McClesky's Contract Extended

School board last week voted to extend the contract of Superintendent J. C. McClesky for one year, to the 30, 1978. The board voted unanimously to extend the contract of the superintendent, J. C. McClesky, for this school year at $23,500. Joe W. McClate, the confidant of McClesky, expressed his confidence in McClesky's ability to lead the school district through the next year. McClesky last Thursday discussed the contract with the board, noting that the system is broken and would cost about $250 to repair. Whether repair of the old machine would be feasible was questioned, and the board decided to look into the matter further before taking action. After a discussion of the need for more classroom space for certain categories of children with special learning problems, the board voted to rent a building belonging to the Presbyterian Church to be used for one group of children. The board also voted to set the school election for April 5, and spent a brief time playing with a bowl of unusual gooey-like substance which someone in the system had concocted.

STOCK SHOW COMING UP — Roger Robison, Danny Montgomery and Rick Allison were busy preparing a barrow for the annual Junior Livestock Show scheduled here Saturday.

Livestock Show Set Saturday

Slaton's annual Junior Livestock Show will include the showing of steers for the first time this year.

Set to begin at 8 a.m. Saturday at the Steve Bourn Memorial Center, the show will feature 61 entrants showing approximately 135 head of livestock.

Trophies and ribbons will be awarded by LaDonna Jones, FFA Sweetheart.

Sponsored by the Agricultural Committee of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce, the show will be judged by Bob Ballard, vocational agricultural instructor from New Home. Fred Myers is chairman of the stock show committee which chose Ballard from among several qualified judges. He is a noted Chester White breeder, and his guidance of the New Home students makes them among the toughest competition in area shows, said Tom Roy, Chamber manager.

Earlier Show

Roy also explained why the show is being conducted in January instead of March, as has been the practice in years past.

"Every major livestock show in the state is a terminal show. That is, the livestock is slaughtered and sold at the end of each show. By the time the kids get ready to enter our show in March, they may have already lost some of their best stock," said Roy. "This way, they have a chance to show their best stock in the hometown show."

The livestock sale will begin at 2 p.m. Coy Biggs and Jim Dulin will sell the show.

This is the fifth annual show to be sponsored by the Chamber, but a junior stock show has been a tradition since vocational ag began in the school.

Commemorative Coins Offered For Sale Here

"O. L. Slaton 1867-1946."

In Holders

The coins, encased in a plastic holder which allows both sides of the coins to be seen, are made in gold, silver, antique silver and antique bronze. Ada May Kitten designed the coins.

According to Tom Roy, Chamber of Commerce manager, the coins are in limited supply. A set of four coins, which costs $100, contains a gold, silver, antique silver and antique bronze coin. Singly, the coins sell for $50 for gold; $25 for silver; $5 for antique silver; and $3.50 for antique bronze.

There are only 75 numbered sets of four coins, 75 single gold coins and 150 single silver coins for sale. Those who buy coins this year will have the first opportunity to buy next year's coins. A different design honoring some aspect of Slaton's history will be on each year's coins.

According to Roy, the coins have had great success in other towns. Texas cities which have commemorative coins include Amarillo, Pampa, Dalhart, Plainview, Hale Center, Littlefield, Crosbyton, Muleshoe, Kermit, Post and Tulia.

The coins are now on sale and can be purchased at the Chamber office. A display of the sets will be shown following the Chamber banquet Feb. 3.

The banquet, which is centered around the theme "The city that Santa Fe built," will begin at 6:59 p.m. in the junior high cafeteria. Several Santa Fe dignitaries, including the general manager of the Western line and the division superintendent, have been invited.

Blood Drive Scheduled

The Slaton Knights of Columbus, Council 2571, will sponsor a blood drive Monday.

Blood Services of Lubbock will bring a mobile unit to St. Joseph hall about 3:30 p.m. and stay until sometime after 6 p.m.

Everyone is urged to give a pint of blood. This will be a good chance for lots of people to get their blood insurance renewed by simply giving blood.

Come To Travel Party Tuesday Interested In European Trip?

The Slatonite is hosting another travel party for those interested in the nine day tour of Europe sponsored by the paper.

The travel party will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 28 in the Chamber of Commerce Board Room, and everyone with an interest in travel is invited.

This will be the last chance for Slaton area residents to learn the details about the trip and sign up. The cost of the tour is a low $628, and payment in full is due six weeks before departure.

The tour is set to leave Lubbock on March 21. The five-country tour coincides with spring break for area schools and Texas Tech University.

The cost of the tour includes jet flight from Lubbock to Amsterdam, hotel accommodations, two light meals per day and a personal escort.

Countries Named

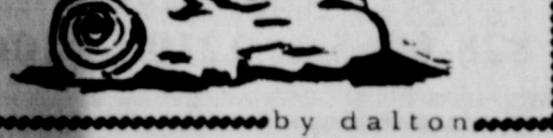

Countries toured will be Holland, Germany, France, Switzerland and Belgium. Most of the touring will be done by air conditioned bus and quite a bit of Europe will be covered in the nine-day trip.

Major cities in the tour are Paris, Amsterdam, Heidelberg, Bonn and Brussels. The cost of such a trip will never be lower, and now is a good time to consider such a tour as a graduation gift.

To find out more about the tour come to the travel party and bring friends and neighbors. The opportunity to see Europe is one everyone would enjoy, and the price will never be lower.

For more information, call Sandy Martin at the Slatonite, 828-6201.

I've mentioned here on one or two occasions, the magazine, Grain Production, is a readable, attractive and timely publication, even for those like me who know next to nothing about the business or the grain business. In fact, it's unlikely that I shall ever be a grain of anything edible, and I'm not much of what I do and write does in against the grain.)

Anyway, our congratulations to the staff of who publish the magazine monthly for Grain Corp. of Amarillo.

The magazine cover is always an attractive one, an outstanding color photo of some thing. The trade articles — about cattle and such — I usually don't read, but are written for the special breed of people who make the magazine. I read the historical articles, usually about some place and/or of time in Texas, and I read the jokes, often stealing them and claiming them as my own.

In the December issue I learned that the largest ethnic group make up the state's largest ethnic group. Das ist gut, nicht? I also learned that George Washington had teeth and that tomatoes, thought to be poisonous, were not eaten in the United States until about 1825, although they had been consumed in Italy since the 1500s. (We eat tomatoes on the staff and a brother who still thinks tomatoes are poisonous, but they are not less normal in other ways.)

Some of the operations of the First National Bank of Chicago, an old-fashioned bank machine run by teenage bank trainees with the biggest gross profit margin, 62 percent.

The making of Chicago and banks reminds us of all the 1975 calendars given away by the State Bank in Slaton, at least one was printed. The Ace Reed cartoon calendars ordered from some specialty company, a woman called back to bank president to inform him that the calendar she had didn't advertise the bank — it had "Ambulance Service" printed on it. Call them if you need help in a hurry.

Anyway, back to the mag.: there's an interesting story about the ghost town of Slaton, N.M., and a story suggesting that if you have an empty barn you might try raising

COMMEMORATIVE COINS — Shown here are two of the commemorative coins now being offered by the Slaton Chamber of Commerce. The locomotive design on the side shown and the drawing of O. L. Slaton on the back were done by Ada May Kitten. These are available in sets or individually at the chamber office. Reproductions of the original drawings used on the coins are carried on the "flag" or nameplate of the Slatonite on this page. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

Thomas Named To Commission Five Hurt In Wreck Of Pickups In City

Hesikize Thomas received 29 of the 54 votes cast in Tuesday's special election to win the spot of city commissioner for Ward IV.

Edward Gaydos collected 22 votes and Darrel Pack garnered three to complete the balloting. Thomas won by a 54 per cent vote.

Thomas will fill the unexpired term of Eugene Mask, who died last November. The term will run until 1976.

City Secretary Alex Webb termed the turnout as "light." Only eight per cent of the ward's 675 registered voters cast ballots Tuesday.

HESIKIZE THOMAS

Five persons were injured, one seriously, in a smashup of two pickups at 10th and Dayton about 6:15 p.m. Saturday. This week, all had been released except 4-year-old Karen Sue Morgan, who remained in satisfactory condition at University Hospital in Lubbock.

