Missing Tree Is Recovered Here

The case of the missing pine tree was more or less solved here this week as City Commissioner J. P. Spears called police to notify them it had been left next to his property. The tree had been taken from the locomotive park as members of the Women's Chamber planted a dozen trees there recently.

Officers theorized that someone had taken the slash pine tree, reconsidered and then left it where it was located. Mrs. Bill Smith of the Women's Chamber said the tree was still alive, and it has been replanted.

Two incidents of vandalism were investigated by officers during the past week. Another in a series of such incidents was reported Monday at Stephen F. Austin School, where someone threw a large rock through a window specially treated to cut down glare. The broken window was valued at $85.

Four headlights on an auto belonging to Raymond Gomez, 310 S. 4th St., were broken out by vandals Sunday.

Fire Damages Home

Fire early Tuesday morning caused extensive damage to a home at 905 W. Crosby, occupied by Betty Covington, according to a report at the fire station. Cause of the blaze was not determined, but the house, owned by John Landreth, was damaged by fire and smoke.

The blaze was reported at 3 a.m.

Aluminum Cans Being Accepted For Recycling

The Pearl Aluminum Can Collection Center at Posey Siding, U. S. 84, is now in operation, according to Mike Mitchell, who heads the company's recycling program in Lubbock, Slaton and Post. Mitchell, owner of the Mike Mitchell Dist. Co., said the facility will be in operation on Tuesdays from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"During these hours, we will be purchasing recyclable aluminum cans for 10 cents a pound," Mitchell said. "That's approximately 1/2 cent a can." The Lubbock-Slaton collection center is one of a statewide network of 81 such installations being established by Pearl Brewing Co. Cans collected here and throughout the state will be shipped to the brewery in San Antonio for processing and recycling back into the economy. Mitchell said Pearl recently completed new facilities adjacent to the

$500,000 Bonds Voted For Southland School

Patrons of Southland Independent School District last weekend voted approval of a $500,000 bond issue to construct a new school building at Southland, a modern facility which school officials hope will be ready for occupancy by next February.

The bond issue passed Saturday by a total vote of 94 to 69, while an accompanying vote on a maintenance tax approved by state law passed 95-74.

Eighty-four property owners voted for the maintenance tax, and 68 voted against it. Non-property owners voted 11-6 for the tax. On the bond issue, the property owners balloted 81-65 for issuing the bonds, and non-property owners approved it 13-4.

The proposed new Southland School will include 11 classrooms, a library, science laboratory, offices and a gymnasium, and would serve as both an elementary and high school.

Next step in the program to build a new school will be selling of the bonds, and Southland School Supt. Ray Simmons indicated that this probably will be done sometime after June 14.

The February target date for occupancy is tentative, but school officials have been told that it takes about six months to construct a facility of the type desired, so they are hopeful that the new school can be finished by then.

The present Southland School structure will be retained for the time being for use in school activities, with the new building to be constructed on nearby school property.

Voters in the Southland district in March soundly rejected a proposal to consolidate the district with Slaton, a move which some had favored in lieu of building a new facility to meet all state requirements.

Also, the DPS director noted that the department has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups to patrolman positions and said efforts in this direction will continue.

Speir said general qualifications for DPS patrolmen are these: Applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age (inclusive); good moral character; excellent physical condition; height not less than 68 inches nor more than 76 inches; weight not less than 160 pounds nor more than 200 pounds per inch of height; visual acuity no worse than 20/40 correctable to 20/20; and a citizen of the United States. Educational requirements are a minimum of 30 semester hours of college credit.

Persons selected as cadets will be assigned to Austin for an 18-week training school beginning June 26 at the DPS Academy. The salary during training will be $600 per month, and room and board during this period will cost the cadet approximately $55 per month.

Speir said upon being commissioned a patrolman, the salary is automatically raised to $743 monthly. Patrolmen receive additional longevity pay for each five years of service to 25 years. They are also granted a monthly uniform cleaning allowance, and receive travel expenses when away from their station.

Uniforms, vehicles, weapons, ammunition and related equipment are furnished. Group life and hospitalization are paid for the employee, and dependent coverage is available at reasonable rates. Patrolmen participate in the Employees Retirement System of Texas as well as Social Security. Vacation, holidays and sick leave are as provided for all State employees.

