Twenty-three boys signed preference forms to play in the PONY League baseball in Slaton this year, at a meeting held Tuesday evening at Slaton High School. Bill Smith, league president, stated that plans are going ahead for a four-team league, such as was conducted last year. Application for sanction in the national PONY League must be mailed by March 15. This sanction makes the local league eligible to play in tournaments at the end of the regular season. Another PONY League meeting has been called for April 1.

L. T. Garland was elected as "Player-Agent" for the season. Team managers must be elected, or re-elected, Smith said. All men interested in managing a team this year are requested to file with one of the club officers before the April 1 meeting. G. H. Harlan was appointed general chairman of Grounds, Field, Lights, and Stands Committee. L. A. Reasoner was to be Chairman of Lights. Other committee members are F. E. Chappie, D. W. Polk, and C. E. Gravel. Heading the Finance and Signs Committee is C. R. Bain. Working with him are Sam Ellis and M. D. Barry.

Team sponsors for the 1956 teams are to be contacted soon concerning sponsorship of teams again this year. Cost of sponsorship will be about one-third the cost last year. Boys eligible for PONY League play must be 13 or 14 years old, based on their age prior to August 1, 1957. For example, 12 year old boys who will be 13 before August 1 will not be eligible. Boys who will be 15 on or after August 1 will not be eligible. Tentative registration date of April 15 has been set by league officers. At that time, the parent, or parents of a boy must accompany him, and present a birth or baptismal certificate for certification of birth dates. Smith said that parents of eligible boys should see that the certificate, or a photostatic copy, is available at registration time. Boys still of league age who presented birth certificate last year must register again, but birth certificates will be in the hands of the Player Agent when the boys report for registration. Another requirement for registration is that the boy live within a 15 mile radius of Slaton. Signs on PONY League Park fences this year will sell for $25 for resale of present signs, and $35 for new signs. Insurance for the park and teams this year will be carried by Brewer Insurance Agency. Insurance coverage is placed with different agencies each year. "Protect Our Nation's Youth," the motto of all PONY League teams, gives the League its "PONY" title. League officers are Smith, president; J. S. Edwards Jr., vice president; and E. D. Cummings, secretary-treasurer.

Religious Survey Completion Set Sunday Afternoon; Workers Needed

Bids to Be Taken For New Highway

The State Highway Department will take bids Tuesday, March 19, for construction of a 4-lane highway between Lubbock and Slaton. Contracts will be let for 8.5 miles of paving between the Burrell Switch and Slaton. Previous contracts were awarded on construction of the highway from the Burrell Switch to the Lubbock Traffic Circle. Two lanes of paving will be constructed and the two existing lanes will be utilized as part of the new system.

Unavoidable circumstances prevented the Religious Survey from being completed last Sunday as had been planned, according to the Rev. Claude Wingo, chairman of the Survey Committee of the Slaton Ministerial Alliance. A second call is going out to participating churches for volunteers to aid in the completion of the drive this Sunday, March 17. Workers will meet at Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church at 2 p. m. Division captains who served last week will be working again this week, the Rev. Wingo said. They include the Rev. DEADLY TRAFFIC NOW? —JUST WAIT!

Figures released by the Bureau of Public Roads indicate that there are now more than 65 million vehicles registered in this country. This means a net gain, for 1956, of approximately 2-million more vehicles on the roads today than in 1955. And, if the trend continues, we can expect 80-million in 1966 and over a 100-million crowding the roads by 1975.

What do these figures mean to you, as a motorist? Well for one thing—if you think the traffic accident toll is terrible now, just wait 'til the above predictions become realities. Try to visualize 50,000 to 75,000 vehicle deaths each year.

The overall traffic problem must be attacked on all fronts, with stepped-up engineering, education and enforcement. However, for our purposes here, let's look at what just one of the phases offers as a partial solution and how we stand—that of education.

High school driver education extends one of the most promising weapons in the battle to prevent traffic accidents; it offers a sound conservation program of human resources.

Surveys reveal how young drivers who have received classroom and practice driving instruction have less than half as many accidents and violations as those young drivers who have had no formal training. In Connecticut, for example, the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles reported last November that only one per cent of their trained young drivers were involved in accidents, in the preceding year, compared to nine per cent of non-trained drivers.

Texas, according to records of the Texas Safety Association, falls far behind many states, but some headway is being made. During the 1955-56 school year our secondary schools trained nearly 23,083 youngsters to be better, thus safer drivers in our state. Insurance companies have been quick to see the advantages of such a program and have reduced insurance rates by 10% to those who have completed approved driver training courses.

Where do the educators stand? A survey made this past summer by TSA shows that principals and superintendents are overwhelmingly in favor of an expanded driver education program. Generally, they believed it should begin in the ninth grade.

But, many roadblocks prevent the expansion of high school driver education, the most serious of which are the costs to the school, fitting the course into an already crowded curriculum and a shortage of properly trained teachers. These obstacles are emphasized by the fact that in spite of a growing public understanding, only 11.5 per cent of Texas' eligible students receive a complete course; one including both classroom and practice driving instruction—the need is obvious.

As has been indicated, the driver training program has not been without some support. To be more specific, new car dealers have made outstanding contributions to the program by making driver-training cars available to schools on a loan basis or by offering them at greatly reduced rates. They stand ready to do more.