The girl was passenger in the pickup driven by Henry Morgan, 1630 S. 11th, when it was in collision with a 1970 pickup driven by Steve Dwayne Sumner, 845 W. Jean. Morgan was not injured, but Sumner was treated for injuries, according to the investigating officer's report. Also treated at Mercy Hospital were Mary Morgan, 4, and Peggy Morgan, both of the 11th St. address, and Rene Bowie of 1010 S. 15th.

Damage to the two pickups was estimated to total $600.

NUMBERS GAME — Elda Reames, left, and Dorothy Moeller, with the branch tax office here, hold two new license plates which will go on sale Feb. 3. When motorists get their new license plates, they will have the same number for five years, if they keep the vehicle. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

New License Plates To Last Five Years

By JUANELL WOOD

The new 1975 Texas Automobile license plates will go on sale at the Slaton Tax Office Feb. 3, and vehicle owners must have them by midnight of April 1, when the current license plates expire.

As part of an economy move, the plates you purchase will be yours for five years unless you change cars. For the next four years you must purchase a small plastic-type sticker instead of a new license plate. These stickers will be affixed to the corner of the original plate each year.

The cost of the stickers will be as much as a new plate, as the economy move is not for the motorist, but for the State of Texas. It is estimated that Texas will save about $3 million a year because of the plan, plus the fact of additional state revenue.

The additional revenue is realized because of the contract Texas has made to make license plates for other states since Texas plates will not have to be manufactured during the four-year period.

Personalized plates must be purchased every year, however, according to Elda Reames, deputy clerk in the county tax office branch here. An additional ten dollars is required with the application for personalized plates, which is sent to the Highway Department in Austin.

The series numbers run from 10 to 999 and Slaton expects to sell four series, which was the amount sold last year, Elda Reames said. Persons who have reserved their numbers should check with the Slaton Tax Office, east side of the square, by Feb. 15.

Mosser-Wimmer Marriage Vows Read

Mary Alyce Mosser and Dale Joseph Wimmer solemnized vows of marriage at 7 p.m. Jan. 18 in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Slaton.

Monsignor Peter Morsch performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo W. Mosser and for the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wimmer, all of Slaton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of winter white mira mist. The southern belle design gown featured a bodice of Venise lace and a square neckline. The full bishop sleeves were capped and cuffed in Venise lace also. A full circular skirt fell from the high crescent waistline, forming a chapel length train. A hemline ruffle edged in Venise lace completed the gown.

The bride wore a cameo cap of mira mist edged in Venise lace flowerlets. The cap held three tiers of illusion which was also edged in the flowerlets.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of stephenotis and pink sweetheart roses. Love knot streamers accented the bouquet.

Serving her sister as maid of honor was Carol Mosser. Bridesmaids were Annette Mosser and Corlis Wimmer, sisters of the couple. Mrs. Larry Durham was bridesmatron.

The attendants wore gowns of burgundy velvet fashioned with high necklines edged with heavy white Venise lace. Lace also trimmed the cuffs of their bishop sleeves and accented the empire bodices of the gowns. Softly gathered A line skirts completed the dresses.

They carried nosegays of feathered pink and white carnations with rolled rose petals of forever yours roses accented with baby's breath.

Douglas Wuensche was best man. Groomsmen were Steven Mosser, brother of the bride, and Jay and Gary Wimmer, brothers of the groom. Serving as ushers were Terry Mosser, Leslie Buxkemper and David Mosser, brother of the bride. Dwayne Mosser was commentator.

Altar boys were brothers of the couple, Johnny Mosser and Chris Wimmer. Flower girls were Mary Kathryn Heinrich and Amy Heinrich.

Mrs. Alan Jones, organist, accompanied Mrs. Royce Heinrich, soloist. A reception and dance at Vann's Catering followed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Slaton High School and the Lubbock School of Vocational Nursing.

Wimmer, a Cooper High School and Texas Tech University graduate, is engaged in farming north of Petersburg.

The couple was honored with a rehearsal dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wimmer.

Athenians To March Sunday

Members of the Athenian Study Club and other volunteers will be collecting for the March of Dimes Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to acknowledge our grateful appreciation for all the kind expressions of sympathy shown us during our recent sorrow.

Thank you for the beautiful service, food, floral offerings, and cards and a special thanks to Rev. Jeff McCracken and the Elglunds for their kindness. We are deeply grateful.

Heart Fund Drive Is Scheduled Here Feb 13

Slaton's 1975 Heart Fund kick-off drive is scheduled for Feb. 13, according to Mrs. Steve Smith, American Heart Association board member. Mrs. Smith has named Mrs. Dale Karpe as Heart Sunday chairman and J. W. Holt as the business chairman.

Funds contributed during the annual drive are used in research, community service, public education and professional education.

Twenty-two thousand dollars has been given to three researchers at the Texas Tech University School of Medicine this year to be used in scientific studies seeking to lower the death rate from cardiovascular disease.

More than 6,000 public school students in Lubbock County have been trained in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (basic life support), Mrs. Smith said. A critical care nurses' seminar was attended by more than 200 nurses from Lubbock and surrounding counties. Two seminars were held for physicians in the area.

"These are just a few examples of how your heart dollar is spent," said Mrs. Smith. "We are all proud to be a part of this life-saving undertaking."

Special speakers have been scheduled for Slaton civic clubs during January and February. Any club interested in a program on heart disease, diet, cardiopulmonary resuscitation or blood pressure screenings, should call Mrs. Smith at 828-6840 and she will contact a speaker.

Mrs. Nora Romero is Slaton's memorial chairman. Mrs. Smith said, "If you would like to remember a loved one through your contribution to the American Heart Assn., bring your check to Mrs. Steve Smith, American Heart Association board member. Mrs. Smith has named Mrs. Dale Karpe as Heart Sunday chairman and J. W. Holt as the business chairman.

Show Honors

A kitchen and shower honor McDonald, Rumpy, was the home of Biggs.

It is third in harvested acreage, production and value of fresh market vegetables. Texas ranks behind California and Florida in this category.

Estimated production of 14 principal fresh market vegetables and melons for 1974 is 12 per cent less than 1973. And they had a total value of $135 million. This is 26 per cent below a year ago. Leading crops in order of value were onions, watermelons, carrots, cabbage, and cantaloups.

More Dusty Days Due

Remember the sandstorms in the winter and early spring months of 1974? Residents of the Lubbock area can expect several days of this type of weather during the windy, dusty months ahead. High wind velocities are a natural occurrence on the High Plains, and little can be done to stop the wind.

"Land users following some basic conservation techniques can control the effects of high winds," states Smith Covey, technician of the United States Department of Agriculture, Soil Conservation Service.

Sandstorms begin with the bouncing of soil particles which start a chain reaction of other soil particles. Suddenly, the air is filled with dust. Wind erosion can be controlled by three primary methods or a combination of the three. These methods include managing crop residues, planting cover crops, and roughening the soil surface.

Land users work with nature by leaving small grain and grain sorghum residues on the soil surface as long as possible before preparing the land for succeeding crops or construction. Crop residues protect the soil surface from high velocity winds. Cover crops such as small grains planted in the fall, work in the same manner as residues.

When residues or cover crops are not available, plowing or chiseling to bring clod formations to the soil surface temporarily controls blowing dust. This method consumes fuel, reduces plant residues, hastens drying of the soil, and pulverizes the soil surface. Emergency tillage should be used only as a last resort.

Both urban and rural people are faced with the problem of blowing dust. Dust in the air is a pollution problem as much as industrial wastes. It poses a health problem to people who have respiratory ailments. It finds its way into the working parts of machinery causing extra repairs. Housewives must work harder to keep a clean house. Poor visibility due to blowing dust is a hazard to motorists and causes airline flights to be cancelled.

The Soil Conservation Service, working locally through the Lubbock County Soil & Water Conservation District, assists land users in planning and applying measures to prevent wind erosion.

Dear Consumer

Crib Safety

By Virginia Knauer
Special Assistant to the President and Director
Office of Consumer Affairs
Department of Health, Education and Welfare

While I believe in economizing, there are limits. Especially where a life—a baby's life—is concerned.

For a couple expecting the first child, a hand-me-down crib could be a way of reducing the burden of expenses. But economizing on a crib would be a mistake. Each year about 40,000 babies are injured so seriously in crib accidents that a doctor must treat them. As many as 200 die because of accidents involving cribs.

The Federal Government, through the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), is trying to make cribs safer by setting certain requirements. But these requirements apply only to cribs made after Jan. 31, 1974.