Successful graduates will be assigned to the Highway Patrol, License & Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, or Drivers License Service according to the needs of DPS and consideration of personal preference.

Patrolmen are eligible to compete for promotions after two years of service. Experienced uniformed DPS personnel interested in criminal investigation may apply for appointment to positions in the Criminal Law Enforcement Division, which includes Narcotics, Intelligence, Motor Vehicle Theft and Texas Ranger Services as vacancies occur.

Speir said applicants should contact any DPS office or patrolman for an application. The completed application form should then be taken to the nearest regional, district or sub-district DPS office where the competitive examination is given.

Arrangements will be made for a physical examination. A character investigation will be conducted and those persons who are accepted for employment will be notified prior to beginning of the June recruit school.

The question this week is, "Do you feel President Nixon was involved in the Watergate scandal?"

Mrs. Carnes' first period class was asked the same question, and 22 members voted that President Nixon was innocent and two thought him guilty.

Several students and teachers went to the Interscholastic League meet at Tahoka Tuesday afternoon.

An electric can opener's cutting blade builds up layers of dried food with use -- making it the dirtiest inch in the kitchen. Wipe it clean daily or, if removable, soak periodically in a water-and-bleach solution (1 1/2 tsp. bleach to 1 cup water), recommends Lillian Cochran, home management specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

Nursing Home News

by Bobbie Hogue

President Nixon has declared May as Senior Citizens month. This points our attention to the fact that most of our elderly people are not on-lookers in society nor are they society's wards. They remain vital, versatile, and highly valued contributors to the quality of American life. A party on May 11 will honor all residents of Slaton Nursing Home. The Flannigans and other musical groups will provide entertainment for the party to be held in the Nursing Home lobby. Our sympathy goes to the family of James (Jim) Maloney.

He died after a short illness in Mercy Hospital. Ada Lahue remains in Mercy Hospital. R. R. Williams is back with us after a stay in the hospital.

A newcomer to our home this week is Mrs. Gladys Jones of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Jones' daughter and her family are the Shannon Harris' of Ransom Canyon.

Our monthly birthday party was a big success. Twenty-eight persons turned out for the event. Gladys Richardson took pictures of the group. Vivian Rucker baked a cake, Mrs. Walter Mosser baked cookies and Roberts Clark made punch and fixed the arrangements of carnations and vases.

The new building is coming along fast, and we can hardly wait for the new wing to open. We have one vacancy now.

Mrs. Mary Taylor will be the pianist each Wednesday when Rev. Ascher of Wilson brings the devotional.

Gladys Brock and Charlene Webb did some beautiful singing Sunday.

CELEBRATES Anniversary --

Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell A. Brown of Triumph Baptist Church will celebrate their twelfth anniversary with the church Sunday at 3 p.m. with a special service. Everyone is invited to attend.

English Gulf?

Geologists believe that in the Pleistocene era the English Channel was only a gulf and England was joined to Europe by a land bridge. The sea cut through the bridge, probably some 10,000 years ago, to form the Strait of Dover.

For And About Teenagers

HE LIKES TO TALK TO OTHER GIRLS WHILE HE IS TALKING TO ME... IT REALLY MAKES ME MAD...

THIS WEEK'S LETTER: I'm 15 years old and I like this boy and he likes me. My problem is he always likes to talk to other girls while he is talking to me, and it really makes me mad. I have gotten mad at him several times, but it just doesn't help at all. I told him I don't like him talking to other girls but he doesn't say anything about it. Could you please give me some advice on what I should do or what I could do to tell him and make him understand.

OUR REPLY: The real problem here is your insecurity. You didn't mention in your letter whether the two of you are going together, so we're assuming you aren't. But even if the two of you were going together, he still has the right to talk to anyone he wants to - male or female. If you are not going together, the reason he doesn't say anything when you get mad about this is that he's probably wondering who do you think you are. You really have no reason to be mad so cool it.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY 40601.