Still others have contributed greatly to the promotion of driver education. The Texas Safety Association under its current President, E. C. McFadden of Dallas, Vice President of Employers Company, and its General Manager, J. O. Musick, Austin, has worked diligently in encouraging driver education programs in high schools, through seminars in colleges and universities, and public conferences. At present TSA is seeking the support of legislators in making the facilities for driver education available to our secondary schools under the Gilmer-Aiken Bill. Indications so far are favorable.

The Department of Public Safety under the leadership of its director, Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr. has done everything within its bounds to gain an expanded program for our schools. In one such move, Colonel Garrison had this to say.

"It has become apparent that a trained instructor in a schoolroom could improve bad driving habits, or prevent them from being formed in the first place, since the classroom instructor had access to the students at a considerably more impressionable age." He said he believed the lesson could be taught much faster in the classroom by a qualified teacher, than on the highway by a patrolman . . . and at greatly reduced expense to the state.

The Texas Education Agency, National Safety Council, Parent-Teacher Association, universities and colleges, local safety councils, the press and other media have likewise been encouraging driver education.

But, one thing is sadly lacking, that is the active support of Mr. and Mrs. Texas. Until public apathy is abated, the annual accident lists cannot be noticeably shortened. Until we, as individuals, express our opinions to our elected representatives and our school administrators we cannot expect our highways to be safe.

If that sounds pessimistic then let me put it in another way. Let's suppose that you have two children who are now less than two years old—we can call one John and the other Mary. Now, unless some radical adjustment is made in our present traffic control program, you can expect either John or Mary to be killed or seriously injured in a traffic accident before he or she reaches the age of twenty-one. It's up to you.

Unusual Literature Appears on Book Covers of Industrious SHS Students

There are many forms of literature which may be seen while strolling down the halls of SHS. Aside from normal, proper literature which students just love to study, there are comic books, hot rod magazines, and other beautiful works of art. One of the most common forms of literature is that which is found on book covers.

The seniors usually attempt to keep their book covers clean and neat, but due to the undying efforts of the underclassmen, they are soon covered with such familiar old sayings as "Boo Seniors," "Yea Fish," and many other beautiful phrases. Among other things on seniors' book covers are the names of friends. The girls literally cover their books with the names of their boyfriends. At the rate some of them change boyfriends, they have to change covers every other day.

The book covers of the juniors are much like those of the seniors. They are covered with illegible jumble and ancient sayings such as "In case of fire, throw this in," or "Don't open 'til Christmas." The more industrious ones cover theirs with problems and brilliant equations.

The sophomores, which have rightly earned the title of the most lovesick class in school, cover their books with hearts and arrows with names on them. The more manly? sophomore boys draw pictures of slightly lopsided, speeding cars and airplanes which will never materialize.

The book covers of the freshmen, what few can write, are covered with phrases handed down through the annals of time, such as "I + You," and "Drop dead." Believe it or not, there are certain freshman girls' book covers which have been seen bearing the names of senior boys. Most of the male freshmen's book covers are scribbled with pencil marks so that no one except Winky Dink can unscramble them.

The book covers at SHS are really traveling art galleries.

Poage Bill Calls for Change in Cotton Acreage Distribution; Now Before Committee

Rep. George Mahon of the 19th District announced from Washington this week that hearings were in progress before the House Committee on Agriculture on a bill which would vitally affect West Texas cotton producers.

The bill, authored by Rep. Bob Poage of Waco in his capacity as vice chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture, directly affects the old controversy on cotton allotments between West Texas and Central and East Texas.

Mahon said the bill would abolish in Texas, but not in other states, the provision of the existing law in regard to trends in cotton acreage, and that it would fix county cotton allotments in Texas on the basis of the past three years rather than five years as is now the law.

West Texas lost heavily to East Texas on cotton acreage allotments for the 1956 crop year as a result of the actions of the State ASC Committee. Cotton allotments for 1957 are regarded as much more equitable. The pending bill would affect allotments for 1958 and future years.

The Poage bill among other provisions calls for a modification in the present law with respect to new grower allotments and farm consolidations.

Mahon said that he had sent copies of the bill to all county offices of the ASC and to all the farm organizations in West Texas requesting comment and asking that a representative of West Texas cotton producers who knows the prevailing views of West Texas growers on the pending bill come to Washington and join him in testifying before the House Agriculture Committee.

One of the major provisions of the new bill would require the Department of Agriculture to provide a special loan on light spot cotton. Mahon said that he did not regard this issue as controversial in West Texas as all Texas farmers insofar as he knew felt that recognition of light spot cotton by a proper loan was long over due.

Mahon pointed out that the Secretary of Agriculture could provide this loan without special legislation and that he had joined West Texans earlier this year in personally urging Secretary Ezra Taft Benson and the Department to announce such a loan. Mahon expressed hope that this end would be achieved either by voluntary action on the part of the Department or through legislation.

How come the new Ford rides so smooth and solid?