This doesn't mean you should junk the crib you borrowed from your sister-in-law or the one that was grandmother's. You can economize with an old crib and still be safe by following these guidelines:

- Check the overall condition of the crib you have. Is anything missing? Be sure that all slats and all bolts and other fasteners are in place. Check with the manufacturer, if possible, for replacement parts.
- If you repaint or refinish the crib, you should use

Young Farmers Hear Program On Sunflowers

Cooper Young Farmers were presented a program on sunflower production at the meeting of the chapter in the Cooper High School cafeteria Monday night. The program was presented by Dr. Raymond Brigham, of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Eugene Bednarz was elected president of the group for the coming year in a business session of the 68 members and guests present. Lannie Marshall was chosen vice president and Eddie Collins secretary and treasurer.

Plans for the upcoming stock show Feb. 7-8 were discussed. Jerry Stockard will be judge for all events.

RUNAWAY AUTO — A Slaton policeman, Roger Cooper, last week was treated and released after suffering injury while trying to halt this auto. The driverless car was traveling in circles at about 15 mph in the 1200 block of 11th St. It had been set in motion in a driveway when the owner hit the drive selector accidentally while loading it. The car was stopped after about a half hour by parking a wrecker in front of it. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

Second semester classes are well on their way. Next year we will have to rearrange ourselves into quarters instead of semesters, so get ready.

The basketball teams have played recently in two tournaments. In the Idalou tournament, Jan. 9-11, the girls came home with first place and the boys won second.

The boys beat Post 30-29 and won over New Deal 19-15. In the final round of tournament, the team won 34-24 over Floydada. In that game, Mark Heinrich scored 14 points.

The weekend of Jan. 16-18 the teams played in the Christ the King tournament in Lubbock. The girls won the second place trophy.

On Jan. 16 the faculty had a workshop on the purpose and know how of the controlled reader and tachistoscope as a teacher's aid.

Preparations are being made for National Catholic School Week Feb. 2-8.

This Saturday, parents will bring their mops, buckets and rags to school for its semi-annual cleaning.

Sister Angelita showed her slides of the Holy Land tour Wednesday. Many people have asked her for another showing since they were not able to attend.

All parents and teachers interested in the moral training of their children are invited to hear Sister Mary Peter Traviss speak in Lubbock at St. Elizabeth's School from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Disaster Loans Available Now Area Of City Is De-Annexed

Congressman George Mahon received notification this week that the secretary of agriculture has designated the following counties in the 19th Congressional District of Texas as disaster areas and eligible for farmers home administration disaster loans: Andrews, Gaines, Hockley, Lubbock, Midland and Yokum.

Specific details of application procedures will be available from local farmers home administration offices.

The counties of Bailey, Cockran, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Lamb, Martin, Palmer and Terry have received prior designation as disaster areas.

In a brief special called meeting of the City Commission Monday, Mayor John Landreth and commissioners Otis Neill and Byron Crandall voted to de-annex 80 acres of land in the northwest part of the city.

The land, belonging to Elsford Stricklin, has no utilities on it and the city would have to spend several hundred thousand dollars to run water and sewage lines to the property.

Stricklin requested de-annexation partly to escape paying city taxes which amounted to approximately $200 annually.

The Commission also discussed allocating South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG) funds.

Pre-Schoolers At Play Are Never Out Of Work

A case can be made that people 1 1/2 through 5 have the best jobs around.

Think about it. No clocks to punch, no deadlines or performance standards to meet, no way to get fired. The youngest in that age bracket are too cute to be held to account; the oldest are almost as well fixed, with the demands of first-grade school still to come; and all of them, the youngest and the oldest, can spend most of their waking hours at playtime occupations and jobs.

"Jobs? You gotta be kidding."

Nope, no kidding, because as any observant mother can tell you, and as child-development experts will confirm, kids at play, especially the 1 1/2-5-year-olds, are seriously engaged in the work of their choice with the tools of their trade.

The "tools," of course, as you might guess, are toys, and about $500 million worth are bought every year to insure that some 15 million toddlers and pre-schoolers are well equipped for their enjoyable, often educational daily labors.

That kind of sales popularity, according to the trade association, Toy Manufacturers of America, stems from the essential appeal of the toys and from the high visibility they have for the adult shopper, since most of the items have been on the scene for generations.

They're almost always made of wood or plastic; they're simply designed and brightly colored; they're easy for small hands to manipulate and play (work) with; and they tie in cleverly with the strong impulses of the very young to experiment, imitate and pretend.

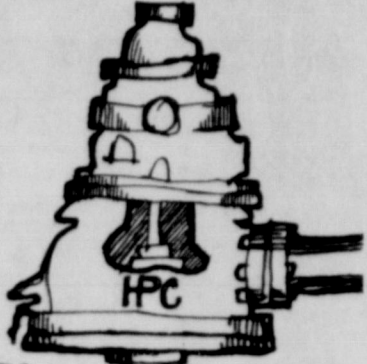

Alphabet blocks fit that last description particularly well: The toddler of 1 1/2 builds and topples towers; the preschooler of 4 or 5 makes letter arrangements.

Blocks in general, of course, whether they be plain or illustrated cubes, or cylinders, or other geometric shapes, are classic pre-school toys, along with: Push and pull toys, with satisfying noise built in; conventional-face or funny-face clocks; talk-back phones; squeeze toys; small roly polys that bounce back up when smacked down; semi-realistic cars, trucks, boats and planes; train sets (child-powered); stacking or nesting toys (rings, open-top boxes, cups and discs); take-apart toys; inlay puzzles with about a dozen pieces; peg-and-hammer pounding boards; elementary construction sets; counting

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor
The Slatonite
Dear Editor:

The groups opposing the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) have been accused of using scare tactics in their efforts to rescind (repeal) the ERA in Texas. The most common quote I hear is "The things they say will happen are so ridiculous. The American people won't let that happen."

The ERA presents a great threat to the American way of life, and could be the most important issue ever. One of the Communists' main goals is total equality of the masses. The ERA is over-simplified and leaves the door open for numerous consequences. I oppose the ERA because it is vague. I would recommend specific legislation for specific problems concerning equal rights.

Are you opposed to legalizing homosexual marriages? Are you opposed to abortion on demand? Are you opposed to 18-year-old girls registering for the selective service or draft? Are you opposed to freeing husbands and wives of their legal responsibilities to each other and their children? Are you in favor of separation of church and state? These are just a few of the questions you need to ask yourself. If you answer "yes" to any one of these questions, YOU must oppose the ERA.

We hope all those opposed will write their State Senators and Representatives. Ask them to vote FOR rescission (repealing) the ratification of the ERA in Texas.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Douglas Simpson

Cooper FFA

By Kris Thomas

The Cooper FFA chapter held its fifth regular meeting Monday night, Jan. 14. Dale Schaffner, the chapter president, opened the meeting at 7 p.m. and made announcement of the coming stock shows and National FFA week. Jerry Bonner, a sophomore, won the door prize and received an FFA cap.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. J. D. Peer, public relations man for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept. He presented a program on game warden. The film showed the various ways the game wardens are trained and some actual experiences they encounter. At the close of the meeting, Peer answered all questions, and Dale Schaffner closed the meeting.

The Vo. Ag. III members have recently been working on their metal shop project. Some of the projects this year are: Randy Dunn, farrowing crate; Don Andrews, hay feeder; Tim Tate and Steve Adkins, barbecue pit. Others include Tim Macha, pickup hitch; Marc Barrington, horse equipment rack; David Cash, motorcycle trailer. Sam Shelton is building a tool rack and Cecil Fox is making a car bicycle rack.

When washing heavily soiled garments, always pre-soak or use a soak cycle. You'll avoid two washings — and save energy too!

If you're in the market for a television, especially to serve as an "extra" or "second" set, consider buying a black and white model. It uses less energy than a color tv — and usually costs less too!

Homecoming Set Saturday

The 16th annual Pep Extrusion Homecoming will be Saturday in the Pep Parish Hall.

Registration will begin at 5 p.m. The classes of 1938, '48, '58 and '68 will be recognized and have their reunions at this time.

The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. The meal will consist of turkey, dressing and all the trimmings.

The fee for registration and meal will be $2. There will be a short business meeting followed by the coronation. Homecoming will close with a western dance starting at 8:30 p.m.

Children's Morality Is Topic

MINNIE TRUSSELL
Services for Mrs. Minnie Trussell, 86, of Snyder, were held at 2 p.m. at Bell-Seale Chapel with Pat Abbananto, minister of the 37th Street Church of Christ, officiating, assisted by Sam Kitching of the East Side Church of Christ.