Tragic Fact

Indians who hunted otter, seal, and the llama-like guanaco in windswept Tierra del Fuego, where the South Atlantic meets the Pacific, were hardened to living scantily clad in the cold, damp climate. But many died in 19th-century wars with settlers and from diseases brought by the newcomers. Only a handful survive.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to my former fellow employees of Santa Fe Railroad who presented me with a retirement gift last week. I cherish the years of working with these people, and I pray that God will bless each one of you in all your activities.

COTTON TALKS

USDA officials are in the process of considering views from interested parties concerning the 1973 Commodity Credit Corporation cotton loan program, including a proposal that the 50 point penalty on barmy matter, premiums and discounts for quality variations and other loan details should be announced soon thereafter.

ENTERTAIN AT CONTEST -- "The Ragdolls", left, a singing group made up of Teresa, Cindy and Tonya Mims of Roosevelt, and Chyra Carlisle, with a dance and twirling routine, were on the program Saturday night as part of the entertainment at the "Miss South Plains Electric" contest. All are students at Roosevelt School.

GIRL OF THE MONTH
The Roosevelt faculty and National Honor Society has selected Donna Miller, junior, as April's Girl of the Month. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Rt. 1, Lubbock, and is a member of the National Honor Society, FHA, and Student Body Government. She is also active in basketball. Other girl nominees were Blenda Harris and Donna Morris.

MISS SPEC
For the second consecutive year, a Roosevelt girl was chosen as Miss South Plains Electric Saturday night at Escobedo High School in Lubbock. This year's winner is Miss DeLana Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Davis, DeLana, a junior, was sponsored by Roosevelt Young Homemakers.

Her predecessor, Miss Carol Woolley, was a 1971 graduate of Roosevelt. Some of the students performing during the entertainment segment were from Roosevelt. "The Ragdolls", Cindy, Tonya and Teresa Mims, daughters of Coach and Mrs. Gene Mims, sang a medley of songs, "Snowbird", "Georgie Girl", and "Jesus Is The Only Way".

NEW SAFETY CAMPAIGN
This poster is designed to depict the United States Department of Agriculture's campaign emphasizing farm safety programs for the rest of 1973. These efforts are being coordinated with the National Safety Council and its Farm Conference, with participation by virtually all USDA agencies.

CHEERLEADERS CHOSEN
Mary Brown was chosen as head cheerleader for the 1973-74 school term Friday. Also chosen to represent the senior class were DeLana Davis and Rhonda Fletcher.

Others trying out were Caroline Ysasaga, Donna Miller, Debbie Nichols, Annie Tillman and Marcia Hightower. Representing the junior class will be Kaye McMelland and Jodean Polyak. Also trying out was Carol Brashear.

A run-off for the sophomore representative was to be held May 2 between Betti Park and Pam Probasco. Others trying out were Jo Ann Lyles, Debbie Shelton, Elaine Ledbetter, Kay Harrison and Georgia Lucero.

STUDENT COUNCIL
Tim Jones was elected president of the Student Council for next year. Also running were Marcia Hightower and Rodney Scott.

A run-off for vice president was to be held May 2 between Jeff Matsler and William Brooks. Others running were Mark Duke and Rocky Ferrell. A run-off election was also to be held for secretary between DeLana Davis and Debora George. Wesley Killian also ran for secretary. Running unopposed for treasurer was Kaye McMelland.

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS
Mrs. Carol Dawson gave a program on "Sanity Savers", (a craft program on things you can make at home out of household items to keep your children occupied) at the April 10 meeting of the Roosevelt Young Homemakers. Hostesses were Linda Hobbs and Kay Newell. Dee Schroeder was appointed Awards Chairman.

Mrs. Mary Roberts of South Plains Electric gave a program "Kitchens of the Future" at the April 24 meeting. Marilyn Walter was in charge of the program. Serving refreshments were Mimes, Peggy Walter and Sue Sides.

A pre-school vision screening, in conjunction with pre-school registration, was conducted by Homemaking members at the Roosevelt Baptist Church last Wednesday.

SCHOOL MENU

HOBBS TRACK MEET
In the annual Hobbs relays

Earlier this year officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, recommended that the 50 point penalty on barmy cotton, which is now applied in addition to a reduction of one full grade, be dropped. It was pointed out that an Agricultural Marketing Service study and other research work at Texas Tech University's Textile Research Center failed to justify the "double penalty" in terms of such cotton's loss of spinning and finishing performance.