It's the new inner Ford that gives you a big-car ride at low Ford prices

- More weight and length
Head for the roughest road in the new kind of Ford. Notice how the biggest bumps lose their "thump"! One reason is that this biggest, longest, heaviest Ford has the extra "beef" to give a smooth, road-hugging ride.
- Better balance
One of Ford's nicest back-road habits is to make believe the rough spots aren't there. Proper weight distribution and precise balancing let Ford iron out bumps far better than many of the higher-priced cars.
- New automatic variable-rate rear springs
Going from a highway to a byway in a Ford, is like going from satin to silk. New design allows Ford's rear springs to "soften" or "stiffen" depending on road conditions. You get a smooth ride all the way!
- New swept-back Ball-Joint front suspension
Ford's new, stronger front suspension is designed to soak up the shock of rough roads. The new swept-back design lets wheels "roll" with the bump and absorb it going away... far for smoother, steadier rolling.
- New lower-pressure tires
Even Ford's tires are new for a better ride! Although they require less air pressure, they hold about 17% more air for cushioning the car. This means a softer ride—without sacrifice of Ford's good handling characteristics.
- More comfortable seating
There's no sag when you sit in a Ford... even on long trips. Comfort-contoured seats, rigidly anchored, have advanced springing for greater comfort and longer life.
- More body insulation
Ford has more body insulation—protection against weather, dust, and noise—than any car in the low-price field. You ride through city traffic in library-like quiet.
- No metal-to-metal chassis and body contact
Only Ford in its field uses 20 Cushion Quiet rubber body mounts... more than any other low-priced car. It all adds up to a smoother, quieter riding car.

Try the new kind of ride in the new kind of FORD

Mississippi Congressman to Speak at Cotton Growers Meeting Monday at 11

Rep. Jamie L. Whitten, (D. Miss.) Chairman of the powerful House Agriculture Appropriations Committee, will make the keynote address at the annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., March 18 in Lubbock, Mr. Roy B. Davis of Lubbock County, Director, said today.

Whitten believes there should be no acreage restrictions in cotton and that farmers should be supported only on domestic sales based on history and be permitted to plant all the cotton acreage they wish for world market competition.

He has publicly stated that he believes U. S. agriculture is on the wrong road in reducing cotton

Farm Problem

Whitten will speak on "The Farm Problem," at the afternoon session of the PCG annual meeting. Cotton producers and industry representatives from throughout the 23-county area served by the PCG will attend the annual meeting to be held in the Municipal Auditorium on Texas Tech campus.

Scout Program Value Is Added to Lions Club Tuesday

J. David Armstead, president of South Plains Council of Boy Scouts of America spoke to Lions Tuesday on "What Do You Want in Your Community?" Armstead was introduced by Williams, who was in charge of program. Visitors at the club, Dr. Armstead included Gus

Wisdom Important

"Wise and good men are more important to a nation than its wealth, or its armed might." He emphasized the fact that the empires of Greece and Rome lost their leadership when the character of their youth lost its high ideals.

Membership in the Boy Scout movement is of utmost importance, he emphasized. He stated that he was in Scouting because of a love of the work, because of the adventure involved and the comradeship available; because he loved to work with the spirit of ambition present in the youth.

Scouts: Heroes

Continuing Dr. Armstead pointed out numerous instances of World War II Heroes who had a background of scouting. He said that in time of emergency as well as in peacetime, Scouting had furnished more leaders than its just proportion.

"Scout-trained boys are taking over more positions of leadership than their number would indicate." Armstead pointed out that John Wilson, until recently juvenile probation officer of Lubbock County, had repeatedly said that in the 16 years he was in office, never did he have even one Boy Scout come through in any kind of trouble.

"A community will never lose its place so long as men and women are interested in the Scout movement," Armstead said.

Nominating Committee members named by President Clark Self Jr. included Biland Tomlinson, chairman; T. C. Martin, and Elbert Wilson.

Dance Star To Present Group of Spanish Dancers at Lubbock Auditorium March 16

With the clacking of castanets, the fiery tapping of heels, and a revelation of dark, strange beauty, JOSE GRECO and his company of Spanish dancers will appear in the Lubbock Auditorium on March 16 at 8 p. m.

One of the finest "in-person" attractions in the United States today, both in concert halls, theaters and night clubs, Greco recently appeared in Mike Todd's "Around the World in 80 Days," hailed as one of the greatest motion pictures of all time. Greco's magnificent dance sequence is one of the highlights of the film. He had appeared before in many European movies, and was starred opposite Cyd Charisse in "The Bullfighter and the Lady," his first American picture.

A naturalized American, Greco was born in Montorio, Italy, where as a child he strived to equal the superb talents of the itinerate Spanish Gypsy dancers. At the age of seven, he moved to Seville, Spain, to live with his mother's family. While there he spent countless hours in cafes and inns learning the traditional Flamenco dances. Jose came to New York with his parents at the age of ten and continued to study dancing. When he was fourteen, he left school to study art at the Leonardo da Vinci Art School. Although he displayed a marked talent for painting, Spanish dancing remained his first love, and he continued to take instruction.

Jose Greco's first professional appearance was in "Carmen" at New York's Hippodrome. The turning point in his career was his meeting with the Great Argentinita. From 1941 until her untimely death in 1945, Mr. Greco was La Argentinita's partner, and for the next three years danced with her sister, Pilar Lopez. In 1948, Greco was invited to choreograph a Spanish dance sequence for "Manolete," a film which ran for six months in Paris. Organizing his troupe of dancers from among his friends and colleagues, he worked tirelessly with them. After the filming of "Manolete," they made numerous tours of Europe and South America.