Burial was in Snyder Cemetery.

Mrs. Trussell died Wednesday at Snyder's Cogdell Memorial Hospital following a brief illness.

Survivors include a son, Dale Glover of Snyder; a stepson, John Trussell of Slaton; a step-daughter of Snyder; and numerous nieces and nephews.

MRS. STEPHENS

Services for Florence E. Stephens, 88, of Slaton will be at 10:30 a.m. today (Thursday) at First Baptist Church here.

Her grandson, the Rev. Wayland Stephens of New Jersey, and the Rev. John Cartrite, pastor, will officiate.

Burial will be in Englewood Cemetery under the direction of Englund.

Mrs. Stephens, who had been a resident of Slaton since 1918 when she moved from Trenton, died Tuesday in Mercy Hospital.

Her husband, J. M. Stephens, preceded her in death.

Survivors include a son, Clarence of Slaton; five grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

ATHALEE KOONTZ

Services for Mrs. Athalee Azel (Williams) Koontz, 57, will be at 2 p.m. Friday at First Southern Baptist Church of Canon City, Colo., with the Rev. A. Warren Stowe, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be in Mountain Vale Memory of Gardens in Canon City. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Andrews Funeral Home of Canon City.

The daughter of a pioneer Lubbock couple, the late Lonnie A. Williams and Mrs. Floy Williams of Lubbock, Mrs. Koontz had been a Canon City resident the past year. She was born in Lubbock. She married Jewel M. Koontz in 1933, at Tahoka, and the couple lived at Salida, Colo. 13 years before moving to Canon City.

Mrs. Koontz had been in ill health the past year.

Survivors other than her mother include her husband; three sons, Carl of Lubbock and Jewel W. of Slaton; a sister, Mrs. Delois Alexander of Lubbock; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Avoid letting hot water run while washing dishes, shaving, and performing similar chores. It's really not difficult to turn the water on and off again — you'll be rewarded by saving in utility costs.

Church Growth Program Slated

Rev. Birdie L. Jones and Westview Baptist Church will enter a Church Growth program Jan. 26-29, in cooperation with other churches in the association. Clifford Feeler of the Dallas office will be the coordinator. He will speak in some of the services.

Church Training, with Sammy Parks as director, will sponsor the program. Westview had its monthly family night Wednesday, followed by Brotherhood and WMU meetings.

The church is continuing to stress the bus ministry, and anyone desiring information on this is urged to call the church, 828-3322.

Snappy Sausage Casserole
1 package (12 ounces) smoked sausage links
1 can (16 ounces) cut green beans, drained
1 can (16 ounces) macaroni and cheese
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tomato, cut into 6 wedges
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
Cut smoked sausage links diagonally into 1-inch pieces and combine with drained green beans, macaroni and cheese, smoked sausage and Worcestershire sauce. Place in a 1 1/2 quart casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 20 minutes. Remove from oven. Arrange tomato wedges around edge of top of mixture. Brush wedges with melted butter or margarine. Return to oven and continue baking 10 minutes. 4 servings.

If your car is equipped with automatic transmission take it especially easy on the gas pedal. Ease up on the pedal at around 18-22 mph so the transmission will shift easily into higher gear — and save gasoline!

THOU SHALT NOT KILL

Soon it will be anniversary time. An anniversary not for celebrating, but for crying. On Jan. 22, 1975, it will be 2 years since the U.S. Supreme Court said that unborn babies may be killed. They may be killed. They may be killed. You can be sure of that. If man does not serve his God he is no good, he is trash. Then might as well be thrown out. And HAVE died. And that is 3 million innocent babies as well to do it. People do it to themselves; they kill their own! For God they wipe their own off the face of the earth. And after that the judgement.

Our forefathers, Christian men of years gone by, gave us a document of freedom for the mankind: "...all men...are created equal and endowed by their Creator...with certain unalienable rights...life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Pagan men of this era have thrown our Declaration and Constitution into the garbage disposal. They have said unborn babies are not persons. Therefore "mothers" and "doctors", whose better try is to save life, may kill the little ones. But of course the Constitution said the very opposite: Right to Life!

Ignore God
In the Holy Bible the Lord called Moses up on the mountain to give him the Ten Commandments. Number 5 says: "Thou shalt not kill". GOD creates life. He orders men to let it be! Hands off! Justice (or injustice) Blackmun wrote "We don't know when life begins". Yet earlier doctors had testified before the Court that we DO know... that there is life from time of conception...from the very start.

The little ones are not persons, they say. What a cock-eyed idea! They at least are alive. That's the point. Alive with Life from God.

I have read the decision. Sixty pages or more. They made a big mistake. They pretend there is no God! God need not be consulted! Members disagree on the court said "may be killed" but how can they say a nation that disobeys God will not be blessed. You can be sure of that. If man does not serve his God he is no good, he is trash. Then might as well be thrown out. And HAVE died. And that is 3 million innocent babies as well to do it. People do it to themselves; they kill their own! For God they wipe their own off the face of the earth. And after that the judgement.

We need an amendment to the Constitution...not to change it, but to affirm it. The Right to Life. Everybody. Babies too. We can get an amendment if you will help. Join the fight against abortion. Pray to the Lord that people may come to their senses. Write to Congress. Tell the world that GOD SAID NOT TO KILL.

Read 2 Corinthians 5:17-21
God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself.... and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. (2 Cor. 5:19.)

PETER'S DENIAL
Before the arrest of Jesus, Simon Peter boldly declared his faithfulness and promised that he would never deny the Lord. Even if he should be killed, he affirmed, he would not forsake Jesus (Mt. 26:35). But that very night he fled and denied Christ before those who sought to kill him (v. 75).
The lesson for us might be this: It is far easier to SAY a thing than it is to DO it. Our hearts may deceive us into believing we will not do wrong, no matter what the circumstance. But, mightier men than we have fallen in the moment of weakness or under outside pressure.
We thank God for this lesson from Simon Peter, because it points up so carefully the stuff of which we are made. It shows us our need to depend completely on the Lord and to seek his help at all times. He will help us to do that which we cannot do by ourselves. Let us remember, too, Paul's words to the Corinthians: "Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall" (1 Cor. 10:12).

NEWS Of Education

NEW TEACHING METHOD IS NOVEL AND PROMISING

A new approach to education, which is encouraging many kids to learn faster than the national norm, was created, perhaps not surprisingly, because of television's influence on today's children.

Youngsters, it has been found, can more easily relate in the learning process when multi-media techniques are used. This is being borne out by the experience of school districts across the country which are discovering that the key to reading and math is the systems approach.

These school districts are realizing that educational materials are not enough. They are looking for companies that are totally involved in the educational process, that can provide pre-service and in-service training to acquaint teachers with the programs as well as specially trained consultants to develop community involvement programs.

One of the most effective companies that these school districts are turning to is Hoffman Information Systems, a division of Hoffman Electronics Corporation, of El Monte, Calif.

"American education is moving toward a systems approach to instruction," says Roger Sullivan, general manager of Hoffman Information Systems. "Educators are taking a very close look at the end goals they want to achieve in a given subject area and are looking at the individual learning steps necessary to teach a student to read."

"Teachers are now testing students to determine if the step-by-step sequences are being understood and grasped," Sullivan explains.

ANGELO STATE HONOR ROLL

Stanley William Heinrich and Jay Stephen Wimmer of Slaton, students at Angelo State University, are listed on the 3.00 to 3.49 Dean's honor roll for the fall semester at the University. Heinrich is a sophomore business major and Wimmer is a junior accounting major at ASU.

RYHM WIN HONORS

The hopes and dreams of the Young Homemaker Chapter came true Friday when they were named the Texas State Outstanding Young Homemaker Chapter at the annual State Young Homemaker convention Friday and Saturday in Fort Worth.

This was only the second time a chapter from Area I has achieved this honor. The Hale Center Young Homemaker Chapter won the honor in 1964.

The award winning chapter received a silver engraved tray as well as earning $150 for Area I. Only first and second places are awarded.

Accepting the award was Mrs. Carol Dawson, president of the chapter. The tray will be on display in the Homemaking Department.

Young Homemakers attending the convention were Mmes. Merle Sides, Melba Wright, Peggy Walter, Marilyn Walter, Dee Schroeder, Pam Talley, Carol Dawson and advisor, Mrs. Glenda Harris.