Apparently based on the evidence presented by PGC, USDA in its Federal Register notice of April 9 said "...there is reason to conclude that the presence of extraneous matter doesn't affect the ultimate value of such cotton beyond that reflected in the grade reduction."

Those in the cotton trade who are objecting are basing their opposition primarily on the grounds that some cotton already has been contracted for Fall 1973 delivery at prices based on points over loan value and that removal of the penalty now would be "changing the rules in the middle of the game."

Responding to the Federal Register invitation for comment, PGC Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, in a letter to Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Administrator Kenneth Frick, said "In our opinion this argument won't hold water," and made the following statements in support of that opinion.

"(1) Both producers and buyers know when contracts were signed that there might

April 28, John Blackwell, Roosevelt junior, placed second in the long jump with 21.3 1/4 and fourth in the 220 yard dash with 22.1.

FFA MEETS
The Roosevelt FFA chapter elected their 1973-74 slate of officers at their regular monthly meeting April 25 in the Agriculture building.

Michael Patschke was elected president; Bobby Cate, vice president; Kenny Perry, secretary; Gary Stennett, treasurer; Marvin Pown, reporter; and Gilbert Brown, sentinel.

ALL SPORTS BANQUET
The Roosevelt All Sports Banquet will be held May 8 at 7:30 in the Elementary School Gym. At this annual program all awards are made. Guest speaker will be Dale Evans, assistant football coach at Texas Tech. Tickets may be purchased for $3 from the Roosevelt coaches or the varsity boys and girls by May 5.

and likely would be, some differences between 1972 and 1973 loan values.

"(2) If the argument is followed to its logical conclusion, then (a) USDA would be barred from making any change in premiums and discounts for micronaire, staple or grade in the 1973 loan schedule, and (b) since some cotton is already contracted for 1974-75 delivery, the same argument could be used to prevent a change for the next two years if not indefinitely.

"(3) Even if you assume that merchants would be unfairly treated on contracted cotton in 1973, only about 59,600 bales on the Plains (10 year average of 14.9 percent barmies times the estimated 400,000 bales contracted) would be affected, while the alternative is to penalize producers, certainly more unfairly, on 298,000 bales (14.9 percent of an expected 2 million bale crop)."

Johnson's letter concluded by saying "I think you will agree that the objections to your proposal are far outweighed by the merit of the proposal itself and by the necessity for correcting a long-standing inequity in the loan program. We greatly appreciate your understanding of the basic issue in this matter, and again we urge you not to abandon your efforts to give producers a 'fair deal' and a stronger support price for their cotton."

Here's a recipe for quick dilled onions: Save the leftover liquid from your favorite dill pickles. Heat to the boiling point. Pour over 1/4 inch thick onion slices. 8 to 10 hours. Store in a covered dish in the refrigerator for quick, convenient serving. Use the full slices in sandwiches, or separate into rings as garnishes or in salads.

Choose recipes high in liquid and flour -- in proportion to sugar and shortening -- for soft, cake-like cookies, says Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

Once a can of evaporated or condensed milk is open, cover it tightly and keep refrigerated, notes Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

Thought For Food

The "new" pork is leaner and meatier -- with more protein and fewer calories per pound than ever before. Pork is one of the best food sources of thiamin and a key dietary source of other B vitamins and minerals, especially iron. Pork has only about 70 calories per ounce of separable lean cooked meat. The new lean pork is the result of continual improvement in breeding, feeding and production practices by animal scientists and producers. Also, today's pork is marketed at a younger age. Tender, juicy and delicate in flavor, today's pork is also very digestible. Pork is also priced right for today's budgets and is delectable roasted, broiled, braised or cooked in liquid.