Now in the United States, Jose Greco holds the distinction of being the first artist to appear at the Waldorf Astoria's Empire Room for two engagements within six months. He has also appeared at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas, the

Hollywood Bowl, the Statler Hotels in Los Angeles and Dallas, and on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" and "Omnibus."

Tickets for Greco's performance in Lubbock, sponsored by Civic Lubbock, Inc., are priced at $3.50, $3.00, $2.40, $1.80 and $1.20; and are currently on sale at the Auditorium Box Office.

Tigerettes Finish Season With 10-2 Record To Place Second

Coach Marvin Smith's Tigerettes closed out a surprisingly successful season with their final district win over Floydada Feb. 28. In doing so, the Slaton cagers compiled a 10-2 district record, which was good enough to give them a second-place berth in a tough 2-AA district.

Slaton, in collecting a 19-12 season record, racked up a total of 1653 points in 31 games, while their opponents totaled 1632 points. This is an average of 53.3 points per game, as compared with a 52.7 average for their opponents. Junior center Linda Smith easily took individual scoring honors by sinking 685 points for a 22.8 average per game. Next high was Beverly Bland, senior forward, with 475 points, or a 17.6 average. Alma Jean Winn dropped in 362 points for a 12.2 average.

In the defense department, Beth Lowry, a junior guard, copped the rather dubious honor for the most fouls by committing 97 personals and one technical. Winnie McGraw raised her hand 88 times for fouling. Miss Winn had 84, and Souny Mudgett was caught on 72 occasions.

The Tigerettes were entered in three tournaments. In the New Deal tourney, they failed to advance past the semi-finals. The SHS cagers fared much better in the Crosbyton classic. They advanced to the finals, but were defeated there by McAdoo and returned with a second-place trophy. In the Dimmitt tournament, they lost two straight games to emerge winless.

Prospects for next year look good. The Tigerettes will lose four seniors, Misses Bland, Winn, McGraw, and Shirley Forson. Three of these are starters. However, this year's scoring sensation, Miss Smith, will be back, along with Misses Lowry and Mudgett.

Senator Preston Smith

This Capitol Hill is caught up in a volcano of sensation that makes the 54th Legislature's scandals seem small by comparison.

Actually, however, progress is being made daily on important legislative programs, but the series of hearings and investigations going on here are overshadowing any notation of achievements right now.

Waggoner Carr, House Speaker, recognized the certain threat to the prestige of the House when Rep. Jams Cox of Conroe was charged with allegedly offering to accept a bribe to kill his own bill to outlaw Naturopathy in Texas.

Carr, solemnly and seriously made an epochal speech in which he said:

"When one individual in a group this large does commit a wrong, any effort to cover it up—to whitewash it—merely results in reflections being cast upon every member of the group. I assure you that the blameless will not be blamed for any breach while I am speaker if I can possibly help it. . . . the overwhelming majority of the many men and women who have served in this House have maintained high standards of courage, honesty, integrity and conduct."

The speaker said: "We will take all necessary steps to keep our house in order. This we will do swiftly, fearlessly, always staying with the right and letting the chips fall where they may—always protecting the constitutional and legal rights of those accused—always remembering that a man is presumed to be innocent until proven guilty."

Thus, the most recent sensation surrounding the 55th Legislature was placed "out on the table" in plain view by the House speaker.

And his actions seemed to have reflected the new trend of thinking regarding scandals. . . . a growing sentiment is detected in the House and Senate to face these things with the chips down.

The timid little man rose to leave. "Do you have to go home early—as usual?" exclaimed an irritated associate; "what are you—a man or a mouse?"

"A man, of course," replied the little man with dignity.

"What makes you so sure?" asked the antagonist.

"Because," explained the little man meekly, "my wife is afraid of a mouse."

State Veterans Land Program Has No Deadline Set

There is no deadline for participation in the Veterans' Land Program, Land Commissioner Earl Rudder said recently.