Attending the Texas State Young Farmer convention held at the same time were Bill Sides and James Walter.

The Young Homemakers met Jan. 14 in the clubhouse for their first meeting for 1975. Mrs. Carol Dawson presented the program on home repairs and hints.

The welcome mat is always out for any woman interested in visiting or becoming a member of the organization. The meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 9 a.m. in the clubhouse. A baby sitting service is also available for ladies with babies and pre-school children.

The next meeting will be Jan. 28 with the program on hair styling. Mrs. Sue Sides will be in charge of the program.

4-H NEWS

Lubbock County is trying to reach its goal of $9,000 to help finish the construction of the Texas 4-H Center on Lake Brownwood.

The Lubbock County goal has been narrowed some as a result of the 4-H rodeo and dance held Friday and Saturday nights at the South Plains Fair Park indoor arena.

Another rodeo is being planned for late May.

Subscriptions and renewals of magazines offered through a Reader's Digest plan is also being conducted in a state-wide project.

There are more than 240 magazines to choose from and all renewals will start after the present subscription expires so you will not be receiving duplicate issues.

The 4-H Center will provide a place for youths to go to camp in the summer, attend leadership training programs, recreation clinics, project workshops, and other activities.

If you have subscriptions or renewals please contact us and we will be glad to give your name to a 4-H member. Our phones: Lynda 744-1153; or Sandra, 842-3545.

4-H YOUTH RODEO

Roosevelt cowboys entered in the Lubbock County 4-H Youth Rodeo Friday and Saturday in the livestock pavilion of the South Plains Fairground and their winnings are as follows:

Buddy Reynolds, second, bareback bronc riding; Brady Mimms, third, tiedown calf roping; Jewel Pierce, second, and Brady Mimms, fourth, ribbon roping; and Kenny Yates, third place, bullriding.

NEWS BRIEFS

Buddy Reynolds, RHS junior, won first place, $600 and a buckle in bareback riding at the Abilene Rodeo Saturday night.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to the Don Probasco family on the death of Don's father in Floydada last week.

UIL WINNERS

Roosevelt was one of the 30 high schools from West Texas entered in the first annual Lubbock High School UIL Math and Science contest in Lubbock Saturday. Each contest was divided into two groups with each group having a veteran and novice division.

Roosevelt won the group II slide rule contest. Individual winners in group II novice division were Durrell Dew, first, and Deb Draper, third.

In the number sense contest, group II, veterans division, Dew, third; novice division, Marta Torres, first, Ricky Haterius, second, and Mark Reynolds, third.

In the science contest, group II, veteran division, Dew won second.

The next contest is scheduled for Jan. 25 in Andrews.

TECH GRADUATE

Luther Breuer was a December graduate from Texas Tech with a Bachelor of Science degree in agriculture education and was also on the Dean's list. He took his student ag teacher training in the Slaton High School. Breuer graduated from Burkburnett High School in 1970, is married to the former Pam Mimms, and is presently engaged in farming in the Acuff area.

Personality Quiz

There may be a fine line between fact and tact. And the person with an obsession for discretion seldom crosses that line. The test that follows will give you a good idea of the success of your discretionary tactics with people.

1. If you're a young lady who doesn't want to see a particular young man socially and he asks you for a date, you should (A) Tell him that you have other plans for the occasion, (B) Tell him that you don't think the two of you would make a good couple, or (C) Tell him that you don't wish to see him socially?

2. When interviewing a prospective employee for a job and he doesn't have the qualifications, tell him that (A) He isn't qualified, (B) You're grateful for his interest, or (C) You'll be in touch with him at a later date?

3. If a friend of yours suddenly dies, it is best to (A) Call his family and tell them of your shock, (B) Make sure to attend the funeral, or (C) Send flowers to the home of the deceased or the chapel where services are to be held?

4. If a potential author asks you to read his manuscript for a book, which you think isn't very good, it's best that you (A) Tell him you don't think it's very good, (B) Praise his effort but say that he could do better, or (C) Tell him you like the book and express your hope for his success with it.

5. When someone you know makes a trip to Las Vegas and loses a lot of money, you should (A) Express your sympathy, (B) Say you hope he still had a good time, or (C) Tell him he was unwise to gamble?

For correct answers, see below.

ANSWERS: 1. (A) Tell him that you have other plans for the occasion. The other answers are likely to hurt him unnecessarily. 2. (B) Tell him you're grateful for his interest. Chances are, if you have described the job he would have to do, he understands that he isn't qualified. 3. (C) You should call the family and attend the funeral, if possible, but whether you can or not, sending flowers is an appropriate gesture that helps to comfort the bereaved. 4. (C) Tell him that you like the book and express your hope for his success with it. 5. (B) Say you hope that he still had a good time.

Accent on Health

AUSTIN—In past columns, we've talked about the problem of consumer debt. Now, let's discuss the means available to solve the problem.

As we pointed out previously, the first step in getting out of debt is for the consumer to face the fact that he or she is in it.

And the earlier that fact is acknowledged the better, say our Consumer Protection attorneys.

Some consumers refuse to realize that their monthly outgo consistently exceeds their income. It doesn't take many months of such imbalance for the problem to have reached such proportions that creditors may be insisting on payment in full.

Much publicity is currently being given to the use of bankruptcy by average consumers as a way to resolve debts. Is bankruptcy the solution?

It can be, for some persons. But filing a bankruptcy petition in federal court is a serious step and one which should be taken only with full understanding of the consequences.

Much less drastic measures can often solve the problems consumers may have with debt. But, again, the effectiveness of such methods frequently depends on facing the problems before they get out of hand.

The Attorney General's

Consumer Protection Division has published "A Practical Primer for the Texas Consumer." In it, our attorneys recommend that consumers who find that illness, job problems, or other reasons have made them unable to meet their bills notify their creditors and explain the situation.

Most creditors will try to help you through a difficult time by rearranging your payment schedule or amount. After all, for them it is better to receive payment late than not at all.

Some consumers find that they need financial counseling to help them get out of debt and avoid getting back into it. There are several places to turn for such assistance.

* Banks — Many banks offer financial counseling to their customers.

* Attorneys — Private attorneys may help with financial problems, especially when there is the possibility of legal action.

* Child and family service agencies — These local affiliates of United Way provide help with family problems and those involving children. If money worries or credit difficulties are contributing to a family's problems, the family is

VOLUME LVI, NO. 5

SLATON HIGH SCHOOL, SLATON, TEXAS THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1975

INDIAN JOE — David Hiracheta looks more like Indian Joe tracking a gringo than a student in English III as he joins the students in observing "Hat Day."

The Roving Reporter

beans; Wheeler Smith — love; Bill McClesky — it's the real thing; Frank Gallardo — a state of being high; Ernest Gipson — new future; Laurie Gentry — a new disease.

John Earl Whaley — to see; Mrs. Mumme — a big deal; Mrs. Koslan — a Mexican dish; Coach Boyd — if it feels good—do it; Mrs. Alexander — something that's true, but just don't believe it; Mrs. Micky Benson — reality; Mrs. Reese — a big bird; Mrs. Holley — a party.

Coach McDonald — Esperanza Jaramillo's hair; Coach Bales — happiness if found in doing your best; Ms Barrett — something that is true; Mrs. Johnson — typing; Mrs. Mitchell — a rash; Mrs. Gerhardt — a second life.

But the real meaning of "reality" happens to be: "Objects or activities used by a teacher to relate classroom teaching to real life such as costumes, tools, objects of worship."

My nominations for Who's Who this week are Kelly

Copeland and Rosemary Scott. Copeland made high scores in both the Cooper and Roosevelt games, and had 38 total points. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Copeland.

Rosemary Scott was the selection for the female of the week. Miss Scott, a fantastic basketball player, led the Tigerettes to the State championship last year. Rosemary scored 31 points in the Friendship game, and 24 points in the Roosevelt game. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Scott.

HAT DAY — Miss Barrett participates in "Hat Day" by working in a white straw hat.

During the week, I went around the campus asking teachers and students what the word "reality" meant. Here are just some of their answers:

Wade Wimmer — brush; David Flores — flower; Jerome Schwertner — war weapon.

Eiland Wood — something you just don't smell; Martha Cox — a Spanish lover; Lamar Lacy — more women; Russell Heinrich — a new kind of girl; David Evans — something you look at but don't touch; Karan Williams — David Evans.

