by the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts which is being prepared in New York for an eventual tour of all major art museums."

In addition to the memorabilia, visitors will enjoy traditional fair favorites including a comprehensive display of 1973 car models in the Automobile Building; unusual international exhibits in the World Exhibits Center; and the everpopular Dr Pepper-State Fair of Texas Circus. Midwayrides, carnival games and a galaxy of fun foods furnish a festive atmosphere.

Two national beef cattle shows, Brahman and Santa Gertrudis, headline this year's Pan American Livestock Exposition. An assemblage of purebred dairy cattle, sheep goats, swine and horses also will be displayed.

Strict Auto Laws!
Bermuda laws restrict the number, size, and horsepower of automobiles. To stay within size limits, some have recessed bumpers and door handles.