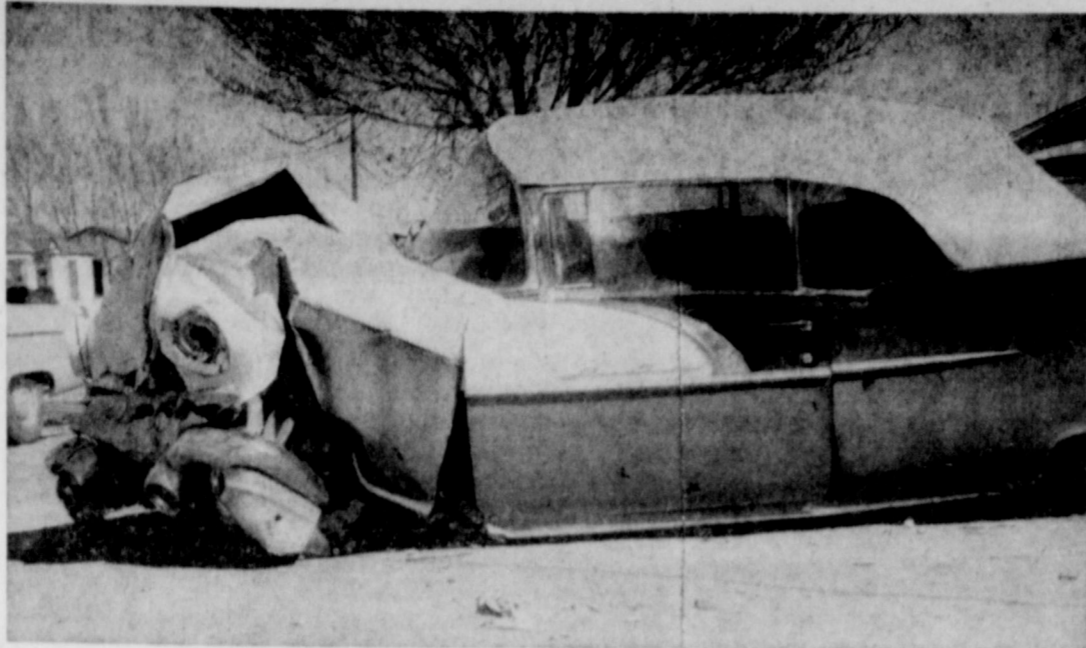

"As long as a man is a Texas veteran and money is available to operate the program," Commissioner Rudder added, "he may participate. Of course, a veteran may use the program only one time." Commissioner Rudder said that his statement was prompted by numerous inquiries that the Veterans' Land Board had received about a time limit.

HEAD-ON COLLISION—On a straight stretch of highway between Slaton and Post, one woman was killed, two women and two men injured when this car collided with one driven by Mrs. May Portwood of Snyder. The accident occurred about 1 a. m. Tuesday. It brought to four the number of persons killed in the Slaton area this week.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Although more spectacular issues have grabbed the headlines, Legislature is now hitting its biggest responsibility of this or any session. That is adopting a state budget for the next two years.

House committee approval cleared the way for debate this week on the record-setting $2,000,000,000 spending program. It represents an increase of nearly $340,000,000 in spending from all state funds. It means more money in nearly every area of state service—raises to 90 per cent of state employees, more funds for education, hospitals, highway patrol, state buildings and operating state departments.

Despite all these, no new taxes are foreseen. Instead, Appropriations Chairman Max C. Smith, representative from San Marcos, predicted some $45,000,000 will be left over for additional items, such as teacher pay raises.

Reason for this bright outlook is Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's estimate that current tax sources will yield $100,000,000 more in revenue next biennium than previously.

LONG ROAD—House committee to investigate bribery charges seemingly faces a drawn-out task.

Its powers have been broadened to include any irregularities by House members in this or past sessions. But the picture the committee set out to clarify has become increasingly muddled.

Rep. James E. Cox of Conroe, under indictment on charges of consenting to accept a bribe, resigned his House seat. He said he plans to clear his name and run for the office again in a special election.

Members of the Texas Naturopathic Association, which originated the charges against Cox, gave conflicting testimony about the group's past activities. Dr. Howard Harmon of San Antonio, current president, said the association raised from $37,000 to $55,000 during the 1955 session for legislative purposes. Dr. Robert Spears of Dallas, 1955 president, denied this.

Meanwhile, Dr. R. E. McMeans, Conroe chiropractor and friend of Cox, was attacked with acid. McMeans was credited with instigating the bill which would outlaw naturopaths. It was the bill on which the alleged bribery attempt pivoted.

AUTO INSURANCE RATE—After hot debate and long testimony, Senate Insurance Committee sent the auto insurance "flexible rating" bill to subcommittee.

Sen. Jarrard Secrest's bill would allow companies to set rates competitively, rather than having a uniform rate set by the Insurance Commission.

Proponents contended it would mean lower insurance for buyers. Opponents called it risky, suggested that companies making sufficient profit should return dividends rather than charging lower rates.

WHITE OUSTER PUSHED—Agriculture Commissioner John White, campaigning for the U. S. Senate, has bumped into a side skirmish.

A farm group led by Austin Anson of Harlingen wants to abolish the elective agriculture post. Substitute would be a 21-member board appointed by the governor and a commissioner appointed by the board.

A bill was prepared and Rep. J. T. Ellis Jr. of Weslaco was asked to introduce it.

White blamed Secy. of Agriculture Ezra Benson. He called the move a "plot" to rob Texas of its control over state farm matters.

WATER PLAN MATERIALIZING—At long last a Texas water saving plan is near reality. Passed by both House and Senate, it needed only conference committee adjustments and the governor's signature to send it to the polls for final approval.

Issuance of $200,000,000 in state bonds would be authorized by the proposed constitutional amendment to help finance local water conservation projects. It is the keystone of an overall water program urged by Gov. Price Daniel for emergency action.

Under the financing plan, local districts could borrow from the state up to one-third the cost of projects or $5,000,000, whichever is smaller. Lending would be supervised by a board to be appointed by the governor.

IN THE MILL—With the 120-day session past the half-way mark, the usual masses of "routine" bills were being shoved through the mill. Some of the more significant concerned:

BEER—House committee amended a bill to prohibit beer sales on Sunday and after 10 p. m. weekdays to bar Sunday sales only. Senate passed bill allowing breweries in wet precincts to continue production if the precinct is voted dry.