Cindy Davis — I saw the show, fantastic! Angelo Gonzales — some type of and why, he said, "A tiger because they get around."

He lists his favorites as: food, Mexican; car, Mark IV; color, maroon; group, Chicago; teacher, Mrs. Reese; class, football; song, "Bad Company"; and singer, Elton John.

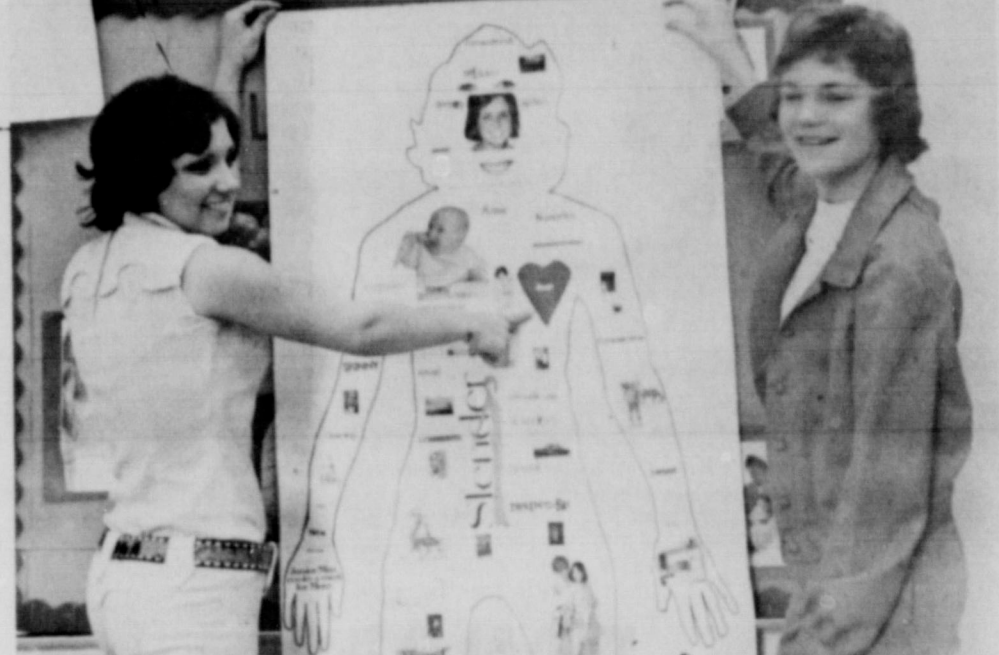

JOHN WHALEY

One cold cold winter night, John Whaley was born to Moren and Alise Whaley. John's advice to freshmen is to put up their tops and be somebody; and his pet peeve is freshmen. His philosophy of life is to go far in life. His plan for the future is to go to college.

I asked John what was his most embarrassing moment. He smiled and answered, "When I got caught," and I couldn't possibly write the rest of the story.

John's hobbies are basketball, swimming, dancing. Then I asked John if he could be an animal, what would he be. He answered, a Big Black Panther. I asked him why, and he smiled and said, "Me Black, you Black." John's pastime is playing basketball and playing records.

He lists his favorites as: song, "Skin Fight"; group, Ohio Players; color, black; teacher, Miss Barrett; class, reading improvement; car, Grand Prix; food, chicken; actor, Jimmy Walker; actress, Teresa Graves; and singer, Gladys Knight.

HOME EC — Sharla Piwonka and Melba McCormick report on the results of the personality study made by the Homemaking II class.

NEWS BRIEFS

HOMEMAKING

The Homemaking II classes have just completed a unit "The Shape of Your Inner Self." Partners traced each other's shape on paper; then each girl mounted pictures and painted signs on the "figures", showing the girl's personality traits, which indicated their most important qualities, faults, characteristics that can be changed, and characteristics that they will just have to live with.

Tennis season will start about the first of February according to Coach Boyd. There is no schedule set yet, but Coach Boyd is trying to set up a few

FRENCH CLASS

French II class is a mixture of howls, laughter, and a lot of talking, all mostly done by the class clown Jon Dawson.

ENGLISH CLASSES

"Jonathan Livingston Seagull" is coming to high school! All high school English classes except the freshmen will be able to attend the Jonathan Livingston Seagull movie. The movie will be presented in the high school auditorium Feb. 19, from 9 to 11 a.m. Admission to the movie is 75 cents per person.

thing, the students enjoy arguing about this or that or that or this; a day never passes when someone doesn't argue.

The most exciting thing that has happened since we discovered that we can speak French was the "checker championship contest of the century."

The contest was between Quinton (the brains) and Jon, Quinton won. Then it was between Quinton again, and Becky Coe. Becky won!

If the students of Mr. DeLeon's class are wondering who drew the picture hanging on the bulletin board... Keep on wondering!

Quinton Farley is the brains of the class... (how, I don't know). The students of French II are not your everyday French II class. For one

Student Teachers Help In Home EC

Two new student teachers have come to SHS.

Miss Becky Sweeney is Mrs. Reese's student teacher. She is a senior at Tech where she is majoring in home economics education. Her hobbies are snow skiing and water skiing — really any kind of sport. She loves to entertain and go dancing, and cook and sew. Her birthday is July 18 and she is 21 years old. Her zodiac sign is Cancer. Her immediate family consists of one sister, her parents and one dog.

Mrs. Mary K... is Mrs. Mumme's student teacher. There is her husband and her five, three boys and two girls. Her birthday is Aug. 21. Her zodiac sign is Leo. Her hobbies are sewing, horseback riding, and crafts. Her major is presently a senior in home economics education. Her major is in home economics education.

SHS cheerleaders sponsored a "caps day."

Everybody was asked to wear a cap or hat. Mrs. Gay Benson thought of the idea and the cheerleaders helped get things going. There were all kinds of caps — red, green, blue, floppy, sloppy, furry and droopy.

A pep rally was the highlight of "cap day."

SHOULD I TRY TO GET HIM BACK?

Dear Jerome:

Six months ago, I liked this boy. He would come over every night. I got sick of seeing him and doing the same thing night after night. I began to like him less and less. You see, no matter what excuse I gave for staying in, he wouldn't take no for an answer, so I began to feel pushed into going out when I didn't feel like it. I heard rumors about him and became uneasy with him, which made me decide to break up with him. Now I think I jumped to conclusions and I feel guilty about not giving him a fair chance to explain. I want to get back with him but I don't know how to go about doing it. I feel the only way would be to get to know him all over again. But how? Please try to understand.

Anonymous

Dear Anonymous:

After reading your letter I found that you do have a problem, and after many hours of concentration I figured that possibly if you called him and asked him out, he might get the hint that you wish. "Good luck!"

Hopefully,
Jerome

Tigers Finish First District Half 3-3

COPELAND
Tigers ended district play with a disappointing record as they finished the first half with a 3-3 record. Trouble finding a lead against the taller and ended up with a 30 percent lead. The only success was Thomas as he trailed by 10 points. Slaton and trailed by 10 points.

beating Roosevelt and Frenship. Slaton has been led in district play by the scoring of Thomas and Kelly Copeland, the defensive play of John Whaley and Wheeler Smith, and the rebounding of Bill McClesky. McClesky was missed in the Post game as he was out with an injury.

Thomas is considered one of the top players in the district this year after he garnered all-district honors last year as a junior. The Tigers will be playing Tahoka in Tiger Gym tomorrow night starting at 6:30.

SHS Students Win Stock Show

The breed champion and reserve champion winners were: Berkshire — Jim Gray, breed champion and Ronnie Robinson, reserve champion. Chester White — Pat Kitten, breed champion, and Chris Mosser, reserve champion. Duroc — Clay Mitchell, breed champion and also reserve champion. Hampshire — Greg Johnson, breed champion, and Glen Heinrich, reserve champion. Spot — Roy Ramirez, breed champion and Bill Burks reserve champion. Crossbreed — Sidney Mayberry, breed champion and also reserve champion. Fine Wool Lamb — Timmy Steffens, breed champion. Crossbreed Lamb — John T. Basinger, breed champion. Medium Wool Lamb — John T. Basinger, breed champion.

The livestock sale began at 2 p.m. Saturday with each exhibitor selling one animal. Each exhibitor was guaranteed at least $100 by the Slaton Coop Inc. Bob Ballard, vocational agriculture instructor from New Home, judged the steers, lambs and barrows. LaDonna Jones, Slaton FFA Sweetheart, awarded trophies and ribbons to the individual winners.