Edwards Is Club Hostess

Slaton Art Club met at Mrs. J. S. Edwards' home in the evening on Monday for a short business meeting. Edwards introduced a well-known speaker, Marjorie Love, who shared her "Love House Canyon." She also gave an interesting tour of the Yellow Canyon. Also shown were Marjorie's paintings of the canyon and wild flowers. Following members were Mrs. Mmes. Clyde Doherty, Ellen Schmid, Cecil Scott, M. L. Turnbow, David Williams, T. A. Worley Jr., the hostess, Mrs. J. S. Edwards and guest Marinell. The next meeting is scheduled in the home of Mrs. O. F. Kitten. Children who show a lack of interest in the classroom may be expressing the signs of an undetected hearing loss, say officials of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. Such children, the officials stress, should be given a hearing test at the earliest opportunity.

DONATION MADE FOR KIDNEY RESEARCH -- A donation in memory of Juan Roberto Gebara was recently made to the division of pediatric nephrology of the University of Texas Medical Branch. Various organizations contributed to the campaign, including the Slaton League of United Latin American Citizens. The presentation was made by Mr. and Mrs. Juan Gebara and George Rodriguez, to Dr. Luther B. Travis, co-director and UTMB assistant professor in pediatrics. The fund was developed to raise funds for the medical expenses of the kidney transplant for the Gebara's son. A successful transplant was performed in January, but the boy died following complications in February. The $5,000 donation will be used to develop facilities in the UTMB pediatric department for kidney transplantation and dialysis in children.

PRaise THE LORD
By LENDA WOOD

Praise the Lord -- we serve a God who hears and answers prayer! Sometimes He answers so quickly it amazes us. It's so refreshing and delightful when He does that for us. He even answers our prayers before they are prayed. And how delightful that is! "I will answer them before they even call to me. While they are still talking to me about their needs, I will go ahead and answer their prayers!" (Isa. 65:24.) "Now glory be to God who by his mighty power at work within us is able to do far more than we would ever dare to ask or even dream of -- infinitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, or hopes." (Eph. 3:20.) This is literally true, and happens over and over again in our lives, and we praise the Lord because He's so real and His promises are true! Just a week or so ago, several of us were praying for a certain family, and the next morning the prayer was answered! Several weeks ago, my husband and I were discussing a problem that we had, and agreed that what we needed to do about it was pray. Ten minutes later, before we had even prayed, the problem was solved. There have been many prayers answered so quickly, so quickly in fact, that we almost sit back with our mouths open in wonder. The Bible tells us that we have not because we ask not. We may feel that the Lord would not want us to bother him with little things such as headaches, colds, boyfriend problems, homework problems, etc. Especially when there are people who have great and serious problems. But again I say, we have not because we ask not. I don't understand all about God, but I do know that He answers prayers, both big and little. I read somewhere this past week that if our little child were to come to us as parents and say, "I love you dearly, I trust you completely -- you do with me whatever you will." The father might say to the mother, well now, our child says we can do anything we wish with her. Now what are the things she dislikes most? Let's make her do that now. And what dress does she dislike the most -- let's make her wear that now. And what food does she dislike the most? Let's just make her eat that too. Well, we know, as parents, that we wouldn't treat our children like that when they tell us they love us and trust us completely. I believe our very first reaction would be to think up all the things that would delight our children, and plan to give them to them as we thought best for them. If we know how to give good gifts to our children (as parents), how much more does our heavenly Father give us good things and delights in answering our prayers. Praise the Lord!

Mrs. Christine Bourn

Services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Slaton First Christian Church of Mrs. Don (Christine) Bourn, 59. Mrs. Bourn died about 7 p.m. Sunday in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where she had been a patient five days. Rev. Nolan Pierce, pastor, officiated at the services, with burial in Englewood Cemetery, under the direction of Englund's.

Mrs. Johnson, 65, was born in Hall County and moved to Crosbyton in 1929. She is survived by her husband, Curt; a daughter, Mrs. Euel Daniel of Lubbock; a son, Curtis Johnson of Santa Monica, Calif.; two brothers, M. J. Gossett and Theron Gossett, both of Amarillo; two other sisters, Mrs. Ellen Brown of Fort Worth and Mrs. Willie Mullins of Garland; and three grandchildren. Mrs. Tom Burns of Slaton is a niece of Mrs. Johnson.