REPORTORIAL RIGHTS—Senate passed and House committee indicated eventual approval of a TPA-sponsored bill opening political party conventions to reporters.

MILK—Pending House bill sets 3 1/4 per cent minimum butterfat content for milk offered for sale and provides penalties for misrepresentation.

MOVIES—House passed a bill cutting the tax on movie admissions to aid theaters in competition with television.

AUTOMOBILES—Constitutional amendment proposed in the House would increase motor vehicle license fees by one-third and abolish the property tax on cars.

SCHOOLS—Both houses adopted resolutions petitioning Congress not to enact federal aid to schools.

House also passed on second reading a bill that would allow the state to cut off funds from a school district whose officials refused to order an audit of the books.

INSURANCE—Senate passed bill by Sen. Wardlow Lane to retain control of insurance liquida-

STRENGTH FOR THE WEEK

Claude Wing-Pastor- First Christian Church

"COME SEE A MAN" John 4:29
Long ago by the well of Sychar Jesus stopped to rest his weary body while His disciples went into the city for food. As he waited there a woman came out of the city to get water. Jesus asked her for a drink for evidently there was no public means of drawing water. She was surprised that a Jewish man should speak to a Samaritan woman. In the conversation Jesus led the woman into consideration of her own life and caused her to say "I know that Messiah cometh, which is called Christ; when He is come, He will tell us all things" John 4:25, and Jesus said unto her, "I that speak unto thee am He" John 4:26.

The Samaritan woman had met a man so different from any she had ever known she forgot her water pot as she turned back to the city and began to call her neighbors, "Come see a man-which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?"

Here was a man with unusual understanding. Here was a man who knew more about her life than she dared to reveal to any. Here was a man that spoke of living water springing up into everlasting life. Here was one who promised to quench thirsts that water could not allay. Here was one that might give HOPE to one who seemingly had little hope. Here was one who spoke kindly in spite of knowing her wicked way.

Because of all this-the woman became an ambassador-a witness-a real evangelist-her testimony moved her neighbors so that many came out to meet Jesus and many believed on Him because of the testimony of the woman.

It was then that Jesus remarked- "Fields are white unto harvest."

No one can know the FULL INFLUENCE of any testimony given by even an inconspicuous life-Only the Judgment tells that. But whether for good or bad our influence helps to make others what they are. God grant that our influence shall always be for good.

WW I Soldier Finds Letter to Mother: Don't Write, I'm Shipping to France

It was 39 years ago that Eddie Fisher wrote his mother, Mrs. Savannah Fisher that he was headed overseas to France. On March 12, 1918, Fisher wrote his mother not to write him any more, for he was shipping out.

Eddie Fisher
... Soldier in 1918 ...

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dixon and family of Post spent Sunday with Mr. Dixon's sister, Mrs. James Cole, and Mr. Cole.

Making an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Keith are Mr. Keith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Farris, of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Fisher, who is now employed with Western Cottonoil Co., Lubbock, came across the letter recently. He served about 18 months in France. He moved to Slaton from Waco. He recalled that he came here before any paving was laid on the streets. His mother, Savannah, is now 77 years old. References in the letter, which is quoted below, are to his sister, Effie, now deceased, and to Effie Riser, who was his girl friend at the time.

The letter is as follows:

"I thought I would let you all hear from me again. I am well and doing well and I hope when these few lines reach your glad hands they will find all well and glad to hear from Son Soldier Boy. Say mama, we have plenty of cold weather up here in New York City. I been here ever since the 16th of February and I seen ice on the ground every day. Say mama, I want to tell you about me staying in the hospital. I stayed in the hospital 15 days. I was not sick all that time, I was just sick four days with the mumps. Say mama, tell Elray I say here is a crocheting sewing needles. Tell her I say I want her to learn how to crocheting with this one.

Oh yes, mama, I wish you could send me a nice cake, but I don't think you can send it so I can get it now. But I will buy one in short.

Say mama, tell Miss Effie Riser I say is she enjoying her self to the highest and best of life. For I may meet her again, I can't tell. I hope I can meet again. Say mama, I think I will start to France in short. For boys is leaving every day for France.

Well, give my love to all. Well I will be home some day. Don't worried about me, for I will be back home when you all ain't looking for me. Oh well I will close good night. I am going to bed.

From your Son Soldier Boy,
Eddie Fisher.

Don't answer this letter, I don't guess I will be able to write anymore.

THE ANSWER FOR YOU IS CHRIST

INJUNCTIONS, MANDAMUS ARE SPECIAL REMEDIES

Sometimes you see newspaper stories telling how various courts have issued "injunctions" to protect the owner of a patent from infringement, to stop someone from putting up a building which would be a hazard to the neighbors, or to prevent some other type of activity which might harm one or more persons. Occasionally you read where a "writ of mandamus" has been directed against some public official. This column will briefly explain both of these extraordinary legal remedies.

The injunction got its name because in the old days the English king commanded ("enjoined") special action when an ordinary court action could not solve a problem at hand. Today it is an order requiring a person (or corporation) to refrain from doing a particular act.

As a rule, one would first get a "Temporary Restraining Order" which would stop someone from doing something harmful—like polluting a stream or annoying the peace of your home. By granting it the judge preserves the status quo until a hearing has been held to hear both sides of the controversy. Usually, if you want an injunction, your lawyer will take sworn statements into court to show that your grievance is one which could be taken care of only by an injunction. Often you must put up a bond to make up for any damage you do to the other side if the court doesn't see things your way.