HIGH FASHION — Karan Williams wears the new longer length shirt and higher heeled shoes that are shown in the fashion magazines this spring.

Tigerettes Undefeated In 5-0 District Play

By BRENDA JOHNSON
The Tigerettes are standing this season with a 24-3 record in all, and a district record of 5-0, for the first round. The Tigerettes will be playing Tahoka for the second time around Friday night here at 6:30 p.m. The score the last time the two teams played was Slaton 64, and Tahoka 46, with Tahoka's Craig (33) leading her team's scoring with 24 points. Tahoka has definitely improved since their last game with Slaton. The Tigerettes will have to prove their ability in a defensive battle against the Bulldogs, since Tahoka has been scoring most of their games in the 60-point range. The Tigerettes ended their first round of district games

Friday night when they beat Post with an exciting final score of 59-58. The scoreboard showed its fans a half-time score of Slaton 26, Post 25. With only 17 seconds left in the game and the score showing Post 58, Slaton 57, Slaton's Whaley rebounded a free throw, passed it to Wolf, who sent the ball to Scott, who dunked in a field goal (five seconds remaining) to put Slaton in the lead by one point. Rosemary Scott led Slaton's scoring with 36 points against King's 24, Gilmore's 16, and Williams' 18.

The Tigerettes traveled to Muleshoe last week to lose against the AAA competition in a close score of 50-44.

Where Are They?

Many times, we, the students of Slaton High School, through desperate study and racking of brains, wonder why. Why all this study, hard work — blood, sweat, and tears? What happens when the high school "daze" ends?

Well, we looked up what's been going on with some of the '72, '73 and '74 graduates. Some have put their books and erasers aside, while others are devoting (and promoting) their brains to college life.

Mike Lewis is a 19-year-old graduate of Slaton High. When asked if he missed high school, he said, "Not really. Money is not in high school; it's in college where you can get a job." Mike is currently coaching at St. Joseph's School in Slaton, but has accepted a job as head coach at Christ the King for next year. He referees as a sideline while attending Texas Tech, majoring in physical education.

The Salutatorian of the 1974 graduating class of Slaton, Dwayne Mosser, is now attending Texas Tech. He is majoring in architectural engineering. College life, according to his sister, is treating him well, and especially "dorm life."

Eugene Arguello is working at United Super Market in Slaton while attending Texas Tech, but he plans to transfer next year to South Plains College in Levelland.

Greg Sokora, a six-foot, all-district running back, is playing at A&M on a four-year scholarship. Greg says the school is great, but a little hard. He is majoring in agricultural engineering, and says it's hard, but he'll keep at it. Greg recommends A&M to everyone.

Mary Botello Chapa, one of last year's graduates, is in the army stationed at Fort Hood, Texas. She is a Private First Class, along with her husband, Johnny Chapa. If anyone cares to write to Mary, her address is: Mary Chapa, Kern Road, Apt. 31, Killeen, Texas 79654.

Russell Hoffman is attending a police academy in California, where he is studying to become a highway patrolman. He is engaged to Susan Mercer and they plan to wed sometime this summer.

Karla Kitten Schuette is presently attending Texas Tech where she is majoring in physical education. Karla says she enjoys being out of high school because she can do what she likes to do best — coach young kids. She has been married to Kenny Schuette for five months. Presently Karla is coaching the girls of St. Joseph's school.

Thomas Heinrich, a '74 SHS graduate, is presently a freshman at Texas Tech majoring in geology. Thomas replied, "Tech is fun, and I wouldn't want to miss it for anything," when asked what he thought of Tech.

Craig Mann, graduate of 1974, is in the Army. He is stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado. He drives the jeep for a 2nd Lieutenant. His specialty is Infantry.

Loretta Dillon, a 1973 graduate, is attending Tech, and working at the state school.

Alan Lewis, a '74 SHS graduate, is now the owner of Slat-Co, a printing company located in the same building as the Slatonite. He said he would not attend college because managing his printing shop takes too much of his time. "To keep on farming, racing, and playing pool." This was the answer from Lamar Smith when asked about his future. Lamar, a '74 graduate of SHS, was recently married to Noree Self, a Slaton High graduate of '73. They live in their new home on 22nd street.

Louis Gonzales, a 1974 graduate, is now busily studying at Texas Tech and working at United Super Market part time. Louis finds it very difficult to work and study. When asked if he would like to go back to high school, he said yes, and do the very same things he did. His plan is to major in music.

Little Joe; color, blue; teacher, Mrs. Walker; class, ICT; car, Road Runner; food, Mexican; actor, Don Knotts; actress, Linda Blair; and singer, Elvis Presley.

When asked what animal he would like to be, Jim laughingly replied, "A bird, so I can sing the blues."

MATT KITTEN
Matt Kitten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kitten, was born on Sept. 23, 1956. Matt says his pet peeve is "people who say things just to make friends."

His advice to freshmen is listen to what the seniors tell you. His achievements during high school are: four years of Ag, four years football, four years track and two years basketball. He lists his hobbies as water skiing and riding motorcycles. When asked his most embarrassing moment, he commented "too many." His plans for the future are to attend college.

He lists his favorites as: food, Mexican; car, Jaguar V12; color, blue; singing group, Tony Orlando and Dawn; teacher, Coach Mize; class, Civics; and singer, John Denver. He says his philosophy of life is "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

JO EDNA SMITH
"I would like to be a Koala bear, because they're so cuddly and lovable and look like they wouldn't hurt anybody," giggled Jo Edna Smith, when asked what she would be if she could be any animal in the world. On April 10, 1957, Mr. and Mrs. Elza Smith became the proud parents of a baby girl whom they named Jo Edna. Jo Edna's pet peeve is two-faced teachers and people who interrupt you while you're talking.

Her advice to freshmen is don't let teachers run over you. Jo Edna's philosophy of life is to live one day at a time, be a good example for people, and help others as you go along. Her plans for the future is to go to Tech.

Jo Edna's achievements during her four years at SHS are: four years of basketball, four years of tennis, two years in National Honor Society, cheerleader her sophomore year, class favorite her sophomore year, four years in FHA, and FHA president her senior year. Her favorite pastime is being with Jerry. Her hobbies are sewing, playing tennis, and water skiing.

TONY BRUCE LEAKE
On Sept. 10, 1956, Mr. Billy Van Leake and Mrs. Betty Corrine Leake became the parents of a boy whom they named Tony Bruce Leake. This boy grew up to be a 5' 8", 160-pound SHS senior that just loves to swim, race, and play any kind of sport. Tony has a number of favorite things like owning a new Gran Prix so he can drive to his favorite Mexican food restaurant, or over to talk with

Senior Interviews

SCOTT
Scott, son of Mr. Sylvester Scott, was born Dec. 9, 1956. He likes himself as being a person with black hair and eyes. He is 18, 130 pounds, and is tall.

His advice to freshmen is stay cool and finish because you can't do it in this world. "My pet peeve is chasing women and a car." When he had his most embarrassing moment he replied, "I split my pants in when I was a freshman."

His achievements during high school are: one year of football; four years of band; one year of VICA; three years of tennis; and one year of basketball. He says his pastimes are listening, riding around, and loafing to the radio. He lists his hobbies as girls and chemicals.

When asked his most embarrassing moment, he commented: "Can't remember any." His plan for the future is to attend college next fall at South Plains College.

When asked what animal he would be and why, he commented: "A bird, so I could go everywhere." He lists his favorites as: song, Radar Love; group, Golden Earring; color, green; teacher, Coach Bales; class, office; car, Fury Z-12; food, all kinds; actor, Humphrey Bogart; actress, Karan Valentine; and singer, John Denver.

MARY RAMIREZ
On March 3, 1957 Mr. and Mrs. John Ramirez became the proud parents of a baby daughter, whom they named Mary.

Mary has been in ROTC two years. Her advice to freshmen is to take hard subjects first and relax your senior year. Mary's pet peeve is people who think they are "Mr. Big Stuff." She cannot say her most embarrassing moment. Her hobbies are anything that is interesting.

Her philosophy of life is to take life as it comes each day and her plans for the future are undecided. Mary lists her favorites as: song, "When Will I See You Again?"; singer, Al Green; group, Three Dog Night; food, Mexican; color, blue; car, Cougar; actor, Chad Everett; actress, Meredith Baxter; teacher, Mr. Harrel; and class, DE.