Angie Kay Caldwell

Services for Angie Kay Caldwell, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Caldwell of Lubbock were held Monday at 4 p.m. in Englewood Cemetery under direction of Englund's. Rev. Morris Sheats, pastor of Trinity Church of Lubbock, officiated. The infant died about 12:25 p.m. Saturday in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock about four hours after birth. Survivors include her parents; a brother, Timothy; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Caldwell of Slaton, and Mrs. Mary Tenant of Garland. Great-grandmother is Mrs. Lula Caldwell of Slaton; and great-grandfather is Elmo Stell of Roswell.

Lewis Green

Services for Lewis E. Green, 45, of Idalou were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in White's Funeral Home Chapel in Weatherford. Burial was in East Greenwood Cemetery there. Mr. Green died at his home early Thursday. Justice of the Peace Bill Skirlock ruled death was due to natural causes. Green was a native of Elida, N.M., and had lived in Idalou two years. PART 5

Organized Crime In Texas

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth and final story in this series about organized crime in Texas. Organized Crime does exist as evidenced in the preceding stories. The Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council, the Attorney General's Office, the Department of Public Safety and many other agencies are working with law enforcement officials at the local level to help put an end to organized crime. This story deals with some of the progress which has been made.)

A few months ago outside a Dallas night spot, a well-known police character with an intriguing nickname, "The Creeper," died in a hail of gunfire in a scene straight out of a Hollywood gangster film.

Police had suspected he was the "enforcer" for a loosely-knit group of southern and southwestern thugs known as the "Dixie Mafia."

But before this scene conjures up visions of an organized crime takeover in the Lone Star State, Texans should be aware of the unrelenting statewide efforts already underway to crack down on crime. Little publicized up to this point, the Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council is conducting an all-out drive to corral all segments of the criminal world.

The Council, co-chaired by Atty. Gen. John Hill and Col. Wilson E. Speir, Director of the Department of Public Safety, is comprised of top law enforcement officials from throughout the state.

"Some hoodlums are organized, but we are organized, too," Col. Speir pointed out recently, "and we are moving ahead steadily on all criminal fronts including gambling, auto theft, prostitution, gang killings, narcotics, fencing of stolen goods, credit card thefts and many others."

Atty. Gen. Hill, since taking office in January, has expanded the organized crime division within his office. Head of the office Tim James, a former vice squad officer and attorney, has the sole responsibility to work in close cooperation with enforcement officials to help ferret out organized crime activities.

"My office can give legal and auditing help, and in conjunction with the DPS and officers at the local level, assist in yanking the welcome mat from under the organized criminal element in our state," Hill said.

"Some of our home-grown hoodlums have friends within out-of-state mob ranks, and they may be getting some tips and coaching, but we have no concrete information at this time the national syndicates as such are operating in the state," said Col. Speir.

Leading the list of crime categories in profits by far is illegal gambling.

Texas wagered more than $815 million in football bets alone during the 1971 season with some $98 million flowing directly into the mainstream of organized criminal activity.

But during the calendar year from which the council's gambling figures were taken more than 130 arrests were made as the bookies began to feel the heat.

"I regard this as a sizeable accomplishment in such a period of time, when the problems and restrictions in making bookmaking cases are taken into consideration," says Col. Speir. "Our records indicate that on the average, it takes 360 man-hours to make a single case on a bookie."

Increased pressure is being applied daily on drug traffickers in Texas. The DPS Narcotics Service has been averaging over 200 cases per month, mostly for sale of narcotics and dangerous drugs.

Agents estimate they will file some 3,000 cases against 2,000 defendants this year, compared to some 960 cases against 680 defendants three years ago.

As law enforcement officials move ahead with arrests on all fronts there is accelerated activity behind the scenes as well.

A "Texas Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit Association" has been formed which will:

--Promote the exchange and sharing of confidential information on organized crime activity through establishment of an intelligence system involving law enforcement agencies throughout the state;

--Exchange information on organized crime with appropriate neighboring states and federal agencies;

--Establish a central file or clearing house for criminal intelligence information and provide it with data and authorized dissemination;

--Develop personal relationship and trust among members of the organization and all law enforcement agencies;

--Promote professionalization of law enforcement;

--Execute the planned law enforcement program through investigation and vigorous prosecution of organized crime.