After you've made your request, the court arranges to hear the other side. They must "show cause" why the injunction should not be issued. Because most injunctions deal with immediate problems, the court hears the merits of such a case in a very short time.

After the temporary injunction is issued, a "permanent" injunction may be obtained or either party may start a lawsuit to settle the problems which the temporary injunction has cleared up for the moment.

If the court grants an injunction, it must be served on the defendant to be effective. Then if he disobeys the order, he is disobeying the court and is subject to a fine or a jail term for "contempt of court."

"Mandamus" is a special remedy used to right wrongs or enforce proper action by a public officer.

When we elect public officers to work for us, we place a great deal of authority in their hands. Sometimes they fail to do their lawful duty. One way to make a government official do his job is to ask the court for a writ of mandamus.

Suppose you have applied for a permit to build a house under a city building code. You submit your plans which meet all the requirements of the code but the proper official won't give you the permit and you can't get one elsewhere. You can then ask the court for a writ of mandamus and if you were right and the building official had no grounds for refusal, the court will order him to issue the permit.

Before the court will issue such a strong command as this, the officer must have refused to do his clear cut legal duty—not something that he may or may not have to do as part of his job.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Ted Keese spent from Friday to Monday in Mercy Hospital with the flu.

Westview Baptist Women Have Week of Prayer

The Week of Prayer for Home Missions at Westview Baptist Church was observed last week with a special offering taken at the morning service Sunday and with the women of the church meeting each morning at 9:30 for a program on Missions.

The theme for the week's programs was "Our Mission in Home Missions." On Monday "Nations At Our Doorstep" was the subject discussed. Tuesday's topic was "Indians of the Homeland." Thursday "Unmet Needs in New Areas" was the subject discussed. On Friday "Work Among the Jews and Negroes" was presented.

Mrs. J. S. Vaughn was the leader for the week with other women participating in the programs. The special offering will be used for mission work throughout the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kitten left March 2nd for Chicago, Illinois, to attend the National Rural Electric Co-operative Association. Mr. Kitten is a director for the South Plains Electric Co-op in Lubbock. In Chicago, they had a sight-seeing tour for the ladies and while there Mr. and Mrs. Kitten saw the cinerama Seven Wonders of the World, and the Chez Paree with Sammy Davis Jr. in person. They returned home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hendrix spent Sunday in Knox City visiting with Mr. Hendrix's uncle, J. B. Hendrix, Mrs. Hendrix, and family.

Girl Scout Troop 96 Observes Birthday

Girl Scout Troop 96 met Thursday March 7, in the home of their leader, Mrs. Byron Johnson and discussed plans for their 45th birthday. Girl Scout Week is from March 10 to 16.

Every member of the troop is supposed to do something that the day is designated for. A number of the girls attended church in a group in uniform last Sunday, March 10.

The schedule Girl Scouts are to follow for Scout week is as follows: Sunday—go to church; Monday is homemaking day, do something at home without being told; Tuesday is citizenship day—participate in flag ceremony or the like; Wednesday—health and safety, correct a hazard; Thursday is international friendship day—study Girl Scouting in other countries; Saturday is to be spent out of doors taking hikes, on picnics or other outside activities.

Mrs. W. A. Shelton, co-leader, served refreshments of ice cream bars.

Linda Shelton is the reporter for Troop 96.

Alathean Class Has Party Thursday

Mrs. Ira Carver and Mrs. Fred Stephens were joint hostesses to the Alathean Sunday School class of First Baptist Church at the home of Mrs. McCarver on Thursday evening, March 7.

Mrs. L. O. Lemon opened the meeting with a prayer and Mrs. Ted Gaze gave the devotion. The class presented a bedspread and a pair of foam rubber pillows to Mrs. Charles Marriott whose home and contents were destroyed by fire recently.

Pineapple upside down cake, punch and coffee were served to Mesdames M. H. Lasater, Gaze, Lemon, O. E. Lumsden, Sam Wilson, Leslie Lewis, Ray Wilson, Bert Lamb, C. C. Kenney, Marriott, H. Perkins, Oma Faye Brown, L. M. Conner, Wade Thompson, L. D. Poer, R. F. Stansell and the hostesses.

W. T. Ward of Lubbock visited with his grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Slaughter Saturday night.

Chicken Fricassee With Dumplings

For a cheery dinner at this stage of winter serve the family Chicken Fricassee with Dumplings. It's an old-fashioned dish but an ever-modern favorite with hungry appetites. Stewing chicken is more meaty and flavorful today than in bygone days and takes much less time to prepare.

Here are directions for making 6 to 8 servings: Simmer one 4 1/2 to 5 lb. (ready-to-cook weight), cut-up stewing chicken with 3 teaspoons of salt, 1 medium onion, a tip of bay leaf, and 4 cups of water until fork tender—about 2 1/2 hours.