Mary's reply to "if you could be any animal, what would you be and why?" was "a housecat, because they feed you and show you lots of love."

RONNIE DWAYNE SMITH
Ronnie Dwayne Smith, son of Don and Betty Smith, was born Oct. 17, 1956. He is a 5'9", blue-eyed, blond haired senior.

Ronnie's pet peeve is "people who say they'll do something and then back out" and "backstabbers".

Wonderful"; and singer, me.

GARY AYERS
Gary Ayers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson W. Ayers, was born April 24, 1957.

Gary says his pet peeve is "People who say they have something to tell me, but won't tell me what it is." His advice to freshmen is achieve all you can your first three years of high school, so you can loaf your senior year.

His achievements during high school are: one year of football; four years of band; one year of VICA; three years of tennis; and one year of basketball. He says his pastimes are listening, riding around, and loafing to the radio. He lists his hobbies as girls and chemicals.

When asked his most embarrassing moment, he commented: "Can't remember any." His plan for the future is to attend college next fall at South Plains College.

When asked what animal he would be and why, he commented: "A bird, so I could go everywhere." He lists his favorites as: song, Radar Love; group, Golden Earring; color, green; teacher, Coach Bales; class, office; car, Fury Z-12; food, all kinds; actor, Humphrey Bogart; actress, Karan Valentine; and singer, John Denver.

PAUL SUMRALL
Sept. 3, 1957, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sumrall became the parents of David Paul. Now he stands 5' 10" tall and has brown hair and green eyes.

His advice to freshmen is "Don't take life too seriously and stay out of trouble." Paul said his pet peeve is "two-faced people." When he was asked what his hobbies were, he said, "Table tennis among other things."

Paul's philosophy of life is "set a goal for yourself and try to surpass it." His most embarrassing moment was the time he went to Dallas with the band. His plans for the future are to work and stay single for as long as possible.

He was asked if he could be an animal, what would he be and why. And he said, "I would be an eagle, so I would not be hunted but admired and be respected by all people." He said, "If I could change something in this school, I would change the grading system to pass or fail because the system would be fairer to the students."

His achievements during high school are: four years of band; two years of FTA; and two years of VICA.

The last thing he told us was his favorites: food, steak; car, Gremlin; teacher, Coach Bales; color, green; class, ICT; actor, Charles Bronson; actress, Delores Taylor; group, Uriah Heep; singer, Eric Clapton; and song, "Bell Bottom Blues."

His advice to freshmen is "think about what you're gonna do when you get out of school. It's hard to decide just before you have to know."

His achievements during high school are: one year football, one year track, one year varsity manager, two years Ag, two years ICT, two years ROTC and Civics. His hobbies are playing pool, cooking, playing dominoes, riding horses, baseball, and looking for a job.

His plan for the future is forestry school or possibly law school. Ronnie says, "My most embarrassing moment was when I finally got a date with a girl I had a big crush on, and then we couldn't get into the show because I was too young."

Ronnie's favorites are: food, shrimp; car, jeep; color, blue; group, Three Dog Night; teacher, Mrs. Benson; class, civics; songs, Heartaches by the Number and Help Me Make It Through the Night; and singer, Ray Price.

Ronnie's philosophy of life is "Work hard so you can have something in life, but don't work so hard, that you don't have time to enjoy what you have." When asked what animal he would like to be, he said, "An eagle, so I could still be a U. S. citizen but wouldn't have to pay taxes."

DANNY STEFFENS
"Money, new cars, and pickups" are Danny Steffens' weaknesses. He is the son of Bernard and Cecelia Steffens.

He was born March 3, 1957, has short black hair, and when asked how tall he is, he replied, "about that tall."

Danny's philosophy of life is to get out of life all you can. His hobbies are hunting and fixing up old automobiles.

His favorite pastimes are watching TV, and listening to radio and tapes. Danny's favorites are: food, Mexican; car, '74 GMC 3/4 ton; group, Bob Wiles and the Texas Playboys; singer, Hank Williams, Sr.; actor, Jerry Lewis; actress, Elizabeth; song, "Kiss an Angel Good Morning"; and teacher, Mr. Overturf.

Danny plans to join the Army sometime in the future.

JIM ALBA
"Lift your head! You look like a turkey!" roared Mr. Townsend as the band marched one cold morning. Jim Alba recounts this humiliating experience as his most embarrassing moment.

Jim, the son of Jim and Susan Alba, says his advice to freshmen is to study and be good. Jim's pet peeve is someone's beating him in a car race. His philosophy of life is to have as much fun as he can. He lists his achievements as two years of band, two years of ICT, and two years of Spanish, and his hobbies are racing, going to the dragways, and collecting hot rod books. Jim's plans for the future are to try to become a foreman at G&H Castings. Jim lists his favorites as: song, Blueberry Hill; group,

Judging Team Wins Third

By WADE WIMMER
The livestock judging teams went to Midland recently to compete in the annual Midland Livestock Judging Contest.

The 14 teams entered in the contest were divided up into nine classes. Each class would judge either a group of hogs, lambs, steers, or heifers. There were three classes of lambs, three classes of hogs, two classes of steers, and one class of heifers.

The livestock used in the judging contest was the livestock that had been shown the day before in the livestock show. The livestock varied from good to bad and skinny to fat.

The results weren't as good as we had hoped because we only placed third. The show results were divided into team winners, individual winners, and team winners in steers, lambs, and hogs. The winner of the steer judging was Idalou, the winners of the sheep was Sheffield, winners of the hogs was Idalou again. The top 10 individuals were given a trophy for the high scores. In case there were ties the ties were broken by whoever had the highest score on class six, lambs.

The Slaton winners were John T. Basinger, second; Jeff Jones, fourth; and David Mosser, eighth. First place went to Sheffield, second to Idalou, and third to Slaton.

A Look At Books, Movies

By MARTHA COX
Have you seen a good movie or read a good book lately, one with suspense, humor, and sensitivity? There aren't too many of those left, but let me suggest one now playing. It is "The Trial of Billy Jack."

An absorbing novel and movie, "The Trial of Billy Jack" is a gripping sequel to the highly acclaimed "Billy Jack."

Billy portrays the Indian hero that tries to save the freedom school from the prejudiced towns people. This story is fictitious but one begins to wonder if the government could possibly be that bad, it relates to the Kent State killings and other acts of the National Guard that have been highly questioned. If you haven't seen this movie, you are missing one of the few movies with suspense and feeling combined. And if you have seen Billy Jack, what are you waiting for?

When asked her most embarrassing moment, she replied smiling and blushing, "One time at a FHA meeting in Lubbock I was asked to explain what my encounter goals were. I didn't even know what encounter goals were. They kept on asking me until I just laid my head on the table and told them to leave me alone. Mrs. Reese just sat there and laughed."

Some of Jo Edna's favorites are: songs, "Hello Darlin'" and "Color My World"; singer, John Denver; group, Chicago; actor, John Davidson; actress, Elizabeth Taylor; colors, green and purple; teacher, Mrs. Reese; class, home-making; car, Gran Torino; and food, pizza.

BRYAN JOHNSTON JR.
May 14, 1956, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Johnston became the parents of Bryan Junior. Bryan now stands 6 feet tall and has brown hair and brown eyes.

His advice to freshmen is, "Stay in school and graduate on top." Bryan said his pet peeve is "people who think they are perfect." His hobbies are watching people run around looking crazy.

Bryan's philosophy of life is "to live my life to the fullest extent." He has had so many embarrassing moments he can't choose one. His plans for the future are to work hard and have a happy family.

He was asked if he could be any animal what would he be and why, and he said, "I would be an elephant so I could step on the perfect people in the world." His achievements during high school are: two years of DE, two years of Ag, three years of ROTC. He lists his favorites as: food, See its sequel, so buy your ticket before it ends. When you leave you will wonder why all these controversial acts ever took place. It's rated PG.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Student Body, As is customary, the Tigers Cage will receive and evaluate all letters concerning the publication of the paper, but so far we have received exactly — none. The paper is for you, and how can we know what you like or dislike about it, unless you tell us? There is always room for change where change is needed.

Another matter which needs attention is the radio broadcasts. Tiger Pride, a new presentation of the journalism department, is now on the air every week. But, there seems to be a slight problem of getting people to listen to it.

Perhaps this letter has angered you — if so, I'm glad to have finally gotten a response.

Sincerely,
The Editor