One of the major areas of concern among law enforcement officials is the lack of public awareness of what constitutes organized crime.

Says Col. Speir: "To understand organized crime, a definition is in order. Organized crime, in general, consists of unlawful activities of the members of a highly organized, discipline and sophisticated association engaged in supplying illegal goods and services including, but not limited to, gambling, prostitutions, loan sharking, narcotics, labor racketeering and other unlawful activities."

"Organized criminals seek to infiltrate and control legitimate business. They also strive to corrupt public officials and others in an effort to minimize exposure and the possibility of legal intervention."

The Texas Criminal Justice Council, working through Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, is helping fund an approach to public education.

As one officer points out: "The public itself needs to understand that a seemingly innocent little football bet is a contribution to organized crime."

"The public needs to understand that 'cheap' bargains on some items of merchandise very well could be from a 'fence' who is peddling stolen goods."

Both Hill and Speir are confident Texas is moving in the right direction -- and rapidly -- in efforts to control organized crime.

"We have identified the problem, begun to speed arrests and push prosecution and the word is increasingly spreading that organized crime can't do business in Texas," Hill says.

"If the public will join in to a greater extent, the day when Texas can become free of organized criminal activity will come much sooner," adds Speir.

LEGISLATOR HONORED -- Hale Center legislator Peta Laney was honored recently by his colleagues in the House of Representatives for his work as the chairman of the Subcommittee on Transportation. Laney was presented with a walnut gavel by Transportation Committee chairman Jim Nugent of Kerrville, who praised Laney's efforts as the Subcommittee chairman. "Our committee has functioned with ease and effectiveness this session because of Subcommittee chairmen like Laney," commented Nugent. More than 100 pieces of legislation have been referred to the Transportation Committee by Speaker of the House, Price Daniel, Jr. "The leadership and foresight exerted by Laney made it possible for each and every one of these bills to have a full public hearing," Nugent added.

I trust in thee, O Lord, I say, "Thou art my God," My times are in thy hand. (Psalm 31:14-15, RSV)

One night in Miami Beach, I sat for two hours by the ocean. The night was warm and beautiful. I was alone, yet God was there. As I did some reflective thinking, I thought of Lord Byron's lines:

"Roll on, thou deep and dark blue Ocean -- roll! Ten thousand fleets sweep over thee in vain; Man marks the earth with ruin -- his control stops with the shore."

The vast ocean is mysterious and fascinating. Here is something bigger than all men. From time immemorial the ocean's tide has come and gone. There is low tide and high tide; no power on earth can prevent it.

This is true of life, too. There is low tide of life when burdens almost sweep us under and heartaches are hard to bear. But whatever happens, God is in control; we are in His hands. The tide goes out, but it will come again. This brings faith, courage, and confidence. High tide will come. Wait!

PRAYER: Lord, it is impossible for us to realize the vastness of Your presence. Help us to keep our trust in You, especially when circumstances stand a chance of overcoming us. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY -- This very day, my life is in God's control. -- Ray G. Jones, Knoxville, Tennessee

Awards Given At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK -- "Awards Day" ceremonies were conducted at Texas Tech University Thursday by Air Force and Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) detachments.

Highlighting the Air Force ROTC program was the presentation of the Bronze Star to Capt. John Wehrle, Air Force Institute of Technology student working on his master's degree in engineering at Tech. The award to Wehrle was for service at U-tapao AB, Thailand, from February 1972 to January 1973, according to Col. Mack E. Baker, professor of Aerospace Studies.

The annual ceremonies serve to recognize and honor singular outstanding achievements of cadets in ROTC units.

Col. Albert J. Geraci, professor of Military Science, announced that three Army ROTC cadets have received two-year ROTC scholarships. He said they were selected in regional competition according to academic standing, aptitude for military service and leadership potential.

The recipients are David R. Bissell, finance major of Robert D. Hissell, Candlight, Houston; J. Frusha, physical education major and son of Sgt. (Ret.) Leonard P. Frusha, Mineral Wells; and Dr. Leftwich, biology major of Marion Leftwich of Lubbock.

The awards are effective the beginning of the semester. Also receiving an ROTC award was N. Piwonka, Slaton, Vice Foreign Wars Club award.