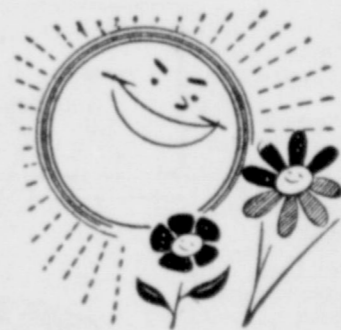

Remove chicken from broth. Strain broth. Spoon fat from surface of broth and save for other cooking needs. Measure broth and if necessary add enough water to make 3 cups. Heat to a simmer.

To prepare gravy, blend 1/3 cup of the chicken fat, 1/2 cup of flour and 1 cup of milk until free of lumps. Pour slowly into simmering broth, stirring constantly until thickened throughout. Cover and simmer about 5 minutes.

Place chicken in gravy and heat thoroughly. Season to taste.

Make the dumpling from your own favorite recipe or one found in any good cook book, or simply use biscuit mix, following package directions. Garnish the dumplings with parsley.

Easter Seal Sales Begins Today; Goal Set at $300,000 for Aid to Cripples

Dates for the 1957 Easter Seal Appeal in behalf of crippled children and adults are March 15-April 21, Euclid Hudson, president of the Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults and chairman of the Appeal in Texas, announced today.

The 24th annual Appeal is expected to be the most extensive campaign in the history of the Texas Society. Easter Seals will reach more than 1,000,000 Texas homes. Mailing will begin around March 18.

Hudson said that the Society seeks a total of $300,000 in 1957. Easter Seal funds in 1956 totalled $270,000.

"The once-a-year Appeal gives Texans an opportunity to contribute funds for maintaining and expanding services badly needed to help crippled children and adults, right in their own communities," Hudson said. "Support of the entire state will be needed to attain the goals set for 1957."

"It is the increasing awareness that a crippling accident may strike any of us at any time in today's world that has led to a steadily increasing support by Texans of the Society's work and made possible the 30 strategically located Easter Seal treatment centers established in Texas since 1946—more than in any other state."

The rapidly growing Texas population, coupled with soaring accident rates and an increasing proportion of accident survivors saved by modern surgical procedures and drugs unknown even a few years ago, explains the need for increased funds, Hudson said.

He said that over two-fifths of the patients seen in Easter Seal treatment centers today have been crippled by accidents.

"This is in sharp contrast to birth-deformities and diseases caused crippling which formed the bulk of our cases when the Society was founded," Hudson said. "It points up the need of facilities for physical restoration and rehabilitation of the crippled in every community."

Mrs. Rosa Fulcher of Joplin spent from Sunday to Tuesday with her son, Truett Fulcher, and Rodney.

Tigerettes Breeze By 'Winds, 68-60

Slaton's Tigerettes wound up their basketball schedule at Floydada Thursday night, Feb. 28, by defeating the Floydada girls, 68-60. Slaton took the "B" game also, 34-29.

Pat Schilling led the Slaton "B" team in their close game by dropping in 18 points. Holladay had 11 for Whirlwind scoring honors. Eunice Wiley had eight, Gail Huser had six, and Martha McCormick made two to complete Slaton's scoring.

Slaton took an early lead in the varsity game, but the Whirlwinds caught up and took the lead once in the third stanza. A strong last-quarter surge gave the Tigerettes all that was needed, however; and they went ahead to win, 68-60.

Linda Smith checked up a big 38-point total to take high-point honors for Slaton and the game. Others in the scoring column were Beverly Bland, 18; Alma Jean Winn, eight; Monty Dickson, four, all for Slaton; and Wilson, 23, for Floydada.

TELEPHONE TALK

"You'll want to have the entire family around the television set on Wednesday, March 20, at 8 p. m. when the second of our science spectaculars is shown on Station KDUB-TV; Channel 13.

This hour-long show will be "Hemo the Magnificent," a dramatic story of the blood and its circulation.

"If you saw the first of these science spectaculars—'Our Mr. Sun'—you'll probably agree with me that they are indeed wonderful television shows... programs that every member of the family enjoys.

"That master showman, Frank Capra, is director and producer of 'Hemo,' just as he was for our first program. His talents in motion picture and television direction are already so well known that I can't add many more 'bouquets' here.

"Starring in this picture will be Richard Carlson, perhaps best known for his movie roles and television series, 'I Led Three Lives,' and Dr. Frank Baxter. You'll remember Dr. Baxter from our first science show, 'Our Mr. Sun.'

"Sharing the star roles with these two are a host of wonderful cartoon characters that the youngsters will really get a kick out of seeing on your television screen. They include a turtle, a deer and a squirrel.

"And, the real star-blood-will be characterized by a terrific cartoon character, 'Hemo,' himself. You'll pardon my pun if I say that the cartoon of blood as personified by 'Hemo' is a very warm one.

"The cartoon characters were created for us by Shamus Culhane Productions of Hollywood, masters of the drawing boards.

"The story of blood is really a fascinating tale and our program will range from showing how the heart would fill the gas tank of your car in ten minutes to illustrating what happens to a boxer's blood and circulation when he 'takes one on the chin.'

"The program will have enough scientific fact to interest the most learned science professor and enough humor and warmth to fascinate Mom and all the youngsters.

"So be sure and turn that television dial to Channel 13 at 8 p. m. on March 20 for a very entertaining hour.

"By the way, we'll make a print of 'Hemo the Magnificent' available to schools in 16 mm. color film after the nationwide telecast."
